The New York Giants (1-2) will host the New England Patriots (1-2) on Wednesday, August 29, in Week 4 of the 2012 preseason.

The Series

The Giants lead the preseason series against the Patriots, 13-8. The series began on Aug. 15, 1971, when the Patriots defeated the Giants, 14-20. The Giants defeated the Patriots, 18-17, on Sept. 1 in Week 4 of the 2011 preseason at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass.

The Patriots lead the regular season series, 5-4. The Giants defeated the Patriots, 24-20, on Nov. 6, 2011. Eli Manning threw two touchdowns in the final 3:03 to win the game on the road in Gillete Stadium. The Giants defeated the Patriots in the teams' first regular season meeting, 16-0, on Oct. 18, 1970, at Harvard Stadium in the Patriots' first year in the NFL, and the last season they were known as the Boston Patriots. The Giants lead the postseason series 2-0, with wins over the Patriots in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI.

Last Meeting

In Super Bowl XLVI, the Giants defeated the Patriots, 21-17, on Feb. 5, 2012, at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, Ind. The victory ended the Patriots' 10-game winning streak, which dated back to a loss to the Giants on Nov. 6, 2011. The Giants became the third team in NFL history (2008 Arizona Cardinals, 1979 Los Angeles Rams) to advance to the Super Bowl with fewer than 10 regular season wins.

The Giants took a 2-0 lead on a safety in the first quarter when Patriots' quarterback Tom Brady was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone. Giants' wide receiver Victor Cruz caught a two-yard touchdown pass from Eli Manning with 3:24 remaining in the first quarter.

Stephen Gostkowski opened the Patriots' scoring when he kicked a 29-yard field goal one minute into the second quarter. With eight seconds remaining in the half, Brady found Danny Woodhead on a four-yard touchdown pass to give the Patriots a 10-9 advantage.

The Patriots scored for a third-straight time on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Brady to Aaron Hernandez with 11:20 left in the third quarter. The Giants' Lawrence Tynes kicked two third quarter field goals from 38 and 33 yards to cut the Patriots' lead to 17-15.

Giants' linebacker Chase Blackburn made a key interception on a Brady pass early in the fourth quarter, but after a 10-play, 51-yard drive, the Giants were forced to punt. The Patriots responded with an 11-play 48-yard drive, and pinned the Giants back on their own 12-yard line after a Zoltan Mesko punt.

On the ensuing 88-yard drive, Eli Manning completed 5 of 6 passes, including completions of 38-yards and 16-yards to Mario Manningham, and a 14-yard strike to Hakeem Nicks. Ahmad Bradshaw rushed up the middle for a 6-yard touchdown run with 0:57 remaining in the game, to give the Giants a 21-17 lead. After a failed two-point conversion, the Patriots were unable to respond, marking Manning's second fourth-quarter Super Bowl comeback against the Patriots.

Manning completed 30 of 40 passes for 296 yards, and one touchdown. Bradshaw had 17 rushes for 71 yards and one touchdown. Nicks led the team with 10 receptions and 109 yards, but nine different players made a reception for the Giants. Chase Blackburn (one INT), Michael Boley (10 tackles), and Justin Tuck (two sacks) all played a pivotal role for the defense.

2012 Preseason Week 3 vs. Chicago Bears

The Giants lost to the Chicago Bears, 20-17, last Friday in MetLife Stadium. Lawrence Tynes kicked a 32-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead, but the Bears responded with a 21-yard touchdown pass from Jay Cutler to Brandon Marshall leaving the Giants with a deficit at the end of the first quarter for the first time in the 2012 preseason. The Giants regained the lead when quarterback Eli Manning found receiver Ramses Barden on an 11-yard touchdown pass with 6:14 remaining in the half. After a blocked punt by the Giants' Da'Rel Scott, running back Andre Brown rushed for a one-yard touchdown to give the Giants a 17-7 halftime lead. The Bears' Robbie Gould kicked field goals of 30 yards and 48 yards in the third quarter to bring the Bears within four. With 8:29 remaining in the game, Chicago quarterback Jason Campbell threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Joe Anderson to give the Bears their first lead since the first quarter, 20-17, which they would hold onto for the remainder of the game.

2011 Preseason

The Giants finished the 2011 preseason with a 2-2 record, with losses to the Carolina Panthers (20-10) and the New York Jets (17-3). The Giants' preseason victories came against the Chicago Bears (41-13) and New England Patriots (18-17). The Giants outscored their opponents, 72-67, in the preseason. The 41-point scoring output against the Bears was the Giants' highest preseason total since 1989, when they defeated the Kansas Chiefs, 45-7, on their way to a 3-1 finish.

TOM COUGHLIN VS. BILL BELICHICK

Tom Coughlin leads the regular season series against Bill Belichick, 3-1, and leads the postseason series, 2-0, with victories in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI. Coughlin ranks third among current NFL head coaches with 154 total victories, trailing only Belichick (194) and Mike Shanahan (165). Coughlin (12) and Belichick (17) are the only two active coaches with at least 12 postseason victories.

Head Coaches

Tom Coughlin

NFL Record: (154-121) overall

NFL Head Coach: 17th year

College: Syracuse University

The 2011 season solidified Tom Coughlin's standing as one of the finest and most successful coaches in NFL history.

The Giants finished 9-7 and won the NFC East championship before winning four postseason games, including their second Super Bowl in five seasons, a 21-17 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI. Coughlin improved to 2-0 in Super Bowls as a head coach. He is the 13th coach to win multiple Super Bowls and is one of 18 coaches with a perfect Super Bowl record. In 16 seasons as a NFL head coach, Coughlin is 142-114 (.557) in the regular season and 12-7 (.632) in the postseason for an overall record of 154-121 (.560). The 142 regular season victories tie him with new St. Louis Coach Jeff Fisher for 19th place on the all-time list. Coughlin's 154 total victories tie him with Hall of Famer Marv Levy for 17th on the NFL's career list. Coughlin has led the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Giants to five division titles and nine playoff berths.

Coughlin is also one of the very best coaches in the Giants' 88-year history. The 2012 season is Coughlin's ninth with the Giants, making him the second-longest tenured coach in franchise history. Only Hall of Fame Coach Steve Owen, who reigned for 24 seasons from 1930-53, led the team for a longer time period.

Coughlin's 74 regular-season Giants victories are the third-highest total among head coaches in team history, behind only Owen (153) and Bill Parcells (77). His eight Giants postseason victories tie him with Parcells for the franchise record. Coughlin has led the Giants to two NFC East titles and five playoff berths in eight years.

In 2011, Coughlin reached a number of impressive coaching milestones. His 12 postseason victories tie him with former Pittsburgh Coach Bill Cowher for the sixth-highest total in NFL history. Coughlin and Bill Belichick are the only two active coaches on the list.

The 2011 Giants emulated the 2007 championship team by winning two road postseason games, the NFC Divisional Playoff in Green Bay and the conference championship game in San Francisco. Coughlin has nine postseason victories away from home - seven on the road and two neutral site Super Bowls. Seven of those nine victories were with the Giants in 2007 and 2011. The Giants have won seven consecutive postseason games away from home (five on the road, two neutral sites). Both streaks – five consecutive on the road, seven in a row away from home – are NFL postseason records. Coughlin's seven career road playoff victories tie Hall of Famer Tom Landry for the most in NFL history.

Coughlin is 7-4 on the road in the playoffs (5-1 with the Giants). Landry was 7-7.

Coughlin is 7-3 in postseason games against teams he faced in the regular season, including victories over 2011 foes Green Bay, San Francisco and New England.

Coughlin was 65 years, 158 days old when Super Bowl XLVI was played on Feb. 5, making him the oldest coach to win a Super Bowl and the second oldest to guide his team to the title game. Buffalo's Marv Levy was 68 years old when he coached the last of his four Super Bowls in January 1993. Coughlin is also the fourth-oldest coach to win a Super Bowl as a result of his team's Super Bowl XLII victory.

Coughlin improved to 2-2 in conference championship games, including 2-0 with the Giants. The 2011 Giants gained a franchise-record 6,161 yards. The former mark of 6,085 was set in 2010. Those are the only two 6,000-yard seasons in Giants history.

The Giants shattered their franchise record with 4,734 net passing yards. The former mark of 4,019 was set in 2009. Those are the only two 4,000-yard passing seasons in Giants history. In 2011, the Giants also set a team record with 359 pass completions and had at least 200 passing yards in every game for the first time in their history.

Last year, the Giants won five regular-season games in which they trailed in the fourth quarter, tying the franchise record they set in 2002. They tied Denver and Cincinnati for the NFL's second-highest total. Arizona led the league with six.

In the last six seasons, the Giants' regular-season records have been 11-5, 8-8, 10-6, 12-4, 8-8, 10-6 and 9-7. Their six-year streak without a losing record is the Giants' longest since they had 10 in a row from 1954-63.

Coughlin first ascended to the pinnacle of his profession in the 2007 season when he led the Giants to a victory in Super Bowl XLII. The Giants, heavy underdogs entering the game, scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to defeat the previously undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14. In 2011, the Giants won their fourth Lombardi Trophy, and second under Coughlin, with an unexpected late-season run. A loss to the Washington Redskins on Dec. 18 left the Giants with a 7-7 record. It was their last defeat of the season. Six days later, the Giants defeated the Jets, 29-14. A week later, they crushed Dallas, 31-14, to clinch the NFC East title, their eighth division championship since the 1970 merger. The Giants then defeated Atlanta, Green Bay and San Francisco to advance to Super Bowl XLVI, where they found a familiar foe in New England, a team they had defeated three months earlier. This time, the Giants scored with 57 seconds remaining and held off a late Patriots charge to win, 21-17.

Coughlin's 142 regular-season victories place him tied with Fisher for third among current NFL head coaches, behind New England's Bill Belichick (175) and Washington's Mike Shanahan. (157). Coughlin is the only one of those four coaches to have coached an expansion team. With 154 total victories, Coughlin is third among active coaches, behind Belichick (192) and Shanahan (165).

Coughlin is one of just six active coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Belichick, Shanahan, Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin, New Orleans' Sean Payton and Green Bay's Mike McCarthy. Coughlin, Belichick and Payton are former Giants assistant coaches. Payton will miss the entire 2012 season while serving an NFL suspension.

The two championship seasons, division titles, postseason berths, and streak of seven seasons at .500 or better are successes in a Giants revival that began when Coughlin was named the 16th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 6, 2004. The Giants won only four games in the season prior to his arrival. A longtime successful head coach on the collegiate level and in the NFL, Coughlin was the wide receivers coach of the Giants when they won Super Bowl XXV in 1990. When he returned to the team as head coach, Coughlin quickly put the team back on a path that would ultimately lead to two more Super Bowl victories.

The Giants improved from four to six to 11 victories and the NFC East title in Coughlin's first two seasons with the team. In 2006, they went 8-8 and earned an NFC Wild Card playoff berth. The following season, the Giants were 10-6 in the regular season and again reached postseason play as a Wild Card, which served as a springboard to the team's Super Bowl victory. In 2008, they were again one of the NFL's very best teams at 12-4 and reached the playoffs for the first time following a Super Bowl appearance. Two years later, the Giants were only the sixth double-digit victory team to fall short of the postseason since the NFL's realignment in 2002. Last season, they had one less regular season victory, a fact long forgotten when Coughlin held the Lombardi Trophy on the podium in the center of Lucas Oil Field on Feb. 5.

Coughlin twice led the Jacksonville Jaguars to the AFC Championship Game prior to leading the Giants to victories in two NFC Championship Games. He is one of just six coaches to lead teams to a championship game in each conference since the 1970 merger. The others are Parcells and Dan Reeves (both former Giants coaches), as well as Chuck Knox, Jon Gruden and Tony Dungy.

The 2011 Giants were unique Super Bowl champions. They were the first team to win the title after a) losing seven games in the regular season; b) losing four consecutive games in the regular season; c) finishing with a negative scoring differential (394-400) in the regular season, and d) finishing last in the NFL in rushing in the regular season. They did so thanks to the resilience, toughness and tenacity that has been the hallmarks of Coughlin-coached teams. In their four postseason victories, the Giants defeated 10-6 Atlanta, 15-1 Green Bay, 13-3 San Francisco and 13-3 New England to become the first team to beat four teams in the playoffs with better regular season records. The Giants are the first team to twice win four games in a single postseason (doing it in 2007 and 2011).

Defensively, the 2011 Giants allowed only an average of 14 points in four postseason games, significantly below the 25 points a game given up in the regular season. In 2010, the Giants allowed 347 points, 80 fewer than they gave up the previous season.

The Giants finished the season with 46 sacks, their highest total since the 2007 Super Bowl champions led the NFL with 53. The Giants held their opponents to an NFL-best 31.7 success rate on third down conversion attempts (66 of 208). In 2011, the Giants scored 47 touchdowns - one less than they had in 2010, which was their highest total since the 1985 team scored 48. Last year, Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for nine touchdowns and Cruz tied him for the team lead with nine receiving scores. The previous season, Nicks caught 11 touchdown passes and Mario Manningham added nine as they became the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had nine. In addition, Brandon Jacobs rushed for nine touchdowns and Bradshaw eight, the first time the Giants had two backs run for at least eight scores in the same season.

Coughlin entered the NFL as the Philadelphia Eagles' wide receivers coach in 1984 and 1985. He held the same position with the Green Bay Packers in 1986 and 1987 before moving to the Giants for a three-year stint.

Coughlin was a standout scholastic star at Waterloo (N.Y.) Central High School, where the football stadium now bears his name. He was a three-year letterman at Syracuse for legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder from 1965-67. A wingback, Coughlin played in a backfield with All-America backs and Pro Football Hall of Famers Larry Csonka and Floyd Little. As a senior in 1967, Coughlin broke Syracuse's single-season pass receiving record. That year, he won Syracuse's Orange Key Award as the university's outstanding scholarathlete. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in education and received a master's degree in education the following year.

Thomas Richard Coughlin was born on Aug. 31, 1946 in Waterloo. He is the oldest of seven children. Coughlin and his wife Judy, have two daughters, Keli and Kate; two sons-in-law named Chris; two sons, Brian and Tim; two daughters-in-law, Andrea (Tim's wife) and Susie (Brian's wife); and 11 grandchildren, Emma Rose, Dylan, Shea, Cooper, Caroline, Marin, Wesley, Brennon, Clara, Walker and Ally Ann.

Bill Belichick

NFL Record: (192-104) overall

NFL Head Coach: 18th Year

Bill Belichick enters his 38th season as an NFL coach and is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl championships in a four-year span. He currently ranks ninth all time with 192 total victories as a head coach. His winning percentage of .649 ranks third in NFL history among coaches with 150 or more wins, trailing only George Halas (.682) and Don Shula (.666). He has won more regular-season games (123) and more games overall (136) during a ten-year stretch (2002-2011) than any other head coach in NFL history.

Belichick was hired by Patriots Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on Jan. 27, 2000 and is in his 13th season as the team's head coach. Through 12 seasons, Belichick has delivered three Super Bowl championships, five conference titles, nine division crowns and 16 playoff victories, while posting an overall record of 155-59. Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003) and XXXIX (2004), and in 2007 he became the only NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. From 2003 to 2004, Belichick directed the Patriots to an overall winning streak of 21 consecutive games, including the postseason, unprecedented in NFL annals.

Once he became Patriots head coach, Belichick needed just one season to successfully implement his plan for success. In 2001, his second season in charge, the Patriots rebounded from a 5-11 record in 2000 to improve to 11-5, tying what was then the franchise regular-season record for wins. With a 20-17 victory over the Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI, the Patriots tied the franchise's then-record of 14 overall wins. In 2003 and 2004, the Patriots eclipsed those marks in each season, posting identical 14-2 records in the regular season and notching 17 total wins and a Super Bowl title in each year.

Belichick began his coaching career after graduating from Wesleyan University and accepting a staff assistant position with the Baltimore Colts in 1975. At the age of 23, he was named special assistant to Head Coach Ted Marchibroda. In 1976, Belichick joined Rick Forzano's staff with the Detroit Lions as an assistant special teams coach. The following year, he was given his first positional coaching assignment as the Lions' tight ends and receivers coach. In 1978, Denver Broncos Head Coach Red Miller hired Belichick as the assistant special teams coach and assistant to defensive coordinator Joe Collier.

In 1979, Belichick joined Ray Perkins' staff with the New York Giants as a defensive assistant and special teams coach, launching a 12-year tenure with the Giants. After the 1980 campaign, he drew the added responsibility of coaching the Giants linebackers. In 1983, he began coordinating the defense on Bill Parcells' staff and continued coaching the linebackers, a unit that would become known as one of the most dominant groups of all-time, featuring Pro Football Hall of Famers Lawrence Taylor and Harry Carson. He was officially appointed defensive coordinator in 1985, a position he held for the next six seasons. During his time as the Giants' defensive signal caller, his units were never ranked lower than 11th in the NFL and finished as high as second in the league three times, including the Super Bowl seasons of 1986 and 1990. His contributions with the Giants throughout the 1980s brought him national recognition as one of the best young assistant coaches in the NFL.

Bill Belichick spent 20 years as an assistant coach in the NFL and this is his 18th season as a head coach. According to the Elias Sports Bureau he is the only man in NFL history to serve 20 or more seasons as an assistant coach and at least 15 seasons as a head coach. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories, including postseason games, (21 from 2003-04) and Coach consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick's career winning percentage of .649 (192-104) ranks third all-time among head coaches with 150 or more wins, trailing only Hall of Famers George Halas (.682) and Don Shula (.666). In 2007, Coach Belichick led the Patriots to the NFL's first 16-0 regular season and joined Halas and Shula as the only coaches in NFL history to direct their teams to an undefeated regular season. Coach Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four years (2001-04). With 38 years of NFL coaching experience, Coach Belichick is the longest tenured among active NFL head coaches. The 2011 AFC Championship was Bill Belichick's fifth conference championship as a head coach. Belichick's five conference titles are tied with Tom Landry for the second most in NFL history during the Super Bowl era. The only head coach to bring his team to the Super Bowl more times than Belichick was Don Shula (6). Six former assistants on Coach Belichick's staffs are head coaches in the NFL or college in 2012. Four of Coach Belichick's former assistants are NFL general managers in 2012. Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win at least 13 regular season games in five separate seasons. Belichick is the first head coach in NFL history with nine straight seasons with at least 10 victories.

Bill Belichick was born April 16, 1952 in Nashville, Tenn., and raised in Annapolis, Md. His father, Steve, played fullback for the Detroit Lions in 1941 and coached for 33 years at the Naval Academy. Bill was a standout prep athlete at Annapolis High, where he has since been inducted into the school's Hall of Fame. He attended Phillips Academy in Andover, Mass., before enrolling at Wesleyan, where he earned his bachelor's degree in economics in 1975. Belichick lettered in football, lacrosse and squash while attending college at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn.

PLAYERS TO LOOK OUT FOR IN 2012

With ends Jason Pierre-Paul, Osi Umenyiora, and Justin Tuck, the Giants have arguably one of the NFL's best defensive line combinations. Entering his third season in the NFL, Jason Pierre-Paul will look to build on his stellar 2011 performance, in which he recorded 86 tackles and 16.5 sacks (ranked fourth in the NFL). Justin Tuck tallied 37 tackles and five sacks, while only playing in 12 games in to the 2011 regular season. Osi Umenyiora, who played just nine games in the 2011 regular season due to injury, still compiled 25 tackles and nine sacks despite limited minutes. All three are healthy and ready for the 2012 season.

HAKEEM NICKS

Entering his fourth year in the NFL, Hakeem Nicks has established himself as one of the top receivers in the league. In 2011, Nicks had 76 catches for 1,192 yards, and seven touchdowns. After his 1,052 receiving yards in 2010, Nicks became the third receiver in Giants' franchise history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons (Del Shofner and Amani Toomer). Nicks led the Giants in all three major receiving categories in the 2011 playoffs, with 28 catches for 444 yards and four touchdowns. Nicks and Victor Cruz became the first receiving duo in Giants' franchise-history to both record 1,000 yards in the same season.
