TITANS TRAVEL TO INDIANAPOLIS FOR WEEK 16 MEETING WITH COLTS

Tennessee Titans (3-11) at Indianapolis Colts (6-8)

Sunday, Dec. 22, 2024 • 1 p.m. EST/Noon CST • Lucas Oil Stadium • Indianapolis, Ind. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (3-11) conclude the 2024 season with three consecutive games within the AFC South, beginning with this week's road trip to face the Indianapolis Colts (6-8). Kickoff at Lucas Oil Stadium (capacity 63,000) is scheduled for 1 p.m. EST/noon CST on Sunday, Dec. 22.

Earlier in the season on Oct. 13, the Titans and Colts met for the first of their two annual clashes. The Titans took a 17-10 lead into the fourth quarter, but the Colts scored the game's final 10 points to escape with a 20-17 win. Joe Flacco passed for two touchdowns for the Colts, while the Titans scored touchdowns on a 23-yard run by Tony Pollard and a nine-yard pass from Will Levis to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine.

Following their visit to Indianapolis, the Titans travel to play the Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 29) and then finish the campaign at home against the Houston Texans (Jan. 4 or 5).

THE BROADCAST

This week's game will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Tom McCarthy, analysts Jay Feely and Ross Tucker, and reporter Tiffany Blackmon.

LAST WEEK AGAINST THE BENGALS

The Titans hosted the Cincinnati Bengals last week. In a game that included a combined 10 turnovers and 26 penalties, the Bengals prevailed by a final score of 37-27.

The Titans offense established season highs in touchdowns (four), first downs (25), third-down percentage (62.5) and net passing yards (291). The unit scored touchdowns on all four of its red-zone possessions, marking the team's first game with four or more red-zone touchdowns since a win at Green Bay on Nov. 17, 2022.

The Titans defense generated three of the team's four takeaways against the Bengals. Linebacker Luke Gifford and safety Daryl Worley provided interceptions, while nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat forced and recovered a fumble. The Bengals also fumbled the ball through the end zone for a touchback. It marked the team's first game with four or more takeaways in a game since doing so in a win against Jacksonville on Dec. 12, 2021 (four interceptions).

Quarterback Mason Rudolph entered the contest against Cincinnati in the third quarter after Levis registered the start. Rudolph's statistics included 21-of-26 passing for 209 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. His 109.8 passer rating was the fifth-best number of his career.

THE COLTS

Shane Steichen is in his second campaign as the head coach of the Colts. The former Philadelphia Eagles offensive coordinator led the Colts to a 9-8 record in 2023, including six wins in the team's final nine contests. With three games remaining in 2024, Steichen's team is in second place in the AFC South behind the division-champion Houston Texans (9-5). The Colts are still alive for a playoff berth as a wild card.

Colts second-year quarterback Anthony Richardson was selected with the fourth overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft. The former University of Florida quarterback started four games as a rookie before being knocked out of action against the Titans in Week 5. This season, Richardson has started 10 games, passing for 1,683 yards with an additional 429 rushing yards.

The Colts traveled to Denver last week and took a 13-7 lead against the Broncos into the third quarter. However, the Broncos scored the game's final 24 points to prevail 31-13.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Colts have played 60 all-time games, including playoffs. The Colts lead the series 38-22 after taking both contests in 2023 and the first battle of 2024. Prior to the Colts' current streak, the Titans had won five straight in the series, including sweeps of the Colts in 2021 and 2022.

In the first meeting of 2024, the Colts visited Nissan Stadium. The Titans took a 17-10 lead into the fourth quarter, but the Colts scored the game's final 10 points to win 20-17. Joe Flacco's 10-yard touchdown pass to Michael Pittman Jr. with 7:27 remaining provided the difference for the Colts.

The Colts last hosted the Titans on Oct. 8, 2023 and won by a final score of 23-16. Colts rookie quarterback Anthony Richardson was injured during the game and replaced by veteran Gardner Minshew II, who was 11-of-14 for 155 yards passing. But it was Colts running back Zack Moss who stole the show, rushing for 165 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The Titans and Colts have met only once in the postseason, a 19-16 Titans victory in a Divisional Playoff game in the RCA Dome on Jan. 16, 1999. Eddie George rushed for 162 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown run to help lead Tennessee during its run to Super Bowl XXXIV.

Three years later, in 2002, the NFL realigned, and the AFC South was created. The Titans moved from the AFC Central, and the Colts moved from the AFC East to form half of the new division.

The teams first clashed in 1970 following the AFL-NFL merger. The then-Baltimore Colts defeated the then-Houston Oilers 24-20 during the Colts' run to a Super Bowl V Championship.

TITANS-COLTS: THE LAST MEETING

2024 Week 6: Titans 17, Colts 20
 Sunday, Oct. 13, 2024 • 12:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 6 of the 2024 NFL season, the Titans hosted division rival Indianapolis and lost by a score of 20-17 to fall to 1-4 on the season.

Indianapolis scored on the opening possession of the game as QB Joe Flacco led the Colts 70 yards down field on 10 plays and capped it with a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR Josh Downs to take an early 7-0 lead.

The Titans offense was held to a three-and-out and forced to punt on the next possession. The Colts took over at their own 36-yard line. Two plays later, S Amani Hooker intercepted a Flacco pass and returned it 30 yards to bring the Titans to the Indianapolis 27-yard line.

QB Will Levis found WR Tyler Boyd for a quick eight-yard gain before RB Tony Pollard broke off for 10 yards to bring Tennessee to the Indianapolis nine-yard line. Levis then found WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine in the end zone for the score on Westbrook-Ikhine's first reception of the season to tie the game at 7-7.

The Colts punted on their next possession and the Titans took over at their own 18-yard line. Levis then constructed a 15-play, 56-yard drive that ran 9:02 off the clock and was capped off by a K Nick Folk 44-yard field goal. The drive featured nine combined rushes from RB Tony Pollard and RB Tyjae Spears.

Both teams then traded punts before Indianapolis got the ball at their own 29-yard line with 3:39 left in the half. Two penalties by the Titans helped bring the Colts to the Titans 15-yard line before K Matt Gay tied the game with a 26-yard field goal to make it 10-10 at the half.

The Titans came out of the half with a 14-play, 70-yard touchdown drive to retake the lead. The drive featured three third-down conversions, including the 23-yard touchdown run by Pollard which came on third-and-19. The drive took 8:41 off the clock, making it the longest touchdown drive in time of possession for the Titans this season.

The Colts answered with a long drive of their own. After marching down to the Tennessee two-yard line on 13 plays, Indianapolis was facing third-and-two when OLB Harold Landry III and Hooker combined to stuff RB Trey Sermon for a two-yard loss that forced another Gay field goal, this time from 22 yards out to make it 17-13 with 14:57 left in the fourth quarter.

Indianapolis then took the lead after forcing the Titans to a three-and-out and then driving to the Tennessee 10-yard line before Flacco found WR Michael Pittman Jr. in the end zone to make it 20-17 with 7:27 left in the fourth quarter.

The Titans were unable to rally as the Colts forced two punts, an interception and a stop on the final four Tennessee offensive possessions of the game to drop the Titans to 1-4 on the season.

NOTABLE PERFORMANCES VS. THE COLTS

LB JEROME BAKER

- On 11/10/19 at Indianapolis, Baker totaled eight tackles, a sack and a forced fumble for the Dolphins. Strip-sacked Brian Hoyer in the second quarter, moving the Colts out of field goal range.

K NICK FOLK

- On 11/6/22 against Indianapolis, Folk went four-for-four on field goals, including three field goals from 40-plus yards, and two-for-two on extra points to contribute 14 points in the Patriots' 26-3 victory.

S AMANI HOOKER

- On 10/23/22 against Indianapolis, Hooker led the team with 10 total tackles and one fumble recovery. Recovered a fumble at the Tennessee 43-yard line with 3:22 left in the game to seal the 19-10 win.
- On 10/13/24 against Indianapolis, Hooker totaled six tackles, one tackle for loss and one interception. Intercepted a Joe Flacco pass in the first quarter and returned the ball 30 yards to set up a Titans touchdown on the ensuing drive.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- In eight career games against the Colts, Landry has tallied 33 tackles, 5.5 sacks, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.
- On 12/30/18 against Indianapolis, Landry recorded four tackles and one sack as a rookie.
- On 9/15/19 against Indianapolis, Landry posted six tackles, one sack and one fumble recovery.
- On 12/1/19 at Indianapolis, Landry notched seven tackles and one sack.
- On 9/26/21 against Indianapolis, Landry recorded four tackles and one half sack in his 50th career game.
- On 10/31/21 at Indianapolis, Landry tallied five tackles, one sack and one forced fumble.

CB ROGER McCREARY

- On 10/8/23 at Indianapolis, McCreary tallied eight tackles, a sack and forced fumble.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- On 10/2/22 at Indianapolis, Okonkwo made his first career start at tight end and led the team with 38 receiving yards on three catches including his first career touchdown grab.

RB TONY POLLARD

- On 11/24/22 against Indianapolis, Pollard rushed 12 times for 91 yards and two rushing scores for the Dallas Cowboys. It was his third career game with multiple rushing touchdowns.
- On 10/13/24 against Indianapolis, Pollard rushed 17 times for a team-high 93 yards and one touchdown.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- On 9/10/23 at Indianapolis, Ridley had a season-best eight receptions for 101 yards and one touchdown for the Jacksonville Jaguars.

RB TYJAE SPEARS

- On 10/8/23 at Indianapolis, Spears totaled 34 yards and a touchdown on seven rushing attempts while adding four receptions for 35 yards. Scored his first career touchdown on a 19-yard run.
- On 12/3/23 against Indianapolis, Spears set career highs with 16 carries for 75 rushing yards. Caught four passes out of the backfield for 13 yards and returned two kickoffs for 40 yards.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- On 11/29/20 at Indianapolis, Simmons recorded four tackles and a third-down sack.
- On 10/23/22 against Indianapolis, Simmons tallied six tackles and a third-down sack.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- On 10/13/24 against Indianapolis, Stonehouse averaged 57.8 yards on five punts, which was the second-best average of his career and ranked fourth in franchise history for a single game. In the fourth quarter, he registered a career-long 75-yard punt.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- On 9/26/21 against Indianapolis, Westbrook-Ikhine set then-career-highs with four catches for 53 yards and his first career touchdown.
- On 10/31/21 at Indianapolis, Westbrook-Ikhine caught two passes for 16 yards and a score.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

TITANS DEFENSE

- The Titans defense can register its fifth consecutive game with at least one interception. It would be the team's longest such streak since a seven-game stretch from Sept. 25–Nov. 23, 2022.
- The defense can register its third consecutive game with at least two interceptions. It would be the team's longest such streak since a three-game stretch from Sept. 20–Oct. 13, 2020.

K NICK FOLK

- Enters the game with an all-time NFL-record streak of 85 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.
- With 403 career field goals, he ranks 14th in NFL history. He is four field goals behind Arizona Cardinals kicker Matt Prater, who is 13th with 407 career field goals but is currently on injured reserve.

S AMANI HOOKER

- With four interceptions in 2024, he needs one more to set a new career high, eclipsing his previous best mark of four interceptions in 2020.

OLB ARDEN KEY

- Needs a half sack to reach seven sacks in 2024 and set a career high for a season. His 6.5 sacks in 2024 are tied with the 6.5 sacks he registered with San Francisco in 2021.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Enters the game with 49.5 career sacks and needs a half sack to reach 50 for his career. He would be the eighth all-time member of the franchise to do so.
- Currently ranks eighth in franchise history in career sacks. With 1.5 more sacks, he will tie Jurrell Casey (51) for seventh place, and with 2.5 more sacks, he will tie Jevon Kearse (52) for sixth place. Only Casey and Kearse have had more sacks for the franchise during its "Titans era," which began in 1999.

RB TONY POLLARD

- With 982 rushing yards in 2024, he needs 18 more to register his third consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season.
- Needs 26 rushing yards to set a new career high for a season, eclipsing his previous mark of 1,007 rushing yards in 2022.
- Needs two more rushing touchdowns to reach 30 for his career.
- Needs one rushing touchdown to record his third consecutive season with at least six rushing touchdowns (nine in 2022 and six in 2023).
- With 1,215 scrimmage yards in 2024, he needs 164 more scrimmage yards to set a new career high for a season (1,378 scrimmage yards in 2022).
- With 992 career rushing attempts, he needs eight more to reach 1,000 career rushing attempts and join 18 other active NFL players who have done so.
- With 230 rushing attempts in 2024, he needs 23 more to set a career high (252 in 2023).

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Needs one receiving touchdown (currently 39 in his career) to become the 21st active player with 5,000 receiving yards and 40 receiving touchdowns.
- Needs 21 receiving yards (779 entering the game) to reach 800 for the fifth time in his career.
- Needs 121 receiving yards to reach 900 for the third time in his career.
- Can log his 10th consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards. His current nine-game streak is the best of his career and also the third-longest by a Titans player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign (12 by Delanie Walker, 2015-16; 10 by Kevin Dyson, 2001).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- With four sacks in 2024 entering the game, he needs one more to register his fourth consecutive season with at least five sacks.
- Needs 1.5 more sacks to reach 5.5 sacks in 2024. He can become the franchise's first player to reach the number in four consecutive seasons since Ray Childress (eight consecutive seasons from 1987–1994).

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Can extend his career-best streak with his 22nd consecutive game with at least one punt of 50-plus yards. Stonehouse has the NFL's third-longest active streak of games with a 50-yard punt behind Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez (30) and Las Vegas' AJ Cole (23).

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- Enters the week with eight touchdown receptions in the past 10 games.
- Can become the team's first player to register a touchdown catch in eight or more games in a season since A.J. Brown (10) accomplished the feat in 2020.
- Needs two more receiving touchdowns (18 in his career entering the game) to become the 16th player in franchise history to reach 20 career touchdown receptions.
- Needs two more receiving touchdowns in 2024 (eight entering the game) to log the 10th individual season in franchise history with 10 or more touchdown catches.

Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Colts on Feb. 14, 2023. Prior to arriving in Indianapolis, he served as the offensive coordinator for the Eagles, and in 2022, he helped Philadelphia reach Super Bowl LVII.

In his first year as a head coach, Steichen overcame a season-ending injury to the No. 4 overall pick in the 2023 draft, quarterback Anthony Richardson, to finish with a 9-8 record. The mark was good for a five-win improvement from the previous year and the team's first winning season since 2021.

During his two seasons in Philadelphia, Steichen coordinated an Eagles offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time. In 2022, the Eagles finished in the top 10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (389.1 – third), points per game (28.1 – third), and rushing yards per game (147.6 – fifth). In his second year with Eagles quarterback Jalen Hurts (2022), Steichen helped Hurts set career highs in completions (306), passing yards (3,701), passing touchdowns (22), completion percentage (66.5) and passer rating (101.5). Philadelphia was one of just two teams to have two 1,000-yard receivers (A.J. Brown and DeVonta Smith) as well as a 1,000-yard rusher (Miles Sanders). In 2021, he was instrumental in the development of Hurts, who passed for 3,144 yards and 16 touchdowns in his first season as a starter.

Before arriving in Philadelphia, Steichen spent nine total seasons (2011-12, 2014-20) in various roles on the coaching staff with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers, culminating with his role as interim offensive coordinator in 2019 and offensive coordinator in 2020. The Chargers offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards per game in each of his seven years on the offensive staff, including the league's best in 2017.

In 2020, Steichen helped rookie quarterback Justin Herbert to Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year honors.

He also spent one season as an offensive quality control coach with the Browns in 2013.

In the college ranks, Steichen spent one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010) and three seasons as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

As a four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns.

Steichen is a native of Sacramento, Calif.

LAST WEEK VS. THE BENGALS

Week 15: Titans 27, Bengals 37
Sunday, Dec. 15, 2024 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 15 of the 2024 season, the Titans hosted the Cincinnati Bengals and fell by a score of 37-27 in a game that saw 10 total turnovers and 26 penalties between the two teams.

The Bengals opened the game with a false start before LB Luke Gifford intercepted QB Joe Burrow two plays later to give the Titans the ball at the Bengals 29-yard line which they cashed in for a touchdown. RB Tony Pollard capped a quick six-play, 29-yard drive with a three-yard score to make it 7-0 with 10:52 left in the first quarter.

The Bengals tied it up less than five minutes later with a nine-play, 70-yard drive that featured a 29-yard completion from Burrow to WR Ja'Marr Chase and a six-yard touchdown pass from Burrow to RB Chase Brown.

The Titans then answered back with a one-yard touchdown by RB Tyjae Spears, which capped a five-play, 70-yard touchdown drive that was highlighted by a third-and-nine, 40-yard completion from QB Will Levis to WR Tyler Boyd.

Cincinnati took over at their own 30-yard line after the ensuing kickoff and drove down to the Tennessee nine-yard line before OLB Harold Landry sacked Burrow as NT T'Vondre Sweat snatched the ball out of Burrows hands and returned the fumble 30 yards. The Titans were unable to capitalize on the opportunity as Levis fumbled to end the possession. The Bengals, however, did capitalize on this turnover turning it into a touchdown with a two-yard pass from Burrow to DE Sam Hubbard to make it 14-14 with 5:13 left in the first half.

Things went downhill from there. After an interception thrown by Levis, the Bengals made it 21-14 on a 38-yard touchdown pass from Burrow to WR Tee Higgins on third-and-10.

Levis was intercepted again on the first play of the next drive, giving Cincinnati the ball at the Tennessee 38-yard line. The Bengals cashed that in for three more points, on a 21-yard K Cade York field goal, to make it 24-14 at the half.

The Titans opened the second half going three-and-out and the Bengals took over. S Daryl Worley then intercepted Burrow for the Titans third takeaway of the game. But disaster struck for the Titans as Levis was intercepted once again, this time by S Geno Stone, who returned it 39 yards for a touchdown to make it 31-14 with 7:24 left in the third quarter.

QB Mason Rudolph took over for the Titans on the next possession. Pollard fumbled at the Cincinnati 38-yard line but the Titans caught a break as S Jordan Battle lost control of the fumble recovery on the way into the end zone and it resulted in a touchback. But Rudolph was intercepted later in the drive, which was the team's sixth turnover in seven possessions.

After the Bengals first punt of the game, the Titans turned in a nine-play, 87-yard touchdown drive that culminated in a 17-yard completion from Rudolph to Spears to make it 31-21 with 6:50 left in the game.

The Bengals then bled almost six minutes off the clock with a 14-play, 67-yard that was capped off by a five-yard touchdown run by Brown. The Titans took over with 1:09 on the clock and score on the last play of the game with a 13-yard touchdown from Rudolph to TE Josh Whyle to make the final score 37-27 and drop the Titans to 3-11 on the season.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans registered their third game of 2024 in which they scored at least 27 points.
- The Titans scored four touchdowns for the first time since doing so in the 2023 season finale against Jacksonville (Jan. 7).
- The Titans' 25 total first downs (nine rushing and 13 passing) amounted to a season high through 14 games.
- The Titans offense converted five of its eight chances on third down for a season-high 62.5 third-down percentage. It was the team's best third-down percentage since a 66.7 percent showing (eight conversions on 12 attempts) against Kansas City on Oct. 24, 2021.
- The Titans' 374 total yards ranked third for the offense through 14 games in 2024.
- The Titans' 291 net passing yards established a season high through 14 games.
- The Titans offense scored touchdowns on all four of its red-zone possessions against the Bengals. It was the team's first game scoring four or more red-zone touchdowns since doing so four times in a win at Green Bay on Nov. 17, 2022.
- For the first time in 2024, the Titans scored touchdowns on their first two offensive possessions of the game. Tony Pollard rushed for a three-yard score, followed by a one-yard touchdown run by Tyjae Spears. The Titans previously in 2024 scored points on their first two possessions of a game on one occasion, Nov. 24 at Houston, when they had a field goal and a touchdown.
- The Titans defense generated four takeaways against the Bengals. It was the team's first time forcing four or more turnovers in a game since doing so (four interceptions) in a win against Jacksonville on Dec. 12, 2021.
- For the second consecutive game and for the fourth time in 2024, the Titans defense began the game with a takeaway on the opponent's first possession. Against the Bengals, linebacker Luke Gifford picked off a pass by Joe Burrow. Previously, the Titans defense began the game by forcing a turnover at Miami (Sept. 30), against Minnesota (Nov. 17) and against Jacksonville (Dec. 8). The Titans lead the NFL in 2024 in first-possession takeaways (through early afternoon games of Dec. 15).
- For the ninth time in 2024, the Titans won the time-of-possession battle, holding the ball against Cincinnati for 31 minutes and 29 seconds.
- For the second time in 2024 all 48 players on the gameday roster participated in the game (Sept. 30 at Miami).

CB CHIDOBE AWUZIE

- Totaled six tackles and one pass defended against his former team.

WR TYLER BOYD

- Totaled 39 yards on two receptions against his former team.
- Converted a third-and-nine with a season-long 40-yard reception in the first quarter.

LB LUKE GIFFORD

- Recorded an interception and led the team with eight tackles before leaving the game with a concussion in the second quarter.
- Recorded his first career interception in the first quarter, picking off a Joe Burrow pass at Cincinnati's 29-yard line on the second snap of the game.
- Became the first Titans defender in 2024 with an interception and eight tackles in a game.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Tallied three tackles, including a sack.
- Credited with a sack and helped create a turnover in the second quarter. On the play, as he was sacking Joe Burrow, T'Vondre Sweat was credited with a forced fumble and fumble recovery for the Titans.
- Increased his season total to eight sacks, securing his fourth career season and second consecutive season with at least eight sacks.
- Posted his second consecutive game with a sack.
- Totaled three sacks in a four-game span.

- Increased his career total to 49.5 sacks, which ranks eighth in franchise history and third for the franchise in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51) in that period.

QB WILL LEVIS

- Completed eight of 12 passes for 89 yards with three interceptions.
- Helped convert a third-and-nine with a 40-yard completion to Tyler Boyd in the first quarter.

LB KENNETH MURRAY JR.

- Tied for second on the defense with seven tackles.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Led the offense and established a career high with eight receptions for 59 yards. His yardage total was the fifth-best of his career.
- Became the first Titans tight end with eight or more receptions in a game since Anthony Firkser had eight catches against the Houston Texans on Oct. 18, 2020.
- Drew a pass interference penalty that led to a first-and-goal and a Titans touchdown in the first quarter.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Led the offense with 45 yards on 17 rushing attempts, including a touchdown.
- Scored his fifth touchdown of the season on a three-yard run in the first quarter. It was his 28th career rushing touchdown.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Totaled 41 yards on three receptions.
- Credited with a 19-yard rushing attempt in the third quarter.
- With 21 yards on a pass from Mason Rudolph in the fourth quarter, he logged his ninth consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards to extend his career-best streak and the third-longest such streak by a Titans player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign (12 by Delanie Walker, 2015-16; 10 by Kevin Dyson, 2001).

QB MASON RUDOLPH

- Entered the game in the third quarter. He completed 21 of 26 passes for 209 yards with two touchdowns and one interception.
- Recorded a 109.8 passer rating, which was the fifth-best passer rating of his career.
- Completed a pair of touchdown passes in the fourth quarter: a 17-yard touchdown pass to Tyjae Spears and a 13-yarder to Josh Whyle. He increased his season total to six touchdown passes and improved his career total to 25 touchdown passes.
- Logged his eighth career game with at least two touchdown passes.
- Added 14 yards on two rushing attempts.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Tied for second on the defense with seven tackles, including a team-high two tackles for loss.
- Logged his 12th career game with two or more tackles for loss. His 12 such games since entering the NFL in 2019 rank second on the Titans behind Harold Landry III (14).

RB TYJAE SPEARS

- Led the team with 87 receiving yards on six receptions, including a touchdown catch. He added five yards and a touchdown on four rushing attempts.
- Logged his second career game with a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown after previously accomplishing the feat against Jacksonville on Jan. 7, 2024.
- Scored on a one-yard rushing attempt in the first quarter. It was his second rushing touchdown of the season and the fourth rushing touchdown of his career.

- Scored again on a 17-yard pass from Mason Rudolph in the fourth quarter.
- Turned a short pass into a 43-yard gain in the fourth quarter. It was the second-longest reception of his career.
- Registered his second career game with 80-plus receiving yards. No other Titans running back logged one such game since the beginning of 2010.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Launched a 67-yard punt in the third quarter. To date, it was his second-longest punt of the season behind his 75-yarder against Indianapolis on Oct. 13.
- Recorded his 21st consecutive game with at least one punt of 50-plus yards. It established a new career-best streak, beating his previous streak of 20 games from 2022 to 2023. Stonehouse entered the week with the NFL's third-longest active streak of games with a 50-yard punt behind Rigoberto Sanchez (29) and AJ Cole (23).

DT T'VONDRE SWEAT

- Credited with three tackles, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.
- Recorded his first career forced fumble and his first career fumble recovery in the second quarter, stripping the ball from Joe Burrow and returning it 30 yards.

TE JOSH WHYLE

- Totaled 37 yards and a touchdown on a career-high five receptions.
- Caught a 13-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph on the final play of the game. It was his second career touchdown catch and his first of 2024.

- Registered the first seven tackles of his career to tie for second on the defense.
- Added a tackle on special teams.

S DARYL WORLEY

- Totaled five tackles and an interception.
- Recorded his first interception of the season in the third quarter, picking off a Joe Burrow pass at the Tennessee three-yard line. It was Worley's sixth career interception.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, DEC. 15, 2024

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

Only injury to report of is Luke Gifford was voted for a concussion, did not return. So, we'll see what that looks like. Probably going to end up in the protocol this week. Other than that, I think it comes down to two really critical areas for us, and one of them was third down defense. I think they were they were like seven-of-eight in the first half. Joe Burrow did Joe Burrow things, and we didn't do a good enough job of getting him down, but they converted way too many third downs. I think over the game they were, I don't know, nine-of-12 or something like that last time I saw the stats. So, need to be better there for sure. And then obviously, you can't win with six turnovers. That's a good football team, you can't turn the ball over six times. We gave up 24 points off the turnovers. That's a game that we played well enough to start—I mean, I thought we had enough early in that game to make it a dogfight, and we ended up giving them too many opportunities against a good offense like that, they capitalized on. And it wasn't good enough. Disappointed. Turnovers—I mean, they called penalties on both sides today. There was a bunch of penalties on both sides, a kind of sloppy game in that regard and disappointing in that regard, too. So, we're gonna keep working, keep trying to get what we can get fixed and come back and get ready to fight again. But disappointed in the outcome and how this game played out. But ultimately if you can't stop them on third down and you turn the ball over six times, it's going to be tough to win.

How do you handle the situation with Will Levis going forward?

Today wasn't his day. He had a couple of bad picks, put us in some tough spots. So, I made the decision to sit him down and try to give us a little bit of a spark. And I think we had a series there, it was like three turnovers in like seven plays or something. Again, not all his—the fumbles weren't his fault, but one of them was. And those are things that you have to do sometimes for a quarterback when they're struggling a bit and he was struggling today. So, we'll see moving forward. We got to watch the tape and see what we can correct and how we can do it better. But it definitely wasn't his day today.

The fans got up out of their seat, standing ovation once Will Levis came out of the game. What do you make of that to loudly hear from Titans fans how they feel?

I don't know. I don't worry about those things. I try to focus on how we can improve and get better. Fans react to what they react to, and don't have much control over it. And if that's the way—they feel that way, they feel that way. There's nothing that I'm going to do to try to explain one good or bad. And so, we just try to keep focused on what we can get better and what we can do to hopefully have it so they can cheer on a whole bunch of other things other than that. So that's kind of where I stand.

The first turnover on the day, what was that play call? Was that supposed to be where he was supposed to pull it and run with it? It was the fumble.

Yeah, we were like third-and-12. We were on the fringe of field goal—we're trying to get five yards because it was third-and-12 and I didn't want to go any further backwards and so try to—went back and forth between kind of a quick throw or one of those quarterback runs, and they played it well. Trey Henderson ran it down from the backside. But yeah, it was a designed quarterback run to try to get us somewhere into a field goal range without dropping back at that point in third-and-12. So, decision we made to do it and then we just got to hang on to the ball. Play didn't get executed the way we want it to on the backside and we just got to hang on to it.

Do you still consider Will Levis your starting quarterback or is that open to evaluation and debate?

Look, I think we'll get through today, I'm not going to make any definitive statements one or the other. We just have to make sure we can correct what we saw on tape and where we had a tough day for him. And again, sometimes these things happen where you have a rough day, and you got to get sat down. So, I'm not going to make any statements about it. And we got to see where we can get better and how it worked in the game and where we can improve.

You've talked in the past about not wanting to be reactionary with benchings. What made this specific situation something where you felt like it needed to happen?

Just needed some momentum. We needed something to spark us a bit. We had three turnovers in a really tight amount of time and that gave them some points and they had another one we got a little bit lucky on it that the ball didn't go back the other way for six points again. So just felt like we needed something. And again, not everything is on the quarterback, but he's the one that's going to take the most heat when those decisions happen, and so felt like we just needed something to spark us out of that part. We played really well early, and the turnovers in succession there really put us in a tough spot in a game where I thought it was going to be tight at halftime and ended up not being that way because we gave them opportunities that they shouldn't have had. And again, sometimes those things happen. I've been a part of those before where just a bad half, a bad series, that just kind of spiraled on him and you need to take a seat for a little bit and let somebody else do it.

After a string of maybe five pretty solid games in a row, was there anything in particular or do you just chalk it up to just a bad day? Or was there anything in particular that wasn't going well for him today?

It's just when things start to spiral. The ball, he throws a high ball to Nick Westbrook(-Ikhine) and it gets popped up, and those are interception balls, when the ball gets popped in the air. He has that one, and then we fumble it, and then we throw the ball right to the cut safety on a play that we had a chance to score a touchdown on with the ball going down the field. It was built for that exact thing for the safety to cut and the ball to go behind it, and he just didn't feel the cut and ended up throwing it right to him. And at that point, it just felt like it was time for a shakeup at that point just to help us get out of that hole.

For him to have a chance to be your guy, and I don't know where you are in that point, but doesn't he have to be able to pull himself out of that? Don't guys in general have to be able to pull themselves out of it when they're going south?

Yeah, in general they do. I just think it went south really fast and there was a bunch—had a bunch of momentum change and shift and it was just a decision that I made that is to try to help spark us and maybe have him take a deep breath and take a seat. So, yeah, there's a time and a place to fight through it, and there's a time and a place to do what I had to do today. And that's ultimately my decision to make. And that's what I felt like gave us a chance to at least climb back in the game at that moment.

It seemed like at the beginning of the game, you guys were operating under center a lot which got you into a bit of a flow, and then you kind of changed and shift avenues and get more shotgun. Was there a reason for that? Was it the momentum shift in the game?

It was the game script a little bit. I mean, they jumped up on us. I was trying to be patient with trying to still run the ball a bit, and you just looked up and you just—there wasn't a lot of possessions left, and we had to start to throw it and start to move a little more tempo if we wanted a chance to get back in the game. We got plenty of things under center, in the gun, and when we're not—we got out of our rhythm that we wanted to stay in when they caught a lead there off some of the turnovers or so. The game got a little bit away from what we wanted to be for the majority of it and then had to move in more passing situations.

Was there any lingering issue with Will Levis' shoulder today?

Not that I was aware of. Everything this week was good. He gave the green light, trainers gave the green light, and he threw the ball well in practice. So, I go off that information the best I can and then try to make the best decision and he seemed like he was ready to roll.

If you do decide to continue with him for the rest of the year, what would be behind that decision? Why would you make that decision if you did?

Just like you said, he's still got to find a way to pull yourself out of it. He's had a couple of really pretty decent games in a row that was positive and then really two back-to-back games that I think we all agree he can he can play better in. And so, we're going to keep coaching and then when he's ready to roll again, we got to find a way to keep playing better football and keep improving because right now it's not good enough.

Do you feel that those positives wholeheartedly outweigh the negatives that have been put on film?

Yeah, I think there's definitely a lot of positives that I do like, and I am excited about. It's just there's too many negatives that don't give us a chance to win the game. And that's where we're at right now is we're trying to find ways to win games and we're not getting enough positive plays in a row from the quarterback position. And that to me is where—that's the hard part, is that these guys are fighting. Our team fights like crazy. They work hard, they practice hard, they do things the right way. And they fought in that game until the very bitter end of it, and that part I appreciate. So, you want to give those guys that are fighting too, to feel like they got a chance to go compete in the game and not have the ball turned over too often. So those are the things that I got to deal with and manage with our football team in general, and then management with Will (Levis) on top of it. So those are the things that I have to focus on.

You get the early 14-7 lead, do you like to feel like you're pretty good—

Thought we were in great shape. I thought that game was playing out exactly how I thought we were capable of playing it. They're a good football team, but I thought that we had a chance to go make it a competitive game, had a chance to win it. And the way it started was the way I thought it would go. I thought it was going to be back and forth the whole game and we were going to have to do a good job. And ultimately, against a team like that, you just can't turn it over. And that's where it got away from us. But I was confident our game plan, I was confident in how these guys played and came out ready to play and ultimately gave them too many chances and a team with a quarterback like that, you give them too many chances, they capitalize.

Three penalties on JC Latham, would you say he's still in his dip?

I thought he played well. I think, again, I have to watch all the details of it. But outside of the penalties, he protected pretty well. I thought we had a good pocket for most of the day. Trey's (Hendrickson) an elite rusher. I thought he held his own against them. But yeah, the penalties are tough, especially the one where we were third-and-three and we false start into a third-and-eight, that makes it a lot harder. Got to find a way to get those fixed and I'll be on top of that to try to get it fixed.

Your pass rush when Joe Burrow had a lot of time, obviously, its killer. What did you think of the rate at which you got back there?

Yeah, I mean, we had to get him on the ground. That was how the game was going to play out. We had to get him—when we had chances to get him down and we didn't do a good enough job of it. He created a lot of their third down opportunities off of structure and off the script. And that's what he does, he does that to everybody he plays. And we didn't do a good enough job containing that part knowing that was going to be a key to the success of containing the offense was getting him on the ground. We had opportunities. We hit him, we affected him, but he made too many plays outside of the pocket and getting out of the pocket when we had chances to get him down and when we didn't finish it. So we didn't do a good enough job there.

QB WILL LEVIS

With your performance mechanics wise, what changed today?

A series of unfortunate events. Four of those last five possessions, like the turnovers, you're rarely not going to get pulled when you turn the ball over four times. So, I mean, I understand that. I got to watch the tape and see how it all went down. I kind of already know how a couple of them happened, and the last one was definitely the most disappointing just because it's a look that I was ready for and that I was ready to launch, and the guy made a good play. And yeah, it sucks. It wasn't my day.

Do you think you undo the goodwill or good impression you're making with the coaches when you hit maybe a downturn with a decision or two last week and with a game like this?

I'm just going to try to do my best to play the position the best that I can.

What did Coach Brian Callahan say to you when he pulled you?

It was Bo (Hardegree). I didn't get to talk to Brian (Callahan). He just told me, you turned the ball over four times, man. That's what happens. And there was no fight, and I just understood it and it sucks. I was there for Mason (Rudolph) and the guys and just tried to be the best teammate that I could for the rest of the game.

On the decision for the future, Coach Callahan mentioned you pulling through. How do you do that after a performance like this?

I'm not afraid, and I know who I am as a player. I know what I'm capable of. I felt like the ball was coming out of my hand well, and there's things we could do at all positions to help us out in a couple of those turnovers. But there is nothing discouraging about it. It was just one of those days. And now I'm going to keep swinging, that's for sure.

Can you walk us through what went on with the first pick? Who you were going for, and what happened on that one?

Tyler (Boyd), he's working his sail route. He gets kind of jammed, didn't get as much depth and the guy on Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) was able to fall off of him and get underneath the window. It's man coverage. I'm just trying to see the separation with Tyler and his man, it doesn't get quite as depth and that allowed the corner to be able to fall off of Nick, which I didn't feel. So yeah, just got to be better. Like I said, across the board.

Have you felt this season like you're still having to make your case to keep your job?

I can't think that way. I think earlier in the year, like after the first few games, I got my head spinning and thinking about that and I was able to kind of bring myself back to base and remind just myself who I am and bring the confidence back to my mind. I'm just going to fight every day for this team until I can't anymore and it's not my decision in that respect. So, I just kind of control what I can.

How do you maintain your confidence when you have a day like did?

Like I said, I just remind myself who I am and know that what happened is fixable. And some of those things you just can't control. And it also helps to think about the good performances and the good stuff that you put on tape and just knowing that you can be that player and just got to be it more consistently. So, keep reminding myself that and just done a good job I think keeping my mental right since that tough start.

What did the guys say to you on the sideline and when you go back in the locker room to keep your head up? Did you hear some of that postgame?

For sure. It's kind of a weird feeling when guys are trying to be consoling of you and you're like, 'I don't wanna hear that, man'. I'm like, 'Whatever'. But it was good to hear from just some guys on the team and people in our organization come in and talking to me and just making sure that I keep my head up and that it's not something that's going to affect me further. So, I appreciated that. And I know that I'm going to come back tomorrow the same person and keep swinging.

Were you targeting Chig Okonkwo on the last interception?

It was man coverage. We ran a play-action shot with the blazer over the top, like a deep post and the high cross. And I got to read that post safety, and I thought that he was deep enough to be able to drive it on Chig (Okonkwo) and on my timing and just as soon as hands came off the ball, he drove for the ball and made a really good play. So, in hindsight, take a second hitch and launch it over the top. But at the end of the day, I just got to see the depth of the safety if he can make a play or not. And I wish I would have thrown it through to Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine).

What was going through your mind in those moments as you were watching the game after being benched?

I don't really remember what I was doing specifically or if I was doing that or whatever. I was just trying to be there for my teammates and however I could help the offense to succeed and drive down the field. And they did a good job in that situation. We were forced to start passing the ball a lot more and driving the ball down, guys making plays. Tyjae (Spears) bringing this juice back. That was awesome, but I wasn't focused on anything other than the game.

QB MASON RUDOLPH

I guess what's maybe said in situation like that, Will Levis said Bo Hardegree told them they're making the change. What'd they tell you and what was kind was your mindset going in?

Yeah, they told me that I was going in. Mindset's try to get some points on the board and cut the lead. Proud of way the guys fought, proud that we got some points on, but I threw a red zone pick that hurt us and I'd love to have that one back.

You've been in this situation before, if they call on you to start from here on out what is kind of your approach?

My approach is be faithful with the reps I'm given, have a great week of practice, and do everything I can to go get a win.

Do you feel the need to say anything to Will Levis when you know it's not his day and that kind of situation happens?

There's communication all day. I mean, I've been in his spot where you miss a few. We've got a great relationship, and him and Trevor (Siemian) and I, we're always collaborating on the sidelines and encouraging each other and keeping each other up.

You've been through this, do you have to feel bad for Will Levis to have it go this way?

Of course. I've been benched and it's no fun. But I think looking back, you can use it to—you can learn from it. And I think it hardens you as a man and as a human being and it is all about how you how you respond, and I know he'll respond well.

CB CHIDOBÉ AWUZIE

What do the Titans have left to play for this season, in these last three games.

There is still stuff left to play for. That's our pride. Getting better or getting worse, nothing stays the same. I feel like we're still making strides. Like, we're taking the ball away. (T'Vondre) Sweat, that's a big play for a rookie, then running down the sideline like that. You know, those things matter. No matter if we have a chance at the playoffs or not. So everything matters still. It's a great testament to where we can go.

Ten turnovers, over 20 combined penalties in this game. I would imagine you have not been a part of a lot of those in your time in the NFL?

Probably. I've been in the league for a minute now, so I've been around some games. But I mean, it's definitely not winning football, having penalties and turning the ball over. But it's stuff that we can fix, and I'm sure we'll go in the film room, and figure out what went wrong and try to continue to get better.

Third down, obviously a lot of conversions, and that's going to happen against Joe Burrow, and Ja'Marr Chase, and Tee Higgins?

Yeah, their offense is loaded. They have a good offense, and we weren't able to get off the field as much as we'd like on third down. But I still think that we stepped up to the challenge. We played a decent game, but obviously we can definitely get better. It's just details. And that's the kind of thing at halftime, just details, details. So, I think if we keep focusing on those details on third downs, we will be able to get off the field.

How difficult is it to keep everyone focused, in the wave of some of the turnovers?

Not hard at all, because it's like, you get punched in the mouth, are you going to cower and hide in a corner or something? No. You get punched in the mouth and you're still standing, you've still got a chance to fight back. So, I mean, that's just us getting punched in the mouth, and just us punching back. So that's the mindset.

DB JUSTIN HARDEE SR.

A couple of clean games in a row for you guys in the punt return department. How have things improved there?

I think guys just have a whole different mindset. We're just trying to try to create a play anyway possible. Today, we didn't necessarily get that many opportunities, but that's all for next week. So just trying to take advantage of any opportunity we were able to get.

What's the motivation these last three weeks here?

Motivation the last three weeks? Man, by any means necessary, get a win, and just try to put the best film out there for yourself and for the team. Obviously, because every day is an interview. On game day, that's when you're really interviewed and the tape will never lie.

OLB ARDEN KEY

How slippery was (Joe) Burrow back there, today?

Definitely slippery. The first half, it was hard to get him down. Just him maneuvering in the pocket, things of that sort. But, yeah.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

How do you keep it from being deflating, when you see the turnovers continue to come in waves by the offense?

The vets just have to continue to talk to the young guys and understand that film goes to 31 other teams, and everyone is looking at that. So, if you're not here next year, and you put out bad film this year, it's going to be hard to get a job next year.

When you are out there on the field, this year, let's talk about these games. What's it like having to go back out there for so many sudden changes, like you guys have done, so many times?

It's tough. Yeah, it's tough. But we have to, specifically for the defense, we've got a lot of guys who care about the game, care about their last name, care about what people say about us. So that's why you see, when we go out on these sudden changes, it's really no drop-off.

TE CHIG OKONKWO

With Will Levis getting benched, it's something that young quarterbacks go through, how confident are you guys that you'll be able to come back from this kind of day?

Very confident, that's what happens. Get a rough game in, he's got to find a way to bounce back. He's already done it before, so confident Will (Levis) can definitely do it again.

Talking about the turnovers, as they keep snowballing, what's it like in the huddle and on the sideline, what's being said to try to curb that?

You try to take care of the problem, simple as that. We've got to do a better job of taking care of the ball, whoever has it in their hands. You just have to make good decisions for our team.

How deflating is that when you guys are moving the football and all of a sudden, a couple of things happen and it just it takes the wind out of your sails?

It kind of does. It just kills the momentum of the team, when you're going down and you're having success and they're not really doing anything to stop you and then you just completely stopped yourself. That's pretty much been the thing of our whole entire season. Beating ourselves before even letting another team beat us and the same thing today.

OL PETER SKORONSKI

You guys were right there in a position to be competitive, and then you get three turnovers in seven plays?

Yeah, that's how you lose games. There's not much more to it. You can't turn the ball over and give them chances to score.

Coach wouldn't commit to what they're going to do at quarterback moving forward and I guess your answer is like everybody else's?

It doesn't change our job; we got to block for him. So, it's not my decision and it doesn't it really affect our play in those terms of we've got to block guys.

Is this your confidence shaken at all in Will Levis though after the struggles today?

I'm more so focused on the things that we can do as an O-line and I can't play other positions so I'm not going to talk about other positions. And I'm more concerned about what we can do as an O-line to help us win. There's a lot that goes on at quarterback that's like I could never handle in my life, so I'm not going to speak about that and just trying to do our job.

RB TYJAE SPEARS

The 10 combined turnovers and the 20 combined penalties in the game, have you been part of a game like this?

Yeah, I went to 2-10 in college, and it sucks. Because you know there is potential, you know the potential of the guys around here, we're going to keep on building. I know you hear the same story every week, but we are going to keep on building.

Obviously, it's a tough scene, Will (Levis) having the kind of struggles he had today. But how confident are you if he gets another opportunity, he'll be able to bounce back from this?

Like I said, I'm confident all my guys because I see what the work they're doing in each and every day. He doesn't go out there and deliberately try to do those things, whatever people make it out to be, he's playing. He's taking opportunities. That what comes with the game, it's a good side and a bad side. I'm not here to criticize, I'm here to uplift him and keep it pushing.

NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

Was the stiff-arm part of your repertoire as a pop Warner player?

Yeah. I've been doing that since I was a little kid.

What kind of reception did you get on the bench after all that?

A lot of love. It's a great moment for me. I couldn't ask for nothing better.

Why is that every big guy's dream to have something like that happen?

I mean, because we don't touch the ball. And when we get the opportunity to touch the ball, it's a dream come true and see what you can do with it.

2024 GAME-BY-GAME RECAP

Week 1 • Sept. 8, 2024 • Titans 17 at BEARS 24 • 0-1

The Titans build a 17-0 lead in the first half, but the Bears score the final 24 points of the game ... The Bears score touchdowns in the second half on Jonathan Owens' 21-yard return of a blocked punt and Tyrique Stevenson's 43-yard interception return ... Stevenson's go-ahead score came with 7:35 remaining in the fourth quarter ... The Titans limit the Bears and rookie quarterback Caleb Williams—making his first career start—to 148 total yards and 64 net passing yards ... Running back Tony Pollard leads the Titans offense with 82 rushing yards, including a 26-yard touchdown run.

Week 2 • Sept. 15, 2024 • JETS 24 at Titans 17 • 0-2

Jets running back Braelon Allen scores the game-winning touchdown on a 20-yard run with 4:31 remaining in the fourth quarter ... A final Titans drive led by Will Levis ends at New York's 14-yard line on a fourth-down incompleteness ... The Jets record takeaways on consecutive Titans offensive plays in the first half—the first on a fumble by Levis and the second on an interception ... Jets wide receiver Irvin Charles blocks a Ryan Stonehouse punt, leading to a field goal ... Titans wide receiver Calvin Ridley registers a 10-yard rushing touchdown and a 40-yard receiving touchdown ... Jets quarterback Aaron Rodgers tosses a pair touchdown passes.

Week 3 • Sept. 22, 2024 • PACKERS 30 at Titans 14 • 0-3

Malik Willis starts at quarterback for Packers in place of injured starter Jordan Love ... Willis, who was traded from the Titans to the Packers prior to the regular season, passes for 202 yards and a touchdown and also rushes for 73 yards and a score ... The Packers defense sacks Will Levis eight times and forces three turnovers ... Packers cornerback Jaire Alexander scores on a 35-yard interception return for a touchdown ... Levis passes for 260 yards and connects on touchdown passes to Nick Vannett and DeAndre Hopkins.

Week 4 • Sept. 30, 2024 • TITANS 31 at Dolphins 12 • 1-3

Titans win on Monday Night Football after starting quarterback Will Levis exits in the first quarter with a shoulder injury and backup Mason Rudolph finishes ... The Titans never trail after taking a 3-0 lead in the second quarter ... Miami is kept out of the end zone until less than four minutes remain in the fourth quarter ... Rudolph passes for 85 yards in leading seven scoring drives ... Nick Folk connects on five field goals—three from beyond 50 yards (53, 52 and 51) ... Tony Pollard accounts for 108 scrimmage yards and a touchdown ... The Titans defense limits quarterback Tyler Huntley and the Dolphins offense to 184 total yards and 78 net passing yards.

Week 6 • Oct. 13, 2024 • COLTS 20 at Titans 17 • 1-4

The Titans lose at home after returning from their Week 5 bye ... The Colts score the game's final 10 points in the fourth quarter, including the game-winning touchdown pass quarterback Joe Flacco to wide receiver Michael Pittman Jr. ... Flacco starts for an injured Anthony Richardson and passes for two touchdowns ... The Titans rush for 146 yards, including 93 yards by Tony Pollard, who also scores on a 23-yard run ... Will Levis and Nick Westbrook Ikhine provide the Titans' first touchdown on a nine-yard completion ... Neither team allows a sack, but each quarterback is intercepted, including Levis in the fourth quarter.

Week 7 • Oct. 20, 2024 • Titans 10 at BILLS 34 • 1-5

The Bills score 34 consecutive points after the Titans claim a 10-0 lead in the second quarter ... Buffalo scores on all five possessions in the second half ... Quarterback Mason Rudolph records his first start in a Titans uniform with Will Levis inactive due to injury ... Rudolph passes for 215 yards, including a four-yard touchdown to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine ... The Bills force two turnovers and get a crucial turnover on downs, stopping the Titans offense on fourth down at their 44-yard line on the opening drive of the second half ... Josh Allen passes for 323 yards and two touchdowns for the Bills, while rookie Keon Coleman registers 125 receiving yards.

Week 8 • Oct. 27, 2024 • Titans 14 at LIONS 52 • 1-6

The Lions force four turnovers (two fumbles and two interceptions) and record 303 return yards on kickoffs (72), punts (190) and interceptions (41) ... Mason Rudolph records his second consecutive start at quarterback for the Titans and accounts for 266 yards and one touchdown passing, as well as a rushing score ... After the Titans tie the score 14-14 in the second quarter, the Lions score the final 38 points ... Detroit's Jared Goff passes for only 85 yards but has three completions for touchdowns ... Kalif Raymond totals 190 punt return yards for the Lions, including a 90-yard touchdown.

Week 9 • Nov. 3, 2024 • Patriots 17 at TITANS 20 (OT) • 2-6

Nick Folk puts the Titans ahead in overtime with a 25-yard field goal, and Amani Hooker ends the contest with his second interception of the game off Patriots rookie quarterback Drake Maye ... Maye's five-yard touchdown pass to running back Rhamondre Stevenson and subsequent extra point with no time remaining in the fourth quarter sends the game to overtime ... The Titans defense forces three turnovers and adds four sacks, including a strip-sack by Arden Key with a recovery by Jeffery Simmons to set up a Titans touchdown in the fourth quarter ... Running back Tony Pollard accounts for 128 rushing yards and 154 scrimmage yards.

Week 10 • Nov. 10, 2024 • Titans 17 at CHARGERS 27 • 2-7

Chargers quarterback Justin Herbert passes for one touchdown and rushes for another score after the Titans take a 7-3 lead in the first half ... The Chargers rush for 145 yards and two scores ... The Chargers defense sacks Will Levis seven times, including five sacks in the second half ... Late in the second quarter, a strip-sack by Jeffery Simmons and fumble return for a Titans touchdown by Roger McCreary is changed to an incomplete pass upon replay review ... Levis and Calvin Ridley connect on two touchdown passes.

Week 11 • Nov. 17, 2024 • VIKINGS 23 at Titans 13 • 2-8

Vikings quarterback Sam Darnold passes for two touchdowns and rushes for another score ... The Titans are penalized 13 times for 91 yards, including an unnecessary roughness penalty that nullifies a fourth-down stop and gives the Vikings a first-and-goal at the one-yard line, leading to a touchdown ... Another penalty nullifies a 51-yard touchdown reception by Calvin Ridley ... The Vikings defense sacks Will Levis five times and totals 10 tackles for loss ... Levis and Nick Westbrook-Ikhine connect on a 98-yard touchdown pass, tying for the longest completion in franchise history ... Levis totals 295 passing yards.

Week 12 • Nov. 24, 2024 • TITANS 32 at Texans 27 • 3-8

Will Levis and Chig Okonkwo connect for the go-ahead 70-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter ... Levis, who also tosses a 38-yard touchdown strike to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, totals 278 passing yards, while Tony Pollard rushes for 119 yards and a score ... Harold Landry III helps clinch the win with a sack of C.J. Stroud for a safety ... Nick Folk boots three 50-plus-yard field goals, including a 56-yarder ... Cornerback Jarvis Brownlee Jr. and linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr. notch interceptions for the Titans ... The Texans are limited to 40 rushing yards ... The Titans win despite allowing eight sacks, including three sacks by Danielle Hunter.

Week 13 • Dec. 1, 2024 • Titans 19 at COMMANDERS 42 • 3-9

The Commanders score the game's first 28 points, including 21 points in the first quarter ... Washington rushes for 267 yards, the most allowed by the Titans since Nov. 26, 2018 (281 at Houston), with Brian Robinson Jr. accounting for 103 yards and the game's first touchdown (40 yards) ... Commanders rookie Jayden Daniels passes for three touchdowns and rushes for another score ... Will Levis and Nick Westbrook-Ikhine connect on touchdown passes of 27 and 17 yards for the Titans ... The Commanders turn a pair of fumble recoveries into touchdown drives, while Amani Hooker records the Titans' only takeaway on an interception.

Week 14 • Dec. 8, 2024 • JAGUARS 10 at Titans 6 • 3-10

The Jaguars score 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter after the Titans keep them off the scoreboard through three quarters ... Jaguars running back Tank Bigsby scores the game-winning touchdown on an eight-yard run with 6:46 on the clock in the fourth quarter ... Jaguars quarterback Mac Jones passes for 220 yards in the comeback, overcoming interceptions by Titans cornerback Chidobe Awuzie and linebacker Otis Reese IV ... In the second quarter, quarterback Will Levis and the Titans are stymied on fourth down at Jacksonville's two-yard line ... The Titans are stopped two more times on fourth down in the game's final two minutes.

Week 15 • Dec. 15, 2024 • BENGALS 37 at Titans 27 • 3-11

The Titans (six turnovers) and Bengals (four) combine for 10 turnovers, and the Bengals score 24 points off Titans turnovers ... The game also features 26 penalties—14 by the Bengals and 12 by the Titans ... Joe Burrow leads the Bengals with 271 passing yards and three touchdowns with two interceptions ... The Bengals convert 10 third downs on 13 attempts ... Titans starting quarterback Will Levis is intercepted three times before Mason Rudolph enters in relief during the third quarter ... Rudolph completes touchdown passes to Tyjae Spears and Josh Whyle, and Spears adds a rushing touchdown.

EVP/GENERAL MANAGER RAN CARTHON

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

A year after initially joining the franchise, Carthon was promoted to executive vice president/general manager. His duties expanded to include all areas that impact the football team: roster control, team activities and personnel decisions including draft and free agency acquisitions, oversight of head coach Brian Callahan and his coaching staff, scouting, sports medicine, and player engagement.

"Over the past year, Ran has impressed me and our staff with his innovative approach to roster building," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk upon Carthon's promotion in 2024. "Ran's exceptional reputation around the league as a talent evaluator and culture builder was a clear competitive advantage during last year's free agency and draft process, as well as our recent search for a head coach. Simply put, Ran Carthon makes the Tennessee Titans a destination for the league's top talent. By expanding his role to include full roster control and oversight of the coaching staff, our organization will now benefit more completely from Ran's unique ability to build and lead a championship-caliber football team."

Shortly after receiving his promotion, Carthon and his staff embarked upon the 2024 offseason. Their efforts resulted in several notable signings in free agency: cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr., defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day, center Lloyd Cushenberry III, running back Tony Pollard, quarterback Mason Rudolph and wide receiver Calvin Ridley. The Titans then used a trade to acquire former Kansas City Chiefs cornerback L'Jarius Sneed before circling back in free agency to add wide receiver Tyler Boyd and safety Jamal Adams. Prior to the start of the 2024 season, another trade brought linebacker Ernest Jones IV to the Titans from the Los Angeles Rams.

During the 2024 NFL Draft, Carthon orchestrated the selection of seven total players. With the seventh overall pick in the first round, the Titans chose Alabama tackle JC Latham, and at No. 38 in the second round, they took Texas nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat.

In his first year with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster with several veteran additions who would become key starters for the team in 2023, including wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, outside linebacker Ardren Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting and offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski, quarterback Will Levis and running back Tyjae Spears were selected in the first three rounds, respectively. Carthon also used a trade to acquire kicker Nick Folk.

Carthon arrived in Tennessee with a range of experience from multiple teams. In San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)—evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators' 2000 SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his father, Maurice Carthon, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. Maurice Carthon played for the Colts and New York Giants, and he coached for New England, the New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Ran Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business, and in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Fla.

Jim Wyatt: Callahan Feels Like He Found the Perfect Fit With Titans

Video: Brian Callahan's Introductory Press Conference

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities—offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes—and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there.

"To our fans, thank you for your support and for sticking with us. You deserve a championship team, and we're going to get there. I can't wait for you to get to know Brian and his family."

Callahan arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. He earned three consecutive Pro Bowl nods and became the eighth player in NFL history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first three career seasons, including 1,216 yards on a career-high 100 receptions in 2023. Boyd's statistical highlights included 1,046 receiving yards in 2019, while Higgins contributed 1,091 yards in 2021 and 1,029 yards in 2022.

Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). Burrow, after returning from a knee injury suffered in 2020, led the NFL in completion percentage (70.4) and established single-season Bengals records for passing yards (4,611) and passer rating (108.3). Chase was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year after posting a team-record 1,455 receiving yards, while Mixon placed third in the NFL in rushing yards (1,205).

In 2020, Callahan helped develop Burrow as a rookie despite facing the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the cancellation of all in-person NFL offseason programs. Before a knee injury ended his rookie campaign in Week 11, Burrow's 264 completions were the most ever by an NFL quarterback through his first 10 career games, while his 2,688 passing yards were fifth.

Callahan joined the Bengals after spending 2018 as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Under his tutelage, Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passed for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and led the AFC with a 68.9 completion percentage.

From 2016 to 2017, Callahan was the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions. Working with Matthew Stafford, he helped the veteran finish third in passing yards (4,446) and fourth in passing touchdowns (29) in 2017, while posting a then-career-best 99.3 passer rating. In 2016, Stafford's eight game-winning drives were the most by a quarterback in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Callahan broke into the NFL with the Denver Broncos in 2010 and served in multiple roles for the franchise through 2015. He began as a coaching assistant (2010) before transitioning to offensive quality control coach (2011-12), offensive assistant coach (2013-14) and finally offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach (2015). In 2013, Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning won the Associated Press NFL MVP award after completing a league-record 55 touchdown passes. Callahan's tenure in Denver was capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign. Before reaching the NFL, Callahan spent time at his alma mater, UCLA, as a graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007. He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

Born in Champaign, Ill., Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking.

He and his wife, Allyson, have a son, Ronan, and a daughter, Norah. He is the son of longtime NFL coach Bill Callahan, the current Titans offensive line coach.

TITANS 2024 ASSISTANT COACHES

COLT ANDERSON SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Anderson arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with four years (2020-23) of NFL coaching experience following a nine-year NFL playing career (2009-17) as a safety and special teams standout.
- Prior to joining the Titans, Anderson spent four years as an assistant special teams coach with the Cincinnati Bengals alongside head coach Zac Taylor and assistant head coach/special teams coordinator Darrin Simmons. Current Titans head coach Brian Callahan also served on the staff.
- In 2023, Cincinnati's special teams units ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: 10th in punt return average (10.2 yards per return), eighth in opponent punt return average (7.0 yards per return), second in opponent kickoff return average (17.0) and fifth in opponent net punting average (40.2 yards per punt).
- As a player, Anderson was a rotational safety whose impact was felt most on special teams. Over his nine seasons as an NFL player, he spent time with the Minnesota Vikings, Philadelphia Eagles, Indianapolis Colts and Buffalo Bills. He played in 84 career games (seven starts), and recorded 109 tackles, one interception and two forced fumbles on defense, along with 58 stops on special teams.
- Anderson played collegiately at the University of Montana. He originally joined the Grizzlies' program as a walk-on safety and went on to become a four-time All-Big Sky performer—three times as a safety and once as a special teams player. As a senior in 2008, he set a school record with 129 tackles.

DENNARD WILSON DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Wilson arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 12 years of NFL coaching experience, including nine seasons leading defensive back units.
- Prior to joining the Titans, Wilson spent the 2023 campaign as the defensive backs coach with the Baltimore Ravens, working with head coach John Harbaugh and defensive coordinator Mike Macdonald. The defense ranked first in points allowed (16.5 per game), sixth overall (301.4 yards allowed per game), sixth in pass defense (191.9 yards per game), first in sacks (60) and third in interceptions (18). Second-year safety Kyle Hamilton earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors.
- Before he joined the Ravens, Wilson spent two seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, where he served as defensive passing game coordinator/defensive backs (2022) and a defensive backs coach (2021). In 2022, the Eagles ranked first in the NFL in pass defense (179.8 yards per game) en route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVII.
- Wilson spent four total seasons (2017-20) with the New York Jets—initially as defensive backs coach (2017-18) and then passing game coordinator/defensive backs (2019-20). While there he oversaw the development of safeties Jamal Adams and Marcus Maye.
- Wilson's initial NFL coaching job was with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams under head coach Jeff Fisher. He began his tenure with the Rams as a defensive quality control coach (2012-14) and then spent two years as the defensive backs coach (2015-16).
- From 2008 to 2011, he was employed by the Chicago Bears as a pro scout.
- The Upper Marlboro, Md., native was a three-year starter and team captain as a corner and safety at the University of Maryland. He entered the NFL in 2004 as a rookie free agent with Washington.

NICK HOLZ OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Holz (pronounced "HOLTS") arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 11 years of NFL coaching experience and 16 total years of coaching experience.
- He joined the Titans after spending the 2023 campaign as the passing game coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Working in an offense that featured quarterback Trevor Lawrence, he helped the unit rank ninth in passing (242.7 yards per game) and 13th in points scored (22.2 points per game). Calvin Ridley posted 1,016 receiving yards and eight touchdowns, while Evan Engram led all NFL tight ends with 114 receptions for 963 yards.
- Before his stint in Jacksonville, Holz was the offensive coordinator for UNLV in 2022, which followed 10 campaigns with the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders (2012-21). With the Raiders, he served in a variety of roles on offense, mostly focused on wide receivers. He served on the staff of three different Raiders head coaches and worked with a notable list of offensive minds, including Greg Knapp, Greg Olson, Bill Musgrave and Jon Gruden.
- Prior to joining the Raiders, Holz was an assistant at Stanford under head coach Jim Harbaugh (2008-10) and David Shaw (2011). As an assistant quarterbacks coach, he helped Andrew Luck earn first-team All-American honors and finish as the runner-up in Heisman Trophy voting two times.
- Holz began his collegiate coaching career in 2007 at Nebraska, where he served as offensive quality control coach and video intern for the Cornhuskers under head coach Bill Callahan.
- At the University of Colorado, Holz was a three-year letter winner (2004-06) as a wide receiver and holder.

BRIAN BELL ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Bell joined the Titans in 2018 after spending three seasons with the Houston Texans as assistant strength and conditioning coach.
- After originally joining the Titans as a strength and conditioning assistant, he was named sports performance coordinator in 2022 and then promoted to his current title of assistant director of sports performance in 2023.
- He was a member of back-to-back AFC South Division Championships in his first two campaigns in Houston.
- Bell was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Penn State from 2012-13 and the head football strength and conditioning coach at his high school alma mater, DeMatha Catholic, in Hyattsville, Md., from 2011-12.
- Bell was a tight end and fullback at Kent State from 2002-06. In 2007, Bell signed with the Washington Commanders as an undrafted free agent and served on the team's practice squad.

BEN BLOOM OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Bloom arrived in Tennessee in 2024 with 15 years of experience coaching in the NFL. He was hired after spending the previous four campaigns with the Cleveland Browns.
- During his most recent stint with the Browns, Bloom served as senior defensive assistant in 2020, run game coordinator in 2021 and 2022, and defensive line coach in 2023. He broke into the NFL with the Browns from 2009 to 2010 and then worked nine seasons on the Dallas Cowboys staff (2011-19) before heading back to Cleveland.
- In 2023, Bloom worked with Browns defensive end Myles Garrett, who was named the AP Defensive Player of the Year after leading the Browns and tying for seventh in the NFL with 14 sacks. As a unit, the Browns led the NFL in total defense (270.2 opponent yards per game), passing defense (164.7) and third-down defense (29.1 percent).

- Bloom was the linebackers coach for the Cowboys in his final two seasons with the organization (2018-19) and was instrumental in Leighton Vander Esch and Jaylon Smith earning Pro Bowl honors.
- Prior to entering the NFL, Bloom spent four years in the college coaching ranks, lastly as the assistant defensive line coach at Harvard University in 2008. That followed three years (2005-07) as defensive line/graduate assistant at Tufts University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history in 2005 and master's in education in 2008.
- A native of Wellesley, Mass., Bloom was a three-year letter winner on the Tufts offensive line.

FRANK BUSH LINEBACKERS

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Bush rejoined the Titans as linebackers coach in 2024, beginning his third coaching stint with the franchise that also drafted him as a player in 1985. Prior to 2024, he spent 39 total NFL seasons as a player (1985-86), scout (1987-91) and coach (1992-present).
- From 2021 to 2023, Bush coached the Atlanta Falcons linebackers. In his final season there, his platoon was part of an overall unit that ranked eighth in passing defense (202.9 opponent yards per game), third in third-down efficiency (33.8 percent) and fourth in red-zone efficiency (45.3 touchdown percent).

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Click for complete bio

Quarterback Will Levis was selected by the Titans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft. He was the fourth quarterback chosen in the draft after the Titans traded up in the second round to select him.

In his debut season, Levis recorded starts in all nine games in which he appeared, becoming the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games. Only Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 starts in 2015) preceded him in the accomplishment. Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. He completed 479 of his 738 passes (64.9 percent) for 5,876 yards with 46 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He also rushed for 742 yards and 17 touchdowns.

At Kentucky, Levis went 17-7 as a starter, tying Terry Wilson for the second-most quarterback wins since 1993. The two-time team captain completed 418 of 636 passes for 5,233 yards with 43 passing touchdowns and 11 rushing scores for the Wildcats. His six 300-yard passing games were the fourth-most in school history.

As a senior in 2022, he started 11 games at quarterback and connected on 185 of 283 passes for 2,406 yards with 19 passing scores, while ranking fourth in the SEC in pass efficiency (151.9). He finished fifth in the SEC with 19 passing scores.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. He was 233-of-353 passing for 2,826 yards and 24 touchdowns, and he also registered 107 rushes for 376 yards and a team-high tying nine rushing touchdowns.

He is a native of Madison, Conn.

2024 Game Notes:

➤ At Chicago (9/8), in his first Week 1 start and his 10th career start, completed 19 of 32 passes for 127 yards and a touchdown with two interceptions. He added 36 rushing yards on four carries. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-15 with a 22-yard pass to Calvin Ridley and tossed a 17-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo. It was his ninth career touchdown pass.

➤ Against the New York Jets (9/15), completed 19 of 28 passes for 192 yards with one touchdown and one interception (84.2 passer rating). His 67.9 completion percentage set a career high (min. 20 attempts). He added a career-high 38 rushing yards on four attempts, marking the second consecutive week he posted a career high in rushing. In the first half, he completed 11 of 13 passes, and his 84.6 first-half completion percentage was the second-highest mark of his career (88.9 against Houston, Dec. 17, 2023) through 11 starts. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-three with a 22-yard pass to Tony Pollard. In the third quarter, his career-long 21-yard rushing attempt converted a third-and-one. Also in the third quarter, he completed a 40-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Ridley for his second touchdown pass of the season.

➤ Against Green Bay (9/22), completed 26 of 34 passes for 260 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions. His 26 completions were a career high, and his 76.5 completion percentage established a new career high (minimum of 20 pass attempts). His completion percentage also tied Ken Stabler (Sept. 28, 1980 at Cincinnati) for fourth place in franchise history in a game in which a quarterback attempted at least 34 passes behind only Steve McNair (79.4 against Jacksonville on Nov. 4, 2001), Warren Moon (78.9 against Detroit on Nov. 5, 1989) and Neil O'Donnell (77.5 against Cleveland on Sept. 19, 1999). His 92.8 passer rating ranked second in his career in a game with at least 20 attempts. Levis tallied his third career game with two or more touchdown passes. On the team's opening offensive series, he completed a 23-yard pass to Josh Whyle on the first play of the game, added a 20-yard pass to Tyler Boyd, and completed a one-yard touchdown pass to Nick Vannett. In the third quarter, he completed a screen pass for 29 yards to Tyjae Spears, and later on the same drive, he completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to DeAndre Hopkins.

➤ At Miami (9/30), completed three of four passes for 25 yards with one interception before leaving the game in the first quarter with a right shoulder injury. He added five yards on two rushing attempts.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/13), completed 16 of 27 passes for 95 yards with one touchdown and one interception, and he added three rushing attempts for 15 yards. In the first quarter, he tossed a nine-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine to register his 13th career touchdown pass (fifth in 2024). He found DeAndre Hopkins for a 23-yard gain in the second quarter.

➤ At Buffalo (10/20), at Detroit (10/27) and against New England (11/3), he was inactive with a right shoulder injury.

➤ At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), he returned to the starting lineup after missing three games with a shoulder injury. He completed 18 of 23 passes for 175 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. His 78.3 completion percentage established a career high, and his 127.4 passer rating ranked second in his career in a game with at least 20 attempts. In the first quarter, he completed a 41-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Ridley—the fourth-longest touchdown pass of his career, and he added a 15-yard touchdown toss to Ridley in the fourth quarter. It was his fourth career game with at least two touchdown passes. He added a career-high 41 yards on five rushing attempts.

➤ Against Minnesota (11/17), completed 17 of 31 passes for 295 yards with one touchdown and one interception (84.7 passer rating). His 9.52 yards per pass attempt set a career high, and his 17.4 yards per completion set a career high and tied for the fifth-highest average in the NFL in 2024 in a game in which a quarterback attempted at least 20 passes. He tied his career high with three completions of at least 25 yards, and he also tied his career high with seven rushing attempts for a total of 18 yards. In the third quarter, he completed a career-long 98-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. It tied for the longest pass in franchise history, matching Jacky Lee's 98-yard touchdown pass to Willard Dewveall against San Diego on Nov. 25, 1962. It also tied Lee's pass to Dewveall for the second-longest play from scrimmage in franchise history behind Derrick Henry's 99-yard touchdown run against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018. His 98-yard touchdown pass was the longest in the NFL in 2024 (through Nov. 17) and the league's longest pass since Buffalo's Josh Allen completed a 98-yard touchdown pass to Gabe Davis against Pittsburgh on Oct. 9, 2022. The 98-yard touchdown pass was the 25th pass in NFL history of either 98 yards (12 times) or 99 yards (13). In the first quarter, he helped convert a third-and-nine with a 21-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. On the final play of the third quarter, he helped convert a third-and-11 with a 33-yard connection with Bryce Oliver.

➤ At Houston (11/24), completed 18 of 24 passes for 278 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. His 123.3 passer rating and his 75.0 completion percentage both ranked third in his career in a game in which he attempted at least 20 passes. He was credited with his second career game-winning drive after completing the go-ahead 70-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo in the fourth quarter. He completed his first 11 passes of the game to set a career high, and since 1997, Levis' 11 straight completions to begin a game tied for the second most by a Titans/Oilers signal caller (19 by Marcus Mariota at Houston on Nov. 26, 2018; 11 by Ryan Tannehill against Kansas City on Oct. 24, 2021). His statistics during the first two quarters at Houston included 11-of-12 passing for 177 yards with one touchdown, no interceptions and a passer rating of 146.5. His 177 passing yards in the first half set a career high for passing yards in the first half of a game. In the first quarter, he found Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a 38-yard touchdown. In the second quarter, he helped convert a third-and-11 with a 63-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. At the time, it was the second-

SECOND-ROUND QUARTERBACKS

From the first common draft in 1967 to 2023, there were 63 quarterbacks selected in the second round of the NFL Draft. Among those with at least 200 passing attempts in their rookie season, Titans quarterback Will Levis delivered the highest passer rating. Levis was 149-of-255 passing for 1,808 yards with eight touchdowns and four interceptions, amounting to an 84.2 passer rating. The previous leader was Charlie Batch, who had an 83.5 passer rating as a rookie with the Detroit Lions in 1998.

Levis' 58.4 completion percentage also ranked as the best of any second-rounder in his rookie campaign. Former Cincinnati Bengals quarterback Andy Dalton previously held the top spot with a 58.1 completion percentage as a rookie in 2011.

#11 • QB MASON RUDOLPH

6-5, 235, 7th Year/1st with Titans, Oklahoma State

Click for complete bio

Mason Rudolph is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

Rudolph joined the Titans after spending his first six seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 21 games during his time in Pittsburgh, he started at 13 times, throwing for 3,085 yards and 19 touchdowns with a completion percentage of 63.5.

In 2023, Rudolph started three games during the regular season, passing for 719 yards and three touchdowns. He also started Pittsburgh's playoff game at Buffalo.

In 2019, in relief of the injured Ben Roethlisberger, he went 5-3 as Pittsburgh's starter while throwing for 1,765 yards and 13 touchdowns in 10 total games played.

Rudolph was originally drafted by the Steelers in the third round (76th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.

In four seasons at Oklahoma State (2014-17), led the Cowboys to a 32-9 record as a starter to become the winningest quarterback in school history. His 13,618 career passing yards ranked fourth in Big-12 history and he was the recipient of the 2017 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, awarded to the top upperclassmen quarterback in the country.

He is a native of Rock Hill, S.C.

2024 Game Notes:

➤ At Miami (9/30), made his Titans debut. After entering the game in the first quarter when starter Will Levis exited with a shoulder injury, he completed nine of 17 pass attempts for 85 yards. He directed seven total scoring drives—five field goals and two touchdowns. In the second quarter, he completed a 27-yard pass to Tyler Boyd to set up a field goal as time expired in the first half.

➤ At Buffalo (10/20), registered his 14th career start and his first start since joining the Titans as an unrestricted free agent during the 2024 offseason. He completed 25 of 40 attempts for 215 yards with one touchdown and one interception (74.5 passer rating) and added five rushing attempts for 13 yards. His 25 completions and his 40 passing attempts were the third-highest single-game totals of his career. In the first quarter, he found Chig Okonkwo for a 26-yard connection. In the second quarter, he engineered an eight-play, 75-yard drive that culminated with his four-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. He later completed a 33-yard pass to Calvin Ridley on the final play of the first half.

➤ At Detroit (10/27), started for the second consecutive week and completed 22 of 38 passes for 266 yards and one touchdown with two interceptions. His 266 passing yards in a game ranked fourth in his career. He added 29 rushing yards and a touchdown on four rushing attempts. In the first quarter, he found Josh Whyle for a 33-yard completion, and later on the same drive, he completed a 26-yard pass to Calvin Ridley and then rushed for an 11-yard score. It was his first career rushing touchdown. He also completed a 47-yard pass to Ridley in the first quarter.

➤ Against New England (11/3), started for the third consecutive week and earned his first win as a Titans starting quarterback. He completed 20 of 33 passes for 240 yards with two touchdowns and one interception, and his 90.5 passer rating was the seventh-best figure of his career in a game with 20 or more attempts. His two touchdown passes tied his career high, which he reached for the seventh time. He added 19 rushing yards on four attempts, including a 13-yard run for a first down on third-and-12 in the first quarter. In the first quarter, he tossed a nine-yard touchdown pass to Nick Vannett to cap the first drive of the game. In the fourth quarter, he connected with Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a go-ahead six-yard touchdown pass. In overtime, he registered his third career game-winning drive and his first as a member of the Titans. During the overtime series, he completed two of his three passes for 30 yards, connecting with Calvin Ridley on gains of 16 and 14 yards.

➤ Against Cincinnati (12/15), entered the game in the third quarter. He completed 21 of 26 passes for 209 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. He recorded a 109.8 passer rating, which was the fifth-best passer rating of his career. In the fourth quarter, he completed a pair of touchdown passes: a 17-yard touchdown pass to Tyjae Spears and a 13-yarder to Josh Whyle. It was his eighth career game with at least two touchdown passes. He also added 14 yards on two rushing attempts.

He added 26 yards on three receptions to give him 154 scrimmage yards, which was the second-best scrimmage yard total of his career. It was his second consecutive game with at least 100 scrimmage yards and fourth such performance of 2024, matching his total from 2023. His four such performances in 2024 matched his total from 2023 with the Cowboys. He hit the 600-yard rushing mark (622), reaching the plateau within his team's first eight games for the first time in his career. He joined Chris Johnson and DeMarco Murray as the only players in the franchise's Titans era (1999 to present) to reach at least 500 rushing yards and 100 receiving yards in their first eight games with the team. In the first quarter, he gained 32 yards on a carry to help set up a touchdown on the next play.

➤ At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), rushed for 44 yards on nine carries and added 19 yards on four receptions. He picked up 15 yards on a rushing attempt in the second quarter.

➤ Against Minnesota (11/17), rushed nine times for 15 yards and added 14 yards on a pair of receptions.

➤ At Houston (11/24), led the offense with 119 yards and a touchdown on 24 rushing attempts, logging his ninth career 100-yard rushing game and his second 100-yard performance of 2024. He added 10 yards on three receptions. His 119 rushing yards made up the fifth-best rushing yardage total of his career. It was his sixth career game with 100 rushing yards and a rushing touchdown. He recorded a career-best five carries that went at least 10 yards, including a 17-yard gain in the second quarter and a 27-yard gain on a draw play later in the second quarter. He also crossed the goal line on a 10-yard carry in the second quarter.

➤ At Washington (12/1), led the team with 35 rushing yards on eight carries and added a team-high four receptions for 33 yards. He gained 30 yards on a reception in the third quarter, setting up a Titans field goal. He registered his fourth consecutive season with at least 1,000 scrimmage yards, and he became the third running back in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach 1,000 scrimmage yards in their first season with the team, joining Chris Johnson (2008) and DeMarco Murray (2016).

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/8), led the Titans with 102 rushing yards on 21 attempts (4.9 avg.) and added 22 yards on a pair of receptions. He logged his 10th career 100-yard rushing game and his third 100-yard rushing performance of 2024, while he also recorded his 22nd career 100-yard scrimmage game and his sixth 100-yard scrimmage game of 2024. In the fourth quarter, he rushed for a 21-yard gain. It was his sixth rush of the season of 20-plus yards. During the contest he went over 6,000 scrimmage yards for his career (6,110).

➤ Against Cincinnati (12/15), led the offense with 45 yards on 17 rushing attempts, including a touchdown. He scored his fifth touchdown of the season (28th career) on a three-yard run in the first quarter.

#2 • RB TYJAE SPEARS

5-11, 195, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Tulane

Click for complete bio

Running back Tyjae Spears was selected by the Titans in the third round (81st overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, Spears did not miss a game and registered one start. He carried the ball 100 times for 453 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 52 receptions for 385 yards and one score. His 838 scrimmage yards ranked seventh in franchise history among rookie running backs, and the total also placed fourth among rookie running backs in 2023 behind Atlanta's Bijan Robinson, Detroit's Jahmyr Gibbs and Miami's De'Von Achane. Spears became the franchise's first rookie running back with at least 50 receptions since Sid Blanks in 1964 (56).

Spears spent four years at Tulane (2019-22) prior to entering the NFL. He appeared in 33 games with 20 starts at running back for the Green Wave, totaling 2,910 yards and 31 touchdowns on 427 carries with an additional 48 receptions for 564 yards and three scores. He ended his career as the school's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.8), tied for second in 100-yard rushing games (15), tied for third in rushing touchdowns (31), fourth in rushing yards per game (85.6) and sixth in rushing yards (2,910) and total touchdowns (34). His 6.8 yards per carry from 2019 to 2022 ranked second in the FBS behind only Alabama-Birmingham running back DeWayne McBride's 7.3-yard average (minimum 400 attempts).

As a junior in 2022, he started all 14 games for the Green Wave, totaling 1,581 yards and 19 touchdowns on 229 rushing attempts and adding 22 receptions for 256 yards and two touchdowns. He tied for the national lead with 21 total touchdowns and tied for third in the country with 19 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked second in Tulane single-season history. His 1,581 rushing yards led the conference and made up the Green Wave's all-time second-highest single-season total. His nine 100-yard rushing games included eight consecutive such efforts to finish the season. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and also earned first-team All-AAC honors. His efforts helped Tulane earn a 12-2 record and win an American Athletic Conference title.

He is a native of Ponchatoula, La.

#85 • TE CHIG OKONKWO

6-3, 238, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Maryland
Click for complete bio

Tight end Chig Okonkwo (pronounced "CHIGG oh-KAHN-kwoh") is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (143rd overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

In his first two campaigns, Okonkwo did not miss a game and totaled 19 starts. His two-year statistics included 86 receptions for 978 yards and four touchdowns. His 11.4-yard receiving average tied for sixth among all NFL tight ends from 2022 to 2023.

Okonkwo started 11 games in 2023 and finished the season with 54 receptions for 528 yards and one touchdown. He ranked second on the team in receptions and receiving yards.

During his rookie season, Okonkwo appeared in all 17 games with eight starts and totaled 32 receptions for 450 yards (14.1 avg.) and three touchdowns. His yardage total ranked second on the team. He also tied for fifth on the team with seven special teams tackles. He was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team.

Okonkwo's 450 receiving yards in 2022 established a new record for franchise rookie tight ends, surpassing Ben Troupe's 329 yards in 2004. Okonkwo tied Chris Dressel (32 receptions in 1983) for the third-best reception total among all Titans/Oilers rookie tight ends, trailing only Bo Scaife (37 in 2005) and Troupe (33 in 2004), and he became the second rookie tight end in franchise history with at least three touchdown catches, joining Dressel (four in 1983).

The Powder Springs, Ga., native appeared in 37 games with 20 starts over four seasons (2018-21) at Maryland and caught 77 passes for 717 yards and eight touchdowns. He added three carries for 72 yards and three touchdowns, including a career-long rush of 54 yards.

As a senior in 2021, he started all 13 games and posted career-high marks with 52 catches for 447 yards and a team-leading five touchdowns. His 52 receptions ranked second in Terrapins history for a single season by a tight end, behind only former Titans tight end Frank Wycheck (58 in 1990). Okonkwo's 447 receiving yards were the most by a Terps tight end in a season since Vernon Davis (871 in 2005).

He sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID-19. Prior to then, he saw action in 12 games (four starts) as a freshman and 12 games (three starts) as a sophomore.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started and caught two passes for 15 yards and a touchdown. He hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis in the second quarter for his fifth career touchdown reception.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), totaled 16 yards on three receptions. He reached the 1,000-yard receiving mark for his career (1,009), becoming the franchise's 15th tight end to reach the plateau.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), totaled 15 yards on a pair of receptions.
- At Miami (9/30), caught one pass for five yards.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), totaled six yards on three receptions.
- At Buffalo (10/20), recorded a team-high 50 receiving yards on four catches. It was his fifth career game with at least 50 receiving yards. In the first quarter, he caught a 26-yard pass from Mason Rudolph for the seventh-longest reception of his career. During the contest, he reached the 100-reception mark for his career (101).

- At Detroit (10/27), totaled 14 yards on two receptions, including an 18-yard catch in the third quarter.
- Against New England (11/3), totaled 38 yards on three receptions, including a 21-yard catch in the third quarter to set up a first-and-goal.
- At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), caught one pass for 14 yards.
- Against Minnesota (11/17), totaled 19 yards on a pair of receptions.
- At Houston (11/24), took a pass from Will Levis 70 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter for the longest reception of his career. The reception gave him a career high for receiving yards in a game. His 70-yarder was the franchise's longest catch by a tight end since Jared Cook's 80-yard score on Oct. 2, 2011, and it was the NFL's longest reception by a tight end since Detroit's T.J. Hockenson had an 81-yard reception (no touchdown) for Detroit against Seattle on Oct. 2, 2022. Okonkwo recorded the longest touchdown reception by an NFL tight end since Cleveland's David Njoku scored on a 71-yard catch against the L.A. Chargers on Oct. 10, 2021. Tracked by Next Gen Stats at 20.03 miles per hour during his touchdown catch, he reached the fastest speed by an NFL tight end on a touchdown-scoring play from scrimmage since Week 9 of 2023, when then-Falcons tight end Jonnu Smith hit 21.15 MPH on a 60-yard touchdown reception against the Vikings.
- At Washington (12/1), totaled 27 yards on three receptions. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with a 14-yard grab.
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), totaled eight yards on three receptions.
- Against Cincinnati (12/15), led the offense and established a career high with eight receptions for 59 yards. His yardage total was the fifth-best of his career. He became the first Titans tight end with eight or more receptions in a game since Anthony Firkser had eight catches against the Houston Texans on Oct. 18, 2020. He also drew a pass interference penalty that led to a first-and-goal and a Titans touchdown in the first quarter.

#83 • WR TYLER BOYD6-2, 203, 9th Year/1st with Titans, PittsburghClick for complete bio

Wide receiver Tyler Boyd is in his ninth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on May 14, 2024.

Prior to joining the Titans, Boyd spent the first eight seasons of his career with the Cincinnati Bengals. He was originally selected by the Bengals in the second round (55th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

During his time in Cincinnati, he played in 120 games with 77 starts, plus an additional seven postseason contests with six starts. His production at the Bengals included 513 career receptions for 6,000 yards and 31 touchdowns, and he departed Cincinnati ranked fourth in franchise history in receptions and seventh in receiving yards.

From 2016 through 2023, Boyd ranked first in the NFL in receptions (390), receiving yards (4,813) and first downs (233) among wide receivers from the slot formation, per Next Gen Stats.

During his final campaign in Cincinnati in 2023, Boyd ranked second on Cincinnati's offense with 67 receptions and 667 receiving yards, including two touchdown grabs. It was his sixth consecutive season with a minimum of 58 receptions and 667 receiving yards, and he was one of only nine NFL players to do so each year from 2018 through 2023. Boyd appeared in all but four contests during that six-year stretch.

In 2019, Boyd achieved career highs with 15 starts, 90 receptions and 1,046 receiving yards during his fourth NFL season.

A native of Clairton, Pa., Boyd attended the University of Pittsburgh, where he played three seasons (2013-15) and was named first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference in each of his final two seasons. He finished his collegiate career as Pittsburgh's all-time leader in both receptions (254) and receiving yards (3,361) and finished second at Pitt in career all-purpose yards (5,243), trailing only Tony Dorsett (7,117).

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and totaled 18 yards on three receptions.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), totaled 26 yards on a pair of receptions.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), totaled 33 yards on three receptions, including a 20-yard grab in the first quarter to convert a third-and-nine.
- At Miami (9/30), tied for the team lead with two receptions and 31 receiving yards. He caught a 27-yard pass from Mason Rudolph to help set up a field goal as time expired in the first half.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), registered 19 yards on three receptions.
- At Buffalo (10/20), registered 43 yards on a team-high five receptions. His three first downs on receptions set a season high through six games.
- At Detroit (10/27), totaled 14 yards on three receptions.
- Against New England (11/3), recorded one rushing attempt for three yards and a first down.
- Against Minnesota (11/17), caught two passes for 34 total yards, including a 30-yarder in the fourth quarter. It was his longest catch of the season through 10 games.
- At Houston (11/24), led the offense with six receptions for 55 yards, including a 19-yard grab. His six catches and 55 yards set season highs through 11 games.

- At Washington (12/1), totaled 37 yards on three receptions. In the third quarter, he converted a third-and-seven with a 16-yard reception.
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), caught a seven-yard pass for a first down.
- Against Cincinnati (12/15), totaled 39 yards on two receptions against his former team. In the first quarter, he converted a third-and-nine with a season-long 40-yard reception.

#16 • WR TREYLON BURKS

6-2, 225, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Arkansas
Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Treylon Burks is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (18th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

Through his first two seasons, Burks totaled 49 receptions for 665 yards and one touchdown in 22 games (15 starts). That included 16 catches for 221 yards in 2023.

As a rookie, Burks appeared in 11 games with six starts, totaling 33 receptions for 444 yards and one touchdown. His reception total tied for third place on the team, while his yardage total tied for third on the squad. Among NFL rookies in 2022, Burks' 444 receiving yards ranked ninth.

In three seasons (2019-21) at the University of Arkansas, Burks appeared in 32 career games with 30 starts. He totaled 146 receptions for 2,399 yards and 18 touchdowns to go along with 32 rushing attempts for 222 yards and one score. He returned 13 punts for 134 yards (10.3-yard average) and returned 11 kickoff returns for 226 yards (20.5 avg.).

At the conclusion of his collegiate career, he ranked sixth in Razorbacks history in career receptions and receiving yards, and his touchdown reception total tied for fifth all-time. He set an Arkansas record with 10 career 100-yard receiving games, including a school-record six 100-yard receiving performances in his final year.

Burks earned All-SEC honors in each of his three seasons: in 2019, second-team All-SEC as a returner and All-Freshman as a receiver; second-team All-SEC in 2020; and first-team All-SEC in 2021.

The Warren, Ark., native was drafted with the highest pick of any Arkansas player since Darren McFadden was taken fourth overall in 2008, and Burks was the first Arkansas wide receiver to be selected in the first round since Matt Jones was taken 21st overall by Jacksonville in 2006.

As a junior in 2021, Burks was named first-team All-SEC after totaling 66 receptions (seventh in the SEC) for 1,104 yards (fourth) and 11 touchdowns (fourth). His 92.0 receiving yards per game ranked third in the SEC behind only Jameson Williams (104.8) and Wan'Dale Robinson (102.6).

As a sophomore in 2020, he was named second-team All-SEC after contributing 51 receptions for 820 yards and seven touchdowns. His 91.1 receiving yards per game ranked third in the SEC behind only Elijah Moore (149.1) and DeVonta Smith (142.8).

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), caught one pass for two yards and had one rushing yard on two attempts.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), recorded a nine-yard reception.
- At Miami (9/30), caught a 13-yard pass.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), converted a fourth-and-one with a 10-yard reception in the third quarter.
- Placed on injured reserve on Oct. 19, 2024.

#0 • WR CALVIN RIDLEY

6-1, 190, 6th Year/1st with Titans, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his sixth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17). He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. He also ranked third with 2,781 receiving yards, while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and led the offense with 50 receiving yards on three catches. He converted a third-and-15 with a 22-yard reception in the second quarter.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), led the team with 77 receiving yards on four catches, including a touchdown, and added a rushing touchdown. On a drive in the first quarter, he converted a third-and-five with a 15-yard catch and capped the series with his first career rushing touchdown on a 10-yard run. It was the team's first rushing touchdown by a wide receiver since A.J. Brown's 49-yarder against New Orleans on Dec. 22, 2019. In the third quarter, he registered his first receiving touchdown with the Titans on a 40-yard pass from Will Levis. He became the first Titans wide receiver with a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game since Nate Washington accomplished the feat against Indianapolis on Oct. 30, 2011. It was his 10th consecutive game with at least three receptions.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), caught one pass for nine yards.
- At Miami (9/30), caught one pass for five yards and added a 10-yard rushing attempt.
- At Buffalo (10/20), totaled 42 yards on three receptions. He tallied a 33-yard reception on the final play of the first half.
- At Detroit (10/27), led the team with 10 receptions for 143 yards. His 10 receptions tied his career high (Dec. 20, 2020 vs. Tampa Bay), and his 143 receiving yards tied for the third-best total of his career. He became the first Titans player with 10 receptions in a game since A.J. Brown (11) against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021, and Ridley's 143 yards were the most by a Titans player since Brown's same performance against San Francisco. Ridley became the first Titans player with 100 receiving yards since DeAndre Hopkins (124) at Miami on Dec. 11, 2023. In the first quarter, he had six receptions for 118 yards, becoming the only Titans/Oilers player with six or more receptions in the first quarter of a game since at least 1978. The most recent time a Titans player had six-plus catches in any single quarter was Nate Washington (six receptions) in the fourth quarter at Buffalo on Oct. 21, 2012. Ridley was the first Titans player over the 100-yard receiving mark in the first quarter since Drew Bennett (124) at Indianapolis on Dec. 5, 2004. He helped set up a touchdown in the first quarter by catching a 26-yard pass from Mason Rudolph, and later in the first quarter, he recorded a 47-yard catch.
- Against New England (11/3), led the team with five receptions for 73 yards. In the second quarter, he notched a 25-yard reception, and in overtime, he posted receptions of 16 yards and 14 yards to help set up the game-winning field goal.
- At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), led the team with five receptions, 84 receiving yards and a pair of touchdown grabs. It was his seventh career game with two or more touchdown receptions and his first such game as a member of the Titans. In the first quarter, he caught a 41-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis, recording the fourth-longest touchdown reception of his career. He added a 15-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. He logged his fourth consecutive game with a catch of at least 25 yards, matching his career-best streak (2020).
- Against Minnesota (11/17), produced a team-high four receptions for 58 yards. In the first quarter, he converted a third-and-nine with a 21-yard grab. He tallied his fifth consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards, matching his career-best streak (2018 and 2023). He went over 500 yards in a season (541) for the fifth time in his career.
- At Houston (11/24), totaled a team-high 93 yards on five receptions, logging his fifth consecutive game with at least four receptions. In the second quarter, he helped convert a third-and-11 with a 63-yard reception, which tied for third-longest reception of Ridley's career. It was his sixth consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards, exceeding his previous career-best streak of five games in both 2018 and 2023. He reached the 600-yard receiving mark for the fifth season of his career.
- At Washington (12/1), caught two passes for 45 yards. During a touchdown drive in the second quarter, he converted a third-and-21 with a 30-yard reception. He went over the 5,000-yard receiving mark for his career (5,037). Additionally, he logged his seventh consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards to extend his career-best streak, which was the team's third-longest such streak since the beginning of the 2000 campaign behind only a streak of 12 games by Delanie Walker (2015-16) and a streak of 10 games by Kevin Dyson (2001).
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), led the offense with seven receptions and 59 receiving yards. It was his 19th career game with seven or more receptions. He reached the 700-yard receiving mark in a season (738)

Wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine is in his fifth NFL season in 2024. He was originally signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 7, 2020.

During his first four seasons in the NFL, no player appeared in more games in a Titans uniform than Westbrook-Ikhine, who logged 61 games in that stretch with 30 starts. He totaled 94 receptions for 1,276 yards and 10 touchdowns.

From the beginning of his second year in the NFL (2021) through 2023, Westbrook-Ikhine led the Titans in receptions (91), receiving yards (1,243), touchdown catches (10) and receptions for first downs (59).

The 2023 campaign was the third consecutive season for Westbrook-Ikhine with at least 25 receptions, 370 receiving yards and three touchdowns. He registered 28 catches for 370 yards and three scores in 14 games (nine starts) before finishing the season on injured reserve.

In 2022, Westbrook-Ikhine appeared in all 17 games with a career-high 13 starts. He posted 25 catches for 397 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2021, he appeared in 16 games with seven starts. He ranked second on the team and set career highs with 38 receptions, 476 receiving yards and four touchdown catches, and he added three tackles on special teams. Westbrook-Ikhine was named the team's 2021 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award.

As a rookie in 2020, he appeared in 14 games with one start and totaled three receptions for 33 yards, two special teams tackles and one reception for a two-point conversion. In one playoff game, he registered two catches for 17 yards and a special teams tackle.

A native of Lake Mary, Fla., he appeared in 52 games with 36 starts at Indiana University, where he totaled 144 receptions for 2,226 yards with 16 touchdowns over four seasons. He ranked sixth in school history in catches, seventh in yardage and touchdowns, and tied for seventh in 100-yard receiving games (six). He became the seventh Hoosier to reach 125 receptions and 2,000 yards. As a senior in 2019, he caught 42 passes for 572 yards and five touchdowns.

2024 Game Notes:

➤ At Chicago (9/8), led the team and set a career high with two special teams tackles.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/13), caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis in the first quarter. He notched his 11th career touchdown reception on his first catch of 2024.

➤ At Buffalo (10/20), totaled two receptions for 10 yards and a touchdown. In the second quarter, he caught a four-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph, giving him his second touchdown reception of 2024 and his 12th career touchdown grab. It was the first time in his career he recorded a touchdown reception in consecutive games.

➤ At Detroit (10/27), totaled 39 yards and a touchdown on a pair of receptions. In the second quarter, he caught a five-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph, and later in the second quarter, he added a 34-yard grab. He extended his career-long streak to three consecutive games with a touchdown reception, becoming the first Titans player to do so since A.J. Brown in 2020 (five consecutive games). He secured his fourth consecutive season with three or more touchdown receptions.

➤ Against New England (11/3), tied for the team lead with five receptions, totaling 50 yards and a touchdown. It was his fourth career game with five or more receptions. In the third quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with a 13-yard grab, and in the fourth quarter, he caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Mason Rudolph on third-and-goal to give the Titans a 17-10 lead. He logged his fourth consecutive game with a touchdown reception, marking the 14th occasion in franchise history that a player achieved the feat. The most recent player to do so was A.J. Brown (five-game streak) in 2020. Westbrook-Ikhine also became the fourth undrafted player in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to produce 100 career receptions for the team (104), joining wide receivers Nate Washington (307 receptions with the Titans) and Drew Bennett (273) and tight end Anthony Firkser (106). Westbrook-Ikhine joined Bennett as the only members of the group who initially entered the NFL with the Titans. His four touchdown receptions in 2024 matched his career high (four in 2021) and increased his career total to 14 touchdown catches.

for the fifth time in his career, and he reached the 50-reception mark in a season (50) for the fifth time in his career. In the fourth quarter, he registered a 30-yard catch, giving him three consecutive games with a reception of at least 30 yards.

➤ Against Cincinnati (12/15), totaled 41 yards on three receptions. In the third quarter, he was credited with a 19-yard rushing attempt. With 21 yards on a pass from Mason Rudolph in the fourth quarter, he logged his ninth consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards to extend his career-best streak and the third-longest such streak by a Titans player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign (12 by Delanie Walker, 2015-16; 10 by Kevin Dyson, 2001).

- At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), totaled 31 yards on three receptions.
- Against Minnesota (11/17), led the offense with 117 yards on two receptions, including a touchdown. His yardage total ranked second in his career. In the third quarter, he caught a 98-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis. The play tied for the longest reception in franchise history, matching Willard Dewveall's 98-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Jacky Lee against San Diego on Nov. 25, 1962. It tied Dewveall's catch for the second-longest play from scrimmage in franchise history behind Derrick Henry's 99-yard touchdown run against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018. His 98-yard reception was the longest in the NFL in 2024 (through Nov. 17) and the league's longest reception since Gabe Davis' 98-yard touchdown reception for Buffalo against Pittsburgh on Oct. 9, 2022. It was the 25th reception in NFL history of either 98 yards (12 times) or 99 yards (13). He registered his third career 100-yard game. Additionally, he set a career high with his fifth touchdown reception of the season, beating his previous high of four touchdown grabs in 2021.
- At Houston (11/24), totaled 48 yards and a touchdown on a pair of receptions. In the first quarter, he hauled in a 38-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis to register his sixth touchdown reception in a seven-game stretch. He became the team's first player to register a touchdown catch in six or more games in a season since A.J. Brown (10) and Jonnu Smith (six) accomplished the feat in 2020. His six touchdown receptions from Week 6 to Week 12 ranked third in the NFL.
- At Washington (12/1), recorded a team-high 61 yards on three receptions, including a pair of touchdowns. In the second quarter, he caught a 27-yard touchdown pass from Will Levis, and the duo connected again in the fourth quarter for a 17-yard touchdown. Westbrook-Ikhine produced his seventh and eighth touchdown receptions in an eight-game span. It was his second career game with two touchdown receptions, matching the career high he set against the Denver Broncos on Nov. 13, 2022. He became the team's first player with eight receiving touchdowns over an eight-game span since A.J. Brown from Oct. 13 to Nov. 29, 2020, and he also became the team's first player to register a touchdown catch in seven or more games in a season since Brown (10) accomplished the feat in 2020. It was his third consecutive game with at least one touchdown catch. He was the team's first player with eight touchdown catches in a season since A.J. Brown (11) and Jonnu Smith (eight) achieved the feat in 2020.
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), hauled in a 19-yard pass in the third quarter.
- Against Cincinnati (12/15), totaled nine yards on a pair of receptions.

Nicholas Petit-Frere (pronounced "puh-TEET FRAIR") is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans with the 69th overall pick in the third round of the 2022 NFL Draft.

In 2023, Petit-Frere was limited to three games and two starts. He started one game at right tackle and one contest at left tackle before he was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 11.

As a rookie, Petit-Frere started 16 games at right tackle. He joined Michael Roos (2005), Chance Warmack (2013) and Jack Conklin (2016) as the only offensive linemen in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present) to start at least 16 games as a rookie. Petit-Frere helped running back Derrick Henry rush for 1,538 yards, which ranked second in the NFL.

In four seasons at Ohio State, Petit-Frere saw action in 35 career games with 20 starts. He was a member of three consecutive Big Ten Conference championship teams (2018-20) and was a part of two Ohio State teams that qualified for the College Football Playoffs (2019-2020).

As a junior in 2021, he was named first team All-Big Ten by both the coaches and media after starting all 12 games at left tackle, helping Ohio State lead the nation in total offense and scoring offense. He added first-team All-American honors by the Football Writers Association of America and CBS Sports.

As a sophomore in 2020, he received second-team All-Big Ten honors after starting seven games at right tackle for the eighth-ranked rushing attack in the country. He was an Academic All-Big Ten selection.

Petit-Frere is a native of Tampa, Fla.

Dillon Radunz (pronounced "RAY-dinz") is in his fourth NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans with the 53rd overall pick in the second round of the 2021 NFL Draft.

In 2023, he returned from a season-ending knee injury during the previous season to record career highs with 16 games played and 11 starts. He logged starts at four different offensive line positions: seven starts at right tackle, two starts at left guard, one start at left tackle and one start at right guard. Radunz was voted by his teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award winner for the Titans in 2023.

In 2022, he appeared in 11 games, including four starts. He started two games at left guard and two games at right guard. His season came to an end on Dec. 21 when he was placed on injured reserve.

As a rookie in 2021, he appeared in 12 games with one start at left tackle.

A native of Becker, Minn., Radunz declared for the NFL Draft after North Dakota State's lone fall game his senior season, choosing to forego the Bisons' spring football schedule.

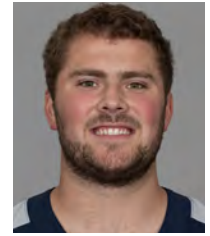

He started 32 collegiate games—all at left tackle—at NDSU and was a member of four Missouri Valley Football Conference championship teams and three NCAA Division I football national championships.

#77 • G PETER SKORONSKI

6-4, 313, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Northwestern
Click for complete bio

Peter Skoronski was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

When the Titans drafted Skoronski, he became Northwestern's highest draft selection since guard Chris Hinton went to Denver with the fourth pick in 1983, and he was the 11th player in program history to be picked in the first round.

His grandfather, Bob Skoronski Sr., was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame. Bob Skoronski Jr., Peter's father, was an All-Ivy League football player at Yale.

Peter Skoronski attended Maine South High School in Park Ridge, Ill.

#69 • DE SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY

6-4, 310, 6th Year/1st with Titans, Rutgers

Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day is in his sixth NFL season and his first season with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2024.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Joseph-Day totaled 71 games played and 68 starts for the Los Angeles Rams (2018-21), Los Angeles Chargers (2022-23) and San Francisco 49ers (2023). His statistical totals during that time included 230 tackles, 11 sacks, one interception, five passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

In 2023, Joseph-Day started the first 14 games of the season with the Chargers and collected 32 tackles, three sacks and 25 quarterback pressures. After being released by the Chargers, he was signed by the 49ers as a free agent on Dec. 27 and saw action as a reserve in the final two regular season contests, amassing five tackles. He then appeared as a reserve in all three of the 49ers' postseason contests and registered three tackles, including a tackle in Super Bowl LVIII.

Joseph-Day originally entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (195th overall) of the Rams in 2018. After not seeing game action his entire rookie campaign, he totaled 38 starts and six sacks over the next three seasons with the Rams, culminating with an appearance in the Rams' Super Bowl LVI victory. He then joined the Chargers during the 2022 offseason and played in 30 regular season games with the club before heading to San Francisco.

The Stroudsburg, Pa., native played five seasons at Rutgers, where he amassed 90 total tackles, 3.5 sacks, two passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and totaled three tackles, one sack, two quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and one pass defended. He became the first Titans defender to reach each of those marks in a game since Denico Autry accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Dec. 24, 2022. Joseph-Day was credited with a 19-yard sack of Caleb Williams in the first quarter. The 19 sack yards on the play were the most yards on a single sack by a Titans player since Dec. 1, 2021, when Derick Roberson sacked Jacksonville's Trevor Lawrence for a 20-yard loss.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tallied a pair of tackles.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), posted one tackle.
- At Miami (9/30), tied for second on the team with six tackles, including a sack. He sacked Tyler Huntley for a 10-yard loss in the third quarter, picking up his 13th career sack.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), contributed two tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- At Buffalo (10/20), recorded one tackle and two quarterback pressures.
- At Detroit (10/27), posted four tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- Against New England (11/3), totaled two tackles, including a half sack, and added three quarterback pressures. In the third quarter, he combined with Jack Gibbens to sack Drake Maye for a seven-yard loss. The play gave him 2.5 sacks in 2024 and 13.5 sacks in his career.
- At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), credited with three tackles.
- Against Minnesota (11/17), posted a tackle.
- At Houston (11/24), totaled a pair of tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- At Washington (12/1), totaled three tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), posted five tackles.
- Against Cincinnati (12/15), credited with two tackles.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 6th Year/6th with Titans, Mississippi State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his sixth NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first five seasons, Simmons appeared in 68 games with 66 starts and earned two Pro Bowl berths. The three-time team captain (2021-23) accumulated 240 tackles, 26.5 sacks, 20 passes defended, three forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He was third on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (37) and Denico Autry (28.5).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), registered two tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tied for third on the defense with five tackles. Late in the second quarter, he teamed with Ernest Jones IV to end a Jets drive with a two-yard tackle for loss against Breece Hall on third-and-one.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), totaled five tackles, including his first sack of the season. In the second quarter, he dropped Malik Willis for a two-yard sack on a third down.
- At Miami (9/30), he was inactive due to an elbow injury.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), recorded three tackles, including a tackle for loss, and tied for the team lead with three quarterback pressures.
- At Buffalo (10/20), posted two tackles, two quarterback pressures and one pass defended.
- At Detroit (10/27), totaled four tackles, one sack, three quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and one forced fumble. He recorded a strip-sack in the third quarter, taking down Jared Goff and registering a forced fumble on the play (recovered by the Lions). He notched his third career strip-sack and his fourth career forced fumble.
- Against New England (11/3), totaled five tackles, one sack, one fumble recovery and a team-high seven quarterback pressures. His seven quarterback pressures were his most in a game since posting seven at Washington on Oct. 9, 2022. In the second quarter, he pressured Drake Maye to help cause an interception by Amani Hooker. In the third quarter, he dropped Drake Maye for a six-yard sack to increase his season total to three sacks and his career total to 29.5 sacks. In the fourth quarter, he recorded his fifth career defensive fumble recovery (first in 2024) after Drake Maye lost the ball on a strip-sack by Arden Key. Simmons recovered the ball at New England's 26-yard line to set up a go-ahead score.
- At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), posted five tackles, a team-high three quarterback pressures and a pass defended.
- Against Minnesota (11/17), produced four tackles, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery, and he led the defense with six quarterback pressures. In the first quarter, he recovered a Vikings fumble, which led to a Titans field goal on the ensuing possession. In the third quarter, he was credited with a forced fumble against running back Aaron Jones Sr., but the ball was recovered by the Vikings. It was his fifth career forced fumble and his second forced fumble of 2024, which set a career high.
- At Houston (11/24), totaled two tackles, one sack, three quarterback

2019-23 TACKLES, SACKS & PASSES DEFENSED

From the time Jeffery Simmons entered the NFL as a first-round pick in 2019 through the end of the 2023 campaign, he was one of only four NFL players with at least 200 total tackles, 25 sacks and 20 passes defended. The rest of the group included T.J. Watt, Cameron Heyward and Kyle Van Noy. Simmons and Heyward were the only interior defensive linemen in the league to accomplish the feat.

NFL players with a minimum of 200 tackles, 25 sacks and 20 passes defended from 2019 to 2023:

Player	Team	Total Tackles	Sacks	Passes Defensed
T.J. Watt	Pittsburgh	279	76.5	35
Cameron Heyward	Pittsburgh	333	35.5	23
Kyle Van Noy	NE/Mia/LAC/Bal	267	31.5	26
Jeffery Simmons	Tennessee	233	26.5	20

#93 • NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

6-4, 366, Rookie, Texas
Click for complete bio

Defensive tackle T'Vondre Sweat was selected by the Titans in the second round (38th overall) of the 2024 NFL Draft.

During his five-year career at the University of Texas, Sweat appeared in 62 games with 17 starts. He finished his collegiate career with 128 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss, five sacks, 14 passes defended, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and one blocked extra point.

In 2023, Sweat's final collegiate campaign, he played in all 14 games with eight starts. His 45 tackles, 18 solo tackles, eight tackles for loss, two sacks, four pass breakups and one blocked kick all established career highs, and he added a two-yard touchdown reception on offense. His efforts earned him the 2023 Outland Trophy, which is presented to the nation's top interior lineman. He also garnered unanimous first-team All-American, Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and unanimous first-team All-Big 12 honors. He was the fifth Texas defensive tackle to be a unanimous All-American.

As a senior in 2022, Sweat played in all 13 games with nine starts and established a then-career high with 30 tackles and added 2.5 tackles for loss, seven quarterback hurries and four pass breakups. He was named honorable mention All-Big 12 by the league's coaches. He is a native of Huntsville, Texas.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), recorded a start in his first NFL game and registered two quarterback pressures.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), tallied four tackles, which were the first four tackles of his career, and added a quarterback pressure.
- At Miami (9/30), tied for second on the defense with six tackles, including a team-high two tackles for loss.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), contributed three tackles.
- At Buffalo (10/20), posted four tackles and tied for the team high with three quarterback pressures.
- At Detroit (10/27), registered four tackles.
- Against New England (11/3), tallied a pair of tackles.

pressures and one pass defended. Late in the fourth quarter, he took down C.J. Stroud for a sack at Houston's one-yard line, leading to a Titans safety on the next play that helped secure the victory. He became the franchise's 10th player to reach 30 sacks since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, as well as the organization's sixth player in its "Titans era" (1999-present) to reach 30 sacks. He secured his fourth consecutive season with at least four sacks.

➤ At Washington (12/1), finished third on the defense and established a career high with nine tackles. His previous career high was seven tackles, which he reached on three different occasions. He became the fifth NFL defensive lineman in 2024 with nine-plus tackles in a game, joining Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (nine at New Orleans, Sept. 8), Cincinnati's Sam Hubbard (nine vs. Baltimore, Oct. 6), New England's Daniel Ekuale (nine vs. Miami, Oct. 6) and Tampa Bay's Vita Vea (10 at Kansas City, Nov. 4). He added a quarterback pressure.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/8), totaled five tackles, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one pass defended.

➤ Against Cincinnati (12/15), tied for second on the defense with seven tackles, including a team-high two tackles for loss, and tied for the team lead with three quarterback pressures. He logged his 12th career game with two or more tackles for loss.

Linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr. is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2024.

Prior to joining the Titans, Murray spent four years (2020-23) with the Los Angeles Chargers. During his time in Los Angeles, he played in 59 games with 53 starts and recorded 321 tackles, five sacks, two interceptions, 10 passes defended and a forced fumble.

In 2023, Murray started 15 games and tied a pair of career highs with 107 tackles and seven tackles for loss. He also set a career high with three sacks.

Murray was selected by the Chargers in the first round (23rd overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft.

At the University of Oklahoma, Murray earned first-team All-Big 12 recognition and was a semifinalist in 2019 for the Bednarik and Butkus awards. He finished his Sooners career tied for 11th in school history in career tackles (335) and eighth among linebackers in sacks (9.5).

He is a native of Missouri City, Texas.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and tied for the team lead with six tackles.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), ranked second on the defense with eight tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added a quarterback pressure.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), tied for second on the team with eight tackles and set a career high with two sacks. In the second quarter, he sacked Malik Willis for a 10-yard loss, and he added another sack later in the second quarter, when he took Willis down for no gain. His first two sacks of the season gave him seven in his career.
- At Miami (9/30), led the defense with nine tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), tied for second on the defense with eight tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- At Buffalo (10/20), led the team with seven tackles. He logged his fifth consecutive game with at least seven tackles, which is the best such streak of his career.
- At Detroit (10/27), tallied one tackle and one quarterback pressure.
- Against New England (11/3), tied for third on the defense with six total tackles and added a quarterback pressure.
- At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), ranked third on the team with six tackles.

- Against Minnesota (11/17), paced the defense with 10 tackles, including a sack. In the third quarter, he helped end a Vikings drive with a one-yard sack of Sam Darnold on third down. With his third sack of 2024, he tied the career high he set in 2023 as a member of the Los Angeles Chargers.
- At Houston (11/24), led the team with seven tackles to go along with one interception, a career-high two passes defended and two tackles for loss (tied career high). He became the first NFL player in 2024 to reach all four marks in the same game and the Titans' only player to do so since the beginning of the 2000 season. He notched his first interception of the season and the third interception of his career, picking off C.J. Stroud in the third quarter and returning the ball six yards. It was his first career game with at least two tackles for loss and two passes defended. He added two quarterback pressures.
- At Washington (12/1), finished second on the defense with 10 tackles and added a half sack, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. He also led the defense and set a career high with four quarterback pressures. He notched his second game of 2024 with double-digit tackles (10 vs. Minnesota, Nov. 17). In the fourth quarter, he teamed with Arden Key on a sack of Jayden Daniels. Murray was credited with a forced fumble on the play, but the ball was recovered by Washington. It was his second career forced fumble and his first since 2022 as a member of the Los Angeles Chargers. By increasing his season total to 3.5 sacks, he established a new career high for a season. His previous high was three sacks as a member of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023.
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), he was inactive with a hamstring injury.
- Against Cincinnati (12/15), tied for second on the defense with seven tackles and added a quarterback pressure.

Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Arden Key is in his seventh NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 20, 2023.

In 2023, Key appeared in 17 games for the third consecutive season and registered nine starts—the most since starting 10 times in 2018 as a rookie with Oakland. He ranked second on the team with a career-high 57 quarterback pressures, and his six sacks provided the second-best total of his career. He added 30 tackles, four tackles for loss, two passes defended and two forced fumbles.

Key originally entered the NFL as a third-round pick (87th overall) of the Oakland Raiders in 2018 and spent his first three campaigns with the organization. He then spent the 2021 campaign with the San Francisco 49ers and the 2022 season with the Jacksonville Jaguars. His statistical totals during his first five NFL seasons included 98 tackles and 14 sacks in 71 games (13 starts).

In 2022, Key played 17 games with three starts for the Jaguars and totaled 27 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 38 quarterback pressures, five tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. His 38 pressures ranked second for the Jaguars, and over the last five weeks of the season, he posted 25 pressures, which ranked second in the league behind Nick Bosa over that time frame. He was a key figure in helping the Jaguars win the AFC South and advance to the divisional round of the playoffs.

In 2021, Key notched a career-best 6.5 sacks to go along with 22 tackles and 25 quarterback pressures in his lone season with the 49ers.

During a three-year career at Louisiana State University, Key totaled 21 sacks and 26.5 tackles for loss. As a sophomore, he earned all-conference honors, while setting the school record for sacks in a season (12.0).

He is a native of Atlanta, Ga.

#58 • OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

6-2, 252, 7th Year/7th with Titans, Boston College
Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III is in his seventh NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

During his first six NFL seasons, Landry totaled a team-leading 41.5 sacks. He finished the 2023 season ranked 11th for the franchise in career sacks, and in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–present), his total trailed only Jevon Kearse (52), Jurrell Casey (51) and Derrick Morgan (44.5).

In 2023, Landry played in all 17 games (10 starts) after missing the entire 2022 campaign due to injury. He ranked second on the team with 10.5 sacks, producing his second-best career total (12 sacks in 2021). In doing so, he became the NFL's third veteran player since 1982 to miss an entire NFL season and come back the next year to record at least 10 sacks. The only previous players to do so were a pair of New Orleans Saints: Joe Johnson in 2000 (12 sacks) and Charlie Clemons in 2001 (13.5 sacks). Landry's 14 tackles for loss led the defense and matched his career high, and his 48 quarterback pressures were third on the squad and were one off his career high in 2021 (49). His statistics also included 70 tackles.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022, ending his fifth NFL season before Week 1. Prior to the injury, he recorded 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts.

From the start of his rookie campaign through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defended. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defended, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defended.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. He added seven forced fumbles, which also led the country, while his 22 tackles for loss ranked fifth nationally and ranked second all-time for the Eagles. His numerous honors included Walter Camp second-team All-America, AP second-team All-America and second-team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and the league's head coaches.

He is a native of Spring Lake, N.C.

2024 Game Notes:

➤ At Chicago (9/8), tied for the team lead with six tackles, recorded a team-high three quarterback pressures, and also tallied a sack. In the third quarter, he recorded his first sack of the season, dropping Caleb Williams for a 10-yard loss on third down.

➤ Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), posted three tackles, including a pair of sacks, and added two passes defended and a team-high four quarterback pressures. He became the first Titans player with two sacks and two passes defended in a game since defensive end Carlos Hall did so against Philadelphia on Sept. 8, 2002. In the second quarter, he recorded a five-yard sack of Aaron Rodgers, and in the third quarter, he dropped Rodgers for a seven-yard loss on third-and-10. Landry registered his sixth career game with two or more sacks, and for the first time in his career, he recorded at least one sack in each of the team's first two games of the season. In improving his career total to 44.5 sacks, he tied Derrick Morgan for 10th place on the franchise's all-time sack list. He also tied Morgan for the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51). Landry became the first Titans player to total three or more sacks through the first two games of a season since Derrick Morgan accomplished the feat (three sacks) in 2015.

➤ Against Green Bay (9/22), tallied four tackles and two quarterback pressures.

➤ At Miami (9/30), totaled five tackles, including a sack. In the first quarter, he ended a Dolphins drive by sacking Tyler Huntley for an eight-yard loss on third down. By increasing his career total to 45.5 sacks, he moved ahead of Derrick Morgan (44.5) and Ted Washington (45.0) for ninth place in franchise history. He surpassed Morgan for the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51). The sack gave him 9.5 total over a 10-game stretch. He also reached 10 sacks during his career in primetime games, becoming the franchise's third player to reach double digits in sacks in primetime games since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, joining Ray Childress (15.5) and William Fuller (15.5).

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/13), registered seven tackles, including a team-high two tackles for loss, and tied for the team lead with three quarterback pressures. He logged his 14th career game with two or more tackles for loss, including twice in 2024.

➤ At Buffalo (10/20), posted four tackles, a team-high-tying three quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one pass defended. He registered the third game of his career with a minimum of four tackles, one tackle for loss and one pass defended, and his first such performance since Nov. 8, 2020 against Chicago.

➤ At Detroit (10/27), credited with two tackles.

➤ Against New England (11/3), totaled five tackles, one sack, two tackles for loss and one pass defended. It was the second time in his career reaching all three marks in the same game (at Carolina on Nov. 3, 2019). He added six quarterback pressures to rank second on the defense. In the first quarter, he sacked Drake Maye for a four-yard loss on third down. He secured his fifth career season with at least five sacks, joining Jurrell Casey (seven seasons) and Derrick Morgan (five seasons) as the franchise's only players in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach five sacks in at least five different seasons.

➤ At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), tallied five tackles and two quarterback pressures.

➤ Against Minnesota (11/17), finished third on the team with six tackles and added a quarterback pressure.

➤ At Houston (11/24), totaled three tackles, including a sack for a safety, and led the team with four quarterback pressures. With 1 minute and 13 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, he was credited with his first career safety, helping to secure the victory with a sack of C.J. Stroud in the end zone. He was the first individual Titans defender to tally a safety since outside linebacker Cameron Wake at Cleveland on Sept. 8, 2019. On his safety, he was also credited with his sixth sack of the season, securing his fourth career season with at least six sacks.

➤ At Washington (12/1), posted three tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added two quarterback pressures. He was credited with a two-yard tackle for loss against quarterback Jayden Daniels in the second quarter.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/8), totaled two tackles, including a stop of Mac Jones for no gain to record his seventh sack of the 2024 season. He also led the defense with five quarterback pressures. In improving his career total to 48.5 sacks, he moved past Robert Brazile (48.0) for eighth place in franchise history.

➤ Against Cincinnati (12/15), tallied three tackles, including a sack, and totaled two quarterback pressures. In the second quarter, he tallied a sack and helped create a turnover. On the play, as he was sacking Joe Burrow, T'Vondre Sweat was credited with a forced fumble and fumble recovery for the Titans. He logged his second consecutive game with a sack while securing his fourth career season and second consecutive season with at least eight sacks.

LANDRY'S TRIUMPHANT COMEBACK

In 2021, Harold Landry III was named to his first career Pro Bowl, finishing his fourth NFL season with a career-high 12 sacks. Then, poised to follow up on his career year, he suffered a knee injury before the start of the 2022 regular season. It forced him to spend all 17 games on injured reserve.

In 2023, Landry bounced back from the injury to participate in every game and record 10.5 sacks. In doing so, he became the NFL's third veteran player since 1982 to miss an entire NFL season and come back the next year to record at least 10 sacks. The only previous players to do so were a pair of New Orleans Saints: Joe Johnson in 2000 (12 sacks) and Charlie Clemons in 2001 (13.5 sacks).

NFL players with 10 or more sacks in a season after missing the entire previous season, 1982 to 2023:

Player	Team	Season Missed	Season with 10+ Sacks	Sacks
Harold Landry III	Tennessee Titans	2022	2023	10.5
Charlie Clemons	New Orleans Saints	2000	2001	13.5
Joe Johnson	New Orleans Saints	1999	2000	12.0

*Note: Rookie seasons with 10-plus sacks excludedFOURTH-QUARTER SACKS IN 2023

In 2023, Titans outside linebacker Harold Landry III recorded 10.5 total sacks, and 8.5 of his sacks came in the fourth quarter. His fourth-quarter total was more than any other NFL player.

Most sacks in the fourth quarter in 2023:

Player	Team	4th Quarter Sacks
1. Harold Landry	Tennessee Titans	8.5
2. Trey Hendrickson	Cincinnati Bengals	8.0
3. Josh Allen	Jacksonville Jaguars	6.5

#21 • CB ROGER McCREARY

5-11, 190, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Auburn

Click for complete bio

Cornerback Roger McCreary is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (35th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft.

In his first two seasons, McCreary's totals included two interceptions and 170 tackles in 32 games (28 starts). His 170 tackles from 2022 to 2023 made up the NFL's third-highest total among cornerbacks, trailing Buffalo's Taron Johnson (187) and former Chiefs cornerback and current Titan L'Jarius Sneed (186).

In 2023, McCreary ranked third on the team and led all Titans defensive backs with 86 tackles. Among all NFL cornerbacks, his 86 tackles tied Las Vegas' Nate Hobbs for the third-highest total behind Johnson (98) and Indianapolis' Kenny Moore II (93). McCreary added one interception, six passes defensed, two sacks, four quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss and one forced fumble.

As a rookie, McCreary was one of three players on the team to start all 17 games (Kevin Byard, Aaron Brewer), and he became the first Titans rookie cornerback since Adoree' Jackson in 2017 to start every game. Only two other rookie cornerbacks in the NFL—Seattle's Tariq Woolen and the New York Jets' Sauce Gardner—started all 17 games in 2022. McCreary finished third on the Titans defense with 85 tackles, ranked second on the defense with eight passes defensed, and added one interception, two tackles for loss and one quarterback pressure.

During four seasons at Auburn (2018-21), McCreary appeared in 43 games with 23 starts and posted 135 tackles, five interceptions, 35 passes defensed, 10 stops for loss, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

As a senior in 2021, McCreary started 12 games at cornerback for the Tigers and collected a career-best 49 tackles, an interception, a sack, two stops for loss and a team-best 16 passes defensed. He was a first-team All-America selection by The Athletic, Associated Press, ESPN and Reese's Senior Bowl.

As a junior in 2020, he established career highs with three interceptions and seven tackles for loss.

McCreary is a native of Mobile, Ala.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), totaled five tackles and led the defense with a career-high three tackles for loss. His three tackles for loss were the most by a Titans defensive back since cornerback Alterraun Verner had three tackles for loss against the Indianapolis Colts on Oct. 28, 2012.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), totaled three tackles, including a tackle for loss, and added a quarterback pressure. He stuffed running back Breece Hall for a six-yard tackle for loss in the fourth quarter.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), credited with two tackles.
- At Miami (9/30), posted one tackle.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), totaled four tackles.
- At Buffalo (10/20), recorded his second start of the season.
- At Detroit (10/27), totaled three tackles, one sack and two tackles for loss. He was credited with a 13-yard sack of Jared Goff in the first quarter, which was his first sack of the season and his third career sack.
- Against New England (11/3), totaled three tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), totaled three tackles, a tackle for loss and a pass defensed. He logged his third career game with at least three tackles, a tackle for loss and a pass defensed. He took down Jalen Reagor for a three-yard tackle for loss in the second quarter.
- Against Minnesota (11/17), posted four tackles, including his ninth tackle for loss of the season.
- At Houston (11/24), ranked second on the defense with six tackles, including two tackles for loss. He added a quarterback pressure. He increased his season total to 11 tackles for loss to pace all NFL defensive backs through 12 weeks in 2024. He logged his fifth consecutive game with at least one tackle for loss.
- At Washington (12/1), tallied eight tackles before exiting the contest in the third quarter with a shoulder injury.
- Against Jacksonville (12/8) and against Cincinnati (12/15), he was inactive with a shoulder injury.

#38 • CB L'JARIUS SNEED

6-1, 192, 5th Year/1st with Titans, Louisiana Tech

Click for complete bio

Cornerback L'Jarius Sneed is in his fifth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs on April 1, 2024.

Sneed spent four seasons with the Chiefs after they selected him in the fourth round (138th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft. During that time, he tallied 10 interceptions, 40 passes defended and 6.5 sacks in 57 games. He and Harrison Smith were the only two NFL players from 2020 to 2023 to record at least 10 interceptions and 6.5 sacks.

Sneed also arrived in Tennessee with 13 games of postseason experience. He helped the Chiefs win two Super Bowls (LVII, LVIII), and his seven passes defended tied for third in the postseason from 2020 to 2023. He became one of five NFL players from 2000 to 2023 with at least 75 tackles, two sacks and seven passes defended in the postseason, joining Ray Lewis, James Farrior, Brian Dawkins and Rodney Harrison.

In 2023, he started 16 games at cornerback and amassed 78 tackles, two interceptions, a career-best 14 passes defended and a fumble recovery. He was in the starting lineup for all four Chiefs postseason games and generated 17 tackles, three passes defended and a forced fumble while helping the Chiefs to their second consecutive Super Bowl championship.

As a rookie in 2020, Sneed was named to the Pro Football Writers Association's All-Rookie team after notching 41 tackles, three interceptions, two sacks and seven passes defended in nine games.

As a college player at Louisiana Tech, Sneed was named second-team All-Conference USA as a senior in 2019. He played safety and cornerback in college, and in 51 games, he registered 177 tackles, eight interceptions and 19 passes defended.

He is a native of Minden, La.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut and totaled four tackles. He was part of a defensive effort that allowed only 64 net passing yards.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), posted three tackles.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), registered five tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- At Miami (9/30), registered three tackles.

#28 • S QUANDRE DIGGS5-9, 197, 10th Year/1st with Titans, TexasClick for complete bio

Three-time Pro Bowl safety Quandre Diggs is in his 10th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent on Aug. 6, 2024.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Diggs totaled nine seasons between his time with the Detroit Lions (2015-19) and Seattle Seahawks (2019-23). He was originally drafted by the Lions in the sixth round (200th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft and later traded to the Seahawks during the 2019 campaign. His career totals with the Lions and Seahawks included 137 games played, 112 starts, 24 interceptions, 56 passes defended, 574 tackles, one sack, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He was named to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2020 to 2022.

In 2023, Diggs started every game for the Seahawks for the fourth consecutive season. He totaled a career-high 95 tackles to go along with one interception and five passes defended.

From 2017 through 2022, Diggs was the NFL's only player to record at least three interceptions every season. He set a career benchmark with five interceptions in 2020 and matched the number in 2021.

Diggs started a total of eight games in his first two years in Detroit. In his third season, he registered 11 starts before starting 16 games for the first time in 2018.

A native of Houston, Texas, Diggs played cornerback at the University of Texas, where he never missed a game in four seasons, appearing in 52 games with 49 starts. He finished his collegiate career tied for ninth in Longhorns history with 11 interceptions, while his 37 career passes defended tied for ninth on the all-time list. He earned All-Big 12 honors three times (2011, 2013, 2014).

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), started in his Titans debut. He tallied four tackles and was part of a defensive effort that allowed only 64 net passing yards.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), tied for third on the defense with five tackles.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), tied for second on the team with eight tackles.
- At Miami (9/30), totaled four tackles. In the second quarter, he helped end a Dolphins drive by stopping wide receiver Tyreek Hill short on fourth-and-one.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), totaled six tackles.
- At Buffalo (10/20), tied for third on the squad with five tackles.
- At Detroit (10/27), ranked second on the defense with seven tackles. He extended his streak to 74 consecutive games started, lengthening what is tied (Patrick Queen) for the NFL's third-longest active streak among defensive players behind Kevin Byard (128) and Daron Payne (75).
- Against New England (11/3), totaled three tackles before leaving the game in the second quarter with a foot injury. He recorded his 75th consecutive start after entering the contest trailing only Kevin Byard (128), Daron Payne (75) and Patrick Queen (75) for the NFL's longest active starting streak among defensive players.
- Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 6, 2024.

➤ At Chicago (9/8), tied for the team lead with six tackles and also totaled two passes defensed, one quarterback pressure and one forced fumble. He was part of a defensive effort that allowed only 64 net passing yards. In the second quarter, he was credited with his third career forced fumble, but the ball was recovered by the Bears.

➤ Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), registered three tackles and a quarterback pressure.

➤ Against Green Bay (9/22), totaled five tackles while leading the team and establishing a career high with two tackles for loss.

➤ At Miami (9/30), tied for second on the team with six tackles and added a pass defensed.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/13), totaled one interception, six tackles, one tackle for loss and one quarterback pressure. In the first quarter, he picked off a Joe Flacco pass to notch his eighth career interception (first of 2024). He returned the ball 30 yards to set up a Titans touchdown on the ensuing drive.

➤ At Buffalo (10/20), posted three tackles, one tackle for loss and a forced fumble. In the third quarter, he was credited with his fourth career forced fumble (second of 2024), knocking the ball out of the grasp of tight end Dalton Kincaid before the ball went out of bounds.

➤ At Detroit (10/27), totaled six tackles and added a stop on special teams.

➤ Against New England (11/3), set a career high with two interceptions, including the game-clinching takeaway in overtime. He picked off Drake Maye in the extra period at Tennessee's 11-yard line to seal the victory. In the second quarter, he intercepted Maye and returned the ball 17 yards. He was the team's first player with two interceptions in a game since Kevin Byard against Dallas on Dec. 29, 2022. His performance increased his season total to a team-high three interceptions and improved his career total to 10 interceptions. He became the 10th player for the organization in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach 10 career interceptions. His three passes defensed led the team and set a career high. He also totaled five tackles and one quarterback pressure.

- At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), posted four tackles.
- Against Minnesota (11/17), tallied four tackles.
- At Houston (11/24), did not play due to illness.
- At Washington (12/1), recorded his fourth interception of the season, picking off a deflected pass in the third quarter. He matched his career high for interceptions in a season after previously tallying four interceptions in 2020. Hooker joined Kevin Byard (five), Michael Griffin (three), and Chris Hope (two) as the only safeties in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) with multiple four-interception seasons. He added seven tackles.
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), finished third on the team with six tackles and added a quarterback pressure.
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), totaled six tackles.

6-1, 210, 7th Year, West Virginia

- Daryl Worley signed to the Titans practice squad on Nov. 5, 2024 and was promoted to the 53-man roster on Nov. 29, 2024.
- Prior to joining the Titans, Worley played in 90 games, totaling 292 tackles, five interceptions, 40 passes defended and one fumble recovery during his time with the Panthers (2016-17), Raiders (2018-20), Cowboys (2020), Bills (2020), Lions (2021) and Ravens (2021-23).
- Before arriving in Tennessee, he spent three seasons (2021-23) in Baltimore, playing in 20 games (three starts) and recording 21 tackles, one stop for loss and three passes defended. He also played in one playoff game with the Ravens in 2021.
- In 2023, he appeared in 12 games with two starts for the Ravens, totaling nine tackles and one pass defended.
- He was originally drafted by the Panthers in the third round (77th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft. In Carolina, he played in 31 games over his first two seasons, recording 150 tackles, six tackles for loss, two sacks, three interceptions and 19 passes defended.
- Worley played 34 games in three seasons (2013-15) for West Virginia University and earned All-Big 12 honors in his final season.
- He is a native of Philadelphia, Pa.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Houston (11/24), logged his first start in a Titans uniform. He totaled four tackles and one pass defended.
- At Washington (12/1), started at safety and led the team with a career-high 17 total tackles. His previous high for tackles in a game was 12 at Oakland as a member of the Carolina Panthers on Nov. 27, 2016. Worley registered the highest tackle total by a Titans defender (press box statistics) since Akeem Ayers had 17 total stops against Detroit on Sept. 23, 2012. He became the second Titans defensive back since the beginning of the 2000 season to be credited with 17 tackles in a game (press box tackle statistics), joining safety Michael Griffin (18 vs. San Diego on Sept. 16, 2012). Worley joined three other NFL players in 2024—and became the first defensive back in 2024—to be credited with 17 or more tackles in a game, along with Indianapolis Colts linebacker Grant Stuard (18 vs. Miami, Oct. 20), Baltimore Ravens linebacker Roquan Smith (18 at Tampa Bay, Oct. 21) and New York Jets linebacker Jamien Sherwood (17 at Arizona, Nov. 10).
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), tallied six tackles in a start.
- Against Cincinnati (12/15), totaled five tackles and an interception. In the third quarter, he recorded his first interception of the season, picking off a Joe Burrow pass at the Tennessee three-yard line. It was Worley's sixth career interception and first since 2019.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 15th Year/4th with Titans, Tennessee

Click for complete bio

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2023, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the third consecutive season. With 51 consecutive games played in his first three seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2023 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1). He was also a finalist in 2023 for the NFL's Bart Starr Award.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

#6 • K NICK FOLK

6-1, 225, 17th Year/2nd with Titans, Arizona

Click for complete bio

Kicker Nick Folk is in his 17th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the New England Patriots on Aug. 29, 2023.

At the conclusion of the 2023 season, Folk's 382 career field goals ranked fourth among all active kickers behind only Matt Prater (401), Mason Crosby (400) and Justin Tucker (395), and Folk's number also ranked 19th in NFL history. His 1,632 total points scored ranked 23rd in league annals. Among all active NFL players at the conclusion of 2023, Folk's 228 career games ranked 10th.

Through 2023, Folk carried an all-time NFL-record streak of 78 consecutive field goals from under 40 yards—a streak going back to 2017. Tucker previously owned the record with 70 straight under-40-yarders from 2016 to 2020.

In his first season in Tennessee, Folk appeared in all 17 games and made 29 field goals on 30 attempts. His career-best 96.7 percent accuracy on field goals led the NFL and tied for the 14th-best single-season mark in NFL history. It also established a new franchise record for a single season, breaking the record of 92.3 percent by Al Del Greco (1998) and Rob Bironas (2010). Folk's initial season with the Titans also included 28 extra points on 30 attempts. His 115 total points tied for the 13th-best single-season total in franchise history.

In his first 15 NFL seasons prior to joining the Titans, Folk spent time with the Dallas Cowboys (2007-09), New York Jets (2010-2016), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2017) and Patriots (2019-22). During that time, he connected on 82.9 percent (353 of 426) of his field goal attempts and 96.8 percent of his extra point attempts (458 of 473). He had 10 seasons with at least 100 points, including a league-leading 150 points in 2021 with the Patriots. He registered 11 game-winning field goals in the regular season and one in postseason play.

Over his four years with New England, Folk made 108 of his 121 field goal attempts (89.3 percent) in 57 games. He departed the Patriots in fifth place on the New England all-time field goal list and tied for seventh place on the franchise's all-time scoring list with 440 total points.

In 2022, he played in all 17 games for New England and totaled 128 points on 32-of-37 field goal attempts. He was also 32-of-35 on extra points. Folk became one of six all-time NFL players to have at least five seasons with 30 field goals, joining Tucker (eight), Stephen Gostkowski (five), Robbie Gould (five), John Carney (five) and David Akers (five).

Folk established the NFL record for consecutive field goals made under 50 yards with a streak of 64 such kicks from Oct. 5, 2017 to Oct. 16, 2022. He broke the record (56 consecutive) set by Ryan Succop of the Titans from 2014 to 2017.

While with the Patriots, he also set the franchise mark for consecutive field goals made (36) during a streak that spanned from 2020 to 2021 and posted the third-highest field goal percentage for a season by a Patriot in 2020 (92.9).

Folk entered the NFL as a sixth-round selection by the Dallas in the 2007 NFL Draft. As a rookie for the Cowboys, he earned a Pro Bowl selection and all-rookie honors.

A native of Sherman Oaks, Calif., Folk attended the University of Arizona, where he earned All-PAC 10 accolades in his final season.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), made his only field goal attempt, a 40-yarder in the second quarter, and made both of his extra point attempts.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), made a 41-yard field goal as time expired in the first half and also connected on both of his extra point attempts. With his 384th career field goal, he surpassed Nick Lowery (383) for 18th place in NFL history.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), made both extra points.
- At Miami (9/30), named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after matching his career high with five field goals and also making both extra points. He connected from 53, 52 and 47 yards in the second quarter, marking his third career game in which he made three or more field goals in a single quarter. He added a 51-yarder in the third quarter and a 29-yarder in the fourth quarter. His performance established a career high with three field goals of 50-plus yards in a game. It was his third career game with at least two field goals of 50-plus yards and his first time accomplishing the feat since Oct. 10, 2021 at Houston, when he was a member of the New England Patriots. He increased his career total to 44 career field goals from 50-plus yards on 67 career attempts (65.7 percent). He logged his 52nd career game with three or more field goals. In finishing the contest with 389 field goals, he surpassed David Akers (386) for 17th place in NFL history for career field goals. He also set a career high with seven touchbacks on kickoffs.

➤ Against Indianapolis (10/13), made a 44-yard field goal in the second quarter and also connected on both extra point attempts.

➤ At Buffalo (10/20), made a 25-yard field goal in the first quarter and in the second quarter made his only extra point attempt. He connected on his 18th consecutive field goal, dating back to Nov. 12, 2023, which gave him the fifth-longest streak of his career and also tied for the eighth-longest streak in team annals.

➤ At Detroit (10/27), made both of his extra point attempts.

➤ Against New England (11/3), made both of his field goal attempts and both of his extra point attempts. He connected on a 21-yard field goal in the third quarter and made the game-winning 25-yard field goal in overtime. He registered his 14th career game-winning field goal, including 13 in the regular season and one in the playoffs. It was his second game-winner since joining the Titans in 2023 (Sept. 17, 2023 vs. L.A. Chargers). With 393 career field goals, he surpassed Stephen Gostkowski (392) for 16th place in NFL history. He also ran his streak to 20 consecutive field goals made since Nov. 12, 2023, which was the fourth-longest streak of his career and tied for the Titans/Oilers franchise record. He matched the record of 20 consecutive field goals that was reached previously on five different occasions, including once by Folk in 2023.

➤ At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), made a 27-yard field goal and missed from 49 yards. His franchise-record-tying streak of 20 consecutive field goals made came to an end. He also made both extra point attempts. He became the franchise's fourth player to appear in a game after his 40th birthday and the first since kicker Gary Anderson in 2004. The other players who did so for the franchise were offensive lineman Bruce Matthews and quarterback Dave Krieg. Folk joined Jets quarterback Aaron Rodgers, Bears tight end Marcedes Lewis and Arizona kicker Matt Prater as the NFL's only players to participate in games in 2024 in their 40s.

➤ Against Minnesota (11/17), made both of his field goal attempts and made his only extra point attempt. He booted a 30-yard field goal in the first quarter and a 43-yarder in the fourth quarter. He increased his all-time NFL-record streak to 84 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.

➤ At Houston (11/24), made all three field goals and all three extra point attempts. He connected on attempts of 51 yards in the first quarter, 56 yards in the second quarter and 51 yards in the third quarter. He registered his second career game with three field goals of 50-plus yards, equaling what he accomplished for the first time in his career this season at Miami on Sept. 30. He became the first kicker in NFL history to make three field goals of 50-plus yards after his 40th birthday. He joined Pittsburgh's Chris Boswell (twice) and Houston's Ka'imi Fairbairn (twice) as the NFL's only kickers in 2024 to make three 50-yarders in two different games. No other NFL kicker had done so in a single game prior to Week 12. Folk matched his career long (Oct. 17, 2010 at Denver) with a 56-yarder as time expired in the first half. His 56-yard field goal tied for the second-longest field goal in franchise history behind Rob Bironas' 60-yarder against Indianapolis on Dec. 3, 2006. Bironas also made a 56-yard field goal (Nov. 19, 2007 at Denver), as did Al Del Greco (Oct. 27, 1996 vs. San Francisco). With 399 career field goals, he surpassed Matt Bryant (397) for 15th place in NFL history.

➤ At Washington (12/1), made both of his field goal attempts and his only extra point attempt. With his 400th career field goal, a 41-yarder in the third quarter, he became the third active player to hit 400 field goals, joining Justin Tucker and Matt Prater. With his 44-yard field goal in the third quarter, he passed Mason Crosby (400) for 14th place in NFL history in career field goals. Folk became the 12th player in Titans/Oilers history to attempt 50 field goals with the organization, and his 48 successful field goals on his first 50 attempts with the team (96.0 percent) broke the previous franchise mark of 43 field goals in Ryan Succop's first 50 attempts from 2014 to 2016.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/8), made a 46-yard field goal to conclude the Titans' opening drive and added a 39-yarder in the third quarter. He became the eighth player in franchise history to reach 50 field goals. It was his 30th contest in a Titans uniform, and his 96.2 percentage on field goals (50 of 52) with the Titans was the best of any NFL player in his first 30 games with a team since 1970 (minimum 30 games). His percentage exceeded the mark established by Robbie Gould, who made 95.8 percent of his attempts (68 of 71) in his first 30 contests with the San Francisco 49ers. The best previous percentage on field goals in a player's first 30 games with the Titans/Oilers was held by Ryan Succop, who made 86.5 percent of his attempts (32 of 37) at the beginning of his tenure in Tennessee from 2014 to 2015. With his 39-yard field goal, he increased his all-time NFL-record streak to 85 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.

➤ Against Cincinnati (12/15), made all three of his extra point attempts.

CONSECUTIVE FGs, FRANCHISE HISTORY

Nick Folk tied the franchise's all-time record for consecutive field goals made by making 20 consecutive attempts from 2023 to 2024. He matched a record was reached on five prior occasions, including one other time by Folk in 2023.

After joining the Titans in a trade on Aug. 29, 2023, Folk made his first 20 field goals he attempted before his first miss from 51 yards at Tampa Bay on Nov. 12, 2023. His 20 consecutive field goals made to start a season were the most in franchise history.

After his first and only miss in 2023, he made his next 20 field goals before missing a 49-yarder at the Los Angeles Chargers on Nov. 10, 2024.

Al Del Greco established the benchmark from 1998 to 1999, and Rob Bironas later matched the record on three different occasions.

#4 • P RYAN STONEHOUSE

5-10, 193, 3rd Year/3rd with Titans, Colorado State

Click for complete bio

Punter Ryan Stonehouse is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2022.

In only two NFL seasons, Stonehouse recorded the top two single-season gross punting averages in NFL history, and he also recorded two of the top three single-season net averages in franchise history. He became the first punter in NFL annals to lead the league in gross punting average in each of his first two seasons.

In 2023, he appeared in the first 12 games of the season before missing the final five contests on injured reserve. Despite his missed time, he averaged a league-high 53.06 yards per punt, grossing 2,812 yards on 53 attempts. The average qualified as the second-highest figure in NFL history behind his own record-setting 53.10 yards per punt as a rookie in 2022. He also finished sixth in the NFL with a 43.87-yard net punting average, which ranked third in franchise history.

In 2022, Stonehouse finished the season with a gross average of 53.10 yards per punt on 90 total punts (4,779 total yards). In doing so, he broke Sammy Baugh's single-season NFL record of 51.40 yards per punt, which was established in 1940 and was never matched among qualifiers (2.5 punts per team game) until Stonehouse's rookie campaign. Stonehouse's mark also surpassed Brett Kern's franchise record of 49.7 yards per punt in 2017.

With a net punting average of 44.0 yards per punt in 2022, Stonehouse also established a new NFL record for the highest net average by a rookie punter. He broke the record set by Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez, who averaged 42.64 net yards per punt as a rookie in 2017. Stonehouse finished fourth in the NFL in net punting behind veterans Tommy Townsend (45.6), Michael Dickson (44.5) and Johnny Hekker (44.1). In franchise history, his net average ranked second for a single season, trailing only Kern's 44.6 net average in 2017.

Stonehouse's 90 punts in 2022 made up the NFL's second-highest total. Only Denver's Corliss Waitman (96) had more. The 90 punts by Stonehouse tied Craig Henrich's 1999 number for the fourth-highest total in team annals behind Rich Camarillo (96 punts in 1994) and Cliff Parsley (93 in 1979; 91 in 1978).

Stonehouse appeared in 53 games over five seasons at Colorado State (2017-21) and set an NCAA career record with a 47.8-yard gross punting average. His career totals included 244 punts for 11,656 yards with 91 punts inside the 20. He totaled 106 punts of 50-plus yards and became the first player in Colorado State history to log 11,000 punting yards in a career.

During his final college season in 2021, Stonehouse appeared in 12 games and averaged 50.9 yards per attempt on 58 punts, including a career-long 81-yard punt. He placed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and totaled 32 punts of 50-plus yards en route to being named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

He is a native of La Verne, Calif.

2024 Game Notes:

- At Chicago (9/8), played in the regular season for the first time since suffering a season-ending knee injury on Dec. 3, 2023. He averaged 53.6 yards on five punts (34.0 net) with one punt placed inside the 20 and one punt blocked.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (9/15), averaged 56.5 yards on four punts (38.2 net) with one punt placed inside the 20 and one punt blocked. His 56.5-yard gross average was the fifth-best of his career in a game with four or more punts. He booted a 63-yard punt in the third quarter, and his 59-yarder in the fourth quarter pinned the Jets inside the 20.
- Against Green Bay (9/22), averaged 46.8 yards (43.0 net) on four punts with one punt placed inside the 20. In the fourth quarter, he launched a 57-yard punt.
- At Miami (9/30), averaged 41.8 yards (32.4 net) on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. In the third quarter, he booted a 64-yard punt.
- Against Indianapolis (10/13), averaged 57.8 yards (40.4 net) on five punts. His 57.8-yard gross average was the second-best average of his career and ranked fourth in franchise history for a single game (minimum four punts). In the fourth quarter, he registered a career-long 75-yard punt. It was the longest punt by a Titans player since Brett Kern tied the franchise record with a 79-yarder against the Colts on Dec. 28, 2014. Stonehouse's previous long punt was 74 yards (twice, last at Cleveland on Sept. 24, 2023).
- At Buffalo (10/20), averaged 53.2 yards (42.0 net) on five punts in windy conditions. In the second quarter, he registered a 62-yard punt, logging his third consecutive game with a punt of at least 62 yards.
- At Detroit (10/27), averaged 49.3 yards (17.7 net) on six punts with two punts placed inside the 20.
- Against New England (11/3), averaged 46.6 yards (28.8 net) on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. He recorded his 15th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards (58).
- At the Los Angeles Chargers (11/10), averaged 53.5 gross yards and 50.0 net yards on four punts with three punts placed inside the 20. His 50.0 net punting average set a new career high and ranked second in franchise history (minimum four punts). The only qualifying net punting performance in franchise annals higher than 50.0 yards was Brett Kern's 50.2 at Miami on Oct. 8, 2017. He helped flip the field with a 56-yard punt in the first quarter, and he helped pin the Chargers on their five-yard line with a 58-yarder in the fourth quarter.
- Against Minnesota (11/17), averaged 48.2 yards (40.8 net) on five punts with one punt placed inside the 20. In the second quarter, he recorded a 62-yard punt.
- At Houston (11/24), averaged 50.0 yards (45.2 net) on five punts with two punts placed inside the 20. He registered his 13th career game with a minimum 50.0-yard gross average and a 45.0-yard net average (minimum four punts), trailing only Las Vegas punter AJ Cole (14) for the most such games since Stonehouse entered the NFL in 2022. He launched a 62-yard punt in the fourth quarter, giving him consecutive games with a long punt of 62 yards.
- At Washington (12/1), averaged 53.3 yards (43.8 net) on four punts. All four of his punts went at least 50 yards. He booted a 58-yard punt in the second quarter to record his 19th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards. It ended the following week as the NFL's longest such active streak, the longest such streak of his career, and the third-longest such streak in the NFL since 2000 behind a pair of streaks by Shane Lechler (23 from 2007-09, and 23 from 2010-12).
- Against Jacksonville (12/8), punted three times for a 47.7-yard gross average and a 45.0-yard net average. He was credited with a punt inside the 20 on all three of his attempts.
- Against Cincinnati (12/15), launched a 67-yard punt in the third quarter. It was his second-longest punt of the season to date behind his 75-yarder against Indianapolis on Oct. 13. He recorded his 21st consecutive game with at least one punt of 50-plus yards. It established a new career-best streak, beating his previous streak of 20 games from 2022 to 2023, and ranked as the NFL's third-longest active streak of games with a 50-yard punt behind Rigoberto Sanchez (30) and AJ Cole (23).

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

23 - CB TRE AVERY

➤ Avery initially committed to play football at Ohio State as part of the 2016 signing class, after being recruited by then-defensive coordinator Chris Ash, who departed a few months later to become the head coach at Rutgers. Despite leaving Ohio State prior to his freshman season and instead enrolling at Toledo, Avery maintained a relationship with Ash. Eventually, he joined Ash at Rutgers and went on to play in 35 career games for the Scarlet Knights.

➤ In 2024, he started his own streetwear and luxury clothing line called Lignée, which is French for "bloodline."

13 - CB CHIDOBE AWUZIE

➤ Awuzie is an avid chess player who says chess helps him in his daily life and in making connections with others. In July 2022, he won Chess.com's BlitzChamps tournament, a rapid tournament for NFL player.

➤ Awuzie was named the 2023 Cincinnati Bengals recipient of Ed Block Courage Award, in recognition of professionalism and dedication during recovery from a 2022 knee injury.

➤ Awuzie is the son of Nigerian immigrants.

39 - CB DARRELL BAKER JR.

➤ Baker's parents, Darrell Baker Sr. and Johnetta Dixon, are both retired Army veterans. Despite growing up and playing high school football in Hephzibah, Ga., he was born in Panama City, Panama.

83 - WR TYLER BOYD

➤ During the 2017 season, Boyd caught a 49-yard touchdown from quarterback Andy Dalton against the Ravens on a fourth-and-12 with 44 seconds left in the game that gave Bengals the lead and the eventual win; the victory vaulted Buffalo to a playoff berth, prompting Bills fans to donate more than an estimated $100,000 to Boyd's charity of choice, the Western Pennsylvania Youth Athletic Association, which his mom used to convert to a year-round, multi-sport organization.

➤ At Clairton (Pa.) High School, he played running back, wide receiver, quarterback, defensive back and punt returner, and his team went 63-1 during his high school career.

30 - DB KENDELL BROOKS

➤ Since being signed by the Titans, Brooks has been heavily involved in the community by attending weekly school visits.

44 - S MIKE BROWN

➤ Brown's best friend and teammate at Grand Rapids Central Catholic (Mich.) High School, offensive lineman Jalen Mayfield, was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the third round of the 2021 NFL Draft.

➤ He chose No. 3 for his college jersey to represent him, his brother and his mother.

29 - JARVIS BROWNLEE JR.

➤ In the summer of 2023, Brownlee did an internship serving kids with disabilities. He is looking forward to continuing this work.

➤ Brownlee is a huge animal lover. At one point he had a gecko as well as a bearded dragon.

60 - DANIEL BRUNSKILL

➤ Brunskill went to San Diego State as a walk-on offensive lineman in 2012 but then switched to tight end for his first three collegiate seasons and earned a scholarship after the spring semester of 2015. After being named honorable-mention All-Mountain West as a tight end during his junior campaign, Brunskill switched back to offensive line for his final season.

➤ At the conclusion of his first season in Tennessee, Brunskill was voted by the Nashville media as the recipient of the 2023 Eddie George Good Guy award. The honor is given each season to a player who is helpful in the local reporters' coverage of the Titans.

➤ In February 2020, Brunskill joined current and former NFL players in Budapest, Hungary, where the group conducted two days of free football camp for men, women and children, while additionally hosting community activities. The camps were organized by American Football Without Barriers, a nonprofit foundation that was co-created by former NFL tight end Gary Barnidge to teach American football around the globe.

66 - G LOGAN BRUSS

➤ He has a twin brother, Tyler.

16 - WR TREYLON BURKS

➤ Burks is a hunting and fishing enthusiast. He is an experienced wild boar hunter, which involves hunting the animals with only his dogs and a knife, and he also is an avid turkey hunter.

➤ Some of Burks' work ethic was developed on the farm of his great-grandfather, Joe Burks, as he would do everything from bailing hay to working in the chicken house.

➤ Burks has two dogs, a pair of American bullies named Zara and Zazu.

36 - RB JULIUS CHESTNUT

➤ While at Sacred Heart, Chestnut interned for the school's athletic department and assisted with statistical analysis, marketing and ticket sales.

➤ His father, Keith, owns a landscaping company. Throughout high school and college summer breaks, Chestnut would wake up at 5 a.m. to help load trucks and lay mulch.

➤ In 2022, Chestnut became the second player from Sacred Heart University to appear in an NFL game, joining former Bills defensive back Jon Corto (2008-10).

91 - KEONDRE COBURN

➤ Coburn's daughter was born just days before he was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs in 2023.

➤ Coburn's hidden talents include singing, dancing and playing board games and video games.

46 - LS MORGAN COX

➤ March 7, 2013 was proclaimed "Morgan Cox Day" in his hometown of Collierville, Tenn.

➤ Cox's wife, Lauren, is an actress and has appeared in Baltimore filmed TV shows "House of Cards" and "Veep" and on the drama "To-Do."

➤ Cox played an integral part in the Baltimore Ravens' social justice initiatives. In 2018, he participated in the announcement of the HVAC donation from the Players' Social Justice Fund at Lakewood Elementary in Baltimore. In 2017, Cox took part in a police ride along with law enforcement officials in West Baltimore to meet with local youth and discuss topics surrounding social justice.

71 - OL JAELYN DUNCAN

➤ Growing up, Duncan didn't play organized sports and wasn't introduced to football until he was a freshman at Northern High School. As a freshman, Duncan played travel football for the Patuxent Rhinos 15-U team. He then joined the varsity team at Northern as a sophomore where he played until transferring for his senior year to St. Frances Academy in Baltimore.

➤ Duncan said he relied on his sheer physical advantages until his redshirt freshman year of college when he really began to understand and implement different techniques into his game.

6 - K NICK FOLK

➤ Folk is a dual citizen of both the United States and Germany.

➤ His mother is a direct descendant of William Bradford, an original Mayflower passenger and governor of Plymouth Colony.

➤ The Children's Tumor Foundation has a special place in Folk's heart. His cousin, Blake, has neurofibromatosis (NF), a genetic disorder that causes tumors to grow on nerves throughout the body. The term NF represents three distinct disorders: NF1, NF2 and schwannomatosis. For Blake, his NF impacts him most where his optic nerves cross in his brain. He currently has five brain tumors. Though NF affects over 2.5 million people worldwide, it is still relatively unknown in the general public. The Children's Tumor Foundation's MAKE NF VISIBLE campaign brings awareness and inclusion to all NF patients. Those with visible signs of NF struggle to be seen as more than just their NF, while patients whose NF is invisible struggle to make others understand. MAKE NF VISIBLE is about seeing NF, and seeing the person living with it.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

99 - OLB ALI GAYE

➤ Gaye was born in The Gambia and immigrated to the United States with his family when he was 12, settling in Everett, Wash. He began playing American football in eighth grade at the age of 14.

➤ Gaye was a soccer player when he moved to the United States. He stood just 5-foot-5 when he was 12 and had more of a soccer player's body. Trying out for the football team in eighth grade was an "experiment" with the sport. The following year is when Gaye started to grow, shooting up about five inches and putting on around 50 pounds during his freshman year.

50 - LB JACK GIBBENS

➤ As a rookie, he was nicknamed 'Dr. Gibby' by then-head coach Mike Vrabel because of Gibbens' intelligence.

➤ Gibbens spent time working as a financial analysis intern and served as a teaching and research assistant during college.

57 - LUKE GIFFORD

➤ Gifford was the recipient of Nebraska's prestigious Sam Foltz Hero 27 Award in 2018 for exceptional leadership, consistent and dedicated community service, and positive influence on the team.

26 - JUSTIN HARDEE SR.

➤ Hardee created the Hardee Cares Foundation, which facilitates programs for youth in New Orleans and his native Cleveland, as well as supporting sarcoidosis awareness to honor his mother, Estella, who passed away from the disease in 2013.

➤ Hardee owns a Papa John's franchise in Waveland, Miss. In 2017, he joined then teammates Marshon Lattimore and Ted Ginn Jr. at a charity event catered by Papa John's and reached out to former Saints safety Malcolm Jenkins, who was also a Papa John's franchise owner. Hardee's initial location opened in New Orleans in 2020 before relocating to Waveland.

92 - JAYLEN HARRELL

➤ His father, James Harrell, played linebacker in the NFL for the Detroit Lions (1979-83, 85-86) and the Kansas City Chiefs (1987). He also played for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits from 1984-85.

➤ Harrell played with Titans offensive lineman Nicholas Petit-Frere at Berkeley Preparatory School in Tampa, Fla.

37 - S AMANI HOOKER

➤ Hooker was named a finalist for Minnesota's Mr. Football in 2015. Yet he had just two FBS scholarship offers. When the in-state university showed hesitancy after multiple workouts, Hooker knew he belonged at Iowa saying, "love who loves me."

➤ Amani's brother, Quinton, played basketball for North Dakota and helped take the team to the NCAA tournament his senior year. Quinton was Minnesota's Mr. Basketball in high school and currently plays basketball professionally in France.

19 - WR JHA'QUAN JACKSON

➤ Jackson's uncle is NFL Hall of Fame safety Ed Reed.

➤ Jackson is a close friend and former roommate of Titans current running back Tyjae Spears at Tulane.

➤ Jackson is also close with former Titans running back/returner and Hahnville High School alumnus Darius Reynaud. Jackson and Reynaud speak "about once a week ever since I was in high school."

32 - CB GABE JEUDY-LALLY

➤ Jeudy-Lally speaks fluent Russian. His mother immigrated to the U.S. from Ukraine, and his grandfather played on Ukraine's national soccer team.

➤ He graduated with a degree in human and organizational development with a minor in business from Vanderbilt in May 2022. He then earned his masters in sports management from University of Tennessee in May 2024.

69 - DE SEBASTIAN JOSEPH-DAY

➤ While in Los Angeles, Joseph-Day was a co-host of a podcast with boxing legend Mike Tyson. On the podcast, Hotboxin' with Mike Tyson, Joseph-Day and Tyson interviewed Ne-Yo, Hasbulla, The Undertaker, Terrell Owens, T-Pain and Tony Hawk, among others.

➤ Joseph-Day, whose nickname is 'Bash,' has hosted a digital series called 'Dine N Bash.' The show combines his passion for food and culture, highlighting local Los Angeles restaurants and sharing their origin stories, top dishes and what makes them unique. Joseph-Day began the show during the COVID-19 pandemic as a way to showcase local businesses.

25 - RB JOSHUA KELLEY

➤ When Kelley finishes his playing career, he wants to be a screenwriter and work on developing stories that people globally can watch and empathize with. In the offseason, Kelley spends his time writing films and is currently working on one now. He picked up the passion while attending UCLA.

49 - OLB ARDEN KEY

➤ Key comes from a large family that includes four sets of twins, all who share in his athleticism on the basketball court. Arden's twin, Angel, was a cheerleader for her brother's football team.

➤ His father, Arden Key Sr., played point guard and shooting guard at Jacksonville State and also coached Arden Jr. in football.

12 - WR MASON KINSEY

➤ At Berry College, Kinsey's career receptions (203), receiving yardage (3,343) and receiving touchdowns (50) all rank first in school history, and his career receiving yardage and touchdowns set Southern Athletic Association records.

58 - HAROLD LANDRY III

➤ Landry could have entered the NFL Draft following his 16.5-sack junior season at Boston College. However, he chose to stay in school and received his degree in communications in December 2017.

➤ He and his wife, Danielle, have two sons, Greyson and Ollie. He and Greyson share the same June 5 birthday.

55 - T JC LATHAM

➤ Latham enrolled at IMG Academy intending to play defensive line, but injuries to three teammates forced him to move to offensive line two weeks before the start of his junior season.

➤ One of Latham's talents off the field is his cooking. He believes 'no one can make your food the way you like it better than you.' His go-to dish is hot honey jerk chicken over rice and mac and cheese.

62 - C/G COREY LEVIN

➤ At Dacula (Ga.) High School, Levin was a multi-sport athlete who played pitcher and third base for the baseball team.

➤ He was the first member of his immediate family to graduate from college.

8 - QB WILL LEVIS

➤ Levis' great grandfather, Alva Kelley, was an All-America football player at Cornell University and won a National Championship in 1939. His mother, Beth Kelley Levis, was a two-time All-America soccer player at Yale and has been inducted into the Connecticut Girls' Soccer Association Hall of Fame. His father, Mike, was a tight end at Denison University. His uncle, David Kelley, also was an Academic All-America football player at Yale.

➤ Levis has used his platform to make a difference in the community. He set up a Cameo campaign to raise money for flood victims in eastern Kentucky in 2022 and organized an autograph signing with fellow teammates to gather funds for tornado victims in western Kentucky in 2021. He has also volunteered with Amachi, an organization that aims to assist children affected by incarceration.

- Levis was a special guest at Special Olympics of Tennessee's Summer Games Opening Ceremonies in 2024. He shook hands, took photos, signed autographs and had conversations with a majority of the athletes participating in the games.
- Levis has an endorsement deal with Hellmann's Mayonnaise that resulted in the 2024 release of the world's first parfum de mayonnaise, Will Levis No. 8, and a humorous accompanying ad campaign.

97 - DL JAMES LYNCH

- While participating in the 2020 NFL Combine, Lynch partnered with Uplifting Athletes to raise money for the rare disease community.
- Lynch's middle name, Husker, was given to him by his father, Tim, who played linebacker at Nebraska.

88 - TE DAVID MARTIN-ROBINSON

- Martin-Robinson spent 2022 spring break in Rome as part of Temple University's Study Abroad program.
- His nickname is "DMR."
- Martin-Robinson was a three-sport athlete at Hempfield (Landisville, Pa.) High School playing football, baseball and track and field.

21 - CB ROGER McCREARY

- McCreary's pregame ritual in college was eating two plates of baked beans with sugar the night before a game. The tradition started when he got to Auburn and he says Bush's baked beans are his favorite.
- His uncle, Angelo James, was a defensive back for the Philadelphia Eagles.

56 - LB KENNETH MURRAY JR.

- Murray's family adopted three special needs children when he was 10 years old, and he has used his love for them and his family to motivate his success on the gridiron.
- Murray is a certified scuba diver.
- In the summer of 2019, Murray performed CPR to revive an unresponsive woman on a street corner in Norman, Okla.

61 - OL JOHN OJUKWU

- As a junior at Boise State (Idaho) High School, Ojukwu weighed only 185 pounds. Knowing that he needed to gain weight to have a chance in college, he ate large amounts of food and constantly worked out. He gained close to 100 pounds in nine months with a diet that included a daily gallon of milk and sometimes whole pizzas.
- In high school, Ojukwu interned for Boise State University's sports performance department.

85 - TE CHIG OKONKWO

- Okonkwo's father, Charlton, passed away of a heart attack when Okonkwo was 15. According to his mother, Isioma, who emigrated from Nigeria, "In our culture, the boys, even if they're young or not, they're always considered more important. When my husband passed, the people who came let him know that he's the man and now he has the responsibility to take care of his mom and his sisters." According to Okonkwo, "In our culture, [being] the man in the house is a really big deal. As the only male, I was the one giving my mom support."
- Okonkwo sat out the 2020 season with myocarditis due to COVID.
- Okonkwo is a cat lover and has a feline named Sage.
- In his free time, Okonkwo enjoys watching anime.

78 - OL NICHOLAS PETIT-FRERE

- Petit-Frere was about 270 pounds when he arrived at Ohio State, and it took him a while to get to his current weight of around 315 pounds. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he learned how to cook to help him continue his weight progress. He still enjoys cooking to this day, especially a lot of pastas, but says he can cook anything. He really enjoys trying out new recipes.

- Petit-Frere is trying to learn how to play the piano after playing the cello in middle school.
- He worked for Metropolitan Ministries in high school and would like to continue to be involved in education and causes to help underprivileged children and victims of domestic violence.

20 - RB TONY POLLARD

- Pollard's family owns Pollard's Bar-B-Q restaurant in his hometown of Memphis. Starting from humble beginnings, Pollard's was first established as a mobile catering business in 1995. As the demand for their unique southern style of Memphis BBQ grew, Pollard's reopened in the fall of 1996 as a small carry-out catering business. In 2011, Pollard's answered the overwhelming demands of its growing customer base by becoming a dine-in restaurant. With the new expansion came bigger and better things, such as an expanded menu and an upscale renovation by Food Network's Robert Irvine from Restaurant Impossible.
- Pollard was a dynamic kickoff returner at the collegiate level, tying a FBS record with seven career kickoff returns for touchdowns during his Memphis career.

75 - OL DILLON RADUNZ

- Radunz has a long history with the jersey number 75. At Becker (Minn.) High School, No. 75 was passed down from the previous player of the year to him. After he won the player of the year award, he passed it on to the next winner. Then he was issued the number at North Dakota State and later passed it on to his younger brother, Nick.
- The community fellowship program Alcoholics Anonymous has a special place in Radunz's life due to his father's struggles with alcoholism. His father, Jeff, passed away at the age of 45 in an alcohol-related incident when Dillon was 12.
- He was voted by his teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award winner for the Titans in 2023 after coming back from a knee injury that he suffered in 2022.

41 - LB OTIS REESE IV

- Reese played safety during his college career, but made the transition to linebacker once he arrived with the Titans.
- When asked what he would be if not an NFL player, Reese said he never considered a plan B. "If I didn't make it, I was going to keep trying until I did."

0 - WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Ridley and his younger brothers spent parts of their childhood growing up in foster homes in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He says that's when football saved his life. The Ridley brothers were moved to SOS Children's Village in Coconut Creek, Fla., a small complex with 10 houses and around 150 apartments. He used to wake up in the morning and bang on all the doors, rounding up everybody to play football. At that time, he realized if he had football, he would be all right.
- When he was younger, Ridley played Pop Warner football in the same league as Baltimore Ravens quarterback Lamar Jackson, Kansas City Chiefs wide receiver Marquise Brown and Ravens cornerback Trayvon Mullen, in the Pompano Beach area of Florida just four miles from the high school he would attend.
- His younger brother, Riley, played college football at Georgia and was drafted by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

11 - QB MASON RUDOLPH

- Rudolph comes from an athletic family. His mother, Jamie, ran track at Liberty University and his dad, Brett, played football at the University of North Carolina. His younger brother, Logan, played on the defensive line at Clemson from 2017-19.
- Rudolph has a strong connection to 2024 first-round quarterback Drake Maye. In the mid-1980s, Drake's father, Mark, was the starting quarterback at North Carolina and his roommate was Mason's dad, Brett, a linebacker on the Tar Heels. The two fathers have stayed close in the years since college, and their children grew up together. When the Rudolphs lived in Virginia, the families would go on vacation together once or twice each year.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

After the Rudolphs moved to Rock Hill, S.C., when Mason was in middle school, they were a 45-minute drive from the Mayes' home in Huntersville, N.C. The boys went to each other's basketball and football games.

98 - DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- In 2023, Simmons was named the Titans nominee for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award that recognizes a player for outstanding community service, as well as excellence on the field. "To be in a position to be able to give back, it means a lot. I want to be a light in the community."
- In July 2023, Simmons paid homage to his hometown of Macon, Miss., with his first 'Community Fun Day,' which included local food vendors, games, inflatables and fireworks. He was then honored by city officials with a key to the city. He also holds an annual youth football camp in Mississippi.
- In July 2022, the official ribbon cutting was held at the Jeffery B. Simmons Field House at Noxubee County High School in Macon, Miss. Simmons donated more than $50,000 to upgrade his former high school's athletic facilities. During the same week, he donated $75,000 to Starkville (Miss.) Parks and Recreation to be used for a new turf field at the Starkville Sportsplex. The field was also named in his honor.
- Simmons' brother, Dylan Bradley, played football at Southern Miss and then spent time with the Minnesota Vikings. His uncle, Jason Hatcher, played 10 total seasons with the Dallas Cowboys and Washington Commanders.
- Away from football, Simmons enjoys fishing and spending time outdoors.

77 - G PETER SKORONSKI

- His grandfather, Bob Skoronski, was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He missed two seasons while serving in the U.S. Air Force. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi from 1964 to 1968 and played on five NFL championship teams. In 1976, he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame.
- Among all offensive linemen at the 2023 NFL Scouting Combine, Skoronski placed second in the vertical jump (34.50 inches), second in the broad jump (9 feet 7 inches), fifth in the bench press (30 reps) and ninth in the 10-yard split (1.75 seconds).
- Minored in history in college and considers himself a "history nerd."
- Has a black lab named Slim.

38 - CB L'JARIUS SNEED

- After playing wide receiver at Minden (La.) High School, Sneed converted to cornerback at Louisiana Tech and saw playing time in his true freshman season. His initial collegiate campaign was highlighted by an interception return touchdown against Western Kentucky in the Conference USA Championship Game.
- Sneed's brother, T.Q. Mims, played football at Arkansas-Pine Bluff from 2010 to 2013.

2 - RB TYJAE SPEARS

- In the sixth round of the 2024 NFL Draft, the Titans selected one of Spears' best friends and his former college roommate, Tulane wide receiver Jha'Quan Jackson. Spears was with Jackson when he received the phone call from general manager Ran Carthon during the draft.
- Spears has worked with a non-profit organization in New Orleans called Son of a Saint, which provides "mentorship, education, recreation, camaraderie, cultural enrichment, emotional support and helping to fill the void for dozens of fatherless young men."
- His first job as a teenager was working at Walmart.

4 - P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Stonehouse comes from a lineage of punters. His father, Paul, was an All-American punter for Stanford. His uncle, John Stonehouse was an All-American punter at Southern California and was signed by the New York Giants as a rookie free agent in 1996. His uncle, Jeff Banks, was a punter at Washington State. His younger cousin, Jack, is a punter at Missouri.
- Stonehouse's father, Paul, and uncle, John, used to teach punting at their camp, The Kicking Game, and through private lessons. The camp's website houses testimonials from coaches Bill Walsh, John Robinson, Paul Pasqualoni and Mike Price.
- As a craftsman, Stonehouse built an outdoor kitchen in his home, that is owned by his grandmother, and it is complete with two different cooking areas, a sink, granite countertops, it is made out of wood and brick and is even wired for lighting.

93 - NT T'VONDRE SWEAT

- Sweat considers fellow Titans defensive lineman Keondre Coburn a close friend and mentor after playing together at Texas.
- Away from football, Sweat enjoys playing video games, including Madden, NBA 2K and Call of Duty: Warzone.
- The son of Lashunda Ross, Sweat is a self-proclaimed 'Momma's boy' and chose to go to Texas to be closer to her. After being drafted and signing his first NFL contract, he surprised his mother by purchasing her a home in their hometown of Houston.

84 - TE NICK VANNETT

- Vannett played a role in the development of a product called "Screen Skinz," a tempered glass screen protector that shows logos of professional and major college sports teams while a phone is off.
- He graduated from Ohio State in August 2015 with a degree in sport industry.

15 - WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- As an avid dog lover, Westbrook-Ikhine took care of dogs while in college through the popular app "Rover." Westbrook-Ikhine joined Rover the summer before his senior year at Indiana, and he would set his rate $10-15 lower than the average price to ensure he was selected as a dog-sitter. Westbrook-Ikhine would bring the dogs everywhere with him, even to Indiana's indoor field, and would let the dogs run around on the turf. He has his own rescue dog now named Winston.
- In 2021, Westbrook-Ikhine was named the team's Ed Block Courage Award recipient.
- Westbrook-Ikhine and his wife have become involved with Destiny Rescue, a "global, faith-based organization that rescues children out of sexual exploitation and human trafficking and most importantly helps them stay free." He chose to represent the organization through the NFL's My Cause My Cleats initiative.

81 - TE JOSH WHYLE

- Whyle had the chance to meet Titans great Delanie Walker at the 2023 NFL Combine and the two tight ends enjoyed dinner together one evening.
- He loves country music and his all-time favorite artists are Johnny Cash, Luke Combs and Kenny Chesney.
- He has two cats named Boots and Georgie.
- Whyle and fellow Titans tight end Chig Okonkwo were born on the same day: Sept. 8, 1999.

52 - LB JAMES WILLIAMS

- Williams played against fellow 2024 Titans draftee Jarvis Brownlee Jr. since they were both young from pee wee ball through high school in the Fort Lauderdale, Fla., area.
- Williams' hidden talent is writing poetry.

24 - DB JULIUS WOOD

- Wood is familiar with his new professional surroundings having trained at X3 Performance and Physical Therapy in Nashville during the 2024 pre-draft process.

35 - DB DARYL WORLEY

- Worley and his wife connected through a X hash tag for West Virginia University, in which they realized they were from the same area and planning to attend the same college. They began dating their freshman year at West Virginia.

Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. Take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Photographers' vests can be picked up near the entrance to the press box on Level 3.
