LAST WEEK AGAINST THE VIKINGS

The Titans hosted the Minnesota Vikings last week and fell by a final score of 23-13. Vikings quarterback Sam Darnold passed for two touchdowns and added another one on the ground to lead his team to the win.

Titans quarterback Will Levis passed for 295 yards, including a 98-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Nick Westbrook-Ikhine. It tied for the longest pass in franchise history, matching Jacky Lee's 98-yard touchdown pass to Willard Dewveall against San Diego on Nov. 25, 1962. It also tied Lee's pass to Dewveall for the second-longest play from scrimmage in franchise history behind Derrick Henry's 99-yard touchdown run against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018. Levis and Westbrook-Ikhine produced the 25th completion in NFL history of either 98 yards (12 times) or 99 yards (13) and the first since Buffalo's Josh Allen and Gabe Davis connected for a 98-yarder on Oct. 9, 2022.

Westbrook-Ikhine, who leads the team this season with five touchdown receptions, totaled 117 yards to finish with his third career 100-yard performance.

Defensively, the Titans limited the Vikings to 82 rushing yards on 33 attempts for an average of 2.5 yards per carry. Defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons tallied a forced fumble and a fumble recovery, while inside linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr. and outside linebacker Arden Key posted sacks. Key has produced five sacks over the past five games.

THE TEXANS

The Titans will arrive in Houston to face a Texans team in first place in the AFC South. Through 10 games, the Texans built a 6-4 record leading into their Monday night showdown at Dallas on Nov. 18.

Head coach DeMeco Ryans is in his second campaign leading the Texans. In 2023, he led his team to a 10-7 record and a division title—Houston's first playoff berth since 2019. Houston became the first club in NFL history to win a division with a rookie quarterback and first-year head coach.

During the 2023 NFL Draft, the Texans selected both quarterback C.J. Stroud (second overall) and defensive end Will Anderson (third overall) in the first round. Stroud won the 2023 AP Offensive Rookie of the Year Award, and Anderson was named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year.

As a rookie in 2023, Stroud started 15 games and passed for 4,108 yards—the third-most by a rookie quarterback in NFL history. He tossed 23 touchdown passes with five interceptions and finished his rookie campaign with a 100.8 passer rating.

* The Texans are 6-4 prior to their game at Dallas on Monday, Nov. 18.

SERIES HISTORY

The Titans-Texans rivalry is in its 23rd year since the expansion Texans began play and the AFC South was formed in 2002. In 44 games, the Titans are 23-21 against the Texans, including a 12-10 mark at Nissan Stadium and an 11-11 record at NRG Stadium.

The last time the Titans and Texans met at NRG Stadium was Dec. 31, 2023. The Texans won 26-3, as then-rookie quarterback C.J. Stroud passed for 213 yards and a touchdown in his first appearance against the Titans. The Texans clinched the 2023 division title a week later.

In the most recent matchup at Nissan Stadium, which took place on Dec. 17, 2023, Case Keenum started at quarterback for the Texans in place of the injured Stroud. Houston escaped with a 19-16 overtime victory after Ka'imi Fairbairn made a 54-yard field goal as time expired in the extra period.

Several recent late-season battles with the Texans have had playoff implications for the Titans. On Jan. 9, 2022, they won 28-25 at Houston to clinch the top seed in the AFC playoff field.

In the 2020 season finale (Jan. 3, 2021), the Titans traveled to Houston needing a win to secure their first AFC South title since 2008. They got it when Sam Sloman's 37-yard field goal provided the margin in a 41-38 win, capping an historic afternoon during which Henry established a franchise record with 250 rushing yards and concluded the season with a franchise-record 2,027 rushing yards.

In the 2019 finale, the two eventual playoff teams met at NRG Stadium. The Texans had already clinched the AFC South, while the Titans went into the day potentially needing a win to secure the wild card berth. The Texans had defended their home turf a series-record seven consecutive times against the Titans, but the Titans came away with a 35-14 win.

The Titans franchise has a rich and storied history with the city of Houston. Under late owner K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr., the Titans existed as the Houston Oilers from 1960-96. In Houston, the Oilers won the first two American Football League Championships and made a total of 15 playoff appearances. The team moved to Tennessee in 1997 and in 1999 adopted the "Titans" moniker.

Ten players who spent a significant portion of their careers in a Houston Oilers uniform are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, including former quarterback Warren Moon, outside linebacker Robert Brazile, defensive tackle Curley Culp and offensive lineman Bruce Matthews.

Current Titans Controlling Owner and Chairman Amy Adams Strunk is a graduate of the University of Texas and resides in Waller, Texas.

TITANS-TEXANS: THE LAST MEETING

Week 17: Titans 3, Texans 26
 Sunday, Dec. 31, 2023 • 12:00 p.m. CST • NRG Stadium

In Week 17 of the 2023 season, the Titans traveled to Houston for their final road game of the season and fell to AFC South rival Texans by a score of 26-3.

After the Titans went three-and-out to start the game, Houston drove down to the Tennessee 10-yard line but were unable to find the end zone and settled for a 28-yard field goal from K Ka'imi Fairbairn to take an early 3-0 lead.

Later in the first, Titans defense appeared to force a three-and-out, but OLB Caleb Murphy ran into P Cameron Johnston to give the Texans a fresh set of downs. The Texans capitalized on the penalty with a 13-play, 94-yard drive capped off by a 12-yard touchdown pass from QB C.J. Stroud to TE Brevin Jordan to give the Texans a 10-0 lead.

On Tennessee's next offensive play, QB Will Levis lost the ball when he was sacked by DE Jerry Hughes. DT Sheldon Rankins recovered the loose ball and ran it in for a touchdown from 13 yards out, which made it 17-0 at the 10:02 mark of the second quarter. Levis was injured on the play and did not return to the game.

The Texans stretch their lead to 20-0 on another Fairbairn field goal, this one from 38 yards out, with 4:17 left in the half.

Tennessee finally got on the board with a 53-yard field goal by K Nick Folk as time expired in the first half. The drive featured a 32-yard completion from QB Ryan Tannehill to WR Chris Moore and an 18-yard completion to WR DeAndre Hopkins, but also included two sacks on Tannehill for 17 yards in losses.

The Texans opened the second half with a 12-play, 71-yard drive that culminated in a 27-yard field goal from Fairbairn to make it 23-3 with 9:35 left in the third.

Tennessee responded by driving down to the Texans four-yard line. The drive featured four rushes by RB Derrick Henry for 28 yards, including a 16-yard run that put him above the 1,000-yard rushing mark on the season. Hopkins also had two receptions for 30 yards on the drive which put him over the 1,000-yard receiving mark. But facing fourth-and-three at the three-yard line, the Titans were unable to convert and ultimately turned it over on downs.

Houston extended its lead to 26-3 with a 51-yard field goal by Fairbairn with 5:33 left in the game. The Titans did not score again, as they fell to 5-11 on the season.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

K NICK FOLK

- Enters the game with an all-time NFL-record streak of 84 consecutive field goals made on attempts from less than 40 yards.
- With 396 career field goals, he needs two more to surpass Matt Bryant (397) for 15th place in NFL history.
- Needs four field goals to reach 400 career field goals and tie Mason Crosby for 14th place in NFL history. He would be the third active player to hit 400 field goals, joining Justin Tucker and Matt Prater.

S AMANI HOOKER

- With three interceptions in 2024, he needs one more to match his career high of four interceptions in 2020.

OLB ARDEN KEY

- Enters the game with five sacks over the past five games.
- With five sacks in 2024, he needs two more to set a career high for a season, surpassing the 6.5 sacks he registered with San Francisco in 2021.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Enters the game with 46.5 career sacks, which ranks ninth in franchise history. He needs 1.5 sacks to tie Robert Brazile (48.0) for eighth place on the list. Landry owns the third-highest sack total for the team in its "Titans era" (1999–present), trailing only Jevon Kearse (52) and Jurrell Casey (51).

QB WILL LEVIS

- Needs one touchdown pass (eight entering the game) to surpass his 2023 rookie total of eight touchdown passes.

LB KENNETH MURRAY JR.

- With three sacks in 2024, he needs one more to set a career high for a season, surpassing the three sacks he registered with the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023.

RB TONY POLLARD

- Needs 151 scrimmage yards (849 entering the game) to register his fourth consecutive season with at least 1,000 scrimmage yards.

WR CALVIN RIDLEY

- Needs 101 receiving yards to reach 5,000 for his career (4,899 entering the game).
- Needs 101 receiving yards (4,899 entering the game) and one receiving touchdown (39) to become the 21st active player with 5,000 receiving yards and 40 receiving touchdowns.
- Needs 59 receiving yards (541 entering the game) to reach 600 for the fifth time in his career.
- Can log his sixth consecutive game with a catch of at least 20 yards. It would exceed his previous career-best streak (five games in 2018 and in 2023).
- Can record his fifth consecutive game with at least four receptions.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Needs 0.5 sacks to reach 30 career sacks. He would be the franchise's 10th player to do so since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, as well as the organization's sixth player in its "Titans era" (1999–present) to reach 30 sacks.

P RYAN STONEHOUSE

- Can record his 18th consecutive game with at least one punt of 55-plus yards. Currently at 17 games, he holds the NFL's longest such active streak, which is also the longest streak of his career.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

- Enters the week with five touchdown receptions in the past six games.
- Can become the team's first player to register a touchdown catch in six or more games in a season since A.J. Brown (10) and Jonnu Smith (six) accomplished the feat in 2020.

LAST WEEK VS. THE VIKINGS

Week 11: Titans 13, Vikings 23 Sunday, Nov. 17, 2024 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 11 of the 2024 season, the Titans hosted the Minnesota Vikings and fell by a score of 23-13.

The Titans took an early 3-0 lead on a K Nick Folk 30-yard field goal, which was set up by a fumble recovery by DT Jeffery Simmons, his second of the season.

However the Vikings answered back quickly on a 47-yard touchdown pass from QB Sam Darnold to WR Jordan Addison to make it 7-3 with 3:16 left in the first quarter. The scoring drive was kept alive after a pass interference penalty on CB Jarvis Brownlee Jr. on an incomplete third-down pass gave the Vikings a fresh set of downs. It was one of 13 penalties called on the Titans for the day.

Another penalty came later in the second quarter as the Titans appeared to come up with a big fourth-down goal-line stop as S Mike Brown broke up a pass intended for Addison with a clean, legal hit to the chest which dislodged the football, but flags went flying and an unnecessary roughness penalty gave the Vikings a fresh set of downs on the one-yard line. They scored on the next play with a Darnold one-yard touchdown run.

The Titans went three-and-out on their next offensive possession to give the Vikings the ball at their own 38-yard line with 6:08 left in the half. Minnesota then strung together an 11-play, 40-yard drive that culminated in a 40-yard field goal by K John Parker Romo to go into the halftime break with a 16-3 lead.

Both teams traded punts to start the second half and a 47-yard punt by P Ryan Wright pinned the Titans at their own two-yard line. But QB Will Levis hit WR Nick Westbrook-Ikhine streaking down the sideline for the 98-yard touchdown, which tied for the longest reception in franchise history and the longest pass of anyone in the NFL this season.

The excitement in Nissan Stadium was short-lived as Minnesota answered on its next possession with a three-yard touchdown pass from Darnold to RB Cam Akers that capped a seven-play, 65-yard drive and extended the Vikings lead to 23-10 with 3:15 left in the third quarter.

On the Titans next drive, Levis found WR Calvin Ridley for a 51-yard touchdown but an illegal formation penalty on T Isaiah Prince wiped the score off the board and Tennessee was forced to settle for a 43-yard field goal to make it 23-13 to start the fourth quarter.

But the Titans didn't score again as two fourth-down conversion attempts failed and a late interception on a Levis pass sealed the game for the Vikings to drop the Titans to 2-8 on the season.

HEAD COACH BRIAN CALLAHAN

All right. (Jack) Gibbens, obviously not good. Ankle, likely out for the year. So, there's not really much to say about that one. I think you guys all saw it. And then (Tyjae) Spears was evaluated for a concussion but didn't return to the game. I don't have any finality on what that actually ends up being ruled. He just didn't come back in. So, we'll see what that comes tomorrow. Other than that, I'll let you guys go ahead.

What was your view, what were your thoughts on the call to Mike Brown there? And what feedback did you get from the official in that situation?

On the fourth down? Yeah, nothing.

What did you see on the replay of it?

On the play? I saw a hit that was level with the shoulder pads to the body. That's what I saw.

How do you keep guys from get frustrated dealing with some of that today?

I mean, they have every right to be frustrated, and they should be. It is what it is. I think those guys played hard. They fought and they fought the entire game and kept trying to climb back into it and make plays. And we made quite a few. And it was really a lot of encouraging things about it. And we just didn't have enough to overcome it and find a way to get in the end zone, you know, another time or two. So disappointed about that part.

There were three illegal formations called. In that situation with Isaiah Prince, aren't there supposed to be warnings first and then it's called or how does that work?

I don't know. You guys can ask them. I don't know.

Did you try to correct something with him after the first?

Yeah, I sure did.

Do you feel like he responded to what you asked him to do?

I would hope so.

When you engaged with the officials so harshly after the end zone call, was there dialog there? Were they not answering it? The crowd certainly seemed to like what you were doing.

Yeah, no, they get in those moments, and they just let you yell at them. They don't really say much. So, at that point, the call had already been made, we already had a first down, so I figured I'd let them hear. It wasn't going to cost me anything at that point.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

Do you think that wins you something with the players for them to see you in that mode?

Maybe, you have to ask them. I don't know. I just was really frustrated in the moment that just there just seems to be a lot of big plays and critical plays in games that get taken away from officiating, and that's unfortunate. So, it's frustrating.

There were a couple of calls against Jarvis Brownlee Jr. that extended their drives that were eventual TDs. What were your thoughts on them?

I don't get to see a lot of those, to be honest. There's not a lot of replays on the board that I see on those penalties. And a lot of times I'm looking at other things. I didn't see the actual call, so I can't determine their validity at this point. But I just know we play an aggressive style of defense, and we were going to challenge those receivers. And I thought overall those guys did a nice job of locking them up in the second half and making it hard on them. And again, if they're going to—I'd just like to see it called both ways, that's all.

Did Will Levis show you the kind of poise and playmaking that you've been waiting on from him?

Yeah, I thought Will (Levis) did a really nice job today. That part was encouraging. I thought he stood in the pocket, played tough. He was accurate. There's going to be things that we need to clean up, but managing that game against that defense, the complexity of it, all the things that we have in our plan that you have to have to handle all the things that they do, I thought he did a really nice job. I thought that was another positive step for Will and I'm proud of the way he played. He fought, he battled. He stood in there and took a few and delivered some really nice throws, and I wish it was more to show for it.

How much of a plan was it to get those zone reads going? Did you expect the run game to kind of be tough today? Was that kind of what that was about?

Yeah, there's a lot of guys on the line of scrimmage against this defense. It's hard to run the ball. Plus, the amount of movement that they have up front. The front's always moving and stirring. They pressure off the edge, they pressure internally, the fronts—they're just always all over the place. They can make it difficult to run, especially knowing that we were going to try to run the football. That was just a challenging day on the ground for us against that defense. They do a good job. So, we thought we had a chance to get a couple of things on the perimeter maybe, and then they were okay. They weren't anything crazy. But definitely was a tough day on the ground.

As good as Will Levis might have been overall, taking the sack on fourth down there when you got your last chance, what's the mindset there?

Yeah. We were pretty well covered at that point, I think. And it was he was trying to make a play. I'd have to watch it. You'd like to get the ball at least in the air or try to get a shot at something, but not great overall for us, I don't think, just getting open and call and all that. I maybe had something better there. But yeah, you don't want to take a sack in that spot.

Can you explain the reasoning behind playing for fourth-and-short instead of going for the first down on that third-and-seven?

We had a two-down call, and they were up in all those Abbey fronts and All-up fronts and we were hoping we could catch—you catch a crease in those and they can be really effective in the run game. And so, on third-and-seven, with a two-down call, you get a chance to see if you can pop one against all that front. I thought we had a chance to get maybe a little bit more there, but knowing we were going for it on fourth down and, you know again, that pass rush, in that pressure package is hard to deal with. And that felt like the thing that might be able to pop one there for that spot and get us into a fourth-and-two to three, which was the idea.

On their long TD pass, it looked like it might be Darrell Baker Jr., might be Amani Hooker. What did you see happen on their long touchdown?

The first one. Sorry, there's a lot of them. We pressured, so we were in a fire zone coverage, so there's space in those coverages and we were right there on top of the quarterback. I thought they sacked him at first, and all of a sudden, the ball comes out. But when you're in those coverages, there's lanes and when you don't get home on those pressures, which we didn't, there's space in the defense and they found the void. I think it was just a Dagger route on the inside. And I can't recall who was in position and who wasn't. But then, he made a play with his feet after that. So, yeah, when you pressure like that, the idea is you've got to get home because there is a weakness in the coverage structure if you don't.

How do you feel like the Nick Westbrook-Ikhine play gave you juice? And their subsequent series when they kept the drive alive on the penalty, how deflating was that?

Yeah, it's very deflated when that happens. When you're getting penalties for first downs and you're not making them earn it, that's hard and it make it a hard day for us on defense. I thought the play—it was a hell of a throw by Will (Levis). They beat the Palms coverage on the—we had a Sail route called, and he took the vertical shot on Palms and couldn't get over the top fast enough and it was a fantastic throw and catch and explosive play that we needed in that moment. I can't say I've been a part of a whole lot of backed-up, 99-yard touchdowns or whatever it was, so that was encouraging. I thought we took momentum in that spot, and we didn't do a good enough job answering.

To what extent do you feel New York give you a fair hearing out after you're upset about a call and to what extent do you feel like you could have a reasonable conversation with them this week?

I don't know. I had a conversation with Perry (Fewell) on Friday, so I don't know. I have no idea.

I know you said that there was not much you can do at that point after they came back to talk to you to you, did they acknowledge that they missed the call?

No, absolutely not. No, they don't do that.

How much has the uncertainty of right tackle been the fact that you haven't been able to get anything to settle there, and is there really an answer at this point?

Yeah, it's been really challenging. It makes it hard for us to operate sometimes. That's a position that's by far the weakest link up front right now. We're trying every which way we can to see if we can solve it and thus far haven't been able to. We help over there bunch, try to run the ball. We try to do a lot of things that keep them out of harm's way. But every now and again, you have to have the drop back and pass, and you can't help every edge, and you need guys out in the pattern, and we've struggled in those spots sometimes, particularly the two-minute drill at the end of the half. So yeah, it's a position that we're trying our damndest to figure out and help us. And right now, it's not quite been good enough.

You and your offensive line coach certainly had input into what's on the roster. You also had a general manager who knew what was left over on the roster there. Did he serve you well enough in terms of advice?

Yeah, I think so. I mean we thought we had—I thought Nick Nicholas Petit-Frere) was going to play pretty well for us. That hasn't been the case this year. He's not had the type of season—I think he would probably tell you he hasn't had that kind of performance yet. And you can't just find everybody all the time. I mean, we had things we got to get better at and right now, the right tackle spot is one that we're not there yet. We're trying everything. We're trying every answer. We're bringing guys in. We're doing all the things that you do to try to help fix it. But right now, it hasn't paid off yet. So other than that, that's what it is. I think our communication with the front office has been great. We know what our issues are and how we need to address them.

Jarvis Brownlee Jr. came out of college with the reputation of being a little physical, a little handsy. Do you have to change that at all on him or are you comfortable with the way he was playing today?

No, I'm comfortable with the way he's playing. That's the style you have to play with on the edge in the league. You can't let these guys walk around and you have to put a hands on them at the line of scrimmage. You got to be physical, you got to be sticky, you got to be on top of them and all those things. Again, I didn't see all the penalties. I can't tell you how grabby or not he was. But you're going to play physical in this league. And he's done a great job of doing that. So that's what makes corners hard to play against, when guys are physical. I wouldn't change much. I mean, I'm sure there's technique that we'd have to—you can clean up, for sure. But I like the aggressiveness that he plays with.

QB WILL LEVIS

How do you feel like you played today considering some of the adversity that you guys faced this afternoon?

Pretty well, thought I was able to make plays when I needed to at some points, but I missed some opportunities on others. I'm really just focused on those, how I can get better in those situations, a couple of third downs where I feel like I could have either put a good—better ball on or found a different answer. But overall, just proud of how the guys made plays for the most part. Just got to keep building.

The officiating calls, was that palpable in the huddle, was it frustrating?

I was just trying to use it as motivation. We feel like we've kind of had our backs against the wall in that respect all year. And we got just to fight our way out of it. And I thought we did a good job of overcoming some of those calls. And I know we only got three out of that one drive, but not letting it faze us and just stepping forward.

You seem to have found the deep balls, some comfortable spots there throughout the game. Can you walk us through that? Was it something that changed this week on practice or was it just some looks that they were giving you?

We just got the looks. Yeah, I'm not just throwing it up for the sake of it. I mean, I just feel like we had the looks to take those shots and took them when we had them.

What was the feeling after the deep ball to NWI (Nick Westbrook-Ikhine)? Can you talk about how that play kind of developed in your eyes?

Yeah, that was sweet. We're backed up, got to be smart with the ball. Saw the corner and safety communicating their palms in that over there and we had an outbreaking route, so I knew the corner was going to cut his feet when Chig (Okonkwo) had the outbreaker, separated the hands a little bit, saw that, let it ride over the top. Luckily put enough on it to get it behind that safety and Nick (Westbrook-Ikhine) made a good catch and it's a really fun jog down the field.

Does this loss feel different for you coming out of the game where you feel like you played pretty well compared to some of the others?

I don't know. I mean, honestly, I felt like last week in terms of just how I threw the ball, I was more accurate, and I made some better decisions here and there. But I was a little frustrated with a couple of the balls that I'm going to be watching on tape. But I just—all I want to do is win man, nothing else matters. And it's been frustrating. It's been tough. But I mean, I haven't won a game this year. I'm chasing that feeling and I'm doing everything I can to get there.

You talked about using some of the calls as motivation at the end of this game when you had overcome so much and didn't work out. Was there frustration in the locker room about how it played out?

A little bit. I think coach made the comment just to try to limit your comments, that's not going to help us at all. So, we just got to focus on what we can. We feel like everyone in the building is doing the right thing and is coming to work preparing, and when we do get the opportunities on Sunday, guys are playing their hearts out. And at some point or another, things are going to shake in our favor we feel like and it just hasn't been that way, but all you can do is keep putting one foot in front of the other.

You talked a lot this week about expecting to have to handle a lot of pressures. Just how do you feel like you did today with people in your face?

Awesome. They stopped running zero because we kept ripping them. So that was really cool to feel. Dang, there was another one where I was able to pop a screen off in that two-minute drill, and I couldn't get the throw off and that could have been good. But I thought for the most part, our plan against zero was great and we just got to be more consistent in the other areas.

S MIKE BROWN

How did you think that you hit Jordan Addison? Take us through a technique like that.

I mean, it's like it happened so quick. Like, you just try to think to not to go for the head. Like, it's hard to aim perfectly when you're playing football. Everything is about split-second decisions. The referee called what he called. You know I didn't agree with it. I mean, it happened though.

So you feel like you led with your shoulder, though, and not your head?

Yeah, for sure.

Do you feel like maybe, couple of those types of calls, have kind of gone against you guys? Is that just kind of the breaks you guys are getting lately?

Yeah, it happens like that. But like I say, I'm a football player. You can't let that determine your play.

You've got a division opponent next week, how are you going to get yourself mentally ready after a loss?

I mean, it's the National Football League. Every game, we approach every game the same. Go and clean up our mistakes and look at what we did well, look at what we didn't do well, and try to go and get a win next Sunday. We've got no time to soak in our feelings. We've got a game every Sunday. It is what it is.

CB JARVIS BROWNLEE JR.

Obviously, the game had a lot of flags thrown in there. Was it just kind of a tough deal to be on the receiving end of some of those kinds of penalties that kind of changed certain drives?

I'm not going to speak on that situation. It is what it is. No comment. It is, what it is. I ain't got nothing to say about it. As a DB, it's a lose-lose situation. That's how I see it.

And you've told us many times that you're a physical corner, your defensive coordinator says you're a physical corner and wants you to play and be a physical guy. Is there a solution to finding a happy medium in there, maybe?

Got to get my hands more low. And that's it, really. I'm not going to change nothing that I do, because that's who I am. I'm just aggressive and physical. But you know what? They're physical. I just got to play with more low hands and that's all.

In this league, like you said, the calls are going to be the calls. They also, are geared towards sometimes, some of the prototypical, number one receivers, they get the benefit of the doubt sometimes, too.

I don't want to really say that, because it wasn't him. I wouldn't say he was out there crying about flags or wanting a flag to be thrown. It was a great match-up. A physical match-up. It was everything that I look forward to, and I think I played good in there. The two holding calls, but other than that, that's about it.

How demoralizing is it, when you have so many big plays called back because of penalties? Some seem to be questionable from where we were sitting.

It's just part of the game. You have to find a way to play more disciplined football, whatever the case may be. We just have to find a way to come out with a win. It is demoralizing. Not so much like our energy, didn't take away from that mainly just extending drives. Now they just get more chances on goal, and that's not what we want. So, whatever we have to do throughout the week, to teeter to the cause, we just have to find a way to win.

Going on the road next week for a divisional game. Is that kind of what the doctor ordered? Kind of a chance to let your frustrations out?

Yeah. Hopefully, guys are fired up. We got to go down to Houston and got to get a win no matter what. I mean, I know we're going to be prepared. We're going to go down there and fight and give them a good fight.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

You're one of the veterans of the Titans' defense. Was it one of those days when the Vikings were being the Vikings, and played like they've been playing right now?

Yeah, I think a lot of stuff happened that I feel like was out of our control in this game. I felt like we were playing good football as a team. We just didn't get a couple of calls go our way. But we got the right guys in the locker room, and I think we just got to show back up to work and just keep trying to improve. And everything will start falling into place.

You know, it's one game at a time. So mentally, how will you get yourself fired back up to get ready for division play next week?

Because this is the NFL. Nobody's feeling sorry for us. It's on to the next game, you got to move on. You just got to come to work and try to improve every single week and just trust your process, and trust that the tide is going to turn. If you're doing everything right, just trust the process, and the tide will turn eventually.

OL PETER SKORONSKI

How tough is it to lose a game like today's?

Yeah, I mean, it's definitely tough. We lost a touchdown and a few big gains. I'm not an official. I don't know what they saw, I just didn't see it, I was playing the game. So, you've just got to put yourself in positions where you're not being penalized. That's just a disappointment and execution just wasn't happening for us and it killed us.

Last week, that play before half getting called back and other instances this week, it just seems like there are breaks that just aren't going your guys' way. How do you try to overcome it?

I think (crappy) teams blame the officiating and there's so much that we have to correct from our standpoint and being better. And you're a bad team if you put the game in the hands of the officials and not just get on your stuff and execute, and we didn't do that and we deserve to lose. So, I don't really care about what penalties were called or not. I think it's more about what we did wrong.

Is that kind of what the message that the coach said afterwards just keep grinding and you guys will figure it out?

I think there was really good fight throughout the whole game, I think. And things were a little bit lulled in the second quarter, and didn't have the ball much, and they scored, and we came back with a great play for a touchdown and another good drive for a field goal that should have had a touchdown. So, I think we fought really hard for the game, we were just killing ourselves. At the end of the day, that's why we lost.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE

You got along the home sideline there. What did you kind of see and how great of a ball was it from Will Levis to kind of get you open there?

Yeah, it was a great ball. Great decision too. I feel like it was high-IQ play, seeing the match up, knowing what coverage it was that we were anticipating, put a great ball out there. It was awesome, it was a cool feeling. I'll remember that as a Titan forever for sure.

How tough was today, though? It seems like every time you guys made a big play there was that yellow flag on the turf. How demoralizing was that?

Yeah, it's tough. It did feel like that happened quite often. But we just got to clean up those details going forward and nothing we can do about them now. And then in the game, I feel like what was good that regardless of what was happening, we just kept swinging and I think that shows the resiliency of this team just to keep fighting regardless.

Run us through the route that you had on that touchdown. What kind of developed as you ran that?

It was just a go ball, and the corner jumped on the out route and then Will (Levis) just put it in a great spot. It really wasn't anything too crazy, it was kind of backyard football-ish, I'd say. But it was a great read by Will to know what the corner was about to do.

Will got a little emotional in his press conference. He was talking about how he hasn't even been able to get the team a win. How do you continue to go through these struggles but stay positive and keep this team up as you have the final stretch of the season coming up?

Just keep going to work. I like what Hook (Amani Hooker) said after this game: who are you as a man? This is not going our way. But that's life. Sometimes stuff doesn't go your way, but you just got to wake up every morning, go to work and do what you know you're supposed to do. And that's really all we can do.

Tough divisional game obviously on the road next week, but a chance to maybe let out some frustrations. Is this kind of what the doctor ordered, maybe? Just a big, tough divisional game on the road next week.

Yeah, you could say that. It's whoever's next. Like I just said, we just got to go back to work and continue to just keep fighting. There was glimpses of it in this game and we just got to string those along and finally have one of those performances that we've been looking for.

Apologies if you already answered this, but what's it like knowing that you're part of one of the biggest pass plays in Titans franchise history?

That's pretty cool. I didn't know it. Puff (Jared Puffer), I think, told me it was me and Derrick Henry or something like that. So that's good company, to be with Derrick. That was an awesome play, it's definitely one I'll remember.

At what point did you feel like that had the potential, not to break for that 98 yards, but to be a big play?

When we called the play, honestly, I was like, "Okay, I really like this play call". As I'm lining up, seeing the signal that the DBs were making, I was like, "Okay, I know what coverage this is. There's a good chance this could go up to me". Sometimes you just have that feeling, and once the ball was in the air, it was like, "All right, this is about to be special."

What's on your mind when the ball is in the air? I know the wrong thing to think is "I better not drop it".

Just catch it. It was just instinct at that point. It was like a pat-and-go type catch. There wasn't anything crazy, it was just a good ball run under it and do the rest.

What did you think while you watched Brian Callahan react to the Mike Brown penalty?

I think it was fair. It's an emotional play. It's an emotional game. I didn't fully agree with it either. But that's not up for us to decide. I think that's his job as a coach. I think that's part of it. Coaches have to be the type of guys that are going to fight for their players. I think that's what it was. He cares for all of us. He really does believe in all of us. He says it all the time. So, I think he was just fighting for his players, trying to stick up for Mike (Brown).

2024 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against five playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Green Bay and Houston and road contests at Miami, Buffalo, Detroit and Houston. Four of those six games are against 2023 division winners: Houston twice (AFC South), Buffalo (AFC East) and Detroit (NFC North). The six games against reigning playoff clubs are the fewest for the Titans since they had five such games entering the 2020 campaign.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup with the Texans, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for nine contests on CBS, six games on FOX, and one game on ESPN. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: Besides a trip to Los Angeles to face the Chargers in Week 10, the Titans stay in either the central time zone (10 games) or eastern time zone (six) for the duration of 2024, including the preseason. Other than Los Angeles, the farthest west they travel is Houston.
- HIGH NOON: During the regular season, 14 of the Titans' 16 games prior to Week 18 are scheduled for Sundays at noon CT.
- FIRST-YEAR COACHES: Brian Callahan is one of eight NFL head coaches in their first season with their current team. He and the Titans face three of the others, all within a five-week span: Jerod Mayo's New England Patriots, Jim Harbaugh's Los Angeles Chargers, and Dan Quinn's Washington Commanders. Additionally, the Titans go against the Seattle Seahawks and new head coach Mike Macdonald in the second week of the preseason.
- QUARTERBACKS 1-2-3: The 2024 NFL Draft featured quarterbacks in the top three selections, beginning with Caleb Williams going first to Chicago, followed by Jayden Daniels to Washington and Drake Maye to New England. The Titans face each of those teams this season, in addition to the Minnesota Vikings, who drafted J.J. McCarthy with the 11th overall selection.
- DIVISIONAL WAITING GAMES: The Titans must wait until Week 6 against Indianapolis to play their first AFC South matchup of 2024. It is their longest wait for a divisional game since 2010 (Week 6 at Jacksonville). However, the Titans conclude 2024 with divisional games in five of the final seven weeks, including three consecutive division battles to conclude the schedule.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2023 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place finish in 2023, they host the AFC North's fourth-place Bengals, and they visit the fourth-place Chargers from the AFC West and the Washington Commanders from the NFC East. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .491 (142-147) based upon their opponents' combined 2023 record, which is tied for the 21st most difficult schedule out of 32 NFL teams.
- FACING TOP OFFENSES AND DEFENSES: The Titans face four of the NFL's top 10 offenses from last season: Miami (No. 1 overall offense), Buffalo (No. 4), Detroit (No. 3) and Minnesota (No. 10). They also contend with four of the top 10 defenses from 2023: the New York Jets (No. 3 overall defense), Miami (No. 10), Buffalo (No. 9) and New England (No. 7).

WEEK-BY-WEEK NOTES

- WEEKS 6 & 16 vs. INDIANAPOLIS: Two second-year quarterbacks—Tennessee's Will Levis and Indianapolis' Anthony Richardson—could meet for the first time in their careers. Richardson's rookie season came to a premature end in a game against the Titans (Oct. 8, 2023), three weeks before Levis made his NFL debut ... Colts second-year head coach Shane Steichen served as the offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles at the same time that new Titans defensive coordinator Dennard Wilson was on the Eagles staff as defensive backs coach (2021) and defensive backs coach/defensive passing game coordinator (2022), culminating with Philadelphia's appearance in Super Bowl LVII ... First-year Titans general manager Ran Carthon spent the majority of his three NFL seasons as a player (2004-06) with the Colts.
- WEEKS 12 & 18 vs. HOUSTON: The Texans and Titans collectively feature a pair of top quarterbacks from the 2023 rookie class: C.J. Stroud (first round, second overall) and Will Levis (second round, 33rd overall), respectively ... Stroud won the 2023 AP Offensive Rookie of the Year Award, and his teammate, defensive end Will Anderson, was named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year ... During the 2024 offseason, the Texans signed former Titans defensive end Denico Autry and linebacker Azeem Al-Shaair as unrestricted free agents ... The Titans, who lead the all-time series 23-21 heading into 2024, look to end the Texans' three-game winning streak in the rivalry ... Week 18 marks the fourth time in a six-year span the two rivals conclude the regular season against each other.
- WEEK 13 at WASHINGTON COMMANDERS: The Titans and Commanders clash in 2024 as a result of their respective divisional finishes in 2023 ... The Titans have won the past two contests in the series, including most recently a 21-17 victory at Washington on Oct. 9, 2022 ... During the 2024 offseason, the Commanders hired a new general manager, Adam Peters, and a new head coach, Dan Quinn ... Peters and Titans executive vice president/general manager Ran Carthon previously worked together at the San Francisco 49ers ... Quinn, who was the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons from 2015 to 2020, arrives in Washington following his role as the defensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys.
- WEEKS 14 & 17 vs. JACKSONVILLE: The annual Titans-Jaguars series heads into its 30th season since the Jaguars' inaugural 1995 campaign ... The two rivals face each other twice in the month of December ... The Titans won the most recent contest, a 28-20 victory in the 2023 season finale at Nissan Stadium ... During the 2024 offseason, former Jaguars wide receiver Calvin Ridley was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent. In 2023, during his only season with the Jaguars, Ridley started every contest and caught 76 passes for 1,016 yards and eight touchdowns ... New Titans offensive coordinator Nick Holz also arrives from Jacksonville, where he was the Jaguars' passing game coordinator.
- WEEK 15 vs. CINCINNATI: Early in the 2024 offseason, the Titans made Brian Callahan the 20th head coach in franchise history after he spent the previous five campaigns as Cincinnati's offensive coordinator. During his tenure in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor, helping the Bengals to two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth ... Wide receiver Tyler Boyd spent the first eight seasons of his career with the Bengals before signing with the Titans as a free agent in 2024 ... This is the fourth consecutive season in which the Bengals have visited Tennessee in either the postseason (2021) or regular season (2022-24) ... The Titans took last year's contest on Oct. 1 by a final score of 27-3.

Ran Carthon was named the 14th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 18, 2023. He joined the Titans after spending six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the last two as the team's director of player personnel.

A year after initially joining the franchise, Carthon was promoted to executive vice president/general manager. His duties expanded to include all areas that impact the football team: roster control, team activities and personnel decisions including draft and free agency acquisitions, oversight of head coach Brian Callahan and his coaching staff, scouting, sports medicine, and player engagement.

"Over the past year, Ran has impressed me and our staff with his innovative approach to roster building," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk upon Carthon's promotion in 2024. "Ran's exceptional reputation around the league as a talent evaluator and culture builder was a clear competitive advantage during last year's free agency and draft process, as well as our recent search for a head coach. Simply put, Ran Carthon makes the Tennessee Titans a destination for the league's top talent. By expanding his role to include full roster control and oversight of the coaching staff, our organization will now benefit more completely from Ran's unique ability to build and lead a championship-caliber football team."

Shortly after receiving his promotion, Carthon and his staff embarked upon the 2024 offseason. Their efforts resulted in several notable signings in free agency: cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, linebacker Kenneth Murray Jr., defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day, center Lloyd Cushenberry III, running back Tony Pollard, quarterback Mason Rudolph and wide receiver Calvin Ridley. The Titans then used a trade to acquire former Kansas City Chiefs cornerback L'Jarius Sneed before circling back in free agency to add wide receiver Tyler Boyd and safety Jamal Adams. Prior to the start of the 2024 season, another trade brought linebacker Ernest Jones IV to the Titans from the Los Angeles Rams.

During the 2024 NFL Draft, Carthon orchestrated the selection of seven total players. With the seventh overall pick in the first round, the Titans chose Alabama tackle JC Latham, and at No. 38 in the second round, they took Texas nose tackle T'Vondre Sweat.

In his first year with the Titans, Carthon re-worked the roster with several veteran additions who would become key starters for the team in 2023, including wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, outside linebacker Ardren Key, linebacker Azeez Al-Shaair, cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting and offensive lineman Daniel Brunskill in free agency. In his first draft, offensive lineman Peter Skoronski, quarterback Will Levis and running back Tyjae Spears were selected in the first three rounds, respectively. Carthon also used a trade to acquire kicker Nick Folk.

Carthon arrived in Tennessee with a range of experience from multiple teams. In San Francisco, he was the 49ers director of pro personnel for four seasons (2017-20) and then promoted to director of player personnel in 2021, serving in that capacity until joining the Titans. In his role as director of player personnel, Carthon was responsible for evaluating the top college prospects and assisting in the construction of the pro free agent board and evaluations. He joined the 49ers when head coach Kyle Shanahan and general manager John Lynch took over in 2017 and played a part in the team's three playoff appearances, two division titles and an NFC championship in 2019. Additionally, the 49ers had nine players account for 13 total Pro Bowl selections from 2021 (seven selections) to 2022 (six selections)—evidence of the talented roster the personnel staff amassed.

Before joining San Francisco, Carthon spent five seasons (2012-16) with the St. Louis/Los Angeles Rams as their director of pro personnel. He entered the NFL scouting world as a pro scout with the Atlanta Falcons for four years (2008-11).

As a player, Carthon spent three seasons in the NFL (2004-06) primarily with the Indianapolis Colts, after entering the league as an undrafted college free agent. At the University of Florida, he tallied 1,353 career rushing yards over four seasons and was part of the Gators' 2000 SEC Championship team.

Carthon was raised in an NFL family with his father, Maurice Carthon, having a distinguished playing and coaching career. Maurice Carthon played for the Colts and New York Giants, and he coached for New England, the New York Jets, Detroit, Dallas, Cleveland, Arizona and Kansas City.

Following his playing career, Ran Carthon received his bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Florida in 2008. As a member of the Rams (2013) and 49ers (2018) he was selected to participate in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business, and in 2022, he took part in the inaugural NFL coach and front office accelerator program.

Born Arandic Kornell Carthon in February of 1981, in Osceola, Ark., he attended Key West High School in Key West, Fla.

Brian Callahan was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 24, 2024, becoming the 20th head coach in franchise history.

"This is an exciting time for our franchise, and we're thrilled to have Brian as our head coach," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "We went through a thorough candidate search and Brian stood out as the best person to lead our football team. I want to thank the other candidates who were part of this process and wish them well moving forward.

"Brian has a track record of success and a range of experience that has prepared him for this opportunity. His football knowledge and his enthusiasm for the game really stand out, and beyond that, we think his ability to lead will make him the ideal fit for our franchise.

"If you look at his history, Brian has been a part of a Super Bowl winning team (Denver, 2015) and another team that advanced to the Super Bowl (Cincinnati, 2021). He's worked in a variety of dynamic offenses with top-flight quarterbacks. At each step of his career, he's shown the flexibility and intelligence to make an impact.

"During his time with the Bengals, he was trusted with a number of responsibilities—offensive design, quarterback development, a contributor to the free agency and draft processes—and showed the ability to be a resource in all of those areas. As we seek sustained success and pursue a championship, Brian has seen firsthand what that looks like, and he is the right person to lead us there.

"To our fans, thank you for your support and for sticking with us. You deserve a championship team, and we're going to get there. I can't wait for you to get to know Brian and his family."

Callahan arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of coaching experience and 14 years of NFL coaching experience, including the previous five

During his time in Cincinnati, Callahan served under head coach Zac Taylor and was part of two AFC North titles, two AFC Championship appearances and a Super Bowl berth. He also helped guide quarterback Joe Burrow from the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2020 to multiple single-season franchise records by his second year and Pro Bowl honors within three years.

Over Callahan's final three seasons in Cincinnati (2021-23), the Bengals offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in several categories: sixth in scoring (24.9), seventh in passing (250.8 yards per game), seventh in red-zone efficiency (61.5 percent), 10th in third-down percentage (41.0) and sixth in time of possession (31:00).

From the time Burrow entered the NFL in 2020 through the 2023 campaign, he recorded the league's seventh-best passer rating (98.6) and tied for the third-best completion percentage (68.0). His 270.8 passing yards per game in that period ranked fifth.

Additionally, Cincinnati's offense under Callahan featured a trio of 1,000-yard wide receivers in Ja'Marr Chase (2021-23), Tee Higgins (2021-22) and Tyler Boyd (2019). Chase quickly emerged as one of the NFL's top wide receivers after being drafted in the first round in 2021. Bengals running back Joe Mixon exceeded 1,000 scrimmage yards four times in five seasons with Callahan as his offensive coordinator. From 2019 through 2023, he joined Christian McCaffrey and Aaron Jones as the NFL's only players with at least 4,500 rushing yards (4,618) and 1,500 receiving yards (1,556). Mixon was named to the Pro Bowl in 2021.

In 2023, Burrow was limited to 10 total games due to multiple injuries. Backup Jake Browning stepped into the lineup, and in the first action of his career, he registered a season passer rating of 98.4—qualifying as the seventh-best number in the NFL.

In 2022, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in points per game (26.1), eighth in total offense (360.5 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (265.0). Burrow earned his first career Pro Bowl selection while setting single-season franchise records for completions (414) and touchdown passes (35). The third-year signal caller also placed fifth in the NFL with 4,475 passing yards. The team's new-look offensive line came together during the season and did not allow more than two sacks in any of the final eight games of the regular season.

En route to an appearance in Super Bowl LVI, the 2021 Bengals ranked seventh in passing offense (259.0 yards per game) and tied for seventh in points per game (27.1). NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

NISSAN STADIUM

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Quarterback Will Levis was selected by the Titans in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2023 NFL Draft. He was the fourth quarterback chosen in the draft after the Titans traded up in the second round to select him.

In his debut season, Levis recorded starts in all nine games in which he appeared, becoming the third rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least nine games. Only Vince Young (13 starts in 2006) and Marcus Mariota (12 starts in 2015) preceded him in the accomplishment. Levis' rookie passing totals included 255 attempts, 149 completions, 1,808 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. His 84.2 passer rating was the second best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback (91.5 by Mariota in 2015), and the number also ranked first in NFL history among second-round quarterbacks in their rookie season (minimum 200 attempts). Levis had an additional 57 yards and a touchdown rushing.

Prior to entering the NFL, Levis spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky after transferring from Penn State. In four combined college seasons, he appeared in 39 games with 26 starts. He completed 479 of his 738 passes (64.9 percent) for 5,876 yards with 46 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He also rushed for 742 yards and 17 touchdowns.

At Kentucky, Levis went 17-7 as a starter, tying Terry Wilson for the second-most quarterback wins since 1993. The two-time team captain completed 418 of 636 passes for 5,233 yards with 43 passing touchdowns and 11 rushing scores for the Wildcats. His six 300-yard passing games were the fourth-most in school history.

As a senior in 2022, he started 11 games at quarterback and connected on 185 of 283 passes for 2,406 yards with 19 passing scores, while ranking fourth in the SEC in pass efficiency (151.9). He finished fifth in the SEC with 19 passing scores.

As a junior in 2021, he transferred from Penn State to Kentucky and started in all 13 games, helping to lead UK to 10 wins for the fourth time in school history. He totaled 3,203 yards total offense, becoming the seventh player in school history to reach 3,000 yards of total offense in a season. He was 233-of-353 passing for 2,826 yards and 24 touchdowns, and he also registered 107 rushes for 376 yards and a team-high tying nine rushing touchdowns.

He is a native of Madison, Conn.

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III is in his seventh NFL season in 2024. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

During his first six NFL seasons, Landry totaled a team-leading 41.5 sacks. He finished the 2023 season ranked 11th for the franchise in career sacks, and in the organization's "Titans era" (1999–present), his total trailed only Jevon Kearse (52), Jurrell Casey (51) and Derrick Morgan (44.5).

In 2023, Landry played in all 17 games (10 starts) after missing the entire 2022 campaign due to injury. He ranked second on the team with 10.5 sacks, producing his second-best career total (12 sacks in 2021). In doing so, he became the NFL's third veteran player since 1982 to miss an entire NFL season and come back the next year to record at least 10 sacks. The only previous players to do so were a pair of New Orleans Saints: Joe Johnson in 2000 (12 sacks) and Charlie Clemons in 2001 (13.5 sacks). Landry's 14 tackles for loss led the defense and matched his career high, and his 48 quarterback pressures were third on the squad and were one off his career high in 2021 (49). His statistics also included 70 tackles.

Landry was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 2, 2022, ending his fifth NFL season before Week 1. Prior to the injury, he recorded 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts.

From the start of his rookie campaign through 2021, Landry's 31 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (37), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first four NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

From 2018 to 2021, Landry joined Pittsburgh's Cameron Heyward as the NFL's only players to be credited with at least 250 tackles (press box statistics), 30 sacks and two interceptions.

In 2021, Landry was named to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 17 games. He registered his third consecutive season to start every contest, extending his streaks to 64 consecutive games played and 52 consecutive starts. At the conclusion of 2021, his starting streak was the sixth-longest active streak in the NFL among all defensive players.

Landry's 12 sacks in 2021 led the Titans, ranked 10th in the NFL and established a career high. He became the first Titans player to record double-digit sacks in a season since Brian Orakpo (10.5) in 2016 and the first Titans player with 12 sacks in a season since Jason Babin (12.5) in 2010. Landry tied for second on the squad with 75 tackles, ranked second with a career-high 49 quarterback pressures, led the team with 14 tackles for loss, and added a forced fumble. He joined Micah Parsons, Aaron Donald and Heyward as the only NFL players in 2021 to post at least 75 tackles and 10 sacks.

Then, in the team's 2021 divisional playoff contest, he recorded 1.5 sacks. He improved his postseason career total to 4.5 sacks, becoming the organization's first player with at least four career postseason sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a then-career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a then-career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defensed. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defended.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 15th NFL season and his fourth campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2023, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the third consecutive season. With 51 consecutive games played in his first three seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2023 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. His efforts helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped punter Ryan Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1). He was also a finalist in 2023 for the NFL's Bart Starr Award.

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He has more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

Kicker Nick Folk is in his 17th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2024. He was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the New England Patriots on Aug. 29, 2023.

At the conclusion of the 2023 season, Folk's 382 career field goals ranked fourth among all active kickers behind only Matt Prater (401), Mason Crosby (400) and Justin Tucker (395), and Folk's number also ranked 19th in NFL history. His 1,632 total points scored ranked 23rd in league annals. Among all active NFL players at the conclusion of 2023, Folk's 228 career games ranked 10th.

Through 2023, Folk carried an all-time NFL-record streak of 78 consecutive field goals from under 40 yards—a streak going back to 2017. Tucker previously owned the record with 70 straight under-40-yarders from 2016 to 2020.

In his first season in Tennessee, Folk appeared in all 17 games and made 29 field goals on 30 attempts. His career-best 96.7 percent accuracy on field goals led the NFL and tied for the 14th-best single-season mark in NFL history. It also established a new franchise record for a single season, breaking the record of 92.3 percent by Al Del Greco (1998) and Rob Bironas (2010). Folk's initial season with the Titans also included 28 extra points on 30 attempts. His 115 total points tied for the 13th-best single-season total in franchise history.

In his first 15 NFL seasons prior to joining the Titans, Folk spent time with the Dallas Cowboys (2007-09), New York Jets (2010-2016), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2017) and Patriots (2019-22). During that time, he connected on 82.9 percent (353 of 426) of his field goal attempts and 96.8 percent of his extra point attempts (458 of 473). He had 10 seasons with at least 100 points, including a league-leading 150 points in 2021 with the Patriots. He registered 11 game-winning field goals in the regular season and one in postseason play.

Over his four years with New England, Folk made 108 of his 121 field goal attempts (89.3 percent) in 57 games. He departed the Patriots in fifth place on the New England all-time field goal list and tied for seventh place on the franchise's all-time scoring list with 440 total points.

In 2022, he played in all 17 games for New England and totaled 128 points on 32-of-37 field goal attempts. He was also 32-of-35 on extra points. Folk became one of six all-time NFL players to have at least five seasons with 30 field goals, joining Tucker (eight), Stephen Gostkowski (five), Robbie Gould (five), John Carney (five) and David Akers (five).

Folk established the NFL record for consecutive field goals made under 50 yards with a streak of 64 such kicks from Oct. 5, 2017 to Oct. 16, 2022. He broke the record (56 consecutive) set by Ryan Succop of the Titans from 2014 to 2017.

While with the Patriots, he also set the franchise mark for consecutive field goals made (36) during a streak that spanned from 2020 to 2021 and posted the third-highest field goal percentage for a season by a Patriot in 2020 (92.9).

Folk entered the NFL as a sixth-round selection by the Dallas in the 2007 NFL Draft. As a rookie for the Cowboys, he earned a Pro Bowl selection and all-rookie honors.

A native of Sherman Oaks, Calif., Folk attended the University of Arizona, where he earned All-PAC 10 accolades in his final season.

In only two NFL seasons, Stonehouse recorded the top two single-season gross punting averages in NFL history, and he also recorded two of the top three single-season net averages in franchise history. He became the first punter in NFL annals to lead the league in gross punting average in each of his first two seasons.

In 2023, he appeared in the first 12 games of the season before missing the final five contests on injured reserve. Despite his missed time, he averaged a league-high 53.06 yards per punt, grossing 2,812 yards on 53 attempts. The average qualified as the second-highest figure in NFL history behind his own record-setting 53.10 yards per punt as a rookie in 2022. He also finished sixth in the NFL with a 43.87-yard net punting average, which ranked third in franchise history.

In 2022, Stonehouse finished the season with a gross average of 53.10 yards per punt on 90 total punts (4,779 total yards). In doing so, he broke Sammy Baugh's single-season NFL record of 51.40 yards per punt, which was established in 1940 and was never matched among qualifiers (2.5 punts per team game) until Stonehouse's rookie campaign. Stonehouse's mark also surpassed Brett Kern's franchise record of 49.7 yards per punt in 2017.

With a net punting average of 44.0 yards per punt in 2022, Stonehouse also established a new NFL record for the highest net average by a rookie punter. He broke the record set by Indianapolis' Rigoberto Sanchez, who averaged 42.64 net yards per punt as a rookie in 2017. Stonehouse finished fourth in the NFL in net punting behind veterans Tommy Townsend (45.6), Michael Dickson (44.5) and Johnny Hekker (44.1). In franchise history, his net average ranked second for a single season, trailing only Kern's 44.6 net average in 2017.

Stonehouse's 90 punts in 2022 made up the NFL's second-highest total. Only Denver's Corliss Waitman (96) had more. The 90 punts by Stonehouse tied Craig Henrich's 1999 number for the fourth-highest total in team annals behind Rich Camarillo (96 punts in 1994) and Cliff Parsley (93 in 1979; 91 in 1978).

Stonehouse appeared in 53 games over five seasons at Colorado State (2017-21) and set an NCAA career record with a 47.8-yard gross punting average. His career totals included 244 punts for 11,656 yards with 91 punts inside the 20. He totaled 106 punts of 50-plus yards and became the first player in Colorado State history to log 11,000 punting yards in a career.

During his final college season in 2021, Stonehouse appeared in 12 games and averaged 50.9 yards per attempt on 58 punts, including a career-long 81-yard punt. He placed 27 punts inside the 20-yard line and totaled 32 punts of 50-plus yards en route to being named a second-team All-Mountain West selection and a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

In 1940, Washington's Sammy Baugh punted 35 times for 1,799 yards, averaging 51.40 yards per punt. Eighty-two seasons later, the mark still stood as the best qualifying single-season punting average in NFL history, until Titans rookie punter Ryan Stonehouse broke the record in 2022.

Stonehouse, an undrafted rookie from Colorado State University, averaged 53.10 yards per attempt on 90 total punts—1.70 yards per punt ahead of Baugh's number.

Then, in his second season, Stonehouse averaged an NFL-high 53.06 yards per punt. His 53 attempts (2,812 yards) qualified him for the single-season charts, and as a result, he owns the top two numbers of all-time in his first two NFL seasons.

Prior to Stonehouse's rookie campaign, Baugh's mark was one of the NFL's longest-held records. In the 2022 NFL Record & Fact Book, only three single-season individual records predated Baugh's punting mark, and all three of those were later tied: most safeties in a season (two by Green Bay's Tom Nash in 1932 and subsequently tied 18 times), most fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by Boston's Harold McPhail in 1934 and tied 44 times), and most opponent fumbles returned for a touchdown in a season (two by McPhail in 1934 and tied 41 times).

To qualify for the single-season average record, a punter needs a minimum of 2.5 attempts per team game.

Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated photographers and videographers (scoreboard, social, coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued gray vests. Additionally, media with in-game field access will be issued an armband. All vests and armbands must be obtained prior to each game at the check-in table. Vest check-in is located on the third-floor landing near the press box. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or to the vest check-in table.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO INTERVIEW ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will not be allowed on the field during pre-game activities or during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. The press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. Simultaneously, the locker room will open to credentialed media members with a working function. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TennesseeTitans.com/media.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. Requests for pool reports with game officials must be made in advance through the home team's media relations. Interviews will be conducted virtually. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.
