HEADLINES

Sunday's game at New England marks the Jets first divisional contest of the season. The 102nd meeting between the two teams including the postseason, the Jets have faced the Patriots more than any other team. Last year, New York won two of the three contests.

Through four games, the Jets defense is tied with Washington for first in the NFL for opponent' third down conversion rate (26.0 percent), limiting offense to success on only 13-of-50 third down opportunities. Since 11:21 mark of the fourth quarter versus Dallas (9/11), opponents have converted only nine-of-42 third downs. Including in that total was an Oakland offense that was unsuccessful on all eight of their third downs, marking the third time the team has held an opponent without an third down conversion under Coach Ryan. The other two contests were at BUF (10/03/10) and at TB (12/13/09).

With Joe McKnight's 107-yard kickoff return, the longest play in team history, the Jets have now recorded 15 kickoff returns for touchdowns since Special Teams Coordinator Mike Westhoff arrived in 2001, the most in the NFL during that span. McKnight is the seventh player to return a kickoff for a touchdown under Westhoff.

Led by CB Antonio Cromartie's two interceptions and NT Sione Pouha's two fumble recoveries, the Jets defense has recorded 10 take-aways, third best in the AFC.

OVERVIEW BY POSITION

Quarterbacks (3), Returning Starter (1), Coach Matt Cavanaugh:

QB Mark Sanchez recorded two of his four career 300-yard passing games this season, a career-high 369 at OAK (9/25) and 335 vs. DAL (9/11). The Jets are 3-1 in games where Sanchez eclipses the 300-yard mark. He finished the 2010 season with a career-high 3,291 yards, 17 touchdowns and 13 interceptions for a passer rating of 75.3 on the season. He became only the second quarterback (Ben Roethlisberger 5, 2004-05) to start and win four postseason games in their first two seasons in the NFL. Sanchez recorded a 127.3 passer rating on 16-of-25 passing for 194 yards and three touchdowns in the club's win at NE (1/16). It was the first time he has thrown three touchdown passes in a postseason game, and tied the club record for most in a single postseason game. He led the Jets on a five-play, 40-yard game-winning drive, in which he completed all three of his passes for 38 yards in the Wild Card victory at IND (1/8). The Jets win marked Sanchez's third postseason win, the most by any QB in franchise history. His seven career rushing touchdowns ties him for fourth amongst Jets quarterbacks in club history. Veteran Mark Brunell signed with the Jets as a free agent (7/28/10). The three-time Pro Bowler missed the preseason due to injury. Fourth-year veteran Kevin O'Connell returns to the Jets after spending the 2011 training camp with the Miami Dolphins. O'Connell originally joined the Jets via trade with DET in 2009, before being waived (7/29/11).

Running Backs (6), Returning Starter (1), Coach Anthony Lynn:

After spending two seasons as an understudy to Thomas Jones and LaDainian Tomlinson, Shonn Greene serves as the starter at running back. Greene finished the 2010 season with 766 yards and two touchdowns on 185 carries and added 70 yards on 19 carries in the Wild Card victory at IND (1/8). He registered his third-postseason rushing touchdown, tied for most in franchise history, when he raced 16 yards for the Jets final score of the game at NE (1/16). For his postseason career, Greene has a 5.1 yard-per-carry average, the best among Jets rushers all-time that have carried the ball at least 40 times. Tomlinson moved into the role of the Jets third-down back in 2011 and is currently second on the team with 13 receptions for 200 yards and a TD. In Week Three, Tomlinson recorded the 160th touchdown of his career. The score placed him among Hall of Famers Jerry Rice (208) and Emmitt Smith (175) as the only players in NFL history to break the 160 touchdown threshold. He finished the game with five receptions for 116, it was his first 100-yard game since 2003 (at GB 12/14). In 2010, he led the team with 914 yards and six rushing touchdowns on 219 carries last season. His 52 receptions were second on the team. He recorded the second-most productive postseason game of his career at IND (1/8) when he rushed for two touchdowns and 82 yards on 16 carries (5.1 avg.). Second-year fullback John Conner enters 2011 as the starter after spending one season learning from Tony Richardson. Known as "The Terminator" for his crushing blocks, Conner rushed for 44 yards and his first NFL touchdown on eight carries in 2010 season finale vs. BUF (1/2). 2010 fourth-round selection out of USC, Joe McKnight, has contributed two key plays on special teams, the first coming when he blocked a punt to set up a game-tying score vs. DAL (9/11), and the second coming in Week Four when he returned a kick 107 yards, the longest play in Jets history, at BLT (10/2) to tie the score at seven. Fourth-round selection Bilal Powell has shown versatility and a powerful rushing style, recording 62 rushing yards, a touchdown and 29 receiving yards on four receptions in the preseason. Undrafted rookie free agent Josh Baker was signed to the active roster as a FB/TE on 9/27/11 after TE Jeff Cumberland suffered a season-ending injury at OAK (9/25).

Wide Receivers (6), Returning Starter (1), Coach Henry Ellard:

The lone starter returning in 2011 is Santonio Holmes. Since 1983, no NFL receiver has caught more touchdown passes (5) in the final 1:00 of 4th quarter/overtime (including playoffs) than Holmes. The Super Bowl XLIII MVP re-signed with the Jets this offseason and was named captain by Coach Ryan. The new members of the Jets receiving corps are 10-year veteran Plaxico Burress, 2011 fifth-round selection Jeremy Kerley and 15-year veteran Derrick Mason. Entering the season, the trio of Burress, Holmes and Mason had recorded more yards (24,317) and touchdowns (147) than any active trio in the NFL. The group's total receiving yards (24,749) and touchdowns are the most by any trio in the NFL. Burress returns to the NFL for the first time since last seeing action in 2008. In Week One, Burress recorded four receptions for 72 yards and a 26-yard touchdown, his first touchdown since at PHI (11/09/08). Mason brings his 936 (third among active players) career receptions to New York, after spending six seasons with Baltimore. Kerley, serves as the team's punt returner and is averaging 11.7 yards a returner. Young veterans Logan Payne and Patrick Turner round out the receiving corps.

Tight Ends (2), Returning Starter (1), Coach Mike Devlin:

Fourth-year pro Dustin Keller started the 2011 season where he left off the 2010, leading the Jets in receiving with 18 catches for 261 yards and two touchdowns. Last season, he finished first on the team in receptions (55), and third in touchdowns (5) and receiving yards (687). Former undrafted free agent Matthew Mulligan has been with the club since 2009 and provides depth along with undrafted rookie free agent Josh Baker at the position.

Offensive Line (8), Returning Starters (5), Coach Bill Callahan:

In 2006, Jets General Manager Mike Tannenbaum focused on the offensive line, selecting LT D'Brickashaw Ferguson fourth overall and C Nick Mangold 29th overall in the NFL draft. The two players started 82 consecutive games together before Mangold missed his first two NFL contest at OAK (9/25) and at BLT (10/2). The streak made them the only two players who entered the league together to start their team's first 75 regular-season games on the same offensive line since 1970. Ferguson earned his second-consecutive Pro Bowl nod for his play last season. He was also awarded 2010 Pro Football Weekly's Midseason All-Pro team honors, 2009 Pro Bowl honors and 2006 All-Rookie Team honors by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writer's Association. During his first four seasons, Mangold earned Associated Press All-Pro honors (09, 10), three consecutive Pro Bowl selections (08, 09, 10) and All-Rookie recognition in 2006 as voted by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writer's Association. Also on the offensive line is third-year LG Matt Slauson, who earned the starting job after an impressive 2010 preseason and started every game last season. RG Brandon Moore leads the group and has started 109 consecutive games for the Jets. RT Wayne Hunter who earned his first-career start at right tackle at PIT (12/19) and also started at CHI

OVERVIEW BY POSITION

(12/26) and vs. BUF (1/2). Hunter also started the club's 28-21 win at NE (1/16) and the AFC Championship game at PIT (1/23). Second-year G/T Vladimir Ducasse provides depth along with rookies C Colin Baxter and G Caleb Schlauderaff. The Jets acquired Schlauderaff in a trade with Green Bay (9/3/11) and Baxter off of waivers from SD (9/4/11). Baxter saw his first NFL action in Week Two when Mangold left the game due to an injury. He started the next two weeks and helped the offense produce 439 yards (339 passing, 100 rushing) at OAK (9/25).

Defensive Line (6), Returning Starters (2), Coach Mark Carrier and Coach Jeff Weeks:

Led by veteran starter DT Mike DeVito (5th season) and defensive captain NT Sione Pouha (7th season), the Jets field a defensive line with four players who have three-or-less years of experience. The leaders of this group teamed up to make a huge play in the season opener vs. DAL (9/11) when DeVito recorded the first full-sack of his career dropping QB Tony Romo and forcing a fumble at the Jets two-yard line that Pouha would recover for the fourth fumble recovery of his career. The group was infused with two draft selections this season, DE Muhammad Wilkerson (first round, 30th overall) and NT Kenrick Ellis (third round, 94th overall). DeVito earned 11 starts and recorded 46 tackles in 2010. Pouha has started 29 games in the last two seasons for a defense that finished first overall in 2009 and fourth in 2010. He finished tied for the most tackles among Jets defensive linemen with 46 and recovered a team-high three fumbles and had two sacks last season. Wilkerson earned his first-career sack in Week Two, when he dropped Jaguars QB Luke McCown in the end zone for a safety. It was the first time a player recorded a safety on his first-career sack since 2008, when Ravens LB Jameel McClain did it for a Rex Ryan-led defense in Baltimore. Marcus Dixon, who was awarded to the Jets off waivers (9/5/10) and registered his first-career sack when he dragged downed Bears QB Jay Cutler at CHI (12/26/10), helps provide depth along with Ropati Pitoitua, who missed all of 2010 due to an injury.

Linebackers (8), Returning Starters (3), Coach Bob Sutton:

Led by inside linebackers David Harris and Bart Scott and flanked by Calvin Pace and Jamaal Westerman following the season-ending injury to Bryan Thomas, this unit allows the Jets defense to use multiple schemes. Harris, was re-signed to a long-term deal this offseason after he led the team in tackles for the third time in his four-year career with 119 tackles and registered three sacks, a FR and two passes defended in 2010. He scored the first touchdown of his NFL career at BLT (10/2) when he returned an INT 35 yards. Scott, who is the tone-setter for the Jets defense, finished second on the team with 94 tackles, one sack, one forced fumble and one pass defended. He currently leads the team with two sacks. Pace played in his first season opener since 2008 and recorded a sack of DAL QB Tony Romo. Including the playoffs, he recorded a sack in five consecutive games dating back to the 2010 season finale vs. BUF (1/2/11). His streak ended in the 32-3 victory vs. JAX (9/18). Third-year man Westerman is expected to take on a greater role following the injury to Bryan Thomas, he has never started an NFL game. Second-year LB Josh Mauga has solidified himself as the third inside linebacker after serving on special teams last season. He recorded the first interception of his career in Week Two. Former BUF first-round selection Aaron Maybin and first-year man Garrett McIntyre provide depth at the outside linebacker positions while Nick Bellore, the club's lone 2011 undrafted free agent to make the team provides depth on the inside. Maybin recorded the first sack and forced fumble of his NFL career in his first game with the Jets (at BLT 10/2). Bellore and McIntyre are first and second, respectively, on the team in special teams tackles. Thomas suffered an achilles injury that will hold him out for the remainder of the season in Week Four at BLT (10/2).

Defensive Backs (10), Returning Starters (4), Coach Dennis Thurman and Jim O'Neil

This group is led by All-Pro Darrelle Revis, who set up the Jets game-winning field goal in Week One vs. DAL (9/11) when he intercepted a DAL QB Tony Romo pass intended for WR Dez Bryant and returned it 20 yards to DAL 34. The secondary also returns starting S Jim Leonhard, who returns to action after a season ending injury in 2010. The safety tandem of Eric Smith and Brodney Pool split time in 2010 as starters and both re-signed with the Jets for the 2011 season. Pool started 12 of the 2010 contests, but Smith, who started six games last year, got the starting nod in 2011 and recorded the second sack of his career in the second quarter vs. DAL (9/11) and the fifth interception of his career vs. JAX (9/18). CB Antonio Cromartie, who this summer re-signed to a long-term deal with the Jets, is also back in the fold and has two interceptions, a 23.6 KOR avg. and a rush for one yard after three weeks. Second-year cornerback and 2010 first-round selection Kyle Wilson, who earned starts in the first three games of the season as well as at CLV (11/14) and BUF (1/2), will be joined by Donald Strickland, a former Jet who spent 2010 with the San Diego Chargers as nickel cornerbacks. The secondary is rounded out with young-veterans Marquice Cole, Emanuel Cook and Isaiah Trufant, who recovered a blocked punt for the game-tying touchdown in Week One vs. DAL (9/11). This group has been pivotal in holding opposing passers to a 57.1 passer rating on 62-of-119 passing with 2 TD and 6 INT.

Specialists (3), Returning Starters (2), Coach Mike Westhoff and Ben Kotwica

Kicker Nick Folk and long snapper Tanner Purdum return to a group that adds new punter T.J. Conley. Folk has connected on all seven of his FG attempts this season, including a game winning 50-yarder in Week One vs. DAL (9/11). As a Jet, he has connected on three game winning FG, including an overtime kick at DET (11/7) and a kick at IND (1/8) in the AFC Wild Card playoff game. Conley secured the punting job in his third training camp with the Jets. Of his 24 punts this season, seven have been placed inside the opponents' 20-yard line and he has a net punting average of 37.6.

RYAN=DEFENSE

Like most sons, Rex Ryan always knew he wanted to be in the family business. For the Ryans, the family business is stifling defense. In 1985, his father, Buddy Ryan, led what is widely considered to be the best defense in NFL history. Known simply as the '85 Bears, Buddy's unit allowed 12.4 points a game. For the season, they allowed 20 touchdowns (9 rushing, 10 passing and 1 on a return).

Rex has been a part of some of the NFL's best defenses himself. In 2000, he served as the defensive line coach for a Baltimore Ravens team that allowed an NFL best 10.3 points a game. In 16 games, the 2000 Ravens allowed 18 touchdowns (5 rushing, 11 passing and 2 on returns). As a defensive coordinator in 2006, Rex almost matched his father's 1985 feat, allowing 12.6 points a game with the Ravens. Rex's 2006 team led the NFL in 11 categories: yards per game (264.1), yards per play (4.51), rushing yard per game (75.9), rushing yards per play (3.31), interception rate (5.5%), sacks per pass attempt (11.79%), first downs per game (14.8), third-down conversions allowed (28.9%), red zone pct. (33.3%) and points allowed a game (12.6).

In 2009, Rex returned the family business to the Jets, where his father earned his first NFL job. Rex took a defense that ranked 10th in scoring for the 2008 season to the top of the NFL rankings in seven categories: yards per game (252.3), yards per play (4.24), passing yards a game (153.7), passing yards per play (4.91), first downs allowed (14.8), third-down conversions allowed (31.5%) and points allowed (14.8).

SAFETY FIRST UNDER RYAN

Since Rex Ryan became the head coach of the Jets in 2009, the team is tied for the NFL lead with four safeties (including the postseason). Only 17 teams have recorded safeties and only eight have registered multiple safeties.

CAPTAINS

For the first time since becoming the Jets head coach, Rex Ryan has named team captains. WR Santonio Holmes, NT Sione Pouha, CB Darrelle Revis, QB Mark Sanchez and S Eric Smith will wear the "C" on their jerseys for the 2011 season.

Coach Ryan had this to say about his selection of captains. "It was not voted on. This is something that I chose. I chose these guys based on what I see on the practice field, the game field, the classroom, their leadership, what they mean to their units, the pride and everything else. That's what I'm looking for in those individuals."

DEFENSIVELY UNMATCHED

Since becoming the Defensive Coordinator with BLT prior to the start of the 2005 season, Coach Ryan has posted elite defensive numbers in every major defensive category. Adding his numbers at BLT from 2005-08 to the Jets defensive numbers in his first two seasons as a head coach, Ryan ranks first in total defense, passing defense, and third-down conversion percentage defense. His units rank third in scoring defense and fourth in take-aways and rushing defense.

RYAN'S RULE OF THUMB

Rooted in his "Ground-and-Pound" philosophy, Coach Ryan believes that the winning team will have a higher combined total of rushing attempts plus completions in the game. Since he took over at the start of the 2009 season, here is how the Jets have fared in the runs plus completions battle.

COORDINATORS

PETTINE PRIOR

In 2005, Mike Pettine was promoted from Coaching Assistant/Quality Control to Outside Linebackers Coach in Baltimore, the same season that current Jets Head Coach Rex Ryan was named the Ravens Defensive Coordinator. From 2005-08, the Ravens defense ranked in the top five in almost every defensive category before both left for the Jets.

- 1st in Passing Defense (177.5 yards per game)
- T-3rd in Points Allowed (17.6)

David Harris (NYJ 09-)

In two seasons under Pettine, Harris has led the team in tackles with 119 (2010) and 142 (2009).

Calvin Pace (NYJ 09-)

In Pace's first season with Pettine as Defensive Coordinator, he posted a career-high with 8.0 sacks in just 12 games played.

Sione Pouha (NYJ 09-)

In two seasons under Pettine, "Bo" has become a stalwart in the middle of the Jets defense. He produced his two highest single-season tackle totals of 61 (2009) and 46 (2010). Pouha also recorded his first two full sacks of his career in 2010.

Terrell Suggs (BLT 05-08)

In four seasons under Pettine, Suggs posted his four highest tackle totals, collected four of his five career interceptions and posted three seasons of at least eight sacks, leading the team in sacks twice.

Adalius Thomas (BLT 05-06)

Thomas enjoyed his two best seasons in his only two seasons with Pettine when he notched 9.0 sacks in 2005 and 11.0 sacks in 2006.

SCHOOLED BY SCHOTTY

Drew Brees (SD 02-05)

Schottenheimer arrived in San Diego for Brees' second season and quickly became a large part of his development with 2002 marking his first season as a starting quarterback. In four seasons with Schotty, Brees averaged over 3,000 yards a season, completing 62.3% of his passes and compiling an 84.7 passer rating.

Chad Pennington (NYJ 06-07)

Schottenheimer's first season with the Jets coincided with the return of Chad Pennington from a season-ending injury the year before. Under Schotty's direction, Pennington posted a then career-best 3,352 yards passing, completing 64.5% of his passes for an 82.6 passer rating. Pennington also took home NFL Comeback Player of the Year honors as he keyed a Jet return to the postseason.

Thomas Jones (NYJ 07-09)

Jones was considered a journeyman for the earlier part of his career after spending his first seven seasons in the league with three different teams. In that time, he averaged 769.1 yards and 4.9 touchdowns per season. In 2007, he was acquired by the Jets in an offseason trade and instantly became an integral part of Coach Schottenheimer's offense. In three seasons under Schottenheimer, Jones averaged 1,277.7 yards rushing and 9.3 rushing touchdowns a season and set career-highs in rushing yards (1,312) and rushing touchdowns (13) in 2008.

Dustin Keller (NYJ 08-)

Keller, the Jets 2008 first-round pick, caught 93 passes, the most by a Jets tight end in their first two NFL seasons. In 2010, Keller led the team in receptions with 55 for 687 yards and five touchdowns. Under Schottenheimer, Keller has become a go-to player with 192 career catches for 2,307 yards and 15 touchdowns, including the postseason.

Mark Sanchez (NYJ 09-)

Sanchez, the Jets 2009 first-round pick, was chosen to direct Schottenheimer's offense. Since then, Sanchez finished his second season with a career-high of 3,291 yards, 17 touchdowns and 13 interceptions, making him the second youngest Jets quarterback to pass for over 3,000 yards. He is also the youngest quarterback in NFL history to throw eight touchdown passes and no interceptions during the first five games of the season. During Sanchez's two consecutive playoff runs, he tied the club record for the most postseason touchdown passes in a single game with three. He led the Jets to a club record of four road victories, and tied the record for the most postseason road wins in the NFL. Additionally, Sanchez is tied for the second-most victories by any quarterback in his first two NFL seasons, including the postseason, with 27.

WONDERFUL WORLD OF WESTHOFF

No team in the NFL has had more kickoff returns for touchdowns since Mike Westhoff's tenure with the Jets began in 2001. Since then, the Jets have scored 15 times on kickoff returns. Perhaps even more impressive is that those scores have come from seven different players. Leon Washington (4), Justin Miller (3), Brad Smith (3), Chad Morton (2), Jonathan Carter (1), Jerricho Cotchery (1) and Joe McKnight (1) have all brought a kick back for a score under Westhoff.

ON THE MARK

QB Mark Sanchez has taken the New York Jets to the AFC Championship game in each of his first two seasons. It is Sanchez's postseason prowess that has propelled the Jets to four postseason victories over the last two years, all of which were on the road. In defeating the Cincinnati Bengals (1/9/10), San Diego Chargers (1/17/10), Indianapolis Colts (1/8/11) and New England Patriots (1/16/11), Sanchez has delivered in the difficult month of January. He ranks seventh all-time in NFL history for passer rating among all quarterbacks in their first six postseason starts, with a rating of 94.3. Out of all the quarterbacks listed below, only Sanchez made his first six postseason starts in his first two NFL seasons.

WINS IN FIRST TWO SEASONS BY A QB

QB Mark Sanchez was one of five players chosen as team captains for 2011 by Head Coach Rex Ryan. Sanchez is tied for the second-most victories by any quarterback in his first two seasons in the NFL, including the postseason. Only Ben Roethlisberger's 27 victories in his first two seasons were more than Sanchez's 23 wins with the Jets over the past two years. Four of Sanchez's 23 victories have been in the postseason.

LT D'Brickashaw Ferguson, selected 4th overall in the 2006 NFL Draft, earned his 2nd Pro Bowl appearance in 2010. Named to the All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writers' Association in '06.

LG Matt Slauson, originally selected in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. He earned a starting position in 2010..

C Nick Mangold, a three-time Pro Bowl selection, earned first-team All-Pro honors in 2009-10. Selected in the first round of the 2006 NFL Draft (29th overall), Mangold has started in every game that he has been active in his career, missing only two games due to injury.

RG Brandon Moore has helped pave the way for two of the Jets three-best rushing seasons. In 2009, the club rushed for a franchise-best 2,756 yards, while the team's 2004 total of 2,388 ranks third-best in team history. In those seasons, he blocked for two rushing champions: Curtis Martin (1,697, 2004 NFL rushing title) and Thomas Jones (1,312, 2008 AFC rushing title). Originally joined the Jets as an undrafted FA defensive tackle in 2002. Moved to guard during the 2003 offseason and earned the starting right guard position in 2004.

RT Wayne Hunter made his first start at tackle in place of an injured Damien Woody at PIT (12/19). He went on to make starts at CHI (1/26) and vs. BUF (1/2) prior to Woody's return in the club's Wild Card game at IND (1/8). After Woody suffered an injury in the Wild Card game, Hunter started the Jets final two postseason games. A former third-round selection in the 2003 NFL Draft by SEA, he had seen action as a tight end and sparingly at tackle since joining the Jets on the practice squad on 12/26/07.

In 2006, Jets General Manager Mike Tannenbaum focused on the offensive line selecting LT D'Brickshaw Ferguson fourth overall and C Nick Mangold 29th overall in the NFL draft. Before Mangold missed the Week Three matchup at OAK, the two players started 82 consecutive regular season games together, making them the only two players who entered the league together to start their team's first 75 regular-season games on the same offensive line since 1970. Ferguson has earned 2010 Pro Football Weekly's Midseason All-Pro team honors, 2009 and 2010 Pro Bowl honors and 2006 All-Rookie Team honors by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writer's Association. During his first four seasons, Mangold has earned 2009 and 2010 Associated Press All-Pro honors, three-consecutive Pro Bowl selections (08-10) and All-Rookie team in 2006 as voted by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writer's Association.

KELLER FOR THE FIRST DOWN

After recording 33 first downs in 2010, third on the team, Keller opened the 2011 season catching five passes, all for first downs vs. DAL (9/11). He finished the game with 61 yards and a touchdown. The score marks his first on opening day in his NFL career.

For the season, 13 of Keller's 18 receptions have gone for a first down.

DUSTIN KELLER IN PERSPECTIVE

Since being selected in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft, TE Dustin Keller has quietly had the best first three seasons by a tight end in club history. Despite working with two quarterbacks in his three seasons (Brett Favre '08 & Mark Sanchez '09-'10), Keller has caught 148 passes for 1,744 yards, the most by a Jets tight end in their first three NFL seasons.

ONE TIME

Living up to his reputation of making key plays at big moments, WR Santonio Holmes caught his second game-winning touchdown pass in as many weeks from QB Mark Sanchez vs. HST (11/21). The score, with 10 seconds remaining, gave the club a 30-27 victory. He finished the game with his second 100-yard receiving game (7-126-2) in three weeks. His first came at DET (11/7), when he caught five passes for 114 yards.

One week earlier at CLV (11/14), Holmes caught a Sanchez throw and raced 37 yards for the game-winning touchdown, his first score as a Jet, with 16 seconds remaining in overtime. It was the fourth game that season that Holmes made the key play that led to a game winning score. Week Nine at DET (11/17), Holmes took a pass 52 yards to setup K Nick Folk's game-winning 30-yard field goal. At DEN (10/17), he drew a 46-yard pass interference penalty to setup RB LaDainian Tomlinson's game-winning touchdown.

In 2010, Holmes totaled 52 receptions for 746 yards (14.3 avg.) and six touchdowns.

MASON 60+ AND 750+

Entering his 15th season, WR Derrick Mason has been one of the most consistent receivers in league history. Before joining the Jets on August 7, he compiled eight 1,000-yard seasons, while averaging 66 receptions and 849 yards per season, and 80 receptions and 1,026 yards per season since becoming a full-time starter in 2000.

In addition to his consistency, Mason brings durability, having missed just six regular-season games in his career.

This year, Mason can become the first player in NFL history to record 60-plus catches and 750-plus receiving yards in 12 consecutive seasons. He currently is tied with two other players at 11 straight 60-750 seasons — Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice and TE Tony Gonzalez. Among active wide receivers he ranks first in receiving yards (11,999), second in receptions (936) and tied for fourth in receiving touchdowns (66). (NOTE: List does not include WRs Terrell Owens or Joey Galloway who are not currently signed.)

BIG-PLAY BURRESS

Free agent acquisition WR Plaxico Burress showed no signs of rust in the Jets season opener vs. DAL (9/11). In New York's come-from-behind 27-24 win, Burress caught four passes for 72 yards, including a 26-yard touchdown. It was his first touchdown since scoring on a 17-yard reception as a member of NYG at PHI (11/9/2008).

Of his 63 career touchdown receptions (regular and postseason combined), 20 have come from 31 yards or longer.

MASON MOVING THE CHAINS

Only ATL WR Roddy White has collected more receptions on third down than Mason since 2006. His 130 receptions rank second in the league, while 80.8% of those catches were converted for first downs.

JOE ON THE RUN

RB Joe McKnight has shown a penchant for making big plays on NBC. During both of the Jets games on Sunday Night Football, the running back has made big plays to score touchdowns. In Week One vs. DAL (9/11), he knifed through the Cowboys protection to block a punt that was returned 18-yards for a score by CB Isaiah Trufant. In Week Four at BLT (10/2), McKnight recorded the longest play in Jets history when he returned a kickoff 107 yards to knot the game at seven. McKnight also played CB in the Jets Week Four game at BLT.

McKnight and CB Antonio Cromartie have both seen action on offense, defense and special teams this season.

2010 VS. 2011 STARTERS

The Jets return 17-of-22 starters from last year's team that reached the AFC Championship game. New York managed to retain several key free agents in the offseason, while adding high-profile wide receiver Plaxico Burress to the offense and first-round selection Muhammad Wilkerson to the defense.

PAYING CUSTOMS ON REVIS ISLAND

CB Darrelle Revis capped the 2010 season with his third-consecutive Pro Bowl selection and second-straight All-Pro nod. Widely considered one of the best cornerbacks in the NFL, Revis' numbers the last three seasons have illustrated why opposing quarterbacks rarely pay a visit to "Revis Island." In his two seasons under Head Coach Rex Ryan, Revis has posted the lowest burn percentage* of any cornerback in the league and is tied for the highest percentage of passes defended to times targeted as well.

Player	Targeted	Burned*	Burn Pct.
Darrelle Revis	174	62	35.6%
Brandon Carr	209	93	44.5%
Stanford Routt	163	76	46.6%
Jabari Greer	162	74	46.9%
Brandon Flowers	216	105	48.6%

Antonio Cromartie	202	100	49.5%
Reggie Corner	119	59	49.6%
Corey Webster	193	96	49.7%

*Burned percentage tracks how a defensive player performs in defending passes in which he is the defensive target. A "burn" occurs when a targeted defensive player allows a completed pass.

Player	Targeted	PD*	PD/Tgt
Darrelle Revis	174	43	24.7%
Asante Samuel	135	32	23.7%

Leigh Bodden	104	22	21.2%
D. Rodgers-Cromartie	210	43	20.5%

*Pass defended and Burned statistics are taken from StatsPass.

Revis registered the 15th interception of his career when he picked off Tony Romo with 59 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. The pick and ensuing 20-yard return lead to the game-winning field goal. For his career, Revis has picked off seven passes in the fourth quarter, with four coming when the game is within seven points with 2:00 or less remaining.

CRO PICKS TO WIN

With two interceptions of QB Luke McCown in the Week Two victory over Jacksonville, Antonio Cromartie registered the fifth game of his career with multiple interceptions. In the five games Cromartie has picked off two-or-more passes, his teams have never lost. In fact, in the 16 games (including postseason) that he has collected an interception, his teams carry a 14-2 record.

OPPOSING PASSERS VS. THE JETS

- Since 2009, opposing quarterbacks have been held to just a 67.1 passer rating, which ranks first in the NFL during that period.
- Since Rex Ryan took over as head coach of the Jets, quarterbacks have connected on just 51.3% of passes against New York, the lowest completion percentage during that span.
- This season, the Jets passing defense again ranks among the tops in the NFL holding opponents to 62-of-119 passing (52.1%), a 57.1 passer rating and only two touchdown passes, all are best in the league.

MUHAMMAD WILKERSON

Jets General Manager Mike Tannenbaum made it a point of emphasis to get younger on the defensive front this season, electing to draft local product, DL Muhammad Wilkerson, who prepped at Linden HS, in the first round. Wilkerson played collegiately at Temple, the same school as legendary Jets defensive lineman Joe Klecko.

Wilkerson started Opening Day at defensive end for the Jets, the first time a rookie has started in New York's base defense in Week One since Dwight Lowery started at cornerback in 2008, and the first rookie to start for a Rex Ryan defense on Opening Day since DT Haloti Ngata and SS Dawan Landry. Both players started under Ryan in Baltimore in 2006, while he served as the defensive coordinator for the Ravens.

In Week Two, Wilkerson registered the first sack of his career when he brought down QB Luke McCown for a safety. He became the first player to record a safety on his first sack in the NFL since LB Jameel McClain accomplished the feat for a then-Rex Ryan led Baltimore Ravens defense vs. the Oakland Raiders (10/26/08).

SACKS BY PACE

LB Calvin Pace finished the 2010 season just 0.5 sacks behind Jets' sack leader LB Bryan Thomas with 5.5, despite missing the first four games due to injury. For the season, he finished with 56 tackles. It was the second-consecutive season that he has missed the first four games of the schedule. Pace led the Jets in sacks in both 2008 (7) and 2009 (8). In the last game of the 2010 season vs. BUF (1/2), Pace recorded the second interception of his career along with a sack, three PD, three QHs and a tackle.

Pace continued his sack production in the postseason, taking down Peyton Manning in the Wild Card game (1/8 at IND), dropping Tom Brady in the Divisional game (1/16 at NE) and capping the postseason with a seven-yard sack of Ben Roethlisberger (1/23 at PIT).

For his career, Pace has recorded 35.5 sacks, 21.5 since joining the Jets in 2008. He has also recorded 14 forced fumbles, nine since joining the club.

DAVID HARRIS

“He’s (LB David Harris) one of the most complete linebackers in our league. He’s an elite player who, for whatever reason, a lot of people don’t appreciate.” Jets Linebackers Coach Bob Sutton (New York Times, 8/1/10).

In 2010, Harris was voted team MVP after he led the Jets defense with 119 tackles (90 solo). He added three sacks, two passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery to his statline.

TACKLING MACHINE

In four seasons, Harris has led the team in tackles three times and finished second with 87 tackles in 2008 despite missing five games. In 2007, he led the team with 117 tackles despite not taking over starting duties until the eighth game of the season. Currently, Harris is third for the season with 18.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN WHO HAVE PRODUCED UNDER RYAN’S TUTELAGE INCLUDE:

The Jets drafted Muhammad Wilkerson in the first round (30th overall) and Kenrick Ellis in the third round (94th overall) in the 2011 NFL Draft, adding to an already strong defensive line. Throughout the course of Head Coach Rex Ryan’s coaching career, he’s been able to produce prolific defensive linemen. Ryan coached the Arizona Cardinals defensive line in 1994, the Baltimore Ravens defensive line from 1999-2004, then became the Ravens’ defensive coordinator from 2005-2008 before taking the helm of the New York Jets in 2009. During those seasons, Ryan’s defensive linemen have produced 177 sacks and been selected to four Pro Bowls and three All-Pro teams. While some of Ryan’s linemen have been first-round draft picks, others were greeted with less fanfare coming out of college.

Westhoff's group has totaled 22 touchdowns (including the postseason) since he became the special teams coordinator in 2001. They have seen 11 different players score touchdowns via blocked punt return, kickoff return and punt return. Perhaps even more remarkable is how clutch these scoring plays have been. 16 of the 22 touchdowns scored by Westhoff's unit have come in games decided by seven points-or-less.

RETURNING DIVIDENDS

The Elias Sports Bureau defines a long return as a kickoff return of 40+ yards or a punt return of 20+ yards. There have been 18 long kickoff returns in the NFL this season, with the Jets return units accounting for 16.7% of them. Short kickoff returns are defined as kickoff returns that are stopped inside the team's own 20-yard line.
