NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Titans (3-10) travel to face the AFC East-leading New England Patriots (11-2) this week. Kickoff at Gillette Stadium (capacity 68,756) is scheduled for 1 p.m. EST/noon CST on Sunday, Dec. 20.

THE BROADCAST

This week's game will be televised regionally on CBS, including Nashville affiliate WTVF NewsChannel 5. Play-by-play announcer Ian Eagle and analyst Dan Fouts will call the action, and Evan Washburn will report from the sidelines.

The Titans Radio Network, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone, will carry the game across the Mid-South with the "Voice of the Titans" Mike Keith, analyst Frank Wycheck, gameday host Rhett Bryan and sideline reporter Jonathan Hutton.

Additionally, Westwood One Sports will carry the game to a national radio audience. John Sadak (play-by-play) and Ross Tucker (analyst) will have the call.

TITANS LOOKING FOR FOURTH WIN

After defeating the Jacksonville Jaguars at Nissan Stadium on Dec. 6, the Titans traveled to New York last week in search of their second consecutive win. However, they were turned away by the Jets, who used three touchdown passes by Ryan Fitzpatrick and 183 total rushing yards to defeat the Titans 30-8.

The Titans' lone touchdown of the contest came on a 41-yard pass from running back Antonio Andrews to rookie Marcus Mariota, who is the first quarterback in franchise history to record a touchdown reception. He is the first NFL player in 2015 to pass for a touchdown, rush for a touchdown and catch a touchdown pass, and the only other rookie in the Super Bowl era (1966-present) to accomplish the feat is Kordell Stewart (1995). Prior to Mariota, the most recent player to record touchdowns of at least 40 yards passing, rushing and receiving in the same season was Walter Payton in 1983.

With three games remaining in his rookie season, Mariota already has set the franchise rookie records for pass attempts (364), completions (227), passing yards (2,786) and passing touchdowns (19). With one more touchdown pass, he could become the 10th quarterback in NFL history to reach 20 touchdown passes as a rookie. Tampa Bay rookie Jameis Winston, who has 18 touchdown passes, also could reach the mark in the next three weeks.

Mariota was not the only offensive player to reach a significant milestone against the Jets. Delanie Walker broke Frank Wycheck's franchise record for the most receptions in a season by a tight end. Wycheck set the record by hauling in 70 passes in 1998, and he matched the mark in 2000. Walker's 2015 totals now include 74 receptions for 871 yards and four touchdowns. He leads the team in all three categories and needs 20 more receiving yards to break the franchise record he set in 2014 of 890 receiving yards by a tight end.

The Titans go into New England looking for their fourth win of the season. They are 2-4 under interim head coach Mike Mularkey, who took the reins on Nov. 3. After playing the Patriots, they finish the season with a home game against the Houston Texans (Dec. 27) and a road finale at the Indianapolis Colts (Jan. 3).

PATRIOTS SEEKING ANOTHER DIVISION TITLE

After experiencing back-to-back losses to the Denver Broncos (Nov. 29) and Philadelphia Eagles (Dec. 6), the Patriots voyaged to Houston last week for a Sunday night battle against the Houston Texans. Tom Brady passed for 226 yards and a pair of touchdowns to help with Patriots win 27-6 and break the rare losing skid. The Patriots defense recorded five sacks and allowed only a pair of field goals in the dominating effort.

As a result of the victory, the Patriots clinched a playoff berth. With one more win or a Jets loss, they will seal their seventh consecutive AFC East title to match the Los Angeles Rams (1973-79) for the most consecutive division titles in NFL history.

With the Patriots getting to the 11-win mark against the Texans, Bill Belichick recorded the 13th 11-win season of his head coaching career to tie Don Shula for the most in NFL history. Belichick has 12 seasons with at least 11 wins with New England and one such season with Cleveland.

Brady is in his 16th season with the Patriots. Already this season he became the fourth NFL player to reach 400 career touchdown passes and the fourth player in history with at least 30 or more touchdown passes in six different seasons. Brady leads the NFL with 4,138 passing yards in 2015, and against the Texans, he became the third player in NFL history with at least eight 4,000-yard passing seasons.

A TITANS VICTORY WOULD ...

- Give the Titans their first win over the Patriots at Gillette Stadium.
- Break the team's five-game losing skid to the Patriots.
- Improve Marcus Mariota's starting record to 4-8.
- Improve Mike Mularkey's career record as a head coach to 18-36.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

- QB Marcus Mariota needs four touchdown passes to become the third player in franchise history to pass for four touchdowns at least three times in a season, joining George Blanda (1960, 1961) and Warren Moon (1990).
- QB Marcus Mariota can become the first rookie in NFL history to complete three or more touchdown passes in five different games.
- QB Marcus Mariota (19 touchdown passes) needs one touchdown pass to become the 10th rookie in NFL history with at least 20 touchdown passes (Jameis Winston has 18 this season).
- QB Marcus Mariota (2,786 passing yards) needs 214 passing yards to record the 17th 3,000-yard season in team history and the first since Matt Hasselbeck in 2011.
- TE Delanie Walker (74 receptions in 2015) needs six receptions to record the 13th 80-catch season in franchise history.
- TE Delanie Walker (871 receiving yards in 2015) needs 20 receiving yards to set a new career high and break his own franchise tight end record of 890 receiving yards in 2014.
- TE Delanie Walker (197 receptions with the Titans) needs three catches to pass Alvin Reed (199) for third on the franchise's all-time receptions list among tight ends and become the third tight end in franchise history to reach 200 receptions (Frank Wycheck and Bo Scaife).
- WR Kendall Wright (248 career receptions for 2,810 yards) needs two receptions to reach 250 for his career. He needs four receptions to pass Bo Scaife (251) for 13th place on the team's all-time receptions list and needs nine yards to pass Alvin Reed (2,818) for 15th place on the team's all-time receiving yards list.

TITANS-PATRIOTS SERIES HISTORY

The Houston Oilers and Boston Patriots were charter members of the American Football League in 1960. In the league's inaugural season, the Oilers swept both games, winning 24-10 in New England and 37-21 in Houston. The teams met 20 times as part of the AFL (1960-69), with the Patriots earning a 10-9-1 advantage.

Upon the AFL-NFL merger in 1970, the Oilers moved to the AFC Central Division, and the Patriots began play in the AFC East. They officially became the New England Patriots in 1971.

Since 1989, the Patriots and Titans have met 10 times, and all but three of those games were played in New England.

The most recent Titans-Patriots contest was played at Nissan Stadium to open the 2012 campaign (Sept. 9), with the Patriots prevailing 34-13. Titans quarterback Jake Locker made his first career start and completed 23 of 32 passes for 229 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown pass to Nate Washington. However, Locker and Washington were both forced out of the game due to injury on the same play early in the fourth quarter. Meanwhile, Patriots quarterback Tom Brady was 23-of-31 for 236 yards and two touchdowns. The win gave the Patriots a 23-16-1 overall advantage in the series.

The last time the Titans traveled to New England, they suffered the worst loss in franchise history with a 59-0 defeat in a snowy Gillette Stadium on Oct. 18, 2009. In the victory, Patriots Brady passed for 380 yards and six touchdowns.

In the 2006 regular-season finale at Nissan Stadium, the Titans needed a victory against the Patriots to clinch a playoff berth. However, a 40-23 loss dropped their record to 8-8 and ended their Wild Card hopes.

The clubs met in New England in a 2003 AFC Divisional Playoff game at Gillette Stadium. In the coldest game in Oilers/Titans history (four degrees at kickoff), the Titans fell to the Patriots by a final score of 17-14. The game was tied at 14 going into the fourth quarter, but Adam Vinatieri booted a 46-yard field goal with four minutes to play that would prove to be the game-winner. Tennessee had a shot at the end as Drew Bennett caught two passes from Steve McNair in the final two minutes, but a third pass to Bennett fell incomplete on fourth-and-12, ending the drive. New England advanced to the AFC Championship and ultimately won Super Bowl XXVIII.

The 2003 playoff game was the second postseason contest between the teams. In a 1978 Divisional Playoff contest, the Oilers traveled to Schaefer Stadium and advanced with a 31-14 win, courtesy of three touchdown passes by Dan Pastorini and 118 rushing yards by Earl Campbell.

TITANS-PATRIOTS: THE LAST MEETING

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 34 at Tennessee Titans 13

Sunday, Sept. 9, 2012

Nissan Stadium, Nashville, Tenn.

CLICK FOR: VIDEO | PLAY-BY-PLAY | QUOTES

In the season opener at Nissan Stadium, Tom Brady passed for 236 yards and two touchdowns as the Patriots defeated the Titans 34-13.

Brady, who completed 23 of 31 passes with no interceptions, had help from New England's ground game. Running back Stevan Ridley rushed for 125 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries, helping the Patriots control the clock for more than 31 minutes.

Second-year signal caller Jake Locker recorded his first career start for the Titans, only to exit the game early with injury. He was 23-of-32 for 229 yards, one touchdown and one interception before hurting his left shoulder making a tackle in the fourth quarter.

Early in the game, Locker helped the Titans jump out to a 3-0 lead. After receiving the opening kickoff, they moved into New England territory, where they faced a fourth-and-one at the 37-yard line. Locker completed a 24-yard pass to Nate Washington to keep the drive alive, leading to a 28-yard field goal by Rob Bironas.

After an exchange of punts, the Patriots marched down the field to score their first of three first-half touchdowns with a 23-yard touchdown reception by tight end Aaron Hernandez.

In the second quarter, Locker had a costly turnover. On a third-and-13 from his own seven-yard line, he was sacked by Chandler Jones and lost the football. Linebacker Dont'a Hightower recovered the loose ball and then scored on a six-yard return to put the Patriots up 14-3.

Later in the second stanza, the Patriots took 12 plays to march 67 yards on a drive that included only one play more than nine yards. Brady and Gronkowski finished it with a two-yard touchdown pass.

Trailing 21-3 at the start of the second half, the Titans cut the deficit on their first opportunity of the third quarter. A reception by tight end Jared Cook gained 35 yards, and three plays later, Washington scored on a 29-yard pass.

The momentum was short-lived. The Patriots, working with a short field after a Titans punt, needed six plays to go 48 yards, and Ridley scored on a one-yard run to make the score 28-10.

While driving the offense on the ensuing series, Locker attempted a pass for Washington less than a minute into the fourth quarter. Originally ruled a catch and fumble, the ball was picked up by safety Patrick Chung, who raced 49 yards before Locker tackled him. The play left both Washington and Locker injured on the field, Washington with a leg contusion and Locker with a left shoulder injury. Neither would return. However, the officials' ruling on the field was reversed, and the pass was determined to be incomplete.

Matt Hasselbeck finished the series—and the game—for the Titans and put Bironas in position for a 24-yard field goal. It would be Tennessee's final score of the game, while Stephen Gostkowski of the Patriots added consecutive field goals of 25 and 31 yards to close out the contest.

Bill Belichick is in his 41st season as an NFL coach, his 21st season as an NFL head coach and his 16th season as the head coach of the Patriots.

In 2014, Belichick won his fourth Super Bowl, tying Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll for most Super Bowl wins by a head coach. Belichick is one of only five head coaches with four or more titles in NFL history. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl championships in a four-year span.

From 2000–2014, Belichick delivered four Super Bowl championships, six conference titles, 12 division crowns and 21 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 196-73. Through 2014, the Patriots won six consecutive division championships, one title shy of the seven won by the L.A. Rams (1973-79). Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003), XXXIX (2004) and XLIX (2014), and in 2007 he became the only NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. From 2003 to 2004, Belichick directed the Patriots to a winning streak of 21 consecutive games, including the postseason.

In 2013, Belichick guided New England to a 12-4 record, a fifth consecutive AFC East crown and third straight appearance in the AFC Championship Game. With his fifth victory of the season in 2013, Belichick passed Chuck Noll for fifth place on the NFL wins list with his 210th win as a head coach. With the victory over Indianapolis in the Divisional Playoff, Belichick collected his 19th playoff win to tie Don Shula (19) for the second most postseason wins among head coaches.

From 2003-12, Belichick won more regular-season games (126) and more games overall (140) over a 10-year stretch than any other head coach in NFL history.

In 2007, Belichick earned Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year honors as the Patriots became the fourth team in the league's 90-year history to complete an undefeated regular season.

In 2006, Belichick directed the Patriots to a berth in the AFC Championship game for the third time in four years and for the fourth time in six seasons. In 2005, New England won 11 games despite being forced to use 45 different starters, an NFL record for a division champion. New England capped off the 2004 season with another memorable playoff run, culminating in a 24-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

In 2001, his second season in charge, the Patriots rebounded from a 5-11 record in 2000 to improve to 11- 5, tying what was then the franchise regular-season record for wins. With a 20-17 victory over the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, the Patriots tied the franchise's then-record of 14 overall wins. In 2003 and 2004, the Patriots eclipsed those marks in each season, posting identical 14-2 records in the regular season and notching 17 total wins and a Super Bowl title in each year.

Born in Nashville, Belichick grew up in Annapolis, Md., and later was a center and tight end at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn. He launched his coaching career in 1975 with the Baltimore Colts and continued as an assistant coach with Detroit (1976-77), Denver (1978) and the New York Giants (1979-1990).

The Jets took an early lead at MetLife Stadium and never relinquished it, ultimately defeating the Titans by a final score of 30-8.

The Jets possessed the ball for an overwhelming majority of the game—nearly 36 minutes (24:04 for the Titans)—and outgained the Titans 439 yards to 292, including a disparity of 183 rushing yards by the Jets to 24 by the Titans. On third down, the Jets converted 47 percent (seven-of-15) of their attempts.

Jets quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick was 21-of-36 passing for 263 yards and three touchdowns without throwing an interception. He routinely looked to his starting wide receivers, Eric Decker and Brandon Marshall, who combined for 13 receptions for 199 yards. Decker caught seven passes for 74 yards and a touchdown, while Marshall posted six receptions for 125 yards and a score.

The Jets built a 27-0 lead at halftime by scoring on five of their six possessions in the first two quarters. They did not punt the football until nearly the midway point of the third quarter.

Meanwhile, the Titans offense, led by rookie quarterback Marcus Mariota, was unable to solve the Jets defense on a regular basis. Mariota completed 21 of his 39 passes for 274 yards with an interception, and he was sacked five times for 47 yards. He did, however, provide the team's only touchdown on a 41-yard reception.

The Jets got the scoring started on the opening possession of the game. Fitzpatrick picked up 19 yards on a run, and he followed that with a 16-yard touchdown pass to Decker.

The Jets had two more opportunities to add to their lead in the first quarter and capitalized on one of them. Kicker Randy Bullock missed a 53-yard field goal at the end of the team's second drive, but then he drilled a 47-yarder to cap an eight-play, 51-yard series.

On the last play of the first quarter, the Titans got their initial first down of the contest on a 27-yard completion from Mariota to rookie wide receiver Dorial Green-Beckham. But three plays later, Mariota's attempted pass to running back Dexter McCluster was intercepted by cornerback Buster Skrine.

Marcus Mariota scored on a 41-yard reception against the Jets.

The Jets took over at the Tennessee 35 and kept the drive alive on a sneak by Fitzpatrick to convert a fourth-and-one. But they settled again for a field goal, this time from 27 yards to take a 13-0 lead with 9:22 remaining in the second quarter.

On New York's next drive, Chris Ivory took a handoff for 32 of his 101 rushing yards on the day. Then, Fitzpatrick dumped off a pass to another Jets running back Bilal Powell, who took the ball 16 yards for a touchdown to finish the seven-play, 72-yard march.

The Jets only needed one play to score on their next possession. From their own 31-yard line, they lined up Marshall outside to the right side. When the Titans failed to assign a defender to him, Fitzpatrick tossed it quickly, and Marshall outraced the defense for a 69-yard score.

The Titans finally got on the scoreboard inside the final five minutes of the third quarter. Following a 28-yard pickup on a reception by McCluster, Mariota motioned out to the right side on the next play. Running back Antonio Andrews took the snap and then completed a 41-yard touchdown reception to the quarterback. The Titans then added a two-point conversion on a pass from Mariota to McCluster.

It would not be enough. The Jets added a 42-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to provide their final 22-point victory margin.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK'S GAME

MARIOTA PASSES FOR 274 YARDS: Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota completed 21 of 39 passes for 274 yards at the Jets. The yardage total was the third highest of his rookie season through 13 games. In the fourth quarter, he recorded the third-longest completion of his rookie season when he found wide receiver Harry Douglas for a 51-yard pass. Mariota's 39 attempts were his most since throwing a season-high 44 passes against the Indianapolis Colts on Sept. 27.

MARIOTA ADDS TD CATCH TO LIST OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS: In the third quarter, quarterback Marcus Mariota split out wide in the offensive formation, leaving running back Antonio Andrews as the lone back. After the shotgun snap, Andrews rolled right and lofted a pass down the sideline to Mariota, who finished the play for a 41-yard touchdown. Mariota became the first quarterback in franchise history to record a touchdown reception. He also became the first NFL player in 2015 to pass for a touchdown, rush for a touchdown and catch a touchdown pass. Prior to Mariota's feat, the last player to record touchdowns of at least 40 yards passing, rushing and receiving in the same season was Walter Payton in 1983.

WALKER LEADS TEAM AGAIN: Tight end Delanie Walker led the Titans with seven receptions and 71 yards. It marked the seventh time this season Walker has recorded team highs in both categories. He has led or tied for the team lead in either receptions or receiving yards in every game since Week 3.

WALKER BREAKS WYCHECK'S MARK: In the fourth quarter, Delanie Walker recorded his fourth reception of the game. On the catch—his 71st of the season—he broke Frank Wycheck's franchise record for the most receptions in a season by a tight end. Wycheck set the record by hauling in 70 passes in 1998, and he matched the mark in 2000. Walker's season totals now include 74 receptions for 871 yards and four touchdowns. He leads the team in all three categories.

ANDREWS PASSES FOR A TOUCHDOWN: With his 41-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Mariota, Antonio Andrews, a former high school quarterback, became the first non-quarterback to complete a touchdown pass for the Titans since wide receiver Drew Bennett did so at Green Bay on Oct. 11, 2004. Andrews' touchdown pass was the longest in the NFL by a non-quarterback since wide receiver Mohamed Sanu's 73-yard touchdown throw for the Bengals against the Redskins on Sept. 23, 2012.

BIG PLAY BY DOUGLAS: In the fourth quarter, Harry Douglas turned a quick pass into a 51-yard gain. The reception was Douglas' longest of the season and the fourth-longest of his eight-year career. Douglas finished the contest with 65 yards on three total receptions.

ELEVEN PLAYERS WITH A TD RECEPTION: When Marcus Mariota caught a touchdown pass at New York, he became the 11th Titans player in 2015 to record at least one touchdown reception. The 11 players with a touchdown catch are the most in franchise history. Prior to 2015, only the 1961 Oilers team had as many as 10 players with a touchdown reception.

ROSTERS

Karl Klug recorded a sack last week against the Jets.

KLUG RECORDS SACK: On the final play of the third quarter, Karl Klug notched a seven-yard sack of Ryan Fitzpatrick, giving the fifth-year defensive lineman 18 career sacks. Klug's 3.5 sacks in 2015 are the most he has had in a season since recording 3.5 sacks in 2012.

TAVAI, TURZILLI MAKE DEBUTS: A pair of undrafted rookies made their NFL regular season debuts against the Jets: outside linebacker J.R. Tavai and wide receiver Andrew Turzilli. They became the 13th and 14th rookies to play in a game for the Titans this season. Turzilli made his first NFL catch in the second quarter for 18 yards and added a seven-yard catch in the third quarter.

PENALTIES DOWN AGAIN: The Titans were penalized only three times against the Jets for 20 yards. The three penalties were the team's fewest since having one penalty against the Pittsburgh Steelers on Nov. 17, 2014, and the 20 penalty yards were the fewest by the Titans since they were penalized 20 yards against the Indianapolis Colts on Dec. 28, 2014. Over the last five weeks, the Titans have averaged 4.2 penalties per game after averaging 7.4 penalties during their first eight games.

TWO-POINT CONVERSION SUCCESS: The Titans were successful on a two-point conversion attempt when running back Dexter McCluster scored on a pass from Marcus Mariota. The Titans have converted three of their four attempts on two-point conversions in 2015, marking the first time since 2006 they scored three times on two-point conversions. The team record is four two-point conversions in a season, set in 1994.

INACTIVES: The Titans' seven inactive players were wide receiver Kendall Wright, running back Bishop Sankey, cornerback Blidi Wreh-Wilson, offensive lineman Jamon Meredith, outside linebacker Derrick Morgan, and defensive linemen Mike Martin and Ropati Pitoitua. Wright (ribs), Morgan (shoulder) and Martin (knee) were listed on the injury report leading up to the game.

(opening statement)

Well, that was not good. The first half was a good example of (if) you play poorly in all three phases you're going to have a hard time against a good football team, let alone anybody in this league. And really we played poorly in all three phases for one reason or another. The start was not fast in any phase and give credit to them, they played a good game, played a real good game, a solid game, didn't make a lot of mistakes, and we made lots. It's got to be corrected.

(on the slow start on offense)

Well, I'll take the first series – we have a drop on the first play. You're trying to be aggressive on the first play of the game, you're trying to make a statement to your whole team. We said we were going to throw the ball more than we have down the field, and we get a drop. The second play we overset protection and should have had another play to Delanie (Walker) on a slant, it gets batted down. Third play, again, it's hard to get guys wide open. We had Delanie wide open again on another route and had an overthrow by Marcus (Mariota). It was just something here or there. Third down, obviously, in the first half on both sides was very poor.

(on if there was a lack of concentration)

That's what you think immediately when you see guys dropping (passes); your go-to guys. And sometimes I think they think they need to do more than they're doing. Delanie, he said, 'I was trying to run before I caught it.' That kind of started the whole day.

(on the Jets defense getting after Mariota)

That's their blitz package, that's the personnel that they have. A couple things we had breakdowns (on). One protection we could have gotten out of, another one that he took a hit on, Marcus saw it. Again, all the things that we saw today are good for Marcus and our young guys. A lot of young guys on offense played a lot. That's a good defense and for them to have to come in here and play these guys on the road, that was some experience that they're going to have to take away from here and hopefully get better from it. But we could have gotten out of some of those things. After the fact we saw it. 'Hey, I should have done this.' Well, next time he will.

(on if this is a step backwards after last week)

I think it's disappointing. It's obviously disappointing. We're better than that, and they all know we're better than that. They didn't need me to tell them that. But I will say this – I thought they came out and responded better in the second half. I thought it was two different halves. Obviously, not a lot of points but it was not what you saw the first half when these guys came out.

(on if Mariota was confused)

No, I wouldn't say that. He's got a lot on his plate, and again, in a lot of third downs we had to hold the ball. They were very well schemed with really good players. That wasn't as much confusion as it was trying to dodge some of these guys, (to) get out of their way.

(on Brandon Marshall's touchdown)

That was (when) our headsets went down that series prior to running out there so there was no communication to upstairs or to the linebackers. So again, not an excuse but we had no communication to the field or upstairs. And that doesn't give us any reason not to still cover an uncovered receiver. So there was no call. We had no defensive call in. We were waiting on the call and we were waiting to see. And the call, again, is going to base who we match up on and there was no communication at all.

(on how much of a backbreaker Marshall's touchdown was)

It's huge, just huge.

(on how long the headsets were malfunctioning)

Just the series. By the time we knew, the play was over. It wasn't like we could go, 'Hey.' It was just those two (plays).

(on if somebody should have recognized Marshall was uncovered)

We have to talk about it, obviously, as a staff. We can't leave guys uncovered, especially when the center is over the ball. We can't do that. It'll happen again if we do that again.

(on talking to the defense to calm them down after the Marshall touchdown)

I did. They're all frustrated. They're not frustrated at each other. They're frustrated about what took place and what was happening. Really, not stopping them that first half. When you defer you're trying to get the ball, see if we can hold them, and get a good field position. When they go down and score a touchdown, those are the things that just kind of build up. That play, that topped it off. I just felt like I needed to go over and say something to those guys. And again, they were very responsive. No long faces. We have a lot of football to go. And I just said, 'This is not who we are. We have not been like this all year.' And I thought they responded in the second half. I do.

(on how long they had practiced Antonio Andrews' touchdown pass to Mariota)

That was new for this week. We had seen Houston do it and they actually covered it better. Houston just motioned their quarterback out, (T.J.) Yates, and they didn't pay much attention to Yates. I had a feeling Marcus was a little different than T.J. Yates going out there. And fortunately he ran by them. The guy fell down trying to stop it. But it was well executed.

(on how the play was executed in practice)

It was not real good in practice the first couple of times. And then Saturday we went through the mechanics in detail again one more time. And I said to Marcus, because we got up to the ball late, I didn't want to show the play, there was 14 seconds so I called timeout because I thought, 'This is a touchdown.' I thought it was a touchdown during the week and then when we called it I told Marcus, 'I'll see you when you get done scoring after the play.' I knew the play was going to be there, but we had to get it to a certain point on the field and we had to get it to the right hash to call the play. So, we knew we were going to get the play called.

(on if Andrews sold him on having a good arm)

Yeah. It was a good throw today. It was a better throw than he threw during the week.

(on if there could have been better tackling on Bilal Powell's touchdown reception)

Yes. Tackling was questionable today.

(on why they ran Dexter McCluster up the middle)

It was a trap. We've seen traps have been successful against them and we couldn't get to the linebacker. It was one of the better runs against this defense when they went nickel.

(on what he thought of the team's effort in the first half)

There were some loafs. Yeah, there was, I thought, which we'll correct. But as far as effort, I thought it picked up in the second half.

(on if this game is part of Mariota's learning curve)

Yeah, like I said, he takes this all in. He's learning a lot in his first year. This is Week 14. We're playing a team that's vying for the playoffs in their place. We knew it was going to be a good environment with this crowd. And we're going against a very good defense. It's a good defense. He's a young quarterback. He's working with some young guys on our team, on our offense, that it's going to be good for every one of them.

(on how much they miss Jason McCourty)

Obviously, when you lose a starter it hurts your defense. Without (Derrick) Morgan it's been difficult. Probably a little harder on (Brian) Orakpo. Anytime you lose a starter it's going to affect your team somehow.

(on if the team is losing on separation on offense and defense)

Well, I think that obviously there were going to be some matchups today with their secondary, and we have young receivers who really probably haven't faced some of these guys with their capabilities. Again, (it's) a good learning lesson for them. Really, on both sides, if you think about it, young (receivers) against some experienced receivers, Marshall and (Eric) Decker. They're good players and we have some young guys that are trying to do their best against them. But there are some matchup issues.

(on why there were effort issues in the first half)

When I say, 'Loaf,' it was more of not trying to tackle. Finish the tackle. Finish the play. No, I'm going to find that out.

(on why Perrish Cox did not try to tackle Powell on his touchdown run)

That's the one I'm addressing that I remember, that sticks out, more than any of them.

(on if he wanted Cox to front Powell)

I want him to tackle him.

QB MARCUS MARIOTA

(on why the offense struggled in the first half)

Third down. We weren't able to convert, really any third downs. Hats off to the Jets defense. They did a good job of changing up their looks and bringing different pressures.

(on how challenging it can be facing a defense that blitzes often)

I can do a better job of moving our protections or getting us out of things to help those guys up front. I thought those guys for the most part up front did a good job and I've just got to do a better job of getting us in better plays.

(on trying to get the team back after facing a large deficit)

When that happens you've just got to take one play at a time. The mentality of our team wasn't any different. Guys were putting in all the effort that they could. Sometimes it just happens. It's the way the ball bounces sometimes.

(on whether he thought his intended target was supposed to run a different route on the interception)

No. Number 41 (Buster Skrine) I think it was, played it pretty well. We had the matchup we wanted inside. He just kind of covered it well. I should've just eaten the ball instead of putting our team in a bad spot.

(on the last time he caught a touchdown pass)

Sometime in college.

(on his receiving touchdown)

Sometimes it happens that way. The guys did a great job of selling it. Antonio (Andrews) made a good throw. I just had an opportunity and yeah, it is what it is.

(on whether he was concerned about catching the ball when it was in the air)

No, not too much. I played receiver growing up. I had some experiences in high school playing receiver. So, I was pretty comfortable.

(on how his life has changed since one year ago when he won the Heisman Trophy in New York)

Well, my whole life's changed. I've experienced a lot of different things. Coming out of college, being a part of this now, being a professional, it's been an incredible ride and I'm very blessed to be a part of this journey. It's been a crazy year for sure.

(on whether he was disappointed in how the team performed coming off of last week's victory)

It's tough. This is the NFL. I thought we were going to be able to use our momentum a little bit, but the Jets played well. They did a good job of holding us as an offense and making plays. So, it is what it is.

(on the drive in the second half when the offense was moving the ball, but then had three straight plays of negative yardage)

I've got to hold onto the football. I put us in a really bad spot. That really kind of killed the momentum of that drive. Again, the defensive player, whoever kind of stripped me of the ball and did a good job. I tried to avoid the first one and he kind of swiped the ball which again just kind of put us in a bad spot. I needed to be better.

(on the offense being without Kendall Wright)

Kendall's a very dynamic player for us. He's very versatile. He can play inside and outside. It's unfortunate he wasn't able to play today because he really does bring another dimension to our offense, but we're going to do our best to get him healthy and get him back on the field.

RB ANTONIO ANDREWS

(on his 41-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Mariota)

I made bad throws this week when we practiced the play, but running at game speed it worked. I told Coach Mularkey I'm a game time player and that I will be ready come game time. We took the play from Houston. Earlier this season they ran a play with the quarterback lined up outside at receiver.

(on Marcus Mariota as a receiver)

He's a well-rounded athlete. He can catch, throw and everything in between.

(on the mindset with three games left)

Finish strong. Don't give up.

WR HARRY DOUGLAS

(on why today's game was different than their other recent games)

You never want to go down. You never go into the game wanting to start slow. We always harp and preach on starting fast. We didn't do that today offensively, defensively and on special teams. It was a rough one in the first half. When you come out in the second half you have to put it behind you and go hard no matter what and trim down the lead.

(on why they started slow)

We just didn't execute. We didn't do the things we needed to do to be productive in any phase. We're going to go back and watch the tape and correct those things that we didn't do well.

(on if today's game was a false representation of the strides they have made)

It's one game. We know the team that we are. We know what we're capable of. It's definitely not the team that we are, what we showed today. We're going to go back and work even harder to get a win next week.

SELECT TITANS POSTGAME QUOTES

LB BRIAN ORAKPO

(on why today's game was different than their other recent games)

They got the best of us (during) that first half. Things just weren't going our way. They came out ready to play. I felt like we were very sluggish for whatever reason. We definitely needed to address that during the half. We did, but you can't start like that if you plan to win games.

(on why he thinks today was different)

I don't know. It's hard to say because we all, all phases, started very slow and those guys on the other side obviously felt like they were playing for something. It was tough to recover. We definitely made some adjustments come halftime. We came out a lot better, but we can't expect to win games when you start like that. That's definitely going to be addressed.

CB COTY SENSABAUGH

(on Brandon Marshall's 69 yard touchdown reception)

The headsets ran out. We were looking at the sidelines to get the play call and by the time we realized it, they were running the play. Usually the referee spots the ball and says, "Come on", or there will be a whistle. Everyone on our side said they didn't hear a whistle.

(on the Jets offense in the first half)

They came out quick and I don't think we got them off the field at all in the first half. In the second half we played better, but you can't play the type of first half we played and expect to win the game.

(on wide receivers getting open against their defense)

That's what they get paid to do. I think we did a good job except for a couple plays. We will go back and watch the film and see what happened.

Week 7 • Oct. 25, 2015 • FALCONS 10 at Titans 7 • 1-5

Starting for an injured Marcus Mariota, Titans quarterback Zach Mettenberger is intercepted twice, including once in the final two minutes with the Titans in Atlanta territory...Falcons running back Devonta Freeman rushes for 116 yards on 25 carries...Matt Ryan passes for 251 yards for the Falcons, while Julio Jones records 92 receiving yards and the game-winning touchdown in the third quarter...The Titans produce a late goal-line stand to keep the deficit at three points...The Falcons limit the Titans to one-of-nine on third down.

Week 8 • Nov. 1, 2015 • Titans 6 at TEXANS 20 • 1-6

The Texans sack Zach Mettenberger seven times, including 3.5 sacks by linebacker Whitney Mercilus and 2.5 sacks by J.J. Watt ... The Texans force three turnovers (one interception and two fumbles) ... Texans quarterback Brian Hoyer passes for 235 yards, including a 21-yard touchdown to DeAndre Hopkins and a 42-yard touchdown to Nate Washington ... Hopkins totals eight receptions for 94 yards ... The Titans are limited to 1-of-12 on third down.

Week 9 • Nov. 8, 2015 • TITANS 34 at Saints 28 (OT) • 2-6

Marcus Mariota's fourth touchdown pass is a five-yarder to Anthony Fasano in overtime ... Mariota goes 28-of-39 for 371 yards and no interceptions ... He ties the game in the fourth quarter with a touchdown pass to Justin Hunter and two-point conversion to Delanie Walker ... The Titans force two turnovers and sack Drew Brees (28-of-39 for 387 yards) four times ... Walker registers two touchdown catches, including a 61-yarder ... The teams combine for 899 yards of offense, including 483 by the Titans.

Week 10 • Nov. 15, 2015 • PANTHERS 27 at Titans 10 • 2-7

Cam Newton completes his first 11 passes, completes a touchdown pass and rushes for one more as Carolina remains undefeated (9-0) ... Carolina's defense limits the Titans to 242 yards and 11 first downs and forces two turnovers ... The Titans record five sacks, the most allowed by the Panthers through nine games ... Greg Olsen records 80 yards on eight receptions, while Jonathan Stewart rushes for 91 yards for the Panthers.

Week 11 • Nov. 19, 2015 • Titans 13 at JAGUARS 19 • 2-8

Rashad Greene's 63-yard punt return sets up a late go-ahead touchdown pass from Blake Bortles to Julius Thomas in Jacksonville's Thursday night victory ... Jason Myers' final field goal (four-of-four during the game) comes after the Jaguars defense recovers a fumble with less than four minutes remaining ... The Titans take the lead in the third quarter on a 23-yard run by Marcus Mariota ... Each team records four sacks.

Week 12 • Nov. 29, 2015 • RAIDERS 24 at Titans 21 • 2-9

Raiders quarterback Derek Carr passes for 330 yards and three touchdowns, including the game-winner in the final two minutes ... Roberts (113) and Amari Cooper (115) each go over 100 receiving yards ... Marcus Mariota throws three touchdown passes but is intercepted twice ... Raiders outgain the Titans 407 yards to 249 and limit the Titans to 44 rushing yards.

Week 13 • Dec. 6, 2015 • Jaguars 39 at TITANS 42 • 3-9

Marcus Mariota passes for three touchdowns and adds an 87-yard rushing touchdown to outduel Jaguars quarterback Blake Bortles, who passes for 322 yards and five touchdowns ... The teams combine for 41 points in the fourth quarter ... Linebacker Wesley Woodyard scores what prove to be the deciding points on a three-yard fumble return ... Allen Robinson catches 10 passes for 153 yards and three touchdowns for the Jaguars, while Dorial Green-Beckham contributes 119 yards and a touchdown on five catches for the Titans.

Week 14 • Dec. 13, 2015 • Titans 8 at JETS 30 • 3-10

The Jets score 27 unanswered points in the first half, scoring on five of their first six drives ... Ryan Fitzpatrick passes for 263 yards and three touchdowns for the Jets, while Chris Ivory (101 yards) leads New York's rushing efforts ... Brandon Marshall records 125 receiving yards, including a 69-yard score ... Marcus Mariota scores Tennessee's only touchdown on a 41-yard pass from running back Antonio Andrews ... The Jets defense notches five sacks, while the offense records 439 yards and possesses the ball for 35:56.

GENERAL MANAGER RUSTON WEBSTER

Ruston Webster is entering his fourth season as executive vice president/general manager in 2015. He served two seasons as Titans vice president of player personnel before he was elevated to his current position on Jan. 18, 2012.

Early in the 2015 offseason, Webster engineered deals with several players. The Titans gave new contracts to outside linebacker Derrick Morgan, punter Brett Kern, kicker Ryan Succop and defensive lineman Karl Klug, retaining the services of key performers who were eligible to sign with other clubs. Additionally, they tapped the free agent market to land outside linebacker Brian Orakpo (formerly with the Washington Redskins), wide receiver Harry Douglas (Atlanta Falcons), safety Da'Norris Searcy (Buffalo Bills), tight end Anthony Fasano (Kansas City Chiefs) and cornerback Perrish Cox (San Francisco 49ers).

In the 2015 NFL Draft, Webster spearheaded the decision to draft Oregon quarterback Marcus Mariota with the second overall selection. Mariota won the Heisman Trophy in 2014 at the conclusion of a three-year career in which he recorded 10,796 passing yards and 2,237 rushing yards. It was the highest draft pick the Titans/Oilers ever used on a quarterback.

In 2014, the Titans' free agent acquisitions included running back Dexter McCluster (Chiefs), backup quarterback Charlie Whitehurst (San Diego Chargers), defensive lineman Al Woods (Pittsburgh Steelers) and linebacker Wesley Woodyard (Denver Broncos).

With the 11th overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft, Webster led the Titans' selection of tackle Taylor Lewan, a 6-foot-7 Associated Press All-American and four-year starter at Michigan. Lewan played in 11 games with six starts as a rookie and was named to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team.

Lewan headlined a six-member draft class that also included Washington running back Bishop Sankey (second round), Penn State defensive lineman DaQuan Jones (fourth round), Wyoming defensive back Marqueston Huff (fourth round), Kentucky linebacker Avery Williamson (fifth round) and Louisiana State quarterback Zach Mettenberger (sixth round). Sankey led the team in rushing as a rookie (569 yards), while Williamson recorded 107 tackles, the most of any Titans rookie since 1999. Mettenberger became the third quarterback in franchise history to start six or more games as a rookie, recording a team-high 1,412 passing yards.

During the 2013 offseason, Webster brought unrestricted free agent tight end Delanie Walker to Tennessee from San Francisco. Walker became the only tight end in franchise history other than Frank Wycheck to reach 60 receptions in a single season, accomplishing the feat in both 2013 and 2014. In 2014, he set a new franchise record for a tight end, registering 890 receiving yards.

Webster made Alabama guard Chance Warmack the first of eight total selections in the 2013 NFL Draft, which also featured second-round wide receiver Justin Hunter. Warmack became the team's fourth rookie since 1999 to start all 32 games in his first two NFL seasons, and Hunter's 18.5-yard receiving average during that timespan led the NFL (minimum 40 receptions). Another 2013 draft pick, fourth-round center Brian Schwenke, started 20 total games in his first two campaigns.

In total, players Webster obtained during the 2013 offseason via the draft or free agency combined for a total of 257 games played and 129 starts in their first season with the Titans.

In his first draft as general manager in 2012, Webster upgraded the offensive speed and athleticism with the first-round selection of Kendall Wright, a wide receiver from Baylor and the first in a seven-member draft class. Wright totaled 215 receptions from 2012 through 2014, the most in franchise history in a player's first three seasons with the club. In 2013, he ranked seventh in the NFL with 94 receptions while notching his first 1,000-yard season (1,079).

The Titans' 2012 second-round pick, North Carolina linebacker Zach Brown, was the only player that season to finish among the top five rookies in both interceptions (three) and sacks (5.5). Fourth-round cornerback Coty Sensabaugh (43 games, 12 starts) played extensively in the nickel and base defensive packages in his first three seasons.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee in 2010, Webster gained 22 years of personnel experience split between the Seattle Seahawks and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In his four years in Seattle, Webster was the vice president of player personnel and oversaw the day-to-day management of the pro personnel and college scouting departments.

Webster spent 18 years with Tampa Bay in a variety of roles, including the director of player personnel (2005), director of college scouting (2001-04), director of pro personnel (1989-91) and regional college scout (1988, Northeast; 1992, South; 1993, Midwest; 1995-2000, Southwest). He was a part of the front office staff that helped build the Super Bowl XXXVII Champion Buccaneers in 2002.

Webster started his career as a college coach with stops as a graduate assistant at Southwestern Louisiana (1985), Alabama (1986) and Tulsa (1987).

INTERIM HEAD COACH MIKE MULARKEY

Click For Complete Online Bio

Mike Mularkey was named head coach of the Titans on Nov. 3, 2015, replacing Ken Whisenhunt seven games into the regular season. He joined the Titans in 2014 as tight ends coach and was elevated to assistant head coach prior to the start of the 2015 season.

Mularkey has 20 years of NFL coaching experience, including three seasons as a head coach and eight as an offensive coordinator, with coaching stops in Jacksonville, Atlanta, Miami, Buffalo, Pittsburgh and Tampa Bay. In five of the eight seasons he was a coordinator Mularkey's team went to the playoffs.

As a former NFL tight end, Mularkey played a total of 114 games in nine seasons with the Minnesota Vikings and Pittsburgh Steelers. His experience as a player has molded his style as a position coach. Including his rookie preseason with the 49ers, Mularkey spent his career playing for three of the NFL's legendary coaches in Bill Walsh, Bud Grant and Chuck Noll. As an assistant coach Mularkey has served on the staffs of Sam Wyche, Bill Cowher, Nick Saban, Cam Cameron, Mike Smith and Ken Whisenhunt.

Last year under Mularkey's tutelage, TE Delanie Walker set a franchise mark for receiving yards by a tight end with 890 and the best reception total (63) of his career. His totals led the team in both receptions and receiving yards for 2014. Walker also posted the second-highest yardage game total by a franchise tight end with 155 yards against Philadelphia.

Mularkey joined the Titans after one season (2012) with the Jacksonville Jaguars as the franchise's fourth head coach, and four seasons (2008-11) with the Atlanta Falcons as offensive coordinator. Over the four-year time span with the Falcons, the team advanced to the postseason three times, ranked ninth in the NFL in total yards (354.8 per game), seventh in points (24.5), eighth in rushing yards (125.7), third in fewest turnovers (84), fourth in fewest sacks allowed (93), and sixth in third down conversions (44.2).

In three of the four years with the Falcons, Mularkey's offense produced a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season. His guidance saw the rise of QB Matt Ryan, WR Roddy White, RB Michael Turner; and the continued growth of TE Tony Gonzalez, who totaled 233 receptions and 19 touchdowns in their three years together. In 2010, Sporting News named Mularkey "Coordinator of the Year."

Prior to his time with the Falcons, Mularkey spent two seasons (2006-07) with the Miami Dolphins as the offensive coordinator in 2006, and tight ends coach in 2007. He joined the Dolphins after serving as head coach for the Buffalo Bills for two seasons (2004-05). In his first season with the team, the Bills finished 9-7, marking their only winning season over the last decade.

Eight seasons (1996-2003) with the Pittsburgh Steelers preceded Mularkey's time with the Bills. Mularkey served as the tight ends coach in his first five seasons. He molded Mark Bruener into an outstanding run-blocking tight end, while Jerome Bettis eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for five straight years. His final three seasons were spent as offensive coordinator, during which time he directed two top five offenses (3rd, 2001 and 5th, 2002) and earned Assistant Coach of the Year in 2001 from the Pro Football Writers of America.

Mularkey entered the coaching ranks in 1993, overseeing the offensive line at Concordia College. He transitioned into the NFL in 1994, where he began as a quality control coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before being promoted to tight ends coach the following season (1995).

Selected in the ninth round by the San Francisco 49ers in 1983, Mularkey was waived following his first training camp. He was signed by the Vikings, where he played for six seasons, before finishing his career with three years at Pittsburgh. He totaled 102 receptions and 1,222 career yards.

A graduate of Northeast High School in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Mularkey played quarterback and earned a scholarship to the University of Florida. He was a three-year letterman at tight end for the Gators from 1979-82. He and his wife, Betsy, have two sons -- Patrick and Shane.

FREE AGENCY UPDATE

General manager Ruston Webster and his staff worked early in the 2015 offseason to re-sign a number of key contributors from 2014 and add several new free agents from other teams.

Within the first two weeks of the new league year, six free agents were re-signed: punter Brett Kern, kicker Ryan Succop, long snapper Beau Brinkley, defensive lineman Karl Klug, outside linebacker Derrick Morgan and tackle Byron Stingily (later released).

Additionally, Webster helped negotiate deals in March for the following free agents: Buffalo safety Da’Norris Searcy, Atlanta wide receiver Harry Douglas, Washington outside linebacker Brian Orakpo, San Francisco cornerback Perrish Cox and Kansas City tight end Anthony Fasano. In April and free agent tackle Byron Bell (Carolina) were signed.

BYRON BELL – TACKLE

Previous Team: Carolina Panthers

6-5 • 340 • New Mexico • 4 Previous NFL Seasons

Bell started 56 games during his four-year career for the Carolina Panthers—41 games at right tackle and 15 contests at left tackle. In 2014, he started 15 games at left tackle for the Panthers after starting his first three years at right tackle. The Panthers advanced to the playoffs in each of the last two seasons.

Bell entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent from the University of New Mexico, where he started 36 games at both left and right tackle.

PERRISH COX – CORNERBACK

Previous Team: San Francisco 49ers

6-0 • 190 • Oklahoma State • 4 Previous NFL Seasons

Cox arrived in Tennessee with four years of NFL experience, including stints with the Denver Broncos, San Francisco 49ers and Seattle Seahawks. He amassed 135 tackles, six interceptions, 34 passes defended, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in 57 career regular season games prior to his arrival.

The best season of his career came in 2014, when he played in 15 games for the 49ers and posted career highs in several categories, including 14 starts, 59 tackles, five interceptions and 18 passes defended.

Cox was originally selected by the Broncos in the fifth round (137th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft from Oklahoma State University, where he earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors on defense. He is a native of Waco, Texas.

HARRY DOUGLAS – WIDE RECEIVER

Previous Team: Atlanta Falcons

6-0 • 183 • Louisville • 7 Previous NFL Seasons

Douglas arrived in Tennessee with seven years of NFL experience, all with the Atlanta Falcons. He totaled 258 receptions for 3,130 yards, eight touchdowns and six 100-yard performances in 91 career games with the Falcons.

The top statistical season of Douglas’ career came in 2013, when he filled in for an injured Julio Jones and posted career highs in starts (11), receptions (85), receiving yards (1,067), touchdown catches (two) and 100-yard games (three). He followed that performance with a 51-catch season in 2014.

Douglas originally joined the Falcons as a third-round pick in the 2008 NFL Draft from the University of Louisville, where he finished as the school’s second leading receiver (2,924 receiving yards).

ANTHONY FASANO – TIGHT END

Previous Team: Kansas City Chiefs

6-4 • 255 • Notre Dame • 9 Previous NFL Seasons

Fasano came to the Titans as a nine-year NFL veteran with 132 games and 109 starts under this belt. He registered 253 receptions for 2,799 yards and 31 touchdowns during his time with the Dallas Cowboys (2006-07), Miami Dolphins (2008-12) and Kansas City Chiefs (2013-14).

Fasano’s career highs came with the Dolphins, when he posted 41 grabs in 2012 and 528 receiving yards in 2010.

A native of Glen Ridge, N.J., the Cowboys originally drafted Fasano out of Notre Dame in the second round of the 2006 NFL Draft. At the time he left Notre Dame, he ranked second among tight ends on the school’s all-time list for both receptions (92) and receiving yards (1,112).

BRIAN ORAKPO – OUTSIDE LINEBACKER

Previous Team: Washington Redskins

6-4 • 257 • Texas • 6 Previous NFL Seasons

Orakpo is a three-time Pro Bowl selection (2009, 2010, 2013) who played his entire six-year career with the Washington Redskins prior to coming to Tennessee. During his Redskins career, he totaled 40 sacks, 255 tackles, one interception, 17 passes defended, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in 71 starts.

As a rookie in 2009, Orakpo earned Pro Bowl honors after recording 11 sacks, which set a Redskins rookie record and led all NFL rookies. For each of his first three seasons in Washington, Orakpo led or tied for the team lead in sacks.

In 2013, he earned his third Pro Bowl selection, as he registered 10 sacks, 60 tackles, one interception return for touchdown, 18 quarterback hits, 16 tackles for loss and two fumble recoveries.

Orakpo was a first-round pick (13th overall) by the Redskins in the 2009 NFL Draft from the University of Texas, where he totaled 22 sacks, 38 tackles for loss and 62 quarterback pressures. During his college career, he won the Nagurski Award (nation’s top defensive player), the Lombardi Award (nation’s top lineman) and the Hendricks Award (nation’s top defensive end). As a senior, he was named a first-team All-American and the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. The Houston, Texas, native also was a part of the Texas team that won the National Title during the 2005 season.

DA'NORRIS SEARCY – SAFETY

Previous Team: Buffalo Bills

5-11 • 207 • North Carolina • 4 Previous NFL Seasons

Searcy joined the Titans after spending four years with the Buffalo Bills. He played in 62 games with 23 starts for the Bills.

Searcy filled up a variety of categories on the stat sheet in his four years in Buffalo, totaling 195 tackles, four sacks, five interceptions, two touchdowns (one interception return and one fumble return), 13 passes defensed, 10 tackles for loss, three forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and 18 special teams stops.

Searcy became a full-time starter in his final two seasons in Buffalo. In 2013, he totaled 69 tackles and 3.5 sacks, and in 2014, he registered three interceptions and 58 tackles.

Searcy joined the Bills as a fourth-round pick in the 2011 NFL Draft from the University of North Carolina, where he was a two-year starter at safety. He is a native of Decatur, Ga.

NISSAN STADIUM

On June 25, 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that re-brands Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Nissan Stadium will host all Titans home football games, Tennessee State University football games, the Music City Bowl, the CMA Music Festival and numerous other events.

The procurement of naming rights to Nissan Stadium fits the automotive company's 'Fewer, Bigger, Better' marketing strategy, which has included ongoing sponsorships of NBC's 'The Voice,' the Heisman House college football program and a major advertising presence in this year's Super Bowl. Nissan is also now the official automotive partner of the Tennessee Titans.

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin.

The Nissan Smyrna Plant began operations in 1983 and employs more than 8,400 people. In 2014, the Smyrna plant assembled more than 648,000 vehicles, making it the highest volume automotive assembly plant in North America. Nissan also has a major manufacturing presence in Canton, Mississippi, along with research and development groups in California, Arizona and Michigan. In total, the company employs more than 22,000 employees in the U.S.

One component of the Titans-Nissan partnership will be assisting charitable organizations throughout Middle Tennessee in an array of community outreach programs. A centerpiece of this is the annual "Taste of Titans" charitable event, for which Nissan will serve as presenting sponsor and this year benefits the Wounded Warrior Project. During the course of a 20-year relationship, a total of more than $1 million resulting from these annual events is anticipated to be distributed to local non-profit organizations.

Nissan Stadium is a city-owned venue that has housed the Titans since 1999. The naming rights agreement includes the opportunity for Nissan branding on the exterior of the stadium, as well as stadium signage and other unique displays inside the stadium. LP Building Products has held the naming rights to the stadium since 2006 and that exclusivity now shifts to Nissan.

Titans/Oilers all-time regular-season record by home venue:

| Stadium | Seasons | W-L-T | Pct. |

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2015

- Michael Griffin (811 career tackles through 2014) needs 89 tackles in 2015 to become the fifth player in franchise history to reach 900 career tackles. He would join Gregg Bingham (1,970), Robert Brazile (1,281), Keith Bulluck (1,265) and Ted Washington (907).
- Michael Griffin (126 games through 2014) needs 13 games in 2015 to move into the top 20 in franchise history in games played. He would tie Steve McNair (139) for 19th on the list.
- With 25 career interceptions, including one interception in 2015, safety Michael Griffin has tied Ken Houston for eighth place on the franchise career interceptions list. A four-interception season in 2015 will put Griffin in sole possession of fourth place on the list, trailing only Jim Norton (45), Cris Dishman (31) and Fred Glick (30).
- Punter Brett Kern (451 career punts with the Titans through 2014) needs 72 punts in 2015 to pass Jim Norton (522) for second place on the franchise's career punting list.
- Punter Brett Kern reached 100 consecutive games played with the club.
- Quarterback Marcus Mariota became the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to record a start on Kickoff Weekend.
- Running back Bishop Sankey can become the sixth player in franchise history to lead the team in rushing in each of his first two NFL seasons, joining Chris Johnson, Eddie George, Mike Rozier, Earl Campbell and Billy Cannon.
- Tight end Delanie Walker became the fifth tight end in franchise history to reach 150 catches on his 27th reception of the season.
- Tight end Delanie Walker reached 300 receptions for his NFL career and 3,000 career receiving yards in 2015.
- Wide receiver Kendall Wright (213 career receptions through 2014) will pass Drew Bennett (273) for 10th place on the team's all-time receptions list with 61 catches in 2015.

ROSTER TURNOVER

From their 2014 season finale on Dec. 29 to the 2015 season opener on Sept. 13, the Titans had 137 player personnel transactions (players signed, claimed off waivers, released, traded or placed on reserve lists). The final result of general manager Ruston Webster's maneuvering was 19 new players on the 53-man roster heading into the season opener, including seven draft picks, nine free agents, two waiver claims and one player acquired via trade.

The 35.8 percent roster turnover from 2014 to 2015 ranks second in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999–present). The 2013 squad had the highest turnover by keeping 20 new players who were added during the offseason (37.7 percent).

The list of new additions to the Titans include the following players (projected starters underlined; roster as of Sept. 13):

- Free agents (9): WR Harry Douglas, S Da'Norris Searcy, OLB Brian Orakpo, TE Anthony Fasano, CB Perrish Cox, G Byron Bell, CB Cody Riggs (rookie FA), G Quinton Spain (rookie FA) and TE Phillip Supernaw
- Waiver acquisitions (2): OLB David Bass and LB Steve Johnson
- Acquired via trade (1): RB Terrance West
- Draft picks (8): QB Marcus Mariota, WR Dorial Green-Beckham, T Jeremiah Poutasi, DL Angelo Blackson, FB Jalston Fowler, OLB Deiontrez Mount and C Andy Gallik.

The Titans selected quarterback Marcus Mariota (6-4, 222) with the second overall selection in the 2015 NFL Draft.

The rookie signal caller enters the NFL following a historic career at the University of Oregon. He concluded his three seasons as the school's starting quarterback by winning the Heisman Trophy and leading his team to the College Football Playoff Championship Game.

Mariota broke nearly every major passing record at Oregon, totaling 10,796 career passing yards and 105 touchdown passes. The three-time All-Pac-12 selection started every game over his three seasons, earning a 36-5 record, and he completed at least one touchdown pass in every contest. He is one of four players in FBS history to pass for 10,000 yards and rush for 2,000 yards (2,237) in a career, joining Dan LeFevour, Robert Griffin III and Colin Kaepernick.

During his Heisman season in 2014, Mariota directed the Ducks to a Rose Bowl victory over Florida State. His totals for the year included 4,454 passing yards, 42 touchdown passes and only four interceptions. He also rushed for 770 yards and 15 touchdowns and even caught a touchdown pass. His 58 total touchdowns in a season (passing, rushing and receiving) shattered Matt Barkley's (2011) previous Pac-12 record of 41 touchdowns.

The 6-foot-4-inch, 222-pound signal caller is the fifth Heisman Trophy winner to be drafted by the Oilers/Titans, joining Billy Cannon, Earl Campbell, Mike Rozier and Eddie George.

At the 2015 NFL Scouting Combine, he finished among the top three quarterbacks in the 40-yard dash, vertical jump, broad jump, three-cone drill and 20-yard shuttle. His 4.52-second 40-yard dash gave him the fastest quarterback time at the Combine since Robert Griffin III's 4.41 in 2012.

Mariota is a native of Honolulu, Hawaii.

2015 Highlights:

➤ In four preseason starts, he completed 21 of his 30 attempts for 326 yards, one touchdown and one interception. He finished with a passer rating of 102.9, which ranked second among rookie quarterbacks (Brett Hundley, 129.6), and his 70.0 completion percentage led the rookie class. Additionally, he rushed five times for 17 yards. Mariota and most of the offensive starters were on the field for 11 drives during the preseason, and in those opportunities, they produced three touchdowns and two field goals (27 points). Mariota completed at least one pass for a first down in nine of the 11 series.

➤ At Tampa Bay (9/13), became the first quarterback in franchise history to start the opening game of his rookie season and led the Titans to a 42-14 victory. He recorded a perfect passer rating by completing 13 of his 15 attempts for 209 yards and four touchdowns with no interceptions. His first NFL completion was to Delanie Walker for 22 yards, and on the next play, he completed his first touchdown pass to Kendall Wright (52 yards). He also had touchdown passes of 12 yards to Bishop Sankey, four yards to

Harry Douglas and one yard to Walker. Mariota led five scoring drives out of seven possessions before he left the game at the end of the third quarter. He joined Fran Tarkenton as the only rookies in NFL history with four touchdown passes in a Week 1 game, and Mariota became the first NFL rookie with four touchdown passes in one half. He also became the first rookie in NFL history with two touchdown passes in the first quarter of Week 1. His 13.9 yards-per-attempt average were the most by a Titans player since 2003 (15.6 by Steve McNair against the Texans on Oct. 12, 2003). For his performance, Mariota was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week and the NFL Rookie of the Week.

➤ At Cleveland (9/20), completed 21 of his 37 pass attempts for 257 yards and a pair of touchdowns with no interceptions (96.3 passer rating). In the second half, he threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Fasano and a 13-yard touchdown pass to Dorial Green-Beckham. He became the first quarterback in NFL history to record six total touchdown passes within the first two games of his career. His 129.9 passer rating over two weeks was the highest rating by any Super Bowl-era quarterback (since 1966) in his first two career starts.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/27), completed 27 of his 44 passes for 367 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. His 367 yards set a new franchise single-game rookie record for passing yards (Zach Mettenberger, 345 yards at Philadelphia on Nov. 23, 2014). His 367 passing yards were the most by a Titans quarterback since Ryan Fitzpatrick's 402 passing yards on Dec. 15, 2013. In the second quarter, Mariota connected with Kendall Wright on a seven-yard score, and in the third quarter, he connected with Dorial Green Beckham on a three-yard touchdown pass. In doing so, he tied Mark Rypien (1988) for the most touchdown passes in NFL history through the first three games of a career. With a season passer rating of 109.2, Mariota recorded the eighth best passer rating in NFL history in a player's first three starts and the highest since Chad Pennington's first three starts in 2002.

➤ Against Buffalo (10/11), completed 21 of his 32 passes for 187 yards with an interception. He recorded a 22-yard run in the fourth quarter and totaled a team-high 47 rushing yards on five attempts.

➤ Against Miami (10/18), completed 21 of his 33 passes for 219 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. He registered his ninth touchdown pass of the season on a three-yard pass to Dexter McCluster on the final play of the third quarter.

➤ Against Atlanta (10/25) and at Houston (11/1), he was inactive due to a knee injury.

➤ At New Orleans (11/08), returned to the lineup after missing two games with a knee injury. In his sixth career start, he was 28-of-39 passing for 371 yards, four touchdowns, no interceptions and a passer rating of 135.7. His five-yard touchdown pass to tight end Anthony Fasano on the first drive of overtime capped his first career game-winning drive. Late in the first quarter, he threw a 61-yard touchdown pass to tight end Delanie Walker, marking the longest completion of Mariota's rookie season. He found Walker again in the second quarter for a two-yard touchdown pass. In the fourth quarter, he completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to Justin Hunter and a subsequent two-point conversion to Walker to tie the score and help force overtime.

➤ Against Carolina (11/15), completed 16 of 24 passes for 185 yards with an interception (72.4 passer rating). He added five carries for 24 yards.

➤ At Jacksonville (11/19), completed 22 of 35 passes for 231 yards without throwing an interception (82.0 passer rating). In the third quarter, he recorded his first career rushing touchdown on a 23-yard run. The play also marked the longest rushing attempt of Mariota's rookie season, and it was the longest rushing touchdown by an NFL quarterback in 2015 (through Nov. 19). He finished the contest with 29 yards on five rushing attempts. He became the second rookie in franchise history (Vince Young) to reach 2,000 yards passing.

➤ Against Oakland (11/29), completed 17 of 37 passes for 218 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions (69.4 passer rating). During the fourth quarter, he broke Vince Young's franchise record (2,199) for the most passing yards during a rookie season. He recorded his third game with three or more touchdown passes, including a 20-yard touchdown to tight end Craig Stevens in the first quarter, a 13-yard touchdown in the third quarter to wide receiver Harry Douglas and a one-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter to fullback Jalston Fowler. He became the first Titans quarterback to complete at least three touchdown passes three times in a season since Billy Volek in 2004.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/6), completed 20 of 29 passes for 268 yards with three touchdown passes and one interception, amounting to a passer rating of 118.2. He also rushed for 112 yards and a touchdown on nine attempts. In doing so, he became the first player in NFL history with at least 250 passing yards, 100 rushing yards and three touchdown passes in the same game. His touchdowns went for 10 yards to Craig Stevens, seven yards to Delanie Walker and 47 yards to Dorial Green-Beckham, as Mariota became the second player in NFL history (Peyton Manning) to record three touchdown passes four times during his rookie season. It was the fifth game in NFL history in which a player passed for at least 250 yards and rushed for at least 100 yards in a game (Russell Wilson, Mike Vick, twice by Cam Newton). Mariota's 87-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter was the longest run in franchise history by a quarterback and the fifth-longest run overall for the team. In NFL history, only two quarterbacks recorded a run longer than Mariota's 87-yarder (Terrelle Pryor and Colin Kaepernick). Mariota's 112 rushing yards against the Jaguars were the most by a quarterback in franchise history in a single game.

➤ At New York Jets (12/13), completed 21 of 39 passes for 274 yards with an interception. In the fourth quarter, he found wide receiver Harry Douglas for a 51-yard completion. His 39 attempts were his most since throwing a 44 passes against the Colts on Sept. 27. In the third quarter, he lined up wide and caught a 41-yard touchdown pass from running back Antonio Andrews. He became the first quarterback in franchise history to record a touchdown reception. He also became the first NFL player in 2015 to pass for a touchdown, rush for a touchdown and catch a touchdown pass. Prior to Mariota's feat, the last player to record touchdowns of at least 40 yards passing, rushing and receiving in the same season was Walter Payton in 1983.

ALL-TIME ROOKIE PASSING TD LEADERS

Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota's rookie total sits currently at 20 touchdown passes.

With one more touchdown toss, Mariota could become the 10th rookie in NFL history to record 20 touchdown passes as a rookie. Tampa Bay Buccaneers rookie Jameis Winston also is in range with 18 touchdown passes in 2015.

The all-time rookie record is shared by Peyton Manning and Russell Wilson. Manning reached 26 touchdown passes in 1998, and Wilson matched the feat during his rookie campaign of 2012.

The seven other rookie quarterbacks in history with 20 or more touchdown passes are Andrew Luck (23 in 2012), Charlie Conerly (22 in 1948), Derek Carr (21 in 2014), Cam Newton (21 in 2011), Robert Griffin III (20 in 2012), Andy Dalton (20 in 2011) and Dan Marino (20 in 1983).

FIRST-OF-ITS-KIND DAY vs. JACKSONVILLE

Against Jacksonville on Dec. 6, Marcus Mariota completed 20 of 29 passes for 268 yards with three touchdown passes and one interception, amounting to a passer rating of 118.2. He also rushed for 112 yards and a touchdown on nine attempts. In doing so, he became the first player in NFL history with at least 250 passing yards, 100 rushing yards and three touchdown passes in the same game.

Mariota became the first rookie in franchise history and the sixth quarterback (rookie or veteran) in franchise history to pass for at least three touchdowns and rush for at least one touchdown in the same game. He joins George Blanda (Oct. 23, 1960), Billy Volek (Dec. 19, 2004), Steve McNair (Sept. 12, 1999) and Warren Moon (twice—Oct. 30, 1988 and Nov. 20, 1988) as the only Titans/Oilers players to accomplish the feat.

Mariota also turned in the fifth game in NFL history in which a player passed for at least 250 yards and rushed for at least 100 yards in a game. He joined Russell Wilson, Mike Vick and Cam Newton (twice) as the only players to accomplish the feat.

Players with 250 passing yards and 100 rushing yards in a game, NFL history:

RUSH TO THE RECORD BOOKS

On Dec. 6 against Jacksonville, Marcus Mariota rushed for an 87-yard touchdown against Jacksonville and finished the game with 112 rushing yards on nine attempts.

The 87-yard run was the longest run in franchise history by a quarterback and the fifth-longest run overall for the team, behind three rushes by running back Chris Johnson (94, 91 and 89 yards) and one rush by running back Sid Blanks (91).

Steve McNair previously recorded the longest run in franchise history by a quarterback with a 71-yard attempt in 1998 (Nov. 8 at Tampa Bay).

Longest rushing attempts in franchise history:

| Player | Date | Opp | Rush |

| LenDale White | 10/19/08 | at Kansas City | 80t |
| Larry Moriarty | 9/11/83 | at L.A. Raiders | 80 |

Since 1960, only two quarterbacks have recorded a run longer than Mariota's 87-yarder. Oakland's Terrelle Pryor set the NFL quarterback record with 93-yard touchdown run for the Oakland Raiders in 2013 (Oct. 27 against Pittsburgh), and most recently San Francisco's Colin Kaepernick had a 90-yard touchdown run in 2014 at the San Diego Chargers (Dec. 20).

Longest rushing attempts since 1960 history among NFL quarterbacks:

| Player | Date | Date/Opp | Rush |

ROOKIE ACCURACY

Thus far, Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota has posted one of the highest completion percentages in NFL history among rookie quarterbacks. With three games remaining in 2015, he currently ranks fifth all-time among rookies at 62.4 percent.

Mariota's current completion percentage would shatter the franchise's rookie record. Vince Young's completion percentage of 51.5 in 2006 is the best among rookie qualifiers in team annals.

Highest completion percentage among rookie quarterbacks in NFL history (minimum 14 passes per team game, or 224 attempts per 16 games):

SIGNATURE PERFORMANCE VS. SAINTS

On Nov. 8 at New Orleans, quarterback Marcus Mariota recorded his sixth start and completed 28 of 39 passes for 371 yards, four touchdowns, no interceptions and a passer rating of 135.7.

More from Mariota's Week 9 performance at New Orleans:

- Mariota became the first quarterback in franchise history to throw a game-winning touchdown pass in overtime when he found tight end Anthony Fasano for a five-yard score on the first possession of overtime.
- Mariota improved his season total to 13 touchdown passes to break the franchise's single-season rookie record for touchdown passes, topping Vince Young's 12 touchdown passes in 2006.
- Mariota's passer rating of 135.7 at New Orleans was at the time the ninth-highest passer rating by any NFL quarterback in 2015 and ranked 10th in franchise history for a single game (minimum 20 attempts).
- Mariota broke his own franchise rookie record with 371 passing yards at New Orleans, topping the 367 yards he recorded against the Indianapolis Colts on Sept. 27. The performance ranks 24th in franchise history among all passers and the most since Ryan Fitzpatrick's 402 passing yards against the Arizona Cardinals on Dec. 15, 2013. Mariota became the first rookie in franchise history to record multiple 300-yard passing games.
- In the fourth quarter and overtime, Mariota completed a combined 15 passes on 17 attempts for 160 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and a passer rating of 145.1.
- Prior to Marcus Mariota's performance at New Orleans, no rookie in NFL history had ever produced two games with four touchdown passes and no interceptions. Mariota previously passed for four touchdowns without an interception in the season opener at Tampa Bay (Sept. 13) and matched the feat against the Saints. Mariota and Tom Brady became the only NFL quarterbacks through nine weeks of the 2015 season to have multiple games (two each) with four touchdowns and no interceptions.
- Mariota became the first rookie in NFL history to throw a touchdown pass in overtime after sending the game to overtime with a fourth-quarter touchdown pass and a subsequent pass for the game-tying two-point conversion. The last NFL player to accomplish the feat was Josh Freeman on Nov. 18, 2012.
- Mariota became the second quarterback in NFL history to pass for at least 350 yards and four touchdowns with no interceptions and the game-winning touchdown pass in overtime. Daunte Culpepper is the only other signal caller to accomplish the feat, having done so on Oct. 10, 2004 against the Houston Texans.

MARIOTA THROUGH EIGHT GAMES

Through the first half of his rookie season, Marcus Mariota started six of the team's eight contests and was 131-of-200 passing for 1,610 yards, 13 touchdowns and five interceptions.

Despite missing two starts due to a knee injury, Mariota's 13 touchdown passes were the most in NFL history by a rookie through his team's first eight games. Andy Dalton (2011) and Charlie Conerly (1948) previously shared the record with 12 touchdown passes.

Most touchdown passes in NFL history by a rookie through his team's first eight games:

| Rookie QB | Team | Season | TD Passes |
|--------------------------|------------------|-------------|-----------|
| 1. Marcus Mariota | Tennessee | 2015 | 13 |
| 2. Andy Dalton | Cincinnati | 2011 | 12 |
| Charlie Conerly | N.Y. Giants | 1948 | 12 |

Also, Mariota's 101.5 passer rating through his team's first eight games ranked third in NFL history among rookies in their team's first eight games. Mariota's numbers trailed only the eight-game rookie figures of Dan Marino (107.1 in 1983) and Ben Roethlisberger (105.2 in 2004).

Highest passer rating in NFL history by a rookie through his team's first eight games (minimum 14 attempts per team game):

| Rookie QB | Team | Season | Rating |
|--------------------------|------------------|-------------|--------------|
| 1. Dan Marino | Miami | 1983 | 107.1 |
| 2. Ben Roethlisberger | Pittsburgh | 2004 | 105.2 |
| 3. Marcus Mariota | Tennessee | 2015 | 101.5 |

A DEBUT FOR THE AGES

Marcus Mariota played in his first regular season game at Tampa Bay on Sept. 13. In the contest, he was 13-of-15 passing for 209 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions.

More from Mariota's debut:

- With a maximum attainable passer rating of 158.3, he became the first player since at least 1933 with a perfect passer rating in his first game (minimum 10 attempts) and the first player in the Super Bowl era (since 1966) with a perfect rating in his first start (minimum 10 attempts).
- In total, he led the offense for seven series, and the offense scored a touchdown on five of those possessions.
- Mariota became the second rookie in NFL history to throw four touchdown passes in a season opener. He joined former Vikings quarterback Fran Tarkenton, who passed for four touchdowns on Sept. 17, 1961. All four of Mariota's touchdown passes came in the first half, and he became the only rookie in NFL history to throw four touchdown passes in one half.
- Prior to Mariota, the only other quarterback in franchise history to complete three touchdown passes in his first start was Jacky Lee. In the 10th game of the 1960 season, Lee threw for three touchdowns against the Denver Broncos.
- He tied Tom Brady for the most touchdown passes (four) in the first week of the 2015 season. Including those two performances, there were 11 occasions in the last 10 Kickoff Weekends (2006-2015) in which a quarterback completed four or more touchdown passes.
- Mariota became the first rookie in NFL history with two touchdown passes in the first quarter of a Kickoff Weekend game.
- Mariota averaged 13.93 yards per attempt, the most by any NFL quarterback during Kickoff Weekend 2015. In the last 15 seasons (2001-15), the only quarterback with a higher yards-per-attempt average in a Week 1 game is Tony Romo. Romo averaged 14.38 yards per attempt in Week 1 of 2007.

MOST TD PASSES IN FIRST THREE GAMES

In Week 3 against the Indianapolis Colts, Titans quarterback Marcus Mariota completed two touchdown passes, connecting with Kendall Wright on a seven-yard touchdown and with Dorial Green Beckham on a three-yard touchdown score.

With his total against the Colts added to his six touchdown passes in the first two games, Mariota tied Mark Rypien for the most touchdown passes through the first three games of a career. As a member of the Washington Redskins in 1988, Rypien passed for eight touchdowns in his first three games. Buffalo's Johnny Green (1960) and Houston's Case Keenum (2013) each had seven touchdown passes in their first three games.

Most touchdown passes through the first three games of a quarterback's career:

| Player | Year | Team | TD Passes |
|--------------------------|------|------------|-----------|

TITANS TIDBITS: MARCUS MARIOTA

➤ Mariota was awarded the Heisman Trophy on Dec. 13, 2014. He became the first winner from the University of Oregon and the first player born in Hawaii to receive the honor. In the balloting, he received 2,534 total points, or 90.9 percent of the total points possible. Only one player in Heisman history—Ohio State quarterback Troy Smith in 2006—garnered a higher percentage. Mariota received 788 first-place votes, while the runner-up, Wisconsin running back Melvin Gordon, received 1,250 total points and 37 first-place votes. Alabama wide receiver Amari Cooper finished third with 1,023 points and 49 first-place votes. The point total is reached by a system of three points for a first place vote, two for a second and one for a third.

➤ Mariota typically limits his touchdown “celebration” to a simple series of gestures: three taps on his chest and pointing to the sky as a way to show appreciation for his mother, father and younger brother.

➤ His father, Toa, works in homeland security, while his mother, Alana, works for Follett School Solutions. His brother, Matthew, is a freshman linebacker at Oregon.

➤ Mariota credits much of his athletic success to playing soccer in his youth. By the time he was eight years old, he was wearing a soccer jersey with the number 8, and he has kept the jersey number ever since then.

➤ During his time in Eugene, Ore., Mariota became a fixture at the Boys and Girls Club of Emerald Valley, spending time on a weekly basis with kids at the center. For his efforts in the community, he was awarded with the inaugural Play It Forward Award at the 63rd Annual Oregon Sports Awards in June 2015.

SINGLE-GAME ROOKIE PASSING YARDS

On Nov. 8, Marcus Mariota broke his own franchise rookie record with 371 passing yards at the New Orleans Saints.

Mariota initially set the record on Sept. 27 against Indianapolis with 367 passing yards. He broke Zach Mettenberger's record of 345 passing yards at the Philadelphia Eagles on Nov. 23, 2014.

As a rookie in 2014, Mettenberger broke Jacky Lee's longstanding record of 331 yards at the Boston Patriots on Nov. 25, 1960.

Most single-game passing yards by a rookie, franchise history:

#7 • QB ZACH METTENBERGER

Quarterback Zach Mettenberger (6-5, 224) is in his second NFL season after being selected by the Titans in the sixth round (178th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft.

In his first NFL campaign, he spent the first seven games as a reserve. Then, in Week 8 against the Houston Texans, he recorded his first of six consecutive starts.

Mettenberger became the third quarterback in franchise history to start at least six games as a rookie, joining Dan Pastorini (eight in 1971) and Vince Young (13 in 2006). But against the Giants on Dec. 7, he aggravated a right shoulder injury, which caused him to be inactive for the final three contests.

Mettenberger's rookie totals included 107 completions and 1,412 yards on 179 attempts. He completed eight touchdown passes with seven interceptions. Of the six NFL rookies who started at least one game in 2014, Mettenberger ranked second with a passer rating of 83.4, trailing only Minnesota's Teddy Bridgewater (85.2). Mettenberger's season passer rating also was the best in franchise history among rookie quarterbacks with a minimum of one start, topping the previous rookie record holder, Steve McNair (81.7 in 1995).

Prior to joining the Titans, Mettenberger spent three years at Louisiana State University, where he appeared in 30 games and posted a 19-6 mark as a starting quarterback. His career numbers for the Tigers included 5,783 passing yards (sixth in LSU history), 35 touchdowns (fifth), 407 completions (sixth) and 659 attempts (seventh). He became the third player in LSU history to pass for 3,000 yards in a season in 2013 (3,082) and became the only player in LSU history to have back-to-back seasons of 2,500 yards or more (2,609 yards in 2012).

As a senior in 2013, Mettenberger completed 192 of 296 passes for 3,082 yards and 22 touchdowns and just eight interceptions, ranking second in the SEC in pass efficiency (171.4).

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), played in the fourth quarter but did not attempt a pass.
- Against Miami (10/18), played in the final drive of the fourth quarter and completed five passes for 63 yards on eight attempts.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), with Marcus Mariota inactive due to a knee injury, recorded his seventh career start and was 22-of-35 passing for 187 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. In the second quarter, he completed a 19-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kendall Wright.
- At Houston (11/1), started for the second consecutive week and recorded 22 completions for 171 yards and an interception on 31 attempts.

Running back Antonio Andrews (5-10, 225) is in his second NFL season after being signed by the Titans as an undrafted free agent in 2014.

In his rookie campaign, Andrews spent the first seven weeks on the team's practice squad before being elevated to the 53-man roster on Oct. 21, 2014. In four appearances as a reserve running back and kickoff returner, he caught two passes for 11 yards and returned five kickoffs for 110 yards.

During his four-year career at Western Kentucky, Andrews appeared in 42 games, including 24 consecutive starts to end his career. He notched 3,674 yards with 29 touchdowns on 618 carries (5.9 avg.), and he scored 198 points on 33 total touchdowns. His 6,799 all-purpose yards gave him an average of 161.9 yards per game.

As a senior (2013), Andrews rushed for 1,730 yards to break his own school record by two yards. He rushed for a career-high 16 touchdowns on 267 carries and was named Sun Belt Conference Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year by The NFL Draft Report.

Andrews attended Fort Campbell (Ky.) High School, which is approximately 60 miles northwest of Nashville. As a high school senior, he was named the state of Kentucky's "Mr. Football" as a dual-threat quarterback.

2015 Highlights:

- In four preseason games, he rushed 20 times for 77 yards and two touchdowns and added two receptions for 25 yards.
- At Tampa Bay (9/13) and at Cleveland (9/20), he was inactive due to a hamstring injury.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), led the team with 49 rushing yards on 12 carries and added one reception for 12 yards. In the third quarter, he gave the Titans their first lead of the game with an eight-yard touchdown run, his first career touchdown.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), rushed seven times for nine yards and a touchdown and added three receptions for a team-high 45 yards. He scored for the second consecutive week on a one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. He recorded 23 yards on a screen pass in the second quarter.
- Against Miami (10/18), recorded the first start of his career and carried nine times for 23 yards.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), led the Titans with a career-high 57 yards on 10 carries, including a career-long rush of 17 yards in the first quarter.
- At Houston (11/1), recorded a start at running back. He led the team and set a new career high in rushing yards for the second consecutive week. He totaled 16 carries for 64 yards, including a career-long run of 28 yards in the third quarter, and he added three receptions for 18 yards.
- At New Orleans (11/8), set a career high in rushing yards for the third consecutive week, totaling 19 carries for 88 yards. In the second quarter, he turned a pass from Marcus Mariota into a 23-yard gain, tying the running back's career-long reception. On the next play, he set a career benchmark with a 38-yard run, which led to a Titans touchdown three plays later.
- Against Carolina (11/15), rushed for eight yards on 11 attempts.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), finished with 15 carries for 78 yards (5.2 average). He picked up 26 yards on a run in the third quarter to record the third-longest rushing attempt of his career and his third run of 26 yards or longer in three out of four contests.

- Against Oakland (11/29), rushed for 32 yards on 11 attempts and added a 14-yard reception.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), rushed for 58 yards on 13 carries (4.5 average), including a 22-yard run and a one-yard touchdown run in the final five seconds of the first half.
- At New York Jets (12/13), rushed four times for eight yards and added a six-yard reception. In the third quarter, he received a shotgun snap, rolled right and lofted a pass down the sideline to quarterback Marcus Mariota, who finished the play for a 41-yard touchdown. Andrews became the first non-quarterback to complete a touchdown pass for the Titans since wide receiver Drew Bennett did so at Green Bay on Oct. 11, 2004. Andrews' touchdown pass was the longest in the NFL by a non-quarterback since wide receiver Mohamed Sanu's 73-yard touchdown throw for the Bengals against the Redskins on Sept. 23, 2012.

Fullback Jalston “Nudie” Fowler is in his rookie season after being drafted by the Titans in the fourth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

The 5-foot-11-inch, 254-pound rookie served as a fullback, running back, H-back, tight end and on special teams during his time with the Crimson Tide. He played in 53 career games from 2010–2014 and was a member of national championship teams in 2011 and 2012.

Fowler’s career totals at Alabama included 113 carries for 738 yards and five touchdowns. He also caught 19 passes for 150 yards with seven touchdown receptions.

In 2014, he played in 14 games and set a career high with five starts. He rushed for 69 yards on 12 attempts and caught 11 passes for 119 yards and a pair of scores.

A native of Mobile, Ala., Fowler is called “Nudie” by family, friends and teammates. His father gave the nickname to him as a baby.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), made his NFL regular season debut.
- At Cleveland (9/20), recorded his first career rushing attempt in the third quarter. On third-and-one, he took a handoff and plunged three yards for a first down. Later in the same drive, he caught his first pass for a 19-yard gain on a screen play.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), rushed four times for nine yards and a touchdown. He scored his first career touchdown late in the fourth quarter on a one-yard run. In the third quarter, he picked up a first down with a three-yard run on fourth-and-one to give the Titans a first-and-goal.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), as a member of the punt coverage unit, forced returner Denarius Moore to fumble, leading to a Titans recovery and subsequent touchdown drive.
- Against Carolina (11/15), caught one pass for 14 yards.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), caught one pass for two yards.
- Against Oakland (11/29), converted a third-and-one with a one-yard run and caught a one-yard pass from Marcus Mariota to score his first career receiving touchdown.

#22 • RB DEXTER McCLUSTER

Running back Dexter McCluster (5-8, 170) is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2014.

A knee injury brought McCluster’s 2014 campaign came to an early end. He was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 18. Prior to that, he played in 14 games (two starts) and totaled 131 yards on 40 carries and 197 yards and a touchdown on 26 receptions. He also led the team with 22 punt returns for a 7.0-yard average.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, McCluster played four seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (2010-13), spending time as a returner, running back and receiver in 58 total games (23 starts). He logged 172 receptions for 1,500 yards (8.7 avg.) and four touchdowns while also recording 152 carries for 662 yards and one rushing score. On special teams, he returned 79 punts for 959 yards (12.1 avg.) with three touchdowns and 52 kickoffs for 1,087 yards.

In 2013, he was named to his first Pro Bowl, earning the honor as a punt returner. Additionally, he earned second-team All-Pro as a punt returner by the Associated Press. He recorded a league-best 686 yards on 58 punt returns with a pair of touchdowns. As a wide receiver, McCluster caught 53 passes for 511 yards and two touchdowns in 15 games (six starts).

The Largo, Fla., native was originally selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (36th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft following a four-year career at Mississippi.

At Ole Miss, McCluster saw action in 40 contests, starting 22 games at wide receiver and six games at running back. He finished his career ranked eighth in school annals with 130 receptions and tied for ninth in school annals with 15 rushing touchdowns, to go along with 304 total carries for 1,955 yards. McCluster ranked second in school history with 4,089 all-purpose yards.

2015 Highlights:

- At Cleveland (9/20), set single-game career highs for rushing yards and scrimmage yards. He led the team in rushing with 98 yards on 10 carries, beating his previous high of 61 yards (twice, last at Denver on Jan. 1, 2012). He added 26 yards on four receptions to give him 124 yards from scrimmage and top his previous mark of 107 scrimmage yards (at Chicago on Dec. 4, 2011). In the first quarter, he recorded the longest run of his career, gaining 44 yards. He also returned four punts for a total of 41 yards to give him a combined net total of 165 yards.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), recorded a 35-yard reception and added five rushes for seven yards. His 35-yard catch was the fourth-longest reception of his career.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), in the second quarter, gave the Titans field position in Buffalo territory with a 26-yard punt return, his longest since a 48-yard punt return against Houston on Oct. 26, 2014. CLICK FOR COMPLETE BIO \(PDF\)

Tight end Anthony Fasano (6-4, 255) is in his 10th NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 24, 2015.

In 2014, Fasano appeared in 15 games (13 starts) for the Kansas City Chiefs. He tallied 25 receptions for 226 yards and four touchdowns.

Originally a second-round draft choice by the Dallas Cowboys in 2006, Fasano spent two seasons in Dallas before he was traded to the Miami Dolphins. In 2013, he left the Dolphins to join the Chiefs.

The veteran tight end has long been considered one of the NFL's top blockers at his position. But he also poses a threat to defenses as a receiver, as evidenced by his 253 career catches for 2,799 yards in his first nine seasons in the league, including 31 touchdown grabs.

Fasano has helped block for four different 1,000-yard rushers during his career: Julius Jones (Dallas, 2006), Ricky Williams (Miami, 2009), Reggie Bush (Miami, 2011) and Jamaal Charles (Kansas City, 2013-14).

After a five-year career with the Dolphins, Fasano ranked third among tight ends in team history in receptions (177) and receiving yards (2,104). He tied for second in franchise annals in touchdown receptions by a tight end (23).

Fasano played three seasons (2003–2005) at Notre Dame, where he registered 34 games played and 24 starts. He posted 92 career receptions for 1,112 yards (12.9 avg.) and eight touchdowns, and at the time of his departure, he ranked second among tight ends on the school's all-time list for both receptions and receiving yards.

A native of Verona, N.J., Fasano speaks Italian and Spanish fluently.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), made his Titans debut and caught one pass for 18 yards to the two-yard line to help set up a touchdown.
- At Cleveland (9/20), led the team in receiving with five catches for 84 yards. In the third quarter, his 33-yard reception on a pass from Marcus Mariota was the second-longest of Fasano's career (35 at Kansas City on Nov. 6, 2011). Later in the third quarter against the Browns, he scored on a 19-yard pass from Mariota. It was his 32nd career touchdown and his first as a member of the Titans. Fasano's 84 receiving yards tied for the second-highest total of his career and the most since his 107-yard performance against the Titans on Nov. 14, 2010 as a member of the Miami Dolphins.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), posted a 26-yard reception.
- Against Miami (10/18), recorded two receptions for a total of one yard.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), registered three receptions for 21 yards.
- At Houston (11/1), caught one pass for nine yards.
- At New Orleans (11/8), caught the game-winning, five-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota in overtime. The touchdown was Fasano's second of the season and the 33rd of his career. It was his first career touchdown catch in overtime, and it was the franchise's first-ever game-winning touchdown reception in an overtime game. He totaled three receptions for 33 yards on the day.
- Against Carolina (11/15), registered one catch for 19 yards, leading to a Titans touchdown in the first quarter. On the catch, he moved past the 3,000-yard receiving mark for his career.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), totaled 14 yards on two receptions.
- Against Oakland (11/29), posted two catches for 22 yards.

Craig Stevens (6-3, 263) is in his eighth NFL season, all of which have been with Tennessee. The tight end was selected by the Titans in the third round (85th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft.

Stevens' seventh NFL season was cut short due to injury. In his fifth game of 2014, he suffered a thigh injury and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on Oct. 18.

Prior to his season-ending injury, Stevens caught two passes for 26 yards and continued his role as the team's primary blocking tight end.

In 2013, Stevens played in 15 games with 14 starts and caught two passes for five yards.

His 2012 statistics included a career-high 23 receptions for 275 yards and one touchdown, as he continued to assert himself as one of the NFL's most highly regarded blocking tight ends. He played and started in 15 games.

In his initial two campaigns, he was used as a reserve at tight end in addition to being a special teams contributor. Then, in 2010, he moved into a full-time offensive role, playing 15 games with 13 starts. He followed in 2011 with 15 games and 11 starts.

The San Pedro, Calif., native spent four college seasons at Cal, where appeared in 50 games (33 starts), one game shy of the school record. He earned honorable mention All-Pac 10 honors after his sophomore and senior seasons and second-team All-Pac 10 following his junior year. His career totals included 51 receptions for 669 yards and seven touchdowns.

2015 Highlights:

- In four preseason starts, caught one pass for 35 yards.
- At Cleveland (9/20), caught a 13-yard pass on third-and-one during a scoring drive in the fourth quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), posted two receptions for 29 yards, including a 27-yarder.
- At Houston (11/1), played in his 100th career game and posted one reception for nine yards.
- At New Orleans (11/8), posted two receptions for 25 yards, including a 24-yard reception in overtime to help set up the game-winning touchdown.
- Against Oakland (11/29), caught a 20-yard pass from Marcus Mariota for a touchdown in the first quarter. It was Stevens' fifth career touchdown and his first since Sept. 30, 2012.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), posted two receptions for 11 yards and a touchdown. He caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota in the first quarter. Stevens tied his career high with his second touchdown reception of the season, and it marked the first time in his career in which he recorded a touchdown in back-to-back weeks.

#82 • TE DELANIE WALKER

Tight end Delanie Walker (6-0, 248) is in his 10th NFL season and his third campaign with the Titans. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2013 after spending the first seven years of his career with the San Francisco 49ers.

His brief time in Tennessee has resulted in one of the best two-year spans in franchise history by a player at his position. From 2013 through 2014, Walker totaled 123 receptions for 1,461 yards and 10 touchdowns. Among all Titans/Oilers tight ends, only Frank Wycheck (1,516 receiving yards from 1997-98) recorded more total receiving yards in back-to-back years.

In 2014, Walker's team-leading 890 receiving yards set a career high and marked the highest total in franchise history by a tight end, eclipsing Wycheck's 768 receiving yards in 1998. Walker's 63 receptions in 2014 also led the team, set a career high, and tied for fourth in team annals. His four receiving touchdowns qualified as his second-highest career total.

Appearing in 15 games with 11 starts in 2013, he totaled 60 receptions for 571 yards and six touchdowns. He set career highs in all three categories. Also, he became the only tight end in franchise history other than Titans Ring of Honor member Frank Wycheck to reach 60 receptions in a single season. Wycheck accomplished the feat five times from 1997 through 2001, including 70 receptions in both 1998 and 2000 to establish the record for Titans/Oilers tight ends. Walker's six touchdown receptions tied for fourth place in franchise history among tight ends and were the most since Wycheck's six in 1996.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, the former sixth-round pick appeared in 99 career regular-season games with the 49ers (40 starts) and totaled 123 receptions for 1,465 yards (11.9 avg.) and eight touchdowns. A regular contributor on special teams, Walker posted 61 special teams tackles as well as 31 kickoff returns for 528 yards during his time in San Francisco.

In 2012, Walker played an integral role in the 49ers' second consecutive playoff season, as he teamed with Vernon Davis to form one of the NFL's top tight-end duos. He saw action in all 16 regular-season games (four starts) and set a career high with 344 yards and three touchdowns (matched career high) on 21 receptions. His average of 16.4 yards per catch was the highest among all NFL tight ends with 20 or more catches.

During the 2012 playoffs, he appeared in all three games and started in Super Bowl XLVII. In the Super Bowl, he recorded three receptions for 48 yards.

Walker was a sixth-round pick in the 2006 NFL Draft. As a rookie, he appeared in only seven games with one start. Then, in 2007, he played in all 16 contests and set a career high with 10 starts. It began a string of six seasons (2007-12) during which he missed a total of four games. In 2010, he set his career high with 29 receptions.

A native of Pomona, Calif., Walker spent two seasons (2002-03) at Mt. San Antonio (Calif.) Community College before joining the University of Central Missouri Mules for his final two collegiate campaigns (2004-05). As a wide receiver at Central Missouri, he caught 113 passes for 1,347 yards in 20 games. The 49ers selected him with the 175th overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), caught three passes for 43 yards, including a key 22-yard catch on third down in the first quarter and a one-yard touchdown grab in the second quarter. He exited the game in the third quarter with a hand injury.
- At Cleveland (9/20), he was inactive with a hand injury.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), tied for first on the team with seven receptions for 68 yards. In the second quarter his first reception of the game (six yards) gave him his 250th career NFL reception. Later in the second quarter on a 19-yard grab, he passed the 3,000-yard receiving mark for his career.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), tied for the team lead with four receptions for 36 yards.
- Against Miami (10/18), led the team with eight receptions for 97 yards. His 97 yards made up the third-highest single-game total of his career and his biggest total since Nov. 23, 2014 at Philadelphia (155). His reception total tied for the third-highest figure of his career and his highest since a 10-catch day against Dallas on Sept. 14, 2014.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), led the team with seven receptions and 55 receiving yards. With an eight-yard reception in the third quarter, he became the fifth tight end in franchise history to reach 150 catches with the club, joining Frank Wycheck (482), Bo Scaife (251), Alvin Reed (199) and Erron Kinney (178).

➤ At Houston (11/1), led the team with six receptions for 62 yards. It was the third consecutive week in which Walker led in both receptions and receiving yards.

➤ At New Orleans (11/8), recorded the fourth-highest receiving yardage total of his career, leading the team with seven receptions for 95 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Late in the first quarter, Marcus Mariota lofted a pass deep down the left sideline in his direction. After the ball was tipped by a pair of colliding Saints defenders, Walker grabbed it and raced to the end zone for a 61-yard touchdown. It tied for the second-longest reception of Walker's 10-year career. In the second quarter, Walker snagged a two-yard touchdown pass from Mariota, giving him his first career game with multiple touchdown catches. Midway through the fourth quarter, he tied the game at 28-28 with a reception for a two-point conversion.

➤ Against Carolina (11/15), posted a team-high 52 receiving yards on three catches, including a long reception of 21 yards.

➤ At Jacksonville (11/19), posted his third career 100-yard receiving game, leading the team with eight receptions for 109 yards, including a long reception of 29 yards. His yardage total was the third-highest of his career, and his reception total tied for the third-highest of his career. For the third time over a six-game span, he recorded at least seven receptions and 95 receiving yards. He became the ninth player in franchise history with three or more consecutive seasons of at least 50 receptions.

➤ Against Oakland (11/29), led the Titans with six receptions and 91 receiving yards, marking the sixth time in 2015 he led the team in both categories. In the first quarter, he gained 36 yards on his first catch of the game, which also was the 300th reception of his 10-year career. On his third reception of the day, he moved past Erron Kinney (178 receptions) for fourth place among tight ends on the franchise's career receptions list.

➤ Against Jacksonville (12/6), he led the team with eight receptions for 92 yards and a touchdown. He scored on a seven-yard pass from Marcus Mariota in the second quarter. On his fifth reception of the game, which set up a touchdown at the end of the first half, he set a new career high for receptions in a season, surpassing his 2014 total of 63 receptions. His reception total tied his single-game season high (twice—Oct. 18 against Miami; Nov. 19 at Jacksonville) and tied for the third-highest total of his career.

➤ At New York Jets (12/13), led the Titans with seven receptions and 71 yards. It marked the seventh time in 2015 Walker recorded team highs in both categories. In the fourth quarter, he recorded his fourth reception of the game. On the catch—his 71st of the season—he broke Frank Wycheck's franchise record (70 receptions in 1998 and 2000) for the most receptions in a season by a tight end.

SINGLE-GAME RECEIVING YARDS BY TEs

At Philadelphia on Nov. 23, 2014, Delanie Walker caught five passes for 155 yards. His yardage total set a new single-game career high, and the total also qualified as the second-highest in franchise history by a tight end. The only tight end with more receiving yards in a game for the franchise was Jared Cook, who had 169 yards against Jacksonville on Dec. 24, 2011.

Earlier in the 2014 season, Walker posted 142 receiving yards against the Dallas Cowboys (Sept. 14), a total that ranks fourth in team annals.

Most receiving yards in a game by a tight end, franchise history:

#83 • WR HARRY DOUGLAS

Harry Douglas (6-0, 183) is in his eighth NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. The veteran wide receiver was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 12, 2015.

Douglas spent the first seven seasons (2008–2014) of his career as a member of the Atlanta Falcons after being selected in the third round of the 2008 NFL Draft. During his time in Atlanta, he amassed 258 receptions for 3,130 yards with eight touchdowns as a key member of a passing attack that also featured wide receivers Julio Jones and Roddy White.

In 2014, Douglas appeared in 12 games (six starts) and notched 51 catches for 556 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Douglas enjoyed his greatest statistical success in 2013 while starting in place of an injured Jones. In 16 games, he posted career highs with 85 receptions for 1,067 yards and two touchdowns.

A native of Jonesboro, Ga., Douglas graduated from the University of Louisville. At the time of his departure, he ranked second in team annals with 2,924 receiving yards, while his 173 receptions ranked fifth on the school's all-time record list.

2015 Highlights:

➤ In four preseason games, totaled 105 yards on four catches, including a 59-yard touchdown.

➤ At Tampa Bay (9/13), notched a four-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Marcus Mariota in the second quarter. It was his ninth career touchdown reception and his first with the Titans after signing with the club as an unrestricted free agent during the offseason.

➤ At Cleveland (9/20), posted one reception for nine yards.

➤ Against Indianapolis (9/27), caught three passes for 20 yards.

#17 • WR DORIAL GREEN-BECKHAM

Wide receiver Dorial Green-Beckham (6-5, 237) is in his rookie season after being selected with the 40th overall pick in the second round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

Green-Beckham spent his first two collegiate seasons at Missouri before transferring to Oklahoma and sitting out the 2014 campaign per NCAA transfer rules.

At Missouri, he amassed two-year totals of 87 receptions, 1,278 receiving yards and 17 touchdown catches. As a sophomore, he registered 59 catches for 883 yards and 12 touchdowns and was named second-team All-SEC by the Associated Press.

Green-Beckham is a native of Springfield, Mo.

2015 Highlights:

- In three preseason games, he caught seven passes for 93 yards (long of 32).
- At Tampa Bay (9/13), he made his NFL debut but did not record a reception.
- At Cleveland (9/20), posted the first reception of his career, a 13-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter on fourth-and-six. He became the first Titans player to record a touchdown on his first career reception since Justin Hunter in 2013.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), totaled two receptions for 22 yards and a touchdown. On his second career reception, he scored his second career touchdown on a three-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota. The previous six players to score touchdowns on their first two NFL receptions were Ryan Denney (2009), Todd Herremans (2010), Torrey Smith (2011), the Titans' Justin Hunter (2013), Allen Hurns (2014) and J.J. Watt (2014).
- Against Miami (10/18), finished the game with three receptions for 57 yards, including a season-long 32-yard catch in the third quarter.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), registered the first start of his career but did not catch a pass.
- At Houston (11/1), caught one pass for 12 yards.
- At New Orleans (11/8), caught five passes for 77 yards, setting career highs in both categories. His day included two receptions for first downs (14 and nine yards) during the game-winning drive in overtime.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), totaled 40 yards on three receptions.
- Against Oakland (11/29), scored his first career two-point conversion on a pass from Marcus Mariota in the third quarter. He added a 22-yard catch.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), led the Titans with 119 receiving yards on five receptions. He went over the 100-yard mark on a 47-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter, which also marked his longest reception of the season. His 119 receiving yards accounted for the 15th highest total by a Titans/Oilers rookie receiver in a regular season game and the most by a Titans rookie since Kenny Britt's 128 receiving yards against the Arizona Cardinals on Nov. 29, 2009.
- At New York Jets (12/13), caught three passes for 53 yards, including a long reception of 27 yards.

#15 • WR JUSTIN HUNTER

Wide receiver Justin Hunter (6-4, 203) is in his third NFL season. He was the 34th overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft after the Titans traded up in the second round to select the former University of Tennessee standout.

Hunter totaled 46 receptions for 852 yards during his first two NFL seasons. His 18.5-yard receiving average led all NFL players with at least 40 receptions during that time period.

Hunter's 2014 campaign ended prematurely due to injury. After recording 28 catches for 498 yards and three touchdowns in 12 games, he suffered a spleen injury on Nov. 30 at Houston and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on Dec. 2. At the time of his injury, he ranked third in the NFL in receiving average (17.8 yards).

As a rookie, Hunter played in 14 games. He totaled 18 receptions for 354 yards and four touchdowns. His four touchdown receptions tied (Kendall Wright in 2012, Tyrone Calico in 2003) for the most by a franchise rookie since Chris Sanders' nine in 1995.

The Titans were drawn to Hunter's production on the field and his rare physical traits. He averaged 17.1 yards per reception and scored 18 touchdowns during his three seasons with the Volunteers. His speed (4.40-second 40-yard dash), leaping ability (39½-inch vertical jump, 10-foot-7-inch broad jump) and receiving radius (6-foot 4-inches tall, 78-inch wingspan) provide quarterbacks an inviting target that is difficult for defenders to cover.

Hunter's college statistics included 106 receptions for 1,812 yards in 28 games (17 starts). His receiving yardage total ranked 11th on the school's career list, and his eight 100-yard receiving performances tied Tim McGee and Peerless Price for third all-time by a Volunteer and were topped only by Joey Kent (15) and Marcus Nash (11). His 18 touchdown catches ranked fifth on the school's career charts.

As a junior in 2012, the Virginia Beach, Va., native returned from an ACL injury he suffered the previous season and led the Volunteers with 73 receptions for 1,083 yards and nine touchdowns.

2015 Highlights:

- In four preseason games, recorded three catches for 24 yards.
- At Tampa Bay (9/13), caught one pass for 11 yards.
- At Cleveland (9/20), posted a pair of catches for 34 yards, including a 20-yard reception in the fourth quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), recorded a 29-yard reception.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), tied for the team high with four receptions for 38 yards.
- Against Miami (10/18), recorded 54 yards on three receptions to go over the 1,000-yard receiving mark for his career (1,018).
- Against Atlanta (10/25), totaled 17 yards on two receptions.
- At Houston (11/1), caught two passes for 17 yards.
- At New Orleans (11/8), totaled 17 yards on three receptions and scored his first touchdown of the season and his eighth career touchdown on an eight-yard reception in the fourth quarter.
- Against Carolina (11/15), tied for the team lead with four receptions for 47 yards. Late in the fourth quarter, he suffered a season-ending ankle injury.
- He was placed on injured reserve (ankle) on Nov. 17.

#13 • WR KENDALL WRIGHT

Wide receiver Kendall Wright (5-10, 191) is in his fourth NFL season. He was selected by the Titans with the 20th overall pick in the first round of the 2012 NFL Draft.

Wright's 57 receptions and 715 receiving yards ranked second on the team in 2014, and his six touchdown catches led the squad and set a new career high.

For his first three seasons, Wright's reception totals are unprecedented in franchise history. His 215 receptions from 2012–2014 are more than any other player in his first three seasons with the team, and the next closest total is Webster Slaughter's 184 catches from 1992 through 1994.

In 2013, Wright had 94 catches and 1,079 receiving yards and scored a pair of touchdowns. He ranked fifth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in receptions, and he became the first player in franchise history to lead the team in receptions in each of his first two NFL campaigns.

His 2013 reception total also ranked fifth in franchise history for a single season, behind only Charlie Hennigan's 101 receptions in 1964, Haywood Jeffires' 100 receptions in 1991, Derrick Mason's 96 receptions in 2004 and Mason's 95 catches in 2003. Wright's 1,079 receiving yards were the most by a Titans player since 2004, when Drew Bennett (1,247) and Mason (1,168) each finished with more than 1,100

In his first NFL season, he saw action in 15 games (five starts) and made a significant impact. His 64 receptions led the Titans and tied Jacksonville receiver Justin Blackmon's total for the high among NFL rookies. Wright's 626 receiving yards ranked second on the team and fifth among all rookies, and his four receiving touchdowns tied for first on the team. He posted at least one reception in every game he played and recorded two or more receptions 13 times.

Wright became the first Titans/Oilers rookie to lead the team in receptions since Bill Groman during the franchise's inaugural season of 1960. Only Groman, who posted 72 receptions in his first pro season, has recorded more receptions as a rookie in club annals.

Wright concluded his career at Baylor University as the most decorated and accomplished receiver in school history. He owns virtually every significant receiving record for the program, totaling 302 receptions for 4,004 yards and 30 touchdowns. He never missed a game in his four years with the Bears and recorded at least one reception in every contest.

As a senior in 2011, Wright set Baylor single-season records in receptions (108), receiving yards (1,663), receiving touchdowns (14), 100-yard games (nine), all-purpose yards (1,772) and consecutive games with a reception (tied own record with 13). He landed on numerous All-American lists and was a Biletnikoff Award semi-finalist. Additionally, he was the primary target for Robert Griffin III, who won the Heisman Trophy.

Wright is a native of Mount Pleasant, Texas.

2015 Highlights:

- In four preseason starts, totaled 84 yards on six receptions (long of 30).
- At Tampa Bay (9/13), led the Titans with 101 yards on four receptions, including the longest catch of his career. His 52-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Marcus Mariota in the first quarter topped his previous long reception of 48 yards (Nov. 30, 2014 against Houston). On a 17-yard reception in the third quarter, he went over the 100-yard receiving mark for the fourth time in his four-year career. On a 22-yard reception in the second quarter, he went over 2,500 receiving yards for his career. He became the 16th player in franchise history to reach the mark.

- At Cleveland (9/20), caught two passes for 17 yards.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), led the team with 95 receiving yards on seven catches (tied for team lead). Late in the second quarter, he scored on a seven-yard pass from Marcus Mariota.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), posted three catches for 29 yards.
- Against Miami (10/18), appeared in his 50th career game and posted four receptions for 34 yards. His 235 receptions in his first 50 games with the team were more than any other player in franchise history, topping previous record holder Charlie Hennigan's 228 catches in his first 50 games with the Oilers from 1960–1963.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), notched his third touchdown reception of 2015 and the 15th touchdown catch of his four-year career on a 19-yard pass from Zach Mettenberger. Wright totaled four receptions for 46 yards in the game.
- At Houston (11/1), caught four passes for 21 yards and rushed once for seven yards before leaving the game in the third quarter with a knee injury.
- At New Orleans (11/8), against Carolina (11/15) and at Jacksonville (11/19), he was inactive with a knee injury.
- Against Oakland (11/29), posted two receptions for 19 yards.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), recorded three catches for 28 yards. He also provided a key downfield block on Marcus Mariota's 87-yard touchdown run.
- At New York Jets (12/13), he was inactive with a rib injury.

RECEPTIONS IN FIRST THREE SEASONS

Kendall Wright's total of 215 receptions from 2012–2014 ranks first in franchise history for a player's first three seasons with the team. The next closest total is Webster Slaughter's 184 catches from 1992 through 1994.

Most receptions in a player's first three seasons with the Titans/Oilers:

| Player | Seasons | Receptions |
|--------------------------|------------------|------------|
| 1. Kendall Wright | 2012–2014 | 215 |
| 2. Webster Slaughter | 1992–1994 | 184 |
| 3. Charlie Hennigan | 1960–1962 | 180 |
| 4. Drew Hill | 1985–1987 | 178 |
| 5. Ernest Givins | 1986–1988 | 174 |

FASTEST TO 200 RECEPTIONS

Kendall Wright reached the 200-reception mark for his career against the Pittsburgh Steelers on Nov. 17, 2014, his 41st career game.

In doing so, he broke Charlie Hennigan's franchise mark for the fewest games needed to 200 receptions. Hennigan accomplished the feat in his 42nd game in 1962.

Fewest games needed to reach 200 receptions, franchise history:

| Receiver | Seasons | Games |
|--------------------------|------------------|-----------|
| 1. Kendall Wright | 2012–2014 | 41 |

#99 • DT JURRELL CASEY

Defensive lineman Jurrell Casey (6-1, 305) is in his fifth NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the third round (77th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft, and in 2014, he was rewarded for his play with a multi-year contract extension.

Casey was named one of five permanent team captains by his teammates in 2014 for the first time in his career. While remaining a key cog in the defense's switch from a 4-3 to a 3-4 scheme, he started all 16 games and led the team's defensive linemen (fourth on the team) with 86 tackles. His 27 quarterback pressures and 13 tackles for loss tied for the team lead and set new career highs. With five sacks, he ranked second on the squad.

In 2013, Casey was named Associated Press second-team All-Pro after putting together one of the best seasons by a defensive tackle in franchise history. His 10.5 sacks set a career high and made up the second-highest total by a franchise defensive tackle since sacks became an official statistic in 1982, finishing behind only Ray Childress' 13 sacks in 1992. In 2013, only Jason Hatcher of the Dallas Cowboys (11) finished with more sacks than Casey among defensive tackles.

Casey's 2013 season totals also included a career-high 90 tackles, a career- and team-high 10 quarterback pressures, three tackles for loss, three passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. He played in 15 games with 14 starts, missing only the season finale due to a knee injury.

Casey started 31 out of 32 games in his first two seasons, and in each campaign he led the team's defensive linemen in tackles. As a rookie, he notched 74 tackles and 2.5 sacks, and he followed with 80 tackles and three sacks in 2012.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Casey played in 38 games (26 starts) on the defensive line (24 at right defensive tackle and two at nose tackle) at the University of Southern California. He recorded 138 tackles, nine sacks, 22 tackles for loss, three quarterback pressures, four fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, an interception and three passes defended.

In his final season with the Trojans (2010), he started all 13 games for the second consecutive season and had 67 tackles, a team-best 11 tackles for loss, a team-leading 4.5 sacks, one interception, one fumble recovery and two passes defended. He was named first-team All-Pac 10.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), led the team with three tackles for loss to go with a sack, six total tackles and a pair of quarterback pressures. On the first series of the third quarter, he recorded his 22nd career sack, taking down Jameis Winston for a loss of eight yards.
- At Cleveland (9/20), posted five tackles, a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), recorded three tackles, a sack, a tackle for loss and a team-high four quarterback pressures. His four quarterback pressures tied his career high.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), led the defensive line with eight tackles and added 1.5 sacks, a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure. In the second quarter, he sacked Tyrod Taylor for a three-yard loss on third down, and he added a half sack later in the second quarter, combining with Derrick Morgan on the sack.

- Against Miami (10/18), totaled six tackles, a quarterback pressure and a pass defended.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), posted four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a career-high three passes defended.
- At Houston (11/1), totaled six tackles, a half sack and three quarterback pressures. He split a six-yard sack with Zach Brown in the fourth quarter.
- At New Orleans (11/8), recorded a tackle, a quarterback pressure and a pass defended.
- Against Carolina (11/15), registered six tackles, a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), totaled five tackles, a sack, a tackle for loss and two quarterback pressures. In the fourth quarter, he recorded a four-yard sack, giving him at least five sacks in three consecutive seasons (10.5 in 2013 and five in 2014).
- Against Oakland (11/29), notched six tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), registered four tackles, a sack and two quarterback pressures. In the second quarter, he ended a Jacksonville drive with a nine-yard sack of Blake Bortles. It gave him six sacks in 2015, amounting to the second-highest single-season total of his career.
- At New York Jets (12/13), tied for the team lead with eight tackles and also registered a tackle for loss and two quarterback pressures.

#55 • ILB ZACH BROWN

Linebacker Zach Brown (6-1, 248) is in his fourth NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the second round (52nd overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft.

Brown's third NFL season was cut short due to a pectoral injury. He was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 16, 2014 after suffering a pectoral injury early in the season opener.

In each of his first two campaigns, Brown played in all 16 games and notched 13 starts. His 210 tackles from 2012 through 2013 were the most on the team.

His 2013 season totals included a career-high 117 tackles, which led the team's linebackers and ranked second overall on the team behind safety Bernard Pollard. He added four sacks, four quarterback pressures, four tackles for loss, one interception, five passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

As a rookie, he tied for third on the squad with 93 tackles, a total that ranked second for a Titans rookie since 1999 (103 by Alterraun Verner in 2010). Brown also ranked fourth in sacks (5.5), tied for second in tackles for loss (6), finished third in interceptions (3), tied for fourth in passes defensed (6) and led the team in defensive fumble recoveries (2). He scored two touchdowns off interception returns.

Brown was the only NFL rookie in 2012 to finish among the top five rookies in both interceptions (tied for fourth) and sacks (tied for fifth).

In four seasons at North Carolina, Brown started 23 of 47 games, including 11 starts at weakside outside linebacker and 12 starts at the strong-side spot. He recorded 230 tackles, 5.5 sacks, seven interceptions, 19 tackles for loss, six quarterback pressures, three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and four passes defensed.

As a senior, Brown was a Butkus Award semifinalist and earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference first-team honors, as he led the team with a career-high 105 tackles. He also ranked second on the squad with 5.5 sacks and 13.5 stops for loss.

The Columbia, Md., native was considered the fastest linebacker available in the 2012 NFL Draft. He was timed in the 40-yard dash at 4.44 seconds at the NFL Scouting Combine and in 4.37 seconds at his pro day.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), led the team with eight tackles.
- At Cleveland (9/20), led the team with eight tackles for the second consecutive week.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), ranked second on the team with eight tackles and added an interception. In the third quarter, he recorded his fifth career interception and his first since Nov. 24, 2013. He picked off a pass from Andrew Luck and raced 45 yards on the return to help set up a field goal.
- Against Miami (10/18), led the team and set a new career high with 14 tackles.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), recorded five tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- At Houston (11/1), tied for the team lead with nine tackles. He also registered a half sack, a tackle for loss, a quarterback pressure and a pass defended. He teamed with Jurrell Casey on a six-yard sack of Brian Hoyer in the fourth quarter.

- At New Orleans (11/8), produced six tackles.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), registered a pair of tackles, a quarterback pressure and an interception. He notched his second interception of the season and the sixth interception of his career in the fourth quarter, picking off a Blake Bortles pass at the Tennessee 12-yard line.
- Against Oakland (11/29), recorded a tackle for loss.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), posted five tackles.
- At New York Jets (12/13), totaled seven tackles, including a tackle for loss.

#91 • OLB DERRICK MORGAN

Derrick Morgan (6-3, 261) is in his sixth NFL season. He was selected by the Titans with the 16th overall draft choice in the 2010 NFL Draft, and in March 2015, he was re-signed as an unrestricted free agent.

In 2014, Morgan produced the biggest numbers of his career after switching from a 4-3 defensive end to a 3-4 outside linebacker. He started all 16 games for the second time in his career and led the squad with 6.5 sacks. His 27 quarterback pressures and 13 tackles for loss tied for the team lead and set career highs. Also, his nine passes defended and two forced fumbles set career highs.

In 2013, Morgan played in 15 games with 14 starts at defensive end and ranked second on the team with six sacks, eight quarterback pressures and three tackles for loss (tied). His totals also included 54 tackles, one pass defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

In 2012, Morgan started all 16 games for the first time in his career and led the Titans with 6.5 sacks and 19 quarterback pressures. He also set a career high with 68 tackles and added five tackles for loss, five passes defended, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

Morgan played in 15 games in 2011 and led the Titans with 20 quarterback pressures. He added 47 tackles, 2.5 sacks, three tackles for loss and two passes defended.

As a rookie, an ACL tear ended his rookie campaign after only four games.

In three seasons at Georgia Tech, the Coatesville, Pa., native totaled 115 tackles, 19.5 sacks, 29.5 tackles for loss, five passes defended, six fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles in 39 games. He started the final 27 consecutive games of his college career at left defensive end. Prior to entering the NFL after his junior season, he was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year with an ACC-high 12.5 sacks.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), sacked Jameis Winston two times (14 yards and two yards) to become the third player in the Titans era (1999–present) to reach 25 sacks with the club, joining Jevon Kearse (52) and Kyle Vanden Bosch (38.5). His totals also included seven tackles, two tackles for loss and two quarterback pressures.
- At Cleveland (9/20), recorded seven tackles, a sack, a tackle for loss and a forced fumble. He sacked Johnny Manziel for a four-yard loss on the final play of the third quarter and also forced a fumble on the play (recovered by the Browns). The sack gave Morgan a team-high three sacks in 2015 and 26 sacks in his six-year career.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), posted a tackle, a quarterback pressure and a pass defended.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), totaled three tackles, 1.5 sacks, a tackle for loss and two quarterback pressures. On a third down in the second quarter, he and Jurrell Casey combined on a five-yard sack of Tyrod Taylor, and in the fourth quarter, he dropped Taylor for an 11-yard loss.
- Against Miami (10/18), registered five tackles.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), recorded three tackles, a tackle for loss and two quarterback pressures.
- At Houston (11/1), posted three tackles, three quarterback pressures and a pass defended.
- At New Orleans (11/8), recorded a quarterback pressure.

#98 • OLB BRIAN ORAKPO

Outside linebacker Brian Orakpo (6-4, 257) is in his seventh NFL season and his first campaign with the Titans. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2015.

Orakpo spent the previous six years as a member of the Washington Redskins, who selected him in the first round (13th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.

During his time in Washington, Orakpo was named to the Pro Bowl three times (2009, 2010 and 2013). His career totals in Washington included 40 sacks, 255 tackles, one interception, 17 passes defended, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in 71 starts. He recorded eight multi-sack games.

As a rookie in 2009, he earned Pro Bowl honors and set a Redskins rookie record with 11 sacks, which also led all NFL rookies.

For each of his first three seasons in Washington, Orakpo led or tied for the team lead in sacks, but he missed most of the 2012 and 2014 seasons with pectoral injuries.

In 2013, he earned his third Pro Bowl selection, as he registered 10 sacks, 60 tackles, one interception return for touchdown, 18 quarterback hits, 16 tackles for loss and two fumble recoveries.

A native of Houston, Texas, Orakpo was drafted by the Redskins out of the University of Texas, where he finished his college career with 22 sacks. He was as a multiple award winner in college, including the Nagurski (nation's top defensive player), Lombardi (nation's top lineman) and the Hendricks (nation's top defensive end). He was a part of the Texas team that won the National Title at the conclusion of the 2005 season.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13) led the team with four quarterback pressures and tallied a tackle in his Titans debut.

- At Cleveland (9/20) posted five tackles, a tackle for loss and two quarterback pressures.

- Against Indianapolis (9/27), totaled a tackle, a sack, a quarterback pressure and a tackle for loss. In the second quarter, he recorded his first sack as a member of the Titans, dropping Andrew Luck for a six-yard loss on third down.

- Against Buffalo (10/11), posted a tackle.

- Against Miami (10/18), produced five tackles, a sack, a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure. In the third quarter, he recorded his second sack of the season, dropping Ryan Tannehill for a two-yard loss.

- Against Atlanta (10/25), recorded five tackles and three quarterback pressures.

- At Houston (11/1), totaled three tackles, two tackles for loss, one sack, three quarterback pressures and one pass defended. Late in the first half, he recorded his third sack of the season, taking down Brian Hoyer for a seven-yard loss.

- At New Orleans (11/8), led the team with two sacks and five quarterback pressures. He totaled five tackles and added a pass defended. In the first quarter, he dropped Drew Brees for a four-yard loss. Late in the fourth quarter, he delivered a key eight-yard sack to help slow a potential game-winning drive by the Saints and then blocked the subsequent field goal. It was his ninth career game with at least two sacks.

- Against Carolina (11/15), totaled six tackles, a sack, a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure. He sacked Cam Newton in the third quarter for a six-yard loss, giving him his third consecutive game with at least one sack. It marked the third streak of his career of at least three games with a sack (2010 and 2013).

- At Jacksonville (11/19), registered four tackles, a sack, a tackle for loss, a team-high four quarterback pressures, a pass defended and a forced fumble. Late in the second quarter, he recorded a nine-yard sack against Blake Bortles. He tied a career high with his fourth consecutive game with at least one sack and became the Titans' only player other than Jevon Kearse since the beginning of the 1999 season to record a four-game sack streak. In the second quarter, he knocked the ball out of the hands of Bortles on a quarterback sneak, and David Bass recovered the fumble for the Titans. It was Orakpo's seventh career forced fumble and his first since 2012.

- Against Oakland (11/29), posted six tackles, including a tackle for loss.

- Against Jacksonville (12/6), registered five tackles, two quarterback pressures and a pass defended.

- At New York Jets (12/13), tallied three tackles.

#54 • ILB AVERY WILLIAMSON

Linebacker Avery Williamson (6-1, 246) is in his second NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the fifth round (151st overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Williamson had one of the most productive seasons of any Titans defensive rookie in recent memory. Even though he did not record his first start until Week 5, he produced 107 tackles to rank third on the team in 2014 and record the highest tackle total by a rookie in the "Titans era" (1999–present). He added three sacks, eight quarterback pressures, eight tackles for loss, four passes defended, two fumble recoveries and seven stops on special teams.

In a four-year career at Kentucky, he played in 49 games with 21 starts. He finished his career with 296 total tackles, including double-digit tackles in 12 career contests. After primarily serving on special teams in his first two years, he went over the 100-tackle mark as a junior and senior.

As a senior in 2013, he was a team captain and led the squad in tackles for the second consecutive season. His 102 tackles tied for fourth place in the SEC, and he was named All-SEC second team by Associated Press.

The Milan, Tenn., native grew up as a Titans fan.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), registered five tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- At Cleveland (9/20), posted six tackles.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), led the team and tied his career high with 12 tackles.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), finished second on the team with nine tackles and added a sack, a quarterback pressure and a tackle for loss. In the third quarter, he was credited with his first sack of the season (fourth career), taking down Tyrod Taylor for a loss of 12 yards.
- Against Miami (10/18), he was inactive with a hamstring injury.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), recorded five tackles and his first career interception. On a fourth-and-goal inside the one-yard line in the fourth quarter, he intercepted a Matt Ryan pass in the end zone that was intended for tight end Jacob Tamme. The ball was deflected first by defensive back Marqueston Huff and then by Tamme before Williamson secured the interception.
- At Houston (11/1), registered seven tackles and two quarterback pressures.
- At New Orleans (11/8), tied for the team lead with 10 tackles and added a pair of quarterback pressures.
- Against Carolina (11/15), led the team and was credited with a career-high 16 tackles in addition to a team-high three tackles for loss (tied career high), a half sack and two quarterback pressures. He topped his previous career high of 12 tackles. In the third quarter, he split a nine-yard sack of Cam Newton with David Bass.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), recorded five tackles, a team-high three tackles for loss (tied career high), a sack and a quarterback pressure. In the fourth quarter, he helped end a Jaguars drive with a five-yard sack on third down.
- Against Oakland (11/29), led the team with 13 tackles and also registered a sack, a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure. In the first quarter, he sacked Derek Carr for a seven-yard loss. The play gave Williamson 3.5 sacks in 2015, topping the three sacks he produced as a rookie in 2014.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), finished second on the team with eight tackles and added a quarterback pressure.
- At New York Jets (12/13), registered seven tackles and a quarterback pressure. He became the first player for the team in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to begin his career with consecutive 100-tackle seasons.

#59 • ILB WESLEY WOODYARD

Linebacker Wesley Woodyard (6-0, 233) is in his eighth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans in 2014. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 14, 2014.

Woodyard was named one of five permanent team captains by his teammates in 2014 for the first time as a member of the Titans and for the seventh time in his career.

His totals in his first season with the Titans included 16 starts and a career-high 134 tackles, which led the team. He added 2.5 sacks, nine quarterback pressures, eight tackles for loss, two interceptions and four passes defensed.

Woodyard joined the Titans after spending the first six years of his career with the Denver Broncos. He appeared in 87 regular-season games with 40 starts. For his Broncos career, he totaled 396 tackles, eight sacks, five interceptions, six forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

As the middle linebacker from 2012-13, Woodyard started 24 total games and registered 197 tackles, seven sacks, four interceptions and three forced fumbles.

In 2012, Woodyard led the Broncos with a career-high 114 tackles. He ranked second on the squad in both 2013 (83) and 2011 (87).

Also in 2012, he was the only NFL player to record at least 100 tackles, five sacks and three interceptions. He was only the 12th NFL player to accomplish the feat over a 30-year span.

The LaGrange, Ga., native entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent out of the University of Kentucky. He earned first-team All-SEC honors during each of his final two seasons with the Wildcats.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), posted three tackles.
- At Cleveland (9/20), recorded his first sack of the season (11.5 career). In the third quarter, he sacked Johnny Manziel for a 10-yard loss and forced a fumble on the play (recovered by the Browns).
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), posted a tackle.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), recorded his first start of the season at inside linebacker and led the team with 10 tackles.
- Against Miami (10/18), registered 11 tackles, a sack, two tackles for loss and a quarterback pressure. In the fourth quarter, he recorded his second sack of the season, taking down Ryan Tannehill for a loss of 10 yards on third down.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), led the team with 11 tackles. On third-and-goal from the one-yard line in the fourth quarter, he stopped fullback Patrick DiMarco for no gain, leading to an interception on fourth down.

- At Houston (11/1), registered eight tackles, a tackle for loss and a quarterback pressure.
- At New Orleans (11/8), tied for the team lead with 10 tackles and added a sack and a quarterback pressure. In the third quarter, he notched his third sack of the season, delivering an 11-yard takedown of Drew Brees.
- Against Carolina (11/15), finished second on the squad with 10 tackles and also registered a sack, a tackle for loss and two quarterback pressures. In the third quarter, he posted a one-yard sack of Cam Newton.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), tied for the team lead with six tackles and also totaled two tackles for loss, a sack and a quarterback pressure. In the second quarter, he sacked Blake Bortles for a six-yard loss, recording his fifth sack of the season (15.5 career). He reached 600 career tackles in the game.
- Against Oakland (11/29), posted seven tackles.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), totaled five tackles, a quarterback pressure, a pass defended and a fumble recovery for a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, he scooped up a fumble on a botched shotgun snap to Blake Bortles and returned the ball three yards for a touchdown. The play marked Woodyard's first career touchdown, his second career fumble recovery and the team's first fumble return for a touchdown since Jason McCourty's 62-yard fumble return for a score at Houston on Nov. 30, 2014.
- At New York Jets (12/13), tied for the team lead with eight tackles.

#30 • CB JASON MCCOURTY

Cornerback Jason McCourty (6-0, 193) is in his seventh NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the sixth round (203rd overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft, and in 2012, he was rewarded for his play with a multi-year contract extension that keeps him under contract through 2017.

In 2014, McCourty marked his third consecutive season to start all 16 games. He led the team with three interceptions and 13 passes defended and added 85 tackles, a tackle for loss, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery for a touchdown.

From the time he became a full-time starter in 2011 through 2014, McCourty led the Titans in passes defended (59) and tied for first in interceptions (nine).

In 2012, the cornerback was named by his peers as a team captain for the first time. He responded by starting all 16 games for the first time in his career and tying for the team lead with four interceptions. He also led the squad and set a career high with 17 passes defended. His 93 tackles finished tied for third on the defense, and he added four tackles for loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

In 2011, McCourty recorded 15 starts and a career-high 107 tackles. His tackle total ranked second on the team. He also led the squad with 13 passes defended and tied for the lead with two interceptions. He also recovered a blocked punt for a touchdown.

In 2010, he grabbed a starting spot out of training camp before suffering an injury early in the season and missing four games. McCourty returned to the lineup and started three of the team's final four games and finished his second pro campaign with two interceptions and 13 passes defended.

As a rookie in 2009, McCourty gained three games of starting experience in the first half of the season due to multiple injuries in the secondary. He also finished third on the team with 12 special teams tackles during his rookie campaign.

In a four-year career at Rutgers, McCourty totaled 150 tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, 20 passes defended and two fumble recoveries in 47 games. He also had a 25.8-yard average on 17 kickoff returns.

The Nyack, N.Y., native has an identical twin brother, Devin, who plays cornerback for the New England Patriots.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), at Cleveland (9/20) and against Indianapolis (9/27), did not play due to a groin injury.

- Against Buffalo (10/11), returned to the starting lineup from a groin injury he suffered during training camp and notched two tackles.
- Against Miami (10/18), notched two tackles.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), posted five tackles and a pass defended but had to leave the game early due to a hamstring injury.
- At Houston (11/1), recorded seven tackles.
- At New Orleans (11/8) and against Carolina (11/15), he was inactive with a groin injury.
- Placed on injured reserve on Nov. 17 due to a groin injury.

Cornerback Coty Sensabaugh (5-11, 187) is in his fourth NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (115th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft.

Sensabaugh began the 2014 campaign as the team's nickel defensive back, but after an injury to Bliidi Wreh-Wilson, he finished the year as a starting cornerback. His season totals included career highs in starts (six), tackles (44), sacks (one), and passes defended (seven).

As the team's nickel defensive back in 2013, Sensabaugh played in the first 14 games of the season and earned three starts before landing on injured reserve with a foot injury. He totaled 37 tackles, one tackle for loss, six passes defended, two fumble recoveries and six stops on special teams.

The Titans selected Sensabaugh with a fourth-round pick in the 2012 NFL Draft, and as a rookie, he played in all 16 games with three starts. He began the season playing primarily on special teams but became the club's nickel cornerback at midseason. His statistical totals included 27 tackles, three passes defended and four special teams stops.

At Clemson University, he played in 52 college games, and as a senior, the team's co-captain led the Tigers with 13 passes defended.

Sensabaugh is a native of Kingsport, Tenn.

2015 Highlights:

- In four preseason starts, totaled 10 tackles and an interception.
- At Tampa Bay (9/13), recorded his first career interception, picking off a pass by Jameis Winston to wide receiver Adam Humphries. He raced 26 yards for a touchdown to help give the Titans a 14-0 lead in the first quarter.

- At Cleveland (9/20), notched four tackles.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), posted four tackles.
- Against Miami (10/18), in the final minute of the first half, recorded his second interception of the season. He picked off a Ryan Tannehill pass in Tennessee territory to end a Miami threat. He added two tackles.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), recorded six tackles and two passes defended.
- At Houston (11/1), registered five tackles and a pass defended.
- At New Orleans (11/8), posted four tackles and a pass defended.

#33 • S MICHAEL GRIFFIN

Free safety Michael Griffin (6-0, 215) is in his ninth NFL season. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft.

Entering the 2015 season, Griffin ranks in the top 10 in franchise history in a pair of major statistical categories. He is tied for ninth in team annals (fifth among safeties) with 24 career interceptions, and his 811 career tackles rank seventh overall and first among safeties.

In 2014, Griffin reached the 100-tackle mark for the third consecutive season and the fifth time in his career. He ranked second on the squad with 115 tackles to go along with a career-high three sacks, two interceptions, five passes defended, seven tackles for loss and three quarterback pressures.

Griffin has been one of the most durable safeties in the NFL during his career. He never missed a game until the eighth game of his seventh year, a streak of 103 consecutive contests, and his 126 games played from 2007–2014 rank second in the NFL among safeties.

During the 2012 offseason, Griffin was rewarded with a new multi-year contract. He responded by starting all 16 games and ranking second on the team with 103 tackles. It marked the third time in his career he reached the 100-tackle mark.

By tying Jason McCourty for the team lead in 2012 with four interceptions, Griffin recorded his fourth career season to lead the squad or tie for the team lead. He joined Darryl Lewis (five times) and Samari Rolle (four) as the only players in franchise history to accomplish the feat at least four times. Griffin moved into a tie with Gregg Bingham for 13th place in franchise history with 21 career interceptions.

En route to earning his second career Pro Bowl berth in 2010, Griffin led the team with four interceptions and finished second on the squad with a career-high 153 tackles.

In 2008, he was named to the Pro Bowl after starting all 16 games for the first time. He led the team with seven interceptions, a total that tied for the 11th-best figure in team history and ranked second in the NFL in 2008 behind only Baltimore's Ed Reed (nine).

A product of the University of Texas, he was selected with the 19th overall pick in 2007 and stepped into the starting lineup midway through his rookie season.

With the Longhorns, he played in 50 career games and totaled 364 tackles, four sacks and eight interceptions. Griffin also set a Big 12 Conference record and ranked second in NCAA Division I-A history with eight career blocked punts.

2015 Highlights:

- At Tampa Bay (9/13), recorded five tackles.
- At Cleveland (9/20), posted five tackles.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), recorded six tackles and a pass defended.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), recorded eight tackles.
- Against Miami (10/18), registered four tackles and an interception. In the second quarter, he picked off a Ryan Tannehill pass and went 29 yards on the return. With 25 career interceptions, he tied Ken Houston for eighth place on the franchise's all-time interception list. Griffin's four tackles moved him past John Grimsley (836 career tackles) for sixth place on the franchise's all-time tackles list.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), he was inactive with a knee injury.

- At Houston (11/1), tied for the team lead with nine tackles.
- At New Orleans (11/8), totaled eight tackles.
- Against Carolina (11/15), recorded six tackles, a tackle for loss, a sack and a quarterback pressure. In the third quarter, he sacked Cam Newton for a seven-yard loss, notching his first sack of the season and the seventh sack of his career.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), posted five tackles.
- Against Oakland (11/29), finished second on the team with eight tackles, including a tackle for loss.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), led the team with nine tackles. In doing so, he moved past former Oilers linebacker Al Smith (877 career tackles) for fifth place on the club's all-time tackles list.
- At New York Jets (12/13), recorded seven tackles, including a tackle for loss.

#6 • P BRETT KERN

Punter Brett Kern (6-2, 214) is in his eighth NFL season and his sixth full campaign with the Titans. He was claimed off waivers by the Titans in 2009.

Kern continued his assault on the team’s all-time punting records in 2014. He launched a career-high 88 total punts for a gross average of 46.8 yards and a net average of 40.8 yards, which broke his own single-season team record (40.4-yard net average in 2012). He owns the top four net punting seasons in franchise history and five of the team’s top seven net punting seasons.

At the end of the 2014 campaign, Kern ranked as the franchise’s all-time career leader in both gross punting average (44.9 yards) and net punting average (40.0).

In 2013, Kern averaged 43.4 yards on 78 punts, and his 39.7-yard net average was the second best of his career and the second best net average in team annals. He placed 41.0 percent of his punts inside the 20 (32 of 78), a rate that ranked third in the NFL.

Kern produced one of the best punting seasons in team history in 2012. He set franchise records with a gross punting average of 47.6 yards and a net punting average of 40.4 yards (he broke the mark in 2014). Thirty of his 81 punts were placed inside the opponent's 20-yard line (37.0 percent).

Kern's 2011 statistics included 86 punts for a gross average of 43.6 yards. His net average of 39.4 yards set a then-career high and then-franchise record, narrowly beating out Craig Hentrich's previous franchise record of 39.2 net yards per punt in 1998.

Kern was claimed by the Titans off waivers from the Denver Broncos on Oct. 27, 2009. He spent the entire 2008 season and the first six games of 2009 campaign in Denver, totaling 73 punts and a 46.5-yard average in 22 games with the Broncos.

In 2008, Kern ranked fifth in the league with a 46.7-yard punting average that marked the third-best season total by a Bronco in club history. At the time, his punting average was the best in NFL history by a rookie. He was named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and The Sporting News.

The Grand Island, N.Y., native was originally signed by the Broncos as a rookie free agent on April 28, 2008, following four seasons at the University of Toledo.

2015 Highlights:

- In four preseason games, averaged 48.2 yards on 16 punts.
- At Tampa Bay (9/13), averaged 47.3 yards (43.0 net) on four punts with one punt placed inside the 20. He pinned the Buccaneers on the two-yard line with a 38-yard punt in the third quarter.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), averaged 42.4 yards on five punts (42.4 net) with two punts placed inside the 20. He did not allow a return on five punts.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), averaged 41.8 yards on six punts (31.8 net) with three punts placed inside the 20. His punts forced the Bills to start drives at their own 11-yard line twice and once at their eight-yard line.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), averaged 43.6 yards (41.9 net) on seven punts with five punts placed inside the 20.
- At Houston (11/1), punted seven times for 349 yards, recording a gross average of 49.9 yards per punt and a net average of 45.9 yards per punt. He also placed three punts inside the 20. Six of his seven punts went at least 50 yards or pinned the Texans inside the 20. His 45.9 net average was the 13th best single-game performance on record for the team (since 1976, minimum four punts).
- At New Orleans (11/8), for the second consecutive week, turned in one of the top 15 net punting performances in team history. With five punts for 253 yards (50.6 gross average) and two punts inside the 20, his 46.4 net average ranked 11th in team annals for a single game (since 1976, minimum four punts).
- Against Carolina (11/15), set a season high with a 51.8-yard average on five punts against the Panthers (39.6 net average).
- At Jacksonville (11/19), averaged 45.2 yards (30.0 net) on five punts with two placed inside the 20. He played in his 100th career game with the Titans. On his fifth punt of the evening, he became the third player to reach 500 punts with the franchise, joining Craig Hentrich and Jim Norton.
- Against Oakland (11/29), averaged 47.8 yards (39.7 net) on six punts with one punt placed inside the 20.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), averaged 44.3 yards (38.3 net) on three punts with one punt placed inside the 20.
- At New York Jets (12/13), averaged 48.2 yards (42.8 net) on six punts with one punt placed inside the 20.

#4 • K RYAN SUCCOP

Kicker Ryan Succop (6-2, 218) is in his seventh NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans. He was signed by the Titans as a free agent on Sept. 1, 2014.

In his first year in Tennessee, he set a career high by making 86.4 percent of his field goal attempts. He was 19-of-22 and also connected on all 27 of his extra point attempts.

Succop's previous five seasons were spent with the Kansas City Chiefs, who chose him with the last pick of the 2009 NFL Draft (256th overall).

In his career with the Chiefs, he posted four 100-point seasons and made 81.0 percent (119-147) of his field goal attempts. Over his final three years there (2011-13), 52 percent of his kickoffs resulted in touchbacks, a number that ranked 11th in the NFL during that span.

In 2013, he tallied career highs for points (118) and touchbacks (47). He also posted the second-best percentage of his career for field goals made inside of 50 yards, connecting on 87.5 percent (21-24) of those attempts. During his Chiefs career, he produced five game-winning kicks.

A native of Hickory, N.C., Succop played in 50 games for the University of South Carolina Gamecocks, hitting 49 of 69 field goals (71.0%) and converting 104 of 106 PATs. His 251 points made up the second-highest total in school history.

2015 Highlights:

- In four preseason games, he made all five field goal attempts and seven of his eight extra point attempts.
- At Tampa Bay (9/13), tied his career high by making all six extra point attempts.
- At Cleveland (9/20), made both of his extra point attempts.
- Against Indianapolis (9/27), made both field goal attempts (38 and 21 yards) and all three extra point attempts. He also set a career high with six touchbacks on kickoffs.
- Against Buffalo (10/11), played in the 100th game of his career. He made both of his field goals (21 and 41 yards) and his only extra point attempt.
- Against Miami (10/18), made his only field goal attempt (37 yards) and his only extra point attempt to give him 200 consecutive successful PATs to begin his career.
- Against Atlanta (10/25), made his only extra point attempt.
- At Houston (11/1), was successful on both of his field goal attempts, connecting on kicks of 35 and 44 yards. It gave him a streak of 13 consecutive field goals, including all seven attempts in 2015.
- At New Orleans (11/8), made his first two field goals from 51 and 29 yards before missing his final attempt off the crossbar. In the first quarter, his 51-yard field goal was his longest since he hit a 51-yarder on Dec. 14, 2014. In the third quarter, his 29-yarder gave him 15 consecutive field goals dating back to the 2014 season. It ranked as the seventh-longest such streak in franchise history. The streak, which tied for Succop's second-longest streak of his career (22 in 2011, 15 from 2009-2010), came to an end with a 55-yard miss off the crossbar late in the fourth quarter.

- Against Carolina (11/15), made his only field goal attempt (45 yards) and his only extra point attempt.
- At Jacksonville (11/19), made field goals of 47 and 49 yards (missed from 53 yards).
- Against Oakland (11/29), made one of his two extra point attempts. In the first quarter, his streak of 205 successful extra point attempts to begin his career was snapped when his attempt was blocked.
- Against Jacksonville (12/6), tied his career high with six PATs on six attempts.

MORE TITANS SPECIALISTS

26 - RB/KR ANTONIO ANDREWS

- Running back/kickoff returner Antonio Andrews (5-10, 225) is in his second NFL season after being signed by the Titans as an undrafted free agent in 2014.
- In his rookie campaign, Andrews spent the first seven weeks on the team's practice squad before being elevated to the 53-man roster on Oct. 21, 2014. In four games, he caught two passes for 11 yards and returned five kickoffs for 110 yards.
- During his four-year career at Western Kentucky, he appeared in 42 games. He notched 3,674 yards with 29 touchdowns on 618 carries (5.9 avg.), and he scored 198 points on 33 total touchdowns. His 6,799 all-purpose yards gave him an average of 161.9 yards per game.
- Andrews attended Fort Campbell (Ky.) High School, which is approximately 60 miles northwest of Nashville. As a high school senior, he was named the state of Kentucky's "Mr. Football" as a dual-threat quarterback.

48 - LS BEAU BRINKLEY

- Long snapper Beau Brinkley (6-4, 248) is in his fourth NFL season in 2015. He was signed as an undrafted free agent in 2012 and re-signed to a multi-year contract in 2015.
- In 2014, he played in all 16 games for the third consecutive year and tied for third on the team with a career-high 10 special teams tackles. He helped Brett Kern set a new team record for single-season net punting average.

- In 2013, Brinkley saw action in all 16 games and posted six special teams stops.
- In 2012, his consistency helped Brett Kern set the franchise records for both gross and net punting average in 2012.
- The Kearney, Mo., native spent four seasons as Missouri's long snapper after joining the team as a preferred walk-on. Appeared in 50 career games during his time at Missouri.

22 - RB/KR/PR DEXTER McCLUSTER

- Running back/returner Dexter McCluster (5-8, 170) is in his sixth NFL season and his second campaign with the Titans. He was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2014.
- In 2014, a knee injury brought his 2014 campaign to an early end. He was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 18. Prior to that, he played in 14

- games (two starts) and totaled 131 yards on 40 carries and 197 yards and a touchdown on 26 receptions. He also led the team with 22 punt returns for a 7.0-yard average.
- During his four seasons in Kansas City, McCluster returned 79 punts for 959 yards (12.1 avg.) and three touchdowns as well as 52 kickoffs for 1,087 yards.
- In 2013, he was named to his first Pro Bowl, earning the honor as a punt returner. Additionally, he earned second-team All-Pro as a punt returner by the Associated Press. He recorded a league-best 686 yards on 58 punt returns with a pair of touchdowns.
- Read more on McCluster earlier in this release among the team's running backs.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD HIGHLIGHTS

RB ANTONIO ANDREWS

- Andrews attended Fort Campbell (Ky.) High School, which is approximately 60 miles northwest of Nashville. As a high school senior, he was named the state of Kentucky's "Mr. Football" as a dual-threat quarterback.

LB DAVID BASS

- Bass became only the fifth player from Missouri Western State to reach the NFL.

T BYRON BELL

- Bell is proud to be a native of Greenville, Texas, and the city reciprocates the feelings. The town of 25,557 named the street he grew up on "Byron Bell Street" and the mayor gave him a key to the city as a rookie.
- Bell was recruited out of high school by current Titans offensive line coach Bob Bostad, who was a member of the New Mexico coaching staff. Bostad left for a position with Wisconsin before Bell arrived on the Lobos' campus.

DE ANGELO BLACKSON

- Blackson's legal guardian in his youth was his sister, Dalila Newman. She raised Angelo since he was six years old and he says he learned everything from her.
- Blackson was on the field for the famous "Kick 6" play during the Auburn and Alabama game in 2013. Blackson lined up on the defensive front to attempt to block the field goal and served as a blocker on the game-winning missed field goal return for a touchdown.

LS BEAU BRINKLEY

- Brinkley's father, Mike, was an All-American defensive end and long snapper at Missouri Valley College. Beau learned to long snap when he was just seven years old.
- Brinkley raced four-wheelers in the Extreme Dirt Track Racing Series while growing up in Missouri. He traveled the country competing in both motor cross and flat track competitions and won a flat track regional title in 2005.
- In June 2015, Brinkley participated in the Nashville Sports Council Golf Tournament at Gaylord Springs Golf Course. On the par-3 eighth hole, he sunk a hole-in-one to win a barrel of Jack Daniel's whiskey.

ILB ZACH BROWN

- As a sophomore at North Carolina, Brown set the Tar Heels school record in the indoor 60-meter dash with a time of 6.72 seconds.
- Since his childhood, Brown has always been interested in deep sea creatures. Eventually, he would liked to have a huge circular fish tank in his home with a few small sharks.
- Brown was a unique athlete in high school. He was a state champion wrestler and a two-time state champion sprinter in Maryland. As a senior, he posted a 29-0 record on the wrestling mat, recording 17 pins and five technical falls. He also captured the state class 3-A title in the 100-meter dash (10.67 seconds) and 200-meter dash (21.52), becoming the first player in school history to win a state title in track.

DT JURRELL CASEY

- Family members, friends and teammates call him "Tut-Tut," a nickname he earned from his aunt as a small child because she said he walked like a turtle.
- Casey has nine brothers and sisters.
- When he was in high school, his older brother, Jurray, was convicted of first-degree murder. Despite the turmoil it caused, Jurrell credits his brother

- for helping him re-focus on becoming a better football player and student.
- Casey calls his mother, Collette Burns, a cafeteria worker in the Long Beach Unified School District, "the inspiration in my life" for how hard she worked to provide for Jurrell and his siblings.

RB DAVID COBB

- During his youth, Cobb says he was a huge fan of Titans running back Eddie George. He even wore jersey number 27 through college because of George.
- Cobb is the cousin and former Minnesota roommate of linebacker Damien Wilson, who was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys 11 spots (127th overall) before Cobb in the 2015 NFL Draft.
- His father, Caesar Cobb, is a retired U.S. Army Lieutenant Colonel who served tours in Iraq and Kosovo. Caesar, who also played college football at Alcorn State, now works as a contractor.

CB PERRISH COX

- Cox began playing football in large part to his father Perrish Cox, Sr. His dad, who played baseball at Southern University, was his coach and mentor growing up and taught him the importance of hard work and setting goals.
- Cox enjoys bowling as a hobby. He has rolled a high score of 276 and as a member of the Denver Broncos, he competed in a bowling league during his free time.

WR HARRY DOUGLAS

- Douglas' brother, Toney, is a six-year NBA veteran who currently plays for the New Orleans Pelicans. Harry tries to attend as many of Toney's games as possible.

TE ANTHONY FASANO

- Fasano established the Anthony Fasano Foundation in 2007 to serve underprivileged youth in New Jersey.
- Fasano speaks Italian and Spanish fluently.

FB JALSTON FOWLER

- Fowler lists his mother, Dana, as the person that inspires him the most. When his brother, Joe, was accidentally shot and killed at a friend's house in 2007, she stayed strong and kept the family together.
- Fowler's nickname is "Nudie." His father gave it to him as a baby because he was always running around the house naked. Fowler has nicknamed his son, Jalston Jr., "Toodie."

C ANDY GALLIK

- Gallik's brother, Matt, is a professional volleyball player who currently plays for the Great Lakes Lightning.
- Gallik enjoys fishing and considers himself a movie buff. He is also an avid fan of the NHL's Chicago Blackhawks.
- His "bucket list" includes visiting the Egyptian pyramids and to "see his parents retire happy."

WR DORIAL GREEN-BECKHAM

- Green-Beckham never knew his biological father and lived in several foster homes before John Beckham, his high school coach, and his wife Tracy officially adopted him on Dec. 30, 2009. The Beckhams first brought Green and his younger brother Darnell into their home in 2006.
- Green-Beckham's brother, Darnell, received treatment for acute lymphoblastic leukemia but is in remission. Darnell was a three-star receiver in high school and signed a letter of intent to play for Missouri, but decided to pursue a career in modeling instead.

- Green-Beckham's brother, Darnell, wore 10 and Dorial wore 5 in high school. When Darnell got cancer, Dorial chose 15 when he arrived at Missouri to show Darnell the two were together in everything.
- Green-Beckham was a two-time USA Today High School All-American (2010 and 2011) at Hillcrest High School in Springfield, Mo. He posted a national prep record of 6,353 receiving yards and 75 receiving touchdowns and was the first wide receiver to be named USA Today Offensive Player of the Year since Andre Hastings in 1989. Recruiting analyst Tom Lemming called Green-Beckham the best wide receiver prospect since Randy Moss.

S MICHAEL GRIFFIN

- Griffin grew up playing football with his fraternal twin brother, Marcus, as a teammate. Both attended the University of Texas with Marcus redshirting his first season while Michael played immediately.
- Griffin returned to the University of Texas during the 2008 offseason to pursue his college degree in youth and community studies.
- Griffin is the product of two military parents. His father, Ronald, served more than 20 years with the U.S. Air Force, while his mother, Mae, was in the U.S. Navy for more than two decades. The couple met while serving in Korea and were later married and had twin sons, Michael and Marcus.

CB BRANDON HARRIS

- Harris' father, Tim, was named USA Today National Coach of the Year in 2007 at Miami's Booker T. Washington High School. He was also Texans wide receiver Andre Johnson's high school offensive coordinator at Miami Sr. High.

NT SAMMIE HILL

- At Stillman, Hill and two college teammates were heroic in their efforts to save a man from a burning house. The three Stillman players were driving by a house when they noticed a distressed woman who needed help. She told Hill and his teammates that her father was inside and they proceeded to rescue him from the burning building.
- In Nashville, he is a short three-hour ride from his hometown of West Blocton, Ala.
- Hill is a big collector of hats and shoes. His favorite hat is his St. Louis Cardinals hat, and his favorite shoe is the Nike Air Force One.

DB MARQUESTON HUFF

- Huff's wife, Sherelle, is in the Air Force Reserves.
- He overcame difficult circumstances as a child, thanks in large part to his aunt and uncle, Rhonda and Richard Carson, who took their nephew in when he was in the second grade.
- Huff is good friends with 49ers running back LaMichael James, who grew up in the same neighborhood in Texarkana.

WR JUSTIN HUNTER

- Hunter was one of the nation's top track-and-field athletes in high school. He finished as the top junior in the long jump at the 2010 USA Outdoor Championships with a leap of 25-feet-10¾-inches and qualified for IAAF World Junior Championships. Track & Field News rated him the country's No. 3 long jumper, No. 7 high jumper and No. 14 triple jumper. He won Virginia state titles in both the high jump and long jump and finished second in the triple jump.
- Hunter continued his track and field career as a freshman at Tennessee. He was named first-team USTFCCA Indoor All-American in the long jump after finishing eighth at the NCAA Indoor Championships with a leap of 25-feet 4½-inches. He was also named to the SEC Indoor All-Freshman Team as the highest finishing rookie in the long jump at the league championships. Earlier he set the Tennessee freshman indoor record with a long jump of 26-feet 1½-inches.

ILB STEVE JOHNSON

- Johnson was named a Denver Broncos Community Champion Award winner in 2014.
- He started his Faith Motivated Foundation during the 2015 offseason with the purpose of "encouraging youth and adults to set goals, work hard to achieve them, live a healthier lifestyle and most importantly lean on God during their darkest times."

DL DaQUAN JONES

- Jones majored in Criminology at Penn State and spent a portion of his 2013 summer as an intern observing the Spring Township Police Department near State College.

- Jones entered the Penn State program after being rated the second-best offensive lineman in the nation.
- He lists his father, Steve, as the most inspirational person in his life. Steve raised DaQuan as a single father and one of his father's greatest traits is that he works extremely hard in everything he does. Steve works as an executive chef at Cornell University.

P BRETT KERN

- Kern's father, Cal, owns a collegiate baseball team in Niagara Falls, N.Y., called the Niagara Power. The team plays in the New York Collegiate Baseball League and has had players from Lipscomb (Nashville) University in recent seasons. The summer of 2014 marks the club's eighth season.
- Kern is an avid golfer that sports a +1 handicap. He picked the game up late in his high school years and caddied for three summers at Inverness Golf Club while in college. The course is located in Toledo, Ohio, and has hosted PGA and NCAA Championships. In 2011, Kern competed in The Vinny, a local golf fundraising tournament hosted by singers Vince Gill and Amy Grant, and finished fourth in the event.

DL KARL KLUG

- Klug has an identical twin brother, Kevin, who played linebacker at Minnesota State University, Mankato. As high school teammates, Kevin played fullback, opening holes for Karl, the team's running back. They have an older sister, Kelsey.
- Klug's small hometown of Caledonia calls itself the "Wild Turkey Capital of Minnesota" and "The Heart of Quilt Country."
- Klug arrived on Iowa's campus as an undersized defender who weighed only 207 pounds at the time.

T TAYLOR LEWAN

- Lewan chose to wear jersey number 77 at Michigan and then at the pro level because of the legacy of Wolverine tackles who have donned the number, including Jake Long and Jon Jansen.
- His father, Dave, was a defensive lineman at the University of Minnesota.
- Lewan has a mustache tattooed on his right index finger and a stick figure tattooed on the outside edge of his right hand that he calls his "right-hand man."
- One of Lewan's close friends is Carolina Panthers defensive end Craig Roh. The two played together as high school seniors and then went to Michigan at the same time.

C JOE LOONEY

- His father, James, played football at Louisville. Looney's younger brother, James Jr., is currently a sophomore defensive tackle at the University of California.

QB MARCUS MARIOTA

- Not given to demonstrative expression, Mariota often limits his touchdown "celebration" to a simple series of gestures: three taps on his chest and pointing to the sky as a way to show appreciation for his mother, father and younger brother.
- His father, Toa, works in homeland security, while his mother, Alana, works for Follett School Solutions. His brother, Matthew, is a freshman linebacker at Oregon.
- Mariota credits much of his athletic success to playing soccer in his youth. By the time he was eight years old, he was wearing a soccer jersey with the number 8, and he has kept the jersey number ever since then.
- During his time in Eugene, Ore., Mariota became a fixture at the Boys and Girls Club of Emerald Valley, spending time on a weekly basis with kids at the center. For his efforts in the community, he was awarded with the inaugural Play It Forward Award at the 63rd Annual Oregon Sports Awards in June 2015.
- Mariota's "bucket list" includes boogie boarding in Bali and traveling to Europe and South America.

- In high school, Martin was a two-time state champion wrestler and an All-American as a senior. Martin was also a record-setting shot-putter and discus thrower in track and field. He broke former NFL star T.J. Duckett's Michigan prep shot put record on his way to a state championship as a senior.
- Martin is interested in film making and he has his own YouTube Channel — GoMikeMartin. He documented his senior year at Michigan and developed his own web series.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD HIGHLIGHTS

- Martin loves dogs and shows working class Rottweilers. He was named the National Junior Handler of the Year.
- Martin played the saxophone in the jazz band in high school and still dabbles with the instrument.

WR TRE McBRIDE

- Upon being drafted by the Titans in the seventh round, McBride changed his Twitter profile name to read "Pick 245" which signifies his overall selection number in the draft.
- McBride's father, Douglas, is a U.S. Army Colonel currently stationed at Fort Lee, Va., and has had two tours in Iraq and one tour in Afghanistan.
- McBride has played the trumpet since sixth grade and started playing the harmonica in college.
- McBride is in the process of developing a lifestyle website and hopes to launch it in spring 2016.

RB DEXTER McCLUSTER

- McCluster received the key to the city of his hometown of Largo, Fla., on May 4, 2010, a few days after being drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs.
- McCluster was a journalism major at Ole Miss and would like to get into the sports communications industry following his playing career.

CB JASON McCOURTY

- McCourty played his last three seasons at Rutgers with his identical twin brother, Devin. The duo held down the starting cornerback spots for Scarlet Knights together for two years. Devin, who redshirted his first season at Rutgers, was a first-round draft pick by the New England Patriots in 2010. They also have an older brother, Larry.
- During the 2013 offseason, Jason and Devin spearheaded "Tackle Sickle Cell," a campaign that aimed to educate the public, increase blood donations, and raise money and awareness for the fight against sickle cell disease. The duo partnered with the Embrace Kids Foundation to host a 5K Run/Walk in Liberty State Park in Jersey City, N.J. as the major fundraising component of the campaign. They each set up their own fundraising team for the 5K to see which brother could raise more money Team J-Mac vs Team D-Mac. The loser of the competition agreed to fly to the other's home football city and make a public appearance dressed up as the opposing team mascot. Jason came up just short in the contest and was forced to wear the Pat Patriot outfit.
- Jason and Devin held the first McCourty Brothers Football Camp at St. Joseph Regional High School in New Jersey in 2012.
- McCourty excelled off the field at Rutgers, as he was a semifinalist for the prestigious Vincent dePaul Draddy Trophy given to the college football player with the best combination of academics, community service and on-field performance. He was also named an ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first-team member.

G/T JAMON MEREDITH

- In high school, Meredith shattered a basketball backboard with a two-hand tomahawk alley-oop slam dunk in gym class. He received 50 stitches from cuts from the glass and almost lost an eye.

QB ZACH METTENBERGER

- Mettenberger is a big fan of 1970s and 1980s sports and watches a lot of ESPN Classic shows. He lists basketball great Larry Bird as the person he would most like to meet.

OLB DERRICK MORGAN

- Morgan credits his mother, Pamela Wooden, as his primary role model in life. He also says that she should be credited with his football success, since, even as a single parent, she managed to take him to every practice and every game during his youth.
- Morgan experienced the 2010 NFL Draft as one of the players invited by the league to Radio City Music Hall. He was surrounded by his mother, father, grandparents and other loved ones when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced his name with the 16th overall pick.

OLB DEIONTRES MOUNT

- Mount grew up as a Titans fan because his favorite player was Titans running back Eddie George.
- He is an avid fan of J.K. Rowling's "Harry Potter" books and lists Rowling as the person he most wants to meet.

OLB BRIAN ORAKPO

- Orakpo annually hosts The Brian Orakpo Leukemia Golf Classic to raise money for the National Capital Area Chapter of the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.
- Orakpo is a good friend with Titans safety Michael Griffin. The two played together for three seasons at the University of Texas and Griffin was an integral part in helping recruit Orakpo to Nashville.

DE ROPATI PITOITUA

- Pitoitua was born in Samoa. He came to the United States in 1995.

T JEREMIAH POUTASI

- Poutasi's cousin is Kansas City Chiefs guard Paul Fanaika.
- Poutasi's mother, Oloka, is Tongan and his father, Samuelu, is Samoan.
- Prior to the draft, Poutasi trained with San Francisco 49ers tackle Joe Staley and Cleveland Browns offensive lineman Joel Bitonio.
- Poutasi lettered in bowling during high school and rolled a high score of 283.

WR RICO RICHARDSON

- Richardson ran an impressive time of 4.38 seconds in the 40-yard dash, recorded a 35½-inch vertical jump and 10-foot-1 broad jump at the Super Regionals in Dallas prior to the 2013 NFL Draft.

RB BISHOP SANKEY

- Sankey's grandfather, Albert, had been blind in his left eye for more than 30 years. When Bishop was younger, Albert used to make a trip at the end of each summer from his home in Montgomery, Ala., to stay with his family in northeast Ohio. Over the summer months, Albert would be a regular at his grandson's peeewee football games. By the time Bishop was in middle school, all his grandfather could see on the field were shadows. Finally after a cornea transplant restored sight in his right eye, Albert was able to see Bishop play for the first time at Stanford during his junior campaign.
- Sankey's father, Christopher, is in the Air Force and has been deployed three times to the Middle East.
- Sankey was featured on the ESPN documentary Draft Academy which followed him through the draft process.

C BRIAN SCHWENKE

- Schwenke was an avid surfer during the time he spent living in Hawaii as a result of his father's job in the Navy.
- His father, Brian Sr., was a SERE (Survival, Evasion, Resistance and Escape) trainer in the Navy from 1990–2002.
- Schwenke spent time training prior to the 2013 NFL Draft with the Titans' eventual first-round pick, guard Chance Warmack.

S DA'NORRIS SEARCY

- Searcy wore No. 21 at North Carolina because his grandmother was born in 1921.
- Searcy has tattoos of a cross and angel wings to represent his grandmother and great grandmother.

CB COTY SENSABAUGH

- Beginning in 2013, Sensabaugh has taken a day each offseason to run the Sensabaugh Camp Classic at Dobyns-Bennett High School in Kingsport, Tenn.
- During the 2013 offseason, Sensabaugh launched a 10-week campaign to become The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society Man of the Year in Nashville. He personally titled his campaign "A Fight for Jamaar" in honor of his brother. When Sensabaugh was 11, his older brother died from leukemia a week after being diagnosed. Unique events that highlighted Coty's personal campaign included a fashion show with his teammates, as well as a fellowship dinner in his hometown of Kingsport. Sensabaugh is determined to launch a non-profit organization in Jamaar's name to raise awareness and money to combat the disease, and he wants to continue to be an active spokesperson for the cause.
- He grew up on the same street in Kingsport, Tenn., as his second cousin, former NFL safety Gerald Sensabaugh.
- Sensabaugh is a self-described "shoe fanatic."

S DAIMION STAFFORD

- At Norco (Calif.) High School, his coach was Todd Gerhart, the father of Minnesota Vikings running back Toby Gerhart.
- Navigating through his youth was not always an easy process for Stafford and his two sisters. But thanks to the efforts of many, he persevered.

TITANS TIDBITS: THE BEST OF TITANS OFF-THE-FIELD HIGHLIGHTS

Those that inspired and helped him included his mother, LaTanya Henderson; Norco High School guidance counselor Kristine McCollough; Norco football coach Todd Gerhart; and Daniel Kelley, the head of his "second family." Stafford spent time living with the Gerhart and Kelley families during high school.

LB JUSTIN STAPLES

- Staples is related to Roebuck "Pops" Staples of the famed soul/R&B group The Staples Singers.
- He is the oldest of eight siblings and grew up in Berea, Ohio, down the street from the Cleveland Browns' practice facility.

TE CRAIG STEVENS

- Stevens enjoys designing and making furniture in his free time. He has a workshop in his garage and has made a variety of pieces, including end tables, shelving units, cabinets, chess sets and unique decorative fixtures.
- Stevens has picked up a new hobby in fly fishing. He has made several trips and even makes his own fly fishing nets.
- He has a younger brother, Eric, who signed as a rookie free agent with the St. Louis Rams in 2013 following a four-year career as a fullback at Cal. He has two other brothers, Jeff and Brett, who are firefighters with the L.A. City Fire Department.
- Stevens entered the NFL with one class remaining to obtain his degree in legal studies. He hopes to one day become involved in the law, following in the footsteps of his father, Mark, a deputy sheriff in L.A. County.

K RYAN SUCCOP

- Succop was given the title "Mr. Irrelevant" after being selected with the final pick (256th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft.
- At Hickory (N.C.) High School, he was a three-time All-State selection in soccer with 104 career goals.

TE PHILLIP SUPERNAW

- Supernaw's father is country music singer Doug Supernaw.
- Supernaw was actually born in Nashville, but moved to the Houston area at an early age and attended high school in Katy, Texas.

OLB J.R. TAVAI

- His brother, Jordan, was a defensive lineman at Kansas (2012-13), and another brother, Jahlani, is a linebacker at Hawaii.

TE DELANIE WALKER

- Walker has teamed with Mother's Against Drunk Driving (MADD) to help raise awareness about their campaign after losing his aunt and uncle in a horrific accident near New Orleans just hours after Super Bowl XLVII. The morning after San Francisco's loss to Baltimore at the Superdome, an alleged drunk driver killed Alice and Bryan Young. A few hours earlier, Walker had hugged Alice and Bryan at the team's postgame party. He wants to start a foundation to keep memories of them alive and also help support his eight cousins left behind.
- Over the years, Walker has owned quite a selection of cars, ranging from classics to newer models. His collection has included a 1964 Chevy Impala, 1972 Buick Skylark, 1989 Camaro IROC-Z28, 2008 Mercedes-Benz CL63 AMG and 2010 F250 truck. Walker's passion for cars can be traced back to his childhood, where he would spend countless hours refurbishing old autos with the help of his friend's father, who was a mechanic. After his playing days are over, he envisions owning a car restoration shop.
- His speed on the field can be linked to his success on the track as a high school senior. Despite lettering only one year, he won the Division III 100m (10.6) and long jump (21-5) titles, while also serving as a member of the winning 4x100m relay team at the 2002 Miramonte League Meet. Delanie's younger brother, Anthony, competed in the 400m and 4x400m at the collegiate level, and has his hopes set on making the Olympic team one day.

G CHANCE WARMACK

- At Alabama, Warmack developed the custom of rolling up his jersey to just under the numbers as a way to stay cooler. Soon, the fad became known as "Warmacking," and fans began posting photos on social media of their exposed bellies. He highlights the best fan photos on social media with what he calls "Warmackin Wednesdays."
- Warmack attended Westlake High School in Atlanta, Ga., where he was a teammate during his freshman and sophomore years with current Carolina Panthers quarterback Cam Newton.

- Warmack's brother, Dallas, is a rising senior offensive line prospect in Atlanta and has already committed to follow in Chance's footsteps at Alabama.

ILB AVERY WILLIAMSON

- Williamson grew up in the West Tennessee town of Milan, which is approximately a two-hour drive from Nashville. He lists Eddie George, Steve McNair and Jevon Kearse as his favorite Titans as a child.
- One of Williamson's "bucket list" items is to see the pyramids in Egypt.
- In 2013, he was chosen to represent the Kentucky football program on a one-week educational/service trip in Ethiopia.

DL AL WOODS

- Woods likes to fish and hunt deer and owns a farm with about 300 head of cattle and 90 horses in Elton, La.

ILB WESLEY WOODYARD

- Woodyard joined Hall of Fame running back Floyd Little as the only players in Broncos franchise history to serve as a captain in each of their first five years with the club. In 2004, Woodyard also became the first-ever Kentucky freshman to serve as a team captain.
- Woodyard is the co-founder of The 16Ways Foundation which recognizes an emotional need for at-risk youth. The Foundation works on a national level to develop and implement workshops, seminars, camps, and other activities. These events are designed to build self-esteem, promote responsibility for one's own actions and overcoming obstacles, and demonstrate the importance of academics, knowledge of career options, professional development, community involvement, and mental and physical fitness among youth of all socio-economic backgrounds.
- Woodyard was a three-time nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year while with the Broncos in 2010-11 and 2013.

CB BLIDI WREH-WILSON

- Wreh-Wilson did not play football until his senior year of high school. His focus was on soccer and basketball until he was convinced by friends and General McLane's head football coach to give football a try.
- Wreh-Wilson's parents are natives of Liberia. His father, D. Elliott Wreh-Wilson, came to the United States in 1980 to attend college. After he graduated from Boston College, he went back and got Bliidi's mother, Lucinda, and his brother, Elliott Jr., and brought them to the U.S. in 1984. Bliidi was born five years later, followed by his sister, Tsuwli Lucinda.
- The name Bliidi is literally translated as "trouble," but he explains why his father, a philosophy professor at Edinboro University, named him that: "In Liberia there was a war, and that was the trouble. But when I came along, he named me that with the belief I could bring peace."
- During his redshirt freshman season at Connecticut, Wreh-Wilson was forced to cope with a shocking tragedy: his teammate and close friend, cornerback Jasper "Jazz" Howard, was stabbed to death. Howard's locker was next to Wreh-Wilson's and remained untouched for the remainder of the 2009 season.

WR KENDALL WRIGHT

- During the 2013 offseason, Wright went back to Baylor to train for his second NFL campaign. He worked out with Dallas Cowboys receiver Terrence Williams and lost close to 15 pounds.
- As a freshman at Baylor, Wright played on the basketball team. He appeared in 13 games as a reserve guard and scored 10 points.
- Wright was a three-sport star at Pittsburg (Texas) High School, where he earned All-State honors in football, basketball and track. He captured the state 3A titles in the long jump (24-0 3/4) and triple jump (48-5 1/4).

TITANS RADIO AFFILIATES

Titans Radio brings football to fans across the Mid-South in one of the NFL's largest radio networks, including Nashville flagship 104.5 The Zone.

Play-by-play announcer Mike Keith connection with pro football across the Mid-South dates back to 1996, a year before the Oilers arrived in Tennessee, and he became the "Voice of the Titans" in 1999. Additionally, former three-time Pro Bowl tight end Frank Wycheck begins his 11th season as the Titans Radio's color analyst, while Titans Radio gameday host Rhett Bryan's involvement with the broadcast dates back to 1997. Jonathan Hutton has served as Titans Radio sideline reporter since 2014.

TITANS ALL ACCESS

Titans All Access, the Titans' 30-minute, official magazine-style TV show returns for its 13th season in 2015.

Mike Keith and Amie Wells serve as co-hosts of the show, joined by general manager Ruston Webster.

Titans All Access features a variety of long-form stories every week. The show always reviews and previews Titans games, but also shares on- and off-field stories about the players, coaches and their families from Wells.

Other Titans All Access staples: Keith's thoughtful one-on-one chats with players and exclusive insights from Webster.

Titans All Access airs on Nashville's CW 58 Fridays at 9 p.m., on MyTV 30 Saturdays at 2:30 p.m., and on Fox 17 Sundays at 10:30 a.m.

Titans All Access also has affiliates in Memphis, Knoxville, Chattanooga, Jackson, Tri-Cities, Huntsville and Paducah. Please check local listings for times in those cities.

GAMEDAY MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA RELATIONS CONTACTS

Titans Media Relations (Press Box Seats 1-7): (615) 565-4450
 Robbie Bohren, Senior Director of Media Relations
 Dwight Spradlin, Assistant Director of Media Relations
 Jared Puffer, Media Relations Coordinator (Field Contact)
 Lauren Spencer, Media Relations Intern (Media Will Call)

Visiting Team Media Relations (Press Box Seats 29-32): (615) 565-4452

DIRECTIONS TO NISSAN STADIUM

FROM AIRPORT TO NISSAN STADIUM (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-40 West toward Nashville/Memphis to I-24 West (before downtown). Exit at James Robertson Parkway (Exit 48). Turn left at first light (Interstate Drive). Turn right on Woodland Street. Nissan Stadium will be on the left. Follow signs to parking lot ("M" lot on northwest corner/river side of stadium).

NISSAN STADIUM MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media will call window and media entrance are located in the northwest corner of Nissan Stadium near Gate 6. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff.

FIELD MEDIA VESTS

All members of the media with field access during the game must wear a media vest. Still and video photographers will be issued tan vests, while team-affiliated video photographers (coaches' shows, etc.) will be issued green vests. All vests must be obtained prior to each game at the vest check-in table in the field level concourse. All vests must be returned at the conclusion of the game to Titans personnel or a designated vest receptacle.

NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available free of charge in the Nissan Stadium press box. The login information will be available upon arrival in the press box. A limited number of ethernet lines and pool phone lines also are available. Accessing the wireless network works the same in the Nissan Stadium press box as it does in most areas with free connectivity. Titans staff may be able to assist in a limited manner, but you should first contact your company's I.T. department with any questions.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO LOCKER ROOMS

Take the press box elevator (Level 3) to field level (Level 1). The Titans interview room is immediately on the right, and the Titans locker room (blue line) is straight ahead. Turn left and continue straight along the concourse to reach the visiting team's locker room and interview room (white line).

POSTGAME POLICIES

Reporters with press box credentials will be allowed on the field during pre-game activities but not during the game itself. Press box credentials do NOT provide access to the field at the two-minute warning in the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to gather in the Titans interview room to watch the end of the game or remain in the press box to make the short walk down to the field level at the conclusion of the game. All media members will have field access once all of the players and coaches have exited the field. Interviews with Titans players are not permitted on the field following the game. Ken Whisenhunt's press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the interview room across from the Titans locker room. Key players also will be brought to the interview room. The press conference audio will be played live over the press box speakers.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Quotes from each team's head coach and key players will be transcribed and distributed throughout the Nissan Stadium press box following the game. The quotes also will be available at www.TitansOnline.com.

POOL REPORTS

Pool reporters are assigned by the Pro Football Writers of America. They are the only reporters allowed in the officials' locker room. Requests for pool reports must be made in advance. Pool reports will be recorded, transcribed and then distributed in the press box.

EXITING NISSAN STADIUM

FROM NISSAN STADIUM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: Cross the press box catwalk to the third floor lobby. Take the stairs or elevator one floor down to Level 2. Exit through the doors and walk right to get to the "M" lot.

FROM NISSAN STADIUM TO AIRPORT (APPROXIMATELY 15 MINUTES): Take I-24 East toward Chattanooga to I-40 East toward Knoxville. The airport is at Exit 216A.
