NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (3-1) vs. BALTIMORE RAVENS (4-1)

Sun., Oct. 17, 2010 ★ Gillette Stadium (68,756) ★ 1:00 p.m. EDT

The New England Patriots return from the Bye Week to face the Baltimore Ravens at Gillette Stadium. Last season, the Patriots beat Baltimore in the regular-season, 27-21, but suffered their first home loss in a postseason game at Gillette Stadium when Baltimore beat the Patriots, 33-14, in a Wild Card matchup.

The Patriots improved to a 3-1 record following a 41-14 victory on Monday Night Football against AFC Division rival Miami on Oct. 4. The Patriots have started the season with at least three wins in their first four games for the fifth straight season and are the only NFL team to begin each of the last five seasons with a record of 3-1 or better through their first four games. With the 41 points against Miami, the Patriots are first in the NFL with an average of 32.8 points per game. Against Miami, the Patriots became the first team in NFL history to score a touchdown five different ways with a rushing touchdown, a receiving touchdown, a kickoff returned for a touchdown, a blocked field goal returned for a touchdown and an interception returned for a touchdown.

Safety Patrick Chung became the first NFL player to block a field goal and a punt in the same game since CB Ramon Walker of Houston accomplished the feat vs. New England on Nov. 23, 2003. He added to his impressive game against the Dolphins with an interception that he returned 51 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

THE PATRIOTS WANT TO HELP KICK CANCER IN 2010

Through the New England Patriots Charitable Foundation's "Kick Cancer" campaign, a season-long initiative to increase cancer awareness among Patriots fans, the team will promote breast cancer awareness during the month of October. In partnership with Re/Max of New England, Susan G. Komen for the Cure and American Airlines, the Patriots will honor 10 breast cancer survivors at the Oct. 17 game against the Baltimore Ravens. Patriots fans who donate to Susan G. Komen will receive a pink game towel and fans will be able to donate airline miles through American Airlines to support breast cancer causes. The Patriots are also supporting the NFL's league-wide breast cancer awareness initiative called "A Crucial Catch: Annual Screening Saves Lives." Patriots players and coaches will wear pink apparel during each October game, including LB Gary Guyton, whose mother is a breast cancer survivor. For

PATRIOTS VS. RAVENS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Ravens have squared off five times in the regular season since the Baltimore franchise was founded following the Cleveland Browns' move to Baltimore in 1996. New England owns a perfect 5-0 record over Baltimore, including a 27-21 victory at Gillette Stadium in Week 4 of the 2009 season. The Patriots and Ravens played in their first postseason meeting last year with Baltimore taking a 33-14 win in a Wild Card matchup at Gillette Stadium on January 10, 2010.

The Ravens' first trip to Gillette Stadium came on Nov. 28, 2004 with the Patriots claiming a 24-3 victory. Baltimore's first visit to Foxborough was the final game of the 1999 regular season, a 20-3 New England win. The first meeting between the teams came during the Ravens' first season in Baltimore, when the Patriots prevailed 46-38 on Oct. 6, 1996. The 84 total points scored by both teams in that game rank as the second-highest total number of points in a game in Patriots history.

2009 REGULAR SEASON MEETING:

Patriots 27, Ravens 21

October 4, 2009 ★ Gillette Stadium

	1	2	3	4	Final
Baltimore Ravens	7	0	7	7	- 21
New England Patriots	3	14	7	3	- 27

The New England Patriots improved to 3-1 with a 27-21 victory over the Baltimore Ravens. The New England defense held the Ravens on two fourth-down attempts in the fourth quarter to secure the win. Trailing 27-21 with just over five minutes to play, Baltimore attempted a fourth-down play on a fourth-and-one situation from its own 45-yard line. LB Gary Guyton and S Brandon McGowan stopped RB Willie McGahee on a run up the middle for no gain. After forcing the Patriots to punt, Baltimore got the ball back with 3:32 to play and drove to the 14-yard line. QB Joe Flacco's fourth-down pass fell incomplete with 32 seconds to play, allowing the Patriots to run out the clock to remain unbeaten against the Ravens.

New England struck quickly when LB Eric Alexander forced a fumble on the game's opening kickoff which McGowan recovered at the Baltimore 12-yard line. But the Patriots could not get a first down and were forced to settle for a field goal and a 3-0 lead. The Ravens responded with a 15-play, 81-yard drive that ended in a 20-yard touchdown pass to WR Derrick Mason for a 7-3 lead. The Patriots scored 14 points in the second quarter to take a 17-7 halftime lead. QB Tom Brady capped a 76-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run to make it 10-7, and RB Sammy Morris scored on a 12-yard run with under five minutes to play in the first half. Baltimore had an opportunity to cut the deficit to three on the ensuing drive when they marched to the New England 17-yard line with 1:15 to go, but CB Leigh Bodden picked off a Flacco pass to preserve the 17-7 lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Baltimore made it 17-14 when LB Terrell Suggs forced a fumble on a sack of Brady that was recovered by DE Dwan Edwards in the end zone with 6:19 left in the third quarter. Brady was unshaken and on the next series directed a scoring drive that ended in a 14-yard touchdown pass to WR Randy Moss for a 24-14 New England lead. Baltimore answered with an 80-yard drive that ended in a 13-yard scoring pass from Flacco to McGahee early in the fourth quarter to cut the New England lead to 24-21. New England went on a 15-play, 59-yard drive that took 7:50 off the clock on the next series before adding a field goal for a 27-21 lead.

The Patriots held the Ravens to 21 total points (and just 14 points on offense) after the Ravens came into the game ranked second in the NFL averaging 34.3 points per game.

October 4, 2010 ★ Sun Life Stadium

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	0	6	21	14	— 41
Miami Dolphins	7	0	7	0	— 14

Safety Patrick Chung blocked two kicks and returned an interception for a touchdown, and New England scored two times on special teams to help the Patriots to a 41-14 victory in a Monday Night Football game against AFC East Divisional rival Miami at Sun Life Stadium.

Chung blocked a punt in the third quarter to set up a touchdown and then blocked a field goal in the fourth quarter that was returned 35 yards for a touchdown by CB Kyle Arrington. Chung capped off his big day with an interception that he returned 51 yards for a touchdown later in the fourth quarter.

QB Tom Brady became the 11th NFL quarterback to register 100 wins as a starter. Brady reached the milestone in the fewest number of starts (131) among quarterbacks who began their careers in the Super Bowl era.

New England trailed 7-6 at halftime, but quickly took control in the second half. WR Brandon Tate returned the second half kickoff 103 yards for a touchdown, the second time in 2010 that he took the second half kickoff for a score. Two minutes later, the Patriots added to their lead after Chung blocked a punt to help set up a touchdown. After the Patriots' defense held Miami on three straight plays, Chung blocked a punt that was recovered by LB Brandon Spikes at the Miami 15-yard line. Two plays later, RB BenJarvus Green-Ellis scored on a 12-yard run for a 20-7 lead.

After Miami closed the gap to 20-14 with a 28-yard touchdown pass to RB Ricky Williams, Brady put together a 12-play, 78-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard touchdown pass to RB Danny Woodhead for a 27-14 lead heading into the final quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter Miami lined up for a 53-yard field goal, but Chung blocked the kick and Arrington scooped up the loose football and ran 35 yards for a touchdown and a 24-14 New England lead. Midway through the final quarter, Chung intercepted a QB Chad Henne pass intended for WR Brandon Marshall and ran 51 yards for a touchdown and a 41-14 lead.

Another big contributor to the win was LB Ron Ninkovich, who had his first two NFL interceptions after picking off Henne in the first quarter and the second quarter inside New England territory.

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 16 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won nine division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than three berths.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 174 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 16 seasons of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team. The Patriots have now won 9 or more games in 13 of the 16 seasons that Robert Kraft has owned the team.

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. He spent 20 years as an assistant coach in the NFL and this is his 16th season as a head coach. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the only man in NFL history to serve 20 or more seasons as an assistant coach and at least 15 seasons as a head coach. Over a 100-game span from 2003-08, Belichick directed the team to an 82-18 record, marking the best 100-game span for any team in NFL history. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 90-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times and has produced seven division championships, including five straight from 2003-07. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), and established the record for consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second-best postseason record in NFL history (15-5) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (124-42). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 129-53 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

"I was thinking I'd get a scholarship somewhere," Welker said. "When it didn't happen when it was supposed to I was pretty hurt by it."

Welker had an impressive collegiate career, accumulating 259 receptions and eight punts returned for touchdowns. He even won a national award as the best special teams player in the country. Despite those accolades, he was passed over in the 2004 NFL draft and signed with San Diego as a free agent. He made the team, then was cut after the first game. He signed with Miami soon after and was used just on special teams. He caught New England's eye with a 71-yard punt return on Monday Night Football in a game against the Patriots. He was acquired by the Patriots in a trade with Miami in 2007.

WOODHEAD GOES FROM DIVISION II TO THE NFL

Danny Woodhead was a standout at Division II Chadron State in Nebraska. He averaged 178.9 yards per game and totaled 101 rushing touchdowns during his collegiate career. Woodhead's outstanding junior and senior seasons earned him two Harlon Hill Trophies, the Division II equivalent to the Heisman Trophy. He is one of just three players to ever win two or more Harlon Hill Trophies, joining Texas A&M University-Kingsville running back Johnny Bailey, who won it three times (1987-89) before playing six seasons in the NFL for the Bears, Cardinals, and Rams. Valdosta State University's Dusty Bonner was the only other player to win the Harlon Hill Trophy multiple times (2000 and 2001). Cincinnati Bengals running back Bernard Scott (2008—Abilene Christian) joins Woodhead as active NFL running backs who have won the award. In his first game with the Patriots, Woodhead scored a 22-yard in the win vs. Buff. (9/26).

EDELMAN GOES FROM STANDOUT QB TO WR

Julian Edelman began his college football career with a year at the College of San Mateo (Ca.) before transferring to Kent State where as a senior he completed 56% of his passes (153 of 275 passes for 1,820 yards) with 13 touchdowns. He was also the leading rusher, gaining 1,551 yards on 215 attempts (an average of 7.5 yards per carry) and scoring 13 touchdowns. His offensive numbers broke Kent State's single-season record for total offense set by Joshua Cribbs in 2003.

WILFORK WEARS HIS HEART ON HIS NECK

Vince Wilfork wears No. 75 over his shoulder pads. Underneath hangs a gold chain locket for those who were number one in his heart: his parents. In 2002, parents David and Barbara Wilfork both passed away within five months of each other, leaving the then University of Miami star without his greatest support system. Wilfork, who lost his father to diabetes, has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for diabetes-related causes. His annual draft day fundraiser, a bowling event he has held for seven years, is one of the signature fundraising events held by a pro athlete in New England. For his charity work, Wilfork was awarded the 2010 New England Patriots Ron Burton Community Service Award. While he will always cherish his National Championship and Super Bowl rings, his constant reminder lies closest to his heart, a picture of his late parents at their high school prom. "I carry them with me wherever I go", Wilfork said of his parents' keepsake. "My parents pushed me to be the best I could be. The things I do and my wife does, we do out of the kindness of our heart, and we do it for the community. I never look for anything in return. My teammates are my second family. My kids, my wife, the New England Patriots – that's all I have."

ZOLTAN MESKO: COMING TO AMERICA

Rookie P Zoltan Mesko was born in Timosoara, Romania, on the Romania-Hungary border. On Many occasions in 1989, during the communist revolutions, his family was forced to take cover by diving on the floor to avoid gun shots from the armies. Even after the fall of the Berlin Wall, his family lived in poverty. His family was finally able to escape Romania when his father won a United States Permanent Resident Card (green card) in the Diversity Immigrant Visa Lottery in 1997 when Mesko was 11.

MESKO DISCOVERS FOOTBALL

An avid soccer player from his days in Romania, Mesko had a strong leg. It was only when he came to America that he discovered his leg could take him places. In eighth grade, Mesko was playing kickball in the gym when he kicked the ball so high that he broke a light fixture. He was given a choice: pay for the light fixture or play football. With his family still struggling with money and football being a more popular sport than soccer at his school, the choice was an obvious one—Mesko decided to play football. His leg would land him numerous Division I Scholarships and admission offers from Ivy League schools. From these, Mesko chose to play football at Michigan.

DOUBLE TROUBLE: CB DEVIN MCCOURTY

After being selected by the Patriots in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft, CB Devin McCourty became part of a select group in league history. McCourty's identical twin brother, Jason, is a cornerback with Tennessee, selected in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL Draft. The two are the 11th set of twins to play in the NFL. Devin and Jason were cornerbacks in the Rutgers secondary from 2005-08. Devin redshirted for the 2005 season and therefore was a year behind his brother in eligibility. McCourty is the second twin to suit up for the Patriots, after CB Kato Serwanga was a member of the team from 1998-2000. His twin brother Wasswa played for San Francisco and Minnesota from 1999-2001. According to McCourty's mother, the two can only be told apart by tiny scars on their faces left by chickenpox.

MATT LIGHT AND THE LIGHT FOUNDATION

T Matt Light and the Light Foundation took aim at another successful year for the organization when they hosted the 2010 Matt Light Celebrity Shoot-Out on Tuesday, September 14 at Addieville East Farm in Mapleville, Rhode Island. The event allows for participants to test their clay shooting skills against a host of celebrities, including members of the New England Patriots as well as stars from TV and movies. The Light Foundation was established in 2001 and strives to instill the values of responsibility and hard work to youths.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: TE ROB GRONKOWSKI

Rookie TE Rob Gronkowski grew up playing football against his brothers in the backyard. Now, he has a chance to play against them in the NFL. Dan Gronkowski, the oldest of the bunch, is currently in his second season as a TE for the Denver Broncos, while 23-year old Chris is currently a rookie with the Dallas Cowboys as a fullback. The Gronkowski's are among 22 different sets of brothers currently in the NFL, yet they are the only family that can claim to have three siblings in the league. According to the pro Football Hall of Fame, the Gronkowski brothers join nine other families to have at least three brothers playing at the same time.

READ BETWEEN THE LINES

The Patriots teamed up with Ahern Middle School in Foxborough on June 9 to introduce "Read Between the Lines," a new program featuring Patriots offensive and defensive linemen to promote the school's "Summer Reading Blitz." Every student in attendance received a "Read Between the Lines" playbook and was encouraged to set their personal reading goals of at least two books this past summer. If the 923 students collectively read more than 2010 books over the summer, a Patriots lineman promised to return for another assembly to reward the students. On Sept. 28, Stephen Neal returned to the school to reward the students who accomplished their summer reading goals. One student received a "game ball" for her efforts after reading 70 books.

GREETINGS FROM KAARST, GERMANY: SEBASTIAN VOLLMER MAKES HIS MARK

A native of Kaarst, Germany, Vollmer did not begin playing football until the age of 14 when he started playing for the Dusseldorf club team. Vollmer helped lead his German prep school team to two national football championships. His early football success landed him an appearance in the 2004 Global Junior Championships in San Diego, which led him to a scholarship at Houston. He spoke almost no English when he signed with Houston, but he became fluent in the language as he developed from a 250-pound tight end into a 315-pound lineman who started his final 25 games at tackle for the Cougars. Vollmer's collegiate career created interest from the NFL where the Patriots drafted him in the second round of the 2009 draft. Earned the nickname, Seabass, during his playing days at Houston. The nickname has carried over to the NFL.

PATRICK CHUNGS' JOURNEY TO THE NFL

Long before S Patrick Chung picked up flag football as a teen, his mother, Jamaican recording artist Sophia George, had preached about being a tough man in a song. Her hit single, "Girlie Girlie" – a traditional reggae song about poking fun at a boy who was not man enough – topped the charts in 1985. Chung is aware that among his talents he was born with, speed and agility, singing is not one of them. Chung, who possesses a great sense of pride in his unique heritage – his mother is Jamaican and his father is half Jamaican and half Chinese, was born in Jamaica and moved to California at age 12 where he started to play football as a freshman in high school. Chung went on to star at Oregon, where he holds the distinction of starting more games than any other defensive player in school history with 51 starts. He original entered the draft as junior but ultimately decided to return for his senior season. Pinned to the back of his locker is a reminder of the support he has gotten to this stage, a Jamaican flag that indicates his family's importance to him.

THE TEAM OF THE DECADE

When Robert Kraft purchased the New England Patriots in 1994, few would have thought that just 16 years later the franchise would be the undisputed team of the decade in the first decade of the new millennium. Kraft brought a winning vision to the organization and dedicated his resources to building a consistent winner. On Jan. 27, 2000, Kraft hired Bill Belichick to coach the team, and three months later the team drafted then-unheralded quarterback Tom Brady, putting the final pieces in place for the Patriots to become the most successful NFL team of the 2000s.
