2017 SEASON IN REVIEW

- In his 23rd full season as Chairman & CEO of the Eagles, Jeffrey Lurie delivered the first Super Bowl championship in team history in 2017. Philadelphia finished the regular season with a 13-3 record, which tied a franchise mark, captured the NFC East crown and a No. 1 seed in the playoffs, and defeated New England, 41-33, in Super Bowl LII.
- Doug Pederson became the eighth head coach in NFL history to win the Super Bowl within his first two seasons as a head coach, as well as the seventh head coach to win the Super Bowl in his first playoff run.
- Super Bowl MVP Nick Foles became the eighth backup QB in NFL history to lead his team to a Super Bowl win. Foles recorded a 100+ passer rating in all three of the Eagles' playoff games and produced the highest completion percentage (72.6%) in NFL single-postseason history.
- Carson Wentz was named second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, earned his first-career Pro Bowl nod and finished third in MVP voting after throwing a franchise-record 33 TDs and leading the Eagles to an 11-2 record in games that he started (sustained a season-ending knee injury in Week 14 at L.A. Rams).
- In the regular season, Philadelphia ranked 1st in the NFL in red zone TD efficiency (65.5%) and point differential (+162, tied), 3rd in points (457), third-down defense (32.2%) and fourth-down offense (65.4%), and 4th in takeaways (31) and turnover differential (+11).

JEFFREY LURIE CHAIRMAN & CEO

In 1994, Jeffrey Lurie purchased the Philadelphia Eagles, launching the most successful run in franchise history.

During his time as Chairman and CEO, the Eagles have become a perennial contender, establishing a winning tradition by capturing eight NFC East titles, playing in six NFC Championships and making appearances in Super Bowls XXXIX and LII. In 2017, Philadelphia captured the first Super Bowl victory in franchise history by defeating the New England Patriots, 41-33, in Super Bowl LII. This unprecedented run of success has led to a greater overall winning percentage, more playoff games (26), and more playoff victories (14) than under all previous ownership groups combined.

While Lurie's teams have thrived on the field, he has also built a successful business and community-oriented organization over the two decades that he has served as Chairman and CEO.

After purchasing the Eagles, Lurie recognized that the organization was in need of a total reconstruction, design, and relocation of its office headquarters, practice facility, and stadium. He immediately committed to providing the franchise with everything it needed to succeed and constructed two state-of-the-art facilities in South Philadelphia: the NovaCare Complex (2001) and Lincoln Financial Field (2003).

Although Lincoln Financial Field was erected specifically to house its primary tenant, the Philadelphia Eagles, Lurie also created a multidimensional event destination that could house a wide variety of events. Fittingly, the first ticketed event at the new stadium was a soccer match between Manchester United and FC Barcelona in August 2003.

Since then, Lincoln Financial Field has continued to evolve with an ever-changing entertainment landscape and underwent a two-year, $125 million revitalization in 2013. Over the years, the venue has hosted high-profile events including sold-out concerts, national and international soccer matches, the NCAA Lacrosse Championships, the Army-Navy Game, Monster Jam, Temple University football games, and more.

A thoughtful and compassionate philanthropist with family ties to autism, Lurie is devoted to raising both money and awareness for research on the causes of the neurodevelopmental disorder.

In 2017, Lurie launched Eagles Autism Challenge to raise money to address the complex medical and scientific issues associated with the condition of autism. The Challenge is a signature biking and 5K run/walk event that directs 100 percent of participant-raised funds to autism research and programs. The inaugural event, held on May 19, 2018, raised $2.5 million. Over 3,300 participants came out to bike, run and walk for the cause, with 24,700 donors across 20 countries supporting their fundraising efforts.

"Autism is one of the most under-funded conditions in the country and we need to turn awareness into action," Lurie has noted. "Those who have autism are wonderful people, usually highly intelligent, sweet, and caring. They are often unable to effectively communicate with others. We need to support as much dynamic research as possible in order to create real breakthroughs."

He was promoted to senior vice president/chief financial officer in 2001 and was named the team's chief operating officer in 2010. In 2012, he was named to his current role of team president.

As president, Smolenski directs the club's business and strategic efforts, including sales, marketing, communications, and operations. He has played a key role in significant projects from the construction of Lincoln Financial Field to the club's internationally recognized environmental and philanthropic programs. During his tenure as president, Smolenski has infused energy and creativity throughout the organization with his engaging leadership style. In 2015, he was named to the Most Admired CEOs list by the Philadelphia Business Journal and the Philadelphia Eagles were twice named to Philly.com's Top Workplaces list in 2016 and 2018.

During his time as the team's president, Smolenski and the Eagles saw their first Super Bowl victory in franchise history after defeating the New England Patriots, 41-33, in Super Bowl LII.

In his first year as president, Smolenski spearheaded a twoyear, $125 million Lincoln Financial Field revitalization project that added 1,600 seats, HD video boards, and graphics paying tribute to the team's history. Over the years, Lincoln Financial Field has hosted high-profile events including sold-out concerts, national and international soccer matches, the NCAA Lacrosse Championships, the Army-Navy Game, Monster Jam, Temple University football, and more.

Smolenski plays an important role in the team's environmental initiatives. Those efforts include conservation efforts, recycling programs, and use of renewable energy including wind and solar.

Smolenski serves as the treasurer of the team's public charity, Eagles Charitable Foundation, which provides children in the Philadelphia region with greater access to vision care and provides funds to support autism research and services. In 2018, Smolenski helped launch the Eagles Autism Challenge, a one-day bike ride and family-friendly 5K run/walk dedicated to raising funds for innovative research and programs to help unlock the mystery of autism. In addition, Smolenski helped launch the Eagles Care initiative in 2013. The Eagles Care program forges annual, strategic partnerships with five local nonprofit organizations in order to deepen the impact of the team's community efforts. The Eagles also host an annual Huddle Up For Autism event at Lincoln Financial Field in partnership with the Center for Autism Research at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

Before joining the Eagles, Smolenski served as chief financial officer for the International Hockey League, where he oversaw all league financial matters and played an integral role in the expansion of the league. Through the development of expansion models and the analysis of league performance models, Smolenski saw the league grow from 12 to 19 teams.

Smolenski began his career as a public accountant with Arthur Andersen.

An outdoor enthusiast, Smolenski enjoys an active lifestyle and has completed the Detroit, Pittsburgh, and Boston Marathons. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in biology from Amherst College and holds a Master of Science degree in accounting. Don and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Jake and Shane.

HOWIE ROSEMAN EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Howie Roseman, executive vice president of football operations, is in his 19th season with the Philadelphia Eagles. Roseman is an influential voice within the organization and provides valuable perspective pertaining to both football and business decisions that help shape the franchise.

Roseman was named 2017 Executive of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America for his integral role in constructing the team's Super Bowl LII-winning roster. In addition, Roseman was voted the 2017 Sporting News NFL Executive Of The Year by league executives. During the 2017 offseason, Roseman and the Eagles front office utilized free agency to add key veterans such as LeGarrette Blount, Nick Foles, Alshon Jeffery, Chris Long, Patrick Robinson and Torrey Smith, while also executing trades for veteran defenders Ronald Darby and Tim Jernigan. The team later traded for running back Jay Ajayi just before the NFL trade deadline in October. Additionally, Roseman infused the roster with talent and youth during April's NFL Draft, which was held in Philadelphia for the first time since 1961. Roseman's moves paid dividends when the Eagles captured the first Super Bowl title in franchise history with a 41-33 victory over the New England Patriots.

In addition to 2017's acquisitions, Roseman has overseen the reshaping of a roster that included two separate trades that allowed the Eagles to move up in the first round of the 2016 NFL draft to select North Dakota State QB Carson Wentz. Eight days prior to the start of the 2016 regular season, Roseman executed another trade that sent QB Sam Bradford to the Minnesota Vikings in exchange for a 2017 first-round pick, which the Eagles used to select Tennessee's Derek Barnett, and a 2018 fourth-round pick. Prior to the 2016 and 2017 seasons, Roseman continued to solidify the team's core by retaining key veterans while adding to the team through free agency and the draft.

Prior to being promoted to his current role, Roseman served as the team's general manager from 2010-14. At the time of his 2010 promotion to general manager, Roseman became the youngest NFL executive to be named to the post in three decades, at just 34 years old. In his first year as general manager, he oversaw a major overhaul of the roster, making it one of the youngest in the NFL. The revamped Eagles squad earned an NFC East division crown in 2010 and then again in 2013. In 2014, the Eagles won ten games with an NFC-high nine Pro Bowl players.

Since hiring Roseman in 2000, the Eagles have earned 11 playoff berths, eight division titles, six NFC Championship appearances, two NFC Championship crowns and trips to Super Bowl XXXIX and Super Bowl LII.

In addition to overseeing the team's roster moves, Roseman is also responsible for establishing the organization's scouting and personnel department, as well as overseeing the executives who specialize in analytics, sports science, player engagement and NFL compliance.

After relentlessly pursuing jobs in NFL front offices, Roseman finally got his foot in the door as an intern with the Eagles when the team was headquartered at Veterans Stadium.

Roseman was elevated to director of football administration in 2003 and then to vice president of football administration in 2006. In that role, he worked in the personnel department evaluating players around the NFL and for the draft. He also represented the team to the NFL on contract, salary cap and player personnel matters.

In 2007, Roseman was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the league.

From 2008-09, Roseman served as the team's vice president of player personnel. In that role, he managed the college scouting staff, organized and ran draft meetings, and scouted the top college prospects around the country.

Roseman is also active in the Philadelphia-area community, contributing to a variety of initiatives involving military and children. He was named Honorary Commander for the Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst for his continued efforts with the military. His charitable endeavors have benefited the Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation, the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, USA Football, Pop Warner and Cop Wheels. He is also a member of the Governing Body of the Global Sports Management Summit and YPO. In 2018, Roseman was the recipient of the Steinberg-DeNicola Humanitarian Award, an honor presented by the Maxwell Football Club to an NFL representative that has committed themselves to doing good in their community.

Born in Brooklyn, NY, Roseman earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Florida before earning a JD degree from Fordham Law School. Howie and his wife, Mindy, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their four children.

JOE DOUGLAS VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Joe Douglas, who was hired by the Eagles on May 11, 2016, enters his third season as vice president of player personnel.

During the 2017 offseason, Douglas, along with Executive Vice President of Football Operations Howie Roseman, identified and acquired key veterans such as LeGarrette Blount, Nick Foles, Alshon Jeffery, Chris Long, Patrick Robinson and Torrey Smith, while also executing trades for veteran defenders Ronald Darby and Tim Jernigan. The team later traded for running back Jay Ajayi just before the NFL trade deadline in October. Additionally, Roseman, Douglas and the scouting department infused the roster with talent and youth during April's NFL Draft, which was held in Philadelphia for the first time since 1961. This extensive series of personnel transactions paid dividends when the Eagles captured the first Super Bowl title in franchise history with a 41-33 victory over the New England Patriots.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Douglas spent the 2015 season as the director of college scouting for the Chicago Bears after working in the Baltimore Ravens' personnel department for 16 years (2000-15).

During his time in Baltimore, Douglas was instrumental in acquiring a number of key performers for the Ravens, both through the draft and during the undrafted free agent signing period. Some of the players that he had a hand in obtaining included QB Joe Flacco, G Ben Grubbs, LB Pernell McPhee, LB C.J. Mosley, K Justin Tucker, CB Lardarius Webb and G Marshal Yanda. Grubbs, Mosley, Yanda and Tucker have combined for 10 Pro Bowls with the Ravens.

"I have known Joe for several years and have admired his work with both the Ravens and the Bears," said Howie Roseman, Eagles executive vice president of football operations. "He is a guy that we had targeted from the outset. I feel that we are very fortunate to have him lead our player personnel department. [Ravens general manager] Ozzie Newsome and [Bears general manager] Ryan Pace spoke very highly of him and his work. He is passionate about football, passionate about scouting and he played a vital role in the success of the Ravens over the last decade."

DOUG PEDERSON HEAD COACH

Doug Pederson was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles on January 18, 2016, following a three-year run as the offensive coordinator of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2013-15.

In just his second season as an NFL head coach, Pederson led the Eagles to a 13-3 regular-season record, an NFC East title, the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs and the first Super Bowl title in franchise history with a 41-33 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl LII.

Pederson became the eighth head coach in NFL history to win the Super Bowl in his first two seasons as a head coach and the seventh to win the Super Bowl in his first playoff run. Additionally, after coaching the Eagles to a 7-9 record during his first season with Philadelphia, Pederson became just the fourth head coach in NFL history to lead his team to a Super Bowl title following a sub-.500 record the previous season, joining Bill Walsh (1981 49ers), Dick Vermeil (1999 Rams) and Bill Belichick (2001 Patriots).

As a first-year head coach with the Eagles in 2016, Pederson developed rookie quarterback Carson Wentz, the No. 2-overall pick in the NFL Draft, and prepared the first-year signal caller to start the regular-season opener vs. the Cleveland Browns.

Under Pederson's direction, Wentz went on to set a team and all-time NFL rookie record with 379 completions, while posting franchise rookie records in pass attempts (607), passing yards (3,782), passing touchdowns (16) and completion percentage (62.4%). Wentz also produced the 4th-most passing yards (3,782) in single-season team history and NFL rookie history. Wentz started all 16 games in his rookie season, becoming the first Eagles quarterback to start all 16 regular-season games since Donovan McNabb in 2008.

Prior to arriving in Philadelphia, Pederson served as the offensive coordinator in Kansas City from 2013-15 and helped guide the Chiefs to a 31-17 regular-season record.

During his time in Kansas City, the Chiefs excelled at protecting the football and committed the third-fewest turnovers (50) in the NFL from 2013-15. Over that span, Kansas City's +29 turnover differential ranked third in the league.

In 2015, Pederson helped the Chiefs rebound from a 1-5 start to win a franchise-record 11 consecutive games, including Kansas City's first playoff victory in 22 years. During the Chiefs' regular-season winning streak, which began in Week 7, the club ranked tied for first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (14), fourth in rushing yards per game (143.8) and tied for fifth in points per game (27.8). Limited turnovers helped propel the team's run, as the Chiefs committed just seven turnovers (four INTs, three fumbles) after Week 6 and finished the 2015 regular season with the second-fewest turnovers in the league (15).

Kansas City acquired QB Alex Smith via trade in 2013 and the 10-year veteran experienced the most productive stretch of his career under Pederson's tutelage: a three-year span during which he set a Chiefs record for wins by a starting quarterback in his first three years as a starter (30). During his three years in Pederson's offense, Smith notched three consecutive 3,000-yard seasons, threw the second-fewest interceptions among quarterbacks with at least 1,000 attempts (20) and ranked fourth among all quarterbacks with 1,183 rushing yards. Smith's 20 interceptions from 2013-15 marked the lowest three-season total of his career in years that he played more than 10 games.

Before joining Kansas City, Pederson served as the quarterbacks coach in Philadelphia from 2011-12. In his first season as the Eagles quarterbacks coach, Pederson helped QB Michael Vick become the second quarterback in NFL history to top the 3,000-yard passing and 500-yard rushing plateaus in consecutive seasons. That year, under Pederson's direction, Vick set career highs in completions (253) and passing yards (3,303) while throwing the third-most touchdowns of his career (18). Vick's yards through the air, combined with his 589 rushing yards, helped Philadelphia's offense record a then-franchise-record 6,386 net yards (now the second-highest total) and notch a team-record 356 first downs. Additionally, the 2011 Eagles offense ranked second in the league in plays of 10-plus yards (258) and tied for second in plays of 20-plus yards (84).

Pederson began his pro coaching career as an offensive quality control coach with the Eagles from 2009-10. During that span, the Eagles scored 868 points and set single-season franchise scoring records in back-to-back years (429 in 2009 and 439 in 2010).

In 2010, Pederson assisted an Eagles offense that recorded a then-franchise-record 6,230 net yards (now fourth), which ranked second in the NFL that season, and a then-franchise-record 439 points, which ranked third in the league.

During Pederson's first season as an NFL coach (2009), the Eagles offense recorded the fifth-most passing yards in team history (4,089), which at the time ranked second in club annals.

A 12-year NFL veteran, Pederson played quarterback for the Green Bay Packers, Miami Dolphins, Philadelphia Eagles and Cleveland Browns after originally being drafted by the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 expansion draft. Pederson was coached by three of the most successful coaches in NFL history: Don Shula, Mike Holmgren and Andy Reid. Additionally, Pederson played alongside Pro Bowl quarterbacks Brett Favre, Dan Marino, Donovan McNabb and Jim McMahon.

Pederson served as a backup quarterback for Green Bay from 1995-98 and 2001-04, and was part of Packer teams that won Super Bowl XXXI, two NFC Championships (1996 and 1997) and six division titles. Pederson made eight starts for the Browns in 2000 and logged 1,047 yards and two touchdowns on 117 completions. In 1999, Pederson made nine starts for the Eagles, completing 119 passes for 1,276 yards and seven touchdowns.

In a 1993 contest against the Eagles, Pederson was pressed into duty when Dolphins starter Scott Mitchell left the game with a shoulder injury. In the second half, he helped guide Miami to a 19-14 win that marked Don Shula's 325th career victory.

Pederson attended Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana Monroe) where he was a three-year starter at quarterback. He finished his college career with 6,445 yards and 33 TDs on 571-of-1,032 passing. As a senior, Pederson led the Southland Conference in passing when he completed 205 of 367 passes for 2,282 yards and 10 TDs. In 1989, he set a school record with 619 passing yards against Stephen F. Austin. Pederson graduated from Northeast Louisiana with a B.B.A. in business management.

The Bellingham, WA, native (born January 31, 1968) earned three letters each in football, baseball and basketball at Ferndale (WA) H.S., where he was an all-league selection at quarterback, safety and kicker and finished his high school career with 1,880 yards and 19 TDs on 106-of-250 passing.

Pederson and his wife, Jeannie, have three sons: Drew, Josh and Joel. Jeannie played basketball at Louisiana College.

DE DEREK BARNETT 96

MOTHER'S INSPIRATION

Barnett considers his mother, Christine, his best friend and inspiration. Christine, who works in a UPS warehouse and at times has held three jobs to support her three children, instilled a humble attitude in Barnett at an early age.

"She always told me, 'Stay humble and put your head down and just work.' I think I get that attitude from her. Even though she worked a lot, she was still always there and made sure I had everything I needed."

Barnett noted in his pre-draft Players' Tribune article that his mother deserves to be taken care of for all of her hard work, but she admirably prefers to live her life as usual.

"She's already told me that she's going to keep her same job at the UPS warehouse — on her feet, sweating, sorting packages on a tight deadline — even after I make it to the league."

NFL DRAFT COVER LETTER

Prior to the 2017 NFL Draft, Barnett penned a letter in The Players' Tribune to the league's general managers.

"I just thought it was a great way to express my feelings, and my mom thought it would be a good idea to get that letter out as well."

Barnett expressed his admiration for Reggie White, whose career sacks record he broke at the University of Tennessee, but assured readers that his work was not done yet.

"Right now, you might know me as the kid who broke Reggie White's sack record at Tennessee, but that's not the only thing I'm going to be remembered for by the time I leave this game. I promise you that."

REGGIE WHITE'S RECORD

As a junior at the University of Tennessee in 2016, Barnett set a new school record with 33.0 career sacks, surpassing the previous record of 32.0 set by Pro Football Hall of Famer and Eagles legend Reggie White (1980-83). After breaking the record, Barnett received a phone call from Sara White.

"She was just congratulating me on everything I've accomplished. Even though I broke the record, I told her Reggie is still Reggie. I don't think I'm better than Reggie. It meant a lot."

Barnett admires the games of several other NFL players, past and present. "I like watching [Eagles DE] Michael Bennett play. I like his demeanor. He uses his hands very well. When I was younger, [Pro Football Hall of Famer and former Giants DE] Michael Strahan was one of the best to do it. I look up to a lot of those guys."

MAKING AN IMPRESSION

Prior to the 2017 NFL Combine, Barnett caught the flu and his numbers were not as good as he originally anticipated. However, that did not keep him from making an impression on NFL teams, especially the Eagles.

"I caught the flu a few days before we ran, and I knew I probably wasn't going to test my best. But I knew it was an important job interview and I knew I had to go out there and grind it out. I told myself to just go out there and do my best and control what I can control, and I did so."

BIRDSEED

Barnett lettered at Brentwood Academy (Brentwood, TN), where he earned all-state honors as a defensive end. As a senior, Barnett recorded 60 tackles, 18 TFL, 5.5 sacks and 1 FF and helped lead his team to a state semifinal berth.

Barnett began playing football at an early age as both a guard and defensive end. He developed an immediate love for the game.

"The first time I picked it up, I started playing football in fifth grade, and I always used to play backyard football when I was younger. When I picked it up the first day of practice I had a blast, and I knew I was going to go a long way with it." Barnett majored in communication studies at Tennessee.

G BRANDON BROOKS 79

COMMENCEMENT SPEECH

In May 2018, Brooks returned to his alma mater at Miami (Ohio) to deliver a commencement speech to a graduating class of more than 4,000 students. His inspirational speech highlighted his battle with anxiety and also touched on the importance of having a positive outlook on life.

"I am proud of a number of accomplishments I achieved this year - Pro Bowl, Super Bowl - but I am especially proud of defeating the anxiety that has affected me in the past. Truth be told - today I'm feeling a little anxious, but I've learned through therapy to not worry or care about making a mistake. Why? Because the best thing about life is that it goes on."

HOMETOWN PRIDE

An avid fan of Wisconsin sports, Brooks' favorite teams growing up were the Green Bay Packers, Milwaukee Brewers and Milwaukee Bucks. His favorite athletes as a kid were Ray Allen, Sam Cassell, Brett Favre, Ahman Green and Glenn Robinson. The first jersey he ever owned was a Ray Allen Bucks jersey. If he could play another professional sport, he would want to be a pitcher for the Brewers.

AN EARLY INFLUENCE

Brooks took up football at the age of 12 when he played tight end and middle linebacker for the Riverside Tigers. He cites his former neighbor, Jarrod Johnson, as the biggest influence on his football career. Johnson, a former offensive lineman himself, played with the San Diego Chargers, the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Sacramento Surge of the World League. The two still talk to this day.

BIRDSEED

Brooks attended Riverside University (Milwaukee, WI) HS, where he played both offense and defense. Brooks was named a two-time team MVP and served as a captain as a senior, leading the team to an 11-2 record and an appearance in the state playoffs. He also played basketball and baseball for the Tigers and threw the shotput.

Brooks is the son of Dorothy and Robert Brooks. He earned his degree in psychology from Miami University (Ohio).

BIRDSEED

Douglas is one of seven siblings raised by his grandmother in East Orange, NJ. He credits his little league baseball coach, Mike Davis, for helping turn his life around. Davis was also the P.A. announcer for East Orange HS and a mentor for at-risk youth. "He was the one who took me out of the streets. He made sure we did what we had to do."

Nassau Community College had no dorms, so Douglas lived in an apartment eight miles from campus and took the bus to and from school and practice each day. On his own financially, Douglas slept on the floor and battled hunger.

Douglas would wait until the end of the day to eat and often ordered off the dollar menu at McDonald's, eating half of the meal and saving the rest for later. "Every time I eat, I always think I'm making up a meal that I missed in junior college ... It definitely fuels me all the time, just thinking about what I went through."

EXPERT UNICYCLIST

Goedert is not just an athlete in the traditional sense - he is also a skilled unicyclist. "I was looking through the JCPenney catalog one day - the Christmas catalog, the thick one. I saw a unicycle and I told my mom that I wanted one. She said, 'Well, your grandpa has a bunch of unicycles. We used to ride them all the time.' So I said, 'Can we go get one?' Let's do it.' So I learned how. I have three other cousins that know how, too. And we ride in parades or centennials, 125th, Fourth of July parades in small towns around Britain. It was one of the biggest attractions in the parade, people love seeing it." Perhaps the greatest feat of Goedert's unicycling career is learning how to ride a six-foot unicycle, which he says requires starting off the back of a truck.

DALLAS IN PHILLY

Goedert's first name, Dallas, comes from his dad, who was a Dallas Cowboys fan, though his stepdad raised him to root for the Green Bay Packers. That being said, Goedert assures that everyone in his family now loves the Eagles. Additionally, shortly after he was selected by Philadelphia in the 2nd round of the 2018 NFL Draft, Goedert took notice of a handful of GoFundMe pages lobbying for him to change his name to 'Philly.'

"We're going to have a little bit of trouble with that, but hopefully I can make enough plays that they'll get over [my name being Dallas]."

BASKETBALL STAR

Goedert was a very talented basketball player and considers the sport his first 'true love.' However, his mom helped him focus on football with some friendly advice. "She said I'm going to have a better chance playing college football than basketball because 22 people start in football and only five start in basketball. I think she was just telling me that being 6'5" is being too short to be a three, four or five guy in the NBA."

Goedert definitely notices the impact that basketball has had on his football career. "Beating man coverage is a lot like driving to the hole, doing a crossover to get by somebody. And then any time you're in the red zone you're using your body like you're boxing out, or go up and catch a fade ball like you are high-pointing a rebound. A lot of things translate."

BIRDSEED

Goedert was a two-time honorable mention all-state selection and three-time all-conference pick in both football and basketball at Britton-Hecla High School.

BIGGEST INFLUENCE

Graham names his mother, Tasha Graham, as being the most influential person in his life. A cancer survivor, Tasha was diagnosed with leukemia at a young age. She spent most of her life working at a Chrysler auto plant to support Brandon and his three sisters.

Recalled Tasha, "The doctors told me I would never be able to have kids, so I cherish them because of that. When I was working at Chrysler, working hard, trying to make ends meet, it was for them and Brandon saw that."

THE SELECT 100

Graham organized a co-ed, high school football camp in Michigan called the Select 100 that takes 10 students (five boys and five girls) from each of Detroit's 20 public schools. The inaugural camp helps promote teamwork, confidence through sports and self esteem.

FUTURE PLANS

Graham is currently nine credits shy of obtaining a degree in sports management and plans to finish following his football career. He has also taken an interest in sports broadcasting and would like to attend the NFL's Broadcast Boot Camp.

HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT

Graham was a four-year starter at Crockett Vocational Technical (Detroit, MI) and earned Parade, EA Sports and USA Today first-team All-America honors as a senior. That year, he was also named the Michigan Gatorade Player of the Year. Graham recorded 307 tackles, including 112 TFL, 56 sacks, 16 FRs, 6 FFs and 2 INTs during his high school career. Additionally, Graham averaged more than 40 yards per attempt as a punter. Outside of football, Graham lettered in basketball and track and field. He regularly donates uniforms and equipment to his high school alma mater.

HOW HE GOT HIS START

Hicks is the son of Scott Hicks, who coaches high school basketball in Indianapolis, and Kelly Justice. He has an older sister, Taylor, and three younger brothers: Scotty, Cameron and Ethan.

Hicks began his football career in the 5th grade while playing running back and safety in the Lexington Termites League in South Carolina. Hicks grew up a big fan of the Carolina Panthers and the University of Texas football team.

The best advice he was ever given growing up came from his mother, Kelly Justice, who always told him to "stay humble."

EARLY MOTIVATION

Hicks was a three-year starter at Lakota West High School and earned numerous accolades, including the Butkus Award in 2009, given annually to the nation's best linebacker. He was also named Gatorade's Ohio High School Football Player of the Year.

Hicks also lettered in basketball and holds the district record for most varsity basketball games played in a career (87) and set the district record for steals (170).

ADAPTING TO CHANGE

Hicks was born in Colorado Springs, CO, and lived in Indiana (ages 1-6) and South Carolina (ages 6-11) before moving to Ohio. He also played for two head coaches and four defensive coordinators at Texas.

"Change does not scare me and I don't take anything for granted. I also think I'm able to see the positives of every different situation I'm in. It's enhanced my confidence and humility all at the same time."

OFF THE FIELD

Hicks' hobbies include playing video games, especially FIFA and NBA2K, as well as playing basketball and hanging out with friends by the lake in Austin, TX. Hicks married his wife, Ivana, during the 2017 offseason.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

For a player who won a Super Bowl and played in a Pro Bowl, Jenkins' career did not exactly begin in a blaze of glory. Jenkins was originally a 9-year-old, back-up guard for the Piscataway Braves of his Pop Warner squad in New Jersey. Jenkins recalled that he played just seven plays per game that was mandatory for all players in that league. "All I remember is that I got my seven plays in and from there it was a race to get the free hot dog."

STYLIN' IN THE SECONDARY

Jenkins has immersed himself in the world of fashion and, more specifically, the bow tie. At the suggestion from his wife, Morrisa, Jenkins launched his own company, Rock Avenue Bow Ties, which specializes in the design and creation of neck wear and pocket squares and encourages self expression in its customers. For more info, visit rockavenuebowties.com.

During the 2017 offseason, Jenkins opened his own custom suite store in Philadelphia, Damari Savile.

MALCOLM JENKINS FOUNDATION

Launched in 2010, the Malcolm Jenkins Foundation aims to provide resources, experiences and opportunities for the underserved youth. The organization's goal is to inspire and create positive change in the lives of children. Said Jenkins, "For as much as I have been given in life, I feel obligated to give children the guidance, experience and an opportunity. And then watch them take off." For more info, please visit The Malcolm Jenkins Foundation.org.

CELEBRITY FAMILY FEUD

In 2016, Jenkins participated in a NFL version of Celebrity Family Feud hosted by Steve Harvey, which aired on July 3. Jenkins and the rest of the NFC defense defeated the AFC offense and collected $25,000 for Got Your 6 charity.

THE WALKING DEAD

After reading The Zombie Survival Guide by Max Brooks, Jenkins began collecting an array of different survival tools in what he describes as a "half-hearted attempt at doomsday prepping." Jenkins' favorite TV show is The Walking Dead.

BIRDSEED

Jenkins is the son of Willie Lee and Gwendolyn V. Jenkins. His dad is a software engineer for Comcast and his mom is the president of the Malcolm Jenkins Foundation. Jenkins was a leader in the Omega Psi Phi fraternity at Ohio State, graduating with a bachelor's degree in communications.

MOTIVATING VOICES

Jenkins credits many for helping him get to where he is today, but he singled out three people: his father, Lee Jenkins; his high school football and track coach, Larry Lester; and his college coach, Jim Tressel. "My father's best advice was, 'You don't know what you don't know,' meaning you constantly need to learn more. Larry Lester taught me how to prepare and how to train. We'd sometimes be the only two people on the field on a weekend, just trying to get myself better. And Coach Tressel taught me about integrity and how to be a pro before I even became a pro."

BYRON "WHIZZER" WHITE AWARD

In February 2017, Jenkins was announced as the recipient of the NFLPA's Byron "Whizzer" White Award for his outstanding charitable efforts off the field. As the winner, Jenkins received $100,000 to donate to the charity of his choice. Jenkins joined Brian Dawkins, Troy Vincent and Reggie White as Eagles who have won the Byron "Whizzer" White Award. Byron "Whizzer" White led the NFL in rushing yards in 1938 and 1940 and later served as a Supreme Court Justice from 1962-93.

MALCOLM & MORRISA

Jenkins and his wife, Morrisa, have two daughters, Elle and Selah. Malcolm and Morrisa met on Facebook while he was a senior at Ohio State. "She was at Southern Miss, so we talked on Facebook for a while and I just happened to get drafted by the Saints. New Orleans was only an hour and 10 minutes from where she was in Hattiesburg, so we started hanging out and the rest is history."

Morrisa recently started a company called Meaux Moisture (meauxmoisture.com), which sells all-natural body care products. "I give all the credit for my beard to my wife."

LIFE IN THE FAST LANE

Johnson did not start playing football until the 7th grade when he was a quarterback for his middle school team in Coldspring, TX. He earned all-state honors as a QB in high school, but did not receive a scholarship offer.

He began his college career at Kilgore (TX) College, where, at 202 pounds, he quarterbacked the Rangers in 2008. After transfering to Oklahoma as a tight end in 2009, he redshirted for one year before playing tight end and defensive end in 2010.

He finally settled in as a right tackle in 2011 before moving to the left side in 2012.

MOTHER'S INFLUENCE

Johnson credits his mother, Ray Ann, for being where he is today. Ray Ann has a degree in criminal justice and works as a social worker with death-row inmates at a prison in Riverside, TX. Lane was proud to purchase his mother a new home in 2014.

"She was a single mother and she raised me by herself. She didn't have a lot, but she made sure I was happy."

FAMILY TIES

Johnson leans on the advice of his father-in-law, John Goodman, who played defensive line for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1981-85.

"He's been a mentor to me. He's been in my shoes been there, done that. He's taught me how to best work through adversity and the tough times."

SMALL TOWN ROOTS

Johnson's graduating class from Groveton High School consisted of just 35 students. In fact, Groveton's listed population in 2010 was just 1,057.

Johnson played quarterback and safety at Groveton, where he was an all-region and honorable mention all-state selection. Johnson also lettered in track and field, as he placed 4th in the shot put at the state's track championships. He was also a member of Groveton's baseball and basketball teams.

BIRDSEED

Johnson and his wife, Chelsea, reside in Edmond, OK. They have a son, Jace; a daughter, Journey Lane; and a dog, Mox. Johnson majored in human relations at Oklahoma.

HUNGRY DOGS RUN FASTER

Dressed in Mummers regalia at the podium atop the steps of the Philadelphia Museum of Art, Kelce closed the Eagles' Parade of Champions with an emotional, powerful and memorable speech that solidified his unique place in Philadelphia folklore. Inspired by the "underdog" theme associated with the Eagles' playoff run, Kelce delivered an ode to his teammates and the resilient spirit of the city of Philadelphia.

"It was a very real moment for myself and I think that the fans and really everybody watching it picked up on that as well, that it was really coming from the heart. It wasn't some sort of show, even though it might have looked like it with the Mummer outfit and all the spectacle around it. It was something that came from a burning place down inside that had been engrained through a lot of hard work, a lot of failures, a lot of success throughout my entire career, and the same thing with the city and this entire organization."

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Kelce comes from a football lineage, as his younger brother, Travis, was a teammate at Cincinnati (2008-10) as a tight end and was drafted by Kansas City in 2013. His uncle, Don Blalock, played defensive tackle for Purdue (1976-77) and his grandfather, Don Blalock, played football at Ohio University.

BIRDSEED

Kelce is the son of Donna and Ed Kelce. Donna works in banking, while Ed is a sales rep in the steel business. He cites his dad as the biggest influence on his career.

Kelce graduated from Cincinnati with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

CHRIS LONG FOUNDATION

In 2015, the Chris Long Foundation was launched to raise money for Waterboys, an initiative dedicated to building wells for communities in East Africa.

Long was named the NFLPA Community MVP for Week 2 of the 2017 season for "his ongoing efforts to enhance the lives of others through programs focused on youth, clean water, military appreciation and homelessness."

Early in the 2017 season, The Chris Long Foundation, in partnership with Boys & Girls of Central Virginia and St. Anne's Belfield School, announced that Long donated his first six game checks of the season to fund two seven-year scholarships in his hometown of Charlottesville, VA.

Later in the year, Long announced that he would donate the remainder of his game checks (10) to organizations supporting educational equity and opportunity in St. Louis, Boston and Philadelphia. Through the Pledge 10 for Tomorrow campaign, fans and businesses were encouraged to make their own pledge to one of the three cities. The effort raised over $1.3 million, in addition to the $50,000 that Long donated to College Bound and The Little Bit Foundation, which are located in the St. Louis area (regional winner).

The 6-8, 346 pound offensive tackle is currently the youngest player on the Eagles roster.

BIRDSEED

Mailata's size was no longer compatible for playing rugby, as he was asked to drop 50 pounds from his 310-pound playing weight. That goal quickly became unrealistic given his 10-percent body fat.

Mailata played rugby for the South Sydney Rabbitohs, a club owned by actor Russell Crowe.

Mailata, who was born Lafoga Jordan Mailata, is named after NBA legend Michael Jordan. His parents allowed his older sister to choose his middle name.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

 Originally selected by the Eagles as an offensive tackle in the 7th round (233rd overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft

BEFORE THE NFL

 Played professional rugby as a front rower for the South Sydney Rabbitohs of Australia's National Rugby League

BIRDSEED

Maragos took a long and arduous road to even reach the NFL. He made it despite not receiving any offers to play football coming out of high school or any sort of ranking on Rivals. He walked on at both Western Michigan and Wisconsin as a receiver and earned a scholarship offer for only his final season with the Badgers. Maragos joined the 49ers as a rookie free agent in 2010 with a signing bonus of $4,000 but became a special teams standout during a 3-year tenure with the Seahawks.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has recorded 84 special teams tackles in 99 career regular-season games, including an Eagles-high 49 tackles from 2014-17
- Was a force on the NFL's top-ranked special teams units in 2014, leading the Eagles with 14 special teams tackles, while forcing a fumble, blocking a punt and scoring his first career TD after a blocked punt. Voted a Pro Bowl second alternate

THE SOCIAL NETWORK

Maragos used an unlikely source to get his shot at Wisconsin: Facebook. "I was a walk-on receiver at Western Michigan, but it was always a dream of mine to play at Wisconsin. My brother was the mascot there and he knew some guys on the team. So, I decided to give it a shot."

Maragos looked up Wisconsin's starting WR Luke Swan on Facebook and sent him a message. "I told him my brother was Bucky Badger and I wanted a shot to play at Wisconsin. He responded and got my film in front of the coaches. Next thing I knew they were asking me to walk on. It was amazing."

BIRDSEED

Maragos and his wife, Serah, have two sons, Micah and Mason, and a daughter, Cambria. The family resides in Philadelphia and Naples, FL. Maragos is the son of Nick and Cindy Maragos. His father, Nick, played safety at Northern Iowa, and his brother, Troy, served as Bucky Badger, the Wisconsin mascot. Troy is currently a pastor in Naples, FL.

Maragos earned many awards during his tenure at Wisconsin: UW Tom Wiesner Award (best Wisconsin-born student athlete), UW 2009 male student-athlete of the year, and AFCA Good Works team. Maragos earned his bachelor's degree in life sciences and communication at Wisconsin.

Maragos was a three-year starter, two-time captain and team MVP at William Horlick (WI) HS, where he earned all-state, all-southeast conference, all-district and all-county accolades as a wide receiver. He was also named Wisconsin's Gatorade Player of the Year in 2004.

Maragos was a 12-time all-conference recipient between football and track at William Horlick, and he also earned letters in both baseball and basketball.

2013 - TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS (10/0)

 Played in a career-high 10 games with the Buccaneers during his rookie campaign in 2013. Logged 5 tackles (3 solo) in 77 defensive snaps

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

Appeared in 48 games (42 starts) at Buffalo, posting 185 tackles, 29.5 TFL, 18.5 sacks, 3 FFs, 3 FRs and 2 INTs, while also blocking 5 kicks. His 18.5 career sacks rank 5th all-time in school history

MEANS vs. PETERS

Blocked punt: 1/1/17 vs. Dallas

According to Means, the best player he has ever lined up against is current teammate and Eagles LT Jason Peters. In fact, Peters was part of his "Welcome to the NFL" moment. As a rookie for the Buccaneers in 2013, Means' performance in a Week 4 matchup against the Cardinals led to increased snaps the following game. It just so happened that the next contest would be against the Eagles and the offensive line anchor, Peters.

"I just remember this one play where Jason literally lifted me up in the air and slammed me to the ground. It didn't stop there. He rested his hands on my chest and made sure that my back remained on the grass until the play was over. I was in total shock at the time and just kept thinking that you have to come ready to play on every single down at this level."

BIRDSEED

Means, who earned his degree in sociology at the University of Buffalo, is the son of Gwen and Steven Means Sr. He has two younger brothers, Brandon and Cameron.

Means was a two-time All-Western New York selection at Grover Cleveland HS, where he notched 108 tackles, 20.0 sacks, 5 FFs and 1 INT as a senior in 2007, leading his team to an appearance in the Western New York Harvard Cup.

AN UNCONVENTIONAL PATH

Peters originally signed with the Buffalo Bills in 2004 as a tight end with a signing bonus of $5,000. He went undrafted despite an impressive workout at the combine, which included a 4.8 time in the 40-yard dash.

He began the 2004 season on the Bills practice squad, but was elevated to the 53-man roster in November and saw action at both tight end and offensive tackle. In a Dec. 19 contest at Cincinnati, Peters started his first career NFL game when the team opened up in a two-TE set. During the contest, he blocked a punt and recovered it in the end zone for a TD (pictured above).

In 2005, Peters made the transition from tight end to tackle and credits former Bills coach Mike Mularkey for the career-changing move. "Offensive line was one of our weak points and I remember wanting to get on the field any way I could. Coach Mularkey told me about it and Mouse (offensive line coach Jim McNally) and I got to work."

Peters officially made the switch to tackle in the middle of the season and started the final nine games of the year at RT. He went on to open the 2006 season as the starting RT and switched to LT for the final nine games of the season. That year, he was named to Peter King's SI.com All-Pro team. After proving to be the Bills' most dominant offensive lineman in 2006, Peters opened 15 contests at LT in 2007 and garnered Pro Bowl honors for the first time in his career.

In 2009, the Eagles acquired Peters in a trade with Buffalo in exchange for a first-round draft pick in 2009, a fourth-round pick in 2009 and a sixth-round pick in 2010. Since then, Peters has made the Pro Bowl seven times, marking the second-most Pro Bowl berths in franchise history.

EARLY ATHLETICISM

As a 9-year old, Peters was taken out of a baseball game after the umpire and opposing coach were convinced he was too old to play in the league. "I struck out 9 batters in the first three innings. My mother had to go home and get my birth certificate before I was allowed back in the game. After I did, I hit a home run."

Peters attended Queen City (TX) High School and earned All-District and All-Area honors as a defensive end. He also lettered in basketball, averaging 18.4 points per game to garner All-District and All-Area honors.

CUSTOM WHEELS

Peters owns a business in Shreveport, LA, named Greedy Boy Customs. "We do custom car work or on really anything with wheels," said Peters. "We've actually done work on a few golf carts." ... Thanks to his grandfather, Dallas Wiggins, buying and restoring cars has been a passion in Jason's life. "He used to take all these old cars and fix them up. When I was little, I was always hanging around watching him and my uncle, and I got hooked."

BRAND JORDAN

Peters started a collection of Jordans in 2006 and now has a collection of over 2,500 that he displays in one closet in his home. His personal favorites are the "black and red 13's."

BIRDSEED

Full name is Jason Raynard Peters. His mother is Teledeo (pronounced Toledo) Simington and his stepfather is Ivory Simington. He has two sisters, Ivy and Chrissy.

Jason is quick to name his mother as the hero in his life, "My mom means everything to me. I definitely wouldn't be where I am today without her. She worked multiple jobs so she could provide for us. In the last year or so she lost over 100 pounds before undergoing two knee replacement surgeries. Now she's doing so much better. She continues to be such a big inspiration to me."

He is single and resides in South Jersey and in Atlanta, TX. He has a son, Jayshaun, who plays football, baseball, and basketball.

Majored in vocational education at Arkansas.

Smallwood's favorite all-time Eagle was Duce Staley, who now serves as his position coach. "I was star-struck at the combine after meeting him. I even asked for a picture with him."

BIRDSEED

Smallwood, who majored in criminology with a minor in communications at West Virginia, is the son of Nichelle Barber and Wendell Smallwood. Smallwood owns a pit bull named Prince.

Smallwood began playing football as a fullback and guard for the Claymont (DE) Falcons as a 7-year-old. He played his first three high school seasons at Red Lion Christian Academy in Bear, DE, before finishing high school at Eastern Christian Academy in Elkton, MD.

MOTHER KNOWS BEST

Sproles credits his late mother, Annette, for helping him become the person he is today. Annette bravely fought cancer for five years after being diagnosed in 2000. Even though Sproles was recruited by several schools to play football, he chose to attend Kansas State to be close to his mother.

"I wanted to be near her for my family. I wanted it to be easy for her to see my games if she wanted to go. She was a true fighter. I miss her every day."

When Annette passed away in 2004, Sproles honored a promise to his mother to return to school his senior year to complete his degree in criminal justice. "My mom is my hero. She kept me focused on the right things."

BIRDSEED

Treggs is the son of Keisha Blanks and Brian Treggs. Brian was inducted into the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 2015. A fouryear wideout for the Golden Bears, Brian hauled in 167 receptions for 2,335 yards and 15 TDs.

Following his collegiate career, Brian went on to play one season in the NFL for the Seattle Seahawks in 1992.

Treggs surpassed his father's reception and receiving yardage totals during his senior year and scored his 15th-career TD in his final collegiate game, the Armed Forces Bowl (12/29/15), to tie Brian's personal record.

During his high school years at St. John Bosco, Treggs was coached by his father, who served as the team's receivers coach.

BAND OF BROTHERS

Halapoulivaati is the oldest of three Vaitai brothers. Twins Kevin and Will are just 11 months younger than 'Big V' and the three played on the offensive line together at Haltom (TX) HS. After playing TE as a freshman, 'Big V' moved to RT as a sophomore and immediately earned a starting job. That year, he was joined on the o-line by Kevin (LG) and Will (RG). Big V stayed at RT for his final two years at Haltom, while Kevin moved to C and Will moved to LG.

POLYNESIAN ROOTS

Vaitai learned to play the guitar at a young age when his cousin taught him three chords. He plays by ear and does not read music. "Polynesians are very musically talented and they always play by ear. I also know how to play the ukulele, but prefer the guitar because it's bigger." Growing up, Vaitai and his family ate a lot of traditional Polynesian foods. "Roasted pig is a staple and spinach is a main ingredient in every dish."

APPLIED LEARNING

Vaitai majored in criminal justice at TCU with a minor in social work. After his playing career is over, he wants to work for the Department of Homeland Security. In Fall 2015, Vaitai interned with Youth Advocate Programs, Inc., an agency that provides direct service to vulnerable and high-need youth and families. As a part of his internship, Big V was paired with a sixth grader who suffered from severe ADHD. "My job was to mentor him and take him out after school. It was a very eye-opening experience. The hardest part of the job is having to shut down your feelings and emotions. You get exposed to serious and dire living conditions, but our only job is to be a big brother to the kids. We can't try to fix everything."

BIRDSEED

Vaitai is named after his father's cousin. His parents, Talikavili and Shirley Vaitai, are originally from Tonga and moved to the United States in the 1980s. Vaitai and his wife, Caitlin, have one son, Vaati. The family has two dogs: a terrier named Abby and a chihuahua named Coffee.

BIRDSEED

At Alabama, Warmack developed the custom of rolling up his jersey to just under the numbers as a way to stay cooler. Soon, the look became known as "Warmacking," and fans began posting photos on social media of their exposed bellies. Warmack highlighted the best fan photos with what he called "Warmackin' Wednesdays."

Warmack's brother, Dallas, followed in his footsteps and played offensive line at Alabama before moving to Oregon as a graduate transfer in May 2018.

Warmack attended Westlake (GA) High School, where he played with Panthers QB Cam Newton during his freshman and sophomore years.

CARSON WENTZ A01 FOUNDATION

Last summer, Wentz launched the Carson Wentz A01 Foundation, which is a nonprofit whose mission is to "uplift individuals and communities around the world by demonstrating God's love for His people."

In June 2018, Wentz hosted the inaugural A01 Foundation Softball Game at Citizens Bank Park, which featured a home run derby and game played by his teammates. The event sold 25,000 tickets and raised more than $800,000. Also that evening, Wentz announced the launch of Thy Kingdom Crumb, a food truck service that will freely distribute quality food to people in need throughout the Philadelphia area.

The A01 Foundation has partnered with Mission of Hope to build a youth multi-sports complex and education center in Haiti, which is now in its second phase of construction. In May 2018, Wentz raised $260,000 during a two-week fundraising campaign for the complex and personally matched that total, resulting in a $520,000 pledge through his foundation.

Wentz also established Camp Conquerers, which is a youth camp created to provide outdoor opportunities to individuals with physical challenges and life-threatening illnesses.

THE DUTCH DESTROYER

In May 2017, Wentz befriended a boy named Lukas Kusters, who earned the nickname "Dutch Destroyer" for his fearless spirit on the football field. Lukas, who was diagnosed with a tumor in his abdomen when he was 8 years old, had received an inspirational video message from Wentz and his only wish was to thank his favorite player for the gesture.

The Eagles invited Lukas' family to the NovaCare Complex and what was supposed to be a short visit turned into hours. As part of his thank you, Lukas gave Wentz a wristband that says, "Dutch Destroyer," and Wentz has worn it every day since.

Less than two weeks after his visit, Lukas passed away at 10 years old and was buried in Wentz's jersey. Wentz wears his "Dutch Destroyer" wristband every game because Lukas' dream was to play for the Eagles, and with Wentz he can be on an NFL field every Sunday.

Wentz, who regularly keeps in touch with Lukas' family, helped share Lukas' story with ESPN's Tom Rinaldi, and weeks after the interview aired, the family raised nearly $200,000 through wristband purchases that went towards charities that aid families fighting childhood cancer.

"It's so much deeper than football is what it comes down to. It's so much more than just a game."

MISSION OF HOPE

During the offseason, Wentz travels to Port-au-Prince, Haiti, with Mission of Hope, a Christian organization that seeks transformative change for the people of Haiti. During each mission trip, Wentz embraces the culture while sharing his faith, playing with kids and helping paint homes in the community.

"It was very eye-opening to see how much need there really is, and how they're lacking so many things materialistically. But emotionally and mentally, it was one of the most joyful communities. I think the biggest thing I learned about myself was life isn't all about stuff. Going there and seeing it gave me an entirely different perspective just because they don't have much at all."
