NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (0-0) begin the 2026 preseason this week with a trip to face the San Francisco 49ers (0-0). Kickoff at Levi's Stadium (capacity 68,500) is slated for 6 p.m. PDT/8 p.m. CDT on Thursday, Aug. 13.

Two days prior to the game, the Titans and 49ers will engage in a joint practice at SAP Performance Facility (Santa Clara, Calif.). The session is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. PDT on Tuesday, Aug. 11. It marks the first of three consecutive weeks in which the Titans will practice against a preseason opponent—a franchise first. The Titans have combined practices in Nashville scheduled with the Seattle Seahawks and Chicago Bears in Weeks 2 and 3 of the preseason, respectively.

This week's contest will be televised regionally on the Titans Preseason TV Network, including flagship WKRN-News 2 in Nashville. SALEH RETURNS TO BAY AREA IN TITANS PRESEASON DEBUT

Robert Saleh, who in January was named the 22nd head coach in Titans/Oilers history, is set to make his Titans preseason debut in a familiar setting. He arrived in Tennessee with 21 seasons of NFL coaching experience, most recently as the 49ers defensive coordinator. In 2025, he returned to the post after serving in the same capacity from 2017 to 2020. Between defensive coordinator stints with the 49ers, he was the head coach of the New York Jets from 2021 to 2024.

Titans quarterback Cam Ward returns in 2026 for his second season. The former No. 1 overall draft pick started all 17 games in 2025, and his 3,169 passing yards eclipsed Marcus Mariota's previous franchise rookie record (2,818 in 2015). Over the final nine games of his rookie year, Ward threw only one interception with 10 touchdown passes and also rushed for two scores.

Titans general manager Mike Borgonzi made wide receiver Carnell Tate the fourth-overall selection in the 2026 NFL Draft. The former Ohio State star was the first of eight Titans picks, all of whom could see their first preseason action this week. Following the selection of Tate, Borgonzi engineered a trade to get back into the first round to take former Auburn defensive end Keldric Faulk in the 31st overall slot.

THE 49ERS

The 49ers are led by head coach Kyle Shanahan, who has directed the team to a 91-72 overall record, including postseason, since taking the job in 2017.

In 2025, Shanahan led the 49ers to the playoffs for the fifth time after the team finished 12-5 in the regular season and earned a wild card berth for the postseason. The 49ers ranked seventh in the NFL in total offense in 2025, averaging 351.4 yards per game.

SERIES HISTORY

In total, the Titans and 49ers have met only 16 times since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970. The 49ers lead the series 10-6, including victories in three of the past four bouts.

The two teams met most recently at Levi's Stadium in Week 15 of the 2025 season (Dec. 14). It was the Titans' first trip to San Francisco since 2017. Rookie quarterback Cam Ward completed a pair of touchdown passes, and running back Tony Pollard posted 104 rushing yards. However, it was not enough to slow the 49ers, who won 37-24 after totaling 430 yards. 49ers quarterback Brock Purdy completed three touchdown passes, including a pair to wide receiver Jauan Jennings.

The last time the Titans hosted the 49ers at Nissan Stadium was Thursday night, Dec. 23, 2021. Kicker Randy Bullock provided the game-winning, 44-yard field goal with four seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, lifting the Titans to a 20-17 win. Wide receiver A.J. Brown led Tennessee with 145 yards on a then-career-high 11 receptions, including a touchdown.

The last time the Titans won in San Francisco was at Candlestick Park on Nov. 8, 2009. The Titans tallied 24 points off four turnovers and held on for a 34-27 victory. Running back Chris Johnson scored two touchdowns and recorded his third of 12 consecutive 100-yard rushing performances, totaling 135 yards on a then-career-high 25 carries.

The Oilers-49ers series originated in Houston on Nov. 15, 1970. The 49ers won 30-20, one of 10 regular season victories that year for the eventual NFC West Champions.

TITANS-49ERS: THE LAST MEETING

2025 Week 15: Titans 24, 49ers 37 Sunday Dec. 14, 2025 • 1:25 p.m. PST • Levi's Stadium

In Week 15 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to San Francisco and fell by a score of 37-24.

The 49ers jumped out to an early 7-0 lead after a 12-play, 70-yard touchdown drive capped off with a four-yard pass from QB Brock Purdy to WR Jauan Jennings.

The Titans drove to the 49ers five-yard line on the next possession, but were forced to settle for a 25-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 7-3 with 1:22 left in the first quarter.

San Francisco responded with another 70-yard touchdown drive. RB Christian McCaffrey capped the seven-play drive with a one-yard touchdown run to extend their lead to 14-3.

The Titans responded with a long touchdown drive of their own. QB Cam Ward found TE Gunnar Helm for a 34-yard touchdown to make it 14-10. Helm's catch capped an eight-play, 68-yard drive that included a pair of first down completions to TE Chig Okonkwo.

A 33-yard field goal by K Eddy Piniero made it 17-10 with a minute left in the first half.

Ward then drove Tennessee to the San Francisco 40-yard line to set up for a 50-yard field goal as time expired, but Slye misfired on the attempt and the score remained 17-10 heading into the break.

49ers opened the second half with a four-play, 67-yard touchdown drive. Purdy found WR Ricky Pearsall for a 38-yard gain before connecting with Jennings for the 13-yard touchdown.

After a three-and-out by the Titans offense, the 49ers extended their lead on a 15-play, 95-yard capped on a one-yard touchdown pass from Purdy to TE George Kittle to make it 31-10 with 2:10 left in the third quarter.

DT Jeffery Simmons came up big to start the fourth quarter. Simmons knocked the ball out of Purdy's hand for a strip-sack that was recovered by CB Kairi Elam at the 47-yard line. It marked Simmons' ninth sack on the season, setting a new career-high.

Ward then found WR Van Jefferson for a 41-yard completion to bring the Titans to the 49ers one-yard line. Simmons reported as eligible and lined up as a fullback on the next play. Simmons got behind the defense after Ward scrambled, and he caught a one-yard touchdown pass to make the score 31-17 with 14:16 left in the contest.

Another Piniero field goal, this one from 37 yards, made it 34-17 with 9:28 left.

On the next Titans drive, RB Tony Pollard and RB Tyjae Spears combined for 53 rushing yards including a six-yard touchdown run by Pollard to make it 34-24 with 5:37 left in the game. Pollard recorded 104 total rushing yards, marking the first back-to-back 100-yard rushing performance for the Titans since 2022 after he recorded 161 yards last week.

A 40-yard field goal by Pineiro with 1:14 left in the game accounted for the final margin.

K.J. Wright	Linebackers

Kyle Shanahan was named the 20th head coach of the San Francisco 49ers on Feb. 6, 2017. In his tenure at the helm, he has led the 49ers to three division titles (2019, 2022, 2023), four conference championship appearances (2019, 2021, 2022, 2023) and two Super Bowl appearances (2019, 2023). This came after Shanahan had 15 seasons of previous experience at the NFL level, including nine as an offensive coordinator, most recently with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16).

In 2025, Shanahan led the 49ers to the playoffs for the fifth time after the team finished 12-5 in the regular season and earned a wild card berth for the postseason. The 49ers ranked seventh in the NFL in total offense in 2025, averaging 351.4 yards per game. Quarterbacks Brock Purdy (2,167) and Mac Jones (2,151) combined to pass for 4,318 yards.

In 2023, the 49ers reached their eighth Super Bowl after posting a 12-5 regular season record and capturing a second-consecutive NFC West title along with the number one seed throughout the playoffs. The team boasted five Associated Press First-Team All Pro selections, including running back Christian McCaffrey who was named AP Offensive Player of the Year after leading the league with 1,459 rushing yards.

In 2019, Shanahan was named Coach of the Year by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 after leading the 49ers to a 13-3 regular season record, the NFC West Division Title and an appearance in Super Bowl LIV.

Prior to being named head coach of the 49ers, Shanahan had 15 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09).

Following the 2016 season, Shanahan was named AP Assistant Coach of the Year after a record-setting performance by the Falcons offense en route to capturing the NFC South division title and an appearance in Super Bowl LI. Under Shanahan, the 2016 Falcons set franchise records in yards per game (415.8) and points scored (540), and quarterback Matt Ryan was named AP NFL MVP.

He broke into the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2004 where he served as an offensive quality control coach for two seasons (2004-05). His first coaching experience came as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 2003.

A graduate of the University of Texas, Shanahan is a native of Minneapolis, Minn. His father, Mike, was a longtime NFL coach who won two Super Bowl titles as head coach of the Denver Broncos in 1997 and 1998.

2026 TITANS SCHEDULE NOTES

SEASON NOTES

- FAREWELL SEASON: With the opening of the new Nissan Stadium set for 2027, this season will mark the farewell season at the current Nissan Stadium. The Titans will open the campaign with a home game against the New York Jets in Week 1, and the team will close out its final regular season in the current building in Week 17 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Titans have already played more games at Nissan Stadium than any other venue in the franchise's history entering 2026. Including regular season and postseason games, the team has appeared 224 times at Nissan Stadium (119-105), one more than the 223 total contests at the Astrodome (116-105-2) from 1968 to 1996.
- PLAYOFF OPPONENTS: The Titans have six total games against four playoff teams from last season. They have home games against Houston, Jacksonville, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and road contests at Houston and Jacksonville. Four of those games are against 2025 division winners: Jaguars twice (AFC South), Pittsburgh (AFC North) and Philadelphia (NFC East). This is the third consecutive year in which the Titans will have six games against reigning playoff clubs.
- TV BREAKDOWN: Excluding their Week 18 matchup at Houston, which has yet to be assigned a broadcasting network, the Titans are currently scheduled for 10 games on CBS and six games on FOX. Due to the NFL's flex scheduling, some contests could be moved to a different network from the one appearing on the initial schedule.
- TOP DRAFT PICKS: The Titans selected Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick in this year's draft. The team is slated to face seven of the top-11 players selected in this year's draft, including Fernando Mendoza (first overall – Las Vegas), David Bailey (second overall – N.Y. Jets), Arvell Reese (fifth overall – N.Y. Giants), Sonny Styles (seventh overall – Washington), Spencer Fano (ninth overall – Cleveland), Francis Mauigoa (10th overall – N.Y. Giants) and Caleb Downs (11th overall – Dallas). Tate, Reese, Styles and Downs were teammates at Ohio State University.
- HEAD COACHING EXPERIENCE: Robert Saleh was one of 10 NFL head coaches who were hired by their teams this offseason, and the Titans will face five of the others: New York Giants' John Harbaugh, Baltimore's Jesse Minter, Cleveland's Todd Monken, Las Vegas' Klint Kubiak and Pittsburgh's Mike McCarthy. It is the first time since 2022 the Titans will face five-or-more head coaches in their first season with their team.
- THREE GAMES BASED UPON 2025 FINISH: Every NFL team has two intraconference games and one interconference matchup based on the previous year's standings. As a result of the Titans' fourth-place AFC South finish in 2025, they host the AFC East's fourth-place New York Jets, and they visit the AFC West's fourth-place Las Vegas Raiders and the NFC North's fourth-place Detroit Lions. Overall, the Titans' strength of schedule is .476 (137-151-1) based upon their opponents' combined 2025 record, the eighth lowest out of 32 NFL teams.
- NEW YORK TIES: The Titans will face off against both the New York Jets and Giants this season with multiple ties to each franchise. Head coach Robert Saleh was the head coach of the Jets from 2021-24, while offensive coordinator Brian Daboll was head coach of the Giants from 2022-25. In addition to Saleh and Daboll, several current Titans players and coaches have also spent time with the New York franchises.
- OFFENSIVE LEADERS: The revamped Titans defense under head coach Robert Saleh will face two of the top-five offenses from last season in the Dallas Cowboys (second – 391.9 yards per game) and Detroit Lions (fifth – 373.2).
- TIME (ZONE) TRAVEL: The Titans will stay in the Central time zone for 10 matchups in 2026, including every home game and their two trips to Texas against the Cowboys and the Texans. They will double their trips to the Eastern time zone from three in 2025 to six in 2026 (at N.Y. Giants, Baltimore, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Jacksonville and Detroit). Outside of a preseason visit to San Francisco, the farthest Tennessee will fly is to Las Vegas, their second trip to Nevada in two seasons after never playing there before 2025. The Titans will not play in the Mountain time zone.

WEEK-BY-WEEK SCHEDULE NOTES

- WEEK 1 vs. NEW YORK JETS: The Titans open the farewell season at Nissan Stadium against the New York Jets. On Sept. 13, two of the charter American Football League members will meet for the second time in three seasons and for the 47th time in the series (including postseason). Founded in 1960, the New York franchise was originally known as the "Titans" until becoming the Jets in 1963. Tennessee owns a 24-21-1 regular season lead in the series, with a win in the lone postseason matchup between the clubs. Head coach Robert Saleh served as the Jets' head coach from 2021 to 2024. Other former Jets and current Titans include newly-acquired defensive end Jermaine Johnson II, safety Tony Adams and defensive linemen John Franklin-Myers and Solomon Thomas.
- WEEK 2 vs. PHILADELPHIA EAGLES: Tennessee is 3-0 in matchups against Philadelphia at Nissan Stadium, where the teams will meet on Sept. 20. The last time the Eagles migrated to Nashville was 2018, a 26-23 overtime Titans win that included Tennessee converting two fourth downs on a drive for the deciding touchdown. This will be the first visit to Nissan Stadium for Eagles coach Nick Sirianni, who has helped the team to 65 wins (including postseason) and two Super Bowl berths (2022, 2024) since arriving in 2021. The Eagles have an 8-5 series edge over the Titans in their regular season contests.
- WEEK 3 at NEW YORK GIANTS: On Sept. 27, the Titans will travel to the Meadowlands to take on the Giants, who have never beaten Tennessee at MetLife Stadium (0-2). The Giants hold a 7-5 all-time series lead on the Titans. The previous meeting between the clubs was in Week 1 of the 2022 season, a 21-20 Giants comeback win. The series has also provided a memorable Titans comeback, when Tennessee rallied from a 21-point deficit in the fourth quarter to defeat New York 24-21 in 2006. Titans offensive coordinator Brian Daboll spent the previous four seasons (2022-25) as the head coach of the Giants. Other first-year Titans coaches who spent the 2025 season on the Giants staff include Carmen Brichillo, Marquand Manuel and Shea Tierney. The Titans also signed former Giants' players Daniel Bellinger, Cor'Dale Flott, Wan'Dale Robinson and Austin Schlottmann during the 2026 offseason. Giants passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach Brian Callahan and defensive coordinator Dennard Wilson formerly served as Titans head coach and defensive coordinator, respectively.
- WEEK 4 at BALTIMORE RAVENS: The Titans will travel to Baltimore for the first time since 2020 and face off against running back Derrick Henry, who joined the Ravens in 2024 after an eight-year career with the Titans. Henry ranks second in Titans/Oilers history in rushing yards (9,502) and attempts (2,030) while holding a franchise record with 90 career rushing touchdowns. The Titans and Ravens have developed a heated rivalry over the course of 27 all-time meetings since the series originated in 1996, highlighted by five postseason contests — most recently a 20-13 Ravens Wild Card victory on Jan. 10, 2021.
- WEEK 5 (H) & WEEK 18 (A) vs. HOUSTON TEXANS: The Titans and Texans rivalry enters its 25th season. The two teams have split the season series in six of the last nine years. The Titans will look to take the lead in the series as it currently sits tied at 24 wins apiece. Head coach DeMeco Ryans and quarterback C.J. Stroud enter their fourth year together. The Texans have reached the playoffs the previous three seasons but have fallen short in the divisional round each year.
- WEEK 6 (A) & WEEK 15 (H) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS: The Titans look to end the Colts' six-game winning streak in the rivalry. Prior to the Colts' streak, the Titans won five consecutive matchups in the series from 2020-22. Titans' defensive coordinator, Gus Bradley, spent three seasons as the Colts defensive coordinator from 2022-24, including two years under current Colts head coach Shane Steichen. The two coaches spent four years together (2017-20) with the Chargers as Steichen climbed the ranks from offensive quality control to quarterbacks coach to offensive coordinator while Bradley served as defensive coordinator.
- WEEK 7 vs. CLEVELAND BROWNS: Cleveland visits Nissan Stadium for the first time since Dec. 6, 2020, when the Browns left with a 41-25 victory. Overall, Cleveland holds a 37-33 lead in the all-time series dating back to 1970. Last season, the Titans captured a victory at Cleveland while Tony Pollard rushed for a career-high 161 yards, Jeffery Simmons totalled 1.5 sacks and James Williams Sr. blocked a punt.

- WEEK 8 at CINCINNATI BENGALS: The Titans lead the all-time series against the Bengals, 41-38-1. From 2021 to 2024, the Bengals visited Nissan Stadium every year and claimed three out of the four matchups, including the 2021 divisional playoff game. This will be the first time the Titans travel to Cincinnati since 2020. The Bengals are led by seventh-year quarterback Joe Burrow and eight-year head coach Zac Taylor.
- WEEK 9 (BYE): This season marks the first time since 2014 the Titans have had a Week 9 bye. It comes one week earlier than the Week 10 bye the Titans had in 2025.
- WEEK 10 (H) & WEEK 12 (A) vs. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS: The Titans and Jaguars will play two games in a three-week span, as the Jaguars defend their divisional crown. In 2025, the Jaguars went 13-4 to win the AFC South for the first time since 2022. The Titans, who lead the series 34-28 including the postseason, look to regain the momentum in the series after being swept the past two seasons. Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley served as head coach of the Jaguars from 2013-16. During that time, Titans head coach Robert Saleh was the linebackers coach.
- WEEK 11 at DALLAS COWBOYS: In Week 11, the Titans and Cowboys will meet for the 17th time as the Titans travel to AT&T Stadium for the first time since a 28-14 Monday Night Football victory in November 2018. Tennessee has won both of its regular season games at the site, which opened in 2009. Of the 14 new additions to the Titans coaching staff in 2026, three (Dave Borgetti, Tanel Smart and Aaron Whitecotton) coached for Dallas in 2025. Special teams coordinator John "Bones" Fassel joined the Titans in 2024 after five years with the Cowboys. The Titans also acquired defensive lineman Solomon Thomas in a trade with Dallas in March.
- WEEK 13 vs. WASHINGTON COMMANDERS: The Titans will face the Commanders in Week 13. In 2024, the teams also met in Week 13 in the nation's capital. The Titans lead the all-time series, 8-7, and have won two of the last three meetings. Washington coach Dan Quinn succeeded Titans defensive coordinator Gus Bradley as defensive coordinator of the Seahawks in 2013 after Bradley was hired to be the head coach of the Jaguars. Head coach Robert Saleh served as quality control coach under both Bradley and Quinn in Seattle from 2011-13, ending the 2013 season with a victory in Super Bowl XLVIII.
- WEEK 14 at DETROIT LIONS: For the second time since 2024, the Titans will make the trip to Detroit to take on the Lions, and they look to win their seventh game against Detroit in eight matchups. The Titans currently hold a 10-4 lead in the all-time series. Head coach Robert Saleh is a native of Dearborn, Mich., a suburb of Detroit. This will be his first time visiting Detroit as a head coach. Since the Lions hired Dan Campbell as head coach in 2022, their 45 regular season wins are the fourth-most in the NFL.
- WEEK 16 at LAS VEGAS RAIDERS: For the second consecutive year, the Titans will travel to Las Vegas to take on the Raiders. This year, the contest could feature the top overall pick from the last two drafts in Titans quarterback Cam Ward and Raiders quarterback Fernando Mendoza, who the Raiders took first overall in 2026. The Titans, who trail in the series 22-31, look to regain momentum after dropping last year's contest in their first ever trip to Allegiant Stadium. Former Titans interim coach Mike McCoy currently serves as the assistant head coach of the Raiders, while former offensive coordinator Nick Holz is the offensive pass game coordinator.
- WEEK 17 vs. PITTSBURGH STEELERS: In the final regular season game at the current Nissan Stadium, the Titans will face off against the Steelers, who are led by new head coach Mike McCarthy. It will be Pittsburgh's first visit to Nissan Stadium since 2020. McCarthy takes over the reins in Pittsburgh following former head coach Mike Tomlin's resignation following 19 seasons at the helm. The Titans look to snap a five-game losing streak against the Steelers dating back to 2014. In franchise history, the Titans/Oilers have played the Steelers more than any other opponent.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee after 16 years with the Kansas City Chiefs, helping to build the franchise into a perennial contender and three-time Super Bowl winner. During his final four seasons in Kansas City, Borgonzi served as Assistant General Manager.

Tasked with building a foundation for sustained success in Tennessee, Borgonzi directed a significant overhaul of the Titans roster from the time he arrived through the end of his second offseason on the job. Entering training camp in 2026, only 17 of the 91 players on the team (as of July 15) were with the club before he was named GM.

The additions included an eight-man class from the 2026 NFL Draft. Borgonzi took wide receiver Carnell Tate with the fourth overall pick, and on the same night, he traded back into the first round to draft defensive end Keldric Faulk at No. 31. It marked only the second time in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present) that the team had multiple first-rounders. The class also included linebacker Anthony Hill Jr. in the second round and five more players on Day 3: guard Fernando Carmona Jr. (Round 5), running back Nick Singleton (5), defensive tackle Jackie Marshall (6), center Pat Coogan (6) and tight end Jaren Kanak (7).

The 2026 draft followed an active period of signings and trades, when the Titans targeted several key veterans to raise the talent level and provide leadership. From the day the NFL's unrestricted free agent signing period began to the start of the draft, a total of 21 free agents joined the Titans. The haul included wide receiver Wan'Dale Robinson (formerly of the New York Giants), tight end Daniel Bellinger (Giants), punter Tommy Townsend (Houston Texans), defensive lineman John Franklin-Myers (Denver Broncos) and cornerbacks Alontae Taylor (New Orleans Saints) and Cor'Dale Flott (Giants). Two additional veterans—defensive end Jermaine Johnson II (New York Jets) and defensive tackle Solomon Thomas (Dallas Cowboys)—were acquired in trades.

Borgonzi capped the 2026 offseason by awarding defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons with a multi-year contract extension, securing the four-time Pro Bowler's tenure in Tennessee for the foreseeable future.

The Titans' first Borgonzi-led draft in 2025 featured nine selections, including quarterback Cam Ward with the first-overall selection. All nine of the draftees appeared in at least six games as rookies, and six members of the group started at least five games. The Titans draft class accumulated 64 combined starts in 2025, which ranked second in the NFL (75 by Cleveland) and was the largest total for the franchise in the Titans era.

Ward, who was voted a team captain as a rookie, started all 17 games, and his 3,169 passing yards eclipsed Marcus Mariota's previous franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015). With 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 323-of-540 passing, Ward's 1.3 percent interception rate was the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks, breaking Ryan Tannehill's franchise mark of 1.5 percent in 2020.

Another draft pick, fourth-round wide receiver Chimere Dike, was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner and added first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. Dike led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which ranked third all-time for the franchise and first all-time among all NFL rookies. His 17.3-yard punt return average broke Billy "White Shoes" Johnson's franchise record (15.4) that stood since 1977, and he also posted a franchise-best 1,588 kickoff return yards.

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster over a five-season span that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23).

In his final eight seasons in Kansas City (2017-24), Borgonzi worked under Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach. As the Assistant General Manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as Assistant General Manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and Townsend (2022).

In 2024, the Chiefs captured their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to Assistant General Manager, Borgonzi served as Director of Football Operations (2018-20), Director of Player Personnel (2017), Co-Director of Player Personnel (2015-16), Assistant Director of Pro Scouting (2013-14), Pro Personnel Scout (2011-12) and Manager of Football Operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's College Scouting Administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the Assistant Recruiting Coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

The Tennessee Titans hired Robert Saleh as the 22nd head coach in franchise history on Jan. 22, 2026.

Saleh arrives in Tennessee with 21 seasons of NFL coaching experience: six seasons with the Houston Texans (2005-10), three with the Seattle Seahawks (2011-13), three with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16), five total seasons over two stints with the San Francisco 49ers (2017-20, 2025), and four campaigns as the head coach of the New York Jets (2021-24). During his time in the NFL, he has been a part of nine top-10 defenses, and in his nine seasons as a defensive coordinator or head coach, his team has finished in the top five in total defense on five occasions.

In 2025, Saleh returned to the San Francisco 49ers for his second stint as defensive coordinator under head coach Kyle Shanahan. With the roster decimated by injuries, including season-ending injuries to All-Pro defensive lineman Nick Bosa and All-Pro linebacker Fred Warner, the 49ers went 12-5 during the regular season and progressed to the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

As the head coach of the Jets, Saleh guided four different players in their first four years in the NFL to Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors (cornerback Sauce Gardner, defensive lineman Quinnen Williams and returner Braxton Berrios) and/or Pro Bowl appearances (Gardner, Williams and linebacker Jermaine Johnson II). The Jets defense finished in the top 10 in multiple categories over the 2022 and 2023 seasons, including first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7), and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1). The unit also tallied 93 sacks and 29 interceptions during that time, tied for the eighth and 10th-most, respectively, in the NFL.

The 2023 Jets featured a pair of first-team Associated Press All-Pros in Gardner and linebacker Quincy Williams, as well as three Pro Bowl selections in Gardner, Johnson II and Quinnen Williams. The Jets also won four games after trailing in the fourth quarter, tying for the second-most such victories in the NFL. Defensively, the Jets finished in a tie for first place in opponent yards per play (4.6) and ranked second in passing yards allowed per game (168.3), third in total defense (292.3) and tied for eighth in takeaways (27). The Jets held opponents to seven points or less in 10 of their 17 games, which was tied for the most such games in the NFL. Meanwhile, the Jets offense gained 4,566 total yards in 2023, with 64.1 percent of those yards coming from rookie and second-year players, the second-most in the NFL. Saleh saw second-year running back Breece Hall register career highs in rushing yards (994), receiving yards (591), yards from scrimmage (1,585) and total touchdowns (nine).

In 2022, Saleh led a roster that featured two first-team AP All-Pro selections (Gardner and Quinnen Williams), a second-team All-Pro (linebacker C.J. Mosley) and four Pro Bowl selections (special teamer Justin Hardee, Gardner, Mosley and Quinnen Williams). He also oversaw the development of the NFL's Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year in wide receiver Garrett Wilson and Gardner, making the Jets the third team in NFL history to have both rookie players win the honor. Wilson led all rookie wide receivers in receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,103), while Gardner led the NFL in passes defended (20). The Jets improved their win total by three games, which marked the sixth-largest win improvement in the NFL in 2022. The club boasted a defense that tied for first in opponent yards per play (4.8) and finished third in passing defense (189.4), fourth in scoring defense (316) and fourth in total defense (311.1).

In his first year as head coach of the Jets, the 2021 team was led by rookie quarterback Zach Wilson (2,519 passing yards), rookie running back Michael Carter (639 rushing yards) and rookie wide receiver Elijah Moore (538 receiving yards). The Jets were just the second team since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to be led by rookies in passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards.

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh logged four seasons (2017-20) in his first stint as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6) and opponent yards per play (5.1) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

In 2020, despite injuries to key players throughout the year, the 49ers defense held top-five marks in passing yards allowed per game (207.9, fourth), third-down defense (35.5 percent, fourth), total defense (314.4, fifth) and opponent yards per play (5.0, tied for fifth). The unit also ranked tied for sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.0) and seventh in opponent rushing yards per game (106.4). The defense was led by Warner, who earned first-team AP All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection after registering a team-high 125 tackles to go along with a sack, two interceptions, six passes defended, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

In 2019, Saleh was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News after leading the 49ers defense to a second-place finish in total defense – 281.8 yards allowed per game – which was the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco placed first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (153.7 by the Jets). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing defense since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers tied for second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51). San Francisco also ranked seventh in opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating

QUOTES ON ROBERT SALEH

CONTROLLING OWNER AMY ADAMS STRUNK:

"We're delighted to welcome Robert and his family to the Titans, and firmly believe he is the right person for our team and community. We immediately connected with his competitive spirit and detailed approach to developing our players and team. Also, Robert's recommendations from across the league were overwhelmingly positive and were only reinforced during our time together. I want to thank Mike Borgonzi for his leadership during this process and acknowledge the work done by the search committee. They dedicated so much time and effort and I am thrilled with the results – and most importantly – I believe Titans fans will be, too. Congratulations to Robert and his family, and welcome to Nashville."

GENERAL MANAGER MIKE BORGONZI:

"On behalf of the entire Titans organization and Nashville community, I am thrilled to welcome Robert Saleh as our head coach. Robert embodies the fundamental values of what we believe a Titan should look like and represent. He's smart, tough, dependable, and values working with people. His innate ability to lead and respond to adversity is what makes him the right person to lead our football program back to one whose identity embodies sustainable success. We understand the urgency to win, and believe this is a step in that direction with a coach best equipped to accomplish our goals. The work has just begun, but I'm grateful for this partnership and excited to build this together."

Bosa, a rookie in 2019, played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defended. He was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News and PFWA, as well as the NFL's Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With defensive linemen Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (nine), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four or more players with at least 6.5 sacks in 2019. Rookie linebacker Dre Greenlaw was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by cornerback Richard Sherman, who registered three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and was named second-team All-Pro.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37 sacks, the most by the team in a single season at the time since 2013 (38). The defense ranked among the top dozen teams in the league in rushing yards per play allowed (4.09, seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5, 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42, 11th) and net passing yards per game allowed (233.3, 11th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017. The 2018 San Francisco defense was anchored by Buckner, who led the team with a career-high 12 sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 2012 (19.5 by Aldon Smith). Warner started all 16 games as a rookie and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies.

In 2017, Saleh spearheaded a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards-per-play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016 to 2017 behind Cleveland (0.76) and the Jets (0.72). The defense also held its opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers' streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage. Over the final eight weeks of the year, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640) and tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the linebackers coach of the Jaguars. In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the club in tackles for the second consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, linebacker Telvin Smith Sr. registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles from 2014 through 2016 were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, which was the fifth-lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the squad and ranked fifth in the NFL with 133 tackles, according to GSIS statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped into the starting lineup in 2014 and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions.

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seahawks. During that period, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of K.J. Wright, Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh totaled six seasons with the Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). While there, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to each rank among the league's top 10 tacklers.

Saleh's coaching career began with three seasons in the collegiate ranks. He launched his career at Michigan State University as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line coach (2003). He then spent one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach at Central Michigan University before a brief stint at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach (2005).

A native of Dearborn, Mich., Saleh attended Northern Michigan University, where he was a four-year starter at tight end.

He and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children: sons Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and daughters Mila and Ella.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

As a rookie, Ward was voted a team captain prior to the season. He started all 17 games, and his final statistics included 323 completions, 3,169 yards, 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 540 attempts with a passer rating of 80.2. He broke Marcus Mariota's franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for passing yards in a season. He also rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns on 39 attempts.

With 17 starts, he set a franchise record for starts by a rookie quarterback and joined Ryan Tannehill (2021) as the only Titans quarterbacks with 17 starts in a season since the NFL schedule went to 17 games in 2021. Previously during the 16-game schedule era from 1978 to 2020, six Titans/Oilers quarterbacks combined for 10 total seasons with 16 starts: Warren Moon (three), Steve McNair (three), Dan Pastorini, Ken Stabler, Matt Hasselbeck and Tannehill.

Ward's 540 attempts in 2025 were not only more than any other rookie in the organization's history, but also more than every quarterback in franchise annals in a season other than Warren Moon, who had 655 attempts in 1991 and 584 attempts in 1990.

On 540 attempts, Ward threw only seven interceptions. His 1.3 interception percentage stands as the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks. He broke Ryan Tannehill's franchise record of 1.5 percent in 2020. Over the final nine games of the season, Ward threw only one interception. His 1.3 percent interception rate also tied for the third-best mark in the NFL among qualifiers in 2025 behind Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr. (1.1) and Chicago's Caleb Williams (1.2).

Prior to entering the NFL, Ward played for three different schools over five college seasons: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

In 2025, Pollard was voted a team captain for the first time in his career. He led the Titans in rushing for the second consecutive season with 242 carries for a career-high 1,082 yards and five touchdowns. It was the second consecutive season in which he set a career high in rushing (1,079 yards in 2024).

Pollard became the fourth player in Titans/Oilers history to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons with the club, joining Earl Campbell (1978-81), Eddie George (1996-00) and Chris Johnson (2008-13). With his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, including his final two campaigns in Dallas, he joined Derrick Henry as the NFL's only running backs to rush for 1,000 yards every season from 2022 to 2025.

Pollard's durability continued through seven NFL campaigns, during which time he never missed more than two games in a season. He started all 17 games in 2025, marking the second time in his career (2023) that he started every week. Over a three-season span (2023-25), Pollard missed only one total game (2024).

During his first year with the Titans, Pollard ranked third in the AFC and tied for 12th in the NFL with a then-career-best 1,079 rushing yards on a career-high 260 carries. Both numbers led the team, as did his five rushing touchdowns. With an additional 238 yards on 41 receptions, he produced a team-high 1,317 scrimmage yards—the second-best total of his career.

Prior to joining the Titans, Pollard spent five seasons (2019-23) with the Dallas Cowboys, who selected him in the fourth round (128th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

#17 • WR CHIMERE DIKE

6-1, 196, 2nd Year/2nd with Titans, Florida

Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, he led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which included 1,588 kickoff return yards, 398 punt return yards, 423 receiving yards and 18 rushing yards.

He was named to the Pro Bowl as the AFC's starting returner, becoming the franchise's sixth rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010. The others to do so were running back Earl Campbell (1978), defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999), quarterback Vince Young (2006) and running back Chris Johnson (2008).

Dike also earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. He was the franchise's fourth rookie since the merger to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors, joining Campbell (1978), Kearse (1999) and tackle Jack Conklin (2016).

Dike's 2,427 all-purpose yards in 2025 ranked third in franchise history for a single season behind Derrick Mason's 2,690 all-purpose yards in 2000 and Johnson's 2,509 yards in 2009. The number established the all-time NFL rookie record for all-purpose yards and was the highest in a season by any NFL player since 2011, when Darren Sproles set the NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards.

Dike returned 23 punts for 398 yards and two touchdowns. His 17.3-yard average tied for the NFL lead with New England's Marcus Jones while also breaking the franchise single-season record, which was held for 48 years by Billy "White Shoes" Johnson. Dike averaged nearly two yards per return more than Johnson's mark of 15.4 yards in 1977 (35 for 539 yards).

Dike also returned 62 kickoffs for a franchise-record 1,588 yards, averaging 25.6 yards per attempt. He ranked second in the NFL in kickoff return yards in 2025 behind Dallas' KaVontae Turpin (1,814). His 1,588 kickoff return yards put him in third place in NFL history among rookies, trailing only the Raiders' Chris Carr (1,752 in 2005) and Arizona's Josh Scobey (1,684 in 2003).

With a punt return average of 17.3 yards and a kickoff return average of 25.6 yards, Dike became the NFL's first player since Detroit's Jack Christiansen in 1952 (21.5 punt return average and 25.6 kickoff return average) to qualify with an average 17.0-plus yards per punt return and 25.0-plus yards per kickoff return in a season.

On offense, Dike's rookie contributions included finishing second on the squad with 48 receptions, ranking third with 423 receiving yards, and tying for the team lead with four touchdown catches. His six total touchdowns led the Titans.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. He led the team in catches (42) and ranked second with a career-high in receiving yards (783) and touchdown catches (two). In SEC play, he averaged a league-leading 16.5 yards per punt return. He was one of 23 players in the FBS to contribute four punt returns of 20-plus yards.

In Dike's final season at Wisconsin, he started in 11 games and finished with 19 receptions for 328 yards and one touchdown. He added 12 punt returns for 108 yards and 11 kickoff returns for 249 yards.

As a junior in 2022, he started all 13 games for the Badgers and led the team with 47 catches, 689 receiving yards and six touchdown catches. His six scores tied for seventh in the Big Ten and were the most for a Badger wide receiver since 2019.

Wide receiver Calvin Ridley is in his eighth NFL season and his third season with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 15, 2024.

Ridley was named a team captain for the first time in his career in 2025. However, his campaign came to a premature end due to injury. He appeared in seven of the first 10 games of the season before landing on injured reserve for the team's final seven contests. His season totals included 17 receptions for 303 yards (17.8 avg.).

During his first season in Tennessee, Ridley led the Titans offense with 64 receptions and 1,017 receiving yards and caught four touchdown passes. His 15.9-yard receiving average in 2024 ranked fifth in the NFL among qualifiers. Only Ridley and Philadelphia's A.J. Brown (67 receptions for 1,079 yards, 16.1 avg.) accumulated at least 60 receptions and 1,000 receiving yards with an average of at least 15.0 yards per catch. Ridley also rushed for 55 yards and a touchdown.

Ridley's 2024 season was his third career 1,000-yard receiving season (2020 and 2023), and it was the franchise's 12th 1,000-yard receiving season during its "Titans era" (1999 to present). He became the ninth player in NFL history to have at least one 1,000-yard receiving season with three different teams, joining Brandin Cooks (four teams), Brandon Marshall (four), Amari Cooper (three), DeAndre Hopkins (three), Irving Fryar (three), Randy Moss (three), Terrell Owens (three) and Tony Martin (three). Ridley became the first player in NFL history to secure his first three 1,000-yard receiving seasons with three different teams.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ridley appeared in 66 NFL games with 52 starts. He was originally drafted by the Atlanta Falcons with the 26th overall pick of the 2018 NFL Draft and was traded to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2022. His statistical totals with the Falcons and Jaguars included 324 receptions for 4,358 yards and 36 touchdowns.

In 2023, Ridley started a career-high 17 games for the Jaguars and led the team with 1,016 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on 76 catches.

From 2018 through 2020, no member of the 2018 draft class had more receptions or touchdown catches than Ridley, who totaled 217 grabs and 26 scores for the Falcons during that span. His 3,061 receiving yards ranked second in his draft class behind only DJ Moore's 3,156. Ridley's 90 receptions and 1,374 yards in 2020 were career highs.

As a rookie in 2018, Ridley played in all 16 games and accumulated 64 receptions. He led all rookie receivers in the NFL with 821 receiving yards and a team-high 10 receiving touchdowns, including an NFL-rookie record six receiving scores in the team's first four games. He was named to the All-Rookie team by the Professional Football Writers of America.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Ridley attended the University of Alabama, where he played in 44 games over three seasons (2015-17). He finished his career second in Crimson Tide history with 224 receptions and 19 receiving touchdowns. He also ranked third with 2,781 receiving yards, while totaling eight career 100-yard receiving games to tie for third in the Alabama record books.

JC Latham is in his third NFL season in 2026. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Latham moved to right tackle, where he started 13 games. He was in the lineup every game for the final 12 contests after missing four of the first five weeks due to injury.

With 30 starts in his first two NFL seasons, Latham joined Jack Conklin (32 from 2016-17), Chance Warmack (32 from 2013-14), Michael Roos (32 from 2005-06) and Peter Skoronski (31 from 2023-24) as the franchise's only offensive linemen in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to accomplish the feat. He did so all before his 23rd birthday (Feb. 8, 2026). Among NFL offensive linemen under 23 at the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham had the most career starts.

As a rookie, Latham notched 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999-present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

In his first two NFL seasons, JC Latham started 30 of the Titans' 34 games—all before his 23rd birthday on Feb. 8, 2026.

As a rookie in 2024, the first-round pick started every game at left tackle. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday, he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005. By increasing his total to 30 games played and 30 starts, he ranked fifth in franchise history in total games before a player's 23rd birthday and second in total starts before a player's 23rd birthday. Only Starks (31) had more starts for the organization before turning 23.

Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons is in his eighth NFL season in 2026. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft. During the 2026 offseason, he received a multi-year contract extension.

During his first seven seasons, Simmons earned four Pro Bowl berths (2021-22, 2024-25), was a five-time team captain (2021-25), earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors (2025), second-team All-Pro honors (2021-22), and was nominated three times for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023-25). During that span, he appeared in 99 games with 97 starts, accumulating 383 tackles, 42.5 sacks, 27 passes defended, eight forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries.

From 2019 through 2025, Simmons was second on the Titans defense in sacks behind only outside linebacker Harold Landry III (46). In franchise history, Simmons' 42.5 sacks were 12th overall and fifth in the organization's "Titans era" (1999 to present). Additionally, his total ranked sixth among all NFL interior defensive linemen.

With at least five sacks every season from 2021 to 2025, Simmons joined Ray Childress (nine consecutive seasons), Jurrell Casey (seven), William Fuller (six), and Sean Jones (six) as the only players for the franchise to record five consecutive seasons with at least five sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2025, Simmons appeared in 15 games with 15 starts. He earned Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro honors after ranking first in the NFL among interior defensive linemen in solo tackles (39), tackles for loss (17), sacks (11.0), sack yards (79.0), quarterback pressures (60), pressure rate (14.5 percent) and forced fumbles (tied - three). His sacks, sack yards, tackles for loss and forced fumbles all set career highs, despite missing two games due to injury.

From 2016 through 2025, only two NFL interior defensive linemen recorded at least 65 tackles, 11 sacks, 17 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles in a single season: Aaron Donald (2021) and Simmons (2025).

Simmons missed only one game in 2024. His 16 starts made up the second-highest total of his career through six seasons behind his 17 starts in 2021. Among his season totals, he set career highs with 76 tackles and two forced fumbles, and he added five sacks and a team-high 42 quarterback pressures. He was rewarded with his third Pro Bowl invitation.

Simmons' 76 tackles ranked second on the Titans in 2024. It was the best number for any defensive lineman for the organization in its "Titans era" (1999 to present), topping defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch's previous mark of 75 tackles in 2006 (GSIS/press box statistics). Among NFL defensive linemen in 2024, Simmons finished second in tackles behind Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (80).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defended. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defended, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defended.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defended (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defended and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defended in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defended in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

#46 • LS MORGAN COX

6-4, 233, 17th Year/6th with Titans, Tennessee

Long snapper Morgan Cox is in his 17th NFL season and his sixth campaign with the Titans in 2026. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2025, Cox was voted a team captain for the third consecutive season and handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fifth consecutive season. With 85 consecutive games played in his first five seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2025 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 13th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

Cox also appeared in his 250th career game (regular season) in the 2025 season finale, becoming the 64th all-time NFL player to do so. He ranked ninth among all active NFL players, and his total also gave him the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

Cox worked with new battery mates in 2025 in punter Johnny Hekker and kicker Joey Slye. Hekker averaged 46.8 gross yards per punt to tie for 11th place in franchise history and 40.3 net yards per punt, which tied for ninth place in team annals. Slye delivered on 28 of 35 field goals, including four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards). Also in 2025, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the third consecutive year.

In 2024, Cox's consistency helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt.

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He garnered more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside in the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

Jim Wyatt: Titans Unveil New Uniforms, Logo, to Represent the Next Chapter of Franchise History

On March 12, 2026, the Tennessee Titans revealed new logos and uniforms, marking an exciting moment for the organization that honors the team's deep roots and celebrates its home in Nashville and the state of Tennessee.

More than just a new look, the uniform and logo embody the spirit of the organization – its rich history dating back to 1960, heritage, and home. The design was inspired by the voices and passion of Titans fans, players, alumni, and neighbors.

"We are incredibly proud to unveil this new look for the Tennessee Titans," said Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk. "Our uniforms and logo represent the strength of our history, the passion of our fans, and the bold future we're building together. Today is about honoring over 65 years of our organization while confidently stepping into the next chapter, and I couldn't be more excited for our players, our city, and our fans to wear this identity with pride."

The team's new primary logo, The Shield, remains true to the Titans identity, featuring strong colors of Titans blue, white, and red, and the team's familiar tri-stars. A secondary mark, The Football, gives a cultural nod to city and state and offers fans a fresh way to show their Titans pride. The letters "T" and "N" are blended in a vertical arrangement commemorating both the state's postal abbreviation and the city of Nashville, TN. An array of other marks, including a handcrafted script wordmark, also adorn the team's new logo slick.

The team uniform features some of the organization's most iconic aspects of its heritage and brings them into its present and future.

- At home in Nashville, the Titans primary jerseys will don the distinctive Titans blue, with "TITANS" emblazoned across the chest. The chest font draws inspiration from traditional woodblock printmaking – a tribute to the city's creative spirit – while the numbers echo classic collegiate design.

- On the road, white jerseys will carry the "TENNESSEE" name, ensuring the team represents the state everywhere they play.
- The Tennessee Tri-Star can be found in navy in the tab at the back of the uniform and on the side panel underneath the arm.
- Inside every jersey, a simple "WE" tag is stitched, a rallying cry for the team that emphasizes a "we over me" mentality.
- The iconic stripe of the team's past was infused with Nashville's deep roots in music and is now the 6-String Stripe, represented on the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

Jerseys and new team merchandise is now available online at shop.tennesseetitans.com and at the Titans Team Store in Nissan Stadium. More gear will be arriving later this spring and summer. For more information on events and merchandise, visit tennesseetitans.com/brand.

"From the beginning, we approached this process with tremendous care and pride, knowing how much the Titans identity means to our fans and to the state of Tennessee," said Titans President and CEO Burke Nihill. "Every element of these uniforms was thoughtfully considered – from the Titans blue and Tri-Star to the new 6-String Stripe that celebrates Nashville's deep musical roots. We wanted to honor the history that defines this franchise while creating something that reflects who we are today and where we're going. The result is a uniform that represents our team, our city, and our state with authenticity and pride."

TITANS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND UNIFORMS

THE HELMET

Our primary logo, "The Shield" adorns the side of the helmet, while the 6-String Stripe runs down the center. The helmet's clean, white shell is paired with an all-white face mask.

THE CHEST PLATES

The Titans primary wordmark, stitched prominently across the center of the chest, announces our name in a bold, serif font inspired by Tennessee woodblock type and classic athletics. Rendered in a sans-serif typeface, our away jersey proudly represents our home state everywhere we play.

THE STRIPE

The "6-String Stripe" infuses the iconic stripe from our past with Nashville's deep roots in music. This stripe is featured prominently along the pants, sleeve, and helmet.

THE NAMEPLATE

The nameplate uses a roster font that is an extension of the woodblock-inspired wordmark.

THE NUMBERS

Inspired by collegiate-style block numbers, our classic jersey numbers stand out in white on our primary home jersey and in Titans blue while we're away, both accented with red outlines.

THE ACCENTS

Navy continues in the 6-String Stripe, the collar tab, the Tri-Star vents at the side panels, the Nike Swoosh, and the 3D helmet bumpers.

THE TAB

The collar tab features the Tennessee Tri-Star, proudly honoring the three Grand Divisions of our home state. Inside the collar tab is the word, "WE," representing the team's "We Over Me" mentality.
