THE COACHES

Tony Sparano became the eighth head coach in Dolphins history on January 16, 2008. He is in his 11th season in the NFL and his 26th year in the coaching profession. In his first year as the Dolphins' head coach in 2008, Sparano guided the team to a single season turnaround matched just once in NFL history. Taking over a 1-15 squad from a year earlier, he led the Dolphins to an 11-5 record and the AFC East title. His ten-game improvement has been achieved only one other time in league annals, in 1999 when the Indianapolis Colts went from 3-13 to 13-3. Before leading the Dolphins, he spent five seasons (2003-07) on the staff of the Dallas Cowboys, during which time the team made three playoff appearances. He tutored the Cowboys' offensive line the last three years while also holding the title of assistant head coach the past two seasons. He coached the team's tight ends his first two seasons in Dallas. Prior to joining the Cowboys, Sparano had NFL stops in Cleveland (1999-2000), Washington (2001) and Jacksonville (2002). Sparano was a four-year letterman as a center at the University of New Haven, where he earned his degree in criminal law. He began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1984 before moving on to Boston University as offensive coordinator in 1989. He returned to New Haven as the school's head coach in 1994, and manned that spot for the next five years.

Bill Belichick is in his 36th season as an NFL coach (16 of which have been as a head coach), and has spent his most recent 11 seasons as head coach of the Patriots. . Before joining the Patriots in 2000, Belichick was the assistant head coach/secondary coach for the New York Jets for three seasons (1997-1999), and had the responsibility of calling defensive plays. He also spent one year with the Patriots prior to his current tenure in 1996, again serving as assistant coach/secondary coach for the team that went to Super Bowl XXXI. His first experience as an NFL head coach came from 1991-1995 when he was at the helm of the Cleveland Browns. In 1979, Belichick was with the New York Giants as a defensive assistant and special teams coach, starting his 12-year tenure with the team. After the 1980 campaign, he drew the added responsibility of coaching the Giants linebackers. While continuing to coach the linebackers, in 1983 his role with the defensive unit increased. He was named defensive coordinator in 1985, a position he held for the next six seasons. Before his run with the giants, Belichick was an assistant special teams coach with the Denver Broncos in 1978, and the Detroit Lions in 1976 and 1977 and at the age of 23 was special assistant to Baltimore Colts head coach Ted Marchibroda in 1975. Belichick lettered in football at Wesleyan University.

Patriots LB Pierre Woods was a teammate of Dolphins QB Chad Henne and T Jake Long at the University of Michigan.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2010

S Jeremiah Bell

- Enters 2010 with 7.5 career sacks. With 2.5 sacks, Bell would have 10.0 for his career. The safety already had the most career sacks for a defensive back in team history.

- With 3.5 sacks in 2010, Bell would break the team record of 3.0 sacks in a season by a defensive back. Bell had 3.0 sacks in 2005 and is tied with Liffort Hobley (1990), Jerry Wilson (1999) and Nate Jones (2008).

- If Bell starts in every game in 2010, Bell would play in all 16 games for the third consecutive season. In 2010, Bell has started the team's first three contests.

- Bell is looking to garner 100 or more tackles for the third consecutive season. He notched a career-high 120 tackles in 2008 and followed this up with 113 in 2009. In 2010, Bell leads the team with 29 tackles and is on pace for 155 on the year.

WR Davone Bess

- Looks to have the most receptions in team history in his first three seasons. Bess had 143 receptions in his first three seasons. WR Chris Chambers (2001-03) had 164 receptions in his first three seasons while WR Oronde Gadsden (2001-03) notched 152 catches. RB Troy Stradford (1987-89) also has 129 receptions.

- Bess has 137 catches in his career and with 63 receptions, Bess will have notched 200 for his career. Bess had a career-high 76 receptions in 2009.

RB Ronnie Brown

- Currently has 4,280 rushing yards and needs 720 yards to become the third rusher in team history to have 5,000 rushing yards, joining Larry Csonka (6,737) and Ricky Williams (5012).

- With a 1,000 yard rushing season, would become just the third Dolphin to account for multiple 1,000 yard seasons, joining Larry Csonka (1971-73) and Ricky Williams (2002-03, 09).

- Currently has 32 rushing touchdowns. Brown needs one touchdown to tie Karim Abdul-Jabbar for the third most rushing scores in team history.

- Currently has 15 100-yard rushing games in his career and is tied with Larry Csonka for second in team history. His next 100-yard rushing game would have Brown in sole possession of second place, trailing Ricky Williams with 24.

- Brown has led the team four times in rushing (2005-08). He currently trails Larry Csonka, who led the team in rushing six times (1970-74, 79).

T Vernon Carey

- Enters 2010 having played in 16 consecutive games for the third season in a row. In 2010, Carey has started the team's first three games.

- Has played in 95 consecutive contests and has started 78 games in a row.

CB Vontae Davis

- Led the team with four interceptions in 2009 as a rookie and is looking to become the first player to lead the team in interceptions in consecutive seasons since 2003, when

Patrick Surtain had six in 2002, followed by seven in 2003.

- If Davis leads the team in interceptions this season, he will become the first player since 1989 to lead the team in interceptions in their first two seasons of his NFL career in Miami. FS Louis Oliver led the team with four in 1989, and tied for the team lead with five in 1990. No player in team history has led the team in interceptions in their first two seasons of their NFL career outright. In 2010, he ranks second on the team with one interception.

Brian Hartline

- Led the team in touchdown receptions with three as a rookie and is looking to become the first player to lead the team in receptions in consecutive seasons since 2005, when Chris Chambers paced the team with seven in 2004 and 11 in 2005. In 2010, Hartline is tied for the team lead with one touchdown.

- If Hartline leads the team in touchdowns this season, he will become the first player since 1998 to lead the team in touchdowns in their first two seasons of his NFL career in Miami. Oronde Gadsden tied for the team in touchdowns in 1998 with seven and paced the team with six in 1999.

- Led the team in average yards per catch with 16.3 and is looking the first player to lead Miami in average yards per catch since 1999. Oronde Gadsden led the team in average yards per reception 1998 with 14.9 and 16.7 in 1999. In 2010, Hartline leads the team with a 14.0 yard per catch average.

Chad Henne

- Has 3,604 career passing yards, good for seventh all time in team history. Needs 462 passing yards to surpass Chad Pennington (4,066) for sixth place in team history.

- Has nine wins as a starting quarterback, tied for eighth in team history. Henne needs two wins to tie Earl Morrall and Chad Pennington (11) and five to tie Don Strock (14).

Brandon Marshall

- Looks to catch over 100 receptions for the fourth consecutive season. At Denver, Marshall had 102 catches in 2007, 104 in 2008 and 101 in 2009. No receiver has caught 100 passes in a season in team history. The team record for receptions is 90 by O.J. McDuffie in 1998. Marshall had eight catches at Buffalo (9/12) and is on pace for 129 receptions on the year. In 2010, Marshall has 22 receptions and is on pace for 117 on the year.

RB Ricky Williams

- Currently has 5,883 rushing yards in a Miami uniform. With 117 yards, he will become the second player in team history with 6,000 rushing yards, joining Larry Csonka (6,737).

- Currently has 9,012 rushing yards and needs 988 yards to reach 10,000 in his career.

- Currently has 1,385 rushing attempts with Miami, good for second in team history and would need 121 attempts to tie Larry Csonka for the highest amount in team history (1,506).

- Currently has 46 rushing touchdowns with Miami, good for second in team history. Williams trails Larry Csonka (53) for most rushing touchdowns in team history.

LONG IMPACT

In 2008, Jake Long became just the fourth overall No. 1 selection, since 1970 when the AFL and NFL merged, to play in the Pro Bowl following his rookie campaign. He is the first since New Orleans Saints running back George Rogers, who accomplished the feat in 1981. Long joins the exclusive company of Rogers, Houston Oilers running back Earl Campbell (1978) and Detroit Lions running back Billy Sims (1980), who were each selected to the annual NFL all star game after being the top selection. In 2009, Long started all 16 games at left tackle for the second straight season and was named a starter on the AFC Pro Bowl squad. Long became the first Dolphins offensive lineman to be selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Richmond Webb was named to seven straight Pro Bowls (1990-96).

FASANO GOES DEEP

Anthony Fasano recorded the seventh longest reception of his career in the second quarter at Buffalo (9/12) when he connected with Chad Henne on a 21-yard reception in the second quarter. The play brought the Dolphins to the one-yard line where RB Ronnie Brown punched it in on the next play for a score and 10-0 Miami lead.

POLITE = FIRST DOWN

Lousaka Polite converted one third and one opportunity vs. the New York Jets (9/26). It was the fourth time in four attempts on the season that Polite came though on the crucial down. Polite finished 16-of-16 in 2009 on third or fourth and one carries and one of one on third and one reception. Eight of those 14 drives (two carries were on the same drive) resulted in touchdowns for Miami.

100-YARD RICKY

Ricky Williams has accounted for a franchise record 24 100-yard rushing games as a Dolphin. He tied the previous mark of 15, first set by Larry Csonka, with a 104-yard effort (31 atts.) at Dallas (11/27/03) on Thanksgiving Day. Williams surpassed the mark with a 107-yard, 1 TD performance (18 atts.) two weeks later against Philadelphia (12/15) in a Monday night contest. In addition, Williams holds the two highest single-season totals in club annals. In his five seasons with the club, the Dolphins have posted a mark of 20-4 when he has run for 100 yards or more. Overall in his eight NFL seasons, the teams for which Williams has played have produced a record of 27-9 in games when he has reached the 100-yard rushing plateau.

CORNERING THE MARKET

After rotating between safety and cornerback, former first-round pick Jason Allen has found a home at corner in defensive coordinator Mike Nolan's defense. Allen recorded two interceptions for the first time in his career at Minnesota (9/19). His first interception and sixth of his career when he caught a pass from Brett Favre in the third quarter at Minnesota near the Dolphins goal line. He recorded another in the fourth quarter on a long pass from Favre. It was the first interception for Allen since November 2, 2008, when he picked off a pass from Jay Cutler at the Denver Broncos. It was the first time a Dolphins defender had two interceptions in a game was October 4, 2009 when Will Allen picked off two passes against the Buffalo Bills. Allen also added 10 tackles and three passes defended.

BELL MAKES PRO BOWL

In 2009, safety Jeremiah Bell earned his first Pro Bowl honor of NFL career, becoming just the fifth safety in team history to earn that recognition (also Jake Scott, 1971-75; Dick Anderson, 1972-74; Tim Foley, 1979; and Brock Marion, 2000, 2002-03). Bell was also named co-winner of the 2009 Don Shula Leadership Award as voted by his teammates after he finished first on the Dolphins in tackles with 113 stops, was second on the team in interceptions with three picks that he returned a total of 48 yards, had 1.5 sacks for a total of eight yards in losses and added nine passes defended. It was the second straight season (and the second of his career) that Bell recorded 100 or more tackles.

BELL FOR 100

Jeremiah Bell is looking to garner 100 or more tackles for the third consecutive season. He notched a career-high 120 tackles in 2008 and followed this up with 113 in 2009. In 2010, Bell leads the team with 29 tackles and is on pace for 155 on the year.

BELL BLOCKS

Jeremiah Bell blocked the first kick of his career, when he batted away a 61-yard kick by New York Jets Nick Folk to end the first half (9/26). It was the first blocked field goal by the Dolphins since Jason Taylor blocked the Baltimore Ravens Matt Stover 50-yard field goal attempt on December 12, 2007.

DANSBY DELIVERS

Miami picked up the top defensive free agent in free agency when they signed Karlos Dansby from the Arizona Cardinals. Equally adept at playing the run, rushing the passer and dropping into coverage, the linebacker accounted for 25.5 sacks, 10 interceptions, 13 forced fumbles and nine fumble recoveries in six seasons with Arizona (2004-09). Dansby led the Cardinals with 113 tackles (90 solo) during the regular season and added one sack, an interception and a forced fumble. It marked the third consecutive season and the fourth time in the previous five years he surpassed 100 tackles. In 2010, Dansby leads the linebackers and ranks second on the team with 25 tackles.

HIGH PRAISE FOR DAVIS

Vontae Davis has emerged as one of the top young defensive backs in the NFL. In 2010, the second-year player from Illinois has eight tackles, 1 interception and three passes defensed. Davis recorded his first interception of the season and fifth of his career at Minnesota (9/19), when he made a diving, acrobatic play on a batted ball from Vikings QB Brett Favre. After the game, the future Hall of Fame quarterback had high praise for Davis. "No. 21, I felt like was one of the best corners in this league, especially that no one knows about," Favre said, referring to Davis by jersey number.

PROLIFIC PUNTER

Brandon Fields put together one of the best seasons by a punter in team history in 2009. The third year punter from Michigan State had a gross punting average of 46.3 yards and tied John Kidd (1996) for the highest gross punting average in team history. Fields also had a net punting average of 39.8 yards, the highest in team history. He surpassed the record set by Donnie Jones in 2005. Team records for this statistics were started in 1982.

CARPENTER KICKS

Dan Carpenter connected on two field goals from 32 and 43 yards at Buffalo (9/12). In 2009, the Montana product finished fourth in the AFC in field goal percentage (89.3), connecting on 25 of 28 field goals. The 89.3 success rate was good for fourth in team history. The highest field goal percentage for a season in Dolphin team history is the 91.3% success rate accomplished by Jay Feeley in 2007, when he converted on 21 of his 23 kicks. Before his 38-yard miss at Jacksonville (12/13), Carpenter had previously made 17 consecutive kicks, good for second most in team history.

CARPENTER GAME WINNERS

Dan Carpenter had two game-winning kicks in 2009 (on Dec. 6th vs. New England and Nov. 15th vs. Tampa Bay). The kicker had three fourth quarter (or overtime) game-winning kicks in his career (kicks that gave the Dolphins their final lead either from tie situations or from deficits) - two in 2009 and one in 2008. Carpenter is 3-3 in potential game-winning field goal attempts in the fourth quarter (or overtime) that either tied the game or gave the Dolphins their final lead:

ROOKIE STARTERS

In the season opener at Buffalo (9/12), three 2010 draft picks saw significant game action. G John Jerry, a third-round pick in the 2010 draft from the University of Mississippi started at right guard. The last rookie opening day starter at guard was Donald Thomas (9/7/08 vs. NYJ). DE Jared Odrick, a first-round pick in the 2010 draft from Penn State started at right defensive end. The last rookie opening day starter at defensive end was Kendall Langford (9/7/08 vs. NYJ). LB Koa Misi recorded his first career sack in the fourth quarter at Buffalo on then Bills QB Trent Edwards. The 2010 second-round draft pick recorded 10.5 sacks in his career at Utah. Misi added four tackles, two quarterback pressures and one tackle for loss at Buffalo.

MIAMI DOLPHINS INTERACTIVE MEDIA GUIDE

This season the Miami Dolphins have created an interactive media guide that will provide users with a great deal of information including updated bios, weekly releases, statistics, rosters and other unique information about the organization in a quick, efficient downloadable format. To update the contents of this Interactive Media Guide, plug the flash drive into any available USB port on your computer with a high speed Internet connection. The process will take a few minutes to update. When the interactive media guide is updated, users will not require an Internet connection for continued use. Please note the interactive media guide will be updated every Tuesday in preparation for the coming week's game. If you encounter any questions about your interactive media guide, please contact a member of the Miami Dolphins Media Relations staff at (954) 452-7070 or e-mail JJenkins@dolphins.com or dvolner@dolphins.com.

MIAMI DOLPHINS MEDIA WEBSITE

To further assist the media in their coverage of the Miami Dolphins, please visit the team's media website at media.miamidolphins.com. Through this site, accredited media ONLY will be able to download feature news-clip files of current and former Dolphin players and coaches, game books from past Dolphin games, transcripts from press conferences, game releases, daily releases and much more. For more information on how to access this website, please contact the media relations department at (954) 452-7010. Accredited media can follow the Miami Dolphins via the Media Relations Twitter account. <http://twitter.com/DolphinsMEDIA> will provide brief informational content such as team related updates, practice schedule changes, notes and interesting facts during the course of the 2010 Miami Dolphins season.

Veteran Additions: None. Draft Choices/College Free Agents: None. Losses from 2009: None.

Chad Pennington started the first three games of 2009 before injuring his shoulder at San Diego (9/27) in the third quarter. He did not return to the game and was later placed on injured reserve. Pennington was named as the team's starting quarterback on August 25, 2008 by Head Coach Tony Sparano after signing with the team as a free agent on August 9, 2008. Pennington started all 16 regular season games and completed 321 of 476 passes for 3,653 yards with 19 TDs and seven INTs. He was also named winner of the 2008 Don Shula Leadership Award and co-winner of the Dan Marino MVP Award (along with Joey Porter). Pennington injured his shoulder at San Diego (9/27) and was placed on injured reserve.

Chad Henne served as the third quarterback in the first two games of the season. He entered the game at San Diego (9/27) in the third quarter and completed 10 of 19 passes for 92 yards and interception. Henne got his first career start vs. Buffalo (10/4) and completed 14 of 22 passes for 115 yards and one touchdown in the victory against the Bills. Henne completed his first touchdown pass to Brian Hartline and finished the game with a 92.0 QB Rating. He followed with the best game in his young career, as he engineered his first fourth quarter comeback of his career in a 31-27 victory over the New York Jets (10/12), leading the team on a 13-play 70-yard drive that lasted 5:06. He finished the night completing 20 of 26 passes for 241 yards, two touchdowns and no turnovers. He had the longest completion of his career in the first quarter on a 59-yard pass to Ricky Williams. The reception tied for the longest of Williams' career, equaling a mark he set vs. the Jets (12/28/03). Henne also connected with WR Ted Ginn, Jr. for a 53-yard touchdown pass. It was Ginn's longest reception for a touchdown in his career, besting a 41-yard touchdown from QB Chad Pennington at the New York Jets (12/28/08). Henne went 18-36 for 211 yards with no touchdown and two interceptions vs. New Orleans (10/25), connecting on a 67-yard pass to WR Brian Hartline, at the time the longest pass completion of his career. Making his first career NFL start on the road, Henne was 12-21 for 112 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in Miami's 30-25 win at the New York Jets (11/1). His touchdown pass was a five yard TD toss to TE Joey Haynos with 8:48 left in the game to give the Dolphins their final points in that contest. Was 19-34 for 219 yards with no touchdowns or interceptions at New England (11/8). Henne led the Dolphins back from a 23-22 deficit with 1:14 left in the game, going 2-3 for 41 yards in the final drive, covering five plays and 77 yards, culminating in a 25-yard field goal with ten seconds left for a 25-22 win vs. Tampa Bay (11/15). Finished the day 17-31 for 175 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His touchdown was a five yard pass to TE Kory Sperry. Was 29-52 for 335 yards with two touchdowns and one interception vs. New England (12/6). His touchdowns came on a 13-yard scoring pass to WR Davone Bess and a seven-yard touchdown pass to WR Brian Hartline. At the time his attempts, completions, and yards passing all represented a single game career high. It was his first career game of throwing for 300 or more yards. Henne led the Dolphins back from a 21-19 deficit starting the fourth quarter, going 6-16 for 79 yards in the final quarter, culminating in a ten-play, 51-yard drive that resulted in Dan Carpenter's 41-yard field goal with 1:02 left for a 22-21 win. It was Henne's third fourth-quarter comeback this season and in his career. Was 21-29 for 220 yards with no touchdowns and one interception Jacksonville (12/13). Henne added four rushes for one yard and one touchdown, coming on a one-yard run. It was his first career rushing touchdown. Against the Jaguars, Henne completed 17 straight passes, which is tied for the most consecutive completions overall in Dolphin history and the most consecutive completions in a single game in team history. Was 35-55 for 322 yards with one touchdown and one interception vs. Houston (12/27). His touchdown came on a ten-yard pass to RB Lex Hilliard. Henne's 55 attempts was tied for the sixth highest regular season attempt total (and tied for the seventh highest total including playoffs) in team history. In addition, coupled with his 349 yards passing on Dec. 20th at Tennessee (12/20), it marked the first time a Dolphin quarterback threw for 300 or more yards in consecutive games since Dan Marino threw for 355 yards on Dec. 21, 1998 vs. Denver, followed by his 320 yards passing on Dec. 27, 1998 at Atlanta. RTyler Thigpen became the fourth quarterback to see game action in 2009 playing in Miami's final game vs. Pittsburgh (1/3/10). He served in a relief role went 4-8 for 83 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. His touchdown pass came on a 34-yard scoring strike to Davone Bess. He was the third quarterback his other 12 games with the Dolphins this season. Before joining the Dolphins he also played in one game in a reserve role with Kansas City and was acquired from the Chiefs on Sept. 29, 2009 in exchange for a 2010 undisclosed draft choice.

Ronnie Brown started the season opener against Atlanta (9/13), leading the team with 43 rushing yards on 10 carries and catching three passes for 10 yards. Brown added 136 yards rushing and two touchdowns on Monday Night Football against Indianapolis (9/21) on 24 carries. The Auburn product had 18 carries for 75 yards at San Diego (9/27) and notched his 15th career 100 yard rushing game with 115 yards on 20 attempts and two touchdowns vs. Buffalo (10/4). Brown added another impressive performance on Monday Night Football vs. the New York Jets (10/12) with 74 yards and two touchdowns, his sixth game where he scored multiple times on the ground. Had 16 carries for 48 yards and one touchdown vs. New Orleans (10/25), coming on an eight-yard TD run. In that contest, he moved past Mercury Morris and into third place among the Dolphins career rushing leaders. He also broke a tie with Morris and moved into sole possession of fourth place among the team's all-time rushing touchdown leaders. Led the Dolphins in rushing with 15 carries for 48 yards vs. New England (11/8) and was 1-2 passing out of the Wildcat formation for one yard and a touchdown. His one-yard TD pass was to TE Joey Haynos. It was his first touchdown pass of the season and the second TD pass of his career. Had 12 carries for 82 yards and one touchdown, coming on a one-yard run vs. Tampa Bay (11/15). Had a run of 45 yards in that contest from the Wildcat formation and went over the 4,000 career yards rushing figure in the contest. Was forced from the game permanently with a foot injury and later placed on injured reserve. Ricky Williams played in a reserve role in the season opener against Atlanta (9/13), with a game-high 5.6 yard average per carry (seven rushes for 39 yards). Williams continued his strong play against the Falcons, scoring once on a nine-yard pass from Chad Pennington. It was the running backs sixth touchdown against the Falcons (Five rushing, one receiving) over the course of his career (with Miami and New Orleans). He added 69 yards on 19 rushes vs. Indianapolis (9/21) and 55 yards on eight carries and a touchdown at San Diego (9/27). The University of Texas product became the 40th player to go over 8,000 total yards vs. Buffalo (10/4), finishing the game with 85 yards on 16 carries and one touchdown and led Miami with a 6.2 yard average vs. the New York Jets (10/12). He also equaled his career-high with a 59 reception on a screen play. Williams led the team in receiving yardage with two catches for 41 yards and added eight rushes for 27 yards at the New York Jets (11/1). Led the Dolphins in rushing with 20 carries for 102 yards and added two catches for five yards vs. Tampa Bay (11/15). It was his first 100-yard rushing game of the season. Led the Dolphins in rushing with 22 carries for 119 yards and two touchdowns and added two catches for 19 yards and one touchdown at Carolina (11/19). The touchdown runs came on one and 46-yard TD runs, while the scoring reception came on a 14-yard pass from QB Chad Henne. It was the first time in his career Williams registered a touchdown run and a touchdown catch in the same game and he was named AFC Player of the Week for his efforts. In 2008, he finished second on the squad with 659 yards rushing on 160 attempts. Patrick Cobbs continued to show his versatility in 2009 after handling running, receiving and special teams duties in 2008. He was active in all five games before tearing his ACL vs. the New York Jets (10/12). The North Texas product had two kick-off returns for 37 yards in the season opener against the Falcons (9/13). Last season, Cobbs rushed 12 times for 88 yards and a TD. He also had 19 receptions for 275 yards and two touchdowns. Lousaka Polite flashed in the season opener against Atlanta (9/13), rushing two times for five yards including a nine-yard run which was the second longest of his career. Polite was signed as a free agent on October 16, 2008, bringing with him four years of NFL experience, including three with the Cowboys (2004-06), with whom he first signed as an undrafted college free agent in 2004. He played in each of the last 11 games, including five starts. He rushed 23 times for 85 yards. Of his 23 rush attempts, 10 came on either third-and-1 or fourth-and-1 and he converted on nine, seven of which resulted in scoring drive (6 TDs, 1 FG). He added six receptions for 24 yards. Lex Hilliard finished 2009 with 23 carries for 89 yards and one touchdown and added 20 catches for 158 yards and two touchdowns. The running back also was third on the Dolphins in special teams tackles with 14 stops. The Montana product had three carries for 12 yards and one touchdown vs. Houston (12/27), coming on a two-yard run. It was his first career NFL touchdown. Hilliard also led the Dolphins in receiving with nine catches for 74 yards and a touchdown, coming on a ten-yard pass from Chad Henne. He had one rush for nine yards vs. Pittsburgh (1/3/10) and added on catch, an 11-yard touchdown reception from Henne.

He added four rushes for 29 yards and one touchdown. With his three touchdown receptions, he became the first Dolphin rookie to lead the team in touchdown receptions since Chris Chambers had seven touchdown catches in his rookie season in 2001. Hartline also led the team with a 16.3 yards per catch average. He was the first rookie to lead the Dolphins in average yards per catch (minimum 500 yards) since Chambers, who averaged 18.4 yards per catch (48 catches for 883 yards) in 2001. Hartline caught two passes for 13 yards in his first career regular season game against Atlanta (9/13) and two for 23 yards vs. Indianapolis (9/21). He caught his first career touchdown, from five yards out vs. Buffalo (10/4). Led the Dolphins in reception yardage with three catches for 94 yards, including a 67-yard catch vs. New Orleans (10/25). At the time it was the highest reception yardage total of his career and the 67-yard reception was the longest catch of his career. Led the Dolphins in reception yardage with two catches for 96 yards at Tennessee (12/20), at the time his single game career best for reception yards. Had first career rushing touchdown vs. Pittsburgh (1/13/10), when he ran in a reverse from 16 yards in for the score.. Hartline was a three-year letterman and two year starter at Ohio State and finished his collegiate career with 90 catches for 1,429 yards (15.9 avg.) and 12 touchdowns.

Vernon Carey started all 16 games in 2009. and has played in 92 straight regular season games and has started 75 regular season games in a row. Carey was part of offensive line that didn't allow a sack for two straight games (Games 9-10) for the first time since Games 8-9 of the 2005 season. Jake Long started all 16 games this season and has started all 32 games of his career at left tackle, including all 16 games as a rookie in 2008. Long was part of offensive line that didn't allow a sack for two straight games (Games 9-10) for the first time since Games 8-9 of the 2005 season.. The offensive tackle also helped the Dolphins rush for 250 yards vs. Buffalo (10/4) (the most rushing yards by Miami since Dec. 1, 2002 when they rushed for 270 yards at Buffalo) and 239 yards vs. Indianapolis (9/21). The Michigan product was named as a starter at tackle on the 2010 AFC Pro Bowl team. It is his second Pro Bowl selection in his two seasons in the league, having been named to the AFC Pro Bowl team as a reserve a year ago. Long became the first Dolphin offensive lineman to be selected to back-to-back Pro Bowls since Richmond Webb was named to seven straight Pro Bowls (1990-96).. In addition, Long joined Webb (1992-95) as the only Dolphin offensive tackles to be named as Pro Bowl starters. 2008 Sixth-round draft choice Donald Thomas started the first 12 games at right guard and played in a reserve role four times this season. He sustained a foot injury in the opener against the Jets (9/7/08) and was placed on injured reserve two days later, but rebounded with a strong camp in 2009 and won back his starting position. Miami signed tackle Lydon Murtha from the Detroit Lions practice squad after Shawn Murphy was released on October 20, 2009. Joe Berger signed a multi-year contract with the Dolphins as an unrestricted free agent from Dallas on February 27, 2009 and is familiar with Head Coach Tony Sparano from their time together with the Cowboys. He started six times at center and played in a reserve role ten games this season. Berger's start at center on at Buffalo (11/29) was his first as a Dolphin and the first of his NFL career.

2	Brandon Fields	6-5	245	4	Michigan St.
5	Dan Carpenter	6-2	225	3	Montana
92	John Denney	6-5	255	6	BYU

The Dolphins' kicking tandem in 2008 consisted of a second-year performer in Brandon Fields and a rookie in placekicker Dan Carpenter. Fields put together one of the best seasons by a punter in team history. The third year punter from Michigan State had a gross punting average of 46.3 yards and tied P John Kidd (1996) for the highest gross punting average in team history. Fields also had a net punting average of 39.8 yards, the highest in team history. He surpassed the record set by P Donnie Jones in 2005. Team records for this statistics were started in 1982. Carpenter connected a 25-yard field goal against Pittsburgh (1/3/10) to cap off a consistent season. The second year player from Montana finished fourth in the AFC in field goal percentage (89.3), connecting on 25 of 28 field goals. The 89.3 success rate was good for fourth in team history. John Denney held down long-snapping duties for the fifth season and continued his consistent play.

FIN FACTS

K Dan Carpenter

- With Dan making his living by using his feet, he has a very unique feature. One of his feet is 1/2 size larger than the other. However it makes life easier as a professional kicker as they usually wear two different shoes when they kick.

LB Channing Crowder

- Channing has always had an affection for animals – and not just his Rottweiler, L.T. While at the University of Florida, he wrestled alligators and wild boars. "The alligator was about eight feet and we just grabbed the snout and snatched it up," Crowder said. "It was one of those late nights in Gainesville. We were bored and there was nothing better to do."

P Brandon Fields

- Brandon's ultimate goal is to be a chiropractor once his football career has concluded. It's not hard to understand considering the long line of chiropractors in his family. It consists of his father, David, his brother, two uncles and five cousins. In addition his wife, Katie, who he married during the 2008 offseason, is currently pursuing her degree in chiropractic medicine at Palmer College of Chiropractic in Port Orange, Fla.

RB Lex Hilliard

- Growing up in Kalispell, Montana, Lex had a unique way to miss defenders both on and off the field. He would constantly try to avoid Charlie, his German Shepherd, from nipping at his heels using techniques that he would use to great advantage on the football field. "You're riding a bike, he'd try to bite the tires. I'm out in the yard playing football, he'd try to bite my ankles," said Lex who joked that he developed his quick twitch and high stepping running style from the elusiveness he showed in evading Charlie.

QB Chad Pennington

- Many athletes have interesting hobbies and interests off the field and Chad is no different. However, one of his interests involves a sport where some of the competitors can weigh in excess of 1,500 pounds. Chad's #10 Bucking Bulls supplies bulls for the Professional Bull Riders Tour, which tours around North and South America.

LB Cameron Wake

- Cameron took an unusual route to the NFL. Following his career at Penn State, he signed with the New York Giants as an undrafted free agent. Released by the Giants on June 22, 2005, Cameron entered the corporate world and spent 2006 as a mortgage broker. He resumed his professional football career in Canada with the B.C. Lions. "Everybody has their past," Cameron said. "I guess mine was a little more unorthodox than most."
