GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Day and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. The Boys & Girls Club of Silicon Valley inspires and empowers all young people, especially those who need us most, to realize their full potential as productive, responsible, and caring adults.

- Day, the emcee of the night, and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health in October of 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- Day joined the Florida Department of Transportation's "Alert Today, Alive Tomorrow" campaign during International Walk to School Day in October of 2017. Alongside kids that were walking to school in the Jacksonville area, Day assisted in teaching them the health benefits they were receiving by walking to school and showed them how to get there safely.

DAY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- As a Senior at Notre Dame in 2015, was the recipient of multiple All-America honors, which included USA Today First-Team All-American, Associated Press Second-Team All-American, and Phil Steele Second-Team All-American.
- Enrolled early at Notre Dame, starting classes in January of 2012 after graduating from high school in December of 2011.
- Since being drafted in 2016, has continued to build opportunities for youth in the east side of Indianapolis communities through various educational and athletic programs.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In June of 2017, Day held his Inaugural “Sheldon’s Daylight Camp” at Warren Central High School in Indianapolis, IN. Over 150 kids attended the free four-day football camp which Day had been anxious to host since the day he was drafted. “I know most of these kids out here on the east side are probably like I was,” said Day. “No way I’m going to charge them to come here. They should just have fun here and be with me.” The camp included a visit to Notre Dame so kids would not only gain football knowledge, but also be informed of different opportunities to further their education and attend college. “This is fun for me. It’s a chance for me to give back and have some fun with them. When I see the kids smiling, that’s a great thing. That’s why we are here.” Day has continued his camp over the past two offseasons.

- The 49ers hosted a flag football clinic for local first responders and their children at the team facility on October 23, 2018. Day and his teammates taught the children the fundamentals of the game before hitting the field for drills and games. The 100-plus guests also had the opportunity to try on equipment and participate in a photoshoot.

- The 49ers joined forces with Martha’s Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event on September 11, 2018. Day and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi’s Stadium partner with Martha’s Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha’s Kitchen’s mission is to “feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made.”
