Last week, the Patriots traveled to Atlanta and worked with the Falcons prior to Thursday night's game.

The Patriots are off to a 2-0 start in the preseason following a 27-24 victory over the Saints and a 28-10 last week against the Falcons.

PATRIOTS TO HOST POP WARNER'S NATIONWIDE KICKOFF AT THURSDAY'S GAME AGAINST ST. LOUIS

Pop Warner Little Scholars, Inc., the world's largest youth football and cheerleading organization with more than 400,000 participants and the only youth sports organization that emphasizes academics as a prerequisite for participation, will celebrate the start of football season and the NFL's and USA Football's Play Football initiative by conducting the fifth annual Pop Warner Nationwide Kickoff, hosted by the Patriots and Gillette Stadium prior to Thursday's game. The event will include a ceremonial kickoff by Greater Boston-area Pop Warner participants. President of the New England Patriots Jonathan Kraft will be joined by NFL Hall of Famer, former New England Patriots linebacker and current Executive Director of Community Affairs Andre Tippett to participate in the event and conduct a pre-kick pep talk.

GILLETTE STADIUM UNVEILS HIGH DEF VIDEO BOARDS

The Patriots unveiled new high definition Daktronics LED video boards that were installed during the offseason to enhance the in-stadium game day experience. The two screens--41.5-by-164-feet in the south end zone and 45-by-100-feet in the north end zone--total five times the size of the original screens. It would take 1,700 televisions to fill those dimensions using a standard 37" HDTV. The new video boards also provide much greater resolution, with the ability to display more instant replays and an array of graphics, including live statistical updates and out-of-town scores. The video boards utilize more than 5 million individual LED pixels that offer superior brightness in direct sunlight, with the capability of showing up to 4.4 trillion shades of color. The image clarity also greatly enhances the wide-angle visibility of the screens from inside the stadium. "This type of video board simply didn't exist eight years ago when the stadium was built," said Patriots President Jonathan Kraft. "The resolution is incredible. It is amazing to see how far the video technology has come in the past decade."

PATRIOTS VS. RAMS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Rams have played ten regular-season games with each team winning five times.

New England scored one of the greatest victories in franchise history when it defeated the favored Rams for the NFL championship on Feb. 3, 2002 in Super Bowl XXXVI. That victory followed a tight game in the 2001 regular season that ended in a 24-17 St. Louis victory at Foxboro Stadium.

The last time the two teams played was in 2008 when the Rams fell, 23-16, in their first-ever visit to Gillette Stadium on Oct. 26, 2008.

The Patriots and Rams have played eight games in the preseason, with each team winning four games. The last time the teams met in the preseason was in 1994 when the Patriots won 28-10 in Los Angeles. This week's game will be the first preseason meeting since the Rams moved to St. Louis in 1995.

The series dates back to 1974, when the Patriots defeated the Los Angeles Rams by a 20-14 score at what was then Schaefer Stadium.

The New England Patriots scored on two of their three possessions with the first-team offense as the Patriots cruised to a 28-10 victory over the Atlanta Falcons in a nationally-televised preseason game from the Georgia Dome.

WR Wes Welker made his return, seeing action during the Patriots first series. He caught a six-yard pass from QB Tom Brady on his first play from scrimmage and a 14-yard reception on his second play to finish the game with two catches for 20 yards.

It was a big day for the Patriots' two rookie tight ends, with each one catching a touchdown pass. Fourth-round draft pick TE Aaron Hernandez caught a 4-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter and second-round pick TE Rob Gronkowski scored on a 24-yard reception in the fourth quarter.

The Patriots' other two touchdowns came on a pair of 20-yard runs. RB Fred Taylor scored on a 28-yard run in the first quarter, and RB Sammy Morris had a 20-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

After Atlanta scored on its first offensive series, the Patriots built a 28-3 lead until the Falcons scored in the fourth quarter for a 28-10 final.

Brady finished 10-of-12 for 85 yards and led the Patriots two touchdown drives in first half action. He led the team on a 12-play, 80-yard drive that ended with Taylor's 28-yard run, and then culminated an 11-play, 63-yard drive with a 4-yard touchdown pass Hernandez for a 14-3 halftime edge.

Hoyer's 24-yard touchdown pass to Gronkowski early in the fourth quarter was set up when DL Ron Brace forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Tyrone McKenzie at the Atlanta 42-yard line. # ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 16 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won nine division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than three berths.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 171 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 16 seasons of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team. The Patriots have now won 9 or more games in 13 of the 16 seasons that Robert Kraft has owned the team.

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. He spent 20 years as an assistant coach in the NFL and this is his 16th season as a head coach. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the only man in NFL history to serve 20 or more seasons as an assistant coach and at least 15 seasons as a head coach. Over a 100-game span from 2003-08, Belichick directed the team to an 82-18 record, marking the best 100-game span for any team in NFL history. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 90-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times and has produced seven division championships, including five straight from 2003-07. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), and established the record for consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second-best postseason record in NFL history (15-5) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (121-41). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 126-52 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WELKER'S ROUTE TO THE NFL

Despite being named the Oklahoma football player of the year by both USA Today and the Daily Oklahoman, Wes Welker's only scholarship offer came from Texas Tech, and only after a player that committed to Texas Tech backed out.

"I was thinking I'd get a scholarship somewhere," Welker said. "When it didn't happen when it was supposed to I was pretty hurt by it."

Welker had an impressive collegiate career, accumulating 259 receptions and eight punts returned for touchdowns. He even won a national award as the best special teams player in the country. Despite those accolades, he was passed over in the 2004 NFL draft and signed with San Diego as a free agent. He made the team, then was cut after the first game. He signed with Miami soon after and was used just on special teams. He caught New England's eye with a 71-yard punt return on Monday Night Football in a game against the Patriots. He was acquired by the Patriots in a trade with Miami in 2007.

ZOLTAN MESKO: COMING TO AMERICA

Rookie P Zoltan Mesko was born in Timisoara, Romania, on the Romania-Hungary border. In 1989, during the communist revolutions, his family would survive by diving on the floor to avoid gun shots from the armies. Even after the fall of the Berlin Wall, his parents and he lived in poverty. His family was finally able to escape Romania when his father won a United States Permanent Resident Card (green card) in the Diversity Immigrant Visa Lottery in 1997. At the age of 11, Mesko came to America.

MESKO DISCOVERS FOOTBALL

An avid soccer player from his days in Romania, Mesko had a strong leg. It was only when he came to America that he discovered his leg could take him places. In eighth grade, Mesko was playing kickball in the gym when he kicked the ball so high that he broke a light fixture. He was given a choice: pay for the light fixture or play football. With his family still struggling with money and football being a more popular sport than soccer at his school, the choice was an obvious one—Mesko decided to play football. His leg would land him numerous Division I Scholarships and admission offers from Ivy League schools. From these, Mesko chose to play football at Michigan.

TOUGH AT HOME

The Patriots own an overall record of 59-13 (.819) at Gillette Stadium. Since their state-of-the-art facility opened at the beginning of the 2002 season, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home. In the franchise's first 43 seasons, the Patriots never enjoyed an undefeated season at home. In the past eight seasons at Gillette stadium, the Patriots have celebrated four undefeated seasons (2003, 2004, 2007 and 2009).

NFL'S BEST ROAD WARRIORS THIS DECADE

Since the start of the 2000 season, the Patriots have the third best road record with a 51-29 record, behind Indianapolis. (55-25) and Philadelphia. (51-28-1), despite a 2-6 road record in 2009.

DOUBLE TROUBLE: CB DEVIN MCCOURTY

After being selected by the Patriots in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft (27th overall), CB Devin McCourty became part of a select group in league history. McCourty's identical twin brother, Jason, is a cornerback with the Tennessee Titans, selected in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. The two are now only the 11th set of twins to play in the NFL. Devin and Jason were cornerbacks in the Rutgers secondary from 2005-08. Devin redshirted for the 2005 season and therefore was a year behind his brother in eligibility. McCourty is the second twin to suit up for the Patriots, after CB Kato Serwanga was a member of the team from 1998-2000. His twin brother Wasswa played for San Francisco and Minnesota from 1999-2001. According to McCourty's mother, the two can only be told apart by tiny scars on their faces left by chickenpox.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: TE ROB GRONKOWSKI

Rookie TE Rob Gronkowski grew up playing football against his brothers in the backyard. Now, he has a chance to play against them in the NFL. Dan Gronkowski, the oldest of the bunch, is currently in his second season as a TE for the Detroit Lions, while 23-year old Chris is currently in camp with the Dallas Cowboys as a fullback. The Gronkowski's are among 27 different sets of brothers currently in the NFL, yet they are the only family that can claim to have three siblings in the league. If both Rob and Dan make their respective rosters, the two would match-up against one another this Thanksgiving when the Patriots travel to Detroit on Thursday, November 25.

THE TEAM OF THE DECADE

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 16 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s.
