LAST GAME - BILLS-PACKERS

September 19, 2010 – Lambeau Field – 70,741

The Buffalo Bills traveled to Green Bay, WI on Sunday afternoon to face the Packers at Lambeau Field in their first road battle of the 2010 season. The Bills could not match the Packers' offensive surge in the second half and lost to Green Bay 34-7 in front of a sold out crowd of nearly 71,000.

The match-up was the 11th meeting between the Bills and Packers, with Green Bay leading the regular season series 8-3. Green Bay put together an eight-play drive and the Bills' defense held them to a 44-yard field goal by K Mason Crosby. The Packers put up the next 10 points, with another field goal, followed by a RB Brandon Jackson touchdown run late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 13-0 lead.

Buffalo QB Trent Edwards got the offense in a rhythm at the start of the second quarter, guiding an eight-play, 80-yard drive that culminated in a RB Fred Jackson three-yard touchdown run, his first of the season. Following the score, Buffalo's defense forced QB Aaron Rodgers and the Packers to punt in back-to-back series to close out the half trailing by six.

The Bills came out of half time and Edwards threw his first two interceptions of the season, both passes were deflected. The turnovers led to Green Bay scores. The Bills defense fought hard all day and held the Packers rushing attack to under 100 total yards, but defending Rodgers' and the passing game turned out to be a much tougher task.

Buffalo RB Marshawn Lynch got the starting nod at running back, leading the Bills' running game with a game-high 64 yards on 17 carries. RB Fred Jackson contributed 39 yards on the ground, as the Bills out-rushed the Packers 124 to 91. Rookie RB C.J. Spiller hauled in 4 passes for 23 yards, while WRs Steve Johnson and Roscoe Parrish totaled 31 and 34 receiving yards, respectively. Spiller excelled on special teams, returning six kickoffs for 174 yards, with a long of 41. P Brian Moorman also totaled five punts for 232 yards, with a long of 51.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Chris Kelsay with eight stops, seven of them being solo. Fellow LB Andra Davis also produced seven tackles on the day. Davis and CB Leodis McKelvin each forced fumbles, while McKelvin, NT Kyle Williams and S Bryan Scott had tackles for a loss.

LAST REGULAR SEASON MEETING BILLS-PATRIOTS

December 20, 2009 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 70,000

The Buffalo Bills succumbed to penalties and offensive woes as they lost to the New England Patriots, 17-10.

The Bills came out strong on their first drive marching 69 yards in 14 plays but were held to a 25-yard field goal by K Rian Lindell. Buffalo held their 3-0 lead for the entire first quarter, but the Patriots came back to score two unanswered touchdowns in the second quarter. QB Tom Brady connected with WR Randy Moss on a 13-yard touchdown pass after the Bills were unable to convert on a LB Paul Posluszny interception the drive before. With 3:37 remaining in the first half, QB Ryan Fitzpatrick was picked off by CB Jonathan Wilhite to give the Patriots the ball back. New England converted seven points on the turnover as RB Laurence Maroney rushed for a one-yard touchdown to give the Pats a 14-3 lead heading into halftime.

Both teams went three-and-out on their first possessions of the second half, but New England was able to score three points on a 30-yard field goal by K Stephen Gostkowski halfway through the third quarter. Buffalo tried to put a spark in its offense late in the fourth when Fitzpatrick connected with WR Lee Evans for an 11-yard touchdown to move them within seven, 10-17.

Fitzpatrick went on to complete 17-of-25 pass attempts for 178 yards, an interception, and a touchdown. Jackson rushed for 80 yards on 15 carries while Lynch rushed for 25 yards on 8 attempts for a combination of 105 rushing yards.

Defensively, Posluszny led the team with nine tackles and also had a tackle for a loss, a pass defended, and the only interception of the game. This was his third interception of the season making him the first Bills LB with three interceptions in a season since London Fletcher in 2006. LB Chris Draft followed Posluszny with eight tackles and S George Wilson had seven.

GAILEY ENTERS YEAR ONE IN BUFFALO

Chan Gailey was named the 15th head coach of the Buffalo Bills on January 19th. The 2010 season will mark Gailey's second tenure as an NFL head coach, previously serving at the helm of the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, when he led the team to back-to-back playoff appearances.

Gailey is entering his 16th season in the NFL – including nine as a coordinator or head coach after beginning his coaching career in the league as a special teams/defensive assistant with the Denver Broncos in 1985.

As an NFL assistant, his teams posted a combined record of 124-82-1. Gailey's teams have advanced to the postseason in 11 of his 15 seasons.

He established a reputation as an innovative offensive coach as a coordinator with Denver (1989-90), Pittsburgh (1996-97), Miami (2000-01) and as a head coach in Dallas (1998-99). Gailey coached in three Super Bowls with Denver (one as a coordinator). In Pittsburgh, Gailey's rushing offense led the NFL in 1997 and ranked second in 1996. In his two seasons as the Cowboys head coach, Dallas scored 37 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-highest total in the NFL over the two-year timeframe. In Miami, Gailey helped Miami post back-to-back 11-5 seasons while bolstering the team's running game.

Gailey served as the head coach at Georgia Tech from 2002-07, becoming the first coach in school history to lead the Yellow Jackets to bowl appearances in his first six seasons. He compiled a 44-33 overall record and his squad averaged 199.3 rushing ypg, which led the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2007 and finished third in the conference in total offense with 384.9 ypg that season.

A total of 46 Yellow Jackets coached by Gailey in his six seasons at Georgia Tech were either selected in the NFL's annual Draft Selection or were signed to a free-agent contract with an NFL team.

In 2008, Gailey returned to the NFL as the offensive coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs. The Chiefs posted a duo of 1,000-yard receivers - TE Tony Gonzalez and WR Dwayne Bowe - for just the third time in team history.

EDWARDS EYES 3-4 OVERHAUL

George Edwards was named defensive coordinator on February 4.

Edwards is entering his 20th year of coaching and is in his first season as the Bills' defensive coordinator.

He spent the last 12 years in the NFL ranks, including the last five as a linebackers coach for the Miami Dolphins. In 2009, the Miami defense rated second in the AFC (fourth in the NFL) in third-down conversion rate, holding opponents to a 34.8 percent success rate (69-of-198). In addition, the Dolphins paced the NFL by recording a sack every 7.4 opponent pass plays, on average (44 sacks on 325 pass plays). Following the 2009 season, Edwards was named the defensive coordinator at the University of Florida on January 8, 2010.

In 2003, Edwards was named the defensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins after serving as the assistant defensive coordinator/linebackers coach the previous year. As Washington's defensive coordinator, Edwards helped LB LaVar Arrington and CB Champ Bailey earn Pro Bowl honors. In 2002, Arrington produced the most productive season of his NFL career with 107 tackles and 11 sacks and earned his second-straight Pro Bowl berth. In addition that year, each of the team's starting linebackers, which also included Jesse Armstead and Jeremiah Trotter, surpassed the 100-tackle plateau.

Edwards began his NFL coaching career as a member of Gailey's staff with the Dallas Cowboys in 1998, where he tutored the team's linebackers for four seasons (1998-2001). Under Edwards' guidance, LB Dexter Coakley, a third-round draft choice in 1997, was selected to the Pro Bowl twice over this four-year span (1999, 2001), as he was Dallas' second-leading tackler all four years.

MODKINS RUNNING THE 'O'

Curtis Modkins joined the Bills as offensive coordinator/running backs coach on January 27. Modkins brings 15 years of coaching experience to Buffalo.

He spent the 2009 season leading the Arizona Cardinals rushing attack to one of their most productive seasons in recent memory. Modkins broke into the NFL as a running backs coach in 2008 with the Kansas City Chiefs.

From 2002-07, he worked at Georgia Tech coaching defensive backs in 2002 and running backs from 2003-07. RBs P.J. Daniels (2003) and Tashard Choice (2006-07) led the ACC in rushing under Modkins' tutelage. Both players developed into fourth-round NFL draft picks – Daniels (132nd overall) to Baltimore in 2006 and Choice (122nd overall in 2008 to Dallas).

DeHAVEN RETURNS TO BUFFALO

Bruce DeHaven re-joined the Bills as its special teams coordinator on February 1. The 2010 season will mark his 24th year in the NFL and 13th with the Bills after previously holding the same position with the team from 1987-99.

Prior to re-joining the Bills, DeHaven served as special teams coach in the NFL with Seattle (2007-09), Dallas (2003-06) and San Francisco (2000-02). In Seattle, his squad averaged 25.3 yards per kickoff return in 2008, ranking second-best in the league. KR Josh Wilson set the single-season Seattle records in kickoff returns (69) and kickoff return yards (1,753) while ranking second in the NFL with eight 40-plus yard kickoff returns. During his tenure in Buffalo, the team made four consecutive Super Bowl appearances, won six AFC East championships and appeared in 20 playoff games. In his 13 years with the Bills, DeHaven helped develop two of the greatest special teams players in NFL history: Mark Pike and Steve Tasker. Tasker was invited to the Pro Bowl seven times as the AFC's Special Teams Player and was voted the 1993 Pro Bowl MVP. In 1998, K Steve Christie set the Bills' single-season club records for points (140) and field goals (33) and became the franchise's all-time leading scorer. In 1996, The Dallas Morning News, in a ranking of the 19 most important statistical categories, named Bills special teams unit the best in the NFL.

WEEK 1 – BILLS 10 vs. DOLPHINS 15
September 12, 2010 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 69,295

The Buffalo Bills kicked off their 2010 season on Sunday afternoon with a 15-10 loss over the Miami Dolphins at a sold out Ralph Wilson Stadium in Orchard Park, New York.

This game marked the start of the Chan Gailey era as Bills head coach and was also the 89th meeting between the two AFC-East rivals, and the first time Miami has been victorious at Ralph Wilson Stadium since 2003.

After the Bills went three and out on their first series, Miami put together a 9-play drive that culminated with a K Dan Carpenter 32-yard field goal to give the Dolphins the early lead. After closing out the first quarter with a 3-0 advantage, the Dolphins found their way to the end zone with a RB Ronnie Brown one yard TD run. Following Miami's scoring drive Bills K Rian Lindell got his team on the board after a 51-yard boot that went through the uprights.

Coming out of the locker room at halftime trailing 10-3, the Bills defense forced back-to-back punting situations for the Dolphins, but unfortunately could not take advantage on the offensive end. After a scoreless third quarter, Miami put together a 9-play drive that ended up with Carpenter giving the Dolphins a 13-3 lead with a little under 10 minutes to play. Immediately following that drive, the Bills offense got in to a rhythm. QB Trent Edwards went a perfect seven for seven on a 10-play drive that was finished off by an Edwards to WR Roscoe Parrish 31-yard touchdown pass to bring the Bills within a field goal. With a little over five minutes remaining in the game, the Bills gave themselves a shot to get back in the game, especially with their crowd of 69,000 screaming fans.

The comeback came to an end when the Bills were pinned back within their 10-yard line and couldn't get a first down to keep the game winning drive alive. Buffalo's offense struggled on the day and found it hard to find a rhythm. QB Trent Edwards led the team in passing, going 18 for 34 and 139 yards with one score, while producing a 73.0 passer rating. Buffalo had six players tally two or more catches, having WR Roscoe Parrish lead the group with a touchdown grab.

The Bills defense fought hard all afternoon, making the Dolphins punt a total of seven times. Leading the defense in tackles was CB Drayton Florence with 10. Fellow defensive back S Donte Whitner wasn't far behind, producing 9 stops on the day. LBs Paul Posluszny and Chris Ellis each tallied a sack, as did S Bryan Scott, to give the Bills three on the day for a loss of 18 yards.

WEEK 2 – BILLS 7 @ PACKERS 34
September 19, 2010 – Lambeau Field – 70,741

The Buffalo Bills traveled to Green Bay, WI on Sunday afternoon to face the Packers at Lambeau Field in their first road battle of the 2010 season. The Bills could not match the Packers' offensive surge in the second half and lost to Green Bay 34-7 in front of a sold out crowd of nearly 71,000.

The match-up was the 11th meeting between the Bills and Packers, with Green Bay leading the regular season series 8-3. Green Bay put together an eight-play drive and the Bills' defense held them to a 44-yard field goal by K Mason Crosby. The Packers put up the next 10 points, with another field goal, followed by a RB Brandon Jackson touchdown run late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 13-0 lead.

Buffalo QB Trent Edwards got the offense in a rhythm at the start of the second quarter, guiding an eight-play, 80-yard drive that culminated in a RB Fred Jackson three-yard touchdown run, his first of the season. Following the score, Buffalo's defense forced QB Aaron Rodgers and the Packers offense to punt in back-to-back series to close out the half trailing by six.

The Bills came out of half time and Edwards threw his first two interceptions of the season, both passes were deflected. The turnovers led to Green Bay scores. The Bills defense fought hard all day and held the Packers rushing attack to under 100 total yards, but defending Rodgers' and the passing game turned out to be a much tougher task.

Buffalo RB Marshawn Lynch got the starting nod at running back, leading the Bills' running game with a game-high 64 yards on 17 carries. RB Fred Jackson contributed 39 yards on the ground, as the Bills out-rushed the Packers 124 to 91. Rookie RB C.J. Spiller hauled in 4 passes for 23 yards, while WRs Steve Johnson and Roscoe Parrish totaled 31 and 34 receiving yards, respectively. Spiller excelled on special teams, returning six kickoffs for 174 yards, with a long of 41. P Brian Moorman also totaled five punts for 232 yards, with a long of 51.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Chris Kelsay with eight stops, seven of them being solo. Fellow LB Andra Davis also produced seven tackles on the day. Davis and CB Leodis McKelvin each forced fumbles, while McKelvin, NT Kyle Williams and S Bryan Scott had tackles for a loss.
