TITANS RETURN FROM BYE, HOST COLTS AT NISSAN STADIUM

Tennessee Titans (1-3) vs. Indianapolis Colts (2-3)

Sunday, Oct. 13, 2024 • Noon CDT • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-3) return from their bye this week to host the Indianapolis Colts (2-3) in their first AFC South clash of 2024. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (69,143) is scheduled for noon CDT on Sunday, Oct. 13.

Two second-year quarterbacks—Tennessee's Will Levis and Indianapolis' Anthony Richardson—could potentially meet for the first time in their professional careers this week. However, Levis did not finish the Titans' most recent game at Miami due to an injury, and Richardson was inactive last week at Jacksonville with an injury of his own. In 2023, Richardson's rookie season came to a premature end due to an injury in a game against the Titans (Oct. 8), three weeks before Levis made his NFL debut.

This week also marks the Titans' annual Crucial Catch game. Each NFL team designates one game each season to raise awareness for early cancer detection and risk reduction. Sunday at Nissan Stadium will feature on-field and in-stadium Crucial Catch elements and also present opportunities to honor survivors and those currently battling cancer.

THE BROADCAST

This week's game will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Spero Dedes, analyst Adam Archuleta and reporter Aditi Kinkhabwala.

Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans action across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Ramon Foster, executive producer/gameday host Rhett Bryan and co-host Amie Wells.

TITANS LOOKING FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE WIN

Prior to their bye, the Titans traveled to Miami to meet the Dolphins on Monday Night Football. They rushed for 142 yards and two touchdowns, and Nick Folk connected on five field goals in a 31-12 victory. Brian Callahan earned his first victory as the franchise's head coach.

Levis exited the game at Miami in the first quarter due to an injured right shoulder. Backup Mason Rudolph went the rest of the way, completing nine of his 17 attempts for 85 yards with no turnovers.

On the ground, Tony Pollard led the Titans with 88 rushing yards on 22 carries, including a four-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. He added 20 yards on a pair of receptions to give him 108 total scrimmage yards.

The Titans defense held the Dolphins to 184 total yards and 78 net passing yards. Through four contests, the Titans have allowed a league-low 243.8 yards per game. Since 1970, that is their third-best defensive effort through four games and their best since allowing 243.5 yards per game in the first four games of 1990. The Titans defense also leads the NFL in passing defense, allowing 124.0 passing yards per contest.

THE COLTS

The Colts traveled to Jacksonville last week and fell to the Jaguars by a final score of 37-34. Quarterback Joe Flacco, in his 18th NFL season, started for the Colts in place of Richardson, who was out with an oblique injury. Flacco passed for 359 yards and three touchdowns in the loss.

Richardson was selected with the fourth overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft. The former University of Florida quarterback started four games as a rookie before being knocked out of action against the Titans in Week 5. This season, Richardson has passed for 654 yards and rushed for an additional 141 yards.

Shane Steichen is in his second campaign as the head coach of the Colts. The former Philadelphia Eagles offensive coordinator led the Colts to a 9-8 record in 2023, including six wins in the team's final nine contests.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Colts have played 59 all-time games, including playoffs. The Colts lead the series 37-22 after taking both contests in 2023, which ended the Titans' five-game winning streak in the series. The Titans swept the Colts in 2021 and 2022.

In the first meeting of 2023, the Colts hosted the Titans on Oct. 8 and won by a final score of 23-16. Colts rookie quarterback Anthony Richardson was injured during the game and replaced by veteran Gardner Minshew II, who was 11-of-14 for 155 yards passing. But it was running back Zack Moss who stole the show, rushing for 165 yards and a pair of touchdowns to lead the Colts.

In the 2023 rematch at Nissan Stadium, the Titans pushed the Colts to overtime before falling by a final score of 31-28. The Titans used a field goal to grab the lead in the extra period, but Minshew and wide receiver Michael Pittman Jr. then connected on a game-winning four-yard touchdown pass.

The Titans and Colts have met only once in the postseason, a 19-16 Titans victory in a Divisional Playoff game in the RCA Dome on Jan. 16, 1999. Eddie George rushed for 162 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown run to help lead Tennessee during its run to Super Bowl XXXIV.

Three years later, in 2002, the NFL realigned, and the AFC South was created. The Titans moved from the AFC Central, and the Colts moved from the AFC East to form half of the new division.

The teams first clashed in 1970 following the AFL-NFL merger. The then-Baltimore Colts defeated the then-Houston Oilers 24-20 during the Colts' run to a Super Bowl V Championship.

TITANS-COLTS: THE LAST MEETING

2023 Week 13: Titans 28, Colts 31
 Sunday, Dec. 3, 2023 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 13 of the 2023 season, the Titans hosted division rival Indianapolis Colts and lost in overtime by a score of 31-28.

The Titans scored on the opening possession, stringing together a four-play, 64-yard drive highlighted by a 39-yard completion from QB Will Levis to TE Chig Okonkwo to bring the Titans to the Colts 22-yard line. Two plays later RB Derrick Henry busted through the left side for the 22-yard score for an early 7-0 lead.

The Colts answered on the following possession with a three-play, 56-yard touchdown drive just one minute later. WR Isaiah McKenzie returned the kickoff 36 yards to the Indianapolis 44-yard line. A taunting penalty by Tennessee put the Colts at the Tennessee 36-yard line when QB Gardner Minshew found WR Alec Pierce for the 36-yard touchdown to tie the game at 7-7 with 12:05 left in the first.

Later in the first as the Titans were facing third-and-10, Levis was stripped-sacked by DE Samson Ebukam and the fumble was recovered by S Julian Blackmon before he fumbled the ball and it was then recovered by Levis to give the Titans a fresh set of downs at their own 48-yard line. The Titans drove down to the Colts 10-yard line, but ultimately settled for a 24-yard field goal by K Nick Folk to take the 10-7 lead.

Tennessee's defense forced a three-and-out to start the second quarter and the offense took over at the 23-yard line after a 56-yard punt. Levis found WR DeAndre Hopkins twice on the drive for 45 yards to get to the Indianapolis five-yard line where Henry finished it off with the five-yard score to give the Titans a 17-7 lead.

Indianapolis responded with a 24-yard field goal by K Matt Gay on the following possession. Later in the second quarter as the Colts were on the Titans five-yard line, DL Denico Autry strip-sacked Minshew and the fumble was recovered by DB Elijah Molden. But the Colts defense forced a three-and-out and Indianapolis was able to end the quarter with a 46-yard Gay field goal to make it 17-13 going into the half.

The Colts opened the second half with a 19-play, 70-yard drive that took more than 10 minutes off the clock and culminated in a 23-yard field goal by Gay to make it a one-point game.

The Colts were able to take the lead when P Ryan Stonehouse's punt was blocked by S Nick Cross and returned for a touchdown by LB Grant Stuard. On the two-point conversion attempt, S Amani Hooker picked off Minshew and returned it for two points for Tennessee to make it 22-19 Colts at the end of the third quarter.

The Colts stretched the lead to 25-19 after they were able to get to Stonehouse before he could punt it and recover what was ruled a fumble at the Tennessee seven-yard line. The Titans defense held strong as Colts settled for another field goal.

The Titans tied the game on a three-yard touchdown pass from Levis to Hopkins to cap off an 11-play, 75-yard drive, but the extra point was missed and it was 25-25 with 5:26 left.

The game then went into overtime. The Titans started with the ball and were forced to settle for 46-yard field goal. Indianapolis cashed in on the opportunity. A 55-yard connection from Minshew to Pierce put the Colts at the Titans four-yard line where Minshew ultimately found WR Michael Pittman Jr. for the game-winning touchdown.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

TITANS DEFENSE

- If the Titans defense holds its opponent under 200 net passing yards for the fifth consecutive game, it will be the team's first time doing so in each of the first five games of the season since 1986.
- The Titans defense can record its fifth consecutive game with at least two sacks. It would mark the team's seventh season since 1970 with at least two sacks in each of the first five games, and it would be the first such occasion since 2015.

- Needs three tackles to reach 500 career tackles (currently 497).

S QUANDRE DIGGS

- Enters the game with a streak of 71 consecutive games started, which trails only Kevin Byard (126), Patrick Queen (72) and Daron Payne (72) for the NFL's longest active streak among defensive players.
- Needs one interception to join seven other active NFL players to reach 25 for his career. Diggs is tied with Jordan Poyer (24) for the eighth-most interceptions among active players.

K NICK FOLK

- Enters the game with an all-time NFL-record streak of 79 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.
- With 389 career field goals, he needs four more to surpass Stephen Gostkowski (392) for 16th place in NFL history.
- Enters the game with a streak of 16 consecutive field goals made since Nov. 12, 2023, which is tied for the fifth-longest streak of his career. The franchise record for consecutive field goals made is 20, accomplished on five different occasions, including once by Folk in 2023.

WR DeANDRE HOPKINS

- With 79 touchdown receptions entering the contest, he can become the 33rd player in NFL history to reach 80 career touchdown receptions.
- Can extend his active streak to 167 consecutive games with a reception—every game he has played since he entered the NFL. He would tie Keyshawn Johnson (167) for the second-longest such streak to begin a career in NFL history behind only Marvin Harrison (190 consecutive games).
- Can register his 43rd career 100-yard receiving game and his fourth 100-yard game as a member of the Titans.

DE SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY

- Can record a sack in consecutive games for the first time in his career.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Enters the game with 45.5 career sacks, which ranks ninth in franchise history. He needs 2.5 sacks to tie Robert Brazile (48.0) for eighth place on the list. Landry owns the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51).
- Enters the contest with 9.5 sacks in his last 10 games.
- With one sack this week, he will be the Titans' first player to reach five sacks in the team's first five games of a season since Brian Orakpo (six) in 2016.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Needs six receptions to reach 100 for his career (94 entering the game).

RB TONY POLLARD

- Needs 133 rushing yards to reach 4,000 for his career (3,867 entering the game).

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Can record his 12th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards. Currently at 11 games, he holds the NFL's longest such active streak.

Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Colts on Feb. 14, 2023. Prior to arriving in Indianapolis, he served as the offensive coordinator for the Eagles, and in 2022, he helped Philadelphia reach Super Bowl LVII.

In his first year as a head coach, Steichen overcame a season-ending injury to the No. 4 overall pick in the 2023 draft, quarterback Anthony Richardson, to finish with a 9-8 record. The mark was good for a five-win improvement from the previous year and the team's first winning season since 2021.

During his two seasons in Philadelphia, Steichen coordinated an Eagles offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time. In 2022, the Eagles finished in the top 10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (389.1 – third), points per game (28.1 – third), and rushing yards per game (147.6 – fifth). In his second year with Eagles quarterback Jalen Hurts (2022), Steichen helped Hurts set career highs in completions (306), passing yards (3,701), passing touchdowns (22), completion percentage (66.5) and passer rating (101.5). Philadelphia was one of just two teams to have two 1,000-yard receivers (A.J. Brown and DeVonta Smith) as well as a 1,000-yard rusher (Miles Sanders). In 2021, he was instrumental in the development of Hurts, who passed for 3,144 yards and 16 touchdowns in his first season as a starter.

Before arriving in Philadelphia, Steichen spent nine total seasons (2011-12, 2014-20) in various roles on the coaching staff with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers, culminating with his role as interim offensive coordinator in 2019 and offensive coordinator in 2020. The Chargers offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards per game in each of his seven years on the offensive staff, including the league's best in 2017.

In 2020, Steichen helped rookie quarterback Justin Herbert to Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year honors.

He also spent one season as an offensive quality control coach with the Browns in 2013.

In the college ranks, Steichen spent one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010) and three seasons as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

As a four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns.

Steichen is a native of Sacramento, Calif.

LAST WEEK VS. THE DOLPHINS

Week 4: Titans 31, Dolphins 12 Monday, Sept. 30, 2024 • 7:30 p.m. EDT • Hard Rock Stadium

In Week 4 of the 2024 season, the Titans traveled to Miami to take on the Dolphins on Monday Night Football and won by a score of 31-12 to improve to 1-3 going into their bye week.

The Titans were aided by a career-high-tying five field goals from K Nick Folk, including three of 50-plus yards, and limiting the Dolphins offense to just 184 total yards.

The first quarter ended scoreless after both teams committed a turnover. QB Will Levis was intercepted by LB Emmanuel Ogbah on the opening drive. But OLB Arden Key got the ball back for the Titans after jumping on a backward pass that was ruled a fumble, ending the Dolphins drive. On the next possession, Levis scrambled and dove for the first down but was marked a yard short and was injured on the play. He would remain out for the rest of the game.

The Titans took a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter on a 53-yard field goal from Folk that capped a nine-play, 21-yard drive orchestrated by QB Mason Rudolph.

Tennessee's defense then came up with a big stop as S Quandre Diggs, CB Jarvis Brownlee Jr. and LB Kenneth Murray Jr. worked to stop WR Tyreek Hill short on a fourth-and-one. The stop led to another long field goal from Folk, this one from 52 yards out, to give the Titans a 6-0 lead with 8:20 left in the second stanza. The drive featured four rushes by RB Tyjae Spears for 24 yards.

The Dolphins cut the lead to 6-3 on a 44-yard field goal from K Jason Sanders.

With 16 seconds left in the half and no time outs, the Titans offense took the field at their own 44-yard line after the defense forced a three-and-out. Rudolph found WR Tyler Boyd for 27 yards and the offense sprinted up the field to spike the ball with one second left on the clock. Folk finished the drive with a 47-yard field goal to give the Titans the 9-3 lead at the half.

Miami made it 9-6 on a 56-yard field goal from Sanders with 9:02 left in the third quarter.

The Titans scored their first touchdown of the night on the next possession. A defensive pass interference penalty brought the Titans to the Miami 49-yard line before Pollard broke out for a 41-yard run. Facing first-and-goal at the seven yard line, Spears lined up in Wildcat, took the direct snap and burst into the end zone to make it 16-6 with 6:00 left in the third stanza.

The Titans defense forced another three-and-out with the help of a 10-yard sack by DE Sebastian Joseph-Day on the next possession. Folk extended the Titans lead to 19-6 with his fourth field goal of the night, this time from 51 yards out with 36 seconds left in the third.

Tennessee defense came up with their second fourth down stop to open the fourth quarter as LB Ernest Jones IV and DL James Lynch combined to drop RB De'Von Achane for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Miami 39-yard line. The offense capitalized on the field position with a 29-yard field goal by Folk to make it 22-6 with 10:45 left in the game.

Miami then strung together an 11-yard, 70-play drive capped off by a one-yard touchdown run by QB Tyler Huntley. The Dolphins attempted the two-point conversion but S Quandre Diggs intercepted the pass to make it 22-12 with 3:36 left.

The Titans then scored on a safety, after pressure from the defense forced an intentional grounding penalty by Huntley in the end zone.

Tennessee closed out the night with a four-yard touchdown run by Pollard to make it 31-12 with 24 seconds left. The Titans earned their first win of the season and the first 30-point offensive performance in over 1,000 days.

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

Just I want to start out first and foremost, just my thoughts are with all of the people that have been affected by Hurricane Helene. A lot of people in Tennessee and Carolina, lots of folks dealing with some pretty hard times that make this feel a little bit less significant sometimes. My thoughts are to them and all the people going through difficult challenges with the hurricane. Sad to see. Other than that, I'll just say Will (Levis) hurt his shoulder on that scramble on third down. Tried to come back. It was bothering him. Ended up doing what he had to do to try to get back in the game, and ultimately I knew what kind of game it was going to be. With the bye week next week didn't want to expose him to any further risk. He tried everything he could to go, but it was bothering him pretty significantly so made the decision to hold him out. Same thing with Jeff (Simmons). Jeff's elbow was bothering him. With the bye week backed up, it made the most sense to rest him for the week and give him one more week after that to be ready to roll for the long term as opposed to trying to force him back for this particular game. So the rest kind of factored into both of those decisions at this point, and hopefully that answers those questions. Really big shoutout to Nick Folk going five-for-five on field goals today. Hitting from 53, 52, 51, 47, and 29. That's a good day's work for the old man. Making some big plays there for us. We needed all the points we could get. That was really good. Thought our defense did a great job. Held them to, what, 70-something yards in the first half. They're playing with a backup quarterback and that's what you're supposed to do to teams that are playing like that and our guys stepped up, got our first turnover. And I'll let you guys ask what you want to ask from there

How good does it feel to win?

I don't know if I can put it into words for you. It feels great. Most importantly because our guys deserve it. These guys work hard. They practice hard. Do everything right.

They deserve to win. I felt like we practice like we are a 3-0 team. I said it at the end of the week. The way our guys practice and focus is fantastic and to be short on these couple games to start was disappointing. For them, they deserve it. It feels great. Good to see some smiles, some energy, and I thought we played a really good game tonight.

To be clear, when Will Levis is healthy, he's still your quarterback?

One hundred percent. Will's healthy, he's our quarterback. It was not a decision based on anything other than his health and protecting him, particularly with the bye week and a shoulder that didn't feel great. I didn't want to put him back out there. And I knew I was going to run the ball quite a bit. That was really what factored in, but he's our starter when he's healthy and we are ready to roll with him.

Is it his throwing shoulder and will he have an MRI?

We'll do all the work on the precautionary stuff. I don't think it's going to be anything too serious other than normal AC style injury. We'll see. I've been wrong before, so we will wait until the MRI gets done. As of right now, I don't think it's a long-term issue for us.

Leaning so much on the run, was that the plan coming in or did you kind of shift that way?

No, that was going to be the plan coming in. I knew the style of play we needed to win this game. I knew they were going to have some trouble offensively. I knew that we were going to be able to run the ball effectively on them. To lean on that and make it a physical game and make sure we possessed the ball as long as possible was part of initial plan in this game to go that way. It wouldn't have looked much different, but we definitely felt the run was going to give us the best chance to win against this defense.

Is this the exact kind of situation that you bring a guy like Mason Rudolph in for?

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Yeah, 100 percent. Everything about Mason is professional. He didn't bat an eye when he walked in the game, our guys didn't bat an eye. He did exactly what you want a guy to do in that situation, is come in and operate. He was pretty clean operation-wise. We got the ball, got the plays called, all those things were really good. He was prepared and ready to go and he is a pro. That's why we brought him in, is for a situation like this and he did a nice job.

What becomes of that game ball?

That one is going to go somewhere special for me. You only get your first first win once, and I will probably put that up in my house somewhere, maybe my office at some point, so I can remember what it was like to win my first game on Monday Night Football.

Did Amy Adams Strunk present that to you in the locker room?

She did. Yeah, it was a really cool moment for me and her to be able to present that.

Did your mind kind of drift towards the end about the win when it was in-hand or how did you kind of cycle through thinking about that?

No, no, I was calling the game all the way up to the end there for the most part. I was trying to make sure – that onside kick scared the hell out of me. I had forgotten that that's the new rule on the onside kick, so was ripping 'Q' for not catching the ball, but the ball has to still land in the appropriate zone. I wasn't thinking about anything other than that really for about three minutes after that play.

Did Jha'Quan know that was the rule?

I don't know if he knew that or not. I'm not going to give him the benefit of the doubt. He might have. I yelled at him afterwards in the locker room just to make sure he knew I was not happy about it. He goes, 'Coach, the ball has got to land inside the 40.' I said, 'I don't care. Catch the ball goddamn it.'

Did it feel like the way the defense is playing allowed you to make mistakes, turn the ball over and you were going to be able to win the game with them playing like they were?

We knew coming in the plan was to we had to do everything we could to get a lead. We wanted to play with a lead and keep the lead, put them in a situation they didn't want to be in. They had a backup quarterback playing that's only been here for a couple weeks. That's a really tough challenge for any team. And we just felt like if we could hold the ball and get a lead and make them play outside of what they really want to do, that was the goal and I thought we did a nice job of that.

That last touchdown, you guys didn't necessarily need it. Did you do that with the intention of ending that 30-point streak?

I'm not going to lie. I thought about it. The intent was really to just try to run the clock out because we couldn't take a knee in that situation. The clock wouldn't have run out at that point. And so we just said, you know what, we're going to run our goal line plays. I called the play from the four (yard line) that usually doesn't score from the four to be honest. It was really a way of taking a knee in a sense and Tony (Pollard) just ended up breaking outside and scoring. So I was not trying to actively score, but we had to run plays. As long as they allow us to run plays, we'll keep trying.

How do you like the way you executed the end of the first half. Getting just to kick it and then ...

Yeah, fantastic execution by both Mason (Rudolph) and Tyler (Boyd), and the whole offense in that spot. That's a play that we work on in that exact situation, 16 seconds left, we are in a down-down clock spot where as soon as we catch it we go down. That's a play that is designed for that kind of chunk, about a 25-yard chunk and hustling up and 16 seconds is tight. That's about as tight as we would ever do that and be able to get a ball clocked on a chunk gain. Just outstanding situational execution by those guys and getting the ball clocked with one second with a chance to kick a field goal was really brilliant, and it was really fun to see the guys execute in that spot. We talk about it all the time.

Will's interception seemed like he didn't sense that guy dropping and for us seemed like another example of he was going there before he sensed what was...

Yeah, I think if you ask him, he didn't see the guy drop. They brought a sim pressure from the front side and that backside and then dropped. It was a pretty simple stick route on the back side. We were trying to get the ball to Hop (DeAndre Hopkins). He just didn't see him. Sometimes that happens and those guys drop from the line of scrimmage. They are hard to pick up. It was a really nice play by the kid. I didn't think he picked it at first, but he knew it when he came off. He goes, I just didn't see him. And those things happen sometimes. He's not alone in that. Those guys are hard to pick up occasionally and obviously would like to not throw an interception, but it happened.

How much of a relief was it to finally get a defensive takeaway?

Oh, man, yeah, relief is the word. We've just been so knocked behind in the turnover margins right now and it's contributed to really for sure two of our losses. And so to be on the plus end of that and be able to take care of the football and take it away a few times and top of that, those fourth-down stops to me are like turnovers as well. I mean, fantastic effort by our defense and hopefully that's a start of whole lot more turnovers because that's how you win in this league. You got to take the ball away and you got to protect it, and that was a really nice job by the defense.

How much nicer could have it been if the refs let it play through like they're supposed to do?

I cannot comment on the officiating. Yeah, that crew is – we knew coming into the game they threw quite a few flags. That's just kind of what their MO was and we were aware of it. I was expecting to have some flags get thrown. That's just what it is.

You kind of touched on Nick Folk in the intro. Just how good does it feel to see him knocking all those down, some of them for 50-plus? You see him do that in practice, not a surprise to you?

Not a surprise. He is still very capable NFL kicker. He can still kick from 50-plus. But to see him do that three times in a game where every one of those points was at premium, especially early on, was awesome. And I think he just keeps proving that age doesn't really matter for him. He's an accurate kicker. To knock five of five is what we needed to win this game, and he did a great good job. Really, really nice performance by him on a national stage, so great to see.

You talked about being able to set the edge and keep the horizontal rushing attack at bay. You guys did that today against a team that's really good. What are your thoughts on how Arden Key and those guys did?

They did their job to a very high degree today. We knew the style of offense that they like. They were going to attack our C gap and try to get the ball in the perimeter with their speed. They tried and they got a couple, but we at the end of the day, did a better job over the course of the game. Really proud of those guys. We knew it was going to be physical. We relied on them to set the edge, all the guys that rotated in there. And I think in the interior, that helped, too. We disrupted the interior. I think (T'Vondre Sweat had a really nice game. And then (James) Lynch and (Abdullah) Anderson in there, getting elevated off the practice squad, those guys played a really rugged, gritty style that helped us contain the run game. Again, getting into an situation where they had to run it or they had to sort of throw it a little more to get back into it helped us, but those outside linebackers – Harold (Landry III) and Arden (Key) and Jaylen (Harrell), they played a really, really nice game.

Some of the guys talked all week about how good it feels, how much of a confidence boost it is going into the bye. Just in your experience how important is that for a team's psyche?

It's huge. I've said it before I think, but the wins is what validates our process. You have to find success somewhere so guys continue to buy in and believe in how we want to operate. When you don't have those wins it gets harder and harder. But when you do catch a win it propels you and there is some momentum behind it. You get a chance to enjoy a couple days off and get ready to come back against a big divisional game against Indianapolis. There is a confidence that comes with winning. There is a joy that comes with winning. And those things are all important and all matter to us. To get one before the bye, all we cared about was getting on a plane and coming down here and winning. Our goal was to win this game and not worry about anything other than that and guys did a great job focusing and making sure we got it done.

QUARTERBACK MASON RUDOLPH

How good does it feel to win?

It feels great. It always feels great to win. It feels great to win and get Cally (Brian Callahan) his first big one in primetime football. It's always good to celebrate in the locker room. For a coach's first win, it's big time.

Not the first time you've come in in relief. What was that like? What was the conversation like when you were coming in and when did you know you were staying in?

I've come in in relief before. Yeah, it seemed like it was sort of a see if Will (Levis) can – just monitor his shoulder. I was told to continue to go, so. I thought we ran the ball really well. I didn't do a whole lot, that's for sure. Tony (Pollard) and the O-line and Tyjae (Spears) just mauled them up front and moved the ball and controlled the ball in the second half. We protected the ball, didn't turn it over in the second half and got out with a win.

Is it just as simple is that, don't turn the ball over and chipping away?

I think they're playing with a guy – Snoop Huntley is a great player, but he just got there a couple weeks ago. You know that they're probably not going to score as many points as they would with Tua (Tagovailoa), and so it's a possession game where you don't want to make any mistakes and run the ball, control the ball, move the chains.

When you talk about not doing a lot, how quickly do you get into the flow of the game?

Yeah, the first couple series we completed some balls and I think I had one over the middle there where it felt like I was getting into a groove. Then we had a two-minute drill before the half. It felt good. I missed a couple. Tyler Boyd is still running if I hit him there at the end of the first half on the third down. That stunk, but I tried to execute the plan as best I can without getting the reps during the week.

Is that the way you drew it up on the -- late in the first half there hitting Tyler and getting down and getting the spike?

Yes. Credit to Brian (Callahan) with just his incessant work at situational football. It's every week. We did it a lot in the spring. That was a play we had repped in that situation a bunch. Alert to get down, get up there and spike it. Great job by Tyler (Boyd), great job by the O-line getting up there and giving us a chance to kick the field goal before the half.

Were you aware of the streak? Is that something Head Coach Brian Callahan mentioned?

Yeah. Yes, he did. Somebody told me on the sideline. I wasn't sure. But I guess it had been a couple years or so with 30 points, so yeah, it was big time. Like I said, I didn't do a whole lot at all. That was a running monster between the two-headed monster between Tyjae (Spears) and Tony (Pollard). They did a great job and controlled the ball, man.

Is that part of the mindset also, if you guys didn't make mistakes, you're going to win this game?

No, you're right. The defense played probably its best complete game. They held them to 14 points and got a couple key stops on fourth down and give us the ball back in plus territory. I'm happy for (Defensive Coordinator) Dennard (Wilson) with the performance they had. Stoney (Ryan Stonehouse) with the kick to down them inside the five or the 10, whatever it was, so all the way around it was good football.

You have seen before where offenses struggle. Once you have a good game like that, how much can that roll into consecutive games?

Yeah, I think it's a game of momentum. I think I've been a part of teams that get going eight or nine game streaks and then – but no one season is the same. This is a unique group. We're going to keep working. It's a young offense, a young team. I think we're going to get healthy through the bye week and come back and get ready for Indy.

Did Head Coach Brian Callahan specifically tell you don't try to do too much or was that just kind of the unspoken game plan?

I think you're always talking in the second half, especially when it's a two touchdown game. 'Listen, let's protect the ball. We are not going to put you in a lot of the drop-back situations.' There is no reason to when you got a two-score lead and you run the ball and you're chugging the clog. Absolutely, I invite those kind of communications.

Did you have much of a conversation with QB Will Levis during the transition, during the game?

Absolutely. We were looking at the iPads every time we came off, good or bad. I've tried to give him a tip or a suggestion or even just hear him out when he comes to the sideline when I was at backup. So we have great lines of communication. He's a solid dude.

Not just in terms of the 30, but just in terms of offensive production, do you think there is a little bit of a sense of overall offensive relief? The run game fed the passing game like you guys wanted to, which helped the pass protection and all that stuff coming together, was that a relief?

I think so. The key to every win is running the ball. If you can control the ball and take some pressure off the quarterback, make your tackles not have to sit there and pass protect against two great edge guys in (Jaelan) Phillips and (Emmanuel) Ogbah for 20, 30 snaps a game, it makes football easier. So probably the offensive line, they controlled the trenches and the backs ran great and we got out of here with a win.

In your first huddle coming onto the field, kind of what did you say to the guys?

Yeah, just hey guys, my mindset is always one play at a time. Don't worry about me. Let's do our job collectively and move the ball, and let's celebrate in the end zone when we get down there. I'm not much of a rah-rah. I'm not going to get in there and give a dissertation. Just a few words. Let's get it going.

Nick Folk, you have competed against him a bunch. Just how cool was it to see him do what he did tonight?

Automatic. He's incredible. He's a vet, a savvy vet. We're locker buddies and I've really enjoyed being able to pick his brain. The amount of stories and football that guy has seen, and obviously to be as stellar and as automatic as he was tonight, it just makes playing quarterback a heck of a lot easier.

KICKER NICK FOLK

I don't know if you realize it, but you became the oldest kicker to have three field goals of 50- plus. What do you think of that?

I guess that it was pretty good. It's pretty cool to say you played for that long, to do that. The biggest thing is we got our first win, so we'll go on the bye feeling pretty good and continue to keep working and get better from here.

What has been the key for you to be able to have that type of production for so long?

Lots of hard work, that's really what it comes down to. Believing in myself, believing in my teammates and having great people around me to help do it. I've got a great snapper and holder, so they make my job pretty easy when it comes down to that. Just happy to be part of this team and get a win.

I know you've been in this league a while. How does this first win compare to the rest of them? It just seemed like everybody was pretty up for this.

I think you just need to get the first one and then you can kind of keep rolling, then hopefully build a little momentum and go from there. So the first one is always the most important because you can't get anywhere without the first one – the first step, first kick, first whatever. Just got to continue to build from here, get better, and that's all we can do.

RUNNING BACK TONY POLLARD

Take us through the long run, I know you wanted to score but obviously came up a little short. But still, how were you able to get out in the open field like that?

The o-line did a great job. Coach came up with a great call on that play. Everybody blocked their man up, cleared the lane for me and I ended up finding it. Just being patient and then I ended up hitting it. I shouldn't have looked back. I should have just kept running. I know I would have been in the end zone.

With you breaking off that long run and then RB Tyjae Spears coming in and cleaning up for the score, is that what we should expect, like the way your tandem can produce?

Definitely. Just keeping us fresh. Keeping a fresh back in there, keeping the defense on their heels.

How would you describe the feeling in here after the game?

There's a lot of energy, a lot of excitement. Guys are excited because we worked so hard throughout the week. We push ourselves every day at practice even though the outcomes haven't been what we wanted. Just having this win for us today was big and we're just going to keep going from here.

CORNERBACK L'JARIUS SNEED

You played with an edge today. Do you think maybe a bit more of an edge than you have played with this season?

Yeah, I think we played with fire. We're going into the bye week, going back to the drawing board and see what we have to do.

What was the energy like in the locker room, the first win of the season?

It was fire. But with the guys, I could see it and tell, we have more work to do.

Does it feel different in here now than it did maybe even a day ago now that you have that first win?

Yeah, we knew we were going to come in. It was a mindset coming in here. We were going to get this dub and go into the bye week and feed off of it.

NOSE TACKLE T'VONDRE SWEAT

How do you like the way you guys played as a whole? And did you feel like they were not going to be able to drive the field on you?

It's a great team. And really I just got to – we just came out playing and playing around the ball.

Without DT Jeffery Simmons and with DL Keondre Cobrun going down early, did you kind of know you were going to have to play more snaps than normal and just kind of take it upon yourself to dig in?

I mean, I've been playing the same amount of snaps when Jeff (Simmons) was there, so I felt comfortable out there.

You don't think you play any more snaps?

If I did, I feel great.

How much do you guys need this going into the bye? What's your hope when you come back from bye weekend?

It feels great; we needed this one big. Just going to start our journey.

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Green Bay and Houston and road contests at Miami, Buffalo, Detroit and Houston. Four of those six games are against 2023 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Buffalo (AFC East) and Detroit (NFC North). The six games against reigning playoff clubs are the fewest for the Titans since they had five such games entering the 2020 campaign.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Texans, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for nine contests on CBS, six games on FOX, and one game on ESPN. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: Besides a trip to Los Angeles to face the Chargers in Week 10, the Titans stay in either the central time zone (10 games) or eastern time zone (six) for the duration of 2024, including the preseason. Other than Los Angeles, the farthest west they travel is Houston.
- HIGH NOON: During the regular season, 14 of the Titans' 16 games prior to Week 18 are scheduled for Sundays at noon CT.
- FIRST-YEAR COACHES: Brian Callahan is one of eight NFL head coaches in their first season with their current team. He and the Titans face three of the others, all within a five-week span: Jerod Mayo's New England Patriots, Jim Harbaugh's Los Angeles Chargers, and Dan Quinn's Washington Commanders. Additionally, the Titans go against the Seattle Seahawks and new head coach Mike Macdonald in the second week of the preseason.
- QUARTERBACKS 1-2-3: The 2024 NFL Draft featured quarterbacks in the top three selections, beginning with Caleb Williams going first to Chicago, followed by Jayden Daniels to Washington and Drake Maye to New England. The Titans face each of those teams this season, in addition to the Minnesota Vikings, who drafted J.J. McCarthy with the 11th overall selection.
- DIVISIONAL WAITING GAMES: The Titans must wait until Week 6 against Indianapolis to play their first AFC South matchup of 2024. It is their longest wait for a divisional game since 2010 (Week 6 at Jacksonville). However, the Titans conclude 2024 with divisional games in five of the final seven weeks, including three consecutive division battles to conclude the schedule.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2023 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place finish in 2023, they host the AFC North's fourth-place Bengals, and they visit the fourth-place Chargers from the AFC West and the Washington Commanders from the NFC East. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .491 (142-147) based upon their opponents' combined 2023 record, which is tied for the 21st most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- FACING TOP OFFENSES AND DEFENSES: The Titans face four of the NFL's top 10 offenses from last season: Miami (No. 1 overall offense), Buffalo (No. 4), Detroit (No. 3) and Minnesota (No. 10). They also contend with four of the top 10 defenses from 2023: the New York Jets (No. 3 overall defense), Miami (No. 10), Buffalo (No. 9) and New England (No. 7).

They advanced to their first NFC Championship game since 1991, ultimately falling to the San Francisco 49ers.
- WEEK 9 vs. NEW ENGLAND: Led by new head coach Jerod Mayo, who attended the University of Tennessee from 2004 through 2007, the Patriots make their first visit to Nissan Stadium in the regular season since Nov. 11, 2018, a game won by the Titans 34-10 ... Head coach Jim Harbaugh is in his first season with the Chargers after leading the University of Michigan to a national title in 2023. His father, Jack Harbaugh, was the head coach at Western Kentucky University from 1989 to 2002 ... The Titans look for their first road victory against the Chargers since 1990.
- WEEK 11 vs. MINNESOTA: The Vikings are scheduled to make their third all-time appearance at Nissan Stadium and their first since 2016 ... The most recent Titans-Vikings matchup in the regular season was at Minnesota on Sept. 27, 2020. Then-rookie Vikings wide receiver Justin Jefferson recorded his first career start, touchdown and 100-yard game, but the Titans won 31-30 ... In the 2024 NFL Draft, the Vikings selected Michigan quarterback J.J. McCarthy with the 11th overall pick.
- WEEKS 12 & 18 vs. HOUSTON: The Texans and Titans collectively feature a pair of top quarterbacks from the 2023 rookie class: C.J. Stroud won the 2023 AP Offensive Rookie of the Year Award, and his teammate, defensive end Will Anderson, was named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year ... During the 2024 offseason, the Texans signed former Titans defensive end Denico Autry and linebacker Azeem Al-Shaair as unrestricted free agents ... The Titans, who lead the Quinn, who was the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons from 2015 to 2020, arrives in Washington following his role as the defensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys.

- WEEKS 14 & 17 vs. JACKSONVILLE: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 30th season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign ... The two rivals face each other twice in the month of December ... The Titans won the most recent contest, a 28-20 victory in the 2023 season finale at Nissan Stadium ... During the 2024 offseason, former Jaguars wide receiver Calvin Ridley was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent. WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2024

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The Titans franchise is set to embark on its 65th season—the 26th campaign as the Titans after 39 seasons as the Oilers
- The Titans can earn their fifth playoff berth in an eight-year span.
- The Titans are slated to play the 1,000th regular season game in franchise history in the season finale against Houston (Jan. 4-5).

- Begins his tenure as the 20th head coach in franchise history.

- Needs 3.5 sacks in 2024 (21.5 entering 2024) to reach 25 career sacks. He would become the sixth defensive back to reach the mark since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982, joining Rodney Harrison (30.5), Ronde Barber (28), Brian Dawkins (26), Adrian Wilson (25.5) and Carnell Lake (25).

WR TYLER BOYD

- Can record his seventh consecutive season with at least 50 receptions and 500 receiving yards. He is tied for the NFL's seventh-longest such active streak entering 2024.

LS MORGAN COX

- Enters 2024 ranked 10th in the NFL in career games played among active players (216 entering 2024).
- By appearing in all 17 contests in 2024, which would give him 233 career games, Cox would rank fourth in career NFL games among all players from the University of Tennessee. He would trail only Jason Witten (271), Peyton Manning (266) and Dustin Colquitt (255).

- Enters 2024 as the NFL's only player with an active streak of 17 starts and at least one interception in three consecutive seasons.

K NICK FOLK

- Enters 2024 ranked seventh in the NFL in career games played among active players (228 entering 2024).
- Needs 18 field goals to reach 400 for his career. Entering 2024, only 13 players in NFL history previously reached the mark. His 382 career field goals through 2023 ranked 19th in NFL annals.
- Goes into 2024 with an NFL-record streak of 78 consecutive field goals made from under 40 yards. His last miss in that range was a 31-yarder against New England on Oct. 5, 2017, when he played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

WR DeANDRE HOPKINS

- Enters 2024 with more receptions (928) and receiving yards (12,355) than any other player since he entered the NFL in 2013.
- Needs 72 receptions to reach 1,000 in his first 12 seasons. Only Jerry Rice (1,050), Marvin Harrison (1,042), Larry Fitzgerald (1,018) and Andre Johnson (1,012) have previously reached the mark in their first 12 seasons. Hopkins recorded 928 receptions in his first 11 seasons. Through 2023, only 14 total players in NFL history had reached the 1,000 career reception plateau.
- A 72-reception season also would make Hopkins the second player in NFL history with 1,000 receptions prior to his 33rd birthday, joining Larry Fitzgerald. Hopkins will turn 33 on June 6, 2025.
- Needs 72 receptions, 645 receiving yards and seven touchdown catches in 2024 to become the ninth player in NFL history to total at least 1,000 receptions, 13,000 receiving yards and 85 touchdown catches during his career. Hopkins would join Jerry Rice, Marvin Harrison and Larry Fitzgerald as the only players to reach all three marks within their first 12 NFL seasons.
- Has at least one reception in every game he has played during his career—162 consecutive games entering 2024. With a reception in his first six games of 2024, he will pass Keyshawn Johnson (167) for the NFL's second-longest catch streak to begin a career during the Super Bowl era (1966–present). Hopkins' streak of games with a reception to begin his career ranks third behind only Johnson and Marvin Harrison (190).

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2024

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Enters the 2024 season ranked 11th in franchise history with 41.5 career sacks. With 8.5 sacks in 2024, he would become only the eighth defender in franchise annals to be credited with 50 sacks.
- With 11 sacks in 2024 (41.5 entering the season), Landry will pass Jevon Kearse (52) for the most sacks by a player in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present).

QB WILL LEVIS

- Can become the third player in franchise history to start at least nine games in each of his first two NFL seasons, joining Vince Young and Marcus Mariota.
- Can become the third player in franchise history to average at least 12.0 yards per completion in each of his first two NFL seasons, joining Warren Moon and Marcus Mariota.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Can become the franchise's first tight end to begin his NFL career with three consecutive seasons in which he posted at least 30 receptions and 400 receiving yards.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Needs 60 scrimmage yards in 2024 to reach 5,000 for his career (3,621 rushing yards and 1,319 receiving yards entering 2024).
- Can notch his third consecutive season with at least 1,000 rushing yards.
- Looks to extend his streak to four consecutive seasons with at least 1,000 scrimmage yards.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Needs 3.5 sacks in 2024 to reach 30 career sacks (26.5 entering 2024). He would be the franchise's 10th player to do so since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, as well as the organization's sixth player in its "Titans era" (1999–present) to reach 30 sacks.
- Enters 2024 on a streak of three consecutive seasons with at least 5.5 sacks. With 5.5 or more sacks in 2024, he would become the franchise's first player to reach the number in four consecutive seasons since Ray Childress (eight consecutive seasons from 1987–1994).

CB L'JARIUS SNEED

- Can record his fifth consecutive season to begin his career with at least two interceptions.
- Can become the NFL's only player since the beginning of the 2008 season to register three consecutive seasons with at least 11 passes defensed and five tackles for loss. In that span, only Sneed, Chris Harris (2013–2014), Troy Polamalu (2010–2011) and Charles Woodson (2009–2010) have recorded two such consecutive campaigns.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

A year after initially joining the franchise, Carthon was promoted to executive vice president/general manager. His duties expanded to include all areas that impact the football team: roster control, team activities and personnel decisions including draft and free agency acquisitions, oversight of head coach Brian Callahan and his coaching staff, scouting, sports medicine, and player engagement.

"Over the past year, Ran has impressed me and our staff with his innovative approach to roster building," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk upon Carthon's promotion in 2024. "Ran's exceptional reputation around the league as a talent evaluator and culture builder was a clear competitive advantage during last year's free agency and draft process, as well as our recent search for a head coach. Simply put, Ran Carthon makes the Tennessee Titans a destination for the league's top talent. By expanding his role to include full roster control and oversight of the coaching staff, our organization will now benefit more completely from Ran's unique ability to build and lead a championship-caliber football team."

Shortly after receiving his promotion, Carthon and his staff embarked upon the 2024 offseason. Their efforts resulted in several notable signings in free agency: cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr., defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day, center Lloyd Cushenberry III, running back Tony Pollard, quarterback Mason Rudolph and wide receiver Calvin Ridley. The Titans then used a trade to acquire former Kansas City Chiefs cornerback L'Jarius Sneed before circling back in free agency to add wide receiver Tyler Boyd and safety Jamal Adams. Prior to the start of the 2024 season, another trade brought linebacker Ernest Jones IV to the Titans from the Los Angeles Rams.

During the 2024 NFL Draft, Carthon orchestrated the selection of seven total players. With the seventh overall pick in the first round, the Titans chose Alabama tackle JC Latham, and at No. 38 in the second round, they took Texas nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat.

In his first year with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster with several veteran additions who would become key starters for the team in 2023, including wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting and offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski, quarterback Will Levis and running back Tyjae Spears were selected in the first three rounds, respectively. Carthon also used a trade to acquire kicker Nick Folk.

Carthon arrived in Tennessee with a range of experience from multiple teams. In San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)—evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators' 2000 SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his father, Maurice Carthon, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. Maurice Carthon played for the Colts and New York Giants, and he coached for New England, the New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Ran Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business, and in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Fla.

Video: Brian Callahan's Introductory Press Conference

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities—offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes—and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there.

"To our fans, thank you for your support and for sticking with us. You deserve a championship team, and we're going to get there. I can't wait for you to get to know Brian and his family."

Callahan arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) and fourth in passing touchdowns (29) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. In 2016, Stafford's eight game-winning drives were the most by a quarterback in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015. He began as a coaching assistant (2010) before transitioning to offensive quality control coach (2011-12), offensive assistant coach (2013-14) and finally offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach (2015). In 2013, Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning won the Associated Press NFL MVP award after completing a league-record 55 touchdown passes. Callahan's tenure in Denver was capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign. Before reaching the NFL, Callahan spent time at his alma mater, UCLA, as a graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007. He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

Born in Champaign, Ill., Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking.

He and his wife, Allyson, have a son, Ronan, and a daughter, Norah. He is the son of longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current Titans offensive line coach.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Quarterback Will Levis was selected by the Titans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft. He was the fourth quarterback chosen in the draft after the Titans traded up in the second round to select him.

In his debut season, Levis recorded starts in all nine games in which he appeared, becoming the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games. Only Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 starts in 2015) preceded him in the accomplishment. Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. He completed 479 of his 738 passes (64.9 percent) for 5,876 yards with 46 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He also rushed for 742 yards and 17 touchdowns.

At Kentucky, Levis went 17-7 as a starter, tying Terry Wilson for the second-most quarterback wins since 1993. The two-time team captain completed 418 of 636 passes for 5,233 yards with 43 passing touchdowns and 11 rushing scores for the Wildcats. His six 300-yard passing games were the fourth-most in school history.

As a senior in 2022, he started 11 games at quarterback and connected on 185 of 283 passes for 2,406 yards with 19 passing scores, while ranking fourth in the SEC in pass efficiency (151.9). He finished fifth in the SEC with 19 passing scores.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. He was 233-of-353 passing for 2,826 yards and 24 touchdowns, and he also registered 107 rushes for 376 yards and a team-high tying nine rushing touchdowns.

He is a native of Madison, Conn.

Among those with at least 200 passing attempts in their rookie season, Titans quarterback Will Levis delivered the highest passer rating. Levis was 149-of-255 passing for 1,808 yards with eight touchdowns and four interceptions, amounting to an 84.2 passer rating. The previous leader was Charlie Batch, who had an 83.5 passer rating as a rookie with the Detroit Lions in 1998.

Levis' 58.4 completion percentage also ranked as the best of any second-rounder in his rookie campaign. Former Cincinnati Bengals quarterback Andy Dalton previously held the top spot with a 58.1 completion percentage as a rookie in 2011.

#10 • WR DeANDRE HOPKINS

6-1, 212, 12th Year/2nd with Titans, Clemson
Click for complete bio

Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins is in his 12th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the team prior to training camp in 2023.

Hopkins entered the league as the 27th overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft out of Clemson and spent his first seven seasons with the Houston Texans before being traded to the Arizona Cardinals in 2020.

Over NFL 11 seasons, Hopkins established himself as one of the premier receivers in NFL history. Among all players during that 11-year period, he ranked first in receptions (928), first in first-down receptions (642), first in receiving yards (12,355), third in receiving touchdowns (78), and first in receptions of 25-plus yards (113). He has been named to five Pro Bowls (2015, 2017-20) and received AP All-Pro honors four times—first-team All-Pro from 2017 to 2019 and second-team All-Pro in 2020.

From 2013 through 2023, Hopkins surpassed 100 receptions four times, had seven seasons reaching 1,000 receiving yards, recorded three seasons with at least 10 touchdowns, and posted 100 or more receiving yards in a game 42 times. Hopkins was the only NFL player to have 100-plus receptions every season between from 2018 to 2020.

Hopkins became one of 17 players in NFL history to reach 900 receptions, 12,000 receiving yards and 75 touchdown catches during a career. Only five players—Hopkins, Marvin Harrison, Jerry Rice, Brandon Marshall and Larry Fitzgerald—reached all three milestones within their first 11 NFL seasons.

He concluded the 2023 season tied with Antonio Brown for 21st place in NFL history with 928 career receptions. His 12,355 career receiving yards ranked 23rd all-time, and his 78 touchdown receptions were 35th in history.

Through 2023, he had at least one reception in all 162 career games he played during the regular season. That represents the longest active streak in the NFL at the conclusion of 2023 and the third-longest streak in NFL history to begin a career behind only Marvin Harrison (190 consecutive games) and Keyshawn Johnson (167).

During the 2022 campaign with the Cardinals, Hopkins finished with a team-high 64 receptions for 717 yards (second on the team) and three touchdowns despite being limited to nine contests. His average of 7.1 receptions per game ranked fourth in the NFL among all players. His three games with 10-plus receptions matched the second most in franchise annals behind Larry Fitzgerald's four such performances in 2017.

At the conclusion of his tenure with the Texans (2013-19), Hopkins owned several franchise records, including franchise marks for career receiving average (13.6), receptions in a season (115 in 2018; tied Andre Johnson, 2008), receiving touchdowns in a season (13 in 2017) and receiving first downs in a season (83 in 2015). When he left Houston, he ranked second on the franchise's all-time career charts in receptions (632), receiving yards (8,602) and touchdown catches (54), trailing only Andre Johnson in each category.

The Central, S.C., native appeared in 39 games with 32 starts over three seasons (2010-12) at Clemson and totaled 206 receptions for 3,020 yards and 27 touchdowns. He left Clemson ranked first in school history in receiving yards, first in receiving touchdowns, first in 100-yard receiving games (12) and second in receptions. As a junior (2012), he led the team with 82 receptions for 1,405 yards and 18 touchdowns.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), tallied an eight-yard reception.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tallied a nine-yard reception.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), led the team with six receptions and 73 receiving yards, including a touchdown. He scored his first touchdown of the season on an 11-yard pass from Will Levis in the third quarter and also hauled in a 20-yard pass in the third quarter. It was his 80th career game in which he totaled at least six receptions.
- At Miami (9/30), tied for the team lead with two receptions and 31 receiving yards, including a 16-yard grab and a 15-yarder. He extended his active streak to 166 consecutive games with a reception—every game he has played since he entered the NFL. He owns the third-longest such streak to begin a career in NFL history behind only Marvin Harrison (190 consecutive games) and Keyshawn Johnson (167).

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his sixth NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first five seasons, Simmons appeared in 68 games with 66 starts and earned two Pro Bowl berths. The three-time team captain (2021-23) accumulated 240 tackles, 26.5 sacks, 20 passes defended, three forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He was third on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (37) and Denico Autry (28.5).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2023, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the third consecutive season. With 51 consecutive games played in his first three seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2023 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1). He was also a finalist in 2023 for the NFL's Bart Starr Award.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.
