Frequently Asked Questions

- Why consider fundraising at M&T Bank stadium?
 - It's a fun way to fundraise! It's great team bonding, growth and teaches valuable lessons for all volunteers. You'll have a great time and be a part of the action earning lots of money!
- What type of groups are volunteering?
 - Booster Clubs, Youth Sports Teams, Religious Organizations, Parent Groups, College Groups and sports teams, Dance Teams, Bands Arts & academics Groups
- What do volunteers do on event day?
 - Generally, volunteers check in 2 hours prior to gates opening. You will start your day with making sure your location is set up, clean and prepped for the event. During the event you will serve and sell the products and have fun engaging with guests!
- How often do volunteers need to attend events?
 - We expect groups to commit to the season, it is up to the group on who volunteers and how much. Want to volunteer at every game? You are welcome to do so! The more volunteers you have the more you earn for your group!
- What if we've never worked in a kitchen before?
 - Any and all skill sets welcome! We have multiple roles available that consist of a wide range of skill levels. Trainings will be provided.
- Is there required training?
 - Every volunteer that participates in our fundraising program is required to attend an in-person orientation that includes Alcohol Safety (TEAM) and Customer Service. These trainings are held at the stadium throughout the football season. TEAM expires 3 years from the date attended. Group leads or core group members are required to attend an operational training
