TITANS TRAVEL TO CLEVELAND TO FACE BROWNS

Tennessee Titans (1-1) at Cleveland Browns (1-0*)
Sunday, Sept. 24, 2023 • 1 p.m. EDT/Noon CDT • Cleveland Browns Stadium • Cleveland, Ohio • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-1) travel to Cleveland this week to face the Browns (1-0*). Kickoff is scheduled for 1 p.m. EDT/noon CDT on Sunday, Sept. 24.

The two clubs last played in 2020, when the Browns visited Nissan Stadium and departed with a 41-35 victory. It broke Tennessee's three-game winning streak in the series, which includes Titans victories in each of the last two clashes in Cleveland (2017 and 2019).

THE BROADCAST

The contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Spero Dedes, analyst Adam Archuleta and reporter Aditi Kinkhabwala.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found here.

LAST WEEK AGAINST THE CHARGERS

The Titans won last week's home opener against the Los Angeles Chargers in dramatic fashion. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill accounted for two total touchdowns, and Nick Folk's 41-yard field goal in overtime provided the margin in a 27-24 victory.

Tannehill established a single-game career high with an 83.3 completion percentage (minimum 20 attempts), completing 20 of 24 passes for 246 yards. His afternoon included a 70-yard pass to Treylon Burks, a four-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine and a 12-yard rushing touchdown. In leading the team to the game's final score in overtime, he was credited with his 27th career game-winning drive, including the regular season and postseason.

Titans running back Derrick Henry led the offense with 95 scrimmage yards, including a team-high 80 rushing yards. He scored on a one-yard carry, which was the 79th rushing touchdown of his career. His next rushing touchdown can make him the seventh NFL player in the Super Bowl era (1966–present) to reach 8,000 rushing yards and 80 rushing touchdowns within his first eight seasons. With 8,478 career rushing yards, he requires only 97 more to eclipse Earl Campbell's career total (8,574) for second place on the team's all-time rushing list behind only Eddie George (10,009).

Meanwhile, the Titans defense tallied three sacks and limited the Chargers to only two third-down conversions on 14 attempts (14.3 percent). The Chargers managed only 61 rushing yards against the Titans, giving the defense an NFL-best active streak of eight consecutive games without allowing an opponent to reach 100 rushing yards, as well as the 18th consecutive game without yielding a 100-yard rushing performance to an individual player on the opposing team.

THE BROWNS

The Browns defeated the Cincinnati Bengals 24-3 in Week 1. In Week 2, they traveled to another AFC North rival, the Pittsburgh Steelers, for Monday Night Football.

Quarterback Deshaun Watson was traded to the Browns in 2022 after spending his first five NFL seasons with the Houston Texans. In his first year in Cleveland, Watson started six games and passed for 1,102 yards and seven touchdowns with five interceptions. The three-time Pro Bowl selection was a rookie with the Texans in 2017, which was Mike Vrabel's last season on the Houston staff before becoming the head coach of the Titans.

Head coach Kevin Stefanski is in his fourth season with the Browns. He is looking to improve on last season's 7-10 record, which was identical to the Titans' finish. In 2020, Stefanski was named the 2020 AP NFL Coach of the Year after leading Cleveland to the postseason and a playoff victory in his first season with the club.

SERIES HISTORY

This week's game marks the 69th all-time meeting between the Titans and Browns. In the previous 68 outings, the Browns own a 36-32 advantage, including separate nine- and six-game winning streaks by the Browns. However, the Titans have taken five out of the last eight battles.

The Browns took the most recent clash at Nissan Stadium on Dec. 6, 2020. Although the Titans outscored the Browns 28-3 in the second half, it still was not enough to overcome Cleveland's 38-7 halftime lead. The Browns won by a final score of 41-35. Ryan Tannehill passed for 389 yards and three touchdowns in the loss.

The last time the two clubs met at Cleveland Browns Stadium was the 2019 season opener (Sept. 8), which the Titans won 43-13. Marcus Mariota completed three touchdown passes, two of which went to tight end Delanie Walker. Running back Derrick Henry contributed 159 total scrimmage yards, and rookie wide receiver A.J. Brown notched 100 receiving yards in his debut. Meanwhile, the Titans defense totaled three interceptions, five sacks and a safety—a first in franchise history for the defense with that combination.

The two franchises met for the first time in 1970, when as a part of the AFL-NFL merger, the Browns moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central, where they would compete with the Oilers/Titans as divisional foes for 32 seasons. The series was interrupted after the 1995 season as a result of the former Browns moving to Baltimore to transition as the Ravens.

A new team was granted to Cleveland to begin play once again in 1999. The new version of the Browns kept the old team's name, records and logos and was once again a member of the AFC Central until divisional realignment in 2002 sent them to the AFC North and the Titans to the AFC South.

The clubs have played one playoff game, a 24-23 Wild Card win by the Oilers in 1988. Allen Pinkett scored two touchdowns within a 15-second span of the second quarter, and Warren Moon rallied the Oilers with 10 fourth-quarter points for the win, capped by Tony Zendejas's 49-yard, game-winning field goal with 1 minute and 54 seconds to play in the fourth quarter.

The Titans' nine-game losing streak against the Browns from 1970-74 is tied (Oakland, 1966-73) for the second-longest losing streak against another opponent in franchise history.

On Oct. 5, 2014, the Browns recorded a historic comeback against the Titans at Nissan Stadium, erasing a 25-point deficit to win 29-28. It was the largest road comeback in NFL history.

TITANS-BROWNS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 13: Titans 35, Browns 41
Sunday, Dec. 6, 2020 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium
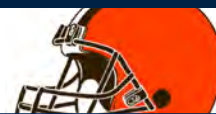

In Week 13 of the 2020 season, the Titans hosted the Browns in a matchup of two 8-3 teams. Despite scoring 28 points in the second half and recording 431 total net yards of offense, Tennessee fell to Cleveland by a score of 41-35.

Cleveland got on the board on their opening possession with an eight-play scoring drive that culminated in a 27-yard field goal. The Browns took a 3-0 lead and never relinquished it. Later in the first quarter, Cleveland manufactured a nine-play scoring drive to increase the lead to 10-0. Browns QB Baker Mayfield connected with Browns RB Nick Chubb for a 26-yard gain before throwing a two-yard touchdown pass to Browns WR Jarvis Landry. On the ensuing Titans possession, Browns DT Sheldon Richardson forced RB Derrick Henry to fumble the ball and it was recovered by Browns SS Karl Joseph. Cleveland took possession at the Tennessee 21-yard line and capitalized on the turnover as Mayfield tossed a one-yard touchdown to Browns T Kendall Lamm to make it a 17-0 game.

The Titans got on the board in the second quarter with a four-play scoring drive. QB Ryan Tannehill threw a 40-yard pass to WR A.J. Brown to help move the chains before connecting with WR Corey Davis for a 17-yard touchdown to make it 17-7. However, Cleveland responded on their next possession with a quick one-play scoring drive as Mayfield threw a 75-yard touchdown pass to Browns WR Donovan Peoples-Jones to extend the lead, 24-7. Cleveland added two more touchdowns in the second quarter. First, Mayfield tossed a 17-yard touchdown to WR Rashard Higgins, and then Chubb ran in a one-yard rushing score as the Browns took a 38-7 lead into halftime.

Tennessee opened up the second half with two consecutive touchdown drives. First was a three-play scoring drive as Henry ran for 10 yards, Tannehill threw a 43-yard strike to Davis, and then culminated in Tannehill tossing a 22-yard touchdown to TE MyCole Pruitt. However, the two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful as the Titans made it a 38-13 game. Next came a six-play scoring drive with Davis contributing two catches for 40 yards to move the sticks. At the Cleveland 19-yard line, Tannehill threw an 18-yard pass to Brown, but Brown fumbled the ball. Pruitt scooped it up and ran in a three-yard fumble recovery touchdown. Tannehill rushed for a successful two-point conversion attempt to make it closer, 38-21.

On the following Cleveland possession, the Browns drove down the field into Titans territory, but Tennessee limited their opponent to a field goal. The 43-yard kick which made it a 41-21 game became Cleveland's only points scored in the second half.

In the fourth quarter, the Titans tacked on two touchdowns to make it a one-score game. They executed a 15-play, 91-yard scoring drive that saw four receptions for 47 yards by Davis, and four catches for 37 yards by TE Anthony Firkser. Ultimately, RB Jeremy McNichols rushed in a one-yard touchdown to make it 41-28. On the following Browns possession, DL Jack Crawford forced Mayfield to fumble the ball. S Kenny Vaccaro recovered it and returned the fumble 53 yards to give the Titans possession at the Cleveland 13-yard line with 48 seconds remaining in regulation. Tannehill connected with WR Cameron Batson for an eight-yard touchdown to cut Cleveland's lead to 41-35. However, Tennessee couldn't recover an onside kick and fell to the Browns at home.

Bubba Ventrone	Asst. Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator
Nemo Washington	Bill Willis Coaching Fellow

Kevin Stefanski was named the 18th full-time head coach of the Cleveland Browns on Jan. 13, 2020. In his first three seasons, Stefanski earned a playoff berth, one playoff win and a Coach of the Year honor, all in his first year as head coach (2020). The Browns finished with a 7-10 in 2022.

Stefanski has revitalized the run game for the Browns in his time at the helm. Since 2020, the team ranks among the NFL leaders in most rushing categories including yards (second with 146.7 yards per game), rushing average (third with 4.85 yards per attempt) and touchdowns (tied for fourth with 60). The rushing attack is spearheaded by running back Nick Chubb, who has been selected to the Pro Bowl each of the past four seasons. In 2022, the team recorded the third highest rushing total in team history (2,490), aided by Chubb's 1,525 yards, which ranked third in the NFL. The vaunted rushing offense also features Pro Bowl offensive linemen Joel Bitonio and Wyatt Teller.

Defensively, the Browns finished fifth in total defense in 2021, Cleveland's highest finish since 1987. That year, All-Pro defensive end Myles Garrett set the franchise's single-season sack record with 16. The next year, he would match that mark, becoming the only player in the NFL with 16 sacks in 2021 and 2022.

During his first three seasons, Stefanski led the Browns to 27 total wins, the most by any Browns coach since the team's return in 1999. His 11 wins in 2020 were the most by any first-year Browns coach since Paul Brown had twelve in the team's inaugural season (1946).

Prior to joining the Browns, Stefanski spent 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, starting out as an assistant to the head coach in 2006. He served as assistant quarterbacks coach (2009-13), tight ends coach (2014-15), running backs coach (2016) and quarterbacks coach (2017-18) before being named interim offensive coordinator (2018) and given the permanent role in 2019.

Stefanski's pre-NFL coaching history started at his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, where he was assistant director of football operations in 2005 after being a team captain for Penn during his senior year as a player.

Stefanski is a native of Philadelphia, Pa.

LAST WEEK VS. THE CHARGERS

Week 2: Titans 27, Chargers 24
Sunday, Sept. 17, 2023 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 2 of the 2023 season, the Titans hosted the Los Angeles Chargers for their home opener and won in overtime by a score of 27-24. The win snapped an eight-game losing streak dating back to last season.

Los Angeles took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter after a failed fourth down try by the Titans put the Chargers in good field position early and K Cameron Dicker nailed his 27-yard attempt.

The Chargers then extended their lead to 11-0 after QB Justin Herbert found WR Keenan Allen for an eight-yard touchdown on fourth-and-four. The Chargers converted the two-point conversion when Herbert found RT Trey Pipkins III in the end zone.

The Titans answered with a three-play 75-yard touchdown drive, highlighted by a 70-yard pass from QB Ryan Tannehill to WR Treylon Burks to put the ball at the Chargers five. RB Derrick Henry ran it for a one-yard score two plays later to make it 11-7.

Los Angeles then made it 14-7 with a 30-yard field goal by Dicker.

But the Titans cut that lead with a 33-yard field goal from K Nick Folk as time expired in the first half.

Tennessee opened the second half with a nine-play 75-yard touchdown drive that included a nine-yard completion to WR DeAndre Hopkins on third-and-four to keep the drive alive followed by a 20-yard completion to TE Chig Okonkwo. After two penalties from the Chargers put the ball at the Los Angeles 12, Tannehill ran it in on an option keeper to take a 17-14 lead.

The Chargers reclaimed the lead at the beginning of the fourth quarter, finishing a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive with a 12-yard pass from Herbert to Allen.

The Titans then went up 24-21 with 2:22 left in the fourth quarter after a 49-yard pass from Tannehill to WR Chris Moore put the seven-play, 82-yard scoring drive in motion. Tannehill found WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine, for a four-yard touchdown.

The Chargers answered by marching 68 yards down the field to the Tennessee seven-yard line. Facing third-and-three, OLB Harold Landry III sacked Herbert for an eight-yard loss to forced the Chargers to kick the game-tying field goal to send it to overtime.

The Chargers started with the ball in overtime but the Titans forced a three-and-out allowing the offense to start at its own 39-yard line. RB Tyjae Spears started the drive with a 14-yard run. Henry then caught a 6-yard pass and ran for four yards on two attempts to get the next first down. Tannehill then found Hopkins for a 14-yard completion to put the Titans in field goal range. As rain started pouring down, Folk drilled the 41-yard game-winning field goal.

How big was Harold Landry III getting his first sack of the season to make sure you got a stand there defensively?

Well, it was critical. A lot of plays in the game, comes down to a few. Certainly, that was a big one. We talked about the key all week was getting the drive stopped. Sometimes we got it stopped sooner, sometimes we got it stopped later and in that case it was one of those that got stopped later. But in the end it got stopped.

How important is it to stay in the fight and have a chance to win it in the end?

Well, that's what it's about. These games are tight every week. They played in a close one last week. We played in a close one. You got to just stay in there. You got to keep fighting, take care of the football, execute a few couple critical plays. I thought there at the end, just being able to roll out and find Hop (DeAndre Hopkins) to give us the yardage that we needed with the rain coming.

What do you think of the way Ryan Tannehill responded to last week?

That's what Ryan's (Tannehill) done. One of the tougher players on our team. I know we got a bunch of tough guys, but he stood in there and got the (crap) knocked out of him a couple times late and I respect the heck out of it and kept battling. Hit some shots, which was great to see, down the field.

Did you have any doubt at all that he (Nick Folk) would make it?

He'd been really good. That's what he's done and that's what you need in this league, is a guy that's reliable in critical situations.

How was it for Dillon Radunz to come in and give you as many snaps as he did filling in at left guard?

Well, it was certainly a quick turnaround from when he was hurt. And again, all the credit goes to Dillon (Radunz) to be able to do that and get back. Having worked at tackle and guard, just felt like early on we'll put him in there. Was able to stay alive and I'm sure that there was going to be some mistakes. But it's great to see him back out there. It's a phenomenal turnaround.

How did you like the secondary play in the first overtime series?

We were playing some zone and they hit a couple of seams on us. Liked what Shane (Bowen) did and changed up some things and got on body and guys responded. It was just good to see us stay tight in coverage and challenge. Early on it's like some of the calls and they're throwing it in front of us. Just making sure that we're not getting the ball thrown over our head. Then it was great to be able to challenge there in overtime. Three fantastic plays, executed well by the defense. Jeff(ery Simmons) had good pressure. He slipped or that ball probably would have been out. But it was good to see really tight coverage.

How good was it to score in the redzone? A lot better than last week.

Well, every week is different. You guys hear me say that all the time. Every week is different. We were able to get stops on defense this week. We were able to double them up at halftime with the field goal and then scoring a touchdown and putting a drive together. You can just see the difference in our efficiency when it's, instead of third-and-10, we're able to function at a better down and distance. There were times that we had gained five yards and ahead of schedule. Silly penalty, second-and-10, third-and-10. So you guys can see it as well as we can, when we get into drives and we're able to let those plays complement each other, that's when we can be effective and then get down in a red zone. Had a shot, everybody went on the ball from the five and was able to score two plays later.

What did the (Treylon) Burks play do for energy on the sideline, energy in the stadium?

Yes, it was critical. We need that from Treylon (Burks), being able to run through the catch there was fantastic. Got over the top, protection held up. Ryan (Tannehill) gave him a fantastic ball. But, I'm with you. We were leaking oil and we needed somebody to step up and make a play. And that was a huge play.

Were those deep plays to Treylon (Burks) and Chris (Moore) things you thought would be there?

Yeah, those are things that we always try to get and a lot of that is dictated on whether we can hold up. They play some post safety and they get on you. Chris (Moore) had a great week of practice. Treylon (Burks) continued to get better throughout the week with some of the details and so those are really cool to see when it translates into the football game.

How good is it getting the winning feeling back?

Well, it's important. It's important to get off to a good start. Again, tight games at home. We needed it. We all needed it. But we can be able to learn from it and see when we do the things that we talk about in practice and the execution, what it looks like.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

How do you feel after your big win today?

Yeah, it's great to get things going a little bit for us. Obviously, we wanted to come back and play well today after last week. So, excited to be able to do that, get back on the field, felt great to be back out there and were able to pull the win out at the end. So, made it a lot of fun.

What was the feeling when you guys got the ball back after a defensive stop? And how that last drive went to put (Titans kicker) Nick (Folk) in position?

Yeah, it was huge. We had a lot of momentum there. The defense came up. The crowd was into it and that's what you want when you're playing at home. Defense comes up huge with the three-and-out, get a decent punt return there, I think we got an extra 10 yards or so on the punt return. So, we had a lot of momentum there and we were able to string some plays together and get down in field goal range. It started raining there for a second and then right when we were about to snap it, it calmed down a little bit and Nick (Folks) hammered it through. So, I'm proud of our guys, the way we battled, stuck together throughout the game, through the ups and downs. That's the way football games are. It's never going to be perfect. You're going to have ups and downs and if you stick together, face that adversity, and then make big plays when it comes down to it, you're going to find a way to win. And that's what we did today.

What does it do for you when you're able to complete those long plays?

Well, it's huge. It gets us going a little bit. When you're able to hit a chunk like that, you're not going to have a 15-play drive to score. You're able to shorten the amount of plays it's going to take you to get into the end zone and build some momentum. Hit a play like that, it opens up some underneath stuff, as well. It does a lot of things for you. I'm proud of our guys. The way we practiced, we were able to hit some in practice and then those same guys are able to show up on Sunday and make the same play.

How good does is it feel with the first win since last November? And how good does it feel in the locker room?

It felt great. We're not thinking about last year or anything like that, but great to bounce back from the start we had last week and find a way to get to 1-1. And it feels good to celebrate a win in the locker room. Those are the memories that, I think back over the course of my career, is celebrating tough, hard-fought games like today in the locker room with your teammates. Guys that you go to battle with. So, definitely added another great memory.

We were talking to Jeff Simmons across the hall just now, and he was talking about how great it was to get a win. And he said, I told Ryan this week, he's my quarterback and I stand with him. What's it like to know that Jeff Simmons and your teammates have your back, no matter what?

It means a lot. I knew last week wasn't who I am as a player. I knew I was going to bounce back this week but it's nice to feel that support from your teammates throughout the week. It wasn't one big conversation or anything like that because they see how I prepare and how I play. So, I don't think there was ever a doubt that we were going to be able to bounce back. But that support, no doubt, it definitely helps build that confidence.

LB AZEEZ AL-SHAAIR

You mentioned it seems like whenever the defense needed to make a play, guys were ready to make a play, and same for the offense, when they needed to make a play, they were able to do it. That's wasn't really the case last week what changed?

Each week is going to present new challenges and you've got to learn from whatever happened the week before, and flush it down the drain, and keep going. And that's exactly what we all did as a group. Offense, defense, special teams. And you've seen that happen today. Obviously now, it's going to be great, because everybody's gonna be like, 'Oh, the Titans look good now.' And everything that everybody wrote trash, is going to be good. Either way, I can't rely on what you say about me to dictate how we feel. We've got to keep staying true to who we are, and staying true to what we talk about in our fundamentals as a team, and keep going.

LB NICK FOLK

How did it feel to get that game winner for the team?

I thought it was good to get a win. I think defense held in overtime and the offense had a great drive going, moved the ball when they needed to and it was a total team effort. It wasn't just me. I just got to put the cherry on top. The team did a great job today. Everyone, coaches, players, hats off to the entire locker room.

RB DERRICK HENRY

Was there a relief feeling for the team to finally get a win today?

We feel very excited. Finally get one in the win column. The guys played hard and fought hard, we got the win at the end of the day.

How do you think Treylon's (Burks) completion got you guys up and running?

Definitely got us up and running. Big momentum shift, we were a bit stalemated to that point. He made a big play for us, when we really needed it and got us going. It was a big play for him, we were able to make a bit play and get it in the end zone.

How did you feel about going into over time and that game winning kick?

Defense did a great job. Especially in overtime, getting us the ball back and us being able to go down and put three points in to end the game. Nick (Folk) did a great job getting it in there. I feel IT was great job overall with execution on both sides of the ball and it was a team effort.

The usage you and Tyjae (Spears) seemed to work pretty well. Do you think that's going to be a difficult thing for teams to handle?

Yeah, we hope so. Be a one-two punch, a great tandem. Being able to make plays and move the ball down the field. I feel we did a great job as well.

It's been a while since you guys scored as many points as you did today, was this a confident building game for the offense?

Yeah, definitely. It felt good to get in the end zone, get in there multiple times. Different guys getting in there and putting plays together to lead to points. Like you said it's been a while, so definitely a lot of good things to build off of. We came correct. At the end of the day, it's a positive getting the dub and getting in the end zone and making some plays

LB HAROLD LANDRY III

How good does it feel to make a play that obviously kind of set things in motion to win it?

I mean, it's so great. I felt like it was honestly, a relief because I was just trying to get that first sack under my belt. Now I just got to get back to work and keep preparing and play better. It's a relief to get that first one under your belt. And now I just got to continue to focus on my preparation, and practice and just improving.

How big was the complimentary football today, just for both sides to kind of do their part.

I just feel like that's when we're at our best. We're playing complementary football, and we're just helping each other out, and I feel like we're a great team when it comes to the gritty games that come down to the wire. I feel like we rise to the occasion. Yeah, I mean, that's just Tennessee football.

OL DILLON RADUNZ

How do you feel just coming in and how long do you feel to get comfortable?

We do the practice reps all the time, so I felt pretty comfortable in practice and I knew going in the game if I had to play, I feel comfortable. So, the knee overall physically felt great. I mean, obviously butterflies, any time you go out there and compete in front of that many people and stuff like that. So, I think it was just more nerves settling in and was able to do that and played a good game and we won. So, it's good.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

What can you say about this team battling back and forth throughout the game, and ultimately coming back?

Everything showed today, our culture, the way we're built around here in Tennessee. We're willing to fight for each other. No matter what, the defense is going on the field, to get a turnover. You know, we went for it early in the game. We went out on the field. We made them kick the field goal in that situation. So, we just call it 'sudden change'. That's our goal each and every game. You've got to work together, special teams, offense and defense. Today showed that we played as one. It wasn't pretty. But at the end of the day, we played as one, and got a win.

You said earlier in the week that, 'Hey, it's time to win a game'. How good does it feel?

It feels wonderful, man. We haven't won since the Packers. We've got to go back to winning, man. Today it's just amazing, man. Like I said, a hell of a job, to the offense. And then the granddaddy on the team, Nick (Folk) going down to make the field goal. I told Tanny (Ryan Tannehill) 'Man, you're our quarterback. I believe in you. We've got your back.' That's a hell of a job to go down, on a drive, and get a field goal at the end.

2023 SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

➢ PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have eight total games against seven playoff teams from last season. They play three division champions from 2022, including home games against Cincinnati (Oct. 1) and Jacksonville (Jan. 6 or 7) and visits to Tampa Bay (Nov. 12) and Jacksonville (Nov. 19). The four contests against 2022 wild card qualifiers include home dates with the Los Angeles Chargers (Sept. 17) and Seattle Seahawks (Dec. 24), a road game against Miami (Dec. 11), and a game in London against Baltimore (Oct. 15). The eight games against reigning playoff clubs are one more than the number the Titans had in 2022.

➢ NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES: The Titans are currently scheduled for three nationally-televised games. Their game in London against Baltimore (Oct. 15) will air on NFL Network. In primetime, they play at Pittsburgh on Thursday Night Football (Nov. 2 on Prime Video) and at Miami on Monday Night Football (Dec. 11 on ESPN).

➢ TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Jaguars, which has not yet been assigned a television broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 contests on CBS, three games on FOX, and one game each on NFL Network, ESPN and Prime Video. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.

➢ TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: Outside of their trip to London, the Titans stay in either the central time zone (13 games) or eastern time zone (six) for the duration of 2023, including the preseason. The farthest west they travel is Houston.

➢ HIGH NOON: During the regular season, 13 of the Titans' games are currently scheduled for Sundays at noon CT, with 11 total contests subject to flex scheduling.

➢ THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2022 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' second-place finish in 2022, they host the AFC West's second-place Chargers (Sept. 17) and the NFC West's second-place Seattle Seahawks (Dec. 24). They visit the AFC East's runner-up Dolphins (Dec. 11). Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .448 (127-157-4) based upon their opponents' combined 2022 record, which is the 28th most difficult in the NFL.

➢ FACING TOP OFFENSES AND DEFENSES: The Titans face four of the NFL's top 10 offenses from last season: Cincinnati (Oct. 1, eighth-overall offense), Jacksonville (Nov. 19 and Jan. 6-7, 10th), the Los Angeles Chargers (Sept. 17, ninth) and Miami (Dec. 11, sixth). They also contend with three of the top 10 defenses from 2022: Baltimore (Oct. 15, tied-ninth overall defense), New Orleans (Sept. 10, fifth) and Tampa Bay (Nov. 12, tied-ninth).

➢ VRABEL LOOKS FOR FIFTH WINNING SEASON: With a winning record in 2023, Mike Vrabel would join Bum Phillips and Jeff Fisher as the only head coaches in franchise history with at least five winning campaigns. Under Vrabel, the Titans finished with winning records each season from 2018 to 2021. Fisher holds the franchise record for head coaches with six winning seasons (1999-00, 2002-03, 2007-08), which broke the previous record of five seasons, established by Phillips (1975, 1977-80).

➢ VRABEL COULD PASS PHILLIPS: Entering 2023 with a record of 50-37 as head coach, including playoffs, Mike Vrabel needs 10 wins to pass Bum Phillips (59-38) for second place on the franchise's all-time wins list among head coaches. Jeff Fisher (147-126) holds the franchise record for wins.

➢ HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: The Titans will face three of the five NFL head coaches who were hired by their respective clubs in 2023: Indianapolis' Shane Steichen (Oct. 8 and Dec. 3), Carolina's Frank Reich (Nov. 26) and Houston's DeMeco Ryans (Dec. 17 and 31). Titans head coach Mike Vrabel, who joined the Titans in 2018, has the ninth-longest tenure among current head coaches.

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

➢ WEEK 3 at CLEVELAND: The Titans have won their last two games at Cleveland Browns Stadium (2017 and 2019), but the Browns, under head coach Kevin Stefanski, won the most recent clash at Nissan Stadium in 2020. Browns quarterback Deshaun Watson has several connections with the Titans from their shared time at the Houston Texans, including head coach Mike Vrabel and offensive coordinator Tim Kelly.

➢ WEEK 4 vs. CINCINNATI: The Titans look to snap a three-game skid against the Bengals, who are led by fourth-year quarterback Joe Burrow. The Bengals took the AFC North title in each of the past two seasons and defeated the Titans at Nissan Stadium in the 2021 divisional playoffs. The Titans lead the all-time series 40-37-1, including the postseason.

➢ WEEKS 5 & 13 vs. INDIANAPOLIS: The Titans enter 2023 with a five-game winning streak over the Colts, who are led by first-year head coach Shane Steichen. Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles the last two seasons, and in 2022 he helped the team reach Super Bowl LVII. First-year Titans general manager Ran Carthon spent the majority of his three NFL seasons as a player (2004-06) with the Colts.

➢ WEEK 6 vs. BALTIMORE (LONDON): The Titans and Ravens square off at London's Tottenham Hotspur Stadium, marking the Titans' second all-time international game in the regular season. Their first such trip occurred in 2018, Mike Vrabel's first year as head coach, when the Titans faced the Chargers at Wembley Stadium. The Titans and Ravens have developed a heated rivalry over the course of 26 all-time meetings since the series originated in 1996, highlighted by five postseason contests—most recently a 20-13 Ravens wild-card victory on Jan. 10, 2021. No team has faced the Titans/Oilers more than the Ravens in postseason history, despite the first such matchup not occurring until January 2001. Including all regular season and postseason games, the series is tied 13-13.

➢ WEEK 7 (BYE): The Titans follow their trip to London with a bye. Since Mike Vrabel became the team's head coach in 2018, the Titans are 5-0 in games immediately following their bye week.

➢ WEEK 8 vs. ATLANTA: Falcons head coach Arthur Smith faces the Titans for the first time since leaving the organization in 2021 to claim his current post. Smith was with the Titans from 2011 to 2020, including time as offensive coordinator in his final two campaigns with the club. The trip to Nissan Stadium by the Falcons will be their fourth in the regular season.

➢ WEEK 9 at PITTSBURGH (THURSDAY NIGHT): The Titans renew the series in the 81st meeting (including playoffs) with their former AFC Central rivals, who are in their 17th season with Mike Tomlin as head coach. In franchise history, the Titans/Oilers have played the Steelers more than any other opponent, including a 2-2 split in four previous Thursday night encounters. Titans head coach Mike Vrabel spent four seasons as a player in Pittsburgh after being selected by the Steelers in the third round of the 1997 NFL Draft.

➢ WEEK 10 at TAMPA BAY: The Titans carry a three-game winning streak over the Buccaneers into the meeting. With Todd Bowles in his second season as Tampa Bay's head coach, the team moves forward at quarterback in 2023 with veterans Baker Mayfield and Kyle Trask following the offseason retirement of Tom Brady.

➢ WEEKS 11 & 18 vs. JACKSONVILLE: The Titans look to regain the momentum in the series after they were swept by the Jaguars in 2022 for the first time since 2005. That ended the Titans' five-game winning streak in the rivalry. In Week 18 of last season, the Jaguars defeated the Titans in Jacksonville in a matchup that decided the AFC South champion. The Jaguars are in their second campaign with Doug Pederson as head coach and their third season since selecting quarterback Trevor Lawrence with the first pick in the 2021 NFL Draft.

➢ WEEK 12 vs. CAROLINA: The Titans will host the Panthers at Nissan Stadium for only the third time in the regular season (2007 and 2015). The Panthers are launching a new era in 2023 with head coach Frank Reich, who previously served as the head coach at the Indianapolis Colts from 2018 to 2022. Former Alabama quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner Bryce Young was selected by the Panthers with the first pick in the 2023 NFL Draft.

➢ WEEK 14 at MIAMI (MONDAY NIGHT): Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill is scheduled to make his first appearance at Hard Rock Stadium since being traded from the Dolphins to the Titans in 2019. Over his seven seasons in Miami (2012-18), he started 88 games and threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns. The Titans defense faces a Dolphins offense directed by second-year head coach Mike McDaniel that ranked sixth overall and fourth in passing in 2022. The last time the Titans traveled to Miami was the 2018 season opener, Mike Vrabel's first game as a head coach. With a duration of 7 hours and 8 minutes due to two separate weather interruptions, the 27-20 Dolphins win became the longest game in NFL history. The Titans franchise is 25-19 all-time on Monday Night Football, including a 2-0 mark against the Dolphins. In 1978, the Oilers and the Dolphins were featured in a memorable Monday night clash, a 35-30 Oilers win that included 199 yards and four rushing touchdowns by Earl Campbell.

➢ WEEKS 15 & 17 vs. HOUSTON: The Titans and Texans play twice in a three-week span. They have split the season series in six of the last seven years. This year the Titans face new Texans head coach DeMeco Ryans, who was hired in 2023 after serving two seasons as defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers. Titans running back Derrick Henry enters the season with five consecutive games against the Texans with at least 126 rushing yards and one touchdown. The Texans drafted former Ohio State quarterback C.J. Stroud with the second overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft. Prior to training camp, the Titans added veteran wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, a first-round pick in 2013 who spent his first seven NFL seasons with the Texans.

➢ WEEK 16 vs. SEATTLE: The Titans have won two consecutive games against the Seahawks and three of the last four meetings. Most recently, Derrick Henry rushed for 182 yards and three touchdowns in a 33-30 overtime victory at Seattle on Sept. 19, 2021. Pete Carroll's 14 seasons as head coach with the Seahawks gives him the fourth-longest tenure in the NFL behind only New England's Bill Belichick, Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin and Baltimore's John Harbaugh.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2023

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The franchise is in its 25th season since becoming the Titans in 1999.
- The Titans can earn their fifth playoff berth in a seven-year span.
- The Titans can earn their third division title in a four-year span. The only other stretch in franchise annals with three division titles in a four-year span was when the Oilers won the AFL East in 1960, 1961 and 1962.
- After entering 2023 with a record of 110-83 in regular season games at Nissan Stadium, the Titans need four wins at home in 2022 to exceed the 113 wins the franchise had in regular season contests at the Astrodome (113-103-2). With a record of 112-87 in the regular season and postseason combined at Nissan Stadium, the Titans are five total wins from exceeding the 116 total wins the Oilers had at the Astrodome (116-105-2). That would give the franchise more victories at Nissan Stadium than any other single venue.
- The Titans played their 200th combined regular season and postseason game at Nissan Stadium when they faced the L.A. Chargers there on Sept. 17. Their 200th regular season game at Nissan Stadium is slated for Dec. 24 against the Seattle Seahawks.

- Needs three interceptions to tie Fred Glick (30) for third place all-time for the franchise.
- Needs four interceptions to tie Cris Dishman (31) and five interceptions to pass Dishman for second place all-time for the franchise. He would trail only Jim Norton (45).

- With a streak of 114 consecutive games played (regular season) entering 2023, Byard can pass Eddie George (128) for the 10th-longest consecutive games streak in franchise history by playing in the first 15 games of 2023.

- Entered the 2023 season with a streak of 145 consecutive games with a reception—every game since he has played since he entered the NFL. It is the longest active streak in the NFL. With at least one catch in his first 14 appearances of 2023, he will surpass Marshall Faulk (158) to own the third-longest such streak to begin a career in the Super Bowl era (1966–present). He would trail only Marvin Harrison (190) and Keyshawn Johnson (167).
- Needs 47 receptions in 2023 to reach 900 for his career (853 entering 2023). He would join 24 previous NFL players to accomplish the feat.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Needs eight sacks (31.0 career sacks entering 2023) to surpass Kyle Vanden Bosch (38.5) for 11th place on the franchise's all-time career sack list. He also needs nine sacks to become the franchise's 11th player to reach 40 career sacks.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Can become the team's only player since 2000 to record at least three sacks and five passes defensed in four consecutive seasons.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS & DL DENICO AUTRY

- Can join Jevon Kearse (1999-01) and Brian Orakpo (2015-17) as the franchise's only players since 1999 to produce three consecutive seasons with at least seven sacks.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Can become the first player in history to lead the NFL in punting average in each of his first two NFL seasons.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Can join Warren Moon (six) and Steve McNair (four) as the only starting quarterbacks in franchise history to lead the club to the playoffs at least four times.
- Needs 3,500 passing yards to tie Warren Moon (1989–1991) for the most seasons in franchise history with at least 3,500 passing yards. Tannehill reached the mark in 2020 and 2021.
- Entered 2023 with 33,265 NFL passing yards and 212 touchdown passes. With 2,735 passing yards and 18 touchdown passes, he will join 27 previous players to reach 36,000 passing yards and 230 touchdown passes in an NFL career.
- He eclipsed Marcus Mariota (13,207) for fifth place on the franchise's all-time passing yards list. He needs 4,016 yards in 2023 to surpass Dan Pastorini (16,846) for fourth place.
- With 89 touchdown passes with the Titans entering the season, he needs eight touchdown passes in 2023 to surpass Dan Pastorini's total (96) for fourth place all-time for the franchise. With 11 touchdown passes, he will become the fourth passer in team annals to reach 100 with the team, joining Warren Moon (196), George Blanda (165) and Steve McNair (156).

Video: Ran Carthon Introduced as Titans GM

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

"We are excited to add Ran to our organization as our new general manager," Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk said upon announcing the hire. "He brings a variety of valuable experiences to our team – as a former player and a successful personnel executive for multiple teams. I was impressed with his natural leadership qualities and his ability to connect with people. With talent evaluation being critical to this role, the roster they have built in San Francisco stands out. He played an important role there constructing one of our league's best teams."

Carthon arrived bringing a range of experience from multiple teams to Tennessee. While in San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)–evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

In his first offseason with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster adding wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, tackle Andre Dillard, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting, tight end Trevon Wesco and linebacker Luke Gifford in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski and quarterback Will Levis were selected in the first two rounds.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators 2000 SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his dad, Maurice, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. His father played for the New York Giants and Indianapolis Colts, and he coached for New England, New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business. And in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Florida.

Mike Vrabel Named AP 2021 NFL Coach of the Year

Video: Igniting the Fire - Who is Mike Vrabel?

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

Vrabel, who enters 2023 as the NFL's ninth-longest tenured head coach with his current team, is the organization's fourth head coach to serve for at least five complete seasons, joining Wally Lemm (1966–1970), Bum Phillips (1975–1980) and Jeff Fisher (1994–2010). Measured against each member of the group in years one through five of their respective terms, Vrabel's 50 wins from 2018 to 2022 set a new benchmark, and his .575 winning percentage (50-37) ranked second behind only Phillips, who was 48-32 (.600) in his initial five years with the Oilers.

Vrabel finished the 2022 campaign ranked third in Titans/Oilers history in total career wins among head coaches. His 50 wins trailed only franchise Ring of Honor members Fisher (147) and Phillips (59).

With three playoff appearances in his first five years (2019, 2020 and 2021), Vrabel is the sixth head coach in Oilers/Titans history to coach at least three playoff teams. The others are Fisher (six), Jack Pardee (four), Phillips (three), Jerry Glanville (three) and Lemm (three). The Titans won back-to-back AFC South titles in 2020 and 2021, marking the first time the organization accomplished the feat since the Oilers won the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962.

In each of Vrabel's first five seasons, the Titans had a minimum of a win-and-in scenario to reach the postseason entering the final week of the regular season. The two non-playoff seasons under his leadership came down to such circumstances in 2018 and 2022.

Situationally, Vrabel's teams have fared among the NFL leaders in several categories. From 2018 to 2022, the Titans had a .640 winning percentage in three-point games (16-9), which ranked second in the league behind only the Green Bay Packers (.658). In the same period, their .855 winning percentage (47-8) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead tied for sixth in the NFL. Vrabel's team was 5-2 in overtime games from 2018 through 2022, tying the Kansas City Chiefs (5-0) for the second-most overtime wins behind the Las Vegas Raiders (7-3). On the road, the Titans were 28-18 (.561), tying for the league's sixth-best road record.

From 2018 to 2022, the Titans had the NFL's second-best rushing offense, averaging 139.9 yards per game on the ground. Only the Baltimore Ravens were better (170.8). The offense ranked first in the NFL in the red zone, scoring touchdowns on 66.8 percent of drives inside the opponent's 20-yard line (173 of 259), and the Titans also had the NFL's ninth-best team passer rating at 95.8.

On the other side of the ball, the Titans ranked fourth in rushing defense from 2018 to 2022, allowing 100.2 rushing yards per contest. Also Also in that five-year stretch, the Titans were seventh in scoring defense (21.8 opponent points per game).

During the 2022 season, the Titans led the NFL in total number players used for the second consecutive season. A total of 86 players took the field for at least one game, partly as a result of 31 players being placed on injured reserve from the time the roster was cut to 53 players through the end of the campaign. The Titans relied heavily upon their youth, as rookies combined for 145 games played (tied for third in the NFL) and 56 starts (sixth).

The 2022 Titans led the NFL in rushing defense for the first time as a team since 2003. They allowed only 1,307 total rushing yards for a league-best average of 76.9 yards per contest—the second-best finish in franchise history (73.4 in 1960). The Titans also ranked third in third-down defense in 2022, allowing a conversion rate of 34.2 percent (77 of 225).

Vrabel Honored as NFL's Top Coach in 2021

Vrabel was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2021 after directing the Titans to a 12-5 record during the regular season. The Titans won the AFC South, and they claimed the top seed in the AFC playoff field for the first time since 2008. They did so despite needing to use 91 total players during the season—the most in NFL history in a non-strike year. After the final preseason roster cuts through the end of the season, the team placed 26 different players on injured reserve and 21 different players on the reserve/COVID-19 list, plus additional practice squad players that received those designations.

The 2021 Titans ranked second in rushing defense (84.6 yards allowed per game), 12th in total defense (329.8), sixth on third down (36.7 percent), sixth in scoring defense (20.8 points per game) and ninth in sacks (43). Offensively, the Titans finished fifth in rushing (141.4 yards per game) despite missing Derrick Henry for nine games due to injury. The offense also ranked eighth on third down (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent).

In 2021, Vrabel joined Pardee and Glanville as the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons as head coach, and he tied Pardee (43-26) for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization.

Titans Take the AFC South in Year 3 Under Vrabel

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012–2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival, major concerts and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

RUSHING DEFENSE SINCE 2021

Since the beginning of the 2021 season, the Titans have had one of the NFL's stingiest defenses against the run.

In 2022, the Titans led the NFL in rushing defense for the first time since 2003. They allowed only 1,307 total rushing yards in 17 games for a league-best average of 76.9 yards per contest.

In 2021, the Titans placed second in the NFL in rushing defense. Their opponents rushed for an average of 84.6 yards per contest. Only the Baltimore Ravens (84.5) defense allowed fewer yards on the ground.

From 2021 through 2022, the Titans allowed a total of two individual 100-yard rushers—one each season. In 2021, they did not allow a 100-yard individual rushing performance after Jacksonville's James Robinson had 149 rushing yards in Week 5 (Oct. 10). In 2022, the New York Giants' Saquon Barkley opened the campaign with 164 rushing yards against the Titans, marking the first and only 100-yard game of the season by a Titans opponent.

Over the past two seasons, the Titans fielded two of the top rushing defenses in team history. Only the 1960 inaugural Oilers squad allowed fewer rushing yards per game (73.4).

The 2021 Titans defense allowed 84.6 rushing yards per game, which now stands as the fifth-best number in Titans/Oilers history.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 12th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2023.

During his first four seasons in Tennessee, Tannehill built a 36-19 record as a starting quarterback and led the team to the postseason three times (2019 to 2021), becoming the franchise's first starting quarterback since Warren Moon (1987 to 1993) to direct his team to the playoffs in at least three consecutive seasons. After appearing in the AFC championship game as a wild card team in 2019, the Titans won consecutive division titles in 2020 and 2021, a first for the franchise since the Oilers took the first three AFL Eastern Division titles from 1960 to 1962.

Tannehill's 36 wins as a starting quarterback at the end of the 2022 season ranked fifth in franchise history and were more than any other player in team annals in his first four years with the club. His win total trailed only that of Steve McNair (76), Moon (70), Dan Pastorini (53) and George Blanda (44).

At the conclusion of 2022, Tannehill ranked among the franchise career leaders in several categories: first in passer rating (100.5), first in completion percentage (66.9), sixth in passing yards (12,831), fifth in passing touchdowns (89), sixth in passing attempts (1,623) and sixth in completions (1,085).

Since the week of Tannehill's first start in a Titans uniform (Oct. 20, 2019) through the conclusion of 2022, Tannehill's 100.7 passer rating ranked fourth in the NFL behind only Aaron Rodgers (106.0), Patrick Mahomes (103.3) and Jimmy Garoppolo (100.8).

Tannehill started every game from Week 7 of the 2019 campaign through the sixth game of 2022. His 49 consecutive starts in the regular season broke McNair's record (2001-03) for the most in franchise history by a starting quarterback.

In 2021, he placed third on the franchise's single-season passing charts in attempts (531), completions (357) and completion percentage (67.2), and he ranked fourth with 3,734 passing yards. He became the only quarterback other than Moon (1989–1991) to record multiple seasons with at least 3,500 passing yards with the franchise. Additionally, he rushed for 270 yards, and his seven rushing touchdowns ranked second among NFL signal callers behind Jalen Hurts' 10. Tannehill was the first quarterback in franchise annals with at least seven rushing touchdowns in back-to-back seasons.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth). Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Drew Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Rodgers (2011-12).

Also in 2020, Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2023 Game Notes:

➤ At New Orleans (9/10), completed 16 of 34 passes for 198 yards with three interceptions and added three rushing attempts for five yards. In the second quarter, he completed a screen pass to Derrick Henry for a 46-yard gain.

➤ Against the Los Angeles Chargers (9/17), completed 20 of 24 passes for 246 yards and one touchdown. He set a new career high and ranked fourth in franchise history in single-game completion percentage (minimum 20 attempts) with a rate of 83.3 percent. In leading an overtime win, he was credited with his 27th career game-winning drive (14th with the Titans), including the regular season and postseason. His 123.3 passer rating against the Chargers gave him 23 career games with a passer rating of 120.0 or better (minimum 20 attempts). He registered the 16th game of his career in which he completed at least one touchdown pass and rushed for at least one touchdown. In the second quarter, he completed a 70-yard pass to Treylon Burks for the ninth-longest pass of his career and the team's longest completion since Tannehill and Corey Davis connected for a 75-yard touchdown against Detroit on Dec. 20, 2020. In the third quarter, he rushed for a 12-yard touchdown, his first of the season and the 27th rushing touchdown of his career. He completed a 49-yard pass to Chris Moore in the fourth quarter to help set up his four-yard touchdown pass to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. During the contest, he surpassed Marcus Mariota (1,110 completions) for fourth place on the franchise's all-time completions list and also eclipsed Mariota (13,207 passing yards) for fifth place on the franchise's all-time passing yards list.

Running back Derrick Henry is in his eighth NFL season in 2023. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

From the time he entered the NFL in 2016 through 2022, Henry rushed for 8,335 yards and 78 yards on 1,750 attempts. No NFL player rushed for more yards or touchdowns than he did during that timespan.

Henry's 78 career rushing touchdowns and 81 total touchdowns (three receiving) at the conclusion of the 2022 campaign were the most in franchise history. He also finished the season third in career rushing yards behind only Eddie George (10,009) and Earl Campbell (8,574).

Henry tallied 34 100-yard rushing games from 2016 to 2022 (regular season), which ranks fourth in team annals behind Campbell (39), George (36) and Chris Johnson (35). Additionally, Henry has authored three career postseason performances with 100-plus rushing yards. Henry's six career 200-yard rushing games are tied with O.J. Simpson and Adrian Peterson for the most in NFL history, and his six career games with at least 200 rushing yards and at least two rushing touchdowns are the most.

Henry was named to his third Pro Bowl in 2022 after finishing the season with 1,538 yards and 13 touchdowns on 349 rushing attempts (4.4 avg.). He finished second in the NFL in rushing yards behind Las Vegas Raiders tailback Josh Jacobs (1,653). His yardage total was the third-best of his career and ranked sixth in franchise history. With a career-high 398 receiving yards, his 1,936 scrimmage yards ranked fifth in franchise history and was the second-best number of his career (2,141 in 2020). His nine 100-yard rushing games ranked fifth in franchise history.

In 2021, Henry's season was affected by a foot injury that caused him to be placed on injured reserve for the final nine games of the regular season. Prior to the injury, he was leading the NFL with 937 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns, numbers that still ranked ninth and tied for sixth, respectively, at the conclusion of the regular season. He returned to start in the team's divisional playoff contest and rushed for 62 yards and one score.

Henry was honored in 2021 with his first career nomination for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award.

In 2020, Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was recognized with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national primetime television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run—one of his four touchdowns in the contest. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

#10 • WR DeANDRE HOPKINS

6-1, 212, 11th Year/1st with Titans, Clemson
Click for complete bio
Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins is in his 11th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2023. He was signed by the team prior to training camp.

Hopkins entered the league as the 27th overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft out of Clemson and spent his first seven seasons with the Houston Texans before being traded to the Arizona Cardinals in 2020.

In his first 10 seasons, Hopkins established himself as one of the premier receivers in NFL history. During that 10-year period, he ranked first in receptions (853), first in first-down receptions (594), second in receiving yards (11,298), fourth in receiving touchdowns (71), and first in receptions of 25-plus yards (102).

From 2013 through 2022, Hopkins surpassed 100 receptions four times, had six seasons reaching 1,000 receiving yards, recorded three seasons with at least 10 touchdowns, and posted 100 or more receiving yards in a game 40 times.

He has been named to five Pro Bowls (2015, 2017-20) and received AP All-Pro honors four times—first-team All-Pro from 2017 to 2019 and second-team All-Pro in 2020.

Through 2022, he had at least one reception in all 145 career games he played during the regular season. That represents the longest active streak in the NFL at the conclusion of 2022 and the fourth-longest streak in the Super Bowl era to begin a career. Hopkins was the only NFL player to have 100-plus receptions every season between 2018-20.

During the 2022 campaign with the Cardinals, Hopkins finished with a team-high 64 receptions for 717 yards (second on the team) and three touchdowns despite being limited to nine contests. His average of 7.1 receptions per game ranked fourth in the NFL among all players. His three games with 10-plus receptions matched the second most in franchise annals behind Larry Fitzgerald's four such performances in 2017.

At the conclusion of his tenure with the Texans (2013-19), Hopkins owned several franchise records, including franchise marks for career receiving average (13.6), receptions in a season (115 in 2018; tied Andre Johnson, 2008), receiving touchdowns in a season (13 in 2017) and receiving first downs in a season (83 in 2015). When he left Houston, he ranked second on the franchise's all-time career charts in receptions (632), receiving yards (8,602) and touchdown catches (54), trailing only Andre Johnson in each category.

The Central, S.C., native appeared in 39 games with 32 starts over three seasons (2010-12) at Clemson and totaled 206 receptions for 3,020 yards and 27 touchdowns. He left Clemson ranked first in school history in receiving yards, first in receiving touchdowns, first in 100-yard receiving games (12) and second in receptions. As a junior (2012), he led the team with 82 receptions for 1,405 yards and 18 touchdowns.

2023 Game Notes:
➢ At New Orleans (9/10), made his Titans debut and led the team with seven receptions for 65 yards, including a 16-yard catch to convert a third-and-10 in the fourth quarter. He was the first Titans player with seven receptions in a contest since Treylon Burks (seven) at Green Bay on Nov. 17, 2022.
➢ Against the Los Angeles Chargers (9/17), tied for the team lead with four receptions and ranked third on the squad with 40 receiving yards. In the fourth quarter, he helped set up a go-ahead touchdown with a 14-yard catch to convert a third down. In overtime, he helped set up the game-winning field goal with another 14-yard grab. Hopkins extended his active streak to 147 consecutive games with a reception—every game he has played since he entered the NFL. It is the longest active streak in the NFL.

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his fifth NFL season in 2023. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first four seasons, Simmons appeared in 56 games with 54 starts and earned two Pro Bowl berths. The two-time team captain (2021-22) accumulated 196 tackles, 21 sacks, 19 passes defensed, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. He was second on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (26.5).

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defensed, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defensed.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defensed (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defensed in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defensed in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defensed and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022, ending his fifth NFL season before Week 1.

From the start of his rookie campaign through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defensed. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

Safety Kevin Byard is in his eighth NFL season in 2023. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (64th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Byard is one of the team's most accomplished defenders and is among the NFL's most successful safeties since he entered the league. He is a four-time team captain, two-time Pro Bowl selection and a two-time Associated Press first-team All-Pro. During his seven-year career, he has been a part of six winning seasons and four playoff berths.

With 27 career interceptions at the end of the 2022 season, Byard tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history and the most for the franchise in its "Titans era," which began in 1999. Only former Oilers Jim Norton (45), Cris Dishman (31) and Fred Glick (30) have totaled more interceptions than Byard, who tied Tony Banfield, W.K. Hicks and Darryll Lewis with 27.

Over a six-year period from 2017 through 2022, Byard's 27 interceptions led all NFL safeties. The only player with more interceptions in that time was Miami Dolphins cornerback Xavien Howard, who had 28.

Byard did not miss a game from 2016 through 2022, totaling 114 games in the regular season and seven postseason games. At the conclusion of 2022, his 105 consecutive starts in the regular season was the leading current streak among all Titans players and trailed only New England's Devin McCourty (115) among all NFL defenders.

In 2022, Byard led the Titans with four interceptions and 106 tackles. It was his fifth total season (2017-19, 2021-22) and second consecutive season in which he led the squad in interceptions, and it was his third straight campaign (2020-22) leading the defense in tackles. Prior to 2021, no previous Titans/Oilers player had led the team in both interceptions and tackles in a single season, and Byard accomplished the feat in consecutive seasons from 2021 to 2022.

In 2021, Byard was announced as a starter to his second career Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the second time in his career. He joined Bruce Matthews (1999–2000) and Albert Haynesworth (2007–2008) as the franchise's only players in its Titans era to earn multiple first-team AP All-Pro honors.

Byard led the Titans in 2021 with five interceptions and 88 tackles, becoming the franchise's first player to lead the team in tackles and interceptions in the same season since the team began tracking individual tackle statistics in 1974. It was his second consecutive season to lead the club in tackles and the fourth time in his career he was the interceptions leader. Additionally, his 13 passes defensed ranked second on the team and made up the highest total among NFL safeties. He also was credited with one sack, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and his first two career touchdowns—one on a fumble return and one on an interception return. He was the first Titans player with two defensive touchdowns in the same season since linebacker Zach Brown in 2012.

In 2020, Byard was a defensive team captain for the second consecutive season and the team's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee. His 111 tackles led the team and established a career high. Additionally, he registered one interception, seven passes defensed, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. In one playoff game he produced five tackles, one pass defensed and a quarterback pressure.

Byard's 2019 totals included a team-leading five interceptions, 10 passes defensed, 91 tackles, one quarterback pressure and two tackles for loss. In three postseason games, he added 20 tackles and one interception.

In 2018, Byard finished with a team-leading four interceptions, 10 passes defensed, 96 tackles and two sacks. He also completed a touchdown pass on a memorable fake punt to help defeat the Houston Texans (Sept. 16).

Byard experienced a breakthrough second-year season in 2017. He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.

As a rookie in 2016, Byard played in every game, starting the final seven contests at free safety. His 63 tackles were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Tank Williams' 69 tackles in 2002. He also ranked second on the squad with 10 special teams tackles.

During a four-year career at Middle Tennessee State University, he appeared in 49 games and notched 46 starts at safety while becoming one of the most prolific defenders in school history. He set school records with 19 career interceptions, 377 interception return yards and four interception returns for touchdowns, and he finished sixth in MTSU history with 312 career tackles. In total, he had a hand in 25 turnovers (19 interceptions, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery) during his career and added 17 career passes defensed and five tackles for loss. He was twice named first-team All-Conference USA.

As a senior in 2015, Byard appeared in 12 games with nine starts as a permanent team captain and was named first-team All-Conference USA for the second consecutive year. He ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles and led the squad with four interceptions and six additional pass breakups.

The Lithonia, Ga., native set a career high in college with six interceptions as a junior and forced to fumbles the same season.

2023 Game Notes:
➢ At New Orleans (9/10), tied for the team lead with eight total tackles.

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 14th NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2023. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2022, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the second consecutive season and was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.
