TITANS HOST STEELERS IN CLASH OF 5-0 TEAMS

Tennessee Titans (5-0) vs. Pittsburgh Steelers (5-0)

Sunday, Oct. 25, 2020 • Noon CDT • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans host the Pittsburgh Steelers this week in a battle of 5-0 teams. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium is scheduled for noon CDT on Sunday, Oct. 25.

The Titans are undefeated through five games for the second time in franchise history and for the first time since they went 10-0 to begin the 2008 campaign. Pittsburgh is perfect through five games for the first time since 1978. The NFL's only other undefeated team is the 5-0 Seattle Seahawks.

The two teams were originally slated to meet on Oct. 4, but the game was postponed due to the Titans' COVID-19 outbreak. The rescheduling by the NFL required both clubs to take their bye immediately in Week 4, the Steelers' matchup with the Baltimore Ravens to be moved from this week to next week, and the Ravens' bye to be moved up to this week.

The Titans' game against the Steelers marks their third consecutive game hosting fans at Nissan Stadium. Ticket sales to season ticket members were limited to 15 percent of the venue's normal capacity. The number of fans allowed this season has the potential to increase to 21 percent of the venue's normal capacity under current Center for Disease Control guidelines. Detailed information on the team's Safe Stadium Plan can be found at tennesseetitans.com/safestadium.

This week's contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Ian Eagle, analyst Charles Davis and reporter Evan Washburn.

Additionally, Sports USA will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Larry Kahn and analyst Mark Carrier will have the call.

TITANS REMAIN UNBEATEN AFTER OVERTIME THRILLER

Last week the Titans hosted the AFC South rival Houston Texans and produced a dramatic 42-36 overtime win.

Ryan Tannehill's seven-yard touchdown pass to A.J. Brown and the subsequent extra point by Stephen Gostkowski tied the score at 36-36 with four seconds on the clock in regulation. Then, on the first possession of overtime, Derrick Henry produced a 53-yard reception to help set up his game-winning five-yard touchdown run four plays later.

Tennessee became the fourth team in NFL history, including playoffs, to have a 300-yard passer (364 by Tannehill), a 200-yard rusher (212 by Henry) and a 100-yard receiver (113 by tight end Anthony Firkser). Tannehill and Henry became the first NFL duo to combine for a 350-yard passing performance and a 200-yard rushing total.

The Titans totaled 601 net yards to set a new franchise record. It is the highest single-game yardage total in the NFL through six weeks in 2020.

Henry's first touchdown of the contest came on a 94-yard run, matching Chris Johnson for the second-longest run in franchise history. Henry, who previously in his career recorded a 99-yard touchdown run, became the NFL's second player with multiple career touchdown runs of 94-plus yards, joining Lamar Miller.

THE STEELERS

The Steelers hosted the AFC North rival Cleveland Browns last week and cruised to a 38-7 victory. The win kept them at the top of the division standings in front of the Ravens (5-1), Browns (4-2) and Cincinnati Bengals (1-4-1).

Mike Tomlin is in his 14th season in Pittsburgh. He has led his club to six AFC North titles, most recently in 2017, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs eight times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV).

Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, a seven-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time Super Bowl winner, is in his 17th NFL season. In addition to holding virtually every major passing record in Steelers history, he has the eighth-most passing touchdowns in NFL history (374) and the seventh-most passing yards in NFL history (57,723). He was limited to two appearances in 2019 before landing on injured reserve for the remainder of the season.

SERIES HISTORY

There have been 78 combined regular season and postseason meetings between the Titans/Oilers and Steelers in a rivalry that dates back to 1970. The Steelers lead the series 46-32. There is no other team the Titans/Oilers have met in their history as often as the Steelers, with the Cincinnati Bengals being next most common opponent at 75 games.

In 1970, upon the merger of the American Football League and the National Football League, the Steelers and then-Oilers began play in the newly-formed AFC Central Division. For the next 32 years (1970-2001), they competed at least twice per season with the exception of 1982 (strike-shortened season) before the Titans moved to the AFC South and the Steelers to the AFC North in 2002.

The first meeting in 1970, a 19-7 Oilers win, was the first regular season game in Three Rivers Stadium, the Steelers' home until moving to Heinz Field in 2001.

The Steelers have won the two most recent matchups, including a Thursday primetime meeting at Heinz Field in Week 11 of the 2017 regular season. The Steelers defense produced four interceptions and five sacks, helping the hosts pull away in the fourth quarter for a 40-17 win.

The Steelers' most recent visit to Nissan Stadium was on Monday night, Nov. 17, 2014. Despite 263 passing yards from rookie quarterback Zach Mettenberger, the Titans were unable to overcome the Steelers, led by Le'Veon Bell's 204 rushing yards, and fell by a score of 27-24.

The last time the Titans beat the Steelers was in the 2013 season opener at Heinz Field. The Titans used five sacks from their defense and a ball-control offense to win 16-9, despite giving up an unusual safety on the opening kickoff.

There have been four postseason games played between the franchises, most recently a 34-31 overtime thriller in favor of the Titans in the 2002 Divisional Round. The first two playoff meetings were back-to-back AFC Championship Games following the 1978 and 1979 seasons, with Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" prevailing both times against the "Luv Ya Blue!" Oilers. The Oilers also lost a 1989 Wild Card Game in overtime against the Steelers.

TITANS-STEELERS: THE LAST MEETING

Titans 17, Steelers 40

2017 Week 11 • Thursday, Nov. 16, 2017 • 8:25 p.m. ET • Heinz Field

GAME RECAP

In Week 11 of the 2017 season, the Titans traveled to Pittsburgh to face the Steelers in a primetime Thursday Night Football showdown and lost by a score of 40-17.

The Pittsburgh offense took a quick 7-0 lead as Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger led his team on a 75-yard scoring drive capped off by a 41-yard touchdown pass to Steelers WR Antonio Brown. Tennessee took the field for its first offensive possession, but on the third play of the drive QB Marcus Mariota threw a 26-yard interception to Steelers CB Mike Hilton. Pittsburgh capitalized on the Titans turnover and tacked on a 41-yard field goal to increase their lead, 10-0. The Tennessee offense took the field again, and with the help of third down conversion receptions by WRs Rishard Matthews and Corey Davis, Mariota was able to find the endzone as he rushed in a seven-yard touchdown to cut Pittsburgh's lead to 10-7.

In the second quarter, Tennessee drove down the field into Pittsburgh territory but was forced to settle for a field goal attempt. However, K Ryan Succop's kick was blocked by Steelers LB T.J. Watt. As Mariota threw his second interception, Pittsburgh was able to tack on two more field goals in the second quarter on back-to-back possessions to end the first half up, 16-7.

On the first play of the third quarter, Mariota hit Matthews for a 75-yard touchdown to cut Pittsburgh's lead to 16-14. The Steelers responded as Roethlisberger connected with Brown for the second time on a five-yard touchdown pass to get ahead, 23-14. On the Titans' following possession, TE Delanie Walker helped get Tennessee in Pittsburgh territory with a 42-yard reception on second-and five. Succop converted a 44-yard field goal as the Titans inched closer to Pittsburgh, 23-17.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger capped a 12-play, 75-yard scoring drive with a one-yard touchdown pass to Steelers TE Jesse James. After a Titans punt, the Pittsburgh offense took the field again and Roethlisberger quickly connected with Brown for the third time in the contest, for a 10-yard touchdown reception as the Steelers increased the lead to 37-17. On the following Tennessee possession, Mariota threw his third interception of the day as Steelers S Robert Golden picked the ball. The opportunistic Steelers capitalized on another Titans mistake and added another field goal to go up, 40-17. Tennessee was unable to engineer a comeback and fell to the Steelers in Pittsburgh by a final score of 40-17.

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Through his first 13 seasons, Tomlin set a number of team and league records. He reached 100 career wins in the fewest games (157) in team history, became the eighth head coach in NFL history to reach 100 regular-season wins in their first 10 seasons, and reached 125 career wins in the fewest games (192) in team history, tying him with Bud Grant for the fifth-fewest games by an NFL head coach to secure 125 regular season wins. Tomlin is the third head coach in NFL history with 133 or more regular-season wins in their first 13 seasons as a head coach, joining Tony Dungy (139) and Don Shula (138).

Tomlin also became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

In the last 13 years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to six AFC North titles and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs eight times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV).

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Prior to becoming the Steelers head coach, Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-2000). Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches.

LAST WEEK VS. THE TEXANS

Week 6: Titans 42, Texans 36

Sunday, Oct. 18, 2020 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 6 of the 2020 season, the Titans hosted the division opponent Houston Texans and won in overtime by a score of 42-36. Tennessee set a franchise record with 601 net yards of offense, and posted just the fourth all-time NFL performance with a 200-yard rusher (RB Derrick Henry), 300-yard passer (QB Ryan Tannehill) and 100-yard receiver (TE Anthony Firkser) while advancing to 5-0 on the season.

The Titans took an early 14-0 lead in the first quarter. First, Tannehill guided the team on an 80-yard scoring drive that saw an 18-yard gain on the ground by Henry and first down receptions by WR A.J. Brown, WR Cameron Batson and Firkser. Tannehill threw a seven-yard touchdown to Firkser to put the Titans up, 7-0. On the following Tennessee possession, Henry contributed a 34-yard rush before Tannehill connected with Brown for a six-yard touchdown. The Titans moved ahead, 14-0.

In the second quarter, Houston responded with a touchdown of their own. Facing a third-and-one at the Tennessee one-yard line, Texans RB David Johnson ran up the middle but was denied for no gain by LB Rashaan Evans and DT Jeffery Simmons. However, Houston was successful on the fourth-down attempt, as Texans QB Deshawn Watson threw a one-yard touchdown to Texans TE Darren Fells. Houston cut Tennessee's lead in half, 14-7.

On the ensuing Tennessee possession, the Titans constructed an 11-play scoring drive. WR Kalif Raymond caught a 20-yard ball to move the chains before WR Adam Humphries extended the lead to 21-7 with a 22-yard touchdown catch. As Houston got the ball back, the Texans were able to tack on a 38-yard field goal to make it a 21-10 game heading into halftime.

In the third quarter, Houston scored 13 points to take a 23-21 lead. First, Fells contributed catches of 11 and 35 yards to move the chains before David Johnson ran into the end zone for a one-yard score. On the ensuing drive, Tannehill was strip-sacked by Texans DE J.J. Watt and the ball was recovered by Texans OLB Jacob Martin at the Tennessee four-yard line. Houston capitalized on the turnover as Watson connected with Texans WR Randall Cobb for a four-yard touchdown. The extra point was no good as Houston took the lead, 23-21.

In the fourth quarter with the Titans trailing by two, the Tennessee offense took over at their own six-yard line. On the first play of the drive, Henry promptly took the handoff and raced 94 yards for a go-ahead touchdown. Tannehill connected with WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a successful two-point conversion to make it a 29-23 game.

Houston immediately responded and took the lead back on a two-play scoring drive. Watson threw a 22-yard pass to Texans TE Pharaoh Brown before nailing Texans WR Will Fuller V for a 53-yard score and a 30-29 lead. As the Tennessee offense took the field needing to score, Tannehill was intercepted on a deep pass by Texans CB Bradley Roby. Houston took possession at their own 31-yard line and engineered a 15-play scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard touchdown pass from Watson to Texans WR Brandin Cooks. Houston elected to attempt a two-point conversion, but Watson's pass was incomplete after Simmons batted the ball, and the score remained 36-29.

Down seven points with under two minutes remaining in regulation, Tannehill took command of the offense and completed eight consecutive passes, including a game-tying seven-yard touchdown to Brown with four seconds left in regulation. After the successful extra point, the game was tied at 36-36 and heading for overtime.

After winning the coin toss, Tennessee had possession of the ball first. Henry took a short pass 53 yards to flip field position, and then at the Houston 27-yard line, RB Jeremy McNichols added a 17-yard rush. Ultimately, in Wildcat formation, Henry took the direct snap and ran into the end zone for a walk-off five-yard touchdown. Tennessee beat Houston by a score of 42-36 and advanced to a 5-0 record on the season.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

TEAM NOTES

- The Titans' 42-36 win against the Texans was their 100th all-time win at Nissan Stadium, including the regular season and playoffs. The venue opened in 1999.
- The Titans have 23 wins in their 31 most recent home games.
- The win gave the Titans a 5-0 start for the second time in franchise history and for the first time since 2008.
- The win improved the Titans' 2020 record to 2-0 within the AFC South.
- The win sets up a showdown with the 5-0 Pittsburgh Steelers next Sunday at Nissan Stadium (noon, Oct. 25). It is the first time the stadium has hosted a game featuring two undefeated teams at 5-0 or better.
- The Titans played their first overtime game since Sept. 30, 2018, when they defeated the Philadelphia Eagles at Nissan Stadium. The Titans improved their record to 11-8 (.579) in overtime games in the "Titans era" (since 1999).
- The announced paid attendance was 10,166 for the team's second consecutive game with fans at Nissan Stadium. Ticket sales were limited to 15 percent of the stadium's capacity.

TEAM NOTES – OFFENSE

- The Titans totaled a franchise-record 601 net yards of offense against the Texans, eclipsing the previous record high of 583 total net yards in an overtime game against the Dallas Cowboys on Nov. 10, 1991. The Titans' 601 yards were the most by any NFL team since the Baltimore Ravens netted 643 yards on offense at Miami on Sept. 8, 2019.
- The Titans scored 42 points for the second consecutive week, marking the third time in franchise history and the first time since 1961 that the franchise scored at least 42 points in consecutive games. The Titans five games with at least 42 points since the beginning of the 2019 campaign is the highest total in the NFL.
- The Titans hit the 30-point mark for the fourth consecutive game to match a 2019 accomplishment. Prior to then, the last time the Titans had four straight 30-point outings was 2003 (six games).
- The Titans became the first team in NFL history to have a passer reach 350 yards (364 by Ryan Tannehill) and a rusher reach 200 yards (212 by Derrick Henry) in a game.
- The Titans tallied the fourth all-time NFL performance, including playoffs, with a 200-yard rusher, 300-yard passer and 100-yard receiver. They did so behind running back Derrick Henry (212 rushing), quarterback Ryan Tannehill (364 passing) and tight end Anthony Firkser (113 receiving). The previous teams to do so were the following: Washington vs. Denver in Super Bowl XXII, Jan. 31, 1988 (340 passing by Doug Williams, 193 receiving by Ricky Sanders, 204 rushing by Timmy Smith); Kansas City vs. Cincinnati on Jan. 1, 2006 (344 passing by Trent Green, 201 rushing by Larry Johnson, 151 receiving by Eddie Kennison); and Cleveland vs. Cincinnati on Sept. 16, 2007 (328 passing by Derek Anderson, 216 rushing by Jamal Lewis, 146 receiving by Braylon Edwards, 100 receiving by Kellen Winslow).

- The Titans extended their streak to 15 consecutive quarters with at least one score before being shut out in the third quarter against the Texans.
- The Titans' 31 total first downs against Houston tied for the team's second-highest total in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999-present) and the most since the Titans had 32 first downs against the Arizona Cardinals on Dec. 15, 2013.
- The Titans' 263 rushing yards ranked as the 12th-best total in team history and the most since its 264-yard rushing output against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018.
- The Titans extended their streak to 10 consecutive red zone possessions that resulted in a touchdown before the streak came to an end on a blocked field goal to end a red zone drive in the third quarter. Nevertheless, the Titans scored four touchdowns on six total opportunities inside the 20, bringing their season totals to 18 touchdowns in 23 trips (78.3 percent).
- The Titans totaled 234 net yards in the first half, the most by the team in the first half of a game since a 352-yard effort at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Totaled five receptions for 56 yards and two touchdowns.
- Scored on a six-yard grab in the first quarter and a seven-yard reception late in the fourth quarter. His two touchdown receptions tied his career high, matching a feat he most recently accomplished at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019.
- Registered his second consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception.
- Registered the 10th and 11th touchdown receptions of his career. In doing so, he became the franchise's first player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to reach 10 career touchdown receptions in less than 20 career games. Brown, a second-round pick in 2019, was participating in the 19th game. Former wide receiver Chris Sanders held the previous franchise mark since 1970 with nine touchdown receptions in his first 20 games.
- With four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, his seven-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Ryan Tannehill gave the Titans a chance to tie the score at 36-36 with the extra point and eventually win the game in overtime.
- Through the late afternoon games of Oct. 18, his 11 career touchdown receptions tied for the second-most among the 2019 draft class. He is tied with the New York Giants' Darius Slayton and trailing only Seattle's DK Metcalf (12).

LB JAYON BROWN

- Credited with a team-high 10 tackles, including a tackle for loss.

TE ANTHONY FIRKSER

- Led the team and registered career highs with eight receptions and 113 receiving yards. His previous career highs were four receptions (twice, last vs. Jacksonville on Sept. 20, 2020) and 52 receiving yards (at Houston on Nov. 26, 2018).
- Recorded his first touchdown reception of the season and the third touchdown catch of his career on a seven-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter.

- Posted a career-long 45-yard catch in the third quarter, topping his previous long of 39 yards (Dec. 8, 2019 at Oakland).
- Totaled two catches for 30 yards during the game-tying drive late in the fourth quarter.
- His 113 receiving yards ranked 13th in franchise history among tight ends and were the most by a Titans tight end since Delanie Walker's 124 yards against the Green Bay Packers on Nov. 13, 2016.
- Reached 50 career receptions on his final catch of the game.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Totaled 22 carries for 212 yards and two touchdowns, recording his third career 200-yard rushing game. It was his second-highest rushing total for a single game, trailing only his franchise-record 238 yards against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018.
- His 212 rushing yards rank fifth in franchise history, and he now owns three of the top six single-game rushing performances in team annals.
- Scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime on a five-yard run out of the Wildcat formation. It was the second "walk-off" overtime touchdown run in franchise history and the first since Vince Young's 39-yard run to win in overtime at Houston on Dec. 10, 2006.
- Added 52 receiving yards, including a 53-yard reception—the third-longest catch of his career—in overtime, to give him 264 scrimmage yards. The total ranks fourth in franchise history, and it is the most scrimmage yards by a Titans player in a game since Chris Johnson's 284 on Sept. 20, 2009. Henry's total of 264 scrimmage yards is the most by any NFL player since the New York Giants' Saquon Barkley had 279 at Washington on Dec. 22, 2019.
- Scored on a 94-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, tying for the second-longest run in franchise history. He already owned the franchise record—and a share of the NFL record—with a 99-yard touchdown run (Dec. 6, 2018 vs. Jacksonville). His 94-yarder tied Chris Johnson's career-long touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012 for second place on the franchise list.
- Henry is the fifth NFL player to record two career rushing touchdowns of 90 or more yards. He joins Bo Jackson, Ahman Green, Chris Johnson and Lamar Miller. No player has three such runs. Henry and Miller (two 97-yard touchdown runs) are the only players to ever record multiple touchdown runs of at least 94 yards.
- Tied for the third-most 70-yard (or longer) career rushing touchdowns in NFL history. With five such runs, he tied Barry Sanders (five) and

O.J. Simpson (five) and trails only Chris Johnson (seven) and Adrian Peterson (seven).

- Became the first player in NFL history to record a game with 200-plus rushing yards in three consecutive seasons. He previously accomplished the feat against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018 (238) and at Houston on Dec. 29, 2019 (211).
- Became the NFL's 15th player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to record at least three career 200-yard rushing games and the first to reach the mark since Jay Ajayi had his third 200-yard rushing game in 2016.
- Joined Chris Johnson (Sept. 20, 2009 vs. Houston) as the only NFL players since 1975 with a rushing attempt of at least 90 yards and a reception of at least 50 yards in a game.
- Recorded a then-season-long carry of 34 yards in the first quarter before topping that with his 94-yarder in the fourth quarter.
- Notched his 16th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season and playoffs, and his third of 2020.
- Recorded his third consecutive game with at least two rushing touchdowns. He joined Earl Campbell (1980) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the franchise's only players to do so.
- Became the franchise's second player to begin his career with at least five rushing touchdowns in five consecutive seasons. Eddie George did so over an eight-year stretch from 1996 to 2003.

WR ADAM HUMPHRIES

- Finished second on the club with six receptions and 64 yards. It was his third game of the season with at least five receptions.
- Recorded a 22-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter. It was his second touchdown catch of 2020 and his 13th career touchdown reception.
- Had three receptions for 24 yards during the game-tying drive late in the fourth quarter.

DL DaQUAN JONES

- Recorded his first sack of the season (eighth career sack) in the first quarter, dropping Deshaun Watson for a three-yard loss.
- Totaled two tackles for loss in the contest.

P BRETT KERN

- Recorded only one punt (54 yards) in a game for only the sixth time in his career and for the first time since Nov. 5, 2018 at Dallas.

RB JEREMY McNICHOLS

- Set a career high with 51 rushing yards on five attempts.
- Recorded a career-long 20-yard rushing attempt in the third quarter.
- Helped set up the game-winning touchdown in overtime with a 17-yard run.

WR KALIF RAYMOND

- Caught three passes for 32 yards (long of 20). He added three punt returns for 20 yards (long of 16) and three kickoff returns for 63 yards (long of 23).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Registered his second sack of the season and the fourth sack of his career in the fourth quarter, taking down Deshaun Watson for a 12-yard loss on third down.
- Batted down a pass by Deshaun Watson on a two-point conversion attempt with less than two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. The play kept the Titans' deficit to seven points (36-29), and the Titans offense subsequently drove to tie the score and force overtime.

- Credited with six total tackles, which tied his career high.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Completed 30 of 41 passes for 364 yards with four touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 122.4. His yardage total was the fifth-highest number of his career and his second-highest figure in a Titans uniform.
- Tied his career high with four touchdown passes. He previously hit the mark this season in Week 2 against the Jacksonville Jaguars after accomplishing the feat twice with the Miami Dolphins.
- His four touchdown passes against the Texans included a seven-yard pass to tight end Anthony Firkser and a six-yard strike to wide receiver A.J. Brown in the first quarter, a 22-yard touchdown to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the second quarter, and finally a seven-yard toss to Brown in the fourth quarter.
- Helped lead the Titans back from a late deficit with a seven-yard touchdown pass to A.J. Brown with four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. The extra point tied the score at 36-36. During the game-tying two-minute drive, he completed eight of nine attempts for 76 yards.
- The Titans' overtime scoring drive registered as his 20th career game-winning drive and his seventh in a Titans uniform. It was his fourth game-winning drive of 2020.
- Completed his final 10 passes of the game in the fourth quarter and overtime.
- His 13 touchdown passes in 2020 are tied for the second-highest total in franchise history through the first five games of a season. George Blanda holds the top spot for the franchise with 14 in 1962 and also had 13 in 1966.
- Registered his third career game with three touchdown passes in the first half, matching a feat he achieved in Week 2 of this season against the Jacksonville Jaguars. He previously did so with a four-touchdown first half with the Miami Dolphins against the Texans on Oct. 25, 2015.

- His 364 passing yards rank 11th for the franchise in its "Titans era" (since 1999).
- Completed passes to nine different receivers.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- Registered his first career start.
- Scored his first career points in the fourth quarter, catching a pass from Ryan Tannehill for a two-point conversion.

Give them a lot of the credit. We were in this position last year. Got up 14-nothing at halftime. They were down 11. We didn't play well enough in the third quarter. Too many mistakes on both sides of the ball to have to put us in that position. Again, give them a lot of credit. They have a talented team and they played extremely hard and well today, but I give our guys credit. I give our guys credit for fighting, being tuned into the situation. Guys stepping up when they have to. Taking advantage of the opportunities all throughout our team and we'll continue to work and continue to get better.

(on the 94-yard touchdown by running back Derrick Henry and his performance late in the game)

I mean, just obviously we all witnessed somebody taking a game over when we had it, and then we tried to throw the play-action down there and I thought he made a great catch. That's something that he's been practicing and working on with Tony (Dews). It's looking back, maybe turning his body, getting back to the quarterback, and Ryan (Tannehill) gave him a good ball. That was a huge play there in overtime.

He put us on his back and carried us. Again, the carries, what Jeremy (McNichols) was able to have, I think helped Derrick (Henry) as well.

(on the offense stepping up to any challenge it's presented with)

Yeah, I think they're just prepared for whatever situation comes up. You know, we can't ever guarantee what situations are going to happen, what front they're going to play, what coverages, so it's a continual process of just being ready for situations as they come up throughout the game, and obviously we would've loved to get some stops. I don't know, they went for fourth-and-goal on the one both times. I thought we played well, just not well enough. But there will be some things we'll have to clean up in all three phases.

(on the momentum provided by defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons sacking Texans quarterback Deshaun Watson and then running back Derrick Henry scoring a 94-yard touchdown on the ensuing possession)

Sure. I think that in this league your best players have to play, good players have to play great for us to win each and every week. So hopefully we'll continue to get him prepared. It was great to have Jeff (Simmons) back. Means a lot to him, this game means a lot to him, and then Derrick (Henry). When you just keep giving him opportunities, just cool to see him have some success. You know, I think the expectations are probably a little high throughout the league, whatever it may be, about Derrick. They think every time he's going to touch the ball it's going to be a 30-yard gain, but it was great to see him have that success today.

(on tackle Ty Sambrailo facing Texans defensive end J.J. Watt one-on-one)

There are sometimes we have to make some decisions. You know, certainly we'll have to address those. Again, I think Ty (Sambrailo) comes in there and does a nice job for us. We're sure lucky to have him. He's one of those guys that takes advantage of the situation. We'll continue to work and make sure that we're trying to find ways to help people where they need help.

(on the confidence in Derrick Henry and quarterback Ryan Tannehill to make clutch plays no matter the situation)

Well, it takes – you have to have done it with some consistency to be able to build that kind of confidence. So, I think that there are times in all three phases where we start to do that, build that confidence, and we'll have to continue to do that. We've got to get our bodies rested. This was a tough turnaround for a team that was clearly ready and they played well. Again, I give our guys credit. All credit goes to the players. I'll have to do a better job of continuing to coach in all three phases.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(on Derrick Henry being clocked at 21.6 miles per hour on his 94-yard run and if he's ever seen a player of his size run that fast)

No, not with a football in his hand. You know, again, I think the best thing was that he was able to lower his target on the stiff arm, something we've been working with him about, people coming at his legs. I hope we got a good picture of it, Stretch (John Streicher) can find one, where he's taking his hand down in the helmet that's coming at his knee to be able to fend them off and able have the speed to pull away from DBs.

(on if Ryan Tannehill was checking into a run play on Derrick Henry's 94-yard touchdown)

You know, Ryan (Tannehill) has a lot of flexibility at the line of scrimmage, but there are times where he checks in and out of plays that we give him. You know, there are a lot of things. He could be moving things around and doing different things.

(on what he saw from Ryan Tannehill on the game-tying scoring drive)

Just a control and a calmness. These are – this is how we try to practice. We have done that. We moved quickly. Moved efficiently. It's not just the quarterback. It's everybody getting set, getting aligned, getting the call in quickly, getting the receivers set, the linemen set. These guys are back there blocking sometimes and don't know and they're turning around and spreading the line of scrimmage and try to put a lot of pressure on the defense moving that quickly. Then guys coming through. I thought there were some great catches along that drive as well. It's a testament to the entire team, most importantly the players.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on growing comfortable and familiar with the feeling of needing to construct a game-winning drive under pressure)

Yeah, like I said several weeks ago, it's not a situation you want to be in every week. Obviously you like to be in four minute, be able to ice the game, but we found ourselves in that situation multiple times throughout the season, and there is a ton of confidence and belief in each other that we're going to march the thing down and play our game and finish with a win. Today for the fourth time we were able to do that.

(on the 94-yard touchdown run by running back Derrick Henry)

It's was huge. I said it on the field. He makes a big impact week in and week out. Some weeks shows up bigger on the stat sheet, this is one those weeks. That (94-)yarder was huge. We just had the turnover, and for him to bounce back for us to take the lead like that was huge. It was a tough run, inside run, a run that we run consistently. You don't know if it's going to be one yard or 95 yards when you hand off to a guy like Derrick (Henry). Really cool to be able to see him crease that thing, make the safety miss, and then obviously the special thing about Derrick is his speed, that he's able to go 95 and not just 20, like a lot of big running backs.

(on if wide receiver A.J. Brown asked for the football on his game-tying touchdown catch)

He had said that earlier in the drive during one of the timeouts. He plays with a lot of confidence and with the receiver like that you see a one-on-one matchup, you would like to take advantage of that. So, the opportunity didn't come up for a few plays there, but down in the red zone we finally got that one-on-one situation and we saw what A.J. (Brown) was able to do.

Yeah, I have a ton of confidence in Firk (Anthony Firkser). He's made a bunch of huge plays for us really over the past two years. You see some big third-down conversions he made with big guys draped all over him and throwing the ball high and away. He's able to make tough catches through contact, which is huge converting to some big third downs for us. Then in the two-minute drive he found a way to get open. One of them was a short throw and he was able to crease it there and make a big play. So obviously missed having Jonnu (Smith) out there, but a ton of confidence with Firk out there.

(on how he is able to remain calm and poised in those high-pressure situations)

Got a lot of experience at it at this point. Played a lot of football. Been in that situation a lot of times. I think, ultimately, comes down to preparation and belief in the guys around you. Ton of confidence that we have the guys to get it done. Art (Arthur Smith) does a great job mixing the calls and keeping the defense on their heels. Really any call that comes in I feel like we're going to have a good spot to go with the football. When you have that kind of belief in the guys around you, the O-line is protecting, guys outside are making plays, there is nothing to be hesitant about. It's just go make the plays.

(on appearing to go to the line of scrimmage with a different play and then adjusting on the 94-yard touchdown run by Derrick Henry)

Yeah, we go to line of scrimmage with several plays most of the time – not most the time, a lot of the time. Depending on the front coverage, safeties, linebackers, could be all types of different things. But we made the adjustment and then Derrick (Henry) and the O-line and the receivers did the rest.

(on the mindset of the team to overcome adversity and win games when it causes turnovers)

Yeah. Obviously, you don't want to turn the ball over. Need to be able to clean that up. Been pretty good so far this year. Having two today, especially the interception, I'm not happy with. Kalif (Raymond) did a good job there. Tried to hit him in stride over the shoulder, when really had the whole field that could have threw him down, slowed him down a little bit. Like to have that one back, but proud of our guys. We've been through a lot of adversity, a lot of tough situations, and our belief never waivers. Obviously don't want to put ourselves in that situation, but our belief and confidence in one another never waivers, and it continues to grow the more times you're able to execute in those situations.

(on spiking the ball on the touchdown pass to wide receiver A.J. Brown and if that was premeditated)

Yeah, call came from Art (Arthur Smith). Really it's a situation we practiced multiple times, talked through multiple times. You're able to get an extra shot into the end zone, time – clock is one running there. If you clock it, probably only going to get one shot into the end zone. If you're able to take a shot, could get two off. So just kind of a statistical game there just knowing the situation you're in and try and take advantage of it.

(on the emotions of winning a walk-off game after operating under intense pressure)

It's huge. You know, the emotional roller coaster of really the second half is draining. When you finally win, it's level 10 excitement. You're so fired up that we were able to get it done, and then right after you almost feel exhausted just because you laid everything out there and it's so emotional, you got so much into it. For whatever reasons, when your emotions are tied to it like that, it will drain you once it calms down. So definitely an emotional win for us, and proud we were able to pull it out.

(on hosting the Pittsburgh Steelers in Week Seven who are also undefeated)

Yeah, a ton of respect for Pittsburgh. We thought we were playing them a few weeks ago so got to study them and start our game planning for them. Watched a lot of tape on those guys and have a ton of respect for the defense. They're extremely talented. Their front is really good. They do a great job being disruptive in the run game, getting pressure in the pass game. Secondary is good as well.

We are going to have to come out and really prepare well all week and execute well on Sunday to get done what we need to.

(on if he is every in awe of what Derrick Henry can do)

No, it's huge. He's consistent, so I don't know if I'm just numb – I don't want to say numb to it like I expect it at all, but when you see him do it – I saw on tape before I had got here, him making some huge plays, and then last year I get here and I get to see it in person. He just has that rare size, strength, and speed combination. It's really extremely rare. Most guys have the strength or size and they're able to make the tough yards inside. Really run over guys and be physical. The thing that makes Derrick (Henry) special is he has the speed, once he's in the open field, all right, he makes the safety miss. Now he turns on the gas and he's able to go 95. So, with a lot of big, physical backs you'll see 20-yard runs. With Derrick, he has the ability to take it the whole way. It's really cool. I wouldn't say I'm surprised or in awe, but it's really cool and fun to watch him make a huge play like that. You kind of see it open up a little bit from the backfield once I handed it off, see him make the safety miss, and then couldn't quite see what angle the rest of the guys had on him. Once he opened up, could see that no one was going to catch him. Definitely a ton of fun watching him work.

(on his reaction to the idea of Ryan Tannehill for MVP)

I'm just trying to win games, go out and play football. A lot things I can clean up. Those things will take care of themselves. For me, it's just about going out, performing with my team, leading my team to wins, and playing good football. Like I said, those things will take care of themselves.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

(on what he feels like after running for a 94-yard touchdown)

We scored. I mean, you got to think about this, 94 yards, anyone is going to be a little winded. No, just a great job by everybody up front. I just had to do my job and was able to take it 94 to put us up in the game.

(on what he saw on the Wildcat play in overtime where he scored the game-winning touchdown)

Just a Wildcat play inside the zone, going to the right. Just look at the defense, by the way they were forming, our guys were blocking, gap back side. Just tried to get vertical and got in the end zone. Did a great job blocking. Hats off to my teammates. I just had to go do my job.

(on if he finds enjoyment in his personal successes in-game)

No. I'm praising my teammates. Those guys are incredible. Other guys make plays. Wasn't me. I just had to go out there and do my job. A lot of guys were big in critical moments, all my teammates. Just happy to be on this team, happy to be part of this organization. We're 5-0 playing good team football. No matter what, no matter how the game is going, we're going to stay together and finish games. Just happy to be on this team. All my teammates are doing an incredible job and hats off to them. Ain't nothing about me.

(on how key the game-tying touchdown drive was)

Just big-time football by Ryan (Tannehill) and A.J. (Brown), and all the other receivers, Firks (Anthony Firkser), Adam Humphries, even J-Mac (Jeremy McNichols) had a hell of a game. This guy is just making big plays in critical moments, and the moment's never too big for them. A.J. (Brown), that's what he was brought here to do and that's what he's going to do week in and week out, making big plays. Hats off to him and Ryan (Tannehill). Incredible job.

(on what worked on the 53-yard screen pass)

Yeah, we actually tried to hit it earlier in the game, but J.J. Watt being J.J. Watt, he knocked the ball down. Was happy to be able to get that look again. DB was able to get upfield and put us downfield and in a good position to score. Great job by Ryan (Tannehill) getting the ball out. Just had to go do my job.

(on seeing skills he works on with running backs coach Tony Dews come to fruition and how Dews has helped him develop)

Yeah, he's helped me a lot, helped me stay around and keeps me on my toes. Never let me get too high, never let me get too low. Just always pushing me. Always, always pushing me. All he knows is hard work, so that's what he's going to demand out of his players. Each and every day you got to come to work and be ready to work. That's his approach every single day. There is not one day that he doesn't expect you to come to work no matter how you're feeling, what the situation is. That's all he knows. That's just how he is.

(on being clocked today at 21.6 miles per hour and what was working for him to hit that level)

That's too slow. I need to get to 22. But guys just wanted to dominate the line of scrimmage. They did a great job of that. Hats to the offensive line. Those guys don't get enough credit. Did a great job and I just had to go out there and do my job. All those guys did a great job blocking, receivers, tight ends, fullbacks, I can't say it enough. Just had to go out there and do my job. And hats off to J-Mac (Jeremy McNichols). He don't show up in the stats that much, but he does a great job for us, coming in on third down, picking up blitzes, making critical plays throughout the game, running hard, finishing runs. So just proud of all my teammates.

(on if Ryan Tannehill belongs in the early conversation for MVP)

MVP, MVP. Let's start the campaign right now. We ain't going to get too high, but MVP, I think he should be that conversation, definitely.

(on if he uses the jumbotron scoreboard as a rearview mirror when breaking off long runs)

I'm looking at the end zone. I never look at the scoreboard when I'm running. I'm looking at the end zone.

(on if he senses defenders around or behind him when he breaks free the way he did today on his 94-yard touchdown)

Thing you need to know about me, I'm looking forward. If you're in my vision, I'm trying to run past you, run through you, or make you miss. I'm going to the end zone. That's all I'm focused on. When I see grass, I'm thinking, 'Let's go.'

(on the team operating at a high-level under incredible stress)

I don't think no moment is too big for us. You know, Coach (Vrabel) said, 'Just stay in the rhythm.' It always stuck with me. I think what guys do is just stay in the rhythm. Don't let it get too high, get too overwhelmed. Just focus on finishing. That's our mentality no matter what happens or what momentum shift as far as each team. We just focus on finishing, and then when we get an opportunity, we want to go score as an offense. Defense did a hell of a job, too. We just want to play complete football as a team.

(on why he doesn't brag on himself when he easily could do so)

Because it can be here today and gone tomorrow. I'm tremendously blessed. God has blessed me tremendously, me and my family, so I'm appreciative every day I get to wake up and live my dream. A lot of guys don't get an opportunity like this so I'm just thankful, man. My grandmother always told me to be humble. All my family. Just work hard and do your job and everything else will take care of itself.

WIDE RECEIVER A.J. BROWN

(on his game-tying touchdown catch and if he had any doubt that he was in-bounds)

That play, when he called the call, I knew it was coming to me. Just make sure I secure the catch and make sure I try to get my feet down. And to be honest, I didn't feel my left foot come down. I was kind of nervous, but like I said, I thought my shin or knee was down, so I made it close, but next time I most definitely would double tap my feet.

(on if running back Derrick Henry continues to find ways to surprise him)

To be honest, Derrick (Henry) is very special. We know we've just got to try to do as much as we can, he's going to do the rest. He's a big power back. He has that breakaway speed as we seen today. Waiting on that on all season and moving forward going to hopefully see the same thing, but we know we will.

(on how much confidence the team has quarterback Ryan Tannehill in clutch situations and if Tannehill belongs in the early conversations for MVP)

We always had confidence in him, to be honest. When he took the quarterback spot we had confidence in him then. Like I said, and I say it every week, he's a gentleman. He tells us what he wants, and he demands what he wants so he can deliver a good ball. MVP stuff, I don't think you're crazy. I think he's playing really well right now. Like I said with him, only thing he cares about is wins. He doesn't care about stats and all that. All he wants to do is win.

(on the growth of the offense this season compared to last year)

I think it goes to show like our work in the offseason. It was tough. We had to do it virtual. But just like last week, we had to tune in mentally, and that's what it comes down to. I think we're all locked in. Shoutout to Arthur (Smith), he's given everybody opportunities to make plays. It's not one person making plays. It's everybody doing what they're supposed to be doing, everybody holding each other accountable at a high level. So, I think winning is fun, it's fun, and right now we love this feeling. Next week we going to try to do 1-0 again.

(on the playcall for his game-tying touchdown)

I can't tell you the call, but I just told him to throw me the ball no matter what. Just throw it up. I'll make a play. Like I said, I knew the ball was coming to me because he was going to give me an opportunity. It was on the left hash and a shorter throw. Like I said, I knew he was going to give me a chance, and he delivered a good ball and I made the catch.

(on if he told Ryan Tannehill to throw him the ball)

Yeah, I told him. Yes, hell yeah.

(on what the talk in the huddle was like during today's high-pressure drives)

We try to thrive at two-minute when we're under pressure. We spend a lot of time and practice on two-minute, and we try to come up clutch one more time. Everybody doing what they're supposed to be doing. When things went bad, when Ryan (Tannehill) threw an interception, we went back out there. We were still comfortable. We were still comfortable. The huddle was, 'Let's go. We got this. We've been here before. Let's go. We do this.'

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER JADEVEON CLOWNEY

(on the negatives to correct and the identity of the team's defense)

Oh well, the negatives? I think I will have to go back and watch the tape. Mostly on third down, we've got just got to get off the field on third down, no ex-plays. The good stuff? I think we're just staying together, playing together, running to the ball, everybody getting out there. So, whenever you do mess up, everybody is flying to the ball and may correct each other. I think if we stay together, sticking together, we keep playing good ball.

(on playing his former team and what was it about Head Coach Mike Vrabel that drove him to want to keep playing and do his best)

Man, he's always in the game, you know? What you see from him is what you are gonna get 24/7, during the week, during gameday. He's a high-intensity guy. You know, he tries to get out there and work with you. He's always in the game and keeps your energy level up. It's a contagious thing around the locker room and around the team.

(on what he has learned about running back Derrick Henry since he became his teammate)

I mean, he kind of reminds me of myself. He just like to have fun. Me and him talk an awful lot since I've been here. We actually communicate a lot. I just like to watch him run the ball, you know? I'm a big fan of his. Especially when we were in the division you're not a real big fan, but when you get over here and meet the guy, get to know him, I think I became one of his biggest fans since I've been here. I just like to see him play. He's an exciting player to watch. You never know what's gonna happen – you step up, he runs through you, breakaway speed. He's got the whole total package and I've got to give hats off to the whole offensive line up front. They contribute to his game. It comes from those guys, the way they work at practice and execute in the game.

(on where he ranks this game in his career)

Oh, it's up there. Going to overtime and winning in overtime in the style we did, watching him come down there and truck the ball down the field. Derrick Henry. It was pretty exciting. I was telling them, 'I don't think we're gonna have to go out there on defense because Derrick Henry.' They're gonna run the ball down their throat. I already called it on the sideline, but it's exciting to watch like I said. To see those guys go out there, execute plays that we have worked on in practice, start at practice, and for them to go out there execute the game plays, to see that it's working on the field is a big motivator to the team and to the reason why we go practice and keep guys locked in.

(on how he's being used by Head Coach Mike Vrabel and seeing his teammates on defense)

Like you said it, they fly to the ball. No matter if you mess up or nothing. If one man messes up, the other guy is making you correct. We communicate well. We fly around together. We've got each other's back. It's been like that since I got here. I seen that the first couple days when I got here, how they play at practice, and I said, 'We're gonna have a good team if we can mess up and you won't even hardly know because we run so hard to the ball.' We're competitive. We compete. That's when you know you've got a good defense – when everyone shows up just to compete.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE JEFFERY SIMMONS

(on what he learned after two emotional wins after the team's COVID-19 outbreak)

We are a team, just that word right there – team. Adversity strikes and it's all about how you respond. This team, we fight to the end no matter what we go through. A lot of our games have been close and we came out with a win. There's so much passion in these games, I can see it in the guys. Speaking for myself, I play this game with so much passion and that's because I love this game and I love what I do. Every time I step on the field I want to give it my all. If I can give that energy to the next guy and they give it to the next, I just think that's how our team is. We respond to each other in situations like this. Getting to 5-0 is not easy, especially the last two weeks. It hasn't been easy for us coming off a quick turnaround. We have a great team. We're playing team defense and team offense. We're just playing as a team.

(on what's clicking for him right now)

Every time I step on the field, I'm going to make my presence felt. I know the coaches are going to put me in a situation to help this team the best I can. So far, it's been a great year whether first or second down or third down. When I step on the field, I'm going to give it my all no matter what it is. If it's tiredness, limping, cramping, no matter what I'm not making any excuses. You never know when that play is going to come that you can make and change the game. My mindset is to attack every game and play with passion. That's gotten me this far and I'm not going to change anything. Just head down, full steam ahead.

(on being back on the field after having time away due to COVID)

I felt good. Everyone knows about COVID. It takes away your condition that you've been working on all season. It was kind of hard as the game went along for me, but I'm not making any excuses. Just keep fighting. We are built on mental toughness and I just had to fight through a lot of tiredness. I just have to get back this week and get some extra conditioning in. We've got another tough game next week. I felt great out there though.

(on what Houston did to really turn the game around in the third quarter)

Nothing they did. We have to communicate a little better on defense and affect the quarterback more. We talk about on defense, not giving up the big plays. Take away their big plays and they couldn't really do anything. We just have to play better on defense. I trust this defense. I know we are going to fix it and it will all come together. At the end of the day we came up big and got a win. That's what next week is for, to come back and play better team defense. Everything will take care of itself.

(on uncharacteristic plays that Head Coach Mike Vrabel said the defense has made to overshadow their play)

I don't know, I'm sure that's something Coach Vrabel sees as the head coach. He knows when something needs to be fixed. I'll leave that up to him to answer. All I know is we need to get back to work and work on not giving up big plays and playing more team defense. I don't know about the negative things. We are just trying to be a whole defense that stops the guys on first and second down and gets off the field on third down.

(on what the sense was on the field when Houston elected to go for a two-point conversion)

It's just a mindset, you know? In a situation like that it's all about who's going to make a play. You don't ever know when that time will come that you can change the game, and of course I think that play right there changed the game. When they go for two, me, I'm hype. Apparently they don't trust that we can stop it on defense, so you just put your hand in the ground and play football. My mindset is get penetration. I know it's a quick pass, and from last year, I know he's going to throw the ball low. His release is low and tries to get the ball out quick. I know that if we get our hands up we can bat a ball and that's what I did. I saw him take his non-throwing hand off the ball and I knew it would be low. I got my hand up and batted the ball.

(on how big winning the coin flip was in overtime with Houston's defense appearing to be gassed)

It was big. I see this offense every day in practice and see how much they work. Especially with the offensive line, I see how tired they are at the end of practice because they are working so hard. Everything is going to pay off. I think we had 600-something yards on offense. Credit to those guys. We are built for this. Props to them, especially Derrick (Henry) and all the other guys coming in when guys needed a breather. We played team ball today and I'm excited for what our future may be.

(on his mentality this season and how much he wanted to be a force

There's always room to get better, but at the same time I came into the season with the mindset that I wanted to be dominate. I wanted to help this team the best way I can. Playing defensive line is not easy, but my mindset coming into this season and into this game of football is that I'm going to give it my all. Every time I step on the field, I want to play with passion. I want to bring the energy to this defense and this team. I have a lot of room to get better. The coaches on this team are going to keep putting me in situations to keep making plays for this team. I came into the season wanting to be dominant. It's been working so far so good, but it doesn't stop here.

TIGHT END ANTHONY FIRKSER

(on what was more gratifying between his personal line or his block on the game-winning touchdown)

I mean, the lead was the most important for sure, but I like getting into the blocking and kind of being a part of everything, you know.

(on how crazy it was to see the offense move down the field in today's record performance)

I was so excited for the whole offensive team. We are never satisfied as an offense, so we just have to keep calm and keep improving. I think everyone is starting to step up, find their role and make plays for this offense, so we just got to keep rolling.

No. We prepare that everyone can do any role that we have in the offense. So, whether if it's Geoff (Swaim), me, Corey (Davis), everyone is able to kind of step up and pick up that role no matter what happens during the game, because you know that's bound to happen in football. So, we all are ready to step up at any point.

(on how the team continues to keep poise in high-pressure situations)

We have been in those same situations over and over in games, executed, and won the games. So, I think just trusting our guys and never feeling like we are out of it. Everyone is always in tune. We practice that situation multiple times, so just being able to execute it and get the job done.

(on the team's reaction in the huddle when Wildcat formation was called)

Yeah, we always have different types of plays to give the defense different looks. So, we had been practicing week in and week out, so there was no consternation so we just kind of went ahead and had to execute.

WIDE RECEIVER ADAM HUMPHRIES

(on the game-tying touchdown drive and winning in overtime)

Obviously, confident in our offense. If we have the ball in our hands last possession, we are comfortable with our two-minute offense that we work weekly to drive down there and get points. We knew we had to respond. We had two bad drives in that second half that really hurt us, and we just wanted to get that taste out of our mouths, and we put a good drive together and got in the end zone and were able to force overtime.

(on what he saw on the touchdown catch)

On that touchdown it was just a great job by Ryan (Tannehill) hanging in there with me. I wasn't the primary whatsoever. It was just a busted coverage and I was able to get behind the corner, and the safety didn't come over, so I appreciated Ryan (Tannehill) hanging with me on that one.

(on the confidence of the team)

Like I said (last week), if we have the ball in our hands, we feel comfortable with our offense, our two-minute operation to go down there and get points and that's how it should be. The amount of work we put into that – we feel confident in it. We have a bunch of guys that are fighters and never give up. It's an honor to work with these guys every day. It's good to be 5-0.

CENTER BEN JONES

Every drive, we know if we have the ball we can score. We try to be brilliant in the basics, control what we can control, and we go out there and do it.

We've got some great playmakers on this team and we just got to take care of penalties, and we do that, we score.

(on running back Derrick Henry's performance)

He's a guy, you can give him the ball at any point and he can go the distance. That scares the defenses because they know if they are one gap out on any play he can go to the house.

(on if he knew the Titans were going to win the game after winning the coin toss)

Yeah, I was standing out there in the middle. As soon as the toss went our way I was like, 'It's over.'

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

(on winning the coin toss in overtime)

Honestly, I knew we were going to go down there and score. I had full trust in our offense. (Ryan) Tannehill has been running our offense with precision. Glad to have him as our franchise quarterback, and King (Derrick) Henry, I mean, what can I say about that guy? That guy runs hard and pretty much puts this team on his back and does it every single week, week in and week out.

(on what the defense needs to do to improve)

We have to go to keep staying at it, honestly. We are not going to make any excuses about a short week or anything like that. We have just got to play better and continue to play team defense. I think that's the biggest thing. Clean up some miscommunication issues and stuff like that, but I have full trust in our defense and our leaders, me, myself, making sure we all get on the same page.

(on being 5-0)

At the end of the day, I know our defense, I know the guys we have, people we have in our locker room will continue to improve. But to be 5-0, like you said it's really hard to be 5-0 in this league. So, I am just happy we are 5-0 and if we can go make those corrections, being that we won the game.

GUARD RODGER SAFFOLD III

(on the final drive of the fourth quarter)

I just really think this team was built from adversity and it has been constant since our offseason. Covid, the changes in the schedule, and because of that I feel like it's helping us in the games, because no matter how far we are behind, no matter what situation just seems impossible, we always just end up coming out. I think this mentality of just knowing that you are going to go out there and grab success, guys without no fear. I think the best protection of game was that last two minutes. I think that the way we were running the ball at the end of the game was second to none. This is just complete team football, and this team was built from adversity and difficult situations. Because we continue to come out on top, the confidence just continues to grow.

(on winning the coin toss for overtime)

It was time to clock in for overtime. When you do overtime, you get time and a half. I know that's not real for our jobs, but we definitely looked at it as like, 'OK, now it's time to really go to work. Let's go ahead, let's get this drive, let's get off the field, let's get it with a win.' We were able to do that. Just outstanding from everybody.

(on quarterback Ryan Tannehill's poise)

When it comes to this offense, we always talk about all eleven guys doing their jobs. Ryan (Tannehill) is no exception. The way we are able to go down the field in two-minute really shows how everybody is doing their job effectively. Everybody is being efficient. Guys are running down field. It's just great team offense. With Ryan (Tannehill) at the helm, it's constantly focusing on that, constantly focusing on getting better, constantly focusing on improving. We often surprise ourselves with what we can come out with.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first four years on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 seasons. It marked the first time the organization produced at least four consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans were one of four NFL teams to accomplish the feat from 2016–2019, joining New England, Seattle and Kansas City.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first four teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-92).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

When the Titans took the field for the 2019 postseason, only seven players remained on the 53-man roster from prior to Robinson's arrival—a turnover rate of 87 percent. That included 23 free agents, 18 draft picks, four players acquired via trade and one waiver pickup. An additional six players he acquired (four free agents, one draft pick and one waiver claim) ended 2019 on injured reserve.

The 2020 NFL Draft was Robinson's fifth draft as general manager. In those five drafts, he selected 35 total players, and 21 of those players remained with the club at the beginning of training camp in 2020. During that same time period (as of July 28, 2020), he engineered 20 trades and made 11 waiver claims.

2020: Prior to the 2020 free agent signing period, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, among others.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

Robinson also led the acquisition of unrestricted free agent outside linebacker Vic Beasley from the Atlanta Falcons. The former first-round pick spent his first five NFL seasons (2015-19) in Atlanta, capping his tenure there with eight sacks in 2019. He led the NFL with 15.5 sacks in 2016, and from his rookie season through 2019, he ranked 16th in the NFL in sacks by edge rushers (outside linebackers and defensive ends).

Robinson patiently waited to add two more significant free agents just prior to the beginning of the 2020 regular season, picking up kicker Stephen Gostkowski and outside linebacker Jadeveon Clowney during the first week of September. Gostkowski earned four Pro Bowl berths and three Super Bowl rings during 14 seasons with the Patriots, becoming the team's all-time leading scorer (1,775 points). Through 2019, he was the NFL's fifth-most accurate kicker in history (374 of 428). Clowney, a three-time Pro Bowl selection, joined Aaron Donald and Chandler Jones as the only NFL players with at least 60 tackles for loss, eight forced fumbles and 150 quarterback pressures from 2016 through 2019.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks. The first of those was Georgia tackle Isaiah Wilson (first round, 29th overall), followed by Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton (second round, 61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans (third round, 93rd overall) in the first three rounds.

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles in 2019: Buccaneers wide receiver Adam Humphries, Rams guard Rodger Saffold and Tannehill in a trade with the Dolphins. Robinson also worked to re-sign starting safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

Tannehill, who proved to be one of the NFL's top acquisitions of 2019, started every game after Week 6, leading the team into the playoffs. He led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year honors.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category. Among all rookies in 2019, he ranked first in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his first two seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 25 games (20 starts) and totaled five interceptions. In early August, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 13 games his first season in Tennessee and all 16 games in 2019.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 16 games in 2019 and led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 31 games (19 starts) in his first two seasons, and his 13.5 sacks from 2018–2019 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Henry, a second-rounder in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2019. In 2019, he won the NFL's rushing crown with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He led the NFL from 2017–2019 with 17 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

Mike Vrabel enters his third season as head coach in 2020. He was named to the position on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In Vrabel's first two years, he directed the Titans to a 20-15 record, including a 2-1 mark in the 2019 playoffs. His 20 wins made up the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons, behind only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991.

Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

From 2018–2019, Vrabel's Titans were the second-least penalized NFL team (181). Over the same period of time, they were the fourth-best rushing offense (129.2 yards per game), the fifth-best scoring defense (19.8 points allowed per game) and the seventh-best third-down defense (36.4 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

20 WINS IN FIRST TWO YEARS

Mike Vrabel won nine games as a rookie head coach in 2018. Of the 19 head coaches in the organization's history, beginning in 1960, Vrabel became the eighth to reach nine wins in his first full season as head coach.

Then, in 2019, Vrabel's team again went 9-7 in the regular season. The club earned a wild card playoff berth and won two postseason games before falling in the AFC title game.

Including regular season and postseason games, Vrabel's 20 wins from 2018–2019 give him the second-highest total in franchise history for a head coach's first two seasons (not including interim seasons). Only Jack Pardee's 21 wins from 1990–1991 rank better than Vrabel's total.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

FANS RETURN TO NISSAN STADIUM

On Sept. 17, the Titans announced that Nissan Stadium will open at limited capacity beginning with the Oct. 4 Titans home game against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The three October home games will gradually increase in capacity with the goal of reaching a fixed capacity for the remaining games in November and December.

The Oct. 4 game will be open to season ticket members up to 10 percent of the stadium's capacity, which is roughly 7,000 fans in the lower bowl and club levels. The next October home game (Oct. 11) will allow 12.5 percent and the third (Oct. 18) 15 percent. For November until the end of the season, capacity could reach 21 percent, which is the maximum capacity the facility can accommodate under current CDC guidelines. Outside of the seating bowl, suites will operate at a limited capacity.

"We are thrilled to welcome fans back to Nissan Stadium and can't thank Mayor Cooper and the Metro Nashville Public Health Department enough for their collaboration in making this possible," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "The health and safety of our fans, players and staff remains our top priority and we felt like a gradual capacity plan was the right call, knowing that we may need to be flexible as time goes on. We feel confident that our Safe Stadium Plan will give everyone a safe and comfortable experience as they return to our gates."

Detailed information on the Safe Stadium Plan can be found at www.tennesseetitans.com/safestadium. Key components include:

- Socially-distant seating pods accommodating parties of one to a maximum of six people
- Mobile ticketing and parking, to eliminate physical contact while scanning passes
- Mandatory face coverings at all times, except when actively eating or drinking
- Over 300 hand sanitizing stations throughout the stadium
- Individually-wrapped food items at concession stands
- Elimination of all smoking and vaping areas in the facility
- Health screenings and personal protective equipment for all Nissan Stadium employees
- A comprehensive cleaning plan during events for bathrooms and near concession areas

Fans will be asked to arrive early and head straight to the gates after they arrive. After consulting with local and national health experts, there will be no tailgating or pregame activities allowed outside of the stadium. The stadium will have dedicated security crews throughout Nissan Stadium to enforce all Safe Stadium policies.

TITANS REBOUND AFTER 2-4 START

After winning their 2019 regular season opener at Cleveland (Sept. 8), the Titans dropped four of their next five games to begin the season with a 2-4 record. From that point forward, they won nine of their last 13 games, including playoffs.

Since the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990, 345 teams have gone 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became the 21st team to earn a postseason berth.

Their wild card victory over the Patriots made the Titans the 10th team to win a playoff game and the 11th team to advance to the divisional round after faring no better than 2-4 in their first six games.

A week later, the Titans became the third such team to advance to the conference championship, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

As a franchise, the Titans/Oilers have advanced to the divisional round or beyond three times following a 2-4 or worse start through six games. In addition to the 2019 squad and the 2002 club, the 1993 Oilers went to the divisional round with a first-round bye.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his ninth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020. He received a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason.

In 2019, Tannehill took control as the team's starting quarterback in Week 7 and subsequently led the Titans to the playoffs and an appearance in the AFC championship game. In his 13 starts, including the regular season and playoffs, the Titans went 9-4.

Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

During the first four seasons of his career (2012-15), Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), opened the season on Monday Night Football with a 97.9 passer rating after completing 29 of 43 passes for 249 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 14 yards on three attempts. He registered his 17th career game-winning drive and his fourth as a member of the Titans. On the team's final drive, which ended with the go-ahead 25-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski, Tannehill completed five of seven attempts for 40 yards. His two touchdown passes included a one-yard pass to tight end MyCole Pruitt in the second quarter and a one-yard touchdown toss to tight end Jonnu Smith in the fourth quarter. He extended his streak to 11 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass and extended his streak to eight consecutive regular season games with at least two touchdown passes. His 43 passing attempts were his most in a game since Sept. 18, 2016 (45 vs. New England).

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), registered his 100th career start in the regular season and recorded a 145.7 passer rating—the seventh best single-game passer rating in franchise history (minimum 20 attempts)—by completing 18 of 24 attempts for 239 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions. It was the best passer rating for the club since Marcus Mariota's 149.8 against Green Bay on Nov. 13, 2016. It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 against the Oakland Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018. He tied his career high with four touchdown passes, becoming the first Titans quarterback with four or more touchdown passes in a game since Mariota's 2016 performance against Green Bay. Tannehill's four touchdown passes against the Jaguars included a 13-yard pass to tight end Jonnu Smith and a nine-yard strike to wide receiver Corey Davis in the first quarter, a four-yard touchdown to Smith in the second quarter, and finally an 18-yard toss to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the third quarter. He registered his 18th career game with three or more touchdown passes and reached 150 career touchdown passes on his third touchdown pass of the day. He extended his career-best streak and set a franchise record with his ninth consecutive regular season game with at least two touchdown passes. Marcus Mariota established the previous team record with eight consecutive games in 2016 with two touchdown passes. He also extended his streak to 12 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass, the longest streak by a Titans quarterback since Steve McNair set the franchise record from 2001 to 2002 with 23 consecutive games with a touchdown pass. He posted his NFL-high 10th game with at least two touchdown passes and no interceptions since he stepped into the starting lineup for the Titans in Week 7 of 2019, including the regular season and postseason. Tannehill owns 27 such games in his career. He registered his 18th career game-winning drive and his fifth as a member of the Titans.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), completed 23 of 37 passes for 321 yards with one interception. He registered his 20th career 300-yard passing game and his first of 2020. He had three passes of more than 35 yards: a 44-yard completion to Kalif Raymond during the opening series, a 38-yard strike to Corey Davis in the third quarter and a 61-yard bomb to Raymond in the third quarter. He became the first NFL quarterback since Matt Ryan in 2015 with a game-winning drive in each of his team's first three games of a season, logging his 19th career game-winning drive and his sixth as a member of the Titans. He led the offense to eight total scoring drives, including five scoring drives in the second half.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), completed 21 of 28 passes (75.0 percent) for 195 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. His passer rating of 129.3 was the ninth-best single-game mark of his career (minimum 20 attempts). He added 42 rushing yards, including a 10-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter and a 23-yard run for a first down in the fourth quarter. He recorded the second game of his career with at least three passing touchdowns and at least one rushing touchdown, matching what he achieved as a member of the Miami Dolphins against the Denver Broncos on Nov. 23, 2014. His three touchdown passes included a 16-yard pass to A.J. Brown on his first attempt of the game, a four-yard touchdown pass to Jonnu Smith in the third quarter and a seven-yard toss to Smith in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), completed 30 of 41 passes for 364 yards with four touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 122.4. His yardage total was the fifth-highest number of his career and his second-highest figure in a Titans uniform. His four touchdown passes tied a career high and included a seven-yard pass to tight end Anthony Firkser and a six-yard strike to wide receiver A.J. Brown in the first quarter, a 22-yard touchdown to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the second quarter, and finally a seven-yard toss to Brown in the fourth quarter. He helped lead the Titans back from a late deficit with his second touchdown pass to A.J. Brown with four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. The extra point tied the score at 36-36. During the game-tying two-minute drive, he completed eight of nine attempts for 76 yards. The Titans' overtime scoring drive registered as his 20th career game-winning drive and his seventh in a Titans uniform. It was his fourth game-winning drive of 2020. He completed his final 10 passes of the game in the fourth quarter and overtime. His 13 touchdown passes through five games tied for the second-highest total in franchise history through the first five games of a season, trailing only George Blanda, who holds the top spot for the franchise with 14 in 1962 and also had 13 in 1966. Tannehill's 364 passing yards ranked 11th for the franchise in its "Titans era" (since 1999). He registered his third career game with three touchdown passes in the first half.

Over those seven games, he had two total interceptions—one each on Dec. 8 (at Oakland) and Dec. 15 (vs. Houston)—to go along with 19 touchdown passes and a 129.8 passer rating.

In 2019, Ryan Tannehill set a new standard for veteran quarterbacks in their first year with a new team. Tannehill, who was acquired in a trade after seven years with the Miami Dolphins, had a passer rating of 117.5. No quarterback has ever finished with a passer rating that high in his first season with a new team after playing at least one year with another team.

Brett Favre held the distinction until 2019. In 2009, Favre's 107.2 passer rating with the Minnesota Vikings became the best figure in league annals by a veteran in his first campaign with a new club.

BAUGH, MONTANA & TANNEHILL

During the 2019 season, Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill accomplished a statistical feat only reached previously by a pair of Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterbacks.

Tannehill's season statistics included a 70.3 completion percentage and an average of 9.6 yards per passing attempt.

In the history of the NFL, only two previous qualifying passers have enjoyed a season in which they completed at least 70.0 percent of their passes and averaged at least 9.0 yards per attempt: Sammy Baugh and Joe Montana.

Montana led the San Francisco 49ers to a Super Bowl XXIV title and won the NFL MVP award following a 1989 season in which he completed 70.2 percent of his passes (271 of 386) and averaged 9.1 yards per attempt (3,521 yards).

Baugh directed the Washington Redskins to the NFL Championship game in 1945, while completing 70.3 percent of his passes (128 of 182) and averaging 9.2 yards per attempt (1,669 yards).

Click for complete bio

Running back Derrick Henry is in his fifth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft and received a multi-year contract extension in 2020.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing in 2019. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Earl Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances. He was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Year.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones) and finished second in team history (19 by Campbell in 1979). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

Henry is a native of Yulee, Fla.

2020 Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), rushed for 116 yards on 31 carries on Monday Night Football to notch his 14th career 100-yard rushing game (regular season and playoffs). He extended his streak to 10 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards. His 31 rushing attempts made up the third-highest total of his career in the regular season.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), rushed for 84 yards on 25 carries and became the fifth player in franchise history to reach the 4,000-yard career rushing mark (4,033). He registered his third consecutive regular season game with at least 25 carries, dating back Dec. 29, 2019.

Simpson (five) for the third-most in NFL history behind only Chris Johnson (seven) and Adrian Peterson (seven). Henry became the first player in NFL history to record a game with 200-plus rushing yards in three consecutive seasons. He previously accomplished the feat against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018 (238) and at Houston on Dec. 29, 2019 (211). He became the NFL's 15th player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to record at least three career 200-yard rushing games and the first to reach the mark since Jay Ajayi had his third 200-yard rushing game in 2016. Henry joined Chris Johnson (Sept. 20, 2009 vs. Houston) as the only NFL players since 1975 with a rushing attempt of at least 90 yards and a reception of at least 50 yards in a game. During a three-year career at Mississippi (2016-18), Brown became the program's all-time leading receiver with 2,984 yards. He ranked third in school history with 189 receptions and fifth all-time with 19 touchdowns. Brown averaged 15.8 yards per catch and 82.9 yards per game, and he tallied the most 100-yard receiving games in Ole Miss history with 12. He became the only receiver in Ole Miss history to tally 60 or more receptions in back-to-back seasons.

In 2018, Brown started all 12 games and set Ole Miss' single-season receiving records in yards (1,320) and catches (85), leading the SEC in both categories. His 1,320 receiving yards ranked seventh in the nation. Brown caught six touchdowns, averaging 110.0 yards per game, and he topped the 100-yard receiving mark in six contests. He earned AP first-team All-SEC and third-team All-American honors for the second consecutive season.

From 2012 through 2019, Jones appeared in 127 of 128 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first four seasons in Tennessee.

In 2019, Jones captained an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games en route to an AFC Championship Game appearance.

On Dec. 12, 2019, Jones was named the Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered one of the league's most prestigious honors, the award recognizes an NFL player for outstanding community service activities off the field, as well as excellence on the field.

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. The veteran was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Over the following four seasons, he started contests at center and both guard spots. He was a starter on two playoff teams in Houston (2012 and 2015).

He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

Click for complete bio

Cornerback Malcolm Butler is in his seventh NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 16, 2018.

Butler's 2019 season was cut short due to a wrist injury he suffered in the ninth game (Nov. 3 at Carolina). Until that point, he had 30 tackles, two interceptions, including one for a touchdown, and 10 passes defended.

In 2018, Butler led the Titans with 13 passes defended in his first season as a Titan and was second on the team with three interceptions, which included an interception return for a touchdown. He added 56 tackles, one sack, one quarterback pressure, three tackles for loss and one forced fumble in 16 games (11 starts).

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Butler spent the first four seasons of his career with the New England Patriots. During his time in New England, he appeared in 59 career regular season games with 48 starts and amassed 204 tackles, eight interceptions, 47 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Butler appeared in 11 career playoff games with seven starts with the Patriots. He started all three postseason contests on the Patriots' run to the Super Bowl LI title in 2016 and made the crucial, game-winning interception at the goal line in New England's Super Bowl XLIX victory over the Seattle Seahawks to conclude the 2014 campaign.

In 2017, he played in all 16 games during the regular season with 15 starts and amassed 60 tackles, two interceptions, a sack, 12 passes defended and three forced fumbles. He saw action in all three postseason games (two starts) and posted four tackles.

In 2016, Butler earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl invitation and was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after starting all 16 regular season games and recording 63 tackles, one sack, a career-high four interceptions and 17 passes defended.

As a rookie free agent in 2014, Butler was involved in one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl history. With 26 seconds remaining against the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XLIX, he intercepted a pass intended for Ricardo Lockette at the goal line, preventing a go-ahead touchdown by the Seahawks and sealing New England's championship victory.

The Vicksburg, Miss., native was originally signed by the New England Patriots on May 19, 2014, following two seasons at the University of West Alabama, where he was a two-time first team All-Gulf South Conference selection at cornerback. He transferred to West Alabama from Hinds (Miss.) Community College.

Click for complete bio

Punter Brett Kern is in his 13th NFL season and his 11th full campaign with the Titans in 2019. He was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. At the end of the 2019 campaign, he ranked as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (333). He punted 839 times in a Titans uniform from 2009–2019, second all-time for the franchise behind Craig Hentrich's 861 punts. Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

At the end of the 2019 campaign, Kern's 170 consecutive games played (regular season) ranked second in team history behind only Bruce Matthews (232). Kern's 170 career games ranked sixth in franchise annals and were the most in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–2019).

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

He became the seventh player in franchise history to play in 12 seasons with the organization, joining Bruce Matthews (1983–2001), Elvin Bethea (1968–1983), Brad Hopkins (1993–2005), Gregg Bingham (1973–1983), Mike Munchak (1982–1993) and Craig Hentrich (1998–2009).
