TITANS LOSE BIG LEAD, FALL TO BEARS 24-17 IN SEASON OPENER

BY JIM WYATT

SEPTEMBER 8, 2024

CHICAGO – In the Windy City, the Titans saw a big lead drift away.

The Bears rallied for a 24-17 win over the Titans in the regular season opener here at Soldier Field.

The Titans wasted a solid day from the defense, which couldn't overcome a big special teams gaffe and mistakes by Tennessee's offense.

"I loved the way we played, I loved our effort," Titans Coach Brian Callahan said. "But we have to be able to knock a team out. We made way too many mistakes. I thought we were in a good place, and we had a chance to win this game. For me, it's just disappointing we didn't find a way to do that.

"Bad taste in your mouth, really disappointed. We have to find a way to rebound and get ready for our home opener."

In many ways, the Titans gave the game away with a pair of interceptions, a fumble, and a blocked punt that was returned for a touchdown.

The Bears managed just 11 first downs and 148 yards of offense in the game.

The Titans jumped out to 17-0 lead, but things unraveled in an ugly way in the second half.

Quarterback Will Levis completed 19-of-32 passes for 127 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. Levis threw a pick-6 that turned into the game-winning touchdown for the Bears in the fourth quarter.

"Just a bonehead play," Levis said of the pick-6. "One of the things, from a lot of things, I can learn from in this game.

"It's gut-wrenching, it's tough. Having a 17-point lead and giving them the game."

Things looked good early.

The Titans took a 7-0 lead on a 26-yard run by running back Tony Pollard, which capped an 8-play, 79-yard drive. Pollard was a workout on the drive, racking up 54 yards on the ground.

On the ensuing kickoff, Titans running back Julius Chesnut recovered a fumble that bounced off Bears returner Velus Jones at the Chicago 23-yard line.

The Titans cashed that in for three more points, as kicker Nick Folk was good on a 40-yard field goal.

The defense, meanwhile, was stout early, forcing punts in Chicago's first three possessions.

The Titans kept the gas on the pedal in the first half, and they jumped ahead 17-0 on a 17-yard touchdown pass from Levis to tight end Chig Okonkwo, which capped a 14-play, 73-yard drive that took 8:23 off the clock. A big third-down conversion pass from Levis to receiver Calvin Ridley, then a fourth-down conversion pass from Levis to receiver Tyler Boyd highlighted the drive.

A 24-yard field goal by Bears kicker Cairo Santos made it 17-3 at the half.

But the Titans couldn't do much right in the second half.

Things got off to a shaky start in the third quarter, as punter Ryan Stonehouse had a punt blocked, and it was picked up by the Bears and returned for a touchdown.

It was Bears defensive back Jonathan Owens who scooped up the football, and he raced 21 yards for a score, making it 17-10 with 9:07 left in the third quarter.

The Bears then cut the lead to 17-13 with 14:47 left in the fourth quarter on a 50-yard field goal by Santos.

Disaster struck again the fourth quarter when Levis was sacked, and he fumbled. The Bears jumped on the loose ball at the Tennessee 31-yard line, in a great position to take the lead.

The Titans defense stiffened up, and held the Bears to another Santos field goal, this one from 48 yards, to make it 17-16 with 9:52 left.

Levis then made a bad decision when he tried to get rid of the football to avoid a sack. Instead, Bears defensive back Tyrique Stevenson stepped in front of a Levis flip pass to Boyd and raced 43 yards for a touchdown. Chicago's two-point conversion made it 24-17 Chicago with 7:35 left.

The Titans couldn't rally, as Levis was intercepted again late.

"It's one game in a 17-game season," safety Quandre Diggs said. "We have to regroup. Now, just don't let one loss create two – that's the lesson you have to take out of this. I have been around for a long time and I've seen a lot of teams let one loss lead to two, lead to three, lead to four, and you find yourself in a hole you don't want to be in."

The Titans return to action next Sunday at Nissan Stadium against the New York Jets.

TITANS DROP HOME OPENER, LOSE 24-17 TO THE JETS

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
SEPTEMBER 15, 2024

NASHVILLE – It was a painful – and familiar – ending to the home opener for the Tennessee Titans.

Just like last week in the season opener at Chicago, the Titans once again made mistakes, including a pair of turnovers and another special teams blunder, and it came back to haunt them.

The end result was 24-17 for the second week in a row, this time a loss to the New York Jets.

"Same story as the last one," Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "I thought we played better than last week, but the mistakes were critical. It's incredibly frustrating, but at the end of the day I think we have what it takes on our team to win football games. We've been in position to win them, and we've made just enough mistakes to not.

"I believe in our team. I believe in our guys. I believe in the way we work, and I believe in what they're made of. It's going to come. We're not going to give up. It's Week 2, and we've played not even close to our best football. So, we're going to keep going."

With the loss, the Titans are now 0-2 on the season.

"It's kind of weird," Titans quarterback Will Levis said. "Cally came in (the locker room) and said the same thing, it's like déjà vu. Saw it twice in a row, shooting ourselves in the foot. You're not going to win football games like that."

Levis completed 19-of-28 passes for 192 yards with a touchdown and an interception in the contest. He also lost the ball on a costly fumble inside the 10, when the Titans were in control of the game early. It took points off the scoreboard.

Defensively, the Titans played well for long stretches.

But they allowed three touchdown-scoring drives of 70-plus yards by the Jets, including one late in the fourth quarter as the Jets surged ahead.

The Titans allowed another blocked punt on special teams that put points on the scoreboard for the Jets.

"It is frustrating, losing," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said. "The things we keep talking about – taking care of the football, and getting turnovers, and it's not happening."

The Titans did some good things, but they frustrated themselves – and their fans – with the mistakes.

Calvin Ridley flashed his speed early, as the Titans jumped ahead.

Ridley got into the corner of the end zone after taking a handoff from Levis and scored on a 10-yard run to give the Titans a 7-0 lead with 2:30 left in the first quarter. The play capped a nine-play, 68-yard drive that also included a 15-yard catch from Ridley on third down.

The Titans had a chance to expand the lead in the second quarter, but a mistake by Levis, who tried to pitch the ball back to Tyjae Spears as he was going down, was ruled a fumble and recovered by the Jets at the 12-yard line. The Titans had driven the ball to the New York seven-yard line, and they seemed poised to extend their lead.

On the team's next possession, Levis was intercepted on a deep ball to Treyton Burks.

The Jets then put together a 12-play, 73-yard drive late in the second quarter, and capped it off with a 12-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Aaron Rodgers to running back Braelon Allen for a 12-yard touchdown just 1:47 before halftime to tie the game.

The Titans took a 10-7 lead at halftime, however, on a 41-yard field goal by kicker Nick Folk.

The Jets took the lead early in the third quarter after a drive was kept alive on a roughing the passer penalty on Simmons.

Instead of the Jets punting, they capped a 70-yard drive off with a 30-yard touchdown pass from Rodgers to running back Breece Hall to take a 14-10 lead at the 12:08 mark of the third quarter.

Then came another special teams mistake – Ryan Stonehouse had another punt blocked – and that set the Jets up for more points, as they cashed it in for a Greg Zuerlein field goal to take a 17-10 lead at the 5:58 mark of the third quarter.

The Titans struck back in a hurry, scoring on a deep ball – a 40-yard pass from Levis to Ridley – to make it 17-17 with 3:22 left in the third quarter.

But the Jets got it done late when it mattered, as Allen's 20-yard touchdown run capped a seven-play, 74-yard drive to make it 24-17 with just 4:31 remaining.

The Titans had a first-and-goal at the 10 in the final minute, but they were unable to score.

In the locker room after the game, players talked about another one that got away.

"We lost, man," Ridley said. "I don't want to lose, I want to win the game and go home and chill, and be happy. But we have to go back to work and figure it out. I think we're getting close, though. I'm upset, but I think we're getting close."

The Titans return to action next Sunday at Nissan Stadium against the Green Bay Packers.

NASHVILLE – The rough start to the 2024 season continued on Sunday for the Tennessee Titans.

The Titans lost 30-14 to the Green Bay Packers before a sun-baked crowd at Nissan Stadium.

With the loss, the Titans dropped to 0-3.

"At the end of the day, I have not done a good enough job," Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "We're an 0 and 3 football team, and I'm an 0 and 3 head coach. It's embarrassing and disappointing. I have to be a lot better than I've been. This is frustrating and unfortunate, and not what I thought we were capable of to start the season."

Quarterback Will Levis completed 26 of 34 passes for 260 yards and two touchdowns in the contest, but he was intercepted twice (one INT was returned for a touchdown) and he also fumbled while being sacked. Levis was under consistent pressure when he dropped back to throw it, and he was sacked eight times in the contest.

"It's a great defense," Levis said of the Packers, "but we definitely didn't do our job on offense to the best of our ability."

"I'm this team's quarterback, and every time we take the field and succeed or we're defeated, I feel like it's on me. I am a big part of that and I know that and I have to make sure I bring my A game every Sunday to not put our team in tough spots like I know that I have in these few games, turning the ball over. It's tough. ... I'm the quarterback of an 0 and 3 football team and that's not something anybody wants to say."

On this day, however, Tennessee's No.1 ranked defense also couldn't get stops when the team needed it.

Malik Willis started at quarterback for the Packers, and they started fast.

The Titans didn't tackle well, and they didn't make any game-changing plays as Green Bay controlled the ball, and the game. The Packers racked up 378 yards of offense compared to just 237 for the Titans.

"We have to be better," safety Quandre Diggs. "We didn't play well today."

The Packers jumped ahead 7-0 on a five-yard touchdown run by Willis, which capped a long drive on their opening series.

But the Titans answered back quickly, as Levis guided a 10-play, 70-yard drive and capped it off with a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Nick Vannett.

The rest of the day, however, was mostly filled with frustration.

The Packers jumped back ahead 10-7 on a 21-yard field goal by kicker Brayden Narveson, before making it 17-7 on a 35-yard interception return by Packers cornerback Jaire Alexander late in the first quarter.

A 26-yard field goal by Narveson on the final play of the first half gave the Packers a 20-7 lead at halftime.

The Packers extended their lead to 27-7 on a 30-yard touchdown pass from Willis to Emanuel Wilson with 8:25 left in the third quarter.

The Titans showed some life midway through the third quarter on a seven-play, 68-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Levis to receiver DeAndre Hopkins with 4:55 left in third.

But the Titans couldn't sustain drives or stage a rally in the fourth quarter, and the Packers extended their lead to 30-14 with 3:29 left on a 47-yard field goal by Narveson.

The Titans return to action next Monday night at the Miami Dolphins.

"It's a grown man's league," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said. "Nobody is going to come save us. At the end of the day, we have to man up. It don't stop. We have to play a game on Monday night, and I'm sure they're going to try and embarrass us on Monday night."

TITANS SCRATCH OUT 31-12 VICTORY OVER THE DOLPHINS IN BRIAN CALLAHAN'S FIRST WIN AS HEAD COACH

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
SEPTEMBER 30, 2024

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. – Just win, baby.

It might not have been pretty, but the first win of the season sure felt like a beauty for the Tennessee Titans – a 31-12 victory over the Miami Dolphins.

It was also the first win of the Brian Callahan era.

Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk presented Callahan with a game ball in the celebratory locker room after the contest.

"I don't know if I can put it into words for you," Callahan said of the feeling. "It feels great, most importantly because our guys deserve it. These guys work hard, and they practice hard, and they do everything right. They deserve to win.

"It's good to see some smiles, and some energy. I thought we played a really good game tonight."

The Titans are now 1-3 heading into the bye weekend.

Titans quarterback Will Levis started the contest, but he didn't finish it.

Back-up quarterback Mason Rudolph replaced Levis after he suffered a shoulder injury in the first quarter while diving head-first on a third down run.

Rudolph guided the Titans the rest of the way, and the team did enough on offense to win it.

"It always feels great to win," said Rudolph, who completed 9-of-17 passes for 85 yards in the contest. "It feels great to win to get Cally his first, a big one. It's always good to celebrate in the locker room, and for a coach's first win, that's big time. ... I thought we ran the ball really well – I didn't do a whole lot."

Callahan said after the game Levis will undergo tests. He said if Levis is healthy, he'll be the team's quarterback moving forward.

Kicker Nick Folk provided all the offense in the first half, with three field goals. Folk added his fourth and fifth field goals of the night in the second half to give him five field goals for the night, matching a career high.

Tennessee's defense was suffocating throughout, getting one stop after another. The Dolphins managed just 13 first downs and 184 yards of offense in the contest as the Titans swarmed to the football.

Offensively, the Titans ran the ball for 142 yards, with Tony Pollard leading the way with 88 yards and a touchdown.

Pollard's late touchdown gave the Titans 30 points in a game for the first time in a long time.

"Coach said it had been like 1,000 days," Pollard said with a smile. "It's great, especially going into a bye week. It's huge for us to take that momentum and carry us into next week."

The two teams played a scoreless first quarter, with each team committing a turnover.

It was perhaps a sign of things to come on a pretty sloppy night of football.

In the end, the Titans proved to be more resilient, and better.

Levis was intercepted on Tennessee's opening drive by Dolphins linebacker Emmanuel Ogbah.

On Miami's possession, however, edge rusher Arden Key jumped on a lateral, which gave the Titans the ball back.

The Titans took a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter on a 53-yard field goal by Folk, a drive that was finished by Rudolph.

The Titans came up with a big defensive stop on Miami's next possession, and cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr., linebacker Kenneth Murray and safety Quandre Diggs all contributed to a stop of Tyreek Hill on a fourth-and-one run.

The stop led to another long field goal by Folk, this one from 52 yards, and the Titans took a 6-0 lead at the 8:20 mark of the second quarter.

The Dolphins cut the lead to 6-3 on a 44-yard field goal by kicker Jason Sanders with 4:13 left in the second quarter.

The Titans stretched the lead before halftime with some great execution in the final seconds of the half. After getting the ball at their own 44-yard line with 16 seconds and no time outs, Rudolph completed a 26-yard pass to receiver Tyler Boyd, and Rudolph and the offense ran down the field in time to spike it with one second left.

That's when Folk came on to kick his third field goal of the night, this one from 47 yards, and the Titans led 9-3 at the half.

The Dolphins cut the lead to 9-6 on a 56-yard field goal by Sanders with 9:02 left in the third quarter.

The Titans finally busted through for a touchdown midway through the third quarter.

Following a 41-yard run by Pollard, running back Tyjae Spears lined up in the Wildcat, took the direct snap, and then he scooted in for a seven-yard touchdown run to give the Titans a 16-6 lead with six minutes left in the third quarter.

Folk added another long field goal, this time from 51 yards, to give the Titans a 19-6 lead with 36 seconds left in the third quarter.

Folk then made his fifth field goal of the night, from 29 yards, to make it 22-6 with 10:45 left.

A one-yard touchdown run by Dolphins quarterback Tyler Huntley made it 22-12 with 3:36 left, before the Titans scored on a safety in the closing minutes to make it 24-12.

A late touchdown run by Pollard made it 31-12 with 24 seconds left.

The Titans celebrated in the locker room after the game.

"Lit," is how linebacker Ernest Jones described the scene. "We were excited. It's hard to win in the National Football League, so getting a win is pretty exciting."

The Titans have a bye this coming weekend. The team will return to action on October 13 at Nissan Stadium against the Indianapolis Colts.

TITANS LOSE 20-17 TO COLTS, DROP TO 1-4

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
OCTOBER 13, 2024

NASHVILLE – The frustration continued on Sunday for the Tennessee Titans, who let another winnable game slip away.

This time, the Colts left town with a 20-17 win.

The Titans dropped to 1-4 with the loss, with road games at Buffalo and Detroit on the horizon.

"Frustrating," Coach Brian Callahan said. "I still think we're better than what our record says we are, but we also aren't making enough plays to win tight games. We have to find a way to do that, and I have to find a way to help us get there. Because right now, losing one-score games is tough.

"We're in the mix and we're fighting, and guys play hard as hell. But right now, we're not doing enough to win the games, and that is why we've only won one."

The Titans had won eight straight games after the bye week, dating back to 2016.

But that streak ended on Sunday at Nissan Stadium.

Instead of picking up momentum coming out of the bye, the Titans dug a bigger hole for themselves.

Quarterback Will Levis started the game for the Titans, and he was 16-of-27 for 95 yards and an interception in the contest.

Running back Tony Pollard ran for 93 yards on 17 carries in the contest.

But the Titans made too many mistakes, and they couldn't make plays when they desperately needed them.

Against the Colts, the Titans committed 11 penalties for 113 yards, including several big penalties at critical times.

On offense, the Titans managed just 16 first downs and 241 yards of offense.

"Across the board, we just need all of us to play at a higher level," Levis said. "I have to look internally at what I can do better, but everyone has to do the same. We know we can be better than what we put out there."

Defensively, the Titans had trouble getting off the field on third down, and they allowed the Colts to erase a pair of leads.

"We have to stop shooting ourselves in the foot," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said. "I'm tired of coming to you guys saying the same stuff every week. At the end of the day, we have to (be better). It's frustrating. It's frustrating as hell. I know how hard we work. I know we can be a good team, because we are right there. Small stuff that we are doing is not helping us."

Joe Flacco started at quarterback for the Colts, and he guided Indianapolis to a 10-play, 70-yard drive on the opening drive that ended with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Flacco to receiver Josh Downs.

But the Titans responded, as safety Amani Hooker intercepted Flacco on the next Indianapolis possession and returned it to the Colts 27.

Three plays later, Levis connected with Nick Westbrook-Ikhine on a nine-yard touchdown pass to make it 7-7 with 6:51 left in the first quarter.

The Titans then took a 10-7 lead on a 44-yard field goal by kicker Nick Folk, which capped a 15-play, 56-yard drive that featured 11 combined runs for Pollard and Tyjae Spears.

The Colts tied the game on a 26-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay with 19 seconds left before the half, and it was 10-10 at the break.

The Titans then surged back ahead, thanks to a beauty of a run by Pollard on third-and-19 from the Indianapolis 23-yard line.

Pollard took the handoff from Levis, and he made several Colts miss on the way to the end zone. His scoring run capped a 14-play, 70-play drive that took 8:41 off the clock. It made the score 17-10 Titans with 6:19 left in the third quarter.

Another field goal by Gay, this one from 22 yards, made it 17-13 with 14:57 left in the game.

The Colts then regained the lead 20-17 with 7:27 left on a 10-yard touchdown pass from Flacco to Michael Pittman, who went up high to make the catch over Titans cornerback L'Jarius Sneed.

The Titans couldn't rally.

"We still have confidence," Sneed. "We still have a long, long season ahead of us. We have to fight adversity, come in and put the work in. It's a long season."

The Titans return to action next Sunday at the Buffalo Bills.

"1-4 is bad, and 1-5, is even worse," linebacker Ernest Jones IV said. "So, you've got to figure this (expletive) out. We've got to figure out what we can do to get wins. We're right there. We're just not capitalizing, and other teams are."

TITANS LOSE 34-10 TO THE BILLS, DROP TO 1-5

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
OCTOBER 20, 2024

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. – The Titans made a quarterback change on Sunday.

Unfortunately for the Titans, the results didn't change.

A nice start evaporated into a poor finish, as the Titans lost 34-10 to the Buffalo Bills.

It dropped Tennessee's record to 1-5 on the season.

"A tale of two halves," Titans Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "Seems like the tale of our season so far. Find a way to play really well early, and we did not play really well in the second half at all, in any phase. We have to find a way to get that fixed. We went backwards on offense, we had penalties. We had a million issues, quarterback hits, all those things. Not good enough.

"Defensively, I think they scored on every possession in the second half."

After the game, there was plenty of frustration in the Titans locker room,

"Trash," is how receiver Calvin Ridley described the day. "Not good."

"The second half was (expletive), all over the place," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said. "No one wants to be 1 and 5. I think we all feel the same: Sh*tty. ... I think everybody feels the same way, from the locker room to the fans. They have a right to feel the way they feel. ... The second half of this game, it was bad. Bad football from the Tennessee Titans.

"We are in a bad situation right now. We just have to try to dig ourselves out of it."

Mason Rudolph started at quarterback for the Titans, in place of an injured Will Levis.

Levis was among the team's inactives for the contest, after lingering issues with his right shoulder persisted during the course of a practice week, when he was limited in two of the team's three sessions.

Rudolph finished the day 25-of-40 yards for 215 yards with a touchdown, and an interception. He also lost the ball on a mishandled snap.

Running back Tony Pollard carried the ball 16 times for 61 yards.

Bills quarterback Josh Allen threw for 323 yards and two touchdowns on a day when Buffalo racked up 389 yards of total offense.

Behind Rudolph, the Titans started fast, jumping ahead 10-0.

The Titans took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter, as the veteran quarterback engineered a 13-play, 61-yard drive that was capped off with a 25-yard field goal by Nick Folk.

The Titans extended the lead to 10-0 early in the second quarter on a four-yard touchdown pass from Rudolph to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, which capped an eight-play, 75-yard drive.

But the Bills answered back quickly, en route to scoring 34 consecutive points.

The Titans didn't make it much of a contest in the second half.

"We just got behind the chains a lot (in the second half)," Rudolph said. "We had penalties on first and second down, negative runs, I missed a couple of throws. Against a good team at home, you can't do that.

"We have to get it cleaned up. I don't think it's a lack of preparation, we just have to go execute. It's back to the drawing board. All you can do is work."

After a 44-yard pass from Allen to Keon Coleman put the ball at the Tennessee 11-yard line, the Bills scored on an 11-yard touchdown run by James Cook to make it 10-7 with 10:04 left in the second quarter.

Tennessee's defense, playing without cornerback L'Jarius Sneed, was solid early. After a fumbled snap by Rudolph, in fact, the defense forced its third three-and-out of the first half, which kept the Titans ahead. The Titans defense forced four three-and-outs in the first half.

Things didn't go nearly as well after the half, and that's an understatement.

The second half started in ominous fashion for the Titans, as Pollard was stuffed for a three-yard loss when the Titans went for it on 4th and 2 from their own 44-yard line.

Six plays later, the Bills took a 14-10 lead on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Allen to receiver Amari Cooper.

It was all downhill from there.

The Bills then extended their lead to 17-10 with 4:12 left in the third quarter on another field goal by Bass, this time from 28 yards.

As the Titans struggled offensively, the defense eventually gave way.

The Bills made it 24-10 on the first play of the fourth quarter on another Allen touchdown pass, this one a four-yard completion to running back Ty Johnson.

Another field goal by Bass made it 27-10 with 9:26 left in the game, before Bills running back Ray Davis scored on a 15-yard touchdown run to make it 34-10.

It was the exclamation point on a tough day.

"We're human, you're going to be frustrated," safety Quandre Diggs. "There's nothing wrong with being frustrated. You'd be frustrated if something wasn't going right for you. You have to go to work, and figure out what you've got to fix."

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Lions in Detroit.

TITANS DROP THIRD STRAIGHT, LOSE 52-14 TO LIONS

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
OCTOBER 27, 2024

DETROIT – In the Motor City, the Titans were left spinning their wheels.

Turnovers, penalties and poor play on special teams doomed the Titans in this one, a lopsided 52-14 loss to the Detroit Lions here at Ford Field.

The Titans dropped to 1-6 with their third straight loss.

"We fight, our team plays hard," Coach Brian Callahan said. "But we have to do a lot of things a lot better. Right now, it is not a product that people are excited to watch. We have to do something about that.

"We have not come anywhere close to playing football the way I think we're capable of."

There were actually some bright moments early in this one, including an early pass rush and some big plays on the offensive side of the football.

But those were hardly worth celebrating on a day when the Titans made life easy for the Lions, giving them short fields – and touchdowns – because of four turnovers, and a bunch of mistakes.

It all added up to another loss.

"Unfortunately, it's the same story – giving them some easy ones once again, putting our defense on a short field," said quarterback Mason Rudolph, who completed 22 of 38 passes for 266 yards and a touchdown in the contest, with a pair of interceptions.

"There were some good things in the first half, but none of it matters when you get your butt kicked."

Receiver Calvin Ridley had 10 catches for 143 yards.

Running back Tony Pollard had 94 yards on 20 carries.

Edge rusher Arden Key had a pair of first half sacks, and three quarterback hits.

But, for the most part, it was a day filled with frustration.

And, Lions touchdowns.

"It's the same thing every week," Key said. "We don't play complementary football. One week it might be the offense, one week it might be the defense, one week it might be special teams.

"We haven't yet played complementary football in all three phases of the game."

The game went back-and-forth early.

Rudolph, playing for the second straight week in place of an injured Will Levis, was intercepted by Lions linebacker Trevor Nowaske on the team's fourth offensive play.

Two plays later, Lions running back David Montgomery scored on a seven-yard touchdown run to give the Lions a quick 7-0 lead.

The Titans quickly answered back on offense, as Rudolph connected on a pair of big plays – throws to tight end Josh Whyle and Ridley – before capping off a 75-yard touchdown drive with an 11-yard run to make it 7-7 with 4:07 left in the first quarter.

Ten seconds later, the Lions scored on a 70-yard touchdown run by Jahmyr Gibbs to make it 14-7, which was the score after the first quarter.

The Titans then scored less than a minute into the second quarter, on a five-yard touchdown pass from Rudolph to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, which capped off a seven-play, 70-yard drive, to make it 14-14.

Things went downhill from there, as the Lions scored 38 unanswered points to close out the game.

Following a 75-yard kickoff return by Khalil Dorsey, the Lions surged back ahead 21-14 on a nine-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jared Goff to tight end Brock Wright with 12:51 left in the second quarter.

The Lions extended their lead to 28-14 on a one-yard touchdown pass from Goff to receiver Amon-Ra St. Brown, which followed another Rudolph interception that set Detroit up on the Tennessee 13-yard line.

Penalties and poor play on their coverage teams killed the Titans on this day, as two big plays (including a touchdown), were called back because of penalties.

A 64-yard punt return by Kalif Raymond set up another quick score for the Lions – a Montgomery pass to Sam LaPorta – to make it 35-14 with 2:18 left in the first half.

The Titans had a chance to cut the lead at the end of the first half, but four straight incompletions from the one-yard line ended a great scoring opportunity.

The Titans trailed the Lions 35-14 at the half despite outgaining them 285 to 133 in total yards. The Titans committed seven penalties for 55 yards in the first half.

Things got worse in the second half.

The Lions made it 42-14 in the third quarter on a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown by Raymond.

A seven-yard pass from Goff to Raymond, which followed a lost fumble by Ridley, made it 49-14 with 6:12 left in the third quarter.

A 51-yard field goal by kicker Jake Bates made it 52-14 Lions with 1:08 left in the third quarter.

The Titans actually outgained the Lions 416 to 225 in total yards, but they couldn't overcome their mistakes. The Lions racked up 262 return yards, including 190 on five punt returns by Raymond, a former Titan.

"We came here, and tried to turn the season around, and get better," Ridley said. "This, this is not good."

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Patriots at Nissan Stadium.

GAME RECAP: TITANS FIND A WAY, WIN 20-17 OVER THE PATRIOTS IN OVERTIME

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
NOVEMBER 3, 2024

NASHVILLE – The Titans found a way.

A season marred with so much frustration got a dose of enjoyment – and relief – on Sunday at Nissan Stadium, as the Titans beat the Patriots 20-17 in overtime.

The game featured a wild finish.

A six-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mason Rudolph to receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine gave the Titans a 17-10 lead with 4:27 left in the fourth quarter.

But the Patriots then tied the game at 17-17 on the final play of the fourth quarter on a five-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Drake Maye to running back Rhamondre Stevenson.

It forced overtime.

That's when kicker Nick Folk hit a 25-yarder with 2:32 left in overtime.

Safety Amani Hooker then intercepted Maye to seal it, and Titans fans, players and coaches, all had a chance to celebrate.

In the process, the Titans snapped a three-game losing streak, and improved to 2-6 on the season.

On Sunday, Rudolph once again started for the Titans, in place of an injured Will Levis.

The Titans started well in this one.

Rudolph guided an eight-play, 75-yard drive on the team's opening possession, capping it off with a nine-yard touchdown pass to tight end Nick Vannett to give the Titans a 7-0 lead.

The Titans had a great chance to extend their lead in the second quarter after an interception by safety Amani Hooker gave Tennessee the ball at the New England 40-yard line.

But after the Titans drove the ball to the Patriots 3, a Rudolph pass went off the hands of tight end Chig Okonkwo as he approached the goal line, and it was intercepted by Patriots linebacker Jahlani Tavai in the end zone.

On their next possession, the Patriots cut the lead to 7-3 on a 52-yard field goal by kicker Joey Slye.

The Titans sputtered on offense the rest of the half, unable to take advantage of good field position on a number of drives.

At the start of the second half, the Patriots took their first lead of the day.

A one-yard touchdown run by Stevenson capped off a 12-play, 70-yard drive and gave New England a 10-7 lead at the 7:39 mark of the third quarter.

The Titans appeared to get a third down stop on the drive, but a facemask penalty on Titans cornerback Roger McCreary gave New England a first-and-goal, and they cashed it in for points.

The Titans answered back with a long scoring drive of their own, and kicker Nick Folk capped it off with a 21-yard field goal, to make it 10-10 with 34 seconds left in the third quarter. Nick Westbrook-Ikhine and Tyler Boyd made key third down catches on the 14-play, 67-yard drive, which eventually stalled at the New England three-yard line.

It was 10-10 at the end of the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, the Titans got a big play on defense.

Edge rusher Arden Key sacked Maye, and knocked the ball loose in the process. Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmonds then jumped on the fumble, at the New England 26-yard line.

Five plays later, Rudolph found Westbrook-Ikhine for the score.

But the Patriots scored on the final play of regulation to force overtime, part of a wild finish.

The Titans return to action next Sunday at the Los Angeles Chargers.

GAME RECAP: TITANS LOSE 27-17 TO CHARGERS, DROP TO 2-7

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
NOVEMBER 10, 2024

INGLEWOOD, Calif. – One play, or call, stood out more than others in this one.

It took what was initially ruled a Titans touchdown off the scoreboard, and it halted potential momentum.

But it didn't keep the Titans from making more plays in the game, and the lack of plays once again proved to be the team's biggest downfall in a 27-17 loss to the Los Angeles Chargers.

With the loss, the Titans dropped to 2-7.

"Tip of the cap to them – they played well, they were the more physical team today," Coach Brian Callahan said. "And, in a low possession game, we need to score touchdowns, and we didn't (score enough). We gave up too many sacks ...and had too many negatives plays in the second half.

"Guys played hard, we still kept fighting. But at the end of the day, we didn't have enough complementary football, and we didn't play well enough."

Titans quarterback Will Levis returned to action after missing the previous three games with a right shoulder injury, and he completed 18-of-23 passes for 175 yards and two touchdowns, but he was sacked seven times.

"I'm going to look at myself and what I could have done better," Levis said. "In the second half, personally for me, there were a couple of situations where I could have gotten the ball out earlier and helped the line with pressure. ... I have to continue to learn in that area."

Receiver Calvin Ridley caught five passes for 84 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

The Titans were outgained just 309 to 289 in total yards, but they hurt themselves with nine penalties for 68 yards. And, they didn't register one quarterback sack of their own.

"We're just not consistent enough," Ridley said. "It's been the same thing all year. It's the way the things have been going. We have to be more consistent to win games."

After a nice start on Sunday, the Titans couldn't finish.

The Chargers took a 3-0 lead on a 21-yard field goal by kicker Cameron Dicker.

But the Titans quickly answered back, scoring on a 42-yard touchdown strike from Levis to Ridley, which capped a seven-play, 72-yard drive on the team's opening possession.

After a long Chargers drive, the Titans defense stiffened up again the second quarter, holding the Chargers to another field goal, this one from 37 yards out by Dicker, to make it 7-6.

The Titans had a chance to extend their lead in the second quarter, but a missed field goal from 49 yards out by Nick Folk kept the score at 7-6 with 6:19 left in the quarter.

The Chargers then took a 13-7 lead on a four-yard touchdown run by quarterback Justin Herbert, who scrambled for the score on a fourth-and-one play.

Then, the biggest play of the game took place in the closing seconds of the first half.

That's when Titans defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons hit Herbert just as he was throwing the football. The ball was knocked out of Herbert's right hand, and it went forward, where Titans cornerback Roger McCreary picked it up and returned it for an apparent touchdown. Officials, in fact, ruled it a touchdown on the field, making it 13-13, pending the PAT.

"I felt like it was a fumble," McCreary said. "Everybody was excited. We thought it was a touchdown."

But after replay, the call was overturned, and it was ruled an incomplete pass.

Heading into halftime, Callahan let officials hear about it on the way off the field.

"I thought it was going to stand on the field," Callahan said. "They initially told me it was going to stand, and then they took another look at it as I walked away. And then as I came back, they told me it was going to be overturned. And that was all the explanation that I got.

"I'll let you guys decide what you think the call should've been. I don't want to lose any money."

On their opening drive of the second half, the Titans cut the lead to 13-10 on a 27-yard field goal by Folk, which capped an 11-play, 62-yard drive.

But after allowing a 56-yard kickoff return, the Chargers stretched the lead to 20-10 on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Herbert to Quentin Johnson, which capped off a short 43-yard drive.

It seemed to be a deflating turn of events.

The Chargers then made it 27-10 on a one-yard touchdown run by Hassan Haskins in the fourth quarter.

Levis connected with Ridley for another touchdown, from 15 yards, with just 49 seconds left to make it 27-17.

But it was too little, too late.

"This is the NFL, and my message to the guys is: Say less, and do more," Simmons said. "We have to stop talking, including myself, and we have to say less and do more."

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Vikings at Nissan Stadium.

GAME RECAP: TITANS LOSE 23-13 TO VIKINGS, DROP TO 2-8

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
NOVEMBER 17, 2024

NASHVILLE – Frustration was on full display on Sunday at Nissan Stadium.

Along with not enough points, once again, for the Tennessee Titans.

On a day when one Titans touchdown was taken off the scoreboard, and another Vikings touchdown was highly debated because of a controversial call, the Titans fell 23-13 to the Vikings.

It left head coach Brian Callahan steaming, and Titans fans disappointed yet again.

"(Players) have every right to be frustrated, and they should be," Callahan said. "Our guys played hard, and they fought the entire game, and kept trying to climb back into it and make plays, and we made quite a few. But we didn't have enough to overcome it and find a way to get into the end zone another time or two. We're disappointed about that part."

With the loss, the Titans dropped to 2-8.

Titans quarterback Will Levis completed 17-of-31 passes for 295 yards with a touchdown and an interception, but he was sacked five times in the contest.

The Titans were flagged 13 times for 91 yards in the contest, and some of them came at inopportune times.

Some were earned, without question.

And, a few questionable ones changed the course of the game.

The Vikings, meanwhile, were penalized just three times for 35 yards in the contest.

"Coach made the comment: Just try to limit your comments, because it's not going to help us at all," Levis said. "We just have to focus on what we can. We feel like everyone in the building is doing the right thing, and is coming to work preparing, and guys are playing their hearts out. At some point or another, things are going to shake in our favor, we feel like. It just hasn't been that way. All you can do is keep putting one foot in front of the other."

This much is not up for debate: This Titans team has been on the wrong end of some controversial calls in back-to-back weeks, and it's made things harder for a team already struggling to find success.

"It's tough," receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine said. "But it's part of life. There are things that you can't control, that don't go your way, and you just have to keep rolling, and keep punching, and stay resilient.

"It's how this game is – there's going to be error in it, there's going to be human error. It's not the ref's fault, sometimes it's not their fault, and sometimes it's not our fault. It's just how the game is."

The Titans took a 3-0 lead with 4:39 left in the first quarter on a 30-yard field goal by kicker Nick Folk, which was set up by a fumble recovery by defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons.

The Vikings answered back quickly, however, on a 47-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sam Darnold to receiver Jordan Addison, which made it 7-3 barely a minute later.

Controversy marred the second quarter, when the Titans were flagged for a highly questionable unnecessary roughness penalty in the end zone on a fourth-and-goal play from the Vikings one-yard line. It happened on a Darnold pass intended for Addison, and Titans safety Mike Brown appeared to break the pass up with a clean, legal hit to the chest of Addison, which dislodged the football.

Callahan erupted on the sideline, and he stormed on the field to let officials know his disapproval. To add insult, he was slapped with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty.

It didn't matter.

Instead of a Titans stop, the flag gave the Vikings a first-and-goal at the Tennessee 1, and they cashed it on for a one-yard sneak by Darnold on the next play to make it 13-3.

In a pool report after the game, referee Clete Blakeman offered this explanation on the call: "We had two officials call it. Essentially, the defensive player launched into the receiver – who is considered a defenseless player – and there was helmet contact to the chest and neck area."

The Vikings led 16-3 at the half after a 40-yard field goal by Vikings kicker Parker Romo.

The Titans got back in it in a flash, with a 98-yard touchdown strike from Levis to Westbrook-Ikhine, which made it 16-10 with 6:55 left in the third quarter. The play tied for longest reception in franchise history, and it was the second-longest play of any kind in franchise history, trailing only Derrick Henry's memorable 99-yard touchdown run vs the Jaguars.

But the excitement over the play was short-lived, as more frustration for the Titans, and their fans, mounted after cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr. was flagged for illegal contact on a third-down play, which kept a Minnesota drive alive.

The Vikings cashed that in for another score – a three-yard touchdown pass from Darnold to running back Cam Akers – to make it 23-10 with 3:15 left in the third quarter.

After a Levis-to-Calvin Ridley touchdown pass was wiped off the board because of an illegal formation penalty, a 43-yard field goal by Folk later made it 23-13 with 14:08 left in the fourth quarter.

But the Titans could get no closer.

"I think there was really good fight throughout the whole game," guard Peter Skoronski said. "We were just killing ourselves. At the end of the day, that's why we lost."

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Texans in Houston.

GAME RECAP: "JUST THE TITANS" STRIKE OIL, TAKE BACK HOUSTON WITH A 32-27 WIN OVER THE TEXANS

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
NOVEMBER 24, 2024

HOUSTON – Talk about striking oil.

"Just the Titans" came to Houston and beat the Texans at NRG Stadium on Sunday, turning H-Town into T-Town in the process.

Tennessee's 32-27 win over the Texans was the team's fifth win in the past six games in Houston.

Titans fans, some of them decked out in Oilers gear, celebrated as Texans fans headed to the exits.

In the locker room after the game, owner Amy Adams Strunk was presented a game ball.

"It feels good, not just for us, but for Miss Amy," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said after the game. "Just to see her in this locker room with tears in her eyes, how much this means to her. That's the reason why, especially myself, go out and give it my all. We had a mindset to let this game mean a little more, and play for our owner. This was for her."

In what's been a frustrating season, this was a nice highlight.

Yes, the Titans are 3-8.

But on this day, it was fun to celebrate.

In Houston.

"Our coach gave us a speech this week, about how much this meant to (Amy) and her family," cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr. said. "He told us the history. So, this game was a little more personal because of the rivalry, and because of Miss Amy as well. We just wanted to come out here and give it our all for Amy, and the city of Nashville."

Titans quarterback Will Levis completed 18-of-24 passes for 278 yards and two touchdowns, with an interception that was returned for a touchdown. He was sacked eight times in the contest.

Running back Tony Pollard ran for 119 yards on 24 carries, with a touchdown. Calvin Ridley led the team with 93 receiving yards, and Nick Westbrook-Ikhine scored another touchdown.

Kicker Nick Folk made field goals from 51, 51 and 56 yards.

Defensively, the Titans held Texans running back Joe Mixon to just 22 yards on 14 carries, and they intercepted Texans quarterback C.J. Stroud twice.

In the end, the Titans survived some of their own mistakes to win it.

"The coolest part of the whole game was how this team fought," Coach Brian Callahan said. "Our guys did a nice job of not flinching, and keeping the blinders down. It was just great to see how our guys fought, and finally we have a chance to have something to show for it, and that's what I'm most happy about."

It was an ominous start for the Titans.

Texans returner Dameon Pierce returned the opening kickoff 80 yards to the Titans 19-yard line, and Stroud connected with tight end Cade Stover for a touchdown on Houston's first offensive play to make it 7-0 just 18 seconds left in the contest.

But the Titans responded with three consecutive scores of their own, starting with a 51-yard field goal by Folk, which made it 7-3 with 11:15 left in the first quarter.

After a defensive stop, Levis then executed a beautiful, 10-play, 89-yard touchdown drive that he capped off with a 38-yard touchdown pass to Westbrook-Ikhine, which made it 10-7.

When the Titans got the ball back after another defensive stop, on their own five-yard line, Levis guided the Titans 95 yards on six plays. A 63-yard pass to Ridley jumpstarted the drive, and a 10-yard touchdown run by Pollard capped it off to make it 17-7 with 11:03 left in the second quarter.

The Texans cut the lead to 17-14 on a five-yard touchdown pass from Stroud to Nico Collins with 6:17 left in the second quarter.

Following a critical fumble on a botched exchange from Levis to Pollard, the Texans tied the game on a field goal by Ka'imi Fairbairn to make it 17-17 with 3:24 left before halftime.

The Titans kept swinging.

And, after an interception by Brownlee Jr., Folk nailed a 56-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to give the Titans a 20-17 lead at the break.

Levis was 11-of-12 for 177 yards and a touchdown at the half, but he was sacked seven times.

The Titans got more points on a Folk field goal to start the second half. It was another 51-yarder by Folk, this one capping an 11-play, 41-yard drive, to give the Titans a 23-17 lead at the 9:08 mark of the third quarter.

After Titans linebacker Kenneth Murray intercepted Stroud in Houston territory, it looked like the Titans might take control of the game.

But disaster struck not long after, as Levis was intercepted by Texans safety Jimmie Ward, and he returned it 65 yards for a touchdown to give Houston a 24-23 lead after three quarters.

Another special teams faux pas – a fumble by returner Jha'Quan Jackson – served up another short field for the Texans, giving them the ball at the Tennessee 43.

The Texans cashed that in for three more points on another Fairbairn field goal, this one from 54 yards, to take a 27-23 lead with 9:46 remaining in the game.

But the Titans got off the mat, in grand fashion.

Tight end Chig Okonkwo caught a short pass from Levis, and he turned it into 70-yard touchdown by outracing a host of Texans defenders to the end zone to make it 30-27 with 9:35 left.

Fairbairn missed a short field goal late that would have tied it.

Simmons then had a critical sack late, before Titans edge Harold Landry recorded a safety in the closing moments to seal the win.

And, the Titans celebrated in Houston, once again.

The Titans return to action next Sunday at the Washington Commanders.

"It feels awesome," Levis said. "A lot of people have been working hard to get a win like this, and (I'm) just happy from top down, the whole organization. It was good to come here and get a win."

GAME RECAP: TITANS FALL BEHIND BIG EARLY, CAN'T RALLY IN 42-19 LOSS TO COMMANDERS

BY JIM WYATT

DECEMBER 1, 2024

LANDOVER, Md. – The Titans dug a big hole for themselves here on Sunday.

They weren't able to climb out.

The team's discouraging 42-19 loss to the Commanders included a disastrous start, and a brief comeback that ultimately fizzled out.

It also included a lot of bad football.

"All the way around, nothing was good enough today," Coach Brian Callahan said. "That was tough to watch, to start the game. ... Just too many negative things, all the way around. We have to do a lot of things better if we want to beat good teams on the road, and that wasn't it."

In the process, the Titans dropped to 3-9 on the season.

The defeat came one week after what many believed could be a momentum-building win in Houston.

"It's crushing, to be honest," Callahan said. "I didn't think we were going to look like that today. I'm disappointed in that. I'm disappointed in myself. I thought we were making some strides, and we'd come play really good against a good football team on the road again, and we didn't do that."

Fumbles, penalties and overall shoddy play on both sides of the football contributed to the poor start for the Titans.

The Titans tried to make it a contest in the second half, but they couldn't do enough.

On a day when the offense had trouble finishing in the end zone, the defense couldn't get stops.

"We were hungover from our success last week, and that showed in the first half," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said. "The signs of it started in the first half. We saw that. We were flat, we were turning over the ball, we couldn't stop anything they were doing. From top to bottom, we had no answers.

"At the end of the day, we have to be able to handle success."

Titans quarterback Will Levis connected with receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a pair of touchdown passes in the contest, but on this day, the highlights were few and far between for Tennessee.

Levis completed 18-of-37 passes for 212 yards and two touchdowns in the contest.

Defensively, the Titans allowed the Commanders to rack up 463 yards of offense, and 29 first downs. The Commanders ran for 267 yards, including 103 from running back Brian Robinson.

The Titans turned the ball over twice, and they were penalized 12 times for 93 yards.

"We just have to keep going, that's all we can do," Levis said. "We just keep finding different ways to shoot ourselves in the foot. It's hard to come back starting out like that, and expect to get going."

It was really ugly early, as the Commanders jumped out to a 21-0 lead over Titans after one quarter of play.

After a three-and-out on their opening possession that featured a pair of false starts, the Commanders scored quickly on their opening possession, as Robinson sprinted in for a 40-yard touchdown just 3:02 into the first quarter to make it 7-0.

After another three-and-out by the Titans offense, the Commanders surged ahead on a three-yard touchdown run by quarterback Jayden Daniels, who ended up throwing for 206 yards and three touchdowns in the game.

Following a fumble by Titans running back Tony Pollard, the Commanders made it 21-0 on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Daniels to receiver Terry McLaurin.

Titans returner Jha'Quan Jackson then fumbled the ensuing kickoff, and it was recovered by the Commanders, who made it 28-0 at the 10:59 mark of the second quarter on another Daniels to McLaurin touchdown pass, this one from four yards out.

The Titans got on the board with 23 seconds left before halftime on a 27-yard touchdown pass from Levis to Westbrook-Ikhine, which capped a nine-play, 64-yard drive, to make it 28-7 at the half.

The Titans tried to rally in the third quarter, but some missed opportunities in the red zone spoiled the effort, as the team settled for field goals instead of touchdowns.

A 41-yard field goal by kicker Nick Folk cut the lead to 28-10 with 8:41 left in the third quarter.

The Titans then got a little closer on a 44-yard field goal by Folk, which made it 28-13 with 3:40 left in the third quarter.

But the Commanders surged back ahead 35-13 on a four-yard touchdown pass from Daniels to tight end Zach Ertz with 14:15 remaining.

The second touchdown pass from Levis to Westbrook-Ikhine, this one from 17 yards out with 7:07 remaining in the game, made it 35-19, before a seven-yard touchdown run by Commanders running back Chris Rodriguez with 3:31 left made it 42-19.

And, in the end, the mistakes from earlier in the game proved to be too much to overcome.

"I feel like we knew the formula," Westbrook-Ikhine said. "We just didn't start fast enough. We started way too late. ... This is not what we expected, but we still have a lot in front of us, a lot of division games in front of us. It sucks, getting beat. We started way too late, and it's not a testament to who we are as a team."

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Jaguars at Nissan Stadium.

GAME RECAP: TITANS LOSE 10-6 TO JAGUARS, FALL TO 3-10

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
DECEMBER 8, 2024

NASHVILLE – The Titans let a winnable game slip away on Sunday.

On a gray day at Nissan Stadium, the Titans lost 10-6 to the Jaguars.

"Disappointed in the outcome," Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "(Guys) played their ass off, and they did everything in a lot of areas that was asked of them. But we didn't score enough points. At the end of the day, we didn't do enough to win."

With the loss, the Titans dropped to 3-10.

The defense stood strong most of the day, but it couldn't get a stop when it was needed most.

Offensively, the Titans couldn't finish in the red zone on a day when Titans quarterback Will Levis showed some toughness, returning to the contest after re-injuring his right shoulder after taking a big hit on the final play of the first half.

Levis finished the day 19-of-32 for 168 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions.

Running back Tony Pollard ran for 102 yards for the Titans.

But there were very few highlights on what had to be considered an overall miserable day.

"It sucks," Levis said. "We have to be better in the red zone. I feel like I played one of my cleanest games all year, except for two plays where we could have scored on both of them."

"I'm getting tired of saying the same (expletive)," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said. "We're not doing enough to win games. ... It's frustrating. At the end of the day, I'm tired of saying we have to do better, play better. I don't have any answers."

The Titans took a 3-0 lead on a 46-yard field goal by kicker Nick Folk, which capped a drive that featured nine runs on 10 offensive plays.

Cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, activated from Injured Reserve on Saturday, intercepted Jaguars quarterback Mac Jones on the ensuing possession.

The rest of the first half was a struggle for both teams, however, and it included a big missed opportunity for the Titans, who drove the ball to the Jacksonville two-yard line midway through the second quarter, but failed to score after having a first and goal at the four-yard line.

Titans linebacker Otis Reese intercepted Jones late in the first half, ending Jacksonville's best drive of the day.

Levis was sacked on the final play of the half, however, and he went to the tunnel holding his right shoulder.

It was 3-0 Titans at the half.

After some warm-up tosses coming out of halftime, Levis stayed in the game. His return was announced as questionable with the right shoulder injury, but he didn't miss a snap.

The Titans extended their lead to 6-0 with 4:30 remaining in the third quarter on a 39-yard field goal by Folk, which capped an 11-play, 45-yard drive.

Things unraveled in the fourth quarter, however.

The Jaguars cut the lead to 6-3 on a 23-yard field goal by kicker Cam Little with 12:09 left.

The Jaguars then took the lead for the first time on an eight-yard touchdown run by Tank Bigsby, which made it 10-6 with 6:46 left.

The Titans couldn't rally, despite reaching the Jacksonville nine-yard line late.

"Not figuring out how to win the game is extremely discouraging," receiver Calvin Ridley said. "We worked all week, had a good game plan, and we're supposed to win the game."

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Cincinnati Bengals.

GAME RECAP: MISTAKE-PRONE TITANS LOSE 37-27 TO BENGALS, DROP TO 3-11

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
DECEMBER 15, 2024

NASHVILLE – There was some excitement early at Nissan Stadium.

The Titans scored touchdowns, a big man on defense delighted the crowd with some nifty moves, and a running back did some crowd surfing into the end zone.

But things unraveled in an ugly way on Sunday against the Bengals in a 37-27 loss, thanks in large part to turnovers and mistakes.

Titans quarterback Will Levis threw three interceptions, and he also lost the ball on a fumble in the game.

Levis also lost his job mid-game, as he was replaced by quarterback Mason Rudolph in the third quarter.

"A series of unfortunate events," Levis said after the game. "Four of those last five possessions, like the turnovers, you're rarely not going to get pulled when you turn the ball over four times. So, I mean, I understand that. I got to watch the tape and see how it all went down. I kind of already know how a couple of them happened, and the last one was definitely the most disappointing just because it's a look that I was ready for and that I was ready to launch, and the guy made a good play. And yeah, it sucks. It wasn't my day."

The Titans turned the ball over six times in the contest, on four interceptions and two fumbles. The Titans also committed 12 penalties for 110 yards in the game.

It all added up to another loss, and the Titans dropped to 3-11.

After the game, coach Brian Callahan was asked plenty of questions about Levis, and whether he'll still be the team's starter moving forward.

"I think we'll get through today," Callahan said. "I'm not going to make any definitive statements one way or the other. We just have to make sure we can correct what we saw on tape and where we had a tough day for him. And again, sometimes these things happen where you have a rough day, and you got to get sat down. So, I'm not going to make any statements about it. And we got to see where we can get better and how it worked in the game and where we can improve."

Levis finished the day 8-of-12 for 89 yards with three interceptions, and a 49.0 rating.

Rudolph completed 21-of-26 passes for 209 yards and two touchdowns, with an interception, and a rating of 109.8 in relief.

"They told me that I was going in," Rudolph said. "Mindset is to try to get some points on the board and cut the lead. Proud of way the guys fought, proud that we got some points on, but I threw a red zone pick that hurt us and I'd love to have that one back.

"I've been benched and it's no fun," Rudolph continued. "But I think looking back, you can use it to—you can learn from it. And I think it hardens you as a man and as a human being and it is all about how you how you respond, and I know he'll respond well."

The Titans showed some spunk early, scoring touchdowns on their first two possessions.

But the defense had trouble slowing down the Bengals all day, as quarterback Joe Burrow threw for 271 yards and three touchdowns.

"It's tough," Titans edge rusher Arden Key said. "We've got a lot of guys who care about the game, care about their last name, care about what people say about us."

Things started off on a positive note for the Titans.

After linebacker Luke Gifford intercepted Burrow on the second play of the game, the Titans cashed it in for a touchdown.

Running back Tony Pollard capped a quick, six-play, 29-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run to make it 7-0 at the 10:52 mark of the first quarter.

The Bengals tied it up less than four minutes later, however, on a six-yard touchdown pass from Burrow to running back Chase Brown, which made it 7-7.

The Titans then answered back quickly themselves, as running back Tyjae Spears scored on a one-yard touchdown run less than three minutes later to make it 14-7. Spears was lifted high into the end zone, on the arms and shoulder pads of players, and the score capped a five-play, 70-yard drive that was highlighted by a 40-yard catch and run by receiver Tyler Boyd.

The Titans then made a big play on defense.

With the Bengals on the Tennessee nine-yard line, Titans edge Harold Landry forced Burrow to fumble, and Titans defensive lineman T'Vondre Sweat picked it up and ran it 30 yards before being pushed out of bounds.

The play electrified the crowd, and the Titans had early momentum.

But a fumble by Levis ended the possession, and it gave the Bengals the ball back.

The Bengals made it 14-14 on a two-yard touchdown pass from Burrow to Sam Hubbard with 5:13 left in the first half.

Things went downhill from there.

After an interception thrown by Levis, the Bengals made it 21-14 on a 38-yard touchdown pass from Burrow to receiver Tee Higgins.

On the team's next possession, Levis was intercepted again, his third turnover of the first half.

The Bengals cashed that in for three more points, on a 21-yard Cade York field goal, to make it 24-14 at the half.

After the Titans went three-and-out on their first possession of the second half, Titans safety Daryl Worley intercepted Burrow at the Tennessee three-yard line when the Bengals got the ball.

But the game came off the rails on Tennessee's next possession, as Levis was intercepted for the third time in the game. This one, by safety Geno Stone, was returned for a touchdown to make it 31-14 with 7:24 left in the third quarter.

Rudolph replaced Levis on the next possession, and the move was greeted with applause from many in the crowd at Nissan Stadium.

The Titans dodged a bullet late in the third quarter when Bengals safety Jordan Battle lost control of the football on the way into the end zone after picking up a fumble and racing to the Tennessee one, and it resulted in a touchback.

Rudolph was intercepted in the fourth quarter, which was the team's six turnovers in seven possessions.

The Titans cut the lead to 31-21 with 6:50 left on a 17-yard touchdown pass from Rudolph to Spears, which capped an eight-play, 87-yard drive.

The Bengals added a late touchdown by Chase Brown before Rudolph connected with tight end Josh Whyle for a 13-yard touchdown pass on the final play of the game to account for the final margin.

"I thought it was going to be back and forth the whole game and we were going to have to do a good job," Callahan said. "And ultimately, against a team like that, you just can't turn it over. And that's where it got away from us. But I was confident our game plan, I was confident in how these guys played and came out ready to play and ultimately gave them too many chances and a team with a quarterback like that, you give them too many chances, they capitalize."

The Titans return to action next Sunday in Indianapolis against the Colts.

GAME RECAP: TITANS LOSE 38-30 TO COLTS, DROP TO 3-12

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
DECEMBER 22, 2024

INDIANAPOLIS – The Titans changed quarterbacks on Sunday.

It didn't change their fortune.

A decent start evaporated into a disappointing finish here against the Colts, a game that ended in a 38-30 loss at Lucas Oil Stadium.

"Guys fought, kept swinging at it," Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "I appreciate the effort and the fight. Ultimately, it wasn't enough. There were too many things we didn't do well enough all the way around, myself included.

"I'm disappointed all the way around, with the final outcome."

After the Titans jumped ahead by an early touchdown, The Colts scored 38 consecutive points from the second quarter to the third quarter to take control of the game.

The Titans added 23 consecutive points on three scores of their own to make it interesting late, but it wasn't enough.

In the process, the Titans dropped to 3-12.

"I would hope this bothers everybody in this locker room," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said after the game. "Being 3 and 12, I didn't expect this. Coming out of camp, I felt like we had a great camp. I didn't expect this.

"... Right now, we are building for next year. If I see guys want to quit, I don't want to be your teammate. The way we fought at the end of the game ... we had a chance to win the game. It's tough, but we have to keep fighting and finish this season strong."

Mason Rudolph started at quarterback for the Titans, and he looked sharp early, completing his first eight passes, including a 38-yard touchdown pass to receiver Calvin Ridley to give the team a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

The Titans looked like they might extend the lead, after safety Amani Hooker intercepted Colts quarterback Anthony Richardson. But that drive ended with a missed field goal from 53 yards by Brayden Narveson, who kicked in place of an injured Nick Folk.

Then things took an ugly turn.

Running back Tony Pollard eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the season in the contest, and he finished the day with 35 yards. Running back Tyjae Spears scored two more touchdowns for the Titans.

But on this day, there was little that went right in the middle portion of the game, and it came back to haunt the Titans.

"They scored 14 points off of (interceptions), and that's on me," Rudolph said. "I put our team in a bad spot, and that can't happen. That's not winning football."

The Colts ran for 335 yards in the contest. It was the most in the Titans era (since 1999), and the second-worst run defense performance in franchise history. The Colts racked up 458 yards of offense against the Titans.

After first scoring on a five-yard touchdown run by Richardson with 11:01 left in the second quarter, the Colts made it 14-7 on a 65-yard touchdown run by Jonathan Taylor, who took a handoff and raced past defenders into the end zone.

The Colts then extended their lead to 17-7 at the 2:09 mark of the second quarter on a 31-yard field goal by kicker Matt Gay, and later in the second quarter they scored on a 27-yard touchdown pass from Richardson to receiver Josh Downs to make it 24-7 at the half.

The second half started even worse, as Taylor scampered 70 yards on the first play after the break to make it 31-7.

Another touchdown run by Taylor, this one from the one-yard line, made it 38-7 midway through the third quarter.

The Titans added three scores late.

An 11-yard touchdown run by Spears, followed by a two-point run by Pollard, made it 38-15 with 2:57 left in the third quarter.

A six-yard touchdown pass from Rudolph to receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine with 8:13 left made it 38-22.

Spears then added another touchdown, this one from two yards out, and another two-point conversion made it 38-30 with 2:53 remaining. The Titans didn't get the ball back until there were just a few ticks left on the clock.

Taylor ran for 218 yards in the contest, while Richardson added 70 more.

Rudolph, who started in place of Will Levis, finished the day 23-of-33 for 252 yards in the contest, with two touchdowns and three interceptions, including one on the final play of the game.

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Jaguars in Jacksonville.

GAME RECAP: TITANS LOSE 20-13 TO JAGUARS, DROP TO 3-13

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
DECEMBER 29, 2024

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – When it rains it pours.

The Titans lost to the Jaguars 20-13 here at EverBank Stadium on Sunday.

The loss extended the team's losing streak to five games, and the Titans are now 3-13 with one game left in the season.

"They all feel terrible, to be honest," Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "It sucks, it's terrible. There is no joy in this process, there is no fun in this. I feel it every day when I walk into work. Nothing is enjoyable about this.

"But our job is to try and fix it and do whatever we can to fix whatever problems we have to fix, to add any players we have to add, and to make sure we have a better football team moving forward."

After a deluge in pregame, rain stuck around for a chunk of Sunday's game before subsiding.

But the Titans never could get their tracking in a sloppy game.

Titans quarterback Mason Rudolph threw for 193 yards with a touchdown and an interception.

Running back Tyjae Spears, who got extended playing time with the absence of Tony Pollard, ran for 95 yards before leaving the game with a concussion.

The Titans outgained the Jaguars 337 to 295 yards, and they had 23 first downs to 18 for Jacksonville.

But it wasn't enough.

"We just have to execute better," Rudolph said, "and score more points."

"Losing is never fun, but there's lessons to be learned," Rudolph continued. "And generally, they end up hardening you as a player and teaching you lessons. Experience is the best teacher."

The Titans fell behind 13-0 in the contest, and they couldn't catch up.

The Jaguars took a 3-0 lead on their opening possession on a 48-yard field goal by kicker Cam Little.

The Jaguars extended the lead to 10-0 on a two-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mac Jones to receiver Parker Washington with 8:59 left in the second quarter.

Meanwhile, the Titans played sloppy. A tipped pass thrown by Rudolph went off the hands of running back Julius Chestnut, and it was intercepted by the Jaguars, who cashed it in for a touchdown.

A 44-yard field goal by Little made it 13-0 Jaguars with 2:02 left before the half.

The Titans then closed out the first half with a 10-play, 50-yard drive, and capped it off with a 39-yard field goal by kicker Matthew Wright to make it 13-3 at the half.

The Titans then opened the second half with a 13-play, 85-yard drive and they capped it off with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Rudolph to tight end Nick Vannett to make it 13-10 with 6:51 left in the third quarter.

It was 13-10 heading into the fourth quarter.

Then the Jaguars surged ahead 20-10 on another touchdown pass from Jones, this one an 11-yarder to Brian Thomas, with 7:05 remaining.

The Titans nearly rallied late.

After cutting the lead to 20-13 with 2:02 remaining on a 28-yard field goal by Wright, the Titans got the ball back and drove deep into Jacksonville territory in the final minute.

But a Rudolph pass intended for Nick Westbrook-Ikhine was broken up at the goal line on fourth down in the final seconds.

"It stings every time you lose," receiver Calvin Ridley said. "Guys haven't checked out, we just haven't won. We just have to play better games, and we have to win."

The Titans wrap up the 2024 season next weekend at Nissan Stadium against the Houston Texans. The official date and time for that contest is expected to be announced no later than Monday.

TITANS WRAP UP 2024
SEASON WITH 23-14 LOSS
TO THE TEXANS,
SCHEDULED TO PICK 1ST
OVERALL IN 2025 NFL DRAFT

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
JANUARY 5, 2025

NASHVILLE – The 2024 season is officially over for the Tennessee Titans.

It ended on a gloomy Sunday at Nissan Stadium with a 23-14 loss to the Texans.

The bad: The Titans finished with a 3-14 record, and on a six-game losing streak.

"Obviously not the way we wanted to finish this season off," Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "Appreciate the effort, the preparation, the process that our team put in this entire season."

The silver lining: The team is scheduled to pick first overall in the 2025 NFL Draft.

Tennessee's loss, paired with New England's win against the Bills on Sunday, moved the Titans from second to first in the draft order.

"I'm obviously aware – I saw right before I came in here," Callahan said. "Those aren't things that are exciting truthfully from my perspective. Not where I wanted to be this year, not where our team wanted to be. Those are the things that you get when you're not playing well enough and that's where we are. Yeah, not something I'm going to take a whole lot of solace in, but we'll move to that phase starting tomorrow."

Will Levis started at quarterback for the Titans, and he played the first three series before being replaced by Mason Rudolph in the second quarter. The two quarterbacks took turns guiding the offense the rest of the day.

On this day, just like most games this season, the Titans sputtered on offense while not doing enough on defense to win.

Levis completed 9-of-17 passes for 175 yards with a touchdown in the game, while Rudolph was 7-of-9 for 70 yards.

Calvin Ridley went over the 1,000-yard mark for the season for the Titans, as he finished the game with 76 receiving yards.

But on this day, there was little to celebrate.

Except for those rooting for a higher draft pick.

"The season is over," Ridley said. "We're upset about the season. We want to win games. ... The season's over and ... we didn't win. It's a fail for me because I didn't help the team win. I got the thousand, that's the only thing that makes it feel a little better, but the season is done, throwing it away. Just get ready for next year. Watch the playoffs and get ready for next year."

The Texans scored on their opening drive on a two-yard touchdown pass from quarterback C.J. Stroud to receiver Nico Collins, and they made it 13-0 early in the second quarter on a 92-yard touchdown run by Dameon Pierce.

The Texans were driving for another score before Titans safety Daryl Worley forced a fumble by Texans receiver Robert Woods, and it was recovered by cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr.

Rudolph directed an 11-play, 53-yard drive for the Titans in the second quarter, and kicker Matthew Wright capped it off with a 35-yard field goal to make it 13-3 with 1:41 left in the second quarter.

But the Texans added three more points of their own on a Ka'imi Fairbairn field goal in the final play of the first half, and it was 16-3 Houston at the half.

The Titans put together a 13-play, 53-yard drive on the opening possession and Wright added another field goal, this one from 38 yards, to make it 16-6 with 6:47 left in the third quarter.

The Texans then blew the game open early in the fourth quarter when defensive lineman Derek Barnett picked up a fumble and raced 36 yards for a touchdown to make it 23-6 with 13:50 left.

A 49-yard touchdown pass from Levis to receiver Tay Martin with 2:41 left, and a two-point conversion, made it 23-14.

The countdown was then on for the end of the season.

Titans players will clean out their locker at Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park on Monday and go their separate ways for the offseason. Some will be back in 2025, but many won't.

"(I told the players) that I appreciate their effort," Callahan said. "They never at any point deviated from the process that they had every week. We had energy in practice. We had focus, guys prepared. So those are the things that I appreciate and those are the things that are going to help us win games in the future and that stuff matters. It's all part of the process that we have to keep building on. I just tell them that I appreciated all the things that they put into it. I know how much they put into it, not the result we wanted to finish with obviously at any stretch or the record. We've got to do everything we can to not be here again."
