AWARDS & HONORS

- 2012: AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 14)
- 2013: AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 5)
- 2015: AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 2)
- 2017: AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 7)

GOLDMINE

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Benjamin and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Benjamin raised awareness for the Susan G. Komen Foundation. In 2018, he served as the Honorary Race Chair for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure in Orange County. Benjamin also co-hosted the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure in 2016 in San Diego. He has been active in breast cancer awareness and research since the start of his career, as his mother and grandmother are survivors.

- Growing up, Benjamin was raised primarily by his mother, Cynthia, and his grandmother, Jacquelyn. Cynthia worked hard to raise her family, and sometimes held multiple jobs to provide for her three kids. "My mother is my inspiration," Benjamin said. "She gave me a mindset that the only way you get where you want is with hard work. We never wanted to let her down." He grew close with his grandmother, Jacquelyn, who was always in the kitchen. Eventually, he could be the one found making the meals for the family. "When my mom and grandma were at work, I was the chef," said Benjamin. The tight-knit family grew closer, as Benjamin learned his grandmother was battling breast cancer. "It started out when I was in high school. My grandma had it first," said Benjamin. "She was diagnosed two times with breast cancer, but God bless her, because she's beaten it." The reprieve was shortlived, as Benjamin's mother, Cynthia, was diagnosed with the same form of cancer. "As I got toward college, either my freshman or sophomore year, my mom was diagnosed with it." After enduring treatment and chemotherapy, Cynthia was deemed cancer free to the relief of her family. "Those women are very strong. I think they're the toughest of the tough because their bodies change and their lives change. But (now they get to) wake up each and every morning knowing that God has given them another day to live."

BENJAMIN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Lettered two years in track & field at Glades Central (Belle Glade, FL) HS. Ran the 100-meter dash along with the 4x100 and 4x400 relays. Also ran track at Miami.
- Comes from a family of athletes, as younger brother, Troy Stewart, played collegiately at Bethune-Cookman. Benjamin's cousin, Alphonso Marshall, played CB for the Chicago Bears from 2004-05.
- As a child, one of Benjamin's nicknames was 'Rabbit,' because he would chase rabbits that were escaping from burning cane fields. He credits the practice for his speed and agility. He estimates that he's caught about 10 over the years. "It is a special feeling when you catch that first one," he said.
- When he and his wife, Africa, got married in the summer of 2016, the couple had two ceremonies back in Miami, Florida: an American wedding and a traditional African wedding to honor Africa, who is Eritrean. "I respect her family and they respect me," Benjamin said. "And when she came to me and said we have to do the traditional African wedding, I was all in."
- Benjamin grew up in Florida and became a fan of freshwater fishing at an early age.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In June of 2017, Benjamin hosted the Travis Benjamin Youth Football camp in his hometown of Belle Glade, Florida, which allowed over 200 young football players to improve their skills with the help of other Belle Glade NFL players. The free camp also gave out a free backpack with school supplies to each child in attendance. "I love working with kids, knowing I was at that point in my life at one time where I needed help," said Benjamin. "Coming from here, everyone wants to play football, and the work and the grind you put into it pays off."
