CHIEFS FACE PATRIOTS ON NBC'S SUNDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

The Chiefs travel to Foxborough to face the New England Patriots on Sunday Night Football. Kickoff on Oct. 14 is slated for 7:20 p.m. The Chiefs enter the contest 5-0 after defeating the Jaguars 30-14 last Sunday at Arrowhead. This will be KC's fourth road contest in the first six weeks. The Chiefs are 2-0 against the Patriots in the regular season since 2013, including a 42-27 victory in last year's season opener at Gillette Stadium (9/7/17). The Chiefs rank second in the NFL in scoring this season with 175 points over five games (35.0 ppg). KC is 23-9 (.719) in AFC West play since 2013 (18-2 since 2015) and has won 37 of its last 47 regular season contests (.787).

Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes' 14 touchdown passes and 19 throws of 25-plus yards lead the league through five weeks of play. He owns a league-best TD/INT ratio +12. TE Travis Kelce ranks third among all NFL tight ends in yards after catch (170). He has caught a pass in 68 consecutive games and has three 100-yard receiving games this season (15 career). WR Tyreek Hill ranks first in the NFL with seven catches of 25+ yards. WR Sammy Watkins has 254 yards on 20 catches and a TD. RB Kareem Hunt leads the club with 93 rushes for 376 yards with four touchdowns. He currently owns the NFL's longest streak of touches without a fumble (422 touches). His only career fumble was his first-ever NFL snap from scrimmage against the Patriots in last year's season opener. KC's defense recorded five turnovers last week, giving the team a +5 turnover differential (eight takeaways and a league-low three giveaways). DL Allen Bailey and LB Dee Ford lead the team with 4.0 sacks.

Reid is in his sixth season with the club, recording 58 wins with the Chiefs, marking the highest combined win total of any head coach in franchise history in that time frame. The Chiefs have made the playoffs four out of the past five years under Reid and earned back-to-back AFC West Championships in 2016 and 2017. Reid ranks ninth on the all-time wins chart with 199 victories (regular and postseason combined). In 2017, the Chiefs finished with a 10-6 regular season record and earned the fourth seed in the AFC Playoffs. Rookie RB Kareem Hunt earned the NFL's rushing title last season with 272 carries for 1,327 yards (4.9 avg.) with eight rushing TDs and three receiving touchdowns. WR Tyreek Hill led all KC pass catchers with 75 receptions for 1,183 yards (15.8 avg.) with seven TDs. TE Travis Kelce had 83 catches for 1,038 yards (12.5 avg.) with eight touchdowns. Defensively, the Chiefs had 31.0 team sacks. LB Justin Houston led the club with 9.5 sacks and DL Chris Jones had 6.5. The Chiefs owned a +15 turnover differential last season with 26 takeaways and 11 giveaways. The 2018 Chiefs feature several new faces. Chiefs GM Brett Veach added WR Sammy Watkins, LB Anthony Hitchens, CB Kendall Fuller and DT Xavier Williams among others this offseason to boost the roster.

Next week the Chiefs return to Arrowhead Stadium and will host back-to-back home contests against the Bengals (10/21) and Broncos (10/28).

CHIEFS HEAD COACH ANDY REID

Reid is in his 27th NFL season, 20th as a head coach and sixth with the Chiefs. In six seasons with the club he's tallied 58 wins, more victories than any other head coach in franchise history in that timeframe.

Under Reid, the Chiefs have made the playoffs four of his first five seasons. The club earned back-to-back AFC West Titles in 2016 and '17 for the first time in franchise history.

In 2016, Kansas City went 12-4 and won the AFC West, earning a first-round bye in the playoffs. In 2015, the Chiefs won their first playoff game since 1994, defeating the Texans 30-0. The team finished 11-5 after a 1-5 start in 2015. It was the greatest turnaround in a single-season in NFL history. In 2013, Reid led the Chiefs to an 11-5 record marking the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history after the team finished 2-14 in 2012. Reid boasts a career record of 188-120-1 (.610) in the regular season. He also owns an 11-13 postseason record. Prior to joining the Chiefs, Reid led the Eagles to a 130-93-1 (.583) regular season record during his 14 seasons as head coach. He led the Eagles franchise to one Super Bowl appearance. When you include his time as an NFL assistant coach, his teams have made the playoffs 19 times (20-17 record), and he has coached in three Super Bowls and eight NFC Championships.

Reid spent seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers under Head Coach Mike Holmgren. Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Reid's final collegiate stop was the University of Missouri (1989-91). Prior to his stint with the Tigers, Reid spent two years working with the offensive line at the University of Texas – El Paso, and before that, he held the same position with Northern Arizona.

In 1983, Reid took the position of offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at San Francisco State (1983-85). A tackle/guard at Brigham Young University from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at BYU in 1982.

PATRIOTS HEAD COACH BILL BELICHICK

Bill Belichick enters his 44th season as an NFL coach and his 19th season as head coach of the New England Patriots in 2018. Belichick became the Patriots 14th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 7, 2000. In 2017, Belichick led New England to a 15-4 record and eighth Super Bowl appearance since becoming head coach in New England.

In 18 seasons with the Patriots, he has delivered five Super Bowl championships, eight conference titles, 15 division crowns and 27 playoff victories. In 2016, Belichick won his fifth Super Bowl as head coach of the Patriots, surpassing Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll for most Super Bowl wins by a head coach. He enters 2018 with the most wins among all active coaches and is currently fourth all-time with 281 victories as a head coach. Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in an NFL coaching career that began in 1975, during which he has helped produce seven Super Bowl titles, 11 conference championships and 22 division titles. Belichick's coaching journey includes one other stint as a head coach with the Cleveland Browns, where at 38 he became the NFL's youngest head coach at the time.

Prior to joining the Patriots in 2000, Belichick spent 12 seasons with the New York Giants (1979-90) in multiple roles before becoming the head coach of the Browns. He later joined Bill Parcels for several seasons as the assistant head coach/secondary with New England (1996) and held the same role with the New York Jets (1997-99).

Belichick lettered in football, lacrosse and squash while attending college at Wesleyan University. He was inducted into the Wesleyan University Athletics Hall of Fame as part of its inaugural class in 2008. Belichick was raised in Annapolis, Md., where his father, Steve Belichick, a former fullback for the Detroit Lions, coached for 33 years at the Naval Academy.

MCCULLOUGH'S AMAZING STORY

Kansas City Chiefs Running Backs Coach Deland McCullough was featured on ESPN's E:60, highlighting his inspirational journey to discovering his birth parents.

The feature, which aired on Sunday, Sept. 2, documents the life of Mc-Cullough, who was adopted at birth, and his search for his biological parents that spanned more than 40 years. That alone makes for a powerful story, but as it turns out, McCullough was already plenty familiar with his biological father – a man he had known since he was a kid, a man that was a mentor and father-figure who goes by the name of Sherman Smith. It's a story that defies the odds as his father was unaware that he had a son, but still served as an instrumental figure throughout McCullough's life.

"If you would have told me to pick who my father was, there's no way I would have picked him because I might have thought I wasn't worthy for him to be my father," McCullough said. "I felt like my blessings came full circle because I'd always wanted to be somebody like him."

CHIEFS EMBRACING NEW HELMET TECHNOLOGY

The Kansas City Chiefs were among the league-leaders when it came to the number of orders placed for the new Vicis ZERO1 helmet, according to Chiefs Director of Equipment Allen Wright.

The helmet consists of technology that's new to the industry.

The "ZERO1" features a soft outer shell and an underlying layer of columns designed to mitigate collisions from multiple directions.

It's the first helmet that's made of a flexible polymer on the outside that deforms upon impact, much like that of a bumper on a car. It reduces the overall impact to the head, and it's being used by many players around the league and the Chiefs. Kansas City currently has 40 players in Vicis helmets including: QB Patrick Mahomes, WR Sammy Watkins, S Eric Berry, and C Mitch Morse, among others.

In collaboration with the NFL and the NFLPA, the 2017 helmet laboratory testing performance results chart, which is posted in locker rooms across the NFL, has the ZERO1 ranked as the best helmet on the market to reduce head impact severity.

2018 OFFSEASON NOTES

HUNT HONORED BY CHIEFS

After the season, the club announced running back Kareem Hunt earned the team's Mack Lee Hill Award for the 2017 season.

After his breakout rookie campaign, Hunt led the league in rushing yards (1,327), becoming only the sixth rookie to lead the NFL in rushing. In his rookie season, Hunt became the first player in NFL history to record seven consecutive games with 100 or more scrimmage yards to start their rookie campaign and finished with 10 games with 100 yards from scrimmage. He earned AFC Offensive Rookie of the Month honors for September and December and was named to his first Pro Bowl following the 2017 season.

The Mack Lee Hill Award is given to the club's top rookie performer and was voted on by Hunt's teammates.

CHIEFS SIGN THREE KEY FREE AGENTS

The Kansas City Chiefs signed three key free agents during the 2018 offseason: Wide receiver Sammy Watkins, linebacker Anthony Hitchens and defensive tackle Xavier Williams.

Watkins (6-1, 211) has played in 52 games (51 starts) in four NFL seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (2017) and Buffalo Bills (2014-16). His career numbers include 192 receptions for 3,052 yards (15.9 avg.) with 25 touchdowns. In 2015, Watkins eclipsed 1,000 receiving yards, tallying 1,047 yards on 60 catches. He has 11 career games with 100-plus receiving yards, including four games over 150 yards. The Fort Myers, Florida, native originally entered the NFL as a first-round selection (fourth overall) of the Bills in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Hitchens (6-0, 235) has played in 60 games (48 starts) in four NFL seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2014-17). His career numbers include 301 tackles (190 solo), 21 tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and 14 pressures. He owns two forced fumbles, eight passes defensed and one interception. The Lorain, Ohio, native, originally entered the NFL as a fourth-round selection (119th overall) of the Cowboys in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Williams (6-2, 309) has played in 23 games (two starts) in three NFL seasons with the Arizona Cardinals (2015-17). His career numbers include 28 tackles (22 solo), 0.5 sacks (-5.0 yards), two tackles for loss and one forced fumble. He originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Cardinals on May 5, 2015. The Kansas City, Missouri, native, played collegiately at Northern Iowa and prepped at Grandview High School in Grandview, Missouri.

CHIEFS P DUSTIN COLQUITT SIGNS EXTENSION

The Kansas City Chiefs announced on March 15 that punter Dustin Colquitt signed an extension with the club.

"Dustin has played an important role in our team's success the last five seasons, and has consistently performed at a high level his entire career here," General Manager Brett Veach said. "He wanted to be in Kansas City, and we are happy to keep him here for the foreseeable future."

"Dustin is without a doubt one of the best punters in the National Football League," Head Coach Andy Reid said. "He's been critical for us in flipping field position and pinning opponents deep. Off the field he's been a staple in the community, and we are glad he's staying with us."

Colquitt (6-3, 210) has played in 206 games in 13 seasons with the Chiefs (2005-17). His career numbers include 1,031 punts for 46,246 yards (44.9 avg.) with 90 touchbacks and 420 inside the 20. He holds a career net average of 39.7 yards and a long of 81 yards. Colquitt holds many Chiefs records for punting, including highest career average (44.9), highest net average (39.7) and most career punts inside the 20 (420). Colquitt has earned Pro Bowl honors twice, his first following the 2012 season and his most recent following the 2016 season. He has the third-most games played in franchise history (206).

The Knoxville, Tennessee, native, originally entered the NFL as Kansas City's third-round draft pick (99th overall) in the 2005 NFL Draft.

CHIEFS TRADE FOR CB KENDALL FULLER

The Kansas City Chiefs announced on March 14 that the club had acquired CB Kendall Fuller in a trade with the Washington Redskins.

The trade between the Chiefs and the Redskins sent QB Alex Smith to Washington in exchange for a 2018 third-round draft pick and Fuller.

"We're excited to have Kendall join our secondary," Chiefs General Manager Brett Veach said. "He's an ascending player with strong cover skills and a phenomenal work ethic. He'll add value and versatility to our defense."

Fuller (5-11, 198) played in 29 games (12 starts) in two seasons with the Washington Redskins, logging 94 tackles (74 solo), including two for a loss, four interceptions, 12 passes defensed and a forced fumble. The Baltimore, Maryland, native entered the league as a third-round pick (84th overall) by Washington in the 2016 NFL Draft.

CHIEFS NAME BIENIEMY OC

Head Coach Andy Reid and the Kansas City Chiefs announced on Jan. 9 that the club had named Eric Bieniemy the team's offensive coordinator.

"I've known Eric a long time, both as a player and a coach," Reid said. "He's done a phenomenal job with our running backs and has been involved in every aspect of our offense over the last five years. He's a great teacher and has earned this opportunity. I know he will do a good job."

Bieniemy will enter his 11th season as a coach in the National Football League in 2018 and his sixth season with the Chiefs, after serving as the club's running backs coach for five seasons (2013-17).

Under Bieniemy's tutelage in 2017, rookie running back Kareem Hunt earned the NFL's rushing title and a Pro Bowl berth with 1,327 rushing yards. Hunt had 10 games with 100-plus scrimmage yards. In 2016, RB Spencer Ware and Charcandrick West appeared as a double threat. Ware had 921 rushing yards and three rushing TDs and West rushed for 293 yards with a touchdown. Bieniemy also mentored RB Jamaal Charles, the franchise's all-time leading rusher, for four seasons (2013-16).

He spent nine seasons as an NFL running back with the Chargers (1991-94) and Bengals (1995-98) and spent the 1999 season with the Eagles under Head Coach Andy Reid.

CHIEFS NAME TOUB ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

The Kansas City Chiefs announced on April 6 that Head Coach Andy Reid named Dave Toub the team's assistant head coach.

"Dave has had the opportunity to work with our team on both sides of the football, on the field and in the classroom," Reid said. "His leadership qualities have entrusted me to promote him to Assistant Head Coach."

Toub enters his sixth season with the Chiefs in 2018. Since Toub's arrival in 2013, the Chiefs have 10 special teams touchdowns (six punt, four kickoff), which is the most in the NFL over that span. The Chiefs took over the top mark for kick return average in NFL history in 2013 averaging 29.9 yards per return.

DUVERNAY-TARDIF GETS HIS M.D.

To some, playing in the National Football League is the second-most impressive accomplishment on Laurent Duvernay-Tardif's resume.

On May 29, Duvernay-Tardif became the first practicing medical doctor on an NFL roster, graduating from McGill University in Montreal with his M.D.

Duvernay-Tardif was finishing his third year of med school at McGill at the time of the 2014 NFL Draft. With hopes of being selected on the second night, Duvernay-Tardif was unable to follow along live. Not that he didn't want to, he was just preoccupied in the ER assisting an emergency C-section for a premature newborn.

Though he wasn't selected on that second night, the Chiefs eventually used the 200th overall pick to acquire Duvernay-Tardif in the sixth round.

While spending much of his rookie season learning from the sidelines, Duvernay-Tardif appeared in 16 games while starting 13 in 2015 and 14 in 2016 and became the starting right guard during the 2017 season. His offseasons are spent back in Montreal at various hospitals on rotations, where patients have begun to recognize the Canadian standout.

"It's been a great journey for the last four years," Duvernay-Tardif said. "I don't think it would have been possible if it was not for Coach Reid."

While football remains his number one priority right now, Duvernay-Tardif plans to someday pursue his medical goals of specializing as an Emergency Room doctor.

AN ALL DEFENSIVE 2018 DRAFT CLASS

The 2018 NFL Draft marked the first time in the modern era that the Kansas City Chiefs have taken a college defensive player with every selection in the draft.

With no first-round draft selection the Chiefs traded up from the 54th overall pick in the second round to the 46th overall pick in the second round to select LB Breeland Speaks. In the third round the Chiefs traded up from the 86th overall pick to the 75th overall pick in the third round to select DT Derrick Nnadi and selected LB Dorian O'Daniel with the 100th overall pick. This sparked a trend of selecting defensive players that lasted throughout the 2018 Draft leading to an all defensive draft class.

With the loss of several key defensive players during the offseason the Chiefs had a need to select young defensive talent to complement the club's stacked offensive roster.

The Chiefs selected S Armani Watts with the 124th overall pick in the fourth round and CB Tremon Smith with the 196th overall pick in the sixth round.

With their final draft choice of 2018 the Chiefs selected G Kahlil McKenzie with the 198th overall pick of the sixth round. Although McKenzie was a defensive tackle throughout college, the Chiefs drafted him with the idea of transforming him into an offensive lineman. The selection of McKenzie made for a record all-defensive draft for the Chiefs going into 2018.

CHIEFS COACHING STAFF CHANGES

The club continued to add to the coaching staff by hiring Deland McCullough to serve as the team's running backs coach, Jay Valai as a defensive quality control coach and David Girardi as the offensive quality control coach.

McCullough joins the Chiefs after spending the last eight years coaching in the collegiate ranks at USC (2017), Indiana (2011-16) and Miami of Ohio (2010). He spent two years as an NFL running back with the Bengals and the Eagles.

Valai joins the Chiefs coaching staff after spending the last two seasons as the University of Georgia's defensive quality control coach.

Girardi joins the Chiefs after seven years coaching at the collegiate level at Lafayette College (2017), Northwestern (2014-16), Geneva College (2013) and Seton Hill University (2011-12).

Additionally, this offseason, the club promoted Mike Kafka to quarterbacks coach after serving as the offensive quality control coach for the 2017 season. Mike Smith and Mark DeLeone were named the outside linebackers and inside linebackers coaches, respectively. Smith previously served as the assistant defensive line coach (2016-17) and DeLeone served as the club's assistant linebackers coach (2015-17) and defensive quality control coach (2013-14). After serving two seasons (2016-17) as the club's offensive quality control coach, Joe Bleymaier was promoted to the passing game analyst/assistant quarterbacks coach. Terry Bradden was also named a defensive quality control coach after serving as the team's defensive assistant in 2017. Corey Matthaei is now the assistant offensive line coach after serving as the assistant quarterbacks coach from 2015-17.

NEW YEAR NEW CHIEFS

Led by 22-year-old Patrick Mahomes at quarterback the 2018 Chiefs have an average age of 25.7 years old. This offseason, GM Brett Veach made significant moves to attract young talent to the Kansas City Chiefs like 25-year-old WR Sammy Watkins, 26-year-old LB Anthony Hitchens, 26-year-old DT Xavier Williams and 23-year-old CB Kendall Fuller.

"We have a lot of talent here," Veach said. "It's a lot of young talent which is exciting for the fans, but we realize there may be some growing pains, but we have guys that can straight up play football and they're exciting."

With the loss of veteran linebackers Derrick Johnson and Tamba Hali, the Chiefs are looking to their young talent to lead the team more than ever. After 13 seasons with the Chiefs, Johnson and the club decided to part ways following the 2017 season. Johnson left the Chiefs as the team's all-time leading tackler compiling 1,262 career stops (993 solo). Following a 12-year NFL career all spent with Kansas City, Hali will go down as one of the most successful pass rushers in franchise history.

Under the guidance of veteran linebacker Justin Houston, young talent like Anthony Hitchens, third-year LB Reggie Ragland and rookie linebacker and second-round draft pick Breeland Speaks have a chance to make a name for themselves in honor of Chiefs legends Derrick Johnson and Tamba Hali.

"Whether it's the quarterback position, inside linebacker position, outside linebacker position, you're missing a few of those guys and you have new guys coming in that you have an opportunity to see perform," Reid said. "That's exciting to me, I'm looking forward to that."

Protected by a veteran offensive line, second-year QB Patrick Mahomes has multiple young offensive weapons at his disposal. With the addition of WR Sammy Watkins, Mahomes also has third-year WR Tyreek Hill, second-year RB Kareem Hunt and sixth-year TE Travis Kelce to make up, arguably, one of the NFL's most dynamic offensive units.

In what some might consider a transition year, Reid and the Chiefs are ready to make an impact starting in 2018.

When speaking about his expectations for the 2018 Chiefs, Reid said, "We're striving to win a championship and then to consistently be in a position where we can win a championship as the years go on. And it starts today."

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMER EMMITT THOMAS

Pro Football Hall of Fame Cornerback Emmitt Thomas is in his ninth season as defensive backs coach with the Kansas City Chiefs. Thomas works alongside former NFL Cornerback Al Harris, who joined the Chiefs as a defensive assistant/secondary coach in 2013. Harris was promoted to Secondary/Cornerbacks Coach in 2016.

One of the best defenders in Chiefs history, Thomas finished his career with 58 interceptions – a Chiefs record – as well as five defensive touchdowns in 181 games, all with Kansas City. Thomas holds the Chiefs record for interception return yardage with 937 yards.

Thomas was a member of the Chiefs Super Bowl IV Championship squad and was elected to the Chiefs Hall of Fame in 1986 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

THE FIRST LADY OF FOOTBALL

Norma Hunt continues to play an integral part of the Chiefs in Kansas City. She owns the distinction of being the only woman known to have attended all 52 Super Bowls and was selected to preside over the coin toss at Super Bowl XLI along with Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. She is involved in numerous philanthropic and civic efforts in Kansas City and Texas. Her late husband, Lamar Hunt, was the guiding force behind the formation of the Kansas City Chiefs and the American Football League and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972. He, with the help of his family, coined the term "Super Bowl."

Hunt, along with her daughter-in-law Tavia Hunt and granddaughter Gracie Hunt all participate in the NFL Women's Apparel advertising campaigns. The Hunts have been featured alongside other female NFL leaders such as Charlotte Jones Anderson (Dallas Cowboys Executive Vice President/Chief Brand Officer and NFL Foundation chair), Suzanne Johnson (wife of New York Jets owner Woody Johnson) and Tanya Snyder (wife of Washington Redskins owner Dan Snyder).

AMBASSADORS ANNOUNCE DONATION TO BBBS

Before the Chiefs victory in Denver, the Kansas City Ambassadors did some good at home in Kansas City. The Ambassadors, made up of Chiefs alumni, handed out winter clothes and backpacks to Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Kansas City Littles.

Once every child was equipped with their new attire, longtime center Tim Grunhard gathered the group around to announce that the Kansas City Ambassadors and the Hunt Family Foundation were joining together to donate $50,000 to Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Kansas City as part of the Chiefs ongoing social justice efforts in the community. The funds will support 25 kids and their corresponding adult mentors for a calendar year.

"One of the things that we try to do as Ambassadors is to help out in the community, and there's really no better way to do that than to support kids," Grunhard said. "These are all great kids – they all had big smiles on their faces – and we're just so happy to be out here."

The donation, which was split evenly between the Kansas City Ambassadors and the Hunt Family Foundation, represented the first action of its kind by former players as part of the National Football League's new social justice initiative.

CHIEFS WOMEN HELP HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

The Chiefs Women's Organization, led by Tavia and Rita Hunt, partnered with the Truman Heritage Habitat for Humanity to paint a house. The recipient of the home, Gilbert, is a single father of 10- and 15-year old boys. The goal of the project is to have Gilbert and his sons in their home by Christmas.

The Chiefs Women's Organization (CWO) includes wives and significant others of Chiefs players, coaches and executives who are committed to volunteerism and who join with select local charities to make a difference in the Kansas City community. The CWO has volunteered with Habitat for Humanity in the past, but this is the first time the group has paired with the Truman Heritage chapter.

CHIEFS PARTNER WITH V FOUNDATION

October marks the NFL Crucial Catch Campaign, focusing on early screening for cancer detection and finding a cure. Researchers at The University of Kansas Cancer Center are dedicated to that goal as well, and for a second-consecutive year, the Kansas City Chiefs are partnering with the V Foundation to join that fight.

The collaboration, which was announced in front of a national television audience on Monday Night Football on Oct. 1, will once again provide a young scientist at the KU Cancer Center with a $200,000 grant that's entirely devoted to cancer research. It's the kind of partnership that transcends football.

"This was an easy decision for us," said Chiefs President Mark Donovan. "We want to identify ways that our partnership with The University of Kansas Health System can do more than just promote awareness of what they do and actually do good in the community. One of the things that the hospital has educated us on is just how qualified they are in these fields – and they're right here in our backyard."

The V Foundation, one of the preeminent cancer research charities in the country, is matching a $100,000 contribution from the Chiefs, the Hunt Family Foundation, The University of Kansas Health System and the KU Cancer Center in order to fund the grant, which is meant specifically for a young researcher just beginning their career.

"Young investigators often find it difficult to immediately compete for [large grants]," said Dr. Roy Jensen, the Director of the KU Cancer Center. "What grants like this do is they help young investigators collect some preliminary data for an initial test of their ideas."

That was the case last October, as Mary Markiewicz, Ph. D., was awarded a grant of equal value to fund her research at the KU Cancer Center on the human body's "natural killer" cells and their potential to combat cancer. It's critical work that was made possible through the first partnership of its kind between the V Foundation and an NFL team.

"ESPN is our founding partner at the V Foundation, and in talking with them, we really came up with this idea together," said Norm Bowling, Chief Revenue Officer at the V Foundation. "Last year, the NFL [allowed] teams to partner with other charities in October beyond just the traditional program that the NFL had been doing for so long, and we thought it was a great opportunity to reach out to some of the teams and to try and have some impact in local communities."

The Chiefs – in partnership with The University of Kansas Health System – were the first team to turn that opportunity into a reality through the researchers at the KU Cancer Center.

CHIEFS FANS SET WORLD RECORD

On Monday, Sept. 29, 2014, Kansas City defeated the New England Patriots 41-14, and Chiefs fans set a Guinness World Record for Loudest Crowd Roar at a Sports Stadium (Outdoors). Chiefs fans reached a peak decibel reading of 142.2 as Guinness World Records adjudicator Philip Robertson monitored the sound levels. The mark was set early in the contest while the club was on defense. The Arrowhead Stadium record passed the old record of 137.5 decibels and broke Seattle's record of 137.6. The Chiefs still hold the record nearly four years later.

THE ARROWHEAD ADVANTAGE

"The fans, they're phenomenal. 142.2 decibels, I never thought I would be fired up (for) decibel levels but I'm fired up for them. My ears are still ringing, I mean it was loud, loud down there. Like incredibly loud."

- Chiefs Head Coach Andy Reid

"It's a great feeling (playing at Arrowhead). On 3rd-and-long when you hear the crowd and you see the opposing quarterback yelling, trying to change the play and struggling to communicate with the offensive linemen. That's a great feeling because you know your percentage of getting a sack just went up. I love playing in front of our fans."

- LB Justin Houston

"A legendary environment like that at Arrowhead Stadium is something else. We're excited about it, we respect it, we realize that the environment is an issue and an element of play and it's something that we need to be prepared for and ultimately combat."
