TITANS TRAVEL TO ATLANTA FOR PRACTICES AND PRESEASON GAME

Tennessee Titans (0-1) at Atlanta Falcons (0-1)

Friday, Aug. 15, 2025 • 7 p.m. EDT/6 p.m. CDT • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga. • TV: WKRN

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (0-1) are scheduled to spend the week in Atlanta for a pair of joint practices and a preseason game with the Falcons (0-1). Kickoff for the game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium (capacity 72,000) is scheduled for 7 p.m. EDT/6 p.m. CDT on Friday, Aug. 15.

Before they square off Friday night, the two clubs will engage in a pair of joint practices at IBM Performance Field (4400 Falcon Parkway, Flowery Branch, Ga.) on Tuesday, Aug. 12, and Wednesday, Aug. 13. Each practice session will begin at 10 a.m. EDT and last approximately two hours.

This is the second leg of a Titans road trip that began last week with a trip to Tampa Bay. The Titans and Buccaneers shared the practice field on Thursday prior to their game on Saturday. Following that contest, the Titans flew directly to Atlanta. They will return to Nashville following Friday night's game after nine total nights away from home.

THE BROADCAST

This week's contest will be televised regionally on the Titans Preseason TV Network, including flagship WKRN-News 2 in Nashville. Play-by-play announcer Paul Burmeister and analyst Charles Davis will call the action, and Cory Curtis will report from the sidelines.

During the preseason, fans in the Nashville market are able to livestream the broadcast on their mobile devices from the Titans Mobile App (iOS and Android), as well as on desktop computers and mobile web at TennesseeTitans.com. Restrictions apply.

Additionally, fans outside of Nashville can access live Titans preseason games with NFL+, which offers access to out-of-market preseason games across all devices, live local and primetime regular season and postseason games on mobile devices, live local and national audio for every game, and more.

WARD MAKES DEBUT IN PRESEASON OPENER

At Raymond James Stadium last week, Titans rookie quarterback Cameron Ward made his preseason debut. The first overall selection in the 2025 NFL Draft started against the Buccaneers and played the first two offensive series, completing five of eight passes for a team-high 67 yards and an 89.1 passer rating. An 11-play, 65-yard touchdown drive included five completions on six passing attempts by Ward, including a 27-yard strike to wide receiver Calvin Ridley. Two of Ward's completions converted third downs.

Ridley caught three total passes for a team-high 50 yards, while starting running back Tony Pollard scored the Titans' lone touchdown on a one-yard run. The Buccaneers kept the Titans off the scoreboard for the remainder of the game and won 29-7.

All three Titans quarterbacks saw action. Once Ward exited, veteran Brandon Allen finished the second quarter and took snaps through most of the third quarter. Tim Boyle finished the game as the third quarterback.

On defense, several regular starters opened the game and played one series. Undrafted rookie cornerback Davion Ross created the defense's lone takeaway, forcing a fumble and recovering the ball in the third quarter.

THE FALCONS

The Falcons went 8-9 and finished second in the NFC South in 2024, their first full season under head coach Raheem Morris. He was Tampa Bay's head coach

SERIES HISTORY

After 16 meetings in the regular season, the Titans lead the all-time series with the Falcons 9-7. The history dates back to 1972, three seasons into the AFL-NFL merger.

The series has had significant momentum swings. Prior to a win by Tennessee in 2019, the Falcons won the previous two matchups in 2011 and 2015 after the Titans took five consecutive meetings from 1993 to 2007. The Falcons won four out of the first five contests from 1972 to 1984.

In the 2019 clash, the Titans traveled to Atlanta to make their first appearance at Mercedes-Benz Stadium, which opened in 2017. Titans rookie wide receiver A.J. Brown scored the first two touchdowns of his career, and outside linebacker Harold Landry III accounted for two of the team's five sacks against Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan. Derrick Henry added 100 rushing yards in a 24-10 victory.

The Titans are 3-1 versus the Falcons at Nissan Stadium, which opened in 1999. The last meeting there was played on Oct. 29, 2023 with then-rookie quarterback Will Levis making his first career start for the Titans in place of Ryan Tannehill. Levis became the third player in NFL history with four touchdown passes in his NFL debut (Marcus Mariota and Fran Tarkenton), leading the Titans to a 28-23 victory.

From 1992 to 2016, the Falcons made their home at the Georgia Dome, where the Titans/Oilers finished 2-1. The Titans also played in Super Bowl XXXIV at the Georgia Dome against the St. Louis Rams.

The Titans and Falcons have met seven times in the preseason during the "Titans era" (1999-present). The first preseason game ever played at Nissan Stadium was a 17-3 victory for the Titans over the Falcons on Aug. 27, 1999.

TITANS-FALCONS: THE LAST MEETING

2023 Week 8: Titans 28, Falcons 23

Sunday, Oct. 29, 2023 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 8 of the 2023 season, the Titans came off their bye to take on the Atlanta Falcons and won by a score of 28-23 with rookie QB Will Levis making his Titans starting debut and throwing for four touchdowns and 238 yards.

The Falcons got on the board first with a 29-yard field goal from K Younghoe Koo after recovering a fumble at the Titans 28-yard line on the opening possession. Atlanta drove down to the Tennessee seven-yard line, but OLB Harold Landry III sacked QB Desmond Ridder for a three-yard loss on third-and-five to force the field goal. It was one of six sacks the Tennessee defense had on the day.

Later in the first quarter, Tennessee scored its first touchdown of the day on a four-play, 61-yard drive ending with a 47-yard pass from Levis to WR DeAndre Hopkins to take the 7-3 lead.

In the middle of the second quarter, DT Jeffery Simmons stripped-sacked Ridder and the fumble was recovered by LB Azeez Al-Shaair at the Atlanta 33-yard line. Tennessee capitalized on the turnover with another Levis to Hopkins touchdown connection, this time for a 16-yard score.

Atlanta opened the second half with a 49-yard field goal from Koo to make it 14-6 with 12:02 left in the third.

With 3:02 left in the third, Koo made his third field goal of the day after QB Taylor Heinicke drove the Falcons down to the Tennessee 21-yard line with three completions to three different receivers for 49 yards.

The Titans answered on the ensuing drive with a third touchdown for Levis and Hopkins. RB Derrick Henry opened the drive with a 14-yard rush, he would go on to finish with 101 rushing yards. Levis then found Hopkins for the 61-yard touchdown to make it 21-9 with 1:37 left in the third.

Atlanta responded with their first touchdown of the day on a 13-yard touchdown run by RB Bijan Robinson to cut the lead to five. Heinicke connected with WR KhaDarel Hodge for a 52-yard gain to put the Falcons at the Tennessee 22-yard line before the score.

The two teams traded punts before Tennessee took over at their own 15-yard line. The Titans strung together a nine-play, 85-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 23-yard run by RB Tyjae Spears that culminated in a 33-yard touchdown toss from Levis to WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine to take a 28-16 lead which proved to be the difference.

Falcons responded on the next drive with a eight-play, 75-yard drive, ending in a eight-yard touchdown pass from Heinicke to WR Scotty Miller to make it 28-23 with 3:46 left in the game.

The Titans held on for the win as the Falcons were unable to gain another first down as Tennessee ended in victory formation.

Raheem Morris enters his second season with Atlanta after being named the 19th head coach in Falcons history on Jan. 25, 2024. Morris spent the previous three seasons (2021-23) as defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams.

In 2024, the Falcons' defense finished the season allowing the third-least opponent plays of 20-or-more yards (52). Offensively, Atlanta finished sixth in offensive yards per game (369.8), fifth in passing yards per game (239.3) and 10th in rushing yards per game (130.5). Running back Bijan Robinson and special teamer KhaDarel Hodge both were elected to their first-career Pro Bowls while guard Chris Lindstrom was elected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl. Led by Morris, the team finished with a 4-2 record against NFC South opponents.

During his tenure with the Rams, Los Angeles made two postseason appearances and captured a title in Super Bowl LVI. With Morris, Los Angeles' defense recorded the fourth-best red zone efficiency rating and the seventh-fewest rushing yards per game in the NFL.

During the 2021 season that culminated in a Super Bowl title, the Rams defense averaged 1.5 takeaways per game and featured three players – Aaron Donald, Leonard Floyd and Von Miller – ranked in the top 20 in sacks. Additionally, Morris' unit ranked third in sacks (50) and fifth in tackles for loss (85) during the regular season.

Prior to Los Angeles, Morris spent six seasons (2015-20) with the Falcons in a variety of roles including assistant head coach/passing game coordinator (2015, 2017-18), assistant head coach/wide receivers (2016), assistant head coach/wide receivers/secondary (2019) and defensive coordinator (2020) before serving as Atlanta's interim head coach for the final 12 weeks of the 2020 season.

Morris joined the Falcons after spending three seasons as defensive backs coach for the Washington Commanders. Prior to arriving in Washington, Morris spent three seasons as the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2009 to 2011. Morris was the league's youngest head coach in 2009 and in 2010. The Buccaneers made their best turnaround in franchise history in 2010 at 10-6 after going 3-13 in 2009.

Morris made his NFL coaching debut with Tampa Bay as a defensive quality control coach in 2002, when the club won Super Bowl XXXVII.

Morris played safety at Hofstra from 1994-97 and received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

LAST WEEK VS. THE BUCCANEERS

Preseason Week 1: Titans 7, Buccaneers 29

Saturday, Aug. 9, 2025 • 7:30 p.m. EDT • Raymond James Stadium

The Titans opened the 2025 preseason with a 29-7 loss at Raymond James Stadium against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in a contest that saw 80 different Titans players appear in the game.

Tampa Bay won the coin toss and opened the game with a seven-play, 55-yard drive that culminated in a 45-yard field goal by K Chase McLaughlin to give the Buccaneers an early 3-0 lead.

After the Buccaneers defense forced a three-and-out on the Titans first offensive possession, Tampa Bay took over at their own 20-yard line. QB Kyle Trask engineered a 17-play, 80-yard drive that took 10 minutes and 48 seconds off the clock and ended in a two-yard touchdown run by RB Sean Tucker to give the Buccaneers a 10-0 lead early into the second quarter.

The Titans responded with a touchdown drive of their own. QB Cameron Ward led the team 65 yards on 11 plays including three completions to WR Calvin Ridley for 50 yards. RB Tony Pollard punched it in for the score on a one-yard run to make it 10-7 with 8:17 left in the second quarter.

To open the second half, QB Brandon Allen marched the Titans down to the Tampa Bay eight-yard line, but was unable to convert on fourth-and-two and turned the ball over on downs.

The Titans defense forced a three-and-out on the next possession. Allen took over at the Titans 26-yard line after a 33-yard punt return by WR James Proche II was negated due to a holding penalty. Allen was intercepted five plays later by LB Nick Jackson.

On the ensuing Buccaneers' offensive possession, CB Davion Ross punched the ball out from WR Jacob Harris and was able to recover the fumble to give Tennessee the ball back at their own 11-yard line.

Both teams then traded punts before Tampa Bay took over at the Tennessee 41-yard line in the middle of the fourth quarter. RB Owen Wright brought the Buccaneers down to the 18-yard line on three carries for 23 yards before Tampa Bay was forced to settle for a 36-yard field goal by K Ryan Coe to make it 16-7 with 5:36 left in the fourth quarter.

QB Tim Boyle took over at quarterback for the Titans and was intercepted on his third play from scrimmage to give Tampa Bay the ball back at the Tennessee 30-yard line. The Buccaneers capitalized on the turnover and scored three plays later on a 15-yard touchdown run by Wright to give the Buccaneers the 22-7 advantage with 3:25 left in the game.

On the next Titans drive, Boyle was intercepted again, this time for a pick-six by CB Roman Parodie to make the final score 29-7 and drop the Titans to 0-1 in the preseason.

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

Opening Statement

A couple [of] things – some good, some bad. A lot of guys [got] their first NFL action which was good to see. I thought Cam (Ward) played well in his two series that he got. Kind of a weird first half with three possessions. [Cam Ward] had one three-and-out then came back and led a touchdown drive, I thought he looked good. He started to feel a little bit more comfortable, he was begging to go back in but that wasn't in the cards for tonight. I thought he did some good things, and it was encouraging. Too many turnovers, I think that blew the game open at the end there was the turnovers. But it was a one possession game into the fourth quarter and had a chance potentially to go win it and didn't do enough good things offensively or defensively to try to make that happen. I thought we did a nice job defensively bowing up in the red zone. We gave up some yards I think and all the groups that went in but ended up finding a way to keep them out of the end zone for the most part for most of the game, which was good to see. [We have to] clean up the turnovers – it got sloppy late which was disappointing to see but I think there were some good things and plenty to correct.

(On the conversation after the three-and-out in the first series)

Just get ready to go back and do it again. There wasn't a whole lot to talk about as far as good or bad. We just -- just like the normal flow of the game is you come off the field, go through it, see what the picture looked like and what we could have done and what could have been different and move onto the next series. Pretty run of the mill.

(On overcoming a penalty on their touchdown drive)

Yeah it was great. I mean to overcome a penalty in a drive is hard to do and it was good to see us do it. I thought he made two really nice throws to get us back into manageable spot and then converted to third down – always excellent to see overcoming those holes, you don't like to get put in them, but they happen occasionally and it was good to see us come out of it.

(On the completions to WR Calvin Ridley following the penalty)

That's exactly what you hope for. I thought – the pass protection I think for most of the game was pretty good. I think Kalel [Mullings] gave up one on a one-on-one pick up in the second half there. For the most part, I thought the protection – the offensive line part of it was solid, so that was good to see. That play went about as [well] as you could ask for, unless he would've scored it might have been a little better.

(On how he measures success against the Buccaneers' backups)

It's a grain of salt. It was obviously their backups. They have good depth, I mean that's a good football team. Their twos up front were solid, I think we felt that in practice as well. I mean, that was their twos and that was our ones and I think we did what we would expect to do in that particular case.

(On any update with RB Tyjae Spears)

Further evaluation, we'll see. It looks like it's probably an ankle that we'll see what the severity is as we evaluate a little bit further. I'll have news for that probably another day here.

(On how WR Bryce Oliver stepped up)

Bryce continues to make plays. I think anytime he's been given the opportunity, even last year during training camp and the preseason he continues to find ways to make the plays when we need one. I'm proud of what he has done, I'm proud of his journey and what he has shown us and I think he has a chance to really help us throughout the rest of camp and hopefully in the regular season if he continues the trajectory he is on. Pleased with Bryce and happy with what he has done.

(On the performance of LB James Williams Sr.)

That was good to see. I think those two young linebackers, him and Cedric

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

[Gray], they played a good handful of snaps. James set the tone on the opening kickoff, I thought that was a heck of a play. When you saw him he was flying around, him and Ced both were productive – I can't remember exactly how many tackles they had but I think it was six, seven tackles a piece. They were active, flying around – It was good to see.

(On the field conditions)

I was concerned about it at first, but I think as the rain held off, thankfully didn't really see much effect of it as the game went on. Certainly, it looked – it maybe looked worst than it played but I was concerned about it at first. Didn't seem to have any issues with it.

(On the operation with QB Cam Ward)

We had no operational issues, no procedure issues. We got lined up, we were never really down on the clock too far. It was a good, he even checked a play at the line of scrimmage, which was good to see him have that kind of confidence to operate. It was good, I thought the operation was clean, he did what we would hope he would do in his first action and he is going to get more of it to come.

(On reevaluating the quarterback room)

I think anytime that you get the chance to see guys play in a game, you look at it see what was good, what was bad. I think Brandon [Allen] had some good plays, I think there was a play or two – that interception was unfortunate, I mean it's a tipped ball and a guy makes a one-handed catch, that's unfortunate, I hate to see it. I think we have to play better for sure at that spot. I think over the totality of those reps at the end of the second half of the game when Cam [Ward] came out – keep looking at it, keep trying to get better.

QUARTERBACK CAMERON WARD(On the Titans generating a scoring drive on their second possession)

It felt good, just for us to get more than three plays under our belt, for us to get a rhythm as an offense. It's a lot of guys' first time playing together but it felt good to come up with points.

(On how the sequencing of receiving play calls and leading the huddle felt)

It felt good operation-wise. We really didn't have any [missed assignments]. I think the biggest thing was just us being able to play in a real game atmosphere together, getting the vibe of each other and then playing together like we did.

(On the speed of the game being what he expected)

It was. It's not really too different from college. It's just more being, I would say, alerted on third downs...Just the 'cans' you can get to in Coach Callahan's offense and then just getting the ball out when it needs to be out.

(On the deep completion to WR Calvin Ridley)

Offensive line, I think that was a big reason why we were able to move the ball our second drive. Those guys – they came up front and they had the mindset to go get it. They gave me enough time to put the ball in Rid's hands and let him make a play and they were the reason why we finished off that drive with points.

(On if he could have made a play on the third down on the first series)

On the third down one, the timing wasn't there from a standpoint of what it's always been, but in a game that's when you just have to be reactive. I got out of the pocket too early. I could've painted the ball to Calvin Ridley and [Tyler] Lockett once I looked at the film. But that's just stuff I have to get better at, just being able to play post-snap, as well.

(On if he wanted to play another drive)

I wanted to go for a third, especially after we got away with some points but Coach Callahan has got a plan for us. I'm going to stick to his plan and I know he's going to put us in the best situation.

(On getting to the game six hours before kickoff)

It passes by quickly. Especially when you keep your mind busy. At Miami, we used to be at the game early, so it really doesn't change anything for me process-wise. I am just playing at a higher level.

(On how he passes the time before the game)

Sit back, relax, reminisce, watch film, watch a movie, just getting my mind in the right headspace that I need to be in.

(On the movie he watched before the game)

It just came out, I'll look it up. It was a John Cena movie. I didn't finish it.

(On if he always shows up six hours early to games)

It just depends on the game. At Miami when we had night games, we'd show up a little bit earlier. We have a lot of noon games this year so it'll be normal time, like four hours before the game.

(On the movie he watched before the game)

The movie was called Freelance. I didn't finish it yet so I'll let you all know how it goes.

(On the grass at Raymond James Stadium)

The field conditions – you can tell they just put the new grass out there. It felt good. I played here a year ago versus USF and I love playing on grass so it didn't really matter to me.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(On where he wants to improve most)

I just think my biggest one is that I have to maximize my drives. I had a three-and-out in the first quarter and that's all we did. So, just maximizing my drives and just try to continuously move the chains to give the defense a break.

(On what Head Coach Brian Callahan communicated after the first drive)

Didn't really say [anything]. He's just cool. He said I have another series, go back out there and try to score some points.

(On what his normal procedure is when coming off the field to end a drive)

I for sure look at the tablet first – it's different because in college, you can actually watch the play. Here, it's all pictures – you can't really watch the play. But, that's really all I do - I look at the tablet. Once I know what I need to get better at after that drive with what the defense is doing, if they stopped us or not, I just watch our defense go and get a stop for us.

(On what the next steps are in his development are for the next preseason game)

Just playing above the sticks – not getting behind the sticks. Also, just getting the ball out fast – letting my playmakers make plays for us. I think that's what we were able to do on the second drive. Also, just playing at a faster pace – getting in and out of the huddle. [Head] Coach [Brian] Callahan gets me the play call pretty fast, so I'm just trying to play faster.

WIDE RECEIVER CHIMERE DIKE

(On what to improve after the first preseason game)

It's just little details. There are always one or two plays that you kind of wish you had back, but at the same time I think that I did some good things out there and there's a lot to learn from but a lot to grow on as well.

(On deep incompleteness with 14:10 left in 3rd quarter)

I felt myself pop – pop open. I know Brandon Allen had some pressure in his face and I totally understand how he wasn't able to quite get it there, but that's something that we'll be get to connect on and clean up.

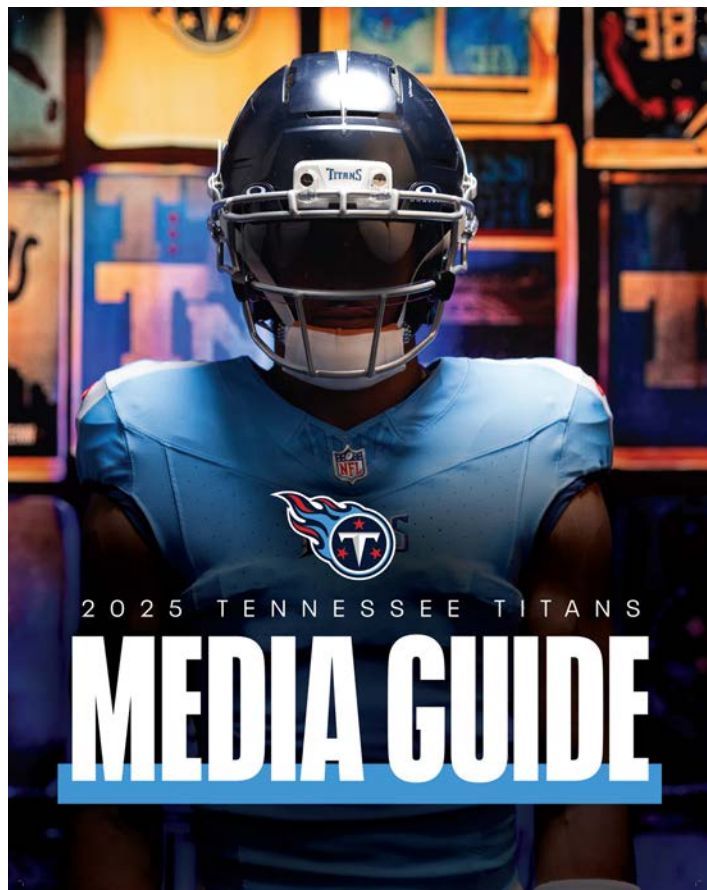

WIDE RECEIVER BRYCE OLIVER

(On the opportunity to play today and get reps)

It's always a blessing. I want to thank God for this opportunity, first of all – first and foremost. It's good always to get some reps – on offense, on special teams and whatever new opportunity, you just have to make the best of it. I don't know what everybody else did, I'm just focused on myself but obviously I'm pretty sure there's stuff to fix and we're going to go watch the film tomorrow, or whenever we watch film, we're going to correct it.

(On 11-yard reception on third down with 12:07 left in the 3rd quarter)

It's always iterating, when the ball is thrown to me, just make a play. I take that sense of pride. When the ball is thrown my way, I have to catch it.

2025 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Kansas City, Houston, Los Angeles Chargers and Los Angeles Rams and road contests at Houston and Denver. Four of those six games are against 2024 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Kansas City (AFC West) and the Los Angeles Rams (NFC West). The six games against reigning playoff clubs matches the total from last year. Prior to the 2024 season, the last time the Titans had six or fewer games against reigning playoff clubs was the 2020 campaign when they had five such games.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Jaguars, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Cameron Ward with this year's first overall pick. The team will face four of the next five selected players from the draft in Travis Hunter (second overall – Jacksonville), Will Campbell (fourth overall - New England Patriots), Mason Graham (fifth overall – Cleveland) and Ashton Jeanty (sixth overall - Las Vegas).
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: There are seven NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face four of them: New Orleans' Kellen Moore, Jacksonville's Liam Coen, Las Vegas' Pete Carroll and New England's Mike Vrabel. The Titans will also face off against two of the top five longest tenured coaches: Kansas City's Andy Reid (third-longest tenure – 13 years) and the Los Angeles Rams' Sean McVay (fifth-longest tenure – nine years).
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2024 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2024, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New England Patriots and the NFC South's fourth-place New Orleans Saints, and they visit the AFC North's fourth-place Cleveland Browns. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .450 (130-159) based upon their opponents' combined 2024 record, the 29th most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.

- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will play in every continental United States time zone at least twice during the 2025 regular season. They will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups, including every home contest as well as at Houston. The Titans have three trips to the Eastern time zone (at Cleveland, at Jacksonville and at Indianapolis). The farthest they will travel is Santa Clara, Calif., to face the 49ers (Pacific time zone). Tennessee will visit Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas for the first time to face the Raiders on the franchise's first trip to the state of Nevada. Other road trips include Glendale, Ariz., to meet the Cardinals and Denver, Colo., to face the Broncos (both in the Mountain time zone). This is the first time since 2019 in which the team will play in every continental U.S. time zone.
- ORIGINAL AFL TEAMS: This season, the Titans will face off against five of the other seven original AFL teams: Kansas City Chiefs (formerly Dallas Texans), New England Patriots (Boston Patriots), Los Angeles Chargers, Las Vegas Raiders (Oakland Raiders) and Denver Broncos.

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- WEEK 1 at DENVER BRONCOS: The Titans kick off the 2025 season at Denver, which marks the fourth time in franchise history the team has opened a season against the Broncos, including most recently a 16-14 victory on opening weekend of the 2020 season. The Titans own a 24-16-1 record against the Broncos dating back to 1960. Current Titans linebacker and free agent signing Cody Barton spent last season with the Broncos. Head coach Brian Callahan began his NFL coaching career in 2010 with Denver, where he spent six seasons. His tenure with the Broncos was highlighted by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50.
- WEEK 2 vs. LOS ANGELES RAMS: The Titans own a 6-7 regular season record against the Rams in the all-time series. In 2025, the Titans will host Los Angeles for the first time since Christmas Eve in 2017, when the visiting Rams pulled out a 27-23 victory. The Titans hold a 2-1 advantage in the series when played at Nissan Stadium. The last time the two teams met was on Sunday Night Football in 2021, when the Titans won 28-16. The only postseason meeting between the teams was a memorable one in Super Bowl XXXIV, with the Titans falling to the then-St. Louis Rams 23-16.

- WEEK 3 (H) & WEEK 8 (A) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' four-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Colts third-year head coach Shane Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles at the same time that Titans defensive coordinator Dennard Wilson was on the Eagles staff as defensive backs coach (2021) and defensive backs coach/defensive passing game coordinator (2022), culminating with Philadelphia's appearance in Super Bowl LVII.
- WEEK 4 (A) & WEEK 11 (H) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The reigning AFC South champion Texans have won the division the last two years. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last eight years, including last year when the Titans captured a 32-27 victory at Houston in November before falling at home in the season finale, 23-14. The Titans have a slight advantage in the series, leading 24-22 in 46 matchups since 2002. The Texans offense will feature first-time offensive coordinator Nick Caley calling plays for third-year quarterback CJ Stroud.
- WEEK 5 at ARIZONA CARDINALS: The Cardinals and Titans meet for the first time since 2021 and for the 12th time in history. Arizona holds an 8-4 lead over the Titans in the series. With only 12 games between the two franchises, the Cardinals rank as the second-least frequent opponent in Titans/Oilers history (Carolina Panthers, seven total meetings). This will be the Titans' first visit to Phoenix since the 2017 season and only the second visit to State Farm Stadium, which originally opened in 2006. The Titans look to snap a three-game losing streak against the Cardinals.
- WEEK 6 at LAS VEGAS RAIDERS: In a clash between two of the original members of the American Football League, the Titans trek to Nevada for the first time in franchise history when they take on the Las Vegas Raiders at Allegiant Stadium. The last time Tennessee traveled to face the Raiders was 2019, the franchise's final season in Oakland before it relocated to Las Vegas in 2020. Tennessee put up 21 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Raiders 42-21. The Raiders hold a 30-22 advantage in the all-time series, including wins in all four postseason meetings. The Titans have won the last two meetings, most recently a 24-22 win in September of 2022 at Nissan Stadium in Nashville.
- WEEK 7 vs. NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS: The Titans will host New England for the first time since Mike Vrabel became New England's head coach after spending six seasons (2018-23) at the Titans helm. The Titans hosted the Patriots last season and won 20-17. Outside linebacker Harold Landry III signed with the Patriots during the 2025 offseason after spending his first seven NFL seasons with the Titans and rising to eighth in franchise history in career sacks (50.5). In addition to Vrabel, the Patriots staff includes several other former Titans coaches, including current Patriots defensive coordinator Terrell Williams.
- WEEK 9 vs. LOS ANGELES CHARGERS: The Titans and Chargers meet for the fourth consecutive season. Most recently, the Chargers captured a 27-17 victory when the Titans traveled to SoFi Stadium in 2024. The last time the Titans hosted the Chargers, Tennessee won 27-24 in overtime on Sept. 17, 2023. The Titans have won the last three matchups at Nissan Stadium dating back to 2013. The rivalry dates back to the inaugural 1960 AFL season, with the Chargers owning a 30-19-1 lead in the series. The two franchises met in the first two AFL Championship games (1960-61), with the Houston Oilers capturing the title on both occasions.
- WEEK 10 (BYE): The Week 10 bye comes five weeks later than the Week 5 bye the Titans had in 2024. Week 10 marks the latest bye the Titans have had since the 2021 season, when their bye was Week 13.
- WEEK 12 vs. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS: Two second-year head coaches meet for the first time in the regular season when Seattle's Mike Macdonald and Tennessee's Brian Callahan lead their teams. The clubs held joint practices and played a preseason game in Nashville during the 2024 preseason. Seattle pulled out a 20-17 victory during their last visit to Nissan Stadium on Christmas Eve in 2023. The only postseason matchup between the franchises came in the 1988 Wild Card round when the Oilers defeated the Seahawks 23-20 in overtime. This year's game could feature two newly-acquired quarterbacks with Tennessee's Cameron Ward, taken with the first overall draft pick in 2025, and Seattle's Sam Darnold, the 2025 unrestricted free agent addition for the Seahawks and former number three overall selection in 2018.

- WEEK 13 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 31st season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign. This year, the contest could feature the top two draft picks of the 2025 class: Titans quarterback Cameron Ward and wide receiver/cornerback Travis Hunter, who the Jaguars drafted with the second-overall pick after trading up. The Titans, who lead the all-time series 35-26 (including postseason), look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept by the Jaguars in 2024.
- WEEK 14 at CLEVELAND BROWNS: The Titans travel to Cleveland to face the Browns in the 70th meeting between the teams, including the postseason. The Browns hold a 37-32 lead in the all-time series, winning the most recent matchup 27-3 when Tennessee last visited Huntington Bank Field in September 2023. The only playoff game between the two teams came in the Wild Card round of the 1988 postseason, with the Oilers pulling out a 24-23 victory on the road in Cleveland.
- WEEK 15 at SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS: The Titans travel to Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., for the second time in the venue's history and the first time since 2017. The teams last met in 2021 for a 20-17 Titans win on a Thursday night at Nissan Stadium in Nashville. The 49ers hold a 9-6 lead in the all-time series. Quarterback Brock Purdy enters his fourth NFL season with the 49ers, who are also led by the 2023 AP Offensive Player of the Year, running back Christian McCaffrey.
- WEEK 16 vs. KANSAS CITY CHIEFS: The Titans host the Kansas City Chiefs for the first time since 2021, when the Titans won by a final score of 27-3. The series between two original AFL rivals dates back to 1960, with the Chiefs holding a 28-24 edge in the series. Titans first-year general manager Mike Borgonzi spent the past 16 years with the Chiefs organization, most recently serving as Kansas City's assistant general manager.
- WEEK 17 vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS: The Titans will host the Saints and first-year head coach Kellen Moore when New Orleans travels to Nashville for the first time since 2021. The last two meetings between the two teams have been decided by a total of three points, with the Saints winning 16-15 in the 2023 season opener at the Caesars Superdome and the Titans winning 23-21 in November 2021 at Nissan Stadium. The Titans hold a 9-7-1 record in the all-time series.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

In Borgonzi's first offseason in Tennessee, the Titans acquired several veteran free agents. Among the most notable signings were tackle Dan Moore Jr. (previously with Pittsburgh); guard Kevin Zeitler (Detroit); linebacker Cody Barton (Denver); outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones (Seattle); wide receivers Van Jefferson (Pittsburgh) and Tyler Lockett (Seattle); safety Xavier Woods (Carolina); punter Johnny Hekker (Carolina); and kicker Joey Slye (New England).

In April, Borgonzi led the process that concluded with the selection of Miami (Fla.) quarterback Cameron Ward with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. The team's nine total draft choices also included UCLA outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (second round), Penn State safety Kevin Winston Jr. (third round), Florida wide receiver Chimere Dike (fourth round), Texas tight end Gunnar Helm (fourth round), Stanford wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (fourth round), Sacramento State offensive lineman Jackson Slater (fifth round), California cornerback Marcus Harris (sixth round) and Michigan running back Kalel Mullings (sixth round).

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23) over a six-season span.

From 2017 to 2024, Borgonzi worked under Chiefs general manager Brett Veach. As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as assistant general manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

During his first season as head coach, Callahan guided a team that underwent significant personnel changes. In Week 1, 11 players started for the team who were added during the offseason—five players on offense and six on defense. Two of those players on offense, running back Tony Pollard (1,079 rushing yards) and wide receiver Calvin Ridley (1,017 receiving yards), went on to produce 1,000-yard seasons rushing and receiving, respectively.

All seven members of the Titans' 2024 draft class saw action in at least seven games as rookies. First-rounder JC Latham was the NFL's only rookie in 2024 to start 17 games at left tackle, while second-rounder T'Vondre Sweat appeared in every game and led all rookie defensive linemen in defensive snaps (667). Fifth-round cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr. was one of five NFL rookie defensive backs to start at least 14 games in 2024.

Defensively, the Titans finished Callahan's first season ranked second overall (311.2 opponent yards per game) and second in passing defense (177.3) despite a unit that suffered significant injuries. The starting secondary of safety Quandre Diggs (eight games played), safety Amani Hooker (14 games played), cornerback L'Jarius Sneed (five games played) and cornerback Chidobe Awuzie (eight games played) missed a combined total of 33 games.

Callahan, who at age 40 became the second-youngest head coach in Titans/Oilers history behind Jeff Fisher (36), arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) and fourth in passing touchdowns (29) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. In 2016, Stafford's eight game-winning drives were the most by a quarterback in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015. He began as a coaching assistant (2010) before transitioning to offensive quality control coach (2011-12), offensive assistant coach (2013-14) and finally offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach (2015). In 2013, Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning won the Associated Press NFL MVP award after completing a league-record 55 touchdown passes. Callahan's tenure in Denver was capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign. Before reaching the NFL, Callahan spent time at his alma mater, UCLA, as a graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007. He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

Born in Champaign, Ill., Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking.

He and his wife, Allyson, have a son, Ronan, and a daughter, Norah. He is the son of longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current Titans offensive line coach.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

During his first two seasons, Skoronski started 31 games at left guard. After missing three of the first four games during his rookie season due to an appendectomy, he started the next 30 games through the end of the 2024 campaign. In 2024, he did not miss a snap.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 16th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2024, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fourth consecutive season. With 68 consecutive games played in his first four seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2024 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 12th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

With Cox serving as the team's long snapper, kicker Nick Folk led the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season in 2024. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt. Also in 2024, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the second consecutive year.

Cox finished the 2024 season with a career total of 233 games played. He ranked 10th among all active NFL players, and his total also moved him past Reggie White (232 games) for the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.
