TITANS TURN FOCUS TO 2021 AFTER WINNING FIRST DIVISION TITLE IN 12 SEASONS

Titans carry streak of five consecutive winning seasons, hold 22nd pick in NFL Draft

NASHVILLE — The 2020 season was marked by adversity and adaptation, and by tests and achievements. The COVID-19 pandemic affected how NFL teams prepared, met, traveled and conducted business; precautions that had never been imagined in March were routine by the fall. Yet during one of the most unique seasons in NFL history, the Tennessee Titans earned 11 wins and claimed their first division championship in 12 seasons.

Armed with one of the best offenses in franchise history, the Titans won their first five games of 2020 and spent every week of the season either in first place in the AFC South or tied for the best record in the division. However, the division crown was not fitted to the Titans until the final play of their final game of the regular season at Houston. On Jan. 3, kicker Sam Sloman, appearing in his first game with the team as a COVID-19 replacement player for regular kicker Stephen Gostkowski, bounced a 37-yard field goal off the right upright and over the crossbar as time expired to defeat the Texans 41-38.

Tennessee finished with an 11-5 record, identical to the division rival Indianapolis Colts. However, the Titans' 5-1 record within the AFC South gave the Titans the tiebreaker over the Colts (4-2). The Titans posted their best overall record and took their first division title since going 13-3 in 2008.

The 11 wins extended Tennessee's streak to five consecutive winning seasons under executive vice president/general manager Jon Robinson, who was hired by controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk in 2016. The last time the organization produced at least five straight winning seasons was a seven-year stretch from 1987 to 1993. The Titans, Seattle Seahawks and Kansas City Chiefs were the only NFL teams to finish above .500 in each season from 2016 to 2020.

Head coach Mike Vrabel was hired two years after Robinson, and in his first three seasons at the helm, the Titans totaled 31 wins, including playoffs. Vrabel tied Jack Pardee (31-21 from 1990 to 1992) for the best record in franchise history over a head coach's first three seasons.

UNPRECEDENTED CHALLENGES

The resilience of Strunk, Robinson and Vrabel was tested during a season that featured unprecedented challenges for all 32 NFL squads, which began the year without in-person offseason programs or preseason games. To limit the spread of the coronavirus, there were strict new protocols that included daily testing, a mask mandate and physical distancing guidelines. Team personnel wore tracking devices that were used for contact tracing from the first day of training camp until the season came to a close. Players and coaches adapted along with society at large to virtual meetings.

An outbreak occurred within the organization following the Titans' Sept. 27 victory at Minnesota, forcing two changes to their schedule. Their Week 4 matchup with the Pittsburgh Steelers was moved to Oct. 25, which was their original bye date, and their Week 5 home game against the Buffalo Bills was eventually played on Tuesday, Oct. 13, marking the NFL's second Tuesday contest since 1946. At the outbreak's peak, there were a total of 14 players plus additional coaches and staff on the reserve/COVID-19 lists, but the Titans took the field against the previously unbeaten Bills and won convincingly, 42-16.

Five of the Titans' games were played without fans in attendance, and none of their games had as many as 16,000 spectators present. Nissan Stadium welcomed fans for seven of the Titans' eight regular season games and for one playoff contest, but attendance was limited to no more than 21 percent of capacity.

LOOKING AHEAD

With one of the most unique seasons in NFL history now behind them, more work is ahead for Robinson, Vrabel and their staffs in 2021. They must confront an uncertain offseason—plans for the coming months have yet to be announced as COVID-19 lingers—while molding the roster to defend its division crown and pursue loftier goals.

The unrestricted free agent signing period will begin at the start of the new league year in mid-March, when all 2020 contracts expire. Players not under contract for 2021 are free to sign with another club at that point. Prior to the new league year, clubs can negotiate and re-sign their own players.

The trading period also begins upon the launch of the league year. After Robinson engineered 22 trades in his first five years on the job, it remains a viable method to supplement the roster.

Meanwhile, work is ongoing for the 2021 NFL Draft. With January's Senior Bowl already passed, Robinson and his staff will get more first-hand interaction with draft prospects at their pro days, which are heightened in importance this year without the traditional NFL Scouting Combine taking place in Indianapolis. The process culminates with the draft from April 29 to May 1 in Cleveland, Ohio.

The Titans currently own the 22nd overall pick in Round 1 and seven total selections—one each in Rounds 1-5, two in Round 6, and none in Round 7. Their picks include the 53rd overall selection in the second round and the 85th overall pick in the third round. Additionally, the Titans could be awarded a compensatory pick as a result of net free agency losses a year ago. There are 32 such compensatory picks in Rounds 3-7, and the NFL typically announces them in March.

FOUNDATION IN PLACE

While roster turnover remains a constant in the NFL, the Titans have a firm foundation upon which to build. In addition to ownership, management and coaching continuity, a nucleus of key players is under contract. The group on offense includes Pro Bowl quarterback Ryan Tannehill, 2,000-yard running back Derrick Henry and burgeoning star and Pro Bowl wideout A.J. Brown. On defense, safety Kevin Byard is among the veteran leaders set to return, as is defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons and outside linebacker Harold Landry III.

With Tannehill, Henry and Brown leading the way, the 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Henry led the league in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. Brown was named to his first Pro Bowl after he recorded his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tied for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

The Titans tied the Bills for second place in total offense in 2020 with an average of 396.4 yards per game, which was the franchise's highest ranking since finishing second in 1991. Only the Kansas City offense (415.8) fared better on a per-game basis than Tennessee. The Titans also placed second in the league in rushing offense (168.1 yards per game) and fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game).

Moving forward, the Titans attack will be directed by new offensive coordinator Todd Downing, whom Vrabel named to the post after former coordinator Arthur Smith was hired as the new head coach of the Atlanta Falcons. Downing initially joined the club as tight ends coach in 2019. He has 20 years of NFL coaching experience.

On the defensive side, Vrabel promoted Shane Bowen to defensive coordinator for 2021 after three seasons as the team's outside linebackers coach. Bowen served as the defensive play-caller for the first time in 2020.

NOTEWORTHY IN 2020

- The Titans clinched their first AFC South title since 2008.
- The Titans finished the season with an 11-5 record, winning 11 games for the first time since 2008, when they went 13-3.
- The Titans made their third postseason appearance in five seasons under general manager Jon Robinson after previously advancing to the divisional round in 2017 and to the AFC championship game in 2019.
- With an 11-5 record, the Titans extended their streak to five consecutive winning seasons—every season since Robinson was hired in 2016. The Titans, Seattle Seahawks (2012-20) and Kansas City Chiefs (2013-20) are the only teams entering 2021 with at least five consecutive winning seasons.
- The Titans made their second consecutive playoff appearance under head coach Mike Vrabel, whose first year with the club was 2018. Vrabel finished his third season as head coach with 31 total wins and a .596 winning percentage (31-21) in those three seasons, including the regular season and postseason. His win total and winning percentage each tied Jack Pardee (31-21 from 1990 to 1992) for the best in franchise history over a head coach's first three seasons.
- The Titans finished with a 5-1 record within the AFC South in 2020. It was their third time winning at least five divisional games since the AFC South was formed in 2002 (6-0 in 2002; 5-1 in 2017). The Titans won all three road games against AFC South foes for the first time since 2007.
- The Titans finished with a road record of 6-2 in 2020, giving them six road wins for the first time since 2008.
- The Titans finished 2020 in first place in the NFL with a plus-11 turnover differential. They had a total of 23 takeaways and 12 giveaways.
- The Titans had 15 different players contribute at least one takeaway, which led the NFL.

TITANS OFFENSE

- The Titans tied for second in the NFL in total offense (396.4 yards per game), placed second in rushing offense (168.1), and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 yards per game).
- The Titans finished the season with the most total yards in franchise history (6,343), the most first downs in franchise history (381) and the second-most total points in franchise history (491).
- With 10 games scoring at least 30 points, the Titans set the franchise record, topping the nine such games they totaled in 1961.
- With five games scoring 40 points or more, the Titans finished with their second-highest total in franchise history behind the six such games in 1961.
- The Titans finished the season with 2,690 rushing yards and 3,653 net passing yards while surrendering only 25 sacks. They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards and 3,500 net passing yards while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks.
- The Titans ranked second in red-zone offense, finishing with 48 touchdowns in 64 red-zone opportunities. Since 1991, their rate of 75.0 percent in the red zone was the second-best figure for the franchise (75.6 percent in 2019) and the fifth-best rate among all NFL teams in that time period.
- The Titans became the first team in NFL history with a 2,000-yard rusher and a 3,500-yard passer in the same season (2,027 rushing by Derrick Henry, 3,819 passing by Ryan Tannehill).

NOTEWORTHY IN 2020

- The Titans became the second team in NFL history with a 2,000-yard rusher (Henry), a 3,000-yard passer (Tannehill) and a 1,000-yard receiver (A.J. Brown). They joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams to accomplish the feat.
- The Titans became the first NFL franchise to have two players reach the 2,000-yard rushing mark. Chris Johnson (2,006) accomplished the feat in 2009, preceding Derrick Henry's 2,027 rushing yards in 2020.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Finished the 2020 campaign with 70 receptions for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl.
- Tied Drew Bennett (11 touchdowns in 2004) for the most touchdown catches in a season in the team's "Titans era" (since 1999).
- Became the 11th player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons. Brown was the first NFL player since Michael Thomas (2016-17) and the only player in Titans/Oilers history other than Bill Groman (1960-61) to accomplish the feat.
- Joined Randy Moss as the only players to enter the NFL in the last 50 years (since 1970) and record 120 receptions and 19 touchdown catches while averaging at least 17.0 yards per reception in their first two seasons.
- Tied John Jefferson for the third-highest total of games with at least 100 receiving yards and one receiving touchdown in a player's first two NFL seasons since 1970. Only Odell Beckham Jr. (12) and Moss (nine) had more than Brown, who had eight such performances.
- Had the most total 50-yard receptions (nine) and 50-yard touchdown receptions (six) in the NFL from 2019 to 2020.
- Became the fifth NFL player since 1970 with at least 2,000 receiving yards and 19 receiving touchdowns in their initial two seasons. The most recent was Beckham with the New York Giants from 2014 to 2015.

CB MALCOLM BUTLER

- Tied Amani Hooker for the team lead with a career-high four interceptions in 2020.

S KEVIN BYARD

- Honored as the team's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee.
- Set a career high and led the team with 111 tackles.
- Ranked second in the NFL with 18 interceptions from 2017 through 2020. Only Miami's Xavien Howard (22) had more in that period.

WR COREY DAVIS

- Tied his career high with 65 receptions on the season (2018) and finished the 2020 campaign with a career-high 984 receiving yards and five touchdowns.
- Led the Titans from 2017 to 2020 in total receptions (207), receiving yards (2,851) and receiving first downs (146), and his 11 touchdown catches ranked third on the club.

TE ANTHONY FIRKSER

- Finished the 2020 season with career highs in receptions (39) and receiving yards (387).

K STEPHEN GOSTKOWSKI

- Finished 2020 as the 11th-most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history (86.3 percent; 392-of-454) and the 11th-highest scorer in NFL history (1,875 points).
- Made seven field goals from 50-plus yards on eight attempts in 2020. His seven 50-yarders established a new franchise record, breaking Rob Bironas' mark of six in 2011.
- Became the first player since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to kick a game-winning field goal in the final two minutes of regulation in each of his team's first three games of the season, resulting in him being named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for September.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- Finished the season with 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage led the NFL and set a franchise record. He became the eighth player in league annals to rush for at least 2,000 yards in a season. His 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-highest total in NFL history behind Eric Dickerson's 2,105 (1984), Adrian Peterson's 2,097 (2012), Jamal Lewis's 2,066 (2003) and Barry Sanders's 2,053 (1997). Henry broke Chris Johnson's franchise mark of 2,006 rushing yards in 2009.
- Named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year and was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl. He won his second consecutive FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award and added first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press.
- Became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive seasons. Henry previously led the league in 2019 with 1,540 rushing yards.
- Became the fifth all-time NFL player to lead the NFL in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons. The last to do so prior to Henry was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.
- Became the first player in NFL history with five career games with at least 200 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns.
- Became the fifth player in NFL history with three 200-yard rushing games in a season, joining Earl Campbell (four in 1980), O.J. Simpson (1973), Tiki Barber (2005) and Jay Ajayi (2016).
- In the regular season finale at Houston (Jan. 3), set the franchise record with 250 rushing yards, breaking his own club record of 238 rushing yards (Dec. 6, 2018 against Jacksonville).
- Set a career high with 17 rushing touchdowns, finishing with the second-best total in franchise history behind Earl Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.
- Totaled 1,221 rushing yards in road games, the most by any NFL running back since 1948. The previous high was held by Eric Dickerson (1,087 in 1984).
- Totaled 2,141 scrimmage yards (2,027 rushing and 114 receiving) to finish second in franchise history behind Chris Johnson's 2,509 scrimmage yards in 2009.
- Ranks fifth in NFL history with nine career rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards.
- Recorded 10 total 100-yard rushing games in 2020 to tie Earl Campbell (1980) for the third-most in franchise history. Only Campbell in 1979 (11) and Chris Johnson in 2009 (12) had more.

S AMANI HOOKER

- Tied Malcolm Butler for the team lead with a career-high four interceptions in 2020.

NOTEWORTHY IN 2020

P BRETT KERN

- Punted 37 times for a 45.8 gross average and a 41.5-yard net average with 22 punts placed inside the 20. Since the 1991 season, Kern's 59.5 percent of punts placed inside the 20 in 2020 was the best of any player with at least 30 punts in a season.
- Passed Craig Hentrich (861 career punts) in 2020 as the organization's all-time leading punter and finished the season with 876 punts in a Titans uniform. He also concluded 2020 as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (355).
- Ended a consecutive games played streak at 199 NFL games, including his career with the Titans and Denver Broncos. His streak with the Titans ended at 177 consecutive games played, finishing as the second-longest streak in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews' 232 consecutive games from 1987 to 2001.
- Enters 2021 ranked fourth in franchise history with 183 games played with the franchise, trailing only behind Matthews (296), Elvin Bethea (210) and Brad Hopkins (194).

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Led the team in sacks for the second consecutive season, finishing 2020 with 5.5 sacks.
- Totaled a team-high 19 sacks in his first three seasons (2018-20), second only to Jevon Kearse (36.0) for a Titans/Oilers player in his first three NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

- Tied Chase Young for the NFL lead in 2020 with three defensive fumble recoveries. Simmons was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since Brad Kassell in 2005.
- Became the first player in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999) to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season.
- Won the team's Ed Block Courage Award.

TE JONNU SMITH

- Set career highs with 41 receptions, 448 receiving yards and eight touchdown receptions, and he added a rushing touchdown.
- Tied the franchise single-season record for tight ends with eight touchdown receptions, matching Willie Frazier (1965) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Dave Casper (1981). Smith tied Darren Waller for third place in the NFL among tight ends in 2020 behind only Travis Kelce (11) and Robert Tonyan (11).

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

- Completed 315 of 481 passes for 3,819 yards with 33 touchdowns and seven interceptions. He ranked fifth in the NFL with a passer rating of 106.5, which also ranked second in single-season franchise history behind his own 117.5 passer rating in 2019.

NOTEWORTHY IN 2020

- Set a franchise record with 40 combined passing touchdowns (33) and rushing touchdowns (seven) in a season. His total tied for the fifth-most in the NFL in 2020.
- With 33 touchdown passes, he tied Warren Moon (33 in 1990) for second place on the franchise's single-season passing touchdown list. Only George Blanda (36 in 1961) had more touchdown passes in a season in team annals.
- Finished in third place on the franchise single-season passing list with 3,819 passing yards. Warren Moon holds the top two spots (4,690 in 1990; 4,689 in 1990).
- Recorded 11 games in 2020 with a passer rating of at least 100.0, breaking his own franchise record of eight such games in 2019.
- Set a career high with seven total rushing touchdowns, the most by a Titans quarterback since Vince Young had seven in 2006.
- Finished the season with 13 consecutive games with a touchdown pass, which he will take into 2021 as the sixth-longest such streak in Titans/Oilers history.
- Joined Buffalo's Josh Allen in 2020 as the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.
- Led the NFL with six game-winning drives in 2020. He tied Vince Young (2006) and Dan Pastorini (1978) for the most in a season in franchise history.

2021 OPPONENTS

The Titans' opponents for 2021 are set under the NFL's 16-game scheduling formula.

As always, the Titans have home and road games against each of the AFC South rival Houston Texans, Indianapolis Colts and Jacksonville Jaguars.

Based upon the NFL's schedule rotation, the Titans also will face every team from the AFC East. They will host the Buffalo Bills and Miami Dolphins and travel to meet the New England Patriots and New York Jets.

Additionally, the Titans will square off against the NFC West. They will have dates at Nissan Stadium against the Arizona Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers and road games versus the Los Angeles Rams and Seattle Seahawks. It will be their first appearance at SoFi Stadium in Los Angeles.

Every team plays two intraconference games that are determined by order of finish within its division, and those matchups are set as well. The Titans won the AFC South, resulting in a 2021 home matchup with the AFC West's equivalent finisher, the first-place Kansas City Chiefs. The Titans will go on the road to meet the AFC North's equivalent finisher from 2020, the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The 2020 collective bargaining agreement between the NFL and the NFL Players Association allows for a 17th regular season game to be added to the schedule starting in 2021.

The complete league schedule with dates and times is typically released by the NFL in April.

Jon Robinson was hired as Titans general manager on Jan. 14, 2016 after spending two years as director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Nearly one year later, on Jan. 5, 2017, he was promoted to executive vice president/general manager.

In his first five years on the job, the Titans finished with four consecutive 9-7 seasons followed by an 11-5 mark in 2020. It marked the first time the organization produced at least five consecutive winning seasons since a seven-year run of winning records from 1987–1993. The Titans, Seattle Seahawks and Kansas City Chiefs were the only NFL teams without a losing season from 2016 to 2020.

Robinson became only the second general manager in franchise history whose first five teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-93).

Robinson's work helped the team go from three wins in the season prior to his arrival (2015) to a divisional round playoff finish following the 2017 campaign. He became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Then, in 2019, the team he constructed advanced to the AFC Championship game. It was the organization's first appearance in the conference title game in 17 seasons (2002).

In 2020, Robinson and the Titans clinched the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They did so while navigating the challenges associated with the COVID-19 pandemic.

At the conclusion of 2020, the Titans roster was almost completely remade from when Robinson arrived. Only three players (Brett Kern, DaQuan Jones and Taylor Lewan) remained on the 53-man roster or reserve lists who were already present prior to Robinson's tenure.

The 2020 NFL Draft was Robinson's fifth draft as general manager. In those five drafts, he selected 35 total players, and 19 of those players remained with the club at the end of 2020. During that same time period (as of Jan. 10, 2021), he engineered 22 trades and made 11 waiver claims.

2020: Early in 2020, the Titans reached an agreement on a multi-year contract to keep quarterback Ryan Tannehill in Tennessee. The Titans also re-signed tackle Dennis Kelly, who would go on to start all 16 games at right tackle.

After initially placing the franchise tag on running back Derrick Henry, the Titans and Henry were able to come to an agreement on a multi-year contract extension in July 2020.

The Titans used their first-round pick in 2019 on Jeffery Simmons.

Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. He finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists with 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third) and 33 touchdown passes (tied for second).

Robinson acquired Tannehill for the Titans in a 2019 trade with the Miami Dolphins, and in the quarterback's first two seasons with the team, he led the Titans to two playoff appearances. From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the end of 2020, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Tannehill's 2020 successes followed a 2019 season in which he led the NFL and set franchise records with a 117.5 passer rating and a 9.6-yard passing average. In addition to being named to his first Pro Bowl, he earned the 2019 Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

After securing his multi-year extension, Henry produced one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a running back. He led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season with 2,027 rushing yards, which was only the eighth 2,000-yard rushing season in league annals, and also paced the league with 17 rushing touchdowns. He was recognized with the Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year Award.

Henry, a second-round pick by Robinson in 2016, led the Titans in rushing every season from 2017 through 2020, during which time he also led the NFL with 5,370 total rushing yards. In 2019, he won his first of two consecutive NFL rushing crowns with 1,540 yards and tied for the NFL lead with 16 rushing touchdowns.

In the 2020 NFL Draft, the Titans had six total picks. The first of those was Georgia tackle Isaiah Wilson (first round, 29th overall), followed by Louisiana State cornerback Kristian Fulton (second round, 61st overall) and Appalachian State running back Darrynton Evans (third round, 93rd overall) in the first three rounds.

2019: Near the beginning of the 2019 free agent signing period, Robinson worked quickly to add several veterans from other teams who played key roles in 2019: Buccaneers wide receiver Adam Humphries, Rams guard Rodger Saffold and Tannehill in a trade with the Dolphins. Robinson also worked to re-sign starting safety Kenny Vaccaro and punter Brett Kern.

Then, in the 2019 NFL Draft, Robinson directed the selection of six total players, including Mississippi State defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons in the first round (19th overall), Ole Miss wide receiver A.J. Brown in the second round (51st overall) and Charlotte offensive lineman Nate Davis in the third round (82nd overall).

In his first two seasons, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 122 catches for 2,126 yards and 19 touchdowns. He became the 11th NFL player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons and the first player to do so since Michael Thomas (2016-17). From 1970 through 2020, Brown and Randy Moss were the only players to post at least 120 receptions and 19 touchdown catches while averaging 17.0 yards per reception in their first two seasons. He was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 after totaling 70 receptions for 1,075 yards and 11 touchdowns.

As a rookie, Brown ranked first among rookies in receiving yards (1,051), tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions (eight) and placed fifth in receptions (52). Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

2018: The Titans' 2018 free agent class included Pro Bowl cornerback Malcolm Butler. In his first three seasons in Tennessee, Butler played in 41 games (36 starts) and totaled nine interceptions. In early August, the Titans signed Vaccaro, who went on to start 42 games over his first three seasons with the club.

Robinson's 2018 draft class was comprised of four players after he used multiple trades to go up and get his targets. It included first-round linebacker Rashaan Evans from Alabama (22nd overall pick) and second-round outside linebacker Harold Landry III from Boston College (41st overall). Evans started all 32 games from 2019 to 2020, and in 2019 he led the team with 139 tackles. Landry appeared in 47 games (35 starts) in his first three seasons, and his 19.0 sacks from 2018–2020 (nine in 2019) ranked first on the team.

2017: During the 2017 offseason, Robinson used free agency to address needs on defense and special teams. Most notably, he spearheaded deals for cornerback Logan Ryan (New England) and special teams contributor and 2017 Pro Bowler Brynden Trawick (Oakland).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Robinson spent first-round picks on wide receiver Corey Davis (fifth overall) and cornerback Adoree' Jackson (18th overall). It marked the first time the franchise had a pair of first-round draft selections since 1987. The Titans' 2017 draft haul also featured tight end Jonnu Smith in the third round and linebacker Jayon Brown in the fifth round.

The 2017 Titans advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Robinson became the fifth general manager in franchise history to have the team in the postseason within his first two full seasons.

2016: In his first year as an NFL general manager, Robinson's leadership and decision-making helped the Titans triple their win total from the previous season, finishing 9-7 in 2016 after a 3-13 finish in 2015. The six-win improvement tied for the most in franchise history (1967 and 1974) and doubled the previous club benchmark for the most wins in the first year under a new general manager (three by Bum Phillips in 1975).

Within the first four months at his post, Robinson pulled the trigger on several key personnel decisions. On March 9, 2016, he made his first major acquisition, swapping fourth-round draft picks with the Philadelphia Eagles in exchange for running back DeMarco Murray. The trade provided major dividends in 2016, as Murray led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL with 1,287 rushing yards.

Around the same time, Robinson began to work the free agent market. Center Ben Jones and wide receiver Rishard Matthews highlighted the haul, and both were instrumental in helping to transform the Titans offense into the 11th-ranked unit in the NFL.

On April 14, 2016, two weeks before the NFL Draft, Robinson and the Titans dealt the first overall pick to the Los Angeles Rams in one of the biggest trades in recent NFL history. The Titans gave up the No. 1 pick and a fourth-rounder in order to receive the 15th overall pick, two second-rounders and a third-rounder in 2016, plus the Rams' first- and third-round picks in 2017. From 1990–2015, there were seven trades involving the No. 1 overall pick, but this was the first since 2004, when the San Diego Chargers selected Eli Manning with the first pick and dealt his rights to the New York Giants.

The Titans had their hands at one point or another on 17 selections in the 2016 draft due to five different trades (including one trade in 2015), and in the end, they ended up with a class of 10 players, including four of the top 45 picks. Robinson swung a draft-day trade with the Cleveland Browns to move back up to the eighth slot to choose Michigan State tackle Jack Conklin.

All 10 members of Robinson's first draft class played in at least one game in 2016. They accumulated a total of 110 games played and 38 starts, including 16 starts at right tackle by Conklin. The eighth-overall pick capped his successful rookie campaign by being named first-team All-Pro by Associated Press.

Third-round safety Kevin Byard earned first-team All-Pro honors in his second campaign. He ranked second in the NFL from 2017–2020 with 18 total interceptions also was named to the Pro Bowl in 2017.

PRIOR HISTORY: Robinson arrived in Tennessee with a wide range of experience from working his way up on the personnel side of the NFL. From 2014–2015, he served as director of player personnel for the Buccaneers and oversaw both college and pro departments as the team rebuilt its roster. The 2015 Buccaneers draft class made a significant impact, including four rookie starters: quarterback Jameis Winston, tackle Donovan Smith, guard Ali Marpet and linebacker Kwon Alexander.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Robinson spent 12 years with the New England Patriots, including his last five years (2009-13) as the director of college scouting. In the five years heading up their college scouting, the Patriots added a number of key components to their roster that won the Super Bowl in 2014, including wide receiver Julian Edelman, defensive back Devin McCourty, tight end Rob Gronkowski, tackle Nate Solder and defensive end Chandler Jones. He joined the Patriots as an area scout in 2002, a role he served for four seasons. Robinson then spent two years (2006-07) as a regional scout, before being promoted to assistant director of college scouting in 2008 and then director of college scouting in 2009. In his time scouting for the Patriots the team won 10 division titles, four conference titles and two Super Bowls (2003, 2004).

Robinson played three years at Southeast Missouri State as a defensive lineman after starting his college career at the Air Force Academy. Following his college career as a player, he spent one season (1998) coaching at his alma mater and three years (1999-2001) coaching at Nicholls State.

A native of Union City, Tenn., Robinson and his wife, Jaimie, have two daughters, Taylor and Bailey.

FIVE YEARS, THREE PLAYOFF BERTHS

Jon Robinson constructed a roster that produced five consecutive winning seasons in Robinson's first five years on the job, including 2020. The club went 9-7 in 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 with postseason berths following the 2017 and 2019 campaigns. Then, in 2020, the Titans finished the regular season 11-5 and won the team's first division championship since 2008.

Robinson is only the second general manager in franchise history whose first five teams finished above the .500 mark, joining Mike Holovak (1989-93).

He is also the second general manager in team annals who has helped guide the club to three playoff berths in his first five seasons. Holovak did so in each of his first five years.

TITANS SCHEDULED TO PICK 22ND

The Titans currently own seven total choices, including the 22nd overall pick, in the 86th National Football League Player Selection Meeting. The first round will start on Thursday, April 29, in Cleveland, Ohio with the second and third rounds on Friday, April 30, followed by rounds four through seven on Saturday, May 1.

Meanwhile, Titans executive vice president/general manager Jon Robinson, head coach Mike Vrabel and their staffs will be headquartered at Saint Thomas Sports Park in MetroCenter, just north of downtown.

SEVEN PICKS

The Titans' seven current picks are comprised of six of their original selections plus one choice acquired in a trade. They have one pick in every round except for the seventh round, having surrendered that choice and outside linebacker Kamalei Correa in a 2020 trade with the Jacksonville Jaguars. The Titans received a sixth-rounder in the transaction, which was then traded to the Los Angeles Chargers for cornerback Desmond King II.

The Titans have an extra sixth-round pick from the Kansas City Chiefs as a result of dealing a seventh-rounder to the Chiefs during the 2020 draft.

Additionally, the NFL will award a total of 32 compensatory picks to teams in Rounds 3-7, based on net unrestricted free agency losses in 2020. The NFL typically announces the compensatory picks in March.

THE 22ND PICK

In determining draft order, non-playoff clubs select first through 18th, according to the reverse order of their standing (i.e., the team with the worst record receives the first pick, the team with the second-worst record receives the second pick, etc.). Playoff teams select 19th through 32nd based on their level of advancement in the postseason.

The Titans finished 11-5 in the 2020 regular season and advanced to the wild card round. The Indianapolis Colts did the same, and as a result the two clubs will rotate picks 21 and 22 each round. Based on the 2020 strength-of-schedule tiebreaker (.475 for the Titans; .443 for the Colts), the Colts will pick ahead of the Titans in Round 1. The Titans hold the 22nd slot in the first round, the 21st slot in the second round, the 22nd slot in the third round, etc. Their overall pick numbers in the second and third rounds are 53rd and 85th, respectively, with their third-rounder coming one spot sooner than would otherwise be the case due to the New England Patriots' forfeiture of their third-round pick. Exact selection numbers for Rounds 4-7 will be known once compensatory selections are awarded.

There have been two prior occasions in franchise history in which the team used the 22nd overall pick. In 1988, the Oilers used the pick on Michigan State running back Lorenzo White. Over the next seven seasons, White appeared in 95 games for the Oilers, rushing for 4,079 yards and 29 touchdowns and adding 184 receptions for 1,674 yards and six scores. He was a Pro Bowl selection in 1992.

More recently, the Titans traded up to the 22nd pick (from 25) to select Alabama linebacker Rashaan Evans in 2018. Evans has started every game for the team for the past two seasons. He led the team with 139 tackles in 2019 and ranked third with 96 stops in 2020.

The 22nd pick a year ago was Louisiana State wide receiver Justin Jefferson, who was taken by the Minnesota Vikings. Jefferson made the Pro Bowl as a rookie after totaling 88 receptions for 1,400 yards and seven touchdowns.

In 54 drafts since 1967, when the NFL and AFL agreed to a "common draft," there have been a total of 10 No. 22 overall picks (18.5 percent) that have gone on to make at least one Pro Bowl: linebacker Jack Reynolds (selected in 1970 by the Los Angeles Rams), defensive back Hanford Dixon (1981, Cleveland Browns), defensive back Gill Byrd (1983, San Diego Chargers), tackle Harris Barton (1987, San Francisco 49ers), White, wide receiver Andre Rison (1989, Indianapolis Colts), wide receiver Percy Harvin (2009, Minnesota Vikings), wide receiver Demaryius Thomas (2010, Denver Broncos), defensive back Desmond Trufant (2013, Atlanta Falcons) and Jefferson.

2020 TITANS DRAFT REVIEW

OL ISIAH WILSON | 6-6, 350, Georgia

1st round, 29th overall

Rookie Season: Appeared in one game and finished his rookie season on reserve/non-football illness.

College: Following a redshirt season, Wilson started 24 total games for the Bulldogs from 2018 to 2019. All of his starts came at right tackle. As a sophomore (2019), Wilson was named second-team Associated Press All-SEC and was the co-winner of the Offensive "Up Front" Award.

CB KRISTIAN FULTON | 5-11, 197, Louisiana State

2nd round, 61st overall

Rookie Season: Appeared in six games with two starts, totaling 16 tackles, one interception, one pass defended, one sack, one quarterback pressure and one tackle for loss. He also played in one playoff contest.

College: In a three-year career at LSU (2016-19), Fulton appeared in 28 games and made 25 starts. He finished his career with 65 tackles, 25 passes defended, two interceptions, and one forced fumble. As a senior in 2019, Fulton started all 15 games and posted 38 tackles, one tackle for loss, 15 passes defended and one interception. He also earned second-team All-SEC recognition by the Associated Press. During his junior season (2018), Fulton started 10 games, and his statistics included 25 tackles, 10 passes defended, one interception and one forced fumble.

RB DARRYNTON EVANS | 5-10, 203, Appalachian State

3rd round, 93rd overall

Rookie Season: Appeared in five games during the regular season and totaled 14 rushing attempts for 54 yards. He added two receptions for 27 yards and a touchdown and nine kickoff returns for 206 yards. He also appeared in one postseason contest, registering two kickoff returns for 46 yards and one yard on one rushing attempt.

College: In three on-field seasons at Appalachian State (2016, 2018-19), Evans appeared in 39 games with 22 starts. He was a two-time All-Sun Belt first-team selection and was the Sun Belt's Offensive Player of the Year in 2019. Evans was a two-time Sun Belt Championship Game MVP and MVP of the 2019 New Orleans Bowl. He finished his career with 2,884 rushing yards (ninth all-time at Appalachian State) despite being the primary running back for just 23 career games. Evans set school records for most career rushes without a fumble (482) and single-season rushes without a fumble (255 in 2019). Evans had 4,642 all-purpose yards, including 1,439 yards on kickoff returns and 319 yards as a receiver, plus 14 passing yards. Evans scored 34 total touchdowns with 25 rushing, six receiving and a program-record three as a kick returner.

DL LARRELL MURCHISON | 6-2, 297, North Carolina State

5th round, 174th overall

Rookie Season: Appeared in 10 games as a rookie and totaled five tackles. He added a tackle in one postseason contest.

College: During a two-year stint as a defensive tackle at North Carolina State, Murchison started all 25 contests. As a senior in 2019, Murchison started all 12 games at defensive tackle and registered 51 tackles. Leading the Wolfpack with 12 tackles for loss and seven sacks, he was named second-team All-ACC by the league and honorable mention All-ACC by Pro Football Focus. He finished his Wolfpack career with 85 tackles, 11 sacks, 20 tackles for loss, five quarterback hits, an interception, three passes defended and three fumble recoveries. He started his collegiate career at Louisburg College and was named a NJCAA junior-college honorable mention All-American.

QB COLE MCDONALD | 6-3, 215, Hawaii

7th round, 224th overall

Not on Titans roster

College: After redshirting in 2016, McDonald was a reserve in 2017 before taking control as the starter in 2018. In 33 career games, including 24 starts, he completed 616 of 1,004 passes for 8,032 yards, 70 touchdowns and 24 interceptions. He added 880 yards and 12 touchdowns on 251 career rushing attempts.

DB CHRIS JACKSON | 5-10, 193, Marshall

7th round, 243th overall

Rookie Season: Appeared in 11 games with three starts as a rookie. He totaled 21 tackles, one tackle for loss, one pass defended and three special teams stops.

College: During a four-year career at Marshall, started 48 games and posted 189 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, seven interceptions with one returned for a touchdown, 45 passes defended and two fumble recoveries with one returned for a score on kickoff coverage for the Thundering Herd. Jackson's 45 passes defended rank first in Marshall history and his 48 career starts rank 14th in program history. He earned all-conference recognition in all four of his collegiate seasons.

Mike Vrabel was named head coach of the Titans on Jan. 20, 2018, becoming the 19th head coach in franchise history.

In 2020, the Titans made their second consecutive playoff appearance under Vrabel, who finished his third season with the organization with 31 total wins and a .596 winning percentage (31-21), including the regular season and postseason. His win total and winning percentage each tied Jack Pardee (31-21 from 1990 to 1992) for the best in franchise history over a head coach's first three seasons.

The Titans won the 2020 AFC South title with an 11-5 record in the regular season, claiming their best record and first division title since going 13-3 in 2008. They finished with a 5-1 record within the division and a 6-2 mark in road games, all while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Titans led the NFL in 2020 with a plus-11 turnover differential. Their 23 takeaways ranked seventh in the NFL, while their 12 turnovers were the second-fewest in the league in 2020 and tied for the ninth-lowest number since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2020, the Tennessee offense continued its ascent into the NFL's upper echelon. The Titans tied for second place in total offense (396.4 yards per game) and ranked fourth in scoring offense (30.7 points per game). They became the first team in NFL history to generate at least 2,500 rushing yards (2,690) and 3,500 net passing yards (3,653) while surrendering 25 or fewer sacks (25). Their 6,343 total yards and 381 first downs established franchise records, while their 491 points amounted to the organization's second-best total.

The 2020 Titans joined the 1997 Detroit Lions as the only teams in NFL history to feature a 2,000-yard rusher, a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard receiver. Derrick Henry led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season, and his 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-best total in league history. Meanwhile, Ryan Tannehill passed for 3,819 yards, and his 106.5 passer rating was the fifth-best number in the NFL. A.J. Brown was named to the Pro Bowl after recording his second consecutive 1,000-yard season (1,075) and tying for fifth place in the NFL with 11 touchdown catches.

Situationally, Vrabel's teams fared well among the NFL leaders in his first three seasons as head coach. From 2018 to 2020, their .935 winning percentage (29-2) in regular season games in which they had a fourth-quarter lead ranked second in the NFL behind the New Orleans Saints (.974). In the same time period, the Titans had a .643 winning percentage in three-point games (9-5), good for fifth in the league. The Titans and Saints were the only clubs to win at least three overtime contests in the regular season from 2018 to 2020, and neither suffered a loss.

The Titans were called for 267 penalties from 2018 through 2020, which was the second-fewest total in the NFL. Only the New England Patriots (249) fared better.

Also from 2018 to 2020, the Titans were a top-10 team in scoring defense. They allowed opponents to score 22.4 points per game during that time period, the eighth-lowest average in the NFL.

In 2019, Vrabel became the first head coach in the organization's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons. The Titans won a pair of road games—at New England in the wild card round and at Baltimore in the divisional round—to advance to the 2019 AFC championship game, falling at Kansas City to the eventual Super Bowl champion Chiefs.

The Titans began the 2019 campaign with two wins in their first six games but rallied to win seven of their final 10 games in the regular season. From the time the NFL went to its current playoff format in 1990 through 2019, 345 teams went 2-4 or worse in their first six games of a season. From that group, the Titans became only the third team to advance to a conference championship game, joining the 2002 Titans (2-4) and the 1996 Jacksonville Jaguars (2-4).

The 2019 Titans ranked in the NFL's top 10 in scoring margin (eighth, +71), turnover margin (sixth, +6), offensive yards per play (fourth, 6.12), rushing offense (third, 138.9 yards per game), red zone efficiency (first, 75.6 percent), total touchdowns (tied for third, 54) and third-down defense (eighth, 36.3 percent).

In his first season as head coach, Vrabel directed the Titans to a 9-7 record. His nine wins tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history by a first-year head coach.

With only 82 penalties enforced against the Titans in 2018, Vrabel's team led the NFL and set a franchise record (16-game season) for fewest penalties in a season. The 2018 Titans also placed third in points allowed (18.9 per game), eighth in total defense (333.4 yards per game), sixth in passing defense (216.9), second in red zone defense (44.7 percent touchdown rate) and seventh in rushing offense (126.4) in the league rankings.

Vrabel arrived in Tennessee with 18 years of NFL experience, including four seasons as a coach and 14 seasons as a player. His distinguished playing career included three Super Bowl wins (2001, 2003 and 2004), one Pro Bowl selection (2007) and an All-Pro honor (2007). Vrabel played in 206 NFL games and totaled 57 sacks, 496 tackles, 11 interceptions, 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 10 touchdown receptions. Additionally,

Mike Vrabel's Career Playing Ledger:

Years	Team	Position
2009-10	Kansas City Chiefs	Linebacker
2001-08	New England Patriots	Linebacker
1997-00	Pittsburgh Steelers	Linebacker

his teams advanced to the playoffs eight times (20 postseason games), with Vrabel recording eight postseason sacks and two postseason touchdown receptions.

Vrabel joined the Titans after four seasons with the Houston Texans, spending the first three seasons (2014-16) coaching linebackers and one year (2017) as the team's defensive coordinator. During his time in Houston, the Texans built one of the best defenses in the NFL and experienced tremendous success as a team – earning two division titles (2015, 2016).

Between 2014-16, the Texans defense ranked third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (319.9) and net passing yards (218.4). Houston also ranked first in third-down defense (33.6), fourth in opponent completion percentage (59.5) and sixth in points allowed per game (19.8). The 2016 defense ranked number one in the NFL, for the first time in franchise history, in yards allowed (301.3).

In 2017, his first year as a defensive coordinator, the Texans finished the campaign with 19 players on injured reserve. Despite the injuries, Vrabel led the defense to the fifth-best third-down percentage in the NFL and a franchise-record 3.97 yards per carry by opponents. Houston also had 18 different players record at least half a sack last year and 26 players tally at least one tackle for loss.

Vrabel spent his career playing and coaching with accomplished leaders, including Bill Belichick, Bill Cowher, Romeo Crennel, Urban Meyer, Bill O'Brien and Todd Haley.

As the Texans linebackers coach from 2014-16, Vrabel developed several players into top-notch performers, including Jadeveon Clowney (Pro Bowl, 2016), Whitney Mercilus, Benardrick McKinney (second-team All-Pro, 2016) and Brian Cushing. The 2015 Texans defense had the top third-down defense in the NFL (28.5 percent), which was the lowest percentage in franchise history and the lowest by any NFL team since the 2003 Titans (27.7 percent). The 2015 defense also set a franchise mark for sacks in a season with 45 - 22.5 coming from Vrabel's linebacking corps.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Vrabel transitioned immediately from an NFL player to college coach. He started as the linebacker coach at Ohio State in 2011 and coached the defensive line from 2012-2013. The 2012 Buckeyes finished the season undefeated at 12-0. He also was named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by ESPN.com in 2012.

Vrabel was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft, after his playing career at Ohio State, where he earned All-America honors and Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in both 1995 and 1996.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons: Tyler and Carter.

MOST WINS IN FIRST THREE SEASONS

In the 2020 regular season finale at Houston, Mike Vrabel earned his 31st win in the regular season and postseason since taking over as Titans head coach in 2018. He finished the campaign with a three-year record of 31-21, including a 2-2 mark in the playoffs.

His 31 victories tied for the three-year franchise record originally established by former Oilers coach Jack Pardee from 1990 to 1992.

Vrabel, Pardee and Jerry Glanville (1986-1988) are the only head coaches in team annals to preside over at least two playoff squads in their initial three seasons. All three of Pardee's first three teams made the postseason, while Glanville's Oilers advanced to the postseason in his second and third years.

With a 31-21 record, Vrabel's winning percentage of .596 tied Pardee for the highest mark of any head coach in franchise history who has been with the organization at least three years.

Most total wins in Titans/Oilers history in a head coach's first three seasons, including playoffs*:

Coch	Seasons	Wins	Losses	Ties	Win Pct.
1. Mike Vrabel	2018-2020	31	21	0	.596

* Does not include interim seasons  Two total seasons

When Vrabel was hired in 2018, he joined six other head coaches who joined (or rejoined) their respective clubs in the same offseason: Jon Gruden (Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders), Matt Nagy (Chicago Bears), Matt Patricia (Detroit Lions), Frank Reich (Indianapolis Colts), Pat Shurmur (New York Giants) and Steve Wilks (Arizona Cardinals). Of those seven coaches, Vrabel had the most wins from 2018 to 2020.

Vrabel, Reich and Nagy each led their respective teams to the playoffs twice in their first three seasons.

Coch	Team	Wins	Losses	Ties	Pct.	Appearances
1. Mike Vrabel	Tennessee	31	21	0	.596	2

VRABEL LEADS TITANS TO AFC TITLE GAME

Titans head coach Mike Vrabel became the franchise's sixth head coach in franchise annals to have the team in the playoffs within his first two full seasons.

Vrabel is the fourth head coach in Titans/Oilers history to win at least one playoff game in his first two full seasons, joining Mike Mularkey (2017 playoff victory), Jack Pardee (1991) and Lou Rymkus (1960 and 1961). He is the first head coach in the team's history to win multiple playoff games within his first two seasons.

Titans/Oilers head coaches in the playoffs within their first two full seasons:

SHANE BOWEN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Bowen was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2021 after spending his first three seasons with the Titans as outside linebackers coach.
- In 2020, he added defensive play-caller to his responsibilities. The Titans defense ranked seventh in the NFL with 23 takeaways, which tied for the most by a Titans defense since 2013 (25). The Titans also tallied 15 interceptions, which ranked seventh in the NFL and the most by the Titans since 2012 (19).
- In 2019, Harold Landry III (nine sacks) and Kamalei Correa (five) achieved career highs in sacks, while undrafted rookie Derick Roberson added three sacks.
- Bowen joined the Titans in 2018 after spending two seasons (2016-17) as a defensive assistant for the Houston Texans. He arrived with nine years of coaching experience.
- In 2016, Bowen was part of a Texans staff that produced the NFL's number one defense (yards allowed) for the first time in franchise history. In 2017, the defense ranked fifth in third-down defense and set a franchise record for yards per carry by opponents (3.97).
- He also served at Kennesaw State as linebackers coach (2013-15), at Ohio State as a defensive graduate assistant (2012). He began his coaching career as an assistant at Georgia Tech (2009-11).
- A native of Pickerington, Ohio, Bowen was a three-year letter winner at Georgia Tech as an outside linebacker.

TODD DOWNING OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Click For Complete Online Bio

- Downing was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2021 after initially joining the Titans in 2019 as tight ends coach. He came to the team with 18 years of previous NFL coaching experience.
- From 2019 to 2020, the Titans tight ends' 21 touchdowns tied for the third-highest total in the NFL among tight end groups. Over those two seasons the Titans tight ends also produced the league's seventh-best receiving yardage total (1,915) and tied for the eighth-best reception total (170).
- Among their peers in 2020, the Titans tight end corps ranked second in total touchdowns (14), third in touchdown receptions (12), sixth in receptions (94) and ninth in receiving yards (967). Jonnu Smith tied the franchise single-season record for tight ends with eight touchdown catches, which also tied for third place in the NFL in 2020.
- In his first season with the Titans (2019), Downing helped Smith set then-career highs in receptions (35) and yards (439), while Anthony Firkser (15 games) and MyCole Pruitt (10 starts) emerged as steady contributors.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium hosts all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fit the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Miss., along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership is assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan serves as presenting sponsor. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products held the naming rights to the stadium from 2006 until the Nissan partnership was established in 2015.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill completed his ninth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020.

After receiving a multi-year contract extension during the 2020 offseason, Tannehill responded with 16 starts for the first time since 2015 and produced one of the best seasons of any quarterback in franchise history. A Titans team captain for the first time, his statistics finished in the top five of several of the organization's single-season record lists, including 40 total touchdowns (first), a 106.5 passer rating (second), 3,819 passing yards (third), 33 touchdown passes (tied for second), 65.5 completion percentage (fourth) and 7.9 yards per attempt (tied for fifth).

Tannehill and Buffalo's Josh Allen became the fourth and fifth quarterbacks in NFL history with at least 3,800 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. Only Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) had done so previously.

From 2019 to 2020, Tannehill built an 18-8 record as a starter in the regular season and led the Titans to two playoff appearances, including an appearance in the 2019 AFC championship game. He was the team's first quarterback since Steve McNair in 2002 and 2003 to start playoff games in back-to-back seasons.

From the time he took over as the Titans' starter in Week 7 of 2019 through the 2020 campaign, Tannehill's 111.3 passer rating ranked third in the NFL behind only Drew Brees' 112.3 and Aaron Rodgers' 111.7. Among qualifiers, Tannehill became the fourth player in NFL history with a passer rating of at least 106.0 in consecutive seasons, joining Brees (2018-20), Russell Wilson (2018-19) and Rodgers (2011-12).

In 2019, Tannehill set single-season franchise records and led the NFL with a 117.5 passer rating and a passing average of 9.6 yards per attempt. His passer rating was the fourth-highest figure in NFL history among qualifiers. Additionally, he set a club record and placed third in the NFL with a 70.3 completion percentage.

Tannehill was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2019 and was named to his first career Pro Bowl. He also won the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Originally a first-round selection (eighth overall) by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft, Tannehill was acquired by the Titans in a trade with the Dolphins on March 15, 2019. The Titans sent a 2019 seventh-round pick and a 2020 fourth-round selection to Miami in exchange for Tannehill and a 2019 sixth-rounder.

Over his seven seasons in Miami, he started 88 games, threw for 20,434 yards and 123 touchdowns, and rushed for 1,210 yards and six scores. When he left Miami, he ranked second in franchise history behind Chad Pennington in both career completion percentage (62.8) and career passer rating (87.0). He authored 13 game-winning drives for the Dolphins.

From 2012 through 2015, Tannehill's passing yardage total—15,460 yards—was the third highest mark in NFL history for a player's first four seasons, behind only Peyton Manning and Dan Marino. Tannehill's two 4,000-yard passing seasons (2015 and 2014) were the only ones recorded by a Dolphins quarterback other than Marino (six times). The Dolphins reached the playoffs in 2016, breaking an eight-year postseason drought.

A native of Big Spring, Texas, Tannehill attended Texas A&M, where he earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He played both quarterback and wide receiver, passing for 5,450 yards and 42 touchdowns and adding 112 receptions for 1,596 yards and 10 scores.

2020 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), opened the season on Monday Night Football with a 97.9 passer rating after completing 29 of 43 passes for 249 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 14 yards on three attempts. He registered his 17th career game-winning drive and his fourth as a member of the Titans. On the team's final drive, which ended with the go-ahead 25-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski, Tannehill completed five of seven attempts for 40 yards. His two touchdown passes included a one-yard pass to tight end MyCole Pruitt in the second quarter and a one-yard touchdown toss to tight end Jonnu Smith in the fourth quarter. He extended his streak to 11 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass and extended his streak to eight consecutive regular season games with at least two touchdown passes. His 43 passing attempts were his most in a game since Sept. 18, 2016 (45 vs. New England).

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), registered his 100th career start in the regular season and recorded a 145.7 passer rating—the seventh best single-game passer rating in franchise history (minimum 20 attempts)—by completing 18 of 24 attempts for 239 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions. It was the best passer rating for the club since Marcus Mariota's 149.8 against Green Bay on Nov. 13, 2016. It was Tannehill's second-highest career passer rating in a game with a minimum of 20 attempts, topped only by his 155.3 against the Oakland Raiders on Sept. 23, 2018. He tied his career high with four touchdown passes, becoming the first Titans quarterback with four or more touchdown passes in a game since Mariota's 2016 performance against Green Bay. Tannehill's four touchdown passes against the Jaguars included a 13-yard pass to tight end Jonnu Smith and a nine-yard strike to wide receiver Corey Davis in the first quarter, a four-yard touchdown to Smith in the second quarter, and finally an 18-yard toss to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the third quarter. He registered his 18th career game with three or more touchdown passes and reached 150 career touchdown passes on his third touchdown pass of the day. He extended his career-best streak and set a franchise record with his ninth consecutive regular season game with at least two touchdown passes. Marcus Mariota established the previous team record with eight consecutive games in 2016 with two touchdown passes. He also extended his streak to 12 consecutive regular season games with at least one touchdown pass, the longest streak by a Titans quarterback since Steve McNair set the franchise record from 2001 to 2002 with 23 consecutive games with a touchdown pass. He posted his NFL-high 10th game with at least two touchdown passes and no interceptions since he stepped into the starting lineup for the Titans in Week 7 of 2019, including the regular season and postseason. Tannehill owns 27 such games in his career. He registered his 18th career game-winning drive and his fifth as a member of the Titans.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), completed 21 of 28 passes (75.0 percent) for 195 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. His passer rating of 129.3 was the ninth-best single-game mark of his career (minimum 20 attempts). He added 42 rushing yards, including a 10-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter and a 23-yard run for a first down in the fourth quarter. He recorded the second game of his career with at least three passing touchdowns and at least one rushing touchdown, matching what he achieved as a member of the Miami Dolphins against the Denver Broncos on Nov. 23, 2014. His three touchdown passes included a 16-yard pass to A.J. Brown on his first attempt of the game, a four-yard touchdown pass to Jonnu Smith in the third quarter and a seven-yard toss to Smith in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), completed 30 of 41 passes for 366 yards with four touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 122.6. His yardage total was the fifth-highest number of his career and his second-highest figure in a Titans uniform. His four touchdown passes tied a career high and included a seven-yard pass to tight end Anthony Firkser and a six-yard strike to wide receiver A.J. Brown in the first quarter, a 22-yard touchdown to wide receiver Adam Humphries in the second quarter, and finally a seven-yard toss to Brown in the fourth quarter. He helped lead the Titans back from a late deficit with his second touchdown pass to A.J. Brown with four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. The extra point tied the score at 36-36. During the game-tying two-minute drive, he completed eight of nine attempts for 76 yards. The Titans' overtime scoring drive registered as his 20th career game-winning drive and his seventh in a Titans uniform. It was his fourth game-winning drive of 2020. He completed his final 10 passes of the game in the fourth quarter and overtime. His 13 touchdown passes through five games tied for the second-highest total in franchise history through the first five games of a season, trailing only George Blanda, who holds the top spot for the franchise with 14 in 1962 and also had 13 in 1966. Tannehill's 364 passing yards ranked 11th for the franchise in its "Titans era" (since 1999). He registered his third career game with three touchdown passes in the first half. He was named FedEx Air Player of the Week for his performance.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), completed 18 of 30 passes for 220 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 104.9. His two touchdown passes included a five-yarder to Corey Davis in the second quarter and a 73-yarder to A.J. Brown in the third quarter. The latter tied for his fourth-longest career pass and his second-longest pass in a Titans uniform. It was his third consecutive game with multiple touchdown passes and his fifth such outing in six contests in 2020. He made his 16th regular season start with the Titans since first appearing in the starting lineup against the Los Angeles Chargers on Oct. 20, 2019. In that span of time, he was 327-of-473 passing (69.1 percent) for 4,188 yards, 37 touchdowns, seven interceptions and a NFL-best passer rating of 116.5. His 116.5 passer rating was the best in NFL history by a player in his first 16 starts with a team (starts only), topping the 111.8 passer rating by Kansas City's Patrick Mahomes in his first 16 starts from 2017-18. He reached 160 career touchdown passes against Pittsburgh.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), completed 18 of 30 passes for 233 yards and two touchdowns with one interception for a passer rating of 92.8. He recorded his fourth consecutive game with at least two touchdown passes and his sixth two-touchdown performance in 2020. His touchdowns included a nine-yard pass to A.J. Brown and a 12-yarder to Corey Davis. He matched his career high with two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter, achieving the feat the feat for the second time as a Titans starter. He had four completions of more than 20 yards, including passes of 27, 24 and 23 yards to Corey Davis and 26 yards to Anthony Firkser. He added a pair of rushing first downs, including a 15-yard run on third-and-five.

➤ Against Indianapolis (11/12), completed 15 of 27 passes for 147 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions (83.4 passer rating). It was his 12th regular season performance in 19 total starts with the Titans in which he completed at least one touchdown pass without throwing an interception. He tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to D'Onta Foreman in the first quarter for his 20th touchdown of 2020, which ranked second in franchise history by a quarterback in the first nine games of a season. The only Titans/Oilers quarterback with more touchdown passes in the season's first nine games was George Blanda, who completed 21 in the Oilers' inaugural 1960 campaign. Tannehill joined Steve McNair (2003) as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to start each of the team's first nine games of a season and to have three or fewer interceptions in those games.

➤ At Baltimore (11/22), completed 22 of 31 passes for 259 yards with two touchdowns and one interception in his 20th regular season start with the Titans. He was credited with his fifth game-winning drive of 2020 and his 21st career game-winning drive, completing all three of his passes for 36 total yards during the game-winning overtime series. He threw a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jonnu Smith in the first quarter and a 14-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver A.J. Brown in the fourth quarter to register his 17th performance in two seasons with the Titans with at least two touchdown passes. He completed a 50-yard pass to wide receiver Corey Davis in the third quarter to notch his fifth pass in 2020 of at least 50 yards and the 33rd such pass of his career. Tannehill also had a 22-yard completion to Davis and a 25-yard completion to A.J. Brown during a touchdown drive in the fourth quarter. He rushed for a two-point conversion late in the fourth quarter, registering his second career two-point conversion and his first since 2019. He added four rushing attempts for 35 yards, including a 21-yard run in the second quarter.

➤ At Indianapolis (11/29), completed 13 of 22 passes for 221 yards and one touchdown. He completed a 69-yard touchdown pass to A.J. Brown in the first quarter, which tied for the ninth-longest pass of his career (eighth-longest touchdown pass). He rushed for a one-yard touchdown in the second quarter, recording his second touchdown run of the season and the 12th of his career. He registered his seventh career game (second in 2020) with at least one passing touchdown and at least one rushing touchdown. He converted a fourth-and-four and set up a touchdown on the next play with a 37-yard strike to Corey Davis in the second quarter.

➤ Against Cleveland (12/6), completed 29 of 45 passes for 389 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 104.8. He also rushed for his second two-point conversion of the season. He threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Corey Davis in the second quarter, a 22-yard touchdown pass to MyCole Pruitt in the third quarter and an eight-yard touchdown pass to Cameron Batson in the fourth quarter. It was the 21st game of his career and his fourth game in 2020 with at least three touchdown passes. He registered his 18th performance in two seasons with the Titans with at least two touchdown passes (ninth of 2020). He tied for fourth place in franchise history with 26 touchdown passes in 2020. The only players in team annals with as many were George Blanda (36 in 1961; 27 in 1962), Warren Moon (33 in 1990) and Marcus Mariota (26 in 2016). His 389 passing yards accounted for the fourth-highest total of his career and his second-highest total with the Titans (391 at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019).

1999). Tied the franchise record he established in 2019 (Nov. 10–Dec. 8, 2019) with four consecutive starts with a 100.0 or better passer rating. Additionally, his ninth start of the season in which he posted a triple-digit passer rating broke his own franchise record of eight such performances in 2019. On his first pass of the game, a 13-yard completion to tight end Geoff Swaim, he passed the 3,000-yard passing mark for the fifth time in his career and for the first time since 2015.

➤ Against Detroit (12/20), registered the first game of his career with five combined passing and rushing touchdowns. He completed 21 of 27 passes for 273 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions, while also rushing for 21 yards and two touchdowns on three attempts. It marked the 12th occasion in franchise history in which a quarterback accounted for five total touchdowns, and it was the first time since Billy Volek passed for four touchdowns and rushed for another score at Oakland on Dec. 19, 2004. His 145.8 passer rating was the second best of his career in a qualifying game (min. 20 attempts) and his best in a Titans uniform. His passer rating also ranked seventh in Titans/Oilers history among qualifiers and was the best individual passer rating since Marcus Mariota's 147.7 at Houston on Nov. 26, 2018. He joined Michael Vick (Nov. 15, 2010) and Jack Kemp (Dec. 4, 1960) as the only players in NFL history with at least three passing touchdowns, at least two rushing touchdowns and a 145.8 or higher passer rating in a single game. Tannehill connected with Corey Davis for a 75-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter for his longest pass of the season, which also tied for the third-longest pass of his career. He added touchdown passes in the fourth quarter of two yards to A.J. Brown and three yards to Darrynton Evans. He tied his career high with two rushing touchdowns, scoring on a 17-yard run in the second quarter and on a three-yard run in the fourth quarter. He tied his career high, set in 2019, with his fourth rushing touchdown of the season, which also gave him 14 career rushing touchdowns. His 17-yarder qualified as the second-longest rushing touchdown of his career. He became the NFL's first player to record 250-plus passing yards, at least three passing touchdowns and at least two rushing touchdowns in a game since Drew Brees achieved the feat against the Atlanta Falcons on Sept. 23, 2018. Tannehill became the third player in franchise history to pass for 30 touchdowns in a season (36 by George Blanda in 1961; 33 by Warren Moon in 1990). He set a franchise record with his fifth consecutive game with a passer rating of at least 100.0, breaking the record he established in 2019.

➤ At Green Bay (12/27), completed 11 of 24 passes for 121 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. He completed a 12-yard touchdown pass to Jonnu Smith in the second quarter to register his 12th consecutive game with a touchdown pass. He added 55 rushing yards on three attempts, including a 45-yard touchdown in the third quarter that gave him a career-high five rushing touchdowns on the season, topping the four rushing touchdowns he had in 2019. His 45-yard touchdown run was the third-longest rushing touchdown by any quarterback in 2020 through Week 16, and it was the longest rushing touchdown by a Titans quarterback since Marcus Mariota's 87-yarder against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2015. He logged his second consecutive game with at least one passing touchdown and at least one rushing touchdown and his ninth career game accomplishing the feat. With his 32nd passing touchdown and his fifth rushing touchdown combining for 37 total touchdowns, he established a new single-season franchise record for total combined touchdowns. The previous club mark was held by George Blanda, who had 36 (all passing) in 1961.

➤ At Houston (1/3), completed 18 of 27 passes for 216 yards and a touchdown without throwing an interception. His 103.3 passer rating gave him 11 games in 2020 with a passer rating of at least 100.0. He added seven rushing attempts for 38 yards and two touchdowns, crossing the goal line on a pair of five-yard runs in the second half. His two rushing touchdowns tied his career high and gave him five rushing touchdowns in a three-game span. It increased his career high to seven total rushing touchdowns in 2020, the most by a Titans quarterback since Vince Young had seven in 2006. With his 33rd touchdown pass of 2020, a four-yarder to A.J. Brown in the second quarter, he tied Warren Moon (33 in 1990) for second place on the franchise's single-season passing touchdown list. Only George Blanda (36 in 1961) had more touchdown passes in a season in team annals. With 3,819 passing yards in 2020, he moved into third place on the franchise single-season passing list. Tannehill set a franchise record with 40 combined passing touchdowns (33) and rushing touchdowns (seven) in a season. Hit total tied for the fifth-most in the NFL in 2020. He joined Josh Allen (2020), Lamar Jackson (2019), Cam Newton (2015), Daunte Culpepper (2000) and Steve Young (1994) as the only players in NFL history with at least 33 passing touchdowns and at least seven rushing touchdowns in the same season. He finished the regular season with at least one touchdown pass in 13 consecutive games. He registered his 22nd career game-winning drive, completing a 52-yard pass to Brown with 10 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to set up the game-winning field goal by Sam Sloman. It was his sixth game-winning drive of 2020 and his ninth game-winning drive in as a member of the Titans.

➤ Against Baltimore (1/10), completed 18 of 26 passes for 165 yards with one touchdown and one interception (83.0 passer rating). It was his 14th consecutive game with a touchdown pass, including the 2020 regular season and playoffs. He threw a 28-yard pass to A.J. Brown in the first quarter and then found Brown for an 11-yard touchdown pass later in the same drive. His sixth career postseason touchdown pass with the Titans tied Steve McNair for second place on the franchise's postseason touchdown passing list, trailing only Warren Moon (15).

LEADING VETERAN QBS ON NEW TEAMS

In 2019, Ryan Tannehill set a new standard for veteran quarterbacks in their first year with a new team. Tannehill, who was acquired in a trade after seven years with the Miami Dolphins, had a passer rating of 117.5. No quarterback has ever finished with a passer rating that high in his first season with a new team after playing at least one year with another team.

Brett Favre held the distinction until 2019. In 2009, Favre's 107.2 passer rating with the Minnesota Vikings became the best figure in league annals by a veteran in his first campaign with a new club.

Highest passer rating in a veteran's first season with a new team:

Player	Season	New Team	Former Team	Rating

BAUGH, MONTANA & TANNEHILL

During the 2019 season, Titans quarterback Ryan Tannehill accomplished a statistical feat only reached previously by a pair of Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterbacks.

Tannehill's season statistics included a 70.3 completion percentage and an average of 9.6 yards per passing attempt.

In the history of the NFL, only two previous qualifying passers have enjoyed a season in which they completed at least 70.0 percent of their passes and averaged at least 9.0 yards per attempt: Sammy Baugh and Joe Montana.

Montana led the San Francisco 49ers to a Super Bowl XXIV title and won the NFL MVP award following a 1989 season in which he completed 70.2 percent of his passes (271 of 386) and averaged 9.1 yards per attempt (3,521 yards).

Baugh directed the Washington Redskins to the NFL Championship game in 1945, while completing 70.3 percent of his passes (128 of 182) and averaging 9.2 yards per attempt (1,669 yards).

Players in NFL history (through 2019) with a completion rate of at least 70.0 percent and a passing average of at least 9.0 yards per attempt (qualifiers only):

Player	Team	Year	Comp %	Yards/Att
Ryan Tannehill	Tennessee	2019	70.3	9.6
Joe Montana	San Francisco	1989	70.2	9.1

RYAN TANNEHILL'S GAME-WINNING DRIVES

In his NFL career, quarterback Ryan Tannehill has led 22 game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or overtime, including the regular season and postseason. That includes three games in 2019, his first season with the Titans: a 23-20 win against the Los Angeles Chargers in his first start with the team (10/20), a 27-23 victory against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (10/27) and a 35-32 win against the Kansas City Chiefs (11/10). He had and NFL-high six game-winning drives in 2020—at Denver (9/14), against Jacksonville (9/20), at Minnesota (9/27), against Houston (10/18), at Baltimore (11/22) and at Houston (1/3).

Per the Elias Sports Bureau, a game-winning drive is defined as when a quarterback's team scores on an offensive possession to put the team ahead (whether tied or from behind) for good in the fourth quarter or overtime.

2 TD PASSES W/ LESS THAN 2 INTS

To end the 2019 regular season, Ryan Tannehill completed multiple touchdown passes for seven consecutive games, one game shy of Marcus Mariota's 2016 franchise record of eight consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes.

However, Tannehill did establish a franchise benchmark in his final seven contests for most consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions. Over those seven games, he had two total interceptions—one each on Dec. 8 (at Oakland) and Dec. 15 (vs. Houston)—to go along with 19 touchdown passes and a 129.8 passer rating.

Most consecutive games in a season in franchise history with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions:

Player	Season	Consec. Games
1. Ryan Tannehill	2019	7
2. Ryan Tannehill	2020	5
3. Marcus Mariota	2016	4
Warren Moon	1990	4
4. (multiple tied)		3

Tannehill's streak was the best in the NFL in 2019. Drew Brees, Kirk Cousins and Jacoby Brissett had runs of four consecutive games with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions, tying for second.

Most consecutive games in 2019 with multiple touchdown passes and fewer than two interceptions:

Player	Team	Consec. Games
1. Ryan Tannehill	Tennessee Titans	7
2. Drew Brees	New Orleans Saints	4
Kirk Cousins	Minnesota Vikings	4
Jacoby Brissett	Indianapolis Colts	4
5. (several tied)		3

GAMES WITH A 130 PASSER RATING

During the 2019 campaign, Ryan Tannehill produced a streak of four consecutive games with a passer rating greater than 130. The run included a 133.9 passer rating against the Kansas City Chiefs (Nov. 10), a 155.8 against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Nov. 24), a 131.2 at the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 1) and a 140.4 at the Oakland Raiders (Dec. 8).

In franchise history, no quarterback prior to Tannehill had ever produced four consecutive starts with a passer rating of 130 or better (minimum 10 attempts per game). Marcus Mariota (2016) was the most recent of six Titans/Oilers signal callers to do so for three games before Tannehill.

Most consecutive games in a single season with a 130 passer rating, franchise history (minimum 10 attempts each game):

Player	Dates	Games
1. Ryan Tannehill	Nov. 10–Dec. 8, 2019	4
2. Marcus Mariota	Nov. 13–Nov. 27, 2016	3
Ryan Fitzpatrick	Nov. 10–Nov. 24, 2013	3
Steve McNair	Dec. 2–Dec. 16, 2001	3
Warren Moon	Oct. 22–Nov. 5, 1989	3
Dan Pastorini	Nov. 11–Nov. 22, 1979	3
George Blanda	Dec. 3–Dec. 17, 1961	3

Tannehill joined Russell Wilson (2015) and John Hadl (1973) as the only players in NFL history to register four consecutive games with a minimum of 10 pass attempts and a passer rating of at least 130.

Most consecutive games in a single season with a 130 passer rating, NFL history (through 2019; minimum 10 attempts each game):

Player	Team	Dates	Games
1. Ryan Tannehill	Tennessee	Nov. 10–Dec. 8, 2019	4
Russell Wilson	Seattle	Nov. 22–Dec. 13, 2015	4
John Hadl	L.A. Rams	Sept. 16–Oct. 7, 1973	4
4. (several tied)			3

Tannehill registered a total of six single-game passer ratings of 130 or greater in only 10 starts during the 2019 regular season. He tied Wilson with the most such performances in 2019 and also tied for the most by any NFL starting quarterback in any season since 1960. Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers (2011) and Dallas' Tony Romo (2014) are the only other quarterbacks to accomplish the feat.

In franchise history, former Oilers quarterback Chris Chandler previously had the most season games with a 130-plus passer rating, with four in 1995.

Most starts by a quarterback with a passer rating of 130.0 or greater, 1960–2019:

Player	Season	Team	Games
1. Ryan Tannehill	2019	Tennessee Titans	6
Russell Wilson	2019	Seattle Seahawks	6
Tony Romo	2014	Dallas Cowboys	6
Aaron Rodgers	2011	Green Bay Packers	6
5. (seven tied)			5

MOST TD PASSES IN A POSTSEASON

During the 2019 playoffs, Ryan Tannehill completed at least one touchdown pass in all three of the team's games and totaled five touchdown passes. Tannehill tied Warren Moon's 1991 franchise record for the most touchdown passes in a single postseason.

Most touchdown passes in a single postseason, franchise history:

Player	Season	TD Passes
1. Ryan Tannehill	2019	5
Warren Moon	1991	5
3. Marcus Mariota	2017	4
Warren Moon	1992	4
Dan Pastorini	1978	4
6. Steve McNair	2002	3
George Blanda	1960	3

MORE TITANS QUARTERBACKS

5 - QB LOGAN WOODSIDE

6-1, 213, 1st Year, Toledo

➤ Logan Woodside was re-signed by the Titans as a free agent on April 8, 2019 after spending three weeks on the Titans practice squad during the 2018 season.

➤ He spent the entire 2019 season on the Titans' practice squad/injured list.

➤ Prior to rejoining the Titans during the 2019 offseason, he had a stint with the Alliance of American Football League's San Antonio Commanders. In seven AAF games, he completed 116-of-201 passes for 1,385 yards and seven touchdowns.

➤ Woodside was originally selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the seventh round (249th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.

➤ A native of Frankfort, Ky., he established program records at Toledo in passing yards (10,514), touchdowns (93), passing efficiency (162.87) and 300-yard games (17) during a four-year career. His 93 touchdown passes ranks fifth all-time in MAC history.

➤ As a senior for the Rockets in 2017, he led the MAC in completion percentage (64.2), passing efficiency (162.2), touchdowns (28), passing yards (3,882), yards per completion (14.7), and yards per attempt (9.45). He was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year.

➤ Woodside attended Franklin County High School (Frankfort, Ky.) where he completed 138-of-212 passes for 2,951 yards and a school-record 41 touchdowns as a senior.

2020 Notes:

➤ In 2020, he spent the entire campaign on the 53-man roster as the Titans' backup quarterback behind Ryan Tannehill. He appeared in six games during the regular season, attempting three passes with one completion for seven yards. He added seven rushing attempts for 10 yards.

➤ Against Indianapolis (11/12), made his NFL debut late in the fourth quarter but did not attempt a pass.

➤ At Baltimore (11/22), completed his first NFL pass, a seven-yard strike to Nick Westbrook-Ikhine on a fake punt in the second quarter. The play resulted in a first down and ultimately led to a field goal.

➤ At Jacksonville (12/13), saw action in the fourth quarter and recorded an 18-yard rushing attempt for a first down.

#22 ■ RB DERRICK HENRY

6-3, 247, 5th Year, Alabama

Click for complete bio

Running back Derrick Henry completed his fifth NFL season after receiving a multi-year contract extension in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 45th overall pick in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Henry was named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year in 2020 after an historic campaign in which he totaled 378 rushing attempts for 2,027 yards and 17 touchdowns. His rushing yardage total established a new franchise record and led the NFL. As the eighth player in NFL annals to hit the 2,000-yard mark, his 2,027 yards finished fifth on the all-time single-season rushing charts. He was honored with his second consecutive Pro Bowl, named first-team Associated Press All-Pro, and won the FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year.

Henry was a first-time team captain in 2020. He started all 16 regular season games for the first time and became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive years. He was the first player in more than 50 years to lead the league in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons and the fifth player ever to do so. The most recent prior to him was Cleveland's Leroy Kelly from 1967 to 1968.

Henry's 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020 set a career high and finished as the second-best total in franchise history behind Earl Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.

In 2019, Henry was named to his first Pro Bowl and added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in rushing. In 15 games, he totaled 1,540 yards on 303 carries (5.1 avg.), joining Billy Cannon (AFL, 1961), Campbell (1978-80) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the only running backs in franchise history to lead their respective leagues in rushing. At the time, Henry's single-season total ranked fourth in franchise annals behind Johnson's 2009 total (2,006) and Campbell's 1979 (1,697) and 1980 (1,934) performances.

With 16 rushing touchdowns in 2019, Henry tied for the NFL lead (Aaron Jones). Adding his two receiving touchdowns, his 18 total touchdowns were third in the NFL and tied for second in franchise annals (19 by Campbell in 1979; 18 by Bill Groman in 1961).

Henry's performance late in the 2019 season was instrumental in the team's run to the AFC championship game. Over the final six games of the regular season plus three playoff appearances, Henry registered seven 100-yard games. During a three-game stretch (Dec. 29 at Houston, Jan. 4 at New England and Jan. 11 at Baltimore), he became the first player in NFL history to rush for at least 180 yards in three consecutive regular season and/or postseason games.

Henry authored his first career 1,000-yard season in 2018 and the 28th 1,000-yard rushing season in franchise history, totaling 1,059 yards and 12 touchdowns on 215 carries—all then-career highs.

His 2018 rushing yardage ranked second in the AFC to Joe Mixon's 1,168 yards, and he finished seventh in the NFL. Henry's 12 rushing touchdowns tied James Connor for third place in the NFL behind Todd Gurley (17) and Alvin Kamara (14).

Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for December 2018. His 625 rushing yards in the month were the most by any NFL player in any month during the season.

Against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Henry recorded one of the greatest single games in franchise history in front of a national television audience. He broke Johnson's single-game franchise record (228) with 238 rushing yards, including a 99-yard touchdown run. He joined Tony Dorsett as the only two players in NFL history to rush for a 99-yard score.

In 2017, Henry shared time in the Titans backfield with DeMarco Murray. Henry led the team with 744 rushing yards on 176 carries, and he added 11 receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. His five rushing touchdowns tied for second on the club.

As a rookie in 2016, Henry played in 15 games with one start, splitting reps in the backfield with Murray. He carried the ball 110 times for 490 yards and five touchdowns and added 137 yards on 13 receptions. Henry became the third rookie for the franchise in the "Titans era" to score at least five touchdowns in a season, joining Vince Young (seven rushing touchdowns in 2006) and Johnson (nine rushing and one receiving in 2008).

The Heisman Trophy winner played three seasons (2013–2015) at the University of Alabama, where he set numerous school and SEC records while helping his team win a National Championship in 2015. He played in 39 games and totaled 602 carries for 3,591 yards and 42 rushing touchdowns and added 285 yards on 17 career receptions with three receiving scores. During Alabama's victory over Clemson in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship, he broke Shaun Alexander's record for most career rushing yards in Alabama history.

In his final collegiate season, Henry rushed for an Alabama and Southeastern Conference record 2,219 yards, which led the nation and ranked fifth in FBS history. He recorded 100-yard rushing games 10 times and had four 200-yard games during the season. His 28 rushing touchdowns were a national best and an SEC record, snapping Tim Tebow and Tre Mason's old mark of 23. In addition to the Heisman, he also won the Doak Walker Award, Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award, among a multitude of other honors.

2020 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), rushed for 116 yards on 31 carries on Monday Night Football to notch his 14th career 100-yard rushing game (regular season and playoffs). He extended his streak to 10 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards. His 31 rushing attempts made up the third-highest total of his career in the regular season.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), rushed for 84 yards on 25 carries and became the fifth player in franchise history to reach the 4,000-yard career rushing mark (4,033). He registered his third consecutive regular season game with at least 25 carries, dating back Dec. 29, 2019.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), rushed for 119 yards on 26 carries with two touchdowns, notching his 15th career 100-yard rushing game (regular season and playoffs). He became the fifth player in NFL history to have 25 or more rushing attempts in each of his team's first three games of a season, joining Buffalo's O.J. Simpson (1975), Dallas' Emmitt Smith (1994), Indianapolis' Edgerrin James (2002) and Houston's Arian Foster (2012). Henry passed Lorenzo White (4,079 career rushing yards) for fourth place on the franchise's all-time rushing list. He scored his first touchdown of the season on a one-yard plunge in the third quarter and added another one-yard touchdown run on the following series. He tallied his ninth career regular season game with at least two touchdown runs. It was his 11th career regular season game with at least two total touchdowns. He became the second player in franchise history to record 12 consecutive regular season games with at least 80 scrimmage yards, joining Chris Johnson (12 from 2009 to 2010) as the only Titans/Oilers to do so. Henry added 11 receiving yards on two catches to give him 130 total scrimmage yards, marking his 10th career regular season game with at least 130 scrimmage yards. He became the fourth player in franchise history to hit 40 career rushing touchdowns, joining Earl Campbell (73), Eddie George (64) and Chris Johnson (50).

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), rushed for 57 yards and two touchdowns on 19 attempts. It was his 10th career game with at least two rushing touchdowns. He registered a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter and added a nine-yard score in the fourth quarter. He rushed for two touchdowns in consecutive games for the third time in his career.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), totaled 22 carries for 212 yards and two touchdowns, recording his third career 200-yard rushing game. It was his second-highest rushing total for a single game (238). His 212 rushing yards were fifth in franchise history and put him in ownership of three of the top six single-game rushing performances in team annals. He scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime on a five-yard run out of the Wildcat formation, registering the second "walk-off" overtime touchdown run in franchise history and the first since Vince Young's 39-yard run to win in overtime at Houston on Dec. 10, 2006. Henry added 52 receiving yards, including a 53-yard reception—the third-longest catch of his career—in overtime, to give him 264 scrimmage yards. The scrimmage yardage total placed fourth in franchise history, and it was the most scrimmage yards by a Titans player in a game since Chris Johnson's 284 on Sept. 20, 2009. Henry's total of 264 scrimmage yards was the most by any NFL player since the New York Giants' Saquon Barkley had 279 at Washington on Dec. 22, 2019. Henry scored on a 94-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, tying Chris Johnson for the second-longest run in franchise history behind Henry's own 99-yard touchdown run (Dec. 6, 2018 vs. Jacksonville). Henry became the fifth NFL player to record two career rushing touchdowns of 90 or more yards, joining Bo Jackson, Ahman Green, Chris Johnson and Lamar Miller. Henry joined Miller (two 97-yard touchdown runs) as the only players to ever record multiple touchdown runs of at least 94 yards. With five 70-yard (or longer) career rushing touchdowns, Henry tied Barry Sanders (five) and O.J. Simpson (five) for the third-most in NFL history behind only Chris Johnson (seven) and Adrian Peterson (seven). Henry became the first player in NFL history to record a game with 200-plus rushing yards in three consecutive seasons. He previously accomplished the feat against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018 (238) and at Houston on Dec. 29, 2019 (211). He became the NFL's 15th player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to record at least three career 200-yard rushing games and the first to reach the mark since Jay Ajayi had his third 200-yard rushing game in 2016. Henry joined Chris Johnson (Sept. 20, 2009 vs. Houston) as the only NFL players since 1975 with a rushing attempt of at least 90 yards and a reception of at least 50 yards in a game. He notched his 16th career 100-yard rushing game, including regular season and playoffs, and his third of 2020. He recorded his third consecutive game with at least two rushing touchdowns, joining Earl Campbell (1980) and Chris Johnson (2009) as the franchise's only players to do so. Henry joined Eddie George (1996–2003) as the franchise's only players to begin their careers with at least five rushing touchdowns in five consecutive seasons. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week and the FedEx Ground Player of the Week for his performance.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), totaled 20 rushing attempts for 75 yards and one touchdown. He scored on a one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter, reaching the end zone for the seventh time in 2020. It was his fourth consecutive game with at least one rushing touchdown. Reached 75 rushing yards for the fifth time in 2020 and for the 13th time in his last 15 games.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), totaled 112 yards and one touchdown on 18 rushing attempts, notching his fourth 100-yard rushing game of 2020 and his 17th career 100-yard rushing game (including regular season and playoff games). He scored his eighth rushing touchdown of the campaign on a three-yard run in the second quarter. On the scoring drive, he carried the ball seven times for 46 yards. It was his fifth consecutive game with at least one rushing touchdown. It marks the fifth such streak in franchise history, matching a feat he achieved in 2019 to tie Earl Campbell (1979) and DeMarco Murray (2016) for the second-longest streak in team annals.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), led the team with 21 rushing attempts for 68 yards, including a 26-yard run on a touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Indianapolis (11/12), totaled 103 yards on 19 rushing attempts and added a six-yard reception. He registered his fifth 100-yard rushing game of 2020 and his 18th career 100-yard rushing game (including regular season and playoffs).

➤ At Baltimore (11/22), rushed for 133 yards and a touchdown on 28 attempts, registering his 19th career 100-yard rushing game (including regular season and playoffs) and his sixth 100-yard rushing game of 2020. He scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime on a 29-yard run. It was his second "walk-off" overtime touchdown run of the season and only the third touchdown of its kind in franchise history. He accomplished the feat earlier in the season on Oct. 18 against Houston on a five-yard run. The franchise's only other game-winning rushing touchdown in overtime came on Vince Young's 39-yard run at Houston on Dec. 10, 2006. Henry became the first player in NFL history to produce more than one overtime touchdown run in a season. He joined LaDainian Tomlinson as the NFL's only players with multiple career touchdown runs in overtime. Tomlinson had three during his career. Henry's 24-yard rushing attempt in the fourth quarter put him over the 1,000-yard mark for the third consecutive season and made him the fourth player in franchise history to record three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons, along with Earl Campbell (1978–1981), Eddie George (1996–2000) and Chris Johnson (2008–2013). Henry's overtime touchdown improved his career total to 50 touchdowns (rushing and receiving), becoming the fifth player in franchise history to score at least 50 career touchdowns of any kind (Eddie George, Earl Campbell, Chris Johnson and Charlie Hennigan). Henry was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Week.

➤ At Indianapolis (11/29), totaled 27 rushing attempts for 178 yards and three touchdowns. He hit the 100-yard mark on his 31-yard carry in the second quarter to notch his third consecutive 100-yard game. He registered his third career game with at least three rushing touchdowns with a 12-yard touchdown run in the first quarter and scoring runs of one yard and 11 yards in the second quarter. It was his 12th career game with two or more rushing touchdowns. He joined Earl Campbell (73), Eddie George (64) and Chris Johnson (50) as the only players in franchise history with 50 rushing touchdowns. On his second touchdown of the day, he passed Charlie Hennigan (51) for fourth place on the franchise's all-time touchdowns list (53) to trail only George (74), Campbell (73) and Johnson (58) on the franchise list. He went over the 5,000-yard career rushing mark on his 31-yard carry in the second quarter, becoming the fourth player in franchise history to reach the plateau, joining George (10,009), Campbell (8,574) and Johnson (7,965). In the first half alone, he totaled 17 rushing attempts for 140 yards and three touchdowns to surpass his previous first-half career high of 129 rushing yards against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, 2018. Henry became the third player in franchise history to rush for 1,200 yards and 10 touchdowns in at least two consecutive seasons, joining Campbell (1978–1981) and Johnson

(2009–2010). He recorded his 20th consecutive game in the regular season and playoffs with at least 18 rushing attempts, the second-longest streak of its kind in the NFL since 1948. The only player with more consecutive 18-carry games in the regular season and postseason was Emmitt Smith, whose streak was 23 games with the Dallas Cowboys from 1995 to 1996. Henry extended his streak to eight consecutive regular season road games with at least 100 rushing yards. Going back to 1960, the streak is tied for the second-longest continuous stretch of its kind, trailing Barry Sanders' 10-game streak from 1996 to 1997 and tying Johnson's eight-game streak from 2009 to 2010. With 178 rushing yards and seven receiving yards (two receptions), his 185 scrimmage yards ranked fifth in his career. Additionally, Henry became the fourth player in NFL history with three games with at least 175 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns in their first five seasons, joining Jim Brown (five games), LaDainian Tomlinson (three) and Adrian Peterson (three). Henry was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Week for the second consecutive week.

➤ Against Cleveland (12/6), totaled 60 yards on 15 rushing attempts (4.0 avg.) and added a nine-yard reception. He had his streak of 14 consecutive games without a fumble ended in the first quarter.

➤ At Jacksonville (12/13), totaled 26 rushing attempts for 215 yards and a pair of touchdowns, logging his fourth career game with at least 200 rushing yards and two touchdowns. He became the NFL's first player to record four such performances, breaking Jim Brown's NFL record of three games that was later matched by Barry Sanders and LaDainian Tomlinson. With four career 200-yard rushing games, he tied Brown, Earl Campbell, Sanders and Tomlinson for fourth place in NFL history behind Adrian Peterson (six), O.J. Simpson (six) and Tiki Barber (five). He became the third player in NFL history with four 200-yard rushing games in his first five seasons, joining Campbell and Tomlinson. He also became the NFL's fifth player to rush for at least 175 and two touchdowns three times in a season, joining Jamal Lewis (2003), Joe Morris (1986), Tomlinson (2006) and Ricky Williams (2002). Henry's 215 rushing yards ranked fifth in franchise history for a single game and were the second-most in his career. He registered his ninth consecutive road game with at least 100 rushing yards, passing Chris Johnson (eight games from 2009-10) for the second-longest such streak in NFL history and trailing only Sanders (10 games from 1996-97). With two touchdown runs against the Jaguars, which went for 36 yards and one yard, Henry recorded his 51st and 52nd career rushing touchdowns, passing Johnson (50) for third place on the franchise's all-time rushing touchdowns list. Against the Jaguars he accounted for five rushing attempts for 75 yards and one touchdown on a single drive in the second quarter. He took a handoff on all five of the plays on the possession, which included a 22-yard carry and a 36-yard touchdown to cap the series. He had 15 rushing attempts for 122 yards and one touchdown in the first half alone. It marked his fourth career game and his second game of 2020 (Nov. 29 at Indianapolis) with at least 100 yards in the first half. His 47-yard rushing attempt in the third quarter set up a Titans touchdown on the next play and was his ninth career rushing attempt of at least 47 yards (second of 2020). Henry was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Week.

➤ Against Detroit (12/20), recorded 24 rushing attempts for 147 yards and one touchdown, logging his ninth 100-yard rushing game of 2020 and his 19th career 100-yard game in the regular season (22nd including playoffs). His effort included a long rushing attempt of 33 yards, which set up a touchdown in the fourth quarter. He scored his 15th touchdown of the season on a three-yard run in the first quarter. With the touchdown, he joined Terrell Davis (1997-98), Shaun Alexander (2004-05) and Larry Johnson (2005-06) as the only players in NFL history to rush for 1,500 yards and 15 touchdowns in two consecutive seasons. He established a new career high for rushing yards in a season, surpassing the 1,540 yards he had in 2019. He registered his first career two-point conversion on a carry in the fourth quarter. Henry was named the FedEx Ground Player of the Week.

➤ At Green Bay (12/27), totaled 98 rushing yards on 23 attempts. With 1,777 yards, he passed Earl Campbell's 1979 total of 1,697 yards to rank third on the franchise's all-time single-season rushing list. He recorded his 11th game of the season with at least 20 carries, the most by an NFL player in a season since Ezekiel Elliott had 12 such games in 2016.

➤ At Houston (1/3), totaled 34 rushing attempts for a franchise-record 250 yards with two touchdowns. He broke his own club record of 238 rushing yards, established against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018. Henry's 250 rushing yards tied for the 13th-best single-game total in the NFL since 1948. On a six-yard run in the fourth quarter, he became the eighth player in NFL history to rush for at least 2,000 yards in a season (2,027). He registered his ninth career rushing touchdown of 50-plus yards since entering the NFL in 2016, sprinting for a 52-yard touchdown in the second quarter, and he added a six-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. He went over the 200-yard mark on a 45-yard run in the third quarter. In doing so became the first player in NFL history with three 200-yard rushing games against a single opponent, and he did so in three consecutive games against the Texans. With 34 rushing attempts, he set a career high in the regular season. He was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week.

➤ Against Baltimore (1/10), rushed for 40 yards on 18 attempts, improving his career postseason numbers to 136 carries for 670 yards. His 670 postseason rushing yards ranked fourth in NFL history for a player's first six playoff games behind only Terrell Davis (871), John Riggins (759) and Eric Dickerson (674).

DERRICK HENRY IN 2020

- Led the NFL and set a franchise record with 2,027 rushing yards in 2020, becoming the eighth player in league annals to rush for at least 2,000 yards in a season. His 2,027 rushing yards gave him the fifth-highest total in NFL history behind Eric Dickerson's 2,105 (1984), Adrian Peterson's 2,097 (2012), Jamal Lewis' 2,066 (2003) and Barry Sanders' 2,053 (1997). Henry broke Chris Johnson's franchise mark of 2,006 rushing yards in 2009.
- Named the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year and was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl. He won his second consecutive FedEx Ground Player of the Year Award and added first-team AP All-Pro honors. Additionally, he earned first-team All-Pro honors from Pro Football Focus, Pro Football Writers of America and Sporting News and was the 101 Awards AFC Offensive Player of the Year.
- Became the first player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2006-07) to lead the NFL in rushing yards in consecutive seasons. Henry previously led the league in 2019 with 1,540 rushing yards.
- Became the fifth all-time NFL player to lead the NFL in rushing yards, attempts and rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons. It is a feat that had not been attained since Cleveland's Leroy Kelly did it from 1967 to 1968. The only other players to achieve it are Jim Brown (1958-59), Steve Van Buren (1947-49) and Bill Paschal (1943-44).
- Established a single-game franchise record with 250 rushing yards on Jan. 3 at Houston. He broke his own club record of 238 rushing yards, established against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018. Henry's 250 rushing yards tied for the 13th-best single-game total in the NFL since 1948.
- Became the first player in NFL history with five career games with at least 200 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns.
- Became the fourth player in NFL history with at least five career 200-yard rushing games, joining O.J. Simpson (six), Adrian Peterson (six) and Tiki Barber (five).
- Set a career high with 17 rushing touchdowns in 2020, finishing with the second-best total in franchise history behind Earl Campbell's 19 rushing touchdowns in 1979.
- Finished the 2020 season with 1,221 rushing yards in road games, the most by any NFL running back since 1948. The previous high was held by Eric Dickerson, who had 1,087 rushing yards in road games for the Los Angeles Rams in 1984.

- Dating back to 2019, he had a streak of nine consecutive road games with at least 100 rushing yards, passing Chris Johnson (eight games from 2009-10) for the second-longest such streak in NFL history behind only Barry Sanders' 10-game road streak from 1996-97).
- Became the fifth player in NFL history with three 200-yard rushing games in a season, joining Earl Campbell (four in 1980), O.J. Simpson (1973), Tiki Barber (2005) and Jay Ajayi (2016).
- Became the first NFL player since LaDainian Tomlinson (2002-07) and the ninth player in NFL history to record at least three consecutive seasons in which he rushed for at least 1,000 yards and 12 touchdowns.
- Finished the season with 2,141 scrimmage yards (2,027 rushing and 114 receiving), which ranks second in franchise history behind Chris Johnson's 2,509 scrimmage yards in 2009.
- Registered 10 games in 2020 with at least 100 rushing yards to tie Earl Campbell (1980) for the third-most in franchise history. Only Campbell in 1979 (11) and Chris Johnson in 2009 (12) had more 100-yard rushing games in a Titans/Oilers season than Henry. Henry's 10 100-yard games in 2020 were the most in the NFL since Dallas running back DeMarco Murray had 12 in 2014.
- Became the NFL's first player to rush for at least 175 and two touchdowns four times in a season.
- Joined Terrell Davis (1997-98), Shaun Alexander (2004-05) and Larry Johnson (2005-06) as the only players in NFL history to rush for 1,500 yards and 15 touchdowns in two consecutive seasons.
- Established a streak of 20 consecutive games in the regular season and playoffs with at least 18 rushing attempts, the second-longest streak of its kind in the NFL since 1948. The only player with more consecutive 18-carry games in the regular season and postseason was Emmitt Smith, whose streak was 23 games with the Dallas Cowboys from 1995 to 1996.
- Became the first player in NFL history to produce more than one overtime touchdown run in a season. He joined LaDainian Tomlinson as the NFL's only players with multiple career touchdown runs in overtime. Tomlinson had three during his career.
- Joined Bo Jackson, Ahman Green, Chris Johnson and Lamar Miller as the only NFL players to record two career rushing touchdowns of at least 90 yards. Henry joined Miller (two 97-yard touchdown runs) as the only players to ever record multiple touchdown runs of at least 94 yards.

DECEMBER TO REMEMBER

In five games in the month of December 2018, Derrick Henry's rushing totals included 97 carries for 625 yards and eight touchdowns. His 625 yards were the most by any NFL player in any calendar month in 2018.

Additionally, Henry authored one of only four calendar months for the franchise since 1970 in which a player rushed for at least 600 yards. Chris Johnson (800 rushing yards in November 2009) and Earl Campbell (633 in October 1980; 662 in November 1980) were the organization's only other players to accomplish the feat in that timespan.

Henry's December rushing totals included 40 yards against the New York Jets (Dec. 2), a franchise-record 238 yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars (Dec. 6), 170 yards at the New York Giants (Dec. 16), 84 yards against the Washington Redskins (Dec. 22) and 93 yards against the Indianapolis Colts (Dec. 30).

For his efforts, Henry was named AFC Offensive Player of the Month.

Titans/Oilers with 500 rushing yards in any calendar month from 1970-2019 (includes playoffs):

RECORD-SETTING NIGHT

On Dec. 6, 2018, Derrick Henry had one of the most memorable rushing performances in NFL history on Thursday Night Football. He rushed for a then-team-record 238 yards and four touchdowns (tied franchise record), including a 99-yard touchdown run.

WATCH: Highlights from Derrick Henry's performance on 12/6/18

Henry's 238 rushing yards set a new franchise record, breaking Chris Johnson's mark of 228 yards against the Jaguars on Nov. 1, 2009. It was the highest single-game rushing total in the NFL in 2018 and the league's highest total since Doug Martin's 251 rushing yards for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers against the Oakland Raiders on Nov. 4, 2012.

Henry later broke his own record with 250 rushing yard at Houston on Jan. 3, 2021 to take possession of five of the top eight single-game rushing totals in team annals.

Most rushing yards in a game, franchise history:

Player	Date	Opponent	Rushing Yards
1. Derrick Henry	1/3/21	at Houston	250
2. Derrick Henry	12/6/18	Jacksonville	238
3. Chris Johnson	11/1/09	Jacksonville	228
4. Eddie George	8/31/97	Oakland	216
Billy Cannon	12/10/61	at New York	216
6. Derrick Henry	12/13/20	at Jacksonville	215
7. Derrick Henry	10/18/20	Houston	212
8. Derrick Henry	12/29/19	at Houston	211
9. Earl Campbell	11/16/80	at Chicago	203
Earl Campbell	10/19/80	Tampa Bay	203

In the second quarter, Henry took a handoff from Marcus Mariota inside his own one-yard line and raced 99 yards for a touchdown. It was the second 99-yard run in NFL history, tying Tony Dorsett's record-setting touchdown run for the Dallas Cowboys against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. It was also the team record, topping Johnson's 94-yard touchdown run against the New York Jets on Dec. 17, 2012. The only other runs in franchise history of at least 90 yards were Johnson's 91-yard rush against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009 and a 91-yarder by Sid Blanks against the Jets on Dec. 13, 1964.

Henry's 99-yard touchdown run tied for the longest scrimmage play in NFL history. It was the 15th such play, including his and Dorsett's runs and 13 passing plays. The last 99-yard scrimmage play before Henry's was New York Giants wide receiver Victor Cruz's 99-yard reception from Eli Manning against the New York Jets on Dec. 24, 2011.

Longest runs from scrimmage in NFL history:

Player	Team	Date	Opponent	Rushing Yards
1. Derrick Henry	Tennessee	12/6/18	Jacksonville	99t
Tony Dorsett	Dallas	1/3/83	Minnesota	99t
3. Ronald Jones	Tampa Bay	11/15/20	Carolina	98t

Andy Uram	Green Bay	10/8/39	Chi. Cardinals	97t
Bob Gage	Pittsburgh	12/4/49	Chi. Bears	97t

Henry scored on a three-yard run in the first quarter, a 99-yard run in the second quarter, a 16-yard run in the third quarter, and finally a 54-yard run in the third quarter. He tied the franchise record and became the third player in franchise history to rush for four touchdowns in a game, joining Earl Campbell (against Miami on Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (against Cleveland on Dec. 9, 1990).

The only franchise player with more overall touchdowns in a game than Henry was Oilers running back Billy Cannon, who had five total touchdowns (three rushing, two receiving) at the New York Titans on Dec. 10, 1961. Henry became the first NFL player with four rushing touchdowns in a game since New England Patriots running back Jonas Gray at Indianapolis on Nov. 16, 2014.

Most rushing touchdowns in a game, franchise history:

Player	Date	Opponent	Rushing Touchdowns
1. Derrick Henry	12/6/18	Jacksonville	4
Lorenzo White	12/9/90	Cleveland	4
Earl Campbell	11/20/78	Miami	4
4. (several tied)			3

Additionally, Henry's rushing performance against the Jaguars accomplished the following:

- He became the ninth NFL player since 1975 with at least one 90-yard run and at least one 60-yard reception in his career. The others were Tony Dorsett, Garrison Hearst, Tiki Barber, Chris Johnson, Jamaal Charles, Herschel Walker, Warrick Dunn and Adrian Peterson.
- Henry became the seventh NFL player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with at least four rushing touchdowns and at least 200 rushing yards in a game, joining Clinton Portis, Barry Sanders, Doug Martin, Jonas Gray, Mike Anderson and Corey Dillon. Henry became the first to accomplish the feat in fewer than 20 carries (17).
- He matched former Titans running back Chris Johnson as the only players in NFL history with a rushing touchdown of at least 90 yards and a rushing touchdown of at least 50 yards in the same game. Johnson accomplished the feat against the Houston Texans on Sept. 20, 2009.
- His 24 points tied for the fourth-highest single-game total in franchise history, trailing only Billy Cannon (30 on Dec. 10, 1961), Rob Bironas (26 on Oct. 21, 2007) and George Blanda (26 on Sept. 18, 1960). Earl Campbell (Nov. 20, 1978) and Lorenzo White (Dec. 9, 1990) also had 24 points on four touchdowns in a single game.
- His 238 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns were each the most in any Thursday Night Football game in history.

RUSHING YARDS IN A TWO-GAME SPAN

Following a franchise-record 238 rushing yards against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6, 2018, Derrick Henry then totaled 170 rushing yards at the New York Giants on Dec. 16 to give him a franchise record of 408 rushing yards in a two-game span.

The previous record of 405 rushing yards in two games was set by Earl Campbell in 1980, when Campbell posted 203 yards against Tampa Bay (Oct. 19) and 202 yards against Cincinnati (Oct. 26).

Most total rushing yards in two consecutive games, franchise history:

Player	Game 1	Yds	Game 2	Yds	Total

RUSHING YARDS IN A SINGLE POSTSEASON

Derrick Henry accumulated 446 rushing yards during the 2019 playoffs. He had 182 yards on 34 carries in the wild card round at New England, followed by 195 yards on 30 attempts in the divisional round at Baltimore. In the AFC championship game, he had 69 yards on 19 rushing attempts.

Henry's average of 148.7 rushing yards per game ranked fourth in NFL history for players with at least two games played. Only a trio of Pro Football Hall of Fame members—Denver Broncos running back Terrell Davis (156.0 in 1998), Los Angeles Raiders running back Marcus Allen (155.3 in 1983) and Washington Redskins running back John Riggins (152.5 in 1982) have averaged more rushing yards in a single postseason than Henry.

In Titans/Oilers history, Eddie George established the previous record for average rushing yards in a single postseason during the 1999 playoffs. In four games, George carried the ball 108 times for 449 yards, or an average of 112.3 yards per contest.

Most rushing yards per game in a single NFL postseason (minimum two games):

Player	Team	Season	Games	Rush Yards	Per Game
1. Terrell Davis	Denver	1998	3	468	156.0
2. Marcus Allen	L.A. Raiders	1983	3	466	155.3
3. John Riggins	Washington	1982	4	610	152.5
4. Derrick Henry	Tennessee	2019	3	446	148.7
5. Eric Dickerson	L.A. Rams	1985	2	294	147.0
6. Terrell Davis	Denver	1997	4	581	145.3
7. Arian Foster	Houston	2011	2	285	142.5
8. Thurman Thomas	Buffalo	1990	3	390	130.0
9. Brian Westbrook	Philadelphia	2006	2	257	128.5
10. Fred Taylor	Jacksonville	1998	2	248	124.0

George's 449 yards during the team's run to Super Bowl XXXIV also established the franchise benchmark for most total rushing yards in a single postseason. Henry came within three yards of the mark in one fewer game.

Most rushing yards in a single postseason, franchise history:

Player	Season	Games	Rush Yards
1. Eddie George	1999	4	449
2. Derrick Henry	2019	3	446
3. Earl Campbell	1978	3	264
4. Steve McNair	1999	4	209
5. Derrick Henry	2017	2	184

Henry's 2019 playoff rushing yardage total ranked sixth in NFL history. It was the most by any NFL player since George's 1999 postseason.

#81 - TE JONNU SMITH6-3, 248, 4th Year, Florida InternationalClick for complete bio

Tight end Jonnu Smith completed his fourth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (100th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

Smith played in 15 games in 2020 and tied his career high with 14 starts. He set career highs with 41 receptions, 448 receiving yards and eight touchdown receptions, and he added two rushing attempts for four yards, including a touchdown. In one postseason start, he contributed two catches for nine yards.

His eight touchdown receptions in 2020 tied the franchise single-season record for tight ends, matching Willie Frazier (1965) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Dave Casper (1981). Smith's total also tied for third place in the NFL in 2020 (Darren Waller) behind only Travis Kelce (11) and Robert Tonyan (11).

Smith also played a pivotal role in 2020 as a blocker in the NFL's second-ranked rushing attack (168.1 yards per game) and in the league's sixth-best finish in sacks allowed (25).

In 2019, Smith returned from a serious knee injury in 2018 to play in all 16 games with a career-high 14 starts. He set then-career highs with 35 receptions and 439 receiving yards with three touchdowns. In the playoffs, he started all three games and contributed six receptions for 59 yards and one touchdown. He was named the team's 2019 Ed Block Courage Award recipient.

Smith's 2018 campaign came to a premature end when he suffered a knee injury against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Dec. 6 and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on Dec. 11. Prior to the injury, he played in 13 games with 12 starts and achieved then-career highs with 20 receptions, 258 receiving yards and three touchdowns. He led the club's tight ends in all three categories at the time of his injury.

During the 2017 regular season, Smith was one of three rookie tight ends to appear in all 16 games (Gerald Everett and David

20 - RB SENORISE PERRY6-0, 210, 6th Year, Louisville

➤ Perry was signed by the Titans as a free agent on April 30, 2020 after originally signing as a rookie free agent with the Chicago Bears in 2014 and later spending time with the Dolphins and Bills.

➤ Prior to joining the Titans, his totals included 11 rushing attempts for 33 yards and three receptions for three yards in 59 career games. He also returned 23 career kickoffs for 456 yards (19.8 avg.).

➤ In 2019, he appeared in 11 games for the Bills, totaling three carries for three yards. He added six special teams tackles, which ranked second on the team.

➤ In four seasons (2010-13) at Louisville, he played in 46 games with six starts and posted 289 carries for 1,409 yards and 18 touchdowns to go along with 36 receptions for 359 yards and a score. Tallied 22 kickoff returns for 513 yards. Collected 30 tackles and a forced fumble on special teams.

2020 Notes:

➤ In 2020, he appeared in all seven games during the regular season and recorded two rushing attempts for nine yards, two special teams tackles and one kickoff return for two yards.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), totaled two carries for nine yards, including a six-yard run for a first down during a third-quarter touchdown drive. They were his first two rushing attempts with the Titans.

➤ Placed on injured reserve on Sept. 23.

➤ Activated from injured reserve on Nov. 18.

Njoku) and one of two rookie tight ends with at least 13 starts (O.J. Howard). He caught 18 passes for 157 yards and two touchdowns, ranking fifth among all rookie tight end in receptions. He also caught three passes for 19 yards in two postseason games.

Smith concluded his four-year career at Florida International University's all-time leader among tight ends in receptions and receiving yards, totaling 178 receptions for 2,001 yards and 18 touchdowns. On the school's all-time receiving list, regardless of position, Smith finished fourth in receptions, fifth in receiving yards and third in receiving touchdowns.

Smith finished his collegiate career registering at least one reception in every game he played. The 43-game streak was the second-longest streak of its kind in school annals.

During his senior campaign, he started 11 games and earned second-team All-Conference USA honors. He registered 42 receptions for 506 yards and four touchdowns.

As a sophomore (2014), led all college tight ends with 61 receptions, 710 receiving yards and eight touchdown catches.

Smith is a native of Philadelphia, Pa.

2020 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), totaled four receptions for 36 yards, including a one-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Ryan Tannehill in the fourth quarter. It was his ninth career touchdown reception. He also recorded a 22-yard reception on a screen play in the first quarter.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), led the team with a career-high 84 receiving yards on four receptions, including a pair of touchdown catches. He set a career long with a 63-yard reception on the first play from scrimmage. His touchdowns included a 13-yard grab in the first quarter and a four-yard reception in the second quarter. It marked his first career game with multiple touchdowns. He improved his season total to three touchdown receptions after also posting a one-yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Denver, and it marked the third time in his career with at least one touchdown in back-to-back games. He improved his career total to 11 touchdown receptions. Additionally, he drew a 22-yard pass interference penalty in the second quarter on third down.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), tied for the team lead with five receptions for a total of 61 yards. He went over the 1,000-yard career receiving mark with his 21-yard grab in the third quarter.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), registered five receptions for 40 yards and a team-high two touchdowns. His two touchdowns tied his career high, established two games earlier against Jacksonville (Sept. 20). His touchdown grabs against the Bills included a four-yard catch in the third quarter and a seven-yarder in the fourth quarter. He surpassed his previous career high for a season of three touchdown catches (2018 and 2019).

➤ Against Houston (10/18), logged his 50th career regular season game and recorded one reception for 13 yards before leaving the game with an injury.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), caught one pass for nine yards.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), caught two passes for 29 yards, including a long reception of 19 yards.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), caught two passes for 32 yards and a touchdown. He helped extend the Titans' lead in the fourth quarter with a 30-yard reception and a two-yard touchdown catch on the next play. It gave him six touchdown receptions in 2020 to extend his career high, and it made him the first Titans tight end with at least six touchdown receptions in a season since Delanie Walker (seven) in 2016.

➤ Against Indianapolis (11/12), posted two receptions for 14 yards and also recorded his first career rushing touchdown on a one-yard run in the second quarter. He became the fourth NFL tight end with a rushing touchdown in 2020, joining Indianapolis' Trey Burton, the L.A. Rams' Gerald Everett and the N.Y. Giants' Evan Engram. Smith became the first Titans tight end with a rushing touchdown since Delanie Walker at Jacksonville on Sept. 17, 2017.

➤ At Baltimore (11/22), totaled four receptions for 20 yards with one touchdown. On a one-yard touchdown catch on a pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter, he established his first career three-game streak with at least one touchdown in each contest (rushing or receiving). With his seventh touchdown catch of 2020, he tied Delanie Walker (seven touchdown receptions in 2016) for the most single-season touchdown receptions by a tight end in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present). On his first catch, an eight-yarder in the first quarter, he notched his 100th career reception. He became the 12th tight end in franchise history to reach the mark.

➤ Against Cleveland (12/6), he was inactive with a knee injury.

➤ At Jacksonville (12/13), caught two passes for 20 yards.

➤ Against Detroit (12/20), tied for the team lead with five receptions and totaled 52 receiving yards.

➤ At Green Bay (12/27), totaled three receptions for 30 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter to give him eight touchdown receptions in 2020. He passed Delanie Walker (seven in 2016) for the most single-season touchdown receptions by a tight end in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present).

➤ At Houston (1/3), caught one pass for eight yards.

➤ Against Baltimore (1/10), totaled nine yards on two receptions.

➤ Firkser appeared in 29 games with 24 starts over four seasons at Harvard (2013-16) and caught 99 passes for 1,559 yards and 14 touchdowns. He finished his career ranked 12th all-time in school history in receptions, ninth all-time in receiving yards and sixth all-time in touchdown receptions. He was named to the All-Ivy League second team as both a junior and sophomore.

➤ He is a native of Manalapan, N.J.

2020 Notes:

➤ In 2020, Firkser played in every game for the first time in his career. He set career highs with 39 receptions and 387 yards and caught one touchdown pass. His reception total and receiving yardage total each ranked fourth on the team and second among the club's tight ends. In one playoff contest, he registered a pair of receptions for 44 yards.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), contributed four receptions for 45 yards and forced a crucial pass interference penalty on third down during the game-winning drive in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), recorded three catches for 19 yards.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), led the team and registered career highs with eight receptions and 113 receiving yards. He notched his first touchdown reception of the season and the third touchdown catch of his career on a seven-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter. He posted a career-long 45-yard catch in the third quarter, topping his previous long of 39 yards (Dec. 8, 2019 at Oakland). During the game-tying drive late in the fourth quarter, he totaled two catches for 30 yards. His 113 receiving yards ranked 13th in franchise history among tight ends and were the most by a Titans tight end since Delanie Walker's 124 yards against the Green Bay Packers on Nov. 13, 2016. Firkser reached 50 career receptions on his final catch of the game.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), posted two receptions for 36 yards, including a 26-yard grab in the fourth quarter.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), caught three passes for 19 yards, including two third-down conversions on scoring drives.

➤ At Baltimore (11/22), tallied four receptions for 33 yards.

➤ Against Cleveland (12/6), totaled 51 yards on five receptions. It was the second-highest reception total of his career and the third-highest yardage total of his career.

➤ Against Detroit (12/20), caught a 20-yard pass to convert a third-and-11 during a third-quarter scoring drive.

➤ At Green Bay (12/27), posted one catch for 11 yards and a first down.

➤ At Houston (1/3), caught two passes for 18 yards to finish the 2020 campaign with career highs in receptions (39) and receiving yards (387).

85 - TE MyCOLE PRUITT6-2, 245, 5th Year, Southern Illinois

- MyCole Pruitt was signed by the Titans off the Houston Texans practice squad on Sept. 10, 2018, one day after the season opener.
- In 2019, he played in all 16 games for the second time in his career and set a career high with 10 starts. He posted six receptions for 90 yards and one touchdown, and he added four catches for 28 yards in three playoff games (one start).
- His 2018 totals included nine receptions for 102 yards and one touchdown in 15 games (one start).
- He arrived in Tennessee with 21 games of NFL experience with the Texans, Chicago Bears and Minnesota Vikings. His statistics prior to joining the Titans included 12 receptions for 102 yards.
- Pruitt was a fifth-round selection by the Vikings in the 2015 NFL Draft.
- A native of South Bend, Ind., he amassed multiple school records for tight ends during a four-year career at Southern Illinois, where he tallied 211 career receptions for 2,601 yards and 25 touchdowns. He earned All-America honors for both his junior and senior seasons. Pruitt also was named the best tight end in the 30-year history of Missouri Valley Conference.

2020 Notes:

- In 2020, he appeared in 11 games with four starts and totaled five catches for 49 yards and a career-high two touchdowns. He also recovered a fumble for a touchdown to give him three total touchdowns on the season. Additionally, as a blocker he helped Derrick Henry become the NFL's eighth all-time player to reach the 2,000-yard rushing mark (2,027).
- At Denver (9/14), caught a one-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill in the second quarter on his only reception of the game. It was his third career touchdown reception.
- Placed on the reserve/COVID-19 list on Oct. 8 and removed from the list on Oct. 20.
- Against Cleveland (12/6), scored two touchdowns in a game for the first time in his career. He recorded a 22-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter for the longest touchdown catch of his career. On the play, he established a new career high with his second touchdown reception of the season. He also recovered an offensive fumble at the three-yard line and plunged into the end zone for a touchdown in the third quarter. It was the third offensive fumble recovery for a touchdown in franchise history and the team's first since Dec. 28, 2003, when Erron Kinney accomplished the feat.

87 - TE GEOFF SWAIM6-4, 260, 6th Year, Texas

- Swaim was signed by the Titans prior to the start of the 2020 season.
- Originally a seventh-round pick by the Cowboys in the 2015 NFL Draft, Swaim played in 43 total games over five seasons with the Cowboys (2015-18) and the Jaguars (2019). His career totals in that time included 48 catches for 401 yards and a touchdown in his career.
- In 2019, Swaim appeared in six games with two starts for the Jaguars, totaling 13 receptions for 65 yards.
- As a senior at the University of Texas, he started all 13 games, spending most of his time helping block for a running game that rushed for 1,786 yards and seven touchdowns. He totaled 13 catches for 84 yards.
- A native of Chico, Calif., Swaim played at Butte College in Oroville, Calif., for two years prior to transferring to Texas.

2020 Notes:

- In 2020, he appeared in 10 games (eight starts) in his first season in Tennessee. He produced nine receptions for 83 yards and one touchdown and helped block for Derrick Henry's 2,027-yard rushing season. Swaim started one playoff game with one reception for five yards.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), saw his first action of the season and registered his first start in a Titans uniform (21st career start).
- Against Houston (10/18), registered his first two catches in a Titans uniform for 10 total yards.
- At Indianapolis (11/29), caught three passes for 30 yards, setting season highs. The last time he had three receptions was Sept. 29, 2019 at Denver as a member of the Jacksonville Jaguars.
- At Jacksonville (12/13), totaled three receptions for 34 yards, including a five-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter. It was his second career touchdown and his first as a member of the Titans. He added a 16-yard reception to get the ball to Jacksonville's one-yard line in the third quarter. It set up a touchdown on the next play.

#11 • WR A.J. BROWN

6-1, 226, 2nd Year, MississippiClick for complete bio

Wide receiver A.J. Brown completed his second NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (51st overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

In his first two years in the NFL, Brown totaled 122 receptions for 2,126 yards (17.4 avg.) with 19 touchdown catches. He became the 11th player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons, the first player to do so since Michael Thomas (2016-17) and the only player in Titans/Oilers history other than Bill Groman (1960-61) to accomplish the feat. From 1970 through 2020, Brown and Randy Moss were the only players to post at least 120 receptions and 19 touchdown catches while averaging 17.0 yards per reception in their first two seasons.

Brown was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 2020 after leading the team with 70 receptions, 1,075 receiving yards and 11 touchdown catches in 14 games (12 starts). He tied for fifth place in the NFL in touchdown receptions and joined Drew Bennett (11 in 2004) as the only players in the team's "Titans era" (since 1999) with 10 or more touchdown receptions in a season. He added a touchdown on a kickoff return.

As a rookie, Brown led the Titans in every major receiving category, totaling 52 catches for 1,051 yards and eight touchdowns. He added a 49-yard rushing touchdown. Among all rookies in franchise history, Brown ranked third in receiving yards and fifth in receptions, and he tied for the third-highest receiving touchdown total.

Brown led the 2019 NFL rookie class in receiving yards and total touchdowns, and he tied for the rookie lead in touchdown receptions. He also placed fifth among rookies in receptions. Among all NFL players in 2019—rookies and veterans—Brown finished second in receiving average (20.2), behind only the Los Angeles Chargers' Mike Williams (20.4).

During a three-year career at Mississippi (2016-18), Brown became the program's all-time leading receiver with 2,984 yards. He ranked third in school history with 189 receptions and fifth all-time with 19 touchdowns. Brown averaged 15.8 yards per catch and 82.9 yards per game, and he tallied the most 100-yard receiving games in Ole Miss history with 12. He became the only receiver in Ole Miss history to tally 60 or more receptions in back-to-back seasons.

In 2018, Brown started all 12 games and set Ole Miss' single-season receiving records in yards (1,320) and catches (85), leading the SEC in both categories. His 1,320 receiving yards ranked seventh in the nation. Brown caught six touchdowns, averaging 110.0 yards per game, and he topped the 100-yard receiving mark in six contests. He earned AP first-team All-SEC and third-team All-American honors for the second consecutive season.

Brown was selected in the 19th round of the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres as a centerfielder and he participated in the team's extended spring training program each summer from 2016-18.

He is a native of Starkville, Miss.

2020 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), posted five receptions for 39 yards. It was his 17th consecutive regular season game with at least one reception to begin his career. On the game-winning drive late in the fourth quarter, he drew a key 16-yard pass interference penalty.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20) and at Minnesota (9/27), he was inactive with a knee injury.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), returned to the lineup and led the team with seven receptions and 82 receiving yards, including a touchdown reception. It was the second-highest reception total of his career (eight vs. Houston on Dec. 15, 2019) and his seventh-highest receiving yardage total. He recorded his first touchdown of the season and the ninth touchdown reception of his career on a 16-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), totaled five receptions for 58 yards and two touchdowns. He scored on a six-yard grab in the first quarter and a seven-yard reception late in the fourth quarter. His two touchdown receptions tied his career high, matching a feat he most recently accomplished at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. He registered the 10th and 11th touchdown receptions of his 19-game career, and in doing so, he became the franchise's first player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to reach 10 career touchdown receptions in less than 20 career games. Former wide receiver Chris Sanders held the previous franchise mark since 1970 with nine touchdown receptions in his first 20 games. With four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, his seven-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Ryan Tannehill gave the Titans a chance to tie the score at 36-36 with the extra point and eventually win the game in overtime.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), led the team and tied his career high with 153 receiving yards on six receptions with one touchdown. He matched the 153 yards he posted at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. He recorded a 73-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter to notch the second-longest reception of his career (91 yards at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019). The play gave him four touchdown receptions in 2020 and 12 career touchdown catches. He joined Robby Anderson (two) as the only NFL players with multiple touchdown receptions of at least 73 yards since the start of the 2019 season, and he joined Kenny Britt (two) and Nate Washington (two) as the only players in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999) with multiple career touchdown receptions of at least 73 yards. Brown became the first Titans player with a streak of three consecutive games catching a touchdown pass since Rishard Matthews accomplished the feat in 2016. His 153 receiving yards tied for the 10th-highest total by a player in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999). He recorded his sixth career game with at least 100 receiving yards (first of 2020), going over the 100-yard mark on a 20-yard grab in the fourth quarter.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), totaled four receptions for 24 yards and one touchdown, giving him his fourth consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception. He became the team's first player to do so since Kenny Britt's four-game streak from 2010 to 2011 and the team's first player to do so in a single season since Britt had a separate five-game streak in 2010.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), led the team with four receptions and 101 receiving yards with one touchdown. He registered his seventh career 100-yard receiving game and his second 100-yard performance of 2020. At 23 years and 131 days old, he became the franchise's third player to eclipse 1,500 career receiving yards before his 24th birthday, joining Kenny Britt (22 years, 357 days) and Ernest Givins (23 years, 80 days). With his fifth consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception, he became the team's first player to do so since Kenny Britt's five-game streak in 2010, and his streak tied for the third-longest streak of its kind in franchise history.

After recording a 38-yard reception in the first quarter, he posted a 40-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter.

➤ Against Indianapolis (11/12), recorded a 21-yard reception in the first quarter.

➤ At Baltimore (11/22), caught four passes for 62 yards, including a 14-yard touchdown with 2 minutes and 18 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. He delivered the touchdown on third-and-10 and broke multiple tackles to reach the end zone. It was his seventh touchdown reception of the season and the 15th touchdown catch of his career. He also drew a 39-yard pass interference penalty on the offense's first play from scrimmage.

➤ At Indianapolis (11/29), led the team with four receptions for 98 yards and one touchdown. His 69-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter was the third-longest reception of his career and gave him more touchdown catches of 69-plus yards than any other player since the beginning of the 2019 campaign. He tied his rookie total with his eighth touchdown reception of the season and became the fourth player in franchise history with at least eight touchdown receptions in back-to-back seasons, joining Bill Groman (1960-61), Charlie Hennigan (1961-64) and Drew Hill (1988-89). Brown added a 42-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on an onside attempt by the Colts in the fourth quarter. He was credited with the team's first kickoff return for a touchdown since Sept. 9, 2018, when Darius Jennings had a 94-yarder at Miami. Brown became the first player in franchise history with a receiving touchdown and a kickoff return touchdown in the same game and was the first NFL player to accomplish the feat since Dec. 31, 2017, when Pittsburgh's JuJu Smith-Schuster had a touchdown catch and a kickoff return for a score against Cleveland. Since 1948, Brown was the 27th NFL player to do so, and from that group, he was the third player to have a kickoff return touchdown and a receiving touchdown of at least 69 yards, joining Washington's Bobby Mitchell (Sept. 16, 1962) and the Dallas Texans' Abner Haynes (Oct. 15, 1961).

➤ Against Cleveland (12/6), totaled 87 yards on four receptions, including a 40-yard reception in the second quarter. It was his NFL-leading 12th reception of at least 40 yards since the beginning of his 2019 rookie season.

➤ At Jacksonville (12/13), totaled seven receptions for 112 yards and one touchdown. It was his third 100-yard receiving game of 2020 and the eighth 100-yard game of his two-year career. He reached 100 career receptions on a 13-yard catch in the second quarter. With a 37-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter, he notched his ninth touchdown catch of 2020 to eclipse his rookie total (eight) from 2019. He became the first Titans player with nine touchdown receptions in a season since Rishard Matthews reached the number in 2016.

➤ Against Detroit (12/20), totaled five receptions for 44 yards and one touchdown. His two-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter gave him a career-high 10 touchdown catches in 2020. He joined Drew Bennett (11 in 2004) as the only players in the team's "Titans era" (since 1999) with 10 or more touchdown receptions in a season. It was his ninth game of 2020 with at least one touchdown.

➤ At Green Bay (12/27), led the team with four receptions and 43 receiving yards.

➤ At Houston (1/3), registered a career-high 10 receptions for 151 yards, including a four-yard touchdown catch to put him in a tie with Drew Bennett (11 touchdowns in 2004) for the most touchdown catches in a season in the team's "Titans era" (since 1999). He contributed a 52-yard reception with 10 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to set up the game-winning field goal. He tallied his fourth 100-yard receiving game of 2020 and the ninth 100-yard receiving game of his two-year career. He was the 11th player to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two NFL seasons, the first player to do so since Michael Thomas (2016-17) and the only player in Titans/Oilers history other than Bill Groman (1960-61) to accomplish the feat. Brown became the ninth player in NFL history with 1,000 receiving yards, 50 receptions and five receiving touchdowns in each of his first two seasons. Brown also became the fifth NFL player since 1970 with at least 2,000 receiving yards and 19 receiving touchdowns in their initial two seasons. The most recent was Odell Beckham Jr. with the New York Giants from 2014 to 2015.

➤ Against Baltimore (1/10), led the team with six receptions, 83 receiving yards and one touchdown catch, establishing playoff career highs in every category. He caught a 28-yard pass in the first quarter and added an 11-yard touchdown catch later in the same drive. It was his first career postseason touchdown grab.

50 RECEPTIONS, 1,000 YARDS

A.J. Brown enjoyed one of the finest seasons in franchise history by a rookie wide receiver. His 2019 regular season totals included 52 receptions, 1,051 receiving yards and eight touchdown catches, and his 20.2-yard receiving average ranked second in the NFL.

Brown achieved a rare statistical combination matched by only three other NFL rookies since 1970. Since then, John Jefferson (1978), Bill Brooks (1986), Randy Moss (1998) and Brown are the league's only rookies to have a minimum of 50 receptions, 1,000 receiving yards and five receiving touchdowns while averaging at least 17.0 yards per catch.

#84 ■ WR COREY DAVIS

6-3, 209, 4th Year, Western Michigan

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Corey Davis completed his fourth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the fifth overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft.

During his first four seasons, Davis led the Titans in total receptions (207), receiving yards (2,851) and receiving first downs (146), and his 11 touchdown catches ranked third on the club.

In 2020, Davis finished second on the Titans with a career-best 984 receiving yards and career-high-tying 65 receptions, and he set a new career high with five touchdown receptions. He also led the Titans with five 100-yard receiving performances in 2020.

Davis' 2019 statistics included 43 receptions for 601 yards and a pair of touchdowns in 15 games (11 starts). He added 68 yards and a touchdown on six receptions during the playoffs.

Davis led the Titans offense in 2018 with 65 receptions, 891 receiving yards and four touchdowns. His yardage total ranked ninth among all AFC wide receivers.

As a rookie, Davis totaled 34 receptions for 375 yards in 11 games (nine starts). He started both postseason contests and contributed nine receptions for 98 yards and a team-high two touchdowns.

In four seasons at Western Michigan (2013–2016), Davis played and started 50 games. He registered 332 career receptions for 5,285 yards and 52 touchdowns, setting the Mid-American Conference record in each category and becoming the only player in FBS history with 300 catches, 5,000 yards and 50 touchdowns. His 5,285 career receiving yards were the most in FBS history, and he ended his career ranked second all-time in FBS history with 52 career receiving touchdowns (60 by Jarett Dillard). Davis' 332 career receptions ranked fourth all-time in FBS annals.

As a senior, he set career highs with 97 receptions, 1,500 receiving yards and 19 touchdowns, ranking eighth, seventh and first (tied) in the FBS, respectively. He helped the Broncos win the MAC and go undefeated until suffering their first loss in the Cotton Bowl. Davis' record-setting, All-American campaign included five games of 100-plus yards and six games of two or more receiving touchdowns.

Davis is a native of Wheaton, Ill.

2020 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), led the team on Monday Night Football with seven receptions and 101 receiving yards, including a long reception of 23 yards in the second quarter. His reception total tied for the second-highest number of his career, and his yardage total ranked third in his career. He contributed a nine-yard catch for a first down during the game-winning scoring drive late in the fourth quarter. It was the eighth 100-yard receiving game in franchise history by a player in a Week 1 road game, most recently by A.J. Brown at Cleveland in 2019.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), totaled three receptions for 36 yards, including a touchdown on a nine-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter. It was his first touchdown of 2020 and the seventh touchdown of his four-year career. He reached 150 career receptions on his nine-yard touchdown catch and reached the 2,000-yard career receiving mark on his 17-yard catch in the third quarter.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), tied for the team lead with five receptions for 69 receiving yards. On his first reception, he extended his streak to 25 consecutive receptions resulting in a first down. The streak ended on his next catch. It was the longest active streak in the NFL at the time. He turned a pass from Ryan Tannehill into a 38-yard gain in the third quarter, leading to a Titans touchdown three plays later.

➤ Placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Oct. 7 and activated from the list on Oct. 19.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), tied for the team lead with six receptions for 35 yards and a touchdown. He registered a five-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter. It was his second touchdown reception of 2020 and his eighth career touchdown catch.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), led the team with eight receptions for 128 yards, including a touchdown catch. His reception and yardage totals were each the second-best numbers of his career behind his nine-catch, 161-yard effort against Philadelphia on Sept. 30, 2018. That was also the last time before his performance at Cincinnati that the Titans had a player with at least eight receptions and at least 120 receiving yards in a single game. He became the franchise's fourth player in the "Titans era" (since 1999) to have multiple career games with at least eight receptions, at least 120 receiving yards and at least one touchdown catch. The only others to accomplish the feat were Delanie Walker (two games), Derrick Mason (three games) and Drew Bennett (two games). He posted three receptions of 20-plus yards: 27- and 24-yard catches in the first quarter and a 23-yard reception in the third quarter. It was his second consecutive game with a touchdown catch.

➤ Against Indianapolis (11/8), led the team with five receptions and 67 receiving yards, including a 20-yard catch. It was his fifth game of 2020 with at least five receptions.

➤ At Baltimore (11/22), appeared in his 50th career regular season game. He led the team with 113 yards on five receptions (22.6 avg.), logging his fifth career 100-yard game and his career-high third 100-yard effort of 2020. He recorded a 50-yard catch in the third quarter, which was the second-longest reception of his career behind only a 51-yarder against Philadelphia on Sept. 30, 2018.

➤ At Indianapolis (11/29), totaled three receptions for 70 yards. All three of his catches resulted in first downs, giving him 34 first downs on 42 receptions in 2020. He converted a fourth-and-four with a 37-yard reception in the second quarter. The reception, which ended at the one-yard line, set up a Titans touchdown on the next play.

➤ Against Cleveland (12/6), led the team and set career highs with 11 receptions and 182 receiving yards. His previous highs were nine catches and 161 receiving yards against Philadelphia on Sept. 30, 2018. He became the third player in franchise history and the first since Drew Bennett on Dec. 13, 2004 against Kansas City to post at least 11 receptions, 180 receiving yards and one touchdown in a game. The only player other than Davis and Bennett to accomplish the feat for the organization was Charlie Hennigan (13-272-1) at the Boston Patriots on Oct. 13, 1961. Davis became the first Titans player with 11 or more receptions in a game since on Dec. 15, 2013, when Kendall Wright had 12 catches against the Arizona Cardinals. He also recorded the fourth-most receiving yards in a game in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999). Davis' 182 receiving yards were the most by any Titans player in a game since Oct. 24, 2010, when Kenny Britt totaled 225 yards against the Philadelphia Eagles. In the second quarter, he scored a touchdown on a 17-yard grab. He tied his career high, originally set in 2018, with his fourth touchdown catch of the season. It was his 10th career touchdown reception. He reached the 2,500-yard career receiving mark on his first reception. He became the 18th player in franchise history to hit the number. He contributed receptions of 43 yards and 22 yards in the third quarter, each of which set up Titans touchdowns. On an 18-yard reception in the third quarter, he went over the 100-yard mark in a game for the sixth time in his career and for the fourth time in 2020, extending his career high.

➤ At Jacksonville (12/13), caught three passes for 34 yards.

➤ Against Detroit (12/20), logged his sixth career 100-yard receiving game, totaling four catches for 110 yards and one touchdown. It was his fifth 100-yard receiving game of 2020. He scored on a 75-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the first quarter. It was the longest reception of his career, topping his previous long of 51 yards against Philadelphia on Sept. 30, 2018. Davis established a new career high with five touchdown receptions in 2020, topping the four touchdowns he scored in 2018. It gave him 11 career touchdown receptions. On his second catch of the day, he became the 17th player in franchise history to reach 200 career receptions (202). He established a new career high for receiving yards in a season, exceeding his 891 yards in 2018.

➤ At Houston (1/3), placed second on the team with five receptions for 39 yards to tie his career high with 65 receptions on the season (2018). He also finished the 2020 campaign with a career-high 984 receiving yards and five touchdowns.

#10 - WR ADAM HUMPHRIES

5-11, 195, 6th Year, Clemson

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Adam Humphries completed his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2019 after spending the first four years of his career (2015-18) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In 2020, Humphries was limited to seven games (one start) due to injuries and time on the Reserve/COVID-19 list. He totaled 23 receptions for 228 yards and two touchdowns before finishing the season on injured reserve for the final four games of the regular season and the postseason.

Humphries appeared in the first 12 games of the 2019 regular season before suffering an ankle injury, which caused him to be inactive for the final four games in December. His regular season totals included 37 receptions for 374 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He returned for the AFC Championship Game and registered four catches for 25 yards.

In 60 career games with the Buccaneers (17 starts), Humphries totaled 219 receptions for 2,329 yards and nine touchdowns, increasing his reception and yardage totals every season. He also returned 51 punts for 425 yards.

In 2018, Humphries set career highs with 76 receptions, 816 receiving yards and five touchdowns. Aligned in the slot (per Sportradar and Next Gen Stats), he ranked first in the NFL in receiving first downs (42), tied for second in receptions (59), and finished second in total yards after catch (319).

A native of Spartanburg, S.C., Humphries played four seasons at Clemson, where he accumulated 127 catches for 1,097 yards and three touchdowns in 53 career games.

He entered the NFL by signing with the Buccaneers as an undrafted free agent on May 11, 2015.

2020 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), finished second on the team with six receptions and 47 receiving yards. He had two receptions for 14 yards during the game-winning drive in the fourth quarter. His six catches tied his high mark for number of receptions in a Titans uniform.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), posted a team-high five receptions for 48 yards and one touchdown. He scored on an 18-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill in the third quarter to register his first touchdown of 2020 and the 12th touchdown catch of his career.
- At Minnesota (9/27), recorded four receptions for 41 yards, including a 23-yard catch.
- Placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Oct. 2 and removed from the list on Oct. 14, 2020
- Against Houston (10/18), finished second on the club with six receptions and 64 receiving yards. It was his third game of the season with at least five receptions. His 22-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter was his second touchdown catch of 2020 and his 13th career touchdown reception. He had three receptions for 24 yards during the game-tying drive late in the fourth quarter.

- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), recorded a 19-yard reception during a second-quarter scoring drive.
- Against Chicago (11/8), against Indianapolis (11/12), at Baltimore (11/22) and at Indianapolis (11/29), he was inactive with a concussion.
- Against Cleveland (12/6), returned from injury to record one catch for nine yards.
- Placed on injured reserve on Dec. 8.

14 - WR KALIF RAYMOND

5-8, 182, 3rd Year, Holy Cross

➤ Raymond joined the Titans as a member of the practice squad on Dec. 24, 2018. He was first promoted to the active roster from the practice squad on Oct. 26, 2019.

➤ In eight games in 2019, he produced nine receptions for 170 yards and one touchdown, four punt returns for 45 yards (11.3 avg.) and 18 kickoff returns for 403 yards (22.4 avg.). Additionally, he appeared in two playoff games and totaled one reception for a 45-yard touchdown, one punt return for nine yards and four kickoff returns for 68 yards (17.0 avg.).

➤ In 2018, Raymond spent a total of three games on the Titans practice squad, as well as one game on the New York Giants practice squad.

➤ Raymond arrived in Tennessee with 12 games of NFL experience with the Denver Broncos, New York Jets and Giants. His statistics prior to joining the Titans included 29 punt returns for 210 yards and 20 kick returns for 408 yards.

➤ Raymond originally signed with the Broncos as a rookie free agent on May 6, 2016. He spent the majority of his rookie season on the Broncos practice squad before being elevated to the active roster and appearing in four contests. He tallied 11 punt returns for 111 yards and six kick returns for 137 yards.

➤ In 2017, Raymond spent time on the practice squads and active rosters of both the New York Jets and New York Giants. He appeared in two games for the Jets (Weeks 1-2) and returned five punts for 38 yards and three kicks for 85 yards. He was re-signed to the Jets practice squad for Weeks 3-4 before being waived and signed to the Giants' practice squad on Oct. 11, 2017. He was elevated to the active roster and saw action in six total contests for the Giants, returning 13 punts for six yards and 11 kicks for 186 yards.

➤ Raymond played in 40 games with 23 starts over four seasons (2012-15) as a wide receiver and return specialist for Holy Cross. He totaled 155 receptions for 1,683 yards and 14 touchdowns, returned 62 punts for 464 yards and a score, as well as 80 kick returns for 1,809 yards and two touchdowns.

➤ He is a native of Lawrenceville, Ga.

2020 Notes:

➤ In 2020, he set career highs with 15 games played and three starts. He led the team and set career highs with 23 punt returns and 208 punt return yards (9.0 avg.), and he added a team-high 15 kickoff returns for 275 yards (18.3 avg.). On offense, he tied his career high with nine receptions for a career-best 187 yards.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), led the team with a career-high 118 receiving yards on three receptions, logging his first career 100-yard game. He recorded a 44-yard reception during the first series of the game and then posted a career-long 61-yard catch in the third quarter, leading to a Titans touchdown two plays later. His receiving yardage total was the most by a Titans player on three or fewer receptions since Dec. 5, 2004, when Drew Bennett had 124 yards on three catches at Indianapolis. Raymond added a 30-yard kickoff return and two punt returns for five yards.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), recorded his second start of the season to set a career high. He totaled two receptions for 26 yards, two punt returns for 40 yards and two kickoff returns for 35 yards. He produced a career-long 40-yard punt return in the first quarter, beating his previous long of 25 yards (twice, last at Buffalo on Sept. 10, 2017). It was the longest punt return for the Titans since Adoree' Jackson's 46-yarder at Jacksonville on Sept. 17, 2017. He also caught a 20-yard pass to convert a third-and-20 in the first quarter.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), caught three passes for 32 yards (long of 20). He added three punt returns for 20 yards (long of 16) and three kickoff returns for 63 yards (long of 23).

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), returned one punt five yards and returned three kickoffs 43 yards (long of 23).

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), returned three punts for a total of 49 yards. His 16.3-yard punt return average was the best of his career in a game with at least three returns. He returned three consecutive punts in the first quarter for 21, 16 and 12 yards, respectively.

➤ At Indianapolis (11/29), returned four punts for a career-high 52 yards, including a 17-yard return.

➤ Placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Dec. 19 and removed from the list on Dec. 26.

15 - WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE (pronounced uh-KEEN-uh)6-2, 211, Rookie, Indiana

#64 - G NATE DAVIS6-3, 316, 2nd Year, CharlotteClick for complete bio

Nate Davis completed his second NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (82nd overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Davis started all 16 games at right guard in 2020, giving him 28 consecutive starts dating back to the final 12 games of his rookie season. He also started all four of the team's postseason games from 2019 to 2020.

Davis was a part of a 2020 offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). Davis helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

As a rookie in 2019, Davis played in 13 games with 12 starts at right guard. It was the highest number of starts at guard by a Titans rookie since Chance Warmack's 16 starts in 2013. He also started all three of the team's postseason games.

In four seasons at Charlotte (2015-18), Davis appeared in 41 career games with 37 starts. A four-year starter on the offensive line, Davis started at guard from 2015-17 before switching to right tackle for his senior season in 2018.

He is a native of Ashburn, Va.

#60 ■ C BEN JONES

6-3, 303, 9th Year, Georgia

Click for complete bio

Center Ben Jones completed his ninth NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 10, 2016.

From 2012 through 2020, Jones appeared in 143 of 144 possible regular season games, including starts in all but one game during his first five seasons in Tennessee.

In 2020, Jones started every game at center and was a part of an offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). He helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

In 2019, Jones captained an offensive line that helped Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games en route to an AFC Championship Game appearance.

On Dec. 12, 2019, Jones was named the Titans nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. Considered one of the league's most prestigious honors, the award recognizes an NFL player for outstanding community service activities off the field, as well as excellence on the field.

On Nov. 3, 2019, Jones' streak of 120 consecutive games played and 88 consecutive starts came to an end when he was deactivated with a concussion. At the time, Jones' consecutive games streak tied Kansas City's Mitchell Schwartz for the longest active streak in the NFL among offensive linemen, and his starting streak ranked first in the NFL among all centers.

Jones started all 16 games at center in 2018, registering a start in every contest for the fifth consecutive season, dating back to his third year in Houston (2014).

In his first year in Tennessee, Jones played a key role in an offensive turnaround. The veteran was a key cog in a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

Jones was originally selected by the Houston Texans in the fourth round (99th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. Over the following four seasons, he started contests at center and both guard spots. He was a starter on two playoff teams in Houston (2012 and 2015).

In 2015, Jones started every game at center, extending his streak of consecutive regular season games played to 64, which was the second-longest active streak among NFL centers at the conclusion of the season.

A native of Centreville, Ala., Jones attended the University of Georgia, where his 49 total starts ranked third in school annals. He was a two-time All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and was named to Georgia's Team of the Decade. As a senior (2011), the team captain earned All-SEC first-team honors.

#71 ■ T DENNIS KELLY

6-8, 321, 9th Year, Purdue

Click for complete bio

Dennis Kelly completed his ninth NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was acquired in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles on Aug. 16, 2016. In exchange for Kelly, the Titans dealt wide receiver Dorial Green-Beckham to the Eagles.

In 2020, Kelly set a career high with 16 starts during the regular season—all at right tackle. He also earned his first career playoff start. He was a key member of an offense that generated the NFL's second-overall ranking (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). He helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

Kelly appeared in 15 games during the 2019 regular season, including starts at left tackle in each of the team's first four games. He caught a touchdown pass against Jacksonville on Nov. 24 and added another touchdown catch in the AFC Championship Game at Kansas City on Jan. 19.

Kelly played in 11 games in 2018 with five starts at right tackle. It was the third-highest start total of his career.

Kelly played in all 16 games in both 2016 and 2017. During that time he had a regular role in the team's "heavy" personnel package and earned six total starts—six in 2016 and one in 2017. He helped the Titans rush for an average of 136.7 yards per game in 2016, which ranked third in the NFL.

Kelly entered the NFL as a fifth-round selection by the Eagles in the 2012 NFL Draft. In four seasons with the Eagles, he recorded 15 starts and 30 games played. He recorded nine starts with the Eagles at right tackle, four starts at right guard and two starts at left guard.

A native of Chicago Heights, Ill., Kelly was a team captain and a two-time offensive MVP at Purdue. He started his final three seasons at left tackle for the Boilermakers.

#77 - T TAYLOR LEWAN

6-7, 309, 7th Year, Michigan

Click for complete bio

Tackle Taylor Lewan completed his seventh NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick of the 2014 NFL Draft and received a multi-year contract extension in 2018.

Lewan's 2020 season was cut short after he was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 19, 2020, one day after suffering a knee injury against the Houston Texans. He started each of the team's first five games of the season.

In 2019, Lewan registered 12 starts during the regular season, anchoring an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games, including the AFC Championship Game.

Lewan was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season in 2018. He played and started in 15 of the team's 16 games at left tackle, marking his fourth consecutive season with at least 15 starts.

In 2017, Lewan became the team's first offensive lineman to make multiple Pro Bowls since center Kevin Mawae from 2008–2009. Lewan started all 16 games for the second consecutive season in 2017 and added starts in both postseason contests.

In 2016, Lewan started all 16 games for the first time. The left tackle was the anchor a line that helped the Titans finish 11th overall in offense, third in rushing and tied for seventh in fewest sacks allowed.

In 2015, Lewan started the first 15 games of the season at left tackle before missing the finale with a concussion.

As a rookie in 2014, Lewan played in 11 games with six starts before suffering an ankle injury. He played as a reserve for the first five games and then started in six consecutive contests before the injury caused him to be inactive the final five weeks. For his efforts, Lewan was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team.

In four seasons at Michigan, Lewan appeared in 50 games with 48 starts at left tackle. He started the final 41 games of his career and was named the Big Ten Conference Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2012 and 2013. As a senior in 2013, he started all 13 games at left tackle for the third consecutive season and was named second-team Associated Press All-American.

At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, he ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen in the last five years (2010-14). He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

A native of Cave Creek, Ariz., Lewan became the first offensive tackle selected by the Titans/Oilers in the first round since tackle Brad Hopkins (13th overall) in 1993.

Click for complete bio

Guard Rodger Saffold III completed his 11th NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent from the Los Angeles Rams on March 15, 2019.

In 2020, Saffold started 15 games at left guard in the NFL's second-overall ranked offense (396.4 yards per game). The Titans also finished second in rushing (168.1) and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25) in the league. Saffold helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027).

In 2019, Saffold started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and for the fourth time in his career. He was a key member of an offensive line that helped running back Derrick Henry win the NFL's rushing title (1,540 yards). He started all three playoff games, including the AFC Championship Game.

During the first nine seasons of his career (2010-18), Saffold appeared in 114 regular season games with 111 starts. He also gained experience in the postseason, starting four career playoff games, including all three postseason contests on the Rams' run to Super Bowl LIII at the conclusion of 2018.

From 2017-18, Saffold played an integral role in one of the NFL's top-ranked offenses. According to STATS Inc., he allowed only two sacks during that time.

A native of Bedford, Ohio, he spent four seasons at Indiana University (2006-09), where he started 41 career games and earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior.

Saffold was originally selected by the Rams in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

- Newhouse was signed by the Titans to the practice squad on Nov. 27, 2020 and added to the active roster on Dec. 11.
- Prior to joining the Titans, he logged 10 NFL seasons, appearing in 129 games with 81 starts. Over his NFL career, he has played both tackle spots and guard.
- In 2019, he played 15 games for the New England Patriots, including nine starts—eight at left tackle and one at right tackle.
- Prior to joining the Patriots, he spent time with the Green Bay Packers (2011-12), Cincinnati Bengals (2014), New York Giants (2015-16), Oakland Raiders (2017), Buffalo Bills (2018) and Carolina Panthers (2018).
- Newhouse was originally drafted by the Green Bay Packers in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft.
- A native of Dallas, Texas, Newhouse was a three-year starter at left tackle during his collegiate career at TCU.

2020 Notes:

- In his first season with the Titans, Newhouse appeared as a reserve in the final four games of the regular season and in one postseason contest.

MORE TITANS OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

72 - OL DAVID QUESSENBERRY

6-5, 305, 2nd Year, San Jose State

- Quessenberry was promoted from the practice squad to the 53-man roster on Oct. 27, 2020. He spent the season's first seven weeks on the practice squad and appeared in two contests—one game as a COVID-19 replacement and one game as a standard elevation.
- The 6-foot-5-inch, 305-pounder was originally drafted by the Houston Texans in the sixth round (176th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft.
- He spent his rookie season on injured reserve and then spent the 2014-16 seasons on reserve/non-football illness list after being diagnosed with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma in June 2014. He was medically cleared and returned to action in 2017 as a member of the Texans practice squad. He was signed to the active roster on Dec. 19, 2017 and appeared in two contests for Houston.
- The La Jolla, Calif., native appeared in a career-high four games in 2019 with the Titans and recorded his first career touchdown catch.
- In four seasons at San Jose State (2009-12), Quessenberry appeared in 49 games, starting the final 37 contests he appeared in at left tackle.

2020 Notes:

- In 2020, Quessenberry appeared in 12 games and started the final six regular season games at left tackle, registering the first starting experience of his career. He was part of an offense that tied for the second-overall ranking in the NFL (396.4 yards per game), finished second in rushing (168.1), and allowed the sixth-fewest sacks (25). Quessenberry helped pave the way for Derrick Henry to produce the NFL's eighth all-time 2,000-yard rushing season (2,027). He also started the team's one postseason contest at left tackle.

70 - T TY SAMBRAILO

6-5, 311, 6th Year, Colorado State

- Sambrailo was signed by the Titans as a free agent on March 25, 2020.
- The 6-foot-5-inch, 311-pounder was originally drafted by the Denver Broncos in the second round (59th overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft. He appeared in 57 games with 13 starts during his first five NFL seasons with the Broncos (2015-16) and the Atlanta Falcons (2017-19).
- He started 42 of 48 games during his career at Colorado State, seeing time at all five positions along the offensive line in four seasons with the Rams.
- He helped lead the Rams to their best record (10-3) since 2000 and blocked for a 4,000-yard passer (Grayson - 4,006) and 1,200-yard rusher (Hart - 1,275).
- He is a native of Watsonville, Calif.

2020 Notes:

- In 2020, he appeared in 10 games with five starts at left tackle after original starter Taylor Lewan was placed on injured reserve. However, he suffered an injury on Nov. 22 at Baltimore that forced him to injured reserve and caused him to miss the final six regular season contests and the postseason.

79 - T ISIAH WILSON

6-6, 350, Rookie, Georgia

- The Brooklyn, N.Y., native was selected by the Titans in the first round (29th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft.
- After redshirting in 2017, Wilson played two seasons at Georgia (2018-19), appearing in 25 total games with 24 starts. All of his starts came at right tackle. The Bulldogs finished 11-3 in 2018 and 12-2 in 2019 in his two playing seasons in Athens.
- As a senior, Wilson played in 11 games, starting in 10. He played every offensive snap vs. Kentucky, Florida, Auburn and Texas A&M and over 95 percent of offensive snaps in three others: Vanderbilt, Tennessee and Missouri.

2020 Notes:

- As a rookie, he appeared in one game as a reserve (Nov. 29 at Indianapolis).

#90 • DL DAQUAN JONES

6-4, 322, 7th Year, Penn State
Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman DaQuan Jones completed his seventh NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (112th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft.

In 2020, Jones was voted a defensive team captain for the first time in his career. He started all 16 games for the fifth time in his career and for the third consecutive season. It gave him 48 consecutive games played and 48 consecutive starts. He registered a career-high six tackles for loss to go along with 49 total tackles, two sacks, 10 quarterback pressures and one forced fumble.

In 2019, Jones achieved career highs with 21 quarterback pressures and three passes defended, and his totals also included 50 tackles, one sack and one tackle for loss.

In 2018, Jones started all 16 games and tallied 39 tackles on the season. He added 14 quarterback pressures, four tackles for loss and one pass defended.

Jones was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 4, 2017 due to a bicep injury he suffered the previous day against the Houston Texans. It concluded a season in which he totaled a career-high 3.5 sacks. The injury put an end to his streak of 45 consecutive starts.

Jones was one of two Titans who started every game from 2015–2016, holding down a spot at defensive end for consecutive seasons. Outside linebacker Brian Orakpo was the other member of the team to start every game in that time period.

As a rookie, Jones appeared in seven games with one start. He registered 13 tackles, a sack, three quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

A leader at Penn State during a time of turmoil, Jones started 23 of 46 college games, with all of his starting assignments coming during the last two seasons. Jones finished his career with 92 tackles, adding 4.5 sacks for minus 28 yards, 15.5 stops for losses totaling 55 yards, two fumble recoveries and a pass deflection.

As a senior in 2013, he started all 12 games at defensive tackle, finishing fifth on the team with a career-high 56 tackles (33 solos). His tackle total was the most for any interior defensive lineman in the Big Ten during the 2013 campaign. Jones was named first-team All-Big Ten by the league's coaches and second-team All-Conference by the media. He was named Penn State's Outstanding Senior Player and the recipient of the team's Reid-Robinson Award.

2020 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), registered two tackles on Monday Night Football.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), tallied four tackles.
- At Minnesota (9/27), collected a pair of tackles and two quarterback pressures.
- Placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Sept. 29 and removed from the list on Oct. 11.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), posted a pair of tackles.
- Against Houston (10/18), recorded his first half sack of the season (7.5 career sacks) in the first quarter, teaming with Harold Landry III to drop Deshaun Watson for a three-yard loss. He totaled two tackles for loss in the contest.

- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), posted three tackles.
- Against Chicago (11/8), tied his career high with seven tackles and added a half sack and two tackles for loss. He split a one-yard sack of Nick Foles with linebacker Rashaan Evans in the fourth quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (11/12), totaled five tackles and registered an 11-yard sack of Philip Rivers in the second quarter to give him 1.5 sacks in two games. It was his ninth career sack.
- At Indianapolis (11/29), registered four tackles.
- Against Cleveland (12/6), posted three tackles.
- At Jacksonville (12/13), credited with a blocked field goal on Aldrick Rosas' 53-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter. It was Jones' first career blocked kick and the team's first blocked field goal since Dec. 1, 2019 at Indianapolis.
- Against Detroit (12/20), delivered one of the game's biggest defensive plays, forcing a fumble that was recovered by the Titans in the first quarter. On third-and-goal from the one-yard line, he knocked the ball out of the hands of running back D'Andre Swift, and linebacker Will Compton recovered it. Jones notched his second career forced fumble and his first since his rookie season in 2014. He totaled three tackles against the Lions.
- At Houston (1/3), credited with four tackles.
- Against Baltimore (1/10), totaled three tackles, including a sack. He dropped Lamar Jackson for an eight-yard sack in the second quarter. It gave him 1.5 career postseason sacks.

#98 • DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

6-4, 305, 2nd Year, Mississippi State

Click for complete bio

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons completed his second NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 in tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defended and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

2020 Game Notes:

➤ At Denver (9/14), tallied four tackles and a fumble recovery on Monday Night Football. He notched his first career fumble recovery in the second quarter on a reception by Melvin Gordon III (fumble forced by Kevin Byard). He recovered the ball at Denver's 23-yard line, and the offense scored a touchdown on the ensuing drive.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), helped clinch the victory by batting a pass at the line of scrimmage that was then picked off by outside linebacker Harold Landry III on the Jaguars' final possession. It was the second consecutive game in which Simmons was involved in a takeaway after recovering a fumble in the season opener at Denver. He added three tackles against the Jaguars.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), produced five total tackles, one sack, one tackle for loss and a career-high five quarterback pressures. He forced the Vikings to punt with a six-yard sack of Kirk Cousins on third down in the first quarter. It was his first sack of 2020 and the third sack of his career.

➤ Placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Oct. 3 and removed from the list on Oct. 15.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), registered his second sack of the season and the fourth sack of his career in the fourth quarter, taking down Deshaun Watson for a 12-yard loss on third down. He tied his career high with six tackles and also batted down a pass by Watson on a two-point conversion attempt with less than two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. The play kept the Titans' deficit to seven points (36-29), and the Titans offense subsequently drove to tie the score and force overtime.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), registered three tackles and a pass defended. He deflected a Ben Roethlisberger pass in the third quarter that was subsequently intercepted by linebacker Jayon Brown. It was the second time in 2020 that Simmons tipped a pass that was then intercepted (Sept. 20 vs. Jacksonville).

- At Cincinnati (11/1), contributed four tackles.
- Against Chicago (11/8), totaled three tackles, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery to earn AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. He was credited with his first career forced fumble in the third quarter, leading to a Titans touchdown. After he knocked the ball out of the hands of running back David Montgomery, cornerback Desmond King II scooped it up and raced 63 yards for a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, after Jayon Brown stripped the ball from Anthony Miller, he recovered the ball for the takeaway. It was his first career game with a fumble recovery and a forced fumble. He became the team's first defensive lineman to record a fumble recovery and a forced fumble in the same game since Jurrell Casey at Atlanta on Sept. 29, 2019.
- Against Indianapolis (11/12), posted two tackles and one pass defended.
- At Baltimore (11/22), contributed three tackles.
- At Indianapolis (11/29), sacked Philip Rivers for a six-yard loss in the third quarter, registering his third sack of the season to surpass his rookie total of two sacks. He totaled four tackles and added a pass defended.
- Against Cleveland (12/6), set a career high with seven tackles.
- At Jacksonville (12/13), credited with one tackle.
- Against Detroit (12/20), recovered a fumble by tight end T.J. Hockenson in the third quarter to notch his third career fumble recovery and his third fumble recovery in 2020. He became the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. He added two tackles against the Lions.
- At Green Bay (12/27), credited with two tackles.
- Against Baltimore (1/10), registered three tackles, including a tackle for loss.

#55 - ILB JAYON BROWN

6-0, 226, 4th Year, UCLA

Click for complete bio

Linebacker Jayon Brown completed his fourth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the fifth round (155th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

Brown was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 24, 2020 after starting the season's first 10 games. At the time, he led the team with 76 total tackles. His season statistics also included one sack, five tackles for loss, four quarterback pressures, one interception, eight passes defended and two forced fumbles.

Brown appeared in 14 contests in 2019 with a career-high 14 starts. He finished third on the team and set a career high with 117 tackles while adding one sack, four tackles for loss, seven quarterback pressures, one interception, nine passes defended and one fumble return for a touchdown. He added eight tackles and one pass defended in two postseason contests.

Brown played in all 16 games with nine starts in 2018. He finished second on the defense with 107 tackles and six sacks, and his 18 quarterback pressures tied for the second-highest total on the team. He was one of only six NFL linebackers with at least six sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery during the season.

As a rookie, Brown appeared in all 16 regular season games and both postseason games as the team's nickel linebacker. He registered 67 tackles, which tied for the 10th-highest total by a "Titans era" rookie (1999–present) and ranked fifth among the team's rookie linebackers in that span.

In four seasons at UCLA (2013-16), Brown appeared in 49 games with 21 starts and totaled 220 tackles, three sacks, nine tackles for loss, three interceptions, 15 passes defended, one forced fumble and four fumble recoveries. He started 21 games over his final two seasons and totaled nine games with double-digit tackles.

As a senior in 2016, he earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors after leading the Bruins with 119 tackles, which tied for 16th on the all-time school single-season list. He added 2.5 sacks, seven tackles for loss, three interceptions, 23 passes defended and two fumble recoveries.

Brown is a native of Long Beach, Calif.

2020 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), registered five tackles and a tackle for loss on Monday Night Football.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), totaled seven tackles, one tackle for loss, one quarterback pressure and one pass defended.
- At Minnesota (9/27), led the defense with eight tackles and added a pass defended and two quarterback pressures.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), recorded five tackles and forced fumble (recovered by Buffalo) in his 50th career game.
- Against Houston (10/18), credited with a team-high 10 tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), credited with an interception, a team-high and career-high four passes defended, and tied for the team lead with eight tackles. He intercepted a Ben Roethlisberger pass in the third quarter for his first interception of 2020 on a pass that was deflected by Jeffery Simmons. The play gave Brown three career interceptions. He also helped cause an interception in the fourth quarter when he defended a pass from Ben Roethlisberger to JuJu Smith-Schuster that was then picked off by Amani Hooker.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), led the team and set a season high through seven games with 12 total tackles.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), credited with a team-high 11 tackles in the contest along with one sack, one pass defended and one forced fumble. #58 - OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

6-2, 252, 3rd Year, Boston College

Click for complete bio

Outside linebacker Harold Landry III completed his third NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (41st overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up 16 spots in the second round (57 to 41) in order to take the former Boston College standout.

From the start of his rookie season through 2020, Landry's 19 total sacks led the Titans. Other than Jevon Kearse (36.0), Landry produced the highest sack total by a Titans/Oilers player in his first three NFL seasons since individual sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982.

In 2020, Landry recorded 16 starts for the second consecutive season. He led the team with 5.5 sacks, a career-high 32 quarterback pressures and a career-high 10 tackles for loss. He totaled 69 tackles and added one interception and a career-high five passes defended. In one playoff contest, he led the team with 10 tackles and two sacks.

Landry started all 16 games in 2019 and led the Titans with nine sacks. His 28 quarterback pressures ranked second, and he added 81 tackles, four tackles for loss, one pass defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries. He also started all three postseason games and registered a sack and a team-high eight quarterback pressures.

As a rookie in 2018, he played in 15 games with three starts. His 4.5 sacks tied for third place on the team, and he also tied for second on the defense with 18 quarterback pressures.

In 46 career games playing defensive end for Boston College, Landry totaled 160 tackles, 26 sacks, 47.5 tackles for loss, seven passes defended, 10 forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one interception. His 26 career sacks were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).

As a senior in 2017, Landry played and started eight games before a season-ending ankle injury ended his year. He finished second on the team with five sacks and totaled 38 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and two passes defended.

In 2016, Landry set the school's single-season record with 16.5 sacks, which led the nation. He added seven forced fumbles, which also led the country, while his 22 tackles for loss ranked fifth nationally and ranked second all-time for the Eagles. His numerous honors included Walter Camp second-team All-America, AP second-team All-America and second-team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and the league's head coaches.

He is a native of Spring Lake, N.C.

2020 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), registered four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a tackle for loss on Monday Night Football.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), credited with five tackles, three quarterback pressures and his second career interception. With less than a minute remaining in the fourth quarter, he sealed the victory with an interception of a Gardner Minshew II pass that was deflected at the line of scrimmage.
- At Minnesota (9/27), collected five tackles, three quarterback pressures and one pass defended.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), produced his first sack of the season in the second quarter, dropping Josh Allen for a 10-yard loss. He totaled three tackles.

MORE TITANS OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

99 - JADEVEON CLOWNEY

6-5, 255, 7th Year, South Carolina

➤ Clowney (first name pronounced juh-DEV-ee-on) joined the Titans as an unrestricted free agent in September 2020.

➤ Clowney played his first five NFL seasons with the Houston Texans after he was the first overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. He was traded to the Seattle Seahawks in 2019.

➤ In his first six NFL seasons, he played in 75 games and tallied 236 tackles, 32 sacks, 71 tackles for loss, 14 passes defended, nine forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries. He also scored four total touchdowns—three on fumble recoveries and one on an interception return. Clowney was named to the Pro Bowl each season from 2016 through 2018, and he added second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors in 2016.

➤ Over a four-season span from 2016 through 2019, Clowney was one of only three NFL players with at least 60 tackles for loss, eight forced fumbles and 150 quarterback pressures, per Sportradar. The others on the list were Aaron Donald and Chandler Jones. Clowney ranked fourth in the NFL over those four seasons with 60 tackles for loss.

➤ In 2019, Clowney played for the Seattle Seahawks and tallied 31 tackles, three sacks, seven tackles for loss, a career-best four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in 13 games.

➤ Before being traded to the Seahawks just prior to the 2019 season kicking off, Clowney played five seasons (2014–18) for the Texans. His best statistical output came in 2017, when he started 16 games and recorded 9.5 sacks, 21 quarterback hits, 21 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He joined Jones as the only NFL players to register 20 or more tackles for loss and 20 or more quarterback hits.

➤ A native of Rock Hill, S.C., Clowney had a three-year (2011–13) career at the University of South Carolina and became the third Gamecock to earn All-American honors twice during their career. His college career stats included 130 tackles, 24 sacks, 47 tackles for loss, a school-record nine forced fumbles and one fumble recovery in 36 games played.

2020 Notes:

➤ In 2020, Clowney's first season with the Titans came to a premature end after he was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 21. His totals in his first season with the team included 19 tackles, four tackles for loss, nine quarterback pressures, four passes defended and one forced fumble in eight games (eight starts).

➤ At Denver (9/14), started in his Titans debut on Monday Night Football. He totaled three tackles, including a tackle for loss, and one quarterback pressure.

➤ Against Jacksonville (9/20), tallied a pair of tackles and three quarterback pressures.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), collected two tackles, one tackle for loss and one pass defended.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/13), posted a tackle and two passes defended.

➤ Against Houston (10/18), credited with two tackles and a tackle for loss against his former team.

➤ Against Pittsburgh (10/25), totaled four tackles, one pass defended and one forced fumble. In the second quarter, his forced fumble (recovered by the Steelers) gave him his first forced fumble of 2020 and the 10th forced fumble of his career.

➤ At Cincinnati (11/1), contributed one tackle.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), he was inactive with a knee injury.

➤ Against Indianapolis (11/12), totaled four tackles, including a tackle for loss.

➤ Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 21.

57 - OLB WYATT RAY6-3, 255, 1st Year, Boston College

➤ Joined the Titans during training camp in 2020. He was promoted from the practice squad to the 53-man roster on Dec. 24.

➤ Originally signed with the Cleveland Browns as an undrafted free agent following the 2019 NFL Draft. Later in 2019 he spent time on the practice squads of the Houston Texans, Buffalo Bills and New York Jets.

➤ During a four-year career at Boston College (2015-18), Ray appeared in 50 games and totaled 114 tackles, 24 tackles for loss, 17 sacks, one forced fumble and one interception as a defensive end for the Eagles.

➤ Ray is the grandson of the late legendary singer Nat King Cole, and is the nephew of the late Natalie Cole.

2020 Notes:

➤ In 2020, he appeared in four games with one start and totaled one tackle, one sack, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one stop on special teams. He also appeared in one postseason game.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), made his NFL debut as a reserve on defense after being elevated from the practice squad for the game (standard elevation).

50 - DERICK ROBERSON*6-3, 250, 2nd Year, Sam Houston State

➤ Roberson signed with the Titans as a rookie free agent on May 10, 2019.

➤ In 2019, Roberson played in three regular season games and totaled four tackles and three sacks. He also played in all three playoff games, adding two tackles, three quarterback pressures and one tackle for loss.

➤ He spent the first six games of his rookie season on the practice squad before being elevated to the 53-man roster on Oct. 19. He then spent the next four weeks on the practice squad before being re-signed to the 53-man roster on Nov. 26.

➤ Roberson appeared in 32 games with 20 starts over three seasons at Sam Houston State (2016-18) and totaled 123 tackles, 23 sacks, eight passes defended, one interception and seven forced fumbles.

➤ Transferred to Sam Houston State from Texas where he played one season as a redshirt freshman. He saw action in 10 contests at Texas and registered six tackles, two sacks and one forced fumble.

➤ He is a native of San Antonio, Texas.

2020 Notes:

➤ In 2020, he appeared in eight games with one start and totaled six tackles, four quarterback pressures, one pass defended and one forced fumble.

➤ Against Chicago (11/8), registered three tackles, one pass defended and one stop on special teams.

➤ Against Detroit (12/20), teamed with defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons to create a turnover in the third quarter. Roberson was awarded his first career forced fumble on a rushing attempt by T.J. Hockenson, and the ball was recovered by Simmons.

#21 - CB MALCOLM BUTLER5-11, 190, 7th Year, West AlabamaClick for complete bio

Cornerback Malcolm Butler completed his seventh NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 16, 2018.

In 2020, Butler started all 16 regular season games for the third time in his career. He led the team with 14 passes defended and tied for the team lead with four interceptions. His 100 tackles established a new career high and finished second on the squad. With an additional interception in the playoffs, his five combined interceptions in the regular season and postseason tied for fourth in the league. His four interceptions in the regular season tied for the seventh-highest total in the NFL.

Butler's 2019 season was cut short due to a wrist injury he suffered in the ninth game (Nov. 3 at Carolina). Until that point, he had 30 tackles, two interceptions, including one for a touchdown, and 10 passes defended.

In 2018, Butler led the Titans with 13 passes defended in his first season as a Titan and was second on the team with three interceptions, which included an interception return for a touchdown. He added 56 tackles, one sack, one quarterback pressure, three tackles for loss and one forced fumble in 16 games (11 starts).

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Butler spent the first four seasons of his career with the New England Patriots. During his time in New England, he appeared in 59 career regular season games with 48 starts and amassed 204 tackles, eight interceptions, 47 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Butler appeared in 11 career playoff games with seven starts with the Patriots. He started all three postseason contests on the Patriots' run to the Super Bowl LI title in 2016 and made the crucial, game-winning interception at the goal line in New England's Super Bowl XLIX victory over the Seattle Seahawks to conclude the 2014 campaign.

In 2017, he played in all 16 games during the regular season with 15 starts and amassed 60 tackles, two interceptions, a sack, 12 passes defended and three forced fumbles. He saw action in all three postseason games (two starts) and posted four tackles.

In 2016, Butler earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl invitation and was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after starting all 16 regular season games and recording 63 tackles, one sack, a career-high four interceptions and 17 passes defended.

As a rookie free agent in 2014, Butler was involved in one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl history. With 26 seconds remaining against the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XLIX, he intercepted a pass intended for Ricardo Lockette at the goal line, preventing a go-ahead touchdown by the Seahawks and sealing New England's championship victory.

The Vicksburg, Miss., native was originally signed by the New England Patriots on May 19, 2014, following two seasons at the University of West Alabama, where he was a two-time first team All-Gulf South Conference selection at cornerback. He transferred to West Alabama from Hinds (Miss.) Community College.

2020 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), notched three tackles on Monday Night Football in his first action since being injured in Week 9 of the 2019 season.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), tied for the team lead with a career-high 11 total tackles and added two passes defended.
- At Minnesota (9/27), totaled four tackles and a team-best two passes defended.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), registered his second career game with two interceptions and his first since he played the New York Jets as a member of the New England Patriots on Dec. 24, 2016. Butler ended the Bills' first possession with an interception of a Josh Allen pass. He returned the ball 29 yards to help set up a Titans touchdown on the ensuing drive. It was Butler's first interception of the season. In the third quarter, he intercepted Allen and raced 68 yards on the return to set up a touchdown. It was his longest career interception return, topping his 56-yard touchdown return against Washington on Dec. 22, 2018. It was the longest interception return by a Titans player since Zach Brown's 79-yarder against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012. His 97 total interception return yards were the most by an NFL player in 2020 through five weeks and the most by a Titans player since Brown's 109 yards against Jacksonville (Dec. 30, 2012). Butler registered his sixth consecutive season with at least two interceptions. He added seven tackles against the Bills, including a tackle for loss.
- Against Houston (10/18), tallied eight tackles and a pass defended.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), shared the team lead with eight total tackles in the game.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), produced eight tackles and two passes defended.
- Against Chicago (11/8), credited with four tackles and two passes defended.
- Against Indianapolis (11/12), totaled six tackles and one pass defended.
- At Baltimore (11/22), contributed four tackles.
- At Indianapolis (11/29), registered four tackles.
- Against Cleveland (12/6), credited with a team-high eight tackles.
- At Jacksonville (12/13), recorded his third interception of the season and the 16th interception of his career, picking off a Mike Glennon pass in the third quarter. He registered his third career season with at least three interceptions. He totaled three tackles and two passes defended in the contest.
- Against Detroit (12/20), totaled nine tackles.
- At Green Bay (12/27), recorded his fourth interception of the season to tie his career high (four in 2016). He picked off an Aaron Rodgers pass that was intended for Davante Adams in the fourth quarter. He added six tackles.
- At Houston (1/3), posted six tackles in his 100th career game.
- Against Baltimore (1/10), recorded his second career postseason interception, picking off a Lamar Jackson pass in the first quarter. He totaled five tackles and two passes defended in the contest.

#25 - CB ADOREE' JACKSON

5-11, 185, 4th Year, Southern California

Click for complete bio

Cornerback Adoree' Jackson completed his fourth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans with the 18th overall pick in the first round of the 2017 NFL Draft.

Jackson was limited to three games (two starts) during the 2020 regular season and one start in the postseason. He spent the season's first eight games on injured reserve and was inactive for five additional weeks. His totals included 12 tackles in the regular season and eight stops in the playoffs.

Jackson played in 11 games with 10 starts in 2019 and totaled 40 tackles, two tackles for loss and seven passes defended. He missed five total contests due to injury, including the final four weeks of the regular season, and then returned to start all three postseason contests. His six passes defended during the playoffs led the squad.

In 2018, Jackson appeared in all 16 games for the second consecutive season with 13 starts. He set single-season career highs with 69 tackles and two interceptions. His 11 passes defended ranked second on the squad, and he added one quarterback pressure and three tackles for loss. He also handled the team's punt return duties, averaging 9.3 yards on 16 returns.

In 2017, Jackson was the first rookie cornerback for the team in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to record 16 starts. His 1,260 total plays (1,017 defensive snaps, 231 special teams snaps and 12 offensive snaps) ranked second in the NFL among all players behind only Arizona Cardinals safety Tyrann Mathieu (1,261).

Jackson's rookie defensive totals included a team-high 23 passes defended, 67 tackles, four tackles for loss, one quarterback pressures and three forced fumbles (tied for team lead). He ranked fifth in the NFL with 290 punt return yards (34 returns), ranked sixth in the NFL with a 23.1-yard kickoff return average (25 returns), and finished sixth with 868 combined kickoff return and punt return yards. He added 55 yards on five rushing attempts.

In three seasons at Southern California, Jackson appeared in 39 games with 36 starts. Although he was a starter at cornerback, he was a three-way threat, contributing as a returner and on offense. He scored 15 total touchdowns during his career in four different ways: via reception (6), interception (1), punt return (4) and kickoff return (4).

Jackson's career defensive totals with the Trojans included 139 tackles, 29 passes defended, six interceptions, six stops for loss, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles.

As a return specialist, Jackson notched 79 kickoff returns for 2,141 yards with four touchdowns and 46 punt returns for 578 yards with four touchdowns. He tied two NCAA records with his eight career touchdowns on kick/punt returns and nine touchdowns on all runbacks. He also set Southern California career records for kickoff returns and kickoff return yards.

As a junior in 2016, Jackson was awarded the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Additionally, he was a consensus All-American, the 2016 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, a team captain and the team MVP (the first Trojan to repeat as team MVP since 2004-05), and he earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors at two different positions (defensive back and return specialist). He started all 13 games at cornerback and led the team with five interceptions, 11 passes defended and two fumble recoveries. He scored twice on kickoff returns, twice on punt returns and once on offense.

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Jackson also made his name as a world-class track athlete. He was a long jumper and sprinter on USC's track team in 2015 and 2016, winning the Pac-12 outdoor long jump title both years (and placing second in the Pac-12 100 meters in 2016) and earning All-American status both years after twice placing fifth in the NCAA long jump. He also placed 10th in the long jump in the U.S. Olympic Trials.

2020 Game Notes:

- Placed on injured reserve on Sept. 14 due to a knee injury.
- Activated from injured reserve on Nov. 11.
- Against Detroit (12/20), saw his first action of the season after missing the first 13 games with an injury. He was credited with two tackles.
- At Green Bay (12/27), recorded his first start of 2020 and posted six tackles.
- At Houston (1/3), credited with four tackles.
- Against Baltimore (1/10), posted eight tackles.

#33 - CB DESMOND KING II

5-10, 201, 4th Year, Iowa

Click for complete bio

Cornerback Desmond King II completed his fourth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was acquired in a trade with the Los Angeles Chargers on Nov. 2, 2020 in exchange for a sixth-round draft choice in 2021.

In 2020, King played in six games with three starts for the Chargers before arriving in Tennessee, where he then appeared in nine contests with five starts. His 16-game totals for 2020 included 53 tackles, two sacks, three quarterback pressures, two tackles for loss, two passes defended and one fumble recovery. He returned a fumble for a touchdown against Chicago on Nov. 8 in his first game in a Titans uniform. He added six tackles in one postseason appearance.

In his time with the Chargers, he tallied 213 tackles, four interceptions, two forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 7.5 sacks in 53 games played (23 starts).

King earned AP All-Pro honors at cornerback and second-team All-Pro as a punt returner in 2018 for the Chargers. His 2018 totals included 60 tackles, three interceptions, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and an 13.8-yard average as a punt returner.

During a four-year career at Iowa (2013-16), he was a four-year starter and earned the Jim Thorpe Award, which is given to the nation's best defensive back. He also earned Iowa's MVP award on defense and on special teams. His collegiate totals included 14 interceptions, including eight in his junior season, and three interceptions returned for touchdowns. He also posted a career punt return average of 11.2 yards.

He is a native of Detroit, Mich.

2020 Game Notes:

- Against Chicago (11/8), recorded his first start with the Titans after being acquired during the week leading up to the game in a trade with the Los Angeles Chargers. He totaled two tackles and returned a David Montgomery fumble 63 yards in the third quarter to score his first career fumble return touchdown. It gave him five career touchdowns, which also includes two touchdowns on interceptions and two scores on punt returns. He recorded the Titans' first fumble return for a touchdown since Jayon Brown at Oakland on Dec. 8, 2019. It was the Titans' longest fumble return since Oct. 13, 2013, when Jason McCourty scored on a 77-yard fumble return at Seattle.
- Against Indianapolis (11/12), posted five tackles.
- At Baltimore (11/22), credited with four tackles and two passes defended.
- At Indianapolis (11/29), posted three tackles.
- Against Cleveland (12/6), credited with six tackles.
- At Jacksonville (12/13), registered three tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- Against Detroit (12/20), posted a pair of tackles.
- At Green Bay (12/27), tallied two tackles.
- At Houston (1/3), recorded his first sack in a Titans uniform, dropping Deshaun Watson for a two-yard loss in the second quarter. It was his second sack of 2020 (one with the L.A. Chargers). He totaled three tackles against the Texans.
- Against Baltimore (1/10), recorded six tackles.

#31 - S KEVIN BYARD

5-11, 212, 5th Year, Middle Tennessee StateClick for complete bio

Safety Kevin Byard completed his fifth NFL season in 2020. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (64th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

Byard did not miss a game in his first five seasons in the NFL, totaling 80 games in the regular season and six postseason games. At the conclusion of 2020, his 71 consecutive starts in the regular season was the leading current streak among all Titans players and ranked second to Malcolm Jenkins (119) among active NFL safeties.

Over a four-year period from 2017 through 2020, he ranked second in the NFL with 18 interceptions. Only Miami's Xavien Howard (22) had more in that period.

In 2020, Byard was a defensive team captain for the second consecutive season and the team's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee. His 111 tackles led the team and established a career high. Additionally, he registered one interception, seven passes defended, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble. In one playoff game he produced five tackles, one pass defended and a quarterback pressure.

From 2017 through 2019, no NFL player had more interceptions than Byard, who had 17. His 2019 totals included a team-leading five interceptions, 10 passes defended, 91 tackles, one quarterback pressure and two tackles for loss. In three postseason games, he added 20 tackles and one interception.

In 2018, Byard finished with a team-leading four interceptions, 10 passes defended, 96 tackles and two sacks. He also completed a touchdown pass on a memorable fake punt to help defeat the Houston Texans (Sept. 16).

Byard experienced a breakthrough second-year season in 2017. He was named to the Pro Bowl and earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after tying Detroit's Darius Slay for the NFL lead with eight interceptions. He added a pair of fumble recoveries to pace the league with 10 total takeaways.

As a rookie in 2016, Byard played in every game, starting the final seven contests at free safety. His 63 tackles were the most by a Titans rookie safety since Tank Williams' 69 tackles in 2002. He also ranked second on the squad with 10 special teams tackles.

During a four-year career at Middle Tennessee State University, he appeared in 49 games and notched 46 starts at safety while becoming one of the most prolific defenders in school history. He set school records with 19 career interceptions, 377 interception return yards and four interception returns for touchdowns, and he finished sixth in MTSU history with 312 career tackles. In total, he had a hand in 25 turnovers (19 interceptions, five forced fumbles and one fumble recovery) during his career and added 17 career passes defended and five tackles for loss. He was twice named first-team All-Conference USA.

As a senior in 2015, Byard appeared in 12 games with nine starts as a permanent team captain and was named first-team All-Conference USA for the second consecutive year. He ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles and led the squad with four interceptions and six additional pass breakups.

The Lithonia, Ga., native set a career high in college with six interceptions as a junior and forced to fumbles the same season.

2020 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), recorded his first career forced fumble in the second quarter on a reception by Melvin Gordon III. The ball was recovered at Denver's 23-yard line by defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons, and the offense scored a touchdown on the ensuing drive. Byard also led the defense with nine tackles and added a pass defended.
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), posted three tackles.
- At Minnesota (9/27), totaled four tackles and one pass defended.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), posted two tackles and one pass defended.
- Against Houston (10/18), credited with eight tackles.

Safety Kenny Vaccaro completed his eighth NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed as a free agent on Aug. 4, 2018.

In 2020, Vaccaro started 13 games and finished fourth on the team with 83 tackles. He added one sack, four quarterback pressures, six tackles for loss, five passes defended and one fumble recovery. He also started one postseason contest and posted nine tackles.

In 2019, Vaccaro started all 16 regular season games for the second time in his career and for the first time since 2015. He ranked fourth on the Titans with 104 tackles and added one sack, one quarterback pressure, one tackle for loss, one interception, five passes defended and seven special teams tackles. He also started all three postseason games and tallied 19 tackles and an interception.

Vaccaro recorded 13 starts in 13 games during his first year in Tennessee. He finished with 70 tackles, two sacks, three quarterback pressures, four tackles for loss, one interception and five passes defended.

Vaccaro (6-0, 214) joined the Titans after five years as a starter with the New Orleans Saints. In 68 career games with 67 starts in New Orleans, he totaled 482 tackles, eight interceptions, 7.5 sacks, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In 2017, Vaccaro started 12 games at strong safety and recorded three interceptions, seven passes defended, 60 tackles, 1.5 sacks and one fumble recovery. He tallied three total interceptions in a three-game stretch from Weeks 3-6. He missed four total games due to injury, including spending the final two weeks of the campaign on injured reserve.

In 2016, Vaccaro started 11 games at strong safety and totaled 80 tackles (56 solo), one sack, six passes defended, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, two interceptions and a special teams stop.

Vaccaro was named to the PFWA and Bleacher Report All-Rookie teams in 2013, and in 2014 he won the Jim Finks Good Guy Award for cooperation with the New Orleans media.

The Brownwood, Texas, native was selected by the Saints in the first round (15th overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft.

During his time at the University of Texas, Vaccaro appeared in 51 games with 32 starts and totaled 264 tackles and five interceptions. He earned first-team All-American honors as a senior and All-Big 12 first-team recognition from league coaches in each of his final two years. The versatile defender played four different positions including both safety spots for the Longhorns.

#3 ■ K STEPHEN GOSTKOWSKI

6-1, 215, 15th Year, Memphis

Click for complete bio

Kicker Stephen Gostkowski (pronounced gost-COW-ski) completed his 15th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans in 2020. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent on Sept. 3, 2020.

Gostkowski finished his first season in Tennessee as the 11th-most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history (86.3 percent; 392-of-454) and the 11th-highest scorer in NFL history (1,875 points).

In 2020, Gostkowski made 18 field goals on 26 attempts, including seven field goals from 50-plus yards on eight attempts. His seven 50-yarders established a new franchise record, breaking Rob Bironas' mark of six in 2011. On extra points, Gostkowski was 46-of-48 (95.8 percent), giving him the fourth-most extra points in franchise history. He also handled kickoff duties, booting 51 touchbacks on 86 attempts (60.7 percent).

Gostkowski became the first player since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to kick a game-winning field goal in the final two minutes of regulation in each of his team's first three games of the season, resulting in him being named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for September. His three game-winning field goals were the most by a Titans kicker in a season since Bironas totaled four game-winners in 2006.

With two postseason field goals in 2020, Gostkowski improved his career total to 41 career postseason field goals, which ranked second in NFL history behind Adam Vinatieri (56) at the conclusion of the 2020 playoffs. His 212 career postseason points likewise trailed only Vinatieri (238) in NFL annals.

After entering the NFL as a fourth-round pick by New England in 2006, Gostkowski spent the next 14 years with the Patriots, earning four Pro Bowl selections (2008, 2013-15) and three Super Bowl championships (2014, 2016, 2018). He became the franchise's leading scorer with 1,775 career points over 204 games.

One of his finest statistical seasons came in 2017, when he scored 156 points, made 37 of 40 field goal attempts and made a career-long 62-yard field goal.

In 2019, he was limited to four games before being placed on injured reserve. He made seven of his eight field goal attempts in his final season in New England.

Gostkowski finished his collegiate career at the University of Memphis ranked 13th in NCAA Division I-A history with 369 points and ranked 14th with 70 career field goals. He also played baseball at Memphis.

2020 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), made his debut in a Titans uniform on Monday Night Football and connected on the game-winning 25-yard field goal with 17 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. It was his 10th career game-winning field goal (ninth in the regular season).
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), made a 51-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter and the game-winning 49-yard field goal with 1 minute and 36 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. He added three extra points on four attempts. He hit a game-winning field goal for the second consecutive week, marking the second time in his career he made a game-winner in back-to-back games (Nov. 24-Dec. 1, 2013). His kick to beat the Jaguars was his 11th career game-winning field goal (10th in the regular season). He became the first kicker since Adam Vinatieri with New England in 1999 to make a game-winning field goal in the final two minutes of regulation in each of his team's first two games of a season.

➤ At Minnesota (9/27), set a career high with six total field goals, including the game-winning field goal from 55 yards with 1 minute and 44 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. In his 15-year career, he previously made five total field goals on two occasions, most recently against Kansas City on Oct. 14, 2018. In addition to his game-winner, he also connected on field goals of 39 and 31 yards in the first quarter, 30 yards in the second quarter, 51 yards in the third quarter and 54 yards in the fourth quarter. His 55-yard field goal tied for the fourth-longest field goal in franchise history and the second-longest game-winning field goal in team annals behind Rob Bironas' 60-yarder to beat Indianapolis on Dec. 3, 2006. His 54-yarder at Minnesota ranked as the eighth-longest field goal in team annals. He became the second player in franchise history to make at least six field goals in a game. The other is Rob Bironas, who set the team and NFL record with eight field goals at Houston on Oct. 21, 2007. Gostkowski became the first player in franchise history to record game-winning field goals in three consecutive games, as well as the first NFL player since the 1970 merger to kick a game-winning field goal in the final two minutes of regulation in each of his team's first three games of the season. He hit three field goals of at least 50 yards in distance for the first time in his career and was the first NFL player since Baltimore's Justin Tucker on Nov. 27, 2016 (vs. Cincinnati) to accomplish the feat. He extended his streak to a career-best 28 consecutive games with at least one field goal, which tied for the fifth-longest streak in NFL history (Jim Turner, 1970-72; Chip Lohmiller, 1988-90). He tied his career high with 19 total points in the contest. He was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week.

- Named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for September. It was his fifth career AFC Special Teams Player of the Month award.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), made all six extra point attempts.
- Against Houston (10/18), made all four extra point attempts, had a 27-yard field goal blocked, and missed from 37 yards.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), made one of two field goal attempts, including a successful field goal from 51 yards. He also made all three extra point attempts.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), made both extra point attempts and missed a field goal from 53 yards.
- Against Chicago (11/8), made his only field goal attempt from 40 yards and hit all three of his extra point attempts.
- Against Indianapolis (11/12), made a 50-yard field goal and missed from 44 yards. His 50-yarder in the second quarter gave him six field goals on seven attempts of 50-plus yards in 2020. His previous career high for 50-yard field goals in season was five in 2013 with the New England Patriots.
- At Baltimore (11/22), made all three field goal attempts and his only extra point attempt. He connected on a pair of 40-yard field goals and added a 22-yarder. It was his second game of 2020 with at least three field goals.

➤ At Indianapolis (11/29), connected on a 49-yard field goal in the third quarter and made all six of his extra point attempts.

➤ Against Cleveland (12/6), connected on all three of his extra point attempts.

➤ At Jacksonville (12/13), made a 53-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. He also made all four of his extra point attempts. He improved his season totals to seven successful field goals in eight attempts from 50 yards and beyond. His previous career high for most field goals in a season of 50-plus yards was five in 2013 with the New England Patriots.

➤ Against Detroit (12/20), made a 38-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter to give him two consecutive games with a field goal as the clock hit zero in the first half. He also made all five of his extra point attempts.

➤ At Green Bay (12/27), connected on both extra point attempts to give him 100 points on the season. It marked his 13th career season with at least 100 points.

➤ Placed on the reserve/COVID-19 list on Dec. 28 and activated on Jan. 7.

➤ Against Baltimore (1/10), made both field goal attempts and his only extra point attempt. His field goals from 45 yards (first quarter) and 25 yards (fourth quarter) improved his career postseason totals to 41 field goals on 46 attempts (89.1 percent). His 41 career postseason field goals ranked second in NFL history behind Adam Vinatieri (56).

#6 - P BRETT KERN

6-2, 214, 13th Year, Toledo

Click for complete bio

Punter Brett Kern completed his 13th NFL season and his 11th full campaign with the Titans in 2020. The three-time Pro Bowl selection was claimed off waivers by the Titans during the 2009 season.

During his time in Tennessee, Kern has placed his name at the top of most of the franchise's leaderboards at his position. He passed Craig Hentrich (861 punts) in 2020 as the organization's all-time leading punter and finished the season with 876 punts in a Titans uniform. He also concluded 2020 as the team's all-time career leader in gross punting average (45.9 yards), net punting average (40.8) and punts placed inside the 20 (355). Kern owns the top eight net punting seasons in franchise history and six of the team's top eight gross punting seasons.

In 2020, Kern appeared in 13 games, missing three contests on injured reserve. He punted 37 times for a 45.8 gross average and a 41.5-yard net average with 22 punts placed inside the 20. Since the 1991 season, Kern's 59.5 percent of punts placed inside the 20 in 2020 was the best of any player with at least 30 punts in a season.

When Kern was placed on injured reserve during the 2020 season, it ended his consecutive games played streak ended at 199 games, including his career with the Titans and Denver Broncos. At the time, he owned the fourth-longest active consecutive games played streak in the NFL. His streak with the Titans ended at 177 consecutive games played, finishing as the second-longest streak in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews' 232 consecutive games from 1987 to 2001.

With 183 career games with the Titans through 2020, Kern ranked fourth in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews (296), Elvin Bethea (210) and Brad Hopkins (194). Kern's total was the most for any player during the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999).

In 2019, Kern was named to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, and he earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors for the first time in his career. His 37 punts inside the 20 led the NFL, and his 43.1-yard net average ranked second in team history.

In 2018, his 47.1-yard gross average ranked fifth in team history, and his 41.7-yard net average ranked second in team annals. He set a franchise record and recorded a career high with 39 of his 74 punts inside the 20-yard line. He finished the season with a career-long streak of 16 consecutive punts placed inside the 20, including every punt in the final three games of the season.

In 2017, Kern had arguably one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history and was named to his first career Pro Bowl in addition to earning second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors. He punted 75 times for 3,728 yards with 28 punts placed inside the 20-yard line. His 44.6-yard net average broke his own team record and finished second in NFL history behind only Johnny Hekker's 46.0-yard net average in 2016. Kern's 49.7-yard gross average also broke his team mark and finished eighth in NFL history.

In 2015, Kern continued his annual assault on the team's all-time punting records and accomplished a first-of-its-kind NFL feat, becoming the first punter in league history to record 80 or more punts, a net average of 40 yards, and one or zero touchbacks in a single season. His season totals included 88 punts (tied for fifth place in franchise history), a 47.4-yard gross average (second in franchise history), a 40.3 net average (third in franchise history), a career-high 34 punts inside the 20 (third in franchise history) and only one touchback (career low).

In 2014, Kern launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012).

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set then-franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he later broke both marks).

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

2020 Game Notes:

- At Denver (9/14), punted four times for a 51.0-yard gross average and a 47.0-yard net average with two punts inside the 20, including a long punt of 66 yards to help pin the Broncos inside their 10-yard line in the second quarter. He became the seventh player in franchise history to play in 12 seasons with the organization, joining Bruce Matthews (1983–2001), Elvin Bethea (1968–1983), Brad Hopkins (1993–2005), Gregg Bingham (1973–1983), Mike Munchak (1982–1993) and Craig Hentrich (1998–2009). Kern became the first to accomplish the feat exclusively in the “Titans era” (1999–present).
- Against Jacksonville (9/20), averaged 40.7 yards on three punts with all three punts placed inside the 20. He pinned the Jaguars on their own six-yard line with a 34-yard punt in the second quarter.
- At Minnesota (9/27), averaged 47.7 yards on three punts (41.0 net) with one punt inside the 20. He tied Gregg Bingham (1973–84) for fifth place on the franchise games played list with his 173rd game.
- Against Buffalo (10/13), passed Gregg Bingham (173 games) for fifth place on the franchise’s career games played list by playing in his 174th game with the Titans. He averaged 42.7 yards (43.0 net) on three punts with all three punts placed inside the 20. He helped pin the Bills on their own nine-yard line with a 55-yard punt in the first quarter, and he pinned the Bills on their own three-yard line with a 41-yard punt in the third quarter.
- Against Houston (10/18), recorded only one punt (54 yards) in a game for only the sixth time in his career and for the first time since Nov. 5, 2018 at Dallas.
- Against Pittsburgh (10/25), established a new franchise record and a career high with a gross punting average of 60.5 yards (minimum requirement of four punts). His four punts went, in order, for 63 yards, 59 yards, 61 yards and 59 yards. He eclipsed the old franchise record of 59.2 yards set by Greg Montgomery against Buffalo on Dec. 27, 1992. Kern’s net average against Pittsburgh was 39.8 yards with one punt inside the 20. His 60.5-yard gross average ranked third in the NFL since 1970, trailing only Andy Lee’s 63.0-yard average for Carolina at Denver on Sept. 8, 2016 and Kansas City’s Tommy Townsend against New England on Oct. 5, 2020.
- At Cincinnati (11/1), averaged 36.0 yards (26.0 net) on two punts with one punt inside the 20. He tied Craig Hentrich for fourth place on the franchise’s all-time games played list with his 177th game, trailing only Bruce Matthews (296), Elvin Bethea (210) and Brad Hopkins (194).
- Placed on injured reserve (wrist) on Nov. 7.
- Against Chicago (11/8), did not appear in a game for the first time in his career after he was placed on injured reserve the day before the contest. His consecutive games played streak ended at 199 games, including his career with the Titans and Denver Broncos. Prior to the game, he owned the fourth-longest active consecutive games played streak in the NFL behind only Philip Rivers (232), Sam Koch (231) and Mason Crosby (216). His streak with the Titans ended at 177 consecutive games played. It finished as the second-longest streak in franchise history behind Bruce Matthews’ 232 consecutive games from 1987 to 2001.

- Activated from injured reserve on Nov. 28.
- At Indianapolis (11/29), appeared in his 200th NFL regular season game and his 178th game with the Titans. In doing so, he passed Craig Hentrich (177 games with the Titans) for fourth place on the franchise’s all-time games played list. He trails only Bruce Matthews (296), Elvin Bethea (210) and Brad Hopkins (194). Additionally, he passed Hentrich (861 punts) for the most punts in franchise history, finishing the contest with 863 punts in a Titans uniform. He averaged 40.0 gross yards (40.0 net) with all four of his punts placed inside the 20 against the Colts.
- Against Cleveland (12/6), totaled three punts for a 46.0-yard gross average and a 45.7-yard net average.
- At Jacksonville (12/13), averaged 41.3 yards (41.3 net) on four punts with all four punts placed inside the 20.
- Against Detroit (12/20), registered one punt for 47 yards to pin the Lions inside their own 10-yard line.
- At Green Bay (12/27), in snowy conditions, averaged 43.5 yards (38.5 net) on four punts, including a 60-yard punt, with one punt inside the 20.
- Placed on the reserve/COVID-19 list on Dec. 29 and removed from the list on Jan. 2.
- At Houston (1/3), placed his only punt inside the 20 for 46 yards (44 net).
- Against Baltimore (1/10), recorded five punts for a 45.6-yard gross average and a 45.6-yard net average with four punts placed inside the 20. His net averaged established a new franchise single-game postseason record among qualifiers (minimum five punts), breaking Craig Hentrich’s mark of 44.3 yards at Baltimore on Jan. 3, 2004. His 45.6-yard gross average qualified as the fifth-highest gross average in franchise postseason annals (minimum five punts). His four punts inside the 20 tied the franchise postseason record and marked the second time in is playoff career he reached the number after previously accomplishing the feat at New England on Jan. 4, 2020.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

WR CAMERON BATSON

- Batson was the valedictorian of his class at Millwood (Okla.) High School, and at Texas Tech, he graduated cum laude with his accounting degree in just over three years. His valedictorian speech – he had 52 in his graduating class – focused on his class, along with his past, and his journey.
- Batson wasn't necessarily expecting to make the team's 53-man roster as a rookie free agent in 2018. So when he walked into general manager Jon Robinson's office during cutdown day, he was expecting the worst. But things took a nice turn, and then something happened even the GM had never experienced before. Robinson told Batson he'd made the team's 53-man roster, and an impromptu prayer broke out. "I sat there and prayed," Batson said, "and Jon bowed his head with me. He said, 'That's the first time anyone had ever done that.' ... I just wanted to give God the glory, with everything that is going on good or bad, because without Him nothing is possible."
- He has a dog named Kookie, and runs an Instagram account for her @ms.kookiemonster.
- Batson was roommates with Kansas City Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes at Texas Tech.

FB/RB KHARI BLASINGAME

- Blasingame enjoys playing the saxophone.
- He originally started his Vanderbilt career at linebacker before transitioning to running back as a sophomore in 2016.
- After his football career, Blasingame's goal is to become the CEO of a hospital or health care system. Once there, he wants to focus on improving health care outcomes for disadvantaged populations.
- He earned his undergraduate degree in medicine, health and society from Vanderbilt in 2017 and is working towards a master's degree in education, after playing his final collegiate season in 2018 as a graduate student.

CB BREON BORDERS

- Borders lettered in basketball and track and field at Statesville High School (N.C.), earning the 2013 county basketball player of the year and 2013 county track and field athlete of year by the Statesville Record & Landmark.
- Borders was also the state champion in the 300-meter hurdles and three-time all-conference and all-county selection in track and field.

C AARON BREWER

- The Dallas, Texas, native competed in throws for the track and field team in high school.

WR A.J. BROWN

- Brown was selected in the 19th round of the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres as a centerfielder and he participated in the team's extended spring training program each summer from 2016-18.
- He has a dog, Bentley Juan Brown, and runs an Instagram account for him @bentleyjuan1.
- During a pre-draft visit to San Francisco, Brown was able to link up and work out with Hall of Fame NFL receiver and fellow Mississippian Jerry Rice. Rice took Brown on the horse trail at Edgewood Park in Redwood City, known as one of Rice's training sites, where the pair ran hills as part of their work out. Brown's hometown Starkville, Miss., and Rice's hometown Crawford, Miss., are a 30-minute drive apart.

LB JAYON BROWN

- Former Long Beach Poly and New England Patriots star Willie McGinest is a close friend of the Brown family.
- Brown's younger brother, Joshua, is a defensive end at the University of Arizona, and his two older brothers also played college football. Jason played linebacker at Idaho, while Juwan was a defensive lineman at Southern Oregon.
- He likes spending as much time as possible with his dogs, "a mutt named Lou" and a Rottweiler named Kali. He also enjoys puzzles and watching movies.

CB MALCOLM BUTLER

- In February 2017, the production company Narrative Capital acquired the rights to the story of Butler for a film tentatively titled "The Secondary."
- Following Butler's crucial goal line interception to seal Super Bowl XLIX, Patriots quarterback Tom Brady, who received a 2015 Chevrolet Colorado as part of his Super Bowl XLIX MVP Award, requested Chevrolet award the truck directly to Butler.
- Prior to securing a rookie free agent tryout with the Patriots in 2014, Butler was operating the fryolator at a Popeye's restaurant.
- Every offseason since 2015, Butler has hosted free skills and multi-sport experience camps in his hometown of Vicksburg, Miss., for 500 boys and girls in first through 12th grades.

S KEVIN BYARD

- In July 2020, Byard was named the official spokesperson for the United Way of Greater Nashville. His first order of business was to participate in the organization's virtual Stuff the Bus school supply drive.
- In May 2020, Byard was able to accomplish a goal of helping to purchase his mother, Artina Stanley, her "forever home."
- During the 2019 offseason, Byard hosted 200-plus youngsters at the inaugural Kevin Byard Football Camp at Ensworth School. He plans to hold the camp - which was free - every year.
- The Titans had an inside track in their scouting of Byard. Titans general manager Jon Robinson received glowing reports on Byard from his friend and MTSU recruiting coordinator Steve Ellis. When Robinson was a linebackers coach at Nicholls State, Ellis was one of his pupils, and the two remained close through the years. Additionally, Patrick Callaway, college scout for the Titans, was Byard's high school teammate.
- Byard says his football role models are Ed Reed, Brian Dawkins and Troy Polamalu.

OLB JADEVEON CLOWNEY (first name pronounced juh-DEV-ee-on)

- Majored in African-American studies at South Carolina.

LB WILL COMPTON

- Prior to his first training camp as a rookie free agent, Compton typed out five personal goals in his iPad that he wanted to accomplish over the next five years. Although he truly never imagined being able to achieve each of the goals, he checked off all the boxes. They included playing a vital role for Washington, earning a starting spot, being named a captain, reaching a specific financial goal by age 27 and doing at least three speaking engagements a year despite no prior experience.
- Compton is the co-founder of the popular podcast Bussin' With The Boys with teammate Taylor Lewan. The two friends host guests on an old Monte Carlo Budweiser bus and discuss any and everything.

DL JACK CRAWFORD

- Crawford was born in London, England and moved to the United States in 2005. He initially moved to the United States to pursue a career playing basketball.
- It wasn't until 2006 that Crawford joined the football team at St. Augustine Prep (N.J.), where he found immediate success. During his senior season, he emerged as a standout, being rated the No. 15 defensive end in the nation by Scout.com.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

DB DANE CRUIKSHANK (pronounced CROOK-shank)

- Growing up a Southern California fan, his most memorable college football moment was playing the Trojans in the Coliseum. Cruikshank posted 10 tackles and one interception in the contest.
- Cruikshank's nickname is 'Smooove.' He wore jersey No. 2 in high school, earning the nickname '2 Smooove,' which was then shortened to Smooove.
- He lists owning his own business as a goal on his bucket list. He would one day like to open his own training facility.

P TREVOR DANIEL

- A native of Dickson, Tenn., Daniel grew up watching football with his grandfather. As a child, "I told my granddad that I was going to play for the Dickson Dragons, which is the middle school team, Dickson Cougars, which is our high school, then Tennessee, then the Tennessee Titans," Daniel said. He completed that dream when he signed with the Titans in 2020.

WR COREY DAVIS

- Davis' late brother, Titus, played football at Central Michigan and was signed by the Chargers as a rookie free agent in 2015. Titus also spent time with the Jets, Bills and Bears.
- One of Davis' favorite quotes is "Never die easy" by Walter Payton, who used the saying as the title to his autobiography.
- Davis studied special education at Western Michigan.

OL NATE DAVIS

- Growing up, Davis was 'always a pretty big kid.' He played on the offensive or defensive line during Pop Warner and estimates that in the fourth grade he weighed around 200 pounds.
- Davis was invited to the 2019 Senior Bowl, which he credits for helping him during the draft process. He went head-to-head with defensive linemen from larger conferences, and as an athlete from a smaller conference, he credits his performance at the Senior Bowl for helping put his name into the conversation ahead of the draft.
- Davis' father purchased him a fishing rod as a child and would take him to the pond near their home in Ashburn, Va., to fish and relax.
- Davis is a car enthusiast who has a knack for identifying the year, make and model of a car. He lists his dream car as a Rolls-Royce.

DE MATT DICKERSON

- Dickerson's father, Clarence, played college football at Henderson State (Ark.).
- Dickerson has a twin sister named Megan.
- Dickerson played football for the first time as a high school freshman.

- Douglas was on the New England Patriots practice squad when the team won Super Bowl LI.
- He graduated with a degree in Criminal Justice and Criminology from Arizona State in 2013.
- Played tight end/H-back as a senior in high school after primarily being featured at left tackle during the early part of his high school career. He caught three passes for 79 yards and one touchdown and carried four times for 19 yards.

LB NICK DZUBNAR (pronounced duh-ZOOb-nar)

- Dzubnar feels he was better at hockey than football in high school. He participated as a Junior Anaheim Duck in his youth.
- His brother-in-law is former Chargers tackle Cory Lekkerkerker.
- Earned a degree in construction management from Cal Poly — San Luis Obispo.
- In high school, he was the senior class president and a four-year ASB member.

RB DARRYNTON EVANS

- At the NFL Scouting Combine in February, Evans raised money and brought awareness to ECANA (Endometrial Cancer Action Network for African-Americans) by getting pledges for every inch of his vertical leap. He raised more than $3,200 with a vertical of 37 inches.
- Evans grew up with and went to high school with San Francisco 49ers running back Raheem Mostert, Tampa Bay Buccaneers safety D'Cota Dixon and Washington linebacker Cole Holcomb. Mostert, who led the NFC champion 49ers in rushing in 2019 and was among the first to reach out to Evans on social media during the draft, tweeting three simple words: "We built different!"

- Evans got a head start on the Titans' playbook during his final season at Appalachian State. Every year, the Mountaineer coaches' study one NFL offense and incorporate some of its principles into their own playbook. It just so happened that App State chose the Titans prior to the 2019 season.
- Evans earned a grade point average of 3.34 and was tabbed the Sun Belt's Top Scholar by Street & Smith magazine.
- Evans enjoys playing video games, particularly NBA2K, Call of Duty and Madden, solving Rubik's Cubes and producing music in his spare time.

LB RASHAAN EVANS

- Upon being drafted by Tennessee, Evans was reunited with former Crimson Tide teammate Derrick Henry. Henry phoned Evans immediately after he was selected with the 22nd pick to congratulate him.
- At Alabama, Evans shared the field with his brother, Alex, a member of the Crimson Tide spirit squad.
- Growing up in rural Alabama, Evans would chase wild horses to work on improving his speed and athleticism.
- Evans' father, Alan, was a star running back at Auburn. Evans' mother, Chenavis, received four degrees from Auburn, including her doctorate. Evans' older sister was a cheerleader at Auburn, and despite the family ties including his cousins attending Auburn, Evans stuck with his gut and instead chose Alabama.
- He has two pregame rituals. Evans prays before each game and pulls grass from the field early in pregame to get a feel for the turf.
- His nickname is 'Razor, because I cut up.'

TE ANTHONY FIRSKER (pronounced FERK-sir)

- Firkser grew up playing basketball and both roller and ice hockey at elite levels and didn't begin playing football until his sophomore year of high school.
- In the offseason, Firkser volunteers with his former high school football coach to help train and give advice to aspiring young football players in his hometown community of Manalapan, N.J.
- His brother, Josh, played football at Wagner College.

RB D'ONTA FOREMAN

- In 2016, Foreman was a Heisman Trophy candidate, a consensus first-team All-American, and won the Doak Walker Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award at the University of Texas.
- Foreman's twin brother, Armanti, was a wide receiver at Texas.

CB KRISTIAN FULTON

- Fulton's older brother, Keith Fulton, played wide receiver at LSU. Kristian and Keith were teammates in 2018.
- Fulton wears jersey No. 26 to fuel his competitive fire. "It just reminds me every day that I had eight corners selected before me," Fulton told the Official Titans Podcast. Two plus six equals eight, "So, if you add it up, it's a reminder for me every day."
- Graduated in December of 2019 with a degree in sports administration from LSU.

K STEPHEN GOSTKOWSKI (pronounced gost-COW-ski)

- The Madison, Miss., native received an athletic scholarship to pitch for the University of Memphis baseball team coming out of high school. He also made the football team as a walk-on and finished his college career as the team's all-time leading scorer with 369 points.

RB DERRICK HENRY

- In high school, Henry broke the 51-year-old national high school rushing record with 12,124 yards after compiling 4,261 rushing yards as a senior.
- Henry sealed an Iron Bowl victory with an epic, career-best 271 rushing yards against the Tigers. He put the Crimson Tide on his back by carrying the ball a school-record 46 times. His 271 rushing yards were 11 more yards than Auburn had in total offense (260). He ended the game with 14 consecutive rushes to run out the clock.
- His late grandmother, Gladys Henry, helped raise him and played a key inspirational role in his development. In 2018, he fulfilled a promise to her and graduated from Alabama with his bachelor's degree. He has a portrait tattoo of her on his chest.
- Gladys Henry nicknamed him "Shocka" as a baby because he "shocked the whole family" when he was born.
- Henry has been growing out his hair since he was in elementary school.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

DB AMANI HOOKER

- Hooker was named a finalist for Minnesota's Mr. Football in 2015, yet he had just two FBS scholarship offers. When the in-state university showed hesitancy after multiple workouts, Hooker knew he belonged at Iowa saying, "love who loves me."
- Amani's brother, Quinton, played basketball for North Dakota and helped take the team to the NCAA tournament his senior year. Quinton was Minnesota's Mr. Basketball in high school and currently plays basketball professionally in France.
- In February 2019, Hooker helped crowdfund about $1,200 for the Park Center high school football program through a Pledge-It campaign raising a dollar amount for every inch of his vertical jump at the NFL Scouting Combine. His 37-inch jump ranked fifth among safeties and equaled money for better equipment at his alma mater.

WR ADAM HUMPHRIES

- Humphries was originally a rookie tryout invitee with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 2015 NFL Draft. Titans general manager Jon Robinson was a member of the Bucs player personnel department at the time and saw the 5-foot-11-inch wideout grind it out in practice and eventually earn a spot on the team's 53-man roster. "Humph came in as a tryout and won a spot on the 90-man roster," said Robinson. "He was a tough guy to cover all through training camp and he kept working and working and working. I've always had an affinity for him and liked his style. He's earned everything he's got."
- Clemson head football coach Dabo Swinney took a visit to Humphries' high school, Dorman, before the 2011 season to scout eventual signee Charone Peake during a basketball game. But once the game began, Swinney couldn't help but notice Dorman's 5-foot-11 point guard running the show. "I go watch a basketball game at Dorman High School to see Charone Peake, and I'm going, 'Dang, who's this point guard?'" Swinney said. "And I've got Coach (Dave) Gutshall going, 'Well that's the best football player I've got on the team.' And I'm like, 'Really? We need to watch this guy a little bit.' He played corner, he played receiver, he played running back, he played quarterback. He was the best football player on the team. Adam Humphries was his name. I don't think he had any offers. So we offer the guy, 'Well, we're only offering the guy to get Charone Peake. No, no, no. We want Humphries.'"
- Humphries maintains a friendship with former Clemson teammate DeAndre Hopkins.
- After going down with an injury in the 2019 season, Humphries adopted a shiba inu puppy, Gigi, to keep him company.
- An avid golfer, Humphries is around a 7 handicap.
- During the unique 2020 offseason, Humphries helped pass the time by playing video games. His main purpose was to connect with old friends from high school and college, and former teammates from the Buccaneers. He enjoys Fortnite and Rory McIlroy PGA Tour.

CB ADOREE' JACKSON

- Jackson was a long jumper and sprinter on USC's track team in the springs of 2015 and 2016, winning the Pac-12 outdoor long jump title both years (and placing second in the Pac-12 100 meters in 2016) and earning All-American status both years after twice placing fifth in the NCAA long jump. He also placed 10th in the long jump during the U.S. Olympic Trials.
- Vianca Jackson, a survivor of breast cancer, served as the team's Honorary 12th Titan prior to the team's 2017 Breast Cancer Awareness Game (Oct. 16).
- Jackson's father, Chris Jackson, is the ultimate grill master and can be found at Titans home games smoking turkey legs, Cornish hams, chicken, rabbits, alligator and frog legs for a pre-game tailgate among family and friends, as well as a post-game meal with players and coaches. He makes all of his own rubs and sauces and has been cooking since 1984.
- Jackson, business partner James Moore, and Jay Levine co-founded Kor Media Entertainment (KME), a Los Angeles-based entertainment agency under the Warner Brothers Digital umbrella. Their tagline is "Where Creatives Come to Play" and their goal is to create culture relevance for both creators and brands through interactive and labs which a focus on gaming and esports.
- Jackson is a Reese's Peanut Butter Cups enthusiast. He names creator Harry Burnett Reese as a historical person he would have loved to meet. "He's a genius. That's by far and away my favorite candy. I eat that like it ain't nothing."
- Jackson watched the movie "Space Jam" continuously as a child to the point he memorized most of the movie.
- In May 2018, Jackson and his business partner James Moore paid for the burial costs of Jaylon McKenzie, an eighth-grade football player who was killed by a stray bullet. McKenzie, a St. Louis, Ill., native, grew up idolizing Jackson.

DB CHRIS JACKSON

- A two-time state track champion in high school, Jackson runs a 4.47 second 40-yard dash. 'I still work out like a track athlete when I can,' Jackson said. 'I watch it a lot and keep up with it.'
- He has a love of cars that he attributes to his father and uncle, the latter of which does competitive drag racing. Jackson lists his top three cars as a 1969 Camaro, a 1984 Buick Grand National and a Ferrari F40.
- Jackson was a two-time Florida state high school track champion in the 110-meter hurdles, and a runner-up in the 300 hurdles.

C BEN JONES

- Jones switched from jersey #61 to #60 prior to his senior season at Georgia, to honor his father, Steve, a former collegiate star, who was killed in a helicopter crash when he was 10 years old.
- Jones' pregame ritual consists of walking barefoot on the field "to get a feel for the turf." The routine began before one game with his brother in high school and after enjoying success that night, it has continued ever since.
- When he was 10 years old, Jones suffered a blow to the head with a baseball bat. The impact caused a blood clot to develop on his brain and fractured his skull. The injury kept him out of all athletic activity for a year.
- In 2017, Jones established The Jones Mission Fund at The Community Foundation to provide at-risk youth with opportunities they might otherwise not have.
- For the past three offseasons, Jones and his wife has hosted the annual Ben Jones Celebrity Clay Shoot. The three events combined have raised more than $400,000 benefitting The Jones Mission Fund.
- Jones hosts a free Friday Night Lights youth football camp in his native Alabama every June.
- Jones sponsors a trip to a Titans game each fall for the seniors of his high school's football team in Alabama. The experience includes round trip transportation from his hometown, tickets, a private tailgate, swag bags, and a meet-and-greet with a tour of the Titans practice facility after the game with Jones.
- Jones' brother, Clay, played baseball for the University of Alabama and then was drafted by the Detroit Tigers

DL DAQUAN JONES

- Jones has a reputation as an upbeat, positive influence. "I've always had that positive mindset, even when things weren't as good," he says. "The guys laugh at me sometimes because I'm always smiling ... It's not that I'm happy all the time, but I just feel like in today's world, if you let anything get you down, it will. The smallest thing will turn into the biggest problem if you let it, so I just try my best to keep a positive mindset."
- Jones majored in criminal justice at Penn State and spent a portion of his 2013 summer as an intern observing the Spring Township Police Department near State College.
- Jones entered the Penn State program after being rated the second-best offensive lineman in the nation during his playing days at Johnson City High School. He switched to the other side of the ball and made an immediate impact as a true freshman.
- Jones lists his father, Steve, as the most inspirational person in his life. Steve raised DaQuan as a single father and one of his father's greatest traits is that he works extremely hard in everything he does. Steve works as an executive chef at Cornell University.
- Jones is in the process of launching his own non-profit organization called "Create Your Legacy." In June 2019, he hosted the DaQuan Jones Create Your Legacy Football Camp for more than 100 kids ages 11-18 at Johnson City (N.Y.) High School.
- Jones has four dogs, one of which he named Titan.

DB JOSHUA KALU (pronounced kuh-LOO)

- In the 2020 offseason during the COVID-19 pandemic, Kalu spent time giving back to his hometown of Houston, Texas. He partnered with local restaurants and hand-delivered free meals to healthcare workers fighting the pandemic.
- Kalu was heavily involved in the Lincoln community while at Nebraska. He was named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team as a sophomore, junior and senior for his work with Make-A-Wish, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60, the Souper Bowl of Caring, Husker Heroes and Husker Hotline, as well as local hospital and school outreach events.
- He earned his degree in child, youth and family studies in December of 2017, finishing his undergraduate work in 3 1/2 years.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

T DENNIS KELLY

- Kelly went back to school during the 2014 offseason to earn his degree in organizational leadership from Purdue, and in May 2019, Kelly received his MBA from the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University.
- Kelly is an avid professional wrestling fan that does not let the opportunity pass him by whenever a live WWE show is in town. He lists the Undertaker as the one person in the world he would like to have dinner with.
- Kelly's brother, Tim, played football at Eastern Illinois and is currently the offensive coordinator for the Houston Texans.
- Kelly's favorite football player growing up was former Titans great Jevon Kearse.
- Kelly claims that the biggest influence on his life and career has been his entire family. "We're a Southside [Chicago] Irish family, so we share a really tight bond and they've inspired me to get to where I am today."

P BRETT KERN

- Kern's father, Cal, is a former professional soccer goalie.
- Kern is an avid golfer that sports a +1 handicap. He picked the game up late in his high school years and caddied for three summers at Inverness Golf Club while in college.
- Kern played basketball and was a long jumper and high hurdler in high school.

DB DESMOND KING II

- King established a Michigan high school record with 29 career interceptions.
- King was a four-year letterman in track, competing in sprint events and relays in high school.

OLB HAROLD LANDRY III

- Landry could have entered the NFL Draft following his 16.5-sack junior season at Boston College. However, he chose to stay in school and received his degree in communications in December 2017.
- Landry enjoys traveling. One of his favorite getaways is Destin, Fla.
- He and his son, Greyson, share the same June 5 birthday.
- Landry's 26 career sacks at Boston College were exceeded in school history by only Mathias Kiwanuka (37.5 from 2002-05).
- In 2016, he set a Boston College record and led the nation with 16.5 sacks. His seven forced fumbles also ranked first nationally.

T TAYLOR LEWAN (pronounced leh-WAHN)

- Lewan is the co-founder of the popular podcast Bussin' With The Boys with teammate Will Compton. The two friends host guests on an old Monte Carlo Budweiser bus and discuss any and everything.
- Lewan owns a taxidermied beaver named Steve. The fedora-donning stuffed rodent, who was a gift from Lewan's wife, Taylin, makes appearances around the Titans locker room, often appearing at the locker of an unsuspecting rookie.
- Lewan chose to wear jersey number 77 at Michigan and then at the pro level because of the legacy of Wolverine tackles who have donned the number, including Jake Long and Jon Jansen.
- Lewan has a mustache tattooed on his right index finger and a stick figure tattooed on the outside edge of his right hand that he calls his "right-hand man."
- One of Lewan's close friends is former Carolina Panthers defensive end Craig Roh. The two played together as high school seniors and then went to Michigan at the same time.
- At the 2014 NFL Scouting Combine, Lewan ran the 40-yard dash in 4.87 seconds, beating all other offensive linemen in his class and clocking the fourth-fastest time among offensive linemen from 2010-14. He also ranked among the top offensive linemen at the 2014 combine in the broad jump (first at nine feet, nine inches), vertical jump (tied for third at 30.5 inches) and three-cone drill (fourth at 7.39 seconds).

LB DAVID LONG JR.

- David's father, David Sr., is a former professional boxer who went 12-5-2 as a heavyweight. He once fought future world champ Deontay Wilder.
- During the offseason, Long still uses on-the-bell, three-minute-round boxing training to focus on his mental awareness. In 2018, Long Jr. went into the ring with headgear against his old man for the first time. They went for three 90-second rounds. "He busted up my lip, but it was fun," Long Jr. says. "He was really iffy that I knew how to throw my hands for real. It was just jabs, but it's grown-man strength."
- Long was a high school teammate of safety Mike Edwards, who was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the third round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

RB JEREMY MCNICHOLS

- McNichols was coached by hip-hop artist Snoop Dogg while playing youth football in the Snoop Youth Football League in Los Angeles, Calif. McNichols played both alongside and against numerous NFL players. The SYFL serves children between the ages of five and 13 years old, teaching them the values of teamwork, good sportsmanship, discipline, and self-respect, while also stressing the importance of academics.

CB CHRIS MILTON

- Milton is related to former NFL running back Tashard Choice, who played six seasons (2008-2013) in the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys, Washington, Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts.
- Milton had the opportunity to learn from Pro Football Hall of Famer Champ Bailey. Their families were close, and when Milton was getting ready for the NFL, he reached out to Bailey for tips. They trained together during the weeks leading up to the draft. Now if he ever has questions, he still reaches out to the legendary cornerback.
- Milton enjoys fishing in his free time and when he is not playing or training for football he feels like a full-time fisherman on the water.

DL LARRELL MURCHISON

- Murchison grew up working with his mother at her restaurant in Elizabethtown called Glenda's Just Desserts and Lunch Counter, which she has owned for 10 years. He would work doing whatever needed to be done – mopping floors, sweeping, waiting tables and taking orders. "Everything is good, but if you go, I'd say start with the fried pork chops, mac and cheese and cabbage."
- Murchison loves everything music and enjoys playing the drums. His dad played drums in the church when he was younger, and he just followed in his footsteps.

T MARSHALL NEWHOUSE

- Newhouse's father, John, played football at the University of Houston and was part of three Cotton Bowl teams (1977, 1979, 1980).
- His cousin, Robert Newhouse, is a former Dallas Cowboy fullback (1972-83).
- In high school Newhouse lettered in track & field as well as weightlifting. He was the 2006 UIL Texas State shot put champion and earned a third-place finish in the 2005 powerlifting championships.
- Newhouse has a large interest in the tech community. "My dad is a computer programmer, so that's how I got started. When I was a kid, I started building PCs and I was into computer PC gaming."

CB KAREEM ORR

- Orr transferred to Chattanooga from Arizona State after his sophomore season because of the birth of his daughter, Scottie Jade.
- Orr is a big Liverpool fan and loves playing FIFA.

LS MATT OVERTON

- Overton's grandfather, Paul Wallrof, played football at University of Washington and was a long-time head football coach and Athletic Hall of Fame inductee at University of Puget Sound.

RB SENORISE PERRY (first name pronounce suh-NAH-riss)

- Perry wasn't among the rookie free agents signed in the days following the 2014 NFL Draft. He hit the tryout circuit and hoped to make an impression. Perry was one of two players signed by the Chicago Bears after a May tryout. He excelled on special teams in the preseason games and sealed his 53-man roster spot as an undrafted free agent.
- Perry excelled in track and field as a high school senior, winning the Georgia state titles in the 100 meters and long jump.
- Perry's hobbies include photography, and he has a desire to learn how to deep sea fish.

TE MYCOLE PRUITT

- The name MyCole has a unique origin. Pruitt's mother's name is Colette. Cole means "people's victory" in Greek baby names. She named him MyCole for My-Victory. MyCole is his mother's victory.
- Named best tight end in Missouri Valley Football Conference history as part of the MVFC's 30-year anniversary celebration.
- Pruitt graduated in December 2014 with a bachelor's degree in industrial technology from Southern Illinois.
- Pruitt attended the same high school as former NFL wide receiver Jeremy Maclin.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD NOTES

OLB WYATT RAY

➤ Ray is the grandson of the late, legendary singer Nat King Cole and is the nephew of the late Natalie Cole.

WR KALIF RAYMOND

➤ Raymond was a dual-sport collegiate athlete, competing in football as well as track and field during his senior season at Holy Cross. He placed second in the 100-meter dash at the 2015 New England Outdoor Championship with a time of 10.71 seconds.

➤ Raymond received little interest from college football programs when he was a student at Greater Atlanta Christian (Ga.) High School, partly due to a serious injury he suffered as a senior. Undeterred, he began sending emails to colleges with football programs with high academic standards. The only schools to respond were Lehigh, Georgetown and Holy Cross, and he chose the latter.

➤ In preparation for the 2016 NFL Draft, Raymond, who was not invited to the NFL Scouting Combine, was allowed to participate in Harvard's pro day since Holy Cross did not host a pro day.

OLB DERICK ROBERSON (pronounced ROW-ber-son)

➤ Roberson enjoys painting on and designing sneakers and cleats.

➤ Roberson is unsure how many tattoos he has at this point, but he has drawn and designed some of the ones he has inked on his body.

G RODGER SAFFOLD III

➤ Saffold is the owner of competitive "Call of Duty" and "Fortnite" teams called Rise Nation. He invested in the video game industry in April 2014.

➤ His father, Rodger II, played football at the University of Iowa in the mid-1970s.

➤ Rodger and his wife Asia grew up on the same street as eight-year olds in Ohio. The childhood friend's romance didn't begin until quite awhile later when the two re-connected on Facebook during Saffold's second-year with the Rams.

T TY SAMBRAILO

➤ Sambrailo's dad, Mark, graduated from the University of Colorado, where he was a pole vaulter, his brother, Erik, also is a CU graduate and competed as a skier in the Junior Olympics, his sister, Kiersten, played volleyball at Oregon State, and his grandfather, Bill Sambrailo, played football at Santa Clara, helping the team to a berth in the Orange Bowl.

DT JEFFERY SIMMONS

➤ During college Simmons was a two-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

➤ Simmons' brother, Dylan Bradley, played football at Southern Miss and then spent time with the Minnesota Vikings. His uncle, Jason Hatcher, played 10 total seasons with the Dallas Cowboys and Washington.

➤ Away from football, Simmons enjoys fishing and spending time outdoors.

TE JONNU SMITH (first name pronounced JAH-new)

➤ Smith competed in weightlifting, finishing second in the county in the 219-pound weight class in high school at West Port.

➤ Smith credits his mother, Karen, for his successes. Jonnu's father passed away as a result of a tow truck accident when he was four years old and his mother raised all six children by herself. "My mother is my rock. It was tough, but we always got what we needed—not necessarily what we wanted all the time—but what we needed. She was so strong all the time."

➤ Smith endured a lot of challenges as a youngster in Philadelphia and after his brother was arrested and one of his friends was killed on the streets, a decision needed to be made. His family didn't have the financial means to just uproot, so for his own safety Jonnu moved in with his mother's sister and brother-in-law, Darla and Mike Kirkland, in Ocala, Fla. He started playing high school football and even though he was far from a touted recruit, he earned a scholarship to Florida International where his play took off.

➤ Smith's best friend Willie "Quasim" Jefferson tragically died from a gun shot in October 2016. Jonnu gave his son the middle name Quasim in honor of him.

CB TYE SMITH

➤ In 2018, Smith began hosting the annual "Simple Greatness" youth football clinic at St. Augustine University in his hometown of Raleigh, N.C. Smith says Simple Greatness to him means, "It can't be measured. It means heart, dedication. It's all the intangibles that we as a society overlook because we look so much at things we can measure."

➤ Smith enjoys volunteering his free time in the community and he helped raise money for Habitat for Humanity in 2018 with a bowling event and kids field day activity in his hometown of Raleigh, N.C.

➤ He has his own website, www.simplegnss.com.

TE GEOFF SWAIM

➤ Two-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

➤ Brother, Mycal, also attended Butte College and then played safety at Eastern Michigan (2012-13) before signing as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following the 2014 NFL Draft.

QB RYAN TANNEHILL

➤ Ryan founded the Tannehill's A.C.E.S. (Achieving Community Educations Success) program with wife, Lauren, which consisted of 17 sophomores from American Senior High School and is focused on awarding scholarships to the participating students who strive for good grades and took on an active role in their community by hosting monthly events to reward the students and help them give back to the community.

➤ Ryan's father, Tim, played wide receiver at Texas Tech from 1985-87.

DL TEAIR TART

S KENNY VACCARO

➤ Vaccaro traveled to Kenya during the 2016 offseason with former Texas and Saints teammate Alex Okafor and is involved in community and fundraising efforts to construct a school in the region.

➤ Vaccaro's uncle, A.J. Johnson, played for Washington (1989-94), helping them to Super Bowl XXVI win before spending a season with the San Diego Chargers (1995).

➤ Vaccaro founded the Kenny Vaccaro Foundation to provide economically challenged students with literacy and education resources so that they can achieve academic excellence, develop confident personal skills, and make positive decisions to avoid high risk behavior.

WR NICK WESTBROOK-IKHINE (pronounced uh-KEEN-UH)

➤ Westbrook-Ikhine attended Lake Mary (Fla.) High School where he set the program's career, single-season and single-game receiving yardage and touchdowns records.

➤ He also lettered in lacrosse and track and field in high school, participating in the 300-meter hurdles, long jump and triple jump.

T ISAIAH WILSON

➤ Wilson enjoys watching cartoons, and he has a particular fondness for "SpongeBob SquarePants." "I can really dissect it deeply and learn a lot from it," he says.

➤ Wilson is comfortable working in the kitchen, dishing out everything from French toast to mac and cheese and collard greens to his family. He was employed at a summer camp for three summers in high school, spending much of that time in the camp kitchen.

➤ Wilson welcomed the opportunity to begin his career in Music City. He listens to a diverse range of music, listing Travis Scott, Brantley Gilbert, Aretha Franklin and Mötley Crüe as a sampling of his many favorites.

➤ Prior to being drafted by the Titans, Wilson, a video game enthusiast, would choose the Titans when he played Madden NFL because of Derrick Henry. "You can't stop him," Wilson says.

QB LOGAN WOODSIDE

➤ In his free time, Woodside enjoys playing golf and fishing in his home state of Kentucky.

➤ His hometown of Frankfort, Ky., is a three-hour drive from Nashville.

➤ During the 2019 offseason, Woodside played for the Alliance of American Football League's San Antonio Commanders. In seven AAF games, he completed 116 of 201 passes for 1,385 yards and seven touchdowns.
