TITANS TRAVEL TO PHILADELPHIA, FACE NFC-LEADING EAGLES ON FOX

Tennessee Titans (7-4) at Philadelphia Eagles (10-1)

Sunday, Dec. 4, 2022 • 1 p.m. EST/Noon CST • Lincoln Financial Field • Philadelphia, Pa. • TV: FOX (WZTV-17)

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (7-4) travel to face the NFC-leading Philadelphia Eagles (10-1) this week. Outside of the preseason, it marks Tennessee's first visit to Philadelphia since 2014. Kickoff at Lincoln Financial Field (capacity 69,879) is scheduled for 1 p.m. EST/noon CST on Sunday, Dec. 4.

The Titans and Eagles have met on only 12 previous occasions. The Eagles lead the series 7-5, but the Titans have won five of the last six bouts, including most recently a 26-23 overtime victory at Nissan Stadium in 2018.

THE BROADCAST

The contest will be regionally televised on FOX, including Nashville affiliate WZTV Fox 17. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Kevin Burkhardt, analyst Greg Olsen, reporters Erin Andrews and Tom Rinaldi, and rules analyst Mike Pereira.

TITANS LOOK TO REBOUND AFTER HOME LOSS

The Titans hosted the defending AFC champion Cincinnati Bengals last week. Despite 300 total yards from quarterback Ryan Tannehill—291 passing and nine rushing—and a career-high 79 receiving yards by running back Derrick Henry, it was not enough to offset the performance of the Bengals. Cincinnati quarterback Joe Burrow and wide receiver Tee Higgins connected on seven passes for 114 yards, including a 27-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter that proved to be the deciding points in a 20-16 Bengals win.

Henry totaled 117 scrimmage yards against the Bengals. Through 12 weeks of the NFL season, his 1,326 scrimmage yards rank second in the league, as do his 1,048 rushing yards.

Titans rookie wide receiver Treyton Burks has totaled 11 catches for 181 yards over the past two games. Against the Bengals, the first-round pick produced four receptions for 70 yards and scored his first NFL touchdown. The score came during the second quarter, when he recovered the ball in the end zone after it was fumbled by Henry at the conclusion of a 69-yard completion.

In spite of the loss, the Titans remain in first place in the AFC South. Six games remain in the regular season to fend off the division-rival Indianapolis Colts (4-6-1 entering their game on Nov. 28), Jacksonville Jaguars (4-7) and Houston Texans (1-9-1). Their upcoming slate includes three road games, three home games and three divisional matchups.

THE EAGLES

The Eagles own the NFL's best record at 10-1 and sit in first place in the NFC East. Last week they hosted the Green Bay Packers on Sunday night and won by a final score of 40-33. The only blemish on their resume is a Nov. 14 loss at the hands of the Washington Commanders.

The Eagles are in their second season under head coach and former Indianapolis Colts offensive coordinator Nick Sirianni, who led Philadelphia to a 9-8 record and a wild card playoff berth in 2021.

Philadelphia quarterback Jalen Hurts is in his third NFL season and his second as his team's full-time starter. The former second-round pick has passed for 2,560 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2022, and he also has rushed for 597 yards and eight scores.

During the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft, the Titans traded wide receiver A.J. Brown to the Eagles in exchange for the 18th overall pick in the first round and an additional third-round pick. Brown played for the Titans from 2019 through 2021, totaling 2,995 yards and 24 touchdowns on 185 receptions.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

THE TITANS DEFENSE

- Enters the week with a streak of eight consecutive games without allowing more than 20 points. It is the longest active streak in the NFL and the franchise's longest such streak within a season since 1993 (11 games).

WR TREYLON BURKS

- Can join A.J. Brown (two separate streaks in 2020 and 2021) as the team's only players since 2017 with at least four receptions and 70 receiving yards in three consecutive games.

S KEVIN BYARD

- Scheduled to record his 100th consecutive start.
- With 24 career interceptions, he needs one interception to tie Michael Griffin and Ken Houston (25) for eighth place all-time for the franchise. He would tie Griffin for the most interceptions for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

OLB BUD DUPREE

- Scheduled to appear in his 100th NFL game (regular season).

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Needs 121 rushing yards (currently at 7,845) to pass Chris Johnson (7,965) for third place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list. He would trail only Eddie George (10,009) and Earl Campbell (8,574).
- Will reach 8,000 career rushing yards with 155 more (7,845 currently).
- Can record his 34th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season (31) and playoffs (three).
- Will reach 9,000 career scrimmage yards with 31 more (8,969 currently). Only Eddie George (12,153), Chris Johnson (9,968) and Earl Campbell (9,292) have reached the plateau with the franchise.
- Needs 174 scrimmage yards to join Eddie George (four seasons) and Earl Campbell (four) as the franchise's only players to reach 1,500 scrimmage yards in three different seasons.

TE AUSTIN HOOPER

- Scheduled to appear in his 100th NFL game (regular season).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Needs two sacks to match his career high of 8.5 sacks in a season, set in 2021.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Needs to average 50.0 yards per punt for his 10th such performance, which would tie Shane Lechler (10 games in 2009), Thomas Morstead (2012), Corey Bojorquez (2020) and A.J. Cole III (2021) for the most in a season in NFL history.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can record his 26th career 300-yard passing game and his 10th such performance since joining the Titans in 2019. Ten 300-yard games with the Titans would put him in a tie with Steve McNair (10) for the third-most games in franchise history.
- Can register his fourth consecutive game with a passer rating above 90.0.

DL DeMARCUS WALKER

- Enters the game with at least one sack in four of his last five games.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Eagles franchises have met on only 12 prior occasions. The Eagles hold a 7-5 advantage in a series that has swung dramatically. Since the Eagles took the initial six contests, the Titans have won five of the last six matchups, including the most recent game in 2018.

The series dates back more than four decades, to when the two teams met at the Houston Astrodome on Nov. 12, 1972. The game was won by Philadelphia 18-17, and the Eagles would go on to win the next five games as well in the series through 1994.

The trend was reversed with a last-second 15-13 victory by the Titans in 2000 at Veterans Stadium. Since then, the only loss by the Titans to the Eagles was in Philadelphia on Nov. 23, 2014, when despite a record-setting passing total by quarterback Zach Mettenberger, the Titans were ultimately defeated by a final score of 43-24. Mettenberger's 345 passing yards set a franchise rookie record. However, Mark Sanchez's 307 passing yards and LeSean McCoy's 130 rushing yards were too much for the Titans to overcome.

In the 2018 meeting at Nissan Stadium, Marcus Mariota's 10-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Corey Davis in overtime provided a thrilling ending to a 26-23 victory. The Eagles took the lead with a field goal on the first drive of overtime, but then Mariota directed a 16-play, 75-yard drive that concluded with his game-winning toss with only five seconds remaining on the clock.

TITANS-EAGLES: THE LAST MEETING

Titans 26, Eagles 23 OT
2018 Week 4 • Sunday, Sept. 30, 2018 • 12 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

GAME RECAP

In Week 4 of the 2018 season, the Titans hosted the defending Super Bowl champion Philadelphia Eagles and won in overtime by a score of 26-23.

QB Marcus Mariota, making his first start since Week 1, guided the Titans to a scoring drive on Tennessee's opening possession. Mariota connected with RB Derrick Henry for 13 yards and a first down, and WR Corey Davis for 28 yards and a first down, as the Titans ultimately kicked a 42-yard field goal to take an early 3-0 lead. The Titans defense forced Philadelphia to punt on both first quarter possessions.

In the second quarter, the Eagles put together an eight-play, 97-yard scoring drive. Eagles QB Carson Wentz connected with Eagles TE Zach Ertz for three first downs, and Eagles RB Jay Ajayi rushed for a first down, before Wentz connected with Eagles WR Jordan Matthews for a 56-yard score. Philadelphia took a 7-3 lead.

Late in the second quarter, Mariota threw an interception to Eagles CB Avonte Maddox, who picked off the ball and returned it 23 yards. Philadelphia capitalized on the turnover, as Eagles K Jake Elliott converted a 27-yard field goal for a 10-3 Philadelphia lead heading into halftime.

On the Eagles' opening drive of the second half, Wentz connected with Ertz and Eagles WR Alshon Jeffery for first downs, en route to Philadelphia's 12-play, 75-yard scoring drive. Ultimately, Wentz connected with Jeffery for a 16-yard touchdown and extended the Eagles' lead to 17-3. The Titans offense took the field and immediately responded with their own scoring drive. Mariota connected with Davis and WR Tajae Sharpe for first downs, but Mariota made the contest a one-possession game as he rushed in a two-yard touchdown. Tennessee closed in on Philadelphia's lead, 17-10.

In the fourth quarter with the Eagles driving at midfield, OLB Harold Landry III strip sacked Wentz and the ball was recovered by OLB Derrick Morgan. Tennessee took advantage of the turnover, as the Titans tacked on another field goal and inched closer, 17-13. On the Titans' following possession, Mariota connected with Davis for a 51-yard reception to flip field position. Mariota was then able to hit Sharpe for an 11-yard touchdown, as Tennessee scored 17 consecutive points and took a 20-17 lead.

However, with 21 seconds remaining in regulation, Philadelphia was able to enter the red zone and kick a game-tying field goal, to send the contest to overtime knotted at 20-20.

On the Eagles' first overtime possession, Wentz marched the offense down the field on a nine-play, 56-yard drive that resulted in a go-ahead field goal, 23-20. The Tennessee offense took the field needing to score, and converted three fourth downs en route to a 16-play, 75-yard scoring drive. Mariota threw a 19-yard strike to WR Taywan Taylor on fourth-and-15, and a 17-yard pass to RB Dion Lewis on fourth-and-two, before he found Davis in the endzone for a 10-yard touchdown pass and a 26-23 Titans walk-off victory.

Nick Sirianni was named the 24th head coach in Philadelphia Eagles history on Jan. 24, 2021.

In 2021, Sirianni led the Eagles to a 9-8 record and their first playoff appearance since 2019. He became just the third head coach in franchise history to reach the playoffs the first season coaching the Eagles.

The No. 7 seeded Eagles traveled to the No. 2 seeded Tampa Bay Buccaneers for a Wild Card matchup. Though Philadelphia lost that playoff game, Sirianni led the team to the most explosive plays in the NFL (163), and franchise records in rushing yards (2,715) and rushing touchdowns (25) in 2021. The defense also recorded the second most defensive touchdowns in the NFL (5).

Sirianni helped guide second-year quarterback Jalen Hurts to a breakout year. Hurts became just the eighth player in NFL history to produce 3,000 passing yards (3,144) and 750 rushing yards (784) in a single season. Hurts also became the youngest quarterback in franchise history (23 years old) to lead the Eagles to a playoff berth.

Sirianni also guided five players – kicker Jake Elliott, defensive end Javon Hargrave, center Jason Kelce, cornerback Darius Slay and defensive end Josh Sweat to Pro Bowl nods.

A native of Jamestown, N.Y., Sirianni was a three-year starter at wide receiver at Mount Union, winning three NCAA Division III National Championships (2000-02) and earning All-Ohio Athletic Conference honors as a senior after registering 13 touchdowns. He also played one season in the Atlantic Indoor Football League with the Canton Legends in 2005.

Sirianni's brother, Mike Sirianni, is the head coach at Washington & Jefferson College, where he is the winningest coach in school history (156-36, 0.813 winning percentage) and a seven-time PAC Coach of the Year. His brother, Jay Sirianni, is a former head coach at their alma mater, Southwestern Central High School (Jamestown, N.Y.), where their father, Fran Sirianni, also spent nine years in the same position.

Sirianni and his wife, Brett, have two sons, Jacob and Miles, and one daughter, Taylor.

LAST WEEK VS. THE BENGALS

Week 12: Titans 16, Bengals 20
Sunday, Nov. 27, 2022 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 12 of the 2022 season, the Titans hosted the Bengals and fell by a score of 20-17. The defense produced its eighth consecutive game in which they did not allow their opponent to score more than 20 points, however the Titans were unable to mount a late-game comeback to earn a victory.

The Titans got on the board first in the second quarter. QB Ryan Tannehill guided the offense on a 10-play scoring drive that was aided by a 25-yard pass to WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a first down at the Cincinnati 26-yard line. However, Tennessee was forced to settle for a field goal as rookie K Caleb Shudak converted a 33-yard attempt, 3-0 Titans.

Cincinnati responded with a field goal of their own as a seven-play scoring possession culminated in a 47-yard field goal by Bengals K Evan McPherson, 3-3. On the ensuing Tennessee possession, the Titans added another score. Tannehill connected with RB Derrick Henry for a 69-yard screen pass, but Henry fumbled the ball at the Cincinnati six-yard line and it was recovered in the end zone by WR Treyton Burks for a go-ahead score, 10-3.

Later in the second stanza, Bengals QB Joe Burrow guided his offense on a game-tying possession. Burrow connected with Bengals RB Samaje Perine for a 32-yard gain, and with Bengals HB Trayveon Williams for a 24-yard pass, before Perine ran a seven-yard score into the end zone. The score was knotted 10-10 heading into halftime.

Each team added a field goal score in the third quarter. First, Cincinnati produced a 14-play possession that included first-down catches by Bengals WRs Tee Higgins and Tyler Boyd. On fourth-and-14, McPherson's 38-yard field goal put the Bengals ahead, 13-10. On the first play of the following Titans possession, Tannehill found Burks for a 51-yard ball to move into Cincinnati territory. Ultimately, Shudak converted a 24-yarder to tie the score at 13-13.

In the fourth quarter, Cincinnati took the lead. Higgins caught two passes for 51 yards with one touchdown on the drive as the Bengals pulled ahead, 20-13. The Titans were able to inch closer with a 38-yard field goal to make it 20-16, but ultimately Tennessee ran out of time to construct a comeback and fell to the Bengals at home.

- Tied for the team lead with four receptions and finished second on the team with 70 receiving yards.
- Scored his first NFL touchdown in the second quarter, recovering the ball in the end zone after it was fumbled by Derrick Henry. Burks was the first Titans offensive player to recover a fumble in the end zone for a touchdown since tight end Anthony Firkser against Houston on Nov. 21, 2021.
- Caught a 51-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the third quarter. It tied his career long, which was first established in the previous game at Green Bay (Nov. 17).
- Became the team's first player since A.J. Brown in 2019 (Dec. 8-15) and the NFL's fourth player in 2022 to have a catch of at least 50 yards in back-to-back games.

- Finished second on the defense with seven tackles.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Had a team-high 38 rushing yards on 17 attempts and established a new career high with 79 receiving yards on three catches. His previous single-game high was 75 receiving yards at Cleveland on Sept. 8, 2019.
- Took a screen pass 69 yards in the second quarter, and the play resulted in a touchdown. After losing control of the football at the six-yard line, teammate Treyton Burks recovered the fumble in the end zone for a touchdown. The reception was the second-longest of Henry's career.
- With six games remaining in the season, he already has career highs with 21 receptions and 278 receiving yards in 2022. He surpassed his previous highs of 19 catches in 2020 and 206 receiving yards in 2019.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Returned to the field after missing three games with an injury and led the team with eight tackles.

TE AUSTIN HOOPER

- Caught three passes for 30 yards, including an eight-yard reception on third-and-five in the first quarter.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

K CALEB SHUDAK

- Made his NFL debut and connected on three of his four field goal attempts as well as his only extra point attempt.
- Connected on a 33-yard field goal on the first attempt of his career and added a 24-yard field goal in the third quarter and a 38-yarder in the fourth quarter.
- Became the first Titans rookie or first-year player to make three field goals in a game since Rob Bironas (four) against the San Francisco 49ers on Nov. 27, 2005.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Averaged 53.8 gross yards (43.8 net) on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20.
- Booted a 71-yard punt for a touchback in the third quarter. It was his third punt of the season that went at least 70 yards.
- Recorded his ninth performance of the season with an average of at least 50.0 yards per punt, which surpassed Brett Kern's eight such games in 2012 for the franchise's most total games in a single season with a 50.0-yard gross punting average.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Completed 22 of 34 passes for 291 yards with a passer rating of 91.7. He added nine yards on two rushing attempts to give him 300 combined passing and rushing yards.
- Completed a 25-yard pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine in the first quarter.
- Credited with a 69-yard pass on a screen play to Derrick Henry in the second quarter. The play resulted in a touchdown when Treyton Burks recovered Henry's fumble in the end zone.
- Delivered a 51-yard pass to Treyton Burks in the third quarter.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

DL DeMARCUS WALKER

- Tallied two tackles, one sack and a team-high two tackles for loss.
- Registered a sack in the first quarter, dropping Joe Burrow for a four-yard loss. He improved his season total to 4.5 sacks and his career total to 17.0 sacks. His 4.5 sacks in 2022 equaled his 4.5 sacks in 2020 as a member of the Denver Broncos for the best season total of his career.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- Tied for the team lead with four receptions for 58 yards, including a 25-yard catch in the first quarter and a 20-yard reception in the second quarter.

What did the referees tell you about their call on the final field goal attempt?
They didn't give me any interpretation. They just said that they felt like we hit the snapper in a head or neck area.

Was that penalty on defensive tackle Tear Tart?
I don't know. You had a better view than I did. I saw a quick replay.

What was your take after seeing that replay?
I don't know. We were trying to block the kick. That is all it was. I don't know. We'll have to take a closer look at it and see what it was. It was quick replay. I don't know if we hit him in the head or not. They felt like we did. It is not like we lost the game on that play. We can sit here and talk about one play. What else you got?

What was going wrong in the rushing attack?
We could not block them. We could not move them. We tried some different schemes and give them credit. We have to find ways to run the football.

How costly was the inability to capitalize in the red zone today?
Like a lot of other things. Not as much as giving up big plays, not getting any turnovers and not stopping the run were, all four phases and didn't do a good enough job today, those being coaching, special teams, offense and defense.

Did the Titans lose the physical battle today?
The numbers would say so. The way we rushed the ball. The way that we stopped the run. I do not think that we tackled well. We weren't able to get in any rhythm in the running game. I felt like there were times where things were working and clicking and then we weren't able to continue to sustain that. We'll see how we covered kicks on tape.

Was their running success due to bad tackling or what did you see there?
Just understanding that we're going to have to be able to fit some runs and play post safety or split safety defense against teams that have the skill players that they do. Somebody has got to win and somebody has got to tackle. There were a lot of missed tackles out there today from first view.

How hard is it to defend Bengals quarterback Joe Burrow scrambling given everything else you have to defend?
We have got to affect the quarterback better than what we did today. I hope we didn't think we were going to show up and sack him nine times. We didn't do enough to affect the quarterback.

How much of a spark did wide receiver Treyton Burks provide?
I'd say not enough. That would be my first answer, but he has continued to progress. He made the play down the field. I know that he probably left one out there on a check that Ryan (Tannehill) had on the third down. They blitzed us and Ryan (Tannehill) gave him a chance, but I'm really proud of the way that he bounced back and wasn't frustrated. He was disappointed, but to go make a play down a field, that was huge.

What was the thought process kicking versus leaving the offense on the field on that fourth down there in the fourth quarter?

Just trying to secure some points and get a stop. That is what the thought process was. Fourth-and-five, we were just trying to just make it closer for Caleb (Shudak). The third-and-long, the process was that we could get it stopped and have a chance to either win the game or tie it. That's what the thought process was.

What you see in the play challenge?
I thought I saw the ball moving. Figured either way, it was probably a decent time to reset the defense. We had kind of been scrambling a little bit. Didn't have a great view upstairs, that one is on me not (John) Streicher. There wasn't really a replay. I just figured that either way, we needed to calm down and try to force them to kick a field goal.

How did kicker Caleb Shudak handle things today?
I thought well. We had the one that unfortunately did not. Other than that, I thought he stepped in and was ready to go. He was excited to get out there and kick for us today.

What went wrong on the missed field goal?
Like they always say, when we miss them, it's a bad snap, a bad hold, a bad kick. Make sure you write all three of those down. That is what happened. We didn't make it.

I am just curious if it had to do with the operation or if Caleb Shudak just pulled the kick?
We missed a kick. Caleb Shudak missed the kick. When we used to miss them and we went through all those kickers that one year, every time we'd miss one, they'd blame the snap or the hold. Kickers like that.

Did you think you were going to have center Ben Jones today?
Ben (Jones) wasn't available today. We have to be ready. Everybody has to be ready when they walk in the building and all week to be ready to play as a starter, to be ready to play in the game. Things change throughout the week, and we get 48 guys on gameday. Sometimes we bring guys up from the practice squad. Sometimes things happen late in the week. Everybody has to be ready to go.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Does cornerback Roger McCreary need to play that Bengals wide receiver Tee Higgins more physically on the touchdown?

I don't know. Everybody told me the referee reached, that maybe his hip was itching and that he reached at his flag and then decided not to throw it. I don't know. We have to try to go and play as physical as we can without penalty. When you play the ball you get to be a little bit more physical. The guy made a play.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

What caused the lack of being able to capitalize on opportunities today?

We have got to be cleaner in the red zone. That is something that we pride ourselves on and put a lot of focus and importance on throughout the season. Today we didn't execute well on them.

Was there anything in particular that hurt the red zone efficiency?

Overall, we just didn't make enough plays down there. We got down there a few times and had some opportunities but just didn't make enough plays.

How frustrating was it not being able to get points at the end of the half?

It was a little frustrating, but we did a good job of moving the ball down the field. At the same time, as an offense we want to be able to get in the end zone there. They did a good job of kind of playing soft and holding us out there at the end. We'd love to come away with points right there.

What did they do better against the run compared to other teams that played you?

I'll take a look at the tape. We knew they were going to be physical and big up front and one up us a lot, and that they would put a bunch of guys on the line of scrimmage. That's what they did. I don't think that was a surprise to anybody. We'll have to take a look at the tape and see exactly what was going on up there.

When you're not successful in the run how difficult does that make it in the passing game?

We still had some opportunities. We made some plays down the field. I thought we did some good things in the passing game. We made some plays, and some guys made the plays down the field for us. Treylon (Burks) on the big one down the field. We did some other good things on some underneath passing game. Overall, we have just got to be cleaner. There were opportunities there.

Did you get a little scare with the ankle there in the fourth quarter?

It got tweaked a little bit. That is just kind of nature of what it is, if you just get hit the wrong way you can tweak it at any moment.

Can you speak to that play of wide receiver Treylon Burks making that play for you all?

It was a great job by him. I had to make sure the backside corner wasn't falling off into that zone. The guy was kind of on his heels at that point, so I just tried to give him a chance to go up and make a play. He did that. He has done that multiple times in practice and a few times in the games so far. There is a lot of confidence going his way. I had one earlier in the in the first half that if I just had a half a second longer to get the ball off clean, we're going to have an opportunity down the field. He is doing a good job not only on the down the field plays for us, but with understanding what we're doing underneath. He was a part of a few checks today and did a good job with some of the checks. His confidence is growing and my confidence in him is definitely growing.

How much have both Treylon Burks and tight end Chig Okonkwo earned your trust over the course of the season?

No question. I have a ton of confidence in both of those guys as well as the other guys, Robert (Woods) and Austin (Hooper) and Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine). The more those guys start making plays, of course as a quarterback it gives you a lot of confidence to put a ball in their direction and have faith that they're going to make a play for you.

How much do you all need to find consistency to enter the postseason with some momentum?

Every game is a little bit different. We just have to go out and try to execute one play at a time. Every run is not going to be a home run. We want to be efficient in the run game and then take advantage of opportunities that arise in the passing game. We did some good things today, but we just have to be cleaner, and overall, as an offense make more plays and finish those drives with touchdowns.

How comfortable are you guys right now in close games like this one?

Comfortable. We're trying to go out and win a game no matter what the score is. Whether it's a low-scoring game or a high-scoring game, our job is to go score more points than the other team. At the end of the day that's what it comes down to, finding a way to score points and put more points on the board than the other team.

Is there something that you could put your finger on to be more consistent in the second half of games?

Finishing drives could help. Just being able to get in the end zone when we are down there. We had some opportunities where we stubbed our toe a little bit, and then stopped drives that had chances to keep going. I sound like a broken record, but it just has to be cleaner and make more plays consistently throughout the game.

What does it say to be 0-for-3 in the red zone today for this team who normally performs well there?

It is unusual. We put a lot of focus, attention, and practice down in the red zone. We pride ourselves on being good down there. Today we didn't execute well enough.

What does it feel like when you guys see the Bengals take a field goal and potentially give the Titans a chance for a two-minute drive until a flag rids you of that chance?

It was a crushing moment. I was talking through two-minute adjustments on the sideline with my receivers. I had a lot of confidence that we were going to go down there and get a touchdown, then either kick it to tie it or go for two to win it, depending on what (Mike) Vrabel wanted to do. I had a ton of confidence in our group on the sideline there and then what happened, happened. It was definitely a crushing feeling.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

Were they doing something particularly well on defense today? Looks like it was probably tough going as you might have had all year?

They executed and we didn't. They had a plan, came in and executed and we didn't do our job really.

It's a rare thing for you guys, but do you think they wound up being the more physical team?

I don't think so, because we just couldn't get anything started in the run game. And obviously they had a plan and executed and they played better than we did.

What do you feel like you guys need to do better moving forward to keep that from happening?

To me, you've got to go back to work, watch the film, learn from it. Go back to work, focus on improving, focus on getting better. We got another game coming up next Sunday. Learn from this one, just go back to work.

Do they do any more run blitzing maybe than teams normally do against you?

I mean, they blitzed some, they shot the gaps with backers. But at the end of the day, we've got things to block that and do what we need to do, but that's another thing we didn't do our job.

How much difference does it make with Ben (Jones) with his experience in there playing center?

Ben (Jones) is smart and knows the ins and outs of the offense and he's a big part of what we do. We went out today and there's no excuse. We've just got to execute better and be locked in, all 11 of us.

I know it's a long season. How much do the losses motivate you? How upset should this team be about this one?

Yeah, this one definitely hurts. But at the end of the day, you've just got to learn and grow from it. And like I said, come in tomorrow and watch the film and see what we need to correct, continue to get better, and then focus on improving to the next one.

You're on your way to the end zone and then the ball got punched out there. How long are you going to carry that, like, as you go back on that, what went wrong?

I can't harp on that. Treylon (Burks) went to the ball and we wound up scoring. Ball security, there are no excuses. I've got to carry the ball better, be more attentive where the defense is at. I got to carry it high and tight, which is what you are supposed to do as a running back, and go learn from it and be better next time.

Frustrating that this team which has been so good in the red zone struggled today? I think it was 0-for-3 inside the 20?

Yeah, definitely it was frustrating. Whenever you get down there you want to get points, and we just strung some plays together to get down there, just couldn't get in the end zone. We've got to get back to work and hopefully be better.

Something about this team, this is the last three in a row, they have got you?

They are playing better than the last time we faced them. We'll see them again and I am sure we will play better the next time, but I know in the back of my mind, just go and move on from it.

WIDE RECEIVER TREYLON BURKS

Issues in the red zone, settling for field goals. How much did that kind of hurt you guys today?

We've just got to get better. Get back to work tomorrow. Get back to work and just leave that in the past and move on from it, and just keep getting better as the week goes on.

Did they do anything differently defensively, once you guys got in the red zone?

Just like I said, we just have to get better at what we do and everything else will take care of itself.

The contested catch that you had. Is that kind of a play that you've been waiting to make?

I'm always ready to make plays when my name is called. I take it real personal, so I just do whatever I can to help the team win and make plays.

About your fumble recovery in the end zone for the touchdown. Was that something where it's just an instinctive thing, or were you maybe anticipating the ball could come out?

Effort and finish, what our team is based off of. Just going out there, and it's a long-winded guy with the ball, and it just so happened I was in the right place at the right time.

A lot of momentum, obviously, after that Green Bay win. How disappointing was it to come back home and drop this one?

It's disappointing, but we've just got to continue to get better. Come back in tomorrow and go to work.

CORNERBACK ROGER McCREARY

You had good coverage on (Tee Higgins), and he makes the catch anyway?

Yeah, it's just football, I'd say. There are some plays that I made that were good, and some I wish I could take back. It's just part of football. I've just got to go on to the next play and that's how I try to go with it.

Seems like the officials let a lot go on that play. Do you feel like he might have pushed off a little bit?

I wouldn't say that. I mean, if they were going to throw a flag or anything, using an excuse that he pushed off – it's just football. I have to play aggressive and be smarter, I'd say.

Overall, their ability to stay on the field on those third-and-longs. How frustrating was that?

I would say the most frustrating part as a defense was about getting off on third down. I feel we really didn't execute that well on third downs. I feel like coming back tomorrow, our main key will be get off third down. Get off third down. That's our main focus, I would say.

Obviously, a tough loss, but you have to bounce back, plus get ready for next week?

Most definitely. We're going to take this in. Take this "L" in. Learn from it, and just go on. Learn from our mistakes tomorrow, and just go on. On to our next game.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN NICHOLAS PETIT-FRERE

Tough sledding in the red zone today, for you guys.

Yeah, we didn't find a way for us to score touchdowns in the red zone. That's something that we need to find a way for us to do. We've got to talk about it, watch the film and figure out how to find a way for us to be able to do that.

Did they do anything different defensively, once you guys got inside the 20, or what do you think?

No, not necessarily. We just need to find a way to score touchdowns in the red zone, and that's something that we as an offense just need to get better at. So, like I said, just go through the film, get better at practice, and find a way to overcome that and be better next week.

You guys obviously had so much momentum coming off that Green Bay game. How disappointing is it to come back and drop this one today at home?

It's disappointing whenever you lose, because in the NFL, we're all competitive. We're the most competitive people in the entire world. Losing any game is tough. But you've got to lick your wounds. You've got to find a way to come back and compete next week, because the NFL, it doesn't stop for anyone.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN DEMARCUS WALKER

A little surprising on how well they did on the run against you guys today?

Not surprising at all. That's going to happen. Not surprising at all. And I got to give my credit to them, know what I'm saying? They came in the game and ran the ball.

Why is it not surprising?

We've got to play better as a team. Straight up. Accountability. Everyone has to do their job, and everyone has to be on the same page. Everything about it.

Were they the more physical teams today?

I mean, we lost. We lost. This one definitely stings. We lost. I don't think there was – I mean, we just lost.

(Tee) Higgins and some of the other receivers had some big catches down the field. (Joe) Burrow just had too much time to throw, you feel like?

Joe (Burrow) from just my studying held the ball pretty long all season. This game, he got it off quick. Second down, like just from watching, he held the ball a little bit longer. We've got to get home and execute.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2022

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The Titans have had a winning record each season since 2016, when general manager Jon Robinson arrived in Tennessee. The Titans went 9-7 each year from 2016 to 2019, achieved an 11-5 finish in 2020, and then earned a 12-5 mark in 2021. A seventh consecutive season above .500 would tie the franchise's all-time best streak. The only previous stretch in which the club achieved seven straight winning records was 1987 to 1993.
- The Titans can earn their fourth consecutive playoff berth. It would be the organization's first time doing so since a franchise-record seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987 to 1993.
- The Titans can earn their third consecutive division title. The only other three-year streak of division titles in franchise annals was when the Oilers won the AFL Eastern division each season from 1960 to 1962.
- A third consecutive season with 11 or more wins would mark the first time in franchise history the team has accomplished such a streak.
- The Titans can log their fourth consecutive season with at least five road victories, which would be the longest such streak in franchise history (1978–1980 and 1998–2000).
- Entering 2022 with a record of 107-78 in regular season games at Nissan Stadium, the Titans need six wins at home to match the 113 wins the franchise had in regular season contests at the Astrodome (113-103-2). Seven home wins would give the franchise more victories at Nissan Stadium (114) than any other single venue.

GM JON ROBINSON

- Can oversee a winning season for the seventh consecutive season since joining the Titans in 2016. He already is the only general manager in franchise history to oversee six total seasons above the .500 mark.
- Can join Mike Holovak (1989–1993) as the only two general managers in franchise history to oversee five or more playoff seasons.

- With a winning record in 2022, Mike Vrabel would become the only head coach in franchise history to begin his tenure with at least five consecutive winning seasons. Vrabel and Jack Pardee are the organization's only head coaches with as many as three such seasons to begin their tenures.
- Can join Jeff Fisher (six) and Jack Pardee (four) as the only head coaches to lead the franchise to at least four playoff appearances.

S KEVIN BYARD

- With his first interception of 2022 (23 interceptions entering the season), he tied Zeke Moore (24) for 10th place on the all-time franchise interception list.
- Needs two interceptions in 2022 to tie Michael Griffin and Ken Houston (25) for eighth place all-time for the franchise.
- Needs three interceptions in 2022 to tie Mike Reinfeldt (26) for seventh all-time for the franchise and pass Michael Griffin (25) for the most interceptions for the franchise in its "Titans era" (1999–present).
- Can lead the team in interceptions for the fifth time, which would tie Darryll Lewis' franchise record (1994-98).
- Can become the first player to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive seasons since Keith Bulluck (2002-06).

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Needs 2,000 rushing yards to become the first player in NFL history to reach the mark in two different seasons.
- Needs 1,500 rushing yards and 15 rushing touchdowns to become the first player in NFL history to reach both marks in three different seasons.
- Needs a pair of 200-yard rushing games in 2022 to give him seven for his career, which would set the NFL record. He would surpass O.J. Simpson and Adrian Peterson, who each have six such performances.
- With his seventh total touchdown of 2022, he reached 75 to break Eddie George's career franchise record of 74 total touchdowns.
- With his ninth rushing touchdown of 2022, he reached 74 to break Earl Campbell's career franchise record of 73 rushing touchdowns.
- Entering the season with 6,797 career rushing yards, he will pass Chris Johnson (7,965) for third place on the franchise's all-time career rushing list with 1,169 rushing yards in 2022.
- With his 10th rushing touchdown in 2022, he became the fifth running back in NFL history to reach the mark in five consecutive seasons, joining LaDainian Tomlinson (nine), Adrian Peterson (seven), Shaun Alexander (five) and Michael Turner (five).

- Can join Warren Moon (1987–1993) as the only starting quarterbacks in franchise history to lead the club to the playoffs in four consecutive seasons.
- Entered 2022 with an active streak of 43 consecutive starts. With a start in the season opener, he passed Steve McNair (43 consecutive starts from 2001 to 2003) for the most consecutive starts in franchise history by a quarterback.
- Needs 3,500 passing yards to tie Warren Moon (1989–1991) for the most seasons in franchise history with at least 3,500 passing yards. Tannehill reached the mark in each of the past two campaigns.
- Can join Buffalo's Josh Allen (2018–2020) as the NFL's only quarterbacks since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least seven rushing touchdowns in three consecutive seasons. Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

The Titans finished with a winning record in each of his first six seasons on the job. They had four consecutive 9-7 records from 2016 to 2019, followed by an 11-5 mark in 2020 and a 12-5 record in 2021. It was the first time the organization produced at least six consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans and Kansas City Chiefs were the only NFL teams without a losing season from 2016 to 2021.

Robinson became the first general manager in franchise history with six seasons above the .500 mark, surpassing Bum Phillips (1975, 1977–1980) and Mike Holovak (1989-93). Robinson's winning records from 2016 to 2021 also eclipsed Holovak for the most consecutive winning seasons by a Titans/Oilers general manager.

The Titans went to the playoffs four times in Robinson's first six seasons with the club: 2017, 2019, 2020 and 2021. The four playoff appearances tied for the third-most in the league during that time, and only Kansas City (six) and the New England Patriots (five) had more. Robinson's four playoff campaigns already place him in the top three in team annals along with Holovak (five) and Floyd Reese (four).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

In 2020, Robinson and the Titans clinched the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They did so while navigating the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic.

In 2021, the Titans won their second consecutive AFC South crown with a 12-5 mark, celebrating the franchise's first back-to-back division championships since the Oilers took the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962.

Robinson has overseen a nearly complete overhaul of the roster during his tenure. In seven drafts as general manager from 2016 to 2022, he selected 52 total players, and 27 of those players were still with the organization prior to the 2022 regular season (as of Sept. 4, 2022). The only member of the roster who predated Robinson at that time was tackle Taylor Lewan. During that same time period, he engineered 33 total trades.

2022: After the NFL's new league year began in March 2022, Robinson engineered a trade with the Rams to acquire veteran wide receiver Robert Woods, who totaled 570 receptions for 7,077 yards in nine previous seasons in Buffalo and Los Angeles.

Robinson then went to work in the free agent market, highlighted by the addition of two-time Pro Bowl tight end Austin Hooper, who played his first four seasons with the Atlanta Falcons before spending a pair of campaigns with the Cleveland Browns.

The Titans also were active in re-signing several of their own key free agents, including center Ben Jones and Pro Bowl outside linebacker Harold Landry III.

During the first round of the 2022 NFL Draft, the Titans acquired the 18th overall selection and an additional third-rounder from Philadelphia in a trade that sent wide receiver A.J. Brown to the Eagles. With the 18th pick, Robinson and the Titans grabbed Arkansas wide receiver Treyton Burks.

Robinson would execute two more trades during the draft to end up with nine total players, including Auburn cornerback Roger McCreary in the second round.

2021: In 2021, the Titans struck several deals with veterans in the initial days of free agency. The incoming players included Pittsburgh Steelers outside linebackers Bud Dupree and Ola Adeniyi, New Orleans Saints cornerback Jackrabbit Jenkins, Indianapolis Colts defensive lineman Denico Autry and Baltimore Ravens long snapper Morgan Cox. The Titans also re-signed several of their own free agents: tight ends Anthony Firkser and Geoff Swaim and inside linebacker Jayon Brown.

Autry proved to be a key addition for the defense. He appeared in every game in his first season with the club and finished second on the team with nine sacks. His sack total tied his career high, matching the nine sacks he had in 2018 as a member of the Indianapolis Colts.

During the 2021 NFL Draft, Robinson led the selection of eight total players, beginning with Virginia Tech cornerback Caleb Farley with the 22nd overall selection in the first round. In the second round, the Titans chose North Dakota State offensive lineman Dillon Radunz, followed by Georgia linebacker Monty Rice and Washington defensive back Elijah Molden in Round 3.

Late in the 2021 campaign, Robinson claimed inside linebacker Zach Cunningham off waivers from the division rival Houston Texans. Over three seasons from 2019 to 2021, Cunningham's 392 total tackles were more than every NFL player other than Seattle's Bobby Wagner (467) and Chicago's Roquan Smith (402).

2020: Early in 2020, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, who would go on to start all 16 games at right tackle.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Robinson acquired Tannehill for the Titans in a 2019 trade with the Miami Dolphins. In his first three seasons in Tennessee, Tannehill built a 30-13 record as a starting quarterback and became the franchise's first starting quarterback since Warren Moon (1987 to 1993) to direct his team to the playoffs in at least three consecutive seasons. He started every game from Week 7 of the 2019 campaign through the end of 2021, and during that time, Tannehill's 102.3 passer rating ranked sixth in the NFL. He became the only quarterback other than Moon (1989–1991) to record multiple seasons with at least 3,500 passing yards with the franchise. Also, Tannehill's 13 total game-winning drives in that span ranked second in the NFL behind only Raiders quarterback Derek Carr's 14. In 2019, Tannehill was named to his first Pro Bowl earned the 2019 Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

After securing his multi-year extension in 2020, Henry produced one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a running back. He led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season with 2,027 rushing yards, which was only the eighth 2,000-yard rushing season in league annals, and also paced the league with 17 rushing touchdowns. He was recognized with the Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year Award.

Henry, a second-round pick by Robinson in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2021, during which time he also led the NFL with 6,307 total rushing yards. In 2019, he won his first of two consecutive NFL rushing crowns with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks, including Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton in the second round (61st overall). Fulton emerged as a full-time starter in 2021 and tied for 11th place in the NFL with a team-high 14 passes defended.

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles, including Tannehill and former Rams guard Rodger Saffold. Robinson also worked to re-sign safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

In his first three seasons, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 185 receptions, 2,995 receiving yards, a 16.2-yard receiving average and 24 touchdown catches. Since 1970, Brown was only the fourth NFL player to reach all of those numbers within his first three seasons, joining Randy Moss, Jerry Rice and John Jefferson. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 after totaling 70 receptions for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Simmons was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021 and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors. He ranked sixth in the NFL among defensive tackles with 8.5 sacks, and he set a franchise single-game postseason record with three sacks.

Saffold also earned his first career Pro Bowl berth in 2021, the third consecutive season since he arrived in Tennessee in which the team finished in the top five in rushing.

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his three seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 41 games (36 starts) and totaled nine interceptions. In early August 2018, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 42 games over his three seasons with the club.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall).

From the start of his rookie season through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans, and other than Jevon Kearse (37), it was the highest total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982. In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after his career-high 12 sacks ranked 10th in the NFL.

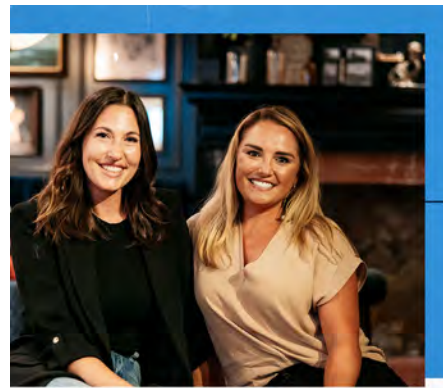

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

Jones became a foundational member of the offensive line. From 2016 to 2021, he was one of only eight offensive linemen to start at least 96 of a possible 97 games. He finished the 2021 campaign with an active streak of 40 consecutive starts, ranking third among centers.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard has become one of the most successful players at his position in franchise history. He finished the 2021 campaign as a three-time team captain, two-time Pro Bowl selection and a two-time Associated Press first-team All-Pro. Over a five-year period from 2017 through 2021, Byard led all NFL safeties and ranked third in the NFL with 23 interceptions. His career interception total was 11th on the franchise's all-time list and sixth among all Titans/Oilers safeties.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback James Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009–13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006–07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

WINNINGEST GMs IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced six consecutive winning seasons in his first six years on the job, including a 12-5 mark during the 2021 regular season. Prior to 2021, the club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 with postseason berths following the 2017 and 2019 campaigns. Then, in 2020, the Titans finished the regular season 11-5 and won the team's first division championship since 2008.

Robinson has the most winning seasons of any general manager in franchise history. His career win total ranks behind only Floyd Reese (111, including playoffs), and his four playoff seasons are tied with Reese for second place. Only Mike Holovak (five) oversaw more postseason qualifiers.

With this year's record, plus their 2020 finish of 11-5 and their 9-7 marks every season from 2016 through 2019, the Titans have built the second-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL.

Most current consecutive winning seasons (through 2021):

2. Tennessee Titans	6	2016–2021

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In his first four seasons as head coach, Vrabel led the Titans to a 43-27 overall record and three postseason appearances. He joined Jack Pardee and Jerry Glanville as the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons as head coach, and he tied Pardee (43-26) for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization. The Titans won back-to-back AFC South titles in 2020 and 2021, marking the first time the organization accomplished the feat since the Oilers won the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962.

Vrabel Honored as NFL's Top Coach in 2021

Vrabel was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2021 after directing the Titans to a 12-5 record during the regular season. The Titans won the AFC South, and they claimed the top seed in the AFC playoff field for the first time since 2008. They did so despite needing to use 91 total players during the season—the most in NFL history in a non-strike year. After the final preseason roster cuts through the end of the season, the team placed 26 different players on injured reserve and 21 different players on the reserve/COVID-19 list, plus additional practice squad players that received those designations.

The 2021 Titans ranked second in rushing defense (84.6 yards allowed per game), 12th in total defense (329.8), sixth on third down (36.7 percent), sixth in scoring defense (20.8 points per game) and ninth in sacks (43). Offensively, the Titans finished fifth in rushing (141.4 yards per game) despite missing Derrick Henry for nine games due to injury. The offense also ranked eighth on third down (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent).

Situationally, Vrabel's teams fared well among the NFL leaders in his first four seasons as head coach. From 2018 to 2021, their .909 winning percentage (40-4) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead ranked second in the NFL behind the New Orleans Saints (.939). In the same time period, the Titans had a .714 winning percentage in three-point games (15-6), which led the league. Vrabel's team was 5-1 in overtime games from 2018 through 2021, tying the Saints (5-1) for the most overtime wins.

From 2018 to 2021, the Titans had the NFL's second-best rushing offense, averaging 143.7 rushing yards per game. Only the Baltimore Ravens were better (173.6). On the other side of the ball, the Titans ranked seventh in rushing defense, allowing 106.2 rushing yards per contest. Also from 2018 to 2021, the Titans tied for eighth in scoring defense (22.0 opponent points per game) and tied for the eighth-best turnover margin (+13). The Titans were called for 370 penalties from 2018 through 2021, which was the sixth-fewest total in the NFL.

Titans Take the AFC South in Year 3 Under Vrabel

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the Pro Bowl after recording his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tying for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012-2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

MOST WINS IN FIRST FOUR SEASONS

When the Titans defeated the Houston Texans on Jan. 9, 2022, Mike Vrabel won his 43rd game, including postseason, since taking over as Titans head coach in 2018. In doing so, he tied Jack Pardee for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization. In Pardee's first four seasons as head coach from 1990 through 1993, the Oilers were 43-26, including playoffs.

Vrabel, Pardee and Jerry Glanville (1986-1989) are the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons. All three of Pardee's first four teams made the postseason, while Glanville's Oilers advanced to the postseason in his second, third and fourth years.

Of all Titans/Oilers head coaches with at least four seasons with the franchise, Vrabel's career winning percentage ranks the highest.

Most total wins in Titans/Oilers history in a head coach's first four seasons, including playoffs*:

* Does not include interim seasons

Note: Munchak, Mularkey, Ivy and Rymkus coached fewer than four seasons

When Vrabel was hired in 2018, he joined six other head coaches who joined (or rejoined) their respective clubs in the same offseason: Jon Gruden (Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders), Matt Nagy (Chicago Bears), Matt Patricia (Detroit Lions), Frank Reich (Indianapolis Colts), Pat Shurmur (New York Giants) and Steve Wilks (Arizona Cardinals). Of those seven coaches, Vrabel had the most wins from 2018 to 2021.

Vrabel, Reich and Nagy each led their respective teams to the playoffs twice in their first three seasons, while Vrabel was the only one from the group to go to the playoffs a third time in that span.

Most total wins from 2018 to 2021 by head coaches hired during the 2018 offseason (through 2021):

TITANS TO PLAYOFFS IN YEAR 2 UNDER VRABEL

In 2019, Titans head coach Mike Vrabel became the franchise's sixth head coach in franchise annals to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Vrabel was the fourth head coach in Titans/Oilers history to win at least one playoff game in his first two full seasons, joining Mike Mularkey (2017 playoff victory), Jack Pardee (1991) and Lou Rymkus (1960 and 1961). He became the first head coach in the team's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

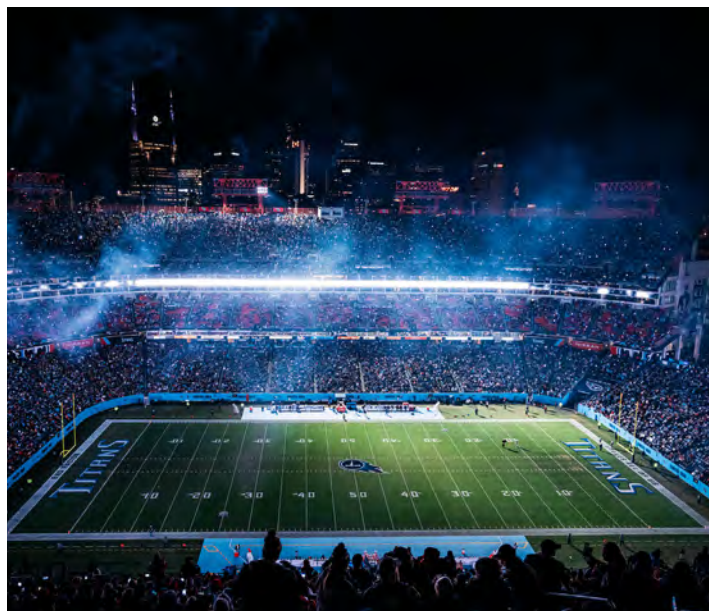

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 11th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2021.

In his first three seasons in Tennessee, Tannehill built a 30-13 record as a starting quarterback and led the team to the postseason three times, becoming the franchise's first starting quarterback since Warren Moon (1987 to 1993) to direct his team to the playoffs in at least three consecutive seasons. After appearing in the AFC championship game as a wild card team in 2019, the Titans won consecutive division titles in 2020 and 2021, a first for the franchise since the Oilers took the first three AFL Eastern Division titles from 1960 to 1962. Tannehill's 30 wins were the most by any starting quarterback in franchise history in the player's first three seasons with the organization, surpassing the 28 by George Blanda from 1960 to 1962.

Tannehill started every game from Week 7 of the 2019 campaign through the end of 2021. His 43 consecutive starts in the regular season tied Steve McNair (2001-03) for the most in franchise history by a starting quarterback. During that time, Tannehill's 102.3 passer rating ranked sixth in the NFL. Also, Tannehill's 13 total game-winning drives in that span ranked second in the NFL behind only Raiders quarterback Derek Carr's 14.

In 2021, he placed third on the franchise's single-season passing charts in attempts (531), completions (357) and completion percentage (67.2), and he ranked fourth with 3,734 passing yards. He became the only quarterback other than Moon (1989-1991) to record multiple seasons with at least 3,500 passing yards with the franchise. Additionally, he rushed for 270 yards, and his seven rushing touchdowns ranked second among NFL signal callers behind Jalen Hurts' 10. Tannehill was the first quarterback in franchise annals with at least seven rushing touchdowns in back-to-back seasons.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth). Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Drew Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Aaron Rodgers (2011-12).

Also in 2020, Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

Pastorini, Warren Moon, Steve McNair and Marcus Mariota. With the victory, he set the record for the most wins by a Titans/Oilers starting quarterback in the first four seasons of a player's career with the organization (35 wins in the regular season and 37 including playoffs), surpassing George Blanda (34 regular season, 36 total). Tannehill completed both touchdown passes to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, connecting on a nine-yard score in the second quarter and a 63-yarder on a flea-flicker in the third quarter. It was his longest completion since a 75-yard touchdown pass against Detroit on Dec. 20, 2020. He recorded his fourth consecutive start with no interceptions, which tied for the longest streak of his career in a single season (three times, last in 2016).

➤ At Green Bay (11/17), completed 22 of 27 passes for 333 yards with two touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 127.3. He established a new career high for completion percentage (81.5) in a qualifying game (minimum 20 attempts). His 25th career 300-yard passing game was his ninth such performance since joining the Titans in 2019, moving him ahead of Marcus Mariota (eight) for the fourth-highest total in franchise history. On the opening drive of the game, he completed a 43-yard pass to Treylon Burks to convert a third down and then tossed a 14-yard touchdown pass to Dontrell Hilliard. On the first play of the fourth quarter, he completed a 16-yard scoring strike to Austin Hooper. Late in the fourth quarter, he helped cement the outcome with a 51-yard completion to Burks. He reached 1,500 passing attempts as a member of the Titans (1,507), which is the number needed to qualify in the team record books for career passer rating and completion percentage marks, and he moved into first place in both categories.

➤ Against Cincinnati (11/27), completed 22 of 34 passes for 291 yards with a passer rating of 91.7. He added nine yards on two rushing attempts to give him 300 combined passing and rushing yards. In the first quarter, he completed a 25-yard pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. In the second quarter, he was credited with a 69-yard pass on a screen play to Derrick Henry. The play resulted in a touchdown when Treylon Burks recovered Henry's fumble in the end zone. In the third quarter, he delivered a 51-yard pass to Treylon Burks.

Running back Derrick Henry is in his seventh NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

From his rookie season through 2021, Henry ranked second in the NFL with 6,797 rushing yards, trailing only Dallas Cowboys running back Ezekiel Elliott (7,386). Henry's 65 rushing touchdowns led the league over the same period. In franchise history, Henry finished 2021 ranked fourth in career rushing yards behind Eddie George (10,009), Earl Campbell (8,574) and Chris Johnson (7,965), and his rushing touchdowns were second behind only Campbell (73).

In 2021, Henry's season was affected by a foot injury that caused him to be placed on injured reserve for the final nine games of the regular season. Prior to the injury, he was leading the NFL with 937 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns, numbers that still ranked ninth and tied for sixth, respectively, at the conclusion of the regular season. He returned to start in the team's divisional playoff contest and rushed for 62 yards and one score.

Henry was honored in 2021 with his first career nomination for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award.

In 2020, Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was recognized with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run—one of his four touchdowns in the contest. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his fourth NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 in tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III is in his fifth NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022.

From the start of his rookie season through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defensed. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. #31 • S KEVIN BYARD5-11, 212, 7th Year, Middle Tennessee StateClick for complete bio

Safety Kevin Byard is in his seventh NFL season in 2022. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (64th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Byard is one of the team's most accomplished defenders and is among the NFL's most successful safeties in recent years. He finished the 2021 campaign as a three-time team captain, two-time Pro Bowl selection and a two-time Associated Press first-team All-Pro. Since entering the league, he has been a part of six consecutive winning seasons and four playoff berths.

Byard did not miss a game from 2016 through 2021, totaling 97 games in the regular season and seven postseason games. At the conclusion of 2021, his 88 consecutive starts in the regular season was the leading current streak among all Titans players, ranked first in the NFL among defenders, and was the sixth-longest active streak among all players.

Over a five-year period from 2017 through 2021, Byard led all safeties with 23 interceptions. The only players with more interceptions in that time were cornerbacks Xavien Howard (27) and J.C. Jackson (25). His interception total was 11th on the franchise's all-time list and sixth among all Titans/Oilers safeties.

In 2021, Byard was announced as a starter to his second career Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the second time in his career. He joined Bruce Matthews (1999–2000) and Albert Haynesworth (2007–2008) as the franchise's only players in its "Titans era" (since 1999) to earn multiple first-team AP All-Pro honors.

Byard led the Titans in 2021 with five interceptions and 88 tackles, becoming the franchise's first player to lead the team in tackles and interceptions in the same season since the team began tracking individual tackle statistics in 1974. It was his second consecutive season to lead the club in tackles and the fourth time in his career he was the interceptions leader. Additionally, his 13 passes defended ranked second on the team and made up the highest total among NFL safeties. He also was credited with one sack, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and his first two career touchdowns—one on a fumble return and one on an interception return. He was the first Titans player with two defensive touchdowns in the same season since linebacker Zach Brown in 2012.

In 2020, Byard was a defensive team captain for the second consecutive season and the team's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee. His 111 tackles led the team and established a career high. Additionally, he registered one interception, seven passes defended, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. In one playoff game he produced five tackles, one pass defended and a quarterback pressure.

From 2017 through 2019, no NFL player had more interceptions than Byard, who had 17. His 2019 totals included a team-leading five interceptions, 10 passes defended, 91 tackles, one quarterback pressure and two tackles for loss. In three postseason games, he added 20 tackles and one interception.

In 2018, Byard finished with a team-leading four interceptions, 10 passes defended, 96 tackles and two sacks. He also completed a touchdown pass on a memorable fake punt to help defeat the Houston Texans (Sept. 16).

Byard experienced a breakthrough second-year season in 2017. He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.

As a rookie in 2016, Byard played in every game, starting the final seven contests at free safety. His 63 tackles were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Tank Williams' 69 tackles in 2002. He also ranked second on the squad with 10 special teams tackles.

During a four-year career at Middle Tennessee State University, he appeared in 49 games and notched 46 starts at safety while becoming one of the most prolific defenders in school history. He set school records with 19 career interceptions, 377 interception return yards and four interception returns for touchdowns, and he finished sixth in MTSU history with 312 career tackles. In total, he had a hand in 25 turnovers (19 interceptions, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery) during his career and added 17 career passes defended and five tackles for loss. He was twice named first-team All-Conference USA.

As a senior in 2015, Byard appeared in 12 games with nine starts as a permanent team captain and was named first-team All-Conference USA for the second consecutive year. He ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles and led the squad with four interceptions and six additional pass breakups.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room.
