NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (1-2) at BUFFALO BILLS (2-1)

Sunday, September 30, 2012 ★ Ralph Wilson Stadium (73,967) ★ 1:00 p.m. ET

The New England Patriots will begin play in the AFC East when they travel to Buffalo to take on the Bills. It will be the Patriots third road game of the season.

The Patriots own a 53-15 (.779) record in regular season AFC East games since the beginning of the 2001 season, compiling the best intra-division record of any team in the NFL.

After seven straight series sweeps and 15 straight wins by New England, Buffalo ended the streak with a 34-31 victory at Ralph Wilson Stadium in the first meeting of the two teams in 2011 on Sept. 25. The 15-game win streak is the third longest winning streak over a single opponent in NFL history.

The Patriots avenged that loss in the 2011 regular season finale on Jan. 1, 2012 by overcoming a 21-0 first quarter deficit by scoring 49 unanswered points en route to a 49-21 victory.

The loss to Baltimore last week ended the Patriots' run of 145 consecutive games at .500 or better, the longest such streak in NFL history. Dallas had the second longest streak ever with 115 games at .500 or better (1965-1974). At 1-2, the Patriots are under .500 for the first time since starting the 2003 season with a 31-0 loss at Buffalo to start the season 0-1.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

TELEVISION: This week's game will be broadcast to a regional audience by CBS and can be seen in Boston on WBZ-TV Channel 4. Greg Gumbel will handle playby-play duties with Dan Dierdorf providing color. The game will be produced by Mark Wolff and directed by Bob Fishman.

RADIO: 98.5 FM, The Sports Hub, is the flagship station for the Patriots Radio Network. A complete listing of the network's 40 stations can be found in this press release. Play-by-play broadcaster Gil Santos is in his 36th season as the voice of the Patriots and will call the action. Former Patriots quarterback Scott Zolak will handle the color commentary, taking over duties for Gino Cappelletti. Cappelletti, a member of the original Boston Patriots in 1960 and the all-time leading scorer in the American Football League's history, retired from the broadcast team after 31 years as the team's iconic color analyst.

DIVISIONAL DOMINANCE

The New England Patriots own a 53-15 (.779) record in regular season AFC East games since the beginning of the 2001 season, compiling the best intra-division record of any team in the NFL.

NOTES: The Indianapolis Colts were members of the AFC East in 2001 and compiled a 3-5 divisional record that season. In 2002, the Patriots and Jets both finished with a 9-7 overall record and a 4-2 divisional record, but the Jets claimed the division title by virtue of having a better record against common opponents. In 2008, the Patriots and Dolphins both finished with an 11-5 overall record and a 4-2 divisional record, but Miami qualified for the playoffs due to a better conference record (8-4 to 7-5).

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. Now in his 19th season of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.238 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won more division titles (11), conference crowns (6) and Super Bowl championships (3) than any other NFL team. The Patriots have made six Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than four berths. In Kraft's first 18 seasons, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs 13 times, more than doubling the franchise's accomplishments during its first 34 seasons.

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season tickets are capped and more than 50,000 fans are on a season ticket waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 196 consecutive home games, including playoff and preseason games (dating back to the 1994 season opener).

PATRIOTS HOME DOMINANCE

Since the Patriots opened Gillette Stadium in 2002, they have celebrated more regular season and postseason wins than any other team in the NFL. The Patriots have the highest point differential at home in that time and are among the top three offensive and defensive leaders at home. The Patriots home dominance is especially strong against NFC teams.

PATRIOTS VS. BILLS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Bills will meet for the 105th time, with New England holding a 62-41-1 edge. After seven straight series sweeps and 15 straight Patriots wins, Buffalo ended the streak with a 34-31 victory Ralph Wilson Stadium in the first meeting of the two teams in 2011 on Sept. 25. The 15-game win streak is the third longest winning streak over a single opponent in NFL history.

The Patriots avenged that loss in the 2011 regular season finale on Jan. 1, 2012 by overcoming a 21-0 first quarter deficit and scoring 49 unanswered points en route to a 49-21 victory.

The series between the AFC East rivals began in 1960. The Patriots' 62 wins over the Bills are their highest victory total over any opponent, nine more than they own over the New York Jets (53). New England has won 21 of its last 24 games against Buffalo dating back to the 2000 season.

The Patriots are 29-22-1 all-time in Buffalo, including 22-16 at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The Patriots are 33-19 all-time in home games against Buffalo, including 10-0 at Gillette Stadium.

The teams have had many memorable matchups over the years, including a five-game span from 1999 to 2001 where four of the five contests were decided in overtime.

Despite setting a league record for most yards passing over a three game stretch with his performance against the Bills, Brady matched a career high with four interceptions, including two inside Buffalo territory. The other two were inside New England territory with one being returned for a Buffalo touchdown.

Buffalo CB Drayton Florence returned a Brady pick 27 yards for a touchdown with 10:22 left to give Buffalo a 31-24 lead. That score came right after Fred Jackson scored on a 1-yard run to tie the game 24-24.

Brady did lead the Patriots' offense on a 15-play, 71-yard drive on the ensuing series that culminated with a 6-yard touchdown pass to Welker to tie the game at 31 on a fourthand-goal from the 6-yard line. But Buffalo got the ball back with 3:25 to play, and QB Ryan Fitzpatrick completed passes of 29, 12 and 39 yards to get down to the New England 1-yard line with 1:43 to play. The Bills drained the clock to 3 seconds before kicking the game-winning field goal.

New England scored on its first two drives to take a 14-0 first quarter lead after Brady connected with Welker for a 14-yard score and TE Rob Gronkowski for a 1-yard touchdown. CB Kyle Arrington ended Buffalo's first two drives with interceptions to help secure the lead. Midway through the second quarter, the Patriots extended their lead to 21-0 when Brady connected with Gronkowski for a 26-yard touchdown.

Buffalo's comeback began in the final two minutes of the first half when they scored 10 points. First, the Bills engineered a 96-yard drive that ended with an 11-yard touchdown from Fitzpatrick to WR Steve Johnson at the two-minute mark. Brady engineered a drive deep into Buffalo territory on the next series but was intercepted when he attempted to hit RB Danny Woodhead in the right flat. Buffalo responded by driving to the New England 24-yard line where they kicked a field goal to cut the deficit to 21-10 at the break. Brady was intercepted three times in the second half as Buffalo mounted their come-frombehind win. Brady was intercepted on the first series in the third guarter when he was attempting to connect with WR Chad Ochocinco. Buffalo converted that turnover into a touchdown to make it 21-17. After extending the lead to 24-17 following a field goal, Brady moved the Patriots to the Buffalo 23-yard line early in the fourth guarter before being intercepted at the 5-yard line when he attempted to hit Gronkowski on a touchdown pass. Buffalo took over and drove 95 yards to set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Jackson to tie the game at 24-24

WELKER SETS FRANCHISE RECORD IN FIRST BUFFALO GAME IN 2011

Welker's 16 receptions are a personal best and are tied with Troy Brown for the franchise mark. Brown had 16 vs. Kansas City on September 22, 2001. The Baltimore Ravens erased a nine-point, fourth quarter deficit to beat the New England Patriots, 31-30, in a rematch of the 2011 AFC Championship Game played at M&T Bank Stadium in a Sunday Night Football game.

The loss was the Patriots' first ever in the regular season to Baltimore and dropped the Patriots to 1-2 to end a streak of 145 consecutive games at .500 or above. New England fell below .500 for the first time since starting the 2003 season with an 0-1 record.

When the teams met last January, the Patriots squeezed out a three-point victory to advance to the Super Bowl. The stakes were not as high in the Sunday Night game, but the game was similar. Only this time, the Ravens' K Justin Tucker nailed a 27-yard field goal as time expired to culminate a 7-play, 70-yard drive that began at the Baltimore 21-yard line with 1:55 to play.

Baltimore's comeback started when QB Joe Flacco led his team on an 8-play, 92-yard drive that ended with a 5-yard touchdown pass to WR Torrey Smith to cut the Patriots lead to 30-28 with 4:01 remaining. New England was stopped on the ensuing series when the Patriots had a chance to ice the game. A third-down pass from QB Tom Brady to TE Rob Gronkowski fell incomplete, and Baltimore was given a chance to drive for the winning field goal.

Flacco passed for 382 yards and three touchdowns, Smith caught six passes for 127 yards and two touchdowns and RB Ray Rice gained 101 yards on 20 carries for a 5.1-yard average.

Brady and the Patriots offense started hot and took a 13-0 first quarter lead. Brady completed 28 of 41 passes for 335 yards and both Wes Welker (142) and Brandon Lloyd (108) went over 100 yards receiving. A 59-yard pass from Brady to Welker helped set up the Patriots first field goal.

S Steve Gregory intercepted a Flacco pass on the first play of the ensuing drive and returned it 36 yards to the Baltimore 6yard line. Rookie RB Brandon Bolden scored on a 2-yard run to give New England a 10-0 lead. After forcing a three-and-out, New England put together an 11-play, 60-yard drive that ended in a field goal for a 13-0 first quarter lead.

After not allowing a Baltimore first down on the first three drives, the Ravens put together two 80-plus scoring drives that resulted in a touchdown to take a 14-13 lead in the second guarter.

Brady put New England back in front before the half, completing 5-of-8 passes for 67 yards before connecting with WR Jullian Edelman on a 7-yard touchdown pass with two seconds left before halftime for a 20-14 lead.

Baltimore opened the second half with an 8-play, 80-yard drive that was capped by a 7-yard touchdown run by Rice for a 21-20 Ravens lead.

The Patriots answered with a 12-play, 80-yard drive that was highlighted when Welker and Lloyd caught key third-down conversations before RB Danny Woodhead scored on a 3-yard run for a 27-21 lead. New England tried to recapture the momentum when they stopped Baltimore on the next drive and then drove to the Ravens' 2-yard line before settling for a field goal and a 30-21 fourth quarter lead.

There were 24 penalties in the game with 10 against the Patriots and 14 for 135 yards against Baltimore and an NFL record with 13 combined first downs by penalty. The Ravens had scoring drives of 82, 92, 80, 92 and 70 yards.

BRADY PASSES CHILDHOOD IDOL JOE MONTANA

Tom Brady (40,866 passing yards) moved past childhood idol and Hall of Famer Joe Montana (40,551) into  $12^{th}$  place on the NFL's all-time passing list on a 59 yard pass to Wes Welker in the first quarter. Kerry Collins is in  $11^{th}$  place with 40,922 passing yards.

QUOTES AND NOTES

GIL SANTOS – THE VOICE OF THE PATRIOTS

For most Patriots fans, there has been but one "Voice of the New England Patriots" and it belongs to Gil Santos. Now in his 36 season, Santos has articulated the sights, sounds and all the play-by-play action for 730 games to millions of Patriots fans. Santos is tied with the Philadelphia Eagles' veteran play-by-play announcer, Merrill Reese, as the two most tenured radio broadcasters in the NFL. Santos began calling games for the Boston Patriots at Fenway Park in 1966. He was the voice of the Patriots for the next 14 seasons (1966-79). He returned to the booth in 1991 and has broadcast every Patriots game since then.

NEWLY ACQUIRED PATRIOTS

The Patriots acquired veteran free agnets S Steve Gregory, WR Brandon Lloyd and LB Trevor Scott this past offseason. Below are some of their thoughts on joining the Patriots:

From Steve Gregory: On playing with Patrick Chung: "He's a guy that's passionate about football like I am. It's good to have a guy out there that wants to make plays, and you start making plays and it's kind of like a competition. Who can make more? It's great to have him back there with me."

From Brandon Lloyd: "The coaching, the way that the message is delivered and the way that the coaches coach and the players all fall in line. It's been a good experience so far."

From Trevor Scott: "You just know what to expect when you come here. To come in here, I'm going to have big shoes to fill. When I came here, coach (Bill) Belichick said everyone is involved in special teams. I'm just doing whatever I can to help the team win."

AARON HERNANDEZ ON HOW BEING A PATRIOT HAS CHANGED HIM

"This is a place that not only did it change my future from them paying me, but it just changed me as a person," he said. "You can't come here and act reckless and do your own stuff, and [I] was one of the persons that when I came here, I might've acted the way I wanted to act, but you get changed by Bill Belichick's way. You get changed by the Patriots' way. Now that I'm a Patriot, I have to start living like one, and making the right decisions for them."

VINCE WILFORK: REASONS FOR PATRIOTS SUCCESS

Patriots Pro Bowl DL Vince Wilfork, who has served as a defensive captain for the Patriots for five straight seasons, says the team's continued success is a result of the entire organization working towards one common goal: "The Patriots are all about team, family and smart football players. They try to get good people here from coaches to guys who work in the front office to guys who put on this uniform. I think everybody has to have one goal in mind, and that's to be together. When you get an organization together that is seeking one goal, you can be pretty successful."

PATRIOTS DEFENSE HOLDS TENNESSEE TO JUST 20 YARDS RUSHING in 2012 OPENER

The Patriots defense held the Titans to just 20 yards rushing on 16 attempts for a 1.3-yard average in the 2012 season opener. The 20 yards rushing allowed are the fifth-lowest total in Patriots history and the lowest total since holding Buffalo to 14 yards rushing on Dec. 11, 2005 in Buffalo.

The Associated Press named Bill Belichick the NFL's Coach of the Year for 2010. It was the third time that Belichick earned the honor. He was also named Coach of the Year following the 2003 and 2007 seasons. Belichick joins Don Shula (4-time winner) and Chuck Knox as the only three-time winners.

BELICHICK FIRST WITH 14 WINS IN FOUR SEASONS

Bill Belichick guided the Patriots to an NFL-best 14-2 record in 2010. Belichick is the first head coach ever to win at least 14 regular-season games in four separate seasons. Only four other coaches — San Francisco's George Seifert (3), Washington's Joe Gibbs (2), Chicago's Mike Ditka (2) and Miami's Don Shula (2) — have more than one 14-win season.

Tom Brady was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week after leading the Patriots on five straight second half scoring drives to help rally the Patriots from a 17-0 deficit to a 27-24 win vs. Miami (12/24/11). He also earned the award after throwing for 517 yards and four touchdowns, including a 99-yard touchdown pass to Wes Welker in Week 1 at Miami (9/12/11) and in Week 2 after a 423-yard effort with three touchdowns vs. San Diego (9/28/11). Brady has the second-most Player of the Week awards earned by a player since the accolade was instituted in 1984. He is the first player to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in back-to-back weeks to open a season. He joins Panthers kicker John Kasey (Special Teams, 1996) as the only players to garner consecutive Player of the Week laurels in Week 1 and Week 2 of the same year.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Rob Gronkowski grew up playing football against his brothers in the backyard. Two of his brothers have NFL playing experience. Dan Gronkowski, finished the 2011 season with Cleveland after spending part of the season with the Patriots. He also spent time with Detroit (2009) and Denver (2010). Chris is currently playing for Denver after spending 2010 with Dallas and 2011 with Indianapolis. The Gronkowskis are among 23 different sets of three brothers to have played in the NFL and join nine other families with at least three brothers in the NFL playing at the same time. (Dan is currently out of the NFL).

AARON HERNANDEZ LEARNS FROM HIS BROTHER

The relationship between Aaron Hernandez and his older brother D.J. has taken on many roles over the years: sibling, teammate, role model and surrogate father. They played high school football together – D.J. the star senior quarterback and Aaron, the athletic, but not quite ready, freshman. When their father passed away when Aaron was 17, he relied on his brother even more. "I just followed my brother's footsteps," he told the Providence Journal. "I just tried to follow his work ethic because he did everything the right way. He was always successful." D.J., now a graduate assistant at the University of Miami, has tried to instill hard work and perseverance in his younger brother. It's paying off, as Aaron continues to thrive in the Patriots offense.

HERNANDEZ PUTS UP BIG NUMBERS IN 2011

Hernandez finished the 2011 season with 79 receptions for 910 yards and seven touchdowns. The 910 yards are the fourth best in Patriots history for a tight end and the 79 receptions fifth best in a single season.

STEVAN RIDLEY HAS FIRST 100-YARD DAY

Stevan Ridley had his first career 100-yard day in the 2012 season opener at Tennessee (9/9) with 125 yards rushing on 21 carries for a 6.0-yard average. In 2011, the Patriots had five runs of 20 or more yards. All of them were by Ridley, including a season-long 33-yard touchdown run at Oakland on Oct. 2.

RIDLEY GOES LONG

In the season opener at Tennessee (9/9/12), Ridley had five runs of 15 or more yards (17, 17, 16, 15, 15). No Patriots running back in at least the past 25 years has done that in a single game, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. It is the first time under Bill Belichick that a Patriots running back had five runs of 15 or more yards rushing in the same game. Ridley was the first under Belichick to have four runs of 15 or more yards in the same game when he had runs of 33, 25, 20, an 18 at Oakland on Oct. 2, 2011. Tennessee's Chris Johnson was the last NFL player to have five runs of 15 or more yards in a game (Nov. 27, 11 vs. Tampa Bay)

2011 FIRST ROUND PICK NATE SOLDER

It only took a day for Nate Solder to decide to change from his lifelong position of tight end to tackle after playing his freshman year at Colorado as a tight end. "My coaches came to me and said, 'You'd be an all right tight end, but you'd be an even better tackle," he told the Boston Globe. "I've always wanted to be great, so that's why I moved to tackle." He added over 30 pounds after his redshirt freshman season and was named the team's starting left tackle. He played in 2,540 of 2,542 offensive plays over the next three seasons at Colorado and became an immediate contributor on the Patriots offensive line at right tackle as a rookie before moving to left tackle.

DONALD THOMAS: FROM NO HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TO THE NFL

Donald Thomas found football while playing basketball. A former high school baseball and basketball player who had never played football at any level, Thomas often played pickup basketball at the student gymnasium and one day found himself playing with several members of the UConn football team who convinced him to try out for the team. After meeting with coaches, Thomas walked on to the team as a defensive lineman for the scout team in 2003. He red-shirted a year before contributing on special teams. In 2007, he got his chance to play offensive guard, earning All-Big East honors before being selected in the sixth round of the 2008 draft by the Miami Dolphins.

SEBASTIAN VOLLMER MAKES HIS MARK

A native of Kaarst, Germany, Vollmer did not begin playing football until the age of 14 when he started playing for the Dusseldorf club team. Vollmer helped lead his German prep school team to two national football championships. His early football success landed him an appearance in the 2004 Global Junior Championships in San Diego, which led him to a scholarship at Houston. He spoke almost no English when he signed with Houston, but he became fluent in the language as he developed from a 250-pound tight end into a 315-pound lineman who started his final 25 games at tackle for the Cougars. Vollmer's collegiate career created interest from the NFL where the Patriots drafted him in the second round of the 2009 draft. Nicknamed "Seabass" during his playing days at Houston, a nickname that has carried over to the NFL.

Welker reached 1,000 yards in the ninth game of the 2011 season. ### WOODHEAD GOES FROM DIVISION II TO THE NFL

Danny Woodhead was a standout at Division II Chadron State in Nebraska. He averaged 178.9 yards per game and totaled 101 rushing touchdowns during his collegiate career. Woodhead's outstanding junior and senior seasons earned him two Harlon Hill Trophies, the Division II equivalent to the Heisman Trophy. He is one of just three players to ever win two or more Harlon Hill

Trophies, joining Texas A&M University-Kingsville running back Johnny Bailey, who won it three times (1987-89) before playing six seasons in the NFL for the Bears, Cardinals, and Rams. Valdosta State University's Dusty Bonner was the only other player to win the Harlon Hill Trophy multiple times (2000 and 2001).

DANNY WOODHEAD SET TEAM MARK FOR RUSHING AVERAGE IN 2010

Danny Woodhead finished the 2010 season with 97 rushes for 547 yards, with his average of 5.64 yards per carry setting a new team record (minimum 90 rushing attempts). Woodhead topped Don Calhoun's previous team mark of 5.59 yards per carry in 1976 (129 attempts for 721 yards).

Long before S Patrick Chung picked up flag football as a teen, his mother, Jamaican recording artist Sophia George, had preached about being a tough man in a song. Her hit single, "Girlie Girlie" – a traditional reggae song which pokes fun at a boy who was not man enough – topped the charts in 1985. Chung is aware that among his talents he was born with, such as speed and agility, singing is not one of them. Chung possesses a great sense of pride in his unique heritage – his mother is Jamaican and his father is half Jamaican and half Chinese, was born in Jamaica and moved to California at age 12 where he started to play football as a freshman in high school. Chung went on to star at Oregon, where he holds the distinction of starting more games than any other defensive player in school history with 51 starts. He originally entered the draft as a junior, but ultimately decided to return for his senior season. Pinned to the back of his locker is a reminder of the support he has gotten - a Jamaican flag that represents his family's heritage.

STEVE GREGORY WAS ABOUT TO ENTER THE POLICE ACADEMAY UNTIL SAN DIEGO CALLED

Steve Gregory's father and stepmother are New York City police officers and both were on duty during the events of September 11, 2001. Following his college career at Syracuse, Gregory took the test to enter the police academy. He found out he passed the test on the same day that the San Diego Chargers called him to offer him a free agent contract.

DONT'A HIGHTOWER WEARS TEDY BRUSCHI'S JERSEY #54

As a first round draft pick, Dont'a Hightower is used to high expectations. Hightower went to training camp with jersey #45 but was switched to jersey #54 prior to the start of the regular season. Former LB Tedy Bruschi wore #54 for 13 seasons. Hightower understands the importance of the number and hopes to live up to its legacy. "I definitely feel honored to be able to wear this number," Hightower said. I've read that Tedy didn't want it to be retired and he hoped another linebacker would come in and be able to wear this number and be able to wear this number. I'm definitely proud to be able to play as well. I feel honored. Tedy was a great player, and he means a lot to this organization. I'm definitely proud to be able to wear this number. I'm not too big on fueling the hype, but hopefully I'll be able to go out and play and have as much success as he did."

2012 FIRST ROUND PICK CHANDLER JONES FOLLOWS IN BROTEHRS FOOTSTEPS

Chandler Jones has two brothers, including Arthur, a fifth-round NFL Draft selection by the Baltimore Ravens in 2010, who was a Syracuse defensive tackle, and John "Bones" Jones, a UFC fighter and the reigning Light Weight Champion.

CHANDLER'S PERK OF BEING IN THE NFL

Chandler Jones was excited to get the Madden football game and play himself: "I've always put myself in Madden Manually, but now that I can actually buy the game and see myself already installed in the game, it's great."

FIRST ROUND PICKS MAKE IMPACT IN 2012 OPENER

Chandler Jones forced a fumble on a 1-yard sack of Tennessee QB Jake Locker in the first quarter and Dont'a Hightower recovered the ball and ran 6-yards for a touchdown in the season opener at Tennessee (9/9/12). It is the first fumble returned for a touchdown for the Patriots since Gary Guyton returned a fumble 35 yards for a touchdown at Chicago on Dec. 12, 2010. It is the first defensive touchdown for the Patriots since Sterling Moore returned an interception 21 yards for a score vs. Buffalo on Jan. 1, 2012. Jones caused an opponent turnover for the second time this season vs. Arizona. Against Arizona, Jones forced Kevin Kolb to fumble on a third-down rushing play in the second quarter and Tavon Wilson recovered the ball to give the Patriots possession.

STILL RECEIVING THE LOVE

Kyle Love continues to receive motivation from his father, retired Army colonel Anthony Love. Every game day, his father sends him a text message with words of encouragement to get him excited. His dad has been motivating him since middle school and the message has always remained the same: "Give the coaches a reason to keep you."

KYLE LOVE 'MINI-V' FOLLOWS WILFORK

Kyle Love has been looking up to Vince Wilfork since his days at Mississispipi State, when his teammates dubbed him "Mini-V" for his resemblance to the Patriots defensive tackle. The nickname led Love to closely monitor Wilfork as he finished his playing days with the Bulldogs. Little did he know that he would get the chance to watch Wilfork from an even closer perspective – lined up next to him on the Patriots defensive line. "I stay close to that guy always. Watch me out here, I'm right beside him, no matter what," Love told the Boston Globe. Now that they're on the same team, Wilfork has become an even bigger influence, like a big brother, according to Love.

STERLING MOORE RECORDS FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTIONS

Rookie Sterling Moore intercepted his first pass of his career at the Buffalo 25-yard line in the third quarter in the season-finale (1/1/12). The Patriots converted the turnover into a touchdown to give the Patriots their first lead of the game. He intercepted his second pass in the fourth quarter and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown.

MAYO OVER 100 TACKLES FOR THE FOURTH STRAIGHT YEAR

LB Jerod Mayo finished the 2011 season with 103 tackles, registering 100 tackles for the fourth straight year. He is the first player in New England history to register 100 tackles in his first four NFL seasons. He is the fifth Patriots player to register at least four consecutive 100 tackle seasons.

Mayo finished first in the NFL with a career-high 193 total tackles in 2010 with two 19-tackle games: vs. BLT (10/17) and vs. GB (12/19). His 193 tackles are the highest since LB Steve Nelson had 207 tackles in 1984 and are the third highest in team history. Mayo had 10 games in 2010 with 10-plus tackles.

MAYO IS A YOUNG LEADER

Jerod Mayo learned knowledge and discipline are the keys to success while spending afternoons with his three brothers under the supervision of their grandfather, Walter Johnson, a retired Air Force veteran of 30 years. While Mayo's mother worked two jobs, Johnson taught the boys discipline, responsibility and the value of life. Those lessons helped Mayo develop a work ethic and demeanor that has earned him the nickname of "Old Soul" from his teammates. His leadership skills and talent helped him become only the second Patriot to be named AFC Rookie of the Year, earning that title in 2008 to join Michael Haynes (1976)

DOUBLE TROUBLE: CB DEVIN MCCOURTY

After being selected by the Patriots in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft, CB Devin McCourty became part of a select group in league history. McCourty's identical twin brother, Jason, is a cornerback with Tennessee, selected in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. The two are the 12th set of twins to play in the NFL. Devin redshirted for the 2005 season and therefore was a year behind his brother in eligibility. McCourty is the second twin to suit up for the Patriots, after CB Kato Serwanga was a member of the team from 1998-2000. His twin brother, Wasswa, played for San Francisco and Minnesota from 1999-2001. According to McCourty's mother, the two can only be told apart by tiny scars on their faces left by chickenpox. The McCourty twins are one of three active sets of twins playing in the NFL.

ROB NINKOVICH: WHERE DID HE COME FROM?

Rob Ninkovich's journey to the Patriots was not easy. He entered the league as a fifthround pick by the Saints in 2006 and was waived four times by New Orleans and Miami before landing in New England on Aug. 2, 2009. He spent the 2009 offseason trying to make the New Orleans team as a long snapper. Before coming to the Patriots, he had appeared in just eight games over three years. He doubled that total in his first year in New England, appearing in 15 games in 2009 and his role on the team has grown since. He finished with 58 total tackles, four sacks, broke up three passes and had 11 special teams stops in 2010. He also had two interceptions, both against his former team, the Miami Dolphins. He tied for the AFC lead in fumble recoveries with three, with the most notable coming at San Diego on Oct. 24, 2010, when he returned a fumble 63 yards, marking the second longest fumble return in team history. He had his second 2-interception game at the New York Jets on Nov. 13, 2011 and returned his second pick 12 yards for a touchdown. Despite his success, Ninkovich told the Brockton Enterprise, "I don't want to get comfortable. You can't get comfortable because the first time you get comfortable, you're out of a job. I'm always uneasy. That keeps you going."

NINKOVICH SCORED AS A TE IN COLLEGE

Ninkovich played some at tight end in college at Purdue and caught two touchdown passes with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Dallas QB Kyle Orton and a 1-yard touchdown pass from former Indianapolis QB Curtis Painter.

NINKOVICH SACKS

Since the beginning of the 2010 season, Ninkovich leads the team with a total of 11.5 sacks over that span

VINCE WILFORK REGISTERS FIRST CAREER INTERCEPTIONS IN 2011

Vince Wilfork recorded his first career interception when he picked off QB Philip Rivers in the second quarter vs. San Diego (9/18). He had his second interception at Oakland (10/2) to join Anthony Pleasant (2001) as the only other Patriots defensive lineman to ever record two interceptions in the same season. Wilfork is one of four Patriots defensive lineman to ever record two interceptions overall, joining Pleasant, Richard Seymour and Henry Thomas.

WILFORK SCORES FIRST NFL TOUCHDOWN IN 2011

Wilfork recovered a fumble in the end zone at Washington (12/11) for his first touchdown. DE Andre Carter sacked QB Rex Grossman in the end zone and forced a fumble and Wilfork recovered the ball for the Patriots first points in their 34-27 victory.

WILFORK WEARS HIS HEART ON HIS NECK

Wilfork wears No. 75 over his shoulder pads. Underneath hangs a gold chain locket for those who were number one in his heart: his parents. In 2002, parents David and Barbara Wilfork both passed away within five months of each other, leaving the then University of Miami star without his greatest support system. Wilfork, who lost his father to diabetes, has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for diabetes-related causes. His annual draft day fundraiser, a bowling event he has held for eight years, is one of the longest running fundraising events held by a pro athlete in New England. For his charity work, Wilfork was awarded the 2010 New England Patriots Ron Burton Community Service Award. While he will always cherish his National Championship and Super Bowl rings, his constant reminder lies closest to his heart, a picture of his late parents at their high school prom. "I carry them with me wherever I go," Wilfork said of his parents' keepsake. "My parents pushed me to be the best I could be. The things I do and my wife does, we do out of the kindness of our heart, and we do it for the community. I never look for anything in return. My teammates are my second family. My kids, my wife, the New England Patriots - that's all I have.'

EVEN STEPHEN

ZOLTAN MESKO: COMING TO AMERICA

P Zoltan Mesko was born in Timisoara, Romania on the Romania-Hungary border. On Many occasions in 1989, during the communist revolutions, his family was forced to take cover to avoid gun shots from the armies. Even after the fall of the Berlin Wall, his family lived in poverty. His family left Romania when his father won a United States Permanent Resident Card (green card) in the Diversity Immigrant Visa Lottery in 1997 when Mesko was 11. "I survived a war," he noted. "I was coming from a really low point growing up, with communism and a very adverse economic situation. Coming over here, I'm very grateful for where I am. It happens by luck that I am here," he said. "When my dad applied for the green card lottery, there were 20 million applicants and 55,000 winners. That's a percentage in itself that tells you I am lucky to be here."

MESKO DISCOVERS FOOTBALL

An avid soccer player from his days in Romania, Mesko had a strong leg. It was only when he came to America that he discovered his leg could take him places. In eighth grade, Mesko was playing kickball in the gym when he kicked the ball so high that he broke a light fixture. He was given a choice: pay for the light fixture or play football. The choice was an easy one—Mesko decided to play football. His leg would land him numerous Division I scholarships and admission offers from Ivy League schools. From those, Mesko chose to play football at Michigan.

MESKO SETS FRANCHISE RECORD WITH A 46.5 AVERAGE IN 2011

Mesko led the AFC and finished third in the NFL in 2011 with a 41.5 net average. His 46.5 average overall in 2011 is the best in team history, topping the 45.8 average by Tom Tupa in 1997.

MESKO HAS SIXTH-BEST NET AVERAGE IN NFL HISTORY IN 2011

Mesko finished the 2011 season with a 41.5 net average, the sixth-best net average in NFL history. It marked just the  $24^{th}$  time in NFL history that a player finished a season with a net average over 40 yard.

NOTES: This analysis uses NFL rules when calculating winning percentage, counting ties as a half-win and a half-loss. For NHL teams, overtime losses (OTL) and ties from 2001-2004 (the NHL abolished ties in 2005-2006 and instituted a shootout system) are counted as ties when calculating winning percentage.

THE TEAM OF THE DECADE

hen Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that 17 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s. Below is a look at the accomplishments of the Patriots during the first decade of the new millennium that earned the Patriots the "Team of the Decade" moniker.
