This is the second of two annual meetings between the two AFC South combatants. On Sept. 21, the Colts visited Nissan Stadium and earned a 41-20 win. It was the fifth consecutive victory for the Colts in the series after the Titans won the previous five matchups.

TITANS ENTER SECOND WEEK UNDER McCOY

The Titans hosted the New England Patriots last week in Mike McCoy's first game as interim head coach. He was named to the post on Monday, Oct. 13. The Titans led New England 10-3 and 13-10 during the first half, but in the second half, the Patriots pulled away for a 31-13 victory.

Rookie quarterback Cam Ward started for the seventh consecutive week to begin the season. The first-overall draft pick had his best completion percentage (73.5), yards-per-attempt average (7.50) and passer rating (92.2) of the season against the Patriots, completing 25-of-34 passes for 255 yards. He found another rookie, wide receiver Chimere Dike, for a 38-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter.

Dike, a fourth-round pick, had four receptions for 70 yards—all in the first quarter. He had the most receiving yards by a Titans rookie in the first quarter of a game since Justin McCareins posted 70 against Tampa Bay on Oct. 14, 2001.

The Titans defense combined for a season-high four sacks against the Patriots—one each by nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat, safety Xavier Woods, and outside linebackers Jihad Ward and Dre'Mont Jones. It was the team's first game with four or more sacks since a four-sack performance at Houston on Nov. 24, 2024.

THE COLTS

The Colts are in first place in the AFC South after their 38-24 road victory over the Los Angeles Chargers in Week 7, which gave them a two-game lead over the second-place Jacksonville Jaguars (4-3). Last week was their fifth time in 2025 eclipsing the 30-point mark, and they average a league-best 33.1 points per game.

Quarterback Daniel Jones is in his first season with the Colts after spending his first six NFL seasons with the New York Giants. Through seven starts in 2025, he has passed for 1,790 yards with 10 touchdowns, three interceptions and a 105.9 passer rating.

Colts head coach Shane Steichen is in his third season with the team. The former Philadelphia Eagles offensive coordinator guided the Colts to a 9-8 record in 2023 and an 8-9 mark in 2024.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

LB CEDRIC GRAY

- Has four consecutive games with at least 10 tackles—the fifth-such streak for the Titans since the beginning of the 2000 season. With 10 tackles this week, he would be the first Titans player since the beginning of the 2000 campaign to have at least 10 tackles in five consecutive games (GSIS tackle statistics).
- A 10-tackle performance this week would also give him 60 total tackles in a five-game span. Since the beginning of the 2000 season, only three Titans players have produced 60 or more tackles (GSIS tackle statistics) in a five-game stretch during a single season: Azeez Al-Shaair (60 from Oct. 1, 2023 to Nov. 2, 2023), Stephen Tulloch (60 from Nov. 28, 2010 to Dec. 26, 2010) and Keith Bulluck (60 from Oct. 24, 2004 to Nov. 28, 2004).

P JOHNNY HEKKER

- Needs five punts to reach 1,000 for his career (995). He would join 26 previous NFL players who have done so.

S AMANI HOOKER

- With 12 career interceptions, he needs one more to tie Jason McCourty (13) for the eighth-highest career total for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

WR VAN JEFFERSON

- Needs one reception to reach 150 for his career (149).

OLB DRE'MONT JONES

- Has a sack in each of the past two games. A sack this week would give him the first three-game sack streak of his career.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

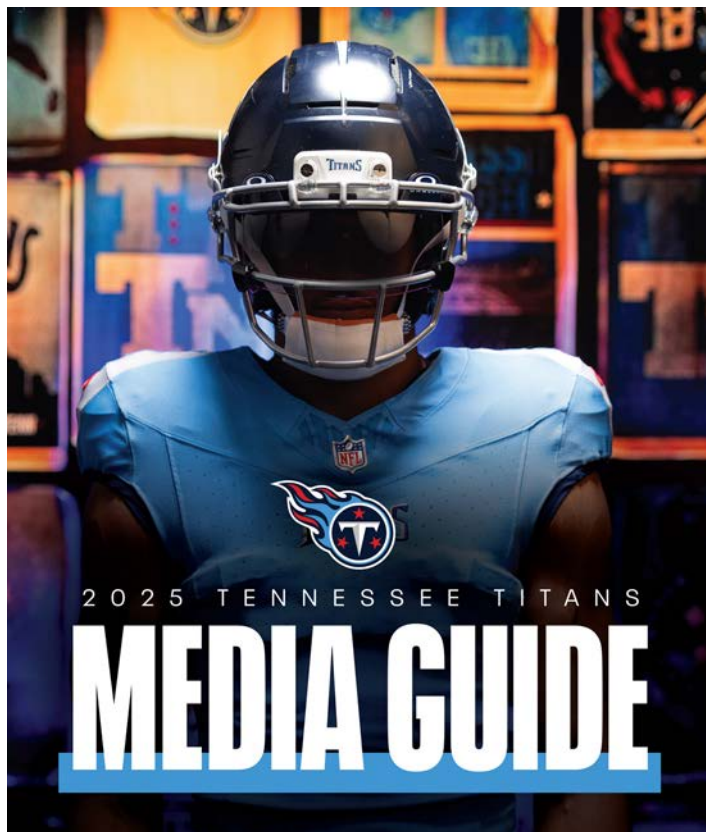

- With 4.5 sacks in 2025, he needs a half sack to record his fifth consecutive season with at least five sacks. He would join Ray Childress (nine consecutive seasons), Jurrell Casey (seven), William Fuller (six) and Sean Jones (six) as the only Titans/Oilers players to do so since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.
- With eight tackles for loss entering the week, he needs two more for his third consecutive season with double-digit tackles for loss (10 in 2023 and 11 in 2024).

K JOEY SLYE

- Has made six field goals of at least 50 yards in 2025. With one more, he will join Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020) as the only kickers in franchise history with at least seven field goals of 50-plus yards in a season.

QB CAM WARD

- With a minimum of 25 completions this week, he will be the franchise's first quarterback with 25 or more completions in three consecutive games since Warren Moon in 1991 (Nov. 3–17, 1991). He would be the NFL's only rookie quarterback other than Jayden Daniels (Nov. 24–Dec. 15, 2024) to do so since the beginning of the 2021 campaign.
- Can become the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start the first eight games of a season. Previously, Marcus Mariota held the franchise's longest rookie streak to begin a season with starts in the first five games as a rookie in 2015.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Colts have played 62 all-time games, including playoffs. The Colts lead the series 40-22 after taking both contests in 2023 and 2024 and the first meeting of 2025. Prior to the Colts' current streak, the Titans won five straight in the series, including sweeps of the Colts in 2021 and 2022.

In the first meeting of 2025, played on Sept. 21, the Colts visited Nissan Stadium. Rookie quarterback Cam Ward completed 23-of-38 passes for 219 yards and a touchdown, and running back Tony Pollard accounted for the team's other touchdown. However, Colts running back Jonathan Taylor rushed for 102 yards and three scores, leading Indianapolis to a 40-21 win.

In the most recent clash at Lucas Oil Stadium on Dec. 22, 2024, the Titans trailed 38-7 before scoring 23 unanswered points in the second half to cut the deficit to eight points. However, the Colts thwarted the comeback effort and prevailed 38-30.

The Titans and Colts have met only once in the postseason, a 19-16 Titans victory in a Divisional Playoff game in the RCA Dome on Jan. 16, 1999. Eddie George rushed for 162 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown run to help lead Tennessee during its run to Super Bowl XXXIV.

Three years later, in 2002, the NFL realigned, and the AFC South was created. The Titans moved from the AFC Central, and the Colts moved from the AFC East to form half of the new division.

The teams first clashed in 1970 following the AFL-NFL merger. The then-Baltimore Colts defeated the then-Houston Oilers 24-20 during the Colts' run to a Super Bowl V Championship.

TITANS-COLTS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 3: Titans 20, Colts 41
Sunday, Sept. 21, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 3 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted division rival Indianapolis Colts and fell by a score of 41-20.

The Colts took an early 7-0 lead after CB Kenny Moore II intercepted a QB Cam Ward throw and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown on the third play from scrimmage.

The Titans responded with a 57-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 7-3.

Indianapolis extended its lead with a 24-yard field goal by K Spencer Shrader which capped a nine-play, 59-yard drive that saw the Colts drive down to the Tennessee six-yard line before settling for the field goal to make it 10-3.

The Titans went three-and-out on their next offensive possession and the Colts took over at their own 23-yard line. QB Daniel Jones strung together a nine-play, 77-yard drive that included three completions for 49 yards and a 17-yard scramble on third-and-seven. RB Jonathan Taylor capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown run to make it 17-3 with 1:11 in the first quarter.

Tennessee responded with an 11-play, 54-yard drive that culminated in a 42 yard field goal by Slye to make it 17-6 with 10:50 left in the second quarter.

The Titans then forced the Colts to punt for the first time this season and took over at their own nine-yard line. Ward drove Tennessee to midfield before the drive stalled and Slye came out to attempt a 64-yard field goal which was no good.

Indianapolis then tried a 51-yard field goal on the ensuing drive that was also no good to keep the score at 17-6 with 3:15 left in the half.

The Titans took over at their own 41-yard line. After RB Tony Pollard picked up an initial first down and nine more yards, the Titans faced fourth-and-one at the Indianapolis 39-yard line. After a delay of game penalty, Slye attempted the 62-yard field goal which was blocked.

The Colts took advantage of the field position and ended the half with a 36-yard field goal from Shrader to head into the break up 20-6.

Indianapolis extended its lead with a six-play, 67-yard drive in which Jones found WR Michael Pittman for a 20-yard touchdown to make it 27-6 with 11:08 left in the third.

The Titans answered with a long scoring drive of their own. The 13-play, 73-yard drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by Pollard after RB Julius Chestnut broke loose for a 27-yard gain to bring the Titans to the Colts four-yard line.

But a 46-yard touchdown run by Taylor extended the Colts lead to 34-13 on the next possession.

The Titans strung together a 16-play, 77-yard drive that ended in a Ward eight-yard touch-down pass to WR Elic Ayomanor to make it 34-20 with 8:40 left in the game.

However, the Colts once again responded, this time with a five-play, 58-yard drive that ended in another Taylor touchdown to make it 41-20 and drop the Titans to 0-3.

Chris Watt	Assistant Offensive Line
Reggie Wayne	Wide Receivers

Shane Steichen was hired as head coach of the Colts on Feb. 14, 2023. Prior to arriving in Indianapolis, he served as the offensive coordinator for the Eagles, and in 2022, he helped Philadelphia reach Super Bowl LVII.

In his first year as a head coach, Steichen overcame a season-ending injury to the No. 4 overall pick in the 2023 draft, quarterback Anthony Richardson, to finish with a 9-8 record. The mark was good for a five-win improvement from the previous year.

During his two seasons in Philadelphia, Steichen coordinated an Eagles offense that ranked first in the NFL in rushing yards per game (153.6), rushing yards (5,224) and rushing touchdowns (57) over that time. In 2022, the Eagles finished in the top 10 in numerous categories, including yards per game (389.1 – third), points per game (28.1 – third), and rushing yards per game (147.6 – fifth). In his second year with Eagles quarterback Jalen Hurts (2022), Steichen helped Hurts set single-season career highs in completions (306), passing yards (3,701), passing touchdowns (22), completion percentage (66.5) and passer rating (101.5).

Before arriving in Philadelphia, Steichen spent nine seasons (2011-12, 2014-20) in various roles on the coaching staff with the Los Angeles/San Diego Chargers. The Chargers offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards per game in each of his seven years on the offensive staff.

In 2020, Steichen helped rookie quarterback Justin Herbert to 2020 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year honors.

Prior to that, Steichen spent time as interim offensive coordinator (2019), quarterbacks coach (2016-19), offensive quality control (2014-15), and began his NFL career as a defensive assistant with the Chargers (2011-12). He also spent one season as an offensive quality control coach with the Browns in 2013.

In the college ranks, Steichen spent one season as a full-time offensive assistant at Louisville (2010) and three seasons as an offensive graduate assistant (2008-09) and student graduate assistant (2007) at his alma mater, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. As a four-year letterman (2003-06) at quarterback for the Rebels, Steichen left as the school's 12th all-time leading passer with 2,755 yards and 22 touchdowns.

Steichen is a native of Sacramento, Calif.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

SUNDAY, OCT. 19, 2025

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE McCOY

Just two injury announcements. (L'Jarius) Sneed actually had the quad and then Jeff (Simmons) with the ham (hamstring). Just a quick little summary of the game. Got out to a fast start, exactly what we wanted to do as a football team. Going out there doing a great job and got rolling through the game and did some really nice things. Cam (Ward) played a nice first half for us as we got going there, and then at the end of the half, unfortunately, we gave up the big play. That was disappointing and then, they came out and went down the field to start the second half. And then obviously we had the turnover, which was critical. We can't have that. We got to do a better job, all 11 guys on the field.

It's disappointing the way the game went after the end of the first half. So, we got to do a better job stopping the run. The quarterback got out of the pocket a little too often for us. We got to contain that, keep him in the pocket and make him do it the hard way. And then offensively, we can't get shut out in the second half and do what we did. Only, what? Eight plays in the first three series in the third quarter.

But, hey, we're going to stick together here. We're going to fight our tails off and find a way to go win the next one. That's the most important thing.

Aside from the turnover there in the third quarter, what were some of the reasons for the offensive struggles in the third?

It's going to — I'll have to obviously watch the tape tomorrow. The turnover starts and then there's some protection things that came up as the game went on and we've got to do a better job, all 11 guys doing their job better. We had some very successful drives in the first half of moving the ball, and Cam (Ward) was playing well. We got to run the ball better and more consistently, so.

How much was simplicity kind of at the core of what you guys were trying to do with all the turnover today? Was there a concerted effort to try and just do what you guys know how to do well? Or were there a lot of changes made to try and reconfigure the offense, I guess?

It's not about the simplicity of it, it's what do our players do best? That's what we're always going to look at. It doesn't — every play on that call sheet you think you is a good play. That's why it's on there. So, I think we're going to always, every time you go into a game plan from week-to-week, you look what do you think is the best way to approach this team and what is the best way for your football team to go down and move the ball and score points offensively. You saw what Cam and the rest of the offense did. Chim (Dike) had the big play, the explosive play. It was the perfect coverage, things like that. That's what happens. Players play. Go make a play. It was great. Great to see.

How would you assess Cam's day and what do you say to him about the turnovers? It's happened in a couple of games. I know he's not trying to do it but how do get that out of him?

That's something that can't happen. We've got to avoid that, and there's going to be — listen, you're going to have some mistakes. There's going to be some things like that that come up, but it's happened too often in the last couple of weeks. It's something we harp on, we talk about it all the time and players got to go out there and play, and we got to do a better job as coaches also. So we are all in this thing together.

That last series in the first half, you had some time-outs -- Offensively or defensively?

Offensively. You had three timeouts, you had a chance maybe to get in position, Joey Slye's kicking the ball well. What happened there?

With the wind conditions, it was howling. That was the tough way to go, the tough direction, even our last series, the series before that on offense. If you could hear the conversations that were going on there, just because the way the wind was blowing, it was changing, things like that. I think Bones (John Fassel) did a great job communicating with me all game long where the start point needs to be to even attempt it. That came into consideration of where we were going. The score of the game, how we're doing it. Don't give them another opportunity. There's a number of things that come up, but the wind was definitely a consideration of it's not like — normally, if you're playing inside, there's not any issues, weather issues or anything like that. You say okay, you get the ball, you get to the 50, you can bomb it, certain things. But there was no way in today — at that point in time during the game that we would be able to do that.

Slye did hit a 50-yarder into that same wind. Did something change?

We were going what we thought was best, like we will every game. That's what we're always going to do. Situation of the game, score of the game, how we're playing on both sides of the ball. There's a number of factors. It's not just, 'Hey, okay, he's made this one.' So we're just going to always think about, okay, situationally, what's the best thing for our football team on that game day.

What are the ways that you can maintain the energy that you guys came out with in the first half? Seemed like the offense was ticking, things were moving pretty fast for you guys and you guys were getting what it looked like you guys wanted and in the second half it seemed to kind of sputter. What are some things that you guys are looking at to kind of maintain that as the game goes on?

Play complementary football. That's a big thing. I think when you look at it, playing complementary football, the offense, the defense, the kicking game. I think Chim (Dike) did a phenomenal job in the return game. If we just block one return a little better, it's going to be a house call and the whole team, it'll electrify that entire team. It's a matter of everyone going out there and all three phases playing together, help each other. We had a critical third down backed up, third-and-eight, becomes a big play and next thing you know, they go down and score. So if you get that stop, it's a field- position game with the conditions we had. And you get good field position. You go down there, get points, it's a whole different deal. But it's all three phases playing together, playing complementary football and finding a way to go out and win a game.

I don't know if you said this yet, any update on Simmons and Sneed?

Like every injury, I'm going to tell you guys this now. Every injury we come in here, we're going to come in, give you an update on what it was, and every injury is going to be a day-to-day basis because you never know until you get back to the facility how guys wake up the next day, how they're feeling. You're always trying. We'll always talk to the players about, hey, at this point in time, it's Sunday to Sunday. We got to do whatever we can to make sure we take care of our players because we're always going to look out for our players' best interest health-wise. Number one. That's always going to be taken into consideration, so they'll do whatever and as the week goes along, we'll give you guys an update if we have any information to share.

On Cam's interception, it looked like a similar, I don't know if it was the same route or a similar route to him throwing behind Elic in the first quarter. Both of those misses, was that an issue with guys not getting to the landmark? Was he behind those guys or was that a miscommunication?

I have to watch the tape to tell you exactly what happened and where, see how the route was, see how the coverage was, see all those little things. We got to protect the football.

For a game like this, how do you hold guys accountable? That was something you talked about in the week leading up here. How do you, as the interim coach, hold guys accountable?

After every game. I'll say this: Our entire organization this week has been phenomenal. The entire organization. Everyone came in, we rallied around each other. We had a great week. Thank you for all your (Evert Geerlings) help this week. You were awesome. But I think everybody in this organization, top-down, they were unbelievable. The week of practice we had was phenomenal. So, they did a great job. So, it's just a matter of we got to find a way to play better and we're always going to — you talk about the accountability part. Regardless of the score of the game, no matter what it is, practice, games, we're going to watch the tape and we're going to be critical. We're coaches. We're going to coach. We're going to coach extremely hard and that's the way it's going to be. No one's trying to make a mistake. No player is out there trying to make a mistake, but we also have to coach them and talk about the little things, the fine little details that it takes to get over this hump. Whether it's footwork, whatever it is. As coaches, too, we've got to look at ourselves and say how do we help the players? Because it's all about the players. It's always going to be about the players. So, we got to do whatever we can to put our players in a position to succeed. And they've got to go out and execute. We're not going to make any excuses. We're going to get back to work, get back in the meetings tomorrow, watch it in all three phases tomorrow. Clean everything up. Players have Tuesday off. We'll get back in Wednesday and bust our tails to find a way to get a win this week.

Patriots hadn't run the ball really well this year coming in. What did they do well today in that department, and I guess how much did losing Jeff hurt?

I think starting the game that was one thing after the first couple of series we said we got to do. We got to stop the run. That was one of the first things we talked about. I heard the staff talking. I was doing some, doing a little bit of everything at halftime, but you could hear the defense staff saying number one, we got to stop the run. Stop the run and keep the quarterback in the pocket. They out-executed, and we got to do a better job at that.

QUARTERBACK CAM WARD

What happened with the quick start and what derailed the second half?

I think just with the quick start is just us having urgency. That's how we need to start every game and maintain it throughout the whole game. And the third quarter, really, fumbling the football, I think that was what really set us back. If I don't do that, the game does get out of hand that fast. So just got to continue to have ball security and get better.

Did the ball just slip on that play?

Yeah.

That's two weeks in a row. What's going on?

Got to hold on to it tighter. But really, just got to continue to emphasize it within myself. Got to be better at it. I know that's something that I can't continue to let happen. I got to cut that out next week.

Do you feel like you guys lose urgency at any point?

No, we don't lose urgency. It's just we have to continue to stack plays. And there's just— whether it's a false start and even towards the end of half, I should have checked the ball down, ended up stopping the clock again. We have to just waste the play on what we didn't have to. It's all of us have to do our job every play. And when we do that, we can be a good offense.

Do you get a chance to push at all to try to score a field goal before halftime or is there no chance for you to participate in that conversation?

That's the goal, to get points. We had enough time, we had three timeouts. But when I don't take the completion right there like I need to, it puts the coaches and the offense in a bad situation. So that's how it ended up happening. So, I just got to be better. We got to be better as a whole, and then at the end of the day, we've got to win games. We have to start next week by winning a football game.

Obviously, you didn't get the result, but Mike McCoy and some of the changes that he's implemented, how do you like that went throughout the week and in the game?

I think Mike (McCoy), he's done an unbelievable job, especially within the circumstances that he's in and everything he has preached to us since he was named the interim. And then all the way to this point, it stayed true. We want to be a hard, tough, physical football team, and we were that at times, but we weren't that the entirety of the game. That's why we got the outcome. So we got to continue to pour into the coaching staff, the coaching staff continued to pour on us and we've got to flip this thing around.

He mentioned how previously working with Trevor Lawrence, he just told him all the time that, 'Hey, you're getting better, you're getting better.' Is that something you've experienced in this short time with him?

Yeah, I've experienced that every game. Not only him just telling me that I get better. I'm feeling that I'm getting better just because of the level that you have to play at consistently. And just as a whole, myself and as an offense, we haven't done that consistently. And I just think the coaching staff, they never really tell us what we have to just continue to emphasize, they more tell us just to play the next play, continue to play. Because at the end of the day, you're not going to have a perfect game. But you've got to continue to stack perfect plays to end up trying to be in a situation to win.

Is there anything you could take from Drake Maye's path? He had a somewhat rough rookie year, had a new coach his second season, and he's playing like that. That's a pretty good course he's on. You think you can follow that?

It's not really about following him, it's more of being myself. I think he's a great player, he's going to continue to make plays in this league. When it's all said and done, I think me and him, we'll have a chance to have some elite battles. So he got the best of us today, but we got to continue get better. But you know that's not really the main goal as far as us trying to be a particular person. We're trying to play together, we ain't played complementary football for a decent amount of time. It's only been at clicks of the day. So we just got to continue to pour into each other, do better, and try to win next week.

What allowed you and Chim (Dike) to have the success you had right out of the gate? And did they do something to try to get him away in a second?

Me and Chim (Dike), we just see it the same way, from how he sees the field to how I see the field, it's the same way. I think that's something that me and him continue to create that relationship just on the field. I think he had an unbelievable day, not only in the return game, but especially at receiver. I think the more reps me and Chim get together, the better we're going to be, but this is only the start.

With the fumbles, do you think it's more an issue with focus and concentration or is it more mechanics?

I don't think it's neither, I just got to hold on to the football.

Did the coaching staff tell you anything after that fumble?

No, they don't really be crashing out on the sidelines, it's really more, 'Next play.' But they don't need to tell me that. I know that. But I've got a great coaching staff around me in Bo (Hardegree). He continuously tells me what I need to get better at, and that's one of the opportunities I have to get better at.

In general operation, communication, strategy, scheme. Was anything different today than what had been in the past?

Not really in terms of just how it translates to the game, our play. I think the biggest difference has only been just practice. We had a great week of practice, and I think it translated to the game, not the whole game, but we're starting to feel it click. But nothing really changed. Coach (Brian) Callahan, he did his best for us. He's a great head coach. He's a guy who took a chance on me, so I'm forever going to be grateful to him. But, we just got to continue to play complementary football. We did it for one half, we didn't do it the next half, so that's the next improvement for us.

What are maybe nights like or 24 hours like for you after a game when things don't go as well as you want them to as far as beating yourself up and how are you as far as putting stuff behind you and getting ready for the Colts next week?

I can put stuff behind me fast. I think as a quarterback, you have to be able to play the next play, got to be able flush stuff. And it's really me watching all my bad plays. How can I prevent it? What situation are we in? What down are we in? And even on some good plays, there's some stuff that I can continue to do better today, but I just got to be to build off the bad plays and make them into more good plays.

Were there more opportunities today for big chunk plays, even with Calvin (Ridley) out of the game? Looked like you have some decent success in getting the ball down field?

Yeah, I think that was more of an emphasis this week, just because of the different coverages that they can get to. It's a good defense that they have in the back end. And at the end of the day, we had to put the ball in play as well. Starting early, just taking what they give us until we're able to get the intermediate and deep throws. So we just got to continue to stack plays like that.

The interception that was behind Chig (Okonkwo), it looks similar to the miss in that same area of the field to Elic (Ayomanor) in the first quarter. Were those the same route or the same play? It looked like the same miss. Was their miscommunication there in terms of the landmark or were you just behind?

No, it wasn't the same route or the same play, completely different concept. I just threw the ball behind him, so I just need to be accurate with football.

To what extent do you think your performance so far is representative of what Cam Ward can do at the quarterback position?

I think he can do a lot. He can push the ball down the field. He can make plays with his feet. And he can motivate his teammates to continue to try and score every drive. That's the standard that we want to score the football every time we touch the field, whether it's with three or seven. I think that's just what I possess. Not a lot of people can go the route that I took to get to this point. So I'm not tripping over just a certain situation that one person is in or I'm in. I'm always trying to get better every day and meet my end goal, trying to be one of the best.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

On the touchdown, Dike said that's something that you guys talked about. How long have you been waiting to have that opportunity and that exact look to be able to take advantage of what both you and he do well?

I was ready for that play. We had that play on the sheet for about three, four weeks. So whenever he called it, I got to smiling in the huddle. Almost checked out of the play, but we reloaded. And then, that's Chim (Dike) really making the play. The O-line did an unbelievable job just getting everybody out of the way. Gunnar (Helm) sealed it with the pin block, and Chim made the play. So, I got to continue to put the ball in his hands, let him make plays, because when he touches the ball, he's dangerous.

CENTER LLOYD CUSHENBERRY III

How do you try and prevent, I guess, the motivation and the belief in the locker room from dipping?

I don't see it dipping. Like I said last week, we all still have a job to do. We're playing for each other. We're playing for the name on our chest, the organization. Also we're trying to represent the name on our backs. So, we all got to take pride in that and just come back to work, back to the drawing board. And like Coach McCoy told us, man, every Sunday is a dream. We all dreamed of being here growing up. So, you can't take it for granted and just got to keep going.

WIDE RECEIVER CHIMERE DIKE

What was going on in the first half that made everything click for you?

Just execution. We had a good week of preparation and I think offensively we were able to do some really good things in the first half. I think the second half, I made a critical error, a block that cost us and I think things like that right? To win games that we want to going forward, we need to do those things that starts with me.

You mentioned putting in a lot of work with Cam (Ward), that 38-yard touchdown, a deep crosser. Is that something you guys have worked on a lot in camp up to now, or how did that come about?

Yeah, I mean, I think it's just the reps we put in, right? Obviously ran it throughout camp, and the season and then also just watching film, putting in time, being able to see things the way you see them. It was really nice to connect on that.

Were you kind of looking around, like, making sure that one didn't go back for any weird reason, no flags? It feel good to finally get in there?

Yeah, a little bit, I was a little nervous about it. But O-line did a really great job protecting on that play. Cam (Ward) obviously threw a great ball, and it was nice to get in the end zone.

Cedric was telling us that he thinks it'll be that much more fulfilling to come out on the other side having gone through the difficult stuff you guys are going through now. How do you view that in the moment coming off this game?

Yeah, I mean, I think that the belief is still there within the group. And anytime you go through adversity in life, and we're facing adversity early in the season, it definitely feels good when you're able to come out the other side. So, it's important we get back to work this week, have a great week of preparation and go play a great game Sunday.

LINEBACKER CEDRIC GRAY

In the first half, to see you guys flying around out there, what do you think happened to the team in the second half?

I'm not quite sure. I thought we kind of came out, and played well in the first half, like you said. It kind of got away, with us, a play or two, here or there. Like I've said, the game can change so quickly, from just one or two plays, and I think that's kind of what happened.

(Drake) Maye, obviously a big guy, but pretty mobile, hurt you guys with a couple of runs today. How tough was that?

Yeah, definitely. Kind of had to do a little bit better job of keeping him in the pocket. He was able to get out, and make a few plays sometimes. So that definitely kind of played a factor, in him being able to extend the drives.

Having been through a couple of tough experiences like that before, is there something you can pull, and spin forward to this, and keep yourself going, other than what motivates you already?

I think it's just building. Just keep improving and building. It might not be our time right now, or this year. We just got to find ways to keep getting better, keep stacking and our time will come. It feels a lot better when you stay through the s---, you work through the s--- together, and then you finally come out on top at the end. It's going to feel a lot better, so we just going to keep working. We're going to keep getting better. We're going to find a way.

Along those lines, Coach (Mike) McCoy has really stressed, that you guys stay together throughout this. How important is that going to be?

Yeah, it's very important, it's very important. We start turning on each other, quitting on each other, worrying about ourselves, and different things like that, it's only going to make the season worse. So if we stick together, come together as a team, keep fighting as one, it's going to make things better and it's going to give us a better chance to get the outcome we want.

SAFETY AMANI HOOKER

Looked like you guys had it going in the first half, flying around a little bit. How do you think things got out of hand a little in the second half?

Just complementary football. We allowed them to get one touchdown before halftime, and then they came out and scored again. We just got to make sure to either take away both the touchdowns, or not let one of them happen. We've got to come out, and just be more exact in our communication.

(Drake) Maye obviously hurt you with a couple of runs there. I know you guys have played against him before. How tough was that?

Oh no, that's tough. You've got guys covered up, and then QB finds a hole, breaks a tackle, and extends it. That's tough sledding. You've just got to find a way to keep a guy like that in the pocket, and just try to find a way to win the down.

Obviously, tough stretch for you guys. Not where you want to be, but Coach (Mike) McCoy has really stressed staying together. How important is that going to be going forward?

Very important. We got a great group of guys and we love being with each other. We're connected. I mean, all offseason we worked on being connected, and building that chemistry, and we have it. We just have got to find a way to strain and come out victorious.

I know it's a tough stretch, but what's kind of the feeling around the team, that you're sensing around everyone?

Just urgency. These guys just want to win. Guys are competing. We're practicing well all week. We just have to find a way to fix the little things all across the board, all phases. But no, the feeling, around the week, it builds up. It's all about building confidence. Building confidence, up to the game. Like I said, we've just got to find a way to win.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN PETER SKORONSKI

Was that early rhythm born out of something maybe all that changed this week with all the changes or was it born out just consistency of what you'd already been working on?

I think consistency, I don't think we reinvented the wheel or anything. Just felt like those were relatively simple plays that we have been running since training camp. Just felt like the execution was really well and the play calls kind of complemented each other. So, I think nothing, no big changes, just doing what we've done and executing the plan.

Peter, obviously the frustration is there. How are you personally stomaching this one with the way things have gone?

Every game is a new game, every game's a chance to win. And for me, personally, I feel like every time you go out there against great competition, especially today, you have a chance to prove yourself and put your resume on tape. We're going to try to get as many wins as we can and try to do the best I can to play left guard for this team and so it's a new process every week and we just got to take it one week at a time.

2025 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Kansas City, Houston, Los Angeles Chargers and Los Angeles Rams and road contests at Houston and Denver. Four of those six games are against 2024 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Kansas City (AFC West) and the Los Angeles Rams (NFC West). The six games against reigning playoff clubs matches the total from last year. Prior to the 2024 season, the last time the Titans had six or fewer games against reigning playoff clubs was the 2020 campaign when they had five such games.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Jaguars, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Cameron Ward with this year's first overall pick. The team will face four of the next five selected players from the draft in Travis Hunter (second overall – Jacksonville), Will Campbell (fourth overall - New England Patriots), Mason Graham (fifth overall – Cleveland) and Ashton Jeanty (sixth overall - Las Vegas).
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: There are seven NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face four of them: New Orleans' Kellen Moore, Jacksonville's Liam Coen, Las Vegas' Pete Carroll and New England's Mike Vrabel. The Titans will also face off against two of the top five longest tenured coaches: Kansas City's Andy Reid (third-longest tenure – 13 years) and the Los Angeles Rams' Sean McVay (fifth-longest tenure – nine years).
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2024 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2024, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New England Patriots and the NFC South's fourth-place New Orleans Saints, and they visit the AFC North's fourth-place Cleveland Browns. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .450 (130-159) based upon their opponents' combined 2024 record, the 29th most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will play in every continental United States time zone at least twice during the 2025 regular season. They will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups, including every home contest as well as at Houston. The Titans have three trips to the Eastern time zone (at Cleveland, at Jacksonville and at Indianapolis). The farthest they will travel is Santa Clara, Calif., to face the 49ers (Pacific time zone). Tennessee will visit Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas for the first time to face the Raiders on the franchise's first trip to the state of Nevada. Other road trips include Glendale, Ariz., to meet the Cardinals and Denver, Colo., to face the Broncos (both in the Mountain time zone). This is the first time since 2019 in which the team will play in every continental U.S. time zone.
- ORIGINAL AFL TEAMS: This season, the Titans will face off against five of the other seven original AFL teams: Kansas City Chiefs (formerly Dallas Texans), New England Patriots (Boston Patriots), Los Angeles Chargers, Las Vegas Raiders (Oakland Raiders) and Denver Broncos.

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- WEEK 3 (H) & WEEK 8 (A) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' four-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Colts third-year head coach Shane Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles at the same time that Titans defensive coordinator Dennard Wilson was on the Eagles staff as defensive backs coach (2021) and defensive backs coach/defensive passing game coordinator (2022), culminating with Philadelphia's appearance in Super Bowl LVII.

- WEEK 4 (A) & WEEK 11 (H) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The reigning AFC South champion Texans have won the division the last two years. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last eight years, including last year when the Titans captured a 32-27 victory at Houston in November before falling at home in the season finale, 23-14. The Titans have a slight advantage in the series, leading 24-22 in 46 matchups since 2002. The Texans offense will feature first-time offensive coordinator Nick Caley calling plays for third-year quarterback CJ Stroud.
- WEEK 9 vs. LOS ANGELES CHARGERS: The Titans and Chargers meet for the fourth consecutive season. Most recently, the Chargers captured a 27-17 victory when the Titans traveled to SoFi Stadium in 2024. The last time the Titans hosted the Chargers, Tennessee won 27-24 in overtime on Sept. 17, 2023. The Titans have won the last three matchups at Nissan Stadium dating back to 2013. The rivalry dates back to the inaugural 1960 AFL season, with the Chargers owning a 30-19-1 lead in the series. The two franchises met in the first two AFL Championship games (1960-61), with the Houston Oilers capturing the title on both occasions.
- WEEK 10 (BYE): The Week 10 bye comes five weeks later than the Week 5 bye the Titans had in 2024. Week 10 marks the latest bye the Titans have had since the 2021 season, when their bye was Week 13.
- WEEK 12 vs. SEATTLE SEAHAWKS: The clubs held joint practices and played a preseason game in Nashville during the 2024 preseason. Seattle pulled out a 20-17 victory during their last visit to Nissan Stadium on Christmas Eve in 2023. The only postseason matchup between the franchises came in the 1988 Wild Card round when the Oilers defeated the Seahawks 23-20 in overtime. This year's game could feature two newly-acquired quarterbacks with Tennessee's Cameron Ward, taken with the first overall draft pick in 2025, and Seattle's Sam Darnold, the 2025 unrestricted free agent addition for the Seahawks and former number three overall selection in 2018.
- WEEK 13 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 31st season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign. This year, the contest could feature the top two draft picks of the 2025 class: Titans quarterback Cameron Ward and wide receiver/cornerback Travis Hunter, who the Jaguars drafted with the second-overall pick after trading up. The Titans, who lead the all-time series 35-26 (including postseason), look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept by the Jaguars in 2024.
- WEEK 14 at CLEVELAND BROWNS: The Titans travel to Cleveland to face the Browns in the 70th meeting between the teams, including the postseason. The Browns hold a 37-32 lead in the all-time series, winning the most recent matchup 27-3 when Tennessee last visited Huntington Bank Field in September 2023. The only playoff game between the two teams came in the Wild Card round of the 1988 postseason, with the Oilers pulling out a 24-23 victory on the road in Cleveland.
- WEEK 15 at SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS: The Titans travel to Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif., for the second time in the venue's history and the first time since 2017. The teams last met in 2021 for a 20-17 Titans win on a Thursday night at Nissan Stadium in Nashville. The 49ers hold a 9-6 lead in the all-time series. Quarterback Brock Purdy enters his fourth NFL season with the 49ers, who are also led by the 2023 AP Offensive Player of the Year, running back Christian McCaffrey.
- WEEK 16 vs. KANSAS CITY CHIEFS: The Titans host the Kansas City Chiefs for the first time since 2021, when the Titans won by a final score of 27-3. The series between two original AFL rivals dates back to 1960, with the Chiefs holding a 28-24 edge in the series. Titans first-year general manager Mike Borgonzi spent the past 16 years with the Chiefs organization, most recently serving as Kansas City's assistant general manager.
- WEEK 17 vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS: The Titans will host the Saints and first-year head coach Kellen Moore when New Orleans travels to Nashville for the first time since 2021. The last two meetings between the two teams have been decided by a total of three points, with the Saints winning 16-15 in the 2023 season opener at the Caesars Superdome and the Titans winning 23-21 in November 2021 at Nissan Stadium. The Titans hold a 9-7-1 record in the all-time series.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

In Borgonzi's first offseason in Tennessee, the Titans acquired several veteran free agents. Among the most notable signings were tackle Dan Moore Jr. (previously with Pittsburgh); guard Kevin Zeitler (Detroit); linebacker Cody Barton (Denver); outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones (Seattle); wide receiver Van Jefferson (Pittsburgh); safety Xavier Woods (Carolina); punter Johnny Hekker (Carolina); and kicker Joey Slye (New England).

In April, Borgonzi led the process that concluded with the selection of Miami (Fla.) quarterback Cam Ward with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. The team's nine total draft choices also included UCLA outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (second round), Penn State safety Kevin Winston Jr. (third round), Florida wide receiver Chimere Dike (fourth round), Texas tight end Gunnar Helm (fourth round), Stanford wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (fourth round), Sacramento State offensive lineman Jackson Slater (fifth round), California cornerback Marcus Harris (sixth round) and Michigan running back Kalel Mullings (sixth round).

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23) over a six-season span.

From 2017 to 2024, Borgonzi worked under Chiefs general manager Brett Veach. As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as assistant general manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE McCOY

The Titans named Mike McCoy interim head coach on Oct. 13, 2025. He was hired in 2025 as senior offensive assistant.

McCoy, who is in his 23rd season as a coach in the NFL, served as the head coach of the San Diego Chargers from 2013 to 2016 and spent an additional six years as an NFL offensive coordinator.

He arrived in Tennessee after three seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as quarterbacks coach. While in Jacksonville, McCoy helped quarterback Trevor Lawrence register consecutive 4,000-yard passing seasons in 2022 (4,113) and 2023 (4,016). During those two seasons, Lawrence's 8,129 passing yards ranked fifth in the NFL, and his 46 touchdown passes ranked 10th. In 2024, injuries limited Lawrence to 10 games, during which time he passed for 2,045 yards and 11 touchdowns.

In 2023, Lawrence surpassed 4,000 passing yards for the second consecutive year and also eclipsed 10,000 career passing yards, becoming the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 10,000 passing yards. Lawrence had eight consecutive games with at least 20 completions, which set a single-season franchise record.

In 2022, McCoy helped Lawrence improve in every major passing category from his rookie year to his second campaign. Lawrence produced his first 4,000-yard passing season in the NFL and finished the regular season completing 387 passes on 584 attempts for 4,113 yards. He threw 25 touchdowns against just eight interceptions. His four passing touchdowns in the Wild Card round against the Chargers were also a single-game postseason franchise record.

Before going to Jacksonville, McCoy served as the offensive coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals in 2018. He helped Josh Rosen complete 217 passes for 2,278 yards and 11 touchdowns in his rookie season, while wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald recorded a team-high 69 receptions for 734 yards and six scores. In addition, under McCoy's tutelage, the Cardinals rushing attack posted 1,342 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2017, McCoy joined the Broncos in his second stint as an offensive coordinator in Denver and helped running back CJ Anderson finish ninth in the NFL in rushing yards (1,007).

From 2013 to 2016, McCoy was the head coach of the San Diego Chargers. During that time, San Diego ranked ninth in the league in total offense (365.9 yards per game) and second in offensive third-down percentage (44.6 percent). In addition, McCoy's group had a top-10 passing attack each season. San Diego qualified for the postseason in McCoy's first campaign at the helm (2013) and beat the Bengals in the Wild Card round.

Under McCoy, Chargers quarterback Philip Rivers finished with his three highest single-season completion percentage marks while averaging more than 31 touchdown passes per year. Rivers earned Comeback Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press in 2013 after completing a career-best and NFL-high 69.5 percent of his passes for 4,478 yards with 32 touchdowns and 11 interceptions (105.5 rating).

Prior to his tenure as head coach in San Diego, McCoy served as the Broncos offensive coordinator for four seasons (2009-12). During his final year in Denver in 2012, the Broncos tied Atlanta for the NFL's best record at 13-3 in quarterback Peyton Manning's first season with the team. The Broncos featured the NFL's fourth-ranked offense and fifth-ranked passing attack as Manning earned Comeback Player of the Year honors after passing for a then-franchise-record 4,659 yards with 37 touchdowns.

In 2011, the Broncos led the NFL and established a franchise record with 2,632 rushing yards. They earned a postseason berth and Wild Card victory with Tim Tebow at quarterback, marking the first of back-to-back playoff appearances (2011-12). Tebow finished that season with 660 rushing yards, the most by a quarterback in team history, while running back Willis McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and earned his second career Pro Bowl selection after rushing for 1,199 yards.

McCoy oversaw the NFL's seventh-ranked passing attack in 2010 as quarterback Kyle Orton finished fourth in the league averaging 281 passing yards per game. Brandon Lloyd led the NFL with 1,448 receiving yards and earned his first Pro Bowl selection while also becoming just the fourth wide receiver in team history to be named All-Pro.

In 2009, Brandon Marshall tied for third in the NFL with 101 receptions, including an NFL-record 21 catches in one game. Running back Knowshon Moreno earned All-Rookie honors after leading all NFL rookies in rushing yards (947), yards from scrimmage (1,160) and total touchdowns (nine).

McCoy spent his first nine seasons as a coach in Carolina, working his way up from offensive assistant (2000) to wide receivers coach (2001), quarterbacks coach/offensive assistant (2002), quarterbacks coach (2003-06) and passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2007-08). The Panthers totaled three playoff appearances, two division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVIII during McCoy's tenure.

During McCoy's time with Carolina, he worked closely with Jake Delhomme, helping the quarterback to four 3,000-yard passing seasons and his first Pro Bowl selection in 2005. Delhomme averaged the fifth-most yards per pass attempt (7.8) in the NFL during McCoy's two seasons managing Carolina's passing attack while wide receiver Steve Smith Sr. ranked seventh in the league with 2,423 yards in that span.

A college quarterback, McCoy spent his first two years at Long Beach State (1990-91) before spending his last two years at Utah (1993-94). He signed with the Broncos as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1995 and spent his rookie season on Green Bay's practice squad. He played in NFL Europe with the Amsterdam Admirals (1997) and spent one game on San Francisco's roster as its third quarterback in 1997. McCoy spent training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles (1998) before finishing his playing career with the Calgary Stampeders in the CFL in 1999.

McCoy and his wife, Kellie, have a daughter, Liv, and a son, Luke.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

In the first quarter, he found Chig Okonkwo for a 22-yard completion and Calvin Ridley on a 27-yarder. On a 16-play, 77-yard touchdown drive, he threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Elic Ayomanor on fourth-and-goal in the fourth quarter. On the drive, Ward completed eight-of-11 passes for 80 yards.

➤ At Houston (9/28), while joining Marcus Mariota (2015) as the only rookie quarterbacks in franchise history to start the first four games of a season, completed 10-of-26 passes for 108 yards with one interception. He added 22 yards and a first down on two rushing attempts. In the first quarter, he found Elic Ayomanor for a 33-yard completion, his longest career completion to date. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-six with a 22-yard pass to Calvin Ridley.

➤ At Arizona (10/5), earned his first career win as a starting quarterback, completing 21 of 39 passes for 265 yards. He engineered a 15-point fourth-quarter comeback in the win, and in the fourth quarter, he was 13-of-18 passing for 193 yards in the fourth quarter. He was credited with his first career game-winning drive, which ended with Joey Slye's game-winning field goal as time expired. Ward completed five of his six passes on the drive for 67 yards, including a 38-yard pass to Calvin Ridley to help set up the field goal. The Titans trailed by 18 points in the second quarter, which tied for the second-largest deficit by any quarterback in their first career win as a starter in the Super Bowl era (21 by Atlanta's Mike Moroski in Week 13, 1983; 18 by New York Giants' Daniel Jones in Week 3, 2019; 18 by Seattle's Jon Kitna in Week 16, 1997). Since 2000, Ward joined Vince Young (Nov. 26, 2006 against the New York Giants) as the only NFL rookie quarterbacks to win a game in which they trailed by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter. Ward's 193 fourth-quarter passing yards were the fourth-most by an NFL rookie in a game since the beginning of the 1978 season. In that span, Ward ranked behind only Tampa Bay's Jameis Winston (238 at St. Louis on Dec. 17, 2015), Houston's Davis Mills (220 vs. L.A. Rams on Oct. 31, 2021) and Washington's Jayden Daniels (194 vs. Dallas on Nov. 24, 2024). From that group, Ward's total was the second-most in a road game and the most in a victory. He found Ridley in the fourth quarter for a 47-yard pass, which was the longest of Ward's career to date, to help set up a touchdown.

➤ At Las Vegas (10/12), completed 26 of 38 passes for 222 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He completed his first six passes of the game, and in the first quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with an 18-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. Ward connected three times with Van Jefferson on passes of at least 20 yards: a 20-yarder in the second quarter, a 23-yarder in the third quarter and another 23-yarder in the fourth quarter. In the fourth quarter, he converted a fourth-and-15 with a 20-yard completion to Chig Okonkwo and registered his third career touchdown pass on a one-yard toss to David Martin-Robinson. In franchise history, he became the first rookie quarterback to start the first six games of a season. Marcus Mariota was the only previous franchise rookie to start at quarterback for the first five games of a season.

➤ Against New England (10/19), completed 25 of 34 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His 73.5 completion percentage, 7.50 yards per attempt, 14 passing first downs, and 92.2 passer rating were his best marks through seven NFL games. His 73.5 completion percentage was the best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback with at least 30 attempts in a game, eclipsing Marcus Mariota's previous mark of 71.8 (28-of-39) as a rookie at New Orleans on Nov. 8, 2015. Ward became the team's first rookie quarterback in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) with 25 or more completions in back-to-back games. The last quarterback to accomplish the feat for the Titans was Mariota, who accomplished the feat in two consecutive games from Sept. 11-18, 2016. Ward completed 10 of his first 11 passes for 144 yards and one touchdown (149.1 passer rating), including a 38-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the first quarter.

His first career touchdown came on a 38-yard pass from Cam Ward after he set up the scoring drive with a 29-yard kickoff return to the New England 41-yard line. In the first seven games of 2025, he totaled 1,025 combined total yards (scrimmage yards + return yards) to join two previous players in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach 1,000 combined yards in the team's first seven games of a season: Derrick Mason in 2000 (1,221 yards in the first seven games) and Derrick Henry in 2021 (1,023). Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his seventh NFL season and his second season with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

During the 2024 campaign, Ridley led the Titans offense with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards and caught four touchdown passes. His 15.9-yard receiving average in 2024 ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Ridley also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown.

Ridley's 2024 season was his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023), and it was the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999 to present). He became the ninth player in NFL history to have at least one 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams, joining Brandin Cooks (four teams), Brandon Marshall (four), Amari Cooper (three), DeAndre Hopkins (three), Irving Fryar (three), Randy Moss (three), Terrell Owens (three) and Tony Martin (three). Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. In 2024, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fourth consecutive season. With 68 consecutive games played in his first four seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2024 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 12th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

With Cox serving as the team's long snapper, kicker Nick Folk led the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season in 2024. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt. Also in 2024, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the second consecutive year.

Cox finished the 2024 season with a career total of 233 games played. He ranked 10th among all active NFL players, and his total also moved him past Reggie White (232 games) for the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.
