DRAFT ORDER

The NFL's 2020 draft order was derived from the reverse order of 2019 regular-season records, with the exception of the Super Bowl champion, the Super Bowl runner-up and the playoff teams. Teams that made the playoffs are ordered by which round of the playoffs they are eliminated. For teams with identical records, the tiebreaker is strength of schedule, with the team with the lowest strength of schedule drafting first. The final tiebreaker is a coin flip.

PASSING ON A SELECTION

If a team does not make a pick during its allotted time period, the team "passes" and the pick will defer to the next team. The initial team may then at any point make a pick, regardless of whether or not the subsequent team has made a pick.

NFLCOMMUNICATIONS.COM

The NFL's media-only website, www.nflcommunications.com contains a special draft section for registered users. The draft section can be accessed by clicking the events tab at the top of the page and selecting 2019 NFL Draft from the drop-down menu. Media can also access college player bios by clicking on the collegepressbox.com link on the bottom right of the page.

COMPENSATORY DRAFT CHOICES

A total of 32 compensatory choices in the 2020 NFL Draft have been awarded to 15 teams. The Patriots were awarded four compensatory picks: two third-round picks (98th and 100th overall) and two sixth-round picks (212th and 213th overall). The Patriots have been awarded a total of 43 compensatory selections in the 27 years since the system was adopted prior to the 1994 draft, tied for the second-most. In 2000, the Patriots used a compensatory draft choice to select QB Tom Brady (sixth round, 199th overall).

Numbers and Positioning: The number of picks a team receives equals the net loss of compensatory free agents, with a maximum of four. The compensatory picks are positioned within the third through seventh rounds, based on the value of the compensatory free agents lost.

Formula: Compensatory free agents are determined by a formula based on salary, playing time and postseason honors. The formula was developed by the NFL Management Council. Details can be found at www.nfl-communications.com.

ROUND-BY-ROUND ROTATION

The draft order of teams with identical records will rotate by round, with the exception of the Super Bowl champion and the Super Bowl runner-up, which will draft last and next-to-last in each round. In ties that involve three or more teams, the team at the bottom of the tied segment in a given round will move to the top of the segment for the next round, while all other teams in the segment move down one position. This rotation continues throughout the draft.

HISTORY OF PICKS #23 AND #87

HISTORY OF #23

PATRIOTS AT #23: The Patriots have enjoyed success picking at No. 23 overall three times, using that two times on future Patriots Hall of Fame members. In 1995, they selected CB Ty Law out of Michigan, who enjoyed a 10-year career in New England with 133 starts in 141 career games as a Patriot. Law won three Super Bowl titles in New England and is tied with Raymond Clayborn as the franchise's all-time leader in interceptions with 36. In 1987, the Patriots selected T Bruce Armstrong out of Louisville, who spent his entire 14-year career in New England, starting all 212 games he played in and earning six Pro Bowl berths. The Patriots most recently drafted OL Isaiah Wynn out of Georgia with the 23rd pick in 2018.

NOTABLE PICKS: The 23rd selection produced running back Antowain Smith (Buffalo) from the 1997 draft, who later spent three seasons in New England and won Super Bowls in both 2001 and 2003. Other notables at No. 23 include tight end Ozzie Newsome (Cleveland) from the 1978 draft and punter Ray Guy (Oakland) in 1973, both of whom are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
