There will be no access to areas between the two fields or along the east sideline. We ask that you please adhere to the following guidelines at practice:

1. Please be respectful of the fans who are seated behind you. On the west sideline, we request that all photographers kneel in the areas immediately in front of the bleacher seating to minimize the obstructed views for our fans.

TRAINING CAMP CREDENTIALS

A non-event photo identification badge will be issued to all approved media who regularly cover the Patriots. This photo ID will be required for access to all media-specific areas, including the media tent and press conference areas. All others must register for a visitor's media pass with a member of the Patriots media relations department at media check-in. To expedite the media check-in process, please remember to bring your outlet-issued photo ID. If you have been approved to attend practice on a regular basis and are in need of a photo ID, please send a headshot photo to Mark Robbins at MarkR@patriots.com.

GAME CREDENTIALS

In the coming days and in advance of the team's first preseason game at the Detroit Lions on Thursday, Aug. 8, the Patriots media website located at <http://media.patriots.com> will be updated with a new credentialing system. The new system is password protected and requires those that will be applying for credentials to register for use. Sports editors and sports directors are encouraged to submit all credential requests for their news affiliations. Once approved, the credential tab is located just above the photo on the home page. The ensuing process requires a three-step application where the user will input their news outlets contact data, add themselves or any other attendees from their affiliation to the request and then review before final submission. All entries must be submitted by Monday at 5:00 p.m. ET prior to that week's game. Approved credentials and parking passes will be issued on a weekly basis and can be picked up in person from the media relations office after signing the NFL's liability waiver. At this time, the link for credential applications is being finalized and is NOT currently active. Further communication will be provided from the media relations staff via email in the coming days regarding when outlets can begin applying for game credentials. Please direct any questions to Mark Robbins, Media Relations Coordinator, via email at MarkR@patriots.com.
