KEEP POUNDING DRUMMER

TABARI WALLACE

Wallace is the principal of West Craven High School in Craven County, N.C. and was named the 2018-19 North Carolina Principal of the Year. Prior to entering the education sphere, Wallace had his sights set on the NFL. He was a walk-on defensive back at East Carolina University and spent time in training camp in the NFL.

Wallace has been called the “Drum Major” for the education profession, which bespeaks of his ability to promote and build bridges for excellence in this field. He places students at the center of his mission and motivates them to overcome any challenge presented.

His goals constantly have the achievement and happiness of his students atop the list and he did not let that falter during the current pandemic. Wallace provided over 200 individual parades for his graduating seniors this past May. As he moves into a new school year he continues to find ways for his students to be recognized and education, even though they cannot physically be in the building.

He has been an educator for 19 years and has successfully turned around the two schools he led, highlighted by closing the achievement gap while at Havelock Middle School. Just last year, his first year as a high school principal, he led his students to increase the growth composite from 41% to 62%. He is currently laying the foundation for West Craven High to become the first Career Academy School in the county.

Wallace believes in “progress not perfection” and strongly trusts that individuals must take advantage of all opportunities to achieve in every field of human endeavor. Not content to rest on his laurels, he is continuing his own growth in the educational field as a doctoral candidate and is in the final dissertation phase at East Carolina University.

COLOR GUARD

NORTH CAROLINA A&T ARMY ROTC - AGGIE BATTALION

Presenting the colors versus the Las Vegas Raiders, are members from the North Carolina A&T State University Army ROTC, commonly referred to as the Aggie Battalion. This group is comprised of several different colleges and universities throughout the greater Greensboro area. These students range in hometowns across the United States and are seeking degrees in subjects such as mechanical engineering, animal science and criminal justice.

The Aggie Battalion is tasked with molding and shaping the leaders of tomorrow. It is renowned for its standard of academic leadership and excellence as it prepares graduates to be commissioned and succeed as the future officer leadership of the US Army. Army ROTC offers ways to receive real hands-on-training and leadership experience while attending college and getting a fulfilling college experience.

Cadets Russell, Rose, Killian, Kuhn, and Samuel have aided in bringing the presentation of colors to life in Greensboro, N.C. They are pictured on campus at the statue of the A&T Four—built to commemorate the four freshman who, after being refused service at Woolworth’s counter, sparked a national civil rights movement in 1960.

NORTH CAROLINA ARMY NATIONAL GUARD KILLDEVILS

The helicopter flyover is conducted by North Carolina Army National Guard's Charlie Company, 1st of the 131st Aviation Battalion, based in Salisbury, N.C. The unit's call sign is Killdevil, a unit that is rich in heritage.

Formed in 1990, the unit underwent numerous changes and replaced its Vietnam era UH1-Hueys with the UH-60 Blackhawk as the primary utility and assault workhorse.

The Killdevils have two combat deployments to Iraq in 2005 in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom 3 and in 2011 in support of Operation New Dawn.

Additionally, the Killdevils have been activated by the Governor numerous times to perform search and rescue missions, helicopter firefighting operations, and have supported various natural disasters including Super Storm Sandy, Hurricane Matthew and Hurricane Harvey.

MATT RHULE

The Carolina Panthers announced Matt Rhule as the franchise's fifth head coach in franchise history on January 8, 2020.

Rhule came to Carolina after three seasons (2017-19) as the head coach at Baylor University. Rhule helped rebuild the Baylor program, guiding the team from a 1-11 finish in his first season to a 7-6 record and a bowl berth in 2018 to an 11-3 record and appearance in the Big 12 Championship and the Sugar Bowl in 2019. Last fall, he was voted the Chuck Neinas Coach of the Year by his peers.

His performance at Baylor continued a head coaching career that saw him turn around college programs' fortunes and guide teams to success. In his head coaching debut at Temple, (2013-16), Rhule took the Owls from a 2-10 mark in his first season to a 6-6 record in 2014 and two consecutive 10-win seasons in 2015 and 2016. Rhule has spent 22 years as a coach in the college and NFL ranks.

Baylor's appearance in the 2019 Sugar Bowl was just the second-ever in school history, and under Rhule's leadership the Bears became the first Power 5 program to go from 11 losses (2017) to 11 wins (2019) within two seasons. In 2018, Rhule led the Bears to a 45-38 Texas Bowl win over Vanderbilt, and seven total victories, a six-win improvement over his first season. Rhule was only the second coach in Baylor history to make bowl trips in two of his first three seasons, joining John Bridgers (1960-61).

From 2016-19, Rhule had 11 players selected in the NFL Draft, including the 2017 first round pick of the Arizona Cardinals Haason Reddick and Jalen Hurd, a 2019 third round selection by San Francisco. A total of 33 players earned NFL opportunities in Rhule's first six seasons as a head coach between Temple and Baylor.

Rhule joined Baylor after four seasons as head coach at Temple University. He guided the Owls to the school's first back-to-back 10-win seasons, a pair of bowl berths (2015-16), and the 2016 American Athletic Conference championship. He helped the Owls improve from a two-win season in his first year at the school in 2013. The Owls earned their first top 25 ranking in 36 seasons under Rhule's guidance in 2015 and among the 29 all-conference honorees produced by Temple in his four seasons as head coach was 2015 Bednarik Award and Nagurski Trophy winner and two-time All-American, Tyler Matakevich. Rhule led Temple to the 2016 AAC championship with a 34-10 victory over Navy in the title game and earned a bid to the Military Bowl. In 2015, Temple played in the AAC's inaugural championship game. Rhule's Owls finished with a school-record 10 wins (10-4), reached No. 22 in the AP Top 25 and played in the Boca Raton Bowl.

Rhule returned to Temple after coaching with the New York Giants under head coach Tom Coughlin in 2012. He worked closely with Pat Flaherty in coaching the offensive line.

Prior to his stint in the NFL, Rhule spent six seasons as an assistant at Temple. He spent time in various roles from 2006-11, including quarterbacks coach, defensive line coach, tight ends coach and offensive coordinator

From 2002-05, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina, serving as assistant head coach during his last three seasons. He also was part of the staffs at UCLA (2001), Buffalo (1999-2000) and Albright College (1998).

A native of New York City, Rhule played linebacker at Penn State from 1994-97. He holds a master's degree from Buffalo. Rhule and his wife Julie have three children, Bryant, Vivienne and Leona.

SERGEANT MAJOR THOMAS PATRICK PAYNE

This week's Lowes Row of Honor recognizes recent Medal of Honor recipient, Sergeant Major Thomas "Patrick" Payne. An instructor assigned to the U.S. Army Special Operations Command, he grew up in Batesburg-Leesville and Lugoff, South Carolina and graduated high school in 2002. Part of the 9/11 generation, Payne felt a strong sense of duty to serve his country. He enlisted in the Army as an Infantryman 11B in July 2002, and volunteered for the Basic Airborne Course and Ranger Indoctrination Program (now known as the Ranger Assessment and Selection Program).

Upon completion of One Station Unit Training and the Basic Airborne Course at Fort Benning, Georgia in 2002, and Ranger Indoctrination Program in early 2003, Payne was assigned as a rifleman to A Co., 1st Battalion, 75th Ranger Regiment in Feb. 2003.

Payne served as a rifleman, sniper, and sniper team leader in A Co., 1st Battalion, 75th Ranger Regiment from Feb. 2003 to Nov. 2007. In Nov. 2007, Payne was selected for assignment to the U.S. Army Special Operations Command at Fort Bragg, NC. Since then, he has served within USASOC as a special operations team member, assistant team sergeant, team sergeant, and instructor.

In 2012, Payne and his teammate won the Best Ranger Competition at Fort Benning, Georgia. Best Ranger is a grueling competition that places extreme demands on buddy teams' physical, mental, technical and tactical skills as Rangers.

Throughout his career, Payne deployed 17 times in support of Operation Enduring Freedom, Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation New Dawn, Operation Inherent Resolve, Operation Resolute Support, as well as U.S. Africa Command area of responsibility.

Payne served as an assistant team leader deployed to Iraq as part of a Special Operations Joint Task Force in support of Operation Inherent Resolve. On Oct. 22, 2015, his task force was given a mission to rescue over 70 Iraqi hostages being held by ISIS in a prison compound in the northern town of Hawija.

Payne is a graduate of numerous military schools and courses and his awards and decorations include the Medal of Honor, Bronze Star Medal with Bronze "V" device and three Bronze Oak Leaf Clusters, the Purple Heart, Defense Meritorious Service Medal with two Bronze Oak Leaf Clusters, Meritorious Service Medal with one Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster,

Taking action on our commitment to Charlotte

We know we must do more to address the very real consequences of systemic racism that exist in society today. The impact on communities across the country is clear, including where our teammates live and serve our clients.

To drive progress, Bank of America has committed to invest $1 billion over four years to advance racial equality and economic opportunity, building on work we've had underway for many years. We're partnering with community and corporate leaders to create sustainable change. Our actions will help address critical issues and long-term gaps, including:

- connecting workers to new skills and enhanced job readiness
- increasing medical response capacity and access to health care
- powering minority-owned small businesses through access to capital
- helping people find a place to call home they can both love and afford

We know there's a lot of work to be done, but we promise to keep listening as we work together on this shared mission.
