BILLS TAB THREE CAPTAINS IN '13

The Buffalo Bills announced on Monday RB Fred Jackson, DT Kyle Williams and C Eric Wood have been selected by their teammates as the Bills' captains for the 2013 season.

Jackson and Williams are third-time captains for Buffalo. Wood is a first-time captain.

Each player will have a letter 'C' affixed to their uniform to signify this honor. Their responsibilities will include assisting in the on-field communication with the game officials.

In May 2007, the NFL introduced the team captain initiative with the purpose of supporting and recognizing the importance of team leadership. The initiative has been strongly endorsed by the NFL head coaches and by the six-member NFL Player Advisory Council that was established by Commissioner Roger Goodell in conjunction with the NFL Players Association.

LAST TIME: BILLS-PATRIOTS

REGULAR SEASON WEEK 10 – Bills 31, Patriots 37

November 11, 2012 – Gillette Stadium – 68,756

The Buffalo Bills came up just short in a back-and-forth shootout with the New England Patriots by the score of 37-31 at Gillette Stadium.

After holding the Patriots to a field goal to put New England up six with just over two minutes to play, the Bills offense quickly moved the ball via the air down to the Patriots 15-yard line. With 28 seconds remaining, a QB Ryan Fitzpatrick pass attempt into the end zone to win the game was intercepted by New England DB Devin McCourty to seal the Patriots victory.

Despite the result, the Buffalo offense had one of its most efficient days of the season tallying 481 yards.

Fitzpatrick was responsible for 337 of those yards via the air, completing 27-of-40 pass attempts for two touchdowns. With his performance, Fitzpatrick passed QB Drew Bledsoe for sole possession of fourth place on the team's all-time passing yards (10,259) and completions (920) list.

The Bills rushing duo of RB C.J. Spiller and RB Fred Jackson led the way on the ground, as the Bills pounded the rock for 162 yards and two touchdowns. Jackson, who tallied both of the scores, also caught four passes for 35 yards becoming just the second running back in Bills history (Thurman Thomas-456) to catch more than 200 passes.

Defensively, DT Marcell Dareus was a standout performer for the Bills—accumulating five tackles to go along with half a sack, one quarterback hit and two passes deflections. Rookie CB Stephon Gilmore, LB Nick Barnett and CB Justin Rogers all tied for the team lead with six tackles.

For the Patriots, QB Tom Brady completed 23-of-38 passes for 237 yards and two scores while RB Stevan Ridley ran for 98 yards and a touchdown.

THE MARRONE ERA

Doug Marrone was named the 16th head coach in Buffalo Bills history on January 7, 2013. The 2013 season will mark his eighth as an NFL coach and first at the helm in the professional coaching ranks.

His previous stints in the NFL include three years as the Offensive Coordinator of the New Orleans Saints (2006-08) after serving as the Offensive Line coach of the New York Jets from 2002-05.

Marrone, a native of the Bronx, NY, is no stranger to the Western New York region. Prior to joining the Bills, he was the head coach of his alma mater's football program at Syracuse from 2009-12.

"We are playing for a championship. We are playing for a trophy. We are playing for a higher calling. We are playing for an organization that should not be going through this. People in this area should not be going through this. We have to change that. We have the ability to affect a region by putting a productive, winning football team out there. That is our higher calling. And if you are not buying into that, then you do not need to be here. You can go play for some other team. We do not want those types of players on our football team." - DOUG MARRONE

While with the Orange, Marrone guided the program to a 21-17 record in his last three seasons, including an 8-5 mark in 2010 and 2012 - with both campaigns culminating in a New Era Pinstripe Bowl Championship.

A three-year letterman at Syracuse along the offensive line, Marrone earned Associated Press All-East accolades as a senior and second team honors as a junior. He was tabbed AP All-East Honorable mention in his sophomore year. During his time with the first string of offense, the Orange compiled a 19-15 record and made their first bowl game appearance in six years. Marrone and his teammates, including All-American Tim Green, helped lay the foundation that resulted in the program's 1987 undefeated season.

He was drafted in the sixth-round of the 1986 NFL draft by the Los Angeles Raiders and played two years in the NFL, first with the Miami Dolphins in 1987 and then with the Saints in 1989. He also had playing stints with Pittsburgh, Dallas and Minnesota before closing his career with the NFL London Monarchs (1991-92).

PETTINE'S HYBRID DEFENSE

Mike Pettine enters his first year with Buffalo as Defensive Coordinator in 2013 - his fifth season in the NFL in the same capacity after spending four years overseeing the defense of the New York Jets (2009-12).

His style of defense, referred to as a "hybrid", has been described as fast, aggressive, ruthless and relentless. A key component of Pettine's defense are versatile players who can be cross-trained to play multiple positions.

"The strength of the system is its versatility. We can have a guy on a certain play fill the role of a safety. Then he's a corner the next play, a linebacker the next play. A guy that's an end can play outside linebacker and then off the ball linebacker. We want them to master their first position before we give them jobs that other positions might do. That's a credit to the staff they've done a good job to make sure we've nailed down the original fundamentals first before we took another step." - MIKE PETTINE

Pettine's defense in New York finished in the top 10 in each of the past four seasons:

YEAR	CATEGORY	NFL RANK
2012	Total Defense	8th
	Passing Defense	2nd
2011	Total Defense	5th
	Passing Defense	5th
2010	Total Defense	3rd
	Rushing Defense	3rd
	Passing Defense	6th
2009	Total Defense	1st
	Rushing Defense	8th
	Passing Defense	1st

Prior to joining the Jets, Pettine was a member of Baltimore's coaching staff for seven years from 2002-08. In his last four seasons with the Ravens, he coached the outside linebackers as part of a defensive unit that ranked fifth (2005), first (2006), sixth (2007) and second (2008) in the NFL. Before being promoted to a position coach in Baltimore, Pettine was a defensive assistant working with the defensive line in 2004 after serving two years as a coaching and video assistant and in a quality control role.

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW FROM 2009-12 THE JETS' DEFENSE...

- Forced the highest percentage of three-and-out drives (29.4%)

HACKETT'S UPTempo OFFENSE

Nathaniel Hackett returns to One Bills Drive in 2013 as the team's Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks coach. His previous stint with the Bills was as an Offensive Quality Control coach from 2008-09.

Hackett re-joins Buffalo after spending the previous three years at Syracuse working with head coach Doug Marrone. He was the Orange's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/tight ends coach from 2011-12 after one season as the school's quarterbacks/passing game/tight ends coach.

"We want everybody to be together just like the flow of a basketball game. You want everybody to know where everybody is going to be all the time. It's a little different in basketball, but we're trying to bring the same principle to football. Everybody needs to know what their role is on this play and why the play was called. That's hard sometimes to get that information out because everybody goes their separate ways and works on their individual techniques. So this is something we've tried to create that unifies everyone... It's done some nice things for us and the more you keep everyone on the same page the better your execution." - NATHANIEL HACKETT

Syracuse's offense set multiple school records in 2012 for total offense (6,188 yards), total yards per game (476.0), passing yards (3,757), passing yards per game (289.0), touchdown passes (26), completions (295) and first downs (328)

The Orange offense featured a 3,000 yard passer, 1,000 yard rusher and 1,000 yard receiver in 2012 for the first time in a single-season in school history while generating 500 yards of offense or better in seven games

Prior to joining Syracuse, Hackett spent four seasons in the NFL as an offensive quality control coach with the Bills (2008-09) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2006-07).

In his two years with the Bills, he assisted the wide receivers and quarterbacks and participated in all facets of preparation for the team's weekly opponents

Hackett worked closely with Tampa Bay's offensive coaching staff in the preparation and implementation of the offensive game plan, including wide receivers coach Richard Mann while helping guide WR Joey Galloway to his third straight 1,000-yard receiving season in 2007.

Only Tennessee's Dowell Loggains, 32, is younger than Hackett. Washington offensive coordinator Kyle Shanahan is the third-youngest at the position.

CROSSMAN ON SPECIAL TEAMS

Danny Crossman reunites with Doug Marrone in 2013 after the two crossed paths 20 years ago at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy. Crossman was in his first year in the coaching ranks in '93 at U.S.C.G.A. while Marrone was in his second.

The 2013 season marks Crossman's first year with the Buffalo Bills as the team's Special Teams Coordinator, his 11th year in the NFL coaching ranks and ninth as a coordinator.

From 2010-12, Crossman presided over the Detroit Lions' special teams unit after seven years with the Carolina Panthers (2003-09), including the final five as their special teams coordinator. Crossman entered the NFL with Carolina in 2003 as a special teams assistant while also assisting the team's strength and conditioning program.

In 2012, Lions K Jason Hanson posted a career-high and set a franchise record with 134 points. During Crossman's tenure with Detroit from 2010-12, S John Wendling tied for the NFL-lead with 51 special teams tackles.

In his first year with the Lions in 2010, the kick return unit was the third-most improved in the League with an average of 3.5 more yards per return than in 2009. Returner Stefan Logan posted the fifth-best punt return average in the NFL (12.1). Detroit also had the NFL's 10th-most significant improvement in punt return average in 2010 – a jump from an 8.8 punt return average in 2009 to 12.1 yards per punt return in 2010.

During Crossman's stint with the Panthers from 2003-09, the team's kicking and cover groups contributed to the team's success which included three playoff appearances (2003, 2005 and 2008) and two NFC South titles in 2003 and 2008. The Panthers also finished with at least eight wins in five of those seven years.

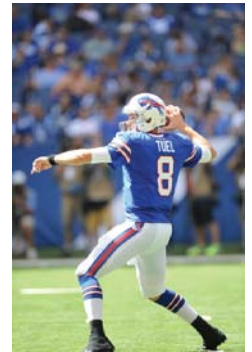

The Panthers ranked third in the NFL in 2008 with an opponent average drive start after kickoffs (24.7) and were one of three teams that did not allow an opponent to start a drive following a kickoff past the 50-yard line. Carolina posted a league-best 30 touchbacks, 33.7 touchback percentage and ranked ninth with an opponent kickoff return average (21.9).

In his first year as a special teams coordinator in 2005, Crossman's unit ranked among the best in the NFL. The Panthers finished ninth in the Dallas Morning News special teams ratings which were highlighted with a second place finish in punt coverage and seventh in kickoff coverage. Crossman helped guide P Jason Baker to set the franchise record in net punting average in both 2005 (38.9) and 2006 (39.0). In both years, Baker's net punting average was first in the NFC and third in the NFL. From 2005-09, Baker ranked eighth in the NFL with a combined net punting average of 38.0.

In his first year assisting the Panthers' special teams, Carolina ranked second in the special teams ratings compiled by the Dallas Morning News.

THE QB FILE - 2013

Two rookie signal callers make up the quarterback's room at One Bills Drive entering the 2013 season with first-round (16th overall) draft selection EJ Manuel and undrafted free agent signing Jeff Tuel.

"EJ (Manuel) was out there taking reps with the first group and again it's going. We're going through a process, nothing right now that seems to slow him down. Couple of things that we're testing as the week goes on to see where he's at. Mentally we feel fine, it's just a matter of physically. He went out there and did a nice job, so that's where he is. Jeff (Tuel) also took first team reps too. We're not worried because we're kind of doubling the reps so we're not getting shortchanged anywhere as go and we've had extra reps." - DOUG MARRONE 9/2/13

Entering the 2013 NFL Draft, many experts focused on the quarterback position as being of need for the Bills. While on the clock in the first round, Buffalo made a draft day trade with the St. Louis Rams to move from the eighth overall slot to No. 16. With the 16th overall choice the Bills announced Florida State product EJ Manuel as their choice.

Manuel led Florida State to a 25-6 record as a starter – the third-most wins in school history – and became the second quarterback in FBS history to win four straight bowl games (West Virginia QB Pat White). He ended his career as the school's all-time leader in completion percentage (66.9) and ranks among the top five in Seminole history for passing yards (7,736 – 3rd), total offense (8,563 – 3rd), completions (600 – 4th) and passing attempts (897 – 5th).

Through the first two games of the 2013 preseason, Manuel threw for 199 yards on 26-of-33 passing with two touchdowns for a 112.0 QB rating.

Jeff Tuel signed with Buffalo as a free agent after a storied collegiate career at Washington State. He appeared in 31 games, making 26 starts for the Cougars while completing 531-of-865 pass attempts for 5,936 yards and 33 touchdowns. He finished his career in the WSU record book first in completion percentage, fifth in completions, sixth in passing attempts, seventh in passing yards, seventh in passing touchdowns, seventh in total offense (5,878) and eighth in touchdowns responsible for (35).

Tuel posted a 106.6 passer rating in the 2013 preseason, completing 31-of-43 passes for 299 yards with two touchdowns.

SUPER MARIO

DE Mario Williams enters his second season with the Bills in 2013 and has embraced Coach Marrone's "Play like a Bill" mentality:

"It's just being relentless and the mentality of going out, being disruptive and attacking. Being aggressive. Being accountable. Just going out there and making plays. Trusting the scheme. Trusting the system. Trusting the coaches. To not go out there and do something you're not supposed to because like I said the scheme they have is pretty good. As long as we go out there and we all can say are you playing like you're supposed to – playing like a Bill –which is our mentality and motto – we'll be alright." - MARIO WILLIAMS

Williams tallied a team-best 10.5 sacks in 2012 - his third 10-plus sack season of his NFL career and first by a Bill since 2009 (Aaron Schobel).

His best performance of the season came in Week 12 at Indianapolis as he brought down Colts QB Andrew Luck three times to mark his fourth such game of his career.
