SERIES HISTORY

New England leads the all-time series with Chicago, 9-4, and is making its first trip to Soldier Field since the 2010 season, a 36-7 Patriots victory. New England has won the past four meetings overall, including a 51-23 win in the last meeting in 2014 at Gillette Stadium. Chicago's last win over the Patriots came in 2000, 24-17, at Soldier Field.

FIRST AND 10

- The Bears are looking to improve to 4-2 for the first time since the start of the 2013 season.
- Over the past two games the Bears are averaging 38.0 ppg, have scored 10 TDs and have totaled 950 yards of total offense with 11 pass plays of 25+ yards. The 76 points are the most since scoring 83 in consecutive games in 2013.
- Chicago is the only team in the NFL to not allow a rushing TD this season and has allowed only two 100-yard rushers over the past 23 regular-season games.
- Chicago has recorded at least one INT in its first five games, marking the first time since 2012 when they started the season with nine consecutive games with an INT. The Bears are tied for second in the NFL with 10 total interceptions.
- LB KHALIL MACK earned NFC Player of the Month honors for September, recording 5.0 sacks, 4 FF, 1 INT return for a TD, 4 QBH, 3 TFL, 1 FR, 2 PD and 17 total tackles.
- Over the last 2 games, QB MITCHELL TRUBISKY has totaled 770 yards of total offense, completing 41 of 57 passes for 670 yards, 9 TDs and 1 INT and rushing for 100 yards on 11 carries.
- Trubisky is the first Bears QB to toss 9 TD passes in consecutive games since Sid Luckman in 1943.
- RB TARIK COHEN has been equally impressive with 314 all-purpose yards over the past two games. He has 14 catches for 211 yards (including 168 yards after the catch) and 1 TD, 18 rushes for 84 yards and a TD and 19 return yards.
- WR TAYLOR GABRIEL has 12 catches for 214 yards and 2 TDs over his past two games, including 60 yards after the catch. He is coming off back-to-back games with 100+ yards receiving.
- Bears players have committed more than $250,000 to local social justice initiatives, which the organization will match, for a total donation of more than $500,000. (see details page 12)

Did you know: Former Bears inebacker Mike Singletary (1981-92) had a career-best 3.0 sacks versus the Patriots on Sept. 15, 1985, dropping then Patriots quarterback Tony Eason on three occasions and intercepting him once. It was Singletary's only career outing with 3+ takedowns since sacks became an official stat in 1982.

Bears LB Khalil Mack is tied for fifth in the NFC with 5.0 sacks and is tied for first in the NFL with 4 forced fumbles.

MACK EARNS NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE MONTH HONORS

LB KHALIL MACK was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Month in recognition of his dominating performance throughout the month of September. Mack became the first Bear to win defensive player of the month honors since Charles “Peanut” Tillman in October of 2012. It is the second such honor for Mack, after winning AFC Defensive Player of the Month honors in November of 2016 with the Raiders.

In his first month as a Chicago Bear, Mack recorded 5.0 sacks for minus- 30 yards, four forced fumbles, one interception return for a score, four quarterback hurries, three tackles-for-loss, one fumble recovery, two passes defended and 17 total tackles. Mack’s efforts have helped the Bears to a 3-1 start to the season, sitting atop the NFC North standings heading into their Week 5 bye.

In the 2018 season opener at Green Bay, Mack recorded three tackles, 1.0 sack for minus-12 yards, one interception for a touchdown, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. In doing so, Mack became the first player since 1982, when sacks became a statistic, to record a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery, interception and touchdown in one half.

The following week vs. Seattle, Mack had five tackles and recorded a strip-sack of Russell Wilson in the fourth quarter to help Chicago earn its first win of the season.

In the Week 3 win at Arizona, Mack recorded 2.0 sacks – one a strip-sack as Arizona was driving deep into Chicago territory in the fourth quarter to go along with three QBH and five tackles.

Then against Tampa Bay in Week 4, Mack recorded yet another strip-sack as Chicago limited Tampa Bay’s top-ranked offense to just 311 net yards and 10 points. The Buccaneers were averaging 473.3 yards per game and 34.0 points through the first three weeks of the season coming into their meeting with the Bears.

BEARS DEFENSIVE RANKS

- Only team in the NFL to not allowed a rushing TD this season
- 2nd in the NFL in fewest first downs allowed per game (17.0)
- 2nd in the NFL in fewest rushing first downs allowed (19)
- T-2nd in the NFL with 9 forced fumbles
- T-2nd in the NFL with 10 INTs
- 3rd in the NFL with +6 TO margin
- 3rd in the NFL in 3 & out percentage (.276)
- 4th in the NFL in fewest rushing yards allowed per game (83.4)
- T-5th in the NFL in with 18 sacks (3rd with 3.6 per game)
- Chicago’s defense has allowed only two 100-yard rusher over the past 23 regular-season games (F. Gore, 101 yds, 2018, Wk 6; L. Murray, 111 yds, 2017, Wk 17).

DEFENSIVE NOTES

- Chicago's 10 interceptions through five games this season are the most by the Bears since 2012 when they had 13 through its first five games. Those 10 interceptions have come from eight different players (Fuller/2, Jackson/2, Mack/TD, Amukamara/TD, Callahan, McManis, Trevathan and Lynch).
- The Bears are the only team in the NFL to not allow a rushing TD this season.
- Chicago has not allowed a touchdown in 14 of 20 quarters this season and have shutout opponents in 10 of those 20 quarters.
- In Week 4, Chicago limited Tampa Bay's top-ranked offense to just 311 net yards and 10 points. The Buccaneers came into the game averaging 473.3 yards and 34.0 points per game.
- In Week 3, Chicago held Arizona scoreless over the final three quarters while allowing only 120 yards after the first quarter.
- LB KHALIL MACK is currently tied for fifth in the NFC with 5.0 sacks and tied for first in the NFL with 4 forced fumbles. Mack also is tied for seventh in the NFL with 19.0 QB knockdown(4.5)/hurries(14.5).
- Mack has 45.5 career sacks. His 41.5 sacks over the past 3+ years rank second in the NFL behind Arizona's Chandler Jones (46.0).
- Mack is one of only two players since 1994, when forced fumbles were first recorded, to record four forced fumbles through the first four weeks of the NFL season (Tony Brackens, 1999 - JAX). Additionally, Mack is the only player to log a forced fumble in EACH of the first four weeks of an NFL season.
- Mack also became the first NFL player with a sack and forced fumble in four straight games since Robert Mathis (IND) in 2005.
- In the opener at Green Bay, Mack recorded 3 tackles, 1.0 sack for minus-12 yards, 1 INT for a TD, 1 PD, 1 FF and 1 FR. In doing so, Mack became the first player since 1982, when sacks became a statistic, to record a sack, FF, FR, INT and TD in one half. The following week vs. Seattle, Mack had five tackles and recorded a strip-sack of Russell Wilson in the fourth quarter to help Chicago earn its first win of the season. In the Week 3 win at Arizona, Mack recorded 2.0 sacks – one a strip-sack as Arizona was driving deep into Chicago territory in the fourth quarter – to go along with three QBH and five tackles. Then in Week 4 vs. Tampa Bay, Mack recorded yet another strip-sack as Chicago

QB Mitchell Trubisky has totaled 770 yards of total offense over the past two games: 670 passing yards (9 TDs, 1 INT) and 100 yards rushing on 11 carries.

limited Tampa Bay's top-ranked offense to just 311 net yards and 10 points.

- Week 3 at Arizona marked Mack's 10th career multi-sack performance and his first in a Bears uniform. Mack notched at least two sacks in three straight games in 2015 with the Raiders, making him the only NFL player to do so. Since 2015, Mack's 10 multi-sack games are second most in the NFL behind Arizona's Chandler Jones (11). Below is a list of Mack's career multi-sack games:

--Mack Career Multi-Sack Games--

Bears WR Taylor Gabriel has 12 catches for 214 yards and 2 TDs over his past two games after recording consecutive 100-yard receiving games for the first time in his career.

- DB's KYLE FULLER and EDDIE JACKSON are tied for seventh in the NFL with two interceptions apiece on the season. Jackson recorded picks in back to back games at Arizona and vs. Tampa Bay while Fuller intercepted two passes in the overtime loss at Miami in Week 6.
- Fuller picked off Miami quarterback Brock Osweiler twice on Sunday and now has 10 career interceptions. Prior to Sunday's contest, the last Bear to record two interceptions in a game was also Fuller, doing so in 2014 at San Francisco during his rookie season.
- DT AKIEM HICKS is second on the team with 3.0 sacks on the season. The first came in Week 1 at Green Bay, the second in Week 3 at Arizona and the third in Week 4 vs. Tampa Bay. He has posted a team-high 7 QBH, 3 forced fumbles and 18 total tackles.
- Hicks now has 28.0 career sacks, including 18.5 sacks since signing with Chicago in 2016. He recorded a career-high 8.5 sacks in 2017.
- In Week 2, DB PRINCE AMUKAMARA picked off Seattle quarterback Russell Wilson with 6:47 to go in the fourth quarter and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown in Week 2. The interception marked the eighth of Amukamara's career and his first ever touchdown. The interception also marked Amukamara's first interception since Sept. 24, 2015 vs. Washington (Kirk Cousins).
- After posting consecutive games with a pick-6 (Mack, Amukamara), it marked the first time since 1950 in which the Bears recorded a pick-6 in the first two games of the season. That year, Bones Weatherly recorded a pick-6 in each of Chicago's first two games. (Source: Elias Sports Bureau)
- Chicago's defense has logged at least one interception in five straight games for the first time since Weeks 1-5 of the 2012 season when they totaled 11 overall. That season they opened the year with nine consecutive games with at least one interception.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

- Over the past two games the Bears are averaging 38.0 ppg, have scored 10 touchdowns and have totaled 950 yards of total offense. They have 11 pass plays of 25+ yards.
- The 76 points by the Bears the past two games are the most since scoring 83 in consecutive games in 2013.
- The Bears are fourth in the NFL in average time of possession per game at 32:03 per game, behind Philadelphia (32:47), Baltimore (32:26) and Washington (32:24).
- Over the last two games, QB Mitchell Trubisky has totaled 770 yards of total offense. He has completed 72 percent of his passes (41 of 57) for 670 yards, 9 TDs and just 1 INT for a 143.3 rating. He also has rushed for 100 yards on 11 carries.
- Trubisky is the first Bears QB to toss 9 TD passes in consecutive games since Sid Luckman in 1943.
- Trubisky also is the first Bears QB to toss at least three TD passes in consecutive games since Jay Cutler in Weeks 15-16 in 2010.
- Trubisky is 7th in the NFL with a 105.6 passer rating this season.
- Trubisky is 4th in the NFL with a 70.2 completion percentage and is only one of four QBs with at least a .700 completion rate.

- Trubisky ranks second in the NFL with 164 rushing yards among QBs who have only played five games. He is fifth overall and third among NFC quarterbacks.
- In the Week 4 win over Tampa Bay, quarterback MITCHELL TRUBISKY completed 19 of 26 passes for a career-high 354 yards and a career-best 6 touchdown passes -- one shy of the NFL and franchise record -- and zero interceptions for a 154.6 passer rating. He also added a team-high tying 53 yards on the ground. His efforts earned him the NFL's FedEx Air & Ground Player of the Week honors for Week 4.
- The six TD passes by Trubisky vs. Tampa Bay are tied for the most in a game this season by an NFL quarterback (Patrick Mahomes, KC) and are tied for the second most by a Bears quarterback in franchise history.
- Trubisky threw five first-half touchdown passes to five different receivers vs. Tampa Bay – JOSHUA BELLAMY, TREY BURTON, TARIK COHEN, TAYLOR GABRIEL and ALLEN ROBINSON II – and became the second quarterback in league history to throw at least five touchdown passes to five different receivers in the first half of a single game. The last Bears quarterback to throw five passing TDs in a game was Johnny Lujack who threw 6 in 1949 (Source: ESPN Stats & Info).
- Trubisky, who threw for 289 yards and rushed for 53 yards in the first half vs. Tampa, joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Young (December 23, 1991) and Michael Vick (November 15, 2010) as the only players since 1991 with at least 250 passing yards and 50 rushing yards in the first half of a single game.
- Trubisky has made tremendous strides in his development this season compared to his 12 starts in 2017. Since Week 1 of this season, Mitch has completed nearly 72 percent of his passes for 1,090 yards and 11 TDs. Below is a breakdown of Mitch's first 13 starts compared to his last 4 games:

	First 13 Games	Last 4 Games
W-L	4-9	3-1
Comp Pct.	60.0	71.4
Pass YPG	181.8	272.5
TD-INT	7-7	11-4
Rating	77.5	113.5

- WR ALLEN ROBINSON II is second on the team with 24 catches for 281 yards and two touchdowns, both coming in the past two games.

RB Tarik Cohen is fourth in the NFL among running backs with 51.8 receiving yards per game.

- WR TAYLOR GABRIEL has 12 catches for 214 yards and 2 TDs over his past two games, including 60 yards after the catch. Gabriel had a pair of big-play opportunities at Miami, catching passes of 47 and 54 yards. The 54-yarder marked the fifth-longest catch of his career. It also marked the longest reception by a Bears receiver in 2018. Gabriel finished the day with a team-leading 110 receiving yards.
- Gabriel logged his second-straight game with 100+ receiving yards at Miami. He finished with 104 yards versus Tampa Bay on Sept. 30, and 110 yards versus Miami. Prior to his 104-yard outing in Week 4, he had never put together a 100+ yard performance in 61 career games played.
- RB TARIK COHEN has recorded 314 all-purpose yards over the past two games. He has 14 catches for 211 yards (including 168 yards after the catch) and 1 TD, 18 rushes for 84 yards and a score and 19 return yards.
- Cohen has 259 total receiving yards on the season and is fourth in the NFL among running backs with 51.8 receiving yards per game. He also leads all NFL running backs with four catches of at least 25 yards.

RB Jordan Howard leads Chicago's ground attack and is third in the NFL in rushing with 2,707 yards since the start of 2016.

- Cohen recorded eight grabs for a career-high 121 yards with a touchdown in Week 4. Cohen found the endzone with 12:26 to go in the second quarter, scoring on a nine-yard pass from Trubisky.
- The last time Chicago had two 100-yard receivers in a single game was on Dec. 18, 2016 versus Green Bay (Cameron Meredith 104 yards and Deonte Thompson 110 yards).
- TE TREY BURTON caught two of four targets for a career-high tying 86 yards and a touchdown in the win over Tampa. Burton's touchdown came on a 39-yard pass from Trubisky and marked the longest TD reception of Burton's career.
- Burton then caught his second TD pass in as many games after taking a 9-yard shovel pass from Trubisky in the third quarter in the OT loss at Miami in Week 6. Burton leads the team with three TD catches on the season, which is tied for second in the NFL among tight ends.

HOWARD MOVES UP CAREER RUSHING CHART

RB JORDAN HOWARD, in just over 2 seasons, has climbed into the Top 15 of Chicago's career rushing list -- No. 13 to be exact -- with 2,707 career rushing yards. He needs 72 yards to pass the great Bronko Nagurski who rushed for 2,778 yards as a fullback in the early 1930's and 1943.

TREVATHAN NAMED NFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK IN WEEK 2

LB DANNY TREVATHAN was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Week in Week 2 in recognition of his performance in the 24-17 win over the Seahawks. It was Trevathan's first player of the week honor of his career.

Trevathan turned in an outstanding all-around performance to help Chicago to its first win of the season. He recorded the first multi-sack game of his career as he took down Seattle QB Russell Wilson twice. Trevathan finished the night with a team-leading eight tackles, 2.0 sacks for -6 yards, 2 quarterback hurries and a forced fumble late in the game to seal the victory.

As a whole, Trevathan and the Chicago defense sacked Wilson six times on the night and held Seattle out of the end zone for the first 3 quarters of the game.

BEARS SIGN NT GOLDMAN TO FOUR-YEAR EXTENSION

The Chicago Bears re-signed nose tackle EDDIE GOLDMAN to a four-year contract extension on Sept. 7. Goldman, a native of Washington D.C., is in his fourth season with the Bears after being selected in the second round (No. 39 overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft out of Florida State, where he was an Associated Press and Sports Illustrated First Team All-American. He has started 35 of 39 games for the Bears since then, including all 15 games in which he played last season.

Goldman's career totals now include 92 tackles, 9.5 sacks, 16 quarterback hurries, 11 tackles for loss and one fumble recovery. As a rookie in 2015, he was named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team after recording 39 tackles and 4.5 sacks.

BEARS BECOME FIRST TEAM TO MAXIMIZE NEW NFL INITIATIVE

The Chicago Bears announced Sept. 18 that players have committed more than $250,000 to local social justice initiatives, which the organization will match, for a total donation of more than $500,000. Donation recipients with ties to social justice and an emphasis on education, community/police relations and criminal justice reform are in the final stages of being selected and will be announced at a later date.

In March, the National Football League announced that each club would match player contributions up to $250,000 annually, for the purposes of establishing a fund to support community improvement, social justice and law enforcement relationships. Bears players are the first team to collectively commit to donating $250,000 to social justice initiatives. Donations also have the potential to be matched by Bears Care and the NFL Foundation Social Justice Grant.

A social justice committee was formed featuring Sam Acho, Trey Burton, Chase Daniel, Akiem Hicks, Mitchell Trubisky and four front office staff members, including Chairman George H. McCaskey. These players are representative of the whole roster; additional players have also been involved and provided donations. The committee has met with and been in continued discussion with the University of Chicago Crime Lab, which has provided research and resources about areas that need the most assistance.

The player-ownership social justice conversation began initially as a discussion between Acho and McCaskey in September 2017 and evolved into a joint learning experience that took them to the 007th District in Englewood, the Kewanee Life Skills Re-Entry Center, National Museum of African American History and Culture in D.C., Louisiana State Penitentiary, meetings with the Chicago Police Superintendent and more.

CONNECTIONS

COACHING CONNECTIONS:

- Bears defensive line coach Jay Rodgers, assistant director of player personnel Champ Kelly and defensive backs coach Ed Donatell each worked alongside Patriots offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Josh McDaniels when the quartet was in the Denver Broncos organization. Rodgers was a coaching assistant (2009) and defensive quality control coach (2010-11), Kelly an assistant coordinator of professional and college scouting (2008-09) and assistant director of professional personnel (2010-14) and Donatell was a secondary coach (2009-10) while McDaniels served as the club's head coach during the 2009-10 seasons.
- Chicago linebackers coach Glenn Pires coached alongside New England running backs coach Ivan Fears when the two were at Syracuse University. Pires was a defensive line coach during the 1989-90 seasons while Fears tutored wide receivers from 1980-90.
- Bears assistant strength and conditioning coach Casey Kramer and Patriots tight ends coach Nick Caley crossed paths when the two coached at Auburn University. Kramer was a strength and conditioning graduate assistant from 2006-08 while Caley was a defensive administrative assistant in 2008.

COLLEGE CONNECTIONS:

- Chicago offensive lineman Kyle Long (2012) and New England running back Kenjon Barner (2009-12) teamed up at the University of Oregon for one season.
- Bears wide receiver Javon Wims (2016-17) and linebackers Leonard Floyd (2013-15) and Roquan Smith (2015-17) teamed up alongside Patriots running back Sony Michel (2014-17) during their time at the University of Georgia. Floyd also played across New England offensive lineman David Andrews, who played for the Bulldogs from 2011-14.
- Chicago tight end Trey Burton (2010-13) and defensive lineman Jonathan Bullard (2013-15) played alongside New England offensive lineman Trenton Brown (2013-14) when the trio played at the University of Florida.
- Bears offensive lineman James Daniels (2015-17) and Patriots offensive lineman Cole Croston (2012-16) spent two seasons together at the University of Iowa.
- Chicago kicker Cody Parkey (2010-13) and New England defensive backs Brandon King (2013-14) and Jonathan Jones (2012-15) were each teammates at the University of Auburn.

- Bears fullback Michael Burton (2011-14), defensive back Marcus Cooper (2010-12) and Patriots defensive back Duron Harmon (2009-12) were all teammates at Rutgers University.

ILLINOIS TIES:

- New England tight ends coach Nick Caley was a secondary coach at Eastern Illinois in 2012.
- Patriots defensive line coach Brendan Daly was a tight ends coach at Illinois State in 2004.
- New England offensive lineman Ted Karras played collegiately at the University of Illinois from 2011-15.

FORMER PATRIOTS:

- Chicago defensive lineman Akiem Hicks appeared in 13 games for the Patriots in 2015.

FORMER BEARS

- Patriots running backs coach Ivan Fears was a wide receivers coach in Chicago from 1993-98.
- New England quarterback Brian Hoyer spent the 2016 season of his career with the Bears.

RYAN PACE GENERAL MANAGER

Ryan Pace is in his fourth season as general manager of the Chicago Bears. He is the sixth general manager in franchise history after being hired on January 8, 2015. The Bears announced a three-year contract extension for Pace on January 1, 2018, keeping him with the club through 2021.

Following the 2017 season, Pace decided to take the team in a different direction and sought to find the right head coach to lead the Bears into the future. On January 8, 2018, Pace announced Matt Nagy as the Bears 16th head coach in franchise history.

With Nagy in place, Pace used all avenues available to help bolster a young roster. Pace and the Bears made a splash on the first day of free agency, signing wide receivers Allen Robinson II and Taylor Gabriel, tight end Trey Burton and kicker Cody Parkey. Pace also awarded Sam Acho, Prince Amukamara and Kyle Fuller with multi-year extensions for their performances on the field in 2017. In the 2018 NFL Draft, Pace selected linebackers Roquan Smith (round 1, 8th overall), Joel Lyeigbuniwe (round 4, 115th overall) and Kylie Fitts (round 6, 181st overall), offensive lineman James Daniels (round 2, 39th overall), wide receivers Anthony Miller (round 2, 51st overall) and Javon Wims (round 7, 224th overall) and defensive lineman Bilal Nichols (round 5, 145th overall).

In 2017, Pace continued his track record of drafting rookies who make an immediate impact on the team. QB Mitchell Trubisky (No. 2 overall) set Bears rookie records for passing yards (2,193) and completions (196). He also rushed for 248 yards and two touchdowns and averaged 182.8 passing yards per game while completing 59.4 percent of his throws. RB Tarik Cohen became the first NFL rookie since Gale Sayers (1965) to score touchdowns via rushing, receiving, passing and punt return in a single season. He also tallied the third most receptions (53) by a Bears rookie in club history. DB Eddie Jackson finished the season with two interceptions and became the first player in NFL history to return both a fumble recovery and an interception for 75+ yard touchdowns in a single game (vs. CAR, 10/22/17). TE Adam Shaheen led the Bears in receiving touchdowns in 2017 with three.

After a stellar rookie season in 2016, RB Jordan Howard continued to have success on the ground, becoming the first player in franchise history to rush for over 1,000 yards in each of his first two NFL seasons (1,313 in 2016 & 1,122 in 2017) and also became the fastest player in Bears history to rush for 2,000 yards (24 games), besting Walter Payton's previous mark of 26.

Defensive lineman Akiem Hicks, a key 2016 free agent acquisition, earned a four-year contract extension in September 2017 after tallying a then career-high 7.0 sacks in 2016. Hicks topped that mark in 2017 posting 8.5 sacks.

In 2016, Chicago's draft class tallied 3,390 offensive/defensive snaps, which ranked fourth in the NFL (CLE - 4,339; TEN - 3,512; IND - 3,509). Leading the way for the rookie class was Howard, who set a new Bears rookie record with 1,313 yards on the ground, and LB Leonard Floyd, who posted the third most sacks by a rookie in team history (7.0) despite missing four games due to injury.

In Pace's first two seasons as Bears GM, five Bears were selected to the PFWA's All-Rookie team (Adrian Amos, Floyd, Eddie Goldman, Cody Whitehair and Howard), tied for the most in the NFL in that time frame.

In his first season overseeing Chicago's roster, Pace was tasked with turning over a roster that ranked as one of the oldest in the NFL (average 27 years, 39 days old). He trimmed that average to just over 25-years old in two seasons. The Bears fielded a competitive team, improving by one game over their previous year's record, despite the youth movement. The 2015 Bears were involved in 11 games decided by one score (5-6 record in those games) despite leading the NFL with nine rookie starters (three on offense, six on defense). The Bears defense improved from 30th in 2014 (377.1 yards per game) to 14th in 2015 (345.1 ypg) despite starting a league-most six rookie starters who combined for 41 starts, second most to the Saints 44 defensive rookie starts. Pace accomplished the task with just six draft picks, two of which were utilized on the defensive side of the ball (Goldman, 12 starts and Amos, 16 starts).

Pace joined the Bears after spending 14 seasons (2001-14) as a member of the Saints organization, including 13 in the player personnel department. He spent the last two seasons (2013-14) with the Saints as director of player personnel. In that role, Pace helped manage the team's college and pro scouting operations including all facets of scouting and evaluation of college and pro prospects along with New Orleans' roster.

Pace spent six seasons as the club's director of pro scouting (2007-12), which included overseeing the club's pro scouting staff. His duties involved recommending player acquisitions by evaluating the Saints roster and potential NFL free agents, monitoring all NFL transactions, researching possible trade opportunities, assessing player talent from other professional leagues and directing the advance scouting of future opponents. He also helped the Saints prepare for the NFL Draft following the regular season by assisting in the evaluation of top college prospects.

The Flower Mound, Texas native got his start in New Orleans' player personnel department as a scouting assistant in 2002, a role he held for two years before working as a pro scout from 2004-06. During that time he evaluated free agents and collegiate players entering the NFL Draft as well as scouted upcoming opponents. He joined the Saints in 2001 supporting the coordination of all game day, training camp and stadium operations.

Over Pace's 13 seasons in the New Orleans personnel department (2002-14), the Saints compiled a 115-93 (.553) record. Since 2006, the Saints reached the playoffs five times, won three division titles, played in two NFC Championship games (2006 and 2009) and won the franchise's first Super Bowl title (Super Bowl XLIV). The Saints pro scouting department helped build a Super Bowl championship club by using all avenues at their disposal: signing free agents QB Drew Brees, FB Heath Evans, LB Scott Fujita, CB Randall Gay, C Jonathan Goodwin, CB Jabari Greer, WR Lance Moore and DE Anthony Hargrove and trading for TE Jeremy Shockey, LB Jonathan Vilma, LB Scott Shanle and TE David Thomas. Pace has also worked to acquire players such as NT Brodrick Bunkley, G Ben Grubbs, LBs Curtis Lofton, RB Darren Sproles. Over his last two seasons with the Saints their draft classes included regular starters LT Terron Armstead (2013, third round), WR Brandin Cooks (2014, first round), S Kenny Vaccaro (2013, first round) and WR Kenny Stills (2013, fifth round).

In 2008, he was selected by the club to attend the NFL's Stanford Business School's Executive Education Program for Managers. He was a part of the franchise in 2005 while the club dealt with immense adversity having to guide itself through several moves in base operations in the wake of Hurricane Katrina.

Pace played collegiately as a defensive end at Eastern Illinois (1995-99), serving as team captain as a senior, graduating with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

Pace and his wife, Stephanie, have a daughter, Cardyn.

MATT NAGY HEAD COACH

Matt Nagy is in his first season with the Chicago Bears after being named the 16th head coach in franchise history on January 8th, 2018.

Nagy owns 10 seasons of NFL coaching experience, all under head coach Andy Reid with the Philadelphia Eagles and Kansas City Chiefs.

In 2017, Nagy completed his fifth season in Kansas City and his first as offensive coordinator. He was promoted to OC following the 2016 season after serving as co-offensive coordinator with Brad Childress. Prior to that, Nagy spent three seasons as the Chiefs QBs coach.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2017, Nagy guided a Chiefs offense that ranked No. 5 in the NFL in total offense with 375.4 yards per game en route to a 10-6 record and an AFC West Division championship. The Chiefs also finished sixth in the NFL in points per game (25.9), seventh in passing yards (256.5), ninth in rushing (118.9) and led the NFL with the fewest giveaways (8). The Chiefs also were one of the most explosive offenses in 2017, tying for fifth in the NFL with 69 plays from scrimmage of 20 or more yards.

Quarterback Alex Smith finished the 2017 regular season fourth in the AFC in passing with 4,042 yards to go along with 26 touchdowns – both career highs – and only five interceptions. Also under Nagy's tutelage, rookie running back Kareem Hunt led the NFL in rushing with 1,327 yards and eight touchdowns and tied for first in the NFL with 12 rushes of 20 or more yards, earning Pro Bowl honors in the process. Travis Kelce also earned Pro Bowl honors, leading all NFL tight ends with 83 receptions and finishing second among tight ends with 1,038 yards and eight touchdowns. Nine of his 83 grabs went for at least 25 yards, second most in the league behind only New England's Rob Gronkowski (11). Additionally, wide receiver Tyreek Hill ranked seventh in the NFL with 1,183 yards to go along with seven touchdowns and tied for third with 15 receptions of 25 or more yards – trailing only Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown (16) and Houston's DeAndre Hopkins (17).

In his five seasons with the Chiefs, Nagy worked closely with Smith, who owned a 65.1 completion percentage in the five seasons working with Nagy, ranking first among all Chiefs QBs with at least 700 passing attempts.

In 2016, Nagy helped the Chiefs to a 12-4 regular-season record, the club's first AFC West title since 2010, the No. 2 overall seed in the AFC and a first-round bye. Overall, Nagy helped the Chiefs to the postseason four times in his five seasons with the club.

In his first year with the Chiefs, Nagy worked with Smith in a season that brought him five 100.0-plus quarterback ratings, one of which was a perfect rating of 158.3 at Oakland. Focusing on ball protection, he coached Smith to an AFC-low seven interceptions with a minimum of 300 attempts and a 1.4 interception percentage, also the lowest in the AFC. Smith's interception percentage in the 2013 season has him solidified as the third-best single-season mark in franchise history. Smith also earned his first Pro Bowl selection following his first season with the Chiefs in 2013.

Before joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Nagy spent three years on the offensive staff of the Philadelphia Eagles, serving two seasons as the franchise's offensive quality control coach (2011-12). He was promoted to that role after he served as a coaching assistant during the 2010 campaign. His initial experience with the Eagles came in 2008 and 2009 when he served as a coaching intern during Eagles training camp.

A former quarterback for the Arena Football League, Nagy played six seasons for the New York Dragons (2002), Carolina Cobras (2004), Georgia Force (2005-06) and Columbus Destroyers (2007-08). During his career, Nagy completed 65.5 percent of his passes for 18,866 yards, 374 touchdowns and a quarterback rating of 115.1.

Nagy played collegiately at Delaware, setting more than 20 career passing records at the time, including career marks for passing yards (8,214) and touchdowns (58). He ranks second for most career attempts (895) and most career completions (502) behind former Delaware star and current Baltimore Ravens QB Joe Flacco. Nagy earned All-America honors as a senior for the Blue Hens after setting single-season records in attempts (379), yards (3,436) and touchdowns (29).

After graduating from Delaware with a degree in health and physical education, Nagy gained coaching experience at several local high schools, as he served as an assistant coach at Manheim Central (2001), the quarterbacks coach at Cedar Crest (2002-03) and the offensive coordinator at Palmyra Area High School (2008-09). He and his wife, Stacey, have four sons: Brayden, Tate, Jaxon and Jett.

VIC FANGIO DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Vic Fangio is in his fourth season as Chicago's defensive coordinator after being hired by the Bears on January 20, 2015. The 2018 season will mark his 32nd year in the NFL and his 19th season as an NFL defensive coordinator.

After inheriting a defense that had ranked 30th in total defense in 2013 and 2014, the Bears finished 14th, 15th and 10th in 2015, 2016 and 2017, respectively. The Bears also finished 2017 tied for third in the NFC and tied for seventh in the NFL with 42 sacks. On five separate occasions last season, the Bears defense held opponents to one or fewer offensive touchdowns (at BAL 0; vs. CAR 0; vs. SF 0; at CIN 1; vs. CLE 0). From Weeks 4-17, Chicago's defense allowed just 17 offensive touchdowns, which tied for the second-fewest in the NFL during that span.

Under Fangio's watch, rookie DB Eddie Jackson became the first player in NFL history to return both a fumble recovery and an interception for 75+ yard touchdowns in the same game while DL Akiem Hicks posted a career-high 8.5 sacks. DB Kyle Fuller also enjoyed a career season, as he was one of two players in the NFL last season to post at least 65 tackles and 20 pass breakups.

Fangio, who attended East Stroudsburg University, was inducted into the Northeast Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 1993. He has a son, Christian, and a daughter, Cassie.

MARK HELFRICH OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mark Helfrich is in his first season as offensive coordinator for the Bears after being hired by the club on January 12, 2018. He joins the Bears with 21 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, including four as a head coach at the University with Oregon.

Helfrich most recently served as the head coach at Oregon from 2013-16 where he compiled a 37-16 record during his four years, including a 24-12 mark in the Pac-12. He enjoyed his best season in 2014 in leading the Ducks to a school-record 13 wins, a Pac-12 championship, a Rose Bowl victory in the inaugural College Football Playoff semifinal and an appearance in the CFP national championship game. Also that season, quarterback Marcus Mariota became the first Oregon player to win the Heisman Trophy before being selected as the No. 2 overall pick in the 2015 NFL Draft. In recognition of his efforts, Helfrich was finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Maxwell Football Club Coach of the Year.

Prior to becoming the head coach in Eugene, Helfrich served as the offensive coordinator for former head coach Chip Kelly at Oregon from 2009-12. During that time the Ducks played in four straight BCS bowls and won three consecutive Pac-12 championships. The 2012 season featured one of the top offensive seasons in Oregon history as the Ducks averaged 49.6 points and 537.4 yards per game.

CHRIS TABOR SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Chris Tabor begins his first season as the Bears special teams coordinator after being hired on January 12, 2018. It is his second stint with the club, originally holding the title of assistant special teams coach from 2008-2010. He spent the last seven seasons with the Cleveland Browns as their special teams coordinator.

Under Tabor's watch, the Browns were the only team in the NFL to have earned at least one AFC Special Teams Player of the Week award each season from 2011-2016. In total, the Browns won seven AFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards. He also oversaw kicker Phil Dawson and returner Joshua Cribbs in 2012 when were both were selected to the Pro Bowl, marking just the second time in team history that two specialists made the annual all-star game in the same year.

During his seven seasons with the Browns, Tabor helped numerous players set NFL and franchise records. Punter Britton Colquitt set the Browns net punting average record in consecutive seasons with 40.3 in 2016 and 40.6 in 2017. Tabor's punters hold four of the Browns top five single season net punting marks with Colquitt holding the top two spots, Andy Lee placing third (40.1 in 2015) and Spencer Lanning checking in at fifth (39.2 in 2014). In 2015, kicker Travis Coons set an NFL record with 18 consecutive field goals to start his career, while Andy Lee set a franchise record in punt average with 46.71.

When Cody Parkey's 33-yard field goal gave the Bears a 20-0 lead early in the third quarter of the 2018 season opener, it looked like they would cruise to an easy victory over the rival Packers.

But after Aaron Rodgers missed the final two series of the first half with a knee injury, Green Bay's star quarterback hobbled back onto the field in the third quarter and rallied the Packers to a stunning 24-23 win at Lambeau Field.

Rodgers produced points on his first four drives, setting up Mason Crosby's 42-yard field goal late in the third quarter before throwing three touchdown passes in the fourth period.

Rodgers tossed scoring passes of 39 yards to Geronimo Allison with 13:59 remaining and 12 yards to Devante Adams with 9:01 left to make it 20-17.

After the Bears widened the margin to 23-17 on Parkey's 32-yard field goal with 2:39 to play, Rodgers threw a short pass over the middle to Randall Cobb, who raced 75 yards for the winning touchdown with 2:13 remaining.

The Bears reached their own 46 on their final drive, but quarterback Mitchell Trubisky threw three straight incompletions before being sacked and losing a fumble on fourth-and-10 with :58 to play.

With the heart-breaking defeat, the Bears have now lost 15 of their last 17 games to the Packers dating back to 2010 and have dropped 10 straight contests to NFC North opponents.

The loss overshadowed an impressive performance by new Bears pass rusher Khalil Mack. The recently acquired outside linebacker generated takeaways on the two drives that Packers backup quarterback DeShone Kizer was in the game in place of Rodgers at the end of the first half.

First, Mack wrestled the ball away from Kizer while sacking him after the Packers had reached the Bears' 9.

Mack followed by intercepting a pass that Kizer dumped over the middle while trying to avoid a sack by Roy Robertson-Harris. Mack, who missed all of training camp and the preseason due to a contract holdout with the Raiders, showed the elusiveness of a running back while returning the pick 27 yards for a touchdown to give the Bears a 17-0 lead with :39 left in the half.

The Bears had taken a 10-0 lead, scoring on their first two possessions on Trubisky's 2-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter and Parkey's 26-yard field goal on the first play of the second period.

Trubisky completed 8 of 9 passes for 99 yards to five different receivers on the two scoring drives, including passes of 33 yards to Allen Robinson II and 31 yards to Taylor Gabriel.

After scoring a touchdown on its first possession, the Bears offense failed to get into the end zone again the rest of the night.

That gave the Packers a chance to rally, and Rodgers took advantage of the opportunity. He finished the game completing 20 of 30 passes for 286 yards with three touchdowns, no interceptions and a 130.7 passer rating.

After their 20-0 third-quarter lead turned into a 24-23 loss last Sunday night in Green Bay, the Bears vowed to finish what they started Monday night at Soldier Field.

Although there were a few nervous moments, the Bears ultimately accomplished that goal, holding off a late rally by the Seahawks to win their home opener 24-17.

Unlike a week earlier against the Packers, the defense sealed the game with a decisive interception after Seattle had climbed to within 17-10 early in the fourth quarter.

The key play was made by veteran corner Prince Amukamara, who intercepted a Russell Wilson pass and returned it 49 yards for a TD, increasing the Bears' lead to 24-10 with 6:37 remaining in the final period.

The Bears defense dominated for three quarters, holding the Seahawks to three points, five first downs and 80 total yards on 34 plays. But Seattle generated 14 points, 12 first downs and 196 yards in the fourth period. Wilson's 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Will Dissly cut the deficit to 24-17 with :14 to play, but rookie Anthony Miller recovered the subsequent onside kick to clinch the victory.

The Bears defense, which recorded six sacks of Wilson, stepped up when needed most. After Mitchell Trubisky threw interceptions on back-to-back possessions in the second quarter, the defense responded with a pair of three-and-outs. The second series was capped by a Khalil Mack third-down strip sack that forced a Seattle punt.

After Seattle had closed the gap to 17-10 early in the fourth quarter, the defense generated takeaways on back-to-back possessions. Danny Trevathan followed Amukamara's pick-six by forcing a fumble on a sack of Wilson that Leonard Floyd recovered at the Seattle 41.

The Bears scored a touchdown on their first possession of the game to take a 7-0 lead for the second straight week as Trubisky flipped a shovel pass to tight end Trey Burton for a 3-yard score.

Trubisky completed 6 of 7 passes for 50 yards to five different receivers and had a nifty 17-yard scramble on third-and-six on the impressive 10-play, 96-yard drive.

But just like a week earlier in Green Bay, the Bears offense struggled after scoring a touchdown on its first drive. The unit managed only a field goal on six possessions in the second and third quarters, enabling the Seahawks to remain within striking distance.

Trubisky completed 25 of 34 passes for 200 yards with two touchdowns, two interceptions and an 83.0 passer rating in the game. He ended the offense's drought with a 10-yard TD pass to Miller early in the fourth quarter, giving the Bears a 17-3 lead.

Wilson connected on 22 of 36 passes for 226 yards with two TDs, one interception and an 86.1 rating. He was sacked six times for the second straight game.

The pressure the Bears generated on the four-time Pro Bowl quarterback from start to finish helped them rebound from their loss in Green Bay. It also evened their record at 1-1 heading into Sunday's contest against the Cardinals in Arizona.

The Bears rallied in dramatic fashion from a 14-0 first-quarter deficit to beat the Cardinals 16-14 at State Farm Stadium. After allowing two Sam Bradford touchdown passes in the opening period, the Bears defense fueled the comeback by shutting out the Cardinals over the final three quarters. Trailing 14-3 at halftime, the unit opened the second half by generating takeaways on four straight possessions and then stuffing Arizona on a fifth drive to clinch the victory.

The takeaways came on INTs by Eddie Jackson, Sherrick McManis and Bryce Callahan and a forced fumble by Khalil Mack that was recovered by Danny Trevathan.

The Bears offense converted the first three takeaways into Jordan Howard's 1-yard touchdown run and Cody Parkey field goals of 41 and 43 yards, the second of which gave the Bears a 16-14 lead with 4:31 remaining in the game.

With the victory—coupled with losses by the Vikings (1-1-1) and Packers (1-1-1)—the Bears (2-1) moved into first place in the NFC North for the first time since Week 16 of the 2013 season.

The Bears defense was led by Mack, who had a team-high five tackles and two sacks and also recorded three quarterback hits, one forced fumble and one tackle-for-loss. McManis registered one interception, one sack, one TFL, one quarterback hit and one pass breakup. His sack came on the final play after the Cardinals had advanced to their own 46 with :05 to play.

The Bears offense generated enough points to beat the Cardinals, but the unit mustered only one touchdown and has scored only four TDs in the first three games of the season. The offense produced one touchdown on three red-zone trips Sunday. Parkey missed a 46-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter after Mitchell Trubisky was sacked for a 15-yard loss. The Bears later settled for Parkey's 20-yard field goal after they had first-and-goal at the 4.

Trubisky completed 24 of 35 passes for 220 yards with one interception with a 73.5 passer rating. Howard rushed for 61 yards and one TD on 24 carries.

Bradford threw touchdown passes of 35 yards to tight end Ricky Seals-Jones and 21 yards to running back David Johnson. The first score capped a five-play, 75-yard drive on the game's opening possession. The second TD came one play after defensive tackle Robert Nkemdiche sacked Trubisky, forcing a fumble that defensive tackle Corey Peters recovered.

After the Bears defense left Seals-Jones uncovered to give the Cardinals an early 7-0 lead, the Chicago offense responded by marching to the Arizona 13. But on third-and-six, Trubisky was sacked by blitzing defensive backs Bene Benwikere and Budda Baker.

The Bears' second possession ended when Trubisky stepped up in the pocket and was stripped from behind by Nkemdiche. On the next play, Johnson beat Trevathan to haul in Bradford's second touchdown pass of the game, giving Arizona a 14-0 lead.

But with a stellar effort by their defense, the Bears rallied for their second straight win.

The Bears offense seemed to be on the verge of a breakout performance, but the unit exceeded even the loftiest expectations with a record-breaking outing Sunday.

Quarterback Mitchell Trubisky threw six touchdown passes to fuel a 48-10 rout of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, tying for the second most in Bears history behind only Hall of Famer Sid Luckman's seven TDs in a 1943 win over the New York Giants.

In staking the Bears to a 38-3 halftime lead, Trubisky became the first player in franchise history to throw five touchdown passes in a half.

In the first two quarters, Trubisky completed 14 of 18 passes for 289 yards and a perfect 158.3 passer rating. He threw TD passes of 39 yards to tight end Trey Burton, 14 yards to receiver Allen Robinson II, 9 yards to running back Tarik Cohen, 20 yards to receiver Joshua Bellamy and 3 yards to receiver Taylor Gabriel.

On their five first-half touchdown drives, the Bears ran just one third-down play and scored in an elapsed 2:40, 3:34, 2:34, 1:46 and 3:12.

Trubisky picked up in the second half right where he left off in the first, rifling a 3-yard TD pass to Gabriel to increase the Bears' lead to 45-3. The touchdown came after Danny Trevathan intercepted a Jameis Winston pass and returned it 12 yards to the Bears' 40. Winston replaced Ryan Fitzpatrick to start the second half.

Trubisky completed 19 of 26 passes in the game, setting career highs with six touchdowns, 354 yards and a 154.6 passer rating. He also rushed for 53 yards on three carries including gains of 26 and 23 yards.

Not surprisingly, Trubisky credited his offensive line after the lopsided victory.

The Bears defense played another stellar game, registering three takeaways and four sacks against a Buccaneers offense that entered Week 4 ranked No. 1 in the NFL in total yards and passing yards and was averaging 34.0 points per game.

Khalil Mack registered a strip/sack for the fourth time in as many games this season and deflected a pass that resulted in an Aaron Lynch interception. Trevathan and Eddie Jackson also picked off passes for the Bears, whose eight interceptions in four games match their total in each of their three previous seasons.

With the victory, the Bears (3-1) won their third straight game for the first time since they started 3-0 in 2013. They also remained in first place in the NFC North, a half-game ahead of the Packers (2-1-1), who defeated the Bills 22-0 Sunday in Green Bay.

The 48 points were the most the Bears have scored since a 51-20 win over the Titans Nov 4, 2012 in Tennessee, and their 38-point margin of victory was the most since Oct. 7, 2012 when they also won by 38 points, beating the Jaguars 41-3.

Jason Sanders hit a 47-yard field goal as time expired in overtime gave the Dolphins a 31-28 win.

Trailing 7-0 after a sluggish first half, the Bears (3-2) scored three touchdowns in the first 8:10 of the third quarter to take a 21-10 lead. The Dolphins (4-2) fought back, however, tying the score 21-21 and later 28-28.

Miami was inches away from scoring a game-ending touchdown on its opening possession of overtime. But on third-and-goal from the 1, Akiem Hicks forced a Kenyan Drake fumble that Eddie Goldman recovered in the end zone.

The Bears marched to the Dolphins’ 35, but Cody Parkey pushed a 53-yard field goal attempt wide right. Miami countered by moving 28 yards from its own 43 to the Bears’ 29 to set up Sanders’ game-winner.

It appeared that the Bears would win their fourth straight when Tarik Cohen caught an apparent 3-yard touchdown pass from Mitchell Trubisky that would have increased their lead to 28-13 early in the fourth quarter. But Trey Burton was penalized for offensive pass interference, nullifying the score.

On the next play, Trubisky’s pass over the middle intended for tight end Ben Braunecker was intercepted by safety T.J. McDonald in the end zone.

The Dolphins capitalized on the turnover by marching 80 yards to tie the game 21-21 as receiver Albert Wilson turned a screen pass into a 43-yard touchdown and Brock Osweiler followed by hitting Kenny Stills with a two-point conversion pass with 9:08 remaining in the fourth quarter.

The Bears answered as Trubisky hit a wide-open Anthony Miller with a 29-yard TD pass to take a 28-21 lead with 3:17 to play. But on the very next play from scrimmage, Wilson turned another short pass into a 75-yard score, tying the game 28-28 with 3:01 to go.

Plagued by missed tackles, the Bears defense uncharacteristically struggled Sunday. The unit allowed four touchdowns, gave up points on five of Miami’s final seven possessions and generated little if any pressure on the quarterback.

After recording 18 sacks and yielding an average of 294.5 yards in their first five games, the Bears registered no sacks Sunday and permitted 541 yards.

A lone bright spot on defense was provided by cornerback Kyle Fuller, who intercepted two passes, matching his total from all of last season in a 3:49 span bridging the second and third quarters.

Trailing 7-0, the Bears came within inches of tying the game with just over three minutes left in the first half. But on second-and-goal from the 2, Jordan Howard fumbled when he ran into Burton. Linebacker Kiko Alonso recovered the ball at the 1.

The Bears fared much better after halftime, scoring touchdowns on their first three possessions of the third quarter. Trubisky connected for TDs of 9 yards on a shovel pass to Burton and 12 yards on a strike to Allen Robinson II one play after Fuller had returned his second interception 35 yards to the Miami 12. Cohen followed with a 21-yard TD run that put the Bears ahead 21-10.

CHICAGO'S SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

CHASE DANIEL • SB XLIV

After signing with the New Orleans Saints as an undrafted free agent out of Missouri, Bears quarterback Chase Daniel sat behind veteran quarterback Drew Brees. Daniel spent the majority of that rookie campaign bouncing back and forth between the club's active roster and practice squad. Come the season finale, Daniel was a member of the 53-man roster on Feb. 7, 2010 when the Saints claimed SB XLIV with a 31-17 win over the Indianapolis Colts.

PRINCE AMUKAMARA • SB XLVI

Defensive Back, Prince Amukamara was drafted by the New York Giants in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft (19th overall). Nine months later, as a rookie, Amukamara helped the Giants win SB XLVI with a 21-17 victory over the New England Patriots. Amukamara came off the bench at corner and logged one tackle, bringing down tight end Rob Gronkowski in the fourth quarter with New York trailing, 17-15.

DANNY TREVATHAN • SB 50

Bears linebacker Danny Trevathan started at inside linebacker for the Denver Broncos in SB 50 following the 2015 regular season, a 24-10 win for the Broncos. Appearing in 80% of the team's defensive snaps, Trevathan had a dominant performance, recovering a pair of Carolina fumbles and registering eight tackles (four solo).

TREY BURTON • SB LII

Chicago tight end Trey Burton helped the Philadelphia Eagles claim SB LII over the New England Patriots, 41-33, last year. Burton's most notable moment came late in the first half when he put the Eagles in front, 22-12, after completing a 1-yard pass to Eagles quarterback Nick Foles with what was dubbed the 'Philly Special.'

CHICAGO'S SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

CLYDE EMERICH • SB XX

Now on staff as an administrative assistant, Clyde Emerich first started coaching Bears players toward the end of his own competitive weightlifting career. A meeting with George Halas turned into a request for Emerich to introduce his functional isometric contraction technique to Halas' team in 1963. After the Bears won the NFL league championship, Emerich was retained for the next eight years and was then hired in 1971 as the Bears' first strength and conditioning coach, a position he retained for two decades while earning a SB XX with Chicago in 1985.

ED DONATELL • SB XXXII & XXXIII

Bears defensive backs coach Ed Donatell owns a pair of Super Bowl rings following his time with the Denver Broncos. Donatell coached in the same capacity in Denver, tutoring defensive backs from 1995-99. He captured Super Bowl XXXII in 1997 with a 31-24 victory over the Green Bay Packers and a 34-19 win over the Atlanta Falcons in 1998 in SB XXXIII. Donatell's defensive backs totaled four interceptions throughout the two wins.

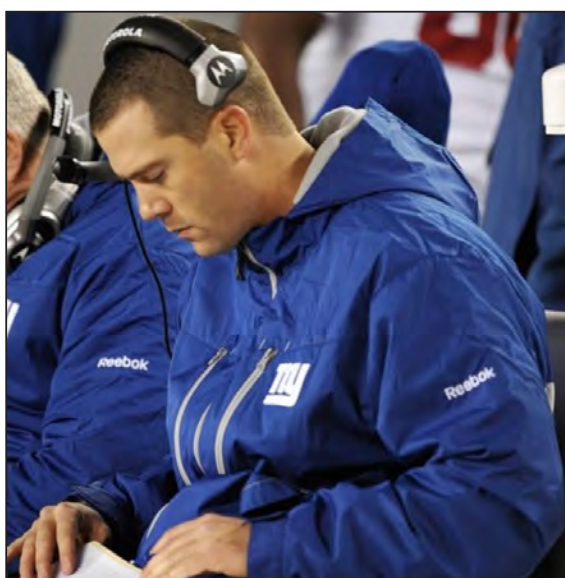

PACE, LUCAS & LAINE • SB XLIV

Three front office members -- general manager Ryan Pace, director of player personnel Josh Lucas and director of football administration Joseph Laine -- all joined quarterback Chase Daniel in New Orleans' 31-17 win over the Indianapolis Colts in SB XLIV. Pace served as the club's director of pro scouting at the time while Lucas was a southwest area scout and Laine worked as a salary cap analyst.

KEVIN GILBRIDE • SB XLVI

Bears tight ends coach Kevin Gilbride was on staff with the New York Giants in 2011 when they won SBXLVI with a 21-17 win over the New England Patriots. Gilbride spent the 2010-17 seasons in New York, serving as an offensive quality control coach (2010), offensive assistant (2011), wide receivers coach (2012-13) and tight ends coach (2014-17).

CHICAGO'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

CODY PARKEY • 2011

Bears kicker Cody Parkey played collegiately at Auburn University for four seasons, appearing in 46 games and connecting on 39-of-53 attempts (73.6%) while making 136-of-138 extra points. He appeared in seven games throughout the 2010 season when the Tigers claimed the BCS National Championship game with a 22-19 win over the Oregon Ducks.

EDDIE GOLDMAN • 2014

Chicago's Eddie Goldman spent three seasons (2012-14) at Florida State University. A two-year starter, Goldman appeared in 36 games (27 starts) with the Seminoles, totaling 62 tackles (31 solo), 12.0 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks. In 2013, the Washington D.C. native made 13 starts and helped guide the Seminoles to the 2014 BCS National Championship game versus Auburn. He logged 3.5 tackles for loss in the game as FSU went on to defeat Auburn, 34-31.

EDDIE JACKSON • 2016

Bears defensive back Eddie Jackson spent four seasons at the University of Alabama. Appearing in 37 games, Jackson accumulated nine interceptions (3 returned for TDs) and 19 passes defensed as he played a major role on the Tide's defense across four seasons. An All-American in 2015, Jackson led Alabama's defense with six interceptions as they went on to claim a 45-40 win over Clemson in the 2016 CFP National Championship game. Jackson picked off former Clemson and current Houston Texans QB DeShaun Watson and added three tackles in the game.

IF IT WEREN'T FOR FOOTBALL...

KYLE LONG'S BASEBALL CAREER

Kyle Long was bound for Chicago one way or another. The Bears offensive lineman and former Florida State University pitcher was drafted by the White Sox in the 23rd round of the 2008 MLB draft. Rather than sign with the club, Kyle, brother of Eagles defensive end Chris Long and son of NFL great Howie Long, opted for a life in football. Already a three-time Pro Bowler, Kyle was taken 20th overall by the Bears in the 2013 NFL Draft following his senior year at the University of Oregon.

DION SIMS' BASKETBALL CAREER

Primarily known as a football tight end, Dion Sims also had career opportunities on the basketball court. Sims finished fourth in Mr. Basketball voting as a senior at Orchard Lake St. Mary's High School in Orchard Lake, Michigan, and eventually took on double-duties at Michigan State, playing both football for Coach Mark Dantonio and basketball for Coach Tom Izzo during his freshman year. Sims primarily played a scout team role with the Spartans before turning his focus solely on the football field.

DR. BEN BRAUNECKER?

Third-year tight end Ben Braunecker attended Harvard University and graduated with a degree in Molecular and Cellular Biology. Down the road, after his football career concludes, Braunecker has plans to attend medical school while specializing in infectious diseases.

COULD STILL BE PAID TO PLAY

Running Back Tarik Cohen, when not on the field, loves to play the popular online video game "Fortnite," a co-operative survival game that took the internet by storm with its multiplayer "battle royale" mode. Cohen told NFL.com he's "the best NFL Fortnite player, easily," and he has the win/loss record to prove it. He reportedly beat Indianapolis Colts tight end Eric Ebron, New York Jets wide receiver Andre Roberts and Tampa Bay Buccaneers tackle Donovan Smith, among others, in the battle royale.

BEARS IN THE COMMUNITY

BEARS SCHOOL OUTREACH

On Sept. 24, Bears defensive backs Prince Amukamara and Kyle Fuller visited Jordan Elementary Community School to kick off the 2018 Bears School Outreach Program. Through a partnership with Youth Guidance, Bears players make weekly visits to Chicago Public Schools during the season to speak to, motivate and interact with students who are part of the Becoming A Man® (BAM®) and Working On Womanhood (WOW) programs.

MINI MONSTERS

On Oct. 8, Cody Parkey and Pat O'Donnell visited with veterans at the Captain James A. Lovell Federal Health Care Center (FHCC) and held a Q&A session. The FHCC is a first-of-its-kind partnership between the U. S. Department of Veterans Affairs and the Department of Defense (DoD), integrating all medical care into a federal health care facility with a single combined VA and Navy mission.

REAL BEARS FANS WEAR PINK

2018 "Real Bears Fans Wear Pink" t-shirts are available for purchase online at chicagobears.com/pink for $30. Shirts will also be available for purchase at the game in the Miller Lite Chicago Bears Fan Zone prior to kick-off, at Bears Care tables between Gates 1 and 3 at the Dr. Pepper Patio in the South Courtyard, at Sections 101 and 138 and in the United Club. New this year, women's V-neck shirts are also available, while supplies last.

CUNNINGHAM'S GIFT-GIVING

Bears running back Benny Cunningham did the giving on his birthday this past July, providing bicycles for underprivileged children throughout the Nashville community. Cunningham was at the Phatkaps on Bell Road in Antioch and gave away 100 bicycles. The Nashville native didn't have a bike growing up and always wanted to make that dream come true for others.

BEARS IN THE COMMUNITY

THE STATS GIVE BACK

Starting with Chicago's home-opener versus Seattle, Trey Burton will donate $1,000 per catch he makes and $2,500 per touchdown he scores to the International Justice Mission. IJM is an international anti-slavery organization across the developing world that aims to combat slavery, trafficking and other forms of violence against the poor by rescuing and restoring victims, holding perpetrators accountable and transforming broken public justice systems.

2018 Totals	Rec.	TD.	$
Burton	15	3	$22,500

THE STATS GIVE BACK

Allen Robinson II will donate $285 per catch this season, up to $20,000. The donations will benefit his Reach for a Book program, which will provide resources for inner-city and low-income kids to improve literacy and reach out for success in life. Fans can donate online at pledgeit.org/allenrobinson.

2018 Totals	Rec.	$
Robinson	24	$6,840

ADVOCATE HEALTH CARE AUCTION

Bears players will wear special white and pink Advocate Health Care patches on their practice jerseys during the week leading up to the Crucial Catch game. Jerseys will be auctioned off to fans via the free Chicago Bears Official App brought to you by Verizon, starting on Wednesday, Oct. 17. Each jersey will be auctioned with an "I Practice For" card signed by that player (images attached). Proceeds from the jersey auction will benefit the "Real Bears Fans Wear Pink" campaign. For information on how to set up auction alerts within the Chicago Bears Official App, please visit chicagobears.com/bearscare.

GATORADE JUNIOR TRAINING CAMP

On Aug. 6, the Bears and Gatorade hosted 300 high school football players and coaches from Plainfield Central High School, Thornwood High School and Leo High School at Ward Field. The event included clinics, along with Gatorade's "Beat the Heat" program, which educates athletes across all sports about the importance of hydration during the hot, summer months. Certified USA Football Master Trainers and coaches led the drills, alongside former Bears Jason McKie, Alex Brown & Jason Davis. Additionally, the Chicago Bears through the NFL Foundation provided each school with a $3,000 grant for use towards football skills and safety.

BEARS PLAYER INTRODUCTIONS

The Bears hosted youth football players at both home preseason games in honor of Play Football Month. Youth football players from Chicagoland Pop Warner, Chicago Park District's Junior Bear Tackle Football League, Bill George Youth Football League and Chicagoland Youth Football League watched pregame warm-ups and lined up on the field for the national anthem. Chicago Park District's Girls Inner City Flag Football players participated in player introductions and lined up on the field for the national anthem. The LaFollette Park Wildcats, Altgeld Park Saints, Algonquin Argonauts and Evanston Lightning also had an opportunity to participate in scrimmages on the field.

HOWARD GIVES BACK

On Sunday, Aug. 26, Bears running back Jordan Howard provided 200 kids from The Kroc Center with backpacks ahead of the new school year. Each Nike backpack included Champs gift certificates, school supplies, personal hygiene products, an autographed Jordan Howard custom Panini trading card and more. Chicago police officers from the 005th District were also in attendance as students learned about their positive impact in the community.

JAVON WIMS SURPRISE

On Monday afternoon, wide receiver Javon Wims surprised a breast cancer patient being treated at Advocate Condell Medical Center by picking her up at home in a car service and taking her to her appointment as part of the American Cancer Society's Road to Recovery program, which assists cancer patients with volunteer rides to and from treatment. The Advocate patient, who has used the Road to Recovery program for over 40 rides to treatments, was also surprised with a customized jersey, two tickets to the Oct. 21 game and the opportunity to participate in the pregame pink ribbon unfurling.

BEARS SCHOOL OUTREACH

On Monday, Eddie Jackson visited participants in the Youth Guidance Working On Womanhood (WOW) program at Dunbar High School. WOW focuses on five core values: Self-Awareness, Emotional Intelligence, Healthy Relationships, Visionary Goal-Setting and Leadership. Bryce Callahan also visited a Becoming A Man® (BAM®) program at Bronzeville High School. The BAM® program focuses on six core values: Integrity, Accountability, Self-Determination, Positive Anger Expression, Visionary Goal Setting and Respect for Womanhood.

IT RUNS IN THE FAMILY

THE LONG FAMILY

Bears offensive lineman Kyle Long is the son of Hall of Famer (2000) Howie Long and the middle child of three brothers.

Howie was a second-round pick for the Oakland Raiders in the 1981 NFL Draft. He joined the Raiders one year after the team won Super Bowl XV. Three years later, in 1983, he helped the team capture another Super Bowl title with a 38-9 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVIII. He went on to be selected to eight Pro Bowls, the first following the 1983 season.

Chris, Kyle's older brother, was a collegiate standout at the University of Virginia prior to being selected in the 1st round (No. 2 overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams. Chris has captured two Super Bowl titles with the New England Patriots (SBLI) and Philadelphia Eagles (SBLII).

Howard Jr. the youngest of three brothers, worked in the Oakland Raiders front office as a Player Personnel Assistant for five seasons.

KEVIN, KA'RAUN & KYZIR WHITE

Bears wide receiver Kevin White is the oldest of three brothers, all of which play in the NFL. In rare company, The Baldingers, Watts and Gronkowskis are among those who have also had three siblings play in the NFL. Additionally, there are four Fuller brothers in the NFL.

Ka'Rau, the middle child, went undrafted in 2018 following four years at West Virginia University. Originally signed by the Seattle Seahawks, Ka'Rau was released and quickly signed by the Cincinnati Bengals where he's currently a wide receiver. Ka'Rau hauled in 61 receptions for 1,004 yards with 12 touchdowns in 2017 at WVU.

Kyzir, the youngest of the trio, also played at West Virginia University and was a fourth-round pick (119th overall) by the Los Angeles Chargers in the 2018 NFL Draft. As a senior in 2017, Kyzir appeared in 14 games and totaled 100 tackles (69 solo), 8.5 tackles for loss, eight passes defended, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

FULLER BROTHERS MAKE HISTORY

Bears defensive back Kyle Fuller is the second-youngest of four brothers to have reached the NFL. Following the 2016 NFL Draft, the Fullers became just the second set of four brothers to reach the NFL in the Super Bowl era, joining the Browners—Ross, Jim, Joey and Keith, who played in the 1970s and '80s.

The oldest of four, Vincent (S), was a fourth-round pick (108th overall) in the 2005 NFL Draft by the Tennessee Titans. Vincent spent the first six years of his career as a safety with Tennessee before playing his final season with the Detroit Lions in 2011.

The second-youngest, Corey (WR), was a sixth-round pick (171st overall) in the 2013 draft by the Detroit Lions. Corey appeared in 28 games in two seasons with Detroit before landing on the Saints practice squad for the 2016-17 seasons. Corey is currently a free agent.

Kendall (DB), a third-round draft choice (84th overall) by the Washington Redskins in 2016, enters his third year in the NFL and his first with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2018. Kendall has appeared in 29 games (12 starts) with 74 tackles (54 solo), four interceptions and 12 passes defended.

All four brothers attended Virginia Tech University.
