THE COACHES

Tony Sparano became the eighth head coach in Dolphins history on January 16, 2008. He is in his 11th season in the NFL and his 26th year in the coaching profession. In his first year as the Dolphins' head coach in 2008, Sparano guided the team to a single season turnaround matched just once in NFL history. Taking over a 1-15 squad from a year earlier, he led the Dolphins to an 11-5 record and the AFC East title. His ten-game improvement has been achieved only one other time in league annals, in 1999 when the Indianapolis. Colts went from 3-13 to 13-3. Before leading the Dolphins, he spent five seasons (2003-07) on the staff of the Dallas Cowboys, during which time the team made three playoff appearances. He tutored the Cowboys' offensive line the last three years while also holding the title of assistant head coach the past two seasons. He coached the team's tight ends his first two seasons in Dallas. Prior to joining the Cowboys, Sparano had NFL stops in Cleveland (1999-2000), Washington (2001) and Jacksonville (2002). Sparano was a four-year letterman as a center at the University of New Haven, where he earned his degree in criminal law. He began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1984 before moving on to Boston University as offensive coordinator in 1989. He returned to New Haven as the school's head coach in 1994, and manned that spot for the next five years.

Bill Belichick is in his 35th season as an NFL coach (15 of which have been as a head coach), and has spent his most coach of the Patriots. He has three Super Bowl victories (2001, 2003, and 2004). Before joining the Patriots in 2000, Belichick was the assistant head coach/secondary coach for the New York Jets for three seasons (1997-1999), and had the responsibility of calling defensive plays. He also spent one year with the Patriots prior to his current tenure in 1996, again serving as assistant coach/secondary coach for the team that went to Super Bowl XXXI. His first experience as an NFL head coach came between 1991-1995 when he was at the helm of the Cleveland Browns. In 1979, Belichick was with the New York Giants as a defensive assistant and special teams coach, launching a 12-year tenure with the team. After recent 10 seasons as head the 1980 campaign, he drew the added responsibility of coaching the Giants linebackers. While continuing to coach the linebackers, in 1983 his role with the defensive unit increased. He was named defensive coordinator in 1985, a position he held for the next six seasons. Before his run with the giants, Belichick was an assistant special teams coach with the Denver Broncos in 1978, and the Detroit Lions in 1977 and 1976, and at the age of 23 was special assistant to Baltimore Colts head coach Ted Marchibroda in 1975. Belichick lettered in football at Wesleyan University.

FROM THE COACH'S OFFICE

(Head Coach Tony Sparano on the team's defensive performance) – "I think all week long we had a bad taste in our mouth from the New Orleans game. We talked a lot about finishing. I think our defense played really well today. I think (the Jets) ran about 38 times and averaged 3.2 yards a carry during the course of this game. That's a good running football team. They're a good football team period, but I thought our defense really rose up and played well. They did a great job of finishing. This team has done that before, and they did it again.

(Head Coach Tony Sparano on Ted Ginn, Jr.) – Teddy Ginn takes an awful lot, but this kid is a resilient guy. I've seen this before, you just haven't. I've seen Teddy Ginn bounce back and come back to make big plays for this football team. It's the reason why we got him. He did a heck of a job today. He made two huge plays, and had a tremendous, tremendous week of practice. He had really good focus and made two big plays in the football game.

(Head Coach Tony Sparano on the offense) – I saw a really good defense out there. Rex (Ryan) really had those guys ready to play. We knew that, and there's no surprise there. We knew those guys were going to be ready to play. Our guys were ready to play, too. I thought there were two good defenses punching each other around, I really did. I thought as the game went on, we just didn't make plays. We just couldn't finish plays, and credit has to go to that group. They did a good job in some of those situations. There are some things that we left out there ourselves. A couple of self-inflicted things that we did to ourselves. We took too many sacks. We can't take those kinds of sacks. If you're out of the pocket, you need to throw the ball away. We laid the ball on the ground a couple of times, so we can't do that. But the thing that we did do is that we had a big drive for a touchdown that was critical on the play from (Joey) Haynos. That was a big, big play.

(Head Coach Tony Sparano on Randy Starks) – "Randy did a heck of a job. We talked about winning individual battles. I felt Randy did that a bunch today. I felt him make some tackles for losses or tackles around the line of scrimmage. I have to look at the film, but those were two critical plays there towards the end of the ball game."

(Head Coach Tony Sparano on scoring in all three phases to win a game on the road) — "I think it says a little something. I think it was great focus and attention to detail this week in practice. I have a tough team. I know I have a tough team. There was some questions about my team this week, and whether or not they were tough. I'm not saying we answered them all, but we made a good dent today."

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

(WR Ted Ginn, Jr. on his two kickoff returns for touchdowns) – "I just tried to go out and make plays. Coach (John) Bonamego and Coach (Tony) Sparano came up with a good scheme and we executed. The guys felt good about what they came up with and they made the blocks they needed to make. I threw in a little freestyle and we had fun. When everybody is on the same page, big things can happen."

(WR Ted Ginn, Jr. on if they saw a weakness on the right side of the Jets kickoff coverage) – "Yes. The whole week we just saw that they overload to one side. As they kick to the left, I saw two guys loop over. I knew if I got to the backside, big things could happen."

(WR Ted Ginn, Jr. on the turn around in his play from last week to this week) – "It's unbelievable what can happen when you believe in God and you have family, friends, coaches and teammates supporting you. The only thing you have to do is be confident, be calm and make plays.

(QB Chad Henne on rebounding from the loss last week) – "I thought last week we didn't respond on offense the way we wanted to. Today I thought we did a great job overall. Special teams did a great job and our defense did an incredible job. To get a win after that big loss in the division is definitely a big plus.

- "It was hostile environment. I expected it to be just how it was. It was a back-and-forth game and luckily we came out with a win. We need to look at it on film and continue to improve and get bet-

(QB Chad Henne on Ted Ginn Jr.'s game) – "I don't think anyone is happier than our team to have Ted come out with that type of game and respond. It's a great feeling for him and us for him to get his confidence back and can make big plays like that. It's great to be a teammate of his. He was just ready to go and that's good to see from him.

(LB Joey Porter on the teams performance today) – "It was an exciting game. I think guys on both teams played hard. Ted Gin Jr had a great game, and the team played well. They (the Jets) made plays all game, but there can only be one winner." (Continued from page 8)

(LB Joey Porter on Ted Ginn's performance compared to last week) – "It's funny, that's how this game is. Now everybody will love him, saying, "Oh that's how Ted Ginn (responded)" and then write stories about how good he is. That comes with having a good game. It shouldn't be like that but truth of the matter is, I'm happy for him. I'm happy to see him get the monkey off of his back and have a good game like he did today."

(LB Joey Porter on ever being a part of a game where the offense didn't score) – "I've been part of a game where we gave up 43 yards in total offense on defense and lost a game. So its possible. Jason made a big play for us, we scored on all aspects of the game today. Take nothing away from that team(Jets), they played hard, but there only can be one winner today and we wanted it a little more then they did."

(LB Joey Porter on holding keeping the defense together on the field) – "At the end of the game, all we needed to do is make stops and everyone in the huddle knew if we couldn't make the stops who the blame would come down on. We had every opportunity to win the game on defense, and to finally get it done was a good feeling."

(G Justin Smiley on Ted Ginn's performance)

– "He deserves more respect than he gets. Not just because of his performance today, but because he loves the game of football. This is what he does. He's a professional and it's his life. A lot of people don't realize that, but he showed his capabilities today. I'm happy for him, he deserves it. I see him every day and I see how hard he works. He takes a lot of flack, but he had a great day. I was really surprised the Jets kept kicking to him. He took two to the house and the last one was almost close.

(G Justin Smiley on the offense) – "He We didn't play very well on offense. Our coaches had a really good game plan and they executed things really well. We made some plays here and there, but didn't make enough. Our last drive for a touchdown was huge for us. We should have been able to do that a little bit more, but you have to give the Jets defense some credit. They played a

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2009

S Yeramiah Bell

• To up his team record for most sacks by a Dolphins defensive back. Bell had 1.5 sacks against Saints QB Drew Brees in the first half vs. New Orleans (10/25). and is now in first place in team history for sacks by a Dolphins defensive back with 7.5.

RB Ronnie Brown

- With a 1,000 yard rushing season, would become just the third Dolphin to account for multiple 1,000 yard seasons, joining Larry Csonka (1971-73) and Ricky Williams (2002-03).
- With 30 career rushing touchdowns, Brown needs three more to tie Karim Abdul-Jabbar (33) for fourth on the Dolphins' all-time chart.
- Has 3,951 rushing yards and needs 49 for 4,000 in his career.

WR Greg Camarillo

- Has 83 receptions and needs 17 for 100 in his career.
- Has 962 receiving yards and needs 38 for 1,000 in his career.

Ted Gin, Jr.

- Has two kickoff returns for touchdowns and needs one more to tie Mercury Morris with three for highest amount in team history.

LB Joey Porter

• Looks to maintain his streak as the only NFL player to register at least five sacks each year since 2000. In 2009, Porter has 2.5 sacks.

LB Jason Taylor

• Has 126.0 sacks, and is 12th all-time in NFL history. With 0.5 more, he would pass Derrick Thomas (126.5) for 11th. With two more, he would tie Rickey Jackson (128.0) for 10th. He is currently, the NFL's sack leader among active players.

RB Ricky Williams

• With a 1,000-yard rushing season, he would join Larry Csonka as the only Dolphin to record three 1,000 yard seasons in a career. Csonka accomplished the feat each year from 1971-73.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF

Ronnie Brown's 2007 season ended in just the seventh game because of a knee injury. At the time, he had rushed for 602 yards and four TDs on 119 attempts and caught 39 passes for 389 yards and another score. His 991 total yards from scrimmage at the time of his injury led the NFL. Through countless hours of rehab, Brown made it back for training camp this and did not miss a beat last season, as he was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career. In 2008, he rushed for 916 yards and 10 touchdowns on 214 carries and caught 34 passes for 254 yards. He also completed two of his three pass attempts, totaling 41 yards and a touchdown. He is the first Dolphin to tally 10 or more total touchdowns in a season since 2005 when Chris Chambers collected 11 receiving scores. Brown was the first Dolphin to have 10 or more rushing touchdowns in a season since 2002 when Ricky Williams recorded 16. Brown's rushing total this year consisted of backto-back 100-yard games, which occurred in week 3-4 of the schedule. With a team-high 916 rushing yards in 2008, he surpassed the 900-yard mark in three of his four seasons with the club. He also has led the team in rushing all four years and is on pace for a fifth season as he leads the team with 254 rushing yards. He is on pace for 1,354 on the season. Brown is just the second Dolphin to lead the club in rushing four or more years.

In a week three game against the Patriots, on September 21, 2008 at Gillette Stadium, Ronnie Brown rushed for 113 yards and four touchdowns on 17 carries, but he also tossed a 19-yard TD pass to Anthony Fasano, his first NFL completion. He also became just the second NFL player to score four touchdowns and throw for a touchdown in the same game, joining Paddy Driscoll, who as a member of the Chicago Cardinals, did it on October 7, 1923 against the Rochester Jeffersons. For his performance, Brown was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week. Against San Diego on October 5, Brown rushed for 125 yards and a TD on 24 carries, the 12th 100-yard rushing game of his career. It was the third time in his career that he has put together streaks of two or more straight 100-yard rushing performances, having amassed four in a row last year in games 3 -6, while having also attained that mark in each of the final two games of 2006. In fact, Brown and Ricky Williams are the only two Dolphins to have three separate streaks of 100 yards rushing in two or more straight games. Williams has done it on six occasions. Brown's four touchdowns at New England came on runs of 2, 15, 5 and 62

HENNE TIMES TWO

With the victory over the New York Jets (10/12), Chad Henne becomes the first Dolphin quarterback to win his first two career starts since Damon Huard accomplished the feat when he complied three straight victories in 1999. Huard replaced an injured Dan Marino and led the Dolphins to wins over Philadelphia 16-13 (10/24/99), at Oakland 16-9 (10/31/99) and the Titans 17-0 (11/7/99). He built upon this reputation in 2008, having produced 17.5 in 2008, a figure that surpassed his previous career-high total of 10.5, set in 2000 and 2005 with the Steelers. His total this year includes a four-sack effort in a win at New England on September 21. The four sacks tied a career high which he first achieved on October 21, 2001 at Tampa Bay. The total also is tied for the fourth-highest figure in Dolphins history and is the most since E.J. Junior recorded four on October 6, 1991 at New England. In 2008, Porter posted two or more sacks in a game four times and the Dolphins are 3-1 in those games. He has now done it 17 times in his career. Porter also is the only player in NFL history to have at least 70 career sacks and 10 career interceptions.

Wake was named CFL Defensive Player of the Year in both 2007 and 2008 as he recorded 39 sacks in just two seasons as a member of the B.C. Lions. # MIAMI SACK EXCHANGE

When linebacker Jason Taylor rejoined the Dolphins on May 13, 2009, opposing offenses realized they would have to game plan for two of the most prolific sack artists of their generations. Taylor and Joey Porter have combined for 209.0 regular season sacks (Taylor 124.0, Porter 85.0) in their respective careers

TAYLOR RETURNS

Jason Taylor returned to the Miami Dolphins on May 13, 2009 after spending the previous season with the Washington Redskins. Taylor has six seasons of ten or more sacks, including three of the last four years. According to coach Tony Sparano, Taylor has lost none of his work ethic or passion in his 13th year in the league. Taylor, who turned 35 on September 1, is the oldest player on the roster. "We couldn't keep him out of the weight room," Sparano said. "He's added about 10 pounds of muscle, doing things like dead lifts. And he's one of the most intelligent players I've ever coached -- a complete pro's pro."

SCORING DEFENDER

Jason Taylor scored the ninth touchdown of his career at the New York Jets (11/1)on a 48-yard fumble recovery by RB Shonn Greene after he was stripped by NT Paul Soliai.
