TITANS HOST SAINTS IN 2025 HOME FINALE

Tennessee Titans (3-12) vs. New Orleans Saints (5-10)

Sunday, Dec. 28, 2025 • 12 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS/WTNF-5

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (3-12) play their final home game of the 2025 season this week against the New Orleans Saints (5-10). Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143) is scheduled for 12 p.m. CST on Sunday, Dec. 28.

New Orleans travels to Nashville for the first time since 2021. The last two meetings between the two teams have been decided by a total of three points, with the Titans winning 23-21 in the 2021 matchup and the Saints winning 16-15 in the 2023 season opener at the Caesars Superdome. The Titans hold a 9-7-1 record in the all-time series.

THE BROADCAST

This week's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTNF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Andrew Catalon, analysts Charles Davis and Jason McCourty, and reporter AJ Ross.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found at nfl.com/ways-to-watch.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with play-by-play announcer Taylor Zarzour, analyst Dave McGinnis, executive producer Rhett Bryan, gameday host Lucas Panzica, and sideline reporters Amie Wells and Will Boling.

TITANS LOOK FOR THIRD WIN IN FOUR-GAME SPAN

The Titans hosted the Kansas City Chiefs last week and won for the second time in three weeks, defeating the Chiefs 26-9. They did not commit a turnover for the second consecutive game and outgained the Chiefs 376 yards to 133 yards. It was the third consecutive game in which rookie quarterback Cam Ward completed two touchdown passes and running back Tony Pollard reached the 100-yard rushing mark.

Ward's 122.3 passer rating against the Chiefs was the franchise's fourth best since 1970 by a rookie quarterback with at least 20 attempts in a game. The No. 1 overall draft pick improved his season passing totals to 2,866 yards, 13 touchdowns and seven interceptions. Needing 134 passing yards against the Saints to reach 3,000, he already surpassed Marcus Mariota (2,818 in 2015) for the most passing yards by a rookie in club history.

Defensively, the Titans totaled four sacks against Kansas City, and defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons registered a safety. The unit limited the Chiefs to a single third-down conversion on nine attempts (11.1 percent), and in the second half, Kansas City only managed 33 total yards—the third fewest by a Titans opponent in the second half of any game since the beginning of the 1999 campaign.

Two days after the Titans-Chiefs game, Simmons was named to his fourth career Pro Bowl, joining 11 previous Titans/Oilers to earn the honor four or more times. Simmons, a starter on the AFC squad, is joined by teammate Chimere Dike, who was selected as the starting returner. Dike is the franchise's sixth rookie since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to be named to the Pro Bowl and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010.

THE SAINTS

The Saints are in their first season under head coach Kellen Moore. Prior to his current post, Moore served as the offensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys (2019-22), Los Angeles Chargers (2023) and Philadelphia Eagles (2024). In his lone year in Philadelphia, he helped the Eagles win Super Bowl LIX.

Last week, Moore's team hosted the New York Jets and won 29-6 to pick up its third consecutive victory. Kicker Charlie Smyth made five field goals on six attempts, and wide receiver Chris Olave accounted for 10 receptions for 148 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Saints.

New Orleans rookie Tyler Shough started his seventh consecutive game as quarterback after Spencer Rattler was the starter for the opening eight contests in 2025. Shough, a second-round pick from Louisville, has passed for seven touchdowns with five interceptions, and against the Jets, he passed for a career-high 308 yards and one score.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

TITANS FRANCHISE

- The Titans' next win will be the franchise's 500th all-time win, including the regular season and postseason.

TITANS ROOKIES

- The Titans have 58 combined starts by their rookie class in 2025. With three more, the current class will surpass the 2005 Titans rookie class (60) for the most by the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present).

WR ELIC AYOMANOR, WR CHIMERE DIKE & TE GUNNAR HELM

- Elic Ayomanor (34 receptions for 428 yards, three touchdowns), Chimere Dike (41 for 341 yards, four touchdowns) and Gunnar Helm (43 for 356, two touchdowns) can become the second rookie trio in NFL history to each record 30 receptions, 300 receiving yards and three receiving touchdowns. One more touchdown catch by Helm would secure the accomplishment. The only other time it occurred was 1960, when the Dallas Texans trio of Abner Haynes, Johnny Robinson and Chris Burford did so.

LB CODY BARTON

- Has three interceptions in 2025. He can become the team's first linebacker since Keith Bulluck in 2007 (five) with four interceptions in a season.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- With a league-high 2,269 all-purpose yards in 2025, he ranks third all-time in the NFL among rookies. He needs four more yards to surpass Gale Sayers (2,272 with Chicago in 1965) for second place and 49 more to overtake Tim Brown

(2,317 with L.A. Raiders in 1988) for the NFL rookie record.

- Needs 241 more all-purpose yards to surpass Chris Johnson's 2,509 all-purpose yards in 2009 for second place in franchise history. Dike's total would reside behind only Derrick Mason's 2,690 all-purpose yards in 2000.
- With a league-high 1,535 kickoff return yards in 2025, he needs 43 more to move into third place in NFL history among rookies, in front of the New York Jets' Justin Miller (1,577 in 2005). With 150, Dike will pass Arizona's Josh Scobey (1,684 in 2003) for second place and would trail only the Raiders' Chris Carr (1,752 in 2005).
- Can join A.J. Brown (nine touchdowns in 2019), Chris Johnson (10 in 2008) and Vince Young (seven in 2006) as the only franchise rookies since the start of the 1999 season with at least seven total touchdowns. Dike has six touchdowns going into Week 16.

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- Enters the game with 140 tackles on defense in 2025. With 10 tackles this week, he will become the team's fourth player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign to reach 150 in a season (GSIS tackle statistics), joining Azeez Al-Shaair (163 in 2023), Stephen Tulloch (160 in 2010) and Keith Bulluck (152 in 2004).

OLB JAYLEN HARRELL

- Has at least a half sack in three consecutive games and a solo sack in two consecutive games.

P JOHNNY HEKKER

- Enters the game with 398 career punts inside the 20, which ranks eighth in the NFL since the statistic has been tracked beginning in 1976. He needs two more to move past former Titan Craig Hentrich (399) for seventh place.

S AMANI HOOKER

- With 12 career interceptions, he needs one more to tie Jason McCourty (13) for the eighth-highest career total for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- With 1,960 career receiving yards entering the week, he needs 40 more to become the sixth tight end in franchise history to reach 2,000.
- Enters the contest with 51 receptions in 2025, needing four more to set a career high (54 in 2023).
- Enters the week with 503 receiving yards in 2025, needing 26 more to set a career high (528 in 2023).

RB TONY POLLARD

- With a career-best streak of three consecutive 100-yard rushing games, he can become the franchise's first player with four consecutive 100-yard games since Derrick Henry accomplished the feat in 2022. It would be Pollard's 14th career 100-yard rushing game.
- With 949 rushing yards in 2025, he is 51 yards away from his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season.
- He would become the fifth player in franchise history with multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons, joining Eddie George (seven), Chris Johnson (six), Earl Campbell (five) and Derrick Henry (five).
- Can record his fourth consecutive season with at least 1,200 scrimmage yards and five scrimmage touchdowns. He has 1,128 scrimmage yards and five touchdowns going into Sunday. He would join Saquon Barkley and Derrick Henry as the only NFL running backs to have 1,200 scrimmage yards and five scrimmage touchdowns in every campaign from 2022 to 2025.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Has a career-high nine sacks in 2025. With an additional 1.5 sacks, he will tie Jurrell Casey (10.5 in 2013) for the most sacks in a season by a Titans defensive tackle in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present).
- With 16 tackles for loss in 2025, he needs one more to move past Jason Babin (16 in 2010) for the most by a Titans player in any season since 2008.

K JOEY SLYE

- Has made seven field goals of at least 50 yards in 2025. With one more, he will surpass Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020) for the most field goals of 50-plus yards in a season in franchise history.

QB CAM WARD

- With 2,866 passing yards in 2025, he needs 134 more to record the first rookie 3,000-yard season in franchise history and the 21st overall 3,000-yard season in team annals—the first since Ryan Tannehill in 2021.
- Can extend his streak to four consecutive games with at least two touchdown passes. The last Titans quarterback to do so was Ryan Tannehill (five) in 2020.
- Can record a passer rating above 100.0 for the third consecutive game.

OLB JIHAD WARD

- Has 5.0 sacks in 2025 and needs a half sack to establish a new career high. He would top the five sacks he had as a member of the New York Giants in 2023.

G KEVIN ZEITLER

- Can secure his 11th consecutive season with at least 15 starts.

SERIES HISTORY

In head-to-head regular season matchups, the Titans and Saints have played a total of 17 times, with the Titans holding a 9-7-1 advantage. That includes a four-game winning streak by the Titans that was broken with a Saints victory in 2011. The last six outcomes have been split evenly, 3-3.

The Titans opened the 2023 regular season at New Orleans (Sept. 10) and fell by a final score of 16-15. Kicker Nick Folk provided the only scoring of the day for the Titans, connecting on five field goals. The Saints' one touchdown against the Titans defense—a 19-yard touchdown pass from Derek Carr to wide receiver Rashid Shaheed—broke a 9-9 tie in the third quarter and proved to be the difference in the contest.

While the teams are infrequent adversaries and the Saints have made only four appearances in Tennessee since the Oilers moved from Houston in 1997, the Saints visited Nissan Stadium in 2019 and 2021.

On Dec. 22, 2019, the Saints erased a 14-0 Titans lead to win 38-28, defeating a Titans team that was without running back Derrick Henry for the first and only time during the season. Wide receiver Michael Thomas caught 12 passes from Drew Brees for 136 yards, including a late score to seal the New Orleans victory.

On Nov. 14, 2021, the Titans hosted the Saints and earned a 23-21 victory. The Titans defense tallied four sacks—including two sacks by Jeffery Simmons—and stopped the Saints on a late two-point conversion that would have tied the score at 23-23. Ryan Tannehill passed for a touchdown and rushed for another score in the win.

The Titans played a memorable primetime game at Caesars Superdome on Monday night, Sept. 24, 2007. Titans linebacker Keith Bulluck recorded a career-high three interceptions of Brees, tying a franchise record, in helping the team to a 31-14 win.

The initial regular season matchup between the Saints and the then-Houston Oilers occurred in 1971, five seasons after the Saints began play as an expansion franchise in the NFL. The game resulted in a 13-13 score, one of the six ties in Oilers/Titans history.

TITANS-SAINTS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 1: Titans 15, Saints 16
Sunday, Sept. 10, 2023 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Caesars Superdome

In Week 1 of the 2023 season, the Titans traveled to New Orleans to face the Saints and fell by a score of 16-15. It was a game of field goals before the Saints scored the only touchdown of the day to take the lead and the win.

The Titans took a 3-0 lead on the first possession of the game off a 50-yard field goal from K Nick Folk. Titans were able to gain possession to set up the score after S Amani Hooker forced and recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff.

The Saints responded with a field goal of their own from K Blake Grupe after stringing together a nine-play 67-yard drive to tie it at 3-3.

The Titans then turned in an 11-play, 66-yard drive that ended with another field goal by Folk, this one from 27 yards, and it was 6-3 Tennessee at the 3:07 mark of the first quarter.

After another Grupe field goal made it 6-6 midway through the second quarter, Folk added his third field goal of the game, a 31-yard kick, making it 9-6 Titans with 1:40 remaining in the first half. The seven-play 57-yard field goal drive was highlighted by a 46-yard gain by RB Derrick Henry off a screen pass from QB Ryan Tannehill.

Tennessee held a 9-6 lead going into halftime after Hooker came up with his second takeaway of the day after intercepting QB Derek Carr with 37 seconds remaining in the half.

S Marcus Maye intercepted Tannehill on the opening drive of the second half at the New Orleans one-yard line. The Saints drove down and settled for another field goal by Grupe to tie it 9-9.

Later in the third quarter, the Saints made the Titans pay after Tannehill's third interception of the game, as Carr connected with WR Rashid Shaheed for a 19-yard touchdown pass to make it 16-9 with 1:23 left to play in the stanza.

The Titans then strung together a 12-play 48-yard drive highlighted by three first down completions from Tannehill that culminated in a 45-yard field goal by Folk to make it 16-12.

Folk made his fifth field goal of the day with 2:17 left to bring Tennessee within one. But the Titans never got the ball back, as the Saints offense converted two third-down opportunities to run out the clock and seal the victory.

NOTABLE PERFORMANCES VS. THE SAINTS

- On 9/22/19 against New Orleans, recovered a muffed punt by the Saints while in punt coverage, giving Seattle possession in New Orleans' territory in the third quarter.
- On 10/9/22 at New Orleans, Barton started at middle linebacker for the Seahawks and notched 12 tackles.
- On 10/17/24 at New Orleans, recorded eight tackles to go with one sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery for a touchdown as a member of the Broncos. Blitzed off the edge in the first quarter to cause a strip sack on Spencer Rattler, which was recovered by the Broncos. In the final stanza, he recovered another sack fumble and returned it 52 yards for the first defensive touchdown of his career. Barton was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts.

SAMANI HOOKER

- On 9/10/23 at New Orleans, Hooker started at safety and notched four tackles, an interception, another pass defended and a stop for loss. Registered a forced fumble and fumble recovery on the opening kickoff to give the Titans the ball at the Saints' 24-yard line.

OLB ARDEN KEY

- On 9/10/23 at New Orleans, Key made his Titans debut and notched four tackles, 1.5 sacks and a pass defended to go along with a team-best and career-high 11 quarterback pressures.

RB TONY POLLARD

- On 12/2/21 at New Orleans, Pollard had a then-career-long 58-yard scoring jaunt, finishing with 71 yards on seven carries, catching two passes for three yards and returning one kick for 22 yards as a member of the Cowboys.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- On 11/14/21 against New Orleans, collected four tackles, including a team-high two sacks, a team-best three quarterback pressures to go along with a pass defended. Sacked Trevor Siemian for an eight-yard loss in the opening quarter. Registered his second consecutive multiple-sack game by dropping Siemian for four-yard loss late in the second quarter. Batted down a pass intended for Mark Ingram in the third stanza. Stuffed Ingram for no gain on a rush off right tackle in the fourth quarter.

Kellen Moore was named the 19th head coach of the New Orleans Saints on Feb. 11, 2025, after serving as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2024.

Though he only spent one season in Philadelphia, the Eagles captured their second Super Bowl title and the offense set multiple team and league records. Moore's unit rushed for a single-season franchise record 3,048 yards to rank sixth in NFL history. Running back Saquan Barkley became the ninth player in league annals to rush for over 2,000 yards in a regular season and set the all-time mark with 2,504 rushing yards in the regular season and postseason combined. Barkley earned consensus first team All-Pro honors.

Through the air, the Eagles set a club record with a 103.4 passer rating, led by quarterback Jalen Hurts' career-high 103.7 mark. En route to Super Bowl LIX MVP honors, Hurts set a career high in completion percentage (68.7). Receiving duo A.J. Brown and Devonta Smith were one of three tandems in the league to record at least 60 receptions, 825 yards and seven touchdowns each.

In 2023, Moore served as offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Chargers. This came after five seasons on the Dallas Cowboys' coaching staff of which he spent the last four as the team's offensive coordinator.

During his time in Dallas, Moore furthered the growth of quarterback Dak Prescott, whom Moore was a teammate with for two seasons before becoming his position coach in 2018. During Moore's tenure as a coach in Dallas, Prescott set several franchise and personal bests, including a career-high 37 passing touchdowns in 2021 and 4,902 passing yards in 2019, a franchise-record.

In 2022, the Dallas offense featured a 1,000-yard rusher (Tony Pollard) and a 1,000-yard receiver (CeeDee Lamb). The previous season in 2021, the Cowboys led the league in total offense (407.0 net yards per game) and scoring offense (31.2 points per game). Moore entered the coaching ranks as Dallas' quarterbacks coach in 2018 after three seasons as a quarterback with the team.

Moore played six NFL seasons for the Detroit Lions (2012-14) and Cowboys (2015-17) after originally joining the league as an undrafted free agent.

A native of Prosser, Wash., Moore played collegiately at Boise State. With a 50-3 record, Moore set the mark for the most wins by a quarterback in NCAA history.

LAST WEEK VS. THE CHIEFS

Week 16: Titans 26, Chiefs 9
Sunday, Dec. 21, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 16 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted the Kansas City Chiefs and won by a score of 26-9. The win snapped an 11-game losing streak at Nissan Stadium.

The Titans tallied four sacks in the contest, as the Chiefs managed just nine first downs and 133 yards of offense. The Titans won the time of possession 38:01 to 21:59. RB Tony Pollard accounted for 102 rushing yards while RB Tyjae Spears amassed 105 yards of offense (52 rush, 53 receiving) and a touchdown in the contest. It was Pollard's third straight 100-yard rushing performance.

The Titans took the lead early on a safety, when DT Jeffery Simmons exploded through the line of scrimmage and tackled RB Kareem Hunt in the end zone. The play gave the Titans a 2-0 lead at the 13:06 mark of the second quarter.

The Chiefs responded with a nine-play, 28-yard drive that resulted in a 54-yard field goal by K Harrison Butker to take a 3-2 lead with 7:40 left in the second quarter. QB Chris Oladokun entered the game for the drive in place of an injured QB Gardner Minshew. QB Patrick Mahomes had been placed on injured reserve the week prior.

The Titans reclaimed the lead on their next offensive possession. Tennessee strung together an 11-play, 89-yard drive and capped it off with a seven-yard touchdown pass from QB Cam Ward to TE Chig Okonkwo. Spears was a big contributor on the possession, running the ball and catching it out of the backfield for 64 yards.

The Chiefs kept it close heading into the half with a 41-yard field goal by K Harrison Butker that capped a quick seven-play, 45-yard drive to make it 9-6.

Tennessee came out hot in the second half with a nine-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Ward connected with WR Elic Ayomanor on a 25-yard pass before finding WR Chimere Dike for 30 yards and then the one-yard touchdown to make it 16-6 with 10:32 left in the third quarter.

The Titans defense responded by forcing a long field goal attempt. Butker was wide right on the 51-yarder and the Titans reclaimed possession.

Later in the third quarter, Butker made good on a 27-yard field goal to make it 16-9 with 3:00 left in the third quarter.

The Titans responded with a 10-play, 64-yard touchdown drive. A defensive offside by Kansas City nullified a 51-yard field goal by K Joey Slye and gave the Titans a first down a the Chiefs' 28-yard line. Ward found Ayomanor for a 24-yard completion and Spears finished it off with a four-yard touchdown run to make it 23-9 with 11:56 left in the game.

The Titans then executed a methodical 13-play, 57-yard drive that took 6:17 off the clock and culminated in a 27-yard field goal by Slye to extend the lead to 26-9 with 3:44 left.

Tennessee's defense forced a three-and-out and the Titans ended the game in victory formation.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans defeated the Chiefs 26-9 to pick up their third win of the season. They will play their final home game of the campaign next Sunday (Dec. 28) against the New Orleans Saints, followed by their 2025 season finale at Jacksonville in Week 18.
- The Titans outgained the Chiefs 376 yards to 133 yards. The Titans' yardage differential of 243 yards was their best in a game since outgaining Detroit by 302 yards (456-154) on Thanksgiving in 2008 (Nov. 27).
- The Titans did not commit a turnover for the second consecutive game. In their seven games since Week 9, the Titans have committed four turnovers. At the conclusion of the early afternoon games on Sunday, Dec. 21, that total tied for the third-fewest in the NFL.
- The Titans 17-point margin of victory was their best since a 19-point winning margin (31-12) at Miami on Sept. 30, 2024.
- The Titans possessed the ball for a season-best 38 minutes and 1 second, compared with 21:59 by the Chiefs.
- Won at Nissan Stadium for the first time since Nov. 3, 2024 against New England.

TEAM NOTES – OFFENSE

- The Titans totaled 376 yards on offense, their best output since going for 400 yards against New England on Nov. 3, 2024.
- The offense's 22 total first downs were a season high through 15 games.
- The rushing attack provided 164 yards against the Chiefs, marking the third consecutive game with at least 136 rushing yards.
- The Titans offense scored touchdowns on three of its four red-zone drives. From Week 10 to Week 16, the Titans scored touchdowns on 10 of their 14 red-zone drives, with their 71.4 percent success rate ranking second in the NFL behind the Atlanta Falcons (16-21, 76.2 percent) through the early afternoon contests of Sunday, Dec. 21.
- The Titans scored 26 points against the Chiefs to give them 24 or more points four times in a five-game span.

TEAM NOTES – DEFENSE

- The Titans defense held the Chiefs to just 133 yards on offense, the fewest by a Titans opponent since the Pittsburgh Steelers had 127 total yards on Sept. 19, 2010. The Chiefs had 51 rushing yards and 82 net passing yards in the contest.
- Kansas City scored nine points on three field goals, marking the first time the Titans did not allow an opponent to reach the end zone since a 27-3 victory over Cincinnati on Oct. 1, 2023. The Chiefs' nine points also were the fewest by a Titans opponent since the same game against the Bengals.
- The Titans held the Chiefs to just one third down conversion on nine attempts. The 11.1 percent third-down conversion rate was the best for the Titans defense since Oct. 9, 2022 at Washington, when the Commanders converted 9.1 percent (one-of-11).
- Kansas City's nine first downs were the fewest by a Titans opponent since the Jacksonville Jaguars totaled nine first downs against the Titans on Dec. 12, 2021.
- The Titans defense began the game by forcing two consecutive three-and-outs.
- The Titans held the Chiefs scoreless in the first quarter. It was the fifth time in 2025 the Titans defense shut out its opponent in the opening stanza. The defense has only allowed touchdowns in the first quarter in three games in 2025.
- The Titans defense limited the Chiefs to 100 yards in the first half. It was the second fewest by a Titans opponent in the first half in 2025 (55 by Las Vegas on Oct. 12).

- The Titans defense limited the Chiefs to 33 total yards in the second half. That was the third-fewest by a Titans opponent in the second half of any game since the beginning of the 1999 season, behind 28 yards by Dallas in the second half on Dec. 25, 2000 and 32 yards by Pittsburgh in the second half on Sept. 19, 2010.
- In the second quarter, the Titans scored their first safety of the season when Jeffery Simmons broke through the line and tackled Kareem Hunt in the end zone to give Tennessee a 2-0 lead. It was the team's first safety since Nov. 24, 2024 at Houston when Harold Landry III sacked C.J. Stroud in the end zone. It was also the 13th safety scored by the team in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present).
- The Titans racked up four sacks, marking their fourth game of the season with at least four sacks.

WR ELIC AYOMANOR

- Totaled a team-high 58 yards on three receptions.
- Caught a 25-yard pass from Cam Ward on a touchdown drive in the third quarter.
- Converted a third-and-10 in the fourth quarter with a 24-yard reception to set up a touchdown on the next play.
- Has caught at least one pass in all 14 games in which he has participated as a rookie.

CB DARRELL BAKER JR.

- Broke up a pass intended for Juju Smith-Schuster on third down in the second quarter.

- Notched two tackles and a pass defended to extend his team-leading total to 11 passes defended on the season.

S KENDELL BROOKS

- Logged his first NFL start at safety.
- Ranked third on the team with four tackles.

WR CHIMERE DIKE

- Caught three passes for 40 yards and a touchdown.
- Added five kickoff returns for 122 yards (24.4 avg.) and three punt returns for 23 yards (7.7 avg.).

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

- On the opening series of the second half, he caught a 30-yard pass and finished the drive with a one-yard touchdown reception. It was his team-leading fourth touchdown reception of his rookie campaign.
- Joined A.J. Brown (nine touchdowns in 2019), Chris Johnson (10 in 2008) and Vince Young (seven in 2006) as the only franchise rookies since the start of the 1999 season with at least six total touchdowns.
- Became the fourth rookie in NFL history with at least four receiving touchdowns and two punt return touchdowns, joining Tyreek Hill (2016), Dez Bryant (2010) and Eddie Kennison (1996).
- With a league-high 2,269 all-purpose yards in 2025, he surpassed Derrick Henry's 2,141 all-purpose yards in 2020 for third place in franchise history. Dike's total resides behind only Derrick Mason's 2,690 all-purpose yards in 2000 and Chris Johnson's 2,509 in 2009.
- With a league-high 1,535 kickoff return yards in 2025, he moved past Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010) to set the record for the highest single-season total in franchise history.
- His 1,535 kickoff return yards are the most in the NFL in a season since Arizona's LaRod Stephens-Howling had 1,548 in 2010.

CB KEMON HALL

- Ranked second on the team with a career-high five tackles, including two stops for loss.

OLB JAYLEN HARRELL

- Recorded his first career strip-sack, jarring the ball from Chris Oladokun in the third quarter (fumble recovered by the Chiefs). It was his second straight game with a sack and his fourth in the last six games with at least a half-sack.
- He now has three sacks on the season.

P JOHNNY HEKKER

- Punted three times for a 47.7-yard gross average and a 37.3-yard net average with two punts inside the 20.
- In the first quarter, he pinned the Chiefs on their six-yard line with a 47-yard punt – his 397th career punt inside the 20 (later added his 398th). In doing so, he moved past former Titan Brett Kern (396) for eighth place in the NFL for career punts inside the 20 since the statistic has been tracked beginning in 1976.
- His 46-yarder in the second quarter resulted in Kansas City starting from their three-yard line after a Chiefs penalty.

TE GUNNAR HELM

- Contributed two receptions for nine yards.
- Increased his rookie season totals to 43 receptions for 356 yards and two touchdowns.
- Has at least one reception in all 15 games to begin his career.
- Joined running back Tyjae Spears (2023), wide receiver A.J. Brown (2019) and running back Chris Johnson (2008) as the franchise's only rookies in the "Titans era" (1999 to present) with at least one reception in each of the team's first 15 games of their rookie season.
- Joined Cleveland rookie Harold Fannin Jr. as the NFL's only rookie tight ends with at least one reception in all 15 of his team's games in 2025. Indianapolis' Tyler Warren (at San Francisco on Monday, Dec. 22) could also accomplish the feat.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Recorded three tackles.

WR VAN JEFFERSON

- Contributed a pair of receptions for 24 total yards.

OLB TRUMAN JONES

- In the fourth quarter, he combined with Jihad Ward for a 14-yard sack of Chris Oladokun. On the next play, he recorded the first solo sack of his career for a nine-yard loss.
- Finished with two tackles and 1.5 sacks.
- Added a special teams tackle.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Led the team with six receptions for 44 yards, including a touchdown.
- On a seven-yard pass from Cam Ward in the second quarter, he notched his first touchdown reception of 2025 and the seventh touchdown catch of his career.
- With 1,960 career receiving yards, he exceeded Bob McLeod's total (1,926) for sixth place in franchise history among tight ends.
- With 51 receptions in 2025, he joined Frank Wycheck (six consecutive seasons) and Delanie Walker (five) as the only tight ends in franchise history to record at least 50 receptions in three consecutive seasons.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Rushed for 102 yards on 21 carries for an average of 4.9 yards per attempt.
- Notched his 13th career 100-yard rushing game.
- Marked the first time in his career with 100 rushing yards in three consecutive games. The last Titans player to accomplish the feat prior to Pollard was Derrick Henry from Dec. 11-24, 2022.
- Became the third NFL player in 2025, along with Buffalo's James Cook (three games) and Miami's De'Von Achane (three), to record three consecutive 100-yard rushing games.
- With 949 rushing yards and two games remaining in 2025, he is 51 yards away from his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Finished with three tackles, two tackles for loss, two passes defended and a safety.
- Tackled running back Kareem Hunt in the end zone for a safety in the second quarter. It was Simmons' first career safety and the first safety the Titans scored since Harold Landry III at Houston on Nov.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

- Increased his total on the season to 16 tackles for loss, which ties Jason Babin (16 in 2010) for the most by a Titans player in any season since 2008.
- Joined Rocky Boiman (2003), Willie Rodgers (1975) and Doug Cline (1961) as the only players in franchise history with a safety and a touchdown in the same season.

K JOEY SLYE

- Made a 27-yard field goal in the fourth quarter and was also successful on all three extra point attempts.

RB TYJAE SPEARS

- Registered a team-high 105 scrimmage yards, which was the second-best total of his career and his best of 2025 through 15 games.
- Finished second on the team with 52 rushing yards on 13 carries and also finished second on the team with 53 receiving yards on five catches.
- Took a screen pass 34 yards in the second quarter for the third-longest reception of his career. Later on the same drive, he converted a third-and-two with an 11-yard run and then helped set up a touchdown with a 15-yard run.
- In the fourth quarter, he rushed for his second touchdown of the season and the eighth rushing touchdown of his career on a four-yard run.

NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

- Recorded two tackles and two quarterback pressures.

QB CAM WARD

- Completed 21-of-28 passes for 228 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

- His 122.3 passer rating was his best through 15 NFL games. It was his second consecutive game with a passer rating above 100.
- His 122.3 passer rating was the franchise's fourth best since 1970 by a rookie quarterback with at least 20 attempts in a game. In that span, only Marcus Mariota (135.7 at New Orleans on Nov. 8, 2015), Will Levis (130.5 vs. Atlanta on Oct. 29, 2023) and Vince Young (127.7 at Buffalo on Dec. 24, 2006) fared better with 20-plus attempts.
- Recorded his third consecutive game with two touchdown passes. With his 13th touchdown pass of the season, a one-yarder to Chimere Dike in the third quarter, he moved past Vince Young (12 in 2006) for the second-most in franchise history by a rookie, behind only Marcus Mariota (19 in 2015).
- Threw a screen pass to Tyjae Spears that went 34 yards in the second quarter, and later on the same drive, he was credited with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo.
- On the opening series of the second half, he completed a 25-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor, a 30-yard pass to Chimere Dike and a one-yard touchdown pass to Dike.
- Converted a third-and-10 in the fourth quarter with a 24-yard completion to Elic Ayomanor to set up a touchdown on the next play.
- With 2,866 passing yards in 2025, he set the record for the most passing yards in franchise history by a rookie quarterback. Marcus Mariota previously held the mark with 2,818 passing yards in 2015.

OLB JIHAD WARD

- Combined with Truman Jones for a half sack in the fourth quarter, matching his career high for a season with five sacks (2023).
- Led the defense with five quarterback pressures and added a pass defensed.

LB JAMES WILLIAMS SR.

- Logged his second career start and his first in 2025.
- Led the team with a career-best nine tackles and added two quarterback pressures.
- Brought down quarterback Chris Oladokun for a loss of 11 yards on third down in the fourth quarter to notch his first career sack.

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE McCOY

Okay, obviously you guys know the one injury. He (Marcus Harris) is still being evaluated. Unfortunate situation with him, the way he's been playing. But I'll have more information tomorrow on him. What a great team win. That's the way it's supposed to be. It's been a long time coming since we've won a home game here, so it's just a great feeling for everybody in the entire organization, everyone who puts so many hours in, and then to be able to come home and play like this is phenomenal. Some numbers that people have told me about is that the first time not allowing a TD since 2023 by the defense. Outstanding. Most kick return yards by Chim (Dike) in franchise history. Cam (Ward), rookie yards, most. Outstanding. Just seeing him make those plays out there, unbelievable. Once again, Jeff (Simmons) is Jeff. What he's done, getting the safety and the way he played, the way he leads, it's unbelievable. You just feel so good for these guys because they work so hard, and this is what you want for our fans. To our fans, I'm glad we do this for them, too. It was a great atmosphere. Then you talk about the game going—you guys talked about finishing the end of the half, start of the second half, the way the offense did that. But just a great team effort overall by everybody. Give the coaches a ton of credit. The defensive coaching staff with three guys going down last week and what we did with the guys just learning this week, teaching whoever they had available, obviously, and then we have an injury, it's just, give them a ton of credit. And the offensive staff with the plan and once again, the way we ran the football. Like I talked about, that's the identity we want to have here in the way we're playing. Couldn't be happier for the players in the locker room, the entire organization, everybody that's bought in and worked so hard. There's nothing like winning at home. With that, I'll open it up.

How much of an explanation did they give you on the touchdown that they took off with Jeff Simmons? Did they just not see him report?

They said he has to go directly to the ref to report. He's running out there, 98, everyone in the whole entire stadium, but he has to go directly to him. You see everyone is saying Jeff's report and this and that, and they said he has to go directly to Cleto (Blakeman), so they threw the flag.

The running game has been revitalized the last three weeks. Tony (Pollard) has been over 100 yards each week. How much has that not only helped him but also helped Cam (Ward) to be in better situations and able to use the passing game?

Well, this is with two minutes remaining. Obviously, we ran the one time, so we had 38 total runs I guess we had, the last one. It's a commitment to the running game. We said it. I've always wanted to run the football, and situations come up, this and that, and obviously we went on the road to Cleveland. We said we have to run the football. We cannot get out of this game running it 12, 14, it's got to be in the 30s. We've got to be able to get up there and do it in the weather with Myles (Garrett), this and that, you have to run the football, and it was a commitment, and we kind of challenged everybody. This is what the offensive line loves, obviously. But just give everybody credit. The coaches putting a great plan together, players going out and executing, the receivers blocking their tails off downfield, doing certain things. It's a whole team effort. Cam with the alerts and the checks and everything, getting us into the right plays, things like that. But it's a commitment to the run game. You have to commit to it. You have to practice it that way, and you've got to actually call it in the game, and that's what we've done the past three weeks, and it's paid off for us.

That 10-play 89-yard drive, how big was that for you guys, and how do you like the way you were able to layer the plays?

Oh, you love it. You love those 10-play drives. I don't care what plays you call. You get 10-play drives and go that many yards, it's awesome. That's what it's all about. This was a complementary game, everyone playing together today. So like I said, I'm so happy for the guys in the room.

Potentially Cam's best game?

He played well. We'll look at the film. You see some of the plays that he made, the one throw to Chim (Dike) when he was scrambling around there and threw it to the left side over on their sideline, wow, what a play. But he's getting better every week, and there's going to be some plays you miss. The fourth down, I think he's going to look back at and say we can make that throw, we've got to convert that there. But he's getting better. I've been saying it from day one, Cam loves to play the game of football. He loves to be coached hard, and he understands he's going to make some mistakes, but it doesn't bother him. He just keeps going, and he's Cam. Very happy with the way he played.

You've scored 24 or more in four out of five now.

I kind of like that.

How due was that, and how much is that a testament to the growth of everything, the play calling, the young guys?

I think it's everybody involved. You always go down to how do you execute and how do you block, how do you do certain things, how do you call games, how do you put players in a position to be successful, and it goes down to players executing and making plays. There's plenty of plays in there, especially in the run game, the attitude and the mindset of our backs right now, it's unbelievable. It's because they have the confidence in it, and that's what happens when you commit to something like that and you run it. It's amazing the number of times we run it and now we scored more points because we're more efficient. I think Cam is learning a lot, too, about when you run the ball like this, and now it's a lot easier to be in third-and-manageable than it is with third-and-longs if you have an incomplete pass, even second-and-longs are harder. So, when you don't have the incompletes and you're efficient, even if it's two yards, and all of a sudden two becomes four, four becomes—you keep multiplying it as you go, it helps everybody. It just goes to say when you go out there and do what we're supposed to be doing, you score points like this, it's great to see the number of points we've been scoring. Then give us credit, too, the defense getting the ball back for you, good field position. Leading up to this game the past two weeks we had 24 points off of three turnovers and a blocked kick, so that's part of it, too, scoring more points.

You mentioned the home losing streak a couple of times. Obviously the players were aware, too. What are the ways you guys emphasized it as a staff? How did they get ingrained and why was it so important to emphasize?

Well, you've got to be careful. Nick (Holz) said in the meeting the other day about being 412 days since we've won at home. So that was kind of where it stemmed from there. But it's hard to win in this league. That's why I just told the players, enjoy this. What a great Christmas gift for everybody involved, everybody in the organization, all our fans to be able to enjoy Christmas after a win. It's great. It's an unbelievable feeling. I'm just so happy for the guys and the veterans and the leaders that deserve this. The entire team deserves it, don't get me wrong. They work so hard.

We talked about the fourth downs before. This game there was no hesitation you were going for it. Was it a confidence issue? Was the game flowing better? What was it?

Got a little nervous after the one. It's just you do what you think is best there. Do you punt there? Cam went right to the line of scrimmage and tried to sneak it and we didn't get it, and we responded to it, but there was times earlier in the game we went the third down, we didn't get and then we went for it on fourth down. It's always going to be the flow of the game and what is the down-and-distance and what is the score of the game. I know I've told you guys this since the first game here; it's going to change week to week. There's times where you say, you've got to be more aggressive. You've got to finish drives with touchdowns and not field goals, so that changes things. There's so many things on a weekly basis, how are you running the football—it makes it a lot easier for those situations to go for it when you run the ball the way we do. Now, we didn't get it on the one third down we ran it. But other than that.

You talked about the commitment to the run game. How is that affecting those shorter swing passes and in effect the screen game? Looked like it was hitting today.

It's all part of—they've got to cover everybody. I know you guys had some questions about handing the ball off to Chim (Dike) and it's this and that, and the average is this. But when you look at it, and all of a sudden you hand the ball off the next time you'll see X number of defenders going with him, that helps the running game. So they've got to honor everybody. I think a number of times this year when we've thrown those bubbles and things like that, there have been some big plays, and Chig (Okonkwo) makes guys miss more often than not as long as you get that first guy going. It's just another way that whoever those players are, they've got to honor that because if they don't, as long as you make one block and get the play started, it's going to be a positive gain. It's just something we believe in, and it helps the running game. It may not always be the prettiest thing in the world. It might be some one and twos. There was a couple minuses in there, I know that. But it helps because that nickel or whoever that defender is has got to widen the box.

A lot of young players on this team, obviously. How important do you think this whole journey is going to be for them, that they're seeing what it's like over the course of a season and now having some success before it ends?

It's invaluable, the experience they're getting. I think a lot of times, too, and give the coaches credit. Give all the coaches all the credit in the world. The way these rookies are playing and the number of them that are playing and have been playing for a long time, and you see the success. We all talked about Gunnar (Helm) earlier in the year and what Luke (Stocker) just to mention one person, Luke, the way he got Gunnar rolling up early in the blocking and things like that. We weren't sure how it was going to be, and you just see where he is now from where he was. That's just one example. Then the DBs unfortunately have been dinged the last two weeks, but you see their growth and you see Cam's growth. I can go on and on about every rookie. I think one thing, it's hard to win in the NFL. It's brutal losing. But you're also teaching the guys how to win games. When you look at the whole game, you look at it, and you learn from the losses just as much, and it's not just the individual performances. But part of my job is to help teach these guys how to win. It's not just their individual performances, but you look at it as you never know what play is going to affect the game and when. So it's just a matter of getting these guys to execute at a high level. They're going to make mistakes. They're going to make mistakes. But be brutally honest with them about, 'Hey, this is what's going to help us.' The one thing I think the coaches have all stressed from day one here is don't worry about—the mistakes are on us as coaches. That's going to happen. There's a bunch of young players. Just don't make the same mistake twice, whether it's a decision Cam makes. Like I had to burn a time-out today. Don't do that again, please. Things like that that you don't want to do. You've got to avoid those things. But it's going to happen in the game. And you just keep growing.

The one play Dan Moore Jr. went down, Peter Skoronski bumped to tackle before Corey Levin came in, what was behind that? What was behind that?
It's because he was eligible the play before. So you can't go from an eligible to an ineligible in an injury because that's twice now that's happened this year. That's twice it's happened.

Can you challenge a replay assist?

You're asking about the one, the fourth down? I asked Clete (Blakeman) if I could challenge it, and he told me I could not challenge it.

That's wrong, by the way.

I went to ask him, I want to challenge. You cannot challenge. That's what he told me. He said we could not challenge it. When he told me we couldn't, we didn't challenge it.

Would you have if you could have?

There's a possibility.

What do you think about Cam Ward's decision making growth over the last month to five weeks?

It gets better. I think he plays faster and faster. He's more comfortable each week. This was a tough challenge because Spags (Steve Spagnuolo) is a phenomenal defensive coordinator, and the pressures, he understands all the protection schemes and all those things, and he got us a couple times. The good thing was Cam did the next best thing. He ate the ball, whether he threw the ball away, didn't turn the ball over, and that's critical against a team like this. But those are the things you see, the ball security in the pocket, things like that. You see the growth, and that's what it's all about, so you just continue to see him making the wow plays here and there and just the control and the command of the offense and the growth. Very pleased with where he's at these days.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

Jeff (Simmons) says he told you not to be a Grinch after this. How did you react to that, and how was this win in your eyes?

It's a good win, just because it was the first time we played good enough, complementary, all three phases. Defense, I think they kept us in the game the entirety, part of it, especially when we had our three-and-outs, but it was a good team win.

You weren't on the team the last time that they won a game at home. Have you guys as a rookie class felt kind of the weight of that this season?

No, we didn't feel the weight of it. We just want to win every game. We got to be able to establish a home atmosphere by winning games. So, the biggest thing is us how can we go 1-0 each and every week and try to continue to play complementary football.

How much did that opening drive in the second half to go down, and you get a couple of deeper shots, and you guys score and take the lead. How much of that set the tone for the whole second half?

I wouldn't say more setting the tone. I just think we continued to play high-level football, both sides. Everybody doing their job. And it's still going to be some stuff to clean up offensively and defensively just from little miscues. But I think we all just have the right mindset each and every play. Trying to be efficient on both sides of the ball and continue to keep the clock running, continue to score points.

The running game and Tony Pollard's emergence over these last three games, how much has that made it a little easier for you in the pass game when it's time to throw the ball?

It was made very easy. Tony (Pollard), he's one of the most unselfish people out there. And for him to continue to let his presence be felt when things are good, when things that are bad, I mean it's why we're starting to trend upwards. The O-line, I think they do a good job, the run game each and every week. We've just got to continue to play complementary football, help the defense out, and continue to be balanced on offense.

You, Elic (Ayomanor), (Chimere) Dike, Gunnar (Helm), are so instrumental in this, how significant is it that the young guys are kind of doing it together, experiencing winning together?

It's fun, especially when we all contribute. A lot of our work pays off, and I think the biggest thing for us as rookies is we just want to win football games. We all don't care about how we win, it's just we all have the will to win.

Would you say this was your most efficient game of the season?

I would say so, especially from just a continuing-to-stay-above-the-chain standpoint. I think in the pass game and run game, we were able to get what we wanted out of it. And I think that's why we were able to have one of our more productive days on offense.

With the comfort level and confidence that you seem to be playing in the pocket, is there a different level that you're reaching as far as feeling the flow of the game and just being able to function?

There is a different flow, because I think as a quarterback, if you can manipulate a lot of stuff, a lot of things will go your way, but you got to continue to play on schedule and on time of how the drive is going, you got continue to emphasize what's going in that drive—what's going good in that drive whether it's pass or run game, and you just got to continue have a next play mentality. You're going to have bad plays, but if you have the right mindset each and every down, you'll take care of a lot.

Is there anything other than reps that help you unlock that comfort level?

Just continue to watch a lot of film, knowing what a DC (defensive coordinator) wants to call here, knowing our best matchups, especially on third down, so just continue to watch film with my guys. Coaches have been helping me out a lot.

Where do you think you have improved the most as a team and how good does it feel to be kind of ending this year with some momentum?

I think the biggest thing that we've improved, just as a whole, with just our mindset, attacking each and every day, whether it's a walk-through, a jog-through, or actually in practice or in a game. Each and every rep, we have to have the right mindset that it's going to be a touchdown rep offensively, defensively having to be game-stopping rep. The more that we can emphasize the little things, the things that's going to win us games, we'll continue to go in the right direction.

When did that mindset flip as a team?

That's always been the mindset the whole time. But I think the switch flip is when we just got going. It's hard to—when you never get going and then try to get going, I think that's one of the hardest things to do. But once you get going, and you see what good football is supposed to look like, I think that real time switch just flips each and every day.

On a play that Patrick Mahomes and Travis Kelce pretty much made famous, which is a little mid tight end shovel pass. How good did it feel to be able to execute that play against that team?

I'm just glad we called it. I mean, all that crazy stuff, that's me every play. So, I think Bo (Hardegree) and Nick (Holz) and Stock (Luke Stocker), tight ends coach, I think they did an unbelievable job with the play. They let us freelance a little bit and I'm glad Chig (Okonkwo) got a gusto.

Cam, how difficult has this whole season been for you, just as somebody who wasn't used to probably not having success playing football? And do you feel like now that you're almost kind of on the other side of it, that you are going to be a lot better for what you went through this year?

Yeah, I think I've been better each and every week. Whether it's one thing or whether it's a major thing. And I've had stops where I didn't have good football, whether it was the team as a whole or just me individually. So, I know how to handle tough situations. And just the team that they have around me, the guys that we have in our locker room, we're able to handle those situations. So, I think just going forward, I just continue to control what I can control, lead my teammates, be a great team player and try to win games. I think everything else will take care of itself.

What's the most important thing for you for the final two games of this season?

To win games and continue to put up a lot of points on offense. We pride ourselves on scoring the football and we have to make an emphasis on that every drive. Every drive has to end with points, but then the more we can score the football, the defense continues to do what they're doing, the wins will stack on.

Van Jefferson is a veteran wide receiver on his team. He mentioned that he talked to you and gave you advice and things like that. How has his advice been critical to your development and your process on the field?

I think the best part of having Van J(efferson) is he can see it from a different point of view than I can. Not only the years he's played, where he's lined up because they don't see everything I see when I'm dropping back, and I can't see what they're seeing while they're running. So, he's able to let me know just certain leverages that a DB's playing, helps me with my ball placement, and when things get rough, he always stays in the right mindset. He never gets too high, never gets too low. And I know he's always there to make a play for us.

Are you excited to see Miami get the win yesterday?

Yes, sir. They got some stuff to clean up as well, man, but I mean for them boys to get the get they first ever CFP (College Football Playoff) win in the program history, something I wish I could have did, but I know the guys in that locker room they got us and I plan on them going out there and beating Ohio State.

LINEBACKER CODY BARTON

How did it feel to win at home?

It felt great. That's something we've needed for a long time. This is something we talked about all last week. Best way to celebrate Christmas, get a win and a victory Monday and stuff like that. And so, it's a testament to this team. Just all year, the record obviously hasn't been what we want it to be, but we've been talking about we're going to finish strong, no matter what. We're going to play hard no matter what. Hats off to the guys. No matter what the circumstance, always play hard.

You guys have been preaching all year, about playing complementary football. Did it feel like that today, with the way the offense, defense, all three phases were today?

Yeah, even in special teams, pinning them back in crucial situations. Punt team put them back inside their ten, a couple of times. Offense controlling the clock and controlling the ball. Defense getting off when it was time to get off. It was a full team game.

A lot of new faces on both sides, all three phases today. Guys really stepped up today.

Yeah, a lot of guys stepped up. I just think and can speak on the defense. We've had a lot of new guys in the building this week in the backend positions, and everyone's been dialed into the game plan, communicating, so it's been big.

Was it one of those, 'Hey, great play. I don't know your name, but great play?'

No, no. I always make sure when guys come in, they make sure I know their name. So, I don't just call them by number and stuff. It does get a lot when you got new guys back there. But a great opportunity for a lot of guys to get their first NFL snaps or whatever it is. So, I'm just happy for everybody.

The defense got challenged last week. San Francisco had a hot start. I think KC was only one-for-nine on third down today.

Yeah, coming off of last week, we always look at the things we need to improve on. And obviously, coming from last week, there was nothing special to what teams are doing. It's just, if we play disciplined, and do our jobs, and be in the correct leverage, or whatever it is, everyone just does their job, we can be damn good across the board.

SAFETY AMANI HOOKER

I know it wasn't the original quarterback you thought you might be facing when you saw KC, but how do you feel about the secondary, the way you guys shut him down?

Yeah, it was great. I mean, no matter who's out there, it's an NFL game. You always have to come out here with high expectations for ourselves. Guys stepped up all across the field on the on the defensive side. We just stayed top-down, not letting balls go behind us. So that was a good job.

You guys did a great job shutting them down on third down, as they were only one-of-nine. That had to make you feel good, knowing how close you've gotten in these past games.

It was a great day on third down. Just passing downs in general. We just had great communication across the board. And guys were playing what we were communicating, which is awesome.

Right before Christmas, a home win finally for the first time in over a year. How do you feel actually coming to your home locker room and getting to celebrate?

It feels awesome. We haven't had music playing after a game here in a long time, so it was awesome to have that. Ms. Amy (Adams Strunk) was here as well, so that's a good gift for everyone in the organization.

RUNNING BACK TONY POLLARD

How did it feel to get a Christmas present with a home win today?

Man, this was big for us, especially doing it at home, slowly toward the end of the season, kind of building that momentum, just carrying it into this game and just coming out with a win, that was big for us.

I know Jeff (Simmons) and a lot of the veterans have been preaching complementary football, did it feel like that today, getting it from all three phases today?

Definitely, it felt like we did a good job playing off each other. Feeding off of the momentum from either side, whether it's special teams, or whether it's offense, or whether it's defense, just playing off of each other.

How would you say Cam (Ward) did running the offense today, looked like maybe his most efficient game of the year?

He's doing a better job, week in and week out, just getting better with his decision-making. Just little things that you just watch film and see that he's getting better week after week.

How much fun you have running behind this offensive line because the last three weeks or last several weeks, the running game has really looked good?

I mean, when those guys move people off the ball like that, they make my job easy. It's easy for me to get the spotlight and recognition. But without them up front doing the dirty work, none of this would be happening.

Third straight week hat you guys have had the commitment to run. I think the final number of total carries today for you guys was 40. I mean, how effective can you guys be when the commitment is there?

I mean, that's just us finding our identity in this offense. Figuring out what we do best, and what gets us going, what allows us to put points on the board, and that's what we're doing right now.

How good does it feel just here toward the end of the season and your play is really getting stronger? What does that say?

It's just controlling what you can control and trying to finish on a high note, a positive. I know we had a lot of downs in this season, a lot ups and downs, but just trying to control what we can control on these last few games and just go out fighting.

You personally, how good do you feel seeing that you're able to be so productive at this time of year?

It feels good, especially in December, playing football. This is when you want to play your best ball anyway. So, it just shows that we have something going here and we have to build off of it.

It's a 100-yard game for you in three straight. You've never done that in your NFL career. How rewarding is something like that, especially with how the year started?

I mean, it's very rewarding. It's something that we've been working on all year, trying to get the run game going and now toward the back end of the season, we're starting to get that momentum going and build our identity around it.

Your first home win, I think it's been 412 days, I think you've had a child born since then?

Yeah, it's been a long time, so this win here at home for us today was huge. For the fans, for the owners, for the players, for everybody in the locker room, it was big.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE JEFFERY SIMMONS

How good does it feel to finally break the home and lose this week? I know you're trying to win every week.

It feels good. That's a good football team, even without their best player (Patrick) Mahomes and they tried to keep it close for a little bit, but what a feeling. It's a feeling to come in the locker room and celebrate with the guys and to feel that joy, to feel it lift, especially being at home. and then to see the resiliency that guys keep fighting. That's what I keep talking about. When you talk about the future of this football team, when you talk about what we are made of. We could have easily said the season was over with. You see how guys come in each and every day with the right mindset that no matter what the record is, we're going to continue to play for each other and play hard. Today showed that in all three phases. Shout out to the offense, they did their part. Everyone just did their job, and we keep talking about complementing football, and we finally got one at home. So, it felt good.

When you went in on the eligible play, was there contact with the official? Did it seem like he acknowledged it?

From my understanding, when I'm looking at him — I mean, I'm a defensive player. You see, I wear a big arm brace, red sleeve, looking right at you, and I'm throwing my arm up and rubbing my chest. He said he didn't acknowledge it. I guess he was reporting (Oli) Udoh first. I guess I should have actually went into his face and did it again I guess. But his explanation he was like, 'I got a lot to handle during that play.' But as I'm running on the field, I'm looking, I'm making eye contact with him, doing this. I don't know. I hate it for TP (Tony Pollard), knocked a touchdown that off the board. Hopefully they don't ban me from offense now, if I get another opportunity, I'll make sure that I go all the way to the referee. I did the same thing I did last week, as I'm running on the field, I'm doing this. And maybe he just took his eyes off me in the last minute as I coming on the field, but lesson learned.

How much does a defensive lineman lick his chops when a team has the near it's own goal line for chance for a safety and when is the last time you got one of those?

Been a while. I think that was my first safety I ever caused in my career, honestly. You know, from high school to college. When they got backed up, in my mind I'm like, 'Go make a play.' That's kind of my mindset every snap, honestly. But when you get in a moment like that, they get a false start, the crowd noise and the momentum is kind of going our way. That next play, I'm like, 'It's time to go make a play.' I switched up my technique a little bit to where I know I'm about to get a double team, which it was supposed to be a double team. And I swarmed him pretty good, and I whiffed them, and my eyes got big. I was just praying not to miss the tackle. So, it was a hell of a play on my behalf. And so that is my first one in my career, that one felt good.

We've talked about the need for these young guys to experience winning. Now that they've got this one, experience it at home, what do you think the value is to young guys, especially Cam Ward and some of the young guys on offense? What does it mean to them to feel it?

I think it means a lot to them. I think as a team, when you walk into that building, those young guys — sometimes you could, I mean when you've been on the team, when you been in the league for a minute, you know how sometimes young guys think. You kind of feel it at times where like these guys — they're going through adversity, this is one of the things where they're going into a shell. I would say starting with Cam (Ward), Cam hasn't changed. Us as a team, we know how close we've been. We know how vital it is for us to do the little things better. And I think that's when we come in and watch tape and we get the correction from the coaches, we see that and our young guys see that. This rookie class is pretty good, and they come out there, and they've been coming to work with the right mindset. And like I said, it starts with Cam. He was pissed off when we came in when we got the victory last time, and I was messing with him in the locker room. I was like, don't be the Grinch today. So, he was he was happy today and shout out to the young guys and this is just showing what we could be in the future. And those guys, they're going to play a big part of it.

It's 9-6 at halftime and the offense goes 90 yards to open the second half, putting them down two scores. How much did that change the game for you guys on your side?

It's changed the game a lot, especially when you've got a team that was still trying to establish the run game, and now it puts us in pass-rush mode. That's something that we've been harping on. That's what we've talking about. Dennard (Wilson) on the sideline, he over there telling us, even in the locker room at halftime, 'Let's get them to third-and-long.' And like I said, that's what you call complementary football. When your offense can go out there, 90 yards, that is big time football and that's something we dream for on defense. Especially when you can just pin your ears back and rush, as you saw at the end of the game. When you get two sacks back-to-back like that, that's big time. So, like I said, that's complementary football. That's something we've been preaching. It's something we have really been harping on, playing for each other and playing off each other.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

You talk about feeding off of each other. I know you mentioned Cam being “a Grinch” after the last win. But that competitive attitude, how do you guys feed off of that knowing that he’s kind of the captain on the other side of the ball and you being the captain and the competitor yourself on the defensive side?

Well, I mean, it wasn’t a bad thing. I had a conversation with Cam, we all talked to Cam. But of course, when it happened, I told him it’s hard to win in this league. But to understand and to know every time we come into the meeting room, there’s always things to grow off of. And that’s what Cam felt coming off the field, so I understood where he was coming from. One thing I told him, it’s hard to win in this league no matter who it is against. I’m sure he wanted everything to be cleaner, but you got to enjoy every one of them. Especially the way this season is going for us, that’s kind of my message to him. But I understood where he was coming from. It’s not always going to be clean, but just like today, I got told him the most passing yards in Titans history for a rookie. I kind of threw that in and joked with him, but that’s big time. That’s the expectation that he had for himself, and that’s the reason why — that’s why I keep telling these people — that’s the reason why I don’t want to go nowhere. I see the competitive nature, I see the growth as a rookie of Cam. I can see where he could take this franchise. So, I’m looking forward to continuing to end the season the right way and we’ll see how next year goes for us.

How much did you guys talk, did the coaching staff talk to you guys about how long it had been since a home win here?

I mean, we mentioned in before the game. When we talked about earlier this week, right after that last game, we talked about coming back home. We’ve been talking about it all week at practice. We didn’t put, I guess, an exact number on how long it’s been. But man, like I said, it’s just it was like desperate. We were desperate to win at home and guys played that way today. I’m proud of this team, getting our first win at home this year. So we got one more, hopefully, we can finish it off the right way.

GUARD PETER SKORONSKI

You guys have been able to stack, that’s got to mean more than, right?

For sure, for sure. I think we’ve got a little bit of an identity here in terms of what we’ve been able to do. We know that we can hang our hat on that in a lot of ways. So proud of the guys, proud of whole offense. Of course, up front, we’re real proud of that.

9-6 at halftime, you come out in the second half and put a long one together to make it a two-score game. That seemed to be like a stake in the ground moment.

It feels like we hadn’t done that in a long time. Been a while since we did that. That was awesome. Cam (Ward) made some great plays to extend the drive, and that’s what you want to have at quarterback. Man, that was great to just go down and score, and really great job.

What’s it say about the character of this team being able to finish this season so strong?

Yeah, I mean, guys have really stayed in it, man. We’ve had some lows, some low lows. The guys have come to work, guys have worked hard. Guys were trying to find solutions on how to be better, and guys are continuing to get better. So, just proud of the group of guys. Man, when you hit these moments and you’re losing a lot of games, I mean, it just feels low. It’s hard to be motivated, but this group has really stayed in it.

When it comes to the run game, and we talk about establishing an identity kind of here at the end of the season, how strong has it been just since the beginning when the commitment became we’re going to push the run game because we have the guys who can do it?

Yeah, for sure. I mean, I think it starts with our staff and them, you know, really believing in us and trusting us. And then just our group, just saying, ‘Hey, let’s be the group to really make this go and get the run game going.’ I think that’s been the catalyst of all of our success.

We were here talking to Tony Pollard, he’s closing in on 1,000 yards again. He’s gotten stronger as the year has gone on. What have you seen from him?

Totally, man. We’ve had some games where he had to go away from him. He’s had the best attitude about it. I’m glad that we’re rewarding him, but we’ve got to get him over 1,000.

Do you guys as an offensive line take pride when you have a 100-yard rusher like that? He’s done it in three straight games now.

Yeah, no doubt. I think we all wanted to get him over 100 at the end there. I think that was a cool moment, so it’s a credit to him and his ability, but also just the whole unit.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER JIHAD WARD

First time since 2023 this team has held a team without a touchdown. That’s got to be a good feeling.

Yeah, it’s a good feeling. We did, we came together, and I’m proud of this team. How it was time to wake up. So, we did what we had to do. All personnel, on offense, defense, special teams. I am glad we got the victory.

We talked about you guys up front getting it done. You close the deal with the sacks up front, and offensively, you rush for 160 yards. So, at the line of scrimmage, you guys won this football game today.

Yeah, man, I just can’t thank Arden Key, Jeffery Simmons, and the rest of the young guys out there. But I want to give a special shout out to Dennard (Wilson). Dennard has been very consistent in everything. He’s got our backs, and at the end of the day, when we need to be heard, he’s out there listening. So, shout out to Dennard (Wilson)

How big was that two points?

Very big. It’s next play mentality. You know what I’m saying? It was his next play. And you know, this isn’t surprising when we see Jeff (Simmons) do stuff like that. I actually visioned him doing that, before the play even started. I’m like, man, Jeff is about to blow up and just get a tackle for loss, and call it a day. So, shout out to him.

How did it feel to get a victory today, a home victory, and you got a sack?

I feel good, man. You know, at the end of the day, we got two more. The sacks are going to come, man. You can’t really rush it. You have got to do what you have got to do. You have got to do your job. I think everybody did their job, and we’ve just got to keep continuing to do our jobs. That’s how the play came to me.

Walk through your sack, and how you knew you had him?

This quarterback, he’s a hell of a quarterback. You know, he was scrambling, and we just had to keep getting him in the pocket. And we just had to contain him. We just do our games, and we have a rush plan. Once we get our rush plan, we keep him in the pocket so he won’t scramble, and we got him.

Week 5 • Oct. 5, 2025 • TITANS 22 at Cardinals 21 • 1-4

The Titans overcome a 21-3 second-quarter deficit and a 21-6 fourth-quarter deficit ... The win ties for the second-largest fourth-quarter comeback in franchise history ... Rookie quarterback Cam Ward gets his first career victory, passing for 265 yards, including 193 yards in the fourth quarter ... Calvin Ridley has 131 receiving yards, including a 38-yarder to set up Joey Slye's game-winning 29-yard field goal as time expires ... The Cardinals lose three fumbles, including Emari Demercado's fumble through the end zone to prevent a rushing touchdown, as well as Dadrion Taylor-Demerson's fumble after an interception, resulting in Tyler Lockett's recovery in the end zone for a Titans touchdown.

Week 6 • Oct. 12, 2025 • Titans 10 at RAIDERS 20 • 1-5

The Titans play their first game in Las Vegas ... The Raiders score the game's first 17 points, keeping the Titans off the scoreboard until Matthew Wright's field goal with 1:06 remaining in the third quarter ... The Raiders defense sacks Cam Ward six times, including two sacks by Maxx Crosby ... Raiders linebacker Devin White records an interception and a strip-sack, helping to force two of the Titans' three turnovers ... White's forced fumble gave the Raiders possession at Tennessee's two-yard line, helping to set up the game's first touchdown in the second quarter ... Ward completes a late touchdown pass to tight end David Martin-Robinson.

Week 7 • Oct. 19, 2025 • PATRIOTS 31 at Titans 13 • 1-6

The Patriots score the final 21 points after the Titans take a 13-10 lead in the second quarter ... Patriots quarterback Drake Maye goes 21-of-23 passing for 222 yards and two touchdowns ... Cam Ward is sacked five times and throws an interception in addition to outside linebacker K'Lavon Chaisson returning a fumble four yards for a touchdown in the third quarter ... Ward passes for 255 yards and connects with Chimere Dike for a 38-yard score ... Former Titans head coach Mike Vrabel faces the team for the first time as Patriots head coach.

Week 8 • Oct. 26, 2025 • Titans 14 at COLTS 38 • 1-7

Colts running back Jonathan Taylor rushes for 153 yards and two touchdowns and adds 21 yards and a touchdown as a receiver ... The Colts outscore the Titans 21-7 in the second half ... With the Colts ahead 17-7 early in the third quarter, the Titans' first drive of the half stalls, and after a punt for a touchback, Taylor rushes for an 80-yard touchdown ... The Colts defense records four sacks and an interception ... Colts quarterback Daniel Jones passes for 272 yards and three touchdowns ... Titans rookie quarterback Cam Ward throws for 259 yards and a touchdown.

Week 9 • Nov. 2, 2025 • CHARGERS 27 at Titans 20 • 1-8

Chargers quarterback Justin Herbert passes for 250 yards and two touchdowns and rushes for 57 yards and a score, despite the Titans defense accumulating six sacks ... The Titans score touchdowns in the first quarter on a 24-yard interception return by linebacker Cody Barton and a 67-yard punt return by Chimere Dike but manage two field goals in the final three quarters ... The Chargers limit the Titans to 10 first downs, 44 offensive plays, and one third-down conversion on nine attempts ... In the second half, the Chargers stop the Titans on fourth-and-goal at the one-yard line, followed by a 99-yard Chargers touchdown drive to take a 27-17 lead.

Week 11 • Nov. 16, 2025 • TEXANS 16 at Titans 13 • 1-9

Matthew Wright makes a 35-yard game-winning field goal as time expires ... Davis Mills starts at quarterback for Houston for an injured C.J. Stroud ... Trailing 13-6, Titans rookie quarterback Cam Ward directs a 95-yard drive, capped by a four-yard touchdown pass to Van Jefferson, to tie the score with 1:35 on the clock in the fourth quarter ... Texans wide receiver Nico Collins catches nine passes for 92 yards, including a touchdown and a 17-yard reception on third-and-16 to help set up the game-winning field goal ... Ward passes for 256 yards with 37 rushing yards and his first career rushing touchdown ... The Titans convert five times on seven fourth-down attempts.

Week 13 • Nov. 30, 2025 • JAGUARS 25 at Titans 3 • 1-11

The Jaguars defense limits the Titans scoring to a 28-yard field goal by Joey Slye to cap the Titans' first possession ... Jaguars quarterback Trevor Lawrence passes for 229 yards and two touchdowns ... In the second quarter, the Jaguars recover a fumble on special teams and reach the end zone three plays later, and in the third quarter, a roughing the punter penalty extends an eventual Jaguars touchdown drive ... The Jaguars defense records three sacks while limiting the Titans to 11 first downs and a pair of third-down conversions on 12 attempts ... A total of 23 penalties are enforced—13 by the Jaguars and 10 by the Titans.

Week 14 • Dec. 7, 2025 • TITANS 31 at Browns 29 • 2-11

The Titans build a 31-17 lead in the fourth quarter before a comeback bid by Cleveland falls short ... Trailing by 14 points, Cleveland reaches the end zone twice in the final five minutes, but the Titans defense denies a pair of two-point conversions ... The Titans total 17 points off an interception, fumble recovery and the team's first blocked punt since 2012 ... Tony Pollard rushes for a career-high 161 yards and a pair of touchdowns, including a career-long 65-yarder ... Cam Ward posts his first career game with multiple touchdown passes, connecting with rookies Chimere Dike and Elic Ayomanor ... Browns rookie quarterback Shedeur Sanders, in his third start, passes for 364 yards and three touchdowns with one rushing touchdown.

Week 15 • Dec. 14, 2025 • Titans 24 at 49ERS 37 • 2-12

San Francisco scores on seven of its eight possessions, totals 430 yards, converts nine-of-15 third downs, and finishes with a 37:05 time of possession ... 49ers quarterback Brock Purdy passes for 295 yards and three touchdowns, including a pair of touchdowns to Jauan Jennings ... Cam Ward passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns with a 101.2 passer rating, his career high through 14 games ... Tony Pollard rushes for 101 yards and a score ... In the fourth quarter, defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons forces a turnover with a strip-sack, and two plays into the ensuing drive, he catches a one-yard touchdown pass.

Week 16 • Dec. 21, 2025 • Chiefs 9 at TITANS 26 • 3-12

The Titans defense limits the Chiefs to three field goals, 133 total yards, nine first downs and one third-down conversion on nine attempts ... Chad Brinker and Mike Borgonzi recap the 2025 NFL Draft

Chad Brinker serves as president of football operations for the Titans. He joined the Titans in 2023 as assistant general manager before being promoted to his current position in 2024. In his role, Brinker provides executive leadership and direct oversight for the entire football staff, reporting directly to Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Since his arrival in Tennessee, Brinker's progressive approach has led to several initiatives aimed at moving the organization forward. He spearheaded the club's extensive search for a new general manager in 2025, resulting in the hiring of Mike Borgonzi. Additionally, he reshaped and refined the foundation of the team's analytics department from the ground up, while building and executing the 2024 and 2025 offseason strategies for player acquisitions in both free agency and the draft.

An NFL personnel veteran, Brinker embodies core strengths focused in executive leadership, strategic operations, financial analysis, and talent evaluation. His dual background in football operations merged with a business acumen gained from an MBA at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management further developed his skills as a team builder and strategic leader both on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Titans, Brinker spent 13 years with the Green Bay Packers in a variety of roles as a talent evaluator and strategic counselor to Packers leadership. In his initial season with the Packers, he collected his first Super Bowl championship when the team defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

Throughout his experience with the Packers, he served as a pro and college scout; led strategy for unrestricted free agency and undrafted free agent processes; handled player contracts, salary cap administration, and roster management; and advised the general manager and executive vice president of football operations on team needs in free agency and drafts, always with an eye on long-term vision. The Packers won the NFC North Division eight times and drafted 13 Pro Bowl Players during his tenure.

Brinker also owns corporate business experience with two Fortune 100 companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries. He serves as an executive council member on the Freed-Hardeman University President's Council and has shared his expertise as a guest lecturer in the Sports Marketing program at Freed-Hardeman and the Sports Administration program at his alma mater, Ohio University.

A native of Martins Ferry, Ohio, Brinker first entered the NFL in 2003 as an undrafted free agent running back with the New York Jets. He holds two degrees from Ohio University, including a master's degree in sports administration, where he was a two-sport athlete and a two-time All-Mid-American Conference selection at running back. He was also selected as Ohio University's Male Athlete of the Year in 2003.

Brinker and his wife, Rachelle, have three children. In addition to prioritizing time with his family, he enjoys reading, teaching, traveling, and spending time outdoors.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

In Borgonzi's first offseason in Tennessee, the Titans acquired several veteran free agents. Among the most notable signings were tackle Dan Moore Jr. (previously with Pittsburgh); guard Kevin Zeitler (Detroit); linebacker Cody Barton (Denver); outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones (Seattle); wide receiver Van Jefferson (Pittsburgh); safety Xavier Woods (Carolina); punter Johnny Hekker (Carolina); and kicker Joey Slye (New England).

In April, Borgonzi led the process that concluded with the selection of Miami (Fla.) quarterback Cam Ward with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. The team's nine total draft choices also included UCLA outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (second round), Penn State safety Kevin Winston Jr. (third round), Florida wide receiver Chimere Dike (fourth round), Texas tight end Gunnar Helm (fourth round), Stanford wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (fourth round), Sacramento State offensive lineman Jackson Slater (fifth round), California cornerback Marcus Harris (sixth round) and Michigan running back Kalel Mullings (sixth round).

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23) over a six-season span.

From 2017 to 2024, Borgonzi worked under Chiefs general manager Brett Veach. As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as assistant general manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE McCOY

The Titans named Mike McCoy interim head coach on Oct. 13, 2025. He was hired in 2025 as senior offensive assistant.

McCoy, who is in his 23rd season as a coach in the NFL, served as the head coach of the San Diego Chargers from 2013 to 2016 and spent an additional six years as an NFL offensive coordinator.

He arrived in Tennessee after three seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as quarterbacks coach. While in Jacksonville, McCoy helped quarterback Trevor Lawrence register consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons in 2022 (4,113) and 2023 (4,016). During those two seasons, Lawrence's 8,129 passing yards ranked fifth in the NFL, and his 46 touchdown passes ranked 10th. In 2024, injuries limited Lawrence to 10 games, during which time he passed for 2,045 yards and 11 touchdowns.

In 2023, Lawrence surpassed 4,000 passing yards for the second consecutive year and also eclipsed 10,000 career passing yards, becoming the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 10,000 passing yards. Lawrence had eight consecutive games with at least 20 completions, which set a single-season franchise record.

In 2022, McCoy helped Lawrence improve in every major passing category from his rookie year to his second campaign. Lawrence produced his first 4,000-yard passing season in the NFL and finished the regular season completing 387 passes on 584 attempts for 4,113 yards. He threw 25 touchdowns against just eight interceptions. His four passing touchdowns in the Wild Card round against the Chargers were also a single-game postseason franchise record.

Before going to Jacksonville, McCoy served as the offensive coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals in 2018. He helped Josh Rosen complete 217 passes for 2,278 yards and 11 touchdowns in his rookie season, while wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald recorded a team-high 69 receptions for 734 yards and six scores. In addition, under McCoy's tutelage, the Cardinals rushing attack posted 1,342 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2017, McCoy joined the Broncos in his second stint as an offensive coordinator in Denver and helped running back CJ Anderson finish ninth in the NFL in rushing yards (1,007).

From 2013 to 2016, McCoy was the head coach of the San Diego Chargers. During that time, San Diego ranked ninth in the league in total offense (365.9 yards per game) and second in offensive third-down percentage (44.6 percent). In addition, McCoy's group had a top-10 passing attack each season. San Diego qualified for the postseason in McCoy's first campaign at the helm (2013) and beat the Bengals in the Wild Card round.

Under McCoy, Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers finished with his three highest single-season completion percentage marks while averaging more than 31 touchdown passes per year. Rivers earned Comeback Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press in 2013 after completing a career-best and NFL-high 69.5 percent of his passes for 4,478 yards with 32 touchdowns and 11 interceptions (105.5 rating).

Prior to his tenure as head coach in San Diego, McCoy served as the Broncos offensive coordinator for four seasons (2009-12). During his final year in Denver in 2012, the Broncos tied Atlanta for the NFL's best record at 13-3 in quarterback Peyton Manning's first season with the team. The Broncos featured the NFL's fourth-ranked offense and fifth-ranked passing attack as Manning earned Comeback Player of the Year honors after passing for a then-franchise-record 4,659 yards with 37 touchdowns.

In 2011, the Broncos led the NFL and established a franchise record with 2,632 rushing yards. They earned a postseason berth and Wild Card victory with Tim Tebow at quarterback, marking the first of back-to-back playoff appearances (2011-12). Tebow finished that season with 660 rushing yards, the most by a quarterback in team history, while running back Willis McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and earned his second career Pro Bowl selection after rushing for 1,199 yards.

McCoy oversaw the NFL's seventh-ranked passing attack in 2010 as quarterback Kyle Orton finished fourth in the league averaging 281 passing yards per game. Brandon Lloyd led the NFL with 1,448 receiving yards and earned his first Pro Bowl selection while also becoming just the fourth wide receiver in team history to be named All-Pro.

In 2009, Brandon Marshall tied for third in the NFL with 101 receptions, including an NFL-record 21 catches in one game. Running back Knowshon Moreno earned All-Rookie honors after leading all NFL rookies in rushing yards (947), yards from scrimmage (1,160) and total touchdowns (nine).

McCoy spent his first nine seasons as a coach in Carolina, working his way up from offensive assistant (2000) to wide receivers coach (2001), quarterbacks coach/offensive assistant (2002), quarterbacks coach (2003-06) and passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2007-08). The Panthers totaled three playoff appearances, two division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVIII during McCoy's tenure.

During McCoy's time with Carolina, he worked closely with Jake Delhomme, helping the quarterback to four 3,000-yard passing seasons and his first Pro Bowl selection in 2005. Delhomme averaged the fifth-most yards per pass attempt (7.8) in the NFL during McCoy's two seasons managing Carolina's passing attack while wide receiver Steve Smith Sr. ranked seventh in the league with 2,423 yards in that span.

A college quarterback, McCoy spent his first two years at Long Beach State (1990-91) before spending his last two years at Utah (1993-94). He signed with the Broncos as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1995 and spent his rookie season on Green Bay's practice squad. He played in NFL Europe with the Amsterdam Admirals (1997) and spent one game on San Francisco's roster as its third quarterback in 1997. McCoy spent training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles (1998) before finishing his playing career with the Calgary Stampeders in the CFL in 1999.

McCoy and his wife, Kellie, have a daughter, Liv, and a son, Luke.

TITANS 2025 ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN FASSEL SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Fassel joined the Titans in 2025 after spending the previous five seasons with the Dallas Cowboys.
- After Fassel's arrival in Dallas in 2020, the Cowboys improved from the league's bottom-ranked kick return and punt coverage units to top five marks in both categories during his tenure.
- Under Fassel's direction in 2024, second-year kicker Brandon Aubrey connected on a franchise-record 40 field goals, tying for the third-highest total in NFL history. The Cowboys also ranked second in the league with 1,091 kickoff return yards, led the NFL with an NFL-record 32.1 kickoff return average, and were the only team to return multiple kickoffs for touchdowns. Aubrey and second year returner KaVontae Turpin received AP All-Pro honors.
- In 2023, Cowboys punter Bryan Anger led the NFC with a 51.4 gross average.
- Before his time in Dallas, Fassel served as special teams coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams for eight seasons from 2012-19. During those eight seasons, the Rams led the NFL in net yards per punt (43.3) and ranked second in gross yards per punt (46.9). Fassel helped Los Angeles to a Super Bowl berth during the 2018 season. In 2013, Fassel oversaw a punt team that set the single-season NFL record for net punting average (46.0), led by punter Johnny Hekker.
- Fassel joined the Rams after three seasons (2009-11) with the Oakland Raiders as special teams coordinator. He began his NFL coaching career as an assistant special teams coach with the Baltimore Ravens.
- Prior to his NFL career, Fassel was the head coach and assistant athletic director at New Mexico Highlands University. His coaching career also included stops at Idaho State (2001) and with the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe (2000) and Bucknell University (1999, 2002).
- The Anaheim, Calif., native played wide receiver at Weber State. He signed as an undrafted free agent with the Colts following his college playing career.
- Fassel is the son of the late NFL coach Jim Fassel.

NICK HOLZ OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Holz (pronounced "HOLTS") arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 11 years of NFL coaching experience and 16 total years of coaching experience.
- In 2024, Holz helped direct a Titans offense that featured running back Tony Pollard (1,079 rushing yards) and wide receiver Calvin Ridley (1,017 receiving yards), who produced 1,000-yard seasons rushing and receiving, respectively.
- He joined the Titans after spending the 2023 campaign as the passing game coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Working in an offense that featured quarterback Trevor Lawrence, he helped the unit rank ninth in passing (242.7 yards per game) and 13th in points scored (22.2 points per game). Calvin Ridley posted 1,016 receiving yards and eight touchdowns, while Evan Engram led all NFL tight ends with 114 receptions for 963 yards.
- Before his stint in Jacksonville, Holz was the offensive coordinator for UNLV in 2022, which followed 10 campaigns with the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders (2012-21). With the Raiders, he served in a variety of roles on offense, mostly focused on wide receivers. He served on the staff of three different Raiders head coaches and worked with a notable list of offensive minds, including Greg Knapp, Greg Olson, Bill Musgrave and Jon Gruden.
- Prior to joining the Raiders, Holz was an assistant at Stanford under head coach Jim Harbaugh (2008-10) and David Shaw (2011). As an assistant quarterbacks coach, he helped Andrew Luck earn first-team All-American honors and finish as the runner-up in Heisman Trophy voting two times.
- Holz began his collegiate coaching career in 2007 at Nebraska, where he served as offensive quality control coach and video intern for the Cornhuskers under head coach Bill Callahan.

TITANS 2025 ASSISTANT COACHES

- At the University of Colorado, Holz was a three-year letter winner (2004-06) as a wide receiver and holder.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

In five college seasons, Ward played for three different schools: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

He was credited with his first career game-winning drive, which ended with Joey Slye's game-winning field goal as time expired. Ward completed five of his six passes on the drive for 67 yards, including a 38-yard pass to Calvin Ridley to help set up the field goal. The Titans trailed by 18 points in the second quarter, which tied for the second-largest deficit by any quarterback in their first career win as a starter in the Super Bowl era (21 by Atlanta's Mike Moroski in Week 13, 1983; 18 by New York Giants' Daniel Jones in Week 3, 2019; 18 by Seattle's Jon Kitna in Week 16, 1997). Since 2000, Ward joined Vince Young (Nov. 26, 2006 against the New York Giants) as the only NFL rookie quarterbacks to win a game in which they trailed by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter. Ward's 193 fourth-quarter passing yards were the fourth-most by an NFL rookie in a game since the beginning of the 1978 season. In that span, Ward ranked behind only Tampa Bay's Jameis Winston (238 at St. Louis on Dec. 17, 2015), Houston's Davis Mills (220 vs. L.A. Rams on Oct. 31, 2021) and Washington's Jayden Daniels (194 vs. Dallas on Nov. 24, 2024). From that group, Ward's total was the second-most in a road game and the most in a victory. He found Ridley in the fourth quarter for a 47-yard pass, which was the longest of Ward's career to date, to help set up a touchdown.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), completed 26 of 38 passes for 222 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He completed his first six passes of the game, and in the first quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with an 18-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. Ward connected three times with Van Jefferson on passes of at least 20 yards: a 20-yarder in the second quarter, a 23-yarder in the third quarter and another 23-yarder in the fourth quarter. In the fourth quarter, he converted a fourth-and-15 with a 20-yard completion to Chig Okonkwo and registered his third career touchdown pass on a one-yard toss to David Martin-Robinson. He became the first quarterback in franchise history to start at least the first six games of his rookie campaign.

➤ Against New England (10/19), completed 25 of 34 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His 73.5 completion percentage, 7.50 yards per attempt, 14 passing first downs, and 92.2 passer rating were his best marks through seven NFL games. His 73.5 completion percentage was the best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback with at least 30 attempts in a game, eclipsing Marcus Mariota's previous mark of 71.8 (28-of-39) as a rookie at New Orleans on Nov. 8, 2015. Ward became the team's first rookie quarterback in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) with 25 or more completions in back-to-back games. The last quarterback to accomplish the feat for the Titans was Mariota, who accomplished the feat in two consecutive games from Sept. 11-18, 2016. Ward completed 10 of his first 11 passes for 144 yards and one touchdown (149.1 passer rating), including a 38-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the first quarter.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), completed 22-of-38 passes for 259 yards and a touchdown, eclipsing the 250-yard passing mark for the third time in four games. He became the first Titans quarterback since Marcus Mariota in 2015 to have 20 or more completions in four consecutive team games. Ward threw a 21-yard pass to Chimere Dike to convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter and added a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor in the second quarter. He also completed a 23-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo in the third quarter and a 22-yard strike to Gunnar Helm in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), completed 12 of 21 passes for 145 yards. He completed a 21-yard pass to Van Jefferson in the first quarter and connected with Tyjae Spears for a 26-yard completion in the second quarter. In the third quarter, he helped convert a third-and-seven with a 29-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), completed 24 of 37 passes for 194 yards and one touchdown (87.0 passer rating). He also rushed for 33 yards on three attempts. During a 95-yard, game-tying drive in the fourth quarter, he completed a 39-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo and a four-yard touchdown pass to Van Jefferson. During the drive, he completed six of eight passes for 63 yards and also scrambled for a 20-yard gain. In the first quarter, he completed six of eight passes for 57 yards (94.3 passer rating). He rushed for a 10-yard gain to convert a third-and-four in the fourth quarter. He became the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start the first 10 games of a season. Previously, Marcus Mariota held the franchise's longest rookie streak to begin a season with starts in the first five games as a rookie in 2015.

➤ Against Seattle (11/23), completed 28-of-42 passes for 256 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions, amounting to a 91.0 passer rating. He added six rushing attempts for 37 yards and one touchdown, and four of his rushing attempts resulted in first downs. He tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the fourth quarter. He also had completions of 25 yards to Dike and 26 yards to Chig Okonkwo. He scored his first career touchdown on a six-yard rushing attempt in the third quarter—the first rushing touchdown by a Titans quarterback since Mason Rudolph's 11-yard run at Detroit on Oct. 27, 2024. By increasing his total to 2,210 passing yards in 2025, he surpassed Vince Young (2,199 in 2006) for the second-highest total by a rookie in franchise history behind Marcus Mariota (2,818 in 2015).

➤ Against Jacksonville (11/30), completed 24 of 38 passes for 141 yards and added a seven-yard rushing attempt for a first down. It was his fourth consecutive game without throwing an interception, and he extended his streak to 143 pass attempts without throwing an interception. At the conclusion of the game, it was the second-longest active streak in the NFL behind the 156 consecutive attempts without an interception by Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr.

➤ At Cleveland (12/7), logged his first career performance with multiple touchdown passes, completing 14-of-28 passes for 117 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. During the game's opening drive, he completed all four pass attempts for 48 yards, including a 14-yard touchdown pass to Elic Ayomanor. In the fourth quarter, he threw a five-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike. He became the second rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least 13 games in a season, along with Vince Young (13 starts in 2006).

➤ At San Francisco (12/14), completed 18 of 29 passes for 170 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. It was his second consecutive game with two touchdown passes. His 101.2 passer rating was the best of his rookie season through 14 games. For the first time in his rookie campaign, he was not sacked. In the second quarter, he found Gunnar Helm for a 34-yard touchdown pass, his longest touchdown completion since a 38-yarder in Week 7 against New England. During a two-play span in the fourth quarter, he connected with Van Jefferson for a 43-yard completion and then found defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons on a one-yard touchdown pass. In the first half, he completed 10-of-15 passes for 106 yards and a touchdown, amounting to a 109.3 passer rating. Ward became the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least 14 games in a season, surpassing Vince Young's previous mark of 13 starts as a rookie in 2006. Additionally, Ward joined Marcus Mariota (2,818 passing yards in 2015) as the only rookies in franchise history with 2,500 passing yards.

➤ Against Kansas City (12/21), completed 21-of-28 passes for 228 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. His 122.3 passer rating was his best through 15 NFL games. It was his second consecutive game with a passer rating above 100 and his third consecutive game with two touchdown passes. His 122.3 passer rating was the franchise's fourth best since 1970 by a rookie quarterback with at least 20 attempts in a game. In that span, only Marcus Mariota (135.7 at New Orleans on Nov. 8 ,2015), Will Levis (130.5 vs. Atlanta on Oct. 29, 2023) and Vince Young (127.7 at Buffalo on Dec. 24, 2006) fared better with 20-plus attempts as rookies. He threw a screen pass to Tyjae Spears that went 34 yards in the second quarter, and later on the same drive, he was credited with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo. On the opening series of the second half, he completed a 25-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor, a 30-yard pass to Chimere Dike and a one-yard touchdown pass to Dike. It was his 13th touchdown pass of the season, which put him past Vince Young (12 in 2006) for the second-most in franchise history by a rookie, behind only Marcus Mariota (19 in 2015). Ward converted a third-and-10 in the fourth quarter with a 24-yard completion to Elic Ayomanor to set up a touchdown on the next play. During the game, he set the record for the most passing yards in franchise history by a rookie quarterback, breaking Marcus Mariota's record of 2,818 passing yards in 2015.

ROOKIE QBs, FRANCHISE HISTORY

First-overall draft pick Cam Ward is the 13th rookie starting quarterback in the history of the Titans/Oilers franchise. He is the first rookie quarterback in franchise annals to start at least 14 games, surpassing Vince Young's previous mark of 13 starts as a rookie in 2006. Additionally, Ward passed Marcus Mariota (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for the most passing yards in franchise history by a rookie.

#10 • QB BRANDON ALLEN

6-2, 209, 9th Year/1st with Titans, Arkansas
Click for complete bio

Brandon Allen is in his ninth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2025.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Allen appeared in 18 games with 10 starts in his NFL career, completing 166 of 293 passes for 1,810 yards and 11 touchdowns. After being drafted by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the sixth round (201st overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft, he also spent time with the Los Angeles Rams (2017-19), Denver Broncos (2019), Cincinnati Bengals (2020-22) and San Francisco 49ers (2023-24).

With the 49ers, he saw action in three games with one start in 2024. He was 17-of-30 passing for 199 yards with one touchdown.

Allen's most extensive action came with the Cincinnati Bengals, where he signed as a free agent in 2020. He saw action in 12 games with six starts in Cincinnati and completed 110 of 179 passes for 1,096 yards with seven touchdowns.

The Fayetteville, Ark., native started 38 games over five seasons (2011-15) at the University of Arkansas and completed 583 of 1,016 passes for 7,463 yards with a school-record 64 touchdowns.

#8 • QB WILL LEVIS

6-4, 229, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Kentucky

Click for complete bio

Quarterback Will Levis is in his third season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up to select him.

Levis will spend the 2025 campaign on injured reserve due to a shoulder injury.

During his first two NFL seasons, Levis totaled 21 starts. In franchise history, only Warren Moon (30), Vince Young (28) and Marcus Mariota (27) started more games at quarterback than Levis within their first two NFL seasons. Levis' career numbers through his first two campaigns included 339 completions, 556 attempts, 3,899 yards, 21 touchdowns and 16 interceptions.

In 2024, Levis finished with a team-high 301 pass attempts, 190 completions, 2,091 yards, 13 touchdowns and 81.4 passer rating. His 63.1 completion percentage qualified for the 10th-best mark in franchise history. He added 183 rushing yards on 45 attempts.

In his debut season, Levis recorded starts in all nine games in which he appeared, becoming the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games. Only Young (13 starts in 2006) and Mariota (12 starts in 2015) preceded him in the accomplishment. Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. He completed 479 of his 738 passes (64.9 percent) for 5,876 yards with 46 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He also rushed for 742 yards and 17 touchdowns.

At Kentucky, Levis went 17-7 as a starter, tying Terry Wilson for the second-most quarterback wins since 1993. The two-time team captain completed 418 of 636 passes for 5,233 yards with 43 passing touchdowns and 11 rushing scores for the Wildcats. His six 300-yard passing games were the fourth-most in school history.

As a senior in 2022, he started 11 games at quarterback and connected on 185 of 283 passes for 2,406 yards with 19 passing scores, while ranking fourth in the SEC in pass efficiency (151.9). He finished fifth in the SEC with 19 passing scores.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. He was 233-of-353 passing for 2,826 yards and 24 touchdowns, and he also registered 107 rushes for 376 yards and a team-high tying nine rushing touchdowns.

He is a native of Madison, Conn.

#20 • RB TONY POLLARD

6-0, 209, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Memphis

Click for complete bio

Running back Tony Pollard is in his seventh NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2025. The Memphis native was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

During his first year with the Titans, Pollard ranked third in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL with a career-best 1,079 rushing yards on a career-high 260 carries. Both numbers led the team, as did his five rushing touchdowns. With an additional 238 yards on 41 receptions, he produced a team-high 1,317 scrimmage yards—the second-best total of his career.

Prior to joining the Titans, Pollard spent five seasons (2019-23) with the Dallas Cowboys, who selected him in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. With an additional 176 receptions for 1,319 yards and five receiving touchdowns, he reached 1,000 scrimmage yards in each of his final three years in Dallas while also returning 63 kickoffs for 1,500 yards, including one return for a score.

In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and led the team with 60 rushing yards on 18 attempts. He added one catch for 29 yards. Helped convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter with a 29-yard reception. His 12 rushing attempts in the first half set a new career high (11, four times, last vs. Jacksonville, on Dec. 8, 2024).
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), rushed for a team-high 92 yards on 20 attempts (4.6 avg.). It was his 27th career game with at least 90 scrimmage yards.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), carried the ball 16 times for 45 yards and a touchdown. In the third quarter, he scored his first touchdown of the season and the 29th rushing touchdown of his career on a one-yard plunge. Added two receptions for 14 yards.
- At Houston (9/28), led the team with 64 rushing yards on 14 carries and added a team-high three receptions for 12 yards. In the second quarter, he rushed for a 21-yard gain, his longest run since a 21-yarder against Jacksonville on Dec. 8, 2024.
- At Arizona (10/5), participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season). He led the team with 67 rushing yards on 14 attempts and added 11 yards on three catches. Scored his second touchdown of the season and the 30th rushing touchdown of his career on a one-yard carry in the fourth quarter. In the third quarter, he reached the 5,000-yard career rushing mark.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), led the team with 34 yards on 10 carries and added two receptions for 13 yards. He picked up 17 yards on a run in the third quarter.

➤ Against New England (10/19), totaled 18 yards on six rushing attempts and added a team-high six receptions for 43 yards. He recorded his highest reception total since a seven-catch performance against Philadelphia as a member of the Dallas Cowboys on Dec. 10, 2023.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), rushed for 44 yards on a team-high 11 attempts and added a nine-yard reception.

➤ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), led the offense with 56 yards on 10 rushing attempts and added a 12-yard reception. On the game's opening drive, he recorded runs of 12 and 16 yards on consecutive plays.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), carried the ball 10 times for 22 yards and added three receptions for four yards.

➤ Against Seattle (11/23), logged his 50th career start. He carried the ball 11 times for 20 yards and added 21 yards on four receptions.

➤ Against Jacksonville (11/30), led the team with 60 rushing yards on 10 attempts and added a three-yard reception. He rushed for a 15-yard gain on an attempt during the offense's first possession.

➤ Against Cleveland (12/7), established a career high with 161 rushing yards on 25 carries with two touchdowns. In the first quarter, he set a career long with a 65-yard touchdown run, topping his previous long, a 58-yard touchdown at New Orleans on Dec. 2, 2021. In the third quarter, he recorded his second touchdown of the afternoon on a 32-yard run. It was his 11th career 100-yard rushing game and also the Titans' first game with 150 rushing yards by an individual since Derrick Henry (153) against Jacksonville on Jan. 7, 2024. Pollard became the first Titans player with 150 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns in the same game since Henry (219 rushing yards and two touchdowns) at Houston on Oct. 30, 2022. Pollard registered his fifth career game with at least two rushing touchdowns and first since Sept. 10, 2023 at N.Y. Giants as a member of the Dallas Cowboys. Through 13 games in 2025, Pollard recorded the most rushing yards by a player against Cleveland, exceeding the 103 yards by Baltimore's Derrick Henry (Nov. 16). Pollard's 97 rushing yards in the opening two quarters set a career high for the first half of a game (89 at Houston on Nov. 24, 2024) and were the most first half rushing yards by a Titans running back since Henry had 119 against Jacksonville on Dec. 11, 2022.

➤ At San Francisco (12/14), rushed for 104 yards and a touchdown on 14 carries (7.4 avg.) and added an eight-yard reception. It was his 12th career 100-yard rushing game, he produced back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances for the second time in his career (Oct. 30–Nov. 13, 2022). He became the first Titans player with 100-yard rushing performances in consecutive games since Derrick Henry accomplished the feat in three straight contests from Dec. 11–24, 2022. In the fourth quarter, he scored on a six-yard run. His attempts included a 22-yarder in the first quarter and a 20-yarder in the fourth quarter. His effort provided him his fifth consecutive season with 1,000 scrimmage yards. From Week 14 to Week 15, his 265 rushing yards were the most in any two-game span in his career.

➤ Against Kansas City (12/21), rushed for 102 yards on 21 carries for an average of 4.9 yards per attempt. It was his 13th career 100-yard rushing game and marked the first time in his career with 100 rushing yards in three consecutive games. The last Titans player to accomplish the feat prior to Pollard was Derrick Henry from Dec. 11–24, 2022. Pollard became the third NFL player in 2025, along with Buffalo's James Cook (three games) and Miami's De'Von Achane (three), to record three consecutive 100-yard rushing games.

#2 • RB TYJAE SPEARS

5-11, 195, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Tulane

Click for complete bio

Running back Tyjae Spears is in his third NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (81st overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

In 2024, Spears appeared in 12 games with one start. His totals included 312 yards and four touchdowns on 84 rushing attempts, and he added 30 receptions for 224 yards and a touchdown.

As a rookie, Spears did not miss a game and registered one start. He carried the ball 100 times for 453 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 52 receptions for 385 yards and one score. His 838 scrimmage yards ranked seventh in franchise history among rookie running backs, and the total also placed fourth among rookie running backs in 2023 behind Atlanta's Bijan Robinson, Detroit's Jahmyr Gibbs and Miami's De'Von Achane. Spears became the franchise's first rookie running back with at least 50 receptions since Sid Blanks in 1964 (56).

Spears spent four years at Tulane (2019-22) prior to entering the NFL. He appeared in 33 games with 20 starts at running back for the Green Wave, totaling 2,910 yards and 31 touchdowns on 427 carries with an additional 48 receptions for 564 yards and three scores. He ended his career as the school's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.8), tied for second in 100-yard rushing games (15), tied for third in rushing touchdowns (31), fourth in rushing yards per game (85.6) and sixth in rushing yards (2,910) and total touchdowns (34). His 6.8 yards per carry from 2019 to 2022 ranked second in the FBS behind only Alabama-Birmingham running back DeWayne McBride's 7.3-yard average (minimum 400 attempts).

As a junior in 2022, he started all 14 games for the Green Wave, totaling 1,581 yards and 19 touchdowns on 229 rushing attempts and adding 22 receptions for 256 yards and two touchdowns. He tied for the national lead with 21 total touchdowns and tied for third in the country with 19 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked second in Tulane single-season history. His 1,581 rushing yards led the conference and made up the Green Wave's all-time second-highest single-season total. His nine 100-yard rushing games included eight consecutive such efforts to finish the season. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and also earned first-team All-AAC honors. His efforts helped Tulane earn a 12-2 record and win an American Athletic Conference title.

He is a native of Ponchatoula, La.

#85 • TE CHIG OKONKWO

6-3, 238, 4th Year/4th with Titans, Maryland

Click for complete bio

Tight end Chig Okonkwo (pronounced "CHIGG oh-KAHN-kwoh") is in his fourth NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (143rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

Through his first three seasons, Okonkwo led the team's tight ends with 138 receptions for 1,457 yards and six touchdowns. During that time, he did not miss a game, appearing in 51 contests with 30 starts. His career yardage total through 2024 ranked second among all tight ends drafted in 2022, trailing only Trey McBride (2,236).

Okonkwo became the fifth tight end in franchise history to register three or more seasons with a minimum of 30 receptions and 450 receiving yards per season. He joined Frank Wycheck (1995–2001), Delanie Walker (2013–2017), Dave Casper (1980–1982) and Alvin Reed (1968–1970).

In 2024, Okonkwo tied his career high with 11 starts, matching his 2023 total. He ranked second on the team and led the Titans tight ends with 52 receptions. His 479 receiving yards ranked third on the team and led the team's tight ends, and he had two touchdown receptions.

Okonkwo started 11 games in 2023 and finished the season with 54 receptions for 528 yards and one touchdown. He ranked second on the team in receptions and receiving yards.

During his rookie season, Okonkwo appeared in all 17 games with eight starts and totaled 32 receptions for 450 yards (14.1 avg.) and three touchdowns. His yardage total ranked second on the team. He also tied for fifth on the team with seven special teams tackles. He was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team.

Okonkwo's 450 receiving yards in 2022 established a new record for franchise rookie tight ends, surpassing Ben Troupe's 329 yards in 2004. Okonkwo tied Chris Dressel (32 receptions in 1983) for the third-best reception total among all Titans/Oilers rookie tight ends, trailing only Bo Scaife (37 in 2005) and Troupe (33 in 2004), and he became the second rookie tight end in franchise history with at least three touchdown catches, joining Dressel (four in 1983).

The Powder Springs, Ga., native appeared in 37 games with 20 starts over four seasons (2018-21) at Maryland and caught 77 passes for 717 yards and eight touchdowns. He added three carries for 72 yards and three touchdowns, including a career-long rush of 54 yards.

As a senior in 2021, he started all 13 games and posted career-high marks with 52 catches for 447 yards and a team-leading five touchdowns. His 52 receptions ranked second in Terrapins history for a single season by a tight end, behind only Wycheck (58 in 1990). Okonkwo's 447 receiving yards were the most by a Terps tight end in a season since Vernon Davis (871 in 2005).

He sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID-19. Prior to then, he saw action in 12 games (four starts) as a freshman and 12 games (three starts) as a sophomore.

2025 Game Notes:

- Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), contributed two receptions for 10 yards.
- Against Houston (11/16), led the offense with 56 receiving yards on three catches. In the first quarter, he hauled in a 16-yard pass. Late in the fourth quarter, he helped set up a game-tying touchdown with a 39-yard grab. It tied for the fifth-longest catch of his career.
- Against Seattle (11/23), totaled 40 yards on three receptions, including a 26-yard catch in the third quarter.
- Against Jacksonville (11/30), led the offense with 29 receiving yards on four receptions. During the contest, he became the franchise's fourth player to begin his NFL career with four consecutive seasons in which he posted at least 30 receptions and 400 receiving yards, joining wide receivers Ernest Givins (nine straight seasons), Charlie Hennigan (six) and Kendall Wright (four).
- At Cleveland (12/7), totaled 20 yards on a pair of receptions. By increasing his career total to 179 receptions, he surpassed Erron Kinney (178) for fifth place in franchise history in career receptions among tight ends, trailing only Frank Wycheck (482), Delanie Walker (381), Bo Scaife (251) and Alvin Reed (199).
- At San Francisco (12/14), tied for the team lead with four receptions for 33 yards. On consecutive snaps in the second quarter, he recorded catches of 17 yards and 10 yards. He secured his fourth consecutive season with at least 450 receiving yards, joining Frank Wycheck (seven consecutive seasons) and Delanie Walker (five) as the only tight ends in franchise history to do so. By increasing his career total to 1,916 receiving yards, he exceeded Mike Barber's total (1,886) for seventh place in franchise history among tight ends.

- Against Kansas City (12/21), led the team with six receptions for 44 yards, including a touchdown. On a seven-yard pass from Cam Ward in the second quarter, he notched his first touchdown reception of 2025 and the seventh touchdown catch of his career. He finished the game with 1,960 career receiving yards, exceeding Bob McLeod's total (1,926) for sixth place in franchise history among tight ends. He also joined Frank Wycheck (six consecutive seasons) and Delanie Walker (five) as the only tight ends in franchise history to record at least 50 receptions in three consecutive seasons.

#5 • WR ELIC AYOMANOR

6-2, 206, Rookie, Stanford

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Elic Ayomanor was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (136th overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

Ayomanor attended Stanford from 2022 to 2024. He saw action in his final two seasons there, appearing in 24 games with 23 starts. He led the Cardinal in receptions and receiving yards in both campaigns, totaling 125 receptions for 1,844 yards and 12 touchdowns in that span.

In 2024, he started all 12 games and was named second team All-ACC from the coaches after leading all Stanford receivers with 63 receptions for 831 yards. He recorded six receiving touchdowns, tied for the most by a Cardinal wideout, and he was the Cardinal's leading receiver in seven of the 12 games. In the ACC, he finished seventh in receptions and tied for ninth in receiving touchdowns. He was honored with the team's Tommy Vardell Award, given to an academic junior or senior who best epitomizes excellence in both academics and athletics, as well as Stanford's Deswarte-Eller Award, presented to the team's most outstanding sophomore player.

As a redshirt freshman in 2023, he appeared in all 12 games, making starts at wide receiver in the final 11 games. He paced the Stanford offense with 62 receptions for 1,013 yards and six touchdowns and was named the team's Irving S. Zeimer Award recipient, given to the team's offensive most valuable player. He ranked seventh in the Pac-12 in receiving yards and yards per catch (16.3), while ranking fifth in yards per game (84.4).

In a game at Colorado (Oct. 13), he amassed career highs with 13 catches for 294 yards and three receiving scores, setting the Stanford program record for receiving yards in a game.

A native of Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada, he spent his initial year of high school in Canada before one year at The Peddie School (Hightstown, N.J.) and two years at Deerfield (Mass.) Academy.

#17 • WR CHIMERE DIKE

6-1, 196, Rookie, Florida

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. He led the team in catches (42) and ranked second with a career-high in receiving yards (783) and touchdown catches (two). In SEC play, he averaged a league-leading 16.5 yards per punt return. He was one of 23 players in the FBS to contribute four punt returns of 20-plus yards.

In Dike's final season at Wisconsin, he started in 11 games and finished with 19 receptions for 328 yards and one touchdown. He added 12 punt returns for 108 yards and 11 kickoff returns for 249 yards.

As a junior in 2022, he started all 13 games for the Badgers and led the team with 47 catches, 689 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. His six scores tied for seventh in the Big Ten and were the most for a Badger wide receiver since 2019.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), made his NFL debut. Totaled 144 yards with a 36.0-yard average on four kickoff returns and added a 12-yard punt return. Gained nine yards on his first NFL rushing attempt in the second quarter. Recorded a 71-yard kickoff return in the second quarter to set up a Titans field goal. It was the Titans' longest kickoff return since Darius Jennings returned a kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown on Sept. 9, 2018 at Miami. His 71-yard kickoff return was the longest by a Titans rookie since Marc Mariani's 73-yarder at Dallas on Oct. 10, 2010. His 144 kickoff return yards made up the highest single-game total for a Titans player since Darrynton Evans (145) on Dec. 27, 2020 at Green Bay.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), totaled 37 yards on two punt returns, including a 21-yard long. He also returned five kickoffs for 83 yards (16.6 avg.), caught two passes resulting in a net loss of one yard, and added nine rushing yards on two attempts.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), registered his first NFL start at wide receiver. He totaled 162 kickoff return yards on six attempts (27.0 average), accumulating the most kickoff return yards in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington's 209 kickoff return yards at Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. His 35-yard kickoff return in the first quarter helped set up a field goal. Also totaled three yards on two rushing attempts and two yards on three receptions.
- At Houston (9/28), returned six kickoffs for a 23.5-yard average (long of 29). He became the NFL's first rookie since Chad Morton of the New Orleans Saints in 2000 with at least four kickoff returns in each of the first four games of his rookie season.
- At Arizona (10/5), contributed two receptions for 17 yards, three punt returns for 33 yards, and four kickoff returns for 136 yards. He provided a spark with a 65-yard kickoff return in the second quarter—the second-longest kickoff return of his rookie season (71 at Denver on Sept. 7). It gave him two of the NFL's top five longest kickoff returns to date in 2025. His 71-yarder against Denver was the second longest of the season and his 65-yard return ranked fourth.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), totaled 66 yards on three kickoff returns and eight yards on a pair of receptions.
- Against New England (10/19), totaled four receptions for 70 yards and a touchdown. He added a 15-yard punt return and 84 yards on three kickoff returns (28.0 avg.). In the first quarter, he posted four receptions for 70 yards in the first quarter. His 70 receiving yards in the first quarter were the most by a Titans rookie in the first quarter of a game since Justin McCareins had 70 in the first quarter against Tampa Bay on Oct. 14, 2001. His first career touchdown came on a 38-yard pass from Cam Ward after he set up the scoring drive with a 29-yard kickoff return to the New England 41-yard line. In the first seven games of 2025, he totaled 1,025 combined total yards (scrimmage yards + return yards) to join two previous players in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach 1,000 combined yards in the team's first seven games of a season: Derrick Mason in 2000 (1,221 yards in the first seven games) and Derrick Henry in 2021 (1,023). In the same span, only three previous NFL rookies reached 1,000 combined yards in the first seven games of a season: Adrian Peterson (1,251 in 2007), Percy Harvin (1,007 in 2009) and Kareem Hunt (1,002 in 2017). His 1,025 combined yards were the most in the NFL in a team's first seven games since Alvin Kamara had 1,031 in the first seven games of the New Orleans Saints' 2020 campaign.
- At Indianapolis (10/26), led the team with seven receptions and 93 receiving yards and added 175 yards on seven kickoff returns (25.0 avg.). His 93 receiving yards were the most by a Titans rookie since Treylon Burks' 111 at Green Bay on Nov. 17, 2022. Dike became the first rookie for the Titans to register back-to-back games with at least 70 yards receiving since Burks in Week 11-12 of the 2022 season. His 269 all-purpose yards at Indianapolis were the most in any NFL game in 2025 through Sunday, Oct. 26, and the total ranked third for the Titans since the beginning of the 1999 season behind only Derrick Mason's 302 all-purpose yards against Buffalo on Dec. 14, 2003 and Chris Johnson's 284 against Houston on Sept. 20, 2009. His 175 kickoff return yards were the most in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington had 209 against Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. At the conclusion of the game, his 1,294 all-purpose yards in 2025 were the most for the Titans through eight games since Derrick Mason's 1,382 in 2000, and Dike had the most by any NFL player through eight games since New Orleans Saints running back Darren Sproles had 1,331 in 2011.
- Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), totaled 220 all-purpose yards, including three punt returns for 98 yards, four kickoff returns for 117 yards and one reception for five yards. In the first quarter, he returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown—the team's first punt return touchdown since Darius Reynaud had two against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012 and the team's first special teams return score (punt or kickoff) since A.J. Brown's kickoff return touchdown at Indianapolis on Nov. 29, 2020. His 98 yards on three punt returns made up the highest punt return yardage total in a game by a Titans player since Reynaud's franchise-record 160 vs. Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012. He was the first Titans rookie in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to log multiple games with at least 200 all-purpose yards, while becoming the NFL's first rookie to do so since Cincinnati's Ja'Marr Chase in 2021. Dike joined Pacman Jones (1,127 in 2005) and Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010) as the only rookies in franchise history to reach 1,000 kickoff return yards in a season (1,108), and he also secured the ninth overall individual season in franchise history with 1,000 kickoff return yards.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), caught two passes for 14 yards before exiting the contest in the second quarter with an injury.

➤ Against Seattle (11/23), caught five passes for 44 yards and a touchdown to go along with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown, and he added 98 yards on five kickoff returns to give him 232 all-purpose yards—his second-highest total through 11 career games. It was his third time in a four-game span exceeding 200 all-purpose yards. In the third quarter, he returned a Michael Dickson punt 90 yards for a touchdown, and in doing so, he tied Pacman Jones' record (90-yard touchdown at Philadelphia on Nov. 19, 2006) for the longest punt return in franchise history. In the fourth quarter, he scored on a one-yard touchdown pass from Cam Ward. In doing so, he joined Billy "White Shoes" Johnson (Oct. 26, 1975 vs. Detroit) and Justin McCareins (Nov. 23, 2003 at Atlanta) as the only players in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game. Dike became the first Titans player to return two punts for touchdowns in a season since Darius Reynaud did so in 2012, and Dike became the second NFL player in 2025, along with Jacksonville's Parker Washington, to return two punts for touchdowns. Only six previous rookies since 2000 recorded at least two punt return touchdowns: Patrick Peterson (four), Devin Hester (three), Jamal Agnew (two), Tyreek Hill (two), Dez Bryant (two) and B.J. Sams (two). Dike's highlights also included a 25-yard reception to convert a third-and-three in the first quarter. He finished the contest with 1,760 all-purpose yards in 2025 to join Derrick Mason (1,963 yards in the first 11 games of 2000) as the franchise's only players since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with 1,700 all-purpose yards in the team's first 11 games of a season.

➤ Against Jacksonville (11/30), returned five punts for 76 yards and three kickoffs for 76 yards, in addition to an eight-yard reception. In the fourth quarter, he returned a Logan Cooke punt 47 yards. It was his third punt return of his rookie season of at least 47 yards. With a league-leading 1,921 all-purpose yards through 12 games, he joined Derrick Mason as the franchise's only players since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with 1,900 all-purpose yards in the team's first 12 games of a season. Mason had 2,103 yards in the first 12 games of 2000. With 1,282 kickoff return yards through 12 games, he surpassed Darius Reynaud (1,240 in 2012) for the third-highest single-season total in franchise history, trailing only Bobby Jancik (1,317 in 1963) and Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010).

➤ At Cleveland (12/7), registered a team-high five receptions for 24 yards and one touchdown, and he returned the opening kickoff 41 yards. In the fourth quarter, he scored on a five-yard pass from Cam Ward for the third touchdown reception of his rookie season. He established a new franchise rookie record in all-purpose yards, surpassing Jerry LeVias' 1,946 all-purpose yards as a rookie in 1969. He also moved past Bobby Jancik (1,317 in 1963) for the second-highest single-season kickoff return total in franchise history, trailing only Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010). Dike and Jacksonville's Parker Washington became the NFL's first players with at least two punt return touchdowns and three touchdown receptions in a season since Kansas City's Tyreek Hill (two punt return touchdowns and six receiving touchdowns) in 2016. Dike, Hill and Dez Bryant (two punt return touchdowns and six receiving touchdowns in 2010) were the only previous rookies to accomplish the feat since the start of the 2000 campaign.

➤ At San Francisco (12/14), caught four passes for 17 yards and added 90 kickoff return yards on four attempts. He secured the sixth season in franchise history with 2,000 all-purpose yards, joining Derrick Mason in 2000 (2,690), Chris Johnson in 2009 (2,509), Derrick Henry in 2020 (2,141), Billy Cannon in 1961 (2,043) and Mason in 2001 (2,004). He moved into second place in franchise history with 1,413 kickoff return yards, behind only Marc Mariani's 1,530 in 2010.

➤ Against Kansas City (12/21), caught three passes for 40 yards and a touchdown, while adding five kickoff returns for 122 yards (24.4 avg.) and three punt returns for 23 yards (7.7 avg.). On the opening series of the second half, he caught a 30-yard pass and finished the drive with a one-yard touchdown reception. He joined A.J. Brown (nine touchdowns in 2019), Chris Johnson (10 in 2008) and Vince Young (seven in 2006) as the only franchise rookies since the start of the 1999 season with at least six total touchdowns. Dike also became the fourth rookie in NFL history with four receiving touchdowns and two punt return touchdowns, joining Tyreek Hill (2016), Dez Bryant (2010) and Eddie Kennison (1996). He surpassed Derrick Henry's 2,141 all-purpose yards in 2020 for third place in franchise history and moved past Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010) to set the franchise record for the most single-season kickoff return yards. At the conclusion of the contest, his 1,535 kickoff return yards were the most in the NFL in a season since Arizona's LaRod Stephens-Howling had 1,548 in 2010.

➤ On Dec. 23, he was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner. He became the franchise's sixth rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010. The others to do so were running back Earl Campbell (1978), defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999), quarterback Vince Young (2006) and running back Chris Johnson (2008).

#11 • WR VAN JEFFERSON

6-1, 200, 6th Year/1st with Titans, Florida

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Van Jefferson is in his sixth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2025.

Jefferson has previously played for the Los Angeles Rams (2020-23), Atlanta Falcons (2023) and Pittsburgh Steelers (2024). In 78 games prior to his arrival in Tennessee, he totaled 137 receptions for 1,876 yards and 12 touchdowns.

As a member of the Steelers in 2024, he appeared in 17 games for the second consecutive season. He registered 24 catches for 276 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

His breakout season came in 2021 for the Rams, recording 50 receptions for 802 yards and six touchdowns while starting all 17 contests. His receiving and yardage totals ranked third on the team that would go on to win Super Bowl LVI. During the team's championship run, Jefferson started all four postseason games, tallying nine catches for 102 yards.

Jefferson entered the NFL as a second-round selection (57th overall) by the Rams in the 2020 NFL Draft. As a college player, he spent two seasons at Ole Miss before playing his final two years at the University of Florida. Over his four years of college, he posted 175 receptions for 2,159 yards and 16 touchdowns in 48 total games.

He is the son of former Titans wide receivers coach Shawn Jefferson and attended Ravenwood High School in Brentwood, Tenn.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), made his Titans debut.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), caught his first two passes as a member of the Titans for 10 total yards.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), led the offense with 75 receiving yards on four catches. He produced three receptions of 20-plus yards: a 20-yarder in the second quarter, a 23-yarder in the third quarter and another 23-yarder in the fourth quarter. It was his first career game with at least three receptions of 20-plus yards. His 75 receiving yards were his most in a game since he had 77 with the Los Angeles Rams at the Los Angeles Chargers in Week 17 of 2022.
- Against New England (10/19), logged his first start of the season and totaled 41 yards on four receptions. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-three with a 15-yard reception and added a 12-yard grab on the following play. His second reception of the game helped him eclipse 2,000 career receiving yards (2,016).
- At Indianapolis (10/26), recorded a six-yard reception in the third quarter, which was the 150th catch of his career.
- Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), caught a 21-yard pass in the first quarter.
- Against Houston (11/16), registered three catches for 22 yards and a touchdown. Late in the fourth quarter, he caught a four-yard touchdown pass to help tie the score at 13-13. It was his first touchdown in a Titans uniform and the 13th touchdown reception of his career.
- Against Seattle (11/23), tallied an 11-yard catch to convert a fourth-and-four during a fourth-quarter touchdown drive.
- Against Jacksonville (11/30), totaled 20 yards on three receptions.
- At Cleveland (12/7), contributed 17 yards on two receptions.
- At San Francisco (12/14), caught a 43-yard pass from Cam Ward in the fourth quarter to set up a Titans touchdown on the ensuing play. It was his longest reception of the season.
- Against Kansas City (12/21), contributed a pair of receptions for 24 total yards.

#0 • WR CALVIN RIDLEY

6-1, 190, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his seventh NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

During the 2024 campaign, Ridley led the Titans offense with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards and caught four touchdown passes. His 15.9-yard receiving average in 2024 ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) accumulated at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards with an average of at least 15.0 yards per catch. Ridley also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown.

Ridley's 2024 season was his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023), and it was the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999 to present). He became the ninth player in NFL history to have at least one 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams, joining Brandin Cooks (four teams), Brandon Marshall (four), Amari Cooper (three), DeAndre Hopkins (three), Irving Fryar (three), Randy Moss (three), Terrell Owens (three) and Tony Martin (three). Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17). He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. He also ranked third with 2,781 receiving yards, while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), registered a team-high four receptions for 27 yards.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), tallied a team-high 57 receiving yards on three catches. He recorded a 26-yard reception in the first quarter and added a 21-yard catch in the second quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), tallied a 27-yard reception in the first quarter.
- At Houston (9/28), totaled 30 yards on a pair of receptions. He converted a third-and-six with a 22-yard catch in the second quarter. It was his 23rd reception of 20-plus yards since the start of the 2024 season, which tied for third in the NFL.
- At Arizona (10/5), led the team with five receptions for 131 yards, logging his 17th career 100-yard game. It was the sixth-highest receiving yardage total of his career. Late in the first quarter, he hauled in a 25-yard pass. In the second quarter, his 400th career reception resulted in a 13-yard gain to convert a third-and-four. In the fourth quarter, he caught a 47-yard pass to help set up a touchdown, and later, he helped set up the game-winning field goal with a 38-yard grab. His 93 receiving yards in the fourth quarter established a career high and were the most by a Titans player in the fourth quarter since Taywan Taylor's 104 receiving yards in the fourth quarter against the New York Jets on Dec. 2, 2018. Ridley's fourth-quarter total was the third-most in the NFL in 2025 (through Sunday, Oct. 5) behind the 98 receiving yards by Las Vegas' Tre Tucker (Sept. 21) and 95 by Buffalo's Keon Coleman (Sept. 7).
- At Las Vegas (10/12), converted a third-and-10 with an 18-yard reception in the first quarter before leaving the game with an injury.
- Against Houston (11/16), returned to the lineup after missing three games due to injury. He caught a 13-yard pass on the offense's first play before leaving the game with an injury.
- Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 18, 2025.

#55 • T JC LATHAM

6-6, 342, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Alabama

Click for complete bio

JC Latham is in his second NFL season. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Latham finished the season with 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

Latham's Career Regular Season Games Played/Games Started:

STARTS BEFORE 22ND BIRTHDAY

First-round draft pick JC Latham started every game at left tackle in 2024. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday (Feb. 8, 2025), he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005.

Latham was the NFL's only player under age 22 to log 17 starts in 2024.

Most starts in franchise history (1960–2024) before a player's 22nd birthday:

Dan Moore Jr. is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans on March 13, 2025.

Prior to joining the Titans, Moore spent the previous four seasons (2021-24) with the Pittsburgh Steelers. He started 66 total games—all at left tackle—protecting the blind side for all but two contests during his time in the Steel City. During that span, Moore ranked third in the NFL in offensive snaps (4,109) played by tackles, trailing only Penei Sewell (4,328) and Jawaan Taylor (4,135).

In each of Moore's four seasons with the Steelers, running back Najee Harris surpassed 1,000 rushing yards. In 2023, the Steelers offensive line allowed only 36 sacks, which ranked ninth in the NFL.

Moore was drafted by the Steelers in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2021 NFL Draft after attending Texas A&M University. The Beaumont, Texas, native appeared in 44 games with 37 starts for the Aggies, including starts at left tackle in each of the final 36 games of his collegiate career.

#77 • G PETER SKORONSKI

6-4, 313, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Northwestern

Click for complete bio

Peter Skoronski is in his third NFL season. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

During his first two seasons, Skoronski started 31 games at left guard. After missing three of the first four games during his rookie season due to an appendectomy, he started the next 30 games through the end of the 2024 campaign. In 2024, he did not miss a snap.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

When the Titans drafted Skoronski, he became Northwestern's highest draft selection since guard Chris Hinton went to Denver with the fourth pick in 1983, and he was the 11th player in program history to be picked in the first round.

His grandfather, Bob Skoronski Sr., was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame. Bob Skoronski Jr., Peter's father, was an All-Ivy League football player at Yale.

Peter Skoronski attended Maine South High School in Park Ridge, Ill.

#70 • G KEVIN ZEITLER

6-4, 332, 14th Year/1st with Titans, Wisconsin

Click for complete bio

Kevin Zeitler is in his 14th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2025.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Zeitler appeared in 198 games with 197 starts in 13 total seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals (2012-16), Cleveland Browns (2017-18), New York Giants (2019-20), Baltimore Ravens (2021-23) and Detroit Lions (2024). From the time he entered the NFL in 2012 through the 2024 campaign, he played more offensive snaps (12,443) than any other offensive lineman in the league.

In 2023, he was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time after starting 15 contests in his final season with the Ravens. Then, in 2024, he was a 16-game starter at right guard for the Lions.

Zeitler also arrived in Tennessee with significant playoff experience. He accumulated seven total starts over four playoff seasons with the Bengals (2012-15) and two postseasons with the Ravens (2022-23). Additionally, he contributed to Detroit's 2024 division championship but was inactive during the playoffs due to injury.

Zeitler entered the NFL with the Bengals as first-round selection (27th overall) in the 2012 NFL Draft. As a rookie, he was named to the Pro Football Writer's Association All-Rookie team.

At the University of Wisconsin, Zeitler played in 43 career games with 36 starts in four seasons (2008-11). He helped the Badgers to consecutive Big Ten titles and Rose Bowl berths in his junior and senior campaigns, and as a senior, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors.

#69 • DE SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY

6-4, 310, 7th Year/2nd with Titans, Rutgers

Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day is in his seventh NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2024.

During the 2024 campaign, Joseph-Day registered 17 games played for the first time in his career. His first year in Tennessee concluded with 44 tackles, 2.5 sacks, 14 quarterback pressures, three tackles for loss and one pass defended for the NFL's second-overall ranked defense.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Joseph-Day totaled 71 games played and 68 starts for the Los Angeles Rams (2018-21), Los Angeles Chargers (2022-23) and San Francisco 49ers (2023). His statistical totals during that time included 230 tackles, 11 sacks, one interception, five passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

In 2023, Joseph-Day started the first 14 games of the season with the Chargers and collected 32 tackles, three sacks and 25 quarterback pressures. After being released by the Chargers, he was signed by the 49ers as a free agent on Dec. 27 and saw action as a reserve in the final two regular season contests, amassing five tackles. He then appeared as a reserve in all three of the 49ers' postseason contests and registered three tackles, including a tackle in Super Bowl LVIII.

Joseph-Day originally entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (195th overall) of the Rams in 2018. After not seeing game action his entire rookie campaign, he totaled 38 starts and six sacks over the next three seasons with the Rams, culminating with an appearance in the Rams' Super Bowl LVI victory. He then joined the Chargers during the 2022 offseason and played in 30 regular season games with the club before heading to San Francisco.

The Stroudsburg, Pa., native played five seasons at Rutgers, where he amassed 90 total tackles, 3.5 sacks, two passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and notched five tackles and recovered a fumble caused by a Jeffery Simmons strip sack in the second quarter. The turnover yielded three points for the Titans after a Joey Slye field goal on the ensuing possession. It was his second career fumble recovery.
- At Houston (9/28), recorded four tackles and two quarterback pressures.
- At Arizona (10/5), posted his first sack of the season in the fourth quarter, bringing down Kyler Murray for a 10-yard loss. He added five tackles and an additional stop for loss, marking his first career game with at least five tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), finished with two tackles and a stop for loss.
- Against New England (10/19), finished with four tackles, a quarterback pressure and a stop for loss. He dropped running back Rhamondre Stevenson for a loss of two yards in the first quarter.
- Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), tallied three tackles and notched a nine-yard sack of Justin Herbert in the second quarter. It was his second sack of the season. He added three quarterback pressures.
- Against Houston (11/16), brought down Woody Marks for a loss of two yards on first-and-goal in the third quarter. He finished with three tackles.
- Against Seattle (11/23), led the team with four quarterback pressures and added two tackles.
- Against Jacksonville (11/30), appeared in his 100th NFL game (regular season) and recorded three tackles.
- At Cleveland (12/7), posted a tackle and a quarterback pressure.
- At San Francisco (12/14), logged two tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added two quarterback pressures.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 7th Year/7th with Titans, Mississippi State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons completed is in his seventh NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first six seasons, Simmons earned three Pro Bowl berths (2021-22, 2024), was a four-time team captain (2021-24), and was nominated two times for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023-24). During that span, he appeared in 84 games with 82 starts, accumulating 316 tackles, 31.5 sacks, 24 passes defended, five forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. He was second on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (46).

Simmons missed only one game in 2024. His 16 starts made up the second-highest total of his career through six seasons behind his 17 starts in 2021. Among his season totals, he set career highs with 76 tackles and two forced fumbles, and he added five sacks and a team-high 42 quarterback pressures. He was rewarded with his third Pro Bowl invitation.

Simmons' 76 tackles ranked second on the Titans in 2024. It was the best number for any defensive lineman for the organization in its "Titans era" (1999 to present), topping defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch's previous mark of 75 tackles in 2006 (press box statistics). Among NFL defensive linemen in 2024, Simmons finished second in tackles behind Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (80).

The 2024 campaign marked Simmons' fourth consecutive season with at least five sacks. His 31.5 career sacks through 2024 ranked 13th in franchise history and sixth for the organization during its "Titans era" (1999 to present).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which led to the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started at defensive tackle and finished the game with four tackles, a stop for loss, a sack, a forced fumble and a team-high four quarterback pressures. Recorded a strip sack on Bo Nix in the second quarter, the fourth of his career. It was his first sack fumble since Oct. 27, 2024 at Detroit. Notched a quarterback hit on Bo Nix on a third down in the first quarter to help force a field goal attempt. Increased his career total to 32.5 sacks.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), recorded two tackles and three quarterback pressures. He registered a hit on Matthew Stafford on third down to help force a Los Angeles punt in the second quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), generated three tackles and three quarterback pressures.
- At Houston (9/28), produced five tackles, one sack, a career-high four tackles for loss and four quarterback pressures. In the first quarter, he logged his second sack of the season (33.5 career), dropping C.J. Stroud for a loss of three yards. It was his fifth career sack against the Texans, his highest career total against any opponent. He became the only Titans player with at least four tackles for loss in a game since the beginning of the 2008 season. He joined three other NFL players in 2025 to record four or more tackles for loss in a game through Sept. 28: Tuli Tuipulotu (five on Sept. 28), Myles Garrett (four on Sept. 7) and Derwin James Jr. (four on Sept. 21). He joined the same four players as the only players in 2025 with five tackles, four tackles for loss and a sack in a game. According to NFL NextGenStats, Simmons sacked Stroud 2.09 seconds after the ball was snapped, the fastest sack in the NFL since the beginning of the 2024 season. His get-off time was recorded at 0.32 seconds, the fastest time by a defensive tackle in 2025.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), totaled 1.5 sacks, a season-high eight tackles, a stop for loss and six quarterback pressures. Dropped Kyler Murray in the second quarter for a 10-yard loss to force a Cardinals punt. It was his second consecutive game with a sack. He also combined with Arden Key to bring Murray down in the third quarter, giving him 3.5 sacks over the first five games of the 2025 season.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), totaled six tackles, one sack, two tackles for loss and three quarterback pressures (tied for team high). He registered his third consecutive game with at least one sack by bringing down Geno Smith in the first quarter. It is the second such three-game streak of his career and his first since Oct. 9-30, 2022. He became the first Titans defender since Brian Orakpo in 2016 with at least 4.5 sacks and eight tackles for loss in the team's first six games of a season. The last NFL defensive tackle to accomplish the feat was Cincinnati's Geno Atkins in 2018.

➤ Against New England (10/19), recorded two tackles before exiting the game in the first half with an injury.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), notched three tackles, three quarterback pressures and a sack in his first game action since missing the previous two games with an injury. He joined Ray Childress (nine consecutive seasons), Jurrell Casey (seven), William Fuller (six), and Sean Jones (six) as the only players for the franchise to record five consecutive seasons with at least five sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

➤ Against Seattle (11/23), finished with two tackles and three quarterback pressures, including a hit that forced Sam Darnold into an incompleteness in the third quarter.

➤ Against Jacksonville (11/30), totaled six tackles and one sack and tied for the team lead with four quarterback pressures. In the third quarter, he sacked Trevor Lawrence for a loss of 10 yards on third down. The sack marked his 10th tackle for loss of the season, securing his third consecutive season with double-digit tackles for loss.

➤ On Dec. 4, he was named the team's club winner for the 2025 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award presented by Nationwide for the third consecutive season.

➤ At Cleveland (12/7), finished with a team-high 1.5 sacks, seven tackles (second on the team), an additional quarterback hit and a pass defended. Additionally, he established a career high with a team-high 11 quarterback pressures. It was his eighth career game with seven or more tackles. In the fourth quarter, he brought down Shedeur Sanders on third down to force a Browns punt, increasing his team-high total to eight sacks in 2025. During the preceding two plays on the three-and-out drive, he contributed a tackle on first down and a tackle for loss (three-yard loss by Quinshon Judkins) on second down. In the first quarter, he combined with Jaylen Harrell to bring down Shedeur Sanders on third down for a split-sack. By increasing his career total to 39.5 career sacks, he passed Kyle Vanden Bosch for 12th place in franchise history and fifth place for the organization during its "Titans" era (1999-present). He matched a career high (2021) with 12 tackles for loss in 2025.

➤ At San Francisco (12/14), finished with seven tackles, a strip-sack and a one-yard touchdown reception. He also led the team with seven quarterback pressures. With his strip-sack on Brock Purdy in the fourth quarter, Simmons recorded his ninth sack of the season, a new career high. It was his fifth career strip-sack and his first since Week 1 at Denver. After his strip-sack, the fumble was recovered by Kaiir Elam and returned nine yards. Two plays later, Simmons reported eligible on offense and recorded his second career touchdown reception (Nov. 19, 2023 at Jacksonville) on a pass from Cam Ward. He was the first defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown during the 2025 season and the NFL's first player since J.J. Watt in 2014 with a strip-sack and touchdown reception in the same game. It was only the sixth time since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982 that a player accomplished the feat. He was the ninth defensive lineman since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to record multiple touchdown receptions in his career and the franchise's first defensive lineman to do so. Simmons increased his career sack total to 40.5, becoming the franchise's 12th player to reach 40 sacks and the fifth player to do so in the organization's "Titans era" (1999 to present). Also at San Francisco, he notched two tackles for loss to raise his season total to 14, a new career high.

➤ Against Kansas City (12/21), finished with three tackles, two tackles for loss, three quarterback pressures, two passes defended and a safety. In the second quarter, he tackled running back Kareem Hunt in the end zone for a safety—his first career safety and the first safety the Titans scored since Harold Landry III at Houston on Nov. 24, 2024. Simmons increased his total on the season to 16 tackles for loss, which tied Jason Babin (16 in 2010) for the most by a Titans player in any season since 2008. He joined Rocky Boiman (2003), Willie Rodgers (1975) and Doug Cline (1961) as the only players in franchise history with a safety and a touchdown in the same season.

➤ On Dec. 23, he was named to the Pro Bowl as a starter. It was his fourth career Pro Bowl berth (2021, 2022, 2024, 2025). He became the 12th player in franchise history to be named to a Pro Bowl (or AFL All-Star from 1960-69) at least four times with the team, joining Bruce Matthews (14), Mike Munchak (nine), Elvin Bethea (eight times), Robert Brazile (seven), Warren Moon (six), Earl Campbell (five), Jurrell Casey (five), Ray Childress (five), Ken Houston (five), Blaine Bishop (four), Eddie George (four) and Derrick Henry (four).

Defensive tackle T'Vondre Sweat is in his second NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (38th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Sweat appeared in all 17 games with 16 starts. His totals for the NFL's second-ranked overall defense included 51 tackles, one sack, four tackles for loss, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. He earned All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Focus and Pro Football Writers of America.

Sweat became the franchise's first rookie defensive lineman to start 16 games in a season since defensive end Jevon Kearse (16) in 1999, and he was the NFL's first interior defensive lineman to start at least 16 games in a rookie season since Dexter Lawrence (16) with the New York Giants in 2019.

During his five-year career at the University of Texas, Sweat appeared in 62 games with 17 starts. He finished his collegiate career with 128 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss, five sacks, 14 passes defended, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and one blocked extra point.

In 2023, Sweat's final collegiate campaign, he played in all 14 games with eight starts. His 45 tackles, 18 solo tackles, eight tackles for loss, two sacks, four pass breakups and one blocked kick all established career highs, and he added a two-yard touchdown reception on offense. His efforts earned him the 2023 Outland Trophy, which is presented to the nation's top interior lineman. He also garnered unanimous first-team All-American, Big

6-2, 234, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, North Carolina
Click for complete bio

Linebacker Cedric Gray is in his second NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

As a rookie in 2024, spent the first seven games on injured reserve before being activated on Oct. 28, 2024. He appeared in the final seven games of the season and totaled 14 tackles on defense while ranking third on the team with eight tackles on special teams. His eight special teams tackles tied for the seventh-best total among rookies in 2024, and over the final seven weeks of the season, he led the rookie class and tied for second overall in the NFL (Oren Burks, Jeremy Reaves) behind only Pittsburgh's Miles Killebrew (nine).

In four seasons at the University of North Carolina, he played in 51 games with 37 starts and recorded 369 tackles, 30 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks, five interceptions, 13 passes defensed, six forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. He was a two-time first team All-ACC selection and a 2023 Butkus Award semifinalist.

As a senior in 2023, he played and started in 12 games and posted a team-best 121 tackles in addition to five sacks, 11 stops for loss, seven quarterback pressures, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, an interception and four passes defensed. He was named first-team All-ACC by the league and the Associated Press. He recorded five double-digit tackle games and ranked second in the ACC with 121 tackles.

first interception since Dec. 2, 2024, against Cleveland as a member of the Broncos, and the sixth of his career.

- Against Indianapolis (9/21), led the team with six tackles.
- At Houston (9/28), registered nine tackles to log his 21st career game with nine or more tackles.
- At Arizona (10/5), participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season) and recorded six tackles.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), recorded his second interception of the season in the fourth quarter, picking off Geno Smith. He became the first Titans linebacker with two interceptions in a season since David Long Jr. in 2022. He is the only linebacker in the NFL to record at least two interceptions in both the 2024 and 2025 seasons. He added three tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- Against New England (10/19), tallied four tackles.
- At Indianapolis (10/26), recorded three tackles, including a stop for loss. In the second quarter, he added a pass defensed, breaking up a pass intended for Michael Pittman Jr.
- Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), in the first quarter, he returned an interception 24 yards for a touchdown. It was his team-leading third interception of the season, his second career defensive touchdown and his first career pick-six. Barton's score was the Titans' first defensive touchdown of the season and their first interception return score since Elijah Molden returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown against Houston on Dec. 17, 2023. He also finished third on the team with six tackles.
- Against Houston (11/16), notched five tackles, one sack, two quarterback pressures and a career-high three passes defensed. On the opening series, he helped the Titans defense force a turnover on downs after sacking Davis Mills on fourth down from the Titans' one-yard line. Along with his first sack of the season (4.5 career), Barton recorded three tackles and a pass defensed on the drive. Barton became the first NFL linebacker in 2025 to have at least one sack and three passes defensed in a game. The last Titans player to accomplish the feat was linebacker Zach Brown against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012.
- Against Seattle (11/23), posted three tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- Against Jacksonville (11/30), totaled two tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added two quarterback pressures.
- At Cleveland (12/7), notched five tackles and matched a season-best and career-high three passes defensed. In the third quarter, he broke up a pass intended for Harold Fannin Jr. to force a Browns fourth down. He increased his season total to 10 passes defensed, becoming the team's first linebacker to reach the mark in a single season since Keith Bulluck (10) in 2005.
- At San Francisco (12/14), recorded five tackles.
- Against Kansas City (12/21), notched two tackles and a pass defensed to extend his team-leading total to 11 passes defensed on the season.

Gray is a native of Charlotte, N.C.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), made his first NFL start. He ranked third on the team with seven tackles and added a stop on special teams.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), finished with four tackles on defense and added a tackle on special teams.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), tied for second on the defense with five tackles.
- At Houston (9/28), collected 17 tackles—a career-high, the most for a Titans defender this season, and the most tackles for a Titans defender since Daryl Worley had 17 at Washington on Dec. 1, 2024. His 17 tackles tied for the highest figure by a Titans player since 2020 (Worley). It was the 11th time since 2000 (press box statistics) in which a Titans defender registered 15 or more tackles in a game. Through Sept. 28, Gray's 17 stops at Houston were the most of any defender in the NFL during a single game in the 2025 season. The last NFL player to register 17 tackles in a game was Philadelphia's Oren Burks on Jan. 5, 2025. He added a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure.
- At Arizona (10/5), led the team in tackles for the second consecutive game, collecting 12 tackles, including a stop for loss. His 29 total tackles in Weeks 4-5 ranked second in the NFL behind Miami's Jordyn Brooks (31).
- At Las Vegas (10/12), collected 11 tackles to lead the team for the third consecutive week, and he added a tackle on special teams. He also tallied a career-best two passes defended, becoming the first Titans defender to record at least 11 tackles and two passes defended in a game since Kevin Byard III on Oct. 10, 2021 at Jacksonville. He also became the first Titans defender with 11 or more tackles in three consecutive games since Azeez Al-Shaair from Oct. 8-29, 2023.
- Against New England (10/19), collected 10 tackles to lead the team for the third consecutive week and added three quarterback pressures. Over a four-game span, he accumulated 50 total tackles, and since the beginning of the 2000 season, only two previous Titans players had produced 50 tackles (GSIS tackle statistics) in a four-game stretch during a single season: Brad Kassell (50 from Dec. 13, 2004 to Jan. 2, 2005) and Azeez Al-Shaair (50 from Oct. 1, 2023 to Oct. 29, 2023; 51 from Oct. 8, 2023 to Nov. 2, 2023). Gray joined Al-Shaair (2023) as the team's only defenders since the beginning of the 2011 season with 10 or more tackles in four consecutive games.
- At Indianapolis (10/26), tied for the team lead with five tackles, including a stop for loss. He added a quarterback pressure.
- Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), led the team with 16 tackles, including a sack. He notched his first career sack by bringing down Justin Herbert for a seven-yard loss in the fourth quarter. Gray registered his second game of 2025 with at least 16 tackles, after tallying 17 at Houston on Sept. 28. Since 2000, Gray was the first Titans player to have multiple games in a season with at least 16 tackles (GSIS tackle statistics). Only five Titans defenders in that span had previously notched one game with 16-plus tackles. Gray also became the NFL's first player in 2025 to register multiple games with 16 or more tackles.
- Against Houston (11/16), tied for the team lead with 11 tackles and tied a career best with two passes defended. He also recovered a Titans fumble on a kickoff return to prevent a turnover. In the second quarter, he brought down Woody Marks for a loss of three yards for his sixth tackle for loss of the season. Since the beginning of the 2000 campaign, Gray's 98 total tackles on the season were the most by a Titans player through the team's first 10 games of a season (GSIS tackle statistics). Previously in that span, Stephen Tulloch (96 in 2010) and Azeez Al-Shaair (94 in 2023) had the most tackles for the Titans in the first 10 games of a season.
- Against Seattle (11/23), ranked second on the team with seven tackles.
- Against Jacksonville (11/30), led the team with nine tackles and added a quarterback pressure. With 114 tackles through the first 12 games of 2025, he became the third Titans player since 2000 to record at least 110 tackles in the first 12 games of a season (GSIS tackle statistics), joining Stephen Tulloch (127 in 2010) and Azeez Al-Shaair (114 in 2023).
- At Cleveland (12/7), led the defense with 10 tackles and added his first career fumble recovery and two quarterback pressures. In the fourth quarter, he recovered a Dylan Sampson fumble (forced by Marcus Harris) to set up a Titans touchdown drive. With 124 tackles through 13 games, he became the team's fourth player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign to reach 120 tackles in the first 13 games of the season (GSIS tackle statistics), joining Stephen Tulloch (136 in 2010), Azeez Al-Shaair (124 in 2020) and Keith Bulluck (120 in 2004).

➤ At San Francisco (12/14), finished with a team-leading 16 tackles and added two quarterback pressures before leaving the game with an injury. It was his third game of the season with at least 15 tackles, and only Las Vegas' Devin White (four) had more such games through 15 weeks in 2025. Gray's 11 tackles in the first half were the most by a Titans defender since at least the 2000 season (GSIS tackle statistics). There were five prior occasions over that span in which a Titans defender reached 10 tackles in the first half, and the last Titans player with 11-plus tackles in any half was Michael Griffin with 12 in the second half at San Diego on Sept. 16, 2012. Finishing the game with 140 tackles on the season, Gray became the team's second player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign to reach 140 tackles in the first 14 games of a season (GSIS tackle statistics), joining Stephen Tulloch (145 in 2010). Gray became the first Titans player to record five tackles in the first quarter since Roger McCreary had five against the Chargers on Sept. 17, 2023.

#49 • OLB ARDEN KEY

6-5, 240, 8th Year/3rd with Titans, Louisiana State

Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Arden Key is in his eighth NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2023.

In 2024, he participated in the first 16 games of the season with a career-high 15 starts. When he was inactive for the season finale, it ended his streak of 75 consecutive games played. His 6.5 sacks in 2024 tied his career high (2021) and ranked second on the team, and he also established career highs with 42 total tackles and 11 tackles for loss. He added 38 quarterback pressures, one pass defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

In 2023, Key appeared in 17 games for the third consecutive season and registered nine starts—the most since starting 10 times in 2018 as a rookie with Oakland. He ranked second on the team with a career-high 57 quarterback pressures, and his six sacks provided the second-best total of his career. He added 30 tackles, four tackles for loss, two passes defended and two forced fumbles.

Key originally entered the NFL as a third-round pick (87th overall) of the Oakland Raiders in 2018 and spent his first three campaigns with the organization. He then spent the 2021 campaign with the San Francisco 49ers and the 2022 season with the Jacksonville Jaguars. His statistical totals during his first five NFL seasons included 98 tackles and 14 sacks in 71 games (13 starts).

In 2022, Key played 17 games with three starts for the Jaguars and totaled 27 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 38 quarterback pressures, five tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 38 pressures ranked second for the Jaguars, and over the last five weeks of the season, he posted 25 pressures, which ranked second in the league behind Nick Bosa over that time frame. He was a key figure in helping the Jaguars win the AFC South and advance to the divisional round of the playoffs.

In 2021, Key notched a career-best 6.5 sacks to go along with 22 tackles and 25 quarterback pressures in his lone season with the 49ers.

During a three-year career at Louisiana State University, Key totaled 21 sacks and 26.5 tackles for loss. As a sophomore, he earned all-conference honors, while setting the school record for sacks in a season (12.0).

He is a native of Atlanta, Ga.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started and posted one tackle in the season opener.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), blocked a Rams extra point attempt in the fourth quarter. It was the Titans' first blocked kick since Dec. 11, 2023 at Miami when Denico Autry blocked a 44-yard field goal attempt. It was the second blocked kick of Key's career and the first since Dec. 2, 2018 as a member of the Raiders against the Kansas City Chiefs, when he blocked an extra point attempt by Harrison Butker. Added one tackle.
- At Houston (9/28), notched his first sack of the season in the second quarter, taking down C.J. Stroud to force a third-and-17. It was his first sack since Dec. 1, 2024 at Washington. He added two tackles and two quarterback pressures.
- At Arizona (10/5), recorded a half sack in the second quarter, his second consecutive week with at least a half sack. Combined with Jeffery Simmons to bring down Kyler Murray for a loss of eight yards. Improved his total to 14 sacks since signing as a free agent in 2023, most among active Titans in that span.
- Against Houston (11/16), returned to action after missing the previous four games due to injury. He led the defense with 1.5 sacks, two tackles for loss and four quarterback pressures and finished with three tackles. In the second quarter, he combined with Jaylen Harrell to sack Davis Mills on third-and-five. In the fourth quarter, he registered a six-yard sack of Mills. He logged his third consecutive individual game with at least a half sack.
- Against Seattle (11/23), brought down Sam Darnold for a five-yard sack on fourth down in the fourth quarter. He also finished with a team-high two tackles for loss. It was his fourth consecutive individual game with at least a half sack.
- Against Jacksonville (11/30), totaled three tackles and three quarterback pressures.
- At Cleveland (12/7), finished second on the defense with nine quarterback pressures and added three tackles.
- At San Francisco (12/14), generated three quarterback pressures and two tackles.
- Against Kansas City (12/21), credited with two quarterback pressures and one tackle.

6-1, 192, 6th Year/2nd with Titans, Louisiana Tech

Click for complete bio

Cornerback L'Jarius Sneed is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs on April 1, 2024.

Sneed started five games before missing the remainder of the season due to a quad injury. He was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 23. His statistics prior to the injury included 23 tackles and two tackles for loss.

Sneed spent four seasons with the Chiefs after they selected him in the fourth round (138th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 10 interceptions, 40 passes defended and 6.5 sacks in 57 games. He and Harrison Smith were the only two NFL players from 2020 to 2023 to record at least 10 interceptions and 6.5 sacks.

Sneed also arrived in Tennessee with 13 games of postseason experience. He helped the Chiefs win two Super Bowls (LVII, LVIII), and his seven passes defended tied for third in the postseason from 2020 to 2023. He became one of five NFL players from 2000 to 2023 with at least 75 tackles, two sacks and seven passes defended in the postseason, joining Ray Lewis, James Farrior, Brian Dawkins and Rodney Harrison.

In 2023, he started 16 games at cornerback and amassed 78 tackles, two interceptions, a career-best 14 passes defended and a fumble recovery. He was in the starting lineup for all four Chiefs postseason games and generated 17 tackles, three passes defended and a forced fumble while helping the Chiefs to their second consecutive Super Bowl championship.

As a rookie in 2020, Sneed was named to the Pro Football Writers Association's All-Rookie team after notching 41 tackles, three interceptions, two sacks and seven passes defended in nine games.

As a college player at Louisiana Tech, Sneed was named second-team All-Conference USA as a senior in 2019. He played safety and cornerback in college, and in 51 games, he registered 177 tackles, eight interceptions and 19 passes defended.

He is a native of Minden, La.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), started at cornerback and notched a pass defended in his first action since Week 6 of the 2024 season.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), posted three tackles and a team-high two passes defended.
- At Arizona (10/5), affected Emari Demercado as he lost a fumble through the back of the end zone in the fourth quarter, resulting in a touchback and returning possession to the Titans. The turnover preceded 16 Tennessee points in the final frame to capture the 22-21 victory. He also logged four tackles.
- At Las Vegas (10/12), notched a career-high 10 tackles.
- Against New England (10/19), registered a pair of tackles before leaving the game with an injury.
- Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 23, 2025.

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 16th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2024, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fourth consecutive season. With 68 consecutive games played in his first four seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2024 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 12th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

With Cox serving as the team's long snapper, kicker Nick Folk led the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season in 2024. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt. Also in 2024, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the second consecutive year.

Cox finished the 2024 season with a career total of 233 games played. He ranked 10th among all active NFL players, and his total also moved him past Reggie White (232 games) for the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

#3 • P JOHNNY HEKKER

6-5, 225, 14th Year/1st with Titans, Oregon State
Click for complete bio

Four-time Pro Bowl punter Johnny Hekker is in his 14th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2025.

In 13 seasons before arriving in Tennessee, Hekker played in 212 games and punted 963 times for a 46.8-yard gross average (45,052 yards) with 378 punts placed inside the 20-yard line and a 42.9 career net punting average. A member of the NFL 2010's All-Decade team, Hekker is a six-time All-Pro with four first-team selections (2013, 2015-17) and two second-team selections (2014, 2018). He was named to the Pro Bowl following the 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017 seasons.

Hekker has climbed near the top of several all-time NFL leaderboards during his career. In 2016, he established the NFL single-season record with 51 punts inside the 20 (51 in 2016), and in the same season, he established an NFL record (since broken) with a 46.0 net punting average. Hekker ended the 2024 campaign ranked fifth all-time in career net average (42.9) and tied for 11th all-time in gross average (46.8).

Hekker entered the league as a rookie free agent with the St. Louis Rams in 2012. The Oregon State product spent his first 10 NFL campaigns with the club and helped the Rams conclude the 2021 campaign with a win Super Bowl LVI before signing with the Carolina Panthers as a free agent in 2022.

In 2024, his last season with the Panthers, Hekker saw action in all 17 games and punted 73 times for 3,338 yards (45.7 gross avg.) with 24 punts placed inside the 20-yard line and a 41.9 net punt average.

He is a native of Bothell, Wash.

2025 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/7), made his Titans debut and averaged 49.4 yards and 41.0 net yards on eight punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In his 17th career game with eight or more punts, his 49.4-yard gross average ranked fifth in his career in a game with eight or more punts. His gross average also ranked ninth in franchise history for a player in a game with eight or more punts.
- Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), averaged 50.0 gross yards and 47.2 net yards on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In the first quarter, he pinned the Rams on their 10-yard line with a 48-yard punt, and in the second quarter, he pinned the Rams on their four-yard line with a 44-yard punt. Through two games, he placed three total punts inside the opponent's 10-yard line, which tied for the most by a Titans player through the first two games of a season (Brett Kern in 2011 and 2013) since 2000.
- Against Indianapolis (9/21), recorded a 52-yard punt on his only attempt.
- At Houston (9/28), averaged 42.6 gross yards and 39.6 net yards on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20.
- At Arizona (10/5), averaged 54.2 gross yards and 47.0 net yards on five punts with three punts inside the 20. He logged his fifth career game and his first since Dec. 15, 2019 in which he punted five or more times and averaged at least 54.0 gross yards and 47.0 net yards with three or more punts inside the 20. In the second quarter, he pinned Arizona on its 11-yard line with a 50-yard punt, and in the third quarter, his 50-yard punt pinned the Cardinals on the seven-yard line.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), averaged 44.0 gross yards and 34.6 net yards on five punts (long of 53).

➤ Against New England (10/19), averaged 40.7 yards (40.7 net) on three punts with two punts placed inside the 20. He used a 38-yard punt to pin the Patriots on their seven-yard line in the second quarter, and a 53-yard punt produced the identical result in the third quarter.

➤ At Indianapolis (10/26), punted five times for a 43.0-yard average (32.4 net avg.) with one punt placed inside the 20, and he added a special teams tackle. During the game, he became the 27th NFL player to reach 1,000 career punts.

➤ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), punted five times for a 37.4-yard average (35.6 net average) with two punts placed inside the 20.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), punted six times for a 50.8-yard gross average and a 44.5-yard net average with one punt placed inside the 20. He pinned the Texans on their 14-yard line with a 49-yard punt in the third quarter and launched a 62-yard punt in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Jacksonville (11/30), averaged 46.4 gross yards and 39.6 net yards on five punts.

➤ At Cleveland (12/7), punted eight times for a 47.9-yard gross average and a 40.9-yard net average with two punts placed inside the 20.

➤ At San Francisco (12/14), averaged 45.3 gross yards and 39.3 net yards on three punts with one punt placed inside the 20. In the third quarter, he pinned the 49ers on their own five-yard line with a 56-yard punt. He added a special teams tackle.

➤ Against Kansas City (12/21), punted three times for a 47.7-yard gross average and a 37.3-yard net average with two punts inside the 20. In the first quarter, he pinned the Chiefs on their six-yard line with a 47-yard punt – his 397th career punt inside the 20 (later added his 398th). In doing so, he moved past former Titan Brett Kern (396) for eighth place in the NFL for career punts inside the 20 since the statistic has been tracked beginning in 1976. His 46-yarder in the second quarter resulted in Kansas City starting from their three-yard line after a Chiefs penalty.

#6 • K JOEY SLYE

5-11, 213, 7th Year/1st with Titans, Virginia Tech
Click for complete bio

Kicker Joey Slye is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 24, 2025.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Slye appeared in 95 games over six seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2019-20), Houston Texans (2022), San Francisco 49ers (2022), Washington Commanders (2022-23) and New England Patriots (2024). The Virginia Tech product has also spent time with the N.Y. Giants and Jacksonville Jaguars. From 2019 to 2024, he made 147 field goals on 180 attempts and added 163 extra points on 182 attempts.

In 2024, Slye played in all 17 games for the Patriots and connected on 26 of 33 field goal attempts and 25 of 26 extra point attempts for a total of 103 points. At San Francisco on Sept. 29, 2024, he set a Patriots record and established his career long with a 63-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter. It tied for the fourth-longest field goal in NFL history.

In his final season in Washington (2023), Slye saw action in all 17 games and handled all kickoffs, field goals and extra points for the Commanders. He connected on 19 of 24 field goals and 32 of 35 extra points for 89 points. Also had 64 touchbacks on 69 kickoffs.

The North Stafford, Va., native attended Virginia Tech (2014-17), where he played four seasons and made 78 of 108 field goal attempts (72.2 percent) and 169 of 172 extra point attempts (98.3 percent).

2025 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/7), converted on all four field goal attempts in his Titans debut, including makes of 50, 39, 42 and 35 yards. It was Slye's sixth career game with four or more made field goals. His first attempt as a member of the Titans was a 50-yarder that he made in the first quarter. Joined Nick Folk (Sept. 10, 2023 at New Orleans) and Ryan Succop (Sept. 7, 2014 at Kansas City) as the team's only kickers with four or more field goals in a Week 1 game in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999).

➤ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), made all four field goal attempts, connecting from 55, 37, 57 and 35 yards. He added an extra point. Kicked two of the 10 longest field goals in franchise history in the game. Joined Brandon Aubrey (2024), John Kasay (1996) and Nick Lowery (1985) as the only NFL players since the 1970 merger to make four field goals in each of the first two weeks of a season. Became the first player in franchise history to record two field goals of 55-plus yards in the same game. At the time, his 55-yard field goal in the second quarter tied (four previous) for the fifth-longest field goal in franchise history. Drilled a 37-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. Recorded a 57-yard field goal in the third quarter, the second-longest in franchise history. The only field goal from a longer distance was Rob Bironas' 60-yard game-winner against Indianapolis on Dec. 3, 2006. Increased his career total to 10 field goals of 55 yards or longer. For the first time in his career, he recorded back-to-back performances with four field goals, and for the first time in his career, he reached three consecutive games with at least three field goals made. He connected on a trio of field goals in the 2024 season finale with the Patriots before making four field goals in Week 1 of 2025 at Denver. In his first two games with the Titans, he connected on all eight field goal attempts with makes in six of the team's eight quarters played in 2025. His eight field goals established a new franchise high for any Titans/Oilers kicker in the first two games of a season, breaking the mark of seven field goals by Nick Folk in 2023.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/21), made two of his four attempts, connecting from 57 and 42 yards and missing from 64 and 62 yards, the latter of which was blocked. In the first quarter, he made a 57-yard field goal to tie the second-longest field goal in franchise history, which he made in the previous game against the L.A. Rams (Sept. 14). He joined Jake Elliott (2025), Brandon Aubrey (2024), Greg Zuerlein (2022) and Brett Maher (2019) as the NFL's only kickers to have a field goal of at least 57 yards in two consecutive games. Slye joined Rob Bironas (2009) as the team's only kickers in the "Titans era" (since 1999) to register three consecutive games with at least one field goal of 50-plus yards, and also became the only franchise kicker other than Bironas (four) with three career field goals of 55-plus yards. He was credited with a career-high two special teams tackles.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), participated in his 100th NFL game (regular season). Made three field goals, including the game-winning 29-yard field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter. It was his first career game-winning field goal. He also made a 44-yard field goal in the first quarter and a 51-yarder in the second quarter. His game-winner was his 13th field goal of the season. He joined Ryan Succop (13 in 2018) and Nick Folk (13 in 2023) as the only players in franchise history with 13 or more field goals in the first five games of a season.

➤ Against New England (10/19), made a 49-yard field goal in the first quarter, and in the second quarter, he connected on a 50-yarder to give the Titans a 13-10 lead. With his sixth field goal of 50-plus yards in 2025, he joined Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020), Rob Bironas (six in 2011) and Nick Folk (six in 2024) as the only kickers in franchise history with at least six field goals of 50-plus yards in a season.

➤ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), made a 49-yard field goal in the second quarter and a 37-yarder in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Houston (11/16), made both field goal attempts and his only extra point attempt. His 56-yard field goal in the first quarter tied for the fourth-longest field goal in franchise history. In his first 10 games with the team, Slye made three of the seven longest field goals in franchise annals. The 56-yarder was Slye's seventh of the season of at least 50 yards. He joined Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020) as the only kickers in franchise history to do so in a single season. He also made a 47-yarder in the third quarter.

- Against Seattle (11/23), made a 22-yard field goal in the first quarter and connected on all three extra point attempts.
- Against Jacksonville (11/30), made a 41-yard field goal in the fourth quarter and also made all four extra point attempts.
- At San Francisco (12/14), made a 25-yard field goal in the first quarter and made all three extra point attempts.
- Against Kansas City (12/21), made a 27-yard field goal in the fourth quarter and was also successful on all three extra point attempts.

NISSAN STADIUM GAMEDAY MEDIA INFORMATION

FOOTBALL COMMUNICATIONS CONTACTS

Titans Media Relations (Press Box Seats B8-B15): (615) 565-4450
 Evert Geerlings, Vice President, Football Communications
 Dwight Spradlin, Director of Football Communications
 Jared Puffer, Associate Director of Football Communications (Field Contact)
 Kaylee Connors, Coordinator of Football Communications
 Travis McDaniel, Football Communications Assistant
 Preston Anderson, Football Communications Fellow (Media Will Call)
 Visiting Team Media Relations (Press Box Seats 29-32): (615) 565-4452

DIRECTIONS TO NISSAN STADIUM

FROM AIRPORT TO NISSAN STADIUM (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES):
 Take I-40 West toward Nashville/Memphis to I-24 West (before downtown). Exit at James Robertson Parkway (Exit 48). Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pregame activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to service level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. If less than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot. If more than two hours have elapsed since the end of the game, take the elevator down to Level 1. Proceed through the lower concourse and exit through the security checkpoint at the loading dock.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES):
 Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Photographers' vests can be picked up near the entrance to the press box on Level 3.
