HEAD COACHES

JETS HEAD COACH REX RYAN

(FIRST YEAR AT JETS)
1-0

PATRIOTS HEAD COACH BILL BELICHICK

(10th YEAR AT PATRIOTS/15th YEAR OVERALL)
154-90 (139-86 REGULAR SEASON, 15-4 POSTSEASON)

Rex Ryan was named the 15th full-time head coach of the New York Jets on January 19, 2009.

For Rex, it is a sort of homecoming, returning to the franchise he first experienced in 1968 when his father, Buddy, was hired as the defensive line coach under Weeb Ewbank. That season culminated in the Jets' Super Bowl III victory in Miami with a six-year-old Rex Ryan watching from the stands in the Orange Bowl.

Ryan spent the last 10 seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, including 2008 as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. During Ryan's tenure, the Ravens defense never ranked lower than sixth in the NFL. From 1999-2008, the Ravens ranked first for fewest points allowed (17.1 per game), fewest rushing yards allowed per game (87.3), most shutouts (9), most takeaways (337), most interceptions (212), most interceptions for touchdowns (29) and third-down conversion defense (33.9 percent).

Ryan began his Ravens career as the defensive line coach for Brian Billick in 1999, when the Ravens defense finished second in the NFL in total defense and second against the run. In 2000, the Ravens defense allowed the fewest points in a 16-game season in NFL history (165) en route to winning Super Bowl XXXV.

Ryan was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2005. During his four seasons in that role, the Ravens defense finished fifth (2005), first (2006), sixth (2007) and second (2008) in the NFL. In 2006, the defense allowed only 201 points and 264 yards per game as Ryan was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writers Association.

In 2008, new Head Coach John Harbaugh named Ryan assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. The Ravens 2008 defense allowed 261.1 yards per game, marking the fourth time since 1999 the Ravens finished second overall in the NFL. Before joining the Ravens, Ryan was a defensive coordinator in college at Oklahoma (1998) and Cincinnati (1996-97). His first NFL coaching stint was with the Arizona Cardinals under his father, when he oversaw the defensive line in 1994 and linebackers in 1995. Ryan has also coached at Morehead State (1990-93), New Mexico Highlands (1989) and Eastern Kentucky (1987-88).

Ryan, 46, graduated from Stevenson High School in Prairie View, IL, and played football at SW Oklahoma State. He earned his Bachelor's Degree and Master's Degree in Physical Education at Eastern Kentucky in 1988.

Ryan was born in Ardmore, OK. He and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Payton, named for Walter Payton, and Seth.

Bill Belichick is in his 35th season as an NFL coach and is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles XXXVI (2001), XXXVIII (2003) and XXXIX (2004) in a four-year span. In his first nine seasons as Patriots head coach, he has won 116 games – more than any other head coach in NFL history. Belichick's Patriots team own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-2008) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Over a 100-game span from 2003-2008, he directed the Patriots to an 82-18 record – the best record for any 100-game span in NFL history.

Hired by Chairman and CEO Robert Kraft on January 27, 2000, Belichick is in his 10th season as New England's head coach in 2009. Through nine seasons, Belichick has delivered three Super Bowl championships, four conference titles, six division crowns and 14 playoff victories while position an overall record 117-45. Belichick directed the Patriots to victories in Super Bowls XXVII (2001), XXXVIII (2003) and XXXIX (2004), and in 2007 he became the first NFL head coach to guide his team to a 16-0 regular season. Only one coach (Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll, 4) has won more Super Bowls than Belichick, and his three Super Bowl titles tie Washington's Joe Gibbs and San Francisco's Bill Walsh for second place on the NFL's all-time list. Belichick owns the second best postseason record in NFL history (15-4) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (111-34). Coach Belichick's overall career winning percentage of .630 (153-90-0) ranks fourth among the 17 NFL coaches with 140 or more wins, trailing only George Halas (324-151-31, .682), Don Shula (347-173-6, .666) and Curly Lambeau (229-134-22, .631).

Belichick's recent accomplishments are the latest triumphs in a career during which he has helped produce five Super Bowl titles, seven conference championships and 13 division titles since entering the NFL in 1975. He won his first two Super Bowls as the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants in 1986 and 1990. George Seifert is the only other man to have won multiple Super Bowls both as a head coach and as an assistant coach. Belichick launched his career in 1975 as a special assistant with the Baltimore Colts, then became an assistant special teams coach with Detroit (1976-77) and Denver (1978). In 1979, he joined the New York Giants to begin a 12-season stint in which he contributed to two Super Bowl championships as New York's defensive coordinator. Belichick was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns in 1991, becoming the youngest head coach in the NFL at age 38. By 1994, Belichick brought the Browns back to the playoffs, finishing 11-5 and advancing to the second round of the playoffs, while allowing a league-low 204 total points. In 1996, Belichick joined New England and was a key contributor to the team's rebound from a 6-10 season in 1995 to an 11-5 season and the team's first division title in 10 years en route to the Patriots' appearance in Super Bowl XXXI. Belichick then spent three seasons with the New York Jets from 1997 to 1999, helping the New York Jets from 1997 to 1999, helping New York improve from a 1-15 season in 1996 to an appearance in the AFC Championship Game in 1998.

Belichick was a center/tight end at Wesleyan 1971-74 and was born April 16, 1952, in Nashville, TN.

- On his philosophy: We have a philosophy here - you've heard of the K.I.S.S. philosophy, which is 'Keep It Simple Stupid,' that's for somebody else. Ours is a K.I.L.L. philosophy; we're going to 'Keep It Likable and Learnable.'
- On preparation: You're going to see our aggressive mentality through our preparation. You're going to see that on the practice field. We either go through it walk-through speed or full speed. That's how you do things here, and that's how we're going to get it done. You can't expect a guy to know how to play on Sunday when he hasn't seen it throughout the week. So we go full speed, and that's the way it's going to get done.
- On being aggressive: You're going to see an attack team here. We're going to be aggressive on both sides of the ball and with our special teams. It's all about our team here. It's a team concept that we're going to have with the Jets. Our offense is going to pick up our defense. Our defense will pick up our offense and our special teams will pick us up on both sides of the ball.
- On the offense and defense: Our offense is going to build up our defense by the way we work against each other, and vice versa. Some games our offense may need to score 21 points. Sometimes our defense may need to shut them out. We're always going to pick each other up. It's about a team; it's not one side versus the other side, but we're going to compete against each other in practice.
- On being a physical football team: We will be an aggressive football team and a physical football team. We want to have an all weather offense and that starts with a running game, being able to run the football, because I think it's important. You've got to win when the snow falls to get where you want to go, and that's to win Super Bowls.

- On taking on this challenge: The only way I know how to handle a challenge is to hit that thing head on, and that's what we're going to do. The message to the rest of the league is, 'hey, the Jets are coming, and we're going to give you everything we've got, and that's going to be, I think, more than you can handle.' We're going to find out.
- On his coaching staff: There is no way that I could have envisioned putting together this kind of coaching staff. This is an all-star staff that I feel extremely fortunate to have. I am confident in my abilities, but I am a lot more confident in the abilities of these men. It's not something where these guys are working for me, they are working with me. It's our collective efforts that will lead this football team.
- On going from defensive coordinator to head coach: They always say until you go through it, you think you understand, but you really don't understand the other commitments that you do have, but it's a great thing. You prepare all your life for it, so these decisions that you're making, all that experience you've had being around great coaches, which I have, it makes it much easier...I'm kind of a head coach/coordinator and I told Mike Pettine he's kind of the same thing also. I'm going to lean on him as well, and (Bill) Callahan can put that on there as slash head coach. So can Schott (Brian Schottenheimer). So can Mike Westhoff. It's a collective effort, so that's a good thing. It is funny. I even asked (Steve) Spagnuolo if he was calling the defenses and he said 'no' because there are so many administrative things. I have a tough time doing that. You work all your life to get to this spot. One of the reasons you get here is because you're probably pretty decent at what you do and to just turn it completely over and then if it doesn't go right, you have somebody else to blame instead of just putting it on yourself. If our defense doesn't do well, then that's going to be a reflection on me. Of course if our team doesn't (do well), it's a reflection on me also, but I can handle it. I think we'll be successful in all aspects of our team, not just based on me but on the players we have and the coaches we have and our support staff. It's hard for me to imagine us not being successful.

ONCE YOU'RE A JET, YOU'RE A JET ALL THE WAY...

Coach Ryan, who first experienced the Jets at age six when his father Buddy was an assistant coach from 1968-75, has embraced the Jets history:

- Historic team pictures adorn the hallways.
- Individual record holders and Pro Bowlers are honored on the walls outside the meeting rooms.
- Framed jerseys of Joe Namath, Winston Hill and Gerry Philbin hang in his office.
- The all-time numerical roster hangs outside the locker room so that current players see who wore their numbers before them.

THE WORLD ACCORDING TO REX

Excerpts from Rex Ryan's Monday Press Conference (9/14/09)

From Coach Ryan's opening statement...

On defense, we played like I thought we would. It was a great team effort. One of the sacks we got, the coverage was outstanding. It's hard to get a sack in this league without great coverage in the back end and it's hard to get an interception without pressuring the quarterback. And you saw both of those things. You saw the sack that (Jamaal) Westerman got was due to the great coverage we had on the back end and then the interception that Lito (Sheppard) had, we had some pretty good pressure on the quarterback and (Matt) Schaub threw it up there trying to throw it to a spot. Lito had great coverage and was able to come down with the interception. That's how it feeds off each other. That's the team defense that we've been talking about. That was good to finally play someone for real. We see what this defense could be. I think it could be a dominant group. We're going to line them up every week. This week, of course, we have New England coming in here with Tom Brady. It won't get any tougher than this.

On if he's looking forward to playing the Patriots...

I'm looking forward to it. They're better than us in two spots that I know for sure and that's at head coach and quarterback. But, we'll find out who has the better team, right now. We'll see. We need our fans. We need our fans to show up. Our team is going to show up (and) we need our fans to show up. We need to be loud and make it miserable on them. We know (Tom) Brady has a lot of poise, he's got all that kind of stuff. The pressure isn't just on one man. You want to make it on a whole unit to where they've got to pick the hots, all the communication and all the protections. I believe in our fans, too. Our guys are going to show up and our fans are going to show up and it's going to be on. We want to have a place where it's just absolutely miserable to come to. That's what I'm looking forward to. We've had the preseason games, but we're holding off. Let's see how we do. Let's see how our fans perform. I'm looking forward to it because I'm expecting huge things out of them too just like I did this football team. If we all get on the same page and we make it loud, players are going to pick up from the enthusiasm of our crowd as well. Obviously, we will be juiced up from their own enthusiasm, but when our crowd is with you on top of that, it makes it tough. I've been in those stadiums where it seems like you've got 14 guys on the field on defense. The offense can't communicate. Your crowd is so into it, it almost seems like that.

On if it's hard to admit that New England has a better head coach and quarterback than the Jets...

No, I'm saying that. I believe that to be a fact right now. It's not about me against Belichick, that would be one sided, but I think I'll compete. I know I'll compete. He's going to get everything I've got. I think New England will get everything Sanchez has too. When you're putting a little check, you put the check by quarterback (and) you put the check by coach. That's fine.

On the rest of the team comparing to New England...

We're going to find out.

On if his dad (Buddy Ryan) compared himself to Bill Belichick...

No, it was (Bill) Parcells, Joe Gibbs, (Tom) Landry or Jimmy Johnson. Those were the big guns when he was coaching with the Eagles. It's funny. My dad would beat Parcells, but lose to Gibbs. Parcells always beat Gibbs. They beat each other up. Those were the days. I think that was at the end of his time (Landry), so he was down a little bit, and then Jimmy Johnson came in. Those were great to watch. As a fan growing up, that was fun to watch. They got after it. They all played a little differently, but they were all tough. You thought any one of those teams could win the whole thing. That's how I felt. It's unfortunate, the Eagles never won a playoff game during those times, but I thought they were really talented.

On if New England will be surprised by the Jets defense when they watch tape...

I don't think they'll be surprised at all. I don't think they will. I think more than anything maybe some of the so-called experts will be surprised, but New England won't be surprised. They know how we're going to play defense.

On Sanchez's interception and what he can do better...

Probably not throw it in the first spot. No, I'm just kidding. I think the check-down was open and when you're up by 17, that's probably the better throw at the time. We were going to go back into the ground and run it, but we had a penalty, an illegal procedure call, (that) backed us up, so we thought let's go ahead and throw it. No problem. When it's there, probably make a little better decision with the ball. I thought the check-down was open.

On Sanchez's decision making...

With Mark, we're thinking he's always going to make the right decision. You're going to have moments like that. You're right, more than most, he's going to make the right decision. Our team's got complete confidence in him. Some guys were calling him "San-chise" because he's a franchise quarterback. Who am I to argue that? He made a lot of great decisions in that game and showed a lot of poise. Sometimes, know what's behind you. Know that you don't have to score every time you get the football. I know how competitive he is. Just play your game. Play quarterback. When you get up 17, if you've got a sure thing, go ahead and take that.

On Sanchez's pocket presence...

It was outstanding. I expected him to be good, but wow. Just the way he was able to slide, step up, back, just the different things. (Tom) Brady is the best in the league at it and Peyton Manning. Steve McNair was great at that. Playing that position, you have to have that (pocket presence). You can't be looking down at that pass rush and play quarterback in this league. He clearly has that kind of poise and he's got that awareness that it takes to be a successful quarterback. That's critical.

WEEK 1 FIRSTS

The Jets 24-7 season opening win at HOU provided quite a few firsts for the Jets:

- Rex Ryan – First game as an NFL head coach, and first win as an NFL head coach.
- First NFL Start: Mark Sanchez, Vernon Gholston.
- First start as Jet: Sanchez, Gholston, Marques Douglas, Jim Leonhard, Bart Scott, Lito Sheppard.
- First game as a Jet: Sanchez, Douglas, Leonhard, Scott, Sheppard, Steve Weatherford, Ben Hartsock, Larry Izzo, Jamaal Westerman, Howard Green, Ropati Pitoitua.
- NFL debuts: Sanchez, Westerman, Pitoitua.

WEEK 1 CAPTAINS

Captains at HOU: Alan Faneca, Kris Jenkins, Howard Green, James Dearth.

- What it means to be a captain for Rex Ryan: "I don't believe in having the same captains for every game. I like to rotate guys. We'll choose four captains. We'll take their picture. If they win, they get to keep the picture. If they lose, they don't get the picture. That's a pride thing. We'll pass those out on Fridays of the next week along with game balls. It's a good thing and it's quite an honor to be selected as a captain. You'll choose guys for different reasons. It doesn't have to be your best player each week."

JETS NOTES

CALLAHAN'S OL LEADS THE WAY

The Jets returned all five starters on the offensive line, a unit that includes two 2008 Pro Bowlers (LG Alan Faneca and C Nick Mangold), four first-round draft choices (Faneca, Mangold, LT D'Brickashaw Ferguson, RT Damien Woody), and three players who have now started 49 consecutive regular season games together (Mangold, Ferguson, RG Brandon Moore). Moore, the longest tenured Jet of the linemen, has started 74 consecutive games for the Jets. The unit is coached by Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line Bill Callahan, a former head coach on both the NFL and college levels.

JETS NOTES

JERRICHO'S TIME

After leading the Jets in receptions the last two seasons, Jerricho Cotchery led the Jets in the opener with six catches for 90 yards at HOU.

- Cotchery caught four passes for 55 yards on third down in the opener.
- In 2008, he posted 71 catches for 858 yards and five touchdowns (team-leading 12.1 yards per catch) last year, surpassing 70 receptions for the third straight season.
- Cotchery is the second Jets receiver in franchise history to record three consecutive seasons of 70-or-more receptions (Keyshawn Johnson - 1997, 98, 99) and the fourth in franchise history to record at least three seasons of 70-or-more receptions (Laveranues Coles - 2002, 05, 06, 08 and Al Toon - 1986, 88, 91 are the others).

TAKING A CHANSI

For the second consecutive opening day, Chansi Stuckey caught a touchdown pass.

- In the opener this season at HOU, he broke free in the secondary and hauled in a 30-yard touchdown reception on a third-down play, the fourth scoring reception of his career and the first touchdown pass for Mark Sanchez.
- Recorded four catches for 64 yards and a touchdown at HOU, including three receptions for 61 yards on third down.
- Last season, 9/7/08 at MIA, he caught a 22-yard touchdown pass on fourth down from Brett Favre.
- WR Chansi Stuckey finished 2008 with 32 receptions for 359 yards and three touchdowns, catching a touchdown in each of his first three NFL games, the first player to do so since Andre Davis and Donte Stallworth in 2002.

KELLER A BIG TARGET AT TE

Second-year TE Dustin Keller emerged as an effective target in his rookie season in 2008 and continued in that direction in the 2009 season opener.

- At HOU, he caught four passes for 94 yards from Mark Sanchez, including a 40 yard catch-and-run, the Jets longest play of the game, on third down. He had two third-down receptions for 58 yards.
- In 2008, Keller was second in the NFL among all rookie tight ends with 48 catches for 535 yards and three touchdowns, trailing only SEA's John Carlson (55-627-5 TD).

THE VERSATILE MR. SMITH

- Now in his fourth season, Brad Smith has played in 48 games, starting 13 as both a WR (11) and RB (two).
- The former Missouri QB who produced 98 TD in college (42 rushing, 56 passing), has lined up under center for the Jets.
- His career totals include 53-450 receiving and two touchdowns, and 276 yards rushing on 43 carries (6.4 yards per carry). He is also one-of-three passing for 18 yards, 14 kick returns for 226 yards and 39 special teams tackles.

PREPARING FOR 'THE CLOWN'

- WR David Clowney is coming off his second consecutive productive preseason. In the 2009 preseason, he registered seven receptions for 243 yards (ranked 2nd in the AFC), 34.7 ypc and three touchdowns, the highest average in the NFL for players with more than one catch.
- In the 2008 preseason, he recorded eight catches for an NFL-best 222 yards (27.8) and two touchdowns before getting injured in the second preseason game.
- Limited to two games in 2008. In his debut vs. BUF, 12/14/08, he made a nifty one-handed grab on pass from Brett Favre for his only career reception.

JETS TURN 50 IN 2009

The Jets are celebrating their 50th season of the franchise that began as the Titans of New York in 1960, became the Jets in 1963 and went on to shock the world in Super Bowl III, changing the face of the NFL. The Jets will celebrate 50 seasons as a franchise by wearing a special "50 Seasons" commemorative patch on their green and white uniforms in 2009. The Jets will commemorate 50 years since the founding of the AFL by wearing original Titans uniforms in three games vs. original AFL franchises in 2009.

QUARTERBACK MARK SANCHEZ

Mark Sanchez finished his NFL debut at HOU 18-for-31 passing for 272 yards, one touchdown, a 30-yarder to Chansi Stuckey, and one interception for a passer rating of 84.3.

NOTES FROM SANCHEZ'S NFL DEBUT AT HOU, 9/13:

- Sanchez was 12-for-15 for 191 yards and a touchdown (141.0 passer rating) on third down converting nine to first downs. He also ran seven yards for an additional first down on third down.
- He led the Jets on three scoring drives that exceeded seven minutes, the first time the Jets had done that in a game in over 16 seasons.

- The last Jets rookie QB to win his first start was Richard Todd, who beat BUF, 19-14, on 10/31/76. Todd threw for 87 yards on six-of-20 passing, one touchdown and two interceptions. The Jets defense caused five turnovers (three interceptions, two fumbles), got four sacks and a blocked punt for a touchdown. RB Clark Gaines rushed for 119 yards on 24 carries.
- In the history of the NFL, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only three quarterbacks have thrown for more yards than Mark Sanchez when making their debut on opening weekend, and only one rookie (Peyton Manning) has done so.

HOW REX'S D HAS FARED

During Rex Ryan's tenure as defensive coordinator of BAL (2005-08), the Ravens faced NE once, during the Pats' 16-0 season in 2007. The Ravens sacked Tom Brady three times and logged one interception in allowing 27 points. NE scored the game-winning touchdown with 44 seconds remaining in the 27-24 loss on Monday night in Baltimore.

REX RYAN'S BAL DEFENSE VS. NE

DATE	SCORE	DEFENSIVE NOTE
12/3/07	27-24	Held NE to 3rd-lowest total pts

DOUGLAS QUIETLY GETS IT DONE

One of the lesser talked-about moves of this offseason was the Jets signing of unheralded eight-year veteran DE Marques Douglas as a free agent. Douglas, who spent 2008 with BAL after the Ravens re-acquired him from TB in training camp in 2008, has played every game (97) since 2003 and has been among the most effective players in the league in tackling rushers behind the line of scrimmage. Douglas entered the league as an undrafted rookie free agent with BAL in 1999, and at one point was given very little chance of making the NFL by then BAL defensive line coach Rex Ryan.

KEY STICKS FOR STRICKLAND

CB Donald Strickland posted three tackles, one pass breakup, one QB hit and one forced fumble at HOU, quite a debut for the nickel corner the Jets signed as an unrestricted free agent from SF in this offseason.

- In the second quarter, HOU had a 2nd-and-11 from the Jets 35, when Matt Schaub hit Steve Slaton on a short pass. Slaton took off downfield, but Strickland jarred the ball loose at the 17-yard line, a fumble that was recovered by Mike DeVito, and returned seven yards.
- In the fourth quarter, Strickland blitzed and hit Schaub as he was throwing, causing the ball to be intercepted by Lito Sheppard, ending the Texans' last possession of the game.

THE ODD COUPLE INSIDE

The loquacious Bart Scott and quiet David Harris make an interesting pair in the middle of the Jets defense. Scott is a 2006 Pro Bowler who signed with the Jets as a UFA this off-season and Harris is a third-year pro who became the first rookie since 1979 to lead the Jets in tackles in 2007.

In their first game together, both Harris and Scott more than made their mark.

- Harris led the Jets with 12 tackles, and added a pass breakup and two quarterback hits, including an eight-yard sack on Matt Schaub.
- Scott was credited with three tackles, but he set the tone with four hits on Schaub, as the Jets hit the QB nine times in the 24-7 win.

What they are saying:

- REX RYAN ON HARRIS: He's a run-hit guy. He loves to play. He wishes it was a baseball schedule, 162 games. One of those types of deals because man, he can go.
- RYAN ON SCOTT: I think you'll enjoy watching Bart play as well. Statistically, I don't know how many tackles he makes. He knocks the guard out first play of the game (vs. STL in the preseason opener), so you get to see that.
- RYAN ON THE PAIR: Those two inside backers, that's a great combination. I'll go out on a limb and say that those two, in my opinion, are the best duo in the league. ...I think those two, right there, are going to be phenomenal together. You've got Bart. He speaks a lot for both of them (laughter). They counteract.

THE BIG MAN IN THE MIDDLE

- Kris Jenkins was acquired by the Jets before the 2008 season in a trade with CAR, and was voted to his fourth Pro Bowl, honored as a starter in 2008.
- Jenkins, though credited with one assisted tackle and one quarterback hit, wreaked havoc in the HOU backfield and was a major reason the Texans rushed for just 38 yards on 13 carries and were held to only 183 total net yards on offense.
- He was awarded the AFC Player of the Week for Week Nine at BUF, 11/2/08, Jenkins' first career Player of the Week honor. Jenkins recorded three tackles, 1.5 sacks and three quarterback pressures as the Jets defeated BUF, 26-17. He was the first Jet to win the award since Shaun Ellis in 2007

RHODES AND LEONHARD PATROL BACK END FOR JETS

The Jets looked to improve the back end this offseason when they signed unrestricted free agent Jim Leonhard to pair with veteran Kerry Rhodes. Leonhard originally signed with BUF as an undrafted free agent in 2005, then moved to BAL as a free agent in 2008, where he posted 85 tackles, a sack and an interception in 13 starts. Rhodes, the 123rd player selected by the Jets in the fourth round in 2005, has 12 career interceptions and nine career sacks.

LITO LIGHTS IT UP

The Jets acquired two-time Pro Bowl CB Lito Sheppard in a trade with PHI in the offseason. In his ninth season, Sheppard picked up his 19th career interception, the most of any active Jet, when he snared a Matt Schaub pass 9/13/09, at HOU, after Schaub had been hit by Donald Strickland on his release. Sheppard has returned three of his picks for touchdowns, including two returns of over 100 yards.

REVIS DOES HIS TALKING ON TAPE

Third-year CB Darrelle Revis was voted to the Pro Bowl as a reserve in 2008 after he snagged five interceptions, tied for sixth in the NFL.

He is charged each week with matching up with the opponent's best receiver, and he usually is up to the task.

In the season opener at HOU, 9/13, Revis was matched up against Pro Bowl WR Andre Johnson for most of the game. Revis held Johnson to four catches for 35 yards, also recording four tackles. Johnson was thrown to seven times, according to the press box statistics. Johnson led the NFL in 2008 with 115 receptions for 1,575 yards and eight touchdowns.

Next up for Revis, as the Jets host NE, will likely be WR Randy Moss.

JETS NOTES

REX AND THE REX-PERTS

The reshaping of the Jets, specifically the defense, started with the hiring of Head Coach Rex Ryan on Jan. 21 from the Baltimore Ravens. Ryan spent the past four seasons at the helm of the Ravens defense, considered one of the best in the NFL.

Ryan's first hire was Ravens OLB Coach Mike Pettine as the Jets defensive coordinator. Next came Dennis Thurman, who had left the Ravens in 2008 after six years in Baltimore, to coach the Jets defensive backs and he brought in Matt Cavanaugh, the Ravens offensive coordinator during their Super Bowl win, to coach the quarterbacks.

Once the free agency period began, the Jets literally showed up on Bart Scott's doorstep to recruit the LB to New York, followed by S Jim Leonhard, and then on the same day, DE Marques Douglas and NT Howard Green. Of the four former Ravens signed by the Jets, only Green was initially drafted into the NFL. Douglas, Scott and Leonhard all entered the League as undrafted free agents.

WESTHOFF KO'S RETURNS

Mike Westhoff has long been considered one of the finer special teams coaches in the NFL. In his ninth season with the Jets, Westhoff has guided his kickoff return unit to 11 touchdown returns by five different players. The last two, Justin Miller (2006) and Leon Washington (2008), earned Pro Bowl berths. The Jets 11 kickoff returns for touchdowns from 2001-08 are the most in the NFL in that time span. NE is second with eight, and CLE, CHI and BUF are tied for third with seven.

But it's not just touchdowns, in Westhoff's eight seasons, the Jets were among the top four in average drive start after kickoffs six times, and only out of the top six once in eight seasons.

He had the fourth-most accurate season in Jets history and his point total was the ninth-best season in the franchise's history. He continued his streak, which started when he hit his last 14 field goals of 2008, when he hit a 24-yard field goal at HOU, 9/13, and his now tied for the fourth-longest streak in franchise history.

He has returned four kickoffs for touchdowns in his career, a Jets franchise record. The Jets first selection in the fourth round in 2006 was Brad Smith, a college quarterback from Missouri, who has contributed as a wide receiver and running back, and has played a significant role on special teams.
- In 2005, the Jets with the 123rd overall pick, drafted safety Kerry Rhodes, who has started every game in his four-year career, recording 12 interceptions and nine sacks.

The Jets signed veteran Ben Hartsock, 9/3, after he was released by ATL. Hartsock has totaled 27 receptions for 273 yards (10.1 avg.) in 57 games played and as a blocker, paved the way for three 1,000-yard rushers: Edgerrin James (2004 and 2005 for IND), LenDale White (2007 for TEN) and Michael Turner (2008 for ATL). Matthew Mulligan was claimed off waivers from TEN, 9/6. He had three receptions for 40 yards and a touchdown in the preseason for TEN.

Offensive Line (8)

All seven linemen from last year's roster return, including all five starters. Each started all 16 games in 2008, one of only six offensive lines to produce that level of consistency. This season also marks the first since 2001 that the Jets return their entire starting offensive line. At HOU, the Jets line propelled the running game to 190 yards and two touchdowns on 42 carries (4.5) while keeping HOU sackless. C Nick Mangold was voted to his first Pro Bowl in 2008. The fourth-overall pick in 2006 from Virginia has started 49 straight regular season games at left tackle. RT Damien Woody started every game at right tackle in 2008. He has played in 145 games, earning 138 starts. He previously played four seasons for DET as a guard and tackle and his first six seasons as a center in NE, including a Pro Bowl season in 2002. Reserves include: T Wayne Hunter, who appeared in 14 games in 2008 and has lined up at the TE position for the Jets; C/G Rob Turner, who appeared in 10 games in 2008; Sixth-round pick Matt Slauson out of Nebraska, who played three different positions in college, and started all 13 games at right guard as a senior in 2008.

OVERVIEW BY POSITION

Defensive Line (7)

New addition Marques Douglas joins starters Kris Jenkins and Shaun Ellis on this group that helped the Jets rank seventh in rushing yards allowed per game in 2008. The line, minus Ellis at HOU, limited the Texans to 38 yards rushing on 13 carries (2.9 yards per carry). Douglas, who logged two tackles and a tackle-for-loss, has 42.5 tackles-for-loss from 2003-09, the third-most in the NFL (Pat Williams 49.0, Lance Briggs 44.5). Ellis, was chosen as second alternate for the Pro Bowl in 2008, leading the Jets with eight sacks and 12 pressures in 2008. In nine seasons, he has played in 140 games, third all-time among Jets DL, recording 61.5 sacks (fourth all-time on Jets). Jenkins, who was voted to his fourth Pro Bowl in 2008, recorded one QB hit and one tackle at HOU. Mike DeVito registered his first fumble recovery at HOU, catching a ball 20 yards downfield after it was jarred loose from HOU RB Steve Slaton by Donald Strickland. DeVito returned it seven yards. Backing up the nose, Sione Pouha, who earned the start at HOU and posted three tackles. Veteran Howard Green made his Jets debut at HOU. He has played with BAL, NO and SEA in parts of six seasons. Ropati Pitoitua, signed as an undrafted free agent in May 2008, made his NFL debut at HOU.

Linebackers (9)

Veterans Bryan Thomas and Calvin Pace start on the outside, while third-year man David Harris and new addition Bart Scott man the inside. Pace, chosen as the third alternate for the 2008 Pro Bowl, established career highs in sacks, forced fumbles and fumble recoveries. He is missing the first four games due to suspension, returning 10/12 at MIA. Thomas started in Pace's spot at HOU and recorded four tackles. Scott signed as an unrestricted free agent Feb. 28, had a team-high four QB hits, three tackles and one tackle-for-loss at HOU. Third-year man Harris led the Jets with 12 tackles, adding a sack (eight yards), a deflected pass and two total QB hits in the win at HOU, earning a game ball for his effort. Vernon Gholston, the Jets 2008 first-round pick, registered three tackles and a tackle-for-loss in his first career start at HOU. On the outside, Marques Murrell played in 12 games in 2008, making 10 tackles and forcing a fumble on special teams. Jason Trusnik, who signed as an undrafted free agent in 2007, was awarded a game-ball at HOU for his play on special teams. Larry Izzo, a veteran special teams standout, has played in 189 career regular season games, including 104 consecutive games dating back to 2002. He earned Pro Bowl selections on special teams in 2000, 2002 and 2004. Rutgers product Jamaal Westerman signed with the Jets as an undrafted free agent in 2009, registered two tackles and his first sack on Matt Schaub at HOU, a 13-yard loss, in his NFL debut.

Defensive Backs (11)

Highlighted by a pair of cornerbacks that were drafted in the first round and have earned Pro Bowl recognition, Darrelle Revis and new acquisition Lito Sheppard will start alongside safeties Kerry Rhodes and newcomer Jim Leonhard. In the season opener at HOU, 9/13, Revis was matched up against Pro Bowl WR Andre Johnson for most of the game. Revis held Johnson to four catches for 35 yards, earning him a game ball. He also recording four tackles. Sheppard was acquired by the Jets in Feb. 2009 in a trade with PHI. He registered his 19th career interception on Matt Schaub in the fourth quarter at HOU, 9/13. Rhodes, in his fifth year, has started every game in his NFL career. He recorded five tackles and a quarterback hit at HOU. Leonhard, in his first game for the Jets, posted four tackles, including one tackle-for-loss at HOU. CB Donald Strickland posted three tackles, one pass breakup, one QB hit and one forced fumble at HOU. He jarred the ball loose from HOU RB Steve Slaton, a fumble that was recovered by Mike DeVito. Later in the game, he hit Matt Schaub as he was throwing, causing the ball to be intercepted by Sheppard. CB Dwight Lowery played in all 16 games, starting the first 10 in 2008. He responded with 58 tackles, one interception, five forced fumbles and 17 passes defended. Fourth-year safety Eric Smith had two tackles, and a diving pass breakup on fourth down to end a Texans drive. S James Ihedigbo originally signed by the Jets in May 2007. CB Drew Coleman has played 36 games in four seasons, starting four, recording one interception, two sacks and a forced fumble. Highlights from training camp:

July 30 — WR Jericho Cotchery "He just kind of welcomed us back and reminded us of our goal this year and that's to win the Super Bowl."

July 30 — T Damien Woody "This is the best unit I've ever played on. We have a great group of guys. We have a good blend of veterans and young guys on our line, and the one thing I like about our line is everybody's smart, everybody's durable and tough, and we work well together. And we have a great coach coaching us. I think those are the ingredients for the makings of a very good offensive line."

Aug. 1 — CB Lito Sheppard "A lot of people don't actually know my speed until I'm racing somebody who they know is really fast, and I think that's one of the things that people underrate me by. I guess you don't have to run a whole lot of full speed because as a corner you are mostly backpedaling and breaking. Going into my eighth year, I'm a mid-to-high-4.3 guy. Coming out, I was in the low-to-mid-4.3 range."

Aug. 3 — ESPN NFL Insider Adam Schefter "I think it's going to be Mark Sanchez. It's his job to lose. He would really have to be miserable this summer, I think, to lose the job. Assuming Mark Sanchez is the starter, can they get the solid, mistake-free play out of him that they need? I think they're going to run the ball a lot. I don't think they're going to ask the quarterback to do too much no matter who it is. If the quarterback can play good, smart, relatively turnover-free football, this team should be competitive for a playoff spot."

Aug. 4 — Sports Illustrated senior writer Peter King "This would have been Mount Everest of the negotiations without the retired players being inserted into the debate. With the retired players, nobody wants to pay for that. Somebody has to pay for that to increase their benefits."

Aug. 4 — ILB David Harris "He brings a different mentality to the whole organization. He's very open, very up front with you. He's not going to BS you, he's going to tell you like it is and how he sees it. Sometimes it can be negative, but you can't take it that way. With him being that way, I think it allows the players to play more freely, more loosely. You don't have to walk around on eggshells and be uptight all the time. I think it will be good for everybody."

Aug. 5 — Sirius NFL Radio co-hosts Tim Ryan and Pat Kirwan TR: "There's no doubt that someone's going to have to step up and rush the passer with Calvin Pace being out the first four games and that's going to be key. And when you think about what Rex does, pressure is paramount and it is for all defenses. But I worry a little bit, guys, just watching Vernon Gholston in the 1-on-1's, and maybe he had an off day. In terms of being a physical specimen, the guy is unbelievable. I just didn't see a lot of quick twitch, I didn't see a lot of finish. I see a guy who can beat somebody at the point of attack, but I don't know if I saw somebody who can really finish." PK: "I love your inside linebackers. When you look at your inside triangle, Kris Jenkins on the nose, [David] Harris and Bart [Scott], I think your inside triangle is as good as it is in the NFL."

Aug. 5 — "Voice of the Jets" Bob Wischusen "This is as good a secondary as I have seen. They are deep, their starting four I think probably stack up with probably the top three, four, five starting fours in the NFL. And when you're bringing guys like Dwight Lowery and Eric Smith off the bench, I think that could end up — even for all the talk of Bart Scott joining and Kris Jenkins was great last year and David Harris might be a potential a 150-to-160-tackle guy this season — I still think what is going to allow the front seven to do their business is they know their backside's protected."

Aug. 9 — TE Dustin Keller "I thought he had a really good performance. He's making really good reads and a lot of good decisions and the proper checks, I think, at this point of time, Mark's way ahead of where a lot of people would think he'd be, being a rookie and having to jump into an NFL scheme, but he's doing a great job."

Aug. 9 — WR Chansi Stuckey "I knew there was going to come a point, if I wanted to be an elite receiver in this league and have success, I was going to have to play outside as well. So last year, even though I did a lot of inside stuff, I did a lot of route-running outside on my own. I did a lot of it in the beginning of January and February and this summer when we broke I did a bunch of it. It's definitely feeling a lot more comfortable to me."

Aug. 10 — Defensive coordinator Mike Pettine "We'd always overinstall early in the week and find out what we liked and what the players liked, and to me it was always very player-friendly. It could be a great call in our minds but if the players don't like it, there's no sense calling it if they're not confident in the call. So almost every week Rex would tell the players on defense to take four calls, let him know what they are, and then he'd take them out of the plan. And there were a lot of weeks they'd come back and say, 'No, it's great,' and there were some weeks they'd say, 'Hey, we don't like this.' But Rex had a standing rule that you weren't allowed to take any of the Cover-Zero blitzes out. You're not allowed to take those out because we always joked that Buddy would take him out of the will."

Aug. 11 — OLB Bryan Thomas "I've talked to Vernon [Gholston] and we both know the situation about Calvin being out the first four games. It's going to be on us and we've got to bring our 'A' game to the table, with the other nine guys out there on defense, of course. The offense, special teams and everyone else are depending on us. We have to make it happen and I'll try to help him out as much as I can for that first game in Houston."

CHECK OUT WWW.NEWYORKJETS.COM

Aug. 12 — RB Danny Woodhead "I rarely look back at stuff like that. I get reminded of that every once in a while but it's honestly not something I think about and not something I really want to dwell on. That was the past and right now I'm fighting for an NFL job and that's more important right now. Maybe someday when I have kids and stuff, then I'll be able to talk to them about it. Otherwise I don't reflect on it at all."

Aug. 17 — S Kerry Rhodes "The chemistry between me and Jim has gotten a whole lot better. It was a pretty hard for me actually to open up to him a little bit because I felt more comfortable telling everyone else what to do and being that the guy to take charge back there all the time, so I was accustomed to that. ... Just listening to a guy tell you that, I had to humble myself to do that. I've done a good job of that. I've listened to him and he's helped me out a lot as far as learning this system and learning when to take shots in this system. I think the chemistry has come a long way since he got here and it's going to continue to get better."

Aug. 19 — RB Thomas Jones "I really believe in my preparation. Obviously, God has blessed me, kept me healthy and gave me the will to do what I've had to do. I've had a lot of adversity I've had to overcome and God has blessed me by keeping me levelheaded and keeping me hungry. I do think I've definitely worked as hard as I can in the training room and the weightroom to maintain my body, cleaning up any type of injuries I may have had so I can be fresh for the next week. I watch a lot of film so I'm prepared and I know what to expect on Sundays. ... I think there are a lot of different things mixed together that have helped me be successful over the past four, five years, and I'm definitely not going to stop those things now, especially going into my 10th year, where I kind of feel that I'm in my prime now."

Aug. 20 — ILB Bart Scott and DL Marques Douglas Scott: "Funny thing about me and Doug is neither one of us passed the look test. You don't see us and say, 'That's a hell of a football player right there.'" We just get the job done. I learned something from a wise man in Mike Singletary, who was my coach a couple of years ago. He told me greatness comes in all sizes and if you're willing to put in the work and pay the price, you can achieve things. I think me and Doug are a testament to that statement." Douglas: "I came in this league as a 264-pound pass rusher and 20 pounds later I'm a 285-pound run stuffer. I just try to work

JETS IN THE COMMUNITY

The New York Jets take great pride in playing an active role in making a year-round commitment to the tri-state community.

Programs funded by the New York Jets Foundation touch the lives of countless young men and women in the tri-state area. Over the past nine years, the Jets and their charitable foundation have raised or contributed more than $9 million to promote youth health, fitness and education, particularly in disadvantaged communities. From fighting childhood obesity through the Generation Jets: Be Lean & Green initiative to launching a foot-own extensive youth initiatives, the Jets partner with numerous established charitable organizations and participate in causes sponsored by the NFL.

Alliance for Lupus Research

The New York Jets organization is deeply committed to supporting the Alliance for Lupus Research (ALR), an independent nonprofit organization dedicated to raising the profile of lupus and the scope of lupus research. The ALR was founded in 1999 through the vision of Woody Johnson and the support of the Arthritis Foundation. The ALR has one mission: to prevent, treat and cure lupus through research.

Since 2001, the New York Jets have raised more than $6 million for the ALR through Walk With Us To Cure Lupus events throughout the tri-state area as well as proceeds from the Jets' annual kickoff luncheon.

Eat Right, Move More

Launched in 2006, the Eat Right, Move More campaign is a joint effort between the Jets, the New Jersey Department of Agriculture and the American Dairy Association & Dairy Council, Inc.'s Fuel Up to Play 60 campaign to encourage New Jersey school children to take advantage of healthy foods in their school cafeterias and become more active. The campaign also challenges schools to submit their meal menus to determine the six schools with the most creative meal selections each year. One of the six winning schools will be awarded the grand prize of a $5,000 grant, sponsored in part by the American Dairy Association & Dairy Council, Inc., for a cafeteria makeover and be recognized on field at a Jets home game. Jets tackle D'Brick-ashaw Ferguson is featured on posters in every NJ school telling students, "Eating helping meals helps me play my best. Your school cafeteria has a variety of nutritious foods to keep you going all day long. So get up, eat right and move more!"

Heads Up

In 2001 the New York Jets formed a community partnership with the Public Schools Athletic League (PSAL) to provide support to New York City public school football programs. The Jets and the PSAL expanded this partnership in 2005 and titled it Heads Up! Through an annual matching grant from the NFL's Youth Football Fund, the New York Jets donate $100,000 to the PSAL's football programs. This grant has helped to create nine new and developmental football teams and expand the C.H.A.M.P.S. Middle School Flag Football League to over 75 programs throughout the New York City public school system.

Beyond these grants, the Jets continue to support the PSAL in a variety of other ways. Beginning with the 2009-10 school year, the Jets will award a $5,000 college scholarship to a PSAL athlete that excels on the field and in the classroom. In addition to providing funding, the Jets' support for the PSAL has included hosting PSAL high school football coaches at team practices, creating "Captains' Day" for PSAL football team captains to spend a day at training camp each summer, and honoring PSAL football champions at a selected home game during the NFL season.

Play 60

Designed to tackle childhood obesity, NFL Play 60 is national youth health and fitness campaign that brings together the NFL's long-standing commitment to health and fitness with an impressive roster of partner organizations—Action for Healthy Kids, Ad Council, American Heart Association, National Dairy Council, Nickelodeon, United Way, and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. NFL Play 60: The NFL Movement for an Active Generation will focus on the health and well-being of young fans by encouraging them to be active for at least 60 minutes a day. In addition to national PSAs and online programs, Play 60 will also be implemented locally, as part of the NFL's in-school, after-school and team-based programs, from youth football to the Play 60 Challenge. The Play 60 Challenge is an in school curriculum sponsored by the National Football League, American Heart Association and locally by the American Dairy Association & Dairy Council, Inc.'s Fuel Up to Play 60 campaign. The Jets launched the initiative in 2006 and Brad Smith serves as the spokesperson.

School Food

Beginning in 2004 the New York Jets partnered with the New York City Department of Education's SchoolFood program in an effort to encourage all New York City public school students to eat healthy and take advantage of the nutritious meals that are served throughout the schools.

Through the SchoolFood program the Jets support an outreach campaign to encourage parents to submit school meal applications and help increase the amount of students who take advantage of free and reduced-price meals in New York City's public schools. The campaign also aims to educate parents and children about the nutritional reforms taking place in public school cafeterias, where a variety of healthy meals now are included on the menu. The campaign includes posters encouraging students to eat healthy foods and stay fit as well as a Jets a sponsored sweepstakes for a trip to the Pro Bowl.

NEW JETS STADIUM - OPENING 2010

For 50 years, the Jets – the fans, the players, the organization – have been tenants in each of the stadiums in which the team has played its home games. In 2010, for the first time in Jets history, the team will have a stadium they can call home, a stadium that on Jets gamedays will bleed green. From the external LED signage to four massive video boards inside the bowl, to the new plaza and tailgating options, there will be no doubt that this building is the home of the Jets.

Getting to the game will be easier than ever with triple the amount of roadways and a brand new rail stop just outside one of the entrances to the building, opening for the 2009 season.

Once at the stadium, fans will have many options for entertainment and tailgating before the game begins. The pregame radio show will be broadcast live from the new plaza area, where fans can also enjoy a vast array of food and shop for the newest Jets gear. At an entrance at the 50-yard line, fans will experience the Great Hall, a massive display of images of Jets greats past and present.

Inside the building, there will be wider concourses, eight times the number of concession stands and three times the number of restrooms than in the current building, offering fans options and convenience throughout the game. The intimate bowl seating, uncompromised sidelines, cutting-edge video boards and LED signage and state-of-the-art sound systems will enhance the game-watching experience.

NEW JETS STADIUM TIMELINE

- Sept. 29, 2005 – New Stadium becomes a reality when Jets and Giants agree to build as 50-50 partners
- Jan. 26, 2007 – Skanska wins Design/Build contract for New Stadium
- Sept. 5, 2007 – Construction formally begins with Groundbreaking Ceremony
- June 16, 2008 – MetLife becomes Building's First Cornerstone Partner
- June 19, 2008 – Budweiser, Bud Light sign on as second Cornerstone
- September, 2008 – Seat installation in the bowl begins
- March 10, 2009 – Last piece of major steel is placed in Topping Out Ceremony
- June 1, 2009 – Building awarded Green Certification by US Environmental Protection Agency
- Aug. 18, 2009 – Stadium announces it will host select Syracuse University football home games

One of the biggest upgrades in the new stadium is the availability of club seats. These offer the best seats in the stadium with unbelievable access unlike anything available in lower-level and mezzanine-level clubs in sports venues. There are two types of clubs in the new building — the East and West Clubs, located on the mezzanine level sideline and the Coaches Club and the Great Hall Club, located on the east and west sides in the lower bowl between the 30-yard lines. Club seats offer access to VIP reserved parking, a private club entrance into the stadium as well as a host of other amenities and benefits.
