2023 TENNESSEE TITANS TRAINING CAMP PREVIEW

NASHVILLE — Tennessee Titans players and coaches report to Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park this week for the start of training camp. The first full-squad practice of camp is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. CDT on Wednesday, July 26.

An early-reporting group consisting of rookies, quarterbacks and injured players arrived at camp on Saturday, July 22, with their teammates set to join them on Tuesday, July 25, and practice for the first time the following day. A five-day acclimation period mandated by the NFL and NFL Players Association's collective bargaining agreement will be held at the start of training camp, which includes practices without full pads. The Titans' first fully-padded practice of camp will be permitted on Monday, July 31.

Titans head coach Mike Vrabel is set to lead his sixth training camp in Tennessee. Since being hired in 2018, the 2021 AP NFL Coach of the Year has directed the team to four winning records, three playoff appearances and two division titles.

Meanwhile, general manager Ran Carthon enters his first training camp with the Titans after being hired in January by Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. Carthon spent the past six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two years as the team's director of player personnel. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and since then played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Carthon's resumé also includes time with the Los Angeles Rams (2012-16) and Atlanta Falcons (2008-11). The former Florida Gator spent three years as a running back in the NFL, primarily with the Indianapolis Colts (2004-06).

As the franchise embarks on its 25th season as the Tennessee Titans, this will be the 24th training camp held at its current Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park headquarters. The facility, which opened at the conclusion of training camp in 1999, is located in MetroCenter, just north of downtown Nashville. In 2022, a complete renovation and a 60,000-square-foot addition was completed.

This year, five training camp dates are open to the general public: July 29 and Aug. 1, 4, 10 and 22. However, all tickets—which are required for entry—were made available earlier in July on a lottery basis, and none remain. No tickets will be available on site for walk-up guests.

The Titans will host additional invited guests on other practice days for the duration of training camp.

Camp information will be updated continuously at TennesseeTitans.com, the Titans mobile app and on all official team social channels.

PRESEASON GAMES AND JOINT PRACTICES

The Titans are scheduled for three preseason contests this August, and once they open camp, they will have less than three weeks to prepare for the first one. They will travel to Chicago to face the Bears on Saturday, Aug. 12.

The following week they will trek to Minnesota for a pair of joint practices and a preseason clash with the Vikings. The teams will practice at Twin Cities Orthopedics Performance Center (Eagan, Minn.) on Aug. 16 and 17 before playing at U.S. Bank Stadium on Aug. 19.

The Titans close the preseason at Nissan Stadium against the New England Patriots, but not before they welcome the Patriots to Ascension Saint

On Aug. 30, teams are permitted to establish practice squads with a maximum of 16 players.

CONSTRUCTING THE 2023 TITANS

Vrabel and Carthon will lead their respective staffs in crafting and managing a roster with several new faces. Most recently, the team signed veteran free agent wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, a five-time Pro Bowl selection and three-time All-Pro. In 10 previous seasons with the Houston Texans (2013-19) and Arizona Cardinals (2020-22), Hopkins totaled 853 receptions for 11,298 yards and 71 touchdowns. No NFL player has more receptions than Hopkins since he entered the league, and only Julio Jones (11,472) has more yards.

Earlier in the offseason, Carthon and the Titans were able to reach deals with a number of veteran free agents. Among those were outside linebacker Arden Key (Jacksonville), cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting (Tampa Bay), linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair (San Francisco), linebacker Luke Gifford (Dallas), linebacker Ben Niemann (Arizona), wide receiver Chris Moore (Houston), offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill (San Francisco), offensive lineman Andre Dillard (Philadelphia) and tight end Trevon Wesco (Chicago).

During the 2023 NFL Draft, the Titans acquired six players, beginning with Northwestern offensive lineman Peter Skoronski with the 11th overall selection in the first round. In the second round, the Titans chose Kentucky quarterback Will Levis, followed by Tulane running back Tyjae Spears in Round 3. Cincinnati tight end Josh Whyle (fifth round), Maryland offensive lineman Jaelyn Duncan (sixth round) and Tennessee-Martin wide receiver Colton Dowell (seventh round) were chosen on Day 3 of the draft.

In total, 51 of the 91 players on the Titans pre-camp roster (as of July 24) were added since the conclusion of the 2022 campaign either through the draft (six) and free agency (45). Nineteen were signed as undrafted free agents.

FOUNDATION IN PLACE

The new additions will join a nucleus of established veterans returning to the Two-Tone Blue. On the offensive side, quarterback Ryan Tannehill enters his 12th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans. He is first in franchise history in career passer rating (100.5) and completion percentage (66.9), and he ranks fifth in career passing touchdowns (89) and sixth in passing yards (12,831). From the time of Tannehill's first start in a Titans uniform (Oct. 20, 2019) through the conclusion of 2022, his 100.7 passer rating ranked fourth in the NFL behind only Aaron Rodgers (106.0), Patrick Mahomes (103.3) and Jimmy Garoppolo (100.8).

Three-time Pro Bowl running back Derrick Henry continues his assault on the team's record books heading into his eighth NFL season. Last year he moved into first place in franchise history in career rushing touchdowns (78) and total touchdowns (81), and he sits in third place on the franchise rushing charts with 8,335 career yards, behind only Eddie George (10,009) and Earl Campbell (8,574). In 2022, he finished second in the NFL with 1,538 rushing yards, which was the sixth-best single-season total in franchise history. Henry leads the NFL in rushing yards and rushing touchdowns since entering the NFL in 2016.

A pair of second-year offensive playmakers look to build upon their rookie campaigns, beginning with last year's first-round pick, Treyton Burks. The wide receiver totaled 33 receptions for 444 yards and one touchdown in 11 games in 2022. Among NFL rookies, his 444 receiving yards finished as the ninth-best total.

Tight end Chig Okonkwo, a fifth-round choice, established a new record for franchise rookie tight ends and led all NFL rookie tight ends in 2022 with 450 receiving yards. The Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie performer placed fourth among NFL rookies at his position with 32 receptions, which also tied for third place in team history among rookie tight ends.

On the defensive side of the ball, safety Kevin Byard joins Henry as the two longest-tenured players currently on the Titans roster. Since Byard entered the league, he has never missed a game, and his active streak of 105 consecutive starts is the longest in the NFL among active defenders going into the season. His 27 interceptions since the beginning of the 2017 season are the most by an NFL safety in that period, rank second among all players (28 by Xavien Howard) and put him in a tie for fourth place on the franchise's all-time career interceptions list.

In April, the Titans agreed to a multi-year contract extension with two-time Pro Bowl defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons. The former first-round pick, who added second-team All-Pro honors in each of the past two campaigns, totaled 21 sacks in his first four seasons. In 2022, he anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game).

The Titans expect a boost in 2023 from a returning defensive leader who did not see the field in 2022—outside linebacker Harold Landry III, whose knee injury before Week 1 landed him on injured reserve. From 2018 through 2021, his total of 31 sacks led the team and fell behind only Jevon Kearse for a Titans/Oilers player's first four NFL seasons since sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982. He was named to the Pro Bowl with 12 sacks in 2021.

THE COACHING STAFF

Entering his sixth season with the organization, Vrabel is the NFL's ninth-longest tenured head coach with his current team. He already ranks third in franchise history among head coaches with 50 career wins, including the regular season and playoffs. He trails only Jeff Fisher (147) and Bum Phillips (59), and no head coach in team annals has won more games in his first five full seasons than Vrabel. He is charged with getting the Titans back to the playoffs after a three-year postseason run came to an end with a 7-10 finish in 2022.

Vrabel's staff heading into 2023 features several newcomers and others who are moving into different roles. At offensive coordinator, Vrabel promoted Tim Kelly, who initially joined the club in 2022 as passing game coordinator. Kelly previously spent three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Houston Texans. Additions and changes to the primary position coaches on offense include new pass game coordinator/quarterbacks coach Charles London from the Atlanta Falcons, run game coordinator/running backs coach Justin Outten from the Denver Broncos, tight ends coach Tony Dews (previous Titans running backs coach) and offensive line coach Jason Houghtaling (previous Titans offensive line assistant).

On the other side of the ball, Shane Bowen returns for his third season as defensive coordinator. Changes for 2023 at the position-coach level include Chris Harris (Washington Commanders) as defensive pass game coordinator/cornerbacks coach, while defensive line coach Terrell Williams returns with the added title of assistant head coach–defense.

Email kconnors@titans.nfl.com for more information.

Separate credentials are issued for training camp and Titans games. Approval for one category does not guarantee approval for another.

TRAINING CAMP CREDENTIAL APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED PRIOR TO A MEDIA OUTLET'S ARRIVAL AT CAMP. SAME-DAY REQUESTS WILL NOT BE HONORED.

PARKING AND MEDIA WORKROOM AT ASCENSION SAINT THOMAS SPORTS PARK:

Parking at Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park is extremely limited. Please make contact with Titans media relations prior to coming to practice to receive instructions. Media arriving at training camp without prearrangements through the football communications staff are likely to be denied parking.

The media workroom inside Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park is located on the second floor. The workroom will be open on days the media is invited to cover practice and/or a press conference. Stand-ups on the field are permitted following practice and media availability, but otherwise media members will be asked to clear the field and return to the media workroom. Access to the field at other times must be prearranged with the football communications staff.

INTERVIEW POLICY DURING TRAINING CAMP: During training camp, head coach Mike Vrabel and players typically are made available to speak with the media following practice sessions. Players are available immediately coming off the practice field, after which time Vrabel will address the media at the podium. Select players also will be made available at the podium. Coordinators and assistant coaches are available for interviews on days that are predetermined and announced by the football communications department. In accordance with the NFL's media access policy, the locker room will be open to the media on a regular basis prior to the start of the regular season.

LIVE UPDATES, SOCIAL MEDIA AND PHOTOGRAPHY: During training camp sessions, reporters are limited in shooting photos and videos to the beginning portions of practice—generally the stretch and individual periods, or to specific periods as directed by the media relations staff. During this time, live reporting on practice is allowed. However, live streaming in any format is not permitted at any practice, per NFL rules.

If a practice is open to the public, periodic live textual reports following stretch and individual periods are permitted throughout the remainder of practice (no photos or videos). Live streaming of the practice is not allowed.

If a practice is closed to the public, once the stretch and individual periods are finished and shooting has ended, reportable information observed for the remainder of the session must not be posted until the conclusion of practice.

Within reports from practice, observations on general team and individual performances are allowed. However, reporting on items related to competitive advantage is prohibited, such as positional rotation and scheme-related observations. Media also must not report specifics of conversations on the practice field.

This policy includes, but is not limited to, website articles, social media posts, call-ins to radio stations, video reports and text messaging.

During practice, all media members are asked to stay within the boundaries on the practice field designated by the football communications staff—typically in the end zone area closest to the main building of the practice facility and along the outer boundaries of the field.

2023 SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have eight total games against seven playoff teams from last season. They play three division champions from 2022, including home games against Cincinnati (Oct. 1) and Jacksonville (Jan. 6 or 7) and visits to Tampa Bay (Nov. 12) and Jacksonville (Nov. 19). The four contests against 2022 wild card qualifiers include home dates with the Los Angeles Chargers (Sept. 17) and Seattle Seahawks (Dec. 24), a road game against Miami (Dec. 11), and a game in London against Baltimore (Oct. 15). The eight games against reigning playoff clubs are one more than the number the Titans had in 2022.
- NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES: The Titans are currently scheduled for three nationally-televised games. Their game in London against Baltimore (Oct. 15) will air on NFL Network. In primetime, they play at Pittsburgh on Thursday Night Football (Nov. 2 on Prime Video) and at Miami on Monday Night Football (Dec. 11 on ESPN).
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Jaguars, which has not yet been assigned a television broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 contests on CBS, three games on FOX, and one game each on NFL Network, ESPN and Prime Video. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: Outside of their trip to London, the Titans stay in either the central time zone (13 games) or eastern time zone (six) for the duration of 2023, including the preseason. The farthest west they travel is Houston.
- HIGH NOON: During the regular season, 13 of the Titans' games are currently scheduled for Sundays at noon CT, with 11 total contests subject to flex scheduling.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2022 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' second-place finish in 2022, they host the AFC West's second-place Chargers (Sept. 17) and the NFC West's second-place Seattle Seahawks (Dec. 24). They visit the AFC East's runner-up Dolphins (Dec. 11). Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .448 (127-157-4) based upon their opponents' combined 2022 record, which is the 28th most difficult in the NFL.
- FACING TOP OFFENSES AND DEFENSES: The Titans face four of the NFL's top 10 offenses from last season: Cincinnati (Oct. 1, eighth-overall offense), Jacksonville (Nov. 19 and Jan. 6-7, 10th), the Los Angeles Chargers (Sept. 17, ninth) and Miami (Dec. 11, sixth). They also contend with three of the top 10 defenses from 2022: Baltimore (Oct. 15, tied-ninth overall defense), New Orleans (Sept. 10, fifth) and Tampa Bay (Nov. 12, tied-ninth).
- VRABEL LOOKS FOR FIFTH WINNING SEASON: With a winning record in 2023, Mike Vrabel would join Bum Phillips and Jeff Fisher as the only head coaches in franchise history with at least five winning campaigns. Under Vrabel, the Titans finished with winning records each season from 2018 to 2021. Fisher holds the franchise record for head coaches with six winning seasons (1999-00, 2002-03, 2007-08), which broke the previous record of five seasons, established by Phillips (1975, 1977-80).
- VRABEL COULD PASS PHILLIPS: Entering 2023 with a record of 50-37 as head coach, including playoffs, Mike Vrabel needs 10 wins to pass Bum Phillips (59-38) for second place on the franchise's all-time wins list among head coaches. Jeff Fisher (147-126) holds the franchise record for wins.
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: The Titans will face three of the five NFL head coaches who were hired by their respective clubs in 2023: Indianapolis' Shane Steichen (Oct. 8 and Dec. 3), Carolina's Frank Reich (Nov. 26) and Houston's DeMeco Ryans (Dec. 17 and 31). Titans head coach Mike Vrabel, who joined the Titans in 2018, has the ninth-longest tenure among current head coaches.

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- PRESEASON WEEKS 1-3: The Titans open the preseason at Chicago, facing the Bears in the preseason for the fourth time in the last six years. In the following week, the Titans travel to Minnesota, where they will make their second overall appearance at U.S. Bank Stadium, which opened in 2016. The only other occasion was a 31-30 win in the regular season in 2020, when no fans were present due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Titans close out the preseason by hosting the New England Patriots. Titans head coach Mike Vrabel, who played for the Patriots from 2001 through 2008, was announced as a 2023 inductee into the Patriots Hall of Fame earlier this offseason.

- WEEK 1 at NEW ORLEANS: In the season opener, the Titans trek to the Caesars Superdome for the first time since 2015, facing a Saints team that ranked fifth in overall defense and second in passing defense in 2022 under head coach Dennis Allen. During the offseason, New Orleans signed veteran quarterback Derek Carr, who spent his first nine NFL campaigns with the Raiders. The visit to New Orleans will mark the second time that the Titans franchise has played New Orleans in Week 1. The first such occurrence was a 33-21 Saints victory on Sunday night, Sept. 5, 1993.
- WEEK 2 vs. LOS ANGELES CHARGERS: The last time the Titans hosted the Chargers in their home opener was Sept. 22, 2013, which resulted in a 20-17 Titans victory. It was the first of two consecutive Titans wins in the series at Nissan Stadium, which most recently included quarterback Ryan Tannehill's first start with the organization on Oct. 20, 2019. The Chargers, who defeated the Titans at SoFi Stadium in 2022, enter their fourth season with quarterback Justin Herbert, the sixth-overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft. The contest will be the 200th combined Titans regular season and postseason game at Nissan Stadium.
- WEEK 3 at CLEVELAND: The Titans have won their last two games at Cleveland Browns Stadium (2017 and 2019), but the Browns, under head coach Kevin Stefanski, won the most recent clash at Nissan Stadium in 2020. Browns quarterback Deshaun Watson has several connections with the Titans from their shared time at the Houston Texans, including head coach Mike Vrabel and offensive coordinator Tim Kelly.
- WEEK 4 vs. CINCINNATI: The Titans look to snap a three-game skid against the Bengals, who are led by fourth-year quarterback Joe Burrow. The Bengals took the AFC North title in each of the past two seasons and defeated the Titans at Nissan Stadium in the 2021 divisional playoffs. The Titans lead the all-time series 40-37-1, including the postseason.
- WEEKS 5 & 13 vs. INDIANAPOLIS: The Titans enter 2023 with a five-game winning streak over the Colts, who are led by first-year head coach Shane Steichen. Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles the last two seasons, and in 2022 he helped the team reach Super Bowl LVII. First-year Titans general manager Ran Carthon spent the majority of his three NFL seasons as a player (2004-06) with the Colts.
- WEEK 6 vs. BALTIMORE (LONDON): The Titans and Ravens square off at London's Tottenham Hotspur Stadium, marking the Titans' second all-time international game in the regular season. Their first such trip occurred in 2018, Mike Vrabel's first year as head coach, when the Titans faced the Chargers at Wembley Stadium. The Titans and Ravens have developed a heated rivalry over the course of 26 all-time meetings since the series originated in 1996, highlighted by five postseason contests—most recently a 20-13 Ravens wild-card victory on Jan. 10, 2021. No team has faced the Titans/Oilers more than the Ravens in postseason history, despite the first such matchup not occurring until January 2001. Including all regular season and postseason games, the series is tied 13-13.
- WEEK 7 (BYE): The Titans follow their trip to London with a bye. Since Mike Vrabel became the team's head coach in 2018, the Titans are 5-0 in games immediately following their bye week.
- WEEK 8 vs. ATLANTA: Falcons head coach Arthur Smith faces the Titans for the first time since leaving the organization in 2021 to claim his current post. Smith was with the Titans from 2011 to 2020, including time as offensive coordinator in his final two campaigns with the club. The trip to Nissan Stadium by the Falcons will be their fourth in the regular season.
- WEEK 9 at PITTSBURGH (THURSDAY NIGHT): The Titans renew the series in the 81st meeting (including playoffs) with their former AFC Central rivals, who are in their 17th season with Mike Tomlin as head coach. In franchise history, the Titans/Oilers have played the Steelers more than any other opponent, including a 2-2 split in four previous Thursday night encounters. Titans head coach Mike Vrabel spent four seasons as a player in Pittsburgh after being selected by the Steelers in the third round of the 1997 NFL Draft.
- WEEK 10 at TAMPA BAY: The Titans carry a three-game winning streak over the Buccaneers into the meeting. With Todd Bowles in his second season as Tampa Bay's head coach, the team moves forward at quarterback in 2023 with veterans Baker Mayfield and Kyle Trask following the offseason retirement of Tom Brady.
- WEEKS 11 & 18 vs. JACKSONVILLE: The Titans look to regain the momentum in the series after they were swept by the Jaguars in 2022 for the first time since 2005. That ended the Titans' five-game winning streak in the rivalry. In Week 18 of last season, the Jaguars defeated the Titans in Jacksonville in a matchup that decided the AFC South champion. The Jaguars are in their second campaign with Doug Pederson as head coach and their third season since selecting quarterback Trevor Lawrence with the first pick in the 2021 NFL Draft.
- WEEK 12 vs. CAROLINA: The Titans will host the Panthers at Nissan Stadium for only the third time in the regular season (2007 and 2015). The Panthers are launching a new era in 2023 with head coach Frank Reich, who previously served as the head coach at the Indianapolis Colts from 2018 to 2022. Former Alabama quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner Bryce Young was selected by the Panthers with the first pick in the 2023 NFL Draft.
- WEEK 14 at MIAMI (MONDAY NIGHT): Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill is scheduled to make his first appearance at Hard Rock Stadium since being traded from the Dolphins to the Titans in 2019. Over his seven seasons in Miami (2012-18), he started 88 games and threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns. The Titans defense faces a Dolphins offense directed by second-year head coach Mike McDaniel that ranked sixth overall and fourth in passing in 2022. The last time the Titans traveled to Miami was the 2018 season opener, Mike Vrabel's first game as a head coach. With a duration of 7 hours and 8 minutes due to two separate weather interruptions, the 27-20 Dolphins win became the longest game in NFL history. The Titans franchise is 25-19 all-time on Monday Night Football, including a 2-0 mark against the Dolphins. In 1978, the Oilers and the Dolphins were featured in a memorable Monday night clash, a 35-30 Oilers win that included 199 yards and four rushing touchdowns by Earl Campbell.
- WEEKS 15 & 17 vs. HOUSTON: The Titans and Texans play twice in a three-week span. They have split the season series in six of the last seven years. This year the Titans face new Texans head coach DeMeco Ryans, who was hired in 2023 after serving two seasons as defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers. Titans running back Derrick Henry enters the season with five consecutive games against the Texans with at least 126 rushing yards and one touchdown. The Texans drafted former Ohio State quarterback C.J. Stroud with the second overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft. Prior to training camp, the Titans added veteran wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, a first-round pick in 2013 who spent his first seven NFL seasons with the Texans.
- WEEK 16 vs. SEATTLE: The Titans have won two consecutive games against the Seahawks and three of the last four meetings. Most recently, Derrick Henry rushed for 182 yards and three touchdowns in a 33-30 overtime victory at Seattle on Sept. 19, 2021. Pete Carroll's 14 seasons as head coach with the Seahawks gives him the fourth-longest tenure in the NFL behind only New England's Bill Belichick, Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin and Baltimore's John Harbaugh.

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

"We are excited to add Ran to our organization as our new general manager," Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk said upon announcing the hire. "He brings a variety of valuable experiences to our team – as a former player and a successful personnel executive for multiple teams. I was impressed with his natural leadership qualities and his ability to connect with people. With talent evaluation being critical to this role, the roster they have built in San Francisco stands out. He played an important role there constructing one of our league's best teams."

Carthon arrived bringing a range of experience from multiple teams to Tennessee. While in San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)–evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

In his first offseason with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster adding wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, tackle Andre Dillard, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting, tight end Trevon Wesco and linebacker Luke Gifford in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski and quarterback Will Levis were selected in the first two rounds.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators 2000 SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his dad, Maurice, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. His father played for the New York Giants and Indianapolis Colts, and he coached for New England, New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business. And in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Florida.

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

Vrabel, who enters 2023 as the NFL's ninth-longest tenured head coach with his current team, is the organization's fourth head coach to serve for at least five complete seasons, joining Wally Lemm (1966–1970), Bum Phillips (1975–1980) and Jeff Fisher (1994–2010). Measured against each member of the group in years one through five of their respective terms, Vrabel's 50 wins from 2018 to 2022 set a new benchmark, and his .575 winning percentage (50-37) ranked second behind only Phillips, who was 48-32 (.600) in his initial five years with the Oilers.

Vrabel finished the 2022 campaign ranked third in Titans/Oilers history in total career wins among head coaches. His 50 wins trailed only franchise Ring of Honor members Fisher (147) and Phillips (59).

With three playoff appearances in his first five years (2019, 2020 and 2021), Vrabel is the sixth head coach in Oilers/Titans history to coach at least three playoff teams. The others are Fisher (six), Jack Pardee (four), Phillips (three), Jerry Glanville (three) and Lemm (three). The Titans won back-to-back AFC South titles in 2020 and 2021, marking the first time the organization accomplished the feat since the Oilers won the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962.

In each of Vrabel's first five seasons, the Titans had a minimum of a win-and-in scenario to reach the postseason entering the final week of the regular season. The two non-playoff seasons under his leadership came down to such circumstances in 2018 and 2022.

Situationally, Vrabel's teams have fared among the NFL leaders in several categories. From 2018 to 2022, the Titans had a .640 winning percentage in three-point games (16-9), which ranked second in the league behind only the Green Bay Packers (.658). In the same period, their .855 winning percentage (47-8) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead tied for sixth in the NFL. Vrabel's team was 5-2 in overtime games from 2018 through 2022, tying the Kansas City Chiefs (5-0) for the second-most overtime wins behind the Las Vegas Raiders (7-3). On the road, the Titans were 28-18 (.561), tying for the league's sixth-best road record.

From 2018 to 2022, the Titans had the NFL's second-best rushing offense, averaging 139.9 yards per game on the ground. Only the Baltimore Ravens were better (170.8). The offense ranked first in the NFL in the red zone, scoring touchdowns on 66.8 percent of drives inside the opponent's 20-yard line (173 of 259), and the Titans also had the NFL's ninth-best team passer rating at 95.8.

On the other side of the ball, the Titans ranked fourth in rushing defense from 2018 to 2022, allowing 100.2 rushing yards per contest. Also in that five-year stretch, the Titans were seventh in scoring defense (21.8 opponent points per game).

During the 2022 season, the Titans led the NFL in total number players used for the second consecutive season. A total of 86 players took the field for at least one game, partly as a result of 31 players being placed on injured reserve from the time the roster was cut to 53 players through the end of the campaign. The Titans relied heavily upon their youth, as rookies combined for 145 games played (tied for third in the NFL) and 56 starts (sixth).

The 2022 Titans led the NFL in rushing defense for the first time as a team since 2003. They allowed only 1,307 total rushing yards for a league-best average of 76.9 yards per contest—the second-best finish in franchise history (73.4 in 1960). The Titans also ranked third in third-down defense in 2022, allowing a conversion rate of 34.2 percent (77 of 225).

Vrabel Honored as NFL's Top Coach in 2021

Vrabel was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2021 after directing the Titans to a 12-5 record during the regular season. The Titans won the AFC South, and they claimed the top seed in the AFC playoff field for the first time since 2008. They did so despite needing to use 91 total players during the season—the most in NFL history in a non-strike year. After the final preseason roster cuts through the end of the season, the team placed 26 different players on injured reserve and 21 different players on the reserve/COVID-19 list, plus additional practice squad players that received those designations.

The 2021 Titans ranked second in rushing defense (84.6 yards allowed per game), 12th in total defense (329.8), sixth on third down (36.7 percent), sixth in scoring defense (20.8 points per game) and ninth in sacks (43). Offensively, the Titans finished fifth in rushing (141.4 yards per game) despite missing Derrick Henry for nine games due to injury. The offense also ranked eighth on third down (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent).

In 2021, Vrabel joined Pardee and Glanville as the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons as head coach, and he tied Pardee (43-26) for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization.

Titans Take the AFC South in Year 3 Under Vrabel

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012–2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

MOST WINS IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

In 2022, Mike Vrabel passed Jack Pardee for the third-highest win total in franchise history among head coaches. He trails only Jeff Fisher (147) and Bum Phillips (59).

Vrabel is also the sixth head coach in Oilers/Titans history to coach at least three playoff teams. The others are Fisher (six), Pardee (four), Phillips (three), Jerry Glanville (three) and Wally Lemm (three).

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival, major concerts and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

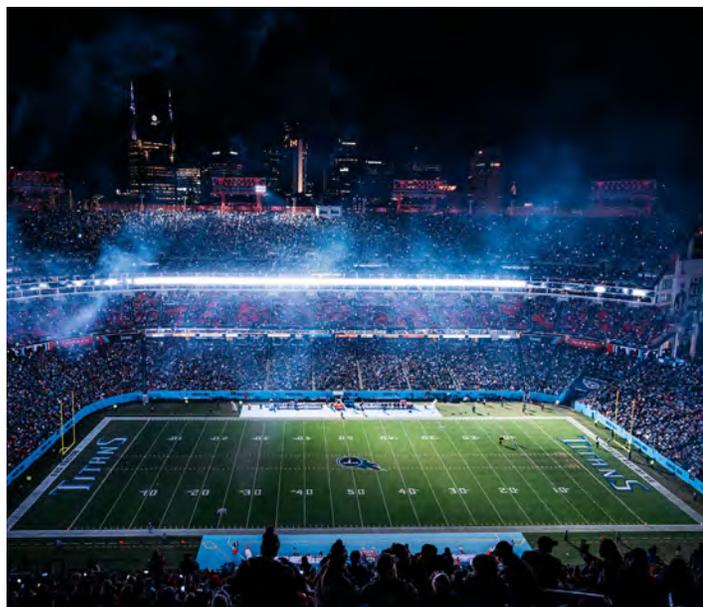

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.
