November 8, 2009 ★ Gillette Stadium

	1	2	3	4	Final
Miami Dolphins	3	7	7	0	17
New England Patriots	7	9	8	3	27

The Patriots improved to a 6-2 record with a 27-17 victory over AFC East Divisional rival Miami. QB Tom Brady and WR Randy Moss connected on two big plays and the New England defense stopped the dangerous Wildcat offense to claim the win and extend the team's lead in the division. Moss set up New England's first touchdown with a 36-yard reception at the 1-yard line. Then in the third quarter, Moss caught a pass from Brady and broke one tackle en route to a 71-yard touchdown. Moss finished the day with six receptions for 147 yards. Brady had his third-straight 300-yard game after completing 25 of 37 pass attempts for 332 yards. It was also his team-record 27th career 300-yard game. Miami took a 3-0 lead on a 52-yard field goal before Moss's 36-yard reception to the 1-yard line on the next series set up a 1-yard touchdown run by RB Laurence Maroney to give New England the lead. New England made it 10-3 on the first of four field goals by K Stephen Gostkowski six minutes into the second quarter. On Miami's ensuing drive, it used its Wildcat offense on five runs for 66 yards in a series that ended in a 15-yard touchdown run by RB Ricky Williams to tie the game at 10-10. The Patriots responded with field goals on their next two drives to gain a 16-10 halftime lead. Miami used the Wildcat formation to open the third quarter and engineered a 16-play, 66-yard touchdown drive that took 10 minutes off the clock. RB Ronnie Brown culminated the drive when he took a direct snap and completed a 1-yard touchdown pass to TE Joey Haynos. The Patriots wasted little time recapturing the lead, scoring two plays later when Brady connected with Moss on the 71-yard touchdown. A successful two-point play extended the Patriots lead to 24-17. New England added a field goal late in the fourth quarter for a 27-17 final.

SAINTS 38, PATRIOTS 17

November 30, 2009 ★ Louisiana Superdome

	1	2	3	4	Final
New England Patriots	7	3	7	0	17
New Orleans Saints	3	21	7	7	38

New Orleans QB Drew Brees threw for 371 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Saints to a 38-17 win over the Patriots on Monday Night Football. It was the second time the Patriots lost to an undefeated team on the road in three weeks.

After falling behind 24-10 at halftime following a 21-point second quarter by New Orleans, the Patriots opened the third quarter with an 8-play, 81-yard drive that culminated with a 2-yard scoring run by RB Laurence Maroney to get within a touchdown at 24-17. That drive was highlighted by a 47-yard completion from QB Tom Brady to WR Randy Moss. The Saints needed just three plays to extend their lead. Brees connected on a pass to WR Marques Colston on a pass play that resulted in a 68-yard gain. That play set up a 2-yard touchdown pass from Brees to TE Darnell Dinkins for a 31-17 lead. Brees added a 20-yard touchdown pass to Colston in the fourth quarter to take a 38-17 victory to keep the Saints undefeated with an 11-0 record.

After spotting the Saints a field goal on their opening drive, New England answered with a 14-play, 80-yard drive that ended on a 4-yard touchdown run by Maroney on a fourth-down play. The Patriots stopped the Saints on the next series, and a 41-yard punt return by WR Wes Welker gave the Patriots a first down at the New Orleans 46-yard line. New England failed to capitalize on the good field position when Brady was intercepted by CB Mike McKenzie. The Saints converted the turnover into a touchdown early in the second quarter for a 10-7 lead. Brees took advantage of a mixed up coverage by the Patriots on the next series, resulting in a 75-yard touchdown pass to WR Devery Henderson for a 17-7 lead. Following a 36-yard New England field goal that closed the gap to 17-10, Brees took New Orleans to the New England 38-yard line where he connected with WR Robert Meachem on a 38-yard touchdown to take a 24-10 halftime lead.

Brady finished 21-of-36 for 237 yards with two interceptions and no touchdowns. He did pass Drew Bledsoe to become the Patriots all-time leading passer, but snapped a five-game streak of 300-yard games to fall one game below the NFL record.

BRADY PASSES DREW BLEDSOE TO BECOME THE PATRIOTS ALL-TIME PASSING LEADER

Tom Brady passed Drew Bledsoe (29,657) to become New England's all-time passing leader. Brady entered the Saints game needing 163 yards to pass Bledsoe. He reached the milestone on an 11 yard pass to Sam Aiken in the third quarter. Brady now has 29,732 passing yards.

BRADY SNAPS STREAK OF 300-YARD GAMES

Brady finished with 237 yards passing, ending a streak of five consecutive 300-yard games. He was one game shy of the NFL record. Three other players had six consecutive 300-yard games: Steve Young (1998), Kurt Warner (2000) and Rich Gannon (2002).

NEW ENGLAND ENDS NFC WINNING STREAK

The Patriots ended a streak of 17 straight victories against the NFC, the longest winning streak against the opposite conference since the 1970 merger. It is the Patriots first loss against an NFC team since Week 2 of the 2005 season when Carolina beat the Patriots 27-17 (9-18-05).

PATRIOTS HAD NO PENALTIES

New England was not penalized in the game for the first time since a 23-16 win over St. Louis (10-26-08).

MARONEY SCORES IN SIXTH STRAIGHT GAME

RB Laurence Maroney scored a touchdown for the sixth straight game when he scored on a 4-yard run on a fourth-down play in the first quarter. His six straight games with a touchdown are tied for the second longest streak in New England history. The team record is seven consecutive games by RB Curtis Martin (10/12/96 to 11/24/96). Robert Edwards also scored in six straight games (09/7/98 to 10/19/98).

MARONEY HAS TWO-TD EFFORT TO PUSH 2009 TOTAL TO EIGHT TOUCHDOWNS

Maroney had his second consecutive game with two rushing touchdowns to push his 2009 season total to eight, a new season-high. The eight rushing touchdowns best the six he had in 2006 and 2007. Maroney now has four two-touchdown games in his career.

WELKER KEEPS IT UP

Wes Welker now has nine straight games with six or more receptions after finishing with six receptions against New Orleans. The record for most consecutive games with 6+ receptions is 16 by Marvin Harrison from 2002-03. Welker has caught six or more passes in 23 of his last 25 regular-season games.

WELKER RETURN

Wes Welker had a 41-yard punt return in the first quarter. He had a 69-yard return at Indianapolis (11-5). They are the two longest punt returns of the season.

MATT LIGHT RETURNS TO ACTION

Matt Light returned to the starting lineup after missing the last five games due to an injury.

SAMMY MORRIS RETURNS TO ACTION

ROBERT KRAFT NEWS & NOTES

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have experienced one of the most dramatic turnarounds in the history of sports. In 15 seasons of ownership, Kraft has transformed one of the league's least successful clubs into what many observers view as a model NFL franchise. In the five seasons immediately preceding his purchase (1989-93), the Patriots were a moribund team, winning just 19 of 80 games (.311 pct.) and recording the worst record in the NFL over that span. When he bought the franchise on Jan. 21, 1994, Kraft announced his intention to bring a championship to New England, a tall order considering the team's previous success rate. But under Kraft's leadership, the Patriots have won eight division titles, five conference crowns and three Super Bowl championships. The Patriots have made five Super Bowl appearances since Kraft purchased the team, a period during which no other NFL franchise has earned more than three berths.

SELLOUT STREAK

In the early 1990s, the Patriots seemed destined for relocation until Robert Kraft's purchase of the team rejuvenated local interest. In 1991, the season ticket base was just 17,635, barely enough to support the club. Now, the season-ticket base stands at a capped total of 61,759 and more than 50,000 fans are on a waiting list. The Patriots have sold out 167 consecutive home games (dating back to the 1994 regular-season opener).

SUCCESS STORY

Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have been one of the NFL's elite franchises. Over the first 15-plus years of Kraft's ownership, the Patriots own the NFL's highest winning percentage and have won more Super Bowl titles, more conference championships and more playoff games than any other NFL team.

BILL BELICHICK NEWS & NOTES

THE HEAD COACH

Overall Record: 160-94 (.629)
Regular Season: 145-90 (.617)
Postseason: 15-4 (.789)
With Patriots overall: 123-49 (.715)

Bill Belichick is the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowl titles in a four-year span. He spent 20 years as an assistant coach in the NFL and this is his 15th season as a head coach. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the only man in NFL history to serve 20 or more seasons as an assistant coach and at least 15 seasons as a head coach. Over a 100-game span from 2003-08, Belichick directed the team to an 82-18 record, marking the best 100-game span for any team in NFL history. In the 2007 season, Belichick led the Patriots to the fourth undefeated and untied regular season in the NFL's 88-year history and the first since the NFL established a 16-game schedule in 1978. He has led the Patriots to the Super Bowl four times in the last eight seasons and has produced six division championships in the last eight seasons, including five straight from 2003-07. Belichick's Patriots teams own the all-time NFL records for consecutive total victories (21 from 2003-04), consecutive regular-season victories (21 from 2006-08) and consecutive playoff victories (10 from 2001-05). Belichick owns the second-best postseason record in NFL history (15-4) and is the winningest NFL head coach since 2001 (118-38). From 2003-04, he directed the Patriots to back-to-back Super Bowl titles while posting consecutive 17-win campaigns. Belichick has spent more seasons in the league than any other current NFL head coach, and in that time has been a part of five Super Bowl championship teams. His overall record of 123-49 with the Patriots gives him the most victories and the best winning percentage of any head coach in franchise history.

ELITE COMPANY

Bill Belichick is one of nine NFL head coaches to win three or more championships since the league began postseason play in 1933. With the Patriots' victory in Super Bowl XXXIX, Belichick joined an exclusive club in which each of the eight other members has been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WR Wes Welker News & Notes

WELKER LEADS NFL IN RECEPTIONS SINCE 2007

Wes Welker leads the NFL with 308 receptions since the start of 2007. In 2007, he set a Patriots franchise record with 112 receptions, tying him for the NFL lead and setting a league record for most receptions in a player's first season with a new team. In 2008, he nearly replicated that feat, with his 111 receptions placing second in the NFL.

Welker joined the Patriots in a trade with the Miami Dolphins prior to the 2007 season and since then is the NFL's leading receiver. He is the first player to reach 300 receptions in his first 40 games with a new team.

WELKER'S ROUTE TO THE NFL

Despite being named the Oklahoma football player of the year by both the USA Today and the Daily Oklahoman, Wes Welker's only scholarship offer came from Texas Tech, and only after a player that committed to Texas Tech backed out.

"I was thinking I'd get a scholarship somewhere," Welker said. "When it didn't happen when it was supposed to I was pretty hurt by it."

Welker had an impressive collegiate career, accumulating 259 receptions and eight punts returned for touchdowns. He even won a national award as the best special teams player in the country. Despite those accolades, he was passed over in the 2004 NFL draft and signed with San Diego as a free agent. He made the team, then was cut after the first game. He signed with Miami soon after and was used just on special teams. He caught New England's eye with a 71-yard punt return on Monday Night Football in a game against the Patriots. He was acquired by the Patriots in a trade with Miami in 2007.

WELKER GOES OVER 100 YARDS

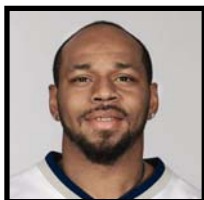

Welker has three 100-yard games in 2009 and 10 for his career. His career high for most 100-yd games in a season is four in 2007 and 2008.

PIERRE WOODS STAYS ON THE RIGHT PATH

On the field, linebacker Pierre Woods is respected for being one of the grittiest players on the Patriots. Woods emerged from an impoverished area of Cleveland and was steered away from a life of crime by the father of one his closest friends, Ted Ginn, Jr., now a Miami Dolphins wideout. Ted Ginn, Sr. explained to the Boston Herald that "it took a lot of conversations he didn't want to have to get him to understand. I had to be that protector for him. I had to be that flashlight so he could see that what I was telling him was true."

Woods credited Ginn, Sr. with having such a powerful impact on his life that when he won the Big Ten Championship at Michigan, he gave the ring to his father figure, Ginn, Sr. "As I grew as a young man, I learned to respect and love the man like a father," Woods said to the Boston Herald. As Woods celebrates his fourth season in Foxborough, he takes the opportunity to reflect, especially now as a father of three. "[My son] should never have to go through the things that I went through," he said. "But, I wouldn't want my kids to be blind to the fact that this is what happens in the inner cities in America."

LEADING IN BOTH SACKS AND INT.

Shawn Springs (2004 with Washington) Adalius Thomas (2005 with Baltimore) and Junior Seau (1997 with San Diego) are three of just six players in NFL history to lead their team in both sacks and interceptions in a season.

MAYO IS A YOUNG LEADER

Jerod Mayo learned knowledge and discipline are the keys to success while spending afternoons with his three brothers under the supervision of their grandfather, Walter Johnson, a retired Air Force veteran of 30 years. While Mayo's mother worked two jobs, Johnson taught the boys discipline, responsibility and the value of life. Those lessons helped Mayo develop a work ethic and demeanor that has earned him the nickname of "Old Soul" from his teammates.

His leadership skills and talent helped him become only the second Patriot to be named Defensive Rookie of the Year, earning that title in 2008. A professional off the field as well, Mayo was elected as one of the defensive captains in just his second season.

PATRIOTS FORCE TURNOVERS

The Patriots did not force a turnover against Miami (11/8), breaking a streak of 15 straight games with a turnover. That streak had been the longest streak in the NFL. The Patriots are +10 in 2009, which is third to Green Bay (+17) and New Orleans (+12). The Patriots are +80 since 1997. Below is a turnover table since the 1997 season.

WILFORK WEARS HEART ON SLEEVE AND NECK

Defensive tackle Vince Wilfork wears No. 75 over his bulky shoulder pads. Underneath hangs a gold chain locket for those who were number one in his heart: his parents. In 2002, parents Vince and Barbara Wilfork both passed away within five months of each other, leaving the then University of Miami star without his greatest support system. His perseverance in the face of despair led him to the NFL, while off the field he became closer with his now strongest supporter, his wife Bianca, who helped him through his losses. While he has many accomplishments on the football field and will always cherish his National Championship and Super Bowl rings, his constant reminder lies closest to his heart, a picture of his late parents at their high school prom.

"I carry them with me wherever I go," Wilfork said of his parents' keepsake. "They're with me. The only regret that I have in life is that my parents are not with me today to see where I am today. But I wouldn't be anywhere today without my wife."

WELKER AND MOSS COMBINE FOR 142

Against the Jets (11/22), Wes Welker and Randy Moss combined for 20 catches in a 31-14 victory over the Jets, giving the pair 142 combined receptions through 10 games to surpass the hours-old record set earlier in the day by Reggie Wayne and Dallas Clark of the Colts with 141 combined receptions. The old record was set by Chicago with Johnny Morris and Mike Ditka and Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman at 136.

MATT LIGHT AND HIS FOUNDATION

The Light Foundation, a nonprofit founded in 2001 by Matt Light, held its signature fundraising event on, September 29 at Addieville East Farm in Mapleville, RI.

The Matt Light Celebrity Shoot-Out, now in its fifth year, offers participants the opportunity to match their shooting skills against Light, his teammates, and a host of local and national celebrities. Proceeds from the one-of-a-kind event benefit the Light Foundation, a youth-based organization that strives to install honesty, accountability and responsibility in young people through unique outdoor learning experiences that include a character development football camp, a financial literacy program offered at area schools and academic scholarships. In the eight years since the organization was founded, it has raised over $1.2 million to support these programs.

Light wanted a unique, high-profile charity event that would raise funds and exposure for his foundation, and his love of the outdoors naturally came into play.

PATRIOTS WIN GAME NUMBER 400

The Patriots recorded the franchise's 400th all-time victory, including postseason games, with the 26-10 win over Atlanta (9/27). The 400 victories rank third among the eight original AFL teams, behind Denver and Oakland. The eight original AFL teams, including the Patriots, began play in 1960. The Patriots recorded their milestone 400th victory in their 50th season and in their 777th overall game. Since Robert Kraft purchased the team in 1994, the Patriots have 180 victories, more than any other NFL team during that span.

PATRIOTS HAVE SUSTAINED SUCCESS

New England is near the top regular-season victory total for any team in any NFL decade. San Francisco won 113 regular-season games during the 1990s. The Indianapolis Colts (112) and New England Patriots (110) are both within striking distance of the all-time win mark for a decade held by the 49ers of the 1990s.

BRADY WAS THERE FOR "THE CATCH"

In the 2003 AFC Divisional Playoff Game against Tennessee on January 10, 2004, QB Tom Brady threw for 201 yards and one touchdown, leading the Patriots to a narrow 17-14 victory en route to their second Super Bowl. That wasn't the first time Brady had seen a major playoff game come down to the wire on a game played on January 10. A native of the Bay area, Brady was at Candlestick Park for the 1981 NFC Championship game between the 49ers and Cowboys, as a 4-year-old fan, witnessing Dwight Clark's "The Catch" from Joe Montana. According to Gary Myers' book The Catch, Brady wept after the play. Said Brady, "Not because I was happy or excited, but because everybody stood up and I couldn't see!" While Brady has been recognized for his stellar credentials, he said Montana, "was and will always be the greatest quarterback ever to play."

LIKE FATHER LIKE SON

WR Matthew Slater spent his college days in Los Angeles at UCLA. The second-year promising young talent was born in 1985, when another Slater in The City of Angels was named to his second of seven Pro Bowls. Matthew's father, Jackie Slater, a Hall of Fame offensive tackle, spent his entire career with the Rams organization in LA. He was voted the NFC Offensive Lineman of the year four times—1983, 1986, 1987, and 1989. Matthew Slater, drafted in 2008, is one of six sons of Hall of Fame members to be drafted in NFL history.

 Howie Long (class of 2000) – son, Chris Long (STL)
 Bobby Bell (class of 1983) – son, Bobby Bell (NYJ)
 Tony Dorsett (class of 1994) – son, Anthony Dorsett (HOU)

 Kellen Winslow (class of 1995) – son, Kellen Winslow (CLE)

LIKE FATHER LIKE SON, PART 2

CB Shawn Springs has always been a speedster. No doubt, the gift of fast feet was a hereditary gift from his father, Ron Springs, an 8-year NFL running back for the Dallas Cowboys and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Ron, who tallied over 2,500 rushing and 2,200 receiving yards in his career, became ill in 1990 with Type 2 Diabetes. By 2004, Shawn was a respected NFL veteran, but he was willing to give up his career and offered to donate his kidney to his father, who needed a transplant. Ron declined, saying in a 2005 Washington Post article, "I think that was a tremendous gesture, and it just justifies the fact that he's a loving son. But I couldn't have let him do that, because I always prayed and wanted him to be a professional athlete, so I would not have shortened his career by no means necessary."

GUYTON HAS THE WORK ETHIC

Gary Guyton was not drafted into the NFL, but through a solid work ethic was able to make the 53-man roster and earn a starting job in his second year. Taking a peek into his work history shows his work ethic goes beyond the football field. At the end of the season last year, Guyton went back to Georgia Tech and worked as an office assistant at the school's research institute.

"I was an office assistant, right there at the desk," said Guyton, who worked for a small wage at Georgia Tech Research Institute. "Just a regular office assistant. Tech is my school and I enjoyed it."

"He's smart, well prepared," Bill Belichick said. "He understands. He's got a real good understanding of football. Not just his role but where other people have to be. That's what you really want in a defensive signal-caller, someone that understands how it all works."

It's been a long road," Guyton said. "I have come far. I've achieved some things. But I don't look back, just forward."

Patriots News & Notes

BRANDON MCGOWAN IS A WELCOMED ADDITION

Brandon McGowan puts literally everything he has into making big tackles. Said McGowan, "I don't really care about my body and I'll expose my body to some messed-up positions to make a play." McGowan has fought his way back from three season-ending injuries in four years in Chicago. The University of Maine standout, who is one of three active players (Stephen Cooper, SD; Lofa Tatupu, SEA) to come out of the Football Championship Subdivision school, signed with the Patriots in May and forced a game-changing fumble off of Falcons' running back Michael Turner on September 27. He also recovered a fumble at Denver that helped position the Patriots for a field goal.

FREE AGENTS MAKE AN IMPACT

Sixteen players on the New England 53-man roster entered the NFL as rookie free agents. Two that came to the Patriots as rookie free agents are making an impact on the defense. Mike Wright came to New England as a rookie free agent in 2005. He registered his first career two-sack game, dropping Joe Flacco twice for total losses of 17 yards vs. Baltimore (10-4). He currently has a single-season career high with 4.0 sacks. Gary Guyton came to New England as a rookie free agent in 2007. He is leading the Patriots with 66 total tackles and is on pace to finish the season with 96 tackles. Said Bill Belichick about players coming to the Patriots as a free agents, "I think Mike's similar to some of the other players that would fall into that category. Players like Gary Guyton and guys like that who weren't high picks that came in at a pretty early point — Pierre Woods, [Brian] Hoyer — came in and showed that they belonged, both physically and athletically from a football standpoint, recognizing things, reacting, kind of knowing what to do."

TOUGH AT HOME

The Patriots own an overall record of 57-12 (.826) at Gillette Stadium. Since their state-of-the-art facility opened at the beginning of the 2002 season, the Patriots own the NFL's best record at home. Now in their seventh season at Gillette Stadium, the Patriots have finished three seasons undefeated at home since the stadium opened (2003, 2004 and 2007) and own a perfect 7-0 playoff record at the venue.

STEPHEN NEAL TAKES A DIFFERENT ROUTE TO THE NFL

Guard Stephen Neal knows how to use his 6-4, 305-pound frame. He has used it to gain leverage and overpower defensive linemen since 2001. The three-time Super Bowl Champion arrived in Foxborough with two NCAA titles of his own, except the only padding he saw was on the matted floors.

A championship wrestler at Cal-State Bakersfield, he compiled a 151-10 record, winning titles his junior and senior year, including a title win over NCAA wrestling and UFC heavyweight champion Brock Lesnar. In 1999, Neal won the Dan Hodge Award, known as the Heisman Trophy of wrestling.

Neal is one of only two active NFL players that did not play football in college before turning pro. The other is San Diego Chargers tight end Antonio Gates, a basketball star at Kent State. Gates led the Golden Flashes to the Elite Eight in 2002, averaging 21 points in his senior season.

MERIWEATHER MAKES BIG PLAYS ON BIG STAGE

Safety Brandon Meriweather prides himself on preparing for every game and every situation – in any location.

At Wembley Stadium in London against Tampa Bay, Meriweather showed that not even a different time zone could throw off his timing, picking off the Buccaneers twice in the first six minutes of the game and returning one for a 39-yard touchdown. His two picks were enough to earn him AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. To Head Coach Bill Belichick though, Meriweather has been contributing weekly, whether or not the statistics reflect his performance.

"Brandon's had a real good year for us," said Belichick. "From the beginning of training camp he's really been a leader for us back in the secondary, making calls, making adjustments, sometimes taking harder responsibilities with the safeties. He makes plays that don't show up on the stat sheet."

As for Meriweather, living up to an expectation of a repeat performance is a challenge he welcomes. "My level of expectation is already through the roof," Meriweather said. "I expect myself to be great every day. Not good here, good there, great here, great there - I expect to be great every day."

AFL LEGACY GAMES

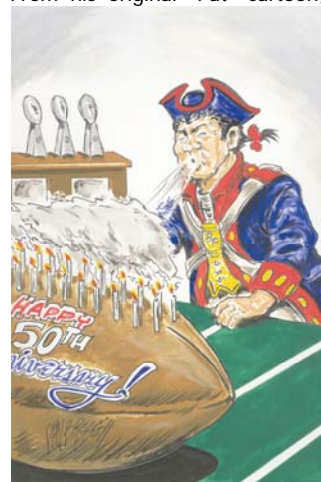

This season marks the 50th anniversary for the American Football League (AFL), of which the Patriots were an original member. The Boston Patriots, who hosted the AFL's first regular season game on Sept. 9, 1960 at Boston University Field, were featured in the NFL's first "AFL Legacy Game" on the opening weekend of the 2009 season on Sept. 14, 2009, when the Patriots hosted the Buffalo Bills at Gillette Stadium on Monday Night Football. It was the first of four "AFL Legacy Games" in which the Patriots will appear this season (at Den, vs. Ten and at Mia). The Patriots will wear red and white "throwback" uniforms in those games, replicating the uniforms worn by the 1963 team that claimed the franchise's first division title and competed in the franchise's first league championship game. Patriots coaches will also wear apparel featuring the Pat Patriot logo.

that claimed the franchise's first division title and competed in the franchise's first league championship game. Patriots coaches will also wear apparel featuring the Pat Patriot logo.

GAMEDAY PROGRAM DESIGN

The original "Pat Patriot" was born in 1960 when newspaper cartoonist Phil Bissell was assigned to sketch a reaction upon the announcement that Boston's American Football League team would be called the Patriots. From his original "Pat" cartoon, Bissell became forever linked with the franchise that wore a copy based off of his original figure on its helmets from 1961 to 1992. Bissell, a resident of Rockport, Mass., also contributed stylized "Pat Patriot" cartoons to the covers of over 50 Patriots game programs throughout the team's AFL seasons from 1960-69. In recognition of the Patriots 50th anniversary, Bissell has been commissioned to create the covers of this season's Patriots GameDay magazines in the same style of those early covers.

50TH ANNIVERSARY AFL EXHIBIT

The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon is a monument to 50 years of Patriots history. In recognition of both the Patriots' 50th anniversary and the 50th anniversary of the AFL, The Hall is featuring a special exhibit throughout the 2009 season of game-worn jerseys, helmets and other memorabilia from the AFL era. "The AFL Turns 50" is the most extensive collection of AFL memorabilia viewable anywhere. For more information visit the thehallatpatriotplace.com or call 508-698-4800.

ONE HISTORIC GAME: 10/18/2009

The New England Patriots set team records for points in a game (59) and total net yards (619) in a 59-0 victory against the Tennessee Titans in snowy conditions at Gillette Stadium. The Patriots 59-point victory ties the largest margin of victory by any team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, equaling the L.A. Rams' 59-point win over Atlanta on Dec. 4, 1976 (59-0).

Patriots 59
Titans 0

QB Tom Brady completed 29-of-34 pass attempts for 380 yards with six touchdown passes, wide receivers Wes Welker (10-150-2 TDs) and Randy Moss (8-129-3 TDs) both went over 100 yards receiving, and RB Laurence Maroney added 123 yards rushing on the ground.

Brady had 345 yards passing in the first half alone, and set an NFL record with five touchdown passes in the second quarter. For his contributions, Brady earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the second time on the young 2009 season. New England built a 45-0 halftime lead, the largest halftime lead in NFL history.

What They Said:

QB Tom Brady

(On the Patriots' historic output)

"You know, some days out there when it's snowy like that, it's actually an advantage for the offense. Today was one of those days because we had good footing and it's just fun to be a part of it. I was saying, when you see the weather forecast on Thursday, you're kind of [angry] and then once the day of the game comes around, everyone is excited because you're out there and you're like, 'This is football. This is how it should be.'"

WR Wes Welker

(On why the Patriots seem to play so well in the snow)

"I know Coach [Belichick] does a really good job of coaching us up: what's good, what's bad, making sure we have good footing, the right cleats, things like that. And understanding that we need to be in the right type of plays and being able to come off breaks and things like that are going to be a little bit different under the conditions. We need to make sure that in the kicking game we're taking care of our responsibilities and things like that."

Head Coach Bill Belichick

(On the Patriots' level of execution)

"[It's] good players. The players were the ones out there playing today and they did a good job. They kept their feet. They handled the ball well. They handled it cleanly. We missed some tackles on defense, but we made some. We made some plays defensively, turning the ball over. Some of those were tough catches, good plays, but we got them. The credit goes to the players; they did a great job."

New England's 45-0 halftime lead against the Titans was the largest halftime lead in NFL history. The previous largest halftime lead was 42 points, when Green Bay held a 42-7 halftime lead at Miami on Oct. 21, 2007.

PATRIOTS SET TEAM RECORD WITH 619 YARDS

The Patriots set a franchise record with 619 total net yards against Tennessee (10/18). The 619-yard performance was the fifth highest single-game total by an NFL team since the 1970 merger and was the ninth 600-yard game by an NFL team since 1970. The Patriots are the 6th team since 1990 to register 600 or more yards of total offense.

THE HALL AT PATRIOT PLACE presented by RAYTHEON

The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon is the crown jewel of Patriot Place and the only sports and education experience of its kind. Through a dazzling array of interactive multimedia exhibits and artifacts never before viewable by the public, The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon showcases the tradition of the New England Patriots, explores the history of football in New England, and promotes math and science education for thousands of schoolchildren each year through its partnership with Raytheon.

The experience begins as visitors enter an elevator on the ground floor and hear a voice from Patriots history welcoming them to The Hall. The journey continues through 36,000 square feet and two stories until visitors reach one of The Hall's signature exhibits and its premier photo opportunity: the Patriots' three Lombardi trophies.

The Hall features interactive exhibits designed to educate and entertain. Visitors receive instruction from Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick on how plays in the Patriots' playbook are designed. They also step inside a game-used replay booth and make the call on an instant replay review with instruction from NFL Vice President of Officiating Mike Pereira. Fans of all ages test their vertical leap, reaction time and weight against NFL players.

The Hall's 19 high-definition touch screen kiosks allow visitors to interact with the exhibits in unique ways. Four and a half hours of exclusive video content is also displayed on 11 60-inch high-definition TV monitors, seven projection screens and the 48-foot-wide panoramic movie screen in the Raytheon Theater, where a 15-minute signature film plays every 20 minutes.

Each of the members of the Patriots Hall of Fame is immortalized on 30-foot high, six-foot wide video pylons utilizing the first Magink digital ink display in the United States. Fans can choose which Hall of Famer to highlight on one of four touch screen kiosks, causing the pylons to come alive with video and images of each player while additional information is displayed on the screen below.

To complement the audiovisual experiences, there are thousands of football artifacts on display at The Hall, ranging from the priceless (a football from the 1876 Harvard-Yale game) to the quirky (the infamous snow plow that cleared the way for a Patriots win over the Dolphins in 1982) to the sublime (Doug Flutie's 1984 Heisman Trophy).

In partnership with Raytheon Company, The Hall at Patriot Place presents an integrated math and science education program with lesson plans designed to combine elements of The Hall's exhibits in an engaging educational platform for visiting school groups. Additionally, all visitors can experience the "In the Numbers" exhibit, presented by Raytheon, which uses football to teach math and science in a fun and interactive way.

In 2009, The Hall received a Gold MUSE Award from the American Association of Museums and The Hall's signature film, "Patriots Way," won a CINE Golden Eagle Award. The Hall was also named to Boston Globe Magazine's Best of the New and was a Yankee Magazine Editor's Choice recommendation. For more information, please visit www.thehallatpatriotplace.com
