AWARDS & HONORS

2013: PFWA All-Rookie Team (PR), NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 1cO)

2014: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 14)

2015: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 1)

GOLDMINE

- In December of 2016, Austin and former teammate Robert Quinn teamed up with LA Family Housing, an organization that helps transition the homeless community to permanent housing. The two were put in touch with Rebecca Carter who had just been reunited with her six young children and was doing her best to put six years of periodic homelessness behind her. Austin and Quinn spent more than $20,000 to furnish the house for the single mother. In addition to new furniture and appliances throughout the house, the kids got clothes, school supplies, toys, gaming systems, bicycles and more. The situation hit close to home for Austin, who was reminded of his mom, Cathy, a single mother who worked odd jobs in order to provide for her four children. "My mom was pretty young, and she did what she could do," Austin said. "We had six people in the house, so I know how this feels. It put the drive in me to get to where I want to today. That's how I looked at it, that's how I approached it and that's how I took it. Hopefully one of them little boys in there take it the same way that I took it. 'I'm going to get Mommy out of here. I'm going to get us out of here.' That's what I did."
- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. Austin and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Austin represented Breast Cancer Awareness, saying, "Cancer may have started the fight, but we will finish it!" On his cleats, Austin represented his grandma, Louann, and mom, Cathy.

AUSTIN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In November of 2019, Austin hosted his 6th Annual Turkey Giveaway. Austin, along with volunteers, distributed 300 turkeys in his hometown of Baltimore, MD.
- Participated in football and track & field at Dunbar (Baltimore, MD) HS.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- In December of 2017, Austin once again teamed up with the non-profit LA Family Housing. Austin and former teammate Robert Quinn paid for new beds, a sofa, televisions, a dining room set, wall hangings, kitchen items, furnishings and everything else in the four-bedroom apartment for Shwonna Cox and her six children. They also purchased gifts to be left under the tree in anticipation for the holiday season. LA Family Housing, which works to help families and individuals transition out of homelessness and poverty, had placed Cox and her children in interim housing in the northeast San Fernando Valley. Due to various fires in the area, the family was forced to move several times within a few days. "I always want to do something to help a person," said Austin. "You can't help everybody in the world but at least you can get to one, and that's where my heart has always been, so that's what is to me. I just feel good they have a place to rest their head and call a place home."
