WHAT TO WATCH FOR

SHOW YOUR STUFF

With a win under their belt after defeating the New York Jets in Week 1 of the preseason, last Thursday's game against the Browns presented an opportunity for players to further showcase themselves in the lineup. Head Coach Jim Schwartz, however, felt that the team failed to capitalize on chances throughout the game on both the offensive and defensive sides of the ball, resulting in a 24-6 loss.

Schwartz on the opportunity for players to rise to the occasion: "We missed this opportunity. It was a great chance for other guys to step up."

Specifically on offense, with WR Calvin Johnson on the sidelines, the Lions' young receiver corps saw extensive playing time across the board. A stingy Browns pass-rush allowed for minimal production through the air, though, something Schwartz said he had hoped to improve on in the team's first road test.

Schwartz on the lack of a vertical threat against the Browns: "We had some shots schemed in there, but the opportunity didn't really come out to be able to get them out there. Regardless of whether you throw it deep or you throw it underneath, you've got to be able to get some chunks in the game somewhere and when I say 'chunks,' I mean plus-twenty plays."

In addition, penalties and miscommunication prevented any consistency within the Lions' positional rotations throughout the game. A personal foul on DT Ndamukong Suh in the first quarter on Browns QB Brandon Weeden resulted in a 15-yard gain, and additional calls on RB Reggie Bush and DE Willie Young granted the Browns favorable field position on three different occasions. With players competing for roster spots, Schwartz acknowledged that minimizing penalties is imperative if the team is to improve moving forward.

Schwartz on personal fouls: "That's another thing we've got to do a better job of. It doesn't matter what happens out there. Reggie (Bush) got hit right in the back after a play, but that doesn't give any reason to go put our offense in a worse position by getting 15. The coverage has a great coverage and then (Ndamukong) Suh gets a personal foul. Regardless of what you think of the call, it doesn't matter. It gets called and we pay the price for it; same thing on the punt with Willie (Young). That's something that last week we didn't have. Last week we did a much better job of controlling the game and our emotions and this game we didn't."

With two preseason games still remaining against the New England Patriots and Buffalo Bills, respectively, Bush believes the loss at Cleveland provides key takeaway points for the team.

Bush on the learning from the loss at Cleveland: "We definitely can learn from this one. We can really take a lot away from this one and use it to get ready for the next week. I hope we use it wisely and find a way to get better."

WORKING OUT THE KINKS

Through eight quarters of preseason play, the Lions' high-powered offense is still working to build momentum, generating only four scores (1 TD, 3 FG). After Detroit's 24-6 loss at Cleveland, Bush reflected on the ability to score points.

Bush on the team's lack of scoring: "We should be concerned a little bit. No doubt, because we are better than that. We have to hold ourselves accountable, because we need to put points on the board. The offense's job is to score points and we didn't do a good job of starting off today. We have to do a better job and learn from this one."

Head Coach Jim Schwartz was also not pleased with the team's performance offensively, as the Lions did not score a touchdown against the Browns and failed to generate explosive plays.

Schwartz on the offense: "We played poorly on offense. Dropped balls, didn't execute, didn't move the ball, didn't have any explosive plays (and we) didn't score any touchdowns.

There's going to be things that come up in preseason games and things like that. Again, we don't actually game plan in preseason games, but I want to see us execute better. I think we all want to execute better. We want to put the ball in the end zone because that's what it's all about."

QB Matthew Stafford finished the game 11-of-16 for 74 yards before exiting late in the second half. While his favorite target, WR Calvin Johnson, sat out the game, Stafford was adamant that Johnson's absence does not excuse the Lions' lack of production on offense against the Browns.

Stafford on his assessment of the offense: "The biggest thing for us is just staying on the field," Stafford told the Detroit Free Press. "We didn't do really two things, didn't stay on the field and didn't have many explosive (plays). Those lead to points in this league and, obviously, Calvin was out tonight, but that's no excuse. We can't use it as an excuse, can't use it as a crutch. We got to have the other guys step up and make plays."

Schwartz also identified issues with the defense as the Browns' three quarterbacks combined for 21-of-29 for 242 yards with an average quarterback rating of 131.7. Poor tackling has been a common theme so far in preseason, according to Schwartz, and the Lions head coach was quick to discuss how to improve that facet of the game.

Schwartz on the team's missed tackles: "Last week, when it's the first game, you sort of expect that a little bit and the point we made was we need to see improvement from last game to this game and we didn't see that. Most of the tackling came from core leverage. It really wasn't the actual tackle as much as it was the line of attack that they had and the leverage and angle that they took. It's something that we definitely need to do better on."

The Lions gave up 313 total net yards in the loss to the Browns, nearly 100 more yards than Detroit generated. Schwartz understands the role preseason plays in players' development, but also acknowledged that the time to make improvements is now.

Schwartz on adjusting the defense: "No excuses. We didn't game plan but that has nothing to do with physically getting beat, Schwartz told The Detroit News. That's the most disappointing part of it. They ran the ball against eight-man fronts and that is unacceptable."

DUAL-THREAT WORKHORSE

When the Lions signed Bush this offseason, they knew they were getting an explosive playmaker. But after last week's preseason game with the Browns, the team realized that Bush can also be the team's workhorse, game in and game out.

Despite limited action in the preseason, Bush has the most carries and touches on the team, most of which came on one drive against the Browns last week. The Lions fed No. 21 the ball eight times on a 14-play drive that resulted in a K David Akers 48-yard field goal in the second quarter. Bush caught three passes for 21 yards and carried the rock five times for 14 yards on that drive alone. He led the team in receiving with 44 yards overall, proving he could be that multi-purpose weapon out of the backfield.

Stafford on building a relationship with Bush: "That's what he can do. He can make plays for us in the passing game. He caught all kinds of different routes tonight, and made some great plays for us. There are still some things we left out there, he and I, and we'll keep working to get that fixed."

Adding Bush to an offense with playmakers like Johnson and a core of athletic tight ends should open room over the middle for Stafford to find his newly acquired running back in the open field, which could result in big plays for the Lions this season.

Bush on working with Stafford: "It was pretty important to connect on some passes, start building that chemistry. Getting ready for the regular season, that's what the preseason is for. Fine tuning and seeing what errors we need to improve on and get better at. It was good to connect on a few passes with him."

Establishing an effective run presence to complement his talents in the passing game will be among the goals for Bush and the Lions offense this season. In 2012, the Lions recorded 17 rushing touchdowns, the most since the team racked up 15 in 2000, and Schwartz hopes to see continued improvement from Bush in the team's final two preseason games.

Schwartz on Bush's performance against the Browns: "Reggie played tough. Reggie played hard and made some plays for us. Again, offensively we didn't have any big plays or explosive plays. We dropped passes, couldn't move the ball, no touchdowns in the game. I mean there is no silver lining in a performance like that."

OTHER PRESEASON NOTES

- So far in the 2013 preseason (As of 8/17), Detroit ranks first in the League in rushing defense, allowing only 59.0 yards per game through two preseason games.
- The team also ranks fourth through two preseason games, allowing just a 2.7 yards per rushing attempt average.
- LB Ashlee Palmer leads the Lions defense in tackles this preseason with 10 (three solo), including two tackles for loss, and has recorded one sack (one yard).
- The Lions continued to see consistency from their special teams units against the Browns as Akers and rookie K Håvard Rugland both remained perfect on field goal attempts. Akers (48) and Rugland (33) each converted a field goal in the game, giving them both a 3-for-3 mark this preseason.
- On special teams, the Lions cover units rank seventh in kickoff return average allowed (22.2) and ninth in punt return average allowed (6.4).
- Lions QB Shaun Hill ranks 10th in preseason with a 94.9 passer rating. He is 19-of-29 (65.5 pct) for 186 yards with 1 TD.
- Detroit (tied for 5th with +2 turnover margin) is one of five teams with no give-aways thus far in the preseason.

2013 NOTABLE PLAYER MILESTONES

WR CALVIN JOHNSON

- Needs two 200-yard receiving games to surpass Lance Alworth (5) for the most all-time. In six seasons, Johnson has four career 200-yard receiving games.
- Needs 1,500 receiving yards to join Andre Johnson (3), Marvin Harrison (3) and Jerry Rice (4) as the only players with at least three such seasons in NFL history. In six seasons, Johnson has two 1,500-yard receiving seasons.
- With 7,836 career receiving yards, needs 1,338 to pass WR Herman Moore (9,174) for most receiving yards in Lions history.

QB MATTHEW STAFFORD

- Needs 2,904 yards and 39 touchdowns to pass Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne (15,710; 118) for the most passing yards and touchdowns in Lions history.

K DAVID AKERS

- Needs to convert a field-goal attempt in each of his next six games to surpass Matt Stover (38) for the most consecutive games with a field goal in NFL history. Akers has kicked a field goal in each of his past 33 games.

DT N DAMUKONG SUH

- Needs eight sacks to pass Shaun Rogers (29) and become the Lions' all-time leader in career sacks by a defensive tackle with 30.

2013 NFL STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Entering the 2013 season, the Detroit Lions strength of schedule of .539 ranks as the second-highest in the NFL.

- The Lions are tied with Green Bay with the most opponents (12) on 2013 schedule that finished the 2012 season with a .500 or better record.

ATTACKING THE LINE OF SCRIMMAGE

The Lions defense is at its best when attacking opponents and getting after the quarterback. As a team in 2012, the defense was among the best in the league in producing disruptive plays at the line of scrimmage.

- Last season, the Lions forced 123 negative plays on defense (sacks, tackles for loss on rushing plays, tackles for loss on pass completions), which is third-best in the NFL.
- On the ground, the Lions have dropped opponents for a loss 78 times on rushing plays (second in NFL).
- Detroit has also registered 11 tackles for loss on pass completions.

AT THE CONTROLS

Lions QB Matthew Stafford, now in his fifth season, has led the Lions offense to great offensive heights. He already has set single-season and career franchise records and is closing in on more Lions career passing marks this season. Additionally, Stafford has finished among the top quarterbacks in the League passing rankings the past two seasons.

STAFFORD AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS

- Stafford finished the 2012 season just 33 passing yards shy of becoming only the second player in NFL history to throw for 5,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. In 2012, Stafford was 435-of-727 (59.8 pct) for 4,967 yards with 20 touchdowns as he led the League in pass completions and finished second in passing yards behind QB Drew Brees (5,177).
- He set a an NFL single-season record with 727 pass attempts.

- With 4,967 yards in 2012, Stafford passed QB Scott Mitchell (4,338 in 1995) for the second-most single-season passing yards in team history. By accomplishing this feat, he holds the top two highest single-season outputs in team history. His 5,038 yards set a new team record in 2011. He is the only quarterback in team history with two 4,500-yard seasons.
- Stafford finished out the 2012 season racking up 272 passing yards and three touchdowns on 24-of-42 passing in Week 17 vs. Chicago (12/30). His three touchdown passes marked his 11th career game with 3+ touchdown passes (second in 2012), only one 3+ touchdown game behind QB Bobby Layne who holds the career record with 12.
- His new team record now stands at 1,114 completions.
  - Stafford's 443 yards against the Falcons was the third-highest single-game tally in Lions history and he now holds five of the team's Top-8 single-game performances for passing yards.

PASSING PRIDE - CAREER

Among Lions quarterbacks, Stafford passed his way into Lions lore by becoming the franchise leader in multiple categories.

CAREER YARDS

- With 12,807 yards, he ranks second in team history and trails only QB Bobby Layne (15,710) for the all-time record. Stafford enters the 2012 season needing 2,902 yards to break that mark.
- Stafford also holds the team record for most career 300-yard (17) and 400-yard (5) passing games by a Lions quarterback.
- Stafford threw for 285 yards at Jacksonville (11/4/) in Week 9 and eclipsed 10,000 career passing yards. He became the second fastest in NFL history to reach the mark (37 games), behind only QB Kurt Warner (36 games).
- Stafford made his 30th career start in the 2012 opener vs. St. Louis (9/9/). With 172 yards in the first half, he surpassed 8,000 career yards and joined Kurt Warner (8,739), Pro Football Hall of Famer Dan Marino (8,467), Tony Romo (8,044) and Aaron Rodgers (8,000) as the only quarterbacks to have at least 8,000 passing yards through 30 career starts in the Super Bowl era. Stafford became the fifth quarterback to accomplish this feat.

STAFFORD'S GAME-WINNING DRIVES

Through four NFL seasons, Stafford has proven the ability to bring the team from behind to claim victory and perform great in the closing minutes of the game.

- Thus far, Stafford has tallied eight victories with trailing or tied in the fourth quarter or overtime (including three in 2012).
- Stafford has four career game-winning touchdown passes with less than one minute to play in fourth quarter (franchise record) and five after the two-minute warning.
  - In the 2012 opener vs. St. Louis (9/9), he threw his third career game-winning touchdown with less than one minute to play which set a new team record.
  - Stafford threw his fourth game-winning touchdown pass with less than one minute to play vs. Seattle (10/28) and become the first quarterback since the 1970 NFL merger to do so in his first 36 games (Elias Sports Bureau).

ON THE RISE

Seventh-year WR Calvin Johnson produced one of the most prolific seasons among receivers in NFL history in 2012 as he continued to establish himself as one of the elite receivers in the League. Johnson has earned starting nods for the past three Pro Bowls and was named AP All-Pro in each of the past two seasons.

ALL-TIME RECEIVING

RECEIVING YARDS PER GAME

- Having played in 92 career games, Johnson has tallied the highest single-game receiving yards average in NFL history (90-game minimum).
- He is the fifth player in NFL history to reach 7,500 career receiving yards in 90 games (Hall of Fame WR Lance Alworth, Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice, WR Randy Moss and WR Torry Holt).

JOHNSON AND THE PRO BOWL

Guided by his record-setting performance in 2012, Johnson was named to the Pro Bowl for the third time in his career.

- Three-time Pro Bowl selection: 2011, 2012, 2013.
- Second consecutive year (2012-13) named starter for NFC.
- First Lions receiver to be named Pro Bowl three times since WR Herman Moore earned four nods from 1995-98.
- Joins Moore (4, 1995-98) and Gail Cogdill (3, 1961, 1963-64) as only receivers in Lions history to be selected to three Pro Bowls.
- Johnson is first Lions player to be selected to Pro Bowl three times since DE Robert Porcher (1998, 2000 and 2002).
- Johnson is first Lions offensive player to earn three-straight Pro Bowls selections since RB Barry Sanders (10, 1990-99).

TE Brandon Pettigrew followed up his stellar 2011 season with 59 receptions for 567 yards and three touchdowns in 2012, finishing second on the team in receptions and receiving yards. The fifth-year tight end has been one of the most productive tight ends in the NFL since 2010.

With the three-headed combination of RBs Joique Bell, Reggie Bush and Mikel Leshoure, the Lions have the pieces they need to establish a rushing attack that can generate big plays between the tackles, as well as in open space in the receiving game. As a team in 2012, the Lions racked up 17 rushing touchdowns on the season, the most the team has registered since they had 15 in 2000.

BUSH OUT OF THE BACKFIELD

The Lions added a dangerous threat in both the running and passing games this offseason with the acquisition of unrestricted free agent RB Reggie Bush to complement an already polished passing attack.

➤ Since entering the League in 2006, Bush ranks first in receptions (372), third in receiving yards (2,730) and third in receiving touchdowns (15) among running backs.

RUNNING ALONG LESHORE

After missing his rookie season with an Achilles injury in 2011, Leshoure provided a much-needed boost to the Lions run game in 2012. Leshoure finished with 798 rushing yards and nine touchdowns in his comeback season, the most rushing touchdowns by a Lions player since RB James Stewart recorded 10 in 2000. His three touchdown runs against Jacksonville in Week 9 (11/4) marked the first time in Lions history (since 1934) that a Lions player rushed for three first half scores.

➤ Leshoure made an immediate impact on the Lions offense in his debut at Tennessee (9/23) with 26 carries for 100 yards and a touchdown. He became the first Lions running back making their debut to hit the century mark and reach the end zone since RB Billy Sims recorded 153 yards and three touchdowns in his first career game in 1980.

- Leshoure's 26 carries marked the most ever by a Lions rusher in their first career game. Sims had held the record with 22 before Leshoure's big debut. He is the third non-rookie to record 26 or more carries in their NFL debut and the first to do so in a non-strike game.

INTERNAL PRESSURE

The Lions defensive line features a fearsome rotation of defensive linemen who guide the defense with an aggressive approach. In 2012, DT Ndamukong Suh finished second on the team in sacks (8.0), while the Lions saw a breakout year from DT Nick Fairley who finished the season with 5.5 sacks.

TORMENTING TACKLES

- The Lions defensive tackles recorded the most sacks (15.5), had more tackles for loss on rushing plays (20.5) and had more total negative defensive plays (36.0) than any other group of defensive tackles in the NFL.

- Suh finished second (8.0) and Fairley tied for fifth (5.5) in sacks among defensive tackles in the NFL.
- With Suh registering 8.0 sacks and Fairley garnering 5.5 sacks last season, it marks the first time since 1996 that two Lions defensive tackles (DT Luther Elliss, 6.5; DT Henry Thomas, 6.0) had at least 5.5 sacks.
- In the opener, three defensive tackles registered sacks against St. Louis (9/9), with Fairley, Suh and Williams each registering one apiece. It was only the fourth time (third since 2010) that three defensive tackles have registered sacks in the same game for the Lions since quarterback sacks became an official stat in 1982.

N-DOMINATOR

Lions fourth-year DT Ndamukong Suh continues to produce and disrupt opponent offenses. Since entering the NFL in 2010, he ranks second in most sacks by a defensive tackle over the past three years (22). Among defensive tackles in 2012, Suh finished second with eight sacks, tied for third with eight tackles for loss on rushing plays, and second in combined sacks and tackles for loss on rushing plays with 16.

- Since entering the League in 2010, Suh has the most combined sacks and tackles-for-loss on rushing plays by defensive tackles with 38.5 (22 sacks, 16.5 TFLs).
- In just his fourth year, he is tied for fifth among all Lions defensive tackles in career sacks since the statistic became official in 1982.
- Suh had a 0.5 sack in Week 16 vs. Atlanta (12/22) which increased his total to 7.0 sacks on the season. He became the first Lions defensive tackle since 1982 to record 7+ sacks in two different seasons.

LINE DISRUPTION

The Lions defensive line proved disruptive in both the pass and run game this season.

- Combined, the Lions defensive linemen recorded 62.5 negative defensive plays at the line of scrimmage (sacks and tackles for losses on rushing plays), third in the NFL among defensive line units.
- The Lions defensive line generated 31.0 sacks, which was seventh in the NFL among defensive lines.

BARRIER REIFF

T Riley Reiff did not begin his career as a traditional starting offensive lineman, but he became an integral part of the NFL's third overall ranked offense last season. The first-round draft choice (23rd overall) out of Iowa in 2011 played at a high intensity every time his number was called and his role steadily increased as the season progressed. Reiff started eight games this season, with seven coming as an extra blocker along the offensive line.

Date	G	S	Plys	Total	Pct
Totals	16	8	325	1200	27.1
Final 12 Games	12	7	316	895	35.3

- Of the team's 17 rushing touchdowns last season, eight occurred with Reiff on the field. At Jacksonville (11/14), the Lions rushed for four touchdowns, the most in a game since 2005, and all four occurred with Reiff on the field either as an extra lineman or as a tight end, sometimes going in motion.
- Reiff manned the left tackle position against Green Bay (11/18) after T Jeff Backus left the game due to a hamstring injury. He entered the game midway through the second quarter and saw his most extensive action of the season.
- Reiff drew his first career start as a member of the offensive line in place of T Jeff Backus. He helped pave the way for two rushing touchdowns and 525 total yards of offense against a stout Texans defense. He was faced with the task of protecting QB Matthew Stafford's blind side on all of his 61 pass attempts.

SPECIAL SPECIAL TEAMERS

AKERS BEYOND THE REST

Six-Year Pro Bowl K David Akers takes over the Lions kicking duties in 2013 after spending the previous two seasons with the 49ers (2011-12). Prior to his time in San Francisco, Akers was the Eagles' mainstay at kicker from 1999-2010, where he left as the franchise leader in almost every category for a kicker.

- Last season at Green Bay (9/9), Akers became the 17th player in NFL history to surpass 1,500 career points with 12 points in the game, and also tied the NFL record for longest field goal with a 63-yard kick on the final play of the first half.
- Since 2000, Akers has made 364 field goals and scored 1,609 points, most among NFL kickers in that span.

COVER MAN

Lions S John Wendling is among the NFL's elite special team players. Few players in the League produce like they do on both kickoff and punt team cover units.

- During Wendling's six-year career, Wendling has tallied 100 special teams tackles (most in NFL since 2007).
- Since joining the Lions in 2010, Wendling has 51 special teams tackles, tied for the most in the NFL over the past three seasons.
- In 2010, Wendling led the NFL with 24 special teams tackles. In 2011, Wendling recorded 17 special teams tackles, which tied for fourth in the NFL.
- In 2012, Wendling finished tied for second on the team in special teams tackles with 10.

SUMMARY

The Lions offense marched straight down the field for 12 plays, 72 yards to a 1st and Goal at the Rams three-yard line, only to have Rams rookie CB Janoris Jenkins pick off QB Matthew Stafford's pass in the end zone and return it to the St. Louis 34. Defense held the Rams to a 48-yard field goal by rookie K Greg Zuerlein after a 10-play, 36-yard drive. On the next drive, Stafford moved the chains 80 yards, setting up RB Joique Bell for a one-yard touchdown rush up the middle in front of his hometown. Detroit's defense was at it again soon after when DT Ndamukong Suh brought down Jackson with one arm on a 3rd-and-2, helping force a punt situation. Stafford's ensuing drive was thwarted by LB Jo-Lonn Dunbar as he picked off a pass intended for TE Brandon Pettigrew at the St. Louis 14 and returned it 42 yards to the Detroit 44. DT Nick Fairley came in with a sack on QB Sam Bradford for a loss of five yards, compelling the Rams to settle for a field goal. Seconds after the two minute warning, Stafford was picked off by CB Cortland Finnegan at the Detroit 31 for the 31-yard score. Keen on shaking off the interception, the Lions ended the first half with a 41-yard field goal from K Jason Hanson. After a false start penalty and a Suh-sack (12 yards), the offense once again had an opportunity to score. The Lions took the 45-yard field goal to tie the game after coverage from CB Janoris Jenkins and a sack for a loss of nine yards courtesy of DE Robert Quinn. In the third quarter, Stafford hammered down the field for a five-play, 80-yard touchdown drive to tie the game at 20-20. The Rams answered with a 13-play drive which garnered only a field goal to give St. Louis a three point lead. The Lions traveled 80 yards in under two minutes on their final drive of the game and finished with Stafford connecting with RB Kevin Smith for a five-yard pass with 10 seconds to play. Detroit's high-energy win marked the franchise's 50th home-opening win in team history.

SUMMARY

The Lions ventured to Candlestick Park seeking a win for the first time since 1975 in front of a primetime audience, but fell eight points short to San Francisco, 27-19. The 49ers wasted no time traveling for 67 yards in four plays and a touchdown in just over a minute as QB Alex Smith connected deep for 21 yards to TE Vernon Davis. After a five-yard penalty on 49ers TE Demarcus Dobbs at Detroit's 27, RB Kevin Smith edged down the field for four yards in two plays and WR Calvin Johnson and TE Will Heller used height to their advantage and picked up 15 yards. K Jason Hanson capitalized on a field goal attempt, concluding an eight-play, 48-yard scoring drive. The Lions special teams unit forced a turnover with a fumble caused by rookie LB Tahir Whitehead that was recovered by WR Kassim Osgood at the San Francisco 25. RB Joique Bell's 2-yard acquisition was the lone gain on the ensuing drive that resulted with another field goal from 41 yards out. Lions QB Matthew Stafford was picked off on the third play of the ensuing drive by S Dashon Goldson at the Detroit 43 who returned it 20 yards. K David Akers added a 35-yard field goal that was voided after a roughing the kicker penalty on Lions CB Drayton Florence. Two plays later, CB Jacob Lacey had a pass interference penalty which set the 49ers up for a one-yard rushing touchdown in five plays, 23 yards and 2:24 off the clock. On Detroit's following possession, the Lions offense pushed down the field using an effective run-pass combination, but Hanson missed the 40-yard field goal attempt. Detroit answered soon after with a 40-yard field goal drive that went for 10 plays, 39 yards and 6:02 with just under four minutes to play in the fourth. Akers came back with a 48-yard field goal in 10 plays and 55 yards, while Stafford was victim of two sacks for a combined loss of 24 yards as the Lions settled for their fourth and final field goal of the night. Smith's 23-yard touchdown pass to Davis extended the 49ers' lead late in the game.

SUMMARY

After trading early field goals, the Titans ran a trick play on a punt return with RB Darius Reynaud throwing a reverse pass to CB Tommie Campbell for a 65-yard score. On the following drive the Lions went three-and-out with Hanson filling in to punt due to P Ben Graham's injury. After a five-yard penalty on Fairley, Locker threw a 61-yard touchdown pass to Cook as the Titans then held the Lions to another field goal. At the end of the first half, Titans K Rob Bironas added a 38-yard field goal. At the start of the third quarter, RB Mikel Leshoure came in for a one-yard rush touchdown on the Lions' next possession. Following a Titans fumble, Stafford responded with a three-yard TD pass and a two-point conversion both to WR Nate Burleson. Reynaud extinguished the Lions' momentum with a 105-yard touchdown kickoff return, tying the score 27-27. Locker followed up with a 71-yard pass to WR Nate Washington for a touchdown on the Titans' next drive to put Tennessee ahead one. With the ball back, Stafford moved down the field until TE Brandon Pettigrew was stripped as the Titans ran it back for a 72-yard touchdown. Lions QB Shaun Hill came in at 1:16 due to injury and found Johnson in the end zone for a three-yard touchdown. Hill forced overtime with a Hail Mary pass to WR Titus Young, but a Titans field goal and a missed extra point handed the Lions their second loss.

SUMMARY

The Lions' first NFC North contest of the 2012 season opened with a 105-yard kickoff return courtesy of Vikings WR Percy Harvin just 12 seconds into the game. QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions' offensive retaliation with an attempted deep pass to WR Calvin Johnson that was incomplete, but drew two penalties on the defense. Hanson booted a 40-yard field goal after the four-play, 58-yard drive to narrow the score to 7-3. Vikings RB Adrian Peterson had a 12-yard run for a first down, but DE Cliff Avril tackled Harvin on a reverse play for -3. WR Jerome Simpson had a first down, but another tackle for loss of a yard by LB DeAndre Levy had the Vikings in a third down situation that led to a P Chris Kluge punt. TE Brandon Pettigrew and RB Mikel Leshoure were able to gain two first downs on the next drive, but a loss of three yards on Leshoure's carry on 2nd-and-13 and a Stafford sack put Detroit in a difficult position to keep the drive alive. Lions S Ricardo Silva stepped it up on the ensuing Vikings drive as he made two tackles to halt the Vikings before a pass interference penalty on CB Bill Bentley gave Minnesota 31 yards. After a failed third down conversion, K Blair Walsh added a field goal from 49 yards out. Harvin got the Vikings to the 48 on their next drive after a 17-yard pass, while another pass interference penalty on Bentley moved the chains 26 more yards. DE Kyle Vanden Bosch stepped up on a third down at the Lions' own nine-yard line, forcing a Minnesota chip shot field goal that capped off an 82-yard drive. K Jason Hanson added a 31-yard field goal on the ensuing drive as the Lions were forced to settle for three points after two end zone drops from WR Calvin Johnson and Pettigrew. Detroit's defense held the score at 13-6 before the end of the half. To begin the second half, Avril was just shy of an interception on the first play, while he and DT Ndamukong Suh combined for a 10-yard sack on Ponder to force a failed attempt on 3rd-and-20. Midway through the third quarter, Lions P Nick Harris punted 41 yards, only to have CB Marcus Sherels return it 77 yards for a touchdown and the Vikings' second return touchdown of the game. The only other score of the game came late in the fourth with Stafford on a one-yard quarterback sneak after 11 plays and 75 yards. The Lions left Ford Field with a 1-3 record going into their Bye week.

SUMMARY

Detroit engineered a late fourth-quarter rally led by QB Matthew Stafford to overcome a 10-point deficit to beat the Eagles 26-23 in overtime when K Jason Hanson kicked a 45-yard field goal on Detroit's first possession of the extra period. Hanson gave the Lions an early first quarter lead with two field goals after the Eagles stalled on their first possession. The second quarter opened up with a Stafford interception by CB Ndamikong Suh, but the Eagles were not able to produce as a result of the takeaway and were forced to punt. On the Eagles' next possession, Lions S Louis Delmas made a grand entrance back to the field and granted the Lions with their first interception of the season. Unfortunately, Detroit was not able to capitalize on the turnover. The Eagles then found their way on the scoreboard in the first half when QB Michael Vick flipped the ball to RB LeSean McCoy on a screen pass as McCoy fought his way into the end zone to give the Eagles a 7-6 lead with 1:16 left in the first half. The third quarter saw a sluggish Lions offense while the Eagles managed to score three field goals (26, 32, 49) on three consecutive possessions. After a would-be Stafford to Johnson touchdown was nullified due to offensive pass interference on Johnson, a 20-yard reception by Johnson set Stafford up to scramble into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run. The Eagles pushed their lead to 23-13 on a 70-yard touchdown pass from Vick to WR Jeremy Maclin with 5:18 left to play, but the Lions responded with a 17-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to WR Nate Burleson and a 19-yard field goal by Hanson with three seconds left to play to send the game into overtime. Back-to-back sacks on Vick by DE Cliff Avril and a combined effort from DE Kyle Vanden Bosch and DT Nick Fairley set up the Lions' game-winning drive after the Eagles won the coin flip to start overtime and elected to receive. Detroit got the ball back at midfield and trusted the golden leg of Hanson as the veteran kicker knocked home the 45-yard field goal to give the Lions the 26-23 victory.

SUMMARY

A lack of third down conversions and two Red Zone fumbles had Detroit's offense scoreless early on until the end of the fourth quarter. The first drive of the game had the Lions receiving and going three-and-out after WR Calvin Johnson had two drops and RB Mikel Leshoure only picked up four yards on the ground. Chicago scored on its ensuing possession in less than three minutes when QB Jay Cutler connected seven yards to his favorite target WR Brandon Marshall to cap off a six-play, 59-yard drive. After another three-and-out for the Lions, the Lions defense held the Bears as LB Stephen Tulloch had a big tackle on third down to force a punt. Cutler took advantage of another possession following a Lions punt and scrambled for 24 yards, tacking on 15 more from an unnecessary roughness penalty. The Lions forced a 39-yard field goal from Bears K Robbie Gould after a tackle for a loss of three yards on third down by LB DeAndre Levy. Detroit's defense began the second quarter as Cutler was sacked on third down for a loss of 9 yards by LBs Stephen Tulloch and Justin Durant, resulting in a field goal situation. Gould attempted a 47-yarder but DE Lawrence Jackson thwarted the Bears' scoring opportunity with the block. DT Ndamikong Suh delivered a rib-bruising sack to Cutler on the subsequent Bears' control and allowed for another three-and-out. Just after the two-minute warning of the half, Leshoure fumbled at Chicago's 18-yard line and it was recovered by DE Julius Peppers. The half opened with the Lions' defense managing to get the Bears off the field in three downs, but P Adam Podleski's punt was muffed by RB Stefan Logan and recovered by Bears CB Zack Bowman at the Detroit 27. The turnover was converted to three final points when Gould booted a 21-yard field goal to make the score 13-0. In a late attempt to bring his team back into the game, QB Matthew Stafford drove the Lions all the way down the field to the Chicago one-yard line. Detroit would get on the board with 30 seconds remaining in the game as Stafford connected with rookie WR Ryan Broyles for his first career touchdown, but it proved to be too little too late as the Bears recovered Hanson's onside kick to seal the win 13-7.

SUMMARY

The Lions picked up their third win of the season with a come-from-behind 28-24 victory over Seattle at Ford Field. Seahawks QB Russell Wilson used the first drive to push Seattle down the field, but the Lions defense was able to hold them to a 23-yard field goal delivered by K Steven Hauschka. On the ensuing Lions possession, an 82-yard drive was capped off with a Stafford-to Broyles six-yard touchdown pass. On the initial play of the second quarter Seahawks RB Marshawn Lynch broke free for a 77-yard touchdown dash to put Seattle back up 10-7. Seattle's offense continued their momentum with a nine-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to WR Sidney Rice in six plays, 80 yards and 2:50, pushing their lead to 17-7. On the Lions next chance with the ball, however, Stafford connected a deep 46-yard pass to WR Titus Young in the end zone. Stafford went 80 yards in six plays and just under three minutes to put the score at 17-14 in going into halftime. Both teams traded interceptions midway through the third quarter as Stafford went on to scramble in for a one-yard touchdown to put the Lions up three at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Right away, however, Seattle WR Zach Miller caught a 16-yard touchdown pass from Wilson with 5:27 left in the game to put the Seahawks ahead once again. However, Seattle was unable to stop the Lions on their final possession as Johnson opened up the drive with a 15-yard reception. Stafford went for the pass play and found Young wide open for a low one-yard pass and the win with only 20 seconds to play. The 16-play drive began at Detroit's 20 and traveled 80 yards in 5:07. To seal the victory, Silva recovered a Seattle fumble with eight seconds left to go in the game.

SUMMARY

The Lions started their second drive of the game at their own 8-yard line after a 73-yard punt from Jaguars P Bryan Anger. K Jason Hanson got the Lions on the board with a 47-yard field goal. Following another deep Anger punt, QB Matthew Stafford orchestrated a drive spilling into the second quarter for 13 plays, 91 yards and 5:50 that culminated into Leshoure's first touchdown of the day. Working with their best field position thus far in the game following a third straight Jacksonville punt, a 38-yard reception by Johnson took the ball to the one-yard line as Leshoure dashed in on the next play for a 14-0 lead. Though the Jags were able to obtain their sole first down of the half on their next possession, the Lions defense ultimately forced another punt. With the ball back in Stafford's hands and staring at a third down situation, a pass interference call on the Jaguars provided 20 free yards and a first down. A 12-yard catch by Johnson and a 17-yard catch by WR Titus Young landed Leshoure at the eight-yard line on 2nd-and-7 as T Riley Reiff gave Leshoure a clear shot to book it into the end zone and give Detroit a cushy 21-0 lead just before halftime. Jaguars QB Blaine Gabbert was picked off by S Erik Coleman on Jacksonville's ensuing control of the ball to begin the second half, but Detroit was unable to produce a score and punted. Near the end of the third quarter after scoreless drives from each team, Jacksonville rushed and passed to get into scoring position at Detroit's 26. Gabbert then had a pass tipped in the Red Zone, allowing rookie CB Jonte Green to grab his first career interception. Stafford moved the chains to get K Jason Hanson in position to sink a 42-yard field goal, giving the Lions a 24-0 lead with 13:56 to play. Jacksonville responded with its first scoring drive of the game as Gabbert found WR Michael Spurlock in the end zone from five yards out and RB Rashad Jennings then caught a pass on the two-point conversion to make it 24-8. Detroit's answer was swift with a nine-play drive that covered 80 yards as RB Joique Bell ran up the middle 10 yards for another six points to extend Detroit's lead to 31-8.

SUMMARY

After the Lions were forced to punt on their opening drive, Vikings QB Christian Ponder took the field and led a seven-play, 67-yard, 3:31 drive that ended in a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Jarius Wright. On the ensuing Lions drive, Stafford's intended short pass to Pettigrew was picked off by Vikings LB Chad Greenway who returned it three yards. DE Cliff Avril rushed Ponder on the ensuing drive and came up with a big 15-yard tackle for loss, but the Vikings managed to get within field goal range for Walsh as he booted a 48-yarder to put Minnesota up 10-0 at the end of the first quarter. A Stafford sack pushed the chains backwards 11 yards after two gains on the ground, however, as K Jason Hanson was called upon to deliver a 41-yard field goal after 12 plays, 69 yards to narrow the score to 10-3. Answering the call for Minnesota was RB Adrian Peterson as he broke through holes for 15 yards, followed up by a 20-yard run from Ponder. Walsh later capped off the drive with a field goal, followed by a 23-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. On the resulting Lions drive, Stafford sailed it 16 yards to Pettigrew in the back of the end zone for seven after just four plays and 81 yards. Ponder responded with a 20-yard pass to Rudolph and a two point conversion from Peterson after eight plays and 62 yards. In the fourth quarter, Stafford hit WR Titus Young in the end zone after two more long passes to Johnson, but Peterson stifled any Detroit momentum as he darted 61 yards for another Vikings score. Stafford and Johnson would eventually connect in the end zone for the first time all season, but the Vikings were able to keep possession late into the game to seal the win 34-24.

SUMMARY

Incomplete passes early on from QB Matthew Stafford and a sack at the hands of Packers S Morgan Burnett had the Lions settling for a 30-yard field goal from K Jason Hanson to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. The Packers' ensuing possession carried into the start of the second quarter as QB Aaron Rodgers sailed a 20-yard pass to TE Jermichael Finley for a touchdown after 81 yards in 11 plays. Facing a 1st-and-Goal after a pair of Stafford completions, Leshoure rushed it in for the score and Hanson added the point after to put Detroit back up by three. Following a stout defensive stand, a promising Detroit drive aided by two defensive penalties was thwarted by Packers CB Casey Hayward as he picked off Stafford's pass intended for WR Titus Young and returned it 20 yards. Lions CB Jacob Lacey picked off Rodgers, however, and returned it for 10 yards on the second play of the Packers' ensuing possession. Two incomplete passes put Stafford in a 3rd-and-10 situation as he fumbled the ball following a sack by LB Dezman Moses. A missed 50-yard field goal from Packers K Mason Crosby, though, allowed the Lions to carry the 10-7 lead into halftime. Midway through the third quarter, however, Green Bay S.M.D. Jennings hand-delivered Stafford's second interception of the day and returned it 72 yards to the end zone to put the Packers back on top 14-10. The next drive provided Detroit's best and most dynamic answer, a Stafford to WR Calvin Johnson 25-yard touchdown after 10 plays, 83 yards and 5:30 to give the Lions a 17-14 lead. Hanson provided a further boost with a 27-yard field goal after 9 plays and 63 yards with nearly four minutes remaining in the game. Misplays by Lacey and S Ricardo Silva, however, allowed Rodgers to complete a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR Randall Cobb to put the Packers up 21-20. Detroit was unable to reach a first down in the ensuing possession as Crosby nailed a 39-yard field goal with only 0:19 seconds to play. Johnson's attempted lateral on the final play of the game was fumbled and recovered by Green Bay as the Packers went on to win 24-20.

SUMMARY

QB Matthew Stafford opened up with a deep ball to WR Calvin Johnson, got Detroit to the 44 while a 12-yard run by RB Mikel Leshoure and a 12-yard pass to WR Mike Thomas resulted in two more first downs. Leshoure pushed his way two yards for a touchdown as the drive marked the first time the Lions scored on their first possession. At the start of the second quarter, Houston scored on the successive push down the field when RB Arian Foster raced six yards into the end zone. After a pair of Stafford completions, two more 12-yard passes to Johnson and TE Brandon Pettigrew, respectively, helped drive the ball down the field to the Houston five-yard line. A five-yard pass from Stafford down the middle sailed into Thomas' waiting hands for six more points to give the Lions the 14-7 lead. QB Matt Schaub responded with a deep pass to WR Andre Johnson for 43 yards. Two plays later Houston TE Owen Daniels caught a nine-yard pass to bring the score to 14-14. Lions' Stafford responded with a pass to Broyles for 37 yards and then 22 yards to Johnson for a touchdown in just two plays, 59 yards and 0:22. K Jason Hanson sank a 46-yard field goal on the Lions' first drive to open up the third quarter. Following a controversial, 81-yard touchdown run from RB Justin Forsett, K Shayne Graham booted in a 45-yard field goal to tie the game again. The opening play of the fourth quarter saw RB Joique Bell darting 23 yards for the go-ahead score as the Detroit defense held Houston scoreless until the two minute warning when Foster added a one-yard rush to tie the game at 31-31 and send it into overtime. A Pettigrew fumble was recovered by LB Darryl Sharpton as a pair of missed field goals from both Graham and Hanson allowed Graham one last shot to win the game, resulting in the go-ahead 32-yard field goal to give Houston the 34-31 win.

SUMMARY

The first score of the game came when Stafford sailed a 14-yard pass to Johnson on third down as K Jason Hanson eventually concluded the drive with a 48-yard field goal to give Detroit the early lead. Luck converted a third down on the next drive with a 60-yard pass to WR T.Y. Hilton. Facing another third down, WR Donnie Avery snagged a 17-yard pass from Luck for his first score as the Colts took the lead 7-3. RB Stefan Logan returned a 73-yard kick from P Pat McAfee 21 yards to Detroit's 13 as Stafford moved the chains with three quick passes down the field. Stafford then passed deep right to TE Brandon Pettigrew in the end zone on second down to take the lead 10-7. Indianapolis went three-and-out as Johnson's one-armed, 32-yard catch helped set up Leshoure's rush up the middle for a six-yard touchdown. In three plays and two defensive penalties, Colts TE Coby Fleener responded with a 26-yard touchdown pass from Luck in the end zone to regain the lead. Two drives later, CB Drayton Florence's pick resulted in another field goal from Hanson, followed by another one from 52 yards out. After both teams traded interceptions, Colts RB Vick Ballard marched down the field to start the third quarter and capped it off with an 11-yard touchdown run. Stafford looked to Johnson soon after for a 46-yard sliding touchdown as Johnson's 12th catch of the day put him over the 125--yard receiving mark for the fifth straight game. On the subsequent Detroit possession, Bell dashed for a 67-yard run that helped set up Hanson's fourth field goal to give the Lions a 33-21 lead. However, despite having just thrown his third interception of the game, Luck came right back with a 42-yard pitch for six to WR LaVon Brazill to set the score at 29-33 with only 2:39 to play. The Colts defense held the Lions on the ensuing drive, allowing Luck to have the ball for one last drive. Luck managed his way down the field to the Lions 14-yard line before finding Avery on a checkdown route for the game-winning score and Avery's second touchdown of the game."

SUMMARY

A nine-yard reception from WR Calvin Johnson, 11 yards on the ground from RB Joique Bell, 15 more from Johnson and a 22-yard dash from WR Mike Thomas had Detroit sitting pretty at Green Bay's 13-yard line. On 4th-and-Inches, Stafford trotted in for the four-yard touchdown run after 12 plays and 80 yards. On the following possession, DE Lawrence Jackson sacked QB Aaron Rodgers at Detroit's 12-yard line for a loss of six yards and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Stephen Tulloch. On 2nd-and-6 from Green Bay's 33-yard line, Stafford passed deep right to WR Kris Durham, who made a stellar one-armed snag to pick up 27 yards in his Lions debut. Two plays later Stafford connected with Scheffler on a three-yard touchdown pass giving Detroit a 14-point cushion. The Packers mustered out a 49-yard field goal from K Mason Crosby to cut the Lions' lead to 14-3. On Stafford's ensuing control of the ball, TE Will Heller converted a third down with a three-yard reception. Durham picked up another first down shortly after with a 10-yard grab, but the following snap slipped out of Stafford's hands, allowing for Packers DE Mike Daniels to scoop it up for a 43-yard fumble return for a touchdown. The Packers were in command of the ball to start the third as Rodgers scrambled 27 yards into the end zone for the go-ahead score. Stafford rebounded by converting a third down when he clicked with WR Calvin Johnson on a 19-yard pass that drew an unnecessary roughness penalty on S Morgan Burnett. Two yards from RB Mikel Leshoure and six more from Johnson had the Lions settling for a 46-yard field goal from Jason Hanson to tie the game at 17-17. Hanson and Crosby both missed 51-yard field goal attempts on their teams' ensuing possessions, but the Packers soon turned to the ground game as RB DuJuan Harris bolted 14 yards for a touchdown to regain the lead. After the Lions were unable to score, WR Randall Cobb returned P Nick Harris' punt 13 yards and followed up with a 38-yard reception to put the Packers in scoring position. Crosby came in on 4th-and-7 for a 41-yard field goal to push the lead to 24-17. The Lions were held to a 34-yard field goal in the waning minutes of the game that would eventually be the final scoring play of the game as the Packers sealed the win, 27-20.

SUMMARY

The Cardinals opened up the game with back-to-back first downs, but the drive ultimately ended in a 29-yard punt from P Dave Zastudil. After a three-and-out from the Lions offense, LB DeAndre Levy intercepted Lindley's pass on the first snap to hand the ball right back over to QB Matthew Stafford. Leshoure finished off a long drive with a one-yard touchdown run to give the Lions a 7-0 lead. Detroit's defense successfully held Lindley's crew to a punt, but return man RB Stefan Logan was accidentally hit by his teammate CB Pat Lee, causing him to muff it as the ball was recovered by Arizona's CB Michael Adams at Detroit's five-yard line. On 1st-and-5, RB Beanie Wells ran it in to make it a tie game. With 4:10 left in the half, back-to-back penalties on T Gosder Cherilus and T Riley Reiff had Detroit pinned back at 1st-and-15 when Stafford's pass intended for Johnson was intercepted by CB Patrick Peterson and returned 31 yards before Johnson took him down. Two plays later, RB Beanie Wells pushed one yard into the end zone to make the score 14-7. Stafford converted two third-down situations on the Lions' successive drive, but on 3rd-and-15 at Detroit's 43-yard line, S Rashad Johnson darted out for a 53-yard pick six. K Jay Feely sank a 51-yard field goal after eight plays spanning 30 yards to cushion Arizona's lead early in the second half. Detroit's final score of the game came in response when K Jason Hanson nailed a 41-yard field goal to cap off an 11-play, 57-yard drive. The fourth quarter saw three three-and-outs before Stafford passed it deep 30 yards to Johnson to set up a potential comeback with nearly five minutes left in the game. Logan caught a 10-yard pass, Johnson reached up six more and Scheffler caught a 29-yard pass for a first down at Arizona's 12. Logan picked up eight more yards and at the four-yard line, WR Kris Durham caught Stafford's pass in the end zone for what would have been a touchdown if not for a delay of game penalty. Stafford looked again to Durham in the end zone on the very next play, but Arizona CB Greg Toler intercepted the pass and returned it 102 yards for a touchdown. Arizona ended the game with a 31-yard touchdown run from Wells, his third rushing touchdown of the game.

SUMMARY

History was made in a primetime Saturday night matchup against the Falcons when Lions' WR Calvin Johnson surpassed Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's single-season record of 1,848 receiving yards (1995) to bring his total to 1,892 yards with one game left to go in the season. Following a RB Mikel Leshoure fumble in the first quarter, Atlanta QB Matt Ryan made quick work of the turnover with a 16-yard completion to WR Roddy White. Ryan capitalized on the good field position, tossing a 44-yard bomb to White to take the lead 7-0. On the Lions' ensuing drive, K Jason Hanson's 34-yard field goal capped off an 11-play, 58-yard drive to bring the score to 7-3. The second quarter had Ryan hitting a short pass to White as he darted into the end zone for a 39-yard touchdown, his second of the game. Capitalizing once again on a stalled Detroit drive followed by a fumble from Johnson, Ryan converted the turnover into another seven points for the Falcons when he threw a 16-yard pass into the back of the end zone to WR Julio Jones. Four run plays and four pass plays into the third quarter, including 14 more yards for Johnson, Leshoure rushed up the middle for a one-yard touchdown. The resulting drive had Detroit's defense halting Atlanta as Leshoure pushed down the field with several gains on the ground. Confronting a 3rd-and-4, Stafford shot it 21 yards to Johnson to get the first down. Leshoure picked up another first down on a pass, but Hanson came out for the chip shot on the 4th-and-Goal. On the ensuing drive, TE Michael Palmer caught the one-yard pass after the drive spanned 11 plays and 78 yards. On the next drive Stafford tried for the record-breaking reception to Johnson, but was picked off by CB Asante Samuel. Following a Falcons field goal, Stafford hit Johnson for a 26-yard gain as Johnson officially broke the 17-year old NFL receiving yard record. Stafford drove the ball all the way to the two-yard line following the historic play. However, Atlanta took over after an incomplete pass to Heller. DE Kyle Vanden Bosch tackled RB Michael Turner in the end zone on the first play of the Falcons' possession for a safety sealing the score at 31-18.

SUMMARY

After Chicago forced the Lions to punt, Bears QB Jay Cutler found WR Alshon Jeffrey for a deep, 55-yard completion down the sideline to the Lions 27-yard line. However, the drive stalled from there due to a false start penalty on Chicago, stiff play by the Lions defense and a costly Cutler fumble that the Bears recovered at the 50-yard line, forcing a punt. Lions QB Matthew Stafford met with TE Tony Scheffler for 28 yards and a first down, then to WR Calvin Johnson for another 18. RB Mikel Leshoure managed to convert a 3rd-and-5, but on the following 4th-and-1 K Jason Hanson came in to deliver a 44-yard field goal to cap off the nine-play, 65-yard drive. Cutler then passed short left to WR Earl Bennett for a 60-yard touchdown play to put the Bears up 7-3. Making quick work of a Lions fumble at Detroit's 24, Bears K Olindo Mare booted a 33-yard field goal to pad the Bears' lead to 10-3. On the third Lions possession following a series of punts, Stafford was strip-sacked by Bears DL Israel Idonije for a loss of 11 yards, and the fumble was recovered by Bears DE Julius Peppers. Sitting at Detroit's 10-yard line with a first down, Forte punched it one yard into the end zone for another Chicago touchdown, extending the Bears' lead to 17-3. On the second snap of the ensuing Lions' possession Stafford was picked off by CB Tim Jennings who returned it 31 yards. Again with a turnover that placed them in the Red Zone, Chicago capitalized with a 40-yard field goal. Unwilling to give in, Stafford orchestrated a long drive of relatively short gains to meet WR Kris Durham with a 25-yard touchdown pass to end the first half. The Bears' drive went scoreless to begin the third quarter as Stafford connected with TE Will Heller for a 10-yard grab in the end zone to make it just a three point game. Another costly fumble allowed the Bears to set up in the Red Zone and quickly turn the opportunity into a 28-yard field goal from Mare. Chicago began the fourth quarter with yet another chip shot field goal. Stafford drove down the field to connect with WR Brian Robiskie for a nine-yard touchdown pass to bring the score back to 26-24. Three incomplete passes, though, gave the Bears the ball back with just under four minutes to go. Cutler successfully ate up the time remaining to secure Chicago's win.
