

TITANS 2021 DRAFTEE QUESTIONNAIRE

CALEB FARLEY (1ST ROUND, 22ND OVERALL)

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Full name: Caleb Ray Farley

Position: CB

Height: 6-2

Weight: 197

Date of Birth: 11/2/98

Birthplace: Maiden, N.C.

Marital status: Single

Children's names and ages (if applicable): None

Names of parents: Robert and Robin Farley

Number of siblings: Brother - Joshua

Agent's name: Drew Rosenhaus

Twitter: @IamCalebFarley

Instagram: @cr_farley

COLLEGE

College(s) attended: Virginia Tech (2017-20)

College Major: Communication Studies

Redshirt season(s): 2017

College jersey number: 3

Significance of jersey number: "It's for the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit."

HIGH SCHOOL

High school (city, state): Maiden (N.C.) High School

Mascot: Blue Devils

Year graduated: 2017

Other sports played in high school: Track (100, 200, long jump, 4x100), Basketball (point guard)

OFF THE FIELD

Relatives or close childhood friends in professional sports: None

Familiarity with fellow Titans draft picks or veteran Titans players: Knows former Titans tight end Jonnu Smith and worked out with him after meeting through their agent, Drew Rosenhaus.

Any charitable causes that are meaningful to you: Looks forward to getting involved in breast cancer awareness due to his mother's battle with the disease.

Pregame rituals: "I like to pray and meditate, calm my nerves, and watch film."

Outside of football and your family, what is something you're passionate about? "I'm passionate about kids. It's always been in my heart to set a good influence for children and help lead them in the right direction."

Something new you have done in the last year during quarantine/COVID-19 pandemic: "I tried vegan food. It went for a couple weeks."

Biggest challenge overcome in your life and/or football career: His mother, Robin, lost her life to breast cancer on Jan. 2, 2018. He had an ACL injury in 2017 and entered the draft recovering from a back injury. "Yes, there's been doubt and negativity thrown my way through this process, but I just control what I can control. I do my best every day and lean on my faith."

Football role model: Ray Lewis

On your “bucket list”: Win a Super Bowl

Off-the-field interests and hobbies: Watching movies. “I love all types of movies, a lot of classics.”

Do you have any pets? Presa Canario named Legend

Hidden talent: “Playing offense ... If I played offense in the NFL, I’d look like a first-round receiver.”

Career aspirations outside of playing football: “None outside of playing football. Maybe someday I’ll want to do some movie screenwriting or something like that, but I’m not even thinking about anything like that. Right now I’m a football player and nothing else.”

Prior jobs: When he was 16, he worked at J&S Cafeteria in Hickory, N.C. serving food and drinks.

Most memorable sporting event you have ever watched: “I watched all of Floyd Mayweather’s fights growing up.”

Movies you can always re-watch: “Braveheart,” “Troy” and “The Count of Monte Cristo”

Best TV show to binge: “Hard Knocks”

Favorite musician or band: “I like to listen to music, but I don’t have anyone to put in that number one spot yet.”

Other interesting notes: He and his brother, Joshua, were named by his parents after the biblical Caleb and Joshua. “My faith was instilled by my mother at a young age. She filled my heart with the love of God, and that’s why I am where I am today.”