Tennessee Titans (1-1) vs. Pittsburgh Steelers (2-0)

Sunday, Aug. 25, 2019 • 7 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: NBC

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (1-1) host the Pittsburgh Steelers (2-0) this week on Sunday Night Football. Kickoff at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143) is scheduled for 7 p.m. CDT on Sunday, Aug. 25.

THE BROADCAST

The game will be nationally televised on NBC, including Nashville affiliate WSMV News 4. Play-by-play announcer Al Michaels, analyst Cris Collinsworth and sideline reporter Michele Tafoya will have the call.

The Titans Radio Network, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone, will carry the game across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Amie Wells and gameday hosts Rhett Bryan and Jonathan Hutton.

LAST WEEK AGAINST THE PATRIOTS

The Titans played their first home game of the preseason last week against the defending Super Bowl champion New England Patriots. After the Titans led for most of the evening, the Patriots scored with less than five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter and held on for a 22-17 win.

Starting quarterback Marcus Mariota played three series—all in the first quarter—and helped the Titans build an 8-0 advantage. He completed six of nine passes for 63 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown strike to tight end Delanie Walker. Mariota added a rushing attempt for a two-point conversion immediately following the touchdown.

The game represented a significant milestone for Walker as he embarks on his 14th NFL campaign. The franchise's eighth all-time leading receiver (360 receptions with the Titans) suffered a leg injury in Week 1 of the 2018 regular season and had not played since that time.

After Mariota exited against the Patriots, Ryan Tannehill played most of the second quarter. Tannehill, who is in his first preseason with the club, was 7-of-11 passing for 84 yards and a 15-yard touchdown to running back Jeremy McNichols. It gave Tannehill three touchdown passes and a 130.8 passer rating in two preseason contests (19-27, 214 yards).

Defensively, former Patriots cornerback Logan Ryan provided one of the highlights of the game in the early moments by intercepting a Brian Hoyer pass on New England's first offensive series.

THE STEELERS

The Steelers look to get back to the playoffs in 2019 after finishing as the runners-up in the 2018 AFC North race by a half game. The 10-6 Baltimore Ravens took the division, while the Steelers went 9-6-1 and missed the postseason for the first time since 2013.

Mike Tomlin enters his 13th season with the club. He has led his club to six AFC North titles, most recently in 2017, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs eight times.

Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, a seven-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time Super Bowl winner, is entering his 16th NFL season. In addition to holding virtually every major passing record in Steelers history, he has the seventh-most passing touchdowns in NFL history (363), the sixth-

SERIES HISTORY

There have been 78 combined regular season and postseason meetings between the Titans/Oilers and Steelers in a rivalry that dates back to 1970. The Steelers lead the series 46-32. There is no other team the Titans/Oilers have met in their history as often as the Steelers, with the Cincinnati Bengals being next most common opponent at 75 games.

In 1970, upon the merger of the American Football League and the National Football League, the Steelers and then-Oilers began play in the newly-formed AFC Central Division. For the next 32 years (1970-2001), they competed at least twice per season with the exception of 1982 (strike-shortened season) before the Titans moved to the AFC South and the Steelers to the AFC North in 2002. Since 1970, there have been only six seasons (2004, 2006, 2007, 2015-16, 2018) in which the Titans and Steelers have not squared off.

The first meeting in 1970, a 19-7 Oilers win, was the first regular season game in Three Rivers Stadium, the Steelers' home until moving to Heinz Field in 2001.

The Steelers have won the two most recent matchups, including a Thursday primetime meeting at Heinz Field in Week 11 of the 2017 regular season. The Steelers defense produced four interceptions and five sacks, helping the hosts pull away in the fourth quarter for a 40-17 win.

The Steelers' most recent visit to Nissan Stadium was on Monday night, Nov. 17, 2014. Despite 263 passing yards from rookie quarterback Zach Mettenberger, the Titans were unable to overcome the Steelers, led by Le'Veon Bell's 204 rushing yards, and fell by a score of 27-24.

The last time the Titans beat the Steelers was in the 2013 season opener at Heinz Field. The Titans used five sacks from their defense and a ball-control offense to win 16-9, despite giving up an unusual safety on the opening kickoff.

There have been four postseason games played between the franchises, most recently a 34-31 overtime thriller in favor of the Titans in the 2002 Divisional Round. The first two playoff meetings were back-to-back AFC Championship Games following the 1978 and 1979 seasons, with Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" prevailing both times against the "Luv Ya Blue!" Oilers. The Oilers also lost a 1989 Wild Card Game in overtime against the Steelers.

This week marks only the second all-time preseason meeting between the two franchises. They met in 2018 in Pittsburgh (Aug. 25), with the Steelers winning 16-6.

TITANS-STEELERS: THE LAST MEETING

Titans 17, Steelers 40 2017 Week 11 • Thursday, Nov. 16, 2017 • 8:25 p.m. ET • Heinz Field

In Week 11 of the 2017 season, the Titans traveled to Pittsburgh to face the Steelers in a primetime Thursday Night Football showdown and lost by a score of 40-17.

The Pittsburgh offense took a quick 7-0 lead as Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger led his team on a 75-yard scoring drive capped off by a 41-yard touchdown pass to Steelers WR Antonio Brown. Tennessee took the field for its first offensive possession, but on the third play of the drive QB Marcus Mariota threw a 26-yard interception to Steelers CB Mike Hilton. Pittsburgh capitalized on the Titans turnover and tacked on a 41-yard field goal to increase their lead, 10-0. The Tennessee offense took the field again, and with the help of third down conversion receptions by WRs Rishard Matthews and Corey Davis, Mariota was able to find the endzone as he rushed in a seven-yard touchdown to cut Pittsburgh's lead to 10-7.

In the second quarter, Tennessee drove down the field into Pittsburgh territory but was forced to settle for a field goal attempt. However, K Ryan Succop's kick was blocked by Steelers LB T.J. Watt. As Mariota threw his second interception. Pittsburgh was able to tack on two more field goals in the second quarter on back-to-back possessions to end the first half up, 16-7.

On the first play of the third quarter, Mariota hit Matthews for a 75-yard touchdown to cut Pittsburgh's lead to 16-14. The Steelers responded as Roethlisberger connected with Brown for the second time on a five-yard touchdown pass to get ahead, 23-14. On the Titans' following possession, TE Delanie Walker helped get Tennessee in Pittsburgh territory with a 42-yard reception on second-and five. Succop converted a 44-yard field goal as the Titans inched closer to Pittsburgh, 23-17.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger capped a 12-play, 75-yard scoring drive with a one-yard touchdown pass to Steelers TE Jesse James. After a Titans punt, the Pittsburgh offense took the field again and Roethlisberger quickly connected with Brown for the third time in the contest, for a 10-yard touchdown reception as the Steelers increased the lead to 37-17. On the following Tennessee possession, Mariota threw his third interception of the day as Steelers S Robert Golden picked the ball. The opportunistic Steelers capitalized on another Titans mistake and added another field goal to go up, 40-17. Tennessee was unable to engineer a comeback and fell to the Steelers in Pittsburgh by a final score of 40-17.

Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Through his first 12 seasons, Tomlin set a number of team and league records. His 125-66-1 record (.654) is the best start in franchise history, and he reached 100 career wins in the fewest games (157) in team history. Tomlin became the eighth head coach in NFL history to reach 100 regular-season wins in their first 10 seasons.

Tomlin also became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

Tomlin has reached the playoffs eight times in 12 seasons, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV).

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999–2000). Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches.

- RB Derrick Henry (1,059 rushing yards in 2018) can become the first player for the team since Chris Johnson (2008–2013) with consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons.
- RB Derrick Henry (12 rushing touchdowns in 2018) can become the second player in franchise history to record consecutive seasons with 12 or more rushing touchdowns, joining Earl Campbell (1978–1980).

- P Brett Kern (154 games with the Titans entering 2019) can surpass Keith Bulluck (157) for eighth place, Mike Munchak (159) for seventh place and Ray Childress (160) for sixth place on the team's all-time list for career games played.

- OLB Cameron Wake (98.0 career sacks entering 2019) needs two sacks to reach 100 career sacks. Entering 2019, 32 previous NFL players have reached the mark.

LAST WEEK VS. THE PATRIOTS

Preseason Week 2: Titans 17, Patriots 22 Saturday, Aug. 17, 2019 • 6:00 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 2 of the 2019 preseason, the Titans hosted the New England Patriots for a Saturday evening matchup following a week of joint practices in Nashville. Tennessee lost by a score of 22-17.

The Titans got on the board in the first quarter to take an early 8-0 lead on an 87-yard scoring drive. QB Marcus Mariota connected with TE Delanie Walker for an 11-yard touchdown catch, followed by a successful two-point conversion rush by Mariota. The Tennessee defense didn't allow a point in the first quarter, and CB Logan Ryan added an interception against his former team.

In the second quarter, New England responded with a game-tying scoring drive of their own led by Patriots QB Brian Hoyer. Patriots RB Brandon Bolden rushed in a one-yard score, and Hoyer connected with Patriots WR Jakobi Meyers for a successful two-point conversion to knot the score, 8-8.

The Titans added two more scores in the second quarter. A 22-yard reception by TE Anthony Firkser and a 13-yard catch by WR Darius Jennings helped move the Titans into the red zone. QB Ryan Tannehill hit RB Jeremy McNichols for an acrobatic 15-yard score. Tennessee pulled ahead, 15-8. Then, with the Patriots backed up to their own two-yard line complements of a Brett Kern placed punt, OLB Sharif Finch drew a holding penalty on Patriots TE Lance Kendricks in the endzone to incur a safety. The Titans increased the lead, 17-8.

New England tacked on another touchdown on their opening drive of the second half, with a 10-play, 81-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard rushing score by Patriots RB Nick Brossette. New England cut Tennessee's lead to 17-15.

In the fourth quarter, New England orchestrated their third touchdown of the game to take the lead for the first time. Patriots QB Jarrett Stidham tossed four first-down passes to move the chains before connecting with Patriots WR Damoun Patterson for a 23-yard score. New England went ahead 22-17, and preserved the score for a win in Tennessee.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SATURDAY, AUG. 17, 2019

HEAD COACH MIKE VRABEL

(on if he really wants quarterback Marcus Mariota flipping into the end zone)

Nope. I said great job and, you know, that's what he's going to have to do, he's going to have to make great decisions out there. We can't take the aggressiveness away from him, we'll just have to be smart. He knows where the goal line is, and he knows what he has to do, so we have to be able to do those types of things, but again, just be smart.

(on if he likes how the team was able to shake off the first two drives) Absolutely. I think that was good to see, that's how it goes sometimes. Things aren't going your way, you've got to regroup, figure out which plays you don't like and where the mistakes are and be able to go out and convert third downs and make some plays and start getting some momentum.

(on how he liked the work from tight end Delanie Walker)

It's always good to see him. He put a couple days in this week and wanted to play. He was very adamant about playing and getting out here tonight, so that's always good to be able to see some conversions and then the touchdown.

(on if the vertical attack tonight was by design)

We always have to be able to stretch the field and make plays down the field. The most important thing is hitting them, is being able to complete them and convert them. If they're sitting on us, then we have to be able to work the ball down field.

(on defensive lineman DaQuan Jones and defensive end Matt Dickerson)

They've taken the coaching, they've put a lot of work themselves in the weight room. They were recognized by the strength staff as guys that did a really great job. They started to take the technique and see it, translate that onto the field. All of that time they put in, everything that Terrell (Williams) is teaching them and Matt Pees. I try to work a little bit with that group, but they've taken those techniques and they've transferred them into the game and I think they've started to see some success and hopefully they can continue that.

(on if he saw enough from wide receiver A.J. Brown to evaluate him)

I don't think he caught a ball. We'll keep working him in there and get the opportunity, but that was good just to see him continue that return to play and get him in the game and get him through the process of warming up and figuring out where his locker is in the stadium and all of those things we haven't done.

(on how beneficial the last week was practicing against New England) Oh, it's great. To have a team come in here that's a proven winner, a proven organization, how they operate, how they do things. For us to be able to compete against them for two days and then play a game against them is always going to be beneficial.

(on the opportunity to make his first past interference challenge and the process behind it)

No, it was pretty quick. I mean, I don't know what review they had. We didn't have one last week and probably could have had one today. We've got to start challenging them, whether I agree with them or you agree with them, it's based on how one guy in New York sees it. We'll just keep figuring it out and we'll keep watching the tape and try to educate everybody, me included, and the players on what that process is.

(on the completions to Corey Davis during the touchdown drive and seeing more from him)

Sure. Completion, completed passes down the field, absolutely.

(on the sack on Marcus Mariota and the team being rusty)

We expected it and they threw blocks. We expected that. It's something we need to take care of. We'll just figure out what it was, talk to him and watch the tape. We expect that'd be taken care of.

(on Marcus Mariota pushing the ball down the field, getting the pass interference and if he wants more of that)

Yeah, we have to know when the pocket's there and trust it and be able to step up and deliver the football. But then there's going to be times where it's not and Marcus (Mariota) has to be the athletic quarterback that he is and trust that when he gets out of there, that he can still make a play down the field and he doesn't have to be for a play scramble. Those play extensions are hard to cover down the field.

(on A.J. Brown turning his route up field as a positive since he hasn't played with Marcus Mariota much)

Yeah, to be able to convert and understand where everybody needs to be on the, you know, the quarterback scramble when he's moving to you and what we want you to do and when he's moving away from you, how you get in your vision, all those types of things that we try to teach the receivers.

(on Taywan Taylor stepping forward)

I mean, he keeps competing and keeps showing up. I think we all just need to be a little more consistent and that goes for me and Tay (Taywan Taylor) and I would say everybody on the team or on the coaching staff. It's just finding more ways to be consistent.

QUARTERBACK MARCUS MARIOTA

(on the message from the coaching staff after the two-point conversion)

Nothing really to be honest with you. I was getting more grief probably from my teammates. Obviously, I was just trying to make a play, being instinctive. I didn't really think much about it.

(on what his teammates said about the two-point conversion)

They told me not to do it again. But yeah, I mean, again, it's just in the moment. I just kind of played instinctively and just tried to go get the two points.

(on how he felt about the game tonight)

It wasn't real good to start off. I thought we put together a nice drive at the end, but we've got to come out better.

(on how it was to have tight end Delanie Walker back on the field)

It's nice seeing 82 out there. Again, it's a privilege to play with somebody like that. We've been together now for five years, and that guy continues to make plays game in and game out. He's just fun to play with, and he makes my job easy.

(on his completion to wide receiver Corey Davis with the pocket breaking down)

I just continually go through my progressions. I believe in our guys. I trust these guys to get open, and for me, if I can buy a little time to help the guys create that extra separation, that will be huge for us.

(on the importance of chunk plays)

Any time you get the opportunity to go and make some of these plays, they're huge. They're huge momentum boosts. They're huge change of fields, and for instance, like you said, it gives us an opportunity to score. You can't just dink and dunk and, you know, two yards and a cloud of dust every time. If you can get some of these big plays, it will help you score more points.

(on the play of wide receiver A.J. Brown)

A young guy that can come in and help us out. I told him on the sideline, I've got to throw a better ball and give him a chance to go make a play. Day in and day out, just watching him work, the time and effort he's put in to know what to do to come out here and to play fast, I think he's going to help us out, and we've just to continue to help him build.

(on A.J. Brown's route when he was under pressure)

Yeah, absolutely. Go score a touchdown, I love that mentality. I'm sure he made a bunch of those plays in college, and I've just got to give him a chance.

(on what he likes about what the team has done in the preseason and what the next step is)

I don't put any credit on some of what we've done. I just think it's a process, we're looking to get better as an entire offense. If we can improve just here and there, we're going to be able to give our team a chance to score points, and hopefully score points.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

(on who had a better goal line flip between him and running back Jeremv McNichols)

Jeremy's for sure. He almost landed it, which would have been sweet too.

(on if getting hit for the first time in a while gave him confidence)

Well, I think it just kind of knocked some of the cobwebs out. Some of us haven't gotten hit in a few months, really, six, seven months, so it was nice. It was nice to kind of get back into that feel of the game. I just kind of play the game, I don't think much about it.

(on what the team got out of the two days of work with the Patriots)

I think it was really beneficial for us. The opportunity, again, to work against an organization, you're talking about the Super Bowl champs, so anytime you get that opportunity and to see where you stack up, and continue to just build off what you're doing, I think it's huge, and I think it's nice to get a change of pace in camp. You're so used to playing each other, and to have another team come in was a nice opportunity.

WIDE RECEIVER COREY DAVIS

(on the state of the offense)

It felt good, it felt real good to be out there with the guys running plays, catching a few balls. We moved the ball down the field, but unfortunately we got the loss.

(on quarterback Marcus Mariota's dive into the end zone)

It scared me a little bit. All I saw were legs in the air. He made it happen, got us the two-point conversion.

(on what the team will take away joint practices against the Patriots)

We'll take a lot away, to go out there and be able to practice with them and then come out here and play with them. Obviously, they're a great team, no matter who's out there. They have a great coach, and it's good to come out here and compete with a team that good. We've got things to clean up and a lot to learn.

QUARTERBACK RYAN TANNEHILL

(on getting acclimated to the offense)

I'm getting more comfortable by the day. The more time I'm in it, the better I feel, obviously. I'm getting a good grasp on it, I'm getting the nuances. Now it's just about executing those details to a level we expect.

(on Marcus Mariota's flip into the end zone)

I asked him what the heck he was doing. It's a preseason game, let's not break our neck going into the end zone. He's a competitor. He goes out and competes. He said, 'Its two points,' so that kind of shows you the sort of competitor he is. I have a ton of respect for Marcus, but I'd like to see him not break his neck in preseason game two.

(on a quarterback competition with Marcus Mariota)

I don't think that's an option at this point. I'm just going out and competing against the defense that's out there each and every play, and execute the calls best I can. The relationship grows each and every day. We spend a lot of time together, whether it's at practice, or in the meeting room. I really enjoy working with Marcus. Obviously, the role is different, last week going out and not starting the game. I hadn't done that since preseason of my rookie year.

(on national media's discussion of Marcus Mariota and himself)

I didn't know it was a story. I don't really listen to the media, sorry guys.

CORNERBACK LOGAN RYAN

(on picking off Patriots quarterback Brian Hoyer on a crossing route) I saw it a bunch this week. I didn't get the opportunity since they didn't throw it. I told someone yesterday if they run it on me, I'm going to pick it off.

(on the test of facing the Patriots this week)

It's a great test. We have a lot of confidence in our room. We went against the best challenge in No. 12 over there, and he tested us. We had some good days and some good plays, and he had some good plays. Everything was tough and contested, which is how you want it going against the best. I think it made us better.

(what the team has left to work on before the regular season)

Keep improving, day in and day out. We're a game-plan team, so we have Pittsburgh next, and I'm assuming we'll play the starters a little more next week to prepare for those guys. They have a great quarterback as well. You just have to take it one week at a time and one day at a time.

TIGHT END DELANIE WALKER

(on scoring reception from Marcus Mariota)

It made my job easy. Marcus always puts it in the right place. It made it easy for me to make the catch.

(on if this year's preseason is different)

Of course, missing a whole season, it just felt good getting out there to compete and hit some other guys live and have them tackle me. I didn't get tackled but it felt good just to be out there and get that old feeling back.

(on if he had anything going through his mind in pregame)

I think that is all of us, you know. We are a little nervous until that first play starts. We started off with a running play and that went away pretty fast. I never doubted it, the coaches gave me enough time to recover and when I did practice, I went a 100 percent and it felt good. I knew coming into the game I was going to be a little juiced up and it went well.

(on hearing crowd after first reception)

I heard them, that's why I just kind of stood there. I heard them and the reaction was great. I love hearing that from the fans. I am glad they support me and have my back. That goes a long way.

(on where this ranked as far as preseason games)

It's big, like I said earlier just missing a whole year, just being able to play again especially off the injury. Everyone doubted me, I am not saying y'all, but a lot of people, analysts that said I wouldn't be able to come back, I wouldn't be strong, so it felt good. It showed them they were wrong.

SAFETY KEVIN BYARD

(on how the defense has improved from last week to this week)

I think I feel real good after two hard days of some good practice, good competitive practice with the defending Super Bowl champions. It was good for our first team defense, as we only played two drives tonight. But, we were able to go out there with a strong outing. It was great, and like I said, we didn't see too much action, but the action where we did play I feel we made a strong showing.

(on playing in preseason games)

You really can't get caught up in preseason, and that you are not going to play that much. I just think that you have to take advantage of every opportunity, because it's a blessing to be able to wake up in the morning and play the sport you love. You have to take it serious, no matter how many reps you get, whether it's ten or a hundred reps. A lot of people do not get the opportunity to play this game, so I just try to take everything for what it is. Like I said, if I'm out there, I'm going to try to go my hardest.

(on assessing the defense overall as a unit)

I feel we have a lot of depth out there. That's one thing, I'm super excited is to watch the younger guys when they are out there competing, playing very hard, and I'm very excited for the older guys as well from where we were last year, being the second year of the Dean Pees' defense. I think we know a lot and we are a lot further ahead, so that's definitely a good sign to me. We are able to run a lot of packages and different things, so I'm excited about this next preseason game where we play a lot longer

Jon Robinson Discusses 2019 Free Agency Additions, QB Situation, and What's Next

JDRF Event a Success, with Help of Titans GM Jon Robinson

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first three years on the job, the Titans finished with three consecutive 9-7 seasons. It marked the first time the organization produced at least three consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans were one of six NFL teams to accomplish the feat from 2016–2018, joining New England, Seattle, Kansas City, Pittsburgh and Dallas. Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first three teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-91).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a Divisional Round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Robinson turned over more than 80 percent of the Titans roster in his first three years on the job. At the end of the 2018 campaign, 43 players on the club's 53-man roster (81.1 percent) were added after Robinson arrived in Tennessee—27 free agents, two players acquired via trade, one waiver pickup and 13 draft picks. An additional nine players he acquired (six free agents, two draft picks and one waiver claim) ended 2018 on injured reserve.

Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who figure to have key roles in 2019: Buccaneers wide receiver Adam Humphries, Rams guard Rodger Saffold, Dolphins defensive end/outside linebacker Cameron Wake and Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill via trade. Robinson also worked to re-sign starting safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall) and Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included a pair of former New England Patriots: Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler and running back Dion Lewis. In his first season in Tennessee, Butler played in all 16 games (11 starts) and finished second on the squad with three interceptions. Lewis rushed for 517 yards and added career highs with 59 receptions and 400 receiving yards. In early August, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 13 games.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans was slowed initially by an injury that caused him to miss the entire preseason, but he returned to play in 15 games with seven starts. Landry also appeared in 15 games (three starts), and his 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the Titans.

Robinson selected 23 total players in his first three drafts as general manager, and 15 of those picks remained with the club at the end of the 2018 season. During the same three years, he engineered 14 trades and made eight waiver claims (through December 2018).

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England), safety Johnathan Cyprien (Jacksonville) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. Davis led the Titans in receiving in 2018 (65 receptions for 891 yards). Jackson played in all 32 games in his first two seasons, totaling a team-high 34 passes defensed. He also led the team in punt returns in each of his first two campaigns. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured wide receiver Taywan Taylor and tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL. Jones started all 16 games and keyed a rushing attack that ranked third in the league, while Matthews set career highs with 65 receptions (tied for the team lead), a team-high 945 receiving yards and a team-high nine touchdown receptions.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press. Other rookies in 2016 who made significant contributions included second-round running back Derrick Henry, third-round safety Kevin Byard and fifth-round wide receiver Tajaé Sharpe. Henry led the team in rushing in both 2017 and 2018, while Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl berth in his second season. From 2017 through 2018, Byard's 12 interceptions led the NFL.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014-2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

THREE WINNING SEASONS

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced three consecutive winning seasons in Robinson's first three years on the job. The club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017 and 2018, with a postseason berth following the 2017 campaign.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first three teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-91).

Additionally, Robinson's .563 winning percentage qualified as the third best among the franchise's general managers in their first three seasons (minimum three seasons).

Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

FIRST-YEAR GENERAL MANAGERS

Jon Robinson was the 13th general manager hired in franchise history. In his first season, he helped lead the Titans to a 9-7 record after inheriting a 3-13 squad from 2015. No new general manager for the club had ever before seen a win increase of more than three games in his first

Robinson's nine wins were one shy of the previous record for a firstyear general manager, a mark shared by Mike Reinfeldt (10-6 in 2007) and Don Suman (10-3-1 in 1961).

Video: Igniting the Fire - Who is Mike Vrabel?

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018. He became the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadaveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012–2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive namingrights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products has held the naming rights to the stadium since 2006 and that exclusivity now shifts to Nissan.

Preseason Week 3: Titans vs. Steelers

Former Titans tight ends coach Arthur Smith was promoted to offensive coordinator in January 2019.

During his final season coaching the tight ends, Smith and the team were dealt a significant challenge when starter Delanie Walker suffered an injury in the season opener and was placed on injured reserve for the remainder of the season.

From Week 9-17, the Titans tight ends' 49 total receptions tied for the fourth-highest total in the league among tight ends. Additionally, their 607 receiving yards ranked fifth, and their six touchdown receptions tied for fourth place.

#8 · QB MARCUS MARIOTA

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Marcus Mariota (6-4, 222) completed is in his fifth NFL season in 2019. The Titans selected him with the No. 2 overall selection in the 2015 NFL Draft, and since that time, he arguably has had the best beginning to a career of any quarterback in team annals.

Mariota won 27 games as a starter from 2015 through 2018. It was the most by any quarterback in his first four seasons with the franchise since George Blanda joined the Oilers as a 10-year veteran in 1960 and earned 34 wins through 1963.

Mariota became the fifth quarterback in NFL history with at least 12,000 passing yards (12,004) and 1,200 rushing yards (1,270) in his first four seasons, joining Russell Wilson, Cam Newton, Jeff Garcia and Blake Bortles.

In 2018, Mariota completed 228 of 331 passes for 2,528 yards with 11 touchdowns, eight interceptions and a passer rating of 92.3. He is the only quarterback in franchise history to produce a passer rating of 90.0 or greater in three separate seasons.

Mariota's 68.9 completion percentage in 2018 shattered the previous franchise record. It was previously owned by Cody Carlson, who completed 65.6 percent of his passes (149 of 227) in 1992.

In 2017, Mariota led the team to the postseason and became the youngest quarterback in franchise history to win a playoff game. His statistics in the regular season included 281 completions, 3,232 yards and 13 touchdowns on 453 attempts (79.3 passer rating).

From 2015–2016, Mariota passed for 6,244 yards and 45 touchdowns, while throwing only 19 interceptions. His 93.8 passer rating during that time ranked sixth in NFL history for a player's first two NFL campaigns, trailing only Kurt Warner (107.9), Dan Marino (104.5), Nick Foles (101.0), Russell Wilson (100.6) and Ben Roethlisberger (98.3).

In 2016, Mariota started 15 games. He was 276-of-451 passing for 3,426 yards, 26 touchdowns and nine interceptions. His 95.6 passer rating ranks third in franchise history for a single season, behind only Warren Moon's 96.8 in 1990, when he was the Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year, and Steve McNair's 100.4 in 2003, when he was the NFL's Co-MVP. Only two quarterbacks with the franchise have had more touchdown passes in a season than Mariota in 2016: George Blanda (36 in 1961 and 27 in 1962) and Moon (33 in 1990).

During his rookie season, Mariota started 12 games, missing four total contests due to injuries. He completed 230 of his 370 passes for 2,818 yards, 19 touchdowns—all franchise rookie records—while throwing only 10 interceptions. At the time, his 91.5 passer rating ranked third in franchise history.

Mariota also set a franchise rookie record by completing 62.2 percent of his passes. That was the fifth-highest percentage by a rookie quarterback in NFL history and the eighth-highest completion percentage in a season by any quarterback in Titans/Oilers history.

On the ground in 2015, Mariota accounted for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 34 carries. He finished second in franchise history in rushing yards by a rookie quarterback, trailing only Young's 2006 total of 552 rushing yards. Mariota's total included an 87-yard touchdown run against Jacksonville (Dec. 6), which was the fifth-longest rushing play in franchise history.

Mariota joined Manning (1998) as the only rookie quarterbacks in NFL history to complete three touchdown passes in four different games, and he became the lone NFL rookie to ever record two games with four touchdown passes and no interceptions (Sept. 13 at Tampa Bay and Nov. 8 at New Orleans).

He entered the NFL following a historic career at the University of Oregon. He concluded his three seasons as the school's starting quarterback by winning the Heisman Trophy and leading his team to the College Football Playoff Championship Game.

Mariota broke nearly every major passing record at Oregon, totaling 10,796 career passing yards and 105 touchdown passes. The three-time All-Pac-12 selection started every game over his three seasons, earning a 36-5 record, and he completed at least one touchdown pass in every contest. He became one of four players in FBS history to pass for 10,000 yards and rush for 2,000 yards (2,237) in a career, joining Dan LeFevour, Griffin and Colin Kaepernick.

During his Heisman season in 2014, Mariota directed the Ducks to a Rose Bowl victory over Florida State. His totals for the year included 4,454 passing yards, 42 touchdown passes and only four interceptions. He also rushed for 770 yards and 15 touchdowns and even caught a touchdown pass. His 58 total touchdowns in a season (passing, rushing and receiving) shattered Matt Barkley's (2011) previous Pac-12 record of 41 touchdowns.

The 6-foot-4-inch, 222-pound signal caller became the fifth Heisman Trophy winner to be drafted by the Oilers/Titans, joining Billy Cannon, Earl Campbell, Mike Rozier and Eddie George. Derrick Henry became the sixth Heisman winner drafted by the club when he was selected in 2016.

At the 2015 NFL Scouting Combine, he finished among the top three quarterbacks in the 40-yard dash, vertical jump, broad jump, three-cone drill and 20-yard shuttle. His 4.52-second 40-yard dash gave him the fastest quarterback time at the Combine since Griffin's 4.41 in 2012.

Mariota is a native of Honolulu, Hawaii.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- > At Philadelphia (8/8), played the first series of the game and completed four of eight passes for 24 yards.

Chris Johnson (800 rushing yards in November 2009) and Earl Campbell (633 in October 1980; 662 in November 1980) were the organization's only other players to accomplish the feat in that timespan.

Henry's December rushing totals included 40 yards against the New York Jets (Dec. 2), a franchise-record 238 yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 6), 170 yards at the New York Giants (Dec. 16), 84 yards against the Washington Redskins (Dec. 22) and 93 yards against the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 30).

For his efforts, Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month.

Smith's 2018 campaign came to a premature end. He suffered a knee injury against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6 and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on Dec. 11. Prior to the injury, he played in 13 games with 12 starts and achieved career highs with 20 receptions, 258 receiving yards and three touchdowns. He led the club's tight ends in all three categories at the time of his injury.

During the 2017 regular season, Smith was one of three rookie tight ends to appear in all 16 games (Gerald Everett and David Njoku) and one of two rookie tight ends with at least 13 starts (O.J. Howard). He caught 18 passes for 157 yards and two touchdowns, ranking fifth among all rookie tight end in receptions. He also caught three passes for 19 yards in two postseason games.

Smith concluded his four-year career at Florida International University's all-time leader among tight ends in receptions and receiving yards, totaling 178 receptions for 2,001 yards and 18 touchdowns. On the school's all-time receiving list, regardless of position, Smith finished fourth in receptions, fifth in receiving yards and third in receiving touchdowns.

Smith finished his career registering at least one reception in every game he played. The 43-game streak was the second-longest streak of its kind in school annals.

During his senior campaign, he started 11 games and earned second-team All-Conference USA honors. He registered 42 receptions for 506 yards and four touchdowns.

As a sophomore (2014), led all college tight ends with 61 receptions, 710 receiving yards and eight touchdown catches.

Smith is a native of Philadelphia, Pa.

Despite spending the final three contests on injured reserve, he participated in 609 total offensive snaps in 2018 (including penalized plays), a total that ranked fourth among all tight ends in their rookie, first-year or second-year seasons. The only three such tight ends with more offensive snaps than Smith were San Francisco's George Kittle (925), Cleveland's David Njoku (863) and the New York Jets' Christopher Herndon (624).

Smith's offensive play total ranked third among all non-linemen on the Titans. Only wide receiver Corey Davis (870) and quarterback Marcus Mariota (773) had more.

#82 • TE DELANIE WALKER

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Tight end Delanie Walker (6-0, 248) is in his 14th NFL season and his seventh campaign with the Titans in 2018. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2013 after spending the first seven years of his career with the San Francisco 49ers.

Walker's 2018 campaign came to a sudden and premature end. He was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 10 due to a leg injury he suffered in the season opener at Miami the previous day.

In Walker's time with the Titans, he has put his name among the top players in franchise history at his position. From 2013-2017, he totaled 356 receptions for 4,156 yards and 26 touchdowns. All three numbers put him second in club history behind only Frank Wycheck (482 receptions for 4,958 yards and 27 touchdowns). In the same five seasons, no NFL tight end totaled more receptions than Walker.

Walker posted at least 60 receptions in each of his first five seasons in Tennessee. Prior to his arrival, Wycheck was the only Titans/Oilers tight end to reach the plateau in a single campaign. Walker also recorded the top four single-season receiving yardage totals in franchise history among tight ends from 2014-2017.

Walker and Kansas City's Travis Kelce were the NFL's only tight ends to post at least 800 receiving yards every season from 2014–2017.

In 2017, Walker was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl after leading the club with 74 receptions and 807 receiving yards. His three touchdown catches ranked second on the squad. Among all NFL tight ends, his reception total tied for third place, and his yardage total ranked fourth.

In 2016, Walker tied for the team lead with 65 catches for 800 yards and a career-high seven touchdowns, and he was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl. He ranked sixth in receiving yards among NFL tight ends, and he was second in the AFC behind only Kansas City's Travis Kelce. Also among tight ends, his reception total tied for eighth in the NFL, and his touchdown total tied for third.

In 2015, Walker set new team records among tight ends with 94 receptions and 1,088 receiving yards. He broke his own receiving yardage record (890 in 2014) and Wycheck's reception record (70 in 1998 and 2000) for franchise tight ends. On the team's all-time single-season receptions list, regardless of position, Walker tied wide receiver Kendall Wright (94 receptions in 2013) for the fifth-highest total. Walker's 94 receptions tied Jason Witten (94 catches in 2009 and 2010) for the 10th-highest total in NFL history by a tight end.

In 2014, Walker's team-leading 890 receiving yards set a then-career high and set a new standard among Titans/Oilers tight ends, eclipsing Wycheck's 768 receiving yards in 1998. Walker's 63 receptions in 2014 at the time also led the team, set a career high, and tied for fourth in team

Appearing in 15 games with 11 starts in 2013, he totaled 60 receptions for 571 yards and six touchdowns. He set then-career highs in all three categories. Also, he became the only tight end in franchise history other than Wycheck to reach 60 receptions in a single season. Wycheck accomplished the feat five times from 1997 through 2001, including 70 receptions in both 1998 and 2000 to establish the record for Titans/Oilers tight ends. Walker's six touchdown receptions tied for fourth place in franchise history among tight ends and were the most since Wycheck's six in 1996.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, the former sixth-round pick appeared in 99 career regular-season games with the 49ers (40 starts) and totaled 123 receptions for 1,465 yards (11.9 avg.) and eight touchdowns. A regular contributor on special teams, Walker posted 61 special teams tackles as well as 31 kickoff returns for 528 yards during his time in San Francisco.

In 2012, Walker played an integral role in the 49ers' second consecutive playoff season, as he teamed with Vernon Davis to form one of the NFL's top tight-end duos. He saw action in all 16 regular-season games (four starts) and set a career high with 344 yards and three touchdowns (matched career high) on 21 receptions. His average of 16.4 yards per catch was the highest among all NFL tight ends with 20 or more catches.

During the 2012 playoffs, he appeared in all three games and started in Super Bowl XLVII. In the Super Bowl, he recorded three receptions for 48 yards.

Walker was a sixth-round pick in the 2006 NFL Draft. As a rookie, he appeared in only seven games with one start. Then, in 2007, he played in all 16 contests and set a career high with 10 starts. It began a string of six seasons (2007-12) during which he missed a total of four games. In 2010, he set his career high with 29 receptions.

A native of Pomona, Calif., Walker spent two seasons (2002-03) at Mt. San Antonio (Calif.) Community College before joining the University of Central Missouri Mules for his final two collegiate campaigns (2004-05). As a wide receiver at Central Missouri, he caught 113 passes for 1,347 yards in 20 games. The 49ers selected him with the 175th overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft.

2019 Preseason Notes:

- > At Philadelphia (8/8), did not play.
- > Against New England (8/17), played in a game for the first time since suffering an injury in the 2018 season opener at Miami (Sept. 9). He caught two passes for 26 yards and a score. In the first quarter, he capped a long scoring drive with an 11-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Marcus

#78 • T JACK CONKLIN

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Jack Conklin is in his fourth NFL season in 2019. The 6-foot-6, 308-pound tackle was selected by the Titans with the eighth pick in the first round of the NFL Draft.

Conklin's 2018 season came to an end with three games remaining due to a knee injury he suffered against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6. Prior to going on injured reserve, he played and started in nine games on the season, all at right tackle.

Conklin started every game at right tackle in his first two seasons, including all 16 games in the 2017 regular season and both postseason games. However, he suffered a torn ACL during the second and final playoff contest at New England. The injury led him to spend all of training camp and preseason in 2018 on the physically unable to perform list.

As a rookie, Conklin became the team's first player to start all 16 games at left or right tackle as a rookie since Michael Roos in 2005. He was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Conklin was named an alternate for the Pro Bowl and was named first-team Associated Press All-Pro. He became the first Titans player to receive first-team All-Pro honors since running back Chris Johnson in 2009 and the first Titans rookie to receive the honor since defensive end Jevon Kearse in 1999. Conklin joined Dallas guard Zack Martin (2014) as the only rookie offensive linemen since the AFL-NFL merger to be named first-team AP All-Pro.

Conklin became the first draft pick by new general manager Jon Robinson. The Titans, who initially had the first pick in the draft but traded with the Los Angeles Rams back to the 15th spot, made a deal with the Cleveland Browns to jump up to the eighth spot to select Conklin. The Titans gave up a third-round pick and a second-rounder in 2017 in the trade and also got back a sixth-rounder.

The Michigan State product was a walk-on for the Spartans but went on to become the first Michigan State offensive lineman to be selected in the first round since 1989 (Tony Mandarich) and also the highest drafted Spartan since wide receiver Charles Rogers (No. 2) in 2003.

In his final season on campus, Conklin was named second-team All-American by The Associated Press and was on numerous All-Big Ten teams.

#99 · DT JURRELL CASEY

CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO

Defensive lineman Jurrell Casey (6-1, 305) is in his ninth NFL season in 2019. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (77th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft.

A five-time defensive captain and a two-time Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, Casey was named to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl at the conclusion of the 2018 season.

However, his season was cut short due to a knee injury he suffered on Dec. 22 against Washington.

Prior to the injury, he started 15 games and totaled 72 tackles, seven sacks, seven tackles for loss, a career-high 50 quarterback pressures, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. It marked the third time in his career he totaled at least seven sacks.

Casey finished his 2018 campaign in eighth place in franchise history with 46 career sacks. His total ranked second among all defenders in the "Titans era" behind only Jevon Kearse's 52 sacks.

In 2017, Casey started all 16 games and set a career high with 35 quarterback pressures, which ranked second on the team. His six sacks also ranked second on the squad, as he reached the mark for the third time in his career.

With six sacks in 2017, Casey became the first player for the team since Ray Childress (1986-1994) to register five or more consecutive seasons with at least five sacks.

In 2016, Casey started 15 games and set a then-career high with 29 quarterback pressures in addition to 51 tackles, five sacks, three tackles for loss and five passes defensed. He became the first player for the team in the "Titans era" (1999-present) to register four consecutive seasons with at least five sacks.

In 2015, he started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and for the third time in his career. He led the team's defensive linemen with 86 tackles and tied Brian Orakpo for the team lead with seven sacks, the second-best total in Casey's career. Casey also set a then-career high and finished second on the team behind Orakpo with 28 quarterback pressures. He was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career.

Casey was named one of five permanent team captains by his teammates for the first time in 2014. While remaining a key cog in the defense's switch from a 4-3 to a 3-4 scheme, he started all 16 games and led the team's defensive linemen (fourth on the team) with 86 tackles. His 27 quarterback pressures and 13 tackles for loss tied for the team lead and set new career highs. With five sacks, he ranked second on the squad.

In 2013, Casey was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after putting together one of the best seasons by a defensive tackle in franchise history. His 10.5 sacks set a career high and made up the second-highest total by a franchise defensive tackle since sacks became an official statistic in 1982, finishing behind only Ray Childress' 13 sacks in 1992. In 2013, only Jason Hatcher of the Dallas Cowboys (11) finished with more sacks than Casey among defensive tackles.

Casey started 31 out of 32 games in his first two seasons, and in each campaign he led the team's defensive linemen in tackles. As a rookie, he notched 74 tackles and 2.5 sacks, and he followed with 80 tackles and three sacks in 2012.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Casey played in 38 games (26 starts) on the defensive line (24 at right defensive tackle and two at nose tackle) at the University of Southern California. He recorded 138 tackles, nine sacks, 22 tackles for loss, three quarterback pressures, four fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, an interception and three passes defensed.

In his final season with the Trojans (2010), he started all 13 games for the second consecutive season and had 67 tackles, a team-best 11 tackles for loss, a team-leading 4.5 sacks, one interception, one fumble recovery and two passes defensed. He was named first-team All-Pac 10.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. At the end of the 2018 campaign, he ranked as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.8 yards) and net punting average (40.5). Kern owns the top seven net punting seasons in franchise history and eight of the team's top 10 net punting seasons.

In 2018, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season. His 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2016, Kern punted 77 times for a 44.2-yard gross average and a 38.6-yard net average. He placed 41.6 percent of his punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line (32 of 77), which ranked second in his career (42.2 in 2009).

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he broke the mark in 2014).

Kern's 2011 statistics included 86 punts for a gross average of 43.6 yards. His net average of 39.4 yards set a then-career high and thenfranchise record, narrowly beating out Craig Hentrich's previous franchise record of 39.2 net yards per punt in 1998.

TITANS AWARD $450,000 IN GRANTS

Titans Owner Amy Adams Strunk Distributes $450,000 in Grant Funding to 10 Local Non-Profits as "We Stand For" Campaign Takes Center Stage

by Jim Wyatt, TitansOnline.com July 30, 2019

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - A year ago, the Titans launched the "We Stand For" campaign, designed to bring the public's attention to the causes that are important to the team's players, coaches and executives.

On Tuesday, it was on full display -- along with some big checks handed out by controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Several of the team's leaders, including general manager Jon Robinson, head coach Mike Vrabel and three players - tight end Delanie Walker, linebacker Wesley Woodyard, and defensive lineman Jurrell Casey - were on hand for a community engagement panel at Nissan Stadium, where they discussed the causes that are dear to them.

Then, Amy Adams Strunk handed out $450,000 in grant funding to 10 local non-profit organizations at the end of a luncheon.

"Mike said, "We're all family," and what they stand for, we stand for," Strunk said. "We want to be a part of the community and be a part of the change, and just be good Samaritans. (Our players) take their feelings about this community (seriously) - they're so strong. And they just want to do what they can to make it a better place. Nashville is great, but we can always be better.

"Today was fun. It was a surprise (to the check recipients) and that made it even more fun. ... It just means so much that we have taken on different causes now that maybe we wouldn't have thought about if our players hadn't brought them to us. I think it's a great thing."

The grants handed out on Tuesday ranged from $25,000 to $100,000 and support non-profit organizations in the spaces of education, African American history and culture, social justice, diversionary and re-entry programs, immigrant outreach and domestic violence and sexual assault.

The $100,000 grant recipients:

- National Museum of African American Music
- NAACP Freedom Fund

The $50,000 grant recipients:

- Community Achieves by Metro Nashville Public Schools
- Nashville GRAD

The $25,000 grant recipients:

- Project Return
- Davidson County Drug Court Program (DC4)
- Thistle Farms
- Sexual Assault Center
- Nashville International Center for Empowerment
  - Conexion Americas

Grant recipients were selected not only on merit but also based on their affiliation with a cause identified as important to a player, coach or executive through the team's "We Stand For" campaign.

The organization's hope for the "We Stand For" campaign is to foster positive dialogue around the community work of its players and executives and raise awareness for the associated causes. The campaign was launched to give Titans players, coaches and front office a platform to better showcase causes and charities that are important to them, and to foster positive dialogue around their community and the work of their associated charities.

Along with his wife Ryann, the Caseys established the Casey Fund, a nonprofit dedicated to addressing the needs of at-risk youth as well as formerly incarcerated individuals by raising money for re-entry programs, inner-city youth programs, mentoring, and halfway houses.

Casey said the organization's work in the community - and Strunk's generosity - has inspired everyone to do more.

"It's unbelievable," said Casey, the 2018 Titans recipient of the Walter Payton Man of the Year award. "For you to have an owner and an organization to do something this incredible in the community, something we fight for all the time. ... For Amy to do something like this, I am baffled, I am speechless. She has done something so amazing it touches my heart down deep."

TITANS RADIO AFFILIATES

Titans Radio brings football to fans across the Mid-South in one of the NFL's largest radio networks, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone.

Play-by-play announcer Mike Keith connection with pro football across the Mid-South dates back to 1996, a year before the Oilers arrived in Tennessee, and he became the "Voice of the Titans" in 1999. Former Titans assistant coach and NFL head coach Dave McGinnis began serving as Titans Radio's color analyst in 2017, while Titans Radio gameday host Rhett Bryan's involvement with the broadcast dates back to 1997. Jonathan Hutton has been a member of the Titans Radio gameday crew since 2014, while Amie Wells has been reporting on the sidelines since 2018.

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated video photographers (coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. All vests must be obtained prior to each game at the vest check-in table in the field level concourse. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or a designated vest receptacle.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines and pool phone lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO LOCKER ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right, and the Titans locker room (blue line) is straight ahead. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's locker room and interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will be allowed on the field during pre-game activities but not during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. All media members will have field access once all of the players and coaches have exited the field. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TitansOnline.com.
