

How to Accept Tickets That Were Sent to You

When someone sends tickets to you electronically, you will either receive an email from Ticketmaster, or a link directly from your friend to claim the tickets.

Sample Email from Ticketmaster:	Sample link sent from your Friend:
 THIS EMAIL IS NOT YOUR TICKET The tickets are almost yours. Click Accept Tickets to seal the deal. Accept Tickets Accept by Sun, Sep 15, 2019 4:00 PM	You've been sent 1 ticket to Ravens vs. Buccaneers &gt; Inbox x Thu, Jul 26, 12:17 PM (1 day ago) https://oss.ticketmaster.com/s/94eae2be Reply Forward (Note: this link can be sent via email, text, or other messaging options)

Next, you will be sent to log in to your Ravens account. You can complete this step on your computer, or you can use the browser on your smart phone to claim the tickets.

Enter your email and password and click log in. If you do not have a Ravens account, you will be prompted to create a new account.

If you need to retrieve your log in information, please click "Forgot Password?" or call the Ravens Ticket Office at 410-261-RAVE (7283).
