LAST GAME - BILLS vs. BROWNS

Sunday, September 23, 2012 – Cleveland Browns Stadium – 69,353

The Buffalo Bills notched their second victory of the season with a 24-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium in front of a crowd of 69,353 fans.

The Bills relied on Stevie Johnson's third touchdown reception of the season, Leodis McKelvin's first interception of the year and LB Bryan Scott's second pick of season in the fourth quarter to help Buffalo pull away from Cleveland and move their overall record to 2-1.

Buffalo got off to a fast start early in the first quarter, with QB Ryan Fitzpatrick slinging back-to-back touchdowns on Buffalo's first two drives. The first score marked WR T.J. Graham's first career touchdown reception. Graham's touchdown was followed by Fitzpatrick finding RB C.J. Spiller in the flat, enabling Spiller to find some open space and take it 32 yards for his fourth score of the season.

After the Bills snagged the early lead, the momentum of the game shifted when Spiller was forced to leave the game in the first quarter due to a shoulder injury.

With Spiller out, the Browns mounted a 14-3 run over through the second and third quarters to bring them within three heading into the fourth quarter before Fitzpatrick connected with Johnson and McKelvin and Scott each picked off Cleveland QB Brandon Weeden to seal the Bills victory.

Buffalo's defensive line generated consistent pressure throughout the game, with DE Mario Williams notching the first 1.5 sacks of his Bills career, DE Mark Anderson tallying his first sack as a Bill, DT Kyle Williams grabbing a sack and DT Marcell Dareus picking up half a sack.

REGULAR SEASON WEEK 1 – Bills 28, Jets 48
September 9, 2012 – MetLife Stadium – 79,088

The Buffalo Bills were defeated 48-28 in the 2012 regular season opener at the New York Jets in MetLife Stadium. Jets QB Mark Sanchez and Bills QB Ryan Fitzpatrick opened the contest by trading interceptions, before the Jets took control of the game and helped New York jump out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter.

With RB Fred Jackson leaving the game in the second quarter due to injury, RB C.J. Spiller attempted to jumpstart the Buffalo offense by tallying a career-long 56-yard touchdown run.

Spiller, who became the 18th Bill to have a touchdown run of 50-plus yards, finished the day rushing for 169 yards - a career-high and the most by a Bills running back on kickoff weekend since O.J. Simpson tallied 175 yards in 1975.

Despite Spiller's big day, the Jets used a defensive touchdown, a punt return touchdown and a three touchdown day out of Sanchez to maintain the gap between themselves and the Bills. Jets WR/KR Jeremy Kerley's punt return touchdown in the second quarter marked the first time since 2000 that the Bills had conceded a touchdown off of a punt.

Sanchez finished the game going 19-of-27 for 266 yards, three touchdowns and an interception. Bills LB Bryan Scott was responsible for Sanchez's sole interception of the game, the eighth pick of Scott's career.

While Spiller highlighted the Buffalo offense for most of the day, Fitzpatrick found his rhythm mid-way through the second half connecting with TE Scott Chandler, WR Donald Jones and WR Stevie Johnson for touchdowns on three consecutive drives.

Fitzpatrick finished the game throwing for 195 yards, three touchdowns and three interceptions while completing 18-of-32 passes.

REGULAR SEASON WEEK 2 – Chiefs 17, Bills 35
September 16, 2012 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 69,402

The Buffalo Bills notched their first win of the 2012 season by topping the Kansas City Chiefs 35-17 at Ralph Wilson Stadium in front of a sold-out crowd.

The Bills distanced themselves from the Chiefs early on, tallying a 21-0 lead midway through the second quarter. RB C.J. Spiller, fresh off winning the FedEx ground player of the week, led the attack for Buffalo.

Spiller found space early and often via the ground and through the air, running for 92 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries and catching three passes for 47 yards in the first half to help the Bills build their lead.

Spiller went on to finish the game with 123 yards on 15 attempts via the ground, notching his second 100-yard game to open the season, becoming the fourth Bill to ever achieve the feat and the first player since Jim Brown in 1963 to average 10-plus yards per carry through the first two games of the season (min. 25 attempts).

The Bills' defense made their mark by forcing three turnovers and tallying five sacks—all of which were highlighted by a goal line stand to end the first half which sent the Bills into the locker room with a 21-0 lead.

Leading 28-3 midway through the third quarter, Buffalo PR/CB Leodis McKelvin put the game away for good by returning a punt back 88 yards to the house for a score. McKelvin's return marked the second longest punt return in Bills' history.

DT Kyle Williams led the Bills' defensive effort, finding his way into the Chiefs' backfield and notching two sacks. On the turnover front, LB Bryan Scott and DE Mario Williams each picked up a fumble recovery, and FS Jairus Byrd picked off a Chiefs' QB Matt Cassel pass late in the fourth quarter to end the game.

Along with Spiller, QB Ryan Fitzpatrick helped lead the Buffalo offensive attack by finishing 10-of-19 for 178 yards and two touchdowns. WR Stevie Johnson and TE Scott Chandler were on the receiving end of the two Fitzpatrick touchdowns.

REGULAR SEASON WEEK 3 – Bills 24, Browns 14
September 23, 2012 – Cleveland Browns Stadium – 69,353

The Buffalo Bills notched their second victory of the season with a 24-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium in front of a crowd of 69,353 fans.

The Bills relied on Stevie Johnson's third touchdown reception of the season, Leodis McKelvin's first interception of the year and LB Bryan Scott's second pick of season in the fourth quarter to help Buffalo pull away from Cleveland and move their overall record to 2-1.

Buffalo got off to a fast start early in the first quarter, with QB Ryan Fitzpatrick slinging back-to-back touchdowns on Buffalo's first two drives. The first score marked WR T.J. Graham's first career touchdown reception. Graham's touchdown was followed by Fitzpatrick finding RB C.J. Spiller in the flat, enabling Spiller to find some open space and take it 32 yards for his fourth score of the season.

After the Bills snagged the early lead, the momentum of the game shifted when Spiller was forced to leave the game in the first quarter due to a shoulder injury.

With Spiller out, the Browns mounted a 14-3 run in the second and third quarters to bring them within three heading into the fourth quarter before Fitzpatrick connected with Johnson and McKelvin and Scott each picked off Cleveland QB Brandon Weeden to seal the Bills victory.

Buffalo's defensive line generated consistent pressure throughout the game, with DE Mario Williams notching the first 1.5 sacks of his Bills career, DE Mark Anderson tallying his first sack as a Bill, DT Kyle Williams grabbing a sack and DT Marcell Dareus picking up half a sack.
