COLTS TRAVEL TO FOXBOROUGH FOR THURSDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL CONTEST

Colts Kicker
Adam Vinatieri

The Indianapolis Colts will travel to Foxborough, Mass. to face the New England Patriots on Thursday Night Football. The game will take place on Thursday, Oct. 4 at 8:20 p.m. ET at Gillette Stadium.

The contest will mark the 76th all-time regular season meeting between the teams with the Patriots leading the series, 47-28. In their last matchup on Oct. 18, 2015, New England defeated Indianapolis 34-27 at Lucas Oil Stadium.

Last week, the Colts hosted the Houston Texans in their first AFC South matchup of the 2018 season and were defeated in overtime, 37-34.

It was a tale of two halves as the Colts faced a 21-10 halftime deficit.

After Houston scored their fourth touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter, Indianapolis scored touchdowns off of a Nyheim Hines reception and an Eric Ebron catch to bring the score to 28-23.

The Texans converted a field goal in the fourth quarter to take a 31-23 lead.

With under one minute left in regulation, Hines caught his second touchdown of the game to bring the score within two points. On the ensuing two-point attempt, wide receiver Chester Rogers caught a pass in the end zone to tie the game up and force overtime.

In the extra frame, kick Adam Vinatieri made his second field goal of the day on a 44-yard kick. Houston then countered with a field goal. The Texans would force a turnover on downs before connecting on a 37-yard field goal with no time remaining to win the game.

Quarterback Andrew Luck completed 40-of-62 passes for 464 yards and four touchdowns for a 108.5 passer rating. In the second quarter, Vinatieri made a 42-yard field goal to pass Morten Andersen for the most converted field goals in NFL history.

For the fourth consecutive game this season, rookie linebacker Darius Leonard led the Colts in tackles. He finished with 13 stops (eight solo), 1.0 tackle for loss and 1.0 sack. Cornerback Pierre Desir registered one interception while defensive tackle Denico Autry tallied 2.0 sacks.

35TH SEASON

The 2018 season marks the Colts' 35th in the city of Indianapolis. This year the team will honor the team's of the past.

Since relocating to Indianapolis, the Colts have won 11 division titles, including five consecutive AFC South crowns from 2003-07. The Colts are one of only two NFL teams to have 12-plus victories in seven consecutive seasons (2003-09). Indianapolis won 115 regular season games from 2000-09, the highest decade total in NFL history, and the team's 23 consecutive regular season wins (2008-09) set another NFL record. The club won Super Bowl XLI following a 12-4 record in the 2006 regular season, and the Colts reached Super Bowl XLIV after winning the AFC title during the 2009 season.

2018 REGULAR SEASON OPPONENTS

Along with their normal slate of home and road contests against AFC South opponents - Houston, Jacksonville and Tennessee - the Colts will compete against the AFC East and NFC East Divisions in 2018. Indianapolis will face five 2017 playoff teams.

IMPORTANT NFL DATES

October 14

NFL London Series, Seattle Seahawks vs. Oakland Raiders, New Tottenham Stadium

Mid-October

Beginning on the sixth calendar day prior to a club's seventh regular season game (including any bye week) clubs are permitted to begin practicing players on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform and Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness for a period not to exceed 21 days. Players may be activated during the 21-day practice period, or prior to 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the day after the conclusion of the 21-day period, provided that no player may be activated to participate in a Week 6 game.

Mid-October

At any time after six weeks have elapsed since a player was placed on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Non-Football Injury/Illness, each club is permitted to designate two players for return from either list to the club's 53-player Active/Inactive List.

A player who is "Designated For Return" must have suffered a major football-related injury or non-football-related injury or illness after reporting to training camp and passing his preseason physical examination and must have been placed on the applicable Reserve List after 4:00 p.m., New York time, on the day after the final roster reduction.

A player whom the club wishes to designate for return is permitted to return to practice for a period not to exceed 21 days. The club is required to notify the League office that the player has been "Designated For Return" on the first day the player begins to practice. The player cannot be returned to the Active/Inactive List until eight weeks have elapsed since the date he was placed on Reserve.

Players with at least four previous pension-credited seasons are subject to the waiver system for the remainder of the regular season and postseason.

COLTS HEAD COACH FRANK REICH

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 13th season
NFL EXPERIENCE: 27th season
COLTS HEAD COACH: 1st season
REGULAR SEASON: 1-3 (.250)
POSTSEASON: 0-0 (.000)

PRO CAREER: Frank Reich was named head coach of the Indianapolis Colts on Feb. 11, 2018. He has 26 years of NFL experience as both a player (1985-98) and coach (2006-2017).

Reich spent the last two seasons as offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles and was instrumental in the team's Super Bowl LII championship following the 2017 season. In Philadelphia, he assisted with the development of quarterback Carson Wentz, whom the team selected in the first round (second overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.

The Eagles started the 2017 season in dominant fashion under the direction of Reich and his offense. Wentz started the first 13 games of the season, led the team to an 11-2 record and was in the running for NFL MVP before suffering a season-ending knee injury in Week 14. Backup quarterback Nick Foles was thrust into the spotlight and guided the Eagles to a 2-1 record and a first round bye in the playoffs. In postseason play, Foles led Philadelphia to underdog wins over the Atlanta Falcons in the NFC Divisional round, Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Championship and the New England Patriots in Super Bowl LII for the team's first-ever Super Bowl championship. He was named Super Bowl MVP after completing 28-of-43 passes for 373 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for a 106.1 passer rating. Foles also caught a one-yard touchdown pass late in the second quarter and became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for and catch a touchdown in a Super Bowl. In 2016, Reich helped then rookie Wentz make the transition from FCS-level North Dakota State to the pros. Wentz started all 16 games and completed 379-of-607 passes for 3,782 yards with 16 touchdowns and 14 interceptions for a 79.3 passer rating. He set a franchise and NFL rookie record for completions.

Prior to Philadelphia, Reich served on the coaching staffs of the San Diego Chargers (2013-15) and Arizona Cardinals (2012). He spent the first six seasons (2006-2011) of his coaching career with the Colts.

Reich enjoyed a 14-year playing career with the Buffalo Bills, Carolina Panthers, New York Jets and Detroit Lions after being selected by the Bills in the third round (57th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft. Including postseason play, he played in 129 career games (22 starts) and completed 575-of-1,036 passes for 8,858 yards and 47 touchdowns. Reich is most notably known for engineering the greatest comeback in NFL history in the 1992 Wild Card Round playoff game against the Houston Oilers. Making his first postseason start in relief of injured quarterback Jim Kelly, Reich led the Bills to a 41-38 overtime victory despite being down by 32 points early in the third quarter. He orchestrated five second half touchdown drives, four of which were capped by touchdown passes, and led a game-winning field goal drive in overtime.

BACKGROUND: Reich was a quarterback at the University of Maryland from 1981-84 where he backed up Boomer Esiason before earning the starting job as a senior in 1984. As a senior, Reich rallied the Terrapins from a 31-0 deficit to defeat the Miami Hurricanes, 42-40. At the time, Maryland's victory over Miami marked the greatest comeback win in college football history and is now only second to Michigan State's 2006 35-point comeback over Northwestern.

PATRIOTS HEAD COACH BILL BELICHICK

COACHING EXPERIENCE: 44th season
NFL EXPERIENCE: 44th season
PATRIOTS HEAD COACH: 19th season
REGULAR SEASON: 252-120 (.677)
POSTSEASON: 28-11 (.718)

PRO CAREER: Bill Belichick is in his 44th season as an NFL coach and his 19th season as head coach of the New England Patriots. Hired by Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on Jan. 27, 2000, Belichick has led the Patriots to 17 consecutive winning seasons (2001-2017). The only other NFL coach to have at least 10 consecutive winning seasons with one team since the 1970 merger was Tom Landry, who led the Dallas Cowboys to 16 consecutive winning seasons (1970-1985).

Through 18 seasons with New England, Belichick has delivered five Super Bowl championships, eight conference titles, 15 division crowns and 27 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 241-84. Belichick won his fifth Super Bowl title in 2016, with the Patriots' 34-28 overtime victory over the Atlanta Falcons after overcoming a 28-3 second half deficit to give him the most Super Bowl wins among all NFL head coaches. He is one of four NFL head coaches with at least five championships since the league began postseason play, joining George Halas (6), Curly Lambeau (8) and Vince Lombardi (5). Belichick is the only of those five to win three titles in a four-year span with Super Bowl wins in 2001 and back-to-back Super Bowl wins in 2003 and 2004. With the victory over Indianapolis in the 2014 AFC Championship Game, Belichick collected his 21st career postseason win, the most postseason wins by a head coach. He expanded that record to 28 over the last three seasons. The 2017 AFC Championship was Belichick's eighth conference championship as a head coach, adding to his mark for the most in NFL history. New England's berth in Super Bowl LI was Belichick's 11th Super Bowl during his coaching career, the most among any head coach or assistant coach in NFL history.

Belichick has recorded 278 career wins, which is third all-time in NFL history. He owns a career winning percentage of .683, which is first all-time in NFL history. Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003), XXXIX (2004), XLIX (2014) and LI (2016), and in 2007 he became the first NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. His 15 division titles are the most among any coach. He also is the first NFL head coach to lead his team to nine straight division crowns (2009-2017). Belichick helped the Patriots become the first franchise in NFL history to score 500 or more points in four seasons (2007-589, 2010-518, 2011-513 and 2012-557). St. Louis is the only other team to have done it three times. Belichick is the first head coach in NFL history to lead a team to three straight 500-point seasons. Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win at least 14 regular-season games in five separate seasons. Only four other coaches – San Francisco's George Seifert (3), Washington's Joe Gibbs (2), Chicago's Mike Ditka (2) and Miami's Dan Shula (2) – have more than one 14-win season. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive victories, including the postseason (21 from 2003-04) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Over a 100-game span from 2003-09, he directed the Patriots to 81 wins – the most in NFL history by a head coach.

Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in a career during which he has helped produce seven Super Bowl titles, 11 conference championships and 22 division titles since entering the NFL in 1975. He won his first two Super Bowls as defensive coordinator for the New York Giants in 1986 and 1990 before claiming five Super Bowl championships with the Patriots. George Seifert is the only other man to have won multiple Super Bowls both as a head coach and as an assistant coach.

Belichick launched his coaching career in 1975 with the Baltimore Colts and continued as an assistant coach with Detroit (1976-77), Denver (1978) and the New York Giants (1979-1990).

Belichick was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns in 1991, becoming the youngest head coach in the NFL at age 38. By 1994, Belichick brought the Browns back to the playoffs, finishing 11-5 and advancing to the second round of the playoffs, while allowing a league-low 204 total points.

In 1996, Belichick joined New England and was a key contributor to the Patriots first division title in 10 years en route to the Patriots appearance in Super Bowl XXXI. Belichick then spent three seasons with the New York Jets from 1997 to 1999, helping New York improve from a 1-15 season in 1998 to an appearance in the AFC Championship Game in 1999.

BACKGROUND: Belichick was a center/tight end at Wesleyan (1971-74).

COLTS RE-SIGNINGS

CB-PIERRE DESIR

Desir was originally claimed by the Colts off waivers from the Seattle Seahawks on September 3, 2017. He has played in 33 career games (13 starts) and has compiled 80 tackles (82 solo), 15 passes defended, one interception and one special teams stop in his time with the Colts (2017), San Diego Chargers (2016) and Cleveland Browns (2014-15). Desir was originally selected by the Browns in the fourth round (127th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft out of Lindenwood.

In 2017, Desir saw action in nine games (six starts) for Indianapolis and recorded 32 tackles (21 solo), seven passes defended and one interception before being placed on the team's Injured Reserve List on December 4. He appeared in five games for the Chargers in 2016 and finished with three solo tackles and one pass defended. In 2015, Desir played in 14 games (six starts) for Cleveland and compiled 36 tackles (29 solo), five passes defended and one special teams stop. As a rookie in 2014, he saw action in five games (one start) and tallied nine solo tackles and two passes defended.

CB-CHRIS MILTON

Milton originally signed with the Colts as an undrafted free agent on May 2, 2016. He has played in 20 career games (one start) and has compiled 10 tackles (eight solo), two passes defended, one fumble recovery and 10 special teams stops. In 2017, Milton saw action in 14 games and tallied four solo tackles, one fumble recovery and six special teams stops. As a rookie in 2016, he spent time on Indianapolis' active roster and practice squad. Milton saw action in six games (one start) and recorded six tackles (four solo), two passes defended and four special teams stops.

LS-LUKE RHODES

Rhodes was originally signed by Indianapolis as a free agent on October 5, 2016. He has played in 20 career games and has tallied two special teams tackles. In 2017, Rhodes made the transition from linebacker to long snapper. He competed in all 16 games and recorded one special teams tackle. As a rookie in 2016, Rhodes saw action in four games and made one special teams tackle. He participated in the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' 2016 offseason program and training camp before signing with the Colts.

K-ADAM VINATIERI

Vinatieri was originally signed by the Colts as an unrestricted free agent on March 22, 2006. In Indianapolis, Vinatieri has converted 296-of-342 field goal attempts (86.5 percent) and 441-of-449 PATs for 1,329 points. He owns the Colts record for points scored, extra points made and field goals made. Vinatieri was a member of the Colts Super Bowl XLI championship team. He has played in the second-most playoff games (30) in league history and holds multiple career NFL postseason records including points scored (234) and field goals made (56).

Vinatieri, a three-time Pro Bowl selection, has played in 337 career games over his 22-year NFL career. He has connected on 559-of-663 field goal attempts (84.3 percent), made 808-of-823 PATs and scored one two-point conversion for 2,487 career points. Vinatieri ranks second in league history in field goals made and total points. Entering the 2018 season, Vinatieri is 58 points shy of passing Morten Andersen for the most points in NFL history and needs seven field goals to pass Andersen for the most in league history. He ranks fifth all-time in career regular season games played. Vinatieri registered 1,158 points during his 10 seasons (1996-2005) with the New England Patriots and is the only player in league history to record 1,000 points with two franchises. His 84.3 career field goal percentage ranks 13th all-time. Vinatieri has 27 game-winning field goals in the final minute of the fourth quarter or overtime. He has earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors 17 times (NFL record), NFL Player of the Week honors one time (playoffs) and has been named AFC Special Teams Player of Month five times (tied for NFL record). From 2015-16, Vinatieri set a new NFL record and franchise record for the most consecutive field goals converted with 44.

In 2017, Vinatieri connected on 29-of-34 field goals (85.3 percent) and 22-of-24 PATs for 109 points. It marked his 20th 100-point season of his career, which extended his NFL record. Vinatieri joined the Colts after playing 10 seasons (1996-2005) with the New England Patriots. He is the only kicker in NFL history to record successful field goals in four Super Bowls (XXXVI, XXXVIII, XXXIX and XLI).

MILESTONES REACHED IN 2018

TEAM

- In Week 1 vs. Cincinnati [9/9], Indianapolis started five rookies in Darius Leonard (LB), Skai Moore (LB), Quenton Nelson (LG), Braden Smith (OT) and Jordan Wilkins (RB). It marked the most rookies to start a game for the Colts in the Indianapolis era.

COLTS DEFENSE

- In Week 1 vs. Cincinnati [9/9], the Colts defense forced two turnovers, which were the most in a season opener for the team since 2013 vs. Oakland. The turnovers included an interception by cornerback Kenny Moore II on the game's opening possession as well as a forced fumble by safety Matthias Farley that was recovered by linebacker Darius Leonard in the first quarter. Moore's interception was the team's first on opening weekend since 2013 when the Colts recorded two picks against the Oakland Raiders [9/8/13].
- In Week 2 at Washington [9/16], the Indianapolis defense held the Redskins to 304 total yards and nine points. It marked the first time since 12/18/16 at Minnesota that the Colts held their opponent without a touchdown. Rookie linebacker Darius Leonard finished with 19 tackles [15 solo], 1.0 tackle for loss, 1.0 sack, one pass defended and one forced fumble. He had the most tackles by a Colt since 2011 (Pat Angerer with 20 on 9/25/11). Since at least 1994, his 19 tackles were the most by a Colts rookie and the second-most in single-game team history.
- In Week 3 at Philadelphia [9/23], the Indianapolis defense tallied 5.0 sacks, the most by the Colts since 12/18/16 at MIN.
- In Week 4 vs. Houston [9/30], the Colts defense had 7.0 sacks, which gave them 17.0 through the first four games of the season. It set the record for most in team history through four games, passing the Baltimore Colts' record of 16.0 in 1983. The 7.0 sacks were the most for the Colts in a game dating back to 12/5/04 vs. TEN (7.0). The team tied the 2015 St. Louis Rams for the most tackles for loss (31.0) through the first four games of a season since 1994. Linebacker Darius Leonard (7.0) and defensive tackle Margus Hunt (9.0) have combined for 16.0 tackles for loss, the most in the NFL by two teammates through the first four games of the season since 1994.
