GAME SUMMARY

The Minnesota Vikings (1-0) host the New England Patriots (0-1) in the team's home opener at TCF Bank stadium on Sunday, September 14. Mike Zimmer will make his home debut as a head coach in a contest scheduled to kickoff at noon central. The Vikings have dropped their last 3 games to the Patriots.

The Vikings showcased a revamped defense, in which they had 8 new defensive starters from 2013, in a 34-6 win at St. Louis in Week 1. The 28-point win on the road was the largest margin of victory since 1994 and ranks tied for 8th all-time in club history. New England suffered a Week 1 defeat ,33-20, at division foe Miami.

The Vikings and Patriots have played on the campus of University of Minnesota before. In 1971, New England visited Memorial Stadium in the preseason opener on August 8. The Patriots will have the distinction of being the 1st team to play the Vikings in 4 different stadiums in Minnesota - Memorial, Met, Metrodome and TCF Bank.

NFL Head Coach: 1st Year Overall NFL Experience: 21st Year Coaching Experience: 36th Year Overall NFL Record: 1-0 (1.000) Regular Season: 1-0 (1.000) Postseason: 0-0 Record with MIN: 1-0 (1.000)

Mike Zimmer was hired as the 9th Head Coach in Vikings history on January 15, 2014. A veteran defensive coordinator, Zimmer enters his 21st season on an NFL sideline, the past 14 working as defensive coordinator for Cincinnati (2008-13), Atlanta (2007) and Dallas (2000-06).

Zimmer has been a part of 11 playoff teams in his NFL tenure and teams that have won 7 Division titles. He coached the Cowboys DBs when the team won Super Bowl XXX over Pittsburgh after the 1995 season. Since 2009, Zimmer's Bengals defenses ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total defense 4 times, climbing to #3 in 2013. Since 2011, the Bengals ranked #2 in the NFL with 139 sacks (46.3 per season) and have allowed 18.8 points per game, ranking #4 in the NFL in points allowed. The 2013 Bengals posted 20 INTs, the 5th-best mark in the NFL.

Zimmer's arrival in Cincinnati for the 2008 season signaled a franchise turnaround on the defensive side of the ball. The Bengals notched top-10 defensive rankings in 2009, '11, '12 and '13 after only cracking the NFL's top 10 once in 18 seasons prior to Zimmer joining the team. During his tenure, Zimmer coached Geno Atkins as he became one of the top DTs in the NFL, earning consensus All-Pro honors in 2012 and Pro Bowl berths in 2011 and 2012. In 2013, LB Vontaze Burfict continued his rise from an undrafted rookie free agent in 2012 to a Pro Bowler in 2013. Atkins became the 1st Bengals defensive lineman since Tim Krumrie in 1988 to earn a Pro Bowl trip and Burfict was the 1st Bengals LB to be honored since Jim LeClair in 1976. Over the 2012 and 2013 seasons, the Bengals had 4 different players earn AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors-Michael Johnson, Carlos Dunlap, Atkins and Burfict.

Zimmer led top-10 defenses for Dallas in both a 4-3 and 3-4 scheme. The 2003 Cowboys defense ranked #1 in the NFL with only 253.3 yards per game allowed. During Zimmer's tenure in Dallas as DBs coach (1994-99) and Defensive Coordinator (2000-06) the team ranked in the top 5 of NFL scoring defense a total of 6 times. The 1995 Cowboys hoisted the Lombardi Trophy in Super Bowl XXX with a win over Pittsburgh and one of Zimmer's pupils, CB Larry Brown, won the Super Bowl MVP award with a pair of INTs in the game. Brown is 1 of only 3 DBs to earn Super Bowl MVP honors in the history of the game.

Before moving to the NFL ranks, Zimmer spent 15 seasons coaching at the collegiate level. He spent his final 5 seasons in the college ranks as defensive coordinator at Washington State from 1989-93. Zimmer was at Weber State from 1981-88, serving as defensive coordinator from '83-88. He entered the coaching profession at Missouri where he served as an assistant from 1979-80.

Zimmer played QB and later LB at Illinois State, earning a degree in physical education. He has 3 children, son Adam and daughters Corri and Marki. Adam is coaching the Vikings LBs after having spent time with Kansas City, New Orleans and Cincinnati as an assistant LBs and DBs coach. The father-son duo has both earned Super Bowl titles with Adam's coming following the 2009 season when the Saints won Super Bowl XLIV over Indianapolis. Coaching is a family tradition with the Zimmers as Mike's father, Bill, earned Illinois Hall of Fame honors as a prep football and wrestling coach. Zimmer played football, baseball and wrestled at Lockport Township High School in suburban Chicago. Both Bill and Mike Zimmer have been inducted into the Lockport Hall of Fame and Bill is also in the Bradley University (Peoria, IL) Hall of Fame.

Vikki Zimmer, Mike's wife of 27 years, passed away in Cincinnati on October 8, 2009. The Pro Football Writers of America recognized Zimmer overcoming the tragedy and the Bengals #4 ranked defense playing a key role in winning then AFC North title by voting him the winner of the Halas Award for the season, an annual award presented to the individual in the NFL that overcame the most adversity to succeed.

FROM HEAD COACH MIKE ZIMMER

SEPTEMBER 8, 2014 Vikings Head Coach Mike Zimmer

Well, after watching the tape I thought we did some very good things. It was a good win for our program, the development of where we are. I think it was important for our team to try and build some confidence in what we're trying to accomplish. Clearly there were many, many things that we have to clean up in order to be a good football team or to where my expectation level is and hopefully the team's expectation level. But it was a good start and we look forward to trying to build upon what we've done and, like I told the team this morning, we have to keep grinding, we've got so many things that we have to work on, so many areas but we were, I think, we were a tough-minded, aggressive, tough, physical football team.

Q: How happy were you with the tackling yesterday? It seemed like there weren't many missed tackles. What did the film show?

A: It was pretty good. We had a couple here and there, a couple in space, but for the most part, when we were in space we tackled efficiently. Usually when you're in proper position, you know where your help is and you tend to tackle better. That's one of the most important things about being a good defensive football team. All of the great defensive teams in the NFL always tackle very, very well. We missed some but we made our share, too.

Q: With an undefeated preseason and a resounding win yesterday, do you think this team can turn some people's heads?

A: I don't really worry too much about what other people think. I just watch how these guys practice, how they play, how they prepare. Our whole focus is about us getting better, not really about what people think about us, other than what I've said about our fans. I hope they like how we play, like how we prepare, but our focus is really on us all the time and how we can get better each and every day.

Q: You seem to be preaching caution right now. Do you sense that the players already had not gotten too high and were focused in?

A: I'm not trying to preach caution whatsoever, I'm just trying to be realistic. This is one game out of 16, 15 now, and I know what we have to do to be a good football team. I think I'm trying to teach our players what we have to do to be a good football team. It's not about caution, I understand that we haven't lost in the preseason and like I've said before, it's so much, to me, about the process about how we accomplish things, not so much what the record is at this particular point in time. There will be plenty of time as we keep playing these games that people will talk about the records and this is just one week and preseason was the preseason so we're just on to a different venue really. The schedule, as everybody has pointed out, it's a little different deal going this week.

Q: Was there anything in particular that led to some of the mistakes such as the penalties and miscommunication on the snaps? Was it nerves? Was it the noise?

A: I don't think it was so much the noise because we've been practicing pretty efficiently in the noise. We haven't had many penalties in practice. It's hard to put my finger on it from what happened yesterday but we had way, way too many. We probably need to continue to do a better job coaching and what is the penalties and they had their fair share too. It's like everything else, we just have to keep coaching it better and players have to understand what their role is in this part too. The communication problem really was just truly a miscommunication. We thought the ball was ready to snap, we were doing some things at the line of scrimmage and the ball came back so it was just an error.

Q: Was that issue with the helmet and communication just the one series? And what went wrong there?

A: It was just one series and it was the helmet communicator in [Matt Cassel's] helmet didn't work. At the start of the game the defensive communicator did not work. It was a little unnerving at first for me and the whole deal. You learn to adjust and adapt and go on. Matt did a good job, he did the game plan, so he was able to make some of the calls, which he made on his own, and we were able to overcome some of it.

Q: What would be the number one thing that you want to work on and improve after yesterday's game?

A: Mistakes, just general mistakes. We've got to cover better, we've got to be in the right place. I've said before, unfortunately I see mistakes and fortunately for me As this dees, just general mistakes, we've got to cover better, we've got to be in the right place. I ve said before, unfortunately I see mistakes and includingly for me and probably unfortunate for the players too. I know exactly what I want it to look like and then I see things that aren't going the way I want it to see and so without trying to pinpoint so many different things whether it's stepping with this foot or staying on the double team when we're on the offense or misaligning a little bit here or there and it's more so about things that we've gone over, things we've corrected. I talked to one of the players, I said, "Last week we corrected this and then it happened again in the ballgame. We need to fix these things in order for us to move on as a football team. We need to fix these things."

Q: You added depth to the defensive line in the offseason with guys like Corey Wootton and Tom Johnson. Is this what you had in mind with six guys playing a lot yesterday and you guys obviously had a lot of success up front?

A: Yeah, well we've overhauled a lot of things with this football team. Obviously Rick [Spielman] and the scouts and the Wilfs spent the money to do some of these things but we want to have a rotation system, we want to be able to play a lot of guys. It's not only good for us now, it's good for us in the fourth quarter, it's good for young developing guys. It keeps us fresh and it's just something I believe in. We did it when I first went to Dallas with Coach [Barry] Switzer. We had a deep rotative players get better when they play they get better as they tion on the defensive line. We continued it pretty much when I was in Cincinnati and so it's good because players get better. When they play, they get better as they progress and the more time they get in there and I just think overall it's better for our football program and for us to continue to get to where we want to get to.

Q: What did you think of Tom Johnson's performance?

A: I thought he did some good things. He had a nice sack-strip fumble on the one, played the run pretty good. He's kind of done what he's done for the most part the whole preseason. He goes in there and makes some plays. He's a good kid and works really hard and he's got some slipperiness to him in the pass rush so that helps.

Q: Will Sharrif Floyd or Xavier Rhodes miss any time this week?

A: I don't know. They are both day-to-day right now. I think we'll find out more about him tomorrow. We'll see. Mike Mauti, I anticipate practicing tomorrow. Zach Line, I anticipate him practicing tomorrow as well. Not tomorrow, Wednesday, See I'm already ready.

Q: Josh Robinson?

A: Oh he's fine.

Q: What did you see from Brandon Fusco that earned him a contract extension?

A: He's got a lot of toughness, he plays every week. He's got physicality in the running game. He's smart. He does a good job in protections. When the fans don't know some of the offensive lineman, I think that's a good thing, because they're doing their job all of the time and that's one thing that Brandon always does is, he does his job, he gets his job and we're very, very excited to have him for five more years.

Q: Are there any positive examples of how far Anthony Barr has come?

A: How much time do you have? He made a great play on a screen, took out two blockers and made the tackle. One time there was one play we didn't fit exactly right, he was on the backside and he accelerated and went over and made the tackle on the back. Obviously, the play that we intercepted the pass was pretty nice, too. He's going to keep having those splash plays and he's going to keep continuing to keep getting better. The things that Anthony has to clean up right now are some of his alignments aren't precise enough so he has to make a really good play when he can make an easy play. That's kind of what my focus is on him. There's still some pass rush things that he can do a lot better than he's doing. Once he starts feeling more comfortable with his alignments, things will come a little bit smoother. I know he's thinking guite a bit but he was excited to play on Sunday. I just keep looking to him doing the things that he has been doing.

Q: How did you grade Robert Blanton's performance?

A: He did some good things. He made a couple of good tackles. There was a couple of areas where he's got to do better. He got nosey on one play that was a play action pass that he needed to stay back on. For the first time out, he was alright.

Q: What's your impression of Harrison Smith at the other safety spot?

A: Harrison's had a good camp. The thing I like most about Harrison is, he's a football player. He's intelligent. He comes and asks questions if he doesn't know and he'll try to do it to the very best he possibly can. He made a really nice tackle, he kind of made a mistake on one of the plays, but he accelerated out of it and made a really nice tackle. Obviously, the play he intercepted for the touchdown was a good play, he anticipated that. He's got good anticipation and the things that he is not as proficient at right now, he will work really hard at it. He's not afraid to work and as I said before, he's a smart guy and a tough guy, too so I like that

Q: Were you planning on being so aggressive with your pass rush or did the fact that they were playing a third-string quarterback add to that?

A: No, actually, we backed it down when the score got out of hand. I know they got some yards there at the end, I think we could have hit him a few more times if we tried. It was more about the clock was our friend at that point in time. I like our blitz package and what we do out of it. It'll vary week-to-week from what we do just based on who we are playing. Honestly, yesterday the quarterback would not have mattered.

Q: How did you arrive at Gerald Hodges' role in the nickel package?

A: It actually is a huge role. Our nickel players tend to get upwards of 600 plays a year. There's a lot of really good things about Gerald. Gerald is a very good athlete, he's got some physicality, he's got some pass rush, which I always look at, at that position, to see if they can blitz. He seems to be keeping his nose to the grindstone. We have to keep our thumb on him just to make sure that he's always being precise in everything, I think because he has so much natural ability, sometimes he'll rely on his athletic ability instead, kind of like I was talking about Anthony (Barr) a minute ago, we can make it a lot easier than if we do it. I think he's got good coverage ability, I think he understands the zone defenses well, I think he has good blitzability.

Q: Are you proud of the league and its stance on the Ray Rice situation and is it difficult as a head coach to concern yourself with off-field issues?

A: First of all, I heard about it when I was walking downstairs. I heard there was a video this morning, I was walking downstairs to come here and I had heard he had been released. I don't know that much about it, but as far as the question that you're asking, I'm always proud of the League and what it represents and the way it wants our players to act. Just like with the Vikings organization, I want our players to act in a certain way. Does it make it difficult sometimes? Yes. I'm not speaking in reference to Ray Rice because I'm just talking about our guys and what we do. I do think that if we continually talk to our players about doing the right things, bringing in the right kind of people, and again I'm not talking about Ray Rice, I'm just talking about here, what we believe in. We will continually try to uphold the standards that the League wants.

Q: Do you view Rhett Ellison as an underrated role player?

A: Rhett did a great job in the ball game the other day. Obviously, he made some mistakes like we all did. I thought he did a good job in understanding where we're helping in protection. Obviously, the catch that he made on the boot. I don't get into the underrated/overrated kind of thing. I think maybe a lot of people don't rate any of us very good, so it's okay. We just go out and try and play football the best we can, as hard as we can and as smart as we can.

Q: Will Robert Blanton continue as a starting safety? A: I haven't thought about changing out. I mean, I have no reason to take him out, yet, for any reason.

BILL BELICHICK

NFL Head Coach: 20th Year Overall NFL Experience: 40th Year Coaching Experience: 40th Year Overall NFL Record: 218-115 (.654) Regular Season: 19-9 106 (.652) Postseason: 19-9 (.679) Record with NE: 181-70 (.721) Record vs. MIN: 3-3 (.500)

College: Wesleyan University '75

Bill Belichick is in his 40th season as an NFL coach and is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl championships in a four-year span. He leads all active coaches and currently sits alone in fifth place all time with 218 total victories as a head coach. In 2013, Belichick passed Hall of Famer Chuck Noll for fifth place on the NFL wins list and his winning percentage of .657 ranks third in NFL history among coaches with 150 or more wins, trailing only George Halas (.682) and Don Shula (.666).

He won more regular-season games (126) and more games overall (140) during a 10-year stretch (2003- 2012) than any other head coach in NFL history.

Belichick was hired by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on Jan. 27, 2000 and is in his 15th season as the team's head coach. In 14 seasons, Belichick has delivered three Super Bowl championships, five conference titles, 11 division crowns and 18 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 181-69. Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003) and XXXIX (2004), and in 2007 he became the only NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. From 2003 to 2004, Belichick directed the Patriots to an overall winning streak of 21 consecutive games, including the postseason.

Despite an NFL system designed to ensure parity, Belichick's program has produced a remarkable run of sustained on-field success. From 2000-13, the Patriots won 72.8 percent of their regular-season games (163-61), recording the highest winning percentage of any major American professional sports team over that span. Over a 100-game stretch from 2003-09, Belichick directed the team to an 81-19 record – tied for the best record in any 100-game span in NFL history. Belichick has led the Patriots to a winning record in each of the last 13 seasons. For five straight seasons from 2003-07, Belichick's teams won the AFC East title and advanced in the playoffs, with the Patriots' five straight years of playoff advancement tying the second longest streak in NFL history. The only other NFL coach to have 10 consecutive winning seasons with one team since the 1970 merger was Tom Landry, who led the Dallas Cowboys to 16 consecutive winning seasons (1970-1985).

Belichick's 19 career playoff wins are tied for second all-time, while New England's 14 playoff victories from 2000-09 are tied for the highest total in any decade in NFL history. Belichick has compiled a career playoff record of 19-9, with his .679 playoff winning percentage placing him seventh in NFL history.

Belichick's Patriots have rarely been rattled, able to consistently maintain leads and bounce back following losses. Since the beginning of the 2003 season, New England is 34-4 (.895) in regular-season games following a loss, dropping back-to-back regular-season contests just four times over that span.

In addition, the Patriots have consistently maintained their focus throughout the year and have played their best football late in the season. Since 2001, the Patriots lead the league with a 80-20 (.800) overall record in games played on Thanksgiving or later in the NFL season. As the season wears on, the Patriots have only gotten better, posting an NFL-best 30-8 (.789) mark since 2001 in games played on Christmas or later in the NFL season and have gone an NFL-best 49-7 (.875) in the month of December. Since becoming Patriots head coach in 2000, Belichick is 51-9 in December with New England, the best record in December among head coaches with one team in NFL history (min. 25 games). George Seifert is second (27-6, .818).

3 stints as a head coach came with Washington (1994-2000), Oakland (2004-05) and San Diego (2007-12).

Since 2007, Turner's teams have ranked in the NFL's top 5 in offensive points 3 times and the 2010 Chargers notched the #1 offense in the league with a 395.6 yard per game output. Turner's system has produced the NFL's leading rusher on 5 different occasions- Emmitt Smith (1991-93), Ricky Williams (2002) and LaDainian Tomlinson (2007). With Cleveland in 2013, Browns WR Josh Gordon led the NFL with 1,646 yards and 9 TDs on 87 catches in only 14 games, doubling his yardage output from the season before. Gordon joined Michael Irvin as WRs under Turner who led the NFL in receiving Turner honed his coaching skills at USC from 1976-84 under John Robinson, who had been on the Oregon staff when Turner was a QB from 1971-74. His first taste of coaching came as a graduate assistant in 1975 at Oregon before joining Robinson at USC.

USC.

Turner joined Robinson's LA Rams staff (1985-90) and was part of a successful program, winning the NFC West in 1985, earning 4 trips to the playoffs in 6 seasons with the club and working closely with pioneering Rams offensive coordinator Ernie Zampese. In 1991, Turner began a 3-season stint as offensive coordinator for Dallas, helping future Hall of Famer Troy Aikman develop into one of the NFL's greats. In Turner's 1st season, Smith led the NFL in rushing and Michael Irvin led the NFL in receiving, the 1st time since the 1970 merger that teammates led the league in each category, a feat only achieved one time since (Indianapolis, 1999). Smith led the NFL in rushing each season and in 1993 earned NFL MVP honors, the only Dallas player to win the award.

The foundation Turner laid in Dallas helped him earn the head coaching job in Washington from 1994-2000, posting 4 winning seasons, claiming the NFC East in 1999 and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. Turner went on to serve as head coach in Oakland (2004-05) and most recently San Diego (2007-12) where he won 3 straight AFC West titles (2007-09) and finished 2nd in the Division the other 3 seasons, advancing to face New England in the 2007 AFC Championship game and posting a 56-40 record in regular season action. Turner was honored as USA Today NFL Coach of the Year in 2009.

the Year in 2009.

Turner was raised in the Bay Area suburb of Martinez, CA and attended Alhambra High. As a standout QB and DB, Turner earned a scholarship to Oregon where he was a 3-year letterman for the Ducks (1972-74). Turner's brother, Ron, was an NFL coach with Chicago, Indianapolis and Tampa Bay and currently is head coach at Florida International University, returning to the college ranks where he had been a head coach twice. Turner and wife, Nancy, have 3 children. The eldest, Scott, serves on the Vikings coaching staff working with the QBs after working as an assistant coach with Carolina (2011-12) and Cleveland (2013).

Edwards served as Defensive Coordinator with the Buffalo Bills in 2010 and 2011. While with the Bills, Edwards led a base 3-4 defense, however the unit was flexible and played out of multiple fronts throughout his tenure. During his time with the Bills, defensive tackle Kyle Williams emerged as a defensive presence and was named to his first Pro Bowl and produced career numbers in sacks (5.5) and fumble recoveries (2) in 2010. Also under Edwards' watch in 2010, the Bills' pass defense allowed an average of 192.0 passing yards per game to rank 3rd in the AFC, while producing 9 fumble recoveries to tie for 4th in the AFC and forcing 12 fumbles to tie for 5th in the AFC. From 2005-2009, Edwards was the LBs coach for the Miami Dolphins. His first 3 years with Miami were spent tutoring the linebackers before focusing on the inside linebackers in 2008. Under Edwards, Zach Thomas was selected to the Pro Bowl following both the 2005 and '06 seasons and was named as the NFL Alumni Linebacker of the Year for the 2004 season.

Edwards spent the 2004 season as the Cleveland Browns Linebackers coach. Before that, Edwards was mith the Washington Redskins for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. Edwards entered the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys and remained there from 1998-2001. Serving as the LBs coach, Edwards worked under Defensive Coordinator Mike Zimmer who led the Cowboys' defensive attack. Under Edwards' guidance, Dexter Coakley, a 3rd-round draft choice in 1997, was selected to the Pro Bowl twice over the 4-year span (1999, 2001), as he was Dallas' 2nd-leading tackler all 4 years.

Before making the leap to the NFL ranks, Edwards held collegiate assistant posts at Florida (1991), Appalachian State (1992-95), Duke (1996) and Georgia (1997).

The Vikings have an opportunity to even up the all-time series, which currently stands at 11-12 and 5-6 in Minnesota, in Week Nine. The Vikings have won three of their last four against the Redskins.
11/16	at Chicago	54-50-2	After a last-second 31-30 loss in 2013, the Vikings are searching for their first victory at Chicago since 2007 when then-rookie RB Adrian Peterson ran for 224 and three touchdowns. After 32 seasons of playing in the Metrodome, the Minnesota Vikings will move outdoors for the next two seasons as their new downtown stadium is being built. The Vikings will play the 2014 and 2015 seasons on the campus of the University of Minnesota. It was given final local approval by the 13-member Minneapolis City Council on May 25. The design of the new stadium was unveiled to the public on May 13, 2013. The stadium will feature the largest clear ethylene tetrafluoroethylene (ETFE) roof in the nation and the first on a stadium in the country. On May 20, 2014, NFL owners voted to award Minnesota Super Bowl LII in 2018. In the 53-year Vikings history the club has called Met Stadium and MOA Field their homes. For the 2014 and 2015 seasons the Vikings will play at TCF Bank Stadium on the campus of the University of Minnesota.

From 1961-81 the Vikings played outdoors at Met Stadium, amassing a 97-59-4 record in 160 all-time regular season and playoff games. The 1st game played at the Met was the preseason finale of the 1961 inaugural season vs. the LA Rams on 9/10/61, a 21-17 Vikings loss. The 1961 regular season opener was week later when the Vikings upset Chicago 37-13 at the Met. The capacity of the Met was 48,446 during the 1981 season.

For the 1982 season, the Vikings moved downtown and indoors to the Metrodome and went on to play 260 all-time regular season and playoff games, amassing a 168-92 mark. The Vikings played 11 seasons longer at the Metrodome than at Met Stadium- 32 seasons to 21.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

The Vikings begin a 2-year stint at TCF Bank Stadium hoping to continue the strong home record they have held throughout their history. The Vikings have amassed the 3rd-most home wins by an NFL team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The club moved from Metropolitan Stadium following the 1981 season, playing at Mall of America Field at HHH Metrodome starting in 1982. The Vikings played 260 regular season and playoff games indoors, notching a 168-92 record. In 2010 the team endured the loss of the final 2 home games of the season following the collapse of the Dome roof due to heavy snows and blizzard conditions. The Vikings played "host" to the NY Giants at Detroit's Ford Field and played the regular season home finale at TCF Bank Stadium on the University of Minnesota campus when Chicago visited for a Monday Night Football matchup on 12/20/10. Ironically, the game was 29 years to the day since the last outdoor Vikings game in Minnesota, the finale at Met Stadium on 12/20/81 against Kansas City.

Blair Walsh earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his game at Green Bay (11/24) when he was 4-of-4 on FGs including an OT kick that tied the game and had 5 touchbacks. A week later, Walsh was in another OT game and came through with the game-tying and game-winning kicks on a 30-yard and 34-yard FG respectively, helping the Vikings erase a 10-point 4th-quarter deficit to get the win. Jeff Locke is the highest-drafted punter in Vikings history, drafted in the 5th round (#155 overall) and is only the 6th punter drafted by the team. Locke put his mark on the Vikings record book for performances by a rookie punter and notched the 3rd-best single-season net punting average in team history. JOE MARCIANO

SPECIAL TEAMS CONSULTANT COACHING EXPERIENCE: 39TH SEASON NFL EXPERIENCE: 29TH SEASON VIKINGS EXPERIENCE: 1ST SEASON

Joe Marciano will work with the Vikings in 2014 as Special Teams Consultant. The veteran coach has nearly three decades of experience in the NFL. spending the past 12 seasons with the expansion Houston Texans, beginning with the club when it first took the field.

During Marciano's 29 seasons in the NFL, he has coached on 10 playoff teams, including helping franchises that had struggled previously to make consistent postseason appearances. The New Orleans teams in 1987, '90, '91 and '192 were the first Saints clubs to make the playoffs in franchise history since its inception in 1967. Marciano was part of the monumental turnaround in Tampa Bay, taking the Bucs to the playoffs in 1997 for the first time since 1981. Tampa Bay went on to earn playoff berths in 1999, 2000 and 2001, winning the NFC Central for the 1st division title in team history in 1999 at 11-5. From 1982-96 the Bucs never won more than 7 games in a season. In Marciano's final 5 seasons with Tampa Bay (1997-2001) the team never won less than 8 games and made 4 playoff berths. With the expansion Texans, Marciano helped the squad win consecutive AFC South Division titles in 2011 and 2012, advancing to the AFC Divisional Playoffs both seasons.

The 2013 Texans specialists were led by Keshawn Martin, who ranked 8th in the NFL with a 26.3 average on kickoff returns and scored on an 87-yard punt return.

Marciano directed three first-year Texans to franchise records on special teams in 2012. Rookie wide receiver Keshawn Martin ranked 5th in the NFL with a franchise-record 12.14 average on punt returns and was one of 12 players to produce more than 1,000 return yards on special teams in 2012. Martin totaled 267 yards on 22 punt returns and 741 yards on 31 kickoff returns for 1,008 combined return yards. Punter Donnie Jones set club marks with a 47.2 punting average and a 40.5 net punting average. Kicker Shayne Graham ranked fifth among NFL kickers with a franchise-record 138 points.

Newcomers weren't the only Texans to set special teams records in 2012. Outside linebacker Bryan Braman became the first player in franchise history to block two punts in a season, both of which were recovered or returned for touchdowns. In addition, safety Danieal Manning set the AFC Divisional round record with 216 yards on four kickoff returns (54.0 average).

In 2011, the Texans set a franchise record with 529 punt return yards, besting the franchise standard of 512 set in 2010. Former wide receiver Jacoby Jones had a career-high 518 yards on punt returns and set a franchise record with the third punt return touchdown of his career. Kicker Neil Rackers set franchise records with 135 points and 32 field goals made. Rookie Brett Hartmann and veteran Matt Turk combined for a franchise-record 44.0-yard punting average, and Hartmann and Rackers set a team mark with 38 combined touchbacks on kickoffs. Marciansis kickoff coverage unit ranked seventh and held opponents to a franchise-low 22.4-yard kickoff return average.

The Texans' kicking game excelled in 2010, with Rackers setting a franchise record by converting 90 percent of his field goal attempts (27-of-30) and all 43 point-after attempts. Rackers scored 124 points and converted 70-of-73 combined kick attempts (95.9 percent).

Marciano's coverage units held opponents to a 4.3-yard punt return average and 22.5 yards per kickoff return in 2009, Jacoby Jones averaged 10.9 yards per punt return and 26.6 yards per kick return, including a 95-yard kick return for touchdown against Oakland. Kicker Kris Brown surpassed the 1,000 points for his career and eclipsed the 100-point mark for the third straight season with 106 points to go along with a pair of game-winning field goals. Turk set the team single-season punting record for the third straight year, averaging 42.8 yards per punt.

The 2008 special teams unit was one of the most consistent and explosive in the NFL. Brown turned in the best season of his career, setting franchise records with 124 points, 29 field goals and an .879 field goal percentage. Jones returned two punts for touchdowns and finished third in the AFC with a 12.1-yard punt return average. Turk broke his own franchise mark with a 42.3-yard average on a record-low 53 attempts.

The Texans tied three NFL special teams records in 2007. Houston became the fourth team in NFL history with four kickoff returns for touchdowns. Wide receiver André Davis tied another League record when he became the seventh player in history to return two kickoffs for a touchdown in one game, doing so against Jacksonville in the season finale. Brown, who led the team with 115 points, became just the third kicker in League history to make three field goals of 50 yards or longer in one game, doing so against Miami. Turk also set team records for gross and net punting average in his first season as a Texan, and the coverage unit held opponents to a record-low 151 punt return yards.

In 2006, the Texans ranked sixth in the League in punt return average, at 10.5 yards per return; and the kick coverage team held opponents to the sixth-worst starting field position in the League.

Marciano's tenure as special teams coordinator was highlighted during the 2005 season. Pro Bowl selection and AP first-team All-Pro kick returner Jerome Mathis was also honored by the NFL Alumni as the Special Teams Player of the Year and the Texans Rookie of the Year. He ranked second in the NFL with 54 kickoffs for 1,542 yards and two touchdowns. He was the only player in the NFL to return two kicks for scores that season.

Marciano helped Brown finish the 2005 season with 102 points, including 26 field goals. Stanley also had a stall 2005 season, finishing with 29 punts inside the 20-yard line, the fourth most in the NFL. His 6.6 yard-per-

In 2004, Brown nailed a career-high nine touchbacks. Second-year linebacker Antwan Peek had a breakout year with 18 special teams tackles and a blocked punt. Meanwhile, the Texans ranked seventh in the AFC in opponent average starting field position.

In 2003, Stanley led the NFL with 36 punts inside the 20 and his 36.7-yard net average ranked sixth in the League. Brown nailed 18-of-22 field goals, missing just one inside 50 yards. J.J. Moses ranked fifth in the AFC with a 23.4-yard kickoff return average.

In 2002, Brown connected on 13 field goals from 40-plus yards. Stanley ranked second in the AFC in net average (36.8) and led the conference with 36 punts inside the 20. The Texans also scored two touchdowns on special teams (punt return, punt block), recovered three fumbles, and yielded just 5.7 yards per punt return, leading the AFC Marciano arrived in Houston after spending the previous six seasons in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Under Marciano, the Bucs boasted one of the NFC's most consistent special teams units. Tampa Bay blocked 20 kicks, registered nine of the 10 longest punt and kickoff returns in club annals, and recorded 10 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards during his six seasons.

Kicker Martin Gramatica posted remarkable numbers during his first three NFL seasons. Gramatica nailed 84-of-101 field goal attempts (counting playoffs) and earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2000, breaking his own club single-season records in points (126), field goals (28), consecutive field goals (16), 50-plus-yard field goals (five), and extra points (42). Tampa Bay also set a team mark and tied an NFL mark by blocking seven kicks (four field goals, three punts), returning two for touchdowns in 2000.

In 1999, linebacker Shelton Quarles broke a 10-year Bucs single-season record with 31 special teams tackles. Tampa Bay opponents averaged just 17.6 yards per kickoff return, which set a club record. In 1998, Marciano's charges set single-season club marks in both kickoff return average (23.7) and punt-return average (13.7). In 1997, the Bucs finished first in the NFL in opponent net punting and opponent field-goal percentage.

Marciano joined the Bucs after spending the previous 10 years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the club win two league championships. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Joe Paterno at Penn State. Marciano also coached wide receivers at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg University in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pa., in 1976.

A native of Dunmore, PA, Marciano was a quarterback at Temple, where he earned his bachelor's degree in hearth and physical education. He serves as a spokesperson for Autism Speaks and is very active in the organization's annual fundraising walk held each fall in Houston.

Marciano is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

STADIUM & SUPER BOWL LII

NEW VIKINGS STADIUM SET TO OPEN IN 2016

Following the passage of stadium legislation in both the Minnesota House and Senate on May 10, 2012, the Vikings and the Minnesota Sports Facilities Authority (MSFA) immediately began the design and construction process in order to achieve a 2016 stadium opening. Through a public RFP process, the two parties jointly selected HKS Sports & Entertainment as the stadium architect and Minnesotabased Mortenson Construction as the construction manager. Both have extensive experience in their respective areas with professional sports facilities, with HKS having designed Cowboys Stadium and Lucas Oil Stadium, and Mortenson having built Target Field, TCF Bank Stadium, Xcel Energy Center and Target Center.

With the architect and builder on board, the Vikings and the MSFA unveiled the new stadium design on May 13, 2013, a fitting celebration almost exactly one year after Governor Mark Dayton signed the stadium bill into law on May 14, 2012. The bold, iconic design received high marks from the general public and state leaders for its progressive look and its openness to the surrounding neighborhoods.

Vikings fans also raved about the new design and the stadium's unique features, including the largest transparent ethylene tetraflouroethylene (ETFE) roof in the nation and five of the largest glass pivoting doors in the world that will open to the downtown skyline. With the stadium's openness, fans will experience an outdoor feel in a climate-controlled environment. Vikings fans will also be as close to the action as any NFL stadium in the country, with the closest fans sitting just 41.5 feet from the sideline. Seven levels, including two general admission concourses with 360-degree circulation and various views into the bowl, will be connected with escalators, elevators, stairs and a continuous ramp. Two of the largest and highest-quality HD video boards in the NFL will be located in both the east and west end zones, and approximately 2,000 HD flat screen televisions will be distributed throughout the concourses.

Groundbreaking for the new 65,000-seat stadium took place on December 3, 2013, followed by the demolition of Mall of America Field in the spring of 2014. The Vikings will play the 2014-2015 seasons at the University of Minnesota.

ETFE Q&A

What is FTFF?

ETFE is a co-polymer resin that is extruded into a thin film. Originally created by the space industry, the plastic-like material is transparent but can be treated to be translucent, is extremely light-weight, very durable and resistant to corrosion.

What is the life/longevity of ETFE?

ETFE does not degrade with exposure to UV light, atmospheric pollution, harsh chemicals or extreme temperatures. The material has withstood extensive testing within extreme environments and is expected to have a 30-50 year life expectancy while requiring minimal maintenance.

How does ETFE handle weight/pressure?

Despite its weight (1/100 the weight of glass), ETFE handles snow/wind loads very well. In sheet form, it can stretch three times its length without losing elasticity.

How do you clean ETFE?

ETFE systems are extremely low maintenance. The surface of the foil is non-stick and non-porous, which allows the natural action of rain to clean the surface. Deposits of dirt, dust and debris remain unattached and are washed away with moisture, meaning ETFE effectively self-cleans with virtually no need to clean externally.

NEW STADIUM ETFE FACTS

- Largest translucent ETFE roof in North America, spanning 240,000 square feet.
- Only stadium in the nation with clear ETFE roof.
- ETFE will comprise 60% of the entire roof.
- ETFE will cover 60% of the field but angle of roof will allow sunlight over entire

MINNESOTA AWARDED SUPER BOWL LII

On May 20, 2014, the NFL announced that Minnesota will host Super Bowl LII in February 2018.

After being selected as one of three finalists in October 2013 and submitting the final bid on May 7, the Minnesota Super Bowl Bid Committee delivered a successful presentation to all 32 NFL owners during the NFL's Spring League Meetings in Atlanta. Centered on the theme, "Built for the Bold," the presentation highlighted the new, iconic and bold stadium as a centerpiece and included the many bold moves Minnesotans have made in creating a destination that is ready to host the world's biggest game.

"We are thrilled to bring the Super Bowl back to Minnesota," said Richard Davis, chief executive officer of U.S. Bank and bid committee co-chair. "We succeeded in making the best case to the NFL owners by pointing out the many strengths our region offers – a tremendous entertainment and hospitality industry, 19 Fortune 500 companies, great airport and strong connectivity with both our light rail and skyway systems, and perhaps most important, a new, iconic stadium that will be among the best in the country."

"We appreciate the collaborative effort from Minnesota's business and community leadership in putting together this winning bid," said Vikings Owner/President Mark Wilf. "It was evident to me and my brother Zygi that the other NFL owners were extremely impressed with everything Minnesota has to offer, and we have no doubt they will be even more excited with what the community will deliver in February 2018."

"The Super Bowl is the most-watched annual event in the world," said Doug Baker, chief executive officer of Ecolab and bid committee co-chair. "This unprecedented audience, along with the 100,000 people who come to experience it in person, will see this vibrant, engaged community that celebrates all that winter can be when we showcase everything from outdoor activities on Nicollet Mall's Super Bowl Boulevard to an ice palace at the St. Paul Winter Carnival. We plan to set the bar high for all northern destinations that host the Super Bowl."

"I'm most excited by the opportunity to show the world our community's remarkable legacy project that will enhance the lives of Minnesota's children and set a precedent for the future of the game with a $2 million commitment," said Marilyn Carlson-Nelson, former chair and chief executive officer of Carlson Companies and bid committee co-chair. "It's also a joy

The game will be held in the new Minnesota Multi-Purpose Stadium, currently under construction and set to open in July 2016. The stadium, which will typically seat 65,400, will be expandable to 70,000+ seats for the 2018 Super Bowl. With a clear ETFE roof and five of the largest glass pivoting doors in the world, fans will experience an outdoor feel in a climate-controlled environment.

Lester Bagley, the Vikings Executive Vice President-Public Affairs & Stadium Development, led the Vikings efforts to secure Super Bowl LII. Bagley worked closely with Vikings ownership, Minnesota's corporate leaders, hospitality industry and the Stadium Authority, and was instrumental in landing the world's marquee sporting event.

"Attending fans and the world will see the best of Minnesota – from the sunlit view of downtown Minneapolis through the stadium windows to the many activities happening throughout the region," said Minnesota Sports Facilities Authority Chair Michele Kelm-Helgen. "The new stadium and adjacent two-block park that is being developed are incredible assets that will offer amazing fan experiences."

By securing the bid, Minnesota beat contenders New Orleans and Indianapolis, both cities that have hosted successful Super Bowls.

PREVIEW CENTER SHOWCASES NEW STADIUM

In February 2014, the Vikings and Van Wagner Sports & Entertainment completed and opened the New Stadium Preview Center adjacent to the stadium's construction site.

Located on the fifth floor of the 1010 Metrodome Square Building (1010 South 7th Street, Minneapolis, MN 55415), the 7,500 squarefoot, state-of-the-art Preview Center is designed to give Vikings fans their first look at the future game experience within the new stadium set to open in July 2016. The interactive space, the largest ever built by an NFL team, overlooks the stadium construction site and includes a custom-filmed experiential player tunnel and Vikings locker room experience, two authentic Suite build-outs, a 24-seat Club seating section, 37 high-definition televisions and seven interactive kiosks. The center also contains a 100:1 scale city-scape model and a 25:1 scale detailed architectural stadium model. In picking out their seat locations, fans have the opportunity to see 360-degree panaromic views from 275 vantage points within the stadium.

VIKINGS LAUNCH NEW STADIUM WEB SITE

In order to provide fans with all of the latest new stadium information, the Vikings and Van Wagner Sports & Entertainment launched a new web site - newminnesotastadium.com - earlier this year.

The web site not only gives fans exclusive looks at the stadium's exterior and interior design through various photos and videos but it also addresses the most commonly asked questions and includes media coverage surrounding the stadium's design and construction. Fans can also walk step-by-step through the sales process or sign up for the new stadium ticket waitlist.

STADIUM NEWS & NOTES - SEPTEMBER 5, 2014

New 4D Construction Model Released by Mortenson

Earlier this week Mortenson Construction released a new 4D model that shows what remains with the project as of this week. If you haven't seen it, it's worth the two minutes (http://www.newminnesotastadium.com/new-vikings-stadium-news-notes-septem-ber-5-2014/).

What's Your #VikingsLegacy?

Recently the Vikings launched vikingslegacy.com, a site that allows fans to briefly look at the past, the present and the future of the organization. Through the site, fans can sign up for the new stadium waitlist or join the team now and guarantee new stadium seat priority by purchasing season tickets for the 2014 season. Fans are also encouraged to give their favorite Vikings moment by using #VikingsLegacy on social media.

Just How High Will the Stadium Reach?

In case you missed it, on Thursday a large piece of structural steel that will ultimately make up the stadium's west "prow," was placed on site. At its peak, the prow, which will be the highest point of the stadium, will reach more than 270 feet above grade. The other half of the prow is scheduled to be placed next week, another major milestone in the project. Watch the first half go up below, and view photos of the piece here.

State Fairgrounds Parking Now Available for Tailgating

With the 2014 Minnesota State Fair behind us, the fairgrounds are now available for Vikings fans' parking/tailgating needs on game day. Approximately 1,500 spaces will be available for tailgating on Lot 108 at a cost of $20 per game. This is a convenient option for fans who do not want to deal with traffic. University buses will pick fans up at the lot, travel down the University's transitway and drop fans directly in front of TCF Bank Stadium for an expected total ride of less than 10 minutes.

STADIUM NEWS & NOTES - AUGUST 22, 2014

Vikings Increase Contribution to New Stadium

On Friday the Minnesota Vikings and the Wilf family agreed to commit an additional private contribution of $46.1 million toward the new stadium, bringing the team's total increased contributions to the project since last November to nearly $49 million. Combined, the additional dollars push the original team/private contribution of $477 million to nearly $526 million (51% of stadium capital costs) and increase the stadium budget from $975 million to approximately $1.024 billion. The public contribution toward the project remains at $498 million. The team has also now absorbed a total of $23.2 million in costs of playing at the University of Minnesota for the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

The additional dollars will be directed into the overall stadium budget and will ensure crucial fan amenities such as the five pivoting glass doors, elevators, escalators and acoustical treatments remain in the project. Click here for more information on the additional contribution.

SMG to Operate New Vikings Stadium

Also on Friday, the Vikings and the MSFA chose SMG as the new Vikings stadium operator. SMG has extensive experience in operating major sports venues, managing over 200 facilities worldwide, including four NFL stadiums (Soldier Field in Chicago, Mercedes Benz Superdome in New Orleans, NRG Stadium in Houston and Everbank Field in Jacksonville).

SMG facilities have hosted nine Super Bowls over the years. The company's experience in that regard will be a fantastic asset as the new Vikings stadium prepares to host Super Bowl LII in 2018 and other major events. SMG has also committed to work with the Minnesota State High School League, colleges, and community groups to secure events that were previously held in the Metrodome.

The 10-year contract includes an annual $6.75 million revenue guarantee to the publicly-owned stadium, which will allow the Minnesota Sports Facilities Authority to build and maintain its capital and operating reserves to ensure that this stadium remains a world-class facility.

Vikings-MSFA Agree to Business Parameters for Potential MLS Team

The MSFA and the Vikings have reached a business agreement related to the use of the new stadium by a potential future Major League Soccer franchise. The agreement calls for an MLS team to pay $340,000 in annual rent, as well as cover game day expenses.

Reaching this agreement is a significant step forward in the Vikings pursuit of an MLS franchise, as it provides specific business parameters to the MLS and further shows the seriousness of the Vikings effort.

Between the operable doors, the transparent roof and the house reduction system that is currently being designed, the new stadium would be an outstanding MLS venue.
