Bookmobile Visit to Baltimore City Elementary School

On Sept. 12, the Baltimore Ravens' Bookmobile, powered by the Maryland Book Bank, took part in a distribution event at Mount Royal Elementary/Middle School to celebrate the vehicle resuming school visits. Ravens players OLB Tyus Bowser, RB Mike Davis and QB Tyler Huntley were onsite to distribute free books to students.

Ravens QB Lamar Jackson joined the Bookmobile visit to read his book, "I Dream, You Dream, Let Us Dream" to a class at Mount Royal Elementary school. This school year, Jackson's children's book, "I Dream, You Dream, Let Us Dream" will be distributed to pre-selected Baltimore City and County schools, in addition to being featured on the Bookmobile.

Breakfast with Bateman

On Sept. 19, WR Rashod Bateman joined the Dunkin' Community Cruiser to distribute coffee and donuts to teachers at City Springs Elementary/Middle School (Baltimore City). The son of a school teacher, Bateman wanted to show his appreciation for the work these educators do on a daily basis by providing them with breakfast and coffee from Dunkin'.
