TITANS CONCLUDE PRESEASON SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT NEW ORLEANS

Tennessee Titans (2-0) at New Orleans Saints (1-1)

Sunday, Aug. 25, 2024 • 1 p.m. CDT • Caesars Superdome • New Orleans, La. • TV: WKRN

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans conclude their preseason schedule this week with a trip to face the New Orleans Saints. Kickoff at Caesars Superdome (capacity 73,000) is scheduled for 1 p.m. CDT on Sunday, Aug. 25.

It has been less than a year since the Titans' most recent visit to the Crescent City. They opened the 2023 regular season there on Sept. 10, but the Saints prevailed by a final score of 16-15. The Saints' one trip to the end zone against the Titans defense—a 19-yard touchdown pass from Derek Carr to wide receiver Rashid Shaheed—broke a 9-9 tie in the third quarter and proved to be the difference in the contest. Despite the loss, the Titans still own a 9-7-1 advantage in the all-time series.

THE BROADCAST

This week's contest will be televised regionally on the Titans Preseason TV Network, including flagship WKRN-News 2 in Nashville. Play-by-play announcer Paul Burmeister and analyst Charles Davis will call the action, and Cory Curtis will report from the sidelines. Outside of Nashville, fans can watch the New Orleans TV broadcast live on NFL Network.

During the preseason, fans in the Nashville market are able to livestream the broadcast on their mobile devices from the Titans Mobile App (iOS and Android), as well as on desktop computers and mobile web at TennesseeTitans.com. Restrictions apply.

Additionally, fans outside of Nashville can access live Titans preseason games with NFL+, which offers access to out-of-market preseason games across all devices, live local and primetime regular season and postseason games (phone and tablet only), live local and national audio for every game, and more.

The Titans Radio Network and Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone carry all Titans games across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Dave McGinnis, sideline reporter Ramon Foster, executive producer/gameday host Rhett Bryan and co-host Amie Wells.

TITANS IMPROVE TO 2-0 IN PRESEASON

Last week, the Titans earned their second consecutive preseason victory at Nissan Stadium, rallying in the fourth quarter for a 16-15 win against the Seattle Seahawks. It followed a 17-13 victory against the San Francisco 49ers in Brian Callahan's preseason debut as a head coach.

Against the Seahawks, Titans kicker Brayden Narveson made three field goals in the fourth quarter. He connected from 21 yards and 59 yards before providing a walk-off 46-yarder as the clock expired.

The Titans' regular starters were held out of action on Saturday after getting a large share of the practice reps during the week in two joint sessions with the visiting Seahawks. Malik Willis started the contest at quarterback and completed 12 of 16 passes for 116 yards and added 30 rushing yards.

Mason Rudolph alternated with Willis and completed a 15-yard touchdown strike to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine as part of his 125-yard passing performance. He engineered three of the offense's four scoring drives, including the two-minute drive that culminated in Narveson's game-winner.

The Titans defense limited Seattle to 12 first downs and only two conversions on nine attempts on third-down (22.2 percent). Rookie outside linebacker Jaylen Harrell, a seventh-round pick out of Michigan, tallied two of the club's three sacks in the contest.

THE SAINTS

The Saints, who lost 16-10 last week at San Francisco, enter 2024 under the direction of head coach Dennis Allen for the third season. In 2023, they finished 9-8, losing a tiebreaker with the 9-8 Tampa Bay Buccaneers for the NFC South title.

Saints quarterback Derek Carr started all 17 games for the Saints in 2023, his first season with the organization after spending his first nine NFL campaigns with the Raiders. He passed for 3,878 yards and 25 touchdowns with eight interceptions, and his 97.7 passer rating was the third-best mark of his career.

In 2018, Callahan spent the season as Carr's position coach in Oakland. He helped Carr pass for a then-career-high 4,049 yards and an AFC-best 68.9 completion percentage.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans and Saints have a long preseason history. In 30 meetings in the preseason, the Saints lead 15-14-1. They met every preseason from 1968-87, and only the Dallas Cowboys have played the Oilers/Titans more often in the preseason (34 games) than the Saints.

In head-to-head regular season matchups, the Titans and Saints have played a total of 17 times, with the Titans holding a 9-7-1 advantage. That includes a four-game winning streak by the Titans that was broken with a Saints victory in 2011. The last four outcomes have been split evenly, 3-3.

The Titans opened the 2023 regular season at New Orleans (Sept. 10) and fell by a final score of 16-15. Kicker Nick Folk provided the only scoring of the day for the Titans, connecting on five field goals. The Saints' one touchdown against the Titans defense—a 19-yard touchdown pass from Derek Carr to wide receiver Rashid Shaheed—broke a 9-9 tie in the third quarter and proved to be the difference in the contest.

While the teams are infrequent adversaries and the Saints have made only four appearances in Tennessee since the Oilers moved from Houston in 1997, the Saints visited Nissan Stadium in 2019 and 2021.

On Dec. 22, 2019, the Saints erased a 14-0 Titans lead to win 38-28, defeating a Titans team that was without running back Derrick Henry for the first and only time during the season. Wide receiver Michael Thomas caught 12 passes from Drew Brees for 136 yards, including a late score to seal the New Orleans victory.

On Nov. 14, 2021, the Titans hosted the Saints and earned a 23-21 victory. The Titans defense tallied four sacks—including two sacks by Jeffery Simmons—and stopped the Saints on a late two-point conversion that would have tied the score at 23-23. Ryan Tannehill passed for a touchdown and rushed for another score in the win.

The Titans played a memorable primetime game at Caesars Superdome on Monday night, Sept. 24, 2007. Titans linebacker Keith Bulluck recorded a career-high three interceptions, tying a franchise record, in helping the team to a 31-14 win.

The initial regular season matchup between the Saints and the then-Houston Oilers occurred in 1971, five seasons after the Saints began play as an expansion franchise in the NFL. The game resulted in a 13-13 score, one of the six ties in Oilers/Titans history.

TITANS-SAINTS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 1: Titans 15, Saints 16
 Sunday, Sept. 10, 2023 • 12:00 p.m. CT • Caesars Superdome

In Week 1 of the 2023 season, the Titans traveled to New Orleans to face the Saints and fell by a score of 16-15. It was a game of field goals before the Saints scored the only touchdown of the day to take the lead and the win.

The Titans took a 3-0 lead on the first possession of the game off a 50-yard field goal from K Nick Folk. Titans were able to gain possession to set up the score after S Amani Hooker forced and recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff.

The Saints responded with a field goal of their own from K Balke Grupe after stringing together a nine-play 67-yard drive to tie it at 3-3.

The Titans then turned in an 11-play, 66-yard drive that ended with another field goal by Folk, this one from 27 yards, and it was 6-3 Tennessee at the 3:07 mark of the first quarter.

After another Grupe field goal made it 6-6 midway through the second quarter, Folk added his third field goal of the game, a 31-yard kick, making it 9-6 Titans with 1:40 remaining in the first half. The seven-play 57-yard field goal drive was highlighted by a 46-yard gain by RB Derrick Henry off a screen pass from QB Ryan Tannehill.

Tennessee held a 9-6 lead going into halftime after Hooker came up with his second takeaway of the day after intercepting QB Derek Carr with 37 seconds remaining in the half.

S Marcus Maye intercepted Tannehill on the opening drive of the second half at the New Orleans one-yard line. The Saints drove down and settled for another field goal by Grupe to tie it 9-9.

Later in the third quarter, the Saints made the Titans pay after Tannehill's third interception of the game, as Carr connected with WR Rashid Shaheed for a 19-yard touchdown pass to make it 16-9 with 1:23 left to play in the stanza.

The Titans then strung together a 12-play 48-yard drive highlighted by three first down completions from Tannehill that culminated in a 45-yard field goal by Folk to make it 16-12.

Folk made his fifth field goal of the day with 2:17 left to bring Tennessee within one. But the Titans never got the ball back, as the Saints offense converted two third-down opportunities to run out the clock and seal the victory.

Dennis Allen enters his third season as head coach of the New Orleans Saints after being named the 17th head coach in franchise history on Feb. 8, 2022.

In 2023, Allen helped the Saints to a 9-8 record, a two-win improvement from the 2022 season, by winning four of their last five contests.

In his first year as head coach of the Saints, Allen guided New Orleans through the challenge of significant injuries at virtually every position to win three of their last four games and give up 20 or fewer points in the final eight contests of the season. The team's defensive play-caller since the middle of the 2015 season, Allen helped New Orleans rank second in the NFL in pass defense (184.4 yards per game), fifth in total defense (314.8), tied for fifth in sacks (48), sixth in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (50.0) and ninth in scoring defense (20.3 points per game) in 2022.

Prior to returning to the Saints in 2015, Allen served as the head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14. Allen coached the first four games of the 2014 season for the Raiders, during which he helped usher in a pair of rookies that went on to enjoy impressive first-year campaigns in quarterback Derek Carr, signed by New Orleans in 2023, and linebacker Khalil Mack.

In 2011, Allen served as defensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos. He led a defense that helped the Broncos win the AFC West division crown and advance to the AFC Divisional round with an AFC Wild Card game victory. The defense produced four Pro Bowl selections as rookie linebacker Von Miller joined cornerback Champ Bailey, safety Brian Dawkins and defensive end Elvis Dumervil.

During his first stint in New Orleans, Allen was part of a defensive coaching staff that engineered significant improvement during the 2009 and 2010 seasons, when the club went 24-8 in the regular season, qualified for the playoffs both times and captured Super Bowl XLIV. He joined the Saints as assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07 before becoming secondary coach from 2008-10. From 2002-2005, he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield with the Atlanta Falcons.

Allen worked as the secondary coach for the University of Tulsa (2000-01) before heading to the NFL. Prior to his stint at Tulsa, Allen was on the coaching staff for four years (1996-99) at his alma mater, Texas A&M, as a graduate assistant working primarily with the school's secondary under head coach R.C. Slocum.

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen earned four letters for Texas A&M as a safety from 1992-95 and started the final 21 games of his career.

LAST WEEK VS. THE SEAHAWKS

Preseason Week 2: Titans 16, Seahawks 15 Saturday, Aug. 17, 2024 • 6:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 2 of the 2024 preseason, the Tennessee Titans hosted the Seattle Seahawks and won by a score of 16-15.

The game began quietly with both teams trading punts the first four possessions of the game before the Seahawks took a 6-0 lead when QB Sam Howell lead an eight-play, 84-yard touchdown drive capped off by a 23-yard scoring pass to WR Easop Winston Jr. K Jason Myers missed the extra point attempt off the upright.

Seattle extended its lead to 9-0 with a 27-yard field goal by Myers after DL Isaiah Iton sacked Howell for a two-yard loss on third down to force the field goal.

The Titans answered on the next drive. QB Mason Rudolph orchestrated a 10-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 15-yard touchdown pass to WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine to make it 9-7 with 38 seconds left in the half. The drive also featured three rushing attempts by RB Julius Chestnut for 28 yards and a 15-yard completion to WR Mason Kinsey.

Seattle extended its lead to 12-7 with a 48-yard field goal by Myers as the clock expired in the first half.

Following a scoreless third quarter, the Titans brought the score within two with a 21-yard field goal by K Brayden Narveson which capped a 14-play, 73-yard drive led by QB Malik Willis. The drive featured two completions from Willis to WR Jha'Quan Jackson for a total of 41 yards.

The Titans defense forced a Seattle punt on the next possession before the offense took over at their own 18-yard line with Rudolph at the helm. Tennessee drove to the Seattle 38-yard line before Rudolph was sacked on third down forcing a 59-yard field goal attempt by Narveson, who drilled it for the Titans to take their first lead of the night. The 59-yarder was the second longest field goal ever made at Nissan Stadium.

Seattle was forced to punt on their next possession but an interception by FS Ty Okada on a Willis pass gave the Seahawks offense the ball at their own 47-yard line. Four plays later, the Seahawks were facing fourth-and-one and opted for a 50-yard field goal by Myers to make 15-13 with 1:55 left in the game.

Tennessee started to drive at their 30-yard line. Rudolph found TE David Martin-Robinson for two quick completions to get to the 50-yard line. Rudolph scrambled for 10 yards and then found RB Julius Chestnut for 14 yards on the next play. Chestnut rushed three times for three yards before HC Brian Callahan called a timeout with three seconds left, sending out the field goal unit. Narveson hit the 46-yard field goal as time expired to take the victory.

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

Just injury notes from the game. Kearis Jackson had a knee, did not return. Does not look bad. I will get further information on the eval in the coming days, but it doesn't seem like its serious. Jabari Small was evaluated for a concussion, did not return. And then, TK McLendon left with a foot, did not return. We'll get more information on that in the next couple of days. Other than that, we came out relatively clean. We had a lot of guys play a lot of football tonight, which was great. But they had to fight through it a bit. It was a lot. A lot of guys played a full game which they are not used to playing. So, great effort from a bunch of guys. We got great situational football today to learn from, which was outstanding in both end of the half and end of the game. And then, to win the game on a walk-off field goal, to get in position was outstanding. And then obviously, (Brayden) Narveson hitting from 59 was something that I didn't have on my bingo card today. So, that was really, really cool to see. Jaylen Harrell with two sacks was really great to see as well. He played a lot of football tonight. I thought we did a really nice job possessing the football too. We managed to chew up some clock and keep the ball on our possession. Penalties are what hurt us today. That was tough. Especially early, had a bunch of third down penalties that knocked us into some long yardage that kind of set us back early in the game, in that first quarter in particular. Really both sides on third down, offense and defense, we had some issues. Got to clean those up. But overall, I told the guys in the locker room that people like to say the preseason doesn't mean anything. Well, it means something to us. It means something to the guys that are playing, and so to go out there and play well and find a way to win a game, that matters to us. Again, won't count for the standings at the end of the year, but it does matter and it's important to see those guys play well and leave on a successful note off the field.

The offensive line had five penalties with one declined. How concerning is it that the backups are committing that many?

Anytime you can hit five of them up front, its concerning. That wasn't very clean on our offensive line up front. Things to take a look at, hand placement, things like that. But yeah, five penalties and having one declined, that's not great.

How would you assess, without seeing the film obviously, the play of Mason Rudolph and Malik Willis?

They both did really good things. They both completed the ball for the most part. They didn't put the ball in harm's way too much. I mean, Malik (Willis) had a high ball that got tipped for the interception that could have lost the game for us at that moment. But, I thought both of them did well, they operated well. They led the team down and scored points, both of them. So, I'll watch the film a little bit further with some more detail. I can give you some better answers once I watch it. But off the field, my initial impression was both of them played well enough.

You alluded to the end of half operation. Just how important is that for you to get to go through that process?

Hugely important for me. I want as much of that as I could possibly get. Just managing timeouts, managing situations. I'm kind of pissed at myself. In the first half, where I took that timeout, I think it was maybe 10 or 12 seconds left on the clock. I should have taken it all the way down, and that might have been the difference in them being able to kick a field goal or not. So, learning lessons as we go. But I should have waited longer to take the timeout. But yeah, it was great.

You rallied twice. How much fun was it to watch that? How cool was it to see guys that maybe weren't in uniform celebrate that?

That's the sign of a really connected team to me. That's one of the things that we preach. And just having those guys up and into it and cheering on the guys that they work with every day, and work hard, and go against on a regular basis. To see that kind of energy and excitement in a preseason game is going to serve us well. It's important to see that. So, I'm happy they did, and I had plenty of energy too when he made that field goal to win. So, it was exciting.

59 from Brayden Narveson and you said you didn't have it on your bingo card. It looked like it had a lot more on it. What kind of leg has he shown in practice? What did you think is range was?

He's shown that range. That part wasn't surprising. I was getting ready to punt it, and Colt (Anderson) kind of yells at me, he goes 'Kick it, kick, kick it,' and I was like, alright, we'll kick it. I'll give the kid get a shot at it from 59. Colt had a ton of trust in him. Obviously works with him very closely and understands the range that he has and where he could be accurate from. Great call by Colt to push me to kicking it, and unbelievable execution. 59 yards is no small feat. That's a grown man kick in the NFL. I mean, it's not easy to hit. So, that was great for him to put on tape for himself, too. So, really cool to see.

How do you see the running back competition? Hassan Haskins didn't play any offense in the first half. But he got in the second, how do you see he and Julius Chestnut?

I think it's still a competition. I think Julius (Chestnut) has played well for himself. He's put himself out there. Played well overall, done all the things we ask the running back to do. So, he got the first carries, and then I think Jabari Small's played really well too. We've got some competition there, and I think that those guys have played probably a little bit better than Hassan (Haskins) at this point. Obviously, Hassan is a special teams demon and that matters too. So, that competition is ongoing. We've got another week to go.

Do you feel like Jha'Quan Jackson built on a good week? Was Kyle Philips out because of his hamstring and is he going to miss time because of that?

Yeah, Kyle's (Philips) out with the hamstring. I don't know when he'll be back. I'm hopeful that he might get back for practice, potentially the game. But we wanted to make sure that we got a really good long look at Jha'Quan (Jackson) as a returner, obviously with how he returned last week and what we've seen in practice and his performance at receiver in the game. He earned himself a really long look, and we want to make sure what we saw last week was real. And he has continued to stack competitive days as a receiver and a returner. That's a really positive step for him, and it's really good to see him make some plays in the passing game as well.

David Martin-Robinson seemed to step up big in that fourth quarter for you. What does he fall in that tight end hierarchy?

Yeah, he's making a push. He's really done a nice job for an undrafted player. He's been a nice surprise for us. He's got a really unique ability because he's a really smooth runner and smooth catcher. But he's also physical and he's strong, so he can do a lot of things for us, particularly special teams is one of them when you're fighting for that third and fourth tight end spot. Really, really pleased with where he's at and what he's shown us, and excited about his potential as a tight end. I think he's shown that every week now.

Do you have a better feel for rookies Jaylen Harrell and Isaiah Iton on the defensive line? Are you building depth there?

Yeah. Building depth with those guys is always going to be important. It was good to see Jaylen (Harrell) with some production tonight. That was great. I'll know more when I watch tape tomorrow, with Isaiah (Iton) as well. But anytime that you've got some depth you can build and guys—that even if they don't make your roster—are practice squad players that you feel good about elevating if you get in a pinch, those are the guys you're looking for and as many of those as you can find. So, I thought those guys played hard and played well tonight.

Nick Folk is automatic, but he can't hit from 59 yards. Does that make you take another look at that spot?

At this point, no, I don't think so. But I think it was good to see a hit from 59 and Narveson hit it. So no, I don't think that changes much at the current moment. But it was really a positive development for us and for him that he can put that on tape and in live action to hit that field goal.

As the news came out about Arden Key, what are your thoughts on that suspension being overturned?

Same as they were the last time we talked about it. It's a league matter, and until we get any kind of official word from the league, then I'll refrain from comment, just like I did last time. So, that's about all I can answer on that one.

Throughout the whole time, have you held hope that it would get overturned?

It was in the league's hands for the appeal process. There's nothing I can do or say or we can do as an organization. It's in their hands officially. So, you just wait and yeah, you're hopeful, of course, but you wait and you see what happens.

It was a little surprising to see as much of Nick Westbrook-Ikhine tonight as we did. What was the thought process behind him playing a half?

It was just good to see him play. We wanted to put him in position to make some plays for us, which he did. It was good to see him get in the end zone. Not that I need to see a lot from NWI (Nick Westbrook-Ikhine). I know what he's capable of and how productive he's been. But when you've got as many guys as we have, he's kind of forced into action. So, he's got to be able to play a little bit, and hopefully it allowed the quarterbacks to play well. Sometimes there's a comfort level in having some of those types of players out there with you. And that's just kind of where you're.

Is him playing and Treyton Burks not a reflection of hierarchy? Or is that just different guys, different situations?

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Different guys, different situations. Different positions too.

With injuries kind of happened at the inside linebacker spot, obviously Chance Campbell continues to build off the momentum in practices and games, what else does he need to show you or do you feel like you're seeing a lot from him?

Seeing a lot. I think he's really done a nice job of stacking competitive performances, showing that he's capable of being one of those backup inside linebackers that's contributing on special teams. I mean, he flies around the field, he plays really hard. He's got a ton of energy. So, seeing a lot of great things from him in two games, and he's made a really strong case for himself.

Are you seeing a lot from that group of corners with Tre Avery, Jarvin Brownlee Jr., Eric Garror, Gabe Jeudy-Lally, these guys. Are they contributing to your liking so far?

Yeah, I think that preseason can be challenging for those guys. They're going up against different offenses and sometimes the balls get over their head. I thought they've competed really well though. That's the key point. When you're evaluating those guys, it's more about are they doing what they're supposed to do? Are their eyes right? Is the technique right? Are they being competitive on the football? And so far, I've been pretty pleased with what we've seen there. I'm sure there's plenty of room for improvement, it's not perfect. But, I've been, particularly with Jarvis (Brownlee Jr.), been really happy with what we've seen out of him.

QUARTERBACK MASON RUDOLPH

Preseason, regular season is it always, I guess, fun to lead one of those drives at the end and how was the win tonight?

Yeah. It was fun. We hadn't had much work in the two minute. And so, I was proud of the way—in practice—I was proud of the way the guys communicated and remembered our operation and huddle. Whether we were in the huddle or no huddle, go over the line, getting out of bounds and run to the ball to the ref. So that's kind of all—it's good to get a dry run in the preseason doing that.

Have you had a lot of games where you kind of rotated like tonight?
No.

What's that like for you?

I mean it's what the preseason is. You got to stay on your feet. But going back and forth each drive, you got to kind of stay warm and stay loose on the sidelines.

Still got a week to go in the preseason. Do you like what you've done up until this point to get ready for the season?

Yeah. I think—I was talking my dad the other night primarily as a backup quarterback. You know, you get through the dog days of camp and you start to get a little tired or rundown. But I try to remind myself, 'Hey buddy, you don't get these reps when the season starts, unless your number is called. Man I just want to enjoy each and every day this camp. Coach Cally (Brian Callahan), he's done a good job of keeping the guys up, giving us some off days. But, you know attack it, have a good week and then finish it off in New Orleans.'

QUARTERBACK MALIK WILLIS

You look comfortable and relaxed back there operating the offense. It seems to fit you maybe better, than some of the things in the past.

I think it's awesome. Also, I think that I just continue to try to learn from any miscues I've made in the past, and just try to understand the essence of where I went wrong and just continue to try to build on it. And I think it helps that you've got coaches, like I said, that give you the intent of what they want out of the play. I just have to continue to work on not getting so stuck in the progression that I don't realize, 'Okay, it's breaking down around me, I need to get the ball out a little bit faster and find my quick answers.'

One of the challenges in the preseason, can be coming on for a series or two, and off for a series or two, on and off. And the guys around you are changing from series to series, quarter to quarter. What do you do as a quarterback to help yourself carry momentum over from long breaks in between you playing and not playing?

You do the best you can. I mean, more than anything, it's your job. So, you're called to be ready whenever, and that goes on in the season. As a backup at this point in time, you just have to be ready whenever your number is called, so this is nothing new. You've just got to focus on when you get in there, executing, more than who's in there with you. Everybody's supposed to know where they're supposed to be. That's why we practice all the time. But, just understanding what you're being called to do with each play and going to execute to the best of your ability.

LINEBACKER CHANCE CAMPBELL

You had to be proud tonight of the defense. It was a close game. What do you feel about the defense coming together?

Yeah, I think we put together some good drives. We have some of their drives that we definitely want back, but it was good to see what we did well.

You've been practicing a week against the Seahawks, but tonight and last week you seemed real focused just wanting to make an impact.

I appreciate that. I just want to help this team, the best way I can, and I just got to do my job because we have a great system in place and I have great guys around me, so I need to do a better job of doing that, working hard and staying focused to my job.

It has been a grind already, but how do you feel the defense is coming together at this point?

I think we're showing some good stuff. Like with anything, there's always stuff to improve. I think getting a second game under our belt, and I think winning, well all this matters. So it's cool that we could get that done, but the game film will show us a lot of stuff that we can get better, and improve on.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKER JAYLEN HARRELL

Preseason and a close game. Defense did what they had to do. How do you feel about tonight's win?

It was a hard-fought battle. Offense, defense, special teams we all came together, and we got the victory. A lot of us played a lot of snaps. We knew we had to push through. Feels tiring, you got to keep going. So, we just kept going and played together as one. We got the victory. Shout-out Brayden (Narveson), 59-yarder and the game-winner.

What was it like playing tonight under the lights with referees and with fans, against guys you'd been practicing with all week?

Yeah, it was definitely—practicing against them all week, you kind of get more of an idea of a plan, like who you're going against, how you attack them all week, is there stuff that we're getting beat on. So, I liked practicing against them to get a better feel for them.

WIDE RECEIVER JHA'QUAN JACKSON

How much confidence are you building just with this momentum carry from really the moment you stepped out on the field and then in preseason games and now another one?

Oh, it's not just me, it's just the whole team has a lot of confidence. I don't know what it is. I think the biggest thing about this year, we've been doing a lot of team bonding where we go together, we do everything together. So, it just brings us together and it's just a connection. Football is all about brotherhood. Can I count on the man to the left and right of me? That's the biggest thing. Last week, we went to Top Golf. The week before that, we did some things. And as the season goes on and we get time off, we're going to do more things because we're trying to bring a team together. Coach (Brian) Callahan's motto is 'Hunt Together.' And with that confidence of just relying on each other, we are going to be successful. Even if something happens bad, 'Come on, bro. It's the next play. You've got to put that behind you.'

KICKER BRAYDEN NARVESON

What's more exciting for you kicking the game winner or drilling one for 59 that could have gone another 10?

The game winner, probably just because I love to win, and I wanted to help my team win. At the end of the day, the 59 is cool, but the 47 is what won the game. So that's kind of how I view it at least.

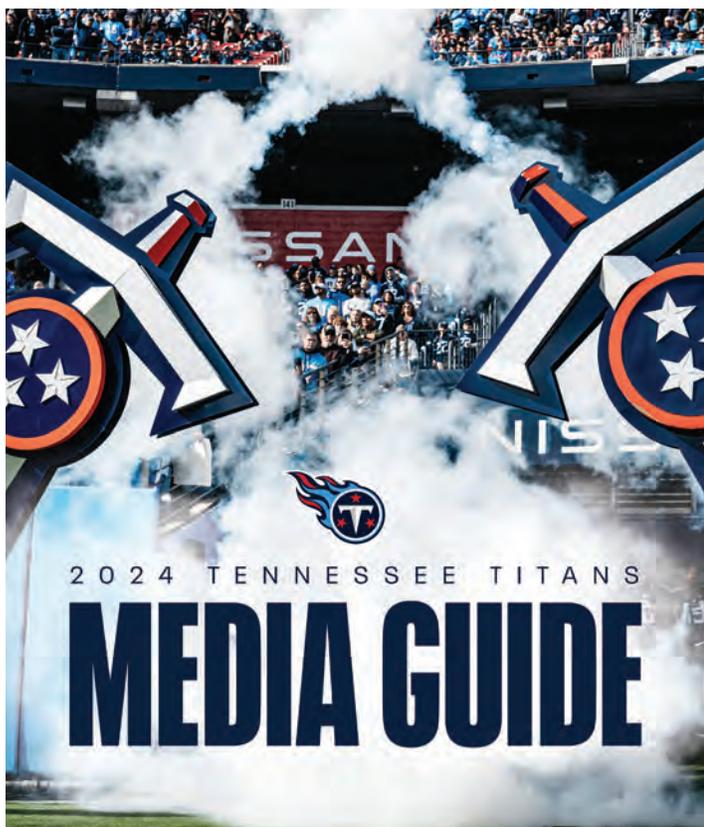

When you stepped up for that 59-yarder, what are you thinking? It's obviously got to have some leg to it, but you also have to get it over the line?

Just be smooth. I knew I had the leg; I knew I had the distance. Just be smooth, trust it and just go make it. That's about it.

What's been your mentality in camp? They've had Nick Folk who was great last year, and you come in here to do what you do. How do you approach things every day?

Every day I'm just trying to get better. And Nick (Folk) is really, really instrumental in helping me. He's one of the greatest of all time to do it. And so, it's really fun to learn from somebody like that, but at the end of the day, compete as well. It feels good. I'm kind of speechless a little bit, so sorry.

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Green Bay and Houston and road contests at Miami, Buffalo, Detroit and Houston. Four of those six games are against 2023 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Buffalo (AFC East) and Detroit (NFC North). The six games against reigning playoff clubs are the fewest for the Titans since they had five such games entering the 2020 campaign.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Texans, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for nine contests on CBS, six games on FOX, and one game on ESPN. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: Besides a trip to Los Angeles to face the Chargers in Week 10, the Titans stay in either the central time zone (10 games) or eastern time zone (six) for the duration of 2024, including the preseason. Other than Los Angeles, the farthest west they travel is Houston.
- HIGH NOON: During the regular season, 14 of the Titans' 16 games prior to Week 18 are scheduled for Sundays at noon CT.
- FIRST-YEAR COACHES: Brian Callahan is one of eight NFL head coaches in their first season with their current team. He and the Titans face three of the others, all within a five-week span: Jerod Mayo's New England Patriots, Jim Harbaugh's Los Angeles Chargers, and Dan Quinn's Washington Commanders. Additionally, the Titans go against the Seattle Seahawks and new head coach Mike Macdonald in the second week of the preseason.
- QUARTERBACKS 1-2-3: The 2024 NFL Draft featured quarterbacks in the top three selections, beginning with Caleb Williams going first to Chicago, followed by Jayden Daniels to Washington and Drake Maye to New England. - DIVISIONAL WAITING GAMES: The Titans must wait until Week 6 against Indianapolis to play their first AFC South matchup of 2024. It is their longest wait for a divisional game since 2010 (Week 6 at Jacksonville). However, the Titans conclude 2024 with divisional games in five of the final seven weeks, including three consecutive division battles to conclude the schedule.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2023 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place finish in 2023, they host the AFC North's fourth-place Bengals, and they visit the fourth-place Chargers from the AFC West and the Washington Commanders from the NFC East. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .491 (142-147) based upon their opponents' combined 2023 record, which is tied for the 21st most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- FACING TOP OFFENSES AND DEFENSES: The Titans face four of the NFL's top 10 offenses from last season: Miami (No. 1 overall offense), Buffalo (No. 4), Detroit (No. 3) and Minnesota (No. 10). WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2024

WHAT TO LOOK FOR – TEAM

- The Titans franchise is set to embark on its 65th season—the 26th campaign as the Titans after 39 seasons as the Oilers
- The Titans can earn their fifth playoff berth in an eight-year span.
- The Titans are slated to play the 1,000th regular season game in franchise history in the season finale against Houston (Jan. 4-5).

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

- Begins his tenure as the 20th head coach in franchise history.

- Needs 3.5 sacks (21.5 entering 2024) to reach 25 career sacks. He would become the sixth defensive back to reach the mark since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982, joining Rodney Harrison (30.5), Ronde Barber (28), Brian Dawkins (26), Adrian Wilson (25.5) and Carnell Lake (25).

WR TYLER BOYD

- Can record his seventh consecutive season with at least 50 receptions and 500 receiving yards. He is tied for the NFL's seventh-longest such active streak entering 2024.

LS MORGAN COX

- Enters 2024 ranked 10th in the NFL in career games played among active players (216 entering 2024).
- By appearing in all 17 contests in 2024, which would give him 233 career games, Cox would rank fourth in career NFL games among all players from the University of Tennessee. He would trail only Jason Witten (271), Peyton Manning (266) and Dustin Colquitt (255).

S QUANDRE DIGGS

- Enters 2024 as the NFL's only player with an active streak of 17 starts and at least one interception in three consecutive seasons.

K NICK FOLK

- Enters 2024 ranked seventh in the NFL in career games played among active players (228 entering 2024).

- Goes into 2024 with an NFL-record streak of 78 consecutive field goals made from under 40 yards. His last miss in that range was a 31-yarder against New England on Oct. 5, 2017, when he played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

WR DeANDRE HOPKINS

- Enters 2024 with more receptions (928) and receiving yards (12,355) than any other player since he entered the NFL in 2013.
- Needs 72 receptions to reach 1,000 in his first 12 seasons. Only Jerry Rice (1,050), Marvin Harrison (1,042), Larry Fitzgerald (1,018) and Andre Johnson (1,012) have previously reached the mark in their first 12 seasons. Hopkins recorded 928 receptions in his first 11 seasons. Through 2023, only 14 total players in NFL history had reached the 1,000 career reception plateau.
- Needs 72 receptions, 645 receiving yards and seven touchdown catches in 2024 to become the ninth player in NFL history to total at least 1,000 receptions, 13,000 receiving yards and 85 touchdown catches during his career. Hopkins would join Jerry Rice, Marvin Harrison and Larry Fitzgerald as the only players to reach all three marks within their first 12 NFL seasons.
- Has at least one reception in every game he has played during his career—162 consecutive games entering 2024. With a reception in his first six games of 2024, he will pass Keyshawn Johnson (167) for the NFL's second-longest catch streak to begin a career during the Super Bowl era (1966–present). Hopkins' streak of games with a reception to begin his career ranks third behind only Johnson and Marvin Harrison (190).

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Enters the 2024 season ranked 11th in franchise history with 41.5 career sacks. With 8.5 more sacks, he would become only the eighth defender in franchise annals to be credited with 50 sacks.
- With 11 sacks in 2024 (41.5 entering the season), Landry will pass Jevon Kearse (52) for the most sacks by a player in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present).

QB WILL LEVIS

- Can become the third player in franchise history to start at least nine games in each of his first two NFL seasons, joining Vince Young and Marcus Mariota.

- Can become the franchise's first tight end to begin his NFL career with three consecutive seasons in which he posted at least 30 receptions and 400 receiving yards.

- Needs 76 receptions in 2024 to reach 400 for his career (324 entering 2024).

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Needs 3.5 sacks in 2024 to reach 30 career sacks (26.5 entering 2024). He would be the franchise's 10th player to do so since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, as well as the organization's sixth player in its "Titans era" (1999–present) to reach 30 sacks.
- Enters 2024 on a streak of three consecutive seasons with at least 5.5 sacks. With 5.5 or more sacks in 2024, he would become the franchise's first player to reach the number in four consecutive seasons since Ray Childress (eight consecutive seasons from 1987–1994).

CB L'JARIUS SNEED

- Can record his fifth consecutive season to begin his career with at least two interceptions.
- Can become the NFL's only player since the beginning of the 2008 season to register three consecutive seasons with at least 11 passes defended and five tackles for loss. In that span, only Sneed, Chris Harris (2013–2014), Troy Polamalu (2010–2011) and Charles Woodson (2009–2010) have recorded two such consecutive campaigns.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Can become the first player since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to lead the league in gross punting average for three consecutive seasons.
- After averaging an NFL-record 53.1-yards per punt as a rookie in 2022 and then averaging 53.1 yards per attempt in 2023, Stonehouse can become the first player since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to record three career seasons with an average of 50.0 yards per punt. AJ Cole (Las Vegas) could also accomplish the feat in 2023.

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

A year after initially joining the franchise, Carthon was promoted to executive vice president/general manager. His duties expanded to include all areas that impact the football team: roster control, team activities and personnel decisions including draft and free agency acquisitions, oversight of head coach Brian Callahan and his coaching staff, scouting, sports medicine, and player engagement.

"Over the past year, Ran has impressed me and our staff with his innovative approach to roster building," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk upon Carthon's promotion in 2024. "Ran's exceptional reputation around the league as a talent evaluator and culture builder was a clear competitive advantage during last year's free agency and draft process, as well as our recent search for a head coach. Simply put, Ran Carthon makes the Tennessee Titans a destination for the league's top talent. By expanding his role to include full roster control and oversight of the coaching staff, our organization will now benefit more completely from Ran's unique ability to build and lead a championship-caliber football team."

Shortly after receiving his promotion, Carthon and his staff embarked upon the 2024 offseason. Their efforts resulted in several notable signings in free agency: cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr., defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day, center Lloyd Cushenberry III, running back Tony Pollard, quarterback Mason Rudolph and wide receiver Calvin Ridley. The Titans then used a trade to acquire former Kansas City Chiefs cornerback L'Jarvis Sneed before circling back in free agency to add wide receiver Tyler Boyd and safety Jamal Adams.

During the 2024 NFL Draft, Carthon orchestrated the selection of seven total players. With the seventh overall pick in the first round, the Titans chose Alabama tackle JC Latham, and at No. 38 in the second round, they took Texas nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat.

In his first year with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster with several veteran additions who would become key starters for the team in 2023, including wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, outside linebacker Arden Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting and offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski, quarterback Will Levis and running back Tyjae Spears were selected in the first three rounds, respectively. Carthon also used a trade to acquire kicker Nick Folk.

Carthon arrived in Tennessee with a range of experience from multiple teams. In San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)—evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators' 2000

SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his father, Maurice Carthon, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. Maurice Carthon played for the Colts and New York Giants, and he coached for New England, the New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Ran Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business, and in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Fla.

Video: Brian Callahan's Introductory Press Conference

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities—offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes—and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there.

"To our fans, thank you for your support and for sticking with us. You deserve a championship team, and we're going to get there. I can't wait for you to get to know Brian and his family."

Callahan arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals.

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). In 2013, Broncos quarterback Peyton Manning won the Associated Press NFL MVP award after completing a league-record 55 touchdown passes. Callahan's tenure in Denver was capped by the team's victory in Super Bowl 50 following the 2015 campaign. Before reaching the NFL, Callahan spent time at his alma mater, UCLA, as a graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007. He then spent two years (2008-09) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Junipero Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.

As a former walk-on quarterback at UCLA, he appeared in 13 games as a holder on PATs. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 and added a master's in education in 2008.

Born in Champaign, Ill., Callahan attended De La Salle High School in Concord, Calif., where he was a part of the school's national-record 151-game winning streak and a No. 1 national ranking.

We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. He has been named to five Pro Bowls (2015, 2017-20) and received AP All-Pro honors four times—first-team All-Pro from 2017 to 2019 and second-team All-Pro in 2020.

From 2013 through 2023, Hopkins surpassed 100 receptions four times, had seven seasons reaching 1,000 receiving yards, recorded three seasons with at least 10 touchdowns, and posted 100 or more receiving yards in a game 42 times. Hopkins was the only NFL player to have 100-plus receptions every season between from 2018 to 2020.

Hopkins became one of 17 players in NFL history to reach 900 receptions, 12,000 receiving yards and 75 touchdown catches during a career. Only five players—Hopkins, Marvin Harrison, Jerry Rice, Brandon Marshall and Larry Fitzgerald—reached all three milestones within their first 11 NFL seasons.

He concluded the 2023 season tied with Antonio Brown for 21st place in NFL history with 928 career receptions. His 12,355 career receiving yards ranked 23rd all-time, and his 78 touchdown receptions were 35th in history.

Through 2023, he had at least one reception in all 162 career games he played during the regular season. That represents the longest active streak in the NFL at the conclusion of 2023 and the third-longest streak in NFL history to begin a career behind only Marvin Harrison (190 consecutive games) and Keyshawn Johnson (167).

During the 2022 campaign with the Cardinals, Hopkins finished with a team-high 64 receptions for 717 yards (second on the team) and three touchdowns despite being limited to nine contests. His average of 7.1 receptions per game ranked fourth in the NFL among all players. His three games with 10-plus receptions matched the second most in franchise annals behind Larry Fitzgerald's four such performances in 2017.

At the conclusion of his tenure with the Texans (2013-19), Hopkins owned several franchise records, including franchise marks for career receiving average (13.6), receptions in a season (115 in 2018; tied Andre Johnson, 2008), receiving touchdowns in a season (13 in 2017) and receiving first downs in a season (83 in 2015). When he left Houston, he ranked second on the franchise's all-time career charts in receptions (632), receiving yards (8,602) and touchdown catches (54), trailing only Andre Johnson in each category.

The Central, S.C., native appeared in 39 games with 32 starts over three seasons (2010-12) at Clemson and totaled 206 receptions for 3,020 yards and 27 touchdowns. He left Clemson ranked first in school history in receiving yards, first in receiving touchdowns, first in 100-yard receiving games (12) and second in receptions. As a junior (2012), he led the team with 82 receptions for 1,405 yards and 18 touchdowns.

He was third on the defense in sacks during that span behind only Harold Landry III (37) and Denico Autry (28.5).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defensed. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defensed, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defensed.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defensed (six). Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defensed in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defensed in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

In doing so, he became the NFL's third veteran player since 1982 to miss an entire NFL season and come back the next year to record at least 10 sacks. The only previous players to do so were a pair of New Orleans Saints: Joe Johnson in 2000 (12 sacks) and Charlie Clemons in 2001 (13.5 sacks). Landry's 14 tackles for loss led the defense and matched his career high, and his 48 quarterback pressures were third on the squad and were one off his career high in 2021 (49). His statistics also included 70 tackles.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022, ending his fifth NFL season before Week 1. Prior to the injury, he recorded 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts.

From the start of his rookie campaign through 2021, Landry's 31 total

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defended, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2023, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the third consecutive season. With 51 consecutive games played in his first three seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2023 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1). He was also a finalist in 2023 for the NFL's Bart Starr Award.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

Click for complete bio

Punter Ryan Stonehouse is in his third NFL season in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 13, 2022.

In only two NFL seasons, Stonehouse recorded the top two single-season gross punting averages in NFL history, and he also recorded two of the top three single-season net averages in franchise history. He became the first punter in NFL annals to lead the league in gross punting average in each of his first two seasons.

In 2023, he appeared in the first 12 games of the season before missing the final five contests on injured reserve. Despite his missed time, he averaged a league-high 53.06 yards per punt, grossing 2,812 yards on 53 attempts. The average qualified as the second-highest figure in NFL history behind his own record-setting 53.10 yards per punt as a rookie in 2022. He also finished sixth in the NFL with a 43.87-yard net punting average, which ranked third in franchise history.

In 2022, Stonehouse finished the season with a gross average of 53.10 yards per punt on 90 total punts (4,779 total yards). In doing so, he broke Sammy Baugh's single-season NFL record of 51.40 yards per punt, which was established in 1940 and was never matched among qualifiers (2.5 punts per team game) until Stonehouse's rookie campaign. Stonehouse's mark also surpassed Brett Kern's franchise record of 49.7 yards per punt in 2017.

With a net punting average of 44.0 yards per punt in 2022, Stonehouse also established a new NFL record for the highest net average by a rookie punter. He broke the record set by Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez, who averaged 42.64 net yards per punt as a rookie in 2017. Stonehouse finished fourth in the NFL in net punting behind veterans Tommy Townsend (45.6), Michael Dickson (44.5) and Johnny Hekker (44.1). In franchise history, his net average ranked second for a single season, trailing only Kern's 44.6 net average in 2017.

Stonehouse's 90 punts in 2022 made up the NFL's second-highest total. Only Denver's Corliss Waitman (96) had more. The 90 punts by Stonehouse tied Craig Hentrich's 1999 number for the fourth-highest total in team annals behind Rich Camarillo (96 punts in 1994) and Cliff Parsley (93 in 1979; 91 in 1978).

Stonehouse appeared in 53 games over five seasons at Colorado State (2017-21) and set an NCAA career record with a 47.8-yard gross punting average. His career totals included 244 punts for 11,656 yards with 91 punts inside the 20. He totaled 106 punts of 50-plus yards and became the first player in Colorado State history to log 11,000 punting yards in a career.

During his final college season in 2021, Stonehouse appeared in 12 games and averaged 50.9 yards per attempt on 58 punts, including a career-long 81-yard punt. He placed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and totaled 32 punts of 50-plus yards en route to being named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

He is a native of La Verne, Calif.

NFL RECORD: SINGLE-SEASON AVERAGE

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.
