TITANS TRAVEL TO SEATTLE TO FACE SEAHAWKS

Tennessee Titans (0-1) at Seattle Seahawks (1-0)

Sunday, Sept. 19, 2021 • 1:25 p.m. PDT/3:25 p.m. CDT • Lumen Field • Seattle, Wash. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-0) travel west in Week 2 to face the reigning NFC West champion Seattle Seahawks (1-0). Kickoff at Lumen Field (capacity 68,740) is scheduled for 1:25 PDT/3:25 CDT on Sunday, Sept. 19.

The two clubs last met on Sept. 24, 2017, when the Titans won 33-27 in Tennessee. The Titans have not traveled to Seattle since suffering a loss there Oct. 13, 2013.

THE BROADCAST

Sunday's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Andrew Catalon, analyst James Lofton and reporter Sherree Burruss.

Fans in the Nashville television market can livestream the broadcast on their mobile devices from the Titans Mobile App (iOS and Android), as well as on desktop computers and mobile web at TennesseeTitans.com. Restrictions apply. For more information on streaming options visit TennesseeTitans.com or NFL.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone will carry the game across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells and gameday host Rhett Bryan.

Additionally, Sports USA will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer John Ahlers and analyst Hank Bauer will have the call.

TITANS LOOK TO REGROUP AFTER WEEK 1

The Titans hosted the Arizona Cardinals last week to begin the 2021 season. Cardinals quarterback Kyler Murray accounted for five touchdowns (four passing and one rushing), and outside linebacker Chandler Jones totaled five sacks to help the Cardinals fly out of Nissan Stadium with a 38-13 victory.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill completed a touchdown pass to wide receiver A.J. Brown and rushed for another score. Dating back to the 2020 season, Tannehill has 14 consecutive games with one or more touchdown passes (tied for fifth in franchise history), and he has registered four consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass and at least one rushing touchdown (tied for second in the NFL since 1970).

Titans running back Derrick Henry, the NFL's back-to-back reigning rushing champion, began the season with a team-high 58 rushing yards on 17 attempts.

On defense, the Titans got sacks from outside linebacker Harold Landry III and defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons, and safety Kevin Byard recorded his 19th career interception to move into a tie for 15th place on the franchise's career interception list.

THE SEAHAWKS

Head coach Pete Carroll is in his 12th year on the Seattle sideline. He led the Seahawks to the playoffs in nine of his first 11 years on the job, including last year's division championship after finishing 12-4.

Quarterback Russell Wilson has started every game for the Seahawks since he was a third-round draft pick in 2012. At the conclusion of the 2020 campaign, he ranked second in NFL history for the most passing touchdowns in a player's first nine seasons with 267 (Peyton Manning, 275), and he became the only quarterback in NFL history with a winning record in each of his first nine seasons.

The Seahawks opened last week at Indianapolis. Wilson passed for four touchdowns, including two to wide receiver Tyler Lockett, as the Seahawks rolled to a 28-16 victory.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

WR A.J. BROWN

- Can record his 10th career 100-yard receiving game. He would become the eighth player in franchise history with at least 10 career 100-yard receiving games and the first since Ernest Givins (1986-88) to accomplish the feat in his first three seasons.
- Can record his fourth consecutive game with a touchdown catch, including the regular season and playoffs.

S KEVIN BYARD

- With 19 career interceptions, he needs one interception to move past Keith Bulluck (19) and Miller Farr (19) for sole possession of 15th place on the franchise's career interception list.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- With 5,918 career rushing yards, he needs 82 rushing yards to become the fourth player in franchise history to reach 6,000, joining Eddie George (10,009), Earl Campbell (8,574) and Chris Johnson (7,965).
- Can record his 24th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season and playoffs.
- With 58 career total touchdowns, he needs one touchdown to pass Chris Johnson (58) for third place on the team's all-time list behind Eddie George (74) and Earl Campbell (73).

WR JULIO JONES

- With 12,925 career receiving yards, he needs 75 receiving yards to become the 20th player in NFL history to reach the 13,000-yard receiving mark.
- Needs 122 receiving yards to pass Jason Witten (13,046) for 19th place on the NFL's career leaderboard for receiving yards.
- Can extend his streak to 129 consecutive individual games with at least one reception.
- Can record his 62nd career 100-yard receiving game in the regular season and postseason. It would be his 59th such performance in the regular season, which would tie Marvin Harrison for third place in NFL history behind only Jerry Rice (76), and Randy Moss (64).

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Can record his fourth consecutive game with a sack, including the regular season and playoffs.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can register at least one touchdown pass for the 15th consecutive game, which would tie George Blanda (15 games from 1963-1964) for the fourth-longest such streak in franchise history.
- Can record his 23rd career 300-yard passing game and his seventh such performance since joining the Titans in 2019.
- Can register a touchdown run for the fifth consecutive regular season game, which would tie for the second-longest streak in franchise history.
- Needs a rushing touchdown and a passing touchdown to become the second player (Kyler Murray in 2020) since 1970 to register five consecutive regular season games with at least one rushing touchdown and at least one passing touchdown.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Seahawks have met 17 times during the regular season and postseason. The Seahawks lead the series 10-7, although the Titans have won the lone playoff game between the clubs. Seattle has won eight of the last 11 matchups.

The Seahawks visited Nissan Stadium most recently on Sept. 24, 2017. The Titans used 115 rushing yards by DeMarco Murray and two touchdown passes by Marcus Mariota to pull out a 33-27 win. Murray picked up 75 of his rushing yards on a touchdown run.

The last time the Titans and Seahawks met at Lumen Field was Oct. 13, 2013. The score was tied 10-10 at the start of the fourth quarter, but the Seahawks surged ahead for a 20-13 victory. The Seahawks defense limited Titans quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick to 171 yards and intercepted two of his passes.

In a memorable 2009 season finale at Lumen Field (Jan. 3, 2010), Titans running back Chris Johnson became the sixth player in NFL history to reach 2,000 rushing yards in a season, and he also set a new NFL record with 2,509 yards from scrimmage in a season. His final carry of the day resulted in a one-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to give the Titans a 17-13 win.

The Seahawks began play as an expansion team in the NFC West in 1976. One season later, they were moved to the AFC West and played the then-Houston Oilers for the first time. The Oilers won the initial meeting (Nov. 20) by a 22-10 final score.

In a 1987 Wild Card Playoff game, the Oilers defeated the Seahawks at the Astrodome 23-20 in overtime. It was the Oilers' first playoff victory since the 1979 season.

The Seahawks migrated from the AFC West to the NFC West to begin the 2002 season, when the league was realigned to eight four-team divisions. The same year Lumen Field opened. Prior to that the Seahawks played their home games at the Kingdome.

Named head coach on Jan. 11, 2010, Pete Carroll became the eighth head coach in Seahawks history after one of the most successful runs in USC history in the college ranks.

Carroll and executive VP/general manager John Schneider constructed back-to-back Super Bowl appearances in 2013-14, posted 10-plus wins in five consecutive seasons (2012-16) for the first time in franchise history, including eight of the last nine seasons, and won five NFC West Division titles.

Seattle has advanced to the divisional round in seven of Carroll's 11 seasons as coach, winning two NFC Championships and one Super Bowl, while claiming the No. 1 seed in the NFC twice, and for the third time in franchise history (2005 under Mike Holmgren, 2013-14).

The 2020 Seahawks concluded the season with a 12-4 record and as champions of the NFC West. It was the 11th division title in franchise history and fifth under Carroll, tying Mike Holmgren for the most by a Seattle head coach. It was the 14th time in the last 18 seasons that Seattle qualified for the postseason and ninth time in Carroll's 11 seasons as head coach. The Seahawks scored a franchise-record 459 points while winning 12 or more games for the fifth time in club history.

The team won the NFC West in 2014 with a 12-4 record and made it to Super Bowl XLIX, only to fall to the New England Patriots.

In 2013, Carroll led Seattle to its first Super Bowl title in franchise history with a 43-8 victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII on February 2, 2014, after a franchise-best 13-3 regular season record, and joined Jimmy Johnson and Barry Switzer as the only coaches to win a college football national title and a Super Bowl in their career.

Carroll returned to the NFL after spending nine years (2001-09) as head coach at Southern California, where he won seven consecutive Pac-10 titles (2002-08), two national championships (2003-04) and led the Trojans to a 97-19 record. He reached a bowl in each of his nine seasons and won seven. Also under Carroll, USC was the first school to have three Heisman Trophy winners in a four-year span (Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart, Reggie Bush).

He began his NFL career as defensive backs coach for Buffalo (1984) and Minnesota (1985-89) before becoming the N.Y. Jets defensive coordinator (1990-93) and head coach (1994). He spent two years as San Francisco's defensive coordinator (1995-96), leading the league in total defense in 1995, before leading New England to a 27-21 record and two playoff appearances as head coach (1997-99).

He began his coaching career at the collegiate level, serving as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Pacific, for three years (1974-76), working with the wide receivers and secondary.

Carroll was a two-time (1971-72) All-Pacific Coast Conference free safety at Pacific and earned his bachelor's degree in 1973 in business administration. He received his secondary teaching credential and a master's degree in physical education from Pacific in 1976. He was inducted into the Pacific Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995.

TITANS-SEAHAWKS CONNECTIONS

FORMER SEAHAWKS

- Titans strength and conditioning assistant Mondray Gee spent nine seasons with Seattle (2010-18), where he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. Seattle earned playoff berths in seven of his nine seasons there, including back-to-back Super Bowl appearances, a Super Bowl XLVIII victory following the 2013 season, and an NFC title the following year.
- Titans offensive line coach Keith Carter tallied two seasons (2012-13) as the offensive quality control coach for the Seahawks, including Seattle's march to a Super Bowl XLVIII Championship at the end of the 2013 campaign.
- Titans defensive line assistant Kenechi Udeze served in the same role while on the Seattle coaching staff in 2012.
- Titans defensive tackle Anthony Rush saw action in four games for the Seahawks totaling five tackles and one quarterback hit (2020).

FORMER TITANS

- Seahawks defensive tackle Al Woods spent three seasons with the Titans (2014-16), appearing in 42 games with 17 starts. He totaled 66 tackles, nine tackles for loss, one sack, and two quarterback hits while with the squad.
- Seahawks quarterbacks coach Austin Davis spent a portion of the 2018 season on the Titans roster as a backup quarterback.
- Seahawks senior executive advisor to the general manager Alonzo Highsmith was the third-overall pick for the Oilers in the 1987 NFL Draft and played running back for the team from 1987 to 1989.
- Seahawks football consultant Steve Hutchinson finished his Hall of Fame playing career with the Titans in 2012 and later spent time assisting the team in the personnel department.

SEAHAWKS WITH NASHVILLE/TENNESSEE AREA CONNECTIONS

- Seahawks safety Ugo Amadi is a Nashville native. While at Overton High School, Amadi accounted for 15 touchdowns his senior year and was credited with 25 tackles, two interceptions and five pass defensed. He also returned three punts for touchdowns and one kickoff for a score. He was also a finalist for the Hume Award, given to the Nashville-metro's top prep scholar-athlete.

TITANS WITH SEATTLE/OREGON AREA CONNECTIONS

- As a native of West Linn, Ore., Titans cornerback Elijah Molden appeared in 44 games with 20 starts at the University of Washington. His totals included 153 tackles, seven tackles for loss, five interceptions, 25 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He earned first team All-Pac-12 honors on defense in his junior and senior seasons and was named second team All-Pac-12 as an all-purpose/special teams player as a sophomore.
- Titans defensive line assistant Kenechi Udeze began his coaching career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Washington for three years (2009-11), where he also worked with the defensive line. The Huskies appeared in two bowl games during his time there.

COACHING CONNECTIONS

- Titans head coach Mike Vrabel and Seahawks special teams coordinator Larry Izzo played together with the Patriots for eight years (2001-08). Vrabel and Izzo both played linebacker and helped the Patriots to three Super Bowl wins during their time there. Also during Vrabel's time in New England, Seahawks running game coordinator Andy Dickerson worked in the operations department, first as an intern in 2004 and then on a full-time basis the following year. Seahawks offensive coordinator Shane Waldron also worked with the Patriots in various capacities across five seasons with the franchise. Beginning in 2002, Waldron served as an operations intern for two seasons before being promoted to the title of an operations assistant in 2004, when he handled special teams quality control duties in addition to overseeing the completion of weekly game plans.
- Titans head coach Mike Vrabel and Seahawks special teams coordinator Larry Izzo would cross paths again, but this time as coaches in Houston (2016-17). Vrabel served as the linebacker coach before getting promoted to defensive coordinator, while Izzo served as the assistant special teams coach for the club. Also on the staff during that time was Titans strength and conditioning assistant Brian Bell, who served as the strength and conditioning coach; defensive coordinator Shane Bowen, who served as a defensive assistant; secondary coach Anthony Midgett, who served as the team's assistant secondary coach; and quarterbacks coach Pat O'Hara, who served as an offensive assistant.

A.J. BROWN AND DK METCALF

- Titans wide receiver A.J. Brown and Seahawks wide receiver DK Metcalf were teammates at Ole Miss from 2016 to 2018. Brown became the program's all-time leading receiver with 2,984 yards, ranked third in school history with 189 receptions, and placed fifth all-time with 19 touchdowns. Metcalf, who redshirted in 2016, totaled 67 catches for 1,228 yards and 14 touchdowns, the latter of which ranked ninth in program annals. Following their collegiate careers, they each entered the 2019 NFL Draft and became second-round picks. Brown was selected 51st overall by the Titans, and Metcalf was taken by the Seahawks with the 64th pick.

- Titans defensive line coach Terrell Williams served in the same role for the Oakland Raiders. Seahawks defensive assistant/linebackers coach Aaron Curry played for Oakland during that time (2012).
- Titans tight ends coach Luke Steckel served as an assistant to the head coach for the Cleveland Browns (2009-10) while Seahawks run game coordinator Andy Dickerson served as an assistant offensive line coach and defensive quality control coach. Seahawks assistant special teams coach Tracy Smith served in the same role on that staff as well.
- Titans offensive coordinator Todd Downing and wide receivers coach Rob Moore coached with Seahawks defensive coordinator Ken Norton Jr. and assistant special teams coach Tracy Smith while in Oakland (2015-17). Downing served in the same role after spending two years as the quarterbacks coach, Rob Moore served in the same role, Norton Jr. served in the same role, and Tracy Smith served in the same role while with the team.
- Titans offensive line coach Keith Carter, strength and conditioning assistant Mondray Gee, and defensive line assistant Kenechi Udeze all coached defensive assistant/defensive backs coach DeShawn Shead while he played for Seattle (2012-17). Seattle's associate head coach Carl Smith served as the quarterbacks coach during that time as well.
- Titans head coach Mike Vrabel xxxxxxxxxx

COACH-PLAYER CONNECTIONS

LT 77-Taylor Lewan (6-7, 309, 8th Year/8th with Titans, Michigan) - The team's first-round pick in 2014 (11th overall) was voted to the Pro Bowl each season from 2016-18. He was limited to five games in 2020 after landing on injured reserve due to a knee injury.
2021 G/GS: 1/1, Career G/GS: 91/86

LG 76-Rodger Saffold III (6-5, 325, 12th Year/3rd with Titans, Indiana) - The former second-round pick was signed in 2019 as an unrestricted free agent from the Rams. In his first two seasons in Tennessee, he started all but one contest at left guard.
2021 G/GS: 1/1, Career G/GS: 146/143

C 60-Ben Jones (6-3, 308, 10th Year/6th with Titans, Georgia) - Added as an unrestricted free agent in 2016, the former fourth-round pick played four previous seasons with the Houston Texans. He started 79 of 80 possible games during his first five seasons in Tennessee.
2021 G/GS: 1/1, Career G/GS: 144/123

RG 64-Nate Davis (6-3, 316, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Charlotte) - The 2019 third-round pick started 12 contests at right guard as a rookie and followed with 16 starts in his second season.
2021 G/GS: 1/1, Career G/GS: 30/29

RT 72-David Quessenberry (6-5, 305, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, San Jose State) - The former sixth-round pick entered the NFL with Houston in 2013. After battling non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, he spent most of 2017-19 on the practice squads of the Texans and Titans (2018-19) before getting his first starting opportunity during the 2020 campaign.
2021 G/GS: 1/1, Career G/GS: 19/7

WR 80-Chester Rogers (6-0, 184, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Grambling State) - The former undrafted rookie caught 111 passes for 1,221 yards in four seasons with the Colts before stints with Miami and Tennessee in 2020.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The announced paid attendance was 67,216, the largest announced crowd for a game at Nissan Stadium since 68,864 fans were announced for the Titans-Chiefs game on Nov. 10, 2019.
- Out of the 46 players who participated in the game for the Titans, 17 of them made their Titans debut. The group included three starters: wide receiver Julio Jones, outside linebacker Bud Dupree and cornerback Jackrabbit Jenkins.

OLB OLA ADENIYI

- Made his Titans debut and led the club with two special teams tackles.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Tied for the team lead with four receptions for 49 receiving yards with one touchdown.
- Caught a 13-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill in the third quarter. It was his 20th career touchdown reception, making him the 15th player in franchise history to reach 20 touchdown catches.
- Recorded a solo tackle on defense on the final play of the first half.

S KEVIN BYARD

- Intercepted a Kyler Murray pass and returned the ball 12 yards in the third quarter. The takeaway led to a Titans touchdown on the ensuing possession.
- With his 19th career interception, he tied Keith Bulluck (19) and Miller Farr (19) for 15th place on the franchise's career interception list.
- Posted his 19th interception since 2017, which ranks second in the NFL (Xavien Howard).

S MATTHIAS FARLEY

- Made his Titans debut and completed a six-yard pass to Amani Hooker on a fake punt to convert a fourth-and-four in the first quarter.

CB KRISTIAN FULTON

- Set a career high and led the defense with two passes defended in his third NFL start. He added three tackles.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Led the team with 58 rushing yards on 17 attempts, including a long of 19 yards. He added three receptions for 19 yards.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Caught a six-yard pass from Matthias Farley on a fake punt to convert a fourth-and-four in the first quarter.
- Tied for second on the squad with six tackles.

WR JULIO JONES

- Made his Titans debut and caught three passes for 29 yards.
- Recorded his first reception with the Titans on a nine-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the second quarter.
- Extended his streak to 128 consecutive individual NFL games with at least one reception. It is the second-longest active streak in the NFL (Antonio Brown).
- Recorded his 850th career reception in his 136th career game, surpassing Marvin Harrison (140 games) as the second-fastest player to reach 850 career receptions in NFL history. Only Antonio Brown (133 games) reached the mark in fewer games.

P BRETT KERN

- His first game of 2021 marked the beginning of his 13th season with the Titans. It put him in a tie with Brad Hopkins (13) for third place in franchise history for most seasons played behind only Bruce Matthews (19) and Elvin Bethea (16).
- Punted three times for a 50.3-yard gross average and a 42.3-yard net average.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Ran Kyler Murray out of bounds in the first quarter for a two-yard sack. It was his 20th career sack.

DL LARRELL MURCHISON

- Logged his first career start and was credited with one tackle.

WR CHESTER ROGERS

- Tied for the team lead with four receptions and led the club with 62 receiving yards. He added a 14-yard kickoff return.
- Caught a 39-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill on a flea flicker in the second quarter.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Totaled five tackles, including a sack.
- Ended a Cardinals drive with a seven-yard sack on third down in the third quarter. It was his sixth career sack.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Completed 21 of 35 passes for 212 yards with one touchdown and one interception (74.9 passer rating).
- Completed a 39-yard pass to Chester Rogers on a flea flicker in the second quarter.
- Completed a 13-yard touchdown pass to A.J. Brown in the third quarter for his first touchdown pass of the season and his 179th career touchdown pass.
- Registered his 14th consecutive game with at least one touchdown pass, tying George Blanda (14 games from 1961–1962) for the fifth-longest such streak in franchise history.
- Scored a touchdown on a one-yard rushing attempt in the second quarter. It was his 18th career touchdown run and gave him four consecutive games with at least one touchdown run, dating back to the 2020 season. He became the first quarterback in franchise history to rush for at least one touchdown in four consecutive contests.
- With a streak that dates back to the end of the 2020 campaign, he became the first player for the franchise and only the third NFL player since 1970 to register four consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass and at least one rushing touchdown. He joined Cardinals quarterback Kyler Murray, who in 2020 accomplished the feat in five straight appearances, and Michael Vick, who held the previous record with a four-game streak for Philadelphia in 2010.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 12, 2021

(on the beginning of the game)

Well, we just didn't get off to the start we wanted to. Everything that we talk about in trying to start the game off – get the first first down, get into drives, everything that we preach and teach and try to execute – it just wasn't there. Like it is on a lot of things, it's one guy here, one penalty here, and it comes down to us playing much more complementary in every phase. It just felt like we were three groups that were independent of each other, not working together. I have to figure that out here quickly to make sure that all three phases are complementary of each other and we're finding ways to capitalize on turnovers, taking care of the football, running it, and making sure we're finding ways to affect their quarterback and not allow them to be so efficient.

(on focusing on complementary football but not excelling in that today)

Well, they're groups, they're units. I mean, again, we all have offseason objectives. This is what happens in the National Football League when you don't play well. Told the team, told you guys, we'll find out what our culture looks like this week and when we wake up in the morning and see the guys that want to come to work and guys that want to figure out a way to try to win a football game.

(on the performance of the offensive line)

I mean, that's what this game comes down to, one-on-one. We'll have to identify what the issues were. We'll watch the tape, we'll correct, we'll coach, and we'll teach. And we'll have to practice. That's what happens. They were clearly better. They clearly were better coached and they played better.

(on the flea flicker pass by quarterback Ryan Tannehill)

We were trying to do something. We took a chance there, and we walked out onto the field, which was frustrating, and you can't capitalize on that. Those are things – I mean, the flea flicker, well-timed, well-executed. There just wasn't enough of it. There wasn't enough. We played well on defense, and the quarterback on third-and-10, we got pressure, and run for – run around and complete a pass. Again, that's just the guy making a play. I mean, it wasn't poor effort, poor execution. We got him moving. Again, the guy made a play. But that just seemed like that's how it was. We got a turnover. Just too little, too late.

(on the team's preparation or if the team thought they could show up and win)

Well, I don't obviously think there's a – and when you go into it, you don't think that there's, you know, an issue in preparation. I mean, again, they may have ran a few plays that we didn't show them in practice out of the plays that they had schemed, or fronts on defense that we hadn't seen. You get out there and it's critical that everybody's on the same page. And, you know, attitude, I mean, I hope that we have an attitude that is ready to compete and not just think that we can just show up in this league. This is a great league. It doesn't matter where you came from, where you're drafted, how expensive your suit is or what kind of car you drive, you've got to prove it on the field.

(on what made Cardinals outside linebacker Chandler Jones such a problem)

I mean, Chandler Jones has been a problem for a lot of years and he's a good player. You've got to make a decision where you're going to put people and allocate them. And so, we'll have to look at that and see those matchups. But give him a lot of credit, he's been a really good player for a lot of time and years.

(on how disappointing today's loss is)

Completely. It's disappointing when you lose, it's disappointing when you lose at home. It's a long season. It's a long season. You play like that, there should be no shock. We shouldn't have to look too long and hard why we lost the game. There's a lot of reasons. It's out there. And I'm confident that we'll bounce back and we'll be ready to compete this week. And I'm confident of that. I am. But it's unfortunate. It is disappointing. There was no other way to put it. It sucks when you lose, sucks when you get your ass kicked. All the credit to Kliff (Kingsbury) and his staff and those players. You know, they beat us and outcoached us.

(on feeling like the kicker situation was solidified with kicker Sam Ficken prior to his injury)

That's how it goes. You've got to be ready to adjust and make some decisions. Like you said, we put Sam (Ficken) on IR. Michael (Badgley) was here. We'll reevaluate that position here in the morning.

(on if there is something to be said about the lack of time the offense has had together as a unit)

There's a million excuses, I'm not going to make any. I refuse to. I hope that the players don't. I mean, there was a million excuses that we can write about. The only thing that we need to focus on is when we wake up tomorrow morning, that we're ready to go to work and we're ready to improve and thinking about being good. We've got to go be good. We got to prepare and coach to win a game.

(on if he considered removing quarterback Ryan Tannehill from the game due to the lack of protection)

You know, there was – once we started getting in there – you know, late there, I did. I thought we could move down and when we didn't score, we were going to run the ball off at the end there. So, you know, there was a lot of things that we considered at that point and time.

(on if he considered going for it on fourth-and-one late in the second quarter)

Well, we were trying to get some points. And again, if we can sit there and have a crystal ball to know that we were going to not make the field goal, trying to get it to 15 points, trying to get it to a legitimate two-score game at halftime, and we missed the kick. Made a decision, and we missed the kick. There's nothing you can do about it after you decide to go for it, except try to come back out in the second half and get some stops and try to score.

(on wide receivers A.J. Brown and Julio Jones working together)

You know, there were plays we tried to get for those guys early in the year. And when they get targeted, doesn't necessarily mean that there are plays that are called for them. You understand that? But I'm with you. We have to find A.J. (Brown), and Julio (Jones) has got to take advantage of his opportunities. We had some drops, he dropped some passes. Those are contested catches, but those are the ones that we have to come up with.

(on if the team can prepare differently to face a mobile quarterback heading into Week Two at Seattle)

I mean, what – if you can tell me a way to prepare for five guys chasing after one, with five guys blocking – you know what I mean? What are you going to do? Like, he made a play. We're chasing it, the depth, we got him off the spot, he plants his back foot. You know, at some point and time, you've got to think that these guys are – and he's an exceptional player and he made a play. We can try and prepare and we can chase a jitterbug around in practice and think that, but he made a play. And that's unfortunate on third-and-10. I'm not going to take anything away from him. We executed the rush, came back the next time, he didn't take off and tried to step up. And Jeff (Simmons) came around when he was supposed to come and he got a sack. So, I don't know if Kyler (Murray) knows where he's going. He's just going and being a natural athlete. So, again, I'll give all the credit to them, their players, and their coaching staff. Thanks, guys.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on if he was surprised the team didn't do more to adjust to Cardinals outside linebacker Chandler Jones)

I mean, we knew coming in that he was good player. Obviously been a really good player his whole career. We were trying to do some things to help in protection. He made some plays.

(on how surprising today's team performance was)

Yeah, we didn't come out and execute in any facet of offense. Missed opportunities, turnovers, the whole thing. We didn't execute the way we expect to and the way we need to, to win football games. The excitement was fine, it was warranted, but at the end of the day, you have to come out and do it. And today, we didn't do it. We're going to have a chance to take a real look at the way we performed, make the corrections, and get ready to go for next week.

(on falling behind early)

Getting off to a slow start is never good, right? You're never looking to do that. We were able to go score, had a shot at some points right there before half, and thought we're about to get some momentum and get rolling. Unfortunately, it didn't stay with us the rest of the game.

(on protecting the ball better in the pocket or on fumbles)

I'm sure there's something. I'll have to take a look at it. On the first one, as soon as I turned my head he was on me quick, and just trying to get it out and not take a sack there. Unlucky, he got his hand on my wrist on the ball whenever I was trying to get it out. The second one, I'll have to take a look at it. It felt like I was going to have an opportunity there to Chester (Rogers) on the back shoulder. I got hit from the back and didn't see it coming. So, we'll take a look at it and work at it this week. Whatever I can do there.

(on if he's been sacked before like he was today and the effect on his mindset)

Yeah, they got after us. Obviously, you know, they're getting after you upfront and you want to get the ball out. We had some opportunities to get the ball out quickly and they were doing a good job of getting their hands up when that was happening. Had a couple tipped balls on opportunities underneath whenever we were trying to get the ball out quickly. An arm hit on another one when we were going to have the ball out quickly and have opportunity for a run after catch. It just wasn't clean enough all the way around. That starts with me. We have to find a way to make the corrections and come to play next week.

(on if it felt like there were three different groups playing today as opposed to a cohesive team)

I don't know if it felt that way for me, personally. I think coming out of half, KB (Kevin Byard) gets a pick. We're able to go down and score, we kind of complement each other right there. I don't know what was happening on defense and special teams, but I know offensively, if defense gives up points, we expect to go down and answer right away. We didn't execute good enough offensively to make that happen enough today.

(on the team's inability to run the ball early)

Yeah, they did a good job. They went big people and were making some plays upfront. Seemed like they moved it around a little bit. They made it tough on us, right? So, we weren't able to establish a lead like we like to do. I'll have to take a look at the tape and see exactly what happened and go from there.

(on how the team and its culture will respond after today)

I have belief that we will respond in the right way. That we have a bunch of men in that locker room who care for each other and want to win. We'll find a way to make the corrections, come to practice this week, prepare and go out to Seattle and win one game. That's the mission at hand right now is to make the corrections and get prepared to win one game. I have confidence in the locker room and the guys. Now, we'll see how it happens but from what I've seen so far, we have the right kind of guys in the locker room and I believe we'll make it happen.

(on how to prevent a slow start on the road at Seattle)

You've got to come out ready to go, We didn't execute early in the game, got ourselves in long-yard situations, had the turnover and got down in the hole early. We've got to find a way to come out and execute even if it doesn't happen on the first drive that you can get something going right after that, and we weren't able to do that today. We have to come out ready to play confident. We were confident today but reset and come back with confidence for next week.

(on if he's been hit that much in a game here before)

I don't know. I don't really keep a list of games I've been hit in or anything like that, but they got after us up front, for sure.

(on not having a lot of time with the offense and receivers in preseason and if that factored into today)

I don't know. I'm not going to make excuses. We had opportunities. We just weren't able to make enough plays.

(on assessing chemistry with wide receivers Julio Jones and A.J. Brown today)

Like I said, we had opportunities. A.J. (Brown) made a couple big plays for us. Julio (Jones) made some big plays for us. We had other opportunities that were there, and we weren't able to make them happen. It'll be a big week for us to reset, have a great week of practice and get ready for Sunday.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

(on today's performance and knowing there are still 16 games remaining)

Yeah, that definitely wasn't us, but I don't think you panic. You come into tomorrow and just make the corrections. We know we must be better, for sure we have to be better in all three phases, and when you get hit, you get hit in the guts and it's about how you respond. We just have to come in with right mindset making the corrections and moving forward.

(on if the way the game began shocked the team for the remainder of the contest)

No, not really. We are not going to find any excuses or make any. We've just got to play better, come out and try to make plays, and do whatever we can to put ourselves in position to win the game. Today we just didn't do that and they played way better than we did.

(on why it was challenging to establish the run)

It takes all 11 guys to be tied in, and we weren't today. I'm sure we all think as individuals, as an offense as a whole, we just have to be better. And for us to have success in the running game, we've just got to be tied in and being locked in on what we've got to do.

(on being used to running against packed defensive fronts)

They had guys down there, but when they call a play, we've got execute it no matter what they are doing. It's about all what we are doing and beating the man in front of you and making efficient plays. We know sometimes there's going to be some dirty runs and sometimes we're going to have a bit of adversity. Keep fighting, keep playing, and they just did a better job of that today than we did.

(on being hit several times before reaching line of scrimmage)

They just did a good job on defense and disrupting plays, and we just have to be better on offense. I mean, that's what it comes down to. We've got to be better. I don't think we made any excuses, you know, you see it out on the field. We have to be a better offense and do the things we need to do.

(on showing rare emotion on the sideline)

Yeah, just telling that, you know, we've just got to play better, looking lackadaisical, just walking around, not playing how we play. Not playing up to the standard we all talk about that we try to do each and every day, what Coach Vrabel (Mike Vrabel) talks about, and just remind guys that we've got to pick it up, got to play better. Those guys were hitting on all cylinders on the other side of the field, so just trying to pick these guys up, trying to be the best leader I can and get guys going.

(on if teammates were surprised by his rare reaction)

If that is what it takes, that is what I am going to do. So, you haven't seen me do something like that. I pride myself on being a leader on this team and if that is what it takes, that what I'll do.

(on how he expects team to respond)

Come in, watch the film, get coached. Be critical of yourself, be locked in this week, each and every day. Our leaders have got to hold everybody accountable. Our leaders have got to be leaders. I think you just come in and reset and want to be better each and every day from the film and to the practice field. Chalk this one up, we got hit in the mouth and it's about how we respond, that's it.

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

(on how disappointing it was to lose today after the preseason optimism)

I mean, it's disappointing to lose, especially in the fashion we did. Obviously, first game, it was a lot of emotion. We were very excited to get out there and play and get a W, but it didn't work out like that. We just pretty much didn't play well at all on either side of the ball, special teams. We got out-coached. We got out-played. But, you know, hats off to them. They're a good team. They proved it today and they are a better team than us right now.

(on what went wrong today and why it was so flat from start to finish)

If I knew the answer to that, we would have played better. We've definitely got to watch the film tonight, really be honest and truthful with ourselves because we just didn't play well, and that's the bottom line. We have to be better than that if we want to be the type of team that we are, but as a leader on this football team, I'm going to make sure that as we watch this film and be honest with ourselves, we just flush it down the drain and get ready for Seattle. That's the only thing we can do.

(on the challenge of playing against Cardinals quarterback Kyler Murray)

He ran around, made some good plays. Being the quarterback that he is, trying to corral him and get him inside the pocket is definitely tough. I think we did some good things on defense, but it wasn't good enough, especially on crucial downs, third downs. We just didn't make enough plays today.

(on putting issues to bed)

Like I said, I've got to watch the film. But at the end of the day, we just didn't play well enough in certain situations, you know, just on all sides of the ball. I mean, I do have to watch the film to make sure that I can see exactly what happened wrong, but it's just in certain situations we just didn't play well. I've got to play better. We've all got to play better so that's the bottom line.

(on the frustration of not having a play like his interception propel momentum in their favor)

Yeah, I mean, get an interception, get a touchdown, and then we give up a big play on the screen. We just didn't string enough good plays together to keep our offense in the game, get them rolling. So like I said, we've just got to be better in all phases.

(on how to tell his teammates to dig out of this loss)

We've been here before. It's a very long season. We have 17 games this year. It's not the start that we wanted to have, but at the end of the day, we find out what type of team we are when you have this type of adversity, especially to start the year. I'm going to make sure I come into the building tomorrow with a lot of energy, a lot of juice, a lot positive energy. Because at the end of the day, that's all we can do. We're not going to sit here, mope around, keep our heads down. We're going to keep battling, keep fighting and get ready for Seattle.

(on finding out what the team culture really is)

Yes, that's exactly right. We're going to find out what type of coaches we have, what type of guys we have in this locker room, and I know we have the right guys in the locker room. I know we have the right guys on this team to battle back after a tough loss like that. So, like I said, it's a long year and we're going to look at it just like that.

(on if there was a sense of overconfidence or lack of preparation for today's game)

Not at all. I mean, at the end of the day, I've talked about this before. These games are not played on paper no matter who we have, who we sign, what type of guys we have on this team. We've got to go out there and perform every single week. It's not about what you said you're going to do, whatever. It's about what you do. We didn't do enough to win. We put on a pretty bad performance. We've got to get back to the drawing board.

(on what it was like to play in front of a stadium with no capacity restrictions)

It was a great atmosphere. The fans were there. They showed up. They showed out. But if you put a bad performance out there, you're gonna get boos. Rightfully so, honestly. Like I said, we didn't play well. Can't really expect anything less. I think our fanbase wants us to be a great team and we want to be a great team. We didn't show it today, so we kind of expected the boos and all that good stuff.

WIDE RECEIVER A.J. BROWN

(on the issues offensively)

I feel like as a group, everybody has to be better. I can't speak for anybody else, but my guys and myself.

(on if there is anything to be said about the offense's volume of work as a unit during training camp)

We got a lot of work, so I don't know about that. We got a lot of work.

(on what is the frustration level is like after a game like this)

You have to go back in and go to work (inaudible). Of course, we're frustrated. We've got a quick turnaround and we've got to correct it, put it to bed and move on. We've just got to get better.

(on how he felt health-wise today)

I felt good.

(on having fans back at full capacity and performing the way the team did in front of them)

Like I said, I appreciate all the fans coming out and supporting us. We've got to do a better job.

(on if the offense's performance was impacted by only one full week of practice together as a unit)

That's my week, and that's your all's week. Like I said, we got a lot of work, and like I said, we've just got to be better. (inaudible) no excuse. We'll be better next week.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER BUD DUPREE

(on preparing for Cardinals quarterback Kyler Murray in practice and facing him in a game)

It is totally different. We prepared well for it, but at the end of the day we didn't get the job done. There is something we can always look forward to next week, come out with everybody and get on the same page, and go out here and win the game.

(on if he was surprised at the lack of complementary football in all three stages)

In the game we started seeing it. We always have to be accountable for what we can control, including each individual person, and we all have to play better as a unit on all three sides of the ball. We have to continue to get better and better. It is a long season, so we have to put our foot down right now, look at ourselves in the mirror, point the finger at ourselves, and keep going.

(on his mindset entering the game)

The mindset going into it was way different than it is on the field. It is always a process, it is still fairly new being cleared all the way. I just have to continue to keep more load on it that way I can play more football.

(on how he felt while playing)

I felt good in the first half, but it is still new. It is all a part of the game. You are going to feel it, you are going to have bumps and bruises, but you have to fight through it and be able to get to the middle and the end of the season when every game is crunch time.

(on his message to the team after the loss)

Tomorrow we are starting over, tomorrow is a new week. We come to practice tomorrow, look ourselves in the eyes, look at ourselves in the mirror. We have to point the finger at ourselves. We didn't play as best as we should, nobody played a good game, good enough to win. Once we get a W then we can sit back and relax. You can't take this as a deflated moment, there is always something to build on. We will come back again, do it over and over, that is part of football. Everyone goes through adversity, it is about how you come back after and control it.

Yeah, nobody ever wants to lose. Nobody is ever going to tell you they want to lose no matter the situation, no matter if you are 21-20, 6-7, you don't want to lose. That is just a part of being a football player and being a competitor, nobody wants to lose no matter what. There are always ways to find a way to win, so we have to find those ways to win, get back on track, listen to the coaches, trust our training, trust ourselves, trust our keys, and then we will be all right. We already got the group, now we have to continue to put the work in and be cohesive together.

(on how much better the defense needs to be at defending mobile quarterbacks heading into Week Two at Seattle)

The same type of ordeal. Both of those are electric quarterbacks in the backfield and we got them both back-to-back. Now we have to go out and just let it go. We will learn from the mistakes we had this week and then just make sure we don't have the same mistakes next week.

(on how frustrating it was not being able to bring down Cardinals quarterback Kyler Murray)

He is an athlete. He does what he does, and it is very frustrating when you get close to him and you can't get him down. When he is making those cuts on a dime, it is very frustrating. It is one of the reasons why he is the electrifying player he is and he is able to keep his team in the game like he did. Hats off to him. We have to continue to work on that aspect of the game because we are going to face more guys like that.

LINEBACKER JAYON BROWN

(on playing against a mobile quarterback like Cardinals quarterback Kyler Murray)

He's an amazing player. He went out there and executed a gameplan and made a lot of plays. We just didn't make enough plays, and the score showed that. Hats off to them and their offense in operation.

(on prioritizing third-down and red zone defense but performing defensively the way the team did)

We just have to play better complementary football. Guys came out and hopped on us from the jump and never looked back, so we just have to watch film, get the corrections and look forward to next week.

(on what the Cardinals offense was doing particularly well)

Extending plays. Making plays. Making catches. Running the ball, especially when they did they just made plays, and we didn't make enough.

(on losing a home opener in front of a full stadium)

We had a really good crowd for an opening game. It's disappointing that we didn't get the win, but we have to look forward to next week. We can't change it. We learn from our mistakes and get back out there.

(on if the defense can learn from this loss)

Yes. Watch the film, look at the things we did good. Everything wasn't bad. They made a lot of plays, but we still did some good and see what we can do better from the good things. And the bad things, try to eliminate them so an outcome like this doesn't happen again.

(on the lack of complementary football today)

First game. This isn't what we thought we would display, but it happened. We just have to go back and watch film and see how we can do better for the second week.

GUARD RODGER SAFFOLD III

(on the pass protection during the game)

I think it was on us just as far as being technically sound, it just wasn't there today. We had little hiccups here and there. It takes all 11 to protect the quarterback, we just all have to take accountability, take a look in the mirror and come back ready to work and ready to put more out there. It is a wakeup call for us. You can't just show up and win a game, so I am hoping we take this and we come out with our hair on fire next week.

(on what led to some of the struggles in the run game)

They were pretty much loading a lot of the gaps which could be hard to open some of the holes. They had guys flying around in the second level and even when we had some of our best wide receivers out there, they were still loading up the box pretty good. We have to see how we can get more vertical push than lateral push, especially in the wide zone game. It is a little bit tougher to get around the edge if we are not pushing guys up the field.

(on how tough it is to see his quarterback on the ground)

The sad thing is, is that this isn't the first time I have seen this with different quarterbacks. I have always talked about this, about how proud I am of these guys' toughness, and Ryan (Tannehill) showed that today for sure.

(on the offensive game today)

To me, we just weren't efficient. There was opportunity left and right and we were all not doing our job at the same time. We found ourselves having difficulty moving the ball. Once we were able to get first downs, as you could see, we were able to move the ball down the field. Struggling, getting three-and-outs, having penalties cost the team, and those are situations you are not going to be able to pull yourself out of. Having three turnovers, you are just not going to be able to produce any points as well. It does look like a beating, but a lot of this is from the turnovers and not being able to run the ball, and not being efficient in the passing game. That is just what it comes down to in football games.

(on if the offense not having a lot of time together during the offseason factored into today's game)

It probably does but I don't want to make any excuses. At the end of the day, listen, if you can't be out there and you are getting yourself as healthy as humanly possible, and when you come out, you are trying to produce. We need people that are going to be out there, be productive, be efficient, eliminate all the excuses and be ready to put that work in when it is time to get on the field.

(on how to explain the struggles of the offense)

I think it came down to a lot of one-on-one matchups. Of course, there are a few hiccups here and there with some of the twist game, but most of the time it came down to one-on-one matchups. Like I said, when it comes down to fundamentals, those fundamentals are really serious. Techniques are there for a reason. We have to be able to use that. It is easy to go out there and brawl, but if we are not doing the techniques it is going to be hard to be efficient in the pass blocking game so that is just something that we need to do better.

(on if today was a failure to execute the gameplan)

Oh, 100 percent. We pride ourselves in being a physical team, but they were the more physical team today. We are supposed to win our one-on-one matchups and we didn't. That efficiency in handling some of the new things that they came up with on defense, we weren't able to handle as well. We have to go back to the drawing board. Luckily, we get to watch the game this afternoon for Seattle and actually get a chance to look at some tape from 2021. We have 17 games, we will call this our mulligan and just keep chopping away.

EVP/GENERAL MANAGER JON ROBINSON

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first five seasons on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 records followed by an 11-5 mark in 2020. It was the first time the organization produced at least five consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans, Seattle Seahawks and Kansas City Chiefs were the only NFL teams without a losing season from 2016 to 2020.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first five teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-93).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

In 2020, Robinson and the Titans clinched the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They did so while navigating the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic.

Robinson has overseen a nearly complete overhaul of the roster during his tenure. In six drafts as general manager from 2016 to 2021, he selected 48 total players, and 23 of those players were still with the organization through the 2021 offseason. The only members of the roster who predated Robinson at that time were punter Brett Kern and tackle Taylor Lewan. During that same time period (through June 2021), he engineered 26 trades and made 12 waiver claims.

2021: After the NFL's new league year began in March, the Titans struck several deals with veterans in the initial days of free agency. The incoming players included Pittsburgh Steelers outside linebackers Bud Dupree and Ola Adeniyi, New Orleans Saints cornerback Jackrabbit Jenkins, Indianapolis Colts defensive lineman Denico Autry, New York Jets safety Matthias Farley, Los Angeles Rams wide receiver Josh Reynolds, Browns tackle Kendall Lamm and Baltimore Ravens long snapper Morgan Cox.

The Titans also re-signed several of their own free agents: tight ends Anthony Firkser and Geoff Swaim, tackle Ty Sambrailo and inside linebacker Jayon Brown.

During the 2021 NFL Draft, Robinson led the selection of eight total players, beginning with Virginia Tech cornerback Caleb Farley with the 22nd overall selection in the first round. In the second round, the Titans chose North Dakota State tackle Dillon Radunz, followed by Georgia linebacker Monty Rice and Washington defensive back Elijah Molden in Round 3.

Perhaps the most notable transaction of the organization's 2021 offseason was the trade for wide receiver Julio Jones on June 9. Robinson dealt draft picks in 2022 (second round) and 2023 (fourth round) to the Atlanta Falcons in exchange for Jones and a 2023 sixth-rounder. Through 2020, Jones' average of 95.5 receiver yards per game ranked first in NFL history, and he is Atlanta's all-time career leader in receptions (848), receiving yards (12,896) and 100-yard receiving games (58).

2020: Early in 2020, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, who would go on to start all 16 games at right tackle.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. He finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists with 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third) and 33 touchdown passes (tied for second).

Robinson acquired Tannehill for the Titans in a 2019 trade with the Miami Dolphins, and in the quarterback's first two seasons with the team, he led the Titans to two playoff appearances. From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the end of 2020, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Tannehill's 2020 successes followed a 2019 season in which he led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned the 2019 Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

After securing his multi-year extension, Henry produced one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a running back. He led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season with 2,027 rushing yards, which was only the eighth 2,000-yard rushing season in league annals, and also paced the league with 17 rushing touchdowns. He was recognized with the Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year Award.

Henry, a second-round pick by Robinson in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2020, during which time he also led the NFL with 5,370 total rushing yards. In 2019, he won his first of two consecutive NFL rushing crowns with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks, including Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton in the second round (61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans in the third round (93rd overall).

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles, including Tannehill and former Rams guard Rodger Saffold. Robinson also worked to re-sign safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

In his first two seasons, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 122 catches for 2,126 yards and 19 touchdowns. He became the 11th NFL player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons and the first player to do so since Michael Thomas (2016-17). From 1970 through 2020, Brown and Randy Moss were the only players to post at least 120 receptions and 19 touchdown catches while averaging 17.0 yards per reception in their first two seasons. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 after totaling 70 receptions for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns.

As a rookie, Brown ranked first among rookies in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his three seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 41 games (36 starts) and totaled nine interceptions. In early August 2018, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 42 games over his three seasons with the club.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 32 games from 2019 to 2020, and in 2019 he led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 47 games (35 starts) in his first three seasons, and his 19.0 sacks from 2018–2020 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He ranked second in the NFL from 2017–2020 with 18 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season

FIVE YEARS, THREE PLAYOFF BERTHS

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced five consecutive winning seasons in Robinson's first five years on the job, including 2020. The club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 with postseason berths following the 2017 and 2019 campaigns. Then, in 2020, the Titans finished the regular season 11-5 and won the team's first division championship since 2008.

Robinson is only the second general manager in franchise history whose first five teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-93).

He is also the second general manager in team annals who has helped guide the club to three playoff berths in his first five seasons. Holovak did so in each of his first five years.

Most winning seasons in a general manager's first five seasons, franchise history:

FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

With an 11-5 record during the 2020 regular season, the Titans recorded their fifth season with a winning record in five seasons since Jon Robinson was hired as general manager.

In the "Titans era" (1999–present), it marks the first time the team has had as many as three consecutive winning campaigns.

With their 2020 mark on top of their 9-7 marks every season from 2016 through 2019, the Titans built the third-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL.

Most current consecutive winning seasons:

Team	Total	Seasons
1. Seattle Seahawks	9	2012–2020
2. Kansas City Chiefs	8	2013–2020
3. Tennessee Titans	5	2016–2020
4. New Orleans Saints	4	2017–2020
Los Angeles Rams	4	2017–2020
Baltimore Ravens	4	2017–2020

TO THE PLAYOFFS IN YEAR 2

In January 2016, Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk hired general manager Jon Robinson, who helped turn the Titans into a playoff team by his second season.

Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Titans/Oilers general managers in the playoffs within their first two full seasons:

Head Coach	First Full Season as General Manager	Postseason Berths in First Two Seasons
Jon Robinson	2016	2017 (Year 2)
Mike Reinfeldt	2007	2007, 2008 (Years 1 & 2)

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In 2020, the Titans made their second consecutive playoff appearance under Vrabel, who finished his third season with the organization with 31 total wins and a .596 winning percentage (31-21), including the regular season and postseason. His win total and winning percentage each tied Jack Pardee (31-21 from 1990 to 1992) for the best in franchise history over a head coach's first three seasons.

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Tennessee offense continued its ascent into the NFL's upper echelon. The Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Derrick Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the Pro Bowl after recording his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tying for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

Situationally, Vrabel's teams fared well among the NFL leaders in his first three seasons as head coach. From 2018 to 2020, their .935 winning percentage (29-2) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead ranked second in the NFL behind the New Orleans Saints (.974). In the same time period, the Titans had a .643 winning percentage in three-point games (9-5), good for fifth in the league. The Titans and Saints were the only clubs to win at least three overtime contests in the regular season from 2018 to 2020, and neither suffered a loss.

The Titans were called for 267 penalties from 2018 through 2020, which was the second-fewest total in the NFL. Only the New England Patriots (249) fared better.

Also from 2018 to 2020, the Titans were a top-10 team in scoring defense. They allowed opponents to score 22.4 points per game during that time period, the eighth-lowest average in the NFL.

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

MOST WINS IN FIRST THREE SEASONS

In the 2020 regular season finale at Houston, Mike Vrabel earned his 31st win in the regular season and postseason since taking over as Titans head coach in 2018. He finished the campaign with a three-year record of 31-21, including a 2-2 mark in the playoffs.

His 31 victories tied for the three-year franchise record originally established by former Oilers coach Jack Pardee from 1990 to 1992.

Vrabel, Pardee and Jerry Glanville (1986–1988) are the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least two playoff squads in their initial three seasons. All three of Pardee's first three teams made the postseason, while Glanville's Oilers advanced to the postseason in his second and third years.

With a 31-21 record, Vrabel's winning percentage of .596 tied Pardee for the highest mark of any head coach in franchise history who has been with the organization at least three years.

Most total wins in Titans/Oilers history in a head coach's first three seasons, including playoffs*:

Coach	Seasons	Wins	Losses	Ties	Win Pct.
1. Mike Vrabel	2018–2020	31	21	0	.596
Jack Pardee	1990–1992	31	21	0	.596
3. Jerry Glanville	1986–1988	26	25	0	.510
4. O.A. "Bum" Phillips	1975–1977	23	19	0	.548
Jeff Fisher	1995–1997	23	25	0	.479
6. Mike Munchak	2011–2013	22	26	0	.458
7. Wally Lemm	1966–1968	19	23	1	.453
Mike Mularkey	2016–2017	19	15	0	.559
9. Frank "Pop" Ivy	1962–1963	17	12	0	.586
10. Lou Rymkus	1960–1961	12	7	1	.625

* Does not include interim seasons  Two total seasons

When Vrabel was hired in 2018, he joined six other head coaches who joined (or rejoined) their respective clubs in the same offseason: Jon Gruden (Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders), Matt Nagy (Chicago Bears), Matt Patricia (Detroit Lions), Frank Reich (Indianapolis Colts), Pat Shurmur (New York Giants) and Steve Wilks (Arizona Cardinals). Of those seven coaches, Vrabel had the most wins from 2018 to 2020.

Vrabel, Reich and Nagy each led their respective teams to the playoffs twice in their first three seasons.

Most total wins from 2018 to 2020 by head coaches hired during the 2018 offseason:

Coach	Team	Wins	Losses	Ties	Pct.	Playoff Appearances
1. Mike Vrabel	Tennessee	31	21	0	.596	2
2. Frank Reich	Indianapolis	29	22	0	.569	2
3. Matt Nagy	Chicago	28	22	0	.560	2
4. Jon Gruden	Las Vegas	19	29	0	.396	0
5. Matt Patricia	Detroit	13	29	1	.314	0
6. Pat Shurmur	N.Y. Giants	9	23	0	.281	0
7. Steve Wilks	Arizona	3	13	0	.188	0

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012–2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

VRABEL LEADS TITANS TO AFC TITLE GAME

Titans head coach Mike Vrabel became the franchise's sixth head coach in franchise annals to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Vrabel is the fourth head coach in Titans/Oilers history to win at least one playoff game in his first two full seasons, joining Mike Mularkey (2017 playoff victory), Jack Pardee (1991) and Lou Rymkus (1960 and 1961). He is the first head coach in the team's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons.

Titans/Oilers head coaches in the playoffs within their first two full seasons:

Head Coach	1st Full Season as Head Coach	Postseason Berths in 1st 2 Seasons	Playoff Wins in 1st 2 Seasons
Mike Vrabel	2018	2019 (Year 2)	2
Mike Mularkey	2016*	2017 (Year 2)	1

- A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Williams played collegiately at East Carolina as a nose tackle.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2021

Kevin Byard enters his sixth season in 2021.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The Titans have had a winning record each season since general manager Jon Robinson arrived in 2016. After going 9-7 each year from 2016 to 2019 and then achieving an 11-5 finish in 2020, a sixth consecutive season above .500 would give the franchise its second-best all-time streak. The only previous stretch in which the club achieved at least six straight winning records was 1987 to 1993.
- The Titans can earn their third consecutive playoff berth. It would be the organization's first time doing so since a franchise-record seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987 to 1993.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Needs 1,000 receiving yards and eight touchdown receptions to become the fourth player to reach the marks in each of his first three NFL seasons. He would join John Jefferson, Randy Moss and Odell Beckham Jr.
- Can join Derrick Mason (2001–2004) as the only players in franchise history to register 1,000 receiving yards in at least three consecutive seasons. Brown would be the first to accomplish the feat in his first three seasons.

S KEVIN BYARD

- Needs two interceptions in 2021 (18 interceptions entering the season) to become the 15th player in franchise history to reach 20 career interceptions. The most recent Titans player to do so was safety Michael Griffin.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Needs 2,000 rushing yards to become the first player in NFL history to reach the mark in two different seasons.
- Needs 1,500 rushing yards and 15 rushing touchdowns to become the first player in NFL history to reach both marks in three consecutive seasons.
- Needs 15 rushing touchdowns to become the second player in NFL history to reach the mark in three consecutive seasons, joining LaDainian Tomlinson (four seasons, 2004–2007).
- Can join Steve Van Buren (1947–1949) as the only players in NFL history to lead the NFL in rushing yards, rushing attempts and rushing touchdowns for three consecutive seasons.
- Can become the fifth player in NFL history to win the NFL rushing title in three consecutive seasons, joining Steve Van Buren (1947–1949), Jim Brown (1957–1961, 1963–1965), Earl Campbell (1978-80) and Emmitt Smith (1991-93).
- Needs a pair of 200-yard rushing games to give him seven for his career, which would set the NFL record. He would surpass O.J. Simpson and Adrian Peterson, who each have six such performances.
- Needs 17 total touchdowns to reach 75 career touchdowns and break the franchise record held by Eddie George (74).

CB JACKRABBIT JENKINS

- Needs one interception return for a touchdown to become the eighth player in NFL history to record nine career interception return touchdowns.

WR JULIO JONES

- With 12,896 career receiving yards entering 2021, needs 802 receiving yards to surpass Marvin Harrison (13,697) for the second-most through a player's first 11 seasons in NFL history.
- Needs 95 receptions to surpass Jerry Rice (942) for the second-most through a player's first 11 seasons in NFL history. Jones enters 2021 with 848 career catches.
- Can become the third player in NFL history with 60 career 100-yard receiving games. He needs two such games in 2021 to join Jerry Rice (76) and Randy Moss (64). Jones ranks fourth in NFL history in 100-yard receiving games behind Rice, Moss and Marvin Harrison (59).

P BRETT KERN

- Can record his eighth total season and fifth consecutive campaign with a net punting average of at least 40.0 yards. No other punter in franchise history has had one such season.
- Can become the fourth player in franchise history to play 13 seasons for the organization, joining Bruce Matthews (1983–2001), Elvin Bethea (1968–1983) and Brad Hopkins (1993–2005).
- Needs 17 games in 2021 (183 career games with the Titans entering the season) to become the third player in franchise history to appear in 200 career games. He would join Bruce Matthews (296) and Elvin Bethea (210).

GM JON ROBINSON

- Can become the only Titans/Oilers general manager in franchise history to oversee six total winning seasons, breaking the record of five winning seasons established by Bum Phillips (1975, 1977–1980) and later matched by Mike Holovak (1989–1993).
- Can become the only Titans/Oilers general manager in franchise history to oversee six consecutive winning seasons in his first six years on the job, breaking the record set by Mike Holovak (1989–1993).

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can produce his sixth career season with at least 3,000 passing yards and his third career season with at least 4,000 passing yards.
- Can become the first player in franchise history with multiple career seasons with at least 30 touchdown passes.
- Entered 2021 with an active streak of 13 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass, the sixth-longest streak in franchise annals.
- Can become the first player in franchise history to produce three consecutive seasons with a passer rating of at least 100.0 (117.5 in 2019; 106.5 in 2020). He already became the only quarterback in franchise history to have two consecutive seasons with a passer rating of 100.0 or better.
- Can join Drew Brees (2018-20) as the only players in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in three consecutive seasons.

- With a winning record in 2021, Mike Vrabel would become the only head coach in franchise history other than Jack Pardee (1990–1993) to begin his tenure with at least four consecutive winning campaigns. Vrabel, who arrived in 2018, already joined Pardee as the only head coaches in team annals with three consecutive seasons over .500 to begin their careers.

The Titans traded for Julio Jones in June.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

WINNING AT HOME

Since the midway point of the 2016 season, the Titans have been one of the NFL's most successful teams at home.

In 2018, the Titans won six games and lost twice at Nissan Stadium. They followed that with a 4-4 home record in 2019 and a 5-3 mark in 2020.

Since the weekend of their 2016 home victory over the Jaguars (Oct. 27, 2016), the Titans' winning percentage in home games is one of the highest in the NFL.

Highest winning percentage in home games (regular season) since Week 8 of 2016 (Oct. 27, 2016):

FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

With an 11-5 record during the 2020 regular season, the Titans recorded their fifth season with a winning record in five seasons since Jon Robinson was hired as general manager.

In the "Titans era" (1999-present), it marks the first time the team has had as many as three consecutive winning campaigns.

With their 2020 mark on top of their 9-7 marks every season from 2016 through 2019, the Titans built the third-longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 10th NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2021.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth).

Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

From 2019 to 2020, Tannehill built an 18-8 record as a starter in the regular season and led the Titans to two playoff appearances, including an appearance in the 2019 AFC championship game. He was the team's first quarterback since Steve McNair in 2002 and 2003 to start playoff games in back-to-back seasons.

From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the 2020 campaign, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Among qualifiers, Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Rodgers (2011-12).

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), completed 21 of 35 passes for 212 yards with one touchdown and one interception (74.9 passer rating). He completed a 39-yard pass to Chester Rogers on a flea flicker in the second quarter and threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to A.J. Brown in the third quarter. It was his 14th consecutive game with at least one touchdown pass, tying George Blanda (14 games from 1961–1962) for the fifth-longest such streak in franchise history. He scored a touchdown on a one-yard rushing attempt in the second quarter to give him four consecutive games with at least one touchdown run, dating back to the 2020 season. He became the first quarterback in franchise history to rush for at least one touchdown in four consecutive contests. He also became the first player for the franchise and only the third NFL player since 1970 to register four consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass and at least one rushing touchdown, joining Kyler Murray (five in 2020) and Michael Vick (four in 2010).

SINGLE-SEASON FRANCHISE RECORDS

Ryan Tannehill enjoyed one of the finest statistical passing seasons of any quarterback in Titans/Oilers franchise history in 2020. He concluded the season ranked among the franchise greats in several passing categories, including yards and touchdowns.

Prior to 2020, Tannehill's 2019 totals included 2,742 yards, 22 touchdowns and six interceptions on 201-of-286 passing. His passer rating of 117.5 ranked first in the NFL and was one of three major single-season passing records he set for the franchise. He also established new benchmarks for completion percentage (70.3) and passing average (9.6).

LEADING VETERAN QBS ON NEW TEAMS

In 2019, Ryan Tannehill set a new standard for veteran quarterbacks in their first year with a new team. Tannehill, who was acquired in a trade after seven years with the Miami Dolphins, had a passer rating of 117.5. No quarterback has ever finished with a passer rating that high in his first season with a new team after playing at least one year with another team.

Brett Favre held the distinction until 2019. In 2009, Favre's 107.2 passer rating with the Minnesota Vikings became the best figure in league annals by a veteran in his first campaign with a new club.

Highest passer rating in a veteran's first season with a new team:

BAUGH, MONTANA & TANNEHILL

During the 2019 season, Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill accomplished a statistical feat only reached previously by a pair of Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterbacks.

Tannehill's season statistics included a 70.3 completion percentage and an average of 9.6 yards per passing attempt.

In the history of the NFL, only two previous qualifying passers have enjoyed a season in which they completed at least 70.0 percent of their passes and averaged at least 9.0 yards per attempt: Sammy Baugh and Joe Montana.

Montana led the San Francisco 49ers to a Super Bowl XXIV title and won the NFL MVP award following a 1989 season in which he completed 70.2 percent of his passes (271 of 386) and averaged 9.1 yards per attempt (3,521 yards).

Baugh directed the Washington Redskins to the NFL Championship game in 1945, while completing 70.3 percent of his passes (128 of 182) and averaging 9.2 yards per attempt (1,669 yards).

Players in NFL history (through 2019) with a completion rate of at least 70.0 percent and a passing average of at least 9.0 yards per attempt (qualifiers only):

GAMES WITH A 130 PASSER RATING

During the 2019 campaign, Ryan Tannehill produced a streak of four consecutive games with a passer rating greater than 130. The run included a 133.9 passer rating against the Kansas City Chiefs (Nov. 10), a 155.8 against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Nov. 24), a 131.2 at the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 1) and a 140.4 at the Oakland Raiders (Dec. 8).

In franchise history, no quarterback prior to Tannehill had ever produced four consecutive starts with a passer rating of 130 or better (minimum 10 attempts per game). Marcus Mariota (2016) was the most recent of six Titans/Oilers signal callers to do so for three games before Tannehill.

Most consecutive games in a single season with a 130 passer rating, franchise history (minimum 10 attempts each game):

Player	Dates	Games
1. Ryan Tannehill	Nov. 10–Dec. 8, 2019	4
2. Marcus Mariota	Nov. 13–Nov. 27, 2016	3
Ryan Fitzpatrick	Nov. 10–Nov. 24, 2013	3
Steve McNair	Dec. 2–Dec. 16, 2001	3
Warren Moon	Oct. 22–Nov. 5, 1989	3
Dan Pastorini	Nov. 11–Nov. 22, 1979	3
George Blanda	Dec. 3–Dec. 17, 1961	3

Tannehill joined Russell Wilson (2015) and John Hadl (1973) as the only players in NFL history to register four consecutive games with a minimum of 10 pass attempts and a passer rating of at least 130.

Most consecutive games in a single season with a 130 passer rating, NFL history (through 2019; minimum 10 attempts each game):

Player	Team	Dates	Games
1. Ryan Tannehill	Tennessee	Nov. 10–Dec. 8, 2019	4
Russell Wilson	Seattle	Nov. 22–Dec. 13, 2015	4
John Hadl	L.A. Rams	Sept. 16–Oct. 7, 1973	4
4. (several tied)			3

Tannehill registered a total of six single-game passer ratings of 130 or greater in only 10 starts during the 2019 regular season. He tied Wilson with the most such performances in 2019 and also tied for the most by any NFL starting quarterback in any season since 1960. Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers (2011) and Dallas' Tony Romo (2014) are the only other quarterbacks to accomplish the feat.

In franchise history, former Oilers quarterback Chris Chandler previously had the most season games with a 130-plus passer rating, with four in 1995.

Most starts by a quarterback with a passer rating of 130.0 or greater, 1960–2019:

Player	Season	Team	Games
1. Ryan Tannehill	2019	Tennessee Titans	6
Russell Wilson	2019	Seattle Seahawks	6
Tony Romo	2014	Dallas Cowboys	6
Aaron Rodgers	2011	Green Bay Packers	6

2 TD PASSES W/ LESS THAN 2 INTS

To end the 2019 regular season, Ryan Tannehill completed multiple touchdown passes for seven consecutive games, one game shy of Marcus Mariota's 2016 franchise record of eight consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes.

However, Tannehill did establish a franchise benchmark in his final seven contests for most consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions. Over those seven games, he had two total interceptions—one each on Dec. 8 (at Oakland) and Dec. 15 (vs. Houston)—to go along with 19 touchdown passes and a 129.8 passer rating.

Most consecutive games in a season in franchise history with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions:

#22 • RB DERRICK HENRY

6-3, 247, 6th Year, Alabama
Click for complete bio

Running back Derrick Henry is in his sixth NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year in 2020 after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was honored with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Earl Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), led the team with 58 rushing yards on 17 attempts, including a long of 19 yards. He added three receptions for 19 yards.

DERRICK HENRY IN 2020

- Led the NFL and set a franchise record with 2,027 rushing yards in 2020, becoming the eighth player in league annals to rush for at least 2,000 yards in a season. His 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-highest total in NFL history behind Eric Dickerson's 2,105 (1984), Adrian Peterson's 2,097 (2012), Jamal Lewis's 2,066 (2003) and Barry Sanders's 2,053 (1997). Henry broke Chris Johnson's franchise mark of 2,006 rushing yards in 2009.
- Named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year and was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl. He won his second consecutive FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award and added first-team AP All-Pro honors. Additionally, he earned first-team All-Pro honors from Pro Football Focus, Pro Football Writers of America and Sporting News and was the 101 Awards AFC Offensive Player of the Year.
- Became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive seasons. Henry previously led the league in 2019 with 1,540 rushing yards.
- Became the fifth all-time NFL player to lead the NFL in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons. It is a feat that had not been attained since Cleveland's Leroy Kelly did it from 1967 to 1968. The only other players to achieve it are Jim Brown (1958-59), Steve Van Buren (1947-49) and Bill Paschal (1943-44).
- Established a single-game franchise record with 250 rushing yards on Jan. 3 at Houston. He broke his own club record of 238 rushing yards, established against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018. Henry's 250 rushing yards tied for the 13th-best single-game total in the NFL since 1948.
- Became the first player in NFL history with five career games with at least 200 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns.
- Became the fourth player in NFL history with at least five career 200-yard rushing games, joining O.J. Simpson (six), Adrian Peterson (six) and Tiki Barber (five).
- Set a career high with 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020, finishing with the second-best total in franchise history behind Earl Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.
- Finished the 2020 season with 1,221 rushing yards in road games, the most by any NFL running back since 1948. The previous high was held by Eric Dickerson, who had 1,087 rushing yards in road games for the Los Angeles Rams in 1984.

- Dating back to 2019, he had a streak of nine consecutive road games with at least 100 rushing yards, passing Chris Johnson (eight games from 2009-10) for the second-longest such streak in NFL history behind only Barry Sanders' 10-game road streak from 1996-97).
- Became the fifth player in NFL history with three 200-yard rushing games in a season, joining Earl Campbell (four in 1980), O.J. Simpson (1973), Tiki Barber (2005) and Jay Ajayi (2016).
- Became the first NFL player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2002-07) and the ninth player in NFL history to record at least three consecutive seasons in which he rushed for at least 1,000 yards and 12 touchdowns.
- Finished the season with 2,141 scrimmage yards (2,027 rushing and 114 receiving), which ranks second in franchise history behind Chris Johnson's 2,509 scrimmage yards in 2009.
- Registered 10 games in 2020 with at least 100 rushing yards to tie Earl Campbell (1980) for the third-most in franchise history. Only Campbell in 1979 (11) and Chris Johnson in 2009 (12) had more 100-yard rushing games in a Titans/Oilers season than Henry. Henry's 10 100-yard games in 2020 were the most in the NFL since Dallas running back DeMarco Murray had 12 in 2014.
- Became the NFL's first player to rush for at least 175 and two touchdowns four times in a season.
- Joined Terrell Davis (1997-98), Shaun Alexander (2004-05) and Larry Johnson (2005-06) as the only players in NFL history to rush for 1,500 yards and 15 touchdowns in two consecutive seasons.
- Established a streak of 20 consecutive games in the regular season and playoffs with at least 18 rushing attempts, the second-longest streak of its kind in the NFL since 1948. The only player with more consecutive 18-carry games in the regular season and postseason was Emmitt Smith, whose streak was 23 games with the Dallas Cowboys from 1995 to 1996.
- Became the first player in NFL history to produce more than one overtime touchdown run in a season. He joined LaDainian Tomlinson as the NFL's only players with multiple career touchdown runs in overtime. Tomlinson had three during his career.
- Joined Bo Jackson, Ahman Green, Chris Johnson and Lamar Miller as the only NFL players to record two career rushing touchdowns of at least 90 yards. Henry joined Miller (two 97-yard touchdown runs) as the only players to ever record multiple touchdown runs of at least 94 yards.

1,000 RUSH YARDS/12 TOUCHDOWNS

Titans running back Derrick Henry rushed for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2020. The performance came after he produced 1,059 rushing yards and 12 rushing touchdowns in 2018, followed by 1,540 rushing yards and 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019.

Henry became the first NFL player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2002-07) and the ninth player in NFL history to record at least three consecutive seasons in which he rushed for at least 1,000 yards and 12 touchdowns.

DECEMBER TO REMEMBER

In five games in the month of December 2018, Derrick Henry's rushing totals included 97 carries for 625 yards and eight touchdowns. His 625 yards were the most by any NFL player in any calendar month in 2018.

Additionally, Henry authored one of only four calendar months for the franchise since 1970 in which a player rushed for at least 600 yards. Chris Johnson (800 rushing yards in November 2009) and Earl Campbell (633 in October 1980; 662 in November 1980) were the organization's only other players to accomplish the feat in that timespan.

Henry's December rushing totals included 40 yards against the New York Jets (Dec. 2), a franchise-record 238 yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 6), 170 yards at the New York Giants (Dec. 16), 84 yards against the Washington Redskins (Dec. 22) and 93 yards against the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 30).

For his efforts, Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month.

Titans/Oilers with 500 rushing yards in any calendar month from 1970-2019 (includes playoffs):

Player	Season	Month	Rushing Yards
1. Chris Johnson	2009	November	800
2. Earl Campbell	1980	November	662
3. Earl Campbell	1980	October	633

RECORD-SETTING NIGHT

On Dec. 6, 2018, Derrick Henry had one of the most memorable rushing performances in NFL history on Thursday Night Football. He rushed for a then-team-record 238 yards and four touchdowns (tied franchise record), including a 99-yard touchdown run.

WATCH: Highlights from Derrick Henry's performance on 12/6/18

Henry's 238 rushing yards set a new franchise record, breaking Chris Johnson's mark of 228 yards against the Jaguars on Nov. 1, 2009. It was the highest single-game rushing total in the NFL in 2018 and the league's highest total since Doug Martin's 251 rushing yards for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers against the Oakland Raiders on Nov. 4, 2012.

Henry later broke his own record with 250 rushing yard at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021 to take possession of five of the top eight single-game rushing totals in team annals.

Most rushing yards in a game, franchise history:

Player	Date	Opponent	Rushing Yards
1. Derrick Henry	1/3/21	at Houston	250
2. Derrick Henry	12/6/18	Jacksonville	238
3. Chris Johnson	11/1/09	Jacksonville	228
4. Eddie George	8/31/97	Oakland	216
Billy Cannon	12/10/61	at New York	216
6. Derrick Henry	12/13/20	at Jacksonville	215
7. Derrick Henry	10/18/20	Houston	212
8. Derrick Henry	12/29/19	at Houston	211
9. Earl Campbell	11/16/80	at Chicago	203
Earl Campbell	10/19/80	Tampa Bay	203

In the second quarter, Henry took a handoff from Marcus Mariota inside his own one-yard line and raced 99 yards for a touchdown. It was the second 99-yard run in NFL history, tying Tony Dorsett's record-setting touchdown run for the Dallas Cowboys against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

Andy Uram	Green Bay	10/8/39	Chi. Cardinals	97t
Bob Gage	Pittsburgh	12/4/49	Chi. Bears	97t

Henry scored on a three-yard run in the first quarter, a 99-yard run in the second quarter, a 16-yard run in the third quarter, and finally a 54-yard run in the third quarter. He tied the franchise record and became the third player in franchise history to rush for four touchdowns in a game, joining Earl Campbell (against Miami on Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (against Cleveland on Dec. 9, 1990).

The only franchise player with more overall touchdowns in a game than Henry was Oilers running back Billy Cannon, who had five total touchdowns (three rushing, two receiving) at the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961. Henry became the first NFL player with four rushing touchdowns in a game since New England Patriots running back Jonas Gray at Indianapolis on Nov. 16, 2014.

Most rushing touchdowns in a game, franchise history:

Player	Date	Opponent	Rushing Touchdowns
1. Derrick Henry	12/6/18	Jacksonville	4
Lorenzo White	12/9/90	Cleveland	4
Earl Campbell	11/20/78	Miami	4
4. (several tied)			3

Additionally, Henry's rushing performance against the Jaguars accomplished the following:

- He became the ninth NFL player since 1975 with at least one 90-yard run and at least one 60-yard reception in his career. The others were Tony Dorsett, Garrison Hearst, Tiki Barber, Chris Johnson, Jamaal Charles, Herschel Walker, Warrick Dunn and Adrian Peterson.
- Henry became the seventh NFL player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least four rushing touchdowns and at least 200 rushing yards in a game, joining Clinton Portis, Barry Sanders, Doug Martin, Jonas Gray, Mike Anderson and Corey Dillon. Henry became the first to accomplish the feat in fewer than 20 carries (17).
- He matched former Titans running back Chris Johnson as the only players in NFL history with a rushing touchdown of at least 90 yards and a rushing touchdown of at least 50 yards in the same game. Johnson accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009.
- His 24 points tied for the fourth-highest single-game total in franchise history, trailing only Billy Cannon (30 on Dec. 10, 1961), Rob Bironas (26 on Oct. 21, 2007) and George Blanda (26 on Sept. 18, 1960). Earl Campbell (Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (Dec. 9, 1990) also had 24 points on four touchdowns in a single game.
- His 238 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns were each the most in any Thursday Night Football game in history.

RUSHING YARDS IN A TWO-GAME SPAN

Following a franchise-record 238 rushing yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Derrick Henry then totaled 170 rushing yards at the New York Giants on Dec. 16 to give him a franchise record of 408 rushing yards in a two-game span.

The previous record of 405 rushing yards in two games was set by Earl Campbell in 1980, when Campbell posted 203 yards against Tampa Bay (Oct. 19) and 202 yards against Cincinnati (Oct. 26).

Most total rushing yards in two consecutive games, franchise history:

Player	Game 1	Yds	Game 2	Yds	Total
Derrick Henry	12/6/18 vs. Jax	238	12/16/18 at NYG	170	408
Earl Campbell	10/19/80 vs. TB	203	10/26/80 vs. Cin	202	405

RUSHING YARDS IN A SINGLE POSTSEASON

Derrick Henry accumulated 446 rushing yards during the 2019 playoffs. He had 182 yards on 34 carries in the wild card round at New England, followed by 195 yards on 30 attempts in the divisional round at Baltimore. In the AFC championship game, he had 69 yards on 19 rushing attempts.

Henry's average of 148.7 rushing yards per game ranked fourth in NFL history for players with at least two games played. Only a trio of Pro Football Hall of Fame members—Denver Broncos running back Terrell Davis (156.0 in 1998), Los Angeles Raiders running back Marcus Allen (155.3 in 1983) and Washington Redskins running back John Riggins (152.5 in 1982) have averaged more rushing yards in a single postseason than Henry.

In Titans/Oilers history, Eddie George established the previous record for average rushing yards in a single postseason during the 1999 playoffs. In four games, George carried the ball 108 times for 449 yards, or an average of 112.3 yards per contest.

Most rushing yards per game in a single NFL postseason (minimum two games):

Player	Team	Season	Games	Rush Yards	Per Game
1. Terrell Davis	Denver	1998	3	468	156.0
2. Marcus Allen	L.A. Raiders	1983	3	466	155.3
3. John Riggins	Washington	1982	4	610	152.5
4. Derrick Henry	Tennessee	2019	3	446	148.7
5. Eric Dickerson	L.A. Rams	1985	2	294	147.0
6. Terrell Davis	Denver	1997	4	581	145.3
7. Arian Foster	Houston	2011	2	285	142.5
8. Thurman Thomas	Buffalo	1990	3	390	130.0
9. Brian Westbrook	Philadelphia	2006	2	257	128.5
10. Fred Taylor	Jacksonville	1998	2	248	124.0

George's 449 yards during the team's run to Super Bowl XXXIV also established the franchise benchmark for most total rushing yards in a single postseason. Henry came within three yards of the mark in one fewer game.

Most rushing yards in a single postseason, franchise history:

Player	Season	Games	Rush Yards
1. Eddie George	1999	4	449

#11 • WR A.J. BROWN

6-1, 226, 3rd Year, Mississippi
Click for complete bio

Wide receiver A.J. Brown is in his third NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (51st overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

In his first two years in the NFL, Brown totaled 122 receptions for 2,126 yards (17.4 avg.) with 19 touchdown catches. He became the 11th player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons, the first player to do so since Michael Thomas (2016-17) and the only player in Titans/Oilers history other than Bill Groman (1960-61) to accomplish the feat. From 1970 through 2020, Brown and Randy Moss were the only players to post at least 120 receptions and 19 touchdown catches while averaging 17.0 yards per reception in their first two seasons.

Brown was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 2020 after leading the team with 70 receptions, 1,075 receiving yards and 11 touchdown catches in 14 games (12 starts). He tied for fifth place in the NFL in touchdown receptions and joined Drew Bennett (11 in 2004) as the only players in the team's "Titans era" (since 1999) with 10 or more touchdown receptions in a season. He added a touchdown on a kickoff return.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 52 catches for 1,051 yards and eight touchdowns. He added a 49-yard rushing touchdown. Among all rookies in franchise history, Brown ranked third in receiving yards and fifth in receptions, and he tied for the third-highest receiving touchdown total.

Brown led the 2019 NFL rookie class in receiving yards and total touchdowns, and he tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions. He also placed fifth among rookies in receptions. Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

During a three-year career at Mississippi (2016-18), Brown became the program's all-time leading receiver with 2,984 yards. He ranked third in school history with 189 receptions and fifth all-time with 19 touchdowns. Brown averaged 15.8 yards per catch and 82.9 yards per game, and he tallied the most 100-yard receiving games in Ole Miss history with 12. He became the only receiver in Ole Miss history to tally 60 or more receptions in back-to-back seasons.

In 2018, Brown started all 12 games and set Ole Miss' single-season receiving records in yards (1,320) and catches (85), leading the SEC in both categories. His 1,320 receiving yards ranked seventh in the nation. Brown caught six touchdowns, averaging 110.0 yards per game, and he topped the 100-yard receiving mark in six contests. He earned AP first-team All-SEC and third-team All-American honors for the second consecutive season.

Brown was selected in the 19th round of the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres as a centerfielder and he participated in the team's extended spring training program each summer from 2016-18.

He is a native of Starkville, Miss.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), tied for the team lead with four receptions for 49 receiving yards with one touchdown. He caught a 13-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill in the third quarter. It was his 20th career touchdown reception, making him the 15th player in franchise history to reach 20 touchdown catches. He also recorded a solo tackle on defense on the final play of the first half.

#2 • WR JULIO JONES

6-3, 220, 11th Year, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Julio Jones is in his 11th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2021. He was acquired in a June 2021 trade in which the Titans sent a 2022 second-round draft pick and a conditional 2023 fourth-rounder to the Atlanta Falcons in exchange for Jones and a 2023 sixth-round pick.

The seven-time Pro Bowler and two-time first-team All-Pro selection arrived in Tennessee with 848 career receptions for 12,896 yards and 60 touchdowns in 135 games (134 starts). He set Falcons franchise receiving records in both catches and yards, while his touchdowns ranked second all-time.

Through the 2020 campaign, Jones averaged 95.5 receiving yards per game, ranking first in NFL history. Hall of Famer Calvin Johnson established the previous record of 86.1 receiving yards per game.

Jones' 12,896 career receiving yards through 2020 put him 20th in league annals, while his 58 career 100-yard receiving games put him fourth all-time behind Hall of Famers Jerry Rice (76), Randy Moss (64) and Marvin Harrison (59). Among all players in NFL history with at least 848 career catches, only Moss' 15.6-yard average ranked higher than Jones' average of 15.2 yards per reception through 2020.

Jones eclipsed the 12,000-yard career receiving mark faster than any other player in NFL history, doing so in 125 games and shattering Rice's old record of 142 games.

Jones was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2012 and every season from 2014 to 2019. He earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors in both 2015 and 2016. (2015-16).

In 2015, Jones posted one of the best seasons by a receiver in NFL history after leading the NFL with 1,871 receiving yards and tying for the NFL lead with 136 receptions. His final numbers ranked second all-time in receiving yards for a season and tied for second all-time in receptions for a season in NFL history.

A native of Foley, Ala., Jones established himself as one of the premier wide receivers in college football in three seasons at the University of Alabama. After 40 collegiate games, his 179 receptions ranked second all-time at Alabama, while his 2,653 receiving yards ranked second in school history and his 15 touchdowns tied for fourth in Crimson Tide annals. As a junior (2010), he garnered second-team All-American honors and was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection after leading the Tide and setting school records with 78 receptions and 1,133 receiving yards to go along with seven touchdown catches.

He was drafted by the Falcons with the sixth overall selection in the 2011 NFL Draft.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), made his Titans debut and caught three passes for 29 yards. He recorded his first reception with the Titans on a nine-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the second quarter. The catch extended his streak to 128 consecutive individual NFL games with at least one reception.

He recorded his 850th career reception in his 136th career game, surpassing Marvin Harrison (140 games) as the second-fastest player to reach 850 career receptions in NFL history. Only Antonio Brown (133 games) reached the mark in fewer games.

#18 • WR JOSH REYNOLDS

6-3, 196, 5th Year, Texas A&M

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Josh Reynolds is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2021. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 23, 2021 after spending the first four years of his career (2017-20) with the Los Angeles Rams.

Reynolds spent his first four NFL seasons with the Los Angeles Rams after being selected in the fourth round (117th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft. He arrived in Tennessee with 113 career receptions for 1,450 yards and nine touchdowns in 64 games (24 starts). Additionally, he had 11 receptions for 186 yards in six postseason contests with the Rams.

In 2020, Reynolds set career highs with 13 starts, 52 receptions and 618 receiving yards, and he added a pair of touchdowns. He caught at least one pass in every contest during the regular season. A versatile player who can line up in multiple spots, he was split wide on 69.5 percent of snaps in 2020, per Sportradar.

Reynolds never missed a game during his time with the Rams. His 64 consecutive games played put him in a tie for the third-longest streak among all active wide receivers at the conclusion of 2020.

A native of San Antonio, Texas, Reynolds played three seasons (2014-16) at Texas A&M, where he accumulated 164 receptions for 2,788 yards. His 30 touchdown catches with the Aggies gave him the second-best total in school history.

2021 Game Notes:

- Against Arizona (9/12), he was inactive with a foot injury.

#64 • G NATE DAVIS

6-3, 316, 3rd Year, Charlotte

Click for complete bio

Nate Davis is in his third NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (82nd overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Davis started all 16 games at right guard in 2020, giving him 28 consecutive starts dating back to the final 12 games of his rookie season. He also started all four of the team's postseason games from 2019 to 2020.

Davis was a part of a 2020 offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). Davis helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

As a rookie in 2019, Davis played in 13 games with 12 starts at right guard. It was the highest number of starts at guard by a Titans rookie since Chance Warmack's 16 starts in 2013. He also started all three of the team's postseason games.

In four seasons at Charlotte (2015-18), Davis appeared in 41 career games with 37 starts. A four-year starter on the offensive line, Davis started at guard from 2015-17 before switching to right tackle for his senior season in 2018.

He is a native of Ashburn, Va.

#60 • C BEN JONES

6-3, 303, 10th Year, Georgia

Click for complete bio

Center Ben Jones is in his 10th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2021. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2016.

From 2012 through 2020, Jones appeared in 143 of 144 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first five seasons in Tennessee.

In 2020, Jones started every game at center and was a part of an offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). He helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

In 2019, Jones captained an offensive line that helped Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games en route to an AFC Championship Game appearance.

On Dec. 12, 2019, Jones was named the Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered one of the league's most prestigious honors, the award recognizes an NFL player for outstanding community service activities off the field, as well as excellence on the field.

On Nov. 3, 2019, Jones' streak of 120 consecutive games played and 88 consecutive starts came to an end when he was deactivated with a concussion. At the time, Jones' consecutive games streak tied Kansas City's Mitchell Schwartz for the longest active streak in the NFL among offensive linemen, and his starting streak ranked first in the NFL among all centers.

Jones started all 16 games at center in 2018, registering a start in every contest for the fifth consecutive season, dating back to his third year in Houston (2014).

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. The veteran was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Over the following four seasons, he started contests at center and both guard spots. He was a starter on two playoff teams in Houston (2012 and 2015).

In 2015, Jones started every game at center, extending his streak of consecutive regular season games played to 64, which was the second-longest active streak among NFL centers at the conclusion of the season.

A native of Centreville, Ala., Jones attended the University of Georgia, where his 49 total starts ranked third in school annals. He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

#77 • T TAYLOR LEWAN

6-7, 309, 8th Year, Michigan
Click for complete bio

Tackle Taylor Lewan is in his eighth NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Lewan's 2020 season was cut short after he was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 19, 2020, one day after suffering a knee injury against the Houston Texans. He started each of the team's first five games of the season.

In 2019, Lewan registered 12 starts during the regular season, anchoring an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games, including the AFC Championship Game.

Lewan was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season in 2018. He played and started in 15 of the team's 16 games at left tackle, marking his fourth consecutive season with at least 15 starts.

In 2017, Lewan became the team's first offensive lineman to make multiple Pro Bowls since center Kevin Mawae from 2008–2009. Lewan started all 16 games for the second consecutive season in 2017 and added starts in both postseason contests.

In 2016, Lewan started all 16 games for the first time. The left tackle was the anchor a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

In 2015, Lewan started the first 15 games of the season at left tackle before missing the finale with a concussion.

As a rookie in 2014, Lewan played in 11 games with six starts before suffering an ankle injury. He played as a reserve for the first five games and then started in six consecutive contests before the injury caused him to be inactive the final five weeks. For his efforts, Lewan was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team.

In four seasons at Michigan, Lewan appeared in 50 games with 48 starts at left tackle. He started the final 41 games of his career and was named the Big Ten Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2012 and 2013. As a senior in 2013, he started all 13 games at left tackle for the third consecutive season and was named second-team Associated Press All-American.

At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, he ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen in the last five years (2010-14). He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

A native of Cave Creek, Ariz., Lewan became the first offensive tackle selected by the Titans/Oilers in the first round since tackle Brad Hopkins (13th overall) in 1993.

#76 • G RODGER SAFFOLD III

6-5, 325, 12th Year, Indiana
Click for complete bio

Guard Rodger Saffold III is in his 12th NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2021. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent from the Los Angeles Rams on March 15, 2019.

In 2020, Saffold started 15 games at left guard in the NFL's second-overall ranked offense (396.4 yards per game). The Titans also finished second in rushing (168.1) and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25) in the league. Saffold helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

In 2019, Saffold started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and for the fourth time in his career. He was a key member of an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games, including the AFC Championship Game.

During the first nine seasons of his career (2010-18), Saffold appeared in 114 regular season games with 111 starts for the Rams. He also gained experience in the postseason, starting four career playoff games, including all three postseason contests on the Rams' run to Super Bowl LIII at the conclusion of 2018.

From 2017-18, Saffold played an integral role in one of the NFL's top-ranked offenses. According to STATS Inc., he allowed only two sacks during that time.

Saffold is extremely versatile, having started with the Rams at right tackle (three games), left tackle (36), right guard (13) and left guard (43).

A native of Bedford, Ohio, he spent four seasons at Indiana University (2006-09), where he started 41 career games and earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior.

Saffold was originally selected by the Rams in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

MORE TITANS OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

62 - G/C AARON BREWER

6-1, 295, 2nd year, Texas State

- Brewer was signed by the Titans as an undrafted free agent on May 7, 2020.
- As a rookie in 2020, he appeared in 12 games with one start at left guard (Nov. 22 at Baltimore) before landing on reserve/COVID-19 for the postseason.
- The Dallas, Texas, native appeared in 48 games with 47 consecutive starts in four seasons at Texas State.
- He started at least five games at every position on the offensive line. He totaled eight starts at left tackle, seven starts at left guard, 15 starts at center, five starts at right guard and 12 starts at right tackle.
- As a senior, he started all 12 contests at right tackle and earned All-Sun Belt second-team recognition. He was the highest-graded offensive lineman in the Sun Belt Conference (82.8) by Pro Football Focus, surrendering just three combined sacks and hits in 496 snaps in pass protection.

52 - C DANIEL MUNYER

6-1, 305, 4th Year, Colorado

- Munyer was signed by the Titans to the team's practice squad on Oct. 8, 2019 after previously spending time with the Kansas City Chiefs (2015-16), Arizona Cardinals (2016-2018) and Indianapolis Colts (2019).
- In 2020, he spent seven games on the Titans' 53-man roster and appeared in three games before being released on Nov. 7. On Nov. 10, he was re-signed to the practice squad, where he spent the remainder of the season. He was activated as a COVID-19 replacement for the team's wild card game but did not play.
- The 6-foot-1-inch, 305-pounder originally signed with Kansas City as a rookie free agent following the 2015 NFL Draft.
- The Harbor City, Calif., native appeared in 16 total games with one start at right guard prior to joining the Titans.
- In four seasons at Colorado (2011-14), Munyer played in 43 games with 39 starts, including 36 consecutive starts over his final three seasons. Thirty of his starts came at right guard, and he made six starts at center.

72 - OL DAVID QUESSENBERRY

6-5, 310, 3rd Year, San Jose State

- Quessenberry was promoted from the Titans practice squad to the 53-man roster on Oct. 27, 2020.
- In 2020, Quessenberry appeared in 12 games and started the final six regular season games at left tackle, registering the first starting experience of his career. He was part of an offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). Quessenberry helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027). He also started the team's one postseason contest at left tackle.
- The 6-foot-5-inch, 305-pounder was originally drafted by the Houston Texans in the sixth round (176th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft.
- He spent his rookie season on injured reserve and then spent the 2014-16 seasons on reserve/non-football illness list after being diagnosed with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma in June 2014. He was medically cleared and returned to action in 2017 as a member of the Texans practice squad. He was signed to the active roster on Dec. 19, 2017 and appeared in two contests for Houston.
- The La Jolla, Calif., native appeared in four games in 2019 with the Titans and recorded his first career touchdown catch.
- In four seasons at San Jose State (2009-12), Quessenberry appeared in 49 games, starting the final 37 contests he appeared in at left tackle.

70 - T TY SAMBRAILO

Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Denico Autry is in his eighth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2021. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

After entering the NFL as a rookie free agent with the Oakland Raiders in 2014, Autry played four seasons with the Raiders (2014-17) and then three seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (2018-20). During that time he appeared in 96 games with 56 starts and amassed 200 tackles, 30.5 sacks, 53 quarterback hits, 17 passes defended, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

Autry also produced a total of eight blocked kicks from 2014 to 2020: two field goals, five extra points and one punt. That was three more than the next-closest NFL players on the list (five by Margus Hunt and Ra'Shede Hageman).

Over his three seasons in Indianapolis, his 20 total sacks ranked in the top 15 in the NFL for defensive linemen.

In 2020, Autry collected 33 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 10 quarterback pressures and nine tackles for loss in 14 games with the Colts. His 13 starts were the second-highest total of his career (14 in 2019).

In 2018, Autry led the Colts with a career-best nine sacks in his first season in Indianapolis. He also posted career highs with 13 tackles for loss and two forced fumbles.

The Albemarle, N.C., native played in 26 games (23 starts) in two seasons at Mississippi State University, totaling 73 tackles, 16 tackles for loss, six sacks and three forced fumbles. He spent his first two collegiate seasons at East Mississippi Community College where he was an NJCAA All-American and national champion.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), registered a tackle in his Titans debut.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 3rd Year, Mississippi State

Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his third NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 in tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), totaled five tackles, including a sack. He ended a Cardinals drive with a seven-yard sack on third down in the third quarter.

#58 • OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

6-2, 252, 4th Year, Boston College
Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III is in his fourth NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

From the start of his rookie season through 2020, Landry's 19 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (36.0), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first three NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defensed. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defensed.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. He added seven forced fumbles, which also led the country, while his 22 tackles for loss ranked fifth nationally and ranked second all-time for the Eagles. His numerous honors included Walter Camp second-team All-America, AP second-team All-America and second-team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and the league's head coaches.

He is a native of Spring Lake, N.C.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), ran Kyler Murray out of bounds in the first quarter for a two-yard sack, which was the 20th sack of his career. He totaled three tackles in the contest.

#31 • S KEVIN BYARD

5-11, 212, 6th Year, Middle Tennessee State

Click for complete bio

Safety Kevin Byard is in his sixth NFL season in 2021. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (64th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Byard did not miss a game in his first five seasons in the NFL, totaling 80 games in the regular season and six postseason games. At the conclusion of 2020, his 71 consecutive starts in the regular season was the leading current streak among all Titans players and ranked second to Malcolm Jenkins (119) among active NFL safeties.

Over a four-year period from 2017 through 2020, he ranked second in the NFL with 18 interceptions. Only Miami's Xavien Howard (22) had more in that period.

In 2020, Byard was a defensive team captain for the second consecutive season and the team's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee. His 111 tackles led the team and established a career high. Additionally, he registered one interception, seven passes defended, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. In one playoff game he produced five tackles, one pass defended and a quarterback pressure.

From 2017 through 2019, no NFL player had more interceptions than Byard, who had 17. His 2019 totals included a team-leading five interceptions, 10 passes defended, 91 tackles, one quarterback pressure and two tackles for loss. In three postseason games, he added 20 tackles and one interception.

In 2018, Byard finished with a team-leading four interceptions, 10 passes defended, 96 tackles and two sacks. He also completed a touchdown pass on a memorable fake punt to help defeat the Houston Texans (Sept. 16).

Byard experienced a breakthrough second-year season in 2017. He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.

As a rookie in 2016, Byard played in every game, starting the final seven contests at free safety. His 63 tackles were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Tank Williams' 69 tackles in 2002. He also ranked second on the squad with 10 special teams tackles.

During a four-year career at Middle Tennessee State University, he appeared in 49 games and notched 46 starts at safety while becoming one of the most prolific defenders in school history. He set school records with 19 career interceptions, 377 interception return yards and four interception returns for touchdowns, and he finished sixth in MTSU history with 312 career tackles. In total, he had a hand in 25 turnovers (19 interceptions, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery) during his career and added 17 career passes defended and five tackles for loss. He was twice named first-team All-Conference USA.

As a senior in 2015, Byard appeared in 12 games with nine starts as a permanent team captain and was named first-team All-Conference USA for the second consecutive year. He ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles and led the squad with four interceptions and six additional pass breakups.

The Lithonia, Ga., native set a career high in college with six interceptions as a junior and forced two fumbles the same season.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), intercepted a Kyler Murray pass and returned the ball 12 yards in the third quarter. The takeaway led to a Titans touchdown on the ensuing possession. It was his 19th career interception, which tied Keith Bulluck (19) and Miller Farr (19) for 15th place on the franchise's career interception list.

#6 • P BRETT KERN

6-2, 214, 14th Year, Toledo

Click for complete bio

Punter Brett Kern is in his 14th NFL season and his 12th full campaign with the Titans in 2021. The three-time Pro Bowl selection was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. He passed Craig Hentrich (861 punts) in 2020 as the organization's all-time leading punter and finished the season with 876 punts in a Titans uniform. He also concluded 2020 as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (355). Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2020, Kern appeared in 13 games, missing three contests on injured reserve. He punted 37 times for a 45.8 gross average and a 41.5-yard net average with 22 punts placed inside the 20. Since the 1991 season, Kern's 59.5 percent of punts placed inside the 20 in 2020 was the best of any player with at least 30 punts in a season.

When Kern was placed on injured reserve during the 2020 season, it ended his consecutive games played streak ended at 199 games, including his career with the Titans and Denver Broncos. At the time, he owned the fourth-longest active consecutive games played streak in the NFL. His streak with the Titans ended at 177 consecutive games played, finishing as the second-longest streak in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews' 232 consecutive games from 1987 to 2001.

With 183 career games with the Titans through 2020, Kern ranked fourth in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews (296), Elvin Bethea (210) and Brad Hopkins (194). Kern's total was the most for any player during the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999).

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

2021 Game Notes:

➤ Against Arizona (9/12), punted three times for a 50.3-yard gross average and a 42.3-yard net average. His first game of 2021 marked the beginning of his 13th season with the Titans. It put him in a tie with Brad Hopkins (13) for third place in franchise history for most seasons played behind only Bruce Matthews (19) and Elvin Bethea (16).

 Visiting Team Media Relations (Press Box Seats 29-32): (615) 565-4452

DIRECTIONS TO NISSAN STADIUM

FROM AIRPORT TO NISSAN STADIUM (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-40 West toward Nashville/Memphis to I-24 West (before downtown). Exit at James Robertson Parkway (Exit 48). Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated video photographers (coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or a designated vest receptacle.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. They are the only reporters allowed in the officials' locker room. Requests for pool reports must be made in advance. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

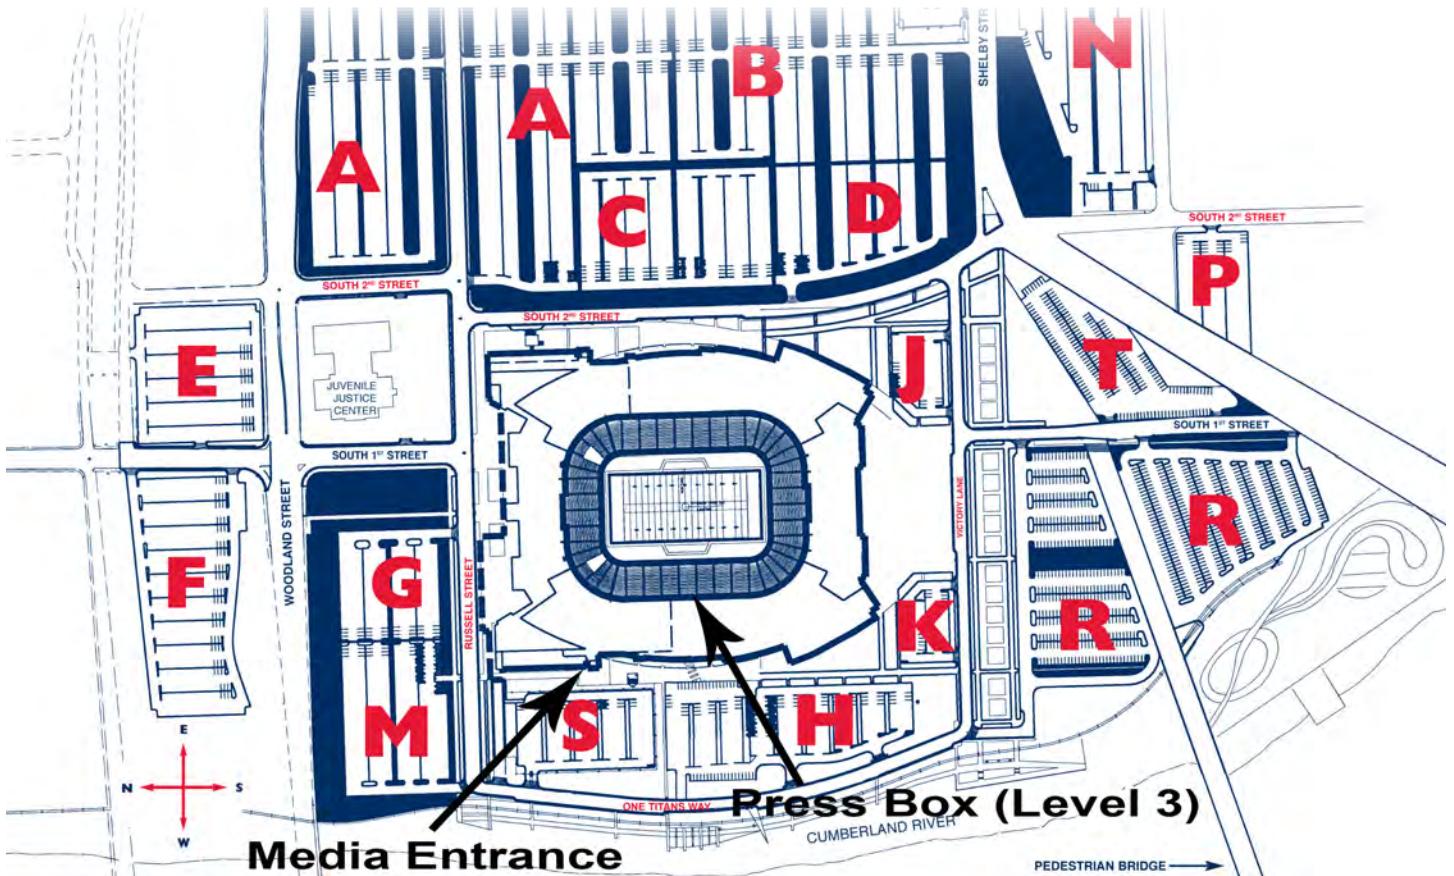

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. Take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.
