WELKER EXTENDS STREAK TO 109 CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH AT LEAST ONE RECEPTION

Wes Welker extended his streak to 109 straight regular season games with at least one reception, including his time with the Miami Dolphins. He has a streak of 92 straight regular-season games with at least one reception as a member of the Patriots to extend his franchise record. Welker has caught at least one pass in each of his 99 games with the Patriots, including seven postseason games. The last time that Welker did not catch a pass in a game was December 24, 2005 when he was with Miami. He is one of 39 NFL players to have a streak of at least 100 games with one reception.

PATRIOTS FORCE TURNOVERS

With Marquice Cole's third quarter interception, the Patriots have forced a turnover in 26 straight games, dating back to 2011 and including the first 15 games of 2012. The last team to have at least one forced turnover in all 16 regular season games was the 2010 Atlanta Falcons. The streak of 26 straight games with a turnover is the longest streak for the Patriots since going 30 straight games with at least one takeaway from 1986 to 1988. The Patriots have now had at least one interception in eight of the last nine games.

PATRICK CHUNG HAS FIRST CAREER TWO-INTERCEPTION GAME

Patrick Chung ended Jacksonville's final two drives with interceptions, including an interception in the end zone to secure a 23-16 win as time expired. It is his first two-interception game. It is the second time in 2012 that a Patriots player had two interceptions in a game. Devin McCourty had two at Buffalo on Sept. 30.
