TOTAL SCORING PERCENTAGE

The Raiders' offense is off to one of the best starts in 20 years. The team has excelled at making the most of their offensive opportunities in 2022, scoring on 31-of-57 drives on offense (54.4%). Their 54.4 scoring percentage is the best mark in the NFL this season and is the best scoring percentage recorded by the Raiders through the first six games of a season since at least 2001.

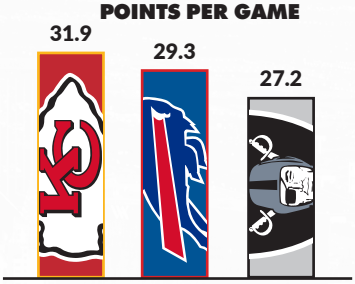

RED ZONE SCORING PERCENTAGE

The Raiders have also come away with points on 21-of-22 red zone drives in 2022. Their 95.5 red zone scoring percentage ranks tied for second in the NFL in 2022 and is the second highest rate through the first six games of the season by a Raiders offense over the last 10 seasons (2013-22).

The Raiders are also averaging 27.2 points per game this season, the third most in the NFL. The team's 163 total points through six games are also the eighth most through six games in a single season in franchise history - only the third time since 1995 the team has posted over 160 points through six games.

POINTS PER GAME

HISTORIC RUN

In his fourth NFL season, RB Josh Jacobs has rushed 111 times for 633 yards (5.7 avg.) and six rushing touchdowns through the first six games. Jacobs currently has more rushing yards and rushing touchdowns than Hall of Fame running back Marcus Allen had through the first six games of his 1985 MVP season - also his fourth season in the NFL.

	1985 MVP SEASON	2022 SEASON
CARRIES	124	111

ALLEN JACOBS

ELITE COMPANY

Last Week against Houston, WR Davante Adams eclipsed 700 career receptions, becoming one of only five players in NFL history to reach 700+ receptions and 75+ receiving touchdowns in their first nine NFL seasons. Adams joins three Hall of Fame receivers and Larry Fitzgerald as the only players to accomplish the feat.

700+ RECEPTIONS, 75+ TDs IN FIRST 9 SEASONS

	REC.	TDs
JERRY RICE	708	118
MARVIN HARRISON	845	98
CALVIN JOHNSON	731	83
LARRY FITZGERALD	764	77
DAVANTE ADAMS	706	78

WHAT TO WATCH FOR

With two receiving touchdowns, WR Davante Adams would become just the fourth player in NFL history to record 700+ receptions and 80+ receiving touchdowns in their first nine NFL seasons. He would join Hall of Fame receivers Jerry Rice, Marvin Harrison and Calvin Johnson as the only players to accomplish the feat.

With a quarterback rating of 100.0 or better on Sunday, QB Derek Carr would notch his third-straight game with a 100.0+ passer rating, tying his career high and establishing the longest active streak in the NFL. He also needs 243 passing yards to surpass Phil Simms (33,462) for 39th on the NFL's all-time passing list.

With 1.5 sacks or more, DE Maxx Crosby would own the most sacks by a Raiders defender in their first seven games of a season since 1993. It would also give Crosby his ninth career game with more than one sack, tied for the seventh most in franchise history.

With one rushing touchdown, RB Josh Jacobs would become only the 15th running back in NFL history to record 7+ rushing touchdowns in each of their first four seasons. 10 of the 15 running backs to accomplish the feat are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. With 140+ rushing yards, Jacobs would be only the third player in NFL history to record four-straight games with 140+ rushing yards and the first since 1980 (Earl Campbell).
