DRAFT-A-THON:

The 2021 NFL Draft will again host Draft-a-Thon, a fundraiser that drives awareness and action to close critical gaps at the intersection of pandemic recovery and our hardest hit communities.

Draft-a-Thon will be featured across the live Draft coverage on ABC, ESPN, ESPN Deportes, ESPN Radio and NFL Network April 29-May 1 and will showcase the efforts of the four nonprofit organizations that support pandemic recovery in these areas:

- Health Disparities - CDC Foundation: Through Draft-a-Thon, the CDC Foundation will drive awareness of the cause of health inequities and promote vital community conditions, including meeting the basic needs for health, nutrition, safety, housing, education, and meaningful work.
- The Digital Divide - The Education Trust: This year's Draft-a-Thon will support The Education Trust in their work to close opportunity gaps that disproportionately affect students of color and students from low-income families.
- Food Insecurity - Feeding America: Draft-a-Thon will provide an opportunity to inform fans that we all have neighbors that need our help putting food on the table, especially as we work towards pandemic recovery, and we can all help by spreading the word, donating and volunteering.
- Mental Health - Mental Health America: Draft-a-Thon will raise awareness and understanding that prioritizing our mental health is a key part of recovering from the pandemic.

ALABAMA MAKING NFL DRAFT HISTORY

In the 2020 NFL Draft, Alabama - with quarterback TUA TAGOVAILOA (No. 5 overall), offensive lineman JEDRICK WILLS (No. 10 overall) and wide receivers HENRY RUGGS (No. 12 overall) and JERRY JEUDY (No. 15 overall) - joined USC in 1968 as the only schools to have four offensive players selected in the first round of the same NFL Draft.

The Crimson Tide can again accomplish the feat in 2021, with quarterback MAC JONES, running back NAJEE HARRIS and wide receivers DEVONTA SMITH and JAYLEN WADDLE.

Additionally, Alabama would become the first school in the common draft era to have a quarterback, running back and two wide receivers selected in the first round of the same NFL Draft.
