TITANS HOST TEXANS IN WEEK 15

Tennessee Titans (5-8) vs. Houston Texans (7-6)
Sunday, Dec. 17, 2023 • Noon CST • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • TV: CBS

NASHVILLE — Following a dramatic Monday night win at Miami, the Tennessee Titans (5-8) host the division-rival Houston Texans (7-6) this week at Nissan Stadium (capacity 69,143). Kickoff is scheduled for noon CST on Dec. 17.

The Titans will wear their Oilers throwback uniforms on a day in which they will also induct Oilers legend Billy "White Shoes" Johnson into the franchise's Ring of Honor. The classic uniforms, which were first reintroduced on Oct. 29 against the Atlanta Falcons, feature Columbia Blue jerseys, white pants and white helmets adorned with the oil derrick logo. Apart from 2009, when the team donned throwbacks modeled after its 1960 inaugural club, the 2023 season marks the first time the team has played in Oilers attire since 1998, the final season before the franchise became the Titans.

THE BROADCAST

The contest will be regionally televised on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5, as well as on Paramount+ in the Nashville market. The broadcast team includes play-by-play announcer Spero Dedes, analyst Adam Archuleta and reporter Aditi Kinkhabwala.

Fans in Nashville can stream live Titans games on mobile devices with NFL+, which offers access to local games and all primetime games on phones and tablets. Out of market, fans can watch every Sunday afternoon game with Sunday Ticket. More information on ways to watch NFL games can be found here.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Ramon Foster and gameday host Rhett Bryan. Streaming is available at the Titans Mobile App for listeners in the Nashville market and available everywhere for desktop users.

Additionally, Compass Media Networks will broadcast the game to a national radio audience. Play-by-play announcer Mike Morgan and analyst Brian Baldinger have the call.

TITANS HAVE SHORT WEEK AFTER MONDAY GAME AT MIAMI

The Titans will have a short week to prepare for the Texans after traveling to Miami for a Monday night clash with the Dolphins. During a memorable comeback in which they scored 15 points in a span of 51 seconds, they erased a 14-point deficit to win 28-27. For the first time in franchise history, they won in regulation after trailing by 14 or more points with less than three minutes to go in the fourth quarter, and they became the first team to do so since the Oakland Raiders against the Pittsburgh Steelers on Sept. 12, 1976.

Rookie quarterback Will Levis started his seventh consecutive game and completed 23 of 38 passes for 327 yards and one touchdown. He registered his first career game-winning drive while also becoming the NFL's first rookie quarterback in the history of Monday Night Football to record a 300-yard passing game.

Elsewhere on offense, running back Derrick Henry registered his third consecutive game with two rushing touchdowns, while rookie running back Tyjae Spears accounted for 118 scrimmage yards, including 89 receiving yards. Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins posted a game-high 124 yards on seven receptions, including a touchdown.

The defense was led by outside linebacker Harold Landry III, who tallied a career-high three sacks—all coming in the fourth quarter. Landry, who has 8.5 sacks in 2023, moved into 11th place in franchise history with 39.5 career sacks.

THE TEXANS

The Texans traveled to New York last week and lost 30-6 at the hands of the Jets. It was their largest margin of defeat this season. However, the Texans remain one game behind the 8-5 Jacksonville Jaguars and tied with the 7-6 Indianapolis Colts for second place in the AFC South race.

The Texans are in their first year under the leadership of head coach DeMeco Ryans. The former Texans linebacker spent the previous six years on the coaching staff of the San Francisco 49ers, including two campaigns as the defensive coordinator.

Texans rookie quarterback C.J. Stroud was selected from Ohio State University with the second overall pick in the 2023 NFL Draft. Although he is only 13 games into his rookie campaign, Stroud ranks second in the NFL this season in passing yards (3,631) and fifth in passer rating (98.7).

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans-Texans rivalry is in its 22nd year since the expansion Texans began play and the AFC South was formed in 2002. In 42 games, the Titans are 23-19 against the Texans, including a 12-9 mark at Nissan Stadium and an 11-10 record at NRG Stadium.

The Texans defeated the Titans in the most recent matchup at Nissan Stadium. On Dec. 24, 2022, the Texans prevailed 19-14 after kickoff was delayed an hour due to Nashville-area power issues caused by extreme-cold temperatures (20 degrees at kickoff). Quarterback Davis Mills recorded the start and the win for the Texans, out-dueling Titans rookie starter Malik Willis.

In the first meeting of 2022, played on Oct. 30, Willis recorded his first career start. The Titans leaned on Derrick Henry, who rushed for 219 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and the team's 314 rushing yards ranked second in franchise history. The defense allowed only 161 yards, and the Titans won 17-10.

Several recent late-season battles with the Texans have had playoff implications for the Titans. On Jan. 9, 2022, they won 28-25 at Houston to clinch the top seed in the AFC playoff field.

In the 2020 season finale (Jan. 3, 2021), the Titans traveled to Houston needing a win to secure their first AFC South title since 2008. They got it when Sam Sloman's 37-yard field goal provided the margin in a 41-38 win, capping an historic afternoon during which Henry established a franchise record with 250 rushing yards and concluded the season with a franchise-record 2,027 rushing yards.

In the 2019 finale, the two eventual playoff teams met at NRG Stadium. The Texans had already clinched the AFC South, while the Titans went into the day potentially needing a win to secure the wild card berth. The Texans had defended their home turf a series-record seven consecutive times against the Titans, but the Titans came away with a 35-14 win.

The Titans franchise has a rich and storied history with the city of Houston. Under late owner K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr., the Titans existed as the Houston Oilers from 1960-96. In Houston, the Oilers won the first two American Football League Championships and made a total of 15 playoff appearances. The team moved to Tennessee in 1997 and in 1999 adopted the "Titans" moniker.

Ten players who spent a significant portion of their careers in a Houston Oilers uniform are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, including former quarterback Warren Moon, outside linebacker Robert Brazile, defensive tackle Curley Culp and offensive lineman Bruce Matthews.

Current Titans Controlling Owner and Chairman Amy Adams Strunk is a graduate of the University of Texas and resides in Waller, Texas.

GAME PREVIEW | TEAM NOTES | PLAYER NOTES | MEDIA | STATISTICS | ROSTERS

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

DL DENICO AUTRY
- Enters the game with nine sacks in 2023, which ties his career high (2018 and 2021). He will establish a new career high with a half sack. With one sack, he could register the team's 11th double-digit sack season in its "Titans era" (1999–present) and the first since Harold Landry III in 2021 (12).

K NICK FOLK
- Enters the game with an all-time NFL-record streak of 77 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.
- Needs one point (99 entering the game) for his 11th career season and fourth consecutive season with at least 100 points.

RB DERRICK HENRY
- Can set the franchise record by recording his fourth consecutive game with at least two rushing touchdowns. He would become the eighth NFL player since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to accomplish the feat.
- Needs 125 rushing yards (875 entering the game) to record his fifth career 1,000-yard rushing season.
- A 125-yard rushing effort would also make him the 10th player in NFL history to record at least five seasons with 1,000 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns.
- Can record his 41st total 100-yard rushing game, including regular season (38) and playoffs (three). He would surpass Earl Campbell (40) for the most such games in franchise history. His 38th such regular-season game would be only one game behind only Campbell (39) for the franchise record.
- With six career 200-yard rushing games, he needs one more to surpass Adrian Peterson (six) and O.J. Simpson (six) for the most such games all-time.
- Enters the game with 88 career rushing touchdowns, which ranks 15th in NFL history. He needs two rushing touchdowns to tie Eric Dickerson (90) and Curtis Martin (90) for 13th place all-time.
- Can register his seventh game of 2023 with 100 or more scrimmage yards and his 49th career game (regular season) with 100-plus scrimmage yards. In franchise history, only Eddie George (54) has more.
- With 1,964 career rushing attempts, he needs 16 more to pass Earl Campbell (1,979) for the second-highest total in franchise history behind Eddie George (2,733).

WR DeANDRE HOPKINS
- Can extend his active streak to 159 consecutive games with a reception—every game he has played since he entered the NFL. He would surpass Marshall Faulk (158) for the third-longest such streak to begin a career in NFL history behind only Marvin Harrison (190 consecutive games) and Keyshawn Johnson (167).
- Can register his 43rd career 100-yard receiving game and his fourth 100-yard game as a member of the Titans.
- Enters the week with six touchdown catches in his last seven games.
- With 102 receiving yards (898 entering the game), he will register his seventh career 1,000-yard receiving season.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III
- With 39.5 career sacks (11th in franchise history), he needs a half sack to become the 11th player in franchise history with 40 career sacks.
- Has 7.5 sacks in his last eight games.
- Entering the contest with 8.5 sacks in 2023, he needs 1.5 sacks to reach 10 sacks for the second time in his career (12 in 2021).

QB WILL LEVIS
- Can become the fourth rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least eight games, joining Dan Pastorini (eight starts in 1971), Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 starts in 2015).
- Can become the first Titans quarterback with consecutive 300-yard passing games since Matt Hasselbeck in 2011.

TITANS-TEXANS: THE LAST MEETING

2022 Week 16: Titans 14, Texans 19
Saturday, Dec. 24, 2022 • 1:02 p.m. CT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 16 of the 2022 season, the Titans hosted the Texans for a Saturday matchup against the division opponent and fell to Houston by a score of 19-14.

Tennessee put up the game's first points with a five-play scoring drive in the opening stanza. With a first down at the Houston 48-yard line, RB Derrick Henry took the handoff and raced into the end zone for a 48-yard score, 7-0 Titans. However, Houston responded on the ensuing possession with a game-tying score. Texans QB Davis Mills connected with Texans TE Jordan Akins for a 30-yard gain, but then on third-and-goal, Mills fumbled the football. However, it was recovered in the end zone by Texans RB Royce Freeman for a touchdown, 7-7.

In the second stanza, the Texans recorded a 13-play possession that included two first-down rushes by Freeman. Ultimately, the Titans' defense forced Houston to settle for a field goal as Texans K Ka'imi Fairbairn converted a 25-yard attempt, 10-7 Texans.

Tennessee took the lead back in the third quarter. With a drive that began at their own 48-yard line, QB Malik Willis scrambled for a 12-yard first down, WR Treylon Burks sprinted for a15 yards on a reverser, and then Willis logged his first career touchdown on a 14-yard rushing score. The Titans pulled ahead, 14-10.

However, Houston scored nine points in the final stanza to take the lead back and seal a win. First, Texans LB Jake Hansen forced Henry to fumble the ball and it was recovered by Texans DL Jonathan Greenard at the Houston 42-yard line. The Texans capitalized on the turnover and tacked on a 27-yard field goal to take the lead, 14-13.

Then later in the fourth quarter, Houston logged a five-play scoring possession that included a 20-yard pass from Mills to Texans WR Phillip Dorsett, and a 37-yard ball to Texans WR Amari Rodgers. Ultimately Mills found Texans WR Brandin Cooks in the end zone for a six-yard touchdown. Houston elected to attempt a two-point conversion, but the pass failed as the Texans were able to preserve a 19-14 victory at Nissan Stadium.

LAST WEEK VS. THE DOLPHINS

Week 14: Titans 28, Dolphins 27
Monday, Dec. 11, 2023 • 8:15 p.m. EST • Hard Rock Stadium

In Week 14 of the 2023 season, the Titans traveled to Miami for a prime time matchup against the Dolphins and staged a thrilling comeback to win by a score of 28-27 in the final minutes.

After the Titans started the game going three and out, the Dolphins took over at their own 28-yard line. QB Tua Tagovaila drove Miami down the field with four passes for 48 yards to four different receivers. On the Titans two-yard line, facing second-and-goal, DL Jaleel Johnson knocked the ball loose from Tagovailoa and DL TK McLendon Jr. recovered it at the seven-yard line. However, just three plays later, QB Will Levis was intercepted by DL Zach Sieler at the Titans' five-yard line and returned it for a touchdown for the Dolphins to take an early 7-0 lead.

In the second quarter, the Titans strung together a 14-play, 86-yard drive that culminated in a RB Derrick Henry one-yard touchdown run. The drive featured a 22-yard reception by WR Chris Moore as well as an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on LB Bradley Chubb to set the Titans up at the Miami 12-yard line. Levis rushed it 11 yards before Henry found the end zone to tie the game.

The Dolphins then drove down to the Titans 30-yard line before being forced to try a field goal. DL Denico Autry blocked the attempt to keep the score tied at 7-7 with 1:51 left in the half.

After trading punts, the Titans started a drive at their own 21-yard line with 28 seconds remaining. The Titans drove 69 yards in six plays including two completions to WR DeAndre Hopkins for 22 yards and 45 yards to bring the Titans to the Dolphins 10-yard line. After two incompletions, K Nick Folk hit the 28-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to give the Titans their first lead of the game at 10-7.

Miami tied the game on the opening possession of the second half with an 11-play, 77-yard drive that ended with a 20-yard field goal from K Jason Sanders after Tennessee stopped Miami's offense at the two-yard line.

With 5:53 remaining in the third quarter, Titans drove 60 yards to the Dolphins five-yard line. Levis found WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for what originally was called a touchdown but was later overturned as the Titans settled for a 23-yard field goal by Folk to take the 13-10 lead.

Miami answered with a 31-yard field goal by Sanders to tie the game at 13-13 with 12:37 left in the fourth.

After a muffed punt by DB Eric Garror was recovered at the Tennessee seven-yard line, RB Raheem Mostert scored on a five-yard touchdown run to give the Dolphins a 20-13 lead.

On the very next play, Levis tried to pitch the ball to Henry but the ball fell free and was recovered by the Dolphins at the Titans 12-yard line. Mostert scored three plays later on a five-yard run to make it 27-13 with 4:34 remaining in the game.

The Titans responded with a touchdown less than two minutes later. Levis drove the team nine plays for 75 yards with six completions to four different receivers before finding Hopkins for the three-yard score. The Titans went for two and Levis found Westbrook-Ikhine in the end zone to make it 27-21 with 2:40 remaining in the game.

The Tennessee defense forced a three and out to give the offense the ball back at their own 36-yard line. Two completions for 52 yards later, the Titans were at the Miami 12-yard line. RB Tyjae Spears ran it six yards before Henry finished the drive off with his second touchdown of the day.

The Tennessee defense got one more stop after sacking Tagovailoa on fourth-and-two to seal the prime time road victory for the Titans.

- The Dolphins did not score an offensive touchdown through the first three quarters of a game for the first time since Jan. 8, 2023 against the New York Jets.

McLendon at Tennessee's seven-yard line. Johnson was credited with his second career forced fumble (first of 2023) and increased his career total to 7.5 sacks (first of 2023).

➢ Totaled two tackles.

OLB ARDEN KEY

➢ Posted two tackles, including a sack.

➢ Recorded a five-yard sack of Tua Tagovailoa in the second quarter, improving his season total to five sacks and his career total to 19 sacks.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

➢ Led the team and established a new career high with three sacks—all coming in the fourth quarter. His previous career high was two sacks, which he accomplished on four prior occasions.

➢ Notched the team's first three-sack performance in the regular season since Jeffery Simmons (three) at the Los Angeles Rams on Nov. 7, 2021.

➢ Recorded a 10-yard sack of Tua Tagovailoa in the fourth quarter and added a nine-yard sack on Miami's next possession.

➢ He improved his season total to 8.5 sacks and his career total to 39.5 sacks. In doing so, he passed Kyle Vanden Bosch (38.5) for 11th place on the team's all-time sack list. He owns the team's seventh-best total since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

➢ His three sacks tied Jeffery Simmons' total from Nov. 7, 2021 at the Los Angeles Rams for the most sacks by a Titans player in a primetime game during the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present).

➢ Became the NFL's first player to record three sacks in the fourth quarter of a game since Tampa Bay's Devin White at Atlanta on Dec. 20, 2020. No Titans/Oilers player had previously accomplished the feat since at least 1991.

➢ Completed 23 of 38 passes for 327 yards and a touchdown with one interception (86.2 passer rating).

➢ Registered the fifth 300-yard passing game by a rookie in franchise history, joining Marcus Mariota (two in 2015), Zach Mettenberger (2014) and Jacky Lee (1960) as the team's only rookies to do so.

➢ Became the fourth rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least seven games, joining Dan Pastorini (eight starts in 1971), Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 starts in 2015).

➢ Tossed a 45-yard pass to DeAndre Hopkins to set up a field goal as time expired in the first half.

➢ Led the team back from a 14-point deficit (27-13) with less than three minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, engineering a pair of touchdown drives. He completed a three-yard touchdown pass to DeAndre Hopkins with 2:40 on the clock, immediately followed by a completion to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine for a two-point conversion. On the offense's next drive, he led a 64-yard march for a touchdown that included back-to-back passes of 36 yards to Hopkins and 16 yards to Chig Okonkwo. A Derrick Henry touchdown run and subsequent extra point gave Levis the first game-winning drive of his career.

➢ Became the first NFL rookie quarterback to pass for 300 or more yards on Monday Night Football. Previously, the most passing yards in a Monday night game by a rookie were 291 by Chicago's Justin Fields at Pittsburgh on Nov. 8, 2021.

➢ Helped set up the game-winning score in the fourth quarter with a 16-yard reception on the last play before the two-minute warning.

RB TYJAE SPEARS

➢ Caught six passes for 89 yards and added seven rushing attempts for 29 yards. He finished with 118 scrimmage yards—the first game of his career with at least 100 scrimmage yards.

➢ His 89 receiving yards ranked second in franchise history by a rookie running back and were the most since Sid Blanks' 131 at San Diego on Sept. 12, 1964.

➢ His 89 receiving yards were the most by an NFL rookie running back in 2023 through 14 weeks.

On the resiliency and the comeback.
We did a lot of things that were going to cost us obviously. The turnovers, the mistakes, but we did more positive things late. Defense kept giving us a chance. We got some stops. Then the offense needed to come through – they came through. It doesn't have to be that hard, but I'm proud of the character of this football team competing and then having to go in a different direction real quick and then coming back and getting stops late. Being able to move the football late in the game, score, and I was really proud of these guys.

What can you say about the red zone defense?
That's it. The whole thing was about getting the drive stopped. We said that they're probably going to get it down there, that's just what the nature of this offense is. We've done so well down there with sudden change unfortunately that I explained to them, hey, even if they drive it down there, just pretend it's sudden change and you guys were responsible for the sudden change, and have that type of mentality that, hey, we're down here and we get a stop. Guys were excited. That was the difference in the football game, being able to force them to kick field goals.

What did you see from the offense after going down 14?
We had a tough time running the football, and we had too many mistakes. But we also were able to protect the quarterback enough to throw it late in the game, and that was key. Tyjae (Spears) helped us out, Chig (Okonkwo) helped us out. Hop (DeAndre Hopkins) came up big. Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) came up big down there and continues to do that.

I know it's a whole team effort but what does it mean for the young guys to be a part of a win like this?
I think they just realized it's never over – being able to keep our timeouts and being able to score and get the two-point conversion to be able to have a chance to win it in regulation.

After a tough week, how cool is it to hear the music blaring and the guys celebrating?
It's all credit to the players. We try to give them our best plan. Sometimes it needs to be tweaked as we go along and sometimes it doesn't. They stuck to it. They believed it. All the credit goes to the players.

What about the resilience you guys showed going down from 14, how big was that moment?
I think they all were and being able to answer back. Again, kind of the disbelief, the excitement of getting the stop, getting the drive stopped on third down and celebrating. And one minute mistakes, but just keep lining back up and playing and having a lot of time. I think it says a lot about this football team and our growth. It's not going to be easy, especially on the road against a good team on Monday night, but I'm proud of the way that they compete and they fight. We've just got to eliminate some of the mistakes that are going to be too costly most of the time.

Is this what makes coaching fun? Nobody gave you guys a chance, then you play to win and celebrate.
Yeah, I think just coaching -- watching players improve and watching players be happy and share in success is what coaching is about. It's about getting players to develop and improve and inspire them to go out and get better each week and compete against a really good football team. There's a lot of guys out there that people aren't real familiar with. That's the facts of it. But they'll fight. They'll compete, and that's why I love them.

I guess Eric Garror, I saw your conversation with him, what did you tell him?
I mean, there's aggressive and there's reckless, and that, to me, is reckless. Again, we've coached catching it on the first bounce. We've coached being square. We've coached not catching that in traffic. But sometimes there's an opportunity to catch it on the first bounce when there's not bodies around. We have to use better decisions when we're back there. Again, Eric (Garror) has caught the ball well, and we just can't make that kind of mistake. I said, but you're also going to have to go back out there and catch the ball and be our punt returner. We just have to make really good decisions with the football.

Was the two-point conversion a gut feeling thing you wanted to try to do once you were down 14?
I think that's just in the research we've done and analytics to give you the best chance to win in regulation, you go for two there. I liked the call. That's how it goes.

You've talked about the main guys. TK McLendon filling in for Jeff Simmons tonight, these guys, they wouldn't know any better than to go out and play football?
Probably not. I think we're just working with a rookie left tackle against a really good player. I thought he competed and gave us an opportunity. TK (McLendon) is out there battling and Jaleel (Johnson) and K'Von (Wallace) hadn't been here all that long. Roger (McCreary) goes down, Eric (Garror) goes in, Roger comes back. Again, there's just a lot. Calvin Throckmorton played some at right guard and (Daniel Brunskill) played. We'll just find out who we have available and get them ready to try to beat the Texans.

Did you always have the sense that this team was still capable of playing like this?
I think you sometimes second guess when you're -- just different moments. Then you remember what you practice, train, preach, about the resiliency and about our effort. We've got some great leaders that have been around and helped us win some really tough, close games. You've just got to remember that, when you come on the road, whatever situation you're in is about giving yourself a chance. We did that and make it a game and find a way to win it late. I guess it was disappointing because we were doing that. Then the mistakes that put us down, then to the players' credit, they responded, because that's what you have to do. You've got to make it a game. You've got to put them in the game and find a way to win it late. It looked like there for a few minutes that we were trying to lose it late, and we were able to come back.

What do you want fans to know about the guys in this locker room?
They'll play their hearts out for you. It's not going to be perfect. There's going to be mistakes. Hopefully there's not too many. They don't want to make the same mistake twice, but I know they're going to play their heart out for this team and for this organization and for our city.

QUARTERBACK WILL LEVIS

Yeah, that was awesome. I had to keep my composure a little bit, make sure we finished the job, but I had trust in our defense that they were going to get the job done, just like they did all night. They won us that game tonight, and they shut down a really potent offense. If it wasn't for those couple turnovers there in the red zone, it would have been even more impressive. Props to them, and then obviously we were able to get the job done with our operational efficiency on those two two-minute drives, so I'm just pumped all around.

It was your first 300-yard passing game and obviously your first come from behind game winning drive. As you go through that, what were some of the thoughts on that last drive there?
Just trusting what I'm seeing, trusting our guys to be in the right spots and just throwing it to the open guy. Sometimes it's as simple as that. Our guys held up up front, didn't feel any pressure for the most part. When that happens and we have time and dudes are in the right spots, it's a beautiful thing, and that's what happened on those two drives.

What did you do to regain your composure after the misfire on the catch?
That was a nightmare. Obviously no one wanted to look at me, no one wanted to talk to me after that – sorry. I didn't want to talk to anybody after that, I just wanted to move on and be ready just to attack that next two-minute drive that I knew we'd be able to get. I said we'd put it behind us and still have a chance, and we did. I'm proud of our guys for bringing it and executing in that situation.

Down 13, you're the quarterback, what was your mindset going back out there? It seemed like you were throwing the ball with confidence and not forcing the run.
I was just sticking to the game plan, throwing to the open guy, trusting that I didn't necessarily need to be forcing anything, but we did need to get going. That happy medium of pushing it down the field but throwing to the open guy. Luckily a lot of stuff that we were dialing up was working and was able to get the ball to a bunch of different dudes and keep them guessing. Just proud of all the guys and how we were able to operate.

I know it obviously hasn't been the easiest season for the team. How nice is it to be able to enjoy a moment like this against a team like Miami?
Shoot, this is a big confidence booster for us, for sure. This is not the record we would hope to have at this point in the season, not the position we'd hope to be in the playoff race and all that. All we can do is keep pushing. We talked about that all week. We had the opportunity to come and spoil their party and beat a really good football team and build confidence going forward. I'm so glad we were able to do that, excited to watch that HBO episode.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

You had that throw down the field to WR DeAndre Hopkins, the concentration to bring it in, I think it was a 45-yarder. Do you ever just stop and say like, man, this dude is crazy?
Yeah, that was the one at the two-minute, the end of the half. He tells me sometimes, hey, man, just throw it up to me. I'm like, yeah, okay. Sometimes that's okay, sometimes it's not. Each and every week, I feel like I'm slowly believing that sometimes it is okay just to throw it to him, but got to be smart with it. He had him beat. I think I underthrew it a little bit. For him to have the body control to kind of track it and catch it, he's special in that respect. I'm glad that we were able to get him the ball as much as we did today.

You ran it more early. Is that just survival mode out there?
I'm just playing ball. I'm just reacting. I think one of them I was able to spin out of a sack, and it was really the only thing I could do. Trying to throw a screen to Derrick (Henry), and the d-end came up the field and almost turned into a draw, it looked design. Just instincts kicking in. Got to be smart using my body and maybe sliding here and there. I know I can use my legs, and I've got to use them when it's appropriate.

What can you say about the defense to keep getting the ball back the way they did?
It's awesome. Like I said in the beginning, they won the game for us. No one has played, I feel like, that offense as well as our defense did this season, if I'm not mistaken. We gave them the ball in the red zone a couple of times. For the most part, I felt they were able to make them pretty stagnant, which is not what you see out of that offense. Really cool, proud of the guys on all levels and being able to fight back on that red zone series. Sean, I was pumped for him on the holding call and to come back and make two huge plays to force the field goal, that was just the resilience we showed all night in all three phases of the ballgame. Eric dropping the punt and coming back and getting a nice little return there. I knew he was going to have an opportunity to help change the game after that, and I told him that. We've just got to be able to take the good and move forward, take the bad and move forward. Learn from it and use the confidence from the good to go forward as well.

LINEBACKER AZEEZ AL-SHAAIR

At that moment where all it all comes together, made it difficult yourself in the fourth quarter, but what happened there in the last five minutes?
It's being football man, staying the course. Same things we talk about every single week. It all just came together for us. I couldn't be more proud of everybody cause it was an entire team game. Nothing went our way at times and we were going back and forth. It was a heavyweight fight and we were the underdogs, we were the under dog and we came out victorious. That's what it's all about. I am so proud of the guys, the fight was really… really no words.

What were you guys saying to each other after the back to back fumbles when it looked bleak?
It didn't matter, like embrace it, embrace all of it. I'm smiling, I was just happy cause I know it was just an opportunity, an opportunity to go be great and every time we get a chance to step on that field, that's what we try to do. So like I said, just executing, planning together, staying together – offense, defense, and special teams. Picking each other up when we missed our plays, just keep fighting. That is what you saw everyone just kept fighting.

It is the other side of the ball but everyone in football is watching No. 8 to see if he can be the guy, what do you think Will Levis showed tonight?
He just showed grit, poise. Obviously like I said, it looked dirty. It didn't look good, you know what I am saying. It's going to be like that in this league, you've got to fight for everything you want in life especially you are playing with the best of the best. I think that what you got, he's a fighter, just like everyone else on this team. I am proud of him. Obviously as a rookie, he's got so much more room to grow but I am so proud of everything he put on tape today, so it was good to see.

RUNNING BACK DERRICK HENRY

How much fun was it to be a part of this one?
Fun game, crazy game, made it harder than what it needed to be, but glad we were able to get the win.

What was it like coming in here after the game?
It was great. Great energy, great win, and everybody was happy. It was a swipe across the forehead because it was a close one. Closer than it needed to be. But just glad we got the win against a good team.

What did you learn about QB Will Levis on those last two drives?
He's resilient. Anybody else would probably get flustered. But being a rookie, stepping up, being a leader, and just having that will, and his name's Will, but still having that drive to still believe and to lead us just speaks a lot about his character and he did a great job today.

WIDE RECEIVER DeANDRE HOPKINS

What's the feeling like when you guys are down two touchdowns with two and a half minutes left, and how did you manage to turn it?
Well, just keep playing, keep trusting ourselves and keep fighting.

QB Will Levis said he's gradually gaining confidence in you with those, you-only-live-once type of throws. How do you feel that relationship is coming along?
I think it's coming along well. I think Will (Levis) is out there making some good choices. He's not having any turnovers, and I think that's all you can ask for from a young quarterback, is to go out there and play his game.

That deep reception that you had, the 45-yarder, can you just kind of take us through it, just the concentration it took as you were falling to the ground?
I knew Will (Levis) was going to give me a chance to make a play, and that's what I did. A lot of stuff happens fast, so I really can't go into detail. I just know I came down with the ball.

The last two drives, it all really came together. What was it about those two drives that were so effective?
Us playing team ball.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER ARDEN KEY

Everyone talked about the Dolphins. No. 1 offense, No. 1 red zone offense, No. 1 passing offense, all those sort of things, and you guys come in here and beat them. How'd you do it?
Just believing in one another and never giving up. There was times in the game when we could've easily given up, and we didn't. We had a lot of grit.

What was it in that fourth quarter especially, after a couple of things going against you, it would've been very easy to pack it in. How did you guys stay together and keep in it?
I think that's pretty much a story that's been going on all year. I think when stuff went bad on defense, we weren't blaming each other, we just stuck together. Unfortunately, we were on the short end of those sticks early, but today we were on the right end of the stick. I think everything we did was pretty much the same thing as we've been doing all year. DBs are playing better these past three games, DBs are definitely playing better, but we just stay together.

You said you've come up on the short end of the stick a few times and this last week was certainly one of those. To be on a different end, how did this feel?
It felt great. I haven't felt this feeling with this team this year yet. The first feeling is I hope everybody can enjoy it, take it in, and remember how this feels. Remember what we did to get this feeling and keep it.

RUNNING BACK TYJAE SPEARS

Those last two drives. Everybody was involved – big plays, 15 points in two drives. What clicked in that moment?
Just us being together, us understanding that we put ourselves in that position to be down 15 points so we had to fight back. Just to be down, so we had to fight back. We weren't going out without a fight.

Your heavy involvement in the passing game, is that something by design that they told you was going to happen this week, or was that just the way things roll?
I never go into the weeks getting my hopes up. I'm here to make plays. I'm able to make plays and I guess that's just what came about tonight. They just hit me when I was open and just hitting me on check-downs and we made something happen.

GENERAL MANAGER RAN CARTHON

Ran Carthon, Assistant GMs Brinker and Robinson open 2023 Training Camp

The OTP: Exlusive Interview with Ran Carthon

Video: Ran Carthon 1-on-1 with Mike Keith

Video: Ran Carthon Introduced as Titans GM

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

"We are excited to add Ran to our organization as our new general manager," Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk said upon announcing the hire. "He brings a variety of valuable experiences to our team – as a former player and a successful personnel executive for multiple teams. I was impressed with his natural leadership qualities and his ability to connect with people. With talent evaluation being critical to this role, the roster they have built in San Francisco stands out. He played an important role there constructing one of our league's best teams."

Carthon arrived bringing a range of experience from multiple teams to Tennessee. While in San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)–evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

In his first offseason with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster adding wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, tackle Andre Dillard, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting, tight end Trevon Wesco and linebacker Luke Gifford in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski and quarterback Will Levis were selected in the first two rounds.

Mike Vrabel Named AP 2021 NFL Coach of the Year

Video: Igniting the Fire - Who is Mike Vrabel?

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

Vrabel, who enters 2023 as the NFL's ninth-longest tenured head coach with his current team, is the organization's fourth head coach to serve for at least five complete seasons, joining Wally Lemm (1966–1970), Bum Phillips (1975–1980) and Jeff Fisher (1994–2010). Measured against each member of the group in years one through five of their respective terms, Vrabel's 50 wins from 2018 to 2022 set a new benchmark, and his .575 winning percentage (50-37) ranked second behind only Phillips, who was 48-32 (.600) in his initial five years with the Oilers.

Vrabel finished the 2022 campaign ranked third in Titans/Oilers history in total career wins among head coaches. His 50 wins trailed only franchise Ring of Honor members Fisher (147) and Phillips (59).

With three playoff appearances in his first five years (2019, 2020 and 2021), Vrabel is the sixth head coach in Oilers/Titans history to coach at least three playoff teams. The others are Fisher (six), Jack Pardee (four), Phillips (three), Jerry Glanville (three) and Lemm (three). The Titans won back-to-back AFC South titles in 2020 and 2021, marking the first time the organization accomplished the feat since the Oilers won the first three AFL Eastern division titles from 1960 to 1962.

In each of Vrabel's first five seasons, the Titans had a minimum of a win-and-in scenario to reach the postseason entering the final week of the regular season. The two non-playoff seasons under his leadership came down to such circumstances in 2018 and 2022.

Situationally, Vrabel's teams have fared among the NFL leaders in several categories. From 2018 to 2022, the Titans had a .640 winning percentage in three-point games (16-9), which ranked second in the league behind only the Green Bay Packers (.658). In the same period, their .855 winning percentage (47-8) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead tied for sixth in the NFL. Vrabel's team was 5-2 in overtime games from 2018 through 2022, tying the Kansas City Chiefs (5-0) for the second-most overtime wins behind the Las Vegas Raiders (7-3). On the road, the Titans were 28-18 (.561), tying for the league's sixth-best road record.

From 2018 to 2022, the Titans had the NFL's second-best rushing offense, averaging 139.9 yards per game on the ground. Only the Baltimore Ravens were better (170.8). The offense ranked first in the NFL in the red zone, scoring touchdowns on 66.8 percent of drives inside the opponent's 20-yard line (173 of 259), and the Titans also had the NFL's ninth-best team passer rating at 95.8.

On the other side of the ball, the Titans ranked fourth in rushing defense from 2018 to 2022, allowing 100.2 rushing yards per contest. Also Also in that five-year stretch, the Titans were seventh in scoring defense (21.8 opponent points per game).

During the 2022 season, the Titans led the NFL in total number players used for the second consecutive season. A total of 86 players took the field for at least one game, partly as a result of 31 players being placed on injured reserve from the time the roster was cut to 53 players through the end of the campaign. The Titans relied heavily upon their youth, as rookies combined for 145 games played (tied for third in the NFL) and 56 starts (sixth).

The 2022 Titans led the NFL in rushing defense for the first time as a team since 2003. They allowed only 1,307 total rushing yards for a league-best average of 76.9 yards per contest—the second-best finish in franchise history (73.4 in 1960). The Titans also ranked third in third-down defense in 2022, allowing a conversion rate of 34.2 percent (77 of 225).

Vrabel Honored as NFL's Top Coach in 2021

Vrabel was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2021 after directing the Titans to a 12-5 record during the regular season. The Titans won the AFC South, and they claimed the top seed in the AFC playoff field for the first time since 2008. They did so despite needing to use 91 total players during the season—the most in NFL history in a non-strike year. After the final preseason roster cuts through the end of the season, the team placed 26 different players on injured reserve and 21 different players on the reserve/COVID-19 list, plus additional practice squad players that received those designations.

The 2021 Titans ranked second in rushing defense (84.6 yards allowed per game), 12th in total defense (329.8), sixth on third down (36.7 percent), sixth in scoring defense (20.8 points per game) and ninth in sacks (43). Offensively, the Titans finished fifth in rushing (141.4 yards per game) despite missing Derrick Henry for nine games due to injury. The offense also ranked eighth on third down (43.6 percent), fifth in the red zone (63.9 percent) and first in goal-to-go efficiency (87.5 percent).

In 2021, Vrabel joined Pardee and Glanville as the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least three playoff squads in their initial four seasons as head coach, and he tied Pardee (43-26) for the most total wins by a head coach in his first four seasons with the organization.

Titans Take the AFC South in Year 3 Under Vrabel

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the

Titans to AFC Championship Game in Vrabel's Second Season

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Background as a Player and Coach

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally, his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012–2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill is in his 12th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2023.

During his first four seasons in Tennessee, Tannehill built a 36-19 record as a starting quarterback and led the team to the postseason three times (2019 to 2021), becoming the franchise's first starting quarterback since Warren Moon (1987 to 1993) to direct his team to the playoffs in at least three consecutive seasons. After appearing in the AFC championship game as a wild card team in 2019, the Titans won consecutive division titles in 2020 and 2021, a first for the franchise since the Oilers took the first three AFL Eastern Division titles from 1960 to 1962.

Tannehill's 36 wins as a starting quarterback at the end of the 2022 season ranked fifth in franchise history and were more than any other player in team annals in his first four years with the club. His win total trailed only that of Steve McNair (76), Moon (70), Dan Pastorini (53) and George Blanda (44).

At the conclusion of 2022, Tannehill ranked among the franchise career leaders in several categories: first in passer rating (100.5), first in completion percentage (66.9), sixth in passing yards (12,831), fifth in passing touchdowns (89), sixth in passing attempts (1,623) and sixth in completions (1,085).

Since the week of Tannehill's first start in a Titans uniform (Oct. 20, 2019) through the conclusion of 2022, Tannehill's 100.7 passer rating ranked fourth in the NFL behind only Aaron Rodgers (106.0), Patrick Mahomes (103.3) and Jimmy Garoppolo (100.8).

Tannehill started every game from Week 7 of the 2019 campaign through the sixth game of 2022. His 49 consecutive starts in the regular season broke McNair's record (2001-03) for the most in franchise history by a starting quarterback.

In 2021, he placed third on the franchise's single-season passing charts in attempts (531), completions (357) and completion percentage (67.2), and he ranked fourth with 3,734 passing yards. He became the only quarterback other than Moon (1989–1991) to record multiple seasons with at least 3,500 passing yards with the franchise. Additionally, he rushed for 270 yards, and his seven rushing touchdowns ranked second among NFL signal callers behind Jalen Hurts' 10. Tannehill was the first quarterback in franchise annals with at least seven rushing touchdowns in back-to-back seasons.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth). Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Drew Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Rodgers (2011-12).

Also in 2020, Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

Click for complete bio

Running back Derrick Henry is in his eighth NFL season in 2023. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

From the time he entered the NFL in 2016 through 2022, Henry rushed for 8,335 yards and 78 yards on 1,750 attempts. No NFL player rushed for more yards or touchdowns than he did during that timespan.

Henry's 78 career rushing touchdowns and 81 total touchdowns (three receiving) at the conclusion of the 2022 campaign were the most in franchise history. He also finished the season third in career rushing yards behind only Eddie George (10,009) and Earl Campbell (8,574).

Henry tallied 34 100-yard rushing games from 2016 to 2022 (regular season), which ranks fourth in team annals behind Campbell (39), George (36) and Chris Johnson (35). Additionally, Henry has authored three career postseason performances with 100-plus rushing yards. Henry's six career 200-yard rushing games are tied with O.J. Simpson and Adrian Peterson for the most in NFL history, and his six career games with at least 200 rushing yards and at least two rushing touchdowns are the most.

Henry was named to his third Pro Bowl in 2022 after finishing the season with 1,538 yards and 13 touchdowns on 349 rushing attempts (4.4 avg.). He finished second in the NFL in rushing yards behind Las Vegas Raiders tailback Josh Jacobs (1,653). His yardage total was the third-best of his career and ranked sixth in franchise history. With a career-high 398 receiving yards, his 1,936 scrimmage yards ranked fifth in franchise history and was the second-best number of his career (2,141 in 2020). His nine 100-yard rushing games ranked fifth in franchise history.

In 2021, Henry's season was affected by a foot injury that caused him to be placed on injured reserve for the final nine games of the regular season. Prior to the injury, he was leading the NFL with 937 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns, numbers that still ranked ninth and tied for sixth, respectively, at the conclusion of the regular season. He returned to start in the team's divisional playoff contest and rushed for 62 yards and one score.

Henry was honored in 2021 with his first career nomination for the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award.

In 2020, Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was recognized with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national primetime television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run—one of his four touchdowns in the contest. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. RECORD-SETTING NIGHT

On Dec. 6, 2018, Derrick Henry had one of the most memorable rushing performances in NFL history on Thursday Night Football. He rushed for a then-team-record 238 yards and four touchdowns (tied franchise record), including a 99-yard touchdown run.

WATCH: Highlights from Derrick Henry's performance on 12/6/18

Henry's 238 rushing yards set a new franchise record, breaking Chris Johnson's mark of 228 yards against the Jaguars on Nov. 1, 2009. It was the highest single-game rushing total in the NFL in 2018 and the league's highest total since Doug Martin's 251 rushing yards for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers against the Oakland Raiders on Nov. 4, 2012.

Henry later broke his own record with 250 rushing yard at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021 to take possession of five of the top eight single-game rushing totals in team annals.

In the second quarter, Henry took a handoff from Marcus Mariota inside his own one-yard line and raced 99 yards for a touchdown. It was the second 99-yard run in NFL history, tying Tony Dorsett's record-setting touchdown run for the Dallas Cowboys against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

Henry scored on a three-yard run in the first quarter, a 99-yard run in the second quarter, a 16-yard run in the third quarter, and finally a 54-yard run in the third quarter. He tied the franchise record and became the third player in franchise history to rush for four touchdowns in a game, joining Earl Campbell (against Miami on Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (against Cleveland on Dec. 9, 1990).

The only franchise player with more overall touchdowns in a game than Henry was Oilers running back Billy Cannon, who had five total touchdowns (three rushing, two receiving) at the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961. Henry became the first NFL player with four rushing touchdowns in a game since New England Patriots running back Jonas Gray at Indianapolis on Nov. 16, 2014.

Henry became the first to accomplish the feat in fewer than 20 carries (17).

➤ He matched former Titans running back Chris Johnson as the only players in NFL history with a rushing touchdown of at least 90 yards and a rushing touchdown of at least 50 yards in the same game. Johnson accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009.

➤ His 24 points tied for the fourth-highest single-game total in franchise history, trailing only Billy Cannon (30 on Dec. 10, 1961), Rob Bironas (26 on Oct. 21, 2007) and George Blanda (26 on Sept. 18, 1960). Earl Campbell (Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (Dec. 9, 1990) also had 24 points on four touchdowns in a single game.

Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his fifth NFL season in 2023. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first four seasons, Simmons appeared in 56 games with 54 starts and earned two Pro Bowl berths. The two-time team captain (2021-22) accumulated 196 tackles, 21 sacks, 19 passes defensed, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. He was second on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (26.5).

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defensed, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defensed.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defensed (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defensed in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III is in his sixth NFL season in 2023. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022, ending his fifth NFL season before Week 1.

From the start of his rookie campaign through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defensed. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defensed.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. He added seven forced fumbles, which also led the country, while his 22 tackles for loss ranked fifth nationally and ranked second all-time for the Eagles. His numerous honors included Walter Camp second-team All-America, AP second-team All-America and second-team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and the league's head coaches.

In 2022, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the second consecutive season and was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

➢ Against the Los Angeles Chargers (9/17), made both field goal attempts, including a 33-yarder as time expired in the first half and a 41-yard, game-winning field goal in overtime. The latter was the 13th game-winning field goal of his career, including 12 in the regular season and one game-winner in the postseason. It was the organization's 54th all-time game winning field goal and the team's first since Randy Bullock's 44-yarder to beat the San Francisco 49ers on Dec. 23, 2021.

➢ At Cleveland (9/24), made a 44-yard field goal in the second quarter to improve his streak to 16 consecutive field goals made.

➢ Against Cincinnati (10/1), made both of his field goal attempts (53 and 35 yards) and all three of his extra point attempts. His 53-yard field goal in the first quarter was the team's longest since a 53-yarder by Stephen Gostkowski at Jacksonville on Dec. 13, 2020. He improved his active streak to 18 consecutive field goals made, giving him his fourth career streak in which he made at least 18 field goals in a row (36 from 2020-21; 23 in 2013; 19 from 2010-11). He improved his streak to 27 consecutive field goals made, which is the second-longest streak of his 16-year career (36 from 2020-21). Punter Ryan Stonehouse is in his second NFL season in 2023. He was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2022.

In 2022, Stonehouse finished the season with a gross average of 53.10 yards per punt on 90 total punts (4,779 total yards). In doing so, he broke Sammy Baugh's single-season NFL record of 51.40 yards per punt, which was established in 1940 and was never matched among qualifiers (2.5 punts per team game) until Stonehouse's rookie campaign. Stonehouse's mark also surpassed Brett Kern's franchise record of 49.7 yards per punt in 2017.

With a net punting average of 44.03 yards per punt in 2022, Stonehouse also established a new NFL record for the highest net average by a rookie punter. He broke the record set by Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez, who averaged 42.64 net yards per punt as a rookie in 2017. Stonehouse finished fourth in the NFL in net punting behind veterans Tommy Townsend (45.6), Michael Dickson (44.5) and Johnny Hekker (44.1). In franchise history, his net average ranked second for a single season, trailing only Kern's 44.6 net average in 2017.

Stonehouse's 90 punts in 2022 made up the NFL's second-highest total. Only Denver's Corliss Waitman (96) had more. The 90 punts by Stonehouse tied Craig Hentrich's 1999 number for the fourth-highest total in team annals behind Rich Camarillo (96 punts in 1994) and Cliff Parsley (93 in 1979; 91 in 1978).

Stonehouse appeared in 53 games over five seasons at Colorado State (2017-21) and set an NCAA career record with a 47.8-yard gross punting average. His career totals included 244 punts for 11,656 yards with 91 punts inside the 20. He totaled 106 punts of 50-plus yards and became the first player in Colorado State history to log 11,000 punting yards in a career.

During his final college season in 2021, Stonehouse appeared in 12 games and averaged 50.9 yards per attempt on 58 punts, including a career-long 81-yard punt. He placed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and totaled 32 punts of 50-plus yards en route to being named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

He is a native of La Verne, Calif.

Since 1960, Stonehouse registered the NFL's second-best gross average in an NFL game (minimum four attempts) behind only Carolina punter Andy Lee's 63.0 yards per punt against Denver on Sept. 8, 2016. Stonehouse recorded punts of 60, 63, 63, 58 and 62 yards and also averaged 44.6 net yards per attempt with one punt placed inside the 20.

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. Take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.

NISSAN STADIUM PARKING AND MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.
