TITANS CONCLUDE PRESEASON WITH VISIT TO CHICAGO

Tennessee Titans (1-2) vs. Chicago Bears (1-2)

Thursday, Aug. 29, 2019 • 7 p.m. CDT • Soldier Field • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: WKRN

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-2) complete their preseason schedule this week with a trip to face the Chicago Bears (1-2). Kickoff at Soldier Field (capacity 61,500) is scheduled for 7 p.m. CDT on Thursday, Aug. 29.

The contest with the Bears is the Titans' fourth and final preseason contest before kicking off the regular season. They open against the Browns in Cleveland on Sept. 8.

THE BROADCAST

The game will be televised regionally on the Titans Preseason TV Network, including flagship WKRN-News 2 in Nashville. Play-by-play announcer Dan Hellie and analyst Charles Davis will call the action, and Cory Curtis will report from the sidelines.

Within the Nashville television market, fans can livestream the WKRN broadcast on their mobile devices at the Titans app and the Titans mobile website (TitansOnline.com). Additionally, local fans can watch on desktop computers at TitansOnline.com.

The Titans Radio Network, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone, will carry the game across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells and gameday hosts Rhett Bryan and Jonathan Hutton.

LAST WEEK AGAINST THE STEELERS

The Titans have a quick turnaround this week after last week hosting the Pittsburgh Steelers on Sunday Night Football. They allowed a pair of first-half touchdown passes to the Steelers and ultimately fell by a final score of 18-6. The Titans' lone scores came courtesy of two Ryan Succop field goals.

Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota played only two series against the Steelers, throwing just three passes. Backup signal caller Ryan Tannehill played the majority of the first half, and Logan Woodside led the offense for the entire second half.

The Titans' defensive effort was highlighted by a pair of interceptions. Fourth-round rookie defensive back Amani Hooker notched his first takeaway of the preseason, as did second-year defensive back Mike Jordan.

MAKING THE TITANS

Less than 48 hours after their matchup with the Bears, the Titans must make significant roster reductions. Per NFL rules, the current 90-man roster must be trimmed to 53 players by 3 p.m. CDT on Saturday, Aug. 31. Players on reserve lists such as injured reserve and reserve/physically unable to perform do not count towards the 53-player limit.

After the final cutdown, a 10-player practice squad may be established as early as noon CDT on Sunday, Sept. 1.

THE BEARS

The Bears are entering their second season under head coach Mike Nagy, who joined the club after spending five seasons (2013-17) with the Kansas City Chiefs. In 2018, Nagy guided the Bears to a 12-4 record and the NFC North title. It marked Chicago's first playoff appearance since 2010. Nagy was recognized with the Associated Press Coach of the Year Award.

Bears quarterback Mitchell Trubisky earned his first Pro Bowl nomination last season after passing for 3,223 yards and 24 touchdowns. The second-overall draft choice in 2017 is 15-11 as a starter over his first two seasons.

The Bears defense ranked third overall, first in defending the run and first in fewest points allowed in 2018. The unit fielded a trio of first-team AP All-Pro's, all of whom return in 2019: outside linebacker Khalil Mack, safety Eddie Jackson and cornerback Kyle Fuller.

Last week, the Bears traveled to Indianapolis for a Saturday night showdown with the Colts. They picked up their first win of the preseason, winning 27-17. Chicago's defense scored twice, including a 91-yard interception return by safety Deon Bush.

SERIES HISTORY

This week marks the 13th preseason meeting between the Titans and Bears and the second in three years. The Bears won in Week 3 of the 2017 preseason at Nissan Stadium, but the Titans have a 7-5 advantage in the preseason series.

There also have been 12 all-time meetings in the regular season between the clubs. The series is tied 6-6, and the visiting team has won the last five meetings, dating back to 1998.

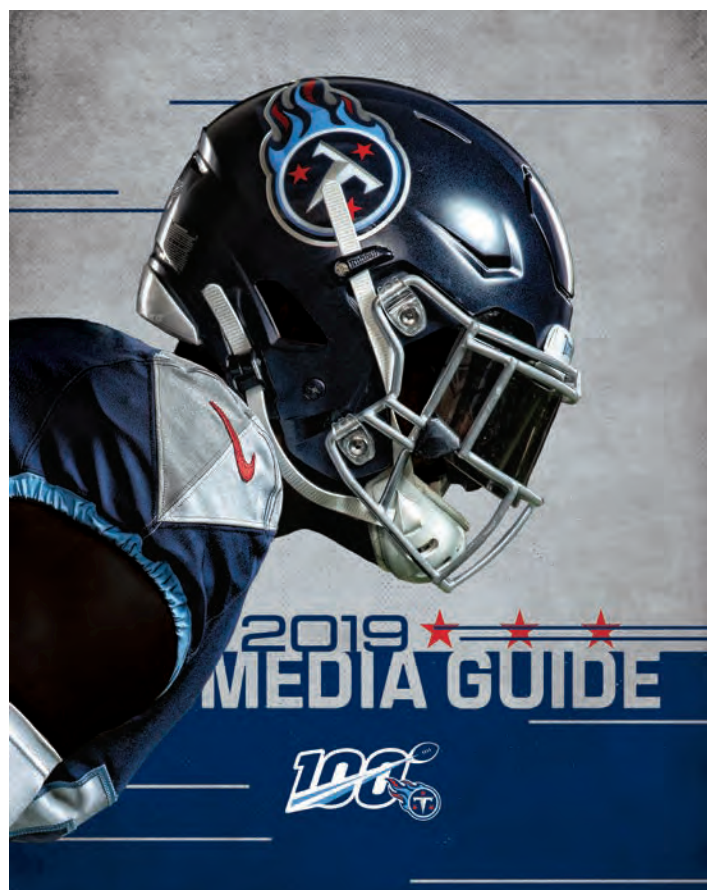

Most recently, the Titans traveled to Chicago for a Week 12 battle during the 2016 season and escaped with a 27-21 victory. After falling behind 7-0, they scored 27 unanswered points and withstood a furious fourth-quarter rally by the Bears to clinch the win. Quarterback Marcus Mariota completed 15 of 23 passes for 226 yards with two touchdowns and added 46 rushing yards.

The last time the Bears visited Tennessee was on Nov. 4, 2012, when they cruised to a 51-20 victory over the Titans. Their point total remains the most ever scored by a visiting team at Nissan Stadium. In the win, quarterback Jay Cutler and wide receiver Brandon Marshall connected for three touchdown passes.

Nov. 9, 2008 was the first time the Titans traveled to the Windy City for a regular season game since 1995, and it also marked the Titans' first appearance at the renovated Soldier Field, which re-opened in 2003 after extensive remodeling. In the game, Titans quarterback Kerry Collins passed for 289 yards and a pair of touchdowns in a 21-14 victory. LenDale White provided the game-winning, one-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

The two teams engaged in a memorable contest in Nashville on Nov. 14, 2004. Chicago prevailed in the game 19-17 when defensive end Adeiwale Ogundimu registered a safety in overtime. Titans tackle Fred Miller recovered a Billy Volek fumble but was tackled in the end zone, resulting at the time in one of two games in NFL history that ended with a safety.

Some of the other matchups in the series were not as hotly contested, in addition to the Bears' convincing 2012 win. The first ever Bears-Oilers matchup, played Oct. 28, 1973 in Chicago, was won by the Bears 35-14. In the following meeting on Nov. 6, 1977, the Bears were the unfortunate recipients of the second largest victory in Oilers/Titans history, a 47-0 final at the Astrodome.

ROSTER CUTS

All NFL teams may carry 90 players on their roster through the conclusion of the preseason. At 3 p.m. CT on Saturday, Aug. 31, two days after the final preseason contest against the Chicago Bears (Aug. 29), clubs must trim their rosters from 90 to 53 players.

Players placed on reserve lists such as Injured Reserve, Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform and Reserve/Suspended do not count towards the 53-man active roster limit.

After the final cutdown, a 10-player practice squad may be established as early as noon CT on Sunday, Sept. 1.

TITANS-BEARS: THE LAST MEETING

Titans 27, Bears 21

2016 Week 12 • Sunday, Nov. 27, 2016 • 12:00 CST • Soldier Field

GAME RECAP

On a chilly day in Chicago, the Titans held off a fourth quarter surge by the Bears to clinch a 27-21 win at Soldier Field, improving to 6-6 on the season.

Quarterback Marcus Mariota turned in a masterful performance, completing 15 of 23 passes for 226 yards, two touchdowns and a 126.4 rating. Mariota also extended his streak to eight consecutive games with at least two touchdowns, joining Dan Marino (10 in 1984) as the second NFL quarterback in his first or second year to record a streak of eight or more games in a season with at least two touchdown passes.

The Bears struck first with a 7-yard pass from quarterback Matt Barkley, making his first career start in the place of an injured Jay Cutler, to tight end Daniel Brown. The Titans responded when running back Derrick Henry darted around the left side for an 11-yard touchdown on the following possession.

The Titans found their rhythm in the second quarter as Mariota connected with tight end Delanie Walker for a 4-yard score. Mariota then connected with wide receiver Rishard Matthews who made a diving, 29-yard catch in the back of the end zone. The Titans' defense forced Chicago to punt three times in the second quarter and forced a turnover when linebacker Wesley Woodyard intercepted Barkley in the red zone.

The Bears recovered an onside kick to open the second half, but safety Da'Norris Searcy intercepted Barkley in the end zone to thwart a touchdown. However, after Titans kicker Ryan Succop drilled two field goals, the Bears scored 14 points in the fourth quarter to draw within one score. With less than a minute to play, and the Bears with a fresh set of downs on the Tennessee 7-yard line, Barkley saw four passes fall incomplete. The Titans escaped with the win to remain in playoff contention.

On Jan. 18, 2018, Matt Nagy was named the 16th head coach of the Chicago Bears.

In his first season as head coach in 2018, Nagy was named the PFWA and AP Coach of the Year after leading the Bears to a 12-4 record and the team's first playoff appearance since 2010.

An 11-year coaching veteran, Nagy joined the Bears after a five-year stint with the Kansas City Chiefs. Before being promoted to offensive coordinator of the Chiefs for the 2017 season, he served as co-offensive coordinator in 2016 and the three seasons prior as the Chiefs quarterbacks coach.

During Nagy's first season as the Chiefs offensive coordinator in 2017, he helped guide the Chiefs to a 10-6 record after leading the offense that ranked fifth in the NFL in total offense, sixth in points per game (25.9), seventh in passing yards per game (256.5), ninth in rushing per game (118.9) and led the NFL with the fewest giveaways (8).

In 2016, Nagy helped lead Kansas City to the number two seed in the AFC, the teams first AFC West title in six years and a 12-4 regular season record.

In Nagy's first season with the Chiefs as the quarterback's coach, he helped quarterback Alex Smith achieve a season with five 100.0 plus quarterback ratings, including a perfect rating of 158.3 against the Oakland Raiders. He also helped improve the quarterback's ball protection with Smith throwing an AFC-low seven interceptions with a minimum of 300 attempts and a 1.4 interception percentage.

Nagy spent three years prior to arriving in Kansas City under the tutelage of Andy Reid with the Philadelphia Eagles, serving as a coaching assistant in 2010 and an offensive quality control coach from 2011-12. He was promoted within the Eagles organization after serving as a coaching intern for two training camps from 2008-09.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Nagy was a quarterback in the Arena Football league, playing six seasons for the New York Dragons (2002), Carolina Cobras (2004), Georgia Force (2005-06) and Columbus Destroyers (2007-08). During his time in the AFL, he threw for 18,866 yards, 374 touchdowns with a completion percentage of 65.5 and a quarterback rating of 115.1.

A four-year letterman at Delaware, Nagy earned All-America honors as a senior in 2000 after setting single-season records in attempts (379), yards (3,436) and touchdowns (29). He set multiple all-time school passing records at the time, including touchdowns (58) and passing yards (8,214).

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2019

- The Titans franchise commemorates its 60th season.
- The Titans can record their fourth consecutive winning season. It would mark the franchise's first time to do so since winning at least nine games every year from 1987–1993.
- The Titans can record a winning record in home games for the fourth consecutive season. It would mark the franchise's first time to do so since winning at least five home games every year from 1987–1993.
- The Titans have seven total games against playoff teams from 2018: Houston (two games), Indianapolis (two games), Kansas City, New Orleans and the L.A. Chargers. That number is tied for the most in the NFL, as is the Titans' total of five home games against 2018 playoff clubs (Houston, Indianapolis, Kansas City, L.A. Chargers and New Orleans).
- S Kevin Byard can record four or more interceptions for the third consecutive season. Previously in franchise history, the feat has been accomplished only seven times by six total players: Mark Johnston (1960-62), Jim Norton (1961-63, 1965-67), Tony Banfield (1961-63), Ken Houston (1967-69), Cris Dishman (1989-91) and Darryll Lewis (1994-98).
- DT Jurrell Casey can become the 11th franchise player to be selected to five Pro Bowls. He would be the seventh Titans/Oilers player to be selected to five consecutive Pro Bowls, joining Bruce Matthews (14), Robert Brazile (seven), Mike Munchak (seven), Warren Moon (six), Bob Talamini (six) and Charlie Hennigan (five).
- DT Jurrell Casey (46.0 career sacks entering 2019) can move up the franchise's all-time sack chart, surpassing Robert Brazile (seventh place with 48.0 sacks) and Jevon Kearse (sixth place with 52.0 sacks). Passing Kearse also would make Casey the leading sacker in the team's Titans era (1999–present).
- RB Derrick Henry (1,059 rushing yards in 2018) can become the first player for the team since Chris Johnson (2008–2013) with consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons.
- RB Derrick Henry (12 rushing touchdowns in 2018) can become the second player in franchise history to record consecutive seasons with 12 or more rushing touchdowns, joining Earl Campbell (1978–1980).
- P Brett Kern (154 games with the Titans entering 2019) can surpass Keith Bulluck (157) for eighth place, Mike Munchak (159) for seventh place and Ray Childress (160) for sixth place on the team's all-time list for career games played.
- P Brett Kern can record his sixth total season and third consecutive campaign with a net punting average of at least 40.0 yards. No other punter in franchise history has had one such season.
- QB Marcus Mariota (12,004 passing yards entering 2019) needs 2,996 passing yards to become the fifth player in franchise history with 15,000 passing yards, joining Warren Moon (33,685), Steve McNair (27,141), George Blanda (19,149) and Dan Pastorini (16,864).
- QB Marcus Mariota (69 career passing touchdowns) needs 28 touchdown passes to surpass Dan Pastorini (96) for fourth place on the franchise's all-time list. He would trail only Warren Moon (196), George Blanda (165) and Steve McNair (156).
- K Ryan Succop (502 points with the Titans entering 2019) needs 47 points in 2019 to surpass Tony Zendejas (548) for fourth place on the franchise's scoring list, and he needs 97 points in 2019 to surpass George Blanda (598) for third place behind only Al Del Greco (1,060) and Rob Bironas (1,032).
- OLB Cameron Wake (98.0 career sacks entering 2019) needs two sacks to reach 100 career sacks. Entering 2019, 32 previous NFL players have reached the mark.
- TE Delanie Walker (483 career receptions entering 2019) needs 17 receptions in 2019 to reach 500 for his career.
- TE Delanie Walker (360 receptions with Titans entering 2019) needs 40 receptions in 2019 to become the eighth player in franchise history to reach 400 career catches.
- TE Delanie Walker (4,208 receiving yards with Titans entering 2019) needs 751 receiving yards in 2019 to pass Frank Wycheck (4,958) for the most receiving yards in franchise history by a tight end.
- LB Wesley Woodyard (628 tackles with the Titans entering 2019) needs 111 tackles in 2019 to move into the franchise's all-time top 10 (Steve Kiner, 738).

LT 77-Taylor Lewan (6-7, 309, 6th Year, Michigan) - The team's first-round pick in 2014 (11th overall) started 68 total games at left tackle in his first five seasons. From 2016-18, he started all but one game and was voted to the Pro Bowl in all three seasons.

2018 G/GS: 15/15, Career G/GS: 73/68

LG 76-Rodger Saffold (6-5, 325, 10th Year, Indiana) - The former second-round pick was signed in 2019 as an unrestricted free agent from the Rams. In his first nine seasons, he appeared in 114 games, including time at both guard and both tackle positions. He started every game at left guard in 2018.

2018 G/GS: 16/16, Career G/GS: 114/111

C 60-Ben Jones (6-3, 308, 8th Year, Georgia) - Added as an unrestricted free agent in 2016, the former fourth-round pick played in 64 games in four previous seasons with the Houston Texans. He started all 48 games during his first three seasons in Tennessee.

2018 G/GS: 16/16, Career G/GS: 112/91

G/T 66-Kevin Pamphile (6-5, 315, 6th Year, Purdue) - After playing four seasons with the Buccaneers, the former fifth-round pick joined the Titans in 2018 and played three games before landing on injured reserve.

2018 G/GS: 3/2, Career G/GS: 56/35

RT 78-Jack Conklin (6-6, 308, 4th Year, Michigan State) - The eighth-overall draft pick in 2016 was named first-team All-Pro as a rookie and started all 32 games during his first two seasons. He was limited to nine games in 2018 due to injuries.

2018 G/GS: 9/9, Career G/GS: 41/41

WR 10-Adam Humphries (5-11, 195, 5th Year, Clemson) - After entering the NFL as a rookie free agent, Humphries played four seasons in Tampa Bay, collecting 219 receptions for 2,329 yards and nine touchdowns before signing with the Titans in 2019.

LAST WEEK VS. THE STEELERS

Preseason Week 3: Titans 6, Steelers 18

Sunday, Aug. 25, 2019 • 7:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 3 of the 2019 preseason, the Titans hosted the Pittsburgh Steelers for a nationally televised Sunday Night Football matchup. Tennessee lost by a score of 18-6.

Pittsburgh posted three scores in the first quarter to take an early 15-0 lead over Tennessee. On the Titans second offensive drive, Steelers DE Stephon Tuitt sacked QB Marcus Mariota in the end zone, resulting in a safety for Pittsburgh's first score of the quarter. Next, Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with Steelers WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for a 17-yard score, but the two-point conversion attempt failed as Pittsburgh increased the lead, 8-0. Then, after Roethlisberger's night came to an end, Steelers QB Mason Rudolph tossed a 41-yard touchdown to Steelers WR James Washington for a 15-0 lead heading into the second quarter.

In the second quarter, with help from a 46-yard kick return by WR Darius Jennings and a 25-yard reception by WR Corey Davis, Tennessee was able to tack on a score. K Ryan Succop converted a 24-yard field goal attempt as the Titans cut the lead, 15-3.

In the third quarter, Pittsburgh constructed a seven-play, 55-yard scoring drive that culminated in a successful 31-yard field goal attempt. The Steelers increased their lead, 18-3.

Tennessee was able to put points on the board in the fourth quarter on a nine-play, 77-yard scoring drive. QB Logan Woodside tossed a 24-yard pass to WR Papi White, a 23-yard pass to WR Kalif Raymond, and RB Akeem Hunt tallied 19 yards on the ground to get Tennessee into field goal range. Succop was able to connect on a 22-yard attempt, 18-6. Ultimately, the Titans could not mount a comeback and fell to the Steelers on Sunday Night Football.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TITANS TEAM NOTES

- The Titans captains for the game were punter Brett Kern, safety Kenny Vaccaro, running back Dion Lewis, guard Rodger Saffold, tight end Delanie Walker and defensive tackle Jurrell Casey.
- The players who were not in uniform included running back Derrick Henry, running back Dalyn Dawkins, running back David Fluellen, outside linebacker Josh Smith, outside linebacker Harold Landry III, offensive lineman Nate Davis and tight end Jonnu Smith. Additionally, defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons remained on the non-football injury list.
- The Titans had two interceptions against the Steelers to bring their preseason total to four interceptions, which is tied for the second-highest number in the NFL. They have had at least one interception in each game.
- After reaching double digits in penalties in the first two preseason contests (12 at Philadelphia and 10 against New England), the Titans reduced their penalties to five infractions for 40 yards against the Steelers.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Recorded a 10-yard reception in the second quarter to notch the first catch of his rookie preseason.

DT JURRELL CASEY

- Made his first appearance of the preseason, starting the game at defensive tackle.

WR COREY DAVIS

- Caught a 25-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill on the final play of the first quarter.

DB AMANI HOOKER

- Recorded the first interception of his rookie preseason, picking off a pass by Steelers quarterback Mason Rudolph in the second quarter.

WR DARIUS JENNINGS

- Averaged 33.0 yards on two kickoff returns, including a 46-yard return in the second quarter.

DB MIKE JORDAN

- Recorded his first interception of the preseason in the fourth quarter. He intercepted a pass from Steelers quarterback Joshua Dobbs that was intended for tight end Zach Gentry.
- Led the team with four total tackles.

P BRETT KERN

- Averaged 68.5 yards on two punts (48.5 net), including 70-yard and 67-yard attempts in the first quarter.

RB JEREMY McNICHOLS

- Led the team with 43 yards on nine carries.
- Recorded a 23-yard run in the second quarter.
- Through three preseason games, his 4.3-yard rushing average is tied for the fourth-best mark in the NFL (23 carries for 100 yards).

WR KALIF RAYMOND

- Led the offense with five receptions and 58 receiving yards.
- Recorded a 23-yard reception on a pass from Logan Woodside in the fourth quarter and added a 21-yard catch later in the fourth quarter.
- Through three preseason games, his 12 receptions are tied for third in the NFL, and his 159 receiving yards rank fifth.

K RYAN SUCCOP

- Made a 24-yard field goal in the second quarter and added a 22-yard field goal in the fourth quarter in his first appearance of the 2019 preseason. Succop was removed from the physically unable to perform list on Aug. 19.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Played in the first and second quarters and totaled six completions for 62 yards on nine attempts (86.3 passer rating).
- Completed a 25-yard pass to Corey Davis in the first quarter.

OLB CAMERON WAKE

- Made his Titans preseason debut after being held out of the first two preseason games. Wake was signed as an unrestricted free agent after spending his first 10 NFL seasons with the Miami Dolphins.

S LaDARIUS WILEY

- Deflected a pass in the fourth quarter that was then intercepted by Titans defensive back Mike Jordan.

QB LOGAN WOODSIDE

- Completed a 23-yard pass to wide receiver Kalif Raymond in the fourth quarter and added a 21-yard pass to Raymond later in the stanza.
- Led the Titans with 117 passing yards, completing 11 of 15 passes. He recorded a passer rating of 95.7.
- Ranks ninth in the NFL with a 96.7 passer rating through three preseason games (qualifiers only).

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SATURDAY, AUG. 25, 2019

(on if he planned to play quarterback Marcus Mariota that little)

We want to make sure that we can protect our quarterback, and that's important. That's imperative that we do that as a staff and as an offensive group.

(on if he wanted to play quarterback Marcus Mariota longer than that)

No. I think I wanted to see how the game was going and at that point I thought it was in the team's best interest, and everybody's best interest, that we get him out of the game at that point in time.

(on where he thinks the team got into trouble protecting the quarterback)

We knew coming in that that was a strength of their football team. There's keys to the game, which there are every week, being able to block the front. Give them credit in what they did and we have to, you know, make sure I do a better job of making sure they are ready to go and find ways to protect the pressure, the front, and all of those types of things.

(on if there's one issue in particular he can identify as going wrong with protection)

Well, I think late there they were blitzing us up pretty good. They were trying to get going with Logan (Woodside) in the two-minute drive. They made a decision to blitz and we didn't pick them up quick enough and really get the ball out of our hand.

(on if there are any concerns if this is quarterback Marcus Mariota's last preseason game before going into the season)

No. I've seen a lot of good stuff. I've seen a lot of good stuff in practice, I saw a lot of good stuff when we practiced against the Patriots. And again, I just made a decision that I felt like was in the best interest of the team at that point in time.

(on if hearing about other teams' player injuries during preseason games deters him from playing his star players)

We talk to the team, and in light of what Andrew (Luck) did last night, that to play this game you have to be all in and you have to be willing to live with the good and the bad that comes with this game, and part of this game -a big part- is injuries. We try to do what's best for the team and if that's 12 snaps or six snaps or 18 snaps, we're just trying to move on to the next week and get ready for Chicago.

(on if he considered playing running back Derrick Henry today)

We handle all of those things on a case-by-case basis. I felt like he was coming back, had a good week of practice, got some work in pads, and we'll continue to get him some work as we move forward. I mean, did I consider it? I considered pretty much everything that I possibly can.

(on what he thought when he learned the news about Colts quarterback Andrew Luck last night)

Really just kind of focused on trying to improve this team right now. Again, I just made reference, it could have been any player that decided to retire because of those reasons and sometimes in this league, a lot of times in this league, the grind kind of gets to you, whether that's in your 15th year, your eighth year, or your second year. I think just making sure that everybody is all in, coaching wise and player wise, ready to go.

(on if the weather dictated anything in the game)

Weather plays a lot of factors. With the game plan and what we try to do, I wouldn't say it had a big deal to do with that. I felt like we needed to take advantage of playing in the rain. We used that to our advantage last year in a game that had some heavy rain that we took care of the football and the other team didn't and we were able to win. That was my message, to use this night with the rain as an opportunity to handle the football and see if we can draw on it later in the season.

(on if he thought running back Jeremy McNichols had a decent night)

He's continuing to progress. Sometimes when there's light here, we block it well, we expect those guys to take advantage of it. Count the guys, Pittsburgh was nice enough to have 10 guys on the field on that one. We'll take it any way we can get it.

(on if running back Jeremy McNichols is doing some things on special teams)

He is, he's active and involved with special teams. That's what we're asking everyone to do, to be involved in special teams and be dialed in. Kevin Byard is our personal protector, and Logan (Ryan) and Malcolm (Butler) are heavily involved in the punt return phase. We're going to need everybody.

(on the decision making by cornerback Adoree' Jackson on punt returns)

I think we wanted to see Adoree' tonight. We'd seen HUMPH (Adam Humphries) earlier in the preseason, and I thought going back to Philadelphia early on, when Adoree' caught the ball at the five yard line and he felt confident to be able to put his foot in the ground and gain 10 or 11 yards and get us up to the 16. I think punters have gotten so good in this league that it's not a give-me that if the ball is caught on the five yard line that it's going to be entered in as a touchback. With all of our players we want to make sure they are making good decisions, but most importantly they have to play this game aggressive, but also not reckless. We'll continue to give him some work back there, I feel like he's had good work in practice and I'll imagine you'll see both him and Humph going forward.

(on if cornerback Adoree' Jackson was aggressive on the one he let bounce)

We have to be able to try to get back up, those are hidden yards, we call those hidden yardage. We want to be able to get up. Sometimes we play it on the first bounce. Maybe the weather had a factor in that. If you can't get to the football, we're going to play it on the first bounce. If we don't get the bounce we want, we're going to have to do a better job of catching the football. You kind of make a decision to go get, if you don't make the decision then you try to play it on the first hop that sometimes you get and then you can kind of stick with the return. We'll keep coaching it up.

(on how much he thought about going for it on the first field goal)

Even on the second one, we've got a kicker that's coming off of PUP. We're running out of opportunities before the regular season. Probably would of had to go for it down there on the second one. The way it's come out with Ryan (Succop), where he's at now in the third preseason game, we just needed to get him kicking. There was a plan, we would of liked to had him kicking a few more times and some extra points, but that obviously didn't happen. I needed to make a decision to give him some work in a game, and again, being able to snap and hold in a game with wet footballs, those were all part of the process.

(on if he can pull anything positive from tonight)

I thought the second half effort, I thought that those guys that went in there -again, it wasn't perfect. We started out well on defense. Third down was, when we could get them in third down, I thought that was something. We just need to be able to coach consistently throughout the roster. I have to do a much better job of making sure what the twos and threes hear is the same thing that everybody else is hearing and there's not the drop-off. We have expectations and we have to do a better job of making sure those groups understand those.

(on if that's a concern for him right now)

No, not a concern. I'm not much of a worrier or concerned person, but there's going to be some good efforts. I saw the tackling improved in the second half, the tackling to end the first half I didn't think was very good. It was good to see Amani (Hooker) come up with an interception. It's never as bad as you think and it's never as good as you think. There's going to be guys that have good efforts and I think Jack (Conklin) continues to progress and I'm really excited where he's at and we'll keep moving forward.

QUARTERBACK MARCUS MARIOTA

(on how frustrating it was to have his night end short)

Yeah, not the way we wanted to come out and play. A lot to learn from but at the same time just got to continue to build. Can't hang our heads. We've just got to learn from it and move on.

(on planning to play longer and what was said to him when he was out of the game)

They just said that they're going to go with Ryan (Tannenhill). I was prepared to play and whatever the coaches wanted to do, I followed.

(on tonight possibly being the last time seeing the offense during the preseason and his assessment)

We need better consistency but at the same time, you know, obviously, it's a process. It's one of those deals we can learn from. Not the way we wanted to finish the preseason, if it is the last series or two but at the same time, there is a lot of good things over the training camp and the month leading up to the regular season. We've just got to build off of it and get ready for week one.

(on if the media is making too big a deal about this time of year)

Well, I think that's your guys' job. (laughs) Quite frankly for us, we are focused on just trying to get better every day. No matter what, it's a constant improvement. Mistakes are going to happen. We understand that. Let's not continue to make the same mistakes. Let's just learn from them and grow. I think that's what we've done in a month.

(on his reaction to Andrew Luck's decision)

I think I'm just like everyone else, surprised. With my interactions with Andrew (Luck) and you know, over the last few years, he's such a great guy off the field. Obviously, he's a great player. I just... the interactions, just how nice he was to me as a young guy. I wish him nothing but the best. That's got to be a hard decision but he seems at peace with it. For us guys that are playing, it's what we want. You want guys to be able to go out on their own terms. I wish him the best.

(on his own frustrations with injuries over the years)

Well, everyone's journey is a little different. Last year actually, he took the opportunity after the game, the last regular season game, to come up to me and talk to me after the game. For me as a young player that meant a lot. He kind of told me to keep fighting through it, that it is a journey but not to worry about the ups and the downs, just learn from it. Get healthy as quickly as possible. For a guy who just got in, who just beat us to get into the playoffs, for him to take time and to say that to me, meant the world. For me, I'm happy for him. It seems like he's in a good place. Again, I have nothing but good things to say about him and I wish him all the best.

(on the change in A.J. Brown from one week to the next)

Yeah, absolutely, absolutely. For us quarterbacks, it's good to see him in the right spots. For a young guy transitioning from college, it's never easy to pick up the offense. He's done a good job of being where we want him to be. He's made some plays. I think he's got something to build on.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on how the team came out and performed tonight)

It wasn't clean enough, we didn't come out and move the ball effectively. Obviously, it was sloppy, wasn't clean enough, not how we expected to come out and play, so definitely a lot to learn from this tape and stuff to work on as we get ready next week.

(on if he can pinpoint anything to attribute to the sloppy play)

I will have to go back and look at the tape. It looked like guys were ready to play. In the huddle guys were focused and ready to go. We could never get some momentum. We could never put a drive together and really get it going.

(on if too much can be made out of preseason games when things don't go well)

At the end of the day, this is a very intense practice for us. We are still working on some things specifically we want to work into the game plan. You know, I think certain situations in the game, if it was a real game, would be handled a little bit differently. You go into these games with a specific list of things you want to work on as a team, as an offense. You try to work those situations, sometimes it's not the same thing you do in a regular season game. That's just what we do at this time of year to get ready to go for a 16-game-plus season.

GUARD RODGER SAFFOLD

(on what he thought the issues on the offensive line were tonight)

I'm not quite sure because I haven't seen the tape yet. We have just got to get consistent, everyone doing their job at the same time and get in the ebb and flow in our running game, our passing game, and our protection. The good thing is this is a preseason game so you can get it fixed.

(on if he was concerned with the breakdown in pass protection)

Once again, I am going to have to look at the tape to know for sure. Like I said, we have got time to fix it. That's the route I am taking, especially with all the young guys. You don't want to get too discouraged.

(on what happened on the safety)

It was twist and we got picked, I got picked from the right side, and that was what happened on the play.

TACKLE/GUARD DENNIS KELLY

(on Pittsburgh's pressure in the backfield)

You know as a whole, we'll just have to look at it on the film, obviously I don't know. On the one that I got beat, I just did a really bad set. It's fixable.

(on if he looks at protection as something that can be ironed out)

Yeah, obviously I haven't seen the film so I don't know where the issue lies, but that's not something we want. We've done (it well) in practice, so we'll just translate it to the game.

CORNERBACK LOGAN RYAN

(on the performance of the defense tonight)

We're building, you know, it's not perfect. Tonight wasn't perfect, for sure. Pittsburgh did a great job hitting our quarterbacks, and we wanted to hit theirs a little more. At the end of the day, I think we are building and building towards our first game of the season with Cleveland. That's the goal, we're taking our steps there. Obviously, there is stuff to learn from tonight, but I think we are trending in the right direction.

(on the progress of the Titans defense)

Guys are still competing to make the team, that's what training camp is. It's about guys competing to earn their spots, and that will be decided after this game is reviewed, and after that you put the best 53 towards Cleveland. So, we are still in that process. We can't skip that it is important right now for a lot of guys to earn their spots, as it is for me, as well.

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

(on if he was surprised about the announcement of Andrew Luck retiring)

It's tough going through years and years of injury, having to wake up making sure your body is right. The pressures of being a franchise quarterback, trying to stay in tip-top shape. It's tough, and the grind kind of gets to you a little bit. Congrats on his great career. It's one of those things where he felt he needed to take care of himself, and I respect that. Me personally, I hadn't beat him. Think I played him four times and I was anticipating this season, this whole offseason I was thinking about we are going to try to beat Andrew Luck. He's going to be able to retire and say he was undefeated against the Titans. It's not something that we want, but at the end of the day, we still have to beat the Colts. It's not like without Andrew Luck we can chalk up a win or anything like that. They still have a great team and a great franchise.

(on if the retirement of Andrew Luck changes the balance of power in the AFC South)

I would not say it shifts the balance of power. They won the division last year, so they are the defending champions. They have a great defense. They still have a great roster and a great team, so the division still goes through Indianapolis, that's for sure. When they come here in Week Two, we are going to have to beat them. That's one thing we have talked about this whole offseason. Winning the division, we have to go through Indianapolis, Houston and Jacksonville as well.

(on Titans defensive play tonight)

One of the biggest things was a lot of missed tackles. Guys diving off of a diving board, and not really running their feet, giving up big plays. Something that we really don't want to do. Anytime you give up big plays, missing tackles, not getting after the quarterback, well that is a recipe for losing and giving up points. It is something we are definitely going to have to fix in this short week. We go to Chicago on Thursday, so we're going to have to get some things fixed quick, and in a hurry.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER JON ROBINSON

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first three years on the job, the Titans finished with three consecutive 9-7 seasons. It marked the first time the organization produced at least three consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans were one of six NFL teams to accomplish the feat from 2016–2018, joining New England, Seattle, Kansas City, Pittsburgh and Dallas. Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first three teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-91).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a Divisional Round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Robinson turned over more than 80 percent of the Titans roster in his first three years on the job. At the end of the 2018 campaign, 43 players on the club's 53-man roster (81.1 percent) were added after Robinson arrived in Tennessee—27 free agents, two players acquired via trade, one waiver pickup and 13 draft picks. An additional nine players he acquired (six free agents, two draft picks and one waiver claim) ended 2018 on injured reserve.

Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who figure to have key roles in 2019: Buccaneers wide receiver Adam Humphries, Rams guard Rodger Saffold, Dolphins defensive end/outside linebacker Cameron Wake and Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill via trade. Robinson also worked to re-sign starting safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall) and Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included a pair of former New England Patriots: Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler and running back Dion Lewis. In his first season in Tennessee, Butler played in all 16 games (11 starts) and finished second on the squad with three interceptions. Lewis rushed for 517 yards and added career highs with 59 receptions and 400 receiving yards. In early August, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 13 games.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans was slowed initially by an injury that caused him to miss the entire preseason, but he returned to play in 15 games with seven starts. Landry also appeared in 15 games (three starts), and his 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the Titans.

Robinson selected 23 total players in his first three drafts as general manager, and 15 of those picks remained with the club at the end of the 2018 season. During the same three years, he engineered 14 trades and made eight waiver claims (through December 2018).

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England), safety Johnathan Cyprien (Jacksonville) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. Davis led the Titans in receiving in 2018 (65 receptions for 891 yards). Jackson played in all 32 games in his first two seasons, totaling a team-high 34 passes defended. He also led the team in punt returns in each of his first two campaigns. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured wide receiver Taywan Taylor and tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL. Jones started all 16 games and keyed a rushing attack that ranked third in the league, while Matthews set career highs with 65 receptions (tied for the team lead), a team-high 945 receiving yards and a team-high nine touchdown receptions.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press. Other rookies in 2016 who made significant contributions included second-round running back Derrick Henry, third-round safety Kevin Byard and fifth-round wide receiver Tajae Sharpe. Henry led the team in rushing in both 2017 and 2018, while Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl berth in his second season. From 2017 through 2018, Byard's 12 interceptions led the NFL.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

THREE WINNING SEASONS

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced three consecutive winning seasons in Robinson's first three years on the job. The club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017 and 2018, with a postseason berth following the 2017 campaign.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first three teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-91).

Additionally, Robinson's .563 winning percentage qualified as the third best among the franchise's general managers in their first three seasons (minimum three seasons).

ROBINSON TO THE PLAYOFFS IN YEAR 2

In January 2016, Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk hired general manager Jon Robinson, who helped turn the Titans into a playoff team by his second season.

Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Titans/Oilers general managers in the playoffs within their first two full seasons:

Head Coach	First Full Season as General Manager	Postseason Berths in First Two Seasons
	2016	2017 (Year 2)
Jon Robinson	2016	2007, 2008 (Years 1 & 2)
Mike Reinfeldt	2007	1989, 1990 (Years 1 & 2)
Mike Holovak	1989	1967 (Year 2)
Don Klosterman	1966	1961, 1962 (Years 1 & 2)
Don Suman	1961

FIRST-YEAR GENERAL MANAGERS

Jon Robinson was the 13th general manager hired in franchise history. In his first season, he helped lead the Titans to a 9-7 record after inheriting a 3-13 squad from 2015. No new general manager for the club had ever before seen a win increase of more than three games in his first season.

Robinson's nine wins were one shy of the previous record for a first-year general manager, a mark shared by Mike Reinfeldt (10-6 in 2007) and Don Suman (10-3-1 in 1961).

History of Titans/Oilers new general managers and improvement in first season:

New GM	1st Season	W-L in 1st Season	Team W-L Prev. Season	Win Improvement
Jon Robinson	2016	9-7	3-13	6
Ruston Webster	2012	6-10	9-7	-3
Mike Reinfeldt	2007	10-6	8-8	2
Floyd Reese	1994	2-14	12-4	-10
Mike Holovak	1989	9-7	10-6	-1
Ladd Herzeg	1981	7-9	11-5	-4
Bum Phillips	1975	10-4	7-7	3
Sid Gillman	1973	1-13	1-13	0
John Breen	1971	4-9-1	3-10-1	1
Don Klosterman	1966	3-11	4-10	-1
Carroll Martin	1964	4-10	6-8	-2
Frank "Pop" Ivy	1963	6-8	11-3	-5
Don Suman	1961	10-3-1	10-4	0

Among the four new NFL general managers hired in 2016, Robinson led the group by leading the Titans to six more wins than the previous season.

New NFL general managers in 2016:

New GM	Team	2016 W-L	Team's 2015 W-L	Win Improvement
Jon Robinson	Tennessee Titans	9-7	3-13	6
Chris Grier	Miami Dolphins	10-6	6-10	4

2019 TITANS DRAFT REVIEW

DL JEFFERY SIMMONS | 6-4, 305, Mississippi State
1st round, 19th overall

College: During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State (2016-18), Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns. He was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

WR A.J. BROWN | 6-1, 226, Mississippi
2nd round, 51st overall

College: In three seasons at Ole Miss (2016-18), Brown appeared in 36 games and made 25 starts. Brown set the standard in the Ole Miss record book, becoming the program's all-time leading receiver with 2,984 yards. He ranked third in school history with 189 receptions and fifth all-time with 19 touchdowns. Brown averaged 15.8 yards per catch, and he tallied the most 100-yard receiving games in Ole Miss history with 12. He became the third player in school history to top 1,000 yards in a single season, and the only receiver in Ole Miss history to tally 60 or more receptions in back-to-back seasons.

OL NATE DAVIS | 6-3, 316, Charlotte
3rd round, 82nd overall

College: In four seasons at Charlotte (2015-18), Davis appeared in 41 career games with 37 starts. A four-year starter on the offensive line, Davis started at guard from 2015-17 before switching to right tackle for his senior season in 2018. As a senior, Davis earned First Team All-Conference USA recognition by Phil Steele and Second Team All-Conference USA recognition by the league's coaches.

DB AMANI HOOKER | 5-11, 210, Iowa
4th round, 116th overall

College: During a three-year career at Iowa (2016-18), Hooker played in 36 games with 19 starts and totaled 125 tackles, six interceptions, a sack, 3.5 tackles for loss and nine passes defended. As a junior, he was named the Big Ten's Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year, selected second-team All-America by The Associated Press and USA Today and earned All-Big Ten recognition by league coaches and media. In 2018, he started all 13 games and shared the team lead with four interceptions and seven pass break-ups.

OLB D'ANDRE WALKER | 6-2, 251, Georgia
5th round, 168th overall

College: During a four-year career at Georgia (2015-18), Walker appeared in 54 games (13 starts) and totaled 113 tackles, 13.5 sacks, 27.5 tackles for loss, four passes defended, five forced fumbles, one fumble recoveries and two blocked punts. As a senior, he started all 13 games in which he played and established career highs with 45 tackles, a team-best 7.5 sacks, a team-high 14 quarterback pressures, three passes defended, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. He also led the Bulldogs with 11 tackles for loss.

LB DAVID LONG JR. | 5-11, 227, West Virginia
6th round, 188th overall

College: During a three-year career at West Virginia (2016-18), Long played in 34 games with 31 starts and totaled 252 tackles, 14 sacks and 40 career tackles for loss, which tied for third place on West Virginia's all-time list. In 2018, he started all 12 games at Will linebacker and was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the coaches and Associated Press. He garnered second-team All-America honors and first-team All-Big 12 accolades from the Associated Press. He led the team with 111 tackles, eight sacks and 19 tackles for loss, the latter of which tied for the single-season program record.

Consecutive winning seasons for the Titans after going 9-7 in 2016, 2017 and 2018. It marks the first time in the team's "Titans era" (1999–present) it has accomplished the feat.

Consecutive Pro Bowl berths by defensive tackle Jurrell Casey, who became the first player in the club's "Titans era" (1999–present) to earn four Pro Bowl selections. He has done so the last four consecutive seasons.

6.0

Yards per carry by Derrick Henry in 2018 from Week 9-17, which led the NFL among qualifiers.

Games the Titans play in 2019 against playoff teams from 2018: Houston (two games), Indianapolis (two games), Kansas City, New Orleans and the L.A. Chargers. That number is tied for the most in the NFL.

12

Interceptions since the beginning of the 2017 season by fourth-year safety Kevin Byard, who owns the highest total in the NFL in that time period.

12

Career game-winning drives by Marcus Mariota. He has eight such drives (including playoffs) since the beginning of the 2017 campaign.

13.7

Yards per reception in 2018 by Corey Davis, which ranked ninth in the NFL among players with at least 65 receptions.

16

Wins by the Titans in their last 20 home games, dating back to 2016.

18.9

Points per game allowed by the Titans defense in 2018, which trailed only the Chicago Bears (17.7) and Baltimore Ravens (17.9) for the best average in the NFL.

20

Number of draft picks by Titans general manager Jon Robinson currently on the team's roster (as of Aug. 26, 2019).

32

Touchdowns by Titans opponents in 2018, which was the second-lowest total in the NFL behind the 30 surrendered by Chicago.

42

NFL-leading number of receptions for first downs from the slot by Adam Humphries in 2018.

44.7

Opponents' 2018 touchdown percentage against the Titans in the red zone. The Titans defense ranked second in the NFL behind the Eagles (44.6).

60

Seasons in franchise history (1960–2019).

82

Total penalties on the Titans in 2018, which was the lowest total in the NFL in 2018 and set a franchise record for the lowest total in a 16-game season.

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018. He became the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadaveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012-2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products has held the naming rights to the stadium since 2006 and that exclusivity now shifts to Nissan.

Titans/Oilers all-time regular-season record by home venue:

Stadium	Seasons	W-L-T	Pct.
Jeppesen Stadium	1960-1964	25-11-0	.694
Rice Stadium	1965-1967	11-10-0	.524

NISSAN STADIUM CLEAR BAG POLICY

The Titans strongly encourage fans not to bring any type of bag to Nissan Stadium to expedite entry at the gates, but if you need to bring personal items to the game, please familiarize yourself with the NFL's clear bag policy.

To provide a safer environment for the public and speed fan entry, the Tennessee Titans enforce a league-wide NFL policy that limits the size and type of bags that may be brought in to the stadium.

Clear bags must be 12" x 12" x 6" or smaller.

Non-transparent bags can be no larger than 4.5" x 6.5," even if you are placing it inside your larger clear bag. Please Note: Non-transparent bags are still subject to inspection by security personnel at the gates.

Clear bags are available at the Titans Locker Room next to Gate 1 and online at TitansLockerRoom.com.

All styles of clear bags are acceptable as long as they are 12" x 12" x 6" or smaller. This includes clear cinch sacks, clear diaper bags, gallon ziploc bags, etc.

The clear bag policy is in effect for all Titans games, college football games, concerts and any other sporting event at Nissan Stadium.

PROHIBITED ITEMS INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO: any non-transparent bag larger than 4.5" x 6.5"; coolers or containers, including glass bottles, cans (aerosol and non-aerosol), thermos, hard plastic tumbler; metal flasks and metal cigar/cigarette cases; seat cushions, folding and/or standalone chairs; umbrellas; strollers or baby seats; camera lenses over 6", video cameras/recording devices, tripods; poles, selfie sticks, sticks of any kind; drones, unmanned aircraft; horns, whistles or other noisemakers; weapons of any kind (including pocket knives); outside food/beverages; illegal drugs or substances, any alcoholic beverage; animals, except service animals assisting guests with disabilities; footballs, inflatable balls, balloons; battery-operated warmers are not permitted in any clothing or blankets; any headwear or apparel with hazardous attachments including, but not limited to, spikes and blades; lights (flashlights, LED lights, any battery-operated lights); anything that creates a nuisance or disruption

For the protection of our fans, prohibited items cannot be stored by Nissan Stadium personnel. All unattended items including, but not limited to, backpacks, bicycles, strollers and umbrellas will be disposed.

During concerts and other non-sporting events, additions may be made to the prohibited items list, at the discretion of the artist and/or management. All updates will be communicated via the Nissan Stadium social media channels.

WINNING AT HOME

Since the midway point of the 2016 season, the Titans have been one of the NFL's most successful teams at home. In that time, the Titans have won 16 of their 20 games at Nissan Stadium.

The Titans won their final four home games of 2016 against the Jacksonville Jaguars, Green Bay Packers, Denver Broncos and Houston Texans. In 2017, they beat the Seattle Seahawks, Indianapolis Colts, Baltimore Ravens, Cincinnati Bengals, Texans and Jaguars at home.

In 2018, the Titans won six games and lost twice at Nissan Stadium. They beat the Texans, Philadelphia Eagles, New England Patriots, New York Jets, Jaguars and Washington Redskins.

Since the weekend of their 2016 victory over the Jaguars (Oct. 27, 2016), the Titans' .800 winning percentage in home games is the second-best mark in the NFL.

Highest winning percentage in home games since Week 8 of 2016 (Oct. 27, 2016–present):

Team	Wins	Losses	Ties	Win Pct
1. New England Patriots	17	3	0	0.850

HOME DIVISIONAL GAMES

In the last three seasons, the Titans have been one of the NFL's most successful teams facing divisional opponents at home.

Since the beginning of the 2016 campaign, the Titans are 7-2 at Nissan Stadium against the Houston Texans, Indianapolis Colts and Jacksonville Jaguars.

Only the New England Patriots (8-1), Kansas City Chiefs (8-1) and Pittsburgh Steelers (8-1) have fared better at home against divisional opponents.

Best division winning percentage in home games from 2016–2018:

THREE CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

In 2018, the Titans recorded their third season with a winning record in three seasons since Jon Robinson was hired as general manager.

In the "Titans era" (1999–present), it marks the first time the team has had three consecutive winning campaigns.

With 9-7 records in 2016, 2017 and 2018, the Titans tied for the fifth-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL. Only the New England Patriots (18), Seattle Seahawks (seven), Kansas City Chiefs (six) and Pittsburgh Steelers (five) have longer streaks heading into 2019.

Most current consecutive winning seasons (through 2018):

Team	Total	Seasons
1. New England Patriots	18	2001–2018
2. Seattle Seahawks	7	2012–2018
3. Kansas City Chiefs	6	2013–2018

GAMES AGAINST PLAYOFF TEAMS

In 2019, the Titans are scheduled to play seven total games against playoff teams from 2018: Houston (two games), Indianapolis (two games), Kansas City, New Orleans and the L.A. Chargers. That number is tied for the most in the NFL, as is the Titans' total of five home games against 2018 playoff clubs (Houston, Indianapolis, Kansas City, L.A. Chargers and New Orleans).

In 2018, the Titans played nine total games against seven clubs that went on to make the playoffs (two games apiece versus division rivals Indianapolis and Houston). It was the highest total in the NFL.

The Titans' four wins in 2018 against playoff clubs—Houston, Philadelphia, Dallas and New England—tied for the most in the league. Only New England, the Los Angeles Rams and Carolina had as many.

WINNING CLOSE GAMES

The Titans have been one of the NFL's most successful teams in games decided by three points or less in the recent seasons. They were 3-2 in such games in 2018.

Of all NFL games in 2016 decided by three or fewer points, or games that ended in a tie, the Titans were one of only three clubs to record at least four wins without suffering a loss. They then went 2-1 in 2017 in such contests.

Best NFL winning percentages from 2016-18 in games decided by three points or less (regular season):

Team	Wins	Losses	Ties	Pct
1. Oakland Raiders	10	3	0	.769

TIGHT END PRODUCTION UNDER SMITH

Former Titans tight ends coach Arthur Smith was promoted to offensive coordinator in January 2019.

During his final season coaching the tight ends, Smith and the team were dealt a significant challenge when starter Delanie Walker suffered an injury in the season opener and was placed on injured reserve for the remainder of the season.

However, during the second half of 2018 the remaining Titans tight ends—including Jonnu Smith, Luke Stocker, Anthony Firkser and MyCole Pruitt—were establishing the group as one of the league's most productive units.

From Week 9-17, the Titans tight ends' 49 total receptions tied for the fourth-highest total in the league among tight ends. Additionally, their 607 receiving yards ranked fifth, and their six touchdown receptions tied for fourth place.

Most receptions by team tight end units in 2018 from Week 9-17:

Team	Rec	Rec Yds	Rec TD
1. Philadelphia Eagles	71	672	6
2. Kansas City Chiefs	66	764	7

FEWEST PENALTIES IN A 16-GAME SEASON

The Titans were called for only 82 total penalties in 2018, leading the NFL and setting a team record for the lowest number in a 16-game season (since 1978, excluding strike-shortened 1982 and 1987 seasons). They received no more than four penalties in nine of their 16 games.

The previous franchise record for fewest penalties in a 16-game season was 84 by the 1983 Oilers.

Fewest penalties in a 16-game season, franchise history:

Season	Penalties
1. 2018	82
2. 1983	84
3. 2017	85
4. 1996	91
5. 1981	93

KICKOFF RETURN RECORD

In 2018, the Titans set a new NFL record for kickoff return average and became the first team in NFL history to average more than 30.0 yards per kickoff return in a season. They totaled 23 returns for 737 yards, an average of 32.0 yards per return.

The 2013 Kansas City Chiefs owned the previous record with a 29.9-yard kickoff return average (44 attempts for 1,316 yards), followed by the 1972 Chicago Bears at 29.4 yards (52 for 1,528).

The former franchise record for kickoff return average in a season as 26.1 yards per attempt by both the 1963 Oilers and 2000 Titans.

There is no minimum attempt count for the team kickoff return average record.

Highest single-season team kickoff return average, NFL history:

Team	Season	KR Att	Yds	Avg
1. Tennessee Titans	2018	23	737	32.0

Marcus Mariota (6-4, 222) completed his fifth NFL season in 2019. The Titans selected him with the No. 2 overall selection in the 2015 NFL Draft, and since that time, he arguably has had the best beginning to a career of any quarterback in team annals.

Mariota won 27 games as a starter from 2015 through 2018. It was the most by any quarterback in his first four seasons with the franchise since George Blanda joined the Oilers as a 10-year veteran in 1960 and earned 34 wins through 1963.

Mariota became the fifth quarterback in NFL history with at least 12,000 passing yards (12,004) and 1,200 rushing yards (1,270) in his first four seasons, joining Russell Wilson, Cam Newton, Jeff Garcia and Blake Bortles.

In 2018, Mariota completed 228 of 331 passes for 2,528 yards with 11 touchdowns, eight interceptions and a passer rating of 92.3. He is the only quarterback in franchise history to produce a passer rating of 90.0 or greater in three separate seasons.

Mariota's 68.9 completion percentage in 2018 shattered the previous franchise record. It was previously owned by Cody Carlson, who completed 65.6 percent of his passes (149 of 227) in 1992.

In 2017, Mariota led the team to the postseason and became the youngest quarterback in franchise history to win a playoff game. His statistics in the regular season included 281 completions, 3,232 yards and 13 touchdowns on 453 attempts (79.3 passer rating).

From 2015–2016, Mariota passed for 6,244 yards and 45 touchdowns, while throwing only 19 interceptions. His 93.8 passer rating during that time ranked sixth in NFL history for a player's first two NFL campaigns, trailing only Kurt Warner (107.9), Dan Marino (104.5), Nick Foles (101.0), Russell Wilson (100.6) and Ben Roethlisberger (98.3).

In 2016, Mariota started 15 games. He was 276-of-451 passing for 3,426 yards, 26 touchdowns and nine interceptions. His 95.6 passer rating ranks third in franchise history for a single season, behind only Warren Moon's 96.8 in 1990, when he was the Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year, and Steve McNair's 100.4 in 2003, when he was the NFL's Co-MVP. Only two quarterbacks with the franchise have had more touchdown passes in a season than Mariota in 2016: George Blanda (36 in 1961 and 27 in 1962) and Moon (33 in 1990).

During his rookie season, Mariota started 12 games, missing four total contests due to injuries. He completed 230 of his 370 passes for 2,818 yards, 19 touchdowns—all franchise rookie records—while throwing only 10 interceptions. At the time, his 91.5 passer rating ranked third in franchise history.

Mariota also set a franchise rookie record by completing 62.2 percent of his passes. That was the fifth-highest percentage by a rookie quarterback in NFL history and the eighth-highest completion percentage in a season by any quarterback in Titans/Oilers history.

On the ground in 2015, Mariota accounted for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 34 carries. He finished second in franchise history in rushing yards by a rookie quarterback, trailing only Young's 2006 total of 552 rushing yards. Mariota's total included an 87-yard touchdown run against Jacksonville (Dec. 6), which was the fifth-longest rushing play in franchise history.

Mariota joined Manning (1998) as the only rookie quarterbacks in NFL history to complete three touchdown passes in four different games, and he became the lone NFL rookie to ever record two games with four touchdown passes and no interceptions (Sept. 13 at Tampa Bay and Nov. 8 at New Orleans).

He entered the NFL following a historic career at the University of Oregon. He concluded his three seasons as the school's starting quarterback by winning the Heisman Trophy and leading his team to the College Football Playoff Championship Game.

Mariota broke nearly every major passing record at Oregon, totaling 10,796 career passing yards and 105 touchdown passes. The three-time All-Pac-12 selection started every game over his three seasons, earning a 36-5 record, and he completed at least one touchdown pass in every contest. He became one of four players in FBS history to pass for 10,000 yards and rush for 2,000 yards (2,237) in a career, joining Dan LeFevour, Griffin and Colin Kaepernick.

During his Heisman season in 2014, Mariota directed the Ducks to a Rose Bowl victory over Florida State. His totals for the year included 4,454 passing yards, 42 touchdown passes and only four interceptions. He also rushed for 770 yards and 15 touchdowns and even caught a touchdown pass. His 58 total touchdowns in a season (passing, rushing and receiving) shattered Matt Barkley's (2011) previous Pac-12 record of 41 touchdowns.

The 6-foot-4-inch, 222-pound signal caller became the fifth Heisman Trophy winner to be drafted by the Oilers/Titans, joining Billy Cannon, Earl Campbell, Mike Rozier and Eddie George. Derrick Henry became the sixth Heisman winner drafted by the club when he was selected in 2016.

At the 2015 NFL Scouting Combine, he finished among the top three quarterbacks in the 40-yard dash, vertical jump, broad jump, three-cone drill and 20-yard shuttle. His 4.52-second 40-yard dash gave him the fastest quarterback time at the Combine since Griffin's 4.41 in 2012.

Mariota is a native of Honolulu, Hawaii.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), played the first series of the game and completed four of eight passes for 24 yards.
- Against New England (8/17), in three series during the first quarter, completed six of nine passes for 63 yards and a touchdown with a passer rating of 123.8. At the end of a 10-play, 87-yard drive, he tossed an 11-yard touchdown pass to tight end Delanie Walker. He finished his evening with a run for a two-point conversion.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), played two series and did not complete a pass on three attempts.

GAME-WINNING DRIVES FROM 2017-18

From 2017 through 2018, only two NFL quarterbacks recorded more game-winning drives than Marcus Mariota. Including the regular season and playoffs, he had eight such drives, tied with Case Keenum behind only Dak Prescott and Drew Brees.

Mariota's game-winning drives in that time period included games against Indianapolis (Oct. 16, 2017), at Cleveland (Oct. 22, 2017), against Cincinnati (Nov. 12, 2017), at Indianapolis (Nov. 26, 2017), at Kansas City (playoff game on Jan. 6, 2018), at Jacksonville (Sept. 23, 2018), against Philadelphia (Sept. 30, 2018) and against the New York Jets (Dec. 2, 2018).

MARIOTA AT AGE 25

Marcus Mariota celebrated his 25th birthday on Oct. 30, 2018. He became only the ninth quarterback since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to pass for at least 10,000 yards before his 25th birthday.

The list also includes Drew Bledsoe (14,642 passing yards before his 25th birthday), Jameis Winston (14,628), Josh Freeman (12,963), Peyton Manning (12,287), Matthew Stafford (12,272), Dan Marino (11,975), Cam Newton (11,299) and Blake Bortles (11,241).

Among the nine players to accomplish the feat, Mariota led the group in completion percentage (62.2) and ranked third in passer rating (87.5) behind only Marino (96.6) and Winston (87.8).

Mariota (1,098), Newton (2,032 rushing yards) and Bortles (1,088) were the only three players with 10,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards before age 25.

Players since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger with 10,000 passing yards before age 25 (through 2018):

TITANS TIDBITS: MARCUS MARIOTA

- In 2016, Mariota launched his Motiv8 Foundation, which serves the communities of Middle Tennessee, Eugene and Honolulu. The Motiv8 Foundation aims to create and support economic and educational programs and athletic activities to provide an alternative outlet for youth of troubled neighborhoods and backgrounds.
- The Motiv8 Foundation puts on two full-scale golf tournaments in Honolulu and Portland. It also has fed 5,000 homeless and workers in the homeless field on Oahu and Maui and additionally donated 1,000 pounds of dog food to two dog shelters on Oahu. The foundation will be hosting a job fair for homeless families and will be also donating a year supply of toiletries to more than 30 shelters across the state of Hawaii.
- Annually, Motiv8 sponsors the attendance of 1,200+ kids to a University of Hawaii game, 300+ kids to a Oregon Ducks game and more than a 100 kids to a Tennessee Titans game.
- Motiv8 also continues to be a major player in high school football in the state of Hawaii with is presenting sponsorship of the nationally-televised Polynesian Bowl.
- In 2018, the Motiv8 Foundation launched the Ardel Deppe Community Football Coach Award to recognize three Hawaii football coaches from any level of play who best exemplify Marcus' grandfather's spirit of going the extra mile and giving back to the community.
- He is the oldest son of Toa and Alana Mariota. His younger brother, Matthew, is a tight end at Oregon.
- Mariota credits much of his athletic success to playing soccer in his youth. By the time he was eight years old, he was wearing a soccer jersey with the number 8, and he has kept the jersey number ever since then.

SINGLE-GAME COMPLETION %, NFL HISTORY

On Nov. 26, 2018, Marcus Mariota completed 22 of 23 passes for 303 yards. His completion rate of 95.65 percent set a franchise record and was the second-highest single-game completion percentage in NFL history (minimum 20 attempts). Los Angeles Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers set the all-time NFL record the day before Mariota's performance at Houston, completing 96.55 percent of his passes (28 of 29) against the Arizona Cardinals on Nov. 25.

Prior to Week 12 of the 2018 campaign, the previous NFL record holder was Kurt Warner, who completed 92.31 percent of his passes for Arizona against Jacksonville on Sept. 20, 2009 (24 of 26).

FRANCHISE SINGLE-GAME PASSER RATINGS

Against the Packers on Nov. 13, 2016, Marcus Mariota completed 19 of 26 passes for 295 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions. His passer rating for the game was 149.8.

Among all games in franchise history, Mariota's passer rating against the Packers ranks second. The only one that tops it is a perfect 158.3 by Chris Chandler against the Cincinnati Bengals on Sept. 24, 1995.

Mariota already owns three of the franchise's four best single-game passer ratings and five of the team's 17 best performances. His 148.1 passer rating against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Oct. 27, 2016 is third on the list, while his 147.7 passer rating at the Houston Texans on Nov. 26, 2018 is fourth. His 135.7 passer rating at the New Orleans Saints as a rookie (Nov. 8) is 13th, and his 132.6 passer rating against the Cleveland Browns on Oct. 16, 2016 is 17th on the list.

In his NFL debut at Tampa Bay on Sept. 13, 2015, Mariota had a perfect 158.3 passer rating. However, his 15 attempts fell short of the 20 attempts required to qualify in the NFL's official record books.

#17 • QB RYAN TANNEHILL

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill (6-4, 207) is in his eighth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. He was originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a seventh-round pick in 2019 and a fourth-round selection in 2020 to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his first seven NFL seasons, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives.

In 2018, while being limited by injury to 11 starts, Tannehill threw for 1,979 yards and 17 touchdowns.

During the first four seasons of his career (2012-15), Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2019 Preseason Notes:

➤ At Philadelphia (8/8), making his preseason debut with the Titans, completed 12 of 16 passes for 130 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions a passer rating of 138.0. In the second quarter, he completed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end MyCole Pruitt to cap a nine-play, 89-yard drive. Two drives later, he threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Anthony Firkser, followed by a completion to wide receiver Darius Jennings for a two-point conversion.

➤ Against New England (8/17), playing in the second quarter, completed seven of 11 passes for 84 yards and a touchdown with a passer rating of 117.2. He capped a seven-play, 75-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown pass to running back Jeremy McNichols.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (8/25), played in the first and second quarters and totaled six completions for 62 yards on nine attempts (86.3 passer rating). He completed a 25-yard pass to Corey Davis in the first quarter.

Running back Derrick Henry (6-3, 247) is in his fourth NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Chris Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie, Henry played in 15 games with one start, sharing time in the backfield with DeMarco Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Chris Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while leading his team to a National Championship in 2015.

Henry played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

DECEMBER TO REMEMBER

In five games in the month of December 2018, Derrick Henry's rushing totals included 97 carries for 625 yards and eight touchdowns. His 625 yards were the most by any NFL player in any calendar month in 2018.

Additionally, Henry authored one of only four calendar months for the franchise since 1970 in which a player rushed for at least 600 yards. Chris Johnson (800 rushing yards in November 2009) and Earl Campbell (633 in October 1980; 662 in November 1980) were the organization's only other players to accomplish the feat in that timespan.

Henry's December rushing totals included 40 yards against the New York Jets (Dec. 2), a franchise-record 238 yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 6), 170 yards at the New York Giants (Dec. 16), 84 yards against the Washington Redskins (Dec. 22) and 93 yards against the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 30).

For his efforts, Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month.

Titans/Oilers with 500 rushing yards in any calendar month from 1970-2018 (includes playoffs):

Player	Season	Month	Rushing Yards
1. Chris Johnson	2009	November	800

RUSHING TDs OF 50+ YARDS

From the time he entered the NFL as a second-round draft pick in 2016 through 2018, Derrick Henry had four touchdown runs of at least 50 yards, including two such runs—from 99 yards and 54 yards—on Dec. 6, 2018 against the Jacksonville Jaguars. Henry also had touchdown runs in 2017 of 75 yards (Dec. 3 vs. Houston) and 72 yards (Oct. 16 vs. Indianapolis).

Henry and New York Giants running back Saquon Barkley tied with the most such runs in the NFL from 2016–2018. They accounted for eight of the 62 touchdown runs of 50-plus yards in that time period. Isaiah Crowell placed third with three touchdown runs of 50-plus yards.

Henry, Chris Johnson (11) and DeMarco Murray (two) are the only other Tennessee players in the "Titans era" (1999–present) with more than one total rushing touchdown of at least 50 yards.

Most rushing touchdowns of 50 yards or more from 2016–2018:

Player	Team	Rushing TDs
1. Derrick Henry	Tennessee Titans	4
Saquon Barkley	New York Giants	4
3. Isaiah Crowell	Cleveland/N.Y. Jets	3
4. (12 tied)		2

FOUR CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH RUSHING TD

Derrick Henry scored at least one rushing touchdown in four consecutive contests in 2018. The streak included games against the New York Jets (Dec. 2), Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 6), at the New York Giants (Dec. 16) and against the Washington Redskins (Dec. 22).

Henry's streak tied for the fourth-longest such streak in franchise history. DeMarco Murray (2016) and Earl Campbell (twice—1979 and 1983) hold the record with five consecutive games with a rushing touchdown.

Most consecutive team games with a rushing touchdown, franchise history:

Player	Season	Consec. Games with a Rushing TD
1. DeMarco Murray	2016	5
Earl Campbell	1983	5
Earl Campbell	1979	5
4. Derrick Henry	2018	4

RECORD-SETTING NIGHT

On Dec. 6, 2018, Derrick Henry had one of the most memorable rushing performances in NFL history on Thursday Night Football. He rushed for a team-record 238 yards and four touchdowns (tied), including a 99-yard touchdown run.

WATCH: Highlights from Derrick Henry's performance on 12/6/18

Henry's 238 rushing yards set a new franchise record, breaking Chris Johnson's mark of 228 yards against the Jaguars on Nov. 1, 2009. It was the highest single-game rushing total in the NFL in 2018 and the league's highest total since Doug Martin's 251 rushing yards for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers against the Oakland Raiders on Nov. 4, 2012.

Most rushing yards in a game, franchise history:

Player	Date	Opponent	Rushing Yards
1. Derrick Henry	12/6/18	Jacksonville	238
2. Chris Johnson	11/1/09	Jacksonville	228
3. Eddie George	8/31/97	Oakland	216
Billy Cannon	12/10/61	at New York	216
5. Earl Campbell	11/16/80	at Chicago	203
Earl Campbell	10/19/80	Tampa Bay	203
7. Earl Campbell	10/26/80	Cincinnati	202
8. Eddie George	12/9/99	Oakland	199
Earl Campbell	11/20/78	Miami	199
10. Chris Johnson	9/20/09	Houston	197

In the second quarter, Henry took a handoff from Marcus Mariota inside his own one-yard line and raced 99 yards for a touchdown. It was the second 99-yard run in NFL history, tying Tony Dorsett's record-setting touchdown run for the Dallas Cowboys against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

Longest runs from scrimmage in NFL history:

Player	Team	Date	Opponent	Rushing Yards
1. Derrick Henry	Tennessee	12/6/18	Jacksonville	99t
Tony Dorsett	Dallas	1/3/83	Minnesota	99t
3. Ahman Green	Green Bay	12/28/03	Denver	98t
4. Lamar Miller	Houston	11/26/18	Tennessee	97t
Lamar Miller	Miami	12/28/14	N.Y. Jets	97t
Andy Uram	Green Bay	10/8/39	Chi. Cardinals	97t
Bob Gage	Pittsburgh	12/4/49	Chi. Bears	97t

Henry scored on a three-yard run in the first quarter, a 99-yard run in the second quarter, a 16-yard run in the third quarter, and finally a 54-yard run in the third quarter. He tied the franchise record and became the third player in franchise history to rush for four touchdowns in a game, joining Earl Campbell (against Miami on Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (against Cleveland on Dec. 9, 1990).

The only franchise player with more overall touchdowns in a game than Henry was Oilers running back Billy Cannon, who had five total touchdowns (three rushing, two receiving) at the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961. Henry became the first NFL player with four rushing touchdowns in a game since New England Patriots running back Jonas Gray at Indianapolis on Nov. 16, 2014.

Most rushing touchdowns in a game, franchise history:

Player	Date	Opponent	Rushing Touchdowns
1. Derrick Henry	12/6/18	Jacksonville	4
Lorenzo White	12/9/90	Cleveland	4
Earl Campbell	11/20/78	Miami	4
4. (several tied)			3

Additionally, Henry's rushing performance against the Jaguars accomplished the following:

- He became the ninth NFL player since 1975 with at least one 90-yard run and at least one 60-yard reception in his career. The others were Tony Dorsett, Garrison Hearst, Tiki Barber, Chris Johnson, Jamaal Charles, Herschel Walker, Warrick Dunn and Adrian Peterson.
- Henry became the seventh NFL player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least four rushing touchdowns and at least 200 rushing yards in a game, joining Clinton Portis, Barry Sanders, Doug Martin, Jonas Gray, Mike Anderson and Corey Dillon. Henry became the first to accomplish the feat in fewer than 20 carries (17).
- Henry recorded his NFL-high three rushing attempts of at least 70 yards since the beginning of the 2017. Leonard Fournette (two) was the only other player with more than one through 14 weeks of the 2018 campaign.
- He matched former Titans running back Chris Johnson as the only players in NFL history with a rushing touchdown of at least 90 yards and a rushing touchdown of at least 50 yards in the same game. Johnson accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009.
- His 24 points tied for the fourth-highest single-game total in franchise history, trailing only Billy Cannon (30 on Dec. 10, 1961), Rob Bironas (26 on Oct. 21, 2007) and George Blanda (26 on Sept. 18, 1960). Earl Campbell (Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (Dec. 9, 1990) also had 24 points on four touchdowns in a single game.
- His 238 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns were each the most in any Thursday Night Football game in history.

#33 • RB DION LEWIS

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Running back Dion Lewis (5-8, 195) is in his eighth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent from the New England Patriots on March 16, 2018.

Lewis' 2018 totals included 155 carries for 517 yards and one touchdown. Additionally, he ranked second on the squad with a career-high 59 receptions, and his 400 receiving yards also set a career benchmark and ranked third on the team. His reception total was the third-highest in franchise history by a running back and the most since Todd McNair's 60 receptions in 1995.

Lewis spent his first two seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles (2011-12) before stops with the Cleveland Browns (2013), Indianapolis Colts (2014) and Patriots (2015-17). He arrived in Tennessee with 329 career carries for 1,584 yards and 10 touchdowns in 54 games (19 starts), plus 88 receptions for 717 yards and five scores. He also averaged 22.9 yards on 57 career kickoff returns with one touchdown prior to signing with the Titans.

In 2017, Lewis led the Patriots with 896 rushing yards on 180 carries with six touchdowns. In the last eight games of the campaign, he led the NFL with 625 rushing yards. Compared to all running backs with 150 or more rushing attempts, his per-carry average of 4.98 yards led the NFL.

In 2016, Lewis returned from injury to play in seven regular season games with five starts and total 64 rushing attempts for 283 yards and 17 receptions for 94 yards. He helped the Patriots capture the Super Bowl title by playing in all three playoff games with two starts. He contributed in all three phases - rushing 25 times for 79 yards and a touchdown, catching five passes for 33 yards and a touchdown and returning five kickoffs for 162 yards and a touchdown.

Lewis played two seasons at the University of Pittsburgh (2009-10), where he finished fourth on the school's all-time rushing list with 2,860 yards.

The Albany, N.Y., native was originally selected by the Philadelphia Eagles in the fifth round (149th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), recorded two carries for seven yards.
- Against New England (8/17), totaled 16 yards on four rushing attempts and added a nine-yard reception.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), recorded one rush for zero yards.

#81 • TE JONNU SMITH

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Tight end Jonnu Smith (6-3, 248) is in his third NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (100th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

Smith's 2018 campaign came to a premature end. He suffered a knee injury against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6 and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on Dec. 11. Prior to the injury, he played in 13 games with 12 starts and achieved career highs with 20 receptions, 258 receiving yards and three touchdowns. He led the club's tight ends in all three categories at the time of his injury.

During the 2017 regular season, Smith was one of three rookie tight ends to appear in all 16 games (Gerald Everett and David Njoku) and one of two rookie tight ends with at least 13 starts (O.J. Howard). He caught 18 passes for 157 yards and two touchdowns, ranking fifth among all rookie tight end in receptions. He also caught three passes for 19 yards in two postseason games.

Smith concluded his four-year career at Florida International University's all-time leader among tight ends in receptions and receiving yards, totaling 178 receptions for 2,001 yards and 18 touchdowns. On the school's all-time receiving list, regardless of position, Smith finished fourth in receptions, fifth in receiving yards and third in receiving touchdowns.

Smith finished his career registering at least one reception in every game he played. The 43-game streak was the second-longest streak of its kind in school annals.

During his senior campaign, he started 11 games and earned second-team All-Conference USA honors. He registered 42 receptions for 506 yards and four touchdowns.

As a sophomore (2014), led all college tight ends with 61 receptions, 710 receiving yards and eight touchdown catches.

Smith is a native of Philadelphia, Pa.

2019 Preseason Notes:

➤ Placed on the physically unable to perform list to begin training camp.

➤ Removed from the physically unable to perform list on Aug. 19

➤ Against Pittsburgh (8/25), did not play.

SMITH EXCEEDS 600 SNAPS

A year after leading all rookie tight ends with 13 starts in 2017, Jonnu Smith continued to see a high rate of offensive snaps in 2018, his second NFL season.

Despite spending the final three contests on injured reserve, he participated in 609 total offensive snaps in 2018 (including penalized plays), a total that ranked fourth among all tight ends in their rookie, first-year or second-year seasons. The only three such tight ends with more offensive snaps than Smith were San Francisco's George Kittle (925), Cleveland's David Njoku (863) and the New York Jets' Christopher Herndon (624).

Smith's offensive play total ranked third among all non-linemen on the Titans. Only wide receiver Corey Davis (870) and quarterback Marcus Mariota (773) had more.

Most offensive snaps in 2018 among rookie, first-year and second-year tight ends (includes offensive plays called back due to penalty):

#82 • TE DELANIE WALKERCLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Tight end Delanie Walker (6-0, 248) is in his 14th NFL season and his seventh campaign with the Titans in 2018. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2013 after spending the first seven years of his career with the San Francisco 49ers.

Walker's 2018 campaign came to a sudden and premature end. He was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 10 due to a leg injury he suffered in the season opener at Miami the previous day.

In Walker's time with the Titans, he has put his name among the top players in franchise history at his position. From 2013–2017, he totaled 356 receptions for 4,156 yards and 26 touchdowns. All three numbers put him second in club history behind only Frank Wycheck (482 receptions for 4,958 yards and 27 touchdowns). In the same five seasons, no NFL tight end totaled more receptions than Walker.

Walker posted at least 60 receptions in each of his first five seasons in Tennessee. Prior to his arrival, Wycheck was the only Titans/Oilers tight end to reach the plateau in a single campaign. Walker also recorded the top four single-season receiving yardage totals in franchise history among tight ends from 2014–2017.

Walker and Kansas City's Travis Kelce were the NFL's only tight ends to post at least 800 receiving yards every season from 2014–2017.

In 2017, Walker was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl after leading the club with 74 receptions and 807 receiving yards. His three touchdown catches ranked second on the squad. Among all NFL tight ends, his reception total tied for third place, and his yardage total ranked fourth.

In 2016, Walker tied for the team lead with 65 catches for 800 yards and a career-high seven touchdowns, and he was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl. He ranked sixth in receiving yards among NFL tight ends, and he was second in the AFC behind only Kansas City's Travis Kelce. Also among tight ends, his reception total tied for eighth in the NFL, and his touchdown total tied for third.

In 2015, Walker set new team records among tight ends with 94 receptions and 1,088 receiving yards. He broke his own receiving yardage record (890 in 2014) and Wycheck's reception record (70 in 1998 and 2000) for franchise tight ends. On the team's all-time single-season receptions list, regardless of position, Walker tied wide receiver Kendall Wright (94 receptions in 2013) for the fifth-highest total. Walker's 94 receptions tied Jason Witten (94 catches in 2009 and 2010) for the 10th–highest total in NFL history by a tight end.

In 2014, Walker's team-leading 890 receiving yards set a then-career high and set a new standard among Titans/Oilers tight ends, eclipsing Wycheck's 768 receiving yards in 1998. Walker's 63 receptions in 2014 at the time also led the team, set a career high, and tied for fourth in team annals.

Appearing in 15 games with 11 starts in 2013, he totaled 60 receptions for 571 yards and six touchdowns. He set then-career highs in all three categories. Also, he became the only tight end in franchise history other than Wycheck to reach 60 receptions in a single season. Wycheck accomplished the feat five times from 1997 through 2001, including 70 receptions in both 1998 and 2000 to establish the record for Titans/Oilers tight ends. Walker's six touchdown receptions tied for fourth place in franchise history among tight ends and were the most since Wycheck's six in 1996.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, the former sixth-round pick appeared in 99 career regular-season games with the 49ers (40 starts) and totaled 123 receptions for 1,465 yards (11.9 avg.) and eight touchdowns. A regular contributor on special teams, Walker posted 61 special teams tackles as well as 31 kickoff returns for 528 yards during his time in San Francisco.

In 2012, Walker played an integral role in the 49ers' second consecutive playoff season, as he teamed with Vernon Davis to form one of the NFL's top tight-end duos. He saw action in all 16 regular-season games (four starts) and set a career high with 344 yards and three touchdowns (matched career high) on 21 receptions. His average of 16.4 yards per catch was the highest among all NFL tight ends with 20 or more catches.

During the 2012 playoffs, he appeared in all three games and started in Super Bowl XLVII. In the Super Bowl, he recorded three receptions for 48 yards.

Walker was a sixth-round pick in the 2006 NFL Draft. As a rookie, he appeared in only seven games with one start. Then, in 2007, he played in all 16 contests and set a career high with 10 starts. It began a string of six seasons (2007-12) during which he missed a total of four games. In 2010, he set his career high with 29 receptions.

A native of Pomona, Calif., Walker spent two seasons (2002-03) at Mt. San Antonio (Calif.) Community College before joining the University of Central Missouri Mules for his final two collegiate campaigns (2004-05). As a wide receiver at Central Missouri, he caught 113 passes for 1,347 yards in 20 games. The 49ers selected him with the 175th overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), did not play.
- Against New England (8/17), played in a game for the first time since suffering an injury in the 2018 season opener at Miami (Sept. 9). He caught two passes for 26 yards and a score. In the first quarter, he capped a long scoring drive with an 11-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Marcus Mariota.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), started at tight end.

SEASON RECEPTIONS BY NFL TIGHT ENDS

In 2015, Titans tight end Delanie Walker set a new standard for franchise tight ends, accumulating 94 receptions.

Additionally, Walker became the ninth tight end in NFL history to reach 90 catches in a season. Previously, eight tight ends in history produced 16 total 90-catch seasons. Tony Gonzalez (five), Jason Witten (four) and Todd Christensen (two) all have multiple 90-reception campaigns. Dallas Clark, Jimmy Graham, Ben Coates, Martellus Bennett and Rob Gronkowski are the others to reach the mark.

At the time, Walker's 94 catches in a season put him in a tie for the 10th-most in NFL history, equaling Witten's 2009 and 2010 numbers.

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Wide receiver A.J. Brown (6-1, 226) was selected by the Titans in the second round (51st overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During a three-year career at Mississippi (2016-18), Brown became the program's all-time leading receiver with 2,984 yards. He ranked third in school history with 189 receptions and fifth all-time with 19 touchdowns. Brown averaged 15.8 yards per catch and 82.9 yards per game, and he tallied the most 100-yard receiving games in Ole Miss history with 12. He became the only receiver in Ole Miss history to tally 60 or more receptions in back-to-back seasons.

In 2018, Brown started all 12 games and set Ole Miss' single-season receiving records in yards (1,320) and catches (85), leading the SEC in both categories. His 1,320 receiving yards ranked seventh in the nation. Brown caught six touchdowns, averaging 110.0 yards per game, and he topped the 100-yard receiving mark in six contests. He earned AP first-team All-SEC and third-team All-American honors for the second consecutive season.

Brown was selected in the 19th round of the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres as a centerfielder and he participated in the team's extended spring training program each summer from 2016-18.

He is a native of Starkville, Miss.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), did not play.
- Against New England (8/17), made his preseason debut and drew a 27-yard pass interference that led to a Titans touchdown on the next play.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), recorded a 10-yard reception in the second quarter to notch the first catch of his rookie preseason.

#84 • WR COREY DAVIS

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Wide receiver Corey Davis (6-3, 209) is in his third NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans with the fifth overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft.

Davis led the Titans offense in 2018 with 65 receptions, 891 receiving yards and four touchdowns. His yardage total ranked ninth among all AFC wide receivers.

As a rookie, Davis totaled 34 receptions for 375 yards in 11 games (nine starts). He started both postseason contests and contributed nine receptions for 98 yards and a team-high two touchdowns.

In four seasons at Western Michigan (2013–2016), Davis played and started 50 games. He registered 332 career receptions for 5,285 yards and 52 touchdowns, setting the Mid-American Conference record in each category and becoming the only player in FBS history with 300 catches, 5,000 yards and 50 touchdowns. His 5,285 career receiving yards were the most in FBS history, and he ended his career ranked second all-time in FBS history with 52 career receiving touchdowns (60 by Jarrett Dillard). Davis' 332 career receptions ranked fourth all-time in FBS annals.

As a senior, he set career highs with 97 receptions, 1,500 receiving yards and 19 touchdowns, ranking eighth, seventh and first (tied) in the FBS, respectively. He helped the Broncos win the MAC and go undefeated until suffering their first loss in the Cotton Bowl. Davis' record-setting, All-American campaign included five games of 100-plus yards and six games of two or more receiving touchdowns.

Davis is a native of Wheaton, Ill.

#78 • T JACK CONKLIN

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Jack Conklin is in his fourth NFL season in 2019. The 6-foot-6, 308-pound tackle was selected by the Titans with the eighth pick in the first round of the NFL Draft.

Conklin's 2018 season came to an end with three games remaining due to a knee injury he suffered against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6. Prior to going on injured reserve, he played and started in nine games on the season, all at right tackle.

Conklin started every game at right tackle in his first two seasons, including all 16 games in the 2017 regular season and both postseason games. However, he suffered a torn ACL during the second and final playoff contest at New England. The injury led him to spend all of training camp and preseason in 2018 on the physically unable to perform list.

As a rookie, Conklin became the team's first player to start all 16 games at left or right tackle as a rookie since Michael Roos in 2005. He was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Conklin was named an alternate for the Pro Bowl and was named first-team Associated Press All-Pro. He became the first Titans player to receive first-team All-Pro honors since running back Chris Johnson in 2009 and the first Titans rookie to receive the honor since defensive end Jevon Kearse in 1999. Conklin joined Dallas guard Zack Martin (2014) as the only rookie offensive linemen since the AFL-NFL merger to be named first-team AP All-Pro.

Conklin became the first draft pick by new general manager Jon Robinson. The Titans, who initially had the first pick in the draft but traded with the Los Angeles Rams back to the 15th spot, made a deal with the Cleveland Browns to jump up to the eighth spot to select Conklin. The Titans gave up a third-round pick and a second-rounder in 2017 in the trade and also got back a sixth-rounder.

The Michigan State product was a walk-on for the Spartans but went on to become the first Michigan State offensive lineman to be selected in the first round since 1989 (Tony Mandarich) and also the highest drafted Spartan since wide receiver Charles Rogers (No. 2) in 2003.

A native of Plainwell, Mich., Conklin was a three-year starter at left tackle for the Spartans. He started 38 of his 39 career games (35 at left tackle, three at right tackle) and recorded more than 235 career knockdowns. Three of his career starts at left tackle came in bowl games (2014 Rose, 2015 Cotton, 2016 College Football Playoff Semifinal at Cotton Bowl).

In his final season on campus, Conklin was named second-team All-American by The Associated Press and was on numerous All-Big Ten teams.

32 STARTS IN TWO SEASONS

Right tackle Jack Conklin recorded 16 starts in his second season. In doing so, he joined a total of four other former Titans and two offensive linemen in a rare feat.

Since the team became the Titans in 1999, Conklin is in a group of five players who have started all 32 games from the time they were drafted through the end of their second seasons. He joined defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999–2000), safety Tank Williams (2002–2003), offensive tackle Michael Roos (2005–2006) and guard Chance Warmack (2013–2014).

Players who have started all 32 games in their first two NFL seasons during the "Titans era" (1999–present):

#60 • C BEN JONES

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Center Ben Jones (6-3, 308) is in his eighth NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2016.

Jones started all 16 games at center in 2018, registering a start in every contest for the fifth consecutive season, dating back to his third year in Houston (2014).

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. The veteran was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Over the following four seasons, he started contests at center and both guard spots. He was a starter on two playoff teams in Houston (2012 and 2015).

In 2015, Jones started every game at center, extending his streak of consecutive regular season games played to 64, which was the second-longest active streak among NFL centers at the conclusion of the season.

A native of Centreville, Ala., Jones attended the University of Georgia, where his 49 total starts ranked third in school annals. He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

#71 • G/T DENNIS KELLY

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Dennis Kelly (6-8, 321) is in his eighth NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was acquired in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles on Aug. 16, 2016. In exchange for Kelly, the Titans dealt wide receiver Dorial Green-Beckham to the Eagles.

Kelly played in 11 games in 2018 with five starts at right tackle. It was the third-highest start total of his career.

Kelly played in all 16 games in both 2016 and 2017. During that time he had a regular role in the team's "heavy" personnel package and earned six total starts—six in 2016 and one in 2017. He helped the Titans rush for an average of 136.7 yards per game in 2016, which ranked third in the NFL.

Kelly entered the NFL as a fifth-round selection by the Eagles in the 2012 NFL Draft. In four seasons with the Eagles, he recorded 15 starts and 30 games played. He recorded nine starts with the Eagles at right tackle, four starts at right guard and two starts at left guard.

A native of Chicago Heights, Ill., Kelly was a team captain and a two-time offensive MVP at Purdue. He started his final three seasons at left tackle for the Boilermakers.

#77 • T TAYLOR LEWAN

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Tackle Taylor Lewan (6-7, 309) is in his sixth NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick of the 2014 NFL Draft and received a multi-year contract extension in 2018.

Lewan was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season in 2018. He played and started in 15 of the team's 16 games at left tackle, marking his fourth consecutive season with at least 15 starts.

In 2017, Lewan became the team's first offensive lineman to make multiple Pro Bowls since center Kevin Mawae from 2008–2009. Lewan started all 16 games for the second consecutive season in 2017 and added starts in both postseason contests.

In 2016, Lewan started all 16 games for the first time. The left tackle was the anchor a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

In 2015, Lewan started the first 15 games of the season at left tackle before missing the finale with a concussion.

As a rookie in 2014, Lewan played in 11 games with six starts before suffering an ankle injury. He played as a reserve for the first five games and then started in six consecutive contests before the injury caused him to be inactive the final five weeks. For his efforts, Lewan was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team.

In four seasons at Michigan, Lewan appeared in 50 games with 48 starts at left tackle. He started the final 41 games of his career and was named the Big Ten Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2012 and 2013. As a senior in 2013, he started all 13 games at left tackle for the third consecutive season and was named second-team Associated Press All-American.

At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, he ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen in the last five years (2010-14). He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

A native of Cave Creek, Ariz., Lewan became the first offensive tackle selected by the Titans/Oilers in the first round since tackle Brad Hopkins (13th overall) in 1993.

#99 • DT JURRELL CASEY

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Defensive lineman Jurrell Casey (6-1, 305) is in his ninth NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (77th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

A five-time defensive captain and a two-time Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, Casey was named to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl at the conclusion of the 2018 season. However, his season was cut short due to a knee injury he suffered on Dec. 22 against Washington.

Prior to the injury, he started 15 games and totaled 72 tackles, seven sacks, seven tackles for loss, a career-high 50 quarterback pressures, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. It marked the third time in his career he totaled at least seven sacks.

Casey finished his 2018 campaign in eighth place in franchise history with 46 career sacks. His total ranked second among all defenders in the "Titans era" behind only Jevon Kearse's 52 sacks.

In 2017, Casey started all 16 games and set a career high with 35 quarterback pressures, which ranked second on the team. His six sacks also ranked second on the squad, as he reached the mark for the third time in his career.

With six sacks in 2017, Casey became the first player for the team since Ray Childress (1986–1994) to register five or more consecutive seasons with at least five sacks.

In 2016, Casey started 15 games and set a then-career high with 29 quarterback pressures in addition to 51 tackles, five sacks, three tackles for loss and five passes defended. He became the first player for the team in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to register four consecutive seasons with at least five sacks.

In 2015, he started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and for the third time in his career. He led the team's defensive linemen with 86 tackles and tied Brian Orakpo for the team lead with seven sacks, the second-best total in Casey's career. Casey also set a then-career high and finished second on the team behind Orakpo with 28 quarterback pressures. He was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career.

Casey was named one of five permanent team captains by his teammates for the first time in 2014. While remaining a key cog in the defense's switch from a 4-3 to a 3-4 scheme, he started all 16 games and led the team's defensive linemen (fourth on the team) with 86 tackles. His 27 quarterback pressures and 13 tackles for loss tied for the team lead and set new career highs. With five sacks, he ranked second on the squad.

In 2013, Casey was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after putting together one of the best seasons by a defensive tackle in franchise history. His 10.5 sacks set a career high and made up the second-highest total by a franchise defensive tackle since sacks became an official statistic in 1982, finishing behind only Ray Childress' 13 sacks in 1992. In 2013, only Jason Hatcher of the Dallas Cowboys (11) finished with more sacks than Casey among defensive tackles.

Casey started 31 out of 32 games in his first two seasons, and in each campaign he led the team's defensive linemen in tackles. As a rookie, he notched 74 tackles and 2.5 sacks, and he followed with 80 tackles and three sacks in 2012.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Casey played in 38 games (26 starts) on the defensive line (24 at right defensive tackle and two at nose tackle) at the University of Southern California. He recorded 138 tackles, nine sacks, 22 tackles for loss, three quarterback pressures, four fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, an interception and three passes defended.

In his final season with the Trojans (2010), he started all 13 games for the second consecutive season and had 67 tackles, a team-best 11 tackles for loss, a team-leading 4.5 sacks, one interception, one fumble recovery and two passes defended. He was named first-team All-Pac 10.

#90 • DL DAQUAN JONES

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Defensive lineman DaQuan Jones (6-4, 322) is in his sixth NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (112th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft.

In 2018, Jones started all 16 games for the third time in his career. He tallied 39 tackles on the season, which was his second-highest career total, and added 14 quarterback pressures, a career-high four tackles for loss and one pass defended.

Jones was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 4, 2017 due to a bicep injury he suffered the previous day against the Houston Texans. It concluded a season in which he totaled a career-high 3.5 sacks, 36 tackles, one tackle for loss and nine quarterback pressures. The injury put an end to his streak of 45 consecutive starts.

Jones was one of two Titans who started every game from 2015–2016, holding down a spot at defensive end for consecutive seasons. Outside linebacker Brian Orakpo was the other member of the team to start every game in that time period.

As a rookie, Jones appeared in seven games with one start. He registered 13 tackles, a sack, three quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

A leader at Penn State during a time of turmoil, Jones started 23 of 46 college games, with all of his starting assignments coming during the last two seasons. Jones finished his career with 92 tackles, adding 4.5 sacks for minus 28 yards, 15.5 stops for losses totaling 55 yards, two fumble recoveries and a pass deflection.

As a senior in 2013, he started all 12 games at defensive tackle, finishing fifth on the team with a career-high 56 tackles (33 solos). His tackle total was the most for any interior defensive lineman in the Big Ten during the 2013 campaign. Jones was named first-team All-Big Ten by the league's coaches and second-team All-Conference by the media. He was named Penn State's Outstanding Senior Player and the recipient of the team's Reid-Robinson Award.

Jones is a native of Johnson City, N.Y.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), recorded one tackle.
- Against New England (8/17), registered one tackle.

#98 • DL JEFFERY SIMMONS

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons (6-4, 305) was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Simmons begins his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 in tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

Linebacker Jayon Brown (6-0, 226) is in his third NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans in the fifth round (155th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

Brown played in all 16 games with nine starts in 2018. He finished second on the defense with 107 tackles and six sacks, and his 18 quarterback pressures tied for the second-highest total on the team. He added six tackles for loss, seven passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. He was one of only six NFL linebackers with at least six sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery during the season.

As a rookie, Brown appeared in all 16 regular season games and both postseason games as the team's nickel linebacker. He registered 67 tackles, which tied for the 10th-highest total by a "Titans era" rookie (1999–present) and ranked fifth among the team's rookie linebackers in that span. His statistics also included 1.5 sacks, two tackles for loss, six quarterback pressures, four passes defended and one fumble recovery. He added five tackles in the playoffs.

In four seasons at UCLA (2013-16), Brown appeared in 49 games with 21 starts and totaled 220 tackles, three sacks, nine tackles for loss, three interceptions, 15 passes defended, one forced fumble and four fumble recoveries. He started 21 games over his final two seasons and totaled nine games with double-digit tackles.

As a senior in 2016, he earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors after leading the Bruins with 119 tackles, which tied for 16th on the all-time school single-season list. He added 2.5 sacks, seven tackles for loss, three interceptions, 23 passes defended and two fumble recoveries.

Brown is a native of Long Beach, Calif.

Linebacker Rashaan Evans (6-2, 232) is in his second NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans with the 22nd pick in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft. The Titans traded up from the 25th spot in order to take the former Alabama standout.

In his first NFL season, Evans overcame an injury that kept him out of the preseason. He played in 15 games during the regular season with seven starts at inside linebacker and totaled 63 tackles, six quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and three passes defensed.

In four seasons with the Crimson Tide (2014–2017), Evans appeared in 53 games with 14 starts and totaled 152 tackles, 15.0 sacks, 23.5 tackles for loss, five passes defensed, 19 quarterback hurries, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. During his four years there, he appeared in three CFP National Championship contests with two victories.

As a senior in 2017, Evans started 12 games and tied for the team lead with 74 tackles. He led the Crimson Tide with 13 tackles for loss despite missing a pair of games due to injury and also posted seven quarterback hurries, six sacks, three passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

Following his senior campaign, he was named a first-team All-American by the AFCA, earned first-team All-SEC honors from Associated Press and second-team All-SEC honors from the conference coaches.

Evans is a native of Auburn, Ala.

#59 • ILB WESLEY WOODYARD

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Linebacker Wesley Woodyard (6-0, 233) is in his 12th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2014.

Woodyard was named a team captain by his teammates in 2018 for the fifth time as a member of the Titans and for the 11th time in his career. He led the team with 124 tackles in 14 games (14 starts), posting the third-best tackle total of his career, and he tied for third on the squad with 4.5 sacks. He added 12 quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss, two passes defended and one fumble recovery.

In 2017, he enjoyed one of the best seasons of his career. He set career highs with 172 tackles, 17 tackles for loss, 15 quarterback pressures and two fumble recoveries and also had five sacks, which fell a half-sack short of his career benchmark (5.5 in 2012). In addition to setting a career high, Woodyard's 2017 tackle tally was one of the best marks by a defender in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present). In that time, his 172 tackles rank second to linebacker Keith Bulluck's 180 tackles in 2002.

In 2015, he recorded 12 starts, finished second on the team with 110 tackles and ranked third on the squad with five sacks. He added nine quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss, three passes defended, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and six special teams tackles.

In 2014, Woodyard's totals in his first season with the Titans included 16 starts and a career-high 134 tackles, which led the team.

Woodyard joined the Titans after spending the first six years of his career with the Denver Broncos. He appeared in 87 regular-season games with 40 starts. For his Broncos career, he totaled 396 tackles, eight sacks, five interceptions, six forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

As the middle linebacker from 2012-13, Woodyard started 24 total games and registered 197 tackles, seven sacks, four interceptions and three forced fumbles.

In 2012, Woodyard led the Broncos with a career-high 114 tackles. He ranked second on the squad in both 2013 (83) and 2011 (87).

Also in 2012, he was the only NFL player to record at least 100 tackles, five sacks and three interceptions. He was only the 12th NFL player to accomplish the feat over a 30-year span.

The LaGrange, Ga., native entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Kentucky. He earned first-team All-SEC honors during each of his final two seasons with the Wildcats.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), recorded a pair of tackles.
- Against New England (8/17), registered one tackle and added a stop on special teams.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), notched two tackles and added a stop on special teams.

SINGLE-SEASON TACKLE LEADERS SINCE '99

Inside linebacker Wesley Woodyard's 2017 campaign was one of the best of his 10-year NFL career and one of the finest by any player in a Tennessee Titans uniform. His regular season totals included 172 tackles (104 solo, 68 assists), five sacks, 17 tackles for loss, 15 quarterback pressures and two fumble recoveries—all career highs except for sacks, which fell a half-sack short of his career benchmark (5.5 in 2012).

In addition to a career high, Woodyard's tackle tally was one of the best marks by a defender in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present). In that time, his 172 tackles rank second to linebacker Keith Bulluck's 180 tackles in 2002.

The published tackle statistics are taken from the Titans coaches' film review and can differ from "press box statistics."

Most tackles in a season by a Titans player, 1999-2017 (tackle statistics from coaches' film review):

20 TACKLES IN A GAME

Against the Baltimore Ravens on Nov. 5, 2017, Wesley Woodyard was credited with 20 tackles, as determined by the defensive coaching staff's film review*. He had 13 solo stops and seven assists.

In the "Titans era" (since 1999), Woodyard became the team's first player to record 20 tackles in a game. Previously, former linebackers Brad Kassell (Jan. 2, 2005 vs. Detroit) and Keith Bulluck (Sept. 28, 2003 at Pittsburgh) shared the distinction of having the most tackles in a single game during the Titans era with 19 each.

Prior to Woodyard's performance in 2017, the last Titans player to have as many as 16 tackles in a game was Avery Williamson against the Carolina Panthers on Nov. 15, 2015. At the time, Williamson was only the ninth player to record 16 tackles in a game, and he was the first to accomplish the feat since Michael Griffin had 18 total stops at San Diego on Sept. 16, 2012.

Most total tackles in a game by a Titans defender, 1999–present (all totals from coaches' film review):

Player	Date	Opponent	Total Tackles*
1. Wesley Woodyard	Nov. 5, 2017	Baltimore	20
2. Brad Kassell	Jan. 2, 2005	Detroit	19

Sharif Finch (6-4, 250) is in his second NFL season in 2019. He was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 11, 2018.

As a rookie, he appeared in 15 games and totaled 22 tackles, 1.5 sacks, two quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Additionally, he ranked fifth on the team with seven special teams tackles.

Finch's 206 defensive snaps (including penalty snaps) ranked third among all undrafted rookie linebackers in 2018, and his defensive snap count also topped all other Titans undrafted rookies going back to 2005. Sean Conover owned the mark from 2005–2017 with 189 defensive snaps in 2006.

A native of Henrico, Va., Finch appeared in 53 games with 25 starts over five seasons at Temple. His career numbers included 144 total tackles, 32.0 tackles for loss, 14.5 sacks, two interceptions for 91 yards and a score, five forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries with one touchdown. Additionally, he became the NCAA leader for career punt blocks with five. His 53 games played tied for first place in program history.

As a fifth-year senior in 2017, his team-leading 8.5 sacks set a single-season career high, and he earned Second Team All-American Athletic Conference and ECAC first-team All-East recognition.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), started at outside linebacker and contributed one tackle for loss in the second quarter.
- Against New England (8/17), in the second quarter, forced a holding call in the end zone that resulted in a safety. He added one tackle.

#91 • OLB CAMERON WAKE

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Outside linebacker Cameron Wake (6-3, 263) is in his 11th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent from the Miami Dolphins on March 15, 2019.

In 10 seasons with the Dolphins, Wake totaled 98 sacks to rank second in franchise history. He is a five-time Pro Bowl selection (2010, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2016) and a four-time Associated Press All-Pro (first team 2010 and 2012; second team 2014 and 2016).

Only Pro Football Hall of Famer Jason Taylor (131) has more sacks in Dolphins history than Wake. From 2009 through 2018, Wake's 98 sacks tied Von Miller for the highest total in the NFL, and entering 2019, only Terrell Suggs (132.5) had more sacks among all active players.

Additionally, Wake ranked second in the NFL with 213 total quarterback hits from 2009–2018, trailing only J.J. Watt (244).

In 146 career games in Miami (126 starts), Wake's totals also included 348 tackles, one interception, 15 passes defended, 22 forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. The durable veteran experienced only one season (2015) in which he missed more than two games due to injury.

In 2018, Wake played and started in 14 games and contributed six sacks, 36 tackles, one pass defended and one forced fumble.

Originally signed by the New York Giants as an undrafted free agent in 2005, Wake played for the Canadian Football League's B.C. Lions in 2007 and 2008 and was named the CFL Defensive Player of the Year both seasons. He then joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 2009.

A native of Hyattsville, Md., Wake was a four-year letterman at Penn State, where he totaled 191 tackles and 8.5 sacks as a linebacker and defensive end.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8) and against New England (8/17), did not play.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), started at outside linebacker in his Titans preseason debut.

#21 • CB MALCOLM BUTLER

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Cornerback Malcolm Butler (5-11, 190) is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 16, 2018.

Butler led the Titans with 13 passes defended in his first season as a Titan and was second on the team with three interceptions, which included an interception return for a touchdown. He added 56 tackles, one sack, one quarterback pressure, three tackles for loss and one forced fumble in 16 games (11 starts).

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Butler spent the first four seasons of his career with the New England Patriots. During his time in New England, he appeared in 59 career regular season games with 48 starts and amassed 204 tackles, eight interceptions, 47 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Butler appeared in 11 career playoff games with seven starts with the Patriots. He started all three postseason contests on the Patriots' run to the Super Bowl LI title in 2016 and made the crucial, game-winning interception at the goal line in New England's Super Bowl XLIX victory over the Seattle Seahawks to conclude the 2014 campaign.

In 2017, he played in all 16 games during the regular season with 15 starts and amassed 60 tackles, two interceptions, a sack, 12 passes defended and three forced fumbles. He saw action in all three postseason games (two starts) and posted four tackles.

In 2016, Butler earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl invitation and was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after starting all 16 regular season games and recording 63 tackles, one sack, a career-high four interceptions and 17 passes defended.

As a rookie free agent in 2014, Butler was involved in one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl history. With 26 seconds remaining against the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XLIX, he intercepted a pass intended for Ricardo Lockette at the goal line, preventing a go-ahead touchdown by the Seahawks and sealing New England's championship victory.

The Vicksburg, Miss., native was originally signed by the New England Patriots on May 19, 2014, following two seasons at the University of West Alabama, where he was a two-time first team All-Gulf South Conference selection at cornerback. He transferred to West Alabama from Hinds (Miss.) Community College.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), started at cornerback.
- Against New England (8/17), started at cornerback.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), posted one tackle.

#25 • CB ADOREE' JACKSON

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Cornerback Adoree' Jackson (5-11, 185) is in his third NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans with the 18th overall pick in the first round of the 2017 NFL Draft.

In 2018, Jackson appeared in all 16 games for the second consecutive season with 13 starts. He set single-season career highs with 69 tackles and two interceptions. His 11 passes defensed ranked second on the squad, and he added one quarterback pressure and three tackles for loss. He also handled the team's punt return duties, averaging 9.3 yards on 16 returns.

In 2017, Jackson was the first rookie cornerback for the team in the "Titans era" (1999-present) to record 16 starts. His 1,260 total plays (1,017 defensive snaps, 231 special teams snaps and 12 offensive snaps) ranked second in the NFL among all players behind only Arizona Cardinals safety Tyrann Mathieu (1,261).

Jackson's rookie defensive totals included a team-high 23 passes defensed, 67 tackles, four tackles for loss, one quarterback pressures and three forced fumbles (tied for team lead). He ranked fifth in the NFL with 290 punt return yards (34 returns), ranked sixth in the NFL with a 23.1-yard kickoff return average (25 returns), and finished sixth with 868 combined kickoff return and punt return yards. He added 55 yards on five rushing attempts.

In three seasons at Southern California, Jackson appeared in 39 games with 36 starts. Although he was a starter at cornerback, he was a three-way threat, contributing as a returner and on offense. He scored 15 total touchdowns during his career in four different ways: via reception (6), interception (1), punt return (4) and kickoff return (4).

Jackson's career defensive totals with the Trojans included 139 tackles, 29 passes defensed, six interceptions, six stops for loss, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles.

As a return specialist, Jackson notched 79 kickoff returns for 2,141 yards with four touchdowns and 46 punt returns for 578 yards with four touchdowns. He tied two NCAA records with his eight career touchdowns on kick/punt returns and nine touchdowns on all runbacks. He also set Southern California career records for kickoff returns and kickoff return yards.

As a junior in 2016, Jackson was awarded the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Additionally, he was a consensus All-American, the 2016 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, a team captain and the team MVP (the first Trojan to repeat as team MVP since 2004-05), and he earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors at two different positions (defensive back and return specialist). He started all 13 games at cornerback and led the team with five interceptions, 11 passes defensed and two fumble recoveries. He scored twice on kickoff returns, twice on punt returns and once on offense.

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Jackson also made his name as a world-class track athlete. He was a long jumper and sprinter on USC's track team in 2015 and 2016, winning the Pac-12 outdoor long jump title both years (and placing second in the Pac-12 100 meters in 2016) and earning All-American status both years after twice placing fifth in the NCAA long jump. He also placed 10th in the long jump in the U.S. Olympic Trials.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), recorded two passes defensed and a 10-yard punt return.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), posted one tackle.

MOST TOTAL SNAPS IN 2017

Cornerback Adoree' Jackson was on the field more than any other Titans player and almost more than every other NFL player in 2017. He was the first rookie cornerback for the team in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start all 16 games in the regular season, and he and Buffalo's Tre'Davious White were only NFL rookie cornerbacks to record 16 starts in 2017.

Jackson played 1,017 defensive snaps while also serving as the team's primary returner and even lining up on offense occasionally. His 231 special teams snaps and 12 offensive snaps brought his season total to 1,260 total plays.

The only NFL player in 2017 to participate in more plays than Jackson was Arizona Cardinals safety Tyrann Mathieu, who recorded 1,261 snaps—1,046 on defense and 215 on special teams. The next-closest rookie behind Jackson was New York Jets safety Jamal Adams, who was on the field for 1,205 total plays.

Second-year safety Kevin Byard ranked second on the Titans with 1,153 total snaps in 2017.

#26 • CB LOGAN RYAN

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Cornerback Logan Ryan (5-11, 195) is in his seventh NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 11, 2017.

Ryan's 2018 season came to an early conclusion after he suffered a season-ending leg injury on Dec. 16 at the New York Giants. He was placed on injured reserve two days later. Prior to the injury, he played and started in 14 games and collected 85 tackles, a career-high four sacks, one tackle for loss, one quarterback pressure and eight passes defended. At the time of his injury, his four sacks were tied (Minnesota's Mackensie Alexander) for the NFL lead among cornerbacks.

Ryan set a career high in 2017 with 15 starts during the regular season and totaled 73 tackles, 14 passes defended, two quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and one forced fumble. He added 12 tackles, one pass defended and one tackle for loss in two postseason starts.

Ryan spent his first four NFL seasons in New England, where he was a contributor to two Super Bowl titles. He played in 64 games with the Patriots, including 40 starts, and totaled 13 interceptions, 41 passes defended, 251 tackles, two sacks and three forced fumbles. His 13 interceptions from 2013–2016 ranked seventh among NFL corners.

In 2016, Ryan led the Patriots in tackles (92), also adding two interceptions, 11 passes defended and one sack as part of a defense that was ranked first in points allowed and eighth in yards allowed.

In 2013, he played all 16 regular season games with seven starts as a rookie. He led all NFL rookies and tied for the AFC lead with a career-high five interceptions.

A native of Voorhees, N.J., Ryan was a third-round pick by the Patriots in the 2013 NFL Draft following a four-year career at Rutgers. As a cornerback for the Scarlet Knights, he started 27 games and earned All-Big East honors as a junior and senior.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), recorded one tackle.
- Against New England (8/17), on the Titans' first defensive series, recorded an interception on a pass from Patriots quarterback Brian Hoyer that was intended for wide receiver Braxton Berrios. It was Ryan's first interception of the preseason.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), posted two tackles.

#31 • S KEVIN BYARD

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Safety Kevin Byard (5-11, 212) is in his fourth NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (64th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

From 2017 through 2018, no NFL player had more interceptions than Byard, who had 12. His 2018 totals included a team-leading four interceptions, 10 passes defended, 96 tackles and two sacks in 16 games (all starts). He also completed a touchdown pass on a memorable fake punt to help defeat the Houston Texans (Sept. 16).

Byard experienced a breakthrough second-year season in 2017. He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.

Byard's 2017 numbers also included 87 tackles, three quarterback pressures, four tackles for loss and 18 passes defended. In two playoff starts, he led the club with 16 tackles.

As a rookie in 2016, Byard played in every game, starting the final seven contests at free safety. His 63 tackles were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Tank Williams' 69 tackles in 2002. Byard added one sack, three quarterback pressures, five tackles for loss (third on the team) and four passes defended. He also ranked second on the squad with 10 special teams tackles.

During a four-year career at Middle Tennessee State University, he appeared in 49 games and notched 46 starts at safety while becoming one of the most prolific defenders in school history. He set school records with 19 career interceptions, 377 interception return yards and four interception returns for touchdowns, and he finished sixth in MTSU history with 312 career tackles. In total, he had a hand in 25 turnovers (19 interceptions, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery) during his career and added 17 career passes defended and five tackles for loss. He was twice named first-team All-Conference USA.

As a senior in 2015, Byard appeared in 12 games with nine starts as a permanent team captain and was named first-team All-Conference USA for the second consecutive year. He ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles and led the squad with four interceptions and six additional pass breakups.

The Lithonia, Ga., native set a career high in college with six interceptions as a junior and forced two fumbles the same season.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), recorded one tackle.
- Against New England (8/17), started at safety.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), started at safety.

Long snapper Beau Brinkley (6-4, 260) is in his eighth NFL season in 2019. He was signed by the Titans as an undrafted free agent on May 4, 2012.

In his first seven seasons, Brinkley never missed a game and handled all of the team's long snapping duties in that time period.

In 2018, he posted five special teams tackles and helped punter Brett Kern earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance. Kicker Ryan Succop convert 26 of his 30 field goal attempts.

In 2016, Brinkley helped Ryan Succop make 22 of his 24 field goal attempts, with the only misses coming from 51 and 58 yards. Succop's 91.7 percent rate ranked third in the NFL in 2016 behind only Justin Tucker (97.4) and Matt Bryant (91.9).

In 2014, he Brinkley tied for third on the team with a career-high 10 special teams tackles.

#6 • P BRETT KERN

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Punter Brett Kern (6-2, 214) is in his 12th NFL season and his 10th full campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. At the end of the 2018 campaign, he ranked as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.8 yards) and net punting average (40.5). He punted 761 times in a Titans uniform from 2009–2018, second all-time for the franchise behind Craig Hentrich's 861 punts. Kern owns the top seven net punting seasons in franchise history and eight of the team's top 10 net punting seasons.

In 2018, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season. His 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2016, Kern punted 77 times for a 44.2-yard gross average and a 38.6-yard net average. He placed 41.6 percent of his punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line (32 of 77), which ranked second in his career (42.2 in 2009).

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he broke the mark in 2014).

Kern's 2011 statistics included 86 punts for a gross average of 43.6 yards. His net average of 39.4 yards set a then-career high and then-franchise record, narrowly beating out Craig Hentrich's previous franchise record of 39.2 net yards per punt in 1998.

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- At Philadelphia (8/8), averaged 51.5 yards (45.5 net yards) on two punts.
- Against New England (8/17), averaged 46.0 yards (43.3 net) on four punts with three punts placed inside the 20. In the second quarter, he recorded a 44-yard punt that was downed at the two-yard line. On the next play, the Titans defense scored a safety. Kern's next attempt was a 52-yard punt that went out of bounds at the seven-yard line.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), averaged 68.5 yards on two punts (48.5 net), including 70-yard and 67-yard attempts in the first quarter.

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Kicker Ryan Succop (6-2, 218) is in his 11th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent on Sept. 1, 2014.

The franchise's fifth all-time leading scorer and the club's all-time leader in career accuracy made 26 of his 30 field goal attempts in 2018. His 26 field goals and 106 points were the third-highest totals of his career, and his 86.7 percent success rate ranked third his career for a single season. He also converted 28 of 31 extra points and booted 45 of his 72 kickoffs for touchbacks (62.5 percent).

Succop set career highs in 2017 with 35 field goals and 42 attempts. He added 31 extra points on 33 attempts to set a career high with 136 points—a total that tied Al Del Greco's 1998 franchise record. Succop also booted 47 touchbacks on 80 kickoffs (58.8 percent).

During the 2017 campaign, Succop set the NFL record for most consecutive field goals made from inside 50 yards. His streak, which began in 2014, lasted 56 attempts. The previous league benchmark was 46 such kicks by Atlanta's Matt Bryant from 2013–2015.

In 2016, Succop made 22 of his 24 field goal attempts, with his only misses coming from 51 and 58 yards. His 91.7 percent rate was the best single-season performance of his career and the third-best percentage in franchise history (92.3 by Rob Bironas in 2010 and 92.3 by Al Del Greco in 1998). Succop's percentage ranked third in the NFL in 2016 behind only Justin Tucker (97.4) and Matt Bryant (91.9).

During his second season in Tennessee, Succop connected on 14 of his 16 field goal attempts and 29 of his 31 extra point attempts to total 71 points. His 87.5 percent success rate on field goals set a personal best and ranked as the sixth-highest figure in franchise history.

In 2014, he set a then-career high by making 86.4 percent of his field goal attempts. He was 19-of-22 and also connected on all 27 of his extra point attempts.

Succop's previous five seasons were spent with the Kansas City Chiefs, who chose him with the last pick of the 2009 NFL Draft (256th overall).

In his career with the Chiefs, he posted four 100-point seasons and made 81.0 percent (119-147) of his field goal attempts. Over his final three years there (2011-13), 52 percent of his kickoffs resulted in touchbacks, a number that ranked 11th in the NFL during that span.

In 2013, he tallied career highs for points (118) and touchbacks (47). He also posted the second-best percentage of his career for field goals made inside of 50 yards, connecting on 87.5 percent (21-24) of those attempts. During his Chiefs career, he produced five game-winning kicks.

A native of Hickory, N.C., Succop played in 50 games for the University of South Carolina Gamecocks, hitting 49 of 69 field goals (71.0%) and converting 104 of 106 PATs. His 251 points made up the second-highest total in school history.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- Began training camp on the physically unable to perform list.
- Removed from the physically unable to perform list on Aug. 19.
- Against Pittsburgh (8/25), made a 24-yard field goal in the second quarter and added a 22-yard field goal in the fourth quarter in his first appearance of the 2019 preseason.

CONSECUTIVE FGs INSIDE 50 YARDS

On Oct. 16, 2017, Ryan Succop set the NFL record for most consecutive field goals made from inside 50 yards. With a 48-yarder in the first quarter against the Colts, he made his 47th such kick. He broke the record of Atlanta Falcons kicker Matt Bryant, who made 46 consecutive field goals from inside 50 yards from 2013–2015.

Succop's streak ended at 56 with a missed 48-yard attempt against the Cincinnati Bengals on Nov. 12, 2017. The streak, which began on Dec. 14, 2014, spanned 43 games and nearly three calendar years.

In 2016, he broke Al Del Greco's franchise record of 24 consecutive made field goals from inside 50 yards, set from 1995–1996.

Most consecutive field goals made from inside 50 yards, NFL history:

Kicker	Team	Seasons	Consec. FGs from Inside 50 Yards
1. Ryan Succop	Tennessee Titans	2014–2017	56
2. Matt Bryant	Atlanta Falcons	2013–2015	46

MORE TITANS SPECIALISTS

3 - K/P AUSTIN BARNARD (6-3, 207, 2nd Year, Samford)

➤ Austin Barnard was signed by the Titans as an undrafted free agent on May 11, 2018.

➤ He spent the entire 2018 season on injured reserve.

➤ Barnard appeared in 38 games over four seasons at Samford and handled punting and kickoff duties.

➤ As a senior in 2017, he was named second-team All-SoCon and third-team All-American. He appeared in all 12 games and punted 54 times for 2,441 yards and a 45.2-yard average. He also tallied 67 kickoffs for 4,202 yards and a 62.7-yard average.

➤ He transferred to Samford after redshirting as a freshman in 2013 at the University of Miami (Fla.).

2019 Preseason Notes:

➤ At Philadelphia (8/8), in addition to handling kickoff duties, averaged 43.0 yards on two punts (43.0 net) and made one of three attempts on extra points.

➤ Against New England (8/17), averaged 49.0 yards (42.0 net) on two punts, including a 49-yard punt that was downed at the one-yard line. He made his only extra point attempt and missed his only field goal attempt (41 yards).

➤ Against Pittsburgh (8/25), averaged 45.6 yards (37.2 net) on five punts with one punt placed inside the 20.

TITANS TIDBITS

LB DAREN BATES

➤ In 2018, Bates and NFL defensive end Armonty Bryant opened AstroKids Gym in Austin, Texas. The facility offers children's classes and camps based upon proprioceptive learning.

➤ Bates is a Memphis native and a huge Memphis Grizzlies fan.

➤ For the My Cause, My Cleats campaign, Bates has worn specially designed cleats featuring the words "American Heart Association" to raise awareness for the organization's life-saving mission. His mother, Weslynn Bates, was a heart transplant recipient and lived some wonderful years following her surgery. She sadly passed away in 2015 at the age of 56.

➤ Bates is a tattoo enthusiast and has 107 tattoos.

LS BEAU BRINKLEY

➤ Brinkley's father, Mike, was an All-American defensive end and long snapper at Missouri Valley College. He taught Beau the skill of long snapping when he was just seven years old. Beau's football idol growing up was Kansas City Chiefs long snapper Kendall Gammon.

➤ Brinkley raced four-wheelers in the Extreme Dirt Track Racing Series while growing up in Missouri. He traveled the country competing in both motor cross and flat track competitions and won a flat track regional title in 2005.

➤ An avid golfer, Brinkley won the 2018 Pepsi Tournament C Flight Championship in Brookfield, Mo.

➤ In June 2015, Brinkley participated in the Nashville Sports Council Golf Tournament at Gaylord Springs Golf Course. On the par-3 eighth hole, he sunk a hole-in-one to win a barrel of Jack Daniel's Tennessee whiskey.

WR A.J. BROWN

➤ Brown was selected in the 19th round of the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres as a centerfielder and he participated in the team's extended spring training program each summer from 2016-18.

➤ He has a dog, Bentley Juan Brown, and runs an Instagram account for him @bentleyjuan1.

LB JAYON BROWN

➤ Brown went to the same California high school, Long Beach Poly, as Titans teammate Jurrell Casey. Brown's older brother, Juwuan, was Jurrell's teammate there.

➤ Former Long Beach Poly and New England Patriots star Willie McGinest is a close friend of the Brown family.

➤ Brown's younger brother, Joshua, is a defensive end at the University of Arizona, and his two older brothers also played college football. Jason played linebacker at Idaho, while Juwuan was a defensive lineman at Southern Oregon.

CB MALCOLM BUTLER

➤ In February 2017, the production company Narrative Capital acquired the rights to the story of Butler for a film tentatively titled "The Secondary."

➤ Prior to securing a rookie free agent tryout with the Patriots in 2014, Butler was operating the fryolator at a Popeye's restaurant.

S KEVIN BYARD

➤ Byard credits his mother, Artina Stanley, for much of his success. Following a divorce when Byard was in ninth grade, his mother moved with the children from Philadelphia to Atlanta. Although it was a financial struggle, Stanley worked long hours to make sure her children received what they needed. Byard claims he and his older brother "had to grow up really fast" as they helped their mother with taking care of the younger kids in the family.

➤ During the 2019 offseason, Byard hosted 200-plus youngsters at the inaugural Kevin Byard Football Camp at Ensworth School. He plans to hold the camp - which was free - every year.

➤ The Titans had an inside track in their scouting of Byard. Titans general manager Jon Robinson received glowing reports on Byard from his friend and MTSU recruiting coordinator Steve Ellis. When Robinson was a linebackers coach at Nicholls State, Ellis was one of his pupils, and the two remained close through the years. Additionally, Patrick Callaway, college scout for the Titans, was Byard's high school teammate.

➤ Byard says his football role models are Ed Reed, Brian Dawkins and Troy Polamalu.

DT JURRELL CASEY

➤ A fixture in the community, Casey was twice voted Tennessee Titans Walter Payton Man of the Year (2016, 2018), which recognizes players for excellence on and off the field. Casey is a regular at Titans community events and also serves as the spokesperson for United Way of Metropolitan Nashville. Casey and his wife, Ryann, established The Casey Fund, a non-profit dedicated to raising money for established re-entry programs, inner-city youth programs, mentoring and halfway houses. Ryann is a lawyer working in the Nashville Public Defender's Office. More information about The Casey Fund is available through their social media accounts: @caseyfund99 on Facebook and @TheCaseyFund on Twitter and Instagram.

➤ In 2019, Casey was named a finalist for the Mary Catherine Strobel Direct Service Volunteer Award, which recognizes Middle Tennessee volunteers for their efforts in the community.

➤ Casey has served as a spokesperson for United Way of Metropolitan Nashville since 2017.

➤ Casey has a strong partnership with Project Return Tennessee, Free Hearts and Purpose Prep Academy. Casey's wife is on Purpose Prep Academy's school board.

➤ When he was younger, family members, friends and teammates called him "Tut-Tut," a nickname he earned from his aunt as a small child because she said he walked like a turtle.

➤ When he was in high school, his older brother, Jurray, was convicted of first-degree murder. Despite the turmoil it caused, Jurrell credits his brother for helping him re-focus on becoming a better football player and student.

➤ Casey calls his mother, Collette Burns, a cafeteria worker in the Long Beach Unified School District, "the inspiration in my life" for how hard she worked to provide for Jurrell and his siblings.

➤ Casey and teammate Wesley Woodyard coach a women's flag football team that is comprised of wives and significant others of Titans players.

T JACK CONKLIN

➤ After not receiving a single Division I scholarship offer, Conklin began his time at Michigan State as a preferred walk-on in 2012. He impressed enough in his redshirt season to earn a scholarship in the spring of 2013.

➤ At Plainwell (Mich.) High School, Conklin's head coach was his father, Darren Conklin, who once was a walk-on at Michigan under Wolverines head coach Bo Schembechler.

➤ His mother, Jennifer Jackson, was an All-American swimmer at the University of Michigan.

➤ Conklin's grandfather, Ron Jackson, was a professional baseball player. He played first base for the Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox.

➤ Conklin traveled to Australia in 2015 to participate in Michigan State's study abroad International Summer Sports Program.

OLB KAMALEI CORREA (pronounced KAH-mah-lay kor-AY-uh)

➤ Correa attended St. Louis School in Honolulu, Hawaii, where he played football for two seasons with current Titans teammate Marcus Mariota.

➤ Correa grew up a huge fan of the Green Bay Packers all the way from Honolulu, Hawaii.

DB DANE CRUIKSHANK (last name pronounced CROOK-shank)

➤ Cruikshank credits his grandparents and his mother for his success in life. "My grandparents have provided for their whole family, and they've helped everyone in the family be successful at whatever they choose to do. My mom, (Beverly Jackson, a hair stylist) she's been able to raise her kids by working hard and never taking days off. She loves us and gives us everything we need."

➤ He lists owning his own business as a goal on his bucket list. He would

WR COREY DAVIS

➤ Davis and his six siblings survived a tough economic upbringing in Wheaton, Ill. While he has always maintained a loving relationship with his parents, Olasheni Timson and Michelle Davis, he made the decision as a high school junior to move into the home of Robin and Dan Graham, who became his legal guardians. Dan, Corey Davis' youth football coach, was an offensive lineman for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His son, Ryan Graham, played youth and high school football with Davis and currently plays quarterback at Northern Illinois.

➤ Davis' brother, Titus, played football at Central Michigan and was signed by the Chargers as a rookie free agent in 2015. Titus also spent time with the Jets, Bills and Bears.

➤ One of Davis' favorite quotes is "Never die easy" by Walter Payton, who used the saying as the title to his autobiography.

OL NATE DAVIS

➤ Growing up, Davis was 'always a pretty big kid.' He played on the offensive or defensive line during Pop Warner, and estimates that in the fourth grade he weighed around 200 pounds.

➤ Davis was invited to the 2019 Senior Bowl, which he credits for helping him during the draft process. He went head-to-head with defensive linemen from larger conferences, and as an athlete from a smaller conference, he credits his performance at the Senior Bowl for helping put his name into the conversation ahead of the draft.

RB DALYN DAWKINS

DE MATT DICKERSON

➤ Dickerson's father, Clarence, played college football at Henderson State (Ark.).

➤ He has a twin sister named Megan.

G JAMIL DOUGLAS

➤ First name is pronounced "Juh-MILL."

➤ Douglas was on the New England Patriots practice squad when the team won Super Bowl LI.

CB KENNETH DURDEN

➤ Durden, who originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Oakland Raiders in 2016, spent a month with the Titans on the practice squad in 2017. He rejoined the team during training camp in 2018, signing on Aug. 11 and making a strong enough impression to stick on the 53-man roster.

➤ At Lowndes High School in Valdosta, Ga., he set the school record in the triple jump as a junior with a mark of 48-6.

LB RASHAAN EVANS

➤ Upon being drafted by Tennessee, Evans was reunited with former Crimson Tide teammate Derrick Henry. Henry phoned Evans immediately after he was selected with the 22nd pick to congratulate him.

➤ At Alabama, Evans shared the field with his brother, Alex, a member of the Crimson Tide spirit squad.

➤ Growing up in rural Alabama, Evans would chase wild horses to work on improving his speed and athleticism.

➤ Evans' father, Alan, was a star running back at Auburn. Evans' mother, Chenavis, received four degrees from Auburn, including her doctorate. Evans' older sister was a cheerleader at Auburn, and despite the family ties including his cousins attending Auburn, Evans stuck with his gut and instead chose Alabama.

OLB SHARIF FINCH

➤ Finch's father, Gregory, passed away as a result of a heart attack on July 30, 2018, while Finch was participating in his rookie training camp. It came three years after his mother, Wendy, died as a result of breast cancer. Finch wears a set of dog tags with their names and photo and an inscription that reads "everything is for you."

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD HIGHLIGHTS

- Finch has 20 siblings and he is the youngest of the group.
- He plays the piano.

TE ANTHONY FIRKSER

- Firkser grew up playing basketball and both roller and ice hockey at elite levels and didn't begin playing football until his sophomore year of high school.
- In the offseason, Firkser volunteers with his former high school football coach to help train and give advice to aspiring young football players in his hometown community of Manalapan, N.J.

RB DAVID FLUELLEN

- Fluellen's favorite personal moment in sports growing up was his first touchdown when he was eight years old. He strip-sacked the quarterback, picked up the fumble and ran it in.
- He is married to Nashville TV anchor/reporter Desiree Wiley, who works for NBC affiliate WSMV-4.
- He hosted the first annual David Fluellen Football Camp in June 2018 at his high school alma mater in New York, Lockport High School.

C/G HRONISS GRASU (pronounced huh-ROW-niss GRA-sue)

- Grasu played college football at Oregon, where he blocked for quarterback Marcus Mariota from 2012-14. Grasu and Mariota train and live together in the offseason.
- Grasu comes from a 'large Romanian family' that owns a pizza restaurant in Hollywood, Calif. Grasu worked at the restaurant growing up and he credits the experience for teaching him work ethic, discipline and values.
- While Grasu's maternal side of the family resides in Romania, his family is still able to watch him play as his NFL games are shown there.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- In high school, Henry broke the 51-year-old national high school rushing record with 12,124 yards after compiling 4,261 rushing yards as a senior.
- Henry sealed an Iron Bowl victory with an epic, career-best 271 rushing yards against the Tigers. He put the Crimson Tide on his back by carrying the ball a school-record 46 times. His 271 rushing yards were 11 more yards than Auburn had in total offense (260). He ended the game with 14 consecutive rushes to run out the clock.
- His late grandmother, Gladys Henry, helped raise him and played a key inspirational role in his development. In 2018, he fulfilled a promise to her and graduated from Alabama with his bachelor's degree. He has a portrait tattoo of her on his chest.
- Gladys Henry nicknamed him "Shocka" as a baby because he "shocked the whole family" when he was born.
- Henry has been growing out his hair since he was in elementary school.

TE RYAN HEWITT

- Hewitt enjoys shooting a compound bow in his free time. One of his former teammates, Tyler Eifert, got him into it.
- Hewitt had the opportunity to learn from a former NFL player in high school, setting the direction for his career. His high school head coach was Dave Logan, who played nine seasons in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns and Denver Broncos.

WR CODY HOLLISTER

- Hollister's twin brother, Jacob, was a tight end at Wyoming and was also signed by the New England Patriots along with Cody as rookie free agents in 2017. The two brothers were teammates with the Patriots for the 2017 and 2018 campaigns. Jacob was traded to the Seattle Seahawks during the 2019 offseason.

DB AMANI HOOKER

- Hooker was named a finalist for Minnesota's Mr. Football in 2015. Yet he had just two FBS scholarship offers. When the in-state university showed hesitancy after multiple workouts, Hooker knew he belonged at Iowa saying, "love who loves me."
- Amani's brother, Quinton, played basketball for North Dakota and helped take the team to the NCAA tournament his senior year. Quinton was Minnesota's Mr. Basketball in high school and currently plays basketball professionally in France.

WR ADAM HUMPHRIES

- Humphries was originally a rookie tryout invitee with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 2015 NFL Draft. Titans general manager Jon Robinson was a member of the Bucs player personnel department at the time and saw the 5-foot-11-inch wideout grind it out in practice and eventually earn a spot on the team's 53-man roster. "Humph came in as a tryout and won a spot on the 90-man roster," said Robinson. "He was a tough guy to cover all through training camp and he kept working and working and working. I've always had an affinity for him and liked his style. He's earned everything he's got."
- Clemson head football coach Dabo Swinney took a visit to Humphries' high school, Dorman, before the 2011 season to scout eventual signee Charone Peake during a basketball game. But once the game began, Swinney couldn't help but notice Dorman's 5-foot-11 point guard running the show. "I go watch a basketball game at Dorman High School to see Charone Peake, and I'm going, 'Dang, who's this point guard?'" Swinney said. "And I've got Coach (Dave) Gutshall going, 'Well that's the best football player I've got on the team.' And I'm like, 'Really? We need to watch this guy a little bit.' He played corner, he played receiver, he played running back, he played quarterback. He was the best football player on the team. Adam Humphries was his name. I don't think he had any offers. So we offer the guy, 'Well, we're only offering the guy to get Charone Peake. No, no, no. We want Humphries.'"
- Humphries maintains a friendship with former Clemson teammate and current division rival DeAndre Hopkins.

CB ADOREE' JACKSON

- Jackson was a long jumper and sprinter on USC's track team in the springs of 2015 and 2016, winning the Pac-12 outdoor long jump title both years (and placing second in the Pac-12 100 meters in 2016) and earning All-American status both years after twice placing fifth in the NCAA long jump. He also placed 10th in the long jump during the U.S. Olympic Trials.
- Jackson lists his parents, Chris and Vianca Jackson, as the people that inspire him the most. "They've always steered me in the right direction. All of their experiences and guidance helped get me where I'm at."
- Vianca Jackson, a survivor of breast cancer, served as the team's Honorary 12th Titan prior to the team's 2017 Breast Cancer Awareness Game (Oct. 16).
- Jackson's father, Chris Jackson, is the ultimate grill master and can be found at Titans home games smoking turkey legs, Cornish hams, chicken, rabbits, alligator and frog legs for a pre-game tailgate among family and friends, as well as a post-game meal with players and coaches. He makes all of his own rubs and sauces and has been cooking since 1984.
- Jackson, business partner James Moore, and Jay Levine co-founded Kor Media Entertainment (KME), a Los Angeles-based entertainment agency under the Warner Brothers Digital umbrella. Their tagline is "Where Creatives Come to Play" and their goal is to create culture relevance for both creators and brands through interactive and labs which a focus on gaming and esports.
- Jackson is a Reese's Peanut Butter Cups enthusiast. He names creator Harry Burnett Reese as a historical person he would have loved to meet. "He's a genius. That's by far and away my favorite candy. I eat that like it ain't nothing."
- Jackson watched the movie "Space Jam" continuously as a child to the point he memorized most of the movie.
- In May 2018, Jackson and his business partner James Moore paid for the burial costs of Jaylon McKenzie, an eighth-grade football player who was killed by a stray bullet. McKenzie, a St. Louis, Ill., native, grew up idolizing Jackson.

WR DARIUS JENNINGS

- During the 2018 offseason, Jennings took part in the NFLPA's Externship Program with Events DC and Under Armour.
- He helps out with "Next One Up," an organization helping inner city high school athletes in his hometown of Baltimore, Md.
- He worked as a camp counselor at his alma mater The Gilman (Md.) School, helping middle school children with classwork and activities.

DL AUSTIN JOHNSON

- When Johnson was drafted by the Titans, he became a teammate once again of DaQuan Jones, a former Penn State defensive lineman who was drafted by the Titans in 2014. The two remained close, and Jones was among Johnson's family and friends surrounding him on draft night.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD HIGHLIGHTS

- Johnson's wife, Danika, is a former LFL MVP and is currently the general manager and head coach of the Nashville Knights football team.
- The son of Austin and Tammy Johnson, he has two older sisters, Brandi and Erika, and one younger sister, Kennedy. Kennedy was a forward on the Michigan State women's basketball team.

C BEN JONES

- Jones switched from jersey #61 to #60 prior to his senior season at Georgia, to honor his father, Steve, a former collegiate star, who was killed in a helicopter crash when he was 10 years old.
- Jones' pregame ritual consists of walking barefoot on the field "to get a feel for the turf." The routine began before one game with his brother in high school and after enjoying success that night, it has continued ever since.
- When he was 10 years old, Jones suffered a blow to the head with a baseball bat. The impact caused a blood clot to develop on his brain and fractured his skull. The injury kept him out of all athletic activity for a year.
- In 2017, Jones established The Jones Mission Fund at The Community Foundation to provide at-risk youth with opportunities they might otherwise not have.
- During the past two offseasons, Jones and his wife, Alex, have hosted the Ben Jones Celebrity Clay Shoot. The two events raised more than $182,000.
- Jones' brother, Clay, played baseball for the University of Alabama and then was drafted by the Detroit Tigers.

DL DaQUAN JONES

- Jones has a reputation as an upbeat, positive influence. "I've always had that positive mindset, even when things weren't as good," he says. "The guys laugh at me sometimes because I'm always smiling ... It's not that I'm happy all the time, but I just feel like in today's world, if you let anything get you down, it will. The smallest thing will turn into the biggest problem if you let it, so I just try my best to keep a positive mindset."
- Jones majored in criminal justice at Penn State and spent a portion of his 2013 summer as an intern observing the Spring Township Police Department near State College.
- Jones entered the Penn State program after being rated the second-best offensive lineman in the nation during his playing days at Johnson City High School. He switched to the other side of the ball and made an immediate impact as a true freshman.
- Jones lists his father, Steve, as the most inspirational person in his life. Steve raised DaQuan as a single father and one of his father's greatest traits is that he works extremely hard in everything he does. Steve works as an executive chef at Cornell University.

T/G DENNIS KELLY

- In May 2019, Kelly received his MBA from the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University.
- Kelly is an avid professional wrestling fan that does not let the opportunity pass him by whenever a live WWE show is in town. He lists the Undertaker as the one person in the world he would like to have dinner with.
- Kelly's brother, Tim, played football at Eastern Illinois and is currently the offensive coordinator for the Houston Texans.

P BRETT KERN

- Kern's father, Cal, is a former professional soccer goalie.
- Kern is an avid golfer that sports a +1 handicap. He picked the game up late in his high school years and caddied for three summers at Inverness Golf Club while in college. The course is located in Toledo, Ohio, and has hosted PGA and NCAA Championships. In 2011, Kern competed in The Vinny, a local golf fundraising tournament hosted by singers Vince Gill and Amy Grant, and finished fourth in the event.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Landry could have entered the NFL Draft following his 16.5-sack junior season at Boston College. However, he chose to stay in school and received his degree in communications in December 2017.
- He and his son, Greyson, share the same June 5 birthday.

C/G COREY LEVIN (pronounced LEH-vin)

- Levin is the first member of his immediate family to graduate from college.
- A multi-sport athlete in high school, Levin also competed in baseball as a pitcher and third baseman.

T TAYLOR LEWAN (pronounced leh-WAHN)

- Lewan owns a taxidermied beaver named Steve. The fedora-donning stuffed rodent, who was a gift from Lewan's wife, Taylin, makes appearances around the Titans locker room, often appearing at the locker of an unsuspecting rookie.
- Lewan chose to wear jersey number 77 at Michigan and then at the pro level because of the legacy of Wolverine tacklers who have donned the number, including Jake Long and Jon Jansen.
- His father, Dave, was a defensive lineman at the University of Minnesota.
- Lewan has several tattoos, including a mustache tattooed on his right index finger and a stick figure tattooed on the outside edge of his right hand that he calls his "right-hand man."
- At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, Lewan ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen from 2010-14.

RB DION LEWIS

- Lewis credits his parents, Leroy (former construction worker) and Linda (social worker) as the biggest influences on his career. "Growing up, they were hard on me and they made sure I stayed out of trouble," Lewis said. "That helped me out a lot later on in life."
- Lewis attended the University of Pittsburgh, but he was offered a scholarship from just two other schools, Miami (Ohio) and Tulane.

LB DAVID LONG JR.

- David's father, David Sr., is a former professional boxer who went 12-5-2 as a heavyweight. He once fought future world champ Deontay Wilder.
- During the offseason, Long still uses on-the-bell, three-minute-round boxing training to focus on his mental awareness. In 2018, Long Jr. went into the ring with headgear against his old man for the first time. They went for three 90-second rounds. "He busted up my lip, but it was fun," Long Jr. says. "He was really iffy that I knew how to throw my hands for real. It was just jabs, but it's grown-man strength."

QB MARCUS MARIOTA (pronounced MAHR-ee-OH-tah)

- In 2016, Mariota launched his Motiv8 Foundation, which serves the communities of Middle Tennessee, Eugene and Honolulu. The Motiv8 Foundation aims to create and support economic and educational programs and athletic activities to provide an alternative outlet for youth of troubled neighborhoods and backgrounds. The Foundation's programming centers around the tools for success that will allow more children to fully matriculate through grade-school and eventually attend college. Since its launch, the Motiv8 Foundation has awarded hundreds of thousands of dollars towards healthy lifestyle programming, and will continue to fulfill its mission through signature programs, strategic partnerships and fundraising initiatives.
- In 2018, the Motiv8 Foundation launched the Ardel Deppe Community Football Coach Award to recognize three Hawaii football coaches (one top winner) from any level of play who best exemplify Marcus' grandfather's spirit of going the extra mile and giving back to the community.
- He is the oldest son of Toa and Alana Mariota. His younger brother, Matthew, is a tight end at Oregon.
- Mariota credits much of his athletic success to playing soccer in his youth. By the time he was eight years old, he was wearing a soccer jersey with the number 8, and he has kept the jersey number ever since then.

RB JEREMY McNICHOLS

- McNichols was coached by hip-hop artist Snoop Dogg while playing youth football in the Snoop Youth Football League in Los Angeles, Calif. McNichols played both alongside and against numerous NFL players. The SYFL serves children between the ages of five and 13 years old, teaching them the values of teamwork, good sportsmanship, discipline, and self-respect, while also stressing the importance of academics.

G/T KEVIN PAMPHILE (pronounced POM-feel)

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD HIGHLIGHTS

- Pamphile has been active in sending school supplies and hygiene kits to students in his parents' homeland of Haiti. In February of 2017, he made his first trip to Haiti to donate goods and spend time with children and families battling challenging circumstances.
- In July 2017, Pamphile returned to Haiti to host a youth football camp for about 250 children.
- For his work in the Tampa area and in Haiti, Pamphile was the Buccaneers' 2016 winner of the Ed Block Courage Award.

OL AUSTIN PASZTOR

- During the 2018 and 2019 offseasons, Pasztor hosted 'Pasztor's Principles Football Camp and Combine,' a free skills camp for students from seventh grade to high school in Brantford, Ontario.
- Every offseason since 2017, Pasztor has been working toward earning his master's degree in business.

TE MYCOLE PRUITT

- The name MyCole has a unique origin. Pruitt's mother's name is Colette. Cole means "people's victory" in Greek baby names. She named him MyCole for My-Victory. MyCole is his mother's victory

OL DAVID QUESSENBERRY

- Quessenberry was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma in June 2014. He returned to Houston's practice squad in 2017 and made his NFL debut in Week 16 of the 2017 season.
- Named the Professional Football Writers of America's 2017 George Halas Award, given to a player, coach or staff member in the NFL who overcomes adversity to succeed.
- His father, David Sr., graduated from the Naval Academy in 1980 where he played football for the Midshipmen.
- His younger brother, Paul, played defensive end and linebacker for Navy.
- His youngest brother, Scott, was an offensive lineman at UCLA and currently plays for the Los Angeles Chargers.

WR KALIF RAYMOND

- Raymond was a dual-sport collegiate athlete, competing in football as well as track and field during his senior season at Holy Cross. He placed second in the 100-meter dash at the 2015 New England Outdoor Championship with a time of 10.71 seconds.

CB LOGAN RYAN

- Logan and his wife, Ashley, are the founders of The Ryan Animal Rescue Foundation (ryananimalfoundation.org). RARF works with animal welfare organizations to promote adoption and provide grants and educational opportunities.
- Every month on the 26th—the day corresponding to his jersey number—he posts a photo on social media with a dog that is in need of adoption along with the hashtag #ryansmonthlyrescue.
- In June 2017, Ryan surprised his big brother, Jordan, by paying off his student loans for his 29th birthday. Logan cut a check for $82,000 to the American Education Services to cover Jordan's loans from earning his engineering degree from Drexel University. "My man got accepted to college, graduated with honors, and now works as an engineer. He did everything the right way and still lived with a ridiculous amount of student loan debt. The system is broke and makes no sense. I'm fortunate and blessed to be able to take care of that for him."
- When Ryan decided to leave Rutgers and enter the NFL Draft after his redshirt junior season in 2012, he made a promise to his parents that after his rookie year, he would return to school and earn his degree. Ryan kept his promise and graduated in the spring of 2014 with a degree in labor relations and a minor in psychology.

G RODGER SAFFOLD

- Saffold is the owner of competitive "Call of Duty" and "Fortnite" teams called Rise Nation. He invested in the video game industry in April 2014.
- His father, Rodger II, played football at the University of Iowa in the mid-1970s.
- Rodger and his wife Asia grew up on the same street as eight-year olds in Ohio. The childhood friend's romance didn't begin until quite awhile later when the two re-connected on Facebook during Saffold's second-year with the Rams.

WR TAJAÉ SHARPE

- Sharpe's grandmother, Cozy Little, is a breast cancer survivor who was initially diagnosed in 2001. She was honored as the 12th Titan prior to a 2016 home game against the Cleveland Browns in conjunction with the team's Breast Cancer Awareness Month efforts.
- Sharpe's family members nicknamed him "Show," which is short for "Showtime."

DL JEFFERY SIMMONS

- During college Simmons was a two-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- Simmons' brother, Dylan Bradley, played football at Southern Miss and then spent time with the Minnesota Vikings. His uncle, Jason Hatcher, played 10 total seasons with the Dallas Cowboys and Washington Redskins.
- Away from football, Simmons enjoys fishing and spending time outdoors.

CB LESHAUN SIMS

- He was commonly referred to as "Swis" in college because for his first college game the name on the back of his jersey was upside down. The nickname stuck, but some Titans teammates refer to him now as "Mouse" due to his quiet nature.
- Prior to Sims, no prior student-athlete from Andre Agassi Prep in Las Vegas, Nev., had ever earned an athletic scholarship. When he was a high school freshman, the Stars played eight-man football in the public charter school's first year with a football team. They moved to 11-man football during his sophomore year, and by his senior season, the team won a league title.

TE JONNU SMITH (pronounced JAH-new)

- Smith credits his mother, Karen, for his successes. Jonnu's father passed away as a result of a tow truck accident when he was four years old and his mother raised all six children by herself.
- Smith endured a lot of challenges as a youngster in Philadelphia and after his brother was arrested and one of his friends was killed on the streets, a decision needed to be made. His family didn't have the financial means to just uproot, so for his own safety Jonnu moved in with his mother's sister and brother-in-law, Darla and Mike Kirkland, in Ocala, Fla. He started playing high school football and even though he was far from a touted recruit, he earned a scholarship to Florida International where his play took off.
- Smith's best friend Willie "Quasim" Jefferson tragically died from a gun shot in October 2016. Jonnu gave his son the middle name Quasim in honor of him.

CB TYE SMITH

- In the spring of 2018, Smith hosted his first "Simple Greatness" youth football clinic at St. Augustine University in his hometown of Raleigh, N.C.
- In May 2019, Smith held the second annual Simple Greatness Football Camp, hosting 300 kids for the free camp in Raleigh.
- He has his own website, www.simplegns.com.

G AARON STINNIE

- Stinnie did not play organized football until his junior year of high school, focusing on basketball until that point.
- His father, Phil, played forward for the Virginia Commonwealth University basketball team and finished seventh on the school's career scoring list.
- He went to the same high school, St. Anne's-Belfield School in Charlottesville, Va., as NFL players Chris and Kyle Long.

K RYAN SUCCOP (pronounced SUCK-up)

- Succop was given the title "Mr. Irrelevant" after being selected with the final pick (256th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.
- Succop is an avid golfer that sports a +2.2 handicap. He has played prestigious golf courses like Pine Valley, Silverleaf and Pinehurst.
- Succop caddied for his friend, Wesley Bryan, at the 2016 Nashville Golf Open, a Web.com event at Nashville Golf & Athletic Club. Succop and Bryan went to school together at the University of South Carolina,
- Succop registered 104 career goals and was a four-time all-conference and two-time all-state soccer selection at Hickory (N.C.) High School.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD HIGHLIGHTS

➤ Succop handled both the kicking and punting duties during his sophomore and junior seasons at South Carolina.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL (pronounced TAN-uh-hill)

➤ Ryan founded the Tannehill's A.C.E.S. (Achieving Community Educations Success) program with wife, Lauren, which consisted of 17 sophomores from American Senior High School and is focused on awarding scholarships to the participating students who strive for good grades and took on an active role in their community by hosting monthly events to reward the students and help them give back to the community.

➤ Ryan's father, Tim, played wide receiver at Texas Tech from 1985-87.

WR TAYWAN TAYLOR (pronounced TAY-wahn)

➤ Taylor's football life has taken him south on Interstate 65. A native of Louisville, which is approximately a three-hour drive from Nashville, he attended Western Kentucky University in Bowling Green, Ky., a one-hour commute from Nashville on the same highway.

➤ Taylor lists his football role model as Randy Moss.

DE BRENT URBAN

➤ Urban was selected as the 15th overall pick in the 2013 Canadian Football League Draft by the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, but opted to pursue an NFL career instead.

S KENNY VACCARO

➤ In 2014, Vaccaro won the Jim Finks Good Guy Award for his cooperation with New Orleans media.

➤ Vaccaro's uncle, A.J. Johnson, played for the Washington Redskins (1989-94) and helped the team win Super Bowl XXVI. He also played a season with the San Diego Chargers (1995).

➤ His younger brother, Kevin, also played at Texas.

OLB CAMERON WAKE

➤ Wake took an unusual route to the NFL. Following his career at Penn State, he signed with the New York Giants as an undrafted free agent. Released by the Giants on June 22, 2005, Wake entered the corporate world and spent 2006 as a mortgage broker. He then resumed his professional football career in Canada with the B.C. Lions.

OLB D'ANDRE WALKER

➤ Prior to the 2019 NFL Draft in Nashville, former Tennessee State University linebacker Christian Abercrombie was chosen to announce the Titans' fifth-round choice. Abercrombie became an inspirational figure in Nashville and around the football world by overcoming a life-threatening injury during the 2018 season and battling through two subsequent brain surgeries. By chance, he announced the Titans' selection of Walker, a friend since age 10 when the two played youth football at Welcome All Park in College Park, Ga.

➤ Walker claims the most inspirational person in his life is his mother, Au'Drea, who worked as a massage therapist to provide for him and his two sisters.

TE DELANIE WALKER

➤ Walker was named the Tennessee Titans Community Man of the Year in 2013 and 2015, due in large part to his tireless work with Mothers Against Drunk Driving. He teamed with MADD to help raise awareness of the dangers of drinking and driving after losing his aunt and uncle in a horrific accident near New Orleans after Super Bowl XLVII. The morning after San Francisco's loss to Baltimore at the Superdome, an alleged drunk driver killed Alice and Bryan Young only hours after Walker hugged Alice and Bryan at the team's postgame party. In addition to his work with MADD, Walker is an ambassador with the Tennessee Governor's Highway Safety Office's "Booze It and Lose It" campaign.

➤ In 2014, Walker established the Delanie Walker Gives Back Foundation (delaniewalker.org) to provide inner city and low-income children with the educational opportunities and resources to reach their full potential and beat the odds.

➤ As a high school senior, he won the Division III 100m (10.6) and long jump (21-5) titles, while also serving as a member of the winning 4x100m relay team at the 2002 Miramonte League Meet.

➤ On Feb. 14, 2015, Walker was inducted into the Central Missouri Athletic Hall of Fame.

TE COLE WICK

➤ Wick was a six-sport athlete at Sacred Heart Catholic High School, playing football, basketball, baseball, swimming, track and field and golf. With just 26 students in his graduating class, Wick was willing to take on the challenge.

➤ The oldest of three brothers, Wick comes from a football dominant family. A year after Cole graduated, Evan Wick followed in his brother's footsteps earning defensive MVP honors while leading Sacred Heart Catholic to a second consecutive state title appearance. As Cole's success on the field continued, his younger brothers have stayed hot on his trail. Evan and Cullen both attended Blinn Community College and went on to earn Division I football scholarships - Evan to Eastern Tennessee State, and Cullen to Tulsa.

QB LOGAN WOODSIDE

➤ His hometown of Frankfort, Ky., is a three-hour drive from Nashville.

➤ During the 2019 offseason, Woodside played for the Alliance of American Football League's San Antonio Commanders. In seven AAF games, he completed 116 of 201 passes for 1,385 yards and seven touchdowns.

LB WESLEY WOODYARD (pronounced WOOD-yard)

➤ Woodyard was the recipient of the 2017 Titans Walter Payton Man of the Year award. He was a three-time nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year while with the Broncos in 2010-11 and 2013.

➤ Woodyard is the co-founder of The 16Ways Foundation, which recognizes an emotional need for at-risk youth. The Foundation works on a national level to develop and implement workshops, seminars, camps, and other activities. Its primary focus is to work with at-risk youth between the ages of 8 and 18 and a secondary focus on adults in employment transition.

➤ In addition to his work with his own foundation, Woodyard has been a tireless advocate for the work of other non-profits, including the ALS Association and Second Harvest Food Bank. For the second year in a row, Woodyard used the NFL's My Cause My Cleats platform to raise awareness and funds for ALS. Woodyard's aunt suffered from ALS leading up to her death, and Woodyard is close to former Titans linebacker Tim Shaw, who was diagnosed with ALS in 2014. Woodyard also serves as the spokesperson for Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle Tennessee.

➤ Woodyard has been a captain in his first four seasons with the Titans. He joined Hall of Fame running back Floyd Little as the only players in Broncos franchise history to serve as a captain in each of their first six years with the club. In 2004, Woodyard also became the first-ever Kentucky freshman to serve as a team captain.

➤ Woodyard and teammate Jurrell Casey coach a women's flag football team that is comprised of wives and significant others of Titans players.

WE STAND FOR

In 2018, the Titans launched We Stand For as a platform for players, coaches and front office personnel to share personal stories about newsworthy causes and charities that are important to them.

The causes range widely from personal foundations to health research, to programs that equip men, women and children with the proper resources to be successful in all areas of life.

The goal of We Stand For is to create positive dialogue around the community work of the players, bringing attention to the causes that are meaningful in their lives.

Additionally, the club pledged to match charitable contributions of the players up to $250,000.

Among the We Stand For initiatives are the following:

TITANS AWARD $450,000 IN GRANTS

Titans Owner Amy Adams Strunk Distributes $450,000 in Grant Funding to 10 Local Non-Profits as "We Stand For" Campaign Takes Center Stage

by Jim Wyatt, TitansOnline.com
July 30, 2019

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — A year ago, the Titans launched the "We Stand For" campaign, designed to bring the public's attention to the causes that are important to the team's players, coaches and executives.

On Tuesday, it was on full display -- along with some big checks handed out by controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Several of the team's leaders, including general manager Jon Robinson, head coach Mike Vrabel and three players -- tight end Delanie Walker, linebacker Wesley Woodyard, and defensive lineman Jurrell Casey -- were on hand for a community engagement panel at Nissan Stadium, where they discussed the causes that are dear to them.

Then, Amy Adams Strunk handed out $450,000 in grant funding to 10 local non-profit organizations at the end of a luncheon.

"Mike said, 'We're all family,' and what they stand for, we stand for," Strunk said. "We want to be a part of the community and be a part of the change, and just be good Samaritans. (Our players) take their feelings about this community (seriously) -- they're so strong. And they just want to do what they can to make it a better place. Nashville is great, but we can always be better."

"Today was fun. It was a surprise (to the check recipients) and that made it even more fun. ... It just means so much that we have taken on different causes now that maybe we wouldn't have thought about if our players hadn't brought them to us. I think it's a great thing."

The grants handed out on Tuesday ranged from $25,000 to $100,000 and support non-profit organizations in the spaces of education, African American history and culture, social justice, diversionary and re-entry programs, immigrant outreach and domestic violence and sexual assault.

The $100,000 grant recipients:

- * National Museum of African American Music
- * NAACP Freedom Fund

The $50,000 grant recipients:

- * Community Achieves by Metro Nashville Public Schools
- * Nashville GRAD

The $25,000 grant recipients:

- * Project Return
- * Davidson County Drug Court Program (DC4)
- * Thistle Farms
- * Sexual Assault Center
- * Nashville International Center for Empowerment
- * Conexion Americas

Grant recipients were selected not only on merit but also based on their affiliation with a cause identified as important to a player, coach or executive through the team's "We Stand For" campaign.

The organization's hope for the "We Stand For" campaign is to foster positive dialogue around the community work of its players and executives and raise awareness for the associated causes. The campaign was launched to give Titans players, coaches and front office a platform to better showcase causes and charities that are important to them, and to foster positive dialogue around their community and the work of their associated charities.

Along with his wife Ryann, the Caseys established the Casey Fund, a nonprofit dedicated to addressing the needs of at-risk youth as well as formerly incarcerated individuals by raising money for re-entry programs, inner-city youth programs, mentoring, and halfway houses.

Casey said the organization's work in the community -- and Strunk's generosity -- has inspired everyone to do more.

"It's unbelievable," said Casey, the 2018 Titans recipient of the Walter Payton Man of the Year award. "For you to have an owner and an organization to do something this incredible in the community, something we fight for all the time. ... For Amy to do something like this, I am baffled, I am speechless. She has done something so amazing it touches my heart down deep."

TITANS RADIO AFFILIATES

Titans Radio brings football to fans across the Mid-South in one of the NFL's largest radio networks, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone.

Play-by-play announcer Mike Keith connection with pro football across the Mid-South dates back to 1996, a year before the Oilers arrived in Tennessee, and he became the "Voice of the Titans" in 1999. Former Titans assistant coach and NFL head coach Dave McGinnis began serving as Titans Radio's color analyst in 2017, while Titans Radio gameday host Rhett Bryan's involvement with the broadcast dates back to 1997. Jonathan Hutton has been a member of the Titans Radio gameday crew since 2014, while Amie Wells has been reporting on the sidelines since 2018.

 Visiting Team Media Relations (Press Box Seats 29-32): (615) 565-4452

DIRECTIONS TO NISSAN STADIUM

FROM AIRPORT TO NISSAN STADIUM (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-40 West toward Nashville/Memphis to I-24 West (before downtown). Exit at James Robertson Parkway (Exit 48). Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated video photographers (coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. All vests must be obtained prior to each game at the vest check-in table in the field level concourse. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or a designated vest receptacle.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines and pool phone lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO LOCKER ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right, and the Titans locker room (blue line) is straight ahead. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's locker room and interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will be allowed on the field during pre-game activities but not during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. All media members will have field access once all of the players and coaches have exited the field. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TitansOnline.com.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. They are the only reporters allowed in the officials' locker room. Requests for pool reports must be made in advance. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

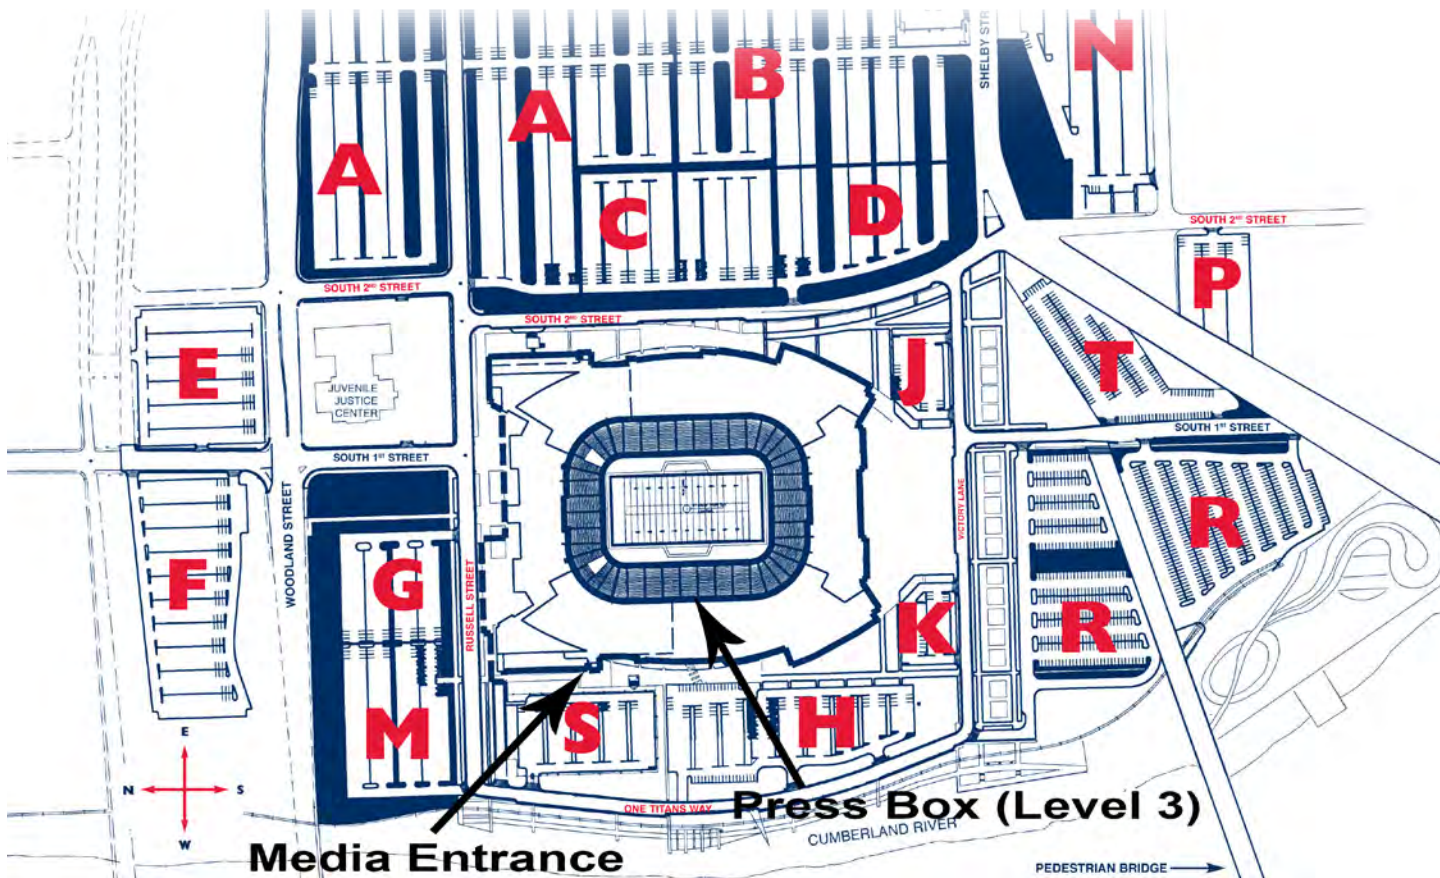

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. Take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.
